

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 711 - 720

Chapter 711

“Gale, leave it to me, I will definitely find the bone marrow for Nicole!”

Gale looked at him and said, “The probability of matching is higher for immediate family members. Shawn, I have checked all the medical banks, and there was no match. Right. now... only your bone marrow may be able to save Nicole.”

Shawn agreed without hesitation, “I will arrange for an examination tomorrow. Once they match, I will send Nicole to the hospital immediately to prepare for the transplant operation!”

Hearing these words, Gale’s heart, which had been on hold for so long, could finally fall to the ground.

She was finally relieved.

She did not have to worry anymore, and Nicole will soon be able to get rid of the torment of the disease!

Gale looked at him. “I can only rely on you... Shawn, Nicole is still so young and her life hasn’t even started yet. I must save her and let her recover.”

“Don’t worry, with me here, nothing will happen to Nicole!”

His daughter is so delicate and precious, and she must live a happy and carefree life!

If his bone marrow does not match, he will use bone marrow banks across the country and even the world to find a matching bone marrow for Nicole!

At this moment, Shawn realized that... the reason why Gale came back was because Nicole was suffering from leukemia.

She had to return to Sea City, find him, and check if his bone marrow matched.

Only he, with countless resources and connections, can provide Nicole with top medical resources!

Thinking about it, Shawn still felt heartbroken.

The reason for her return was never because of him.

She never cared about him either.

However, Shawn chose to ask.

He still asked, "Gale, if... Nicole hadn't been sick, you would never have returned to Sea City, right?"

"Yes."

Gale answered so decisively.

There was not even the slightest hesitation.

Shawn closed his eyes. "Even if you lie to me, even if... you pause for a moment, then yes..."

He was in too much pain.

In her heart, it turned out that he was so worthless!

say

"What's there to lie about?" Gale chuckled and replied sarcastically, "I just wanted to escape from you all my life, but because of our daughter, I had to come back to you!"

She hated it, but she had no other choice.

The entanglement between her and Shawn was reconnected after four years of cutting it off!

As for Shawn, he was very fortunate to have this child.

He used to refuse to divorce because he wanted her to conceive a child with her to hold her back.

Once a woman has a child, she has a home and can never go away.

Now, Shawn's wish... had come true.

Shawn looked at her with clear eyes. "Gale, this is our child, proof of our relationship, and the crystallization of our marriage... Nicole will recover, and you will be fine too. Live with me in this world."

He once thought that his Gale would only be alive in his heart.

However, she was standing in front of him so truly.

Shawn did not want her to live in his heart, and he wanted her to live in this world.

Feeling the wind blowing, feeling the fragrance of flowers, watching the sunrise and sunset...

She suddenly covered her face, choked up and asked, "Shawn, will you return Nicole... to me?"

"Return her to you?"

Gale sobbed softly. "Yes. After she has finished the operation, let me leave with Nicole and never for us to cross paths again."

She knew that what she asked was childish, vexatious, and fantastical.

There was no way Shawn would agree.

Chapter 712

He was so selfish and conceited, and he wanted to satisfy his personal wishes so much. How could he let her leave with Nicole.

However, Gale still had the slightest hope.

She wanted to ask.

Maybe... Maybe Shawn would agree?

Perhaps, in the past four years, his temperament has changed greatly, and he has matured a lot?

Shawn fell silent.

There was silence all around, so quiet that Gale's breathing could be heard.

Gale felt that she was really ridiculous and she was humiliating herself here...

She shook her head and said, "Forget it. Just pretend I didn't say anything!"

"Gale, why are you still thinking about leaving me?"

Gale put down her hand that was covering her face and looked straight at him.

"Because I hate you! Are you satisfied with this answer?"

"You still... Do you still hate me?"

"Yes! I hate you all the time! I will never be able to forgive you!"

Shawn asked, "Then what should I do, so that you will try to let go of the past hatred and... forgive me?"

"Let me go, give me freedom, and let me live with Nicole. If you do this, I will consider forgiving you! But you... can't do it!" Gale replied.

Shawn fell silent again.

Her desire to escape from him still existed.

It had been four years, and it had not decreased at all. Instead, it has gotten stronger day by day.

"Gale, in your heart, how much crime have I committed to make you so unwilling to forgive me..."

Gale stared into his eyes and replied, "I ask you, if a person imprisoned you in a meal hospital for two years, sent your father to prison, indirectly killed your mother, and even killed your child with his own hands, and he..."

"Gale, stop talking..."

"Everything I said was done by you. Why? Do you dare not face it yourself?"

Gale looked at him coldly and walked past him.

When they passed by each other, she raised her eyebrows and said, "I never thought that four years ago we quarreled over this issue, and when we met again four years later, we would still be arguing over this issue. Shawn, from before to now, you have always let me down."

A huge gh was torn open in his heart, dripping with blood.

The wind blew.

She always has a way, with a simple sentence, to hurt him the most.

Gale just wanted to be free, to live.

Shawn thought that he could really consider fulfilling her wish.

He did not want something as dangerous as her jumping into the sea to happen again!

However, the most important thing right now was to cure Nicole's illness first!

He would let her go when Nicole recovered and became like a normal child.

Shawn turned around, wanting to say something, but Gale was nowhere to be seen.

His pupils shrank. "Gale? Where is she?"

Was she not still here just now?

Could it be his dream? Hallucination?

Was she back at all?

"I'm going upstairs. It's time for Nicole to go to sleep."

Aurum leaned lazily on the back of the chair and folded his arms. "Mr. Wood, do you still want to ask about Molly's whereabouts?"

"Even if Molly is not Gale, your relationship with Molly is absolutely extraordinary!"

"Mr. Wood... you still insist on finding Molly?"

Chapter 713

Shawn pointed at the door. "Get out!"

"Are you letting me go now? Are you sure?" Aurum slowly stood up and said, "Let me just

say

this first, congratulations to Mr. Wood... You have a wife and daughter now."

In Shawn's ears, there was a sense of sarcasm.

However, he did not have the time and thought to argue much with Aurum.

Nicole's illness and Gale's return were enough to occupy all his energy!

On the second floor.

After Nicole fell asleep, Gale walked out of the room.

Peter was waiting for her in the corridor.

Looking at her, Peter wanted to say a lot, but when he swallowed them all.

He was worried about the walls having ears.

If Shawn knew that jumping into the sea was a premeditated plan to help Gale escape, he was afraid there would be a bloodbath.

No one can accept the feeling of being deceived for four years and kept in the dark!

Peter patted her on the shoulder. "You have come back... It's fine, it's fine. Gale, you have suffered all these years."

"Dad, I have a good life, but I can't be by your side. I am sorry I am not filial."

"I love you, let's not talk about it."

Gale said, "Okay."

Peter asked, "Nicole's illness... Why didn't I know about it beforehand? Aurum didn't mention it?"

"I was afraid you would be worried, so I didn't plan to tell you."

Peter said worriedly, "I feel sorry for such a small child... Gale, what if we don't find a matching bone marrow?"

Gale said in a low voice, "Dad, I confirmed the bone marrow match with Shawn a long time ago, so I came back with Nicole."

Peter was surprised and delighted. "Really?"

"After the transplant, Nicole will get better."

Peter repeatedly nodded and finally smiled.

Peter said, "Okay, you should rest first. Let's talk about it tomorrow."

Gale was also exhausted.

After a day of tossing around, she returned to Sea City and found Shawn and Aurum both there at the door. She had to maintain a high level of vigilance and not say anything wrong lest it aroused Shawn's suspicion.

She was physically tired but more so mentally tired.

Gale walked into the bedroom. The curtains were open, and the moonlight came in dimly and softly.

She reached out to close the curtains, but she caught sight of Shawn, who was standing downstairs.

He leaned against the front of the car, crossed his long legs, and held a cigarette between his fingertips. The cigarette stick lingered, but he did not smoke.

He just kept his head up until she appeared in front of the window.

Seeing her, the corners of Shawn's mouth immediately curled up slightly.

The cold moonlight reflected on his silver hair, making him look like a knight in the dark, guarding his treasure!

Gale was his treasure!

"Gale," he said, calling to her.

It was far away, and Gale could not hear him clearly, but she knew from reading his lips.

What was he doing downstairs at night?!

Gale did not bother to talk to him, so she just raised her hand and pulled the heavy curtains tightly without leaving a single gap!

She went to take a bath and put on some skin care. When she was about to lie down, she saw the window screen fluttering, and her heart moved again.

Shawn should have gone away, right?

Could it be that he wanted to stay the night?

After thinking about it, Gale could not hold back her curiosity and stealthily opened a corner of the curtain.

Shawn was still there!

Although Gale knew that she hid well, Shawn kept looking at her window, and she always had a feeling of being discovered.

Forget it. He could do whatever he wanted, and she would let him do it!

Chapter 714

Even if he were out here all night, it would have nothing to do with her!

The night was dark, and the wind blew with a chill.

Shawn insisted on staying, and he felt that he was unprecedentedly at ease.

"I used to stay with your tombstone all night long at the back mountain, but now... Gale, I can be with the real you now," Shawn said out loud to himself.

He was very satisfied.

He was willing to stay up every night and just guarded her window like this.

Like a young man in love.

Only by having it again after losing it could he know how to cherish it!

The next day, Gale came to Nicole's room and gently touched her forehead.

Normal body temperature, no fever.

"Nicole, get up. We are going to the hospital today," she called softly.

Nicole raised her hand and rubbed her eyes. "Mommy, didn't we just come out of the hospital?"

"This is the last time."

Nicole sat up from the bed abruptly after hearing this. "Really?"

Gale said, "Yes, how could Mommy lie to you? As long as you cooperate obediently and listen to the doctor's words, you don't need to be hospitalized anymore!"

"Okay!"

Nicole immediately became motivated, dressed, brushed her teeth and washed her face. alone, without Gale's help.

Even Peter praised, "Nicole can take care of herself at such a young age, she's so good."

Gale's twins were so smart, clever and cute.

Peter came over and said quietly, "Shawn is already waiting downstairs."

He came so early?

Or did he not leave at all last night?

Gale shook her head. She was thinking about what to do.

What she cared about was when Nicole's bone marrow transplant could be performed!

Nicole picked out a pink princess dress by herself, tied a bow in her hair, and bounced downstairs.

However, she immediately turned around after seeing Shawn and ran back to Gale.

Oh no, Daddy is here too.

Seeing Nicole like this, Shawn felt unspeakably unhappy.

The daughter rejected him so much and was afraid of him, how should he get along with her in the future.

"Gale, the hospital has already made arrangements. He is the top pediatrician in the country to operate on Nicole. The car is waiting outside, you can go there at any time."

She said lightly, "Got it."

Shawn still wanted to talk to her and listen to her voice more, but seeing her indifference, he could only keep silent so that she would not find him annoying.

Nicole did not want to talk to him either.

Peter treated him as a transparent person.

Here, Shawn had no sense of presence at all.

However, he was willing.

Seeing Gale bring food to Nicole, then turning their heads to talk from time to time, and the atmosphere at the table was harmonious, Shawn felt great satisfaction.

It was a beautiful thing to be with them quietly like this.

The time he spent with them was probably only during the bone marrow transplant operation.

After Nicole's operation was successful and she was discharged from the hospital, Gale would leave with Nicole.

Well, Shawn thought to himself, he should let them go.

For real, this time.

Chapter 715

She only wanted her to be safe and happy, even if there was no place for him by her side.

Nicole glanced at him suddenly and then asked in a low voice, "Mommy, did Daddy have breakfast?"

Gale was stunned for a moment.

It would be terrible to display her dissatisfaction toward Shawn to Nicole.

Therefore, Gale could only say, "Nicole asked you something."

Shawn was also a little surprised.

He received a caring word from his daughter!

He smiled and said in a gentle voice, "I've eaten, thank you for your concern."

Nicole nodded and licked some food off the corner of her mouth, looking very cute.

Shawn's smile deepened.

He looked like a real simp for his daughter!

Thinking about the scene where Shawn and Joshua were fighting intelligently and bantering, and then look at the way Shawn lookde at Nicole now...

Sons and daughters are indeed treated differently!

After breakfast, Gale prepared to get in the car with Nicole.

She was carrying a bag with Nicole's daily necessities. It happened that Shawn's car was an SUV.

Nicole could not climb up.

Gale habitually put down her things, and when she was about to bend down to hug Nicole into the car, Shawn was already one step ahead, grabbed Nicole's waist with one hand, and lifted her up easily.

Although the movements were like lifting a chicken, Shawn's movements were very gentle, for fear of hurting his precious daughter.

Moreover, it is easy for him to hold Nicole.

After all, men are much stronger.

Nicole turned around and looked at him with bright eyes as if she had something to say.

Shawn asked, "What's the matter? Do you not want to take this car? Then, change it. What color do you like? Daddy's garage has them all."

Nicole shook his head.

"Then... What do you want? Just say, Daddy can do it."

Nicole waved her hands. "I want to experience the feeling of being lifted high, sitting on Dad's shoulders, as if I'm flying!"

Shawn casually picked her up just now, making Nicole feel different.

She seldom allowed Gale to hug her, always walked by herself, and when she was younger, she obediently sat in a baby stroller.

Never like other children, crying, clamoring, refusing to walk, and insisting on being carried.

It was because Nicole knew that Mommy would be tired from holding her, and Mommy's strength was weak, so it would be very difficult to hold her for a long time.

However, she would also envy other children who could sit on Dad's shoulders and laugh happily, but she could not.

Today... She finally got her chance!

Gale did not expect that the first time Nicole made a request to Shawn would be to be carried high!

She always thought that the lack of father's love had very little impact on the two children, so small that it could be ignored.

However, at this moment, Gale realized that there were some things that she could not give, no matter how much she had!

Shawn agreed without hesitation, "Okay."

He simply could not deny her wish!

What a great opportunity to get closer to his daughter!

He must grasp it!

"Come on, Nicole. Jump up." Shawn opened his arms, full of strength and security.

Nicole hesitated. "Jump? Can Daddy catch me?"

"Of course. Jump boldly." Nicole stood up excitedly and jumped directly on Shawn.

Shawn caught her steadily without stammering.

Chapter 716

He could even do it with one arm.

"Wow!" Nicole laughed happily.

Shawn rubbed her hair deeply, held Nicole's waist with both hands, lifted her above his head, and sat her on his shoulders.

"Nicole, are you okay with this height? Do you like it?" Shawn asked deeply.

Nicole smiled until her eyes turned into crescent moons. "Yes, yes, yes! It's so high, I can see it so far away!"

She was the first person who could sit on Shawn's shoulder.

Only little princesses could get this kind of treatment!

Shawn held her hands and led her around the yard.

The yard was full of Nicole's laughter. "I like sitting on Daddy's shoulders... I'm the tallest person in the world now! Mommy, look, I am so much taller than you!"

Nicole gestured exaggeratedly.

"Yes, yes, be careful. Shawn, be careful, don't let her fall," Gale replied, not forgetting her safety.

Before Shawn could answer, Nicole had already answered, "Mommy, Daddy's hand is so strong, and he has muscles! He can lift several of me!"

Gale had experienced... Shawn's strength.

He could even hold her with one hand.

However, she was still a little worried and kept following the father and daughter closely.

After being diagnosed with leukemia, she took medicine every day and lived in the hospital.

Gale seldom saw Nicole so happy.

She also smiled unconsciously.

What could she do? Shawn and Nicole are father and daughter. Blood is thicker than water, and she can still be jealous of Shawn. She wondered if Nicole felt close to him or would feel so in the future.

Nicole's feet rubbed several dusty shoe prints on Shawn's suit. "Daddy, can you run?"

"Okay, Nicole. Sit tight!"

Gale shook his head helplessly.

Shawn dotes on his daughter too much. No matter what request Nicole puts forward, he will do it!

He took her to pick the fruit on the tree, and touch the high door frame, all without complaint!

In the end, it was Gale who said, "Okay, it's time to go to the hospital, it's getting late."

Nicole then nodded with a sense of satisfaction.

"It's okay, Nicole, you can sit on Dad's shoulder every day from now on."

"Really?"

"Of course it's true, Dad will never lie to Nicole."

Nicole clapped his hands. "Okay! Then how do I get off now?"

"Just like before, you jumped on my shoulders."

Nicole completely believed in Shawn.

She jumped down hesitantly.

Shawn reached out to catch her.

However, he deliberately bent down, and his hands pretended to sway a little.

Gale was so frightened that she exclaimed, "Nicole!"

However, Nicole fell into Shawn's arms.

Shawn picked her up again and hugged her in his arms.

The father and daughter looked at each other and laughed.

Nicole was not afraid at all! On the other hand, Gale was in a cold sweat.

Seeing the two of them laughing happily, she also knew she had been tricked just now.

Gale couldn't help but yell, "Shawn, are you childish? It's scary!"

"Gale, do you think I won't be able to handle it?" With a pause, he added, "Nicole is my little baby. You are the big baby."

Gale had not heard this kind of sly love talk for a long time, and her ears immediately turned red.

Chapter 717

Immediately afterward, her entire face turned red.

"What a mess, let's go!" She turned and got into the car.

Shawn looked deeply at her back and smiled.

Nicole kept hng his neck and cuddling in his arms, completely without the unfamiliarity and fear she showed him at the beginning.

In fact, until now, Shawn still has a sense of unreality.

Happiness came too suddenly.

Gale resurrected from the dead and returned suddenly, taking their daughter with her.

He suddenly became a winner in life.

The descendants of the Wood family that grandpa has been talking about were here.
Her name was Nicole.

Shawn felt that there was nothing wrong with Nicole following Gale's surname.

Anyway, it was his child!

The car drove to the hospital. Although Shawn held Nicole in his arms, his eyes were always on Gale.

As if as long as he did not stare, she would disappear.

Even Nicole could not help asking, "Daddy, why do you keep looking at Mommy?"

Gale's ears turned red again.

She really hated her propensity to blush!

Why was she blushing!

She was angry, but it could have been mistaken for being shy!

Shawn replied, "Because she's pretty. Nicole, do you think so too?"

Nicole nodded. "Yes! I think Mommy is the most beautiful fairy in the whole world!

"Well, the most beautiful fairy is my wife."

Gale was speechless.

However, this was not over yet.

Shawn added, "I have such a good eye. I was able to give birth to you after marrying such a beautiful wife. Do you think so, Nicole?"

"Yes!"

Gale was speechless again.

He killed two birds with one stone.

While praising her, he drew Nicole as an ally and echoed his words.

Nicole is so young. Shawn completely conquered her by just holding her high.

Gale thought, 'Hey... Women are too easy to coax and deceive. This is not acceptable.'

In the future, she has to teach Nicole not to trust men too much in order not to be fooled by suitors casually in the future!

Especially someone like Shawn, who is handsome and talkative, she should be more careful!

However, it seemed...too late.

Nicole had really been subdued by Shawn's charm.

After all, she was a little girl who liked to be hugged and held high. This was a completely different feeling from what Mommy gave her!

In addition, Shawn was a true simp for his daughter!

After getting out of the car and taking a few steps to the hospital, he was afraid that Nicole would be exposed to the sun, so he insisted on asking the bodyguard to hold an umbrella!

"You don't have to do this. Nicole is not so delicate," Gale said.

"My daughter is a dainty flower."

Gale was speechless once more.

She felt that they were not on the same page.

In the doctor's office, the top pediatric director in the country carefully read all of Nicole's examination reports and then issued a few more orders to ask Shawn and Nicole to go for a bone marrow matching examination together.

Gale was very calm because she knew it was a match.

However, Shawn did not know.

"What's the fastest way to find a matching bone marrow if mine doesn't match either?" he asked.

Chapter 718

The doctor replied, "Mr. Wood, after your order last night, we have activated all our resources and searched all over the world. We will definitely find a match. It's only a matter of time. Of course, if your bone marrow matches, it is the best."

Shawn frowned deeply with a solemn expression.

He was worried about other people's bone marrow, afraid that something might go wrong.

It was best to hope that his bone marrow matched Nicole's!

With deep anxiety, Shawn went to the examination room.

After anxiously waiting, finally, the result came out.

The doctor let out a long sigh of relief. "Congratulations, Mr. Wood, your bone marrow matches, and you can arrange for a transplant operation!"

Shawn was completely relieved after hearing this.

He immediately looked sideways at Gale. "Our daughter is saved."

She did not answer because these were all within her expectations.

Only Shawn can save Nicole.

"Gale, I thought that if mine doesn't match, then I'll start tomorrow and run around all the hospitals, domestic and overseas, until I find a matching bone marrow. Fortunately, everything is going well," Shawn said.

Gale nodded. "Arrange the operation as soon as possible." The doctor replied, "Don't worry. This will be handed over to my team and me. But... before the operation, Mr. Wood, both you and Ms. Nicole need to be hospitalized."

As a bone marrow transplant recipient, Shawn needed to undergo medical observation and could no longer move freely.

Even his diet would be prescribed, and he would need to cooperate with the doctor for daily checkups.

"Okay," he agreed without thinking, without asking why.

As long as Nicole's illness could be cured, he would do anything!

Nicole asked, "Daddy, are you staying in the hospital too?"

“Well, I’ll be with you, okay?”

“I’m with Mommy.”

Shawn picked her up and sat her on his bed. “She is too tired, let her rest, Let me take care of you these days, okay?”

Nicole thought about it seriously before answering, “I promise. Mommy said this is my last time in the hospital. She was always with me before, and it was really tiring, but I still want Mommy to come to see me every day.”

“Of course she will come to see you.”

“Will Mommy and Daddy stay with me?”

“Yes,” Shawn and Gale replied in unison.

Nicole raised an innocent smile. “That’s great!”

Afterward, both Shawn and Nicole were admitted to the same VIP ward.

The medical environment here was many times better than that of a small-town hospital.

They had hot water all the time, constant air-conditioning, a spus big bed, sofa, toilet, guest bedroom... even a kitchen!

It was not a ward... but an apartment!

Gale rolled up her sleeves, opened the refrigerator and took a look. It was full of everything.

So she prepared to cook and make some food for Nicole.

Shawn and Nicole lay side by side.

They were chatting.

Nicole asked, “Daddy, can I ask you a question?”

“You can ask me any questions.”

Nicole asked, “Why is your hair all white? I see that other daddies have black hair!”

“Because... Daddy misses Mommy so much.”

Nicole asked, “Do you miss Mommy?”

"Yes. Nicole, how old are you this year?"

Nicole said, "Almost four years old."

"I haven't seen her as old as you are. I think about her every day, during the day, at night, and after thinking about her so much, my hair turns gray."

"Oh."

Gale could not listen to it anymore and poked her head out of the kitchen. "Shawn, can you stop teaching children the wrong things?"

Chapter 719

He just raised his eyebrows. "Gale, are you looking?"

"Yes!" she replied angrily.

"It just so happens that I'm hungry too, so you can cook more."

Gale

Shawn a sharp look. "It's not for you!"

After she finished speaking, she turned and went into the kitchen again.

In the end, Nicole said childishly, "It's okay, Daddy, I'll give you my share!"

Shawn's magnetic and hearty laughter spread throughout the ward.

He pinched Nicole's face.

He thought that his daughter would always reject him and be unable to accept him, and he did not expect them to be close this soon.

Even her daughter was warming up to him now and not taking Gale's side.

"Nicole, if you give me yours, what if Mommy is angry?"

"She won't be angry. Mommy said, I'm sick, and I need Daddy to cure me. It's so hard for Daddy, so of course I can't let you be hungry!"

"Nicole, Mommy is great too."

Nicole blinked. "The doctor said that he would transplant your bone marrow to me. It hurts even thinking about it. Daddy, when the time comes, I will be very strong. I won't cry, and you shouldn't cry either."

Shawn replied, "Neither of us will cry."

Shawn's heart became extremely soft.

It turned out that when he had a child, he would be in such a state of mind.

He wanted to bring all the good things in the world to her, wanted to watch her grow up, but was reluctant to let her grow up.

"Nicole."

"Daddy."

Shawn asked, "Do you dislike white hair? Then... Dad will dye it black, what do you think?"

Before, he had never cared about his hair color.

He did not care about other people's strange gaze.

However, he was afraid that Nicole would not be able to accept it.

Nicole was about to answer when suddenly, Gale's exclamation came from the kitchen. "Ah!"

Shawn's expression changed, and he immediately got out of bed and rushed in without even having time to put on his shoes.

"What's the matter, Gale? Is it hot?" he asked with concern on his face.

He grabbed her finger, put it under the faucet and rinsed it, and then put it in his mouth again.

Shawn's actions were completely subconscious.

Gale only felt that her fingers were moist. Being held in his mouth like this, she could feel his tongue with a slight movement... The familiar and tingling electric current surged from the depths of her body after a long absence!

Gale immediately withdrew her hand. "I'm fine, I'm not familiar with this kitchen. When I was in the fire, I got scalded."

"Let me see."

Shawn grasped it forcefully and looked it over carefully. Looking at the red spots on her fingers, he said, "It's blistered. I'll call the nurse."

Gale immediately stopped him. "It's just a minor injury, so there's no need for the nurse to come over. How embarrassing."

"Doesn't it hurt?"

"It's okay, just rinse with cold water."

Shawn frowned deeply. "Is this how you have taken care of yourself for the past four years?"

She did not answer but turned around and faced the stove again.

Yes, for four years, she carried a family by herself.

She can do everything from raising two children, working and drawing, shopping for vegetables, picking up the children, cooking, and even unblocking the sewers and changing light bulbs.

She went to the parent-teacher meeting and attended every sporting event.

She was both a father and a mother.

In the past, Gale did not think there was anything wrong with her life.

She was very tired, but she was also very happy at the same time.

It was because she lived a free life without being attached to anyone.

She was very satisfied.

Now, when Gale returned to Sea City, she was accidentally burned and had someone care about her so much and be nervous for her...

Chapter 720

It moved her a little.

Which woman would not long to be held in the palm of a man's hand and cared for?

Gale was greedy for this feeling, but at the same time, resisted Shawn's pampering!

He was a devil, a poison, and he would be addicted at the touch of it! You would fall into the quagmire of emotions, unable to extricate yourself!

"Gale..." Shawn stood beside her, his voice low and hoarse. "You are too strong."

However, she changed the topic. "What do you want to eat? I'll make something, I don't know if it suits you. You have to donate bone marrow to Nicole, and your body needs to keep up with the nutrition."

"Whatever you cook, I eat."

"Okay."

Gale concentrated on cooking.

Shawn did not leave but stood by her side, helping her from time to time and keeping an eye on her for fear that she would get hurt again.

This made Gale feel uncomfortable being watched.

"I'm not a child. Go and accompany Nicole, she is slowly accepting you," she said.

"In my opinion, you are worse than Nicole at taking care of yourself."

"I didn't... Ah!"

Gale was about to turn over the vegetables in the frying pan, but the fire was too high, and the handle of the spatula was scalding hot.

She got burned again.

Shawn's brows were so wrinkled that he could crush a mosquito to death.

"I'll do it." He pushed her aside directly. "I said, I'll do it."

"You?"

"Yeah."

Gale saw Shawn cooking for the first time.

His clumsy look... Could he cook?

Shawn asked, "Is this much salt enough?"

“A little less... Well, yes.”

“Soy sauce enhances the flavor.”

“It’s enough to simmer for a while, otherwise the taste will be ruined. Nicole doesn’t like it.”

Although Shawn did not know how to cook and could not tell the difference between vinegar and soy sauce, under Gale’s command, he made three dishes and one soup smoothly.

Nicole sat cross-legged on the hospital bed, holding her chin and looking at her parents backs.

It seemed that having a father was really a good thing.

Finally, someone loves Mommy and stays with Mommy all the time.

Nicole picked up the phone next to the bed, unlocked it skillfully, took a photo and sent it to Joshua

“Look, brother.”

Joshua quickly replied, “Who is that old man next to him!”

“That’s not the old man, it’s Daddy.”

Joshua was stunned.

“He is very young! Very handsome!”

Joshua replied, “You have only been in Sea City for two days, and you helped us find a father?”

“This is the real father, not the one you were looking for.”

Joshua said, “The real father? So old?! His back looks ugly. How did the mommy fall in love with him back then!”

Nicole was about to reply, but Shawn had already walked out with the dishes.

She had to lock the screen.

Gale said, “Nicole, it’s time to eat. Go wash your hands first.”

“Alright Mommy.”

Shawn was sitting at the dining table, taking pictures with his phone.

Gale glanced at it but did not take it seriously.

After all, this was Shawn's first time cooking. Although he had done it under her guidance, he should have a sense of accomplishment, so he wanted to commemorate it.

However... After Shawn took the photo, he posted it on Instabook for the first time.
