Chapter 1: The Jinx is back

City of Man

Early morning

People had already flooded the wide city alleys since early in the morning.

Two rows of shophouses were bustling with business and the streets were filled with constant laughter.

Recently, the Sacred Mountain had come forth to choose their disciples. This grand occasion made the city even livelier than usual and many youths were itching to give it their best shot.

Many young men were dressed in their finest attire, looking elegant and handsome, while enjoying the constant infatuated gazes of the ladies. Even though they acted like they did not care about the gazes, but in their hearts, they were overwhelmingly pleased.

Yah!

Suddenly, the people on the streets parted. A group of majestic black horses charged ahead, whilst sending the dust flying into the air and making the earth tremble. Some people with extraordinary presence were seated on their backs.

The tall and muscular black horses seemed to be filled with explosive power. Wide, black scales covered their bodies. They gave off a metallic feeling, making them seem even more powerful.

Wow, it is the Black Metal Draconic Horse. The one in the front is Young Master Song Wu Qiu of the Song Family!

Young Master Song is so handsome!

There is also the White Jade Wolf, Young Master Mo Bu Fan!

The Green Demonic Tiger has also appeared. Young Master He San has arrived!

Following the Draconic Horses, there were lofty wolves which were white from head to toe and the aggressive huge green tigers with their intense gazes.

The crowds were hustling, the fierce and well-built mounts made the ground tremble. At the front of each imposing group, sat a young man who was around 15 16 years old.

Though they were young, they certainly were not your average young man.

At this moment, the three young men seemed to be rushing to a place, frantic and at the same time, their faces displayed anger.

There were quite a few young men following behind each of the them All in splendid attire with a noble atmosphere. One could tell from a look that they too were not from an average family.

Young Master Song Wu Qiu, Young Master Mo Bu Fan, Young Master He San, if any of them could take a liking to me, then I would be in seventh heaven! A lady said in a daze, her eyes dreamy.

I think you can just forget about it. With background like Young Master Song and the others, how could they ever take a liking to you? I even heard rumours that the Young Masters have already completed the Foundation Building Stage and can immediately go to the Sacred Mountain to start cultivating!

A young man said, his eyes filled with envy. If he could also become a martial artist, he could go the place in the legends, the Sacred Mountain. If that happens, all the ladies in the city would surely be chasing after him, with all being ready for him to pick.

At a corner of the hustling street, a skinny figure laid with his back against the wall, and his legs spread apart. He looked like a young man, no older than 15 or 16 years. Read latest chapters at n/ov\(e\)lbin\(.\)co/m

The young man was wearing a rough, tattered robe which was too big for him.

The young man didnt care a bit about his current appearance. He held half a stalk of dried grass blade in his mouth with a casual look.

Looking at the mighty group of people and mounts moving away from him, and glancing at the infatuated gazes of the ladies who were lined on both sides of the street, the dried grass in the youths mouth tipped upward slightly. With a hint of disdain in his eyes, he smiled and whispered: This is handsome? Back then, if I remained in this city, how would these brats cause such a commotion?

Say, where do you think these Young Masters, the big shots of the city are going this early in the morning?

Some people were confused. Usually one can barely see any of them, but today all these big shots appeared at the same time and were even in a rush.

Also, the fight to become a disciple of Sacred Mountain only starts three days later!

This is the direction to go out of the city. Could it be that the Young Masters are going out of the city?

The people were discussing among themselves. These influential people coming out caught the attention of everyone.

Three years!!! Three years have already passed. I know, I know where the Young Masters are going now!

Out of the blue, someone shouted. His face excited. He seemed to have remembered something, instantly drawing the eyes of the masses.

Three years!? I remember now too. Today should be the day that the jinx is coming back!

Oh my god!!! Has that jinx really returned? The entire city will never have peace again!

He is not only a jinx, he is also a big pervert!

Hai, that perverted demon is actually quite handsome. It really is a pity!

Humph, that jinx must be able to return alive first! Being in that demon-filled forest for three years, I am afraid he is already dead!

No wonder the Young Masters have all appeared. They are going to the city gate to prevent that jinx from entering!

Every young master of the city had sworn a blood oath three years ago. If that jinx is still alive and able to come back to the city, they will absolutely not allow him to step into the city alive!

It seems to me that it doesn't matter if that jinx has survived the Forest of Demons, he will still be dead in the end!

The crowd went wild. Regardless of age or gender, everyone hurried to the city gate to watch the commotion.

Looking at the enthusiastic crowd, Su Yi was feeling very helpless.

It was just kissing and then simply hugging that girl. How on earth did he become a street rat that everyone would shout and hit at.

If it wasn't for that girl who beat him up in front of everyone on the street, he would also not be so bored as to feed her drugs. Who doesn't have a time in their life when he or she does not know what's right and what's wrong.

Furthermore, he had said that he would take the responsibility for everything, what else do these people want him to do?

That little girl is the real jinx. People say that beauties are dangerous, they have never been more correct.

Su Yi said to himself. For this small matter, Mo Bu Fan, He San, Song Wu Qiu, those little brats actually swore a blood oath. Since ancient times people say that beauties bring calamities, and he completely agrees now.

I'm too lazy to play with a bunch of little kids.

Su Yi stood up. The wide sleeves of his robe swayed. He spat the half stalk of dried grass and some saliva to the side and walked away casually while whistling.

The eyes of a few passing ladies fell on Su Yi. Seeing his shabby attire, they initially wanted to stay far away from him, but once they saw his face, they sneaked in a few more glances involuntarily.

Su Yi was now around 15 to 16 years old, and was a fair bit taller than three years ago.

In addition to the inhumane training he went through for the past 3 years, although he did not have a fair face, but his looks were the real deal. He had a pair of bright eyes underneath his blade-like thin eyebrows. His skin was tanned, and while he had a skinny figure, he stood upright. That shabby robe could not mask his unique presence.

This kind of presence was very complex. It was a bit proud and a bit evil. Though, it seemed to be a natural thing.

Hmm, that guy does not look half bad, but sadly he is too shabby.

Why do I feel like that guy looks like the jinx?

A few girls brushed past Su Yi, looking down and discussing among themselves.

Eh? Where did that guy go?

And when the ladies wanted to turn around to confirm, they did not even see the shadow of that man. They felt confused and wondered if their eyes played a trick on them.

Su Family.

One of the top 5 families in the city.

He, Su, Mo, Song, Liu, these five families were the top 5 families in the city as well as the 5 biggest families of martial arts practitioners in the city.

Over there, the strong ruled. In the world filled with martial arts, the 5 families had also been the protectors of the city all these years.

The position of the city master has been passed between the 5 families. Though, in the last 100 years the position has always been in the hands of the Liu Family.

The Su Family, one of the 5 top families in the city. Every generation here practices martial arts and they have also produced many strong martial arts practitioners.

Even up to this day, the entire city holds the utmost respect for Su Family's Old Master, Su Yun Tian, in their hearts when one speaks about him ,.

20 years ago, when the demons from the Forest of Demons invaded, every family struggled with all their might.

During the war, where neither side showed any signs of losing, the Old Master of the Su Family, Su Yun Tian, already over 60 years, led a troop of the Su Family's elites and carved out a path of blood straight to the enemy's leader and slaughtered him.

When one speaks of that battle, the memory of that event remains clear in everyone's mind. The Su Family had become even more famous and earned the respect of all.

But ever since 15 years ago, from the day Su Yi was born, it all started to change.

And 3 years ago, Su Yi did something which made everyone in the city unable to tolerate his antics any longer. Even City Master Liu Yun Yang was infuriated beyond measure.

In the end, the Old Master of the Su Family had to swallow his embarrassment and personally come out to protect his grandson, and only after that did the huge commotion die down.

The Su Family has many people The long stretches of buildings were like a palace, extending out into all directions, noble and beautiful.

But today, in front of Su Family's majestic gate appeared many figures, hiding in the shadows.

These figures were all watching the Su Family's gate carefully, like they were trying to observe something. None of them even dared to blink, fearing that they might miss out something.

Yah!

At the Su Family's gate, a unit of imposing troops rushed out. Their actions sharp, while riding on crimson red and robust mounts which were like tigers and lions.

Every single one of the Su Family's guards who were riding on the mounts had eyes filled with a hint of pride and arrogance.

With the Su Family's position in the city, being a guard of the Su Family, they naturally had more pride than an average person.

Hurry up or there will be trouble!

The head of the unit was a man of about 40 years. He had a large, muscular figure and around him, there was an air of ferociousness. One look and anyone could tell that the man lived by the blade and had claimed many lives or else he would not have such a presence around him.

Indeed, the large man did not have a simple background. His name was Su Bai Han. Even though he was not a part of the Su Family's bloodline, but in the Su Family, he did not have a low position. In the entire city, his name was also spread quite widely.

20 years ago, this man, Su Bai Han, was also a part of the unit led by the Old Master of the Su Family which carved a path of blood out of the city.

Mr Han, why would the family want us to escort that person? What if the moment we arrive, and trouble really ensues? I am afraid that even with our identities, we will not be able to calm down Mo Bu Fan, Song Wu Qiu and all those Young Masters. A guard behind Su Bai Han asked. His face showing signs of confusion.

Chapter 2: Beauties bring Calamities

Sigh, our entire Su Family was originally so respected by the masses, but now, once someone brings up the Su Family, they will only remember that a perverted jinx came from this family.

The man sighed. all these years that jinx has only caused the family's position in the city to become lower and lower.

The few of you, watch your words!!! No matter what happens, that person is still the Young Master of the Su Family, and he is also the most loved grandson of the Old Master. When the Young Master created that mess, the Old Master has punished him accordingly. Now that we are outside, do not disgrace the Su Family! From here onwards, if theres anyone who talks without thinking, do not blame me for being ruthless!

Su Bai Han turned around and stared at the men behind him, his face stern.

Yes, Mr. Han, understood!

At that moment, each man changed their attitude and their expressions became serious.

Outside the main gate of the Su Family, Su Yi was watching from a distance. Observing the figures lying in the shadows, his gaze sweeping over them casually.

Afterward, he looked at that familiar main gate of the Su. The corner of his mouth swung upwards, three years of inhumane treatment had finally ended. He stretched his body and said, Mr, I, the Young Master has returned! Once I tidy up and clean myself later, I will once again be a handsome young man!

Little girl, all I did was just kiss and hug you once, and both were even my firsts. You have not suffered any losses, and even gained from it! You didnt have to blow up the matter! In a few years time Ill have you taken as my wife, and then I shall show you what I am truly made of!

[T.N Note: To all readers that are thinking that the mc tried to rape the girl, it is not what you think. Please read the later chapters where the mc shall clarify what he exactly did. ?]

Reminiscing the past 3 years of hell, Su Yi was enraged and fiercely spat on the ground beside his feet.

Swallowing his saliva, Su Yi thought to himself that if he knew the matter would blow out of proportions, he would have stuck his tongue into her mouth, that would be a real first kiss, what a pity.

Just dismiss your thoughts about taking her as your wife. Just by being able to come back alive, your Su Family would already have to thank the gods.

Unexpectedly, a crisp young voice came from behind Su Yi.

Su Yis face immediately changed, just now he was in a daze and actually allowed someone to come so close to him from behind his back, this was a big taboo.

In an instant, Su Yis body lunged forward and at the same time without any visible movements from his feet, he spun around, exuding a presence like a predator which has just awakened, swift and sharp. From his wide sleeves appeared the tip of a dagger.

But once he saw a chubby face as if the baby fats on the face had not been shed, Su Yi's cautious face immediately changed into a smile, and simultaneously, the dagger also vanished into thin air.

The changes happened in a blink of an eye, which the fat youth did not seem to notice. Looking at Su Yi, those small eyes which looked like the same whether they were tightly closed or wide open, was completely squeezed into a thin line. One could see a bright smile on his face.

The youth punched Su Yi's shoulder hard, ecstatic beyond measure, and said, I knew that you wouldn't die. Mo Bu Fan and those few jerks weren't a match for you back then, they still wouldn't be your match now. With just their skills, how could they prevent you from entering the city? Ouch, are you wearing a steel plate on your body? Why is it so painful when I slapped it?

Without finishing his words, the fatty retracted his hand which has just landed on Su Yi's shoulder like he got shocked by electricity. He swung his hand side to side, his fist numb, pained as if he just punched steel.

Hehe, Fatty Wang, how did you know I have returned?

Su Yi was really happy. With a hand on the shoulder of the fatty in front of him, his oversized robe seemed to dance like a skirt. His actions filled with warmth.

The fatty's name was Wang Shang Wu. He was Su Yi's companion from when he was young, and also his buddy.

The Wang Family, even though was not as large as the 5 Big Families, but it was still considered as one of the larger powers in the city.

From the day Wang Shang Wu was born, his father hoped that Wang would become a strong martial arts practitioner when he grew up, hence his name Wang Shang Wu.

Unfortunately, Wang Shang Wu did not grow up to fit his name. He only had average talent from young, and the fact that he was bestie with Su Yi only caused the Wang Family to worry further.

I knew that you wouldn't die and would surely return alive!

Fatty Wang was beaming, but when he looked carefully at Su Yi and saw his current appearance, it gave him quite a surprise. He said, Looks like in the Forest of Demons, you also had a rather hard time.

But I finally managed to weather the storm.

Su Yi smiled slightly, speaking no more. He carefully looked at the fatty, for a fleeting moment, surprise could be seen in his eyes, and said, You have improved quite a bit over the past 3 years.

For these 3 years, I was in a situation no better than you. I have not stepped out of the house for 3 years. My father was personally overseeing my martial arts practice, but sadly I have not improved enough to reach the Foundation Building Stage, Fatty Wang was depressed as he had lived no better than Su Yi for the past 3 years.

That isnt like you.

Su Yi knew Fatty Wang very well. How could he have resisted the temptation to go out of the house for the past 3 years?

Mo Bu Fan, He San and the rest of the bunch wanted me to swear that I would sever my ties with you from that moment forth. What a joke, how could I ever do that and follow the orders of those second-rates?

Fatty Wang opened his mouth, his face relaxed, and continued speaking, Well, it is good that you are able to return alive. Mo Bu Fan, Song Wu Qiu and the rest have gone to the city gate to stop you, but I could even think with my feet and know that it would not be possible for those second-rates to stop you.

Wang Shang Wu was brimming with self-confidence. He knew Su Yi way too well. With the skills of those Young Masters, there was no way they would be able to stop him.

Why do Mo Bu Fan and the rest want to stop me from returning?

Su Yis face turned black. He knew that those Young Masters did not treat Fatty Wang as an equal and would have surely stepped all over him. That must be the reason why Fatty Wang stayed at home for the past 3 years, and he was also curious how did the Young Masters get the courage to go to the city gate to stop him from entering.

Isnt this all your fault, because of Liu Ruoxi.

Fatty Wang rolled his eyes. In the entire city, only the person in front of him would have the gall to do such a thing to her.

What has this got to do with Liu Ruoxi? Su Yi raised his eyebrows, slightly suspicious.

After you were exiled, Liu Ruoxi announced on the second day, that after 3 years if you were able to return alive, she would marry the person who kills you. Hence the reason why all those Young Masters want to try and kill you.

Fatty Wang glanced at Su Yi and said casually. Speaking honestly, he was really impressed with what Su Yi did 3 years ago. In the entire city, no one else other than the person in front of him would have the courage to do such a thing. ALL new chapters on nov\(e\)lbin\(.\)comlbin(.)com)

Fk, why is that girl so ruthless!

Su Yi was dazed for a moment, afterward, his eyebrow raised slightly: After I take her as my wife, then I shall show her who she has offended!

Stop daydreaming. Firstly, back then Old Master Su promised you that only if you have reached Foundation Building Stage, then the engagement would be valid. If you did not reach Foundation Building Stage after 3 years, you would not only be exiled out of the Su Family but also the City of Man as well.

Wang Shang Wu looked at Su Yi and said, But really hats off to you, you still had the gall to return.

On the other hand, Su Yi silently gulped. He did not expect that Liu Ruoxi, that little girl, was actually so ruthless, although all which happened was because of her.

Fatty Wang continued saying, Also, I am afraid that even if you are at Foundation Building Stage, it will still be impossible for you to take her as your wife.

Why?

Su Yi asked. If it wasnt for that girl, he would not have to suffer so much. If he does not take her as his wife and slowly show her what he is made off, then he would be letting down the fact that he had reincarnated as a human being.

Wang Shang Wu looked at Su Yi, took a deep breath, with his eyes slightly shaking, he said, Not long after you were kicked out of the city, Liu Ruoxi went to the Sacred Mountain, I have heard that she has Emperor Grade talent.

Emperor Grade talent!

Hearing what Fatty Wang said, Su Yi was also stunned, his body shaking slightly.

This world has been ruled by the strong, and the path of martial arts flourished.

But not everyone has the ability to cultivate.

For those who cultivated, there was the difference in the level of talent. The greater your talent, the further you would walk down the path of cultivation.

Liu Ruoxi has already become the personal disciple of the Master of the Sacred Mountain. It seems that it is because of her that the Sacred Mountain would come to this city and choose other disciples, Fatty Wang continued saying, his eyes filled with yearning.

Sacred Mountain, that was a paradise for all martial arts practitioners and it was also the paradise for all cultivators.

Fatty Wang was very clear about his own talent. Unfortunately, he will have almost no hope of ever being able to enter the Sacred Mountain, he could only be envious of others and yearn for it.

So, it is only Emperor Grade talent.

Su Yi's mouth curved upwards, he looked very relaxed.

Suddenly, Su Yi's eyebrows raised, his forehead slightly wrinkled. He seemed to have detected something and his face immediately fell. He jumped swiftly to the side without any hesitation.

Following behind Su Yi, there was a palm which struck straightforward, bringing with it sounds of the air breaking.

Yuan Soul Realm!

Su Yi's face immediately changed. After a cultivator has completed the Foundation Building Stage and stepped into the Soul Yuan Realm, only then that person would have such an aura.

As Su Yi leaped away, the person behind him slid forward and displayed his martial art techniques. His palms striking swiftly in an instant. As he clenched his fingers into a fist, layers of bright light came from the fist and struck with the momentum seemingly enough to shatter a mountain.

Mountain Shattering Fist!

With the sound of an explosion, followed by a slight yell, the fist shattered the air and flew towards Su Yi.

Once one had arrived at the Yuan Soul Realm, he was already considered as a real cultivator. Even if he used a flower or a stalk of grass as a blade, it was enough to pierce huge boulders.

Not to mention that the person right now was even using martial arts.

Su Yi, watch out!

Fatty Wangs expression changed drastically. The person who ambushed Su Yi was far stronger than the rest who came. He did not even have a chance to intervene, and could only yell to remind Su Yi.

The fist arrived instantaneously. Its presence like a tempest, letting out a low sound and making the air around it tremble.

Su Yis feet left the ground, his body flew through the air, in an instant, he somersaulted to a place in front of him. Though his posture wasnt really a work of art, it was effective and he had actually managed to dodge that attack.
