Chapter 631

Chapter 631

Winnie nodded again and again. “I heard! So...you mean, let me have a child for Shawn?”

“That’s right.”

“Well, we are not in the same house. Master, you have to help me find a way,” Winnie said aggrievedly.

She could also see that Lucas was planning to help her and stand by her side.

With the support from Lucas, her future journey will be much easier!

Who else dares to look down on her!

“I will help you, but you have to do many things yourself,” Lucas said.

“Okay!”

Lucas urged, “Winnie, if you can give birth to Shawn’s child, you never have to worry about the future again. Everything in the Wood family will belong to the child bore by you.”

Winnie became excited.

The top wealthy family in Sea City... everything owned by her children...

Just thinking about it makes her feel dreamy and excited!

At that time, even if she, Winnie, was not Mrs. Wood, so what? So what if there was no name or title?

Her child would be the next head of the Wood family!

“Well, I’ll stop here.” Lucas turned and got into the car. “You have to think about the rest yourself.”

“I understand, Lucas! With your support, it will be easier and smoother!”

“Well, it’s good you understand.” The car slowly drove away from Temperley Hall.

“Master, can you accept a woman like Winnie?” the housekeeper who accompanied him asked.

A wealthy family pays attention to their successors.

A woman like Winnie had a low education background and a background in the entertainment industry. She had a lot of black history...

Which wealthy family would want her as a daughter-in-law?

Why did Lucas point her out?

Lucas sighed and said, “It is not about what kind of woman I can accept, but what kind of woman can keep Shawn by my side. It’s been four years. There is only Winnie. I have no one else to choose from.”

The old housekeeper nodded. “So you think so.”

“Winnie can see Shawn every day. Maybe someday, when he is drunk, he will mistake her for Gale, then as a lonely widow, they will... It’s just a matter of time.

“He is really heartbroken.”

Lucas said, “No matter what, the Wood family can’t end! As long as I am alive, I will find a way to let Shawn carry on the family! Now, it depends on whether Winnie can live up to it!”

In the old man’s mind, Winnie is a reproductive tool.

The role was to find a way to conceive a child, give birth to a child, and let him cradle a great-grandson!

Winnie watched the car drive away, feeling elated.

From now on, she has a backer.

She could go to the old man for help if she ran into any trouble.

God help her too. Her better days are just around the corner!

Winnie turned around happily... “Ah! “She took a step back and patted her heart.” Mr.... Wood, when did you come? You scared me to death.”

Shawn was standing not far behind her, with one hand in his trousers pocket, looking at her indifferently.

“In a good mood?” he said.

Winnie smiled and said, “I... I saw you, of course, I feel better. Shawn, you can take me with you on your next business trip.”

“Why should I?”

“I can take care of you. Look, I feel so sorry for you getting sick after two days out,”

Winnie said.

Shawn took a deep look at her. “You sure can talk. If she were one-third as sweet as you, maybe it would have ended differently.”

Winnie replied, “Mr. Wood, the deceased can be missed, but the most important thing to do is to win over the person in front of you.”

She cautiously stretched out her hand, trying to hk the corner of Shawn’s clothes.

Shawn did not push her away.

The smile on Winnie’s face became even more obvious.

Mr. Wood began to accept her!

This happiness, however, had not lasted for two seconds before she heard Shawn say, “You better be obedient.”

Winnie was startled and immediately withdrew her hand.

“It’s impossible for you to have children for me. Even if you have Grandpa as your backing, it’s useless.”

Winnie did not expect that he would see through her plan so quickly.

His mind is so deep and sharp...

Nothing could be hidden from his eyes!

“Mr. Wood, I’m willing to have a baby for you.” Winnie bit her lip, looking very innocent. This gesture was learned from Gale. “It’s better to have a baby with me than with other women. At least... your mood will be better when you look at me.”

Shawn raised his hand, and his fingertips slid across the corner of her lips.

“So good, but still a fake.”

He snorted coldly.

Shawn strode away, and his back looked so lonely in the dark night.

“How capable is Gale? She can occupy such a powerful and outstanding man and make him fascinated by her, captivate her, and remember her forever... Why is she so lucky?” Winnie said, full of jealousy.

gust of wind blew, and the leaves on the back mountain rustled.

Winnie’s back felt cold when she thought about Gale, buried in the backyard. She was frightened and hurried back to her sent’s room!

The next day in the Wood Group.

“Hey, isn’t this our boss?” Joe closed the car door and leaned beside him. “How was your weekend?”

Shawn did not even look at him.

“It seems that it did not go well. Mr. Wood condescendingly went to meet a small designer in a small county, but he was rejected,” Joe said.

Shawn walked toward the company and added, “If you don’t speak, no one will treat you as dumb.”

Joe shrugged. “I’m talking about your heart. I told you a long time ago that Molly is not an ordinary person. Please don’t try! You just won’t listen. Have you given up now?”

With such a generous offer, any normal person would have already packed their luggage and reported to the Wood Group.

However, Molly not only did not agree but also refused any other requests..

Bendes, with Molly’s level, other jewelry companies must have paid attention to her, ust Lovito.

Shawn replied, “What’s the rush?”

Summer also rushed to work. “What are you talking about? Mr. Winter, who are you talking to?”

“Shawn.”

“Ah? Where is he?”

Summer immediately looked around. How could she not see a living soul!?

“He just went in.” Joe glanced at the breakfast in her hand and added, “Are you eating all of that?”

How could he say something like that to a girl?!

She rolled her eyes and said, “What’s wrong? Can’t it be done? Which law stipulates it? Am I eating your food, spending your money?”

Summer was full of comebacks.

Joe nodded in defeat and said, “Eat, eat whatever you want, and grow fat.”

Summer became even angrier. “You are already fat!”

“Well, I am tall, so it’s well-distributed.”

“Yuck!” Summer bumped him away and walked toward the company.

“Hey, Summer, I’m doing this for your own good. If you continue to eat like this, you will really gain weight. No man would like a fat....”

“Shut up!”

Joe sighed again and again. “Fine.”

Summer also became angrier and angrier the more she thought about it, and turned back, with her hips on her hips, and roared fiercely, “All I do is work! I work overtime every day, and my hair is about to fall out. The pressure is high, so naturally, I eat a lot and have no time to keep fit... Why is it so difficult for women!"

"Why isn't Peach fat?"

"She is still a little girl with a fast metabolism! When I was her age, I also was not fat!"

"I knew you when you were that age, but you still don't have Peach's weight."

She was speechless.

Summer was not petite and thin.

She was tall, with long arms and legs, and curvaceous. She was not thin, but not fat either, just curvy.

The perfect body.

In Joe's mouth, she became fat.

How could Summer endure it!

"Come on. Chickens talk to ducks." Summer smiled slightly instead. "Yeah, Mr. Winter is tall, rich, and handsome. He likes the type with a red face and a pointed chin. The type who is as thin as a pole and will collapse in the wind. How can anyone appreciate a high-class beauty like me."

"You? A high-class beauty?"

"Yes."

Joe asked, "Then why are you single?"

"If I want to look for it, I can look for it at any time. It's just that I'm currently looking for someone with a career. The most important thing, of course, is that I can find one anytime I want. But you have to keep your eyes open, don't be scammed!" Summer replied.

Joe narrowed his eyes. "Who do you want to find?"

Dr. Lighton?

"I can find whoever I want, but I won't be looking for you, Mr. Winter!"

"Even if all the women in the world are gone, I wouldn't be with you." The two turned around and left.

No one looked back at anyone!

This pair of 'lovers' would quarrel with three sentences after meeting!

Standing in front of the window of the CEO's office, Shawn took this scene into his eyes.

When Joe and Summer turned around, he suddenly understood why Joe could tell at a glance he liked Gale.

It was because the ones in the thick of it would be confused, but the bystanders were clear.

Just like now, he can tell at a glance that Joe liked Summer well.

It was just that Joe had not realized it yet, and he still felt that he had no feelings for Summer. After all, they quarreled every day.

In fact, quarreling could also evoke feelings.

Fiona walked in and said, "Mr. Wood, Florei's boss wants to see you.

Look..."

"No."

"Yes."

Shawn ordered, "Tell the owner of Florei and Mr. Hughes that if he wants to cooperate with us in any way, then he must have Molly join the Wood Group. Otherwise, there is no need to talk about it."

"Alright, Mr. Wood." Fiona wrote them down before adding, "Any other orders?"

Chapter 634

Shawn pondered deeply for a few seconds.

He slowly turned around, his figure against the light, and his tone was undeniably firm. "Have someone look up Molly, her real name, her photo, all her information ... find out everything you can find!"

"Yes, Mr. Wood!"

Shawn thought deeply, and it was he who underestimated Molly.

Originally, he had thought that with such a lucrative offer of employment, plus the fact that he personally acted, Molly would definitely agree.

As a result, she did not even show up.

He will go again.

The next time he went, he would not fight unprepared.

He had to find out all about Molly's situation and her weaknesses so that he could increase his success rate!

Everyone had weaknesses.

Just like... Gale was Shawn's eternal pain!

However, what Shawn did not expect was that Joe also started to investigate Molly's situation at the same time.

Joe always felt that something was wrong.

Design styles were boundless... Molly's jewelry works were too similar to Gale's!

Joe thought, could it be that Molly was Gale?

There should not be such a coincidence, right?!

However, now that Shawn was so persistent and insisted on meeting Molly, Joe decided to check it out by himself first.

Please not be Gale!

Joe was also quite frightened.

It was Gale's first visit to this central hospital.

The hospital was larger than the town hospital and had more people.

She took Nicole by the hand and shuttled through the crowd. She had to register, and sometimes she had to get medicine.

After seeing the test results she brought from the town hospital, the doctor asked for several other tests.

Nicole looked normal, alive and kicking. Probably because of the medicine, her cough was gone.

"Mommy, I'm hungry. You're tired too, let's go have a meal and rest, okay?" Nicole said.

"Okay, wait a minute."

Gale took her to finish one last check, and they went to a nearby restaurant.

Nicole was really hungry. Seeing her like this, Gale kept serving her food, but she, herself, did not have much appetite.

It was because she was anxiously waiting for the result.

She also had a checkup to see if her bone marrow matched Nicole's. If it did not, Gale would be devastated.

"Mommy, I'm fine." Nicole could also see her worry. "Look, I can eat so much, I am not coughing anymore, and I'll get better soon!"

"Yes. Nicole, come, drink some soup."

At this moment, Zoe called, "Gale, are you in the central hospital now?"

“Yes, Zoe, what’s the matter?”

“Joshua signed up for the piano competition and is going tomorrow for an interview in the city. I thought this was perfect. When Joshua goes to the competition, I can come to your side and help you,” Zoe said. H

Joshua signed up for the competition for the prize money and to lighten Gale’s burden.

Now that Nicole had leukemia, Gale really needed a lot of money.

A deep sense of powerlessness swept over her, and she knew that Joshua was doing this for her.

Her children are all so sensible. How could she bear to blame them?

Gale bit her lip and answered, “Okay, I got it.”

Nicole, next to her, suddenly yelled and then covered her mouth.

“What’s wrong?”

Nicole said, “Bleeding teeth.”

Gale was startled and quickly pulled out a tissue to help her stop the bleeding.

The doctor said that leukemia patients would have the symptom of tooth bleeding.

Gale’s heart was heavy, looking at the b*oody tissues.

In the afternoon, Gale came to the doctor’s consulting room.

“You are Nicole’s... Mom?”

Gale nodded and said, “Yes. This is the test result you want. Also, does my bone marrow match?” The doctor looked carefully.

After a while, he shook his head. “Unfortunately, yours doesn’t match. Were you the only one who got tested? What about her father?”

Gale said, “He... He is out on a business trip.”

The doctor said, “He still has the heart to work after this? Come back as soon as possible to see if his match is good. If it matches, it’s best. If it doesn’t match... Then we can only see if there is a successful match from the bone marrow bank of volunteers across the country.”

“Doctor, what if there is no match in the bone marrow bank?”

“Then it will be even more difficult. You may have to go abroad.”

It would take a lot of money and connections.

It could not be done with Gale’s ability.

Aurum could help her.

However, Aurum suddenly searching for bone marrow all over the world would definitely cause Shawn to be suspicious!

By then...

Gale lost her train of thought, and she was in a mess.

chapter tox

“Doctor, now... what should I do? Wait for the news of the successful bone marrow matching?”

Gale asked.

“Yes, and Nicole needs to be hospitalized. Because she is too young, her condition. would be more difficult. You can’t take care of her at home, and she would need infusion and treatment every day.”

“Okay.”

Gale paid the money and went through the hospitalization procedures.

There were three beds in the general ward, all of which were occupied by people. It was very noisy and messy.

Gale tied her hair up and got busy.

Zoe brought Joshua to the city.

“Mommy, you’ve lost weight,” Joshua said as soon as he saw her.

Seeing Nicole, who was connected to a drip on the hospital bed, Joshua’s eyes turned red.

However, he kept holding back.

Gale squeezed out a smile, squatted down, and patted his head. “I’m losing weight. You can see how successful I am with my diet.”

“Hmph, you are so thin. Why are you losing weight? Eat more!”

“Okay, okay, Mommy will take you to eat western food tonight.”

“No, I’m going to practice the piano tonight. Mommy, are you angry at me for secretly signing up for the competition without telling you,” Joshua said.

“Come on, try your best to compete. If you don’t get first place, don’t be discouraged.”

Who knew that Joshua replied ambitiously, “I will definitely win first place!”

“Yes, Joshua is the best.”

Joshua ran to the hospital bed. His small body was only a little higher than the hospital bed.

He said very seriously, “Nicole, you need to get better soon. As long as your illness is cured, I will admit that you are my older sister, and I will call you older sister from now on.”

“I was always the older sister. I don’t need you to admit it,” Nicole replied.

“Okay, okay, fine.”

Joshua shrugged c*olly.

Looking at the two children, Gale felt a little more energized.

Zoe walked to her side and said, “Gale, I’ll take care of Nicole tonight. You go to the hotel and have a good sleep.”

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 636

Chapter 636

How could she sleep?

Every time she lay down, the thought of finding a bone marrow match flashed across her head.

Now, she had to wait for news from the bone marrow bank.

In case there was still no match, she could only pin her hope on Shawn and see him. with Nicole.

"I'd better stay. You and Joshua can go to the hotel and get a good night's sleep tonight," Gale said.

"You have to take good care of yourself so that you can have the energy to take care of Nicole."

Under Zoe's persuasion, Gale took the room card.

When she arrived at the hotel, she was taken aback for a moment.

It was because this was a five-star hotel in the city.

How could Zoe have the money to live here?

Could it be... Aurum!

Gale quickened her pace and came to the room.

As soon as she opened the door, she saw a figure by the window.

Aurum, wearing a blue shirt and gray trousers, turned around when he heard the sound.

Although they have been in touch for four years, they have never seen each other.

Seeing her tired expression and thin body, Aurum's heart twitched violently.

After leaving Shawn, she should have been happy and carefree, living the free life she wanted.

Who would have thought that Nicole's sudden illness would quickly crush all these good things to pieces?

"I guessed it was you." Gale closed the door behind her a little nervously. "Why are you here?"

"Don't worry, the rooms are all booked in the name of Zoe, and you cannot be found."

Gale lowered her head slightly. "You made a special trip here because of Nicole?"

"Yes, I'm worried. What's Nicole's situation now?" Aurum replied.

Gale told him what the doctor said.

Aurum frowned tightly.

This was really tricky.

Money was not a problem, but... things like bone marrow could not be solved with money!

"What are you going to do? What can I do for you?" Aurum asked.

Gale's heart warmed.

Every time something happened, Aurum would say...

'What do you want to do' or 'what can I do for you'. It gave her a great sense of security.

It seemed that he was always behind her, supporting her. As long as she turned her head, she could see his figure.

"Wait." Gale covered her face with her hands and sighed softly through her fingers. "Wait for the results from the bone marrow bank."

"If... the bone marrow bank doesn't have a match?"

"I can only go and find Shawn."

After Gale finished speaking, the room fell into a deathly silence.

Aurum stood there motionless, with a thoughtful expression on his face.

Gale was helpless.

She could not just watch Nicole... being tormented by illness.

After a long time, Aurum finally said, "Are you sending Nicole to Shawn, or are you taking Nicole to find Shawn?"

"I..."

"You about this. This is a completely different life. Give Nicole to Shawn. If you don't show up, I will still have a chance to hide you from him. If you take Nicole back to Sea City... then, what about Joshua?" Aurum said.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 637

Chapter 637

What a dilemma.

She could not bear to give Nicole to Shawn because she would lose her beloved daughter.

However, what would Joshua do if she went to see Shawn with Nicole?

Could she bring Joshua back?

Both children belonged to Shawn!

She could not compete with him!

However, if Joshua were left to live with Zoe and never showed up, and Shawn did not even know that he had a son, it would mean that Gale would never be able to meet Joshua again.

Otherwise... Shawn will discover Joshua's existence sooner or later.

Whether it was a son or a daughter, they were all his children.

Gale could not bear it! 1

"I want Nicole, and I also want Joshua. I know it's greedy and difficult, but I... I'm their mother," Gale said.

Aurum walked in front of her, raised his hand, hesitated for a few seconds, and finally landed on her shoulder. "Think carefully. There is still time."

Gale had thought about this question many times.

No solution.

There was no right answer!

"My original thought was that I would take Nicole back to Sea City and find Shawn to match the bone marrow. Joshua would be left to Zoe first, and I can come back to see him when I have a chance. However, there is a possibility of visiting him. Once I return, I will expose myself."

"That way, I have chosen Nicole and abandoned Joshua. It is unfair to Joshua, and he didn't do anything wrong."

"However, if I also bring him back to Sea City, he will become the heir of the Wood family, and he will be trained as a machine, studying financial management and social etiquette all day long, without happiness and freedom."

"I want to give a free life to my children."

Gale still wanted to keep Joshua.

She raised the two children with painstaking effort.
She would have nothing left if she gave the children to Shawn.
She was not reconciled.

If Joshua was kept in the county, this child still belonged to her, not to the Wood family!
Aurum thought for a while and said, “Perhaps, you should ask Joshua what he thinks.
“Yeah...” Gale paused and looked up at him. “Why did I forget to ask for his opinion?”
“If Joshua wants to go back to Sea City, you can’t stop him. If he doesn’t want to go back, you can’t take him away.”
Gale wrung her fingers weakly and said, “Is there no other way...”
She still had to go back to Shawn’s side in the end.
To go back to the man who ruined her life.
Four years have passed, and Gale has let go of her hatred and those painful days of torment.
It was not that she had forgotten her hatred but that the arrival of the two children. had downplayed the past.

She did not want to worry about it anymore and looked forward to the future.
Occasionally, Gale would think of Shawn.
She did love him, after all.
In countless midnight dreams, she woke up to find the pillow wet.
She hated him to the bone but also loved him.
It was not easy to forget him... unless she dug out her heart.
However, no matter how much she missed Shawn and loved him, she would never see him again.

“...I have another way. However, the risk is extremely high,” Aurum said.
Gale raised her head suddenly and asked, “What?”
Aurum looked very serious. “It’s very risky.”

Chapter 638

Chapter 638

“For Nicole, I can do anything.”

Aurum walked back and forth in front of the windows with his hands behind his back, and after a while, he said, “Maybe, I can secretly check if Shawn’s bone marrow matches.”

“If it doesn’t match, then you don’t need to bring Nicole to him because he can’t save Nicole. I can also help you with things if that happens.”

Gale asked, “What if it matches?”

Aurum looked at her firmly. “Then join forces with Joe and find a way to get Shawn to the hospital to complete the bone marrow transplant.”

This idea... was too bold!

It was too risky!

Gale stood up in shock. “Joe? Why do we need him?”

“Because he may know that you are not dead.”

“What?!”

Aurum explained, “Before you jumped into the sea, I said before that someone is checking us. Do you remember?”

“Yes!”

“That person is not Shawn, but Joe. But it’s strange that he didn’t act on it after he found out. After you jumped into the sea and left, he came to me and tested me.”

Gale did not expect that there would be a third person to know that she was still alive!

This person was actually Shawn’s best friend, Joe!

“I definitely didn’t admit it. But Joe became suspicious, and he knew that you didn’t die. So if it is true that only Shawn’s bone marrow matches, we need to ask for his help,” Aurum said.

Gale’s heart was beating fast. “Will he... agree?”

“I’m not sure, but you can try. Since he didn’t tell Shawn this shocking secret at the beginning, I think he won’t just watch Nicole get sick and die.”

Aurum said, “I’ll check Shawn’s bone marrow first to see if it matches!”

“Okay.”

“Wait for my news.”

Aurum could not stay here for long. He still had to return to Sea City to avoid suspicion.

He came here for one purpose.

Although he had not seen her for four years, he really wanted to chat with her a little.

more.

He felt satisfied, even if he said nothing, and just watched her quietly.

Gale has a charm that fascinates him.

He did not know why that was.

“Goodbye.” Gale glanced at him, then lowered her head. “I am always troubling you.” Aurum said jokingly, seeing the atmosphere was too heavy, “Joshua and Nicole are also the ones I watched growing up. I told them I was their godfather before. Did you forget?”

“No, I remember.”

“So, Joshua and Nicole are also my children. The godfather saves his goddaughter, of course.”

There was nothing for granted.

Knowing that he was comforting her, Gale nodded.

She watched him get in the car and leave from afar.

It began to rain lightly in the sky.

Drizzling.

Gale bought some fruit and went back to the hospital.

But...

Nicole's hospital bed was clean, and the quilt was neatly folded.

Missing?

Where was Zoe?

What about Joshua?

Where had they gone?

The bag in Gale's hand fell to the ground with a bang, and all the fruits fell out.

R

Chapter 639

However, she could not care less. Her eyes went dark, but she quickly regained her composure and ran out quickly.

That was her whole world!

She had just returned to the hotel, and the hospital bed was empty!?

Was Shawn here?

He came with Aurum and then took the two children away?!

Gale stumbled, knocked down several people along the way, and went straight to the nurse's station.

"Where is the child on bed 26?" Gale grabbed a nurse and asked frantically, "The one who is still living there today, why did she disappear? Where is she!? I haven't gone through the discharge procedures!"

"I am her mother, and I have the right to decide whether she lives in the hospital or not! How can you let her go casually!"

"Give me back my daughter! Give her back to me!" The nurse was frightened and said, "What are you talking about?"

Gale yelled, "Nicole, in bed 26!" "A three-year-old girl with leukemia, where is she? Why is she missing? Her hospital bed was cleaned up!"

There was a big hole in her heart, the wind was blowing, and it was chilly.

Her Joshua!

The nurse went to check on the computer and then told her, "Nicole, right? She's been transferred to a senior ward!"

Gale was startled. "A senior ward?"

The nurse nodded and said, "Yes. She was transferred an hour ago to the top floor. I can take you there now."

Gale did not react.

She looked lost until she stood at the door of the ward and heard Zoe and Nicole's voices from inside.

Joshua just opened the door and saw her at a glance. "Ah! Mommy!"

"Joshua..."

"We have changed to a new ward!" Joshua took her hand enthusiastically and walked in. "Look, there is a separate bathroom and a room next to it! No need to crowd with people anymore!"

Senior wards are all independent spaces.

There were specialized doctors and nurses to make ward rounds, just like a five-star hotel, away from the noise of ordinary wards.

Zoe said, "Yes, it's quiet and clean, and you can sleep well. Aurum specially arranged this. We just moved in, so we haven't had time to tell you."

Gale knew that this must be him. She was secretly thankful for the arrangement.

She was just scared to death.

She thought that Nicole had been taken away, and if she wanted to see her daughter, she had to go to Shawn.

Fortunately, it was just a false alarm!

"Gale, just accept it." Zoe quietly pulled her aside and said, "It's also good for Nicole's condition. The normal ward is crowded and noisy. She can rest here and you can sleep soundly." Saying that, Zoe handed her another bank card.

"The password is the children's birthdays. Aurum puts money into it, and you can use it with ease. It's done in my name, so Shawn can't trace you," Zoe said.

"Zoe... Thank you, thank you."

Zoe smiled. "We have been together for so long, and you are still so polite. In my heart, I have long regarded you and the two children as family members."

Speaking of which, Zoe was also a miserable woman.

When she was young, she worked as a nanny in the Lefting family and took care of Aurum. She was very popular with the family, and they employed her all the time.

However, she met an unkind person and married an alcoholic who loved to gamble.

Fortunately, her child was quite smart, with excellent academic performance. He had already worked and settled abroad and rarely came home.

Zoe was lonely and bored by herself, so she could pass the time if she had something to do and someone to accompany her.

Gale clenched the bank card in his hand.

She owed Aurum more and more.

How to repay this...

Gale checked it and found that Aurum had credited a hundred thousand dollars into the card.

She silently wrote down the number, how much was spent, and how much was left. She must return it to him.

She could not pay back other favors, but she could work hard to earn money back. and try not to owe him any more favors!

Later, Gale went to the doctor's office.

She did not know if it was because of Aurum, but the doctor's attitude was better and more positive than before.

Chapter 640

“We are already looking for a matching donor in the bone marrow bank. You just need to wait for the news,” the doctor said.

“How long will it take?”

“If all goes well, it will probably be about half a month.”

“Is it not going well?” The doctor hesitated for a few seconds before replying, “The success rate of bone marrow matching is usually one in a few million... the probability is very low. Whether there is a match is one thing. If there is a match, rejection may also occur.”

“Rejection?”

“Yes, but if it is a family member’s bone marrow match, the possibility of rejection is much lower.”

Gale understood the most important parts of it.

Now... it depended on whether Shawn’s bone marrow could match.

“It’s okay, just be positive. There are so many volunteers now. Maybe, there will be matched soon!”

Gale forced a smile and said, “I hope so.”

In Sea City.

Inside Temperley Hall.

Shawn sat in front of the desk, the faint blue light of the computer reflected on his face.

“Have you found Molly?”

“Mr. Wood...” The voice on the other end of the phone faltered.

“Tell me!”

“Not yet. Molly is using a pseudonym, and she doesn’t have a photo. I haven’t found her name in various systems in the small town.”

Shawn frowned deeply.

Could an ordinary person hide her identity so well?

Even his subordinates could not find her!

Molly... seemed very strange!

Shawn’s curiosity about her deepened.

It had been a long time since he had met someone who wanted him to work this hard. Now that he has started to investigate, no matter how deep she hid, he would still find her!

No one could hide from his eyes!

Shawn gave an order, “Continue. Only come to me when you have found her!”

“Mr. Wood, it’s just... no one knew who she was? Unless...”

Shawn narrowed his eyes deeply.

Molly never used her identity information from the beginning to the end.

She used someone else’s.

Only then could she hide so well!

“Mr. Wood, we will try our best to speed up and let you know as soon as we have news!”

“The sooner, the better!”

Shawn put down his phone and leaned back in his chair.

He furrowed his eyebrows.

It was the first time he went to that small town, but there were two people... he could not forget.

One was Molly.

The other was Joshua.

He had not seen the little rascal for a few days, but his strange appearance was deeply engraved in Shawn's mind.

He worried whether other children would bully him.

He was curious whether his wounds were recovering.

Shawn found it very strange that he was thinking about a three-year-old boy who had only met twice.
