

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 661

Chapter 661

The host passionately introduced, “The next player is the younger participant in this competition. He’s only three-years-old, but he has managed to stand out from the many contestants and attracted a lot of attention. He’s called a piano genius that comes out only once every century!”

“He’s a favorite to win it all and is the dark horse of this tournament. What will he do after this? Let’s wait and see”

“Come, let’s give the warmest applause and welcome, Joshua Warm!”

Everyone started to applaud loudly

Under the lights, Joshua wore a suit and tie as he earnestly walked toward the piano.

He sat on the bench and placed his hands on the white and black keys

Joshua took a deep breath before he looked at the host and nodded

The lights on the stage slowly dimmed, and only he was left illuminated

He looked incredibly pure.

first note was heard from Joshua’s fingertips, everyone below the stage exclaimed.

Quite a few judges even stood up with looks of excitement and appreciation on their faces!

What Joshua was playing was one of the hardest songs in the world, Piano Concerto No. 3

It was incredibly difficult, but Joshua took the challenge head-on!

He was playing it with such natural fluidity as well. He did not look like he was putting in any effort at all. He was immersed in the sea of music, and enjoying himself.

Yet, Nicole said with some worry, “Mommy..

“Yes?”

“Why is Joshua playing this song? He keeps on playing this song at home. It’s so annoying. Can he really win?” Nicole said with worry.

Gale smiled. “Yes”

The song known as the most difficult in the world was just a training tune for Joshua.

To him, this was not a tournament but a performance stage!

He wanted to captivate everyone!

At that moment, everyone was excited for him and proud of him as well!

He was a rising star in the piano world!

That tournament was being broadcasted to the whole world.

So, it was being shown on various big screens, in public areas, and on every street. Piano Concerto No. 3 was heard everywhere!

“Stop the car,” Shawn suddenly said.

The driver did so. “Mr. Wood, what is it?”

Shawn lowered the window and looked at the large screen in front of the mall.

Joe noticed as well. “Who is that? To be able to play this song at such a young age and play it with such emotion as well. He’s really extraordinary. He’s a young genius! I can’t believe such a genius is at this place.”

Shawn looked like a proud father. “I know him.”

“What? How do you know him? Joe asked.

Shawn did not answer. He earnestly looked at Joshua’s performance.

Yes, performance.

It was as if no one remembered that Joshua was actually at a tournament.

Shawn got out of the car, and looked at the screen, just like many people at the plaza.

As the final note fell, Joshua’s hands returned to his side. He looked at the screen and smiled politely.

He jumped off the bench and bowed, looking very gentlemanly.

His calm, composed, and unafraid manner was something many adults could not even compete with.

Shawn smiled and said, “Is this still that little brat I know?”

The Joshua he knew would climb on his legs to ask him if he wanted to be Joshua's father. Joshua was a child who was not intimidated by him at all.

He was also a brave child who never gave in and was daring enough to fight a whole group just by himself.

The Joshua he was looking at that moment had the eyes of many on him, shining bright like a star.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 662

Chapter 661

The host passionately introduced, "The next player is the younger participant in this competition. He's only three-years-old, but he has managed to stand out from the many contestants and attracted a lot of attention. He's called a piano genius that comes out only once every century!"

"He's a favorite to win it all and is the dark horse of this tournament. What will he do after this? Let's wait and see"

"Come, let's give the warmest applause and welcome, Joshua Warm!"

Everyone started to applaud loudly

Under the lights, Joshua wore a suit and tie as he earnestly walked toward the piano.

He sat on the bench and placed his hands on the white and black keys

Joshua took a deep breath before he looked at the host and nodded

The lights on the stage slowly dimmed, and only he was left illuminated

He looked incredibly pure.

first note was heard from Joshua's fingertips, everyone below the stage exclaimed.

Quite a few judges even stood up with looks of excitement and appreciation on their faces!

What Joshua was playing was one of the hardest songs in the world, Piano Concerto No. 3

It was incredibly difficult, but Joshua took the challenge head-on!

He was playing it with such natural fluidity as well. He did not look like he was putting in any effort at all. He was immersed in the sea of music, and enjoying himself.

Yet, Nicole said with some worry, “Mommy..

“Yes?”

“Why is Joshua playing this song? He keeps on playing this song at home. It’s so annoying. Can he really win?” Nicole said with worry.

Gale smiled. “Yes”

The song known as the most difficult in the world was just a training tune for Joshua.

To him, this was not a tournament but a performance stage!

He wanted to captivate everyone!

At that moment, everyone was excited for him and proud of him as well!

He was a rising star in the piano world!

That tournament was being broadcasted to the whole world.

So, it was being shown on various big screens, in public areas, and on every street. Piano Concerto No. 3 was heard everywhere!

“Stop the car,” Shawn suddenly said.

The driver did so. “Mr. Wood, what is it?”

Shawn lowered the window and looked at the large screen in front of the mall.

Joe noticed as well. “Who is that? To be able to play this song at such a young age and play it with such emotion as well. He’s really extraordinary. He’s a young genius! I can’t believe such a genius is at this place.”

Shawn looked like a proud father. “I know him.”

“What? How do you know him? Joe asked.

Shawn did not answer. He earnestly looked at Joshua’s performance.

Yes, performance.

It was as if no one remembered that Joshua was actually at a tournament.

Shawn got out of the car, and looked at the screen, just like many people at the plaza.

As the final note fell, Joshua's hands returned to his side. He looked at the screen and smiled politely.

He jumped off the bench and bowed, looking very gentlemanly.

His calm, composed, and unafraid manner was something many adults could not even compete with.

Shawn smiled and said, "Is this still that little brat I know?"

The Joshua he knew would climb on his legs to ask him if he wanted to be Joshua's father. Joshua was a child who was not intimidated by him at all.

He was also a brave child who never gave in and was daring enough to fight a whole group just by himself.

The Joshua he was looking at that moment had the eyes of many on him, shining bright like a star.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 663

Chapter 663

No one dared to say anything around them.

Those who had worked together to bully Gale had completely forgotten all about it.

Just thinking about the prize money she would get, Gale was even happier.

They were going to get both money and reputation!

It had been so long, and there was finally some good news for the whole family!

"Alright, alright. Judges, please don't get too excited for now. Let's allow Joshua to rest first. As for becoming a student... You can talk about it after the tournament," the host said.

Joshua suddenly raised his hand.

The host knelt down and passed the microphone over. "Come, Joshua has something to say."

“Thank you, judges, for your favor, but I don’t want to affect the later contestants. Let’s finish the tournament fairly first. Thank you,” Joshua said

He bowed before leaving the stage in a cool manner.

The contestants after Joshua were under a lot of pressure.

That was because no one could play a song better than his!

It was the hardest song in the world!

He had done it when he was three!

A genius! It was an incredibly rare genius!

After all the contestants were done, it was the judging stage.

For the sake of a fair tournament, the points, in the end, were split into two parts.

The judges would give out seventy percent of the score.

Meanwhile, the audience got to vote, and it took up thirty percent.

The two results would be added together, and the person who got the most points would be the champion!

The judges had all left the venue beforehand and gave their scores in the meeting room.

“There’s no doubt about it. Joshua will be in the first place.”

“That’s right. If he’s not in the first place, something must be happening behind the scenes!”

*Joshua can’t be matched both from a professional and an entertainment standpoint!”

Gale was already confident in Joshua. Now that the tournament had ended, she was even more relaxed.

She just needed to wait for the prizes!

After half an hour, the judges announced their scores.

*Joshua Warm, 9.8 points average.”

Nicole heard that and asked in a childish tone, “Why didn’t Joshua get full marks?”

Gale thought about it and explained, “Yes. That’s because not everyone will like his song. Everyone has their own favorites, and no one is the same

Nicole nodded, but she was unsure if she understood.

In truth, Gale wondered the same thing.

Normally, Joshua should not have any problems scoring full marks thanks to that song.

However, the contestants after that were all around 9.5 points.

Gale felt like the judges were probably just very strict.

Then, the host announced the name of the next contestant. He paused for a moment before saying loudly, “9.9 points! The highest score has appeared!”

Suddenly, the venue was completely incredulous.

What?

That participant was not too bad, but compared to Joshua, the distance was incredibly evident!

How did he get a score like that?!

Gale was stunned.

The other parents all started to come alive when they heard that. They completely lost their looks of hopelessness.

“Hey, it looks like there’s always someone better.”

“Joshua’s mother, you should think about how you’re going to pay for the bet.”

“9.9 points. Did you hear that?”

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 664

Chapter 664

They started to mock Gale coldly again.

Gale did not bother with them. Instead, she frowned as she looked over at Joshua.

He furrowed his little eyebrows a bit, but he still maintained his natural composure.

At that moment, the screen showed all the audience votes.

The votes were rapidly increasing.

Joshua was firmly in the first place.

Gale quickly calculated in her head. The judges' score took up seventy percent of the points, so being 0.1 points lower, how much would Joshua need in terms of votes to secure first place?

She was quite anxious, so her mind did not work as well as it usually did.

Before Gale could finish calculating, Nicole suddenly pointed at the screen and shouted, "Mommy, look!"

She saw the number of votes behind Joshua's name rapidly increasing.

Before a minute passed, Joshua's votes had already exceeded the votes the second place got by three times!

He was firmly in the first place!

The voting period was already counting down.

"Ten, nine, eight, seven..."

When time stopped, and the votes stopped coming in, Joshua's name was firmly in the first place!

Gale did not even need to bother counting the numbers.

Compared to the 0.1 point difference from the judges, tens of thousands of votes were worth so much more!

Joshua placing first had been firmly confirmed by the audience!

Gale never expected that the viewers in front of the TVs and various screens were all shouting out injustice during the voting period. They did everything they could to protect Joshua.

"Isn't this clearly something behind the scenes at play?! The one with 9.9 points is clearly doing something!"

“Let’s vote! We have to make sure Joshua gets first place!”

“Yes, vote for him! Everyone, vote for him!”

“I refuse to believe we can’t beat the 9.9 point!”

*Joshua is the first place in our hearts! No one else can even dream about it!”

There was no longer any need to count the score.

Joshua was in the first place!

He was definitely the champion!

However, Joshua’s expression was very calm the whole time.

He merely looked at the screen silently.

He knew very well how that 0.1 point difference came about.

He was a smart boy. He already knew how the points system in the tournament went.

Someone must have bought two of the judges, and they gave him low points to pull down his score, which was how he got 9.8 points.

The participant with 9.9 points might not have scored full marks, but the judges gave him more or less the same scores, so the participant was able to exceed Joshua.

The person who did all of that probably never expected that even if the judges could be bought, the ones watching the tournament still had sharp eyes!

The audience at the venue was incredibly excited. They shouted out, “Joshua, champion! Joshua, Champion!”

Someone led the way, and a lot of them started to cheer with him.

The tournament venue seemed to turn into Joshua’s personal concert.

In the end, Joshua was still the winner.

There were some who liked it, but some people were concerned about it.

The award ceremony started. Joshua stood in the middle of the stage, accepting the trophy and wearing the crown before he took the certificate.

He was the champion!

He was a worthy champion!

The host said, "Congratulations! Congratulations to Joshua Warm for winning the tournament! With his Piano Concerto No.3, he managed to win over the judges and win over the audiences in front of their screens!"

"Let's celebrate this piano genius! Tonight, the spotlight is firmly on him!"

Joshua was incredibly calm in front of such a large celebration and so many cheers. He did not reveal that much emotion on his face.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 665

Chapter 665

He already knew he would win the tournament anyway.

It was something completely within his expectations.

Gale let out a slight smile at his son's cool expression. However, she felt a pang in her heart.

He was so much like Shawn.

The two of them were so alike. They were never surprised by anything. No matter what, they were always calm. It was as if nothing could shake their hearts.

Why are you acting so cool for?! Brat, you can cheer and shout. You're the champion!

That was what went through Gale's mind.

"Alright, everyone, let's listen to what Joshua has to say as the champion."

Taking the mic, Joshua said co**ly. "Thank you, everyone. Thank you for all those big brothers, big sisters, aunties, uncles, grandpas and grandmas who voted for me."

The host said, "You can tell us how you feel about becoming the champion."

"Oh, I have nothing to say. I already knew I would win anyway," Joshua answered.

Those words were so arrogant.

They were even more arrogant than how Gale had acted in front of those parents!

1

The host never expected Joshua to say something like that. Even the experienced host was stunned.

“Then... Joshua,” For the sake of the show, the host asked, “Do you have anyone you want to thank?”

His eyes flashed. “Yes!”

“Alright, you can thank them right now!”

Joshua seemed very interested at that moment. He took the microphone. “Of course, the first person I want to thank would be my beloved mother. Without her, I wouldn’t be standing on this stage right now.”

Gale never expected something so touching would happen.

She had thought that she would be able to smile and face everything. She never expected to be so touched that her eyes would start tearing up.

The camera suddenly swept over.

The director seemed to be looking for Joshua’s mother.

Gale saw the camera and panicked. She immediately pulled up her mask and lowered her head!

However, Joshua’s voice could still be heard.

“My mommy is the most beautiful, most gentle and most amazing woman in the world. I love her so much. I want to tell her that she’s really worked hard raising my sister and me.

“I don’t tell her that usually because I feel like it’s icky. I’m a guy. How could I say I love her every day?!”

The audience laughed at that.

*However, right now, in front of so many people, I want to tell my beloved mommy one thing. I love you!”

Joshua looked at the camera and said with a clear voice, “She’s beautiful and fragrant like a flower. She’s so charming. Mommy, I really love you!”

The host smiled and asked, “What’s your mother called?”

“My mother is called Molly!”

“Really? What a special name.”

Joshua was very proud. “Of course, the most beautiful mommy deserves the most special name!”

At the plaza, Shawn’s gaze stared right at the screen.

He heard it clearly!

Joshua had said that his mother was called Molly!

Shawn was very familiar with that name!

He had been looking for that woman!

Shawn could not believe that Molly was actually so close!

“Joe, did you hear that?” Shawn said.

“Oh, I did.”

There was no way Joe could deny it.

He was not deaf!

People were starting to talk about Molly’s name as well.

It was all done for.

Joe never expected Molly to be exposed by Joshua like that!

Joshua really was Gale’s son!

So, Gale had two children!

One boy and one girl!

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 666

Chapter 666

G**ds!

Joe was shocked yet again!

Gale had a set of twins back then!”

Aurum had hidden it so well, only telling Joe that Nicole had leukemia but not saying anything about Joshua.

Joe never expected it at all.

After all, just the existence of Nicole alone was shocking enough.

No wonder he kept on feeling like Joshua really looked like Shawn. He had thought that he was overthinking things.

It turned out that his thoughts were absolutely correct!

Furthermore, Joshua Warm. His surname was Warm!

That was Gale’s name too!

Joe was completely shocked at that moment.

His face constantly twitched. If it were any other moment, Shawn would have noticed it.

However, at that moment, Shawn was also deep in shock.

Fate really was hard to explain.

“Molly, so she’s Joshua’s mother!” Shawn stared at the screen. “This time, Molly won’t be able to escape!”

No wonder Joshua suddenly appeared in the room when he and Arthur were in the room.

Molly had brought him there!

Shawn thought about it. When the other children bullied Joshua, he should have followed Joshua home!

It was fine. It was not too late!

On the screen, the host asked, “Where’s Joshua’s mother? Come, wave to the camera so everyone can get to know you. Your son won the tournament, and you were the first person he thanked. You must be very proud as a mother!”

The camera turned into the family area.

Shawn stared right at the screen.

He wanted to see Molly appear.

He wanted to see what kind of woman she was!

Even Joe’s hands were sweating at that moment.

It was way too tense of a moment. Gale, don’t appear on screen!

Otherwise, it would be pandemonium!

The host asked, “Joshua’s mother? Where are you? Wave at us, please.”

The camera kept on sweeping through everyone.

However, no one stood up in the end.

Joshua said, “My mommy is shy. You don’t have to look for her! I still have a lot to say. I can tell her when I go home!”

The director was a bit disappointed that they could not find Joshua.

Otherwise, the touching scene between Joshua and his mother would definitely make their ratings soar.

Shawn suddenly turned around to leave.

“Hey, Shawn! Where are you going?!” Joe shouted.

“To the venue!”

He was there for Molly. Since he knew where Molly was, and Joshua was Molly’s son, Shawn would hurry over!

The chance was right there. He could not miss out!

He could not even let a single second slip by!

At the venue, Gale held Nicole's hand in a corner, standing in the dark.

No one noticed her, and the camera did not pan over at all.

Gale breathed a sigh of relief.

The camera had almost found her.

She could not appear on TV! She could not!

Otherwise, those familiar with her would immediately recognize her!

So, the moment Joshua mentioned her name, Gale immediately picked Nicole up and left in a hurry!

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 667

Chapter 667

The moment Gale left, the camera panned over!

If she had just been two seconds late, she would not have been able to escape!

It was incredibly lucky!

Gale patted her chest, still a bit worried. "I forgot to tell Joshua not to mention my name when he gets his prize..."

Thankfully, he said she was Molly and not Gale!

Otherwise, she would not be able to do anything! There would be no saving the situation!

"Mommy, why are we standing here?" Nicole asked.

"Because... Because... Once Joshua gets his prize, he'll leave here. We're just waiting for him."

Nicole nodded. "We can go home with him!"

After that, Nicole corrected herself, "No, go back to the hospital!"

Gale patted her head. "We'll eat a good meal with Mrs. Zoe to celebrate Joshua winning!"

“Okay!”

The finals were over, but Gale had forgotten about one thing.

After the tournament, the first two places need to be interviewed by the media!

The interview lasted an hour!

She called the director, “Hello, I am Joshua’s mother.”

“Oh, hello. Why weren’t you at the family area when Joshua won and thank you?”

“I’m sorry, I happened to be in the toilet.”

The director said, “You really are something else. You just disappeared during such an important moment for your son.”

Gale laughed awkwardly. “Director, it’s like this. We still have something else to do, and we’re in a hurry. Could you cancel Joshua’s interview?”

The director answered, “How could I do that?! The media is already waiting for Joshua outside. I have no way to tell them anything if you just ask me to cancel it.”

“Is it really necessary?”

The director said, “Absolutely! Where are you? I’ll have someone get you. It’ll be even better if you’re there for the interviews.”

Gale wanted to reject it, but the director seemed to guess her intentions. “Wouldn’t it be bad if you didn’t appear at all as Joshua’s mother?”

She could not go!

Thinking about it, Gale answered, “Alright, I’ll go over later.”

Hanging up, Gale Immediately contacted Zoe.

At a secluded area outside, the two of them met each other. She told Zoe, “Take my place later and attend the interview with Joshua. I’ll bring Nicole back to the hospital first.”

“Alright. Don’t worry, Gale, leave it to me.”

Zoe had always been very reliable with everything. Gale did not want to delay things anymore. “Then let’s meet at the hospital.”

After Zoe agreed, she turned around and entered the back door, going to the interview.

She would appear as Joshua's grandmother!

Nicole looked at Zoe leaving. "Mommy, aren't we going to wait for Joshua? Why are we going back to the hospital?"

"I'll explain it to you later. Come, let's go get a taxi."

Nicole was a bit reluctant. She pouted but still obediently followed Gale.

A black Maybach drove past quickly when they were almost on the street.

Gale had not noticed it initially, but the Maybach made a U-turn not far away and headed straight over.

Looking at a luxury car like that, Gale could not help but think about Shawn.

She was suddenly on alert as she pulled Nicole back and stood against the wall.

The car stopped in front of the tournament venue.

The door opened, and a pair of long legs could be seen getting off, walking incredibly quickly.

Gale's eyes widened at the figure!

Shawn!

It was him!

How could he appear here?!

They were only a hundred meters apart!

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 668

Chapter 668

They were too close!

Gale immediately looked away and turned around to face her back toward him. She knelt down and put Nicole in front of her!

“Mommy?” Nicole looked at Gale with a questioning gaze

“Oh, I saw someone I really hate. I don’t want him to notice me, Nicole, shield me, okay?” Gale said..

Nicole heard it and looked over “Who is it?”

“Don’t move. Don’t look over.” Gale’s heart was beating rapidly. “Just wait for him to leave!”

Last time, she had almost met Shawn. There was only one door away.

This time, there was nothing between them!

If Shawn had just looked over, he would immediately see her!

Then, it would depend on whether he recognized her!

If he did, then Gale wondered what she would do.

Would she run?

Would she be able to escape?

If she ran, would that not show that she was guilty?

Then, Shawn would definitely run after her.

If she did not run, then what would Shawn do if he saw her? Was she supposed to wait for him to get her?

Gale had countless thoughts in her head!

Why? The world was so big, and she had hidden so far away, but she still ended up meeting Shawn!

Gale did not even dare to move, letting Nicole stay in front of her. She lowered her head, and her eyes only dared to look at Nicole’s shirt.

“Mommy, don’t be afraid. I’ll protect you!” Nicole consoled her.

“Alright, Nicole. I’m not afraid...”

Shawn walked right inside. His gaze was fixed forward, and he did not look around at all.

The only thing on his mind at that moment was to see Joshua!

If he met Joshua, he would be able to meet Molly!

Molly would not be able to hide!

“Shawn, Shawn, wait for me. Why are you in such a hurry? It’s not like they will run away!” Joe said.

Gale was shocked to hear Joe’s voice.

Why was he there too?!

He came with Shawn!

“She will. If I’m any later, i won’t be able to see Molly,” Shawn answered.

“She’s just a designer. Isn’t it fine if you don’t see her?” Joe said, already catching up with Shawn.

However, the guards by the door stopped them.

“Please show your tickets. Otherwise, you can show your invitation as well. There’s no entry otherwise!” the guard said.

Shawn had a cold smirk on his face.

He never expected he would ever be stopped like that!

He was allowed to go anywhere in Sea City. No one would ever stop him!

“I don’t have one. But I have to go in!” Shawn answered.

The guards looked at him and noticed that Shawn seemed incredibly rich. The car he was in was not cheap either, so he looked important.

“Please, enter!” The guard immediately had a different look on his face. “I’m sorry, I was blind. Who are you looking for?”

“Joshua Warm.”

“Oh, so it’s the winner! He’s backstage right now. He’s about to be interviewed by the media!” the guard said.

Shawn walked right inside.

Joe followed behind him.

They started to sound further and further away.

Shawn never looked to the side at all from the moment he got out of the car.

He only had Joshua and Molly on his mind.

In truth, as long as he tilted his head slightly, he would have noticed a little girl with her back facing him at a corner of the street.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 669

Chapter 669

In front of the little girl, a woman was kneeling down. He would be able to see the corner of her shirt.

However, with how familiar Shawn was with Gale, he would definitely have noticed something.

Unfortunately, he was only looking forward.

Gale was completely stiff, and she did not move at all.

She only dared to look up when she stopped hearing any footsteps.

Only a few idle guards were chatting outside the entrance.

Shawn and Joe were gone.

Enter title...

Gale was sweating.

It was so close...

“Come!” She hurriedly got up and held Nicole’s hand, hailing a taxi. “Sir, bring us to the hospital.”

“Alright!”

Gale only breathed a sigh of relief when the taxi left the street.

Why was Shawn there again?

What was he doing there?

Even if he noticed the tournament and heard Joshua saying that Joshua’s mother was Molly, surely he would not be able to make it here so quickly!

It was at least two hours away by flight from Sea City!

So, there was only one possibility: Shawn was already there in the first place!

He was there again!

Why did he keep coming here?!

Was it just to get her to join the Wood Group?

Was she worth it to him coming himself?

His bone marrow was compatible with Nicole’s, so Gale had been wondering how she could save Nicole.

At the same time, she was waiting for news for any donors.

If Shawn were the only one who was compatible with Nicole, then Gale would have to look for him for Nicole’s sake.

Gale shut her eyes.

At the interview area, the reporters were all there. They had prepared the questions and were ready to interview the piano genius, Joshua.

When Joshua appeared, the cameras did not stop flashing.

Joshua was incredibly calm and even greeted the journalists. He did not seem nervous at all.

“Do you have anything you want to say after winning?”

“Do you think talent is more important than hard work?”

“You’re the youngest person to ever win this tournament. What do you think about that?”

“How much time did you spend practicing the song called the hardest in the world?”

The journalists threw question after question at Joshua.

At that moment, the whole country had its attention on him!

Any news related to Joshua would definitely generate a lot of clicks!

Joshua leaned closer to the microphone and answered, “I learned that song after practicing one or two times.”

Everyone was shocked to hear that.

He learned it just after practicing once or twice!

Another journalist asked, “When you thanked your mother on stage, the camera panned over, but she wasn’t there. Were you sad?”

“What’s there to be sad about?”

“Where’s your family then? You are getting interviewed. Are they not going to show up?”

Joshua’s gaze swept over the venue and pointed at the last row. “My grandma is here!”

Grandma?

Everyone looked over and saw Zoe.

Zoe smiled kindly. “Thank you for the attention, everyone. You should just keep interviewing him. I have nothing much to say. Our family is quite ordinary, and we don’t need that much attention.”

It was Zoe’s first time at such a place, but she knew how to be discreet.

She just needed to speak less.

At that moment, the door suddenly opened behind Zoe.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 670

Chapter 670

A silver-haired man appeared in front of everyone.

He had a high-end, custom-made suit on. His expression was cold, and he looked like a beautiful sculpture.

He was an absolutely beautiful specimen of a man!

Shawn pursed his lips as he looked at Joshua in the middle of the interview area.

Their eyes met.

“We meet again, brat,” he said.

Joshua looked at him and blinked, rubbing his eyes.

Why was that old man here?!

Enter title...

The journalists seemed to have found some important clue, and all of them ran toward Shawn.

“Who are you to Joshua?”

“Did you play any part in him winning the tournament?”

“Why did you only appear now? What relationship do you have with Joshua? If Suddenly, there were a lot of people in front of Shawn.

The guards hurriedly ran over to maintain order. “Stand back, stand back. Don’t crowd.”

Shawn walked past the crowd and headed right for Joshua.

Joshua said, “Why are you here?”

“I came to find you.”

“Me?” Joshua pointed at himself. “Did you see me on the TV?”

“Yes, I saw your performance.”

Joshua immediately held his head up high. “So? Aren’t I quite good? I’m not just a boy who only knows how to fight. I just haven’t shown you how amazing I am yet!”

“That’s true, there’s so much about you that I never expected,” Shawn said.

“It’s fine. I’ll slowly show it all to you!”

Joshua liked that strange white-haired old man quite a bit.

Joshua remembered how Shawn had helped him earlier.

Like his beloved mother says, debts must be repaid!

“Alright, but I have something very important I need your help with.” Shawn nodded.

Joshua guaranteed, “As long as I can do it, I’ll definitely help you!”

“Of course, you can do it because it’s very easy. I want to meet your mother. Bring me there.” Shawn’s lips curled up as he looked into Joshua’s eyes.

Joshua was stunned.

“What? You can’t do something so simple? You even told me so confidently that you would help me.” Shawn looked at him.

Joshua’s eyes darted all over.

All the while, Gale repeatedly warned him not to use her real name outside.

If any strangers wanted to meet Gale, he had to reject them. He could not agree and could not bring them home.

Joshua remembered it clearly.

So, he could not agree to Shawn’s request!

However...

“Fine, you can meet my mommy, but there’s one condition!” Joshua agreed immediately, even hugging Shawn’s leg.

“Tell me.”

“Be my father!”

When Joe heard that, he almost fell down and knelt down in front of Joshua.

Listen to what was being said!

He was about to die of fear!

Shawn was Joshua’s father in the first place!

Joe felt like he was going to die. He knew too many secrets but could not tell anyone!

It was torture!

Shawn narrowed his eyes. “I told you last time. I can’t be your father.”

“Shawn, no wonder you keep on wanting to come to this city. Someone wants you to be their dad!” Joe purposely joked.

“Stop messing around.”

“It’s just the truth. Who wouldn’t like a smart boy like him?”

Joshua nodded. “That’s right, that’s right. This handsome guy next to you is right!”

