Chapter 651

Chapter 651

Shawn said, "Winnie had plastic surgery to look like her, but that woman has a resemblance in spirit. From her body shape to her temperament, it seems she is standing in front of me alive that day."

"She was wearing a mask and shuttled among the noisy crowd. It's a pity I don't know her name, where she is from, and whether I can meet her again."

"I can still look Molly up. But she, I just caught a glimpse of her. What can I use to investigate?"

Joe replied, "You are going crazy from missing her. By the way, do you plan to keep Winnie?"

"Yeah"

"She's a bad person."

Shawn replied, "I know, but I want to see that face every day."

"Someday when you get confused and impulsive, you really treat her as..."

"Impossible."

Joe turned his body sideways, turned his back to Shawn, quickly took out the bag of powder Aurum gave him and poured it into the coffee.

Joe said, "Don't be so sure. I said you liked Gale back then, but you said it was impossible. What happened?"

He stirred quickly and breathed a sigh of relief. Then, he took two cups of coffee and placed one in front of Shawn.

Shawn was not on guard against him, picked it up without hesitation, and took a sip.

"Times have changed. Winnie is not worthy of my love," Shawn replied.

Under the effects of the medicine and the temptation, he maintained his rationality and insisted on not touching her, let alone under normal circumstances.

After Shawn finished speaking, he glanced at Joe and found that he was looking at him.

Their eyes met, and Joe immediately looked away.

Shawn raised his eyebrows slightly. "You seem to be weird today."

Joe shrugged and said, "No way. I didn't sleep well last night, and you are forcing me to go to the small town again."

"Huh?"

"Give up. Don't collect any more people who are similar to Gale. No matter how similar someone is, she is not her. No matter how many people you have, no one is her," Joe said.

Shawn pressed his fingers deeply between his brows and closed his eyes.
The office fell silent.
Joe did not leave and looked at Shawn from time to time.
Two minutes passed.
Five minutes passed.

Shawn remained motionless, with his hands still on the bridge of his nose, and his breathing gradually became even.

“Shawn? Shawn?”

“Hey, can you hear me?”

Joe walked up to Shawn while tentatively asking.

He touched Shawn’s hand, and his hand dropped down.

Shawn still closed his eyes.

Aurum, this medicine was awesome.

It worked so fast, and he slept so soundly.

“I’m sorry, Shawn, I’m just helping your daughter...” Joe said, helping Shawn down the lounge.

Inside, there was a private elevator!

Joe carried Shawn into the car, and quickly went to the hospital, using the underground parking lot through the back door.

Aurum was already waiting there.

“Hurry up, I’m not sure when he’ll wake up. He’ll need to come back as soon as the examination is done, I’ll wait here!” Joe said.

“Okay.”

Joe walked around anxiously.

It was the first time he had done something like this to Shawn...

However, only he could pull it off!

Shawn would see through it right away if it were someone else before the cup of coffee was served.

Aurum also stood beside him.

“Mr. Winter, calm down.”

“How can I calm down? Do you know how much I struggle inside? He is my best friend!”

“It won’t do him any harm. Once the effect of the medicine wears, he will wake up and live the same life as before, without any side effects,” Aurum said.

Joe asked, “How long can the medicine last?”

Chapter 652

“Works for half a day.

What!

Such a long time!

No wonder Aurum was not in a hurry!

“Let me give it to you straight, Aurum. If it was a match and you want Shawn’s bone marrow, this drugging method will not work. I can’t help you much after,” Joe said.

Aurum sighed and said, “Do you think I don’t understand? But I have to try. She is still waiting for my reply.”

The nurse sent Shawn down, and Joe stretched out his hand to support him. Shawn’s brows twitched.

Joe was so scared that his heart almost jumped out of his throat!

He hurriedly drove back to Wood Group at a blazing speed, overtaking in various ways, and finally sent Shawn back to the CEO’s office smoothly!

Joe broke out in a sweat.

This job... was really difficult!

He took a breath and then walked out of the office through the main entrance.

“Mr. Winter,” Fiona greeted.

“Shawn is asleep. Please don’t bother him. It’s not easy for him to sleep well,”

Joe ordered.

“Okay, I understand.”

Joe left as if nothing had happened.

After an hour, Shawn slowly opened his eyes.

There were still bloodshot eyes in his eyes, and his eyes were loose and blurred. Looking at the scene in front of him, it took him a while to recover, and he remembered he was in the company.

He actually... fell asleep just like that? While he was discussing things with Joe? What about Joe?

Looking at the time, he found that it was already noon.

Shawn frowned deeply and pressed his temples. “What’s going on?”

He had not slept so deeply for a long time.

This was the first time.

For four years, he was half asleep and half awake every time he rested. He knew what was happening around him, even the slightest noise.

This time, he not only fell asleep but also dreamed... Gale.

She had finally... come to his dream!

Shawn could still clearly remember the scene in his dream.

Gale was wearing a long floral dress, with his back turned to him, standing among the flowers all over the back mountain.

“Gale, is that you?” The agile figure turned her head slowly and said with a crisp voice, “It’s me, Shawn.”

He was overjoyed and quickly stepped forward to hug her. “Gale!”

Gale did not push him away or speak and let him hug her quietly.

“I miss you so much, Gale. How are you doing alone? Do you... miss me?”

How he wished she would miss him a little bit.

A little bit would be fine.

“Shawn, do you love me?” Gale asked.

He replied without hesitation, “Yes!”

He loves her, and only her!

Gale looked up at him and said, “Okay. Then Shawn, I want to take something from you. Can you give it to me?”

Shawn nodded and agreed, “Yes! Gale, I’ll give you whatever you want!”

She smiled lightly. “I want your bone marrow.”

“Bone marrow?”

“Yes. Why? Don’t you want to?” Gale said.

Shawn reached out and caressed her face. “What do you want it for? I thought... what you want is my heart.”

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

Chapter 653

Chapter 653

“What do I want your heart for? The heart can’t save lives, but the bone marrow can.” She poked his chest with her fingertips.

Shawn was about to say something, but Gale suddenly burst into tears.

Tears fell down one by one, hitting the back of his hand.

“I’d rather die than live, Shawn. Save me, save me...”

He hurriedly wanted to grab her, but he just woke up and opened his eyes.

Just a dream.

The office was big, empty, and quiet, and Shawn felt overwhelmed and lonely.

He looked at the computer.

A pop-up window popped up in the lower right corner, broadcasting real-time news. “Today, the 37th Youth Piano Competition officially started. This competition has attracted much attention from people from all walks of life. Many well-known pianists have won awards in this competition. Ranking...”

Shawn moved the mouse to close it but accidentally clicked on the news.

A photo appeared on the screen.

He saw Joshua among the contestants at a glance!

Joshua was not only in the first row, but he was the youngest among the contestants. He was not tall, but Shawn recognized him right away in the group photo!

He could play the piano at such a young age? He dared to participate?

The competition would attract national attention. The previous champions are now internationally renowned masters!

Shawn became interested.

He did not expect Joshua to be such an interesting child!

In the hospital, Gale received a call from Joshua.

“Mommy, I won first place in our group and qualified to participate in the finals!”

“At that time, people from the TV station will broadcast the game live. You must remember to watch it!” Joshua said haughtily, “After all, I will definitely win the championship. At that time, my heroic appearance will conquer everyone. From top to bottom, everyone will be amazed by my piano skills!”

“Yes, Joshua will be a piano master in the future, the kind that tours worldwide, and the seats are full. Mommy is proud of you!”

“Wait! When I get money, you can buy a lot of beautiful clothes, fragrances, bags... for Nicole too! Mrs. Zoe too!”

Gale felt warmth in her heart.

“Got it. You’ve been practicing the piano these few days. Do you remember what I told you before you went?”

“Remember!”

Gale asked, “Then repeat it.”

II

“Humility makes people improve, and pride makes people lag behind. However, I can also improve when I am proud!” Joshua replied.

Gale smiled and shook her head. “You...”

His arrogance was exactly like his father’s.

Sure enough, the power of genes was powerful.

After hanging up the phone, Gale walked into the ward, where Nicole was reading a comic book.

“Nicole, it’s time to take medicine.” Gale came over with warm water.

Nicole blinked her big flickering eyes. “Mommy, I want to go home.”

“Nicole...”

Nicole pursed her mouth, wanted to hold back, and wanted to be strong, but she was still a sick child, lying on the bed for transfusions and medicine every day. She could not bear it psychologically.

Bean-sized teardrops fell down her face, and Gale was shocked. “Nicole, what’s wrong?”

“I don’t want to be in the hospital, and I don’t want to take injections or medicine anymore, s**b...”

Nicole wiped her tears with the back of her hand as she cried so hard.

“The needles are so long, I’m so scared, and the smell of medicine is everywhere. I’m not used to the smell. Mommy, I want to go to school, play games with my classmates, do handicrafts...”

“Mommy, what is happening to me? Do I have to stay in the hospital forever?”

“Am I going to die soon?”

Chapter 654

Chapter 654

Seeing her daughter crying so sadly, Gale's tears fell from her eyes.

She knew that Nicole was suffering from illness. No matter how well-behaved Nicole was, she would collapse.

Gale was about to collapse.

It was just that she could not allow herself to fall as she still had a lot of things to do.

Aurum was helping her, so was Zoe, and even Joe....

So many people are helping her. How can she give up?

"Mommy, I don't want to cry, I'm good, but I can't help it..." Nicole threw herself into her arms. "Mommy, let's go home..."

Gale patted her on the back and sniffed to force back the tears.

"Mommy will definitely take you home, but I'll have to wait until your illness is cured. If your illness is not cured, you will feel sick," Gale comforted softly.

"But my blood is obviously still working. Why do you all say that I have leukemia?"

Gale did not know how to explain.

She took a tissue and carefully wiped away the tears on Nicole's face. "It doesn't matter what kind of illness it is. The important thing is that our Nicole will definitely get better."

"Look, your brother went to participate in the piano competition. He said he would get first place."

"At that time, he will give you the trophy as a gift and give me the prize money. I will buy you a beautiful skirt."

"Your hair is getting so long that we can braid it. A long braid looks the best."

Nicole's mood gradually calmed down.

Nicole asked, "Mommy, will my illness cost a lot of money? I'm sorry, I..."

"Shhh, don't talk about this. If Nicole wants to eat anything, Mommy will buy it for you."

“I want to eat... fried chicken.”

Gale agreed very readily, “Okay! I will buy it and we will eat it together!”

She usually does not allow her children to eat these things, so Nicole immediately smiled when she heard she could.

“Then be good, I’ll go buy it, and I’ll be back soon.”

“Okay, Mommy, I’ll wait for you!”

Gale burst into tears the moment she walked out of the ward.

She leaned against the wall, bowed her head, and cried for a long time. She dared not cry out for fear that Nicole would hear.

She did not dare to cry for too long for fear that her eyes would be red and swollen and Nicole would find out.

After eating the fried chicken, Nicole gradually calmed down and did not cry when the nurse came for her injection.

“You are so cute. I have seen so many children. You are the most obedient and the cutest,” the nurse said.

Nicole replied crisply, “Thank you, Miss.”

“Call me Auntie.”

In fact, Nicole was very afraid of nurses because they always gave her injections.

However, she still maintained the courtesy she should have.

Gale watched from the side and smiled slightly.

The phone rang suddenly.

She glanced at the caller ID. Her smile froze, and she turned and walked to the balcony.

It was Aurum calling.

Gale’s heart palpitated, her throat was dry, and she could not speak a word for a long time.

She wanted to hear the answer but was afraid that the answer was not the one she wanted to hear.

Aurum contacted her directly for the first time.

In the past, it was all through Zoe.

Although this mobile phone number was also registered in Zoe's name.

"I asked Joe for help. Now, I got the test results," Aurum said in a low voice slowly. 1

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang Chapter 655

Chapter 655

Gale swallowed nervously. "Does his bone marrow match Nicole?"

"Yes." A simple word said it all.

The word carried too much weight.

The biggest stone on Gale's heart fell to the ground.

Nicole was saved.

At the same time, a bigger stone came over again.

How could she save Nicole?

Would she need to take Nicole to Shawn?

Or would she turn herself to Shawn, and then never get her life back?

Gale asked, "Are you sure... He and Nicole's bone marrow match?!"

Aurum replied, "Yes, I have confirmed it with the doctor again and again. I will handle the rest. You don't worry."

Gale clutched the phone, not knowing how to answer.

There was silence.

“I also communicated with the doctor about the treatment plan. If everything goes well, Nicole and Shawn can meet to determine the surgery date. The sooner the effect, the better,” Aurum said.

“Gale, it’s up to you to decide now.”

She sorted out her chaotic thoughts and asked with the last sliver of hope, “You said before that if you match, you can find a way to do it without Shawn’s knowledge... to complete the bone marrow transplant...”

Although Gale also knew how difficult it would be.

This was even harder than when she jumped into the sea to feign death and leave!

It was even harder!

“Yes. It’s just that I’m still thinking of a way, and I must ask Joe’s help. Once he refuses to agree, or if his mind is not firm and shaken, this plan cannot be implemented,” Aurum replied.

It depended on Joe!

It could not be done by another person!

This time, when Shawn was sent to the hospital for an examination, Aurum could tell that Joe’s heart was swaying.

An unstable partner would be the biggest risk in the whole plan!

“It’s okay, I will discuss it with him. Just take care of Nicole,” Aurum comforted her.

Gale sighed for a long time. “I know this is very hard for you... Let me have some time to make a decision.”

“Gale, don’t be impulsive, don’t do st**id things.”

“No matter what decision I make, it’s for the good of Nicole.”

Aurum said, “You still have Joshua.”

Yes, Joshua was still in the competition.

He wanted to take first place.

She went to find Shawn with Nicole, but what about Joshua?

If she took Joshua and Nicole to find Shawn, what about her? She would be all alone.

After hanging up the phone, Gale stood on the balcony for a long, long time.

The situation could not be delayed any longer.

The sooner the bone marrow transplant was done, the sooner the disease could be contained.

Nicole was only three years old, and her life had not even begun yet!

Gale's mind was in a mess, but she knew what to do.

There was no need to expose Aurum or Joe.

Back then, Joe did not expose her plan of jumping into the sea, and kept the secret in his heart. He should have felt very unhappy and aggrieved.

Now he had to figure out a way to get Shawn's bone marrow...

Forget it.

Gale had made her decision!

Her eyes were full of determination!

Gale had already calmed down when she returned to the hospital bed. "Nicole, do you want to watch your brother's piano competition?"

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 656

Chapter 656

Nicole's eyes lit up. "Can I go?"

Gale nodded and said, "Of course we can, we are family members, we are going to cheer him on, sit in the audience and watch him win the award! After all, he promised me that he would win the championship!"

"Okay, okay! I'm going!"

"Well, then you should obediently get injections and medicine, don't cry. Mommy will tell the doctor. I will take you out of the hospital to watch the finals."

Nicole was so happy that she repeatedly nodded. “Okay!”

Gale patted her head.

Although Nicole was a girl, she also inherited Shawn’s good looks. Her facial features are very delicate. Only her eyes resembled Gale’s.

With the desire to attend the piano competition, Nicole became more cheerful and lively.

She had been in the hospital for too long and was looking forward to going outside!

Aurum hung up the phone, looked at the dozen or so missed calls from Joe frantically, and only replied with one word.

“Match,”

Joe understood.

The phone slid out of his hand with a bang and fell on the table, and he sighed helplessly.

He felt torn between wanting to help and wanting to stay loyal.

What should he do?

Right now, only Shawn could save Nicole!

That was Shawn’s biological daughter!

Help Aurum get the bone marrow to save Nicole?

Or tell Shawn all the facts and let him go to Gale?

Joe did not expect that, with one wrong step, there was no way for him to turn back.

Once he went to tell Shawn that Gale was still alive, he would expose that he knew everything long ago.

It was easier said than done to get the bone marrow!

Joe kept thinking till his head hurt. He got up and walked outside.

Summer looked at him, holding a pile of documents. “Mr. Winter, why are you so sad? I haven’t seen you in a good mood these days.”

Joe looked at her, hesitating to speak.

Summer saw through it. “There’s something you are hiding from me. Is there anything you can say?”

He was silent.

With Summer’s carefree character, it would be over if she slipped up in front of Shawn one day.

Joe said, “I... Cough, cough, I’m asking you a question, and you have to answer me truthfully.”

“Do ahead. I like to tell the truth, and I’m not afraid of offending people.”

He was speechless.

Joe thought about it, and it was true.

Summer had a straightforward character and was not sly. She had not changed for many years.

Joe nodded and said, “Okay. If your best friend...”

“My best friend died.”

Joe almost choked on his saliva. “Then let me give an example. Suppose you have a child...”

“Mr. Winter, I’m still single. Why would I get married?”

Joe broke down a bit, “I said if! Don’t interrupt me, let me speak.”

“All right.”

Joe said, “Now your child has a disease and needs something. But there is only one person who has the thing to save him. That person is your first boyfriend, whom you loved so much. But due to various reasons, it is impossible to be together in this life, nor can we meet each other.”

“If you want to save the child, you must go to see him and beg him, and he will definitely tie you by his side and not let you leave. If you don’t look for him, your child will die...”

“Summer, what will you choose at this time?”

Summer looked at him as if he was insane. “What? Something only my first boyfriend has? Is it an elixir? Moreover, a man who would do something like tie me to him must be me**ly abnormal. No wonder I chose to leave him.”

Chapter 657

Chapter 657

After a pause, Summer said again. “The only man who feels like he can do such a thing is that paranoid

Shawn

Joe had already walked away

Well, he and Summer’s thoughts are on different channels!

Summer looked at his back and said, “That was weird. He asked such an inexplicable question and then left in such an inexplicable way

She muttered, “Could it be that men also have mood swings?”

Summer shook her head and continued to devote herself to her work.

Saturday came

The doorbell of Joe’s house rang.

He dragged his tired body to open the door. “Who is it so early in the morning... I didn’t fall asleep until five o’clock last night!”

The door opened, and Shawn appeared in front of him in a suit and shiny leather shoes.

“Shawn?!”

Shawn said expressionlessly, “What?”

He raised his eyebrows. “Did you forget we are supposed to go to town and look for Molly?”

Joe was about to go crazy. “I didn’t promise you!”

“The private jet is already waiting. Let’s go,” Shawn said

He could not care less what state Joe was in and dragged him out.

“You evil capitalist!”

On the plane, Joe stared at Shawn while brushing his teeth.

Shawn crossed his legs and looked at the newspaper leisurely. "You can continue to sleep, and I will call you when the time comes."

"You treat me as a pig, and I can sleep whenever and wherever I want?" To have a high-quality sleep was a rare thing!

Joe glanced out of the window indignantly, the clouds were wandering below, and the plane was driving smoothly.

"Why did you use a private jet this time? You didn't do this last time," Joe asked.

"I have a hunch that it won't be just the two of us anymore when we come back."

"What do you mean?"

"Maybe Molly will come to Sea City with us. Or... I will bring back a woman," Shawn said.

That woman's figure and back looked very similar to Gale's.

He looked forward to seeing her again.

Once he saw her no matter what method he used, he would get her!

Joe gave a vague Oh, but he was thinking in his heart, he must not let Shawn find Molly!

He had to quietly remind Aurum to ask Gale to be more vigilant and prepared!

Shawn put down the newspaper and turned on the wireless TV in the cabin.

The news broadcast sounded....

Today's latest news, the finals of the 37th Youth Piano Competition will be held this morning. This station will broadcast the whole process in real-time, bringing you the latest first-hand news from the scene

"Look at this season's bright young stars. Who will be the champion? Who will amaze the judges and become an instant hit? Let's wait and see."

Shawn smiled slightly.

He was very optimistic about Joshua.

He would watch the championships.

If Joshua won... Shawn wanted to get to know Joshua's mother.

What kind of woman could educate such a weird and intelligent child!

At this moment, Gale led the well-dressed Nicole to the piano competition.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 658

Chapter 658

She promised Nicole, after all.

She and Nicole came to the scene and sat under the stage to watch Joshua's performance Joshua was also very happy, more motivated, and raised his head arrogantly, proudly, and confidently!

In the family area.

"Joshua, come on!"

"You're the best!"

"We're waiting for you to win the championship!"

Nicole was so excited that she even bought a fluorescent stick and kept waving it for Joshua.

After Joshua saw it on stage, he made a face at her.

Looking at the interaction between the two children, Gale showed a rare sincere smile.

Joshua and Nicole will always be her happiness!

It was all her hope!

There are three rows in the family area.

Gale and Nicole sat in the last row as other parents took all the good seats.

Parents who could afford to send their children to learn piano and who could participate in competitions and enter the finals by virtue of their strength usually have families that are either rich or have status.

Therefore, the parents put all their efforts into dressing up glamorous, wearing tens of thousands of clothes, and carrying tens of thousands of dollars worth of bags. 1

Gale looked extraordinarily ordinary and low-key.

The T-shirt she was wearing was bought at a street stall in the night market, costing only a few dozen dollars.

As a result, the other parents looked down on her.

In addition... Joshua was the dark horse in this competition, stealing a lot of limelight and capturing the media's attention.

Before this competition, Joshua was not well-known. He had not won any prizes in any piano competitions, but this time he became a blockbuster and entered the finals at the youngest age!

Some people even commented that he would be the future Chopin!

Many people were paying attention to Joshua, ignoring the other contestants.

Nicole whispered in Gale's ear, "Mommy, am I too noisy? I saw the aunt next to me frown.

"It's okay, don't worry about it. You see, your brother is smiling at you."

Nicole nodded and waved the light stick more happily. "Come on, come on!"

At this time, the middle-aged woman next to her gave off a dissatisfied grunt.

The voice was loud, and it was intended for Gale to hear it.

Nicole looked at Gale, a little at a loss. "Mommy..."

"Shh, it's time for your brother to play, so let's not talk"

"Okay"

"Heh, what are you guys fussing about? Do you think this competition was made for you? You think your son can win?" The middle-aged woman sneered directly.

Gale never liked to cause trouble

However, this did not mean that she was afraid of trouble.

She even dared to offend Shawn before!

Now, this woman was bullying her. How could she bear it?

Why bother with that face? It was so ugly!

Gale smiled slightly. "I'm sorry, this championship is clearly made for my son. We celebrated in advance. We were a little excited, so our voices were a little louder, sorry. If you think it's noisy, I can lend you a pair of earphones."

She pointed and added, "Or there is still a vacant seat over there; you can sit there."

The middle-aged woman never expected that Gale was so eloquent!

Joshua's popularity skyrocketed because of the competition, and he was highly sought after. The parents also paid attention to Joshua's family background in private.

It turned out that he was just an ordinary child from a single-parent family!

All the parents were dissatisfied, thinking that the child they had carefully raised could not be compared to a three-year-old boy from a single-parent family.

Everyone did not think much of Gale.

At this time, several parents in the front row also turned their heads and glanced at Gale.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 659

Chapter 659

They all attacked Gale together

"You talk too big, Joshua's mom. "

"The competition has just started. How can you be sure that your son can win the championship?"

"Cows will fly then."

“It’s funny Can a three-year-old kid beat everyone?”

“Exactly My son has won third place in the piano competition in the southern region! What is your son to him?”

Everyone started attacking Gale to vent their anger.

Why did Joshua get all the limelight?

It was obvious that their family was inferior to others in every way, and they looked poor at first glance!

They must be taught a lesson!

Gale was neither humble nor overbearing.

She looked calm and did not pay attention to these people at all.

The only thing she was worried about was that it would cause a psychological shadow on Nicole.

“Nicole, Mommy is a little thirsty. Can you buy a bottle of water at the door? Don’t go too far,” Gale said.

“Mommy...”

“Go. I’ll be here.”

Nicole nodded, took the money, and went obediently.

As soon as she left, Gale was no longer afraid.

Her eyes swept over the few parents who had just spoken, quite imposing.

It came from the bones.

Several people were a little flustered by her eyes.

After all, she was a woman who had been with Shawn before, and Gale had also learned a bit of his calm and majestic aura.

“Everyone is still talking rudely. Joshua is just a child, and he participated in the competition fairly. As for whether he can win the championship, as a mother, I merely believe in my child’s ability,” Gale said.

Joshua’s energy was exactly the same as that of Shawn.

You will get what you want!

If you do it, you must do your best!

Only be the first!

The second was a failure!

This time, Joshua participated in the competition for the bonus, and he redoubled his efforts.

Based on Gale's understanding of her son, this championship must be in her son's pocket!

Some things are inscribed in genes.

Dragons give birth to dragons, and Joshua is Shawn's son!

How could it be bad?

"No one here dares to say that their child will definitely win the championship."

Gale shrugged. "That's because you are cowardly, and you don't have confidence in your child's ability."

She still remembered the reason why Joshua learned the piano.

At that time, there was a piano in the shopping mall, and someone improvised a song called 'Little Star'.

Unexpectedly, Joshua climbed onto the piano bench with a small body after listening to it once and playing it directly.

Every note was correct!

Such talent shocked Gale, and she signed him up to take piano lessons the next day.

He had natural talent!

"Okay, you are so confident. Do you dare to bet?"

"Yes, do you want to bet?"

"Do you dare to bet? Can you afford to bet?"

Gale nodded. "Why wouldn't I be? It's free money anyway. I'll bet whatever you want to bet, and how much money you want to bet, I'll bet as much as you want!"

Judging by what Gale was wearing, she must be poor.

How dare she gamble!

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 660

Chapter 660

They were even more intrigued now

The middle-aged woman next to her said, “Okay, let’s gamble!”

Gale agreed without changing her expression, looking very calm. “Okay Well, if Joshua wins the championship, each of you will give one thousand dollars. If he doesn’t win I’ll give you one thousand dollars each!”

“Such a small bet Why are you looking down at us.”

“Yes

“Gamble more

Gale laughed.

They were sending free money to her.

All right, then accept it!

Anyway, she had to pay a lot of medical expenses.

“Then you can say as much as you want. I can do it,” Gale replied.

“Everyone... five thousand dollars!”

She replied, “Okay.”

Seeing her so happy, the parents looked confused.

“Don’t play tricks, Joshua’s mom! There is no evidence for what you say... You have to sign a contract!”

Gale played on.

Not only had she written, signed, and pressed her fingerprint on the contract, but she also asked the parents who participated in the bet to sign.

In this way, when the competition was over, she could directly take this paper and ask for money one by one.

Seeing Gale's confidence, the parents were left speechless.

They could only stare at Gale.

Just during the intermission, Joshua rushed off the stage and ran toward her. "My baby!"

Gale said, "Oh, you are also my baby. This time, you have to compete well and win the championship."

Joshua looked at her in surprise. "Huh? Why are you so competitive all of a sudden?"

His mother had always been very low-key and did not want him to show off too much. She always liked to say, just do your best' and 'just be happy like a stoic.

Today she wanted him to win.

Gale took out the paper and showed it to him. "Look, this is a lot of money. I did the math, and ten people signed up to participate in the bet. If you win the championship, I can get fifty thousand dollars."

Nicole's medical expenses would be covered.

Who asked others to look down on them?

Joshua said, "That's a lot

Gale smiled "Yes, so you understand

Joshua stood at attention and saluted her "Yes, commander! I will make sure to complete the task!"

"Go"

At this time, Nicole also bought water and came back.

"Mommy, here Brother, do you want a drink? I'll buy it for you," she said.

Joshua's young heart was shocked again. "You actually called me brother?"

Despite them caring for each other, they were always not so courteous to each other.

After fighting for so many years, he did not expect Nicole to back down!

Nicole nodded "Yeah! Because you make money from competitions, share Mommy's hard work, and always make me happy when I'm sick, I admit that you are my brother, a man who is good at taking care. of others!"

Joshua scratched his head.

The sudden compliment made him a little uncomfortable.

"Brother is the best!"

"Yes! Nicole is great! Let's overcome the illness!"

Gale put one arm around her children and smiled happily.

When the finals officially started, the lights slowly went out.

The crisp and tinkling sound of the piano, like a clear spring day in the mountains, played throughout the halls.

There was a row of judges sitting under the stage, all of whom were respected old artists.

Joshua came on stage.
