Chapter 131: The Fairy Maiden

This Yuan Restoration Elixir, Earth Xuan Elixir, Doubling Yuan Elixir, and Third Yuan Elixir

How would Deacon Wu not recognize the Yuan Restoration Elixir, Earth Xuan Elixir, Doubling Yuan Elixir, Third Yuan Elixir and the other elixirs. These elixirs were supposed to only be Moon Grade High-Level elixirs but these were levels higher than Moon Grade High-Level elixirs.

It wouldnt have mattered if there was only one which was like this, but all of them, whether it be the Earth Xuan elixir or the Doubling Yuan elixir, were of much higher level than normal.

My friend, where did these elixirs come from? Deacon Wu looked at Su Yi, his eyes had begun to show some emotions and he wanted to see who Su Yi was.

Does Ling Bao Pavilion need to know its origin to purchase it? Su Yi asked faintly.

It was as Su Yi had expected when he saw Deacon Wus expression, these elixirs had their levels increased numerous times after being placed in the mysterious space. He had taken out the elixirs this time to test whether their value would rise.

Not really

Deacon Wu calmed his emotions again, knowing that he was a little gaffed just now.

Ling Bao Pavilion had never asked for the origins in their acquisition of a variety of cultivation resources.

In fact in any business, no one would inquire about the origin of goods.

Thats it then. Calculate what the value of these is. Su Yi asked with his calm voice.

These herbs, my Ling Bao Pavilion has a purchase price that is absolutely the highest in this city. As for these elixirs, my Ling Bao Pavilion could purchase it according to the original price of Moon Grade High-Level elixirs, 100 One Star Yuan Stones, and also to apologise on our mistreatment towards you, said Deacon Wu to Su Yi.

Huh, in the end there is no one in the Ling Bao Pavilion who knows the value of these goods. Nevermind, I am not selling them anymore. Su Yi smiled and had wanted to keep the elixirs back.

What do you mean, my friend? Deacon Wus expression changed secretly and he asked Su Yi.

Since Deacon Wu could not see the value of my elixirs, its okay then, Ill just go and ask other Pavilions. said Su Yi softly.

My friend, please Hearing that, Deacon Wus emotions went down. When he saw Su Yi putting away the elixirs, he had immediately stopped him and said, How about this? Could you please wait for a second, Ill take these elixirs to let an expert examine, then we will decide the value.

Sure. Su Yi thought for a moment and then nodded his head.

Ling Bao Pavilion was a big Pavilion and the guy in front of him was a strong man in Yuan Void Realm, and would not be greedy for his elixirs. If he had tried to stop him from taking them, this would instead show that he was stingy.

Just a moment, please. Deacon Wu nodded and immediately left after he had picked up a few elixirs in the jade bottle.

Deacon Wu, no wonder he said you don't know how to judge the value of these.

In the delicate and small hall on the third floor of the Ling Bao Pavilion, the graceful figure who wore the white veil had shown an expression of shock when she had said this in her slightly immature voice.

Although the grade of these elixirs are low, but this is the hardest decision this old man has encountered. That is why I brought it to you, fairy maiden, to take a look. It is said that Fairy Maiden has already reached a high level in making elixirs, and will definitely be more experienced than this old man. Deacon Wu was slightly embarrassed, he had known that these elixirs were extraordinary, far more than ordinary elixirs, which was why he had said that the Ling Bao Pavilion would purchase it with the original price which meant that they would not have made any profit.

But Deacon Wu did not expect that the young man would be so smart, and although Deacon Wu was able to make the decision, since Fairy Maiden was here he had decided to let her see them.

Indeed, this is the first time I have seen such elixirs, but their level and the effect of the elixir could be compared with Mirage Grade Beginner Level elixirs. In my understanding, even if it is a fourth-ranked Alchemist, he could not use alchemy to turn a Moon Grade High-Level elixir into this elixir that could compare with a Mirage Grade Beginner Level elixir. Her immature voice had shown a surprised tone that could not be suppressed. She was an Alchemist herself and was more than sure that although the elixir grades were not high, but even if a fourth level alchemist had tried, he would have difficulty cultivating such elixirs.

Could he be a high ranked Alchemist, but it does not seem like it listening to his voice. Even a fourth ranked Alchemist would not only have these things.

Deacon Wu was totally stunned when he heard what the Fairy Maiden had said. What would it be if that was a fourth ranked Alchemist.

The existence of an alchemist, a tool refiner, was divided into seven rank, from the first rank to the seventh rank.

But an alchemist of the first rank would be respected more than any Yuan Spirit Realm practitioner and would be an honoured guest everywhere they went.

A second-ranked Alchemist, their status would be greater.

The fourth-ranked Alchemist would have a much higher status than that of his Yuan Void Realm.

There would be enough reason for a large number of Yuan Emperor Realm practitioners to follow by the side of a fourth-ranked Alchemist.

These elixirs are not the same or of one variety, their quantity is also much higher than the ordinary ones which proves that they can only be made by one Alchemist and one person.

There are two possibilities, either this person is probably a high ranked Alchemist, but we are not sure why he is here. the Fairy Maiden continued after pausing for a moment.

Another possibility is that if this man is really a young man, then there must be a high ranked alchemist behind him.

In this case, the person may have been deliberately hiding his identity. If he is really a young man then he might be the fourth level alchemists apprentice. said Deacon Wu.

I have never seen such a powerful elixir before, and in my opinion, fourth-ranked Alchemists may not be able to achieve such an effect. said the woman in plain clothes, who had not spoken until now.

Sister Mo is right.

Opening her mouth, she said with a faint laugh in her voice, No matter what rank of alchemist they are, you can be sure that the alchemy is not simple.

Fairy Maiden, what should we do now? asked Deacon Wu.

Whether he is a high-rank Alchemist himself, or there is a high-rank Alchemist behind him, since he chose to conceal his face, he naturally does not wish to be disturbed or recognized. But such an existence is worthy to be preserved as a good acquaintance of Ling Bao Pavilion, a good relationship today would bring a good result tomorrow. said the Fairy Maiden.

What fairy maiden said is indeed true. nodded Deacon Wu.

Under the veil, she looked at Deacon Wu and said with a cold voice, The bad moths in this branch store should be dealt with.

Yes.

Deacon Wu nodded his head with a straight face.

Deacon Wu was very clear, although the Fairy Maiden was not old, she had a high reputation in the entire Ling Bao Pavilion and had her own way of dealing with things.

My friend, sorry for making you wait. These elixirs are indeed not ordinary, its this old man who has mislooked it, we Ling Bao Pavilion will buy this with ten times the original price, what do you think, my friend?

Deacon Wu had come back, and cut to the chase with a smiling face, his attitude towards Su Yi was more enthusiastic and had some sort of a guessing look when he had looked at Su Yi.

Chapter 132: Lan Chuolian!

Ten times!

Su Yi was stunned after hearing it.

Originally it was one hundred One Star Yuan Stones now it had become one thousand One Star Yuan Stones which was ten times the previous price.

This kind of price was about the same as a Mirage Grade Beginner Level elixir.

Although, the mysterious space could increase the level of the elixir to that of a Mirage Grade Beginner Level.

Su Yi knew that this elixir was only at the Moon Grade High Level.

Even if the mysterious space had been that powerful, it couldnt possibly have denied Heavens law and increase an entire grade of an elixir.

At first, Su Yi had thought that by upgrading the elixirs in the mysterious space, if he could earn twice the amount, in the long run, it would be enough to make him rich.

But now these were sold at ten times the price. One stock of elixir for one thousand One Star Yuan Stones.

Since Su Yi had taken out more than ten stocks, it meant that he would have earned more than ten thousand One Star Yuan Stones. Su Yi sucked in a cold breath as this was too shocking.

Great, its a deal. Thank you very much.

Su Yi did not stand on ceremony and smiled.

Although he did not know why the Ling Bao Pavilion had given such a high price for these elixirs, at least, Su Yi knew that they were sincere.

Dont mention it. Next time, if you still need the Ling Bao Pavilion for anything, no matter where it is, you can merely go directly to any of the Ling Bao Pavilions branches.

Deacon Wu was very polite. The moment he started speaking, his hands had already taken out an interspatial bag which he gave to Su Yi and stated: All of the Yuan Stones, medicinal herbs and Spiritual Herbs have accounted. A total of 40,301 One Star Yuan Stones are inside this interspatial bag for you.

I still need to buy some medicinal herbs and elixirs. Su Yi replied while at the same time he was taking the interspatial bag, he pretended to be calm even though his heart was quivering on the inside.

These were several tens of thousands of Yuan Stones which would be enough to buy numerous Su Estates. With so many Yuan Stones, he was not going to let the mysterious space to refine all of it.

Of course you can. I wonder what kind of elixir or medicinal herb do you need? My Ling Bao Pavilion will offer the lowest price possible to sell them to you. Deacon Wu questioned.

I need some Spiritual Herbs that had harvested not too long ago, the more, the better and I also need them to be fresh. As for the elixir, give me some Yuan Restoration Elixirs, Mirage Grade Beginner Level Demon Yuan Elixirs, Fierce Spirit Elixirs

Su Yi had listed out many medicinal herbs and elixirs in one breath. Most of them were common types of Spiritual Herbs and recovery elixirs.

Su Yi had not forgotten about Golden Python and the rest. Both the Demon Yuan Elixir and Fierce Spirit Elixir were for them.

Demon Yuan Elixirs were more suitable for a beasts recovery while Fierce Spirit Elixirs could strengthen a beasts cultivation.

Deacon Wu was shocked after listening to Su Yi. This person had just sold his Yuan Restoration Elixir to the Ling Bao Pavilion, yet he wanted to buy their Yuan Restoration Elixirs.

Also, he wanted to buy some elixirs that could only be used by beasts. Although the grade of the elixir was not high, the amount was not little. Deacon Wu couldnt help but feel puzzled.

Only, Deacon Wu could not express his emotions out. Those elixirs that Su Yi wanted were standard hence this branch of the Ling Bao Pavilion had stocks for all of them.

Deacon Wu naturally did not know that the reason Su Yi needed the Yuan Restoration Elixirs was that with his current cultivation, these elixirs were the most suitable for him.

If he were to buy the Ling Bao Pavilions Yuan Restoration elixirs and put it in the mysterious space, when the time comes that he needed to consume it, the results would be better.

Deacon Wu nodded his head in replied and then shouted out towards the door.

Greeting the Deacon! A youth immediately came in. He was the one that had invited Su Yi back.

Deacon Wu listed out the things that Su Yi had wanted to the youth. The youth nodded his head and immediately gone to arrange it without the needs for Su Yi to collect it himself.

He wanted so many medicinal herbs but doesnt he just had the Yuan Restoration Elixir

On the third floor at a refined hall, the Fairy Maiden questioned while mumbling to herself.

If he is a Fourth Grade Alchemist, the grades of those medicinal herbs are too low, and he shouldnt need to use the Yuan Restoration Elixir right The woman in simple clothing softly spoke as her face with slight wrinkles filled with doubts.

I think, maybe there might be a person behind him and that person is the high-grade alchemist.

Buying so many clutter of medicinal herbs might be for practice so he should be an alchemist too.

Under the veil, the Fairy Maiden slightly raised her head, her voice crisped. She laughed lightly and responded: I will go and have a look to see how strong the alchemist behind him is. Maybe I could even pry out some information from him.

At the second floor, Deacon Wu, who sat together with Su Yi, had been trying to inquire about Su Yis background.

Unfortunately, Su Yi was a transmigrated person so he couldnt get anything out of him. Su Yi was neither humble nor arrogant as his facial expression had always been calm, only replying when needed.

Deacon Wu was getting more and more surprised. Was this certainly a youngster? He had surprisingly been unable to get any information out of him. The boy gave him an indecipherable feeling.

Very quickly, the youth from before had come back and in his hands were the items that Su Yi had listed.

Those Spiritual Herbs were freshly collected. Su Yi chose for a while and selected those that their roots were still intact as only those, would be able to survive within the mysterious space.

In the end, out of the forty thousand Yuan Stones, Su Yi was only left with slightly over eighteen thousand, causing him to feel a little heartache.

Spending over twenty thousand Yuan Stones in one day, within the Yi City, it was an unimaginable wealth.

After putting the elixirs and the medicinal herbs into the interspatial bag, Su Yi got up preparing to leave.

Sir, please wait.

At this moment, a crisp voice was transmitted over.

Su Yi looked towards where the voice had come from and saw a woman in simple clothing, along with a beautiful figure with a white veil covering her face.

That graceful and exquisite figure was wearing a lilac dress with a thin mesh as outerwear that incisively and vividly outlined the elegant frame, with long hair that reached the soft yet seemingly boneless waist, making people uncontrollably to have perverted thoughts about her.

Su Yi sized up the figure. From her voice, she did not seem to be that old.

And from that formless temperament, it was not hard to imagine that under the white veil was a beautiful face that could tempt any human with emotions or even an entire country.

A strong cultivator. She is unquestionably, very powerful!

The moment Su Yi glanced at the woman in her 50s who was wearing simple clothing, he secretly trembled, the woman wore a plain dress with a hairpin in her hair. On her face were some wrinkles, which made her look like a kind lady. But within that formless aura, Su Yi felt that it had an immeasurable strength, giving him a feeling that she was even stronger than Deacon Wu. This woman was definitely, a strong cultivator.

Let me introduce you to them. This person is our Ling Bao Pavilions Deacon Wu got up with great respect to introduce these people to Su Yi.

My name is Lan Chuolian, a disciple from the Ling Bao Pavilion. I still do not know Sirs name, will you mind telling me your name? Lan Chuolian interrupted Deacon Wus speech. Her eyes under the white veil seemed to be looking at Su Yi.

Su Yis face turned slightly dark. Looking at Lan Chuolians power and Deacon Wus attitude, her position in the Ling Bao Pavilion seemed to be rather high. What was up with today that he could attract the attention of the higher-ups of Ling Bao Pavilion?

Yi Su. Su Yi softly replied as it was the opposite of Su Yi so Yi Su shall be his name. It was unable to be regarded as changing his name.

Yi Su

Lan Chuolian softly mumbled before slightly smiling. Her eyes that were under the white veil gazed closely at Su Yi as she responded: What a nice name. I wonder where is Sir from? Is it possible that you had come here because of the recent news about the Blood Spiritual Ginseng that has appeared in the Grand Beast Canyon?

Chapter 133: Probing Out The Spirit!

Like the drifting clouds and wild geese, where I come from is not important. For treasures like Blood Spiritual Ginseng, only those fated can obtain it while it cannot be imposed on. If Lady Lan has nothing else to say, I will depart first. Su Yi softly replied. This Lan Chuolian, was not that old yet her status in the Ling Bao Pavilion was not simple. It was unlikely that she was a kind person, so if there was lesser communication between the both of them, the better.

After the words landed, Su Yi slightly nodded his head and turned to leave.

Seeing that Su Yi was leaving, Lan Chuolians eyes secretly moved under the white veil as she quickly shouted: Mister Yi Su, please halt your steps.

At the same time that she spoke, Lan Chuolian suddenly disappeared. That beautiful figure had directly reappeared in front of Su Yi.

Traces of delicate fragrance assaulted the nostril. At present, Su Yi's eyes secretly trembled under the cloak. This Lan Chuolian was not simple.

Whoosh In an instant, a formless aura surged through the cloak, into Su Yi's mind.

This aura that had appeared soundlessly was very suspicious.

However, Su Yi could feel that at this moment, the light crimson spiritual power in his mind was abruptly surging.

In a blink of an eye, inside Su Yi's mind, a gruesome and destructive aura was sipping out from within the depths of his soul and had directly bound itself onto that formless aura, wrapping around it.

The light crimson spiritual power fluctuated, and glow like it was on fire, burning the aura.

Si

In an instant, that formless aura seemed like it was going to burn as it suddenly retreated away quickly.

Stomp!

Lan Chuolian unknowingly took a step back, her eyes under the white veil were secretly filled with shock.

Spiritual power!

Su Yi later realized that someone had used spiritual power to invade his mind.

Lady Lan, what is the meaning of this!

Su Yi glared at Lan Chuolian as anger was sipping out of his brooding eyes. It was Lan Chuolian who was in front of him that had invaded his mind. If his spiritual power had not automatically counterattacked, he could have suffered horrible consequences.

Mister Yi Su, I have no bad intentions. I was only curious about you. Please forgive me.

Lan Chuolian bowed as her expression changed. At present, even through the veil, she could feel the anger boiling within his eyes.

Lan Chuolian had indeed just used her spirit to probe him out. As expected, this youth in front of her, was unmistakably an Alchemist.

The most shocking thing was, this man in front of her, had a very mighty spiritual power that was strangely frightening.

The aura of the spiritual power was like an unprovoked force of an emperor, its might destructive, that in an instant made her feel as though a bolt of lightning had struck her. If she had not retreated promptly, her spirit would be damaged.

Following after, in Lan Chuolian's hand was a delicately crafted triangular shaped card, that was black and shiny with many defined floral prints. She handed it over to Su Yi while saying in an apologetic tone: This is my Ling Bao Pavilions black card. In the future, if Mister goes to any of our Ling Bao Pavilions branches, as long as you show this card, you will be able to enjoy the best services from our Ling Bao Pavilion. Consider this as my apology to Mister.

Fairy Maiden, this

When Deacon Wu saw Lan Chuolian taking out the black card, he could no longer contain his facial expression as his heart kept fluttering. That was the Ling Bao Pavilions black card ah!

In the Ling Bao Pavilion, there were four types of VIP cards, which respectively were the silver card, gold card, black card, and the supreme spirit card.

Generally, to become Ling Bao Pavilions VIP was already very difficult.

Everyone knew that to become a VIP of the Ling Bao Pavilion, even if it was just a silver card membership, it could already represent your strength and status.

Theoretically, for Ling Bao Pavilions silver card members, unless they had a huge supporter, even if they had the cultivation of the Yuan True Realm, without having a special relationship and backing, they could only dream about having it.

As for Ling Bao Pavilions gold card members, if a Yuan Emperor Realm could manage to become their gold member, it would be enough to flaunt their status.

As for the black card, this level of membership, in the entire Ling Bao Pavilion, only a few people had the qualifications to have it and Fairy Maiden, was one of them. Just based on this, it was enough to show how hard it was to become a black card member of the Ling Bao Pavilion.

Ling Bao Pavilions black card members, not only could they enjoy the best services provided by the Ling Bao Pavilion when they purchase or sell goods, but it could also make all of the strong cultivators come flocking over.

And now, Fairy Maiden had directly signed a black card to a youth whose face they had never seen, which could consider as to never met him, how could Deacon Wu not be surprised?

In the entire continent, the total number of people that had this Ling Bao Pavilions black card would not even amount to much.

Fine, then I wont be polite. Su Yi took a step back, and without any hesitation, under the shocked gaze of Deacon Wu, he impolitely took away the black card and immediately left.

Send Mister Yi Su away.

Lan Chuolian said. Under the white veil, her eyes watched as Su Yi left, her gaze became slightly cloudy and even contained fright.

The youth from before who was from Ling Bao Pavilion came forward and passionately sent Su Yi downstairs to leave.

Fairy Maiden, that is my Ling Bao Pavilions black card ah, that Yi Su

Deacon Wu was depressed that the black card had been sent away so readily.

Most importantly, that was the Ling Bao Pavilions black card! If given to anyone else, they would be so ecstatic that they would move to tears.

However, that Yi Su had acted indifferent to it like, it was nothing and leave just like that.

But little did Deacon Wu knew that Su Yi had no idea about the background of the Ling Bao Pavilion.

What black or gold card. For Su Yi, he only thought that he would just be given a discount when he brought something.

There was a bargain to take so why waste it, additionally, that Lan Chuolian had angered him too. If the black card could give him some discount, that was only merely a repayment to him.

This is called building a relationship, nothing more to say.

Inside the hall, Lan Chuolian related to Deacon Wu.

Right now in Lan Chuolians heart, there was a lot of suspicions. That Yi Su had given her an unfathomable feeling.

She had already sized him up. No matter from which side, both of their ages should not be big unless he had hidden it on purpose?

If not, why did he have no emotion when he saw the black card of Ling Bao Pavilion.

This toleration, not even a Yuan Emperor Realm could have handled it.

Fairy Maiden, have you find out anything? The woman in simple clothing asked. From her reaction not long ago, something seemed to be amiss.

If he has no intention to hide, then he might be the Alchemist. His spiritual power is very unusual and powerful. For someone that can nurture such a disciple, he must be extraordinary. They are worthy to bear the black card. Lan Chuolian frowned and replied softly.

The woman in simple clothing did not say anything else as she knew her junior sister the best. From a young age, regardless of her mentality or talent, she had always been a phenomenon. After a few more years, when she faced the outside world, she would cause a tremendous uproar to the entire continent.

Chapter 134: Trailed!

Su Yi had left the Ling Bao Pavilion. This time, he had gained plenty of profits.

Meanwhile in the city, Su Yi wandered around for a moment before finally going into a bar.

Inside the bar, the voices of people were everywhere and it was very lively.

Many bulky men bared their upper bodies and were playing drinking games. Three to five of them had formed a group together, while eight to nine of them had formed a team.

These people were all from the adventurer teams or the mercenary groups.

When striving inside the Forest of Demons, some of them had to undergo many sleepless nights running about trying to make money. Therefore presently, they naturally have to relax for the moment.

Inside the bar, other than wine, there was also meats from low cultivation beasts that been butchered.

Drinking wine from a big bowl and chewing on meat with a huge bite, this lifestyle was more suitable for these mercenary groups and adventurer teams.

Su Yi found a secluded corner and ordered a jar of wine with a plate of meat.

This time after I went back, I must find a little red peach to have fun with for three days and three nights. Thinking about those breasts, I already feel like drooling!

Hahaha, can you even last for three days and three nights? I believe you would be dead on top of that little red peaches body.

Hubbubs of voices were everywhere. The words used by these bulky men from the mercenary groups and adventurer teams were very crude.

Su Yi had come to this bar to seek out information. In a place like this where people from all walks of life would gather and on top of wine and meat, this was where most pieces of information spread around.

The kid, Black Fiend School is searching for has still yet to be found, so the bounty has increased once again. I even heard that as long as you can provide news about that kid, you can get fifty thousand Yuan Stones. And if you manage to capture that kid, you can get a Star Grade High-Level elixir.

That kid is unquestionably a talent and must be hard to handle. Not only did he kill the young master of the Black Fiend School, he even made the Black Fiend School search for him for such a long time with absolutely nothing.

Not only that, I heard that not long ago, the Black Fiend Schools Dharma Protector Heijiu also couldnt take down that kid.

That kid has such a big gut to dare to kill the School Masters only son. The Black Fiend School will never let him off!

Su Yis eyebrows secretly moved. Finally, he had heard some news about himself and strained his ears to listen more.

The news was what Su Yi had expected that the Black Fiend School had increased the bounty to find him. All the information talked about the same thing.

I noticed that many strong cultivators from the Black Fiend School are here. That kid couldnt have fled here, right?

Impossible. The one that came seems to be the Black Fiend Schools High Elder.

Reputedly, the Blood Spiritual Ginseng has appeared in Grand Beast Canyon. Maybe they had come here for it.

No way, did the Blood Spiritual Ginseng truly appear?

Shhh, lower your volume. Not many people know about this. I have also inadvertently found out about it. It shouldnt be a baseless rumor.

However, it was some other news that had made Su Yi frowned. If the Black Fiend Schools High Elder was really around the area, then he should try to steer away from them or else the outcome would be fraught with grim possibilities.

Suddenly Su Yi, who was engrossed in listening felt a cold gaze, landed on him.

Su Yi followed the gaze and could see that not far away, the owner of the cold gaze and the several people sitting with him.

The owner of that gaze was no stranger as it was Third Brother Xiong from the Wild Bear Gang.

At the moment, all of the three Xiong Brothers were present along with some other bulky men.

Those people were passing on a message to each other's ears. One by one, all of them turned and sneered at him.

Is this what they call enemies often cross each other's path

Su Yi lightly laughed, what a small world to be able to meet these guys at the bar.

Since he had already heard what he needed to hear, and there might be strong cultivators from the Black Fiend School around, Su Yi stood up and directly left the place.

Seeing that Su Yi had gotten up, the people from the Wild Bear Gang sneered and got up without leaving any traces as they trailed after Su Yi.

All of this, Su Yi had naturally noticed it. He silently glanced sideways to look at the people behind him that were trying to hide while following him.

Making those Yuan Spirit Realm cultivators sneak around and hid while following him, it was the first time that Su Yi had experienced such a thing.

Su Yi silently contemplated, there were a few Yuan Spirit Realm cultivators amongst them, and the Wild Bear Gang might also have others hiding elsewhere. Most likely, once he got out of Yi City, these people would immediately attack him.

His opponents were in the Yuan Spirit Realm hence in terms of speed, Su Yi did not think that he would have the advantage.

After getting out of Yi City, these people would most likely stop hiding and directly attack him.

By then, the chances of him escaping would be slim.

It would not be a good idea for Golden Python and the rest to come out as there were too many people around since it was too near to Yi City.

To avoid any risks, Su Yi had also made the Golden Python stay away and wait for him.

Boss, how much does this cost? While walking, Su Yi had kept on making numerous stops while purposely turning his head back randomly, causing the people from the Wild Bear Gang to keep going into hiding.

Customer, come up and play with us! At a corner of the street, some ladies that were wearing revealing clothing and heavy makeup were trying to pull in customers.

How much does it cost? Inspiration struck, and Su Yi quickly glanced behind without leaving any indication. Then he looked at the gorgeous lady in front of him that exposed a deep cleavage and asked.

Cheap and guaranteed to your satisfaction. Seeing that Su Yi had answered her, the gorgeous lady immediately hugged Su Yi's arm passionately and enchantingly.

Guaranteed to my satisfaction, then what are the things you know how to do? Su Yi jokingly asked while taking the chance to grab her waist.

Customer, you are so naughty. Guaranteed you will be satisfied. Naturally, I know how to do a b*****b, make love, be touched and moan. The gorgeous lady responded charmingly while taking the chance to stick tightly onto Su Yi's body.

B*****b, make love, be touched and moaning. Hearing this caused Su Yi's heart to uncontrollably flutter.

Half hugging that gorgeous lady, Su Yi went up to the second floor and into a room.

Humph, that fellow sure knows how to enjoy life. If it isn't because fighting is not allowed in Yi City, I would have already killed him. Who does he think he is for wasting my time waiting for him.

Not far away in a corner, Third Brother Xiong's expression turned dark with rage.

Third Xiong had thought that the fellow would be heading out of town but who knew that he had suddenly come to a brothel.

Staring at the women who were presently wearing such little clothing, Third Xiong who had been out for several months, suddenly felt his throat grow dry as he uncontrollably kept swallowing his saliva.

That fellow actually could go up to the second floor of the Ling Bao Pavilion, seems like there must be quite a lot of stuff on his body. Among the three bulky men, Da Xiong's face secretly turned dark as his eyes revealed a glint.

He should be getting out of the city soon, just wait for a moment more. Er Xiong spoke while his gaze was deep and dark. Among the three brothers, he had always been the wisest.

Humph, when the time comes, I will make sure he regrets provoking me!

Third Xiong clenched his fist tightly and declared angrily.

Time slowly passed. After more than an hour, the people from Wild Bear Gang were gradually feeling fretful from the waiting.

Particularly the several ladies in heavy makeup in front of them had been flaunting themselves, making several of them to be even more uncomfortable.

Is that fellow's body that good? Why hasn't he come out yet? Third Xiong gnashed his teeth in anger as his hatred grew by the minute. Who did the fellow think he was?

Chapter 135: Your Dictionary Is Fake

They are coming out, it is the lady, but why did that guy not come out?

Could it be that they played too roughly and he already died inside?

Just look at that lady, you see that backside, those breasts, she is definitely a person with a high sex desire, normal men would not be able to bear that.

The big men of the Wild Bear Gang showed malicious smiles, they kept staring at the gorgeous lady as she walked down the stairs. They could not help imagining the coquettishness of the lady on the bed just now.

Something is wrong, that boy might have noticed us. The second Xiong brothers expression had changed dramatically in an instance.

Su Yi went out of Yi City and had immediately left without hesitation, if the Wild Bear Gang had caught up to him, then he would be the one who would be encountering bad luck.

As for the voluptuous woman, after Su Yi had entered the room, he had paid the reward and immediately jumped out of the window to leave.

Su Yi did not want to end his virgin life here and also did not want to lose his first time to a woman in the prostitution business.

Out of the city, Su Yi had paid attention to his back and after showing his identity he had left quickly.

Although carrying a heavy sword, Su Yis speed was not slow.

However, after an hour, Su Yi had noticed that there was someone who had still been following him.

They finally came

Su Yi seemed to have estimated all of this as his lips under the mask gave out a secret smile, and he ran towards the remote forest in front.

Quick, keep up with that guy, right ahead! Thats the guy. Dont let him go! On the road, dozens of people had dashed out, and the people who had led the group were the three brothers of the Wild Bear Gang.

From the mouth of the gorgeous woman, Wild Bear Gang found out that Su Yi had really escaped, and must have gone out of the city, so had immediately notified the others to search all the way.

The three Xiong brothers had sought for him, after all, Su Yis attire was very eye-catching and after an hour, they had finally caught up.

Just up front, quick! Third Xiong rubbed his hands and his eyes showed coldness. This was a place suitable for fighting, he had waited long enough and could not hold back anymore as finally, he could fight.

Boom! When he had just finished his words, the Yuan energy under Third Xions feet burst out which shaped itself into a huge leopard.

Roar! The leopard gave a deep roar, and had immediately run up to chase after Su Yi.

This Third Xiong was a Yuan Spirit Realm cultivator, but the virtual figure of the beast created by his Yuan Energy had been a land beast and not a flying beast.

Generally speaking, when a Yuan Spirit Realm cultivators Yuan energy had formed a shape, the beast which had been shaped would usually be a flying beast as this would make things easier.

But there also were exceptions. Some people didnt have enough talent to shape a flying beast.

This Third Xiong was one of those untalented Yuan Spirit Realm cultivators, but the speed of the leopard beast was very fast, roaring and rapidly chasing after Su Yi.

Mountains, boulders, and towering trees.

The massive vines, like a dragon, had taken root and twisted around the boulders and towering trees.

I told you never to let me see you out of town, hehe! Third Xiong had finally caught up, the leopard underneath his feet was as if alive, it was aggressive, and its breath was thundering and swept off the sand around it.

Su Yi stopped and looked at the eyes of the Third Xiong who had managed to chase him calmly and said, You caught up slower than I expected. Listening to Su Yi's words, Third Xiong was stunned for a second, then he stared at Su Yi and said, At this time you still pretend to be strong, don't you know how the word death is written? It will be you who dies. Do you believe it? said Su Yi with a faint smile.

Well, keep bragging and die. Third Xiong was mad and his aura boiled and shook the void. He was about to begin his fight.

Wait a minute. Su Yi said to the Third Xiong.

What now, are you going to beg for mercy? Kneel down and kowtow with your face down three times, and I will only take half of your life. How is that? Third Xiong was stunned, then looked at Su Yi and laughed maniacally. This guy had finally known how to beg for mercy.

Wait for your helpers to come. I don't want any other trouble. said Su Yi calmly.

Whoosh As Su Yi's words fell, Da Xiong and Er Xiong had caught up.

A*****e, it's no use begging for mercy today. Third Xiong was furious.

Trust me, you'll be sorry. Su Yi smiled faintly.

I have never had the word regret in my dictionary. Third Xiong was already unbearably furious.

Then I can responsibly tell you that your dictionary is definitely fake. said Su Yi, his voice was light as the clouds and wind.

Son of a bitch, I will smash you into mud today. Third Xiong growled deeply. How could this guy still have had the guts to make fun of him and not take him seriously? His eyes had turned icy cold as his Yuan energy boiled, followed by his aura which had become tough.

Third brother, be careful, there is something wrong. Er Xiong looked on with suspicion, the attitude of the opponent had been strange and so he had stopped Third Xiong. He had also noticed the weird atmosphere of the surroundings, he felt distressed and uneasy.

If I hadn't left a trail all the way intentionally, do you think you could have caught up with me? Since you are seeking your own death, you cannot blame me for this, you can all die now! Once Su Yi had opened his mouth and talked, his eyes showed a killing intent. He could not be blamed.

Hehe, you bastard, your tone is a bit too big, do you think you alone can fight with so many of us Third Xiong had been unhappy being stopped by his second brother and when he had heard Su Yi's words at that moment, he was extremely mad. But his expression turned from furious to being stunned before he could even finish his words.

Hiss A golden python had quietly and coiled around Su Yi. A black mouse and a small red mink had also come out and stood beside him.

Swoosh A silver butterfly and a white jade bird had appeared in the air. They were not big in size but a flap from their wings caused a strong wind.

Growl The crowd were surprised, and their expressions kept changing at the same time when they heard a roar that sounded like thunder.

At the back of the Wild Bear Gang, a hanging tiger had roared as it leisurely paced towards them. Its eyes were fixed on them and it growled deeply showing its sharp teeth presenting an aura that could not be provoked.

Boom When six such beasts appeared, six terrible auras had filled the air.

Not good, its the beasts! The Golden Python, Spectral Mouse, White Jade Swallow, Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger, are all in the Demonic Spirit Realm How come there are so many Demonic Spirit Realm beasts! Not good, Lord what should we do! The Wild Bear Gang was trembling in fear and their faces showed horror.

That breath of strength, how could they not feel it, they could only be Demonic Spirit Realm beasts.

One of them would have been enough to bring them bad luck, let alone the fact that there were six of them now.

Kill! Su Yi waved and said with a low growl.

Chapter 136: Entering the Grand Beast Canyon.

Oww As Su Yis words fell, in a flash, the six beasts swept out and six fierce breaths swept the four sides, as they dashed towards the gang.

Run, run! These beasts are his. Weve been tricked. Run! Help Roar Rumble The situation was in chaos with the beasts roaring like thunder, rocks flying and the mountains collapsing.

The third brother Xiong of the Wild bear gang only knew at that moment that they had come to seek their own death.

They would not have dared to provoke him if they had known that he was surrounded by six such fearsome beasts even if someone had lent them a hundred times more guts, but it was too late to repent.

Within the few dozen people of the Wild bear gang, except the three brothers which were at the Yuan Spirit Realm, the remaining were only at the Yuan Soul Realm with about a dozen at the Yuan Xuan Realm.

Such cultivations were not enough to fight with the Golden Python, the firebird and the others .

As for the Three Xiong brothers, the golden python swallowed the second Xiong brother as soon as it opened its mouth and then swiped the leader, Big Xiong brother to death.

The third Xiong brother was torn into pieces and swallowed by the fire eyes tiger.

In a short time, the Wild Bear Gang was destroyed.

From the big Xiong brother, Su Yi found an interspatial bag, presumably the harvest from the exchange in Lingbao Pavillion, were all in the interspatial bag.

Lets go Su Yi took several wild animals and left, this was not a place to stay as his act just now might have alarmed someone.

Two days later.

In front of the continuous mountains that stretched far and wide winding with layers of cliffs overlapping, along with the winding of a grand canyon.

The two sides of the mountain, shot straight to the sky, like a vertical sword separating the sky respectively!

This continuous canyon, with not just one but several of them lining in this vast space hovering in the sky and earth. It looked breathtaking from afar.

Sir, theres the Grand Beast Canyon ahead. said the Silver spirit butterfly hovering over his shoulder .

Grand Beast Canyon Su Yi looked ahead at the canyon which consisted of a vast territory, with not many mercenaries and adventure teams daring to enter it.

This was the way leading to the demonic forest, the paradise of the beasts.

For humans, it represents the land of the dead.

Adventure teams and mercenaries want to kill the beasts and gain resources from them.

Many body parts of the beast, such as muscles and bones, could be used as refining and alchemy materials, so their values were high.

But knowing that there were many wild animals in the grand canyon, not many dared to go there.

Because out of those who rush into the Grand Beast Canyon, few could get out safely.

Come in. Su Yi nodded, Black Fiend School was searching for him outside, so now he could only enter the Grand Beast Canyon.

In here, he would have many advantages over others.

Roar Hearing the words, Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly, Spectral Mouse, Golden Python, Fire-Eyes Beast Tiiger and the others gave a happy roar.

Outside, with their current cultivation, they could not gain any more experience, the Grand Beast Canyon was their paradise now, and the Demon Woods would be too someday.

Inside the Grand Beast Canyon, there were numerous beasts and Su Yi encountered many beasts not long after he walked in.

But these beasts did not have a high cultivation, so with the Golden Python, Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and other powerful auras of the beasts, they did not dare to disturb Su Yi.

The deeper it gets, there would be beasts with higher cultivation, and I have heard that there is a Demon Emperor in the Demon Woods. Fire-EyeS Beast Tiger told Su Yi. The Grand Beast Canyon was not a good place.

Demon Emperor Su Yis eyes also secretly flashed with some feelings of yearning as Demon Emperors in legends were existences of the Demonic Emperor Realm which was very powerful.

Find a place, I have something for you said Su Yi . He had prepared many elixirs for the beasts this time in Lingbao Pavillion.

This was inside the grand canyon, but it was still safer and if he could further improve the realm of the Golden Python, it would be much safer then.

And Su Yi himself wanted to cultivate a little in the Grand Beast Canyon, to strive and breakthrough to the Yuan Xuan Realm as the Yuan Soul Realm was too weak.

Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly and White Jade Swallow, explored the road, and had soon found a safe place.

At night, in the cave, Su Yi called out the mysterious space, and let the Golden Python and the others enter it.

Within the mysterious space, Su Yi woke up the Flaming Beast Eagle and gigantic Snow Jade Ape, took out a lot of demonic elixirs and gave it to each of them.

Thank you, my Lord! The Golden Python and the others were happy and their eyes showed gratefulness as they knew what the demonic elixirs were.

As wild animals, it was almost impossible for them to get elixirs suitable for them.

And this time, after taking this kind of elixir they would gain many benefits.

We want to eat it too, my Lord. It looks delicious. Da Bao, Xiao Ling, came out with a greedy look.

I have yours too. Su Yi smiled, he definitely would not have forgotten these two little guys and found elixirs specially for them.

This kind of elixir was suitable for the Demonic Spirit Realm to take, its effect was not suitable for these two little guys.

The Flaming Beast Eagle and the Golden Python took the elixir and started to cultivate in the mysterious space.

Then Su Yi placed the elixirs that he exchanged in the Lingbao Pavillion into the mysterious space to strengthen its level.

Meanwhile, a lot of fresh elixirs being planted would consume a lot of Su Yis time.

In the mysterious space, the area was not too large. After planting, the space had been covered and it looked like a large field of medicine.

Su Yi was in a good mood, this was a large amount of wealth. The elixirs could be sold at a high price when they matured.

After doing everything, he looked at the beasts as they had already consumed the elixirs. Su Yi left, hoping that the beasts would grow stronger after being kept in the mysterious space.

Outside the mysterious space and the cave, the sky was filled with stars, the night wind howling, and the moon was in the west as it was already midnight.

Growl Deep inside the valley, there were thundering roars from time to time.

Not sure what is the effect of absorbing the Yuan stone.

Su Yi suddenly thought of something, martial artists could absorb Yuan stones to cultivate, and the Yuan stone he gained after that was absorbed by the mysterious space.

But now wasn't the same, this time he gained many Yuan Stones from Lingbao Pavilion.

Su Yi wanted to try, it was said that if a cultivator absorbed the energy of the Yuan stone he would be able to multiply his cultivation.

Taking out the Yuan stone from his interspatial bag, Su Yi was ready to try and see if he could absorb the energy of the Yuan Stone to cultivate.

He sat with his legs crossed and with the Yuan Stone on his palm, he adjusted his breath and closed his eyes cultivating his Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique to try this out.

Boom The Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique moved and his aura surged.

Hiss At the same time something changed.

Chapter 137: The Strange Elderly

The mysterious sphere of light in Su Yi's mind suddenly burst forth at this moment, with a force of absorption gushing out.

The next moment, the Yuan Stone on his palm became a pile of powder, losing its glow and had become like the Yuan Stone in Man City that day before Su Yi could completely react.

Su Yi frowned, and again took out a stone to try.

But the result was the same, the mysterious group of light in his mind immediately gushed out to devour the energy of the Yuan stone that was then directly absorbed.

Su Yi gave up and stopped trying.

Su Yi was a little helpless, it was normal to lose something when you gain others.

Other martial artists could absorb Yuan stones to speed up their cultivation, but his body had this weird mysterious sphere of light because of which he could not rely on absorbing Yuan stones to cultivate.

But after thinking carefully, Su Yi felt that this did not affect him much.

Anyway, cultivating in the mysterious space could also speed up his pace of spiritual cultivation.

And that mysterious space could nourish elixir medicines and had other functions like producing medical fluid.

Late at night.

Under the moonlight, the vast expanse of the hills lay silent in the twilight, silent against the sky, vast and endless.

Su Yi stood at the top of the mountain, looking at the bright moon high above the sky, and feeling the quiet night.

Su Yi was deep in thought with various feelings in his heart.

After arriving in this world, he had experienced a lot, his past life was meaningless, and at first he thought that in this different world he would have some achievements, but now, he had still been hiding in this demon filled forest.

His grandfather who loved him the most in this world had suffered a serious injury and he was afraid that he would not live much longer anymore.

Thinking of this, Su Yi could only sigh and started reading out poems, What trace remains of Wus brave king Sun Quan? Towers and pavilions where girls danced and sang, Your glory is swept away by wind and rain; The slanting sunlight falls on grass and trees, small lanes, the quarters of the humble folk; Yet here, they say, Liu Yu lived. I think of the days gone by when with a gilded spear and an iron-clad steed, he charged like a tiger to swallow up vast territories. In the days of Yuanjia, hasty preparations were made to march to the Langju Xu Mountains, but the men of Song were routed from the north. Now forty-three years have passed, and looking north I remember the beacon fires that blazed the way to Yangzhou; Bitter memories these. Of sacred crows among the holy drums. In the Tartar emperors temple..Who will ask old Lian Po if he still enjoys his food?

At last, Su Yis voice became louder and louder, echoing in the deep night sky.

The night breeze caressed gently, the garment robe floats, and at this moment, Su Yis eyes shone, he did not want to be like that in this life anymore.

Good, good, good

Suddenly, a voice came, which sounded faint and filled with the vicissitudes of life.

Who is that!

Su Yi was surprised, and looked back while following the sound, and there was an elderly man who was standing behind him without him noticing.

He was an old man of sixty, thin but tough, with deep wrinkles on his neck, a black toga, and brown sunken eyes. He was holding a big wine gourd which had a strong scent of wine in his hand.

A strong one!

Su Yi backed a few steps, this man appeared at night in the Grand Beast Canyon quietly behind his back, which was absolutely strong, unfathomable.

Listening to your voice, you sound young, dont be afraid, if you dont provoke me, this old man would not fight with you. I just heard your poem and with the aftereffects of the wine, I had some thoughts in mind. The old man looked at Su Yi calmly and seemed to see Su Yis tension through the cloak and mask.

Greetings to fellow senior. Su Yi held his fist and bowed in respect but he was still cautious, although he was a little relieved.

We are strangers, there is no senior or junior between us, did you write this poem? The old man looked at Su Yi with curiosity.

This poem is not mine, I was just lamenting, sorry that Ive disturbed you, senior. This junior will leave now. Su Yi was planning to leave. It was better to leave early especially in the middle of the night in the demonic grand canyon.

Wait, I said dont worry, just dont worry.

The old man called out to Su Yi, and held the wine gourd up to drink, then looked at Su Yi and said, I would like to know, what were you lamenting about. You sound like you have something in your heart by listening to the poem.

Looking at the old man, Su Yi did not dare to leave.

The mysterious old man might suddenly hate him, he could not even hit one of his little fingers.

Anyway, it seemed that the old man really had no malicious intentions towards him, so he dared not leave, Su Yi simply sat down and was planning to see what was coming.

Looking at the old man, Su Yi said, In fact, there were not too many emotions, I just feel that life is like a vast ocean with waves, live with as much glamor as a blooming summer flower, die as peaceful as an autumn leaf. Even if he cannot be like General Wei Qing, there will still be blood spilled and gun fire. A veteran thoroughbred in the stable still dreams of the wilds; A man of action, though advanced in years, aspires after great exploits, the blade will still be sharp, drinking blood from the battlefield.

Good, good, good

The elderly man kept praising him. This time the look he gave Su Yi was filled with eagerness as he was excited and said, Good Poem. A veteran thoroughbred in the stable still dreams of the wilds; A man of action, though advanced in years, aspires after great exploits, the blade will still be sharp, drinking blood from the battlefield.

Thank you, senior. Su Yi smiled lightly. He was just reciting what he was feeling. After coming to this world, he did not want to waste his life and wanted to fulfill his dreams.

Haha, I didnt expect to meet a young man like you in this demon filled forest. Take off your cloak and mask, although you should be hiding from someone, but this old man will protect you tonight, could you have a drink with this old man?

The old man looked at Su Yi and handed the big wine gourd in his hand to him.

Su Yi hesitated for a while, and then directly removed the cloak and mask, revealing his nice looking face whose complexion was not fair.

In the moonlight, Su Yis figure was tall and straight, with a pair of long and thin eyes under his sword-like eyebrows, shining with a bright light, deep and sharp.

Looking at Su Yis appearance, the elderly man showed a moment of inexplicable surprised expression. He seemed to not expect that the young man in front of him would be younger than he had expected and the weird attire on his back that would draw peoples attention.

Okay, I will accept your offer. Su Yi smiled, took the old wine gourd, and drank it straight up. He had an arrogant aura in him which seemed to be inborn.

Cough

After just a mouthful of wine, Su Yi almost spat it out.

The wine was too strong, so his throat felt as if it was being scraped by a knife, and it gave out a heaty breath, as if his throat was about to burst out smoke, and then it spread all over his body.

What a strong wine. Su Yi was a little embarrassed. He did not expect the wine would be so strong.

This is a good thing, it took a lot of energy for this old man to get it. It might benefit you a lot after you drink it. said the old man with a faint smile.

Is that so

Su Yi was stunned, staring at the big wine gourd, then he again took a big and generous gulp.

Chapter 138: On the trip to Demon Woods, myriad of beasts shall hail me as King!

Cough cough

After a big mouthful of wine, his throat felt like it was going to bleed and the burning feeling made Su Yi red from his neck to his entire face.

Haha, so care-free and easy going. This kid is not bad.

The old man watched Su Yi and was shocked. Then, he softly chuckled as his eyes shone with admiration. This kid seemed like a greedy person, yet he was easy-going, upright, and care-free, unlike a hypocrite.

Senior has seen something funny. Su Yi finally handed the wine gourd back to the old man.

The old man took over and took a drink. Gazing at the vast night sky, and the chains of mountains, his eyes gleamed as he muttered: Success or failure, right or wrong- they do not seem to matter so much once your back is turned. The green mountains will still be there yet, how many sunsets will still carry the glorious afterglow? A white-haired fisherman work on the shoals. Theyve seen so much of the spring breeze and autumn moon. A jug of cheap wine drinking to our happy meeting; so many momentous events, past and present, are bandied about with laughter!

The words landed, and the old man sighed as he seemed to have disclosed his emotions.

Su Yi turned his head and peered at the old man. He softly chuckled and said: Seniors speech and drinking wine doesnt match, not a single bit.

What do you mean? The old man turned his head and looked at Su Yi curiously.

The wine is strong yet the speech. Su Yi lightly snorted and shook his head as he told the old man: Nevermind, Junior is afraid that he will say the wrong thing.

Just speak out what is on your mind. The old man gazed at Su Yi with his eyes filled with expectation.

Then this Junior shall be insolent.

Su Yi glanced at the old man and stated: From Seniors speech, Junior can feel as if a long lake of history is flowing before Seniors eyes as the days of striving in Jiangshan are floating beneath your feet. Its just that things had changed as time passes. Within your sigh, it reveals your benevolence and tragedy as when you finally got used to it, the cloud has become light, and the wind has quiet down.

Su Yi slightly paused and continued: Senior was regretting. Regretting that nobody was willing to be a friend that will forever be with you, to exchange toasts with you and to converse cheerfully over a glass of wine, letting many spring winds and autumn moons to pass by. Now Senior should be still alone, occasionally humming and softly singing just like a night similar to today, in the long lake-like history as it became years of vicissitudes!

The old man kept watching Su Yi, and in no time, there were ripples inside the brown eyes within his eye sockets as they slowly became calm.

After another pause, Su Yi glanced at the old man and asked: Just an expression of feelings. Junior is too bold but am I right or wrong?

Haha

The old man laughed. After drinking a mouthful of wine, he threw the wine gourd back over to Su Yi and smilingly answered: Whether you are right or wrong, is not important. The important thing is tonight I have you, this little kid, to exchange toasts with, which will regard as an unexpected gain. Excellent.

Junior is fortunate.

Su Yi took over the wine gourd, and with no hesitation, he drank another mouthful. Nevertheless, the wine was good stuff. It would be a waste, to not drink as in the future, he might not be able to have another sip again.

Drinking to ones fill and madly singing in these empty days. Soaring domineeringly for whom. On the trip to Demon Woods, myriad of beasts shall hail me as King. The tiger in my heart has jolted awake as it roars towards the sky, making the earth rumble. Laughing towards the sky with a sword and a knife, it does not even compare to tonights drinking!

Su Yi guffaw while drinking, and spoke when inspiration struck. He felt as if his burning blood was boiling. Since he had come to this different world, from now onwards, he shall live as glamorously as a blooming summer flower and die as serene as an autumn leaf. Even if he could not be the same as General Wei Qing, there would still be blood spilled, and gun fired.

Drinking to ones fill and madly singing in these empty days. Soaring domineeringly for whom. On the trip to Demon Woods, myriad of beasts shall hail me as King. The tiger in my heart has jolted awake as it roars towards the sky, making the earth rumble. Laughing towards the sky with a sword and a knife, it does not even compare to tonights drinkingGoodGood What a good laughing towards the sky with a sword and a knife, it does not even compare to tonights drinking, it is utterly robust. Excellent

The old man listened carefully and mumbled to himself. In the end, he couldnt contain himself and clapped his hands. As if he was influenced by it, he raised his chest while his eyes shone. He could detect that the kid had created the poem.

Senior has flattered me. Su Yi also chuckled and drank another mouthful of wine.

Se

Just as that mouthful of wine went down this throat, when Su Yi wanted to speak again, he found that his sight was blurry and his mind began to spin. The fiery blood in his body seemed like it was indeed boiling up as the scorching aura was as though trying to burn off his robe. Following next, Su Yi fell head down onto the ground.

Be careful of my wine The old man was not surprised as he watched Su Yi fell. In particular, he was more concerned about his wine as his movements were like a ghost. Before Su Yi could fell completely, the wine gourd was already back into his hand.

Boom!

Su Yi fell with all four limbs pointed towards the sky. His entire face was red like a fireball.

The old man glanced towards Su Yi who had fallen at his side as a smile hung on his face, and his eyes shown approval as he softly spoke: Yuan Soul Realm cultivation. He drank my wine but yet, he could last this long. So extremely rare!

What the

Suddenly, the eyes of the old man changed. He could see that the aura on Su Yi's body was surging as a layer of light sipped out to cage his entire body. That aura was very arrogant and mighty.

This is unusual, looks like this kid is quite special. There was a surprise in the old man's eyes before his expression grew calm as he sat on a huge rock, not far from Su Yi.

Holding onto the wine gourd, the old man gazed at the moon that was hanging in the sky and the distant sea of mountains while he drank by himself.

Su Yi was drowsy and felt that his mind was full of dizziness as if the whole world was spinning as he fell unconscious.

In a state of dazed, Su Yi felt like his body was on fire, trying to burn off his body. Then, the scorching heat suddenly went into his Yuan Qi Whirlpool within his Dantian, causing his body to become warmer.

Early morning as the clouds filled up the sky.

White thick smoke followed the wind and floated around the sea of mountains, that from far away, it looked as if a painting was spreading out before the eyes.

Su Yi woke up, but what he felt first, was the changes within his body. He had just broken into Yuan Soul Realm Eighth Grade but, now it unexpectedly seemed like there were signs of breaking through again.

That wine, it must not be any normal wine!

Su Yi immediately recalled of that potent wine. It must be an effect of it as the old man had mentioned before that, the wine was good stuff.

Not good

Thinking of that old man, Su Yi finally remembered and jumped up.

Su Yi had forgotten about the 500-kilograms heavy sword and almost fell on top of it. Luckily, he was no longer what he was before, and he didn't embarrass himself by stumbling.

Looking at the surroundings, that old man had disappeared without a trace. Su Yi's heart clenched as he immediately searched his belongings.

All of the interspatial bags were still here and his body was alright. Su Yi finally felt reassured.

As for the old man from yesterday night, Su Yi did not ponder too much of it.

That was a strong cultivator. From the way he spoke, although he had thousands of knots in his heart, he was like the drifting clouds and the wild geese, therefore passing by this place, was normal. Maybe he had come for the rumored Blood Spiritual Ginseng and realized, that was something he could not be able to really touched and then left. Furthermore, those kinds of strong cultivators, definitely wouldnt bother with such a rookie like him.

With just a few mouthfuls of wine, Su Yis cultivation had once again raised to almost Yuan Soul Realm Ninth Grade. This unexpected gain made Su Yi felt delighted as the steps to breaking through the Yuan Soul Realm was getting closer.

Chapter 139: Grinding alone!

Rocky canyon.

A two feet tall and three feet long black wolf with thick canine teeth was staring menacingly at Su Yi as its mouth dripped with blood, emanating a bloody aura.

Howl

The big black wolf roared as its body shook, inexplicably fierce!

Stay away, or I will take action!

Su Yi studied the big black wolf. It was a Demonic Xuan Realms Fierce Serene Black Wolf.

A Demonic Xuan Realm First Grade beast for Su Yi was not a threat.

You actually can understand the beast language!

The Fierce Serene Black Wolf glanced at Su Yi with astonishment. The wolf was shocked that a strange human actually could understand its words.

Go away.

Su Yi opened his mouth. He had felt that ever since he cultivated the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique, there was a bizarre influence that formlessly made him sensed that he had some relations with these beasts, causing him to feel much closer to them.

So what if you can understand the beast language, as long as you are a human, you must die!

The Fierce Serene Black Wolf deeply roared, its ferocious glare did not diminish as it watched Su Yi like it was facing a prey. Its footsteps were light as it prepared to launch an attack at any time to exterminate the prey.

Since you seek death, then I shall fulfill your wish!

Within Su Yis eyes, a cold light was flowing out.

Since this Fierce Serene Black Wolf wanted to fight, then the situation was different. Just well, he could use this opportunity to grind himself.

Howl!

The Fierce Serene Black Wolf howled as it had finally found an opening. Its humongous body traveled fast as it launched forward.

Boom!

The Fierce Serene Black Wolf passed by with aura surging like a violent whirlwind, as a black light was brooding brilliantly with a fearsome aura. The wolf was an Earth element beast.

Crack

Su Yi activated the Hundred Transformation Steps and turned his body to the side to avoid the attack when the Fierce Serene Black Wolf with a fearsome face launched towards him, attempting to kill him.

At the same time, Su Yi clenched his right fist as the Yuan Qi surged and directly punched towards the Fierce Serene Black Wolf.

Su Yi took action but, he did not initiate the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique and kept the aura, wanting to fight it directly head-on.

Howl!

When the Fierce Serene Black Wolf missed its attack, the ferocious glow in its eyes grew even stronger as it deeply growled and raised its claws, directly slashing at Su Yi.

Su Yi's eyes sank. The Fierce Serene Black Wolf had sharp claws but, Su Yi's fists were his own flesh and blood, not befitting for the match. He unclenched his fist and bent his legs in a squatting position. Using the Hundred Transformation Steps, his body was abruptly underneath the Fierce Serene Black Wolf's belly, as a fist was instantly exploded out.

Boom!

The Fierce Serene Black Wolf had never imagined that a human's speed could be this fast as it could not avoid the fist in time. A rush of black aura was abruptly condensed on its belly as a deep growl spread out from there.

From Su Yi's fist, a tremendous force was frenziedly penetrated outward. Under the strong force, the Fierce Serene Black Wolf was almost flipped over. The Fierce Serene Black Wolf quickly staggered backward to forcibly stabilize its body.

Howl

The Fierce Serene Black Wolf gave a hurtful wail as it was unable to bear with the pain from its belly.

It certainly has a thick coat and flesh.

Su Yi's expression was calm. The defense of the Fierce Serene Black Wolf was stronger than what he had anticipated.

Having a strong defense was also one of the traits of an Earth element beast.

Similar to an Earth element cultivator, their defense was stronger compared to the others.

Amongst the defense cultivation techniques and martial arts techniques, the majority of them were of the Earth element.

Different types of Yuan Qi's element had their unique traits.

Like Earth element cultivators, they were outstanding for their defense.

For Gold element cultivators, they were known for their sharpness.

For Wind element cultivators, their speeds were superior compared to others.

As for the rarely seen Thunder element cultivators, they were known for their mighty and destructive attack powers, which were very strong.

Howl

The Fierce Serene Black Wolf continued to launch its attacks which were getting fiercer each time.

But after a short while, the Fierce Serene Black Wolf laid on the ground as its body was bleeding. It was killed, by Su Yi's fist that was smashed directly onto its head.

The fifty-eighth one!

Su Yi had already calmed down as he glanced at the Fierce Serene Black Wolf lying on the ground.

In these five days, this had already been the fifty-eighth beasts that Su Yi had killed.

Inside the Grand Beast Canyon, there were indeed beasts everywhere. The strongest one Su Yi ever met, was a Demonic Xuan Realm Fourth Grade beast. He had to use all of his strength to be able to kill it.

Additionally, the most beasts that Su Yi had ever met in these five days were thirteen Fiery Beast Rats. Although there were many of them, fortunately, their cultivation was not that high. But they had many weird antics that Su Yi had to risk his life to order to blast them into pieces.

In these five days, Su Yi did not initiate the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique when dealing with the beasts to avoid influencing them.

Now that he had reached the bottleneck of the Yuan Soul Realm Eighth Grade, Su Yi needed to grind himself to quickly reach a breakthrough to the Yuan Soul Realm Ninth Grade and then charge into the Yuan Xuan Realm.

Moreover, he had entered the Grand Beast Canyon to mostly to grind himself.

Within these few days, Su Yi had also noticed many different groups of people. There were both men and women.

Only, he had observed them from far away and retreated.

Because those who had dared to enter the Grand Beast Canyon, their cultivation must not be weak.

Furthermore, because of the matter about the Blood Spiritual Ginseng, many people should have known about it and came here for the Blood Spiritual Ginseng.

Su Yi knew that with his current cultivation, it was still not enough.

Although Su Yi wanted the Blood Spiritual Ginseng too for his grandfather, with the situation at hand, it was better if he didn't go and join in the fun.

In the vast canyon, at a sharp cliff.

Howl

After a deep roar that deafened the ears, dozens of beasts stood tall as all of their eyes were fiercely staring at the twenty over people in the small valley.

There were dozens of ferocious beasts.

There was a giant python coiled up on the ground and a fierce beast that was stepping on a huge rock.

In mid-air, there were also several ferocious birds flapping their wings as they revolved around the area while glaring like a tiger eyeing its prey, surrounding the valley.

Within these twenty-over people, there were both men and women.

There were several men and women in their 30s leading the group, but the majority of the group was teenagers wearing charismatic clothing, that was exceptional. Their ages were around the same at around 16-17 years old.

If at the moment Su Yi was here, he would recognize several of the faces.

It was precisely Bi Ling, Yi Yun, Guo Wei, Zhuo Da and the rest from the Taihang Sect.

Only, at this moment, these teenagers complexions were grave, and their expressions were nervous.

These teenagers all clutched their weapons tightly and formed a close circle together.

Yi Yuns flora dress was tainted lightly with blood, and her beautiful black hair was now messy. However, on that nervous expression, her pair of beautiful eyes were still gleaming with light and color.

Bi Ling stood close to Yi Yun, the eyes on her oval face were alert. She had a touching artistic air as the aura on her body was fluctuating.

Deacon, when will the elder be here? With so many beasts, we are unable to contend against them.

There are too many beasts, what should we do now?

Many teenagers were getting uneasy. Most of the beasts were in the Demonic Spirit Realm while the two who were in charge seemed to be at the Demonic True Realm.

The elder has already been notified. Every one of you must act accordingly. The elder should be reaching here soon.

A lady in her 30s said. Under the tight dress, it wrapped around a curvy body. Although she could not consider as glamorous, she had a clean and delicate face.

At present, the lady had also secretly become serious. Even though she said reassuring words to these disciples, in reality, she was even more aware that if the elder was to arrive late, all of them would be fraught with grim possibilities.

Chapter 140: Demon Emperor!

At present, the lady had also secretly become serious. Even though she said reassuring words to these disciples, in reality, she was even more aware that if the elder was to arrive late, all of them would be fraught with grim possibilities.

Combined Attack Formation, everyone be careful.

A young man in his 30s announced as he held a long lance while his eyes glowed. But his expression was serious, like the lady near him.

The man was clear about the situation. Although many of the beasts were in the Demonic Spirit Realm, the ones leading them, the black panther and the ferocious red bird that was hovering in mid-air, were in the Demonic True Realm.

From their auras, the two leading beasts should be at least in the Demonic True Realm Sixth or Seventh Grade.

With so many beasts, they were simply no match for them.

Howl!

On top of the valley at a large red boulder, a giant black panther roared with its head held high causing the space to tremble from the sound. Its body was giving out a black glow as its aura swept through the valley.

Howl

Suddenly, the surrounding was filled with the roars of the beasts as every one of them roared together and charged towards the valley.

Rumble

Dozens of beasts surged forth with their explosive auras, causing the earth to shake like it would during an earthquake. Their vicious and shocking auras swept through the place.

Chirp

In the sky, several ferocious birds directly spread their wings and dived down to kill.

The situation made those young Taihang Sect disciples expression to immediately turned pale as their heart filled with terror and unease.

Be careful and attack with full force!

Watch out for the sky!

Several of the leading Taihang Sect disciples shouted. Some gathered Yuan Qi beneath their feet and condensed a flying bird to take flight into the air. Yuan Qi surged, and weapons were swinging about to stop the ferocious birds.

All of you take note of defense.

A strong cultivator leaped out from the crowd, taking charge to block some of the beasts that had rushed over to kill.

Rumble

In an instant, they clashed head-on. Yuan Qi was surging like muffled thunder, quivering the whole valley.

The ones who were leading, although they were in their 30s, their cultivations were not weak as their horrifying auras effortlessly exploded out.

In that instant, all types of Yuan Qi glows were intertwining brilliantly.

Some of the auras seemed to have gone beyond the Yuan Soul Realm.

Howl

Several of the young and powerful Taihang Sect cultivators had also overturned a ferocious bird and several beasts as blood was splashing everywhere.

Facing so many beasts, none of them showed any mercy, nor did they hide their abilities.

Howl!

On the huge boulder, the black panther growled deeply. A black light was surging as the beast directly jumped down from there with two jumps. Bringing with that frightening aura, it directly charged over.

The man that had spoken before slightly ground his teeth. The long lance in his hand glowed with a green light as it shot straight forward. At the tip of the long lance, there was Yuan Qi that seemed like it was going to split open the space as it blocked the black panther.

Howl!

Facing that quick and destructive long lance, the black panther seemed to have no fear as it swung down its claws. Black light surged in its claws like a black scale as it directly collided with the lance.

Ka ka

Under this kind of contact, the long lance suddenly broke as if it had sustained ten thousand pounds of force. The man's body was also instantly blown away, sending him flying and smashing heavily onto the ground.

Ah

In the sky, a frail shriek screamed. A delicate and graceful lady was also directly hit by a ferocious bird and landed heavily on the ground while the Yuan Qi beneath her feet scattered.

Puchi

Two people crashed onto the ground and spat out blood. With just a hit, they had suffered tremendous injuries.

Bang bang bang bang bang

At the same time, other beasts and Taihang Sect disciples had also clashed together, causing sounds of muffled thunder. Some of the people had directly flung away.

But these Taihang Sects young disciples did not panic as they joined hands together to defend, causing several beasts to stagnate.

Howl!

The black panther landed on the ground and continued to stare at the man that had just fallen as killing intent sipped out from its eye. With its claws, it directly pounced towards the man. A sharp and strong wind was raging, making the ground that it passed by to crack.

Not good

The man trembled. Although he was at the Yuan True Realm, the black panther was at the Demonic True Realm Sixth Grade. Furthermore, he had only recently stepped into the Yuan True Realm, thus he knew that he was no match for it.

Foul beast, you are seeking death!

A sharp and deep voice yelled. A shadow suddenly appeared in front of the man, and a ghostly palm print was shot out, directly landing onto the black panthers claw.

Boom!

The energy clashed, and a glow of Yuan Qi was shot out. The sharp claws of the black panther that could be seen by the naked eye had instantly shattered into pieces, its black glow tattered. Blood spilled everywhere, and the large body was directly turned over and fell onto the ground.

Whoosh!

The figure never stopped as a treasure sword suddenly appeared in his hand. A sword light flashed as it sliced through the air, chopping towards the ferocious bird that was trying to kill that delicate and graceful lady.

Clink

The sword light was as if it was real as it sliced through the air as quick as lightning.

The ferocious bird had no way to avoid it so, it spread its wings to return the attack, but the sword light directly sliced its wings. One of its wings broke, and blood was pouring from the wound, making it fell from the sky.

The two leading Demonic True Realm beasts were instantly defeated almost at the speed of lightning.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh whoosh whoosh

The incomer had never once stopped as it ran with a speed of lightning around the valley, instantly letting out many sword lights.

Howl

Several of the mighty beasts were beheaded as blood sprayed everywhere while they crashed onto the ground.

The treasure sword in Bi Lings hand was swung around as she was fighting with a fierce wolf, showing signs of danger, and her expression was serious.

Whoosh

One sword light flashed by, and the wolf fell onto the floor.

A figure showed up at Bi Lings side. It was a middle-aged man with a slender figure, handsome features, and long hair that touched his shoulders. He must have been an elegant flower boy when he was young.

The moment she saw the man in front of her, Bi Lings serious face revealed a surprised expression as she said: Second Uncle.

Are you alright?

Bi Zhang Qian smiled and with a flick of his sword, the beast who was fighting with Yi Yun, not far away, once again fell into a pool of blood.

Second Uncle, Im fine. But if you have come any later, we would have been in deep trouble. Bi Lings heart was still fluttering with fear, but fortunately, her Second Uncle had come just in time.

Elder Bi has come!

Thats great. Elder Bi is here!

Along with Elder Bis appearance, cheers suddenly echoed from the surrounding.

Kill!

Bi Zhang Qians figure once again traversed before the leading ferocious bird, which had fallen badly. He directly flew in mid-air as he leaped without forming Yuan Qi under his feet and the sword dropped down directly chopping the ferocious bird.

A few moments later after the two leading beasts were defeated, those powerful beasts that were at the front, were also killed in succession, laying in a pool of blood.

The remaining beasts were also not stupid. They were extremely frightened by the scene, and in an instant, they were fleeing for their lives.

Elder Bi.

After the beasts started to flee, the young man who was severely injured and the delicate and graceful lady, all arrived before Elder Bi. All of them showed an expression of astonishment, but their heart was still fluttering with fear.

Elder Bi!

All of the disciples came rushing forward with excitement, their expression showing surprise while looking towards Elder Bi. No matter whether it was a girl or boy, all of them looked at him with awe and reverence.
