

Sky&Earth 171

Chapter 171: The Real Motive Of Mo Yue!

Su Yi found it strange. Every single one of this pile of oddly shaped items was exceptional as they were treasures for refining tools.

Fiery Diamond Stone, Blue Dark Iron and the horn of the Frantic One-Horned Demonic Cow, all of them were absolute treasures for refining tools with a value worth several chains of cities.

Although, the pile of Yuan Stones was only One Star Yuan Stones.

Su Yi estimated that in the pile of Yuan Stones, there must be at least several hundreds of thousands of it.

Also, in the pile of weapons, there must be at least several hundreds of them.

All of these weapons were not normal weapons as they were treasures that had reached the Yuan Weapon level.

The most common weapons that all cultivators used were called normal weapons, that were cast, with stainless steel.

And in this world, there were weapons beyond the normal weapons that were produced by powerful Tool Refiners.

The levels of the weapons, were classified as Yuan Weapon, Xuan Weapon, Spirit Weapon, Dao Tool, Magical Tool, and then the Sacred Tool.

Reportedly there used to be Godly Tool in this world however no one had witnessed it before.

It was stated that even the legendary Seventh Ranked Tool Refiner, was unable to cast Godly Tools and even a Sacred Tool was also hard to cast.

Moreover, a Seventh Ranked Tool Refiner was the same as a Seventh Ranked Alchemist, which only existed in the legends.

The materials to make Sacred Tools, only existed in the legends too.

Xuan Weapons that had been produced by Tool Refiners were on a completely different level than normal weapons.

Whoosh

Su Yi was still bewildered yet Mo Yue was already on the move. Without a single word, she opened her interspatial bag and quickly collected the materials for refining weapons.

Su Yi was dumbfounded as his eyes were dazed.

Looking at the actions of the girl, it must not be her first time doing this.

Immediately, Su Yi opened his interspatial bag as both of his hands moved together, collecting the weapons first and then rushing over to the piles of Yuan Stones. He must not let the girl gain the advantage.

Quickly give me some interspatial bags. Speed is of importance now. After collecting these treasures, we must leave immediately! Mo Yue said to Su Yi. She only had one interspatial bag with her, which was the one that Su Yi had returned to her.

The space inside the interspatial bag was limited. Mo Yue was unlike Su Yi who had several interspatial bags with him.

Let me do this kind of arduous work. How can I let a girl do it? Su Yi responded without stopping his hands. He was pulling in piles of Yuan Stones into the interspatial bags. Naturally, he would not give Mo Yue any of his interspatial bags.

Then, that is fine. Thank you for your hard work. I will go and see if there are any more treasures in other places!

Mo Yue did not seem to mind as a glint secretly flashed past her eyes. She immediately moved aside as though she was genuinely searching for something.

Su Yi secretly felt that it was strange that this girl could actually be so at ease with him.

He instinctively sensed that something was wrong. Logically, although they were going to split 6:4, with that girl's nature and personality, she would be watchful of him.

Su Yi thought over it, but the movement of his hands did not stop as they continued to pull and stuff the Yuan Stones into his interspatial bags. His eyes were secretly observing Mo Yue.

Before even entering the old nest of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon, Su Yi could already feel that Mo Yue was not telling him the truth and that she must be hiding something from him.

She clearly knew that it was hopeless to get the demonic core and had come for the treasures.

However, right now, she did not appear to be interested in the treasures of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon. That had unconditionally aroused Su Yi's suspicion.

The cave was enormous with huge rocks everywhere looking like volcanic rocks, emitting an unparalleled scorching hot aura.

Mo Yue was carefully sizing up the surroundings as though she was searching for something.

Deep inside the cave, within a shallow pit, faint flames were radiating as though it had emerged from the depths of the ground.

On top of the shallow pit, presently, there was an oval-shaped egg around the size of a baby.

The egg was very unique as the entire egg was emitting a crimson radiance with a mysterious pattern all over it.

The egg was burning within the fire in the pit, yet it did not have any cracks. Instead, it was emitting a sparkling crimson radiance as if it was absorbing the flames.

This is it, found it!

When Mo Yue saw the oval-shaped egg, her face revealed excitement while she was about to hug the oval-shaped egg out.

What is this?

Every movement that Mo Yue made had been, secretly observed by Su Yi.

Therefore, as he watched Mo Yue's expression, Su Yi could instantly guess that this item was her real motive.

This

Realizing that Su Yi had seen it, Mo Yue knew that she could no longer hide it as she responded: The egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

The egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon!

Su Yi had already suspected it seeing that this was the old nest of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon and the egg was emitting an extraordinary aura. It could only be the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

This should be your real motive, right?!

Glancing at Mo Yue, Su Yi frowned.

The egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon. If a young Blazing Heavenly Dragon, could be bred from it, the price would be immeasurable.

I was only trying my luck. To think that there would actually be one! Mo Yue's beautiful big eyes were sizing up the egg in front of her with a little excitement. She did not expect that there would really be the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon here. She continued: An egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon, it is highly possible that it will breed a young Blazing Heavenly Dragon, but that Blazing Heavenly Dragon has already broken through to the Demonic Emperor Realm. I'm afraid that if we take its egg, even if it had to go through heaven and hell, it will still chase after us.

Mo Yue was a little wary. That Blazing Heavenly Dragon had, after all, broken through to the Demonic Emperor Realm, so its strength was no trivial matter. Taking its egg would undoubtedly anger the Blazing Heavenly Dragon to the extreme.

If they were, sought by the Blazing Heavenly Dragon which was in the Demonic Emperor Realm, there would be no escaping.

Anyway, we are already here.

Su Yi spoke softly as his eyes tightly locked onto the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon, secretly revealing a heated gaze. Since they had already snatched its treasures, once the Blazing Heavenly Dragon had found out, it would also not let them off.

All along, Su Yi had always dreamt of having an awe-inspiring beast as a mount.

The moment he saw the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon, his gaze briefly shone.

If he could have a beast like the Blazing Heavenly Dragon as his mount, how awe-inspiring would that be?

Keep it!

In for a penny, in for a pound. With one step, Su Yi's body immediately rushed forward as Yuan Qi permeated, scattering the flames on the ground while he grabbed the egg into his arms.

Su Yi had initially thought that the egg would be incomparably hot since it was burning within the flames and had made preparations with his Yuan Qi to protect his body.

However, when the egg landed into his arms, Su Yi was surprised.

The egg was crimson with light overflowing from it, yet its temperature was as chilling as the cloud while no heat, could be felt from it.

Mo Yues expression changed. She was still a little hesitant, but that fellow had unexpectedly directly taken the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Mo Yues complexion abruptly turned dark as she secretly gritted her teeth, and urgently said to Su Yi: Lets go quickly, we have to leave this place immediately!

Su Yi nodded his head. The egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon and the treasures were already in his hands. They had to leave immediately, the sooner, the better.

Or else once the Blazing Heavenly Dragon had come back, there would be no escaping.

Chapter 172: A Turkey Emerged From Underground!

Ka ka

All of a sudden when Su Yi picked up the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon and was planning to leave, a faint cracking sound could be heard from the faint pit.

The ground started to crack, and the permeating flames began to burn even more vigorously as the scorching aura was getting more intense.

Ka ka ka ka

The entire ground of the cave seemed to have some traction.

Lines of cracks formed everywhere on the ground starting from the faint pit where Su Yi had taken the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon and expanded from the floor to the walls, as even the top of the cave started to crack as well.

Swish

Within the crowded cracks on the ground, flames danced as they converged together, surging turbulently.

All of this happened within the blink of an eye. Boiling crimson liquid ruptured from the surroundings of the faint pit with inflating bubbles.

Under such high temperatures, the skins of both Su Yi and Mo Yue had also started to burn with pain.

What is happening?!

Mo Yues expression changed. All of these had happened too fast. At the moment, the entire ground of the cave quivered like it was going to collapse.

Presently, Su Yis gaze shot towards the inside of the faint pit as he unknowingly sensed a bone-chilling feeling while his heart was secretly trembling.

Whoosh

The inside of the foaming crimson liquid abruptly exploded while the scorching liquid that appeared like the lava splattered. Following that, horrifying flames directly erupted as though blotting out the sky and covering the earth. In an instant, it seemingly was going to fill up the enormous cave.

Quickly flee, we are in big trouble!

Mo Yue's complexion also became grave as she revealed a surprised expression.

That is

Su Yi's stare went wide as there seemed to be a tiny figure covered in the lava-like fire as it emerged from the inside of the erupting flames.

Crack

Immediately, a tiny figure had emerged with about the size of a rooster as the lava faded

The figure had a long neck and a pointed mouth. A crimson-gold meatball seemed to be on top of its head like a comb. Its mouth was sharp with black eyes that were shiny and round, bringing along a sort of radiance.

Behind its eyes were tiny ears, but it got hidden by the fuzz. It had a pair of short legs with five-part claws. On its set of short wings, there was a layer of feathers peeking with a crimson color.

A rooster.

Su Yi was dumbstruck and rubbed his eyes vigorously as though he could not believe what he was seeing.

However, the result remained the same as he did not see wrongly.

Emerging from within the underground flames was a hairless rooster, covered by two or three feathers on its body.

A rooster had emerged from the underground.

That had made Su Yi dumbfounded.

What is that? Is that a rooster

Mo Yue had also noticed the rooster. Similarly, she had a gaze of bewilderment as she was also finding it hard to believe that a rooster had actually emerged from the underground flames.

Looks like a rooster

Su Yi was stunned. He was a little puzzled while he hugged the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Such a rooster within the fire, how would it taste like if it got cooked?

Swish

Only, Su Yi's wishful thoughts, were now crushed. The rooster emerged while flapping its wings, shedding the fire on its body as the small figure abruptly dashed towards Su Yi and Mo Yue.

The rooster walked with its tail raised while carrying sparks of fire along its way which looked amusing.

It is burning me to death, quickly run! Quickly run

The rooster ran while crying as the fire was burning its butt. However, its voice was pleasing to the ears. Its pair of golden claws were so sharp that it would leave a pit whenever the claws landed.

The rooster can talk

Su Yi and Mo Yue looked at each other as they were once again bewildered.

At this moment, the language that the rooster was speaking was not the beast language, but instead, it had directly spoken the human tongue.

Run

Su Yi shouted in a low voice. Without any hesitation, he instantly started running while hugging the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

A rooster that could talk indicated that it must be a beast that was at least in the Demonic Void Realm.

Mo Yue also did not hesitate as she directly followed behind Su Yi, instantly heading towards the way they had come from and fled madly.

Whoosh

The rooster followed behind Su Yi and Mo Yue while flapping its miserable wings along with sparks of fire. However, behind the rooster, more and more turbulent gruesome flames and magma had emerged, flooding the deep cave with high temperatures.

Hey humans, bring me along! I dont have any more energy!

The rooster saw Su Yi and Mo Yue and ran while shouting towards them.

Rumble rumble

The entire cave cracked as rocks started to fall while some of the stones had turned into powder under the high temperature and scattered around.

That rooster is chasing after us!

The cave seems to be collapsing!

Su Yi and Mo Yue fled desperately as their complexions changed drastically.

Not only had the mysterious rooster chased after them, but the cave was also quivering as though it was going to collapse.

Very quickly, Su Yi and Mo Yue had gone up the cave as they reached the passageway.

The turbulent flames and magma trailed after them as though it was going to engulf everything. Its momentum was vast and mighty while the frighteningly high temperature could make peoples souls shrank!

The cave was also quivering. The ice in front that was initially hard to melt, at the moment under the high temperature, was also rapidly melting.

Howl howl

Unknown as to where they came from, presently, several hundred cubs of the Ice-Cold Wild Wolves were running.

These Ice-Cold Wild Wolf cubs seemed to have felt something as they kept howling. Their expressions exhibited fear, and they swiftly fled towards the outside of the cave, not bothering about Su Yi and Mo Yue.

Quick, quickly run!

While Su Yi was fleeing, he placed the 500-kilogram broken sword into the interspatial bag, causing his body to feel as light as a feather.

What are you doing?!

Just when Su Yi was planning to keep the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon into the interspatial bag, Mo Yue shockingly questioned Su Yi.

Storing it. If it is, seen by the Blazing Heavenly Dragon on the outside, we will be doomed! Su Yi replied Mo Yue as he was trying to keep the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon into the interspatial bag.

If it was seen, by the Blazing Heavenly Dragon on the outside that he was hugging the egg, Su Yi did not even need to think to know that even if he had ten lives, it would not be enough for the Blazing Heavenly Dragon to kill.

Stop, you cannot put live objects into the interspatial bag. This egg is mostly alive. Are you trying to kill it? Mo Yue glared at Su Yi. If they were not trying to flee for their lives, she would have already kicked him.

Really Su Yi was dumbfounded. He indeed did not know about this.

Not worrying about whether what the girl had said was the truth or not, Su Yi presently did not dare to risk it.

Human, I truly can no longer run. Please bring me along! The rooster behind them seemed to really be out of energy as it tucked its tail while running all out with its short legs. The appearance could cause people to simmer with laughter.

Quickly run!

Su Yi did not want to have any interactions with a turkey with unknown origins that could at least be in the Demonic Void Realm.

Behind him, the gruesome flames and magma were erupting. Most likely, the cave was going to collapse soon, so Su Yi further increased his speed in fleeing.

After taking down the 500-kilogram broken sword from his back, his speed had abruptly skyrocketed.

Initially, Su Yi's speed was slower than Mo Yue. However, right now, his body was as light as a feather and adding on to the Hundred Transformation Steps, he had immediately caught up.

The sudden increase in speed made Mo Yue to be secretly surprised.

Chapter 173: Dreadful Volcano!

Bang bang!

Howl!

The fierce battle outside was continuing as deep blasts resounded and beasts roared like thunder.

The brilliant light of the Yuan Qi intertwined blazingly, booming in the void sky.

It was hard to determine who would win the battle between Cheng Jian and the Blazing Heavenly Dragon as they had equivalent strength.

Cheng Jian already had disheveled hair while there were more genuine cracks in the scales of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Rumble

All of a sudden, a rumbling sound came from the mountain peak that had risen over the clouds as an unknown presence quivered this land!

When the strong beasts among the Ice-Cold Wild Wolves and the Blazing Heavenly Dragon that were intensively fighting felt the commotion, they became stunned.

This sort of commotion that had affected both the land and the sky without any cause had also made the strong cultivators from the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance like Cheng Jian, promptly raise their heads and glance afar.

Howl

Chirp

At this moment within the surroundings of the canyon, the commotion had shocked all the beasts.

A series of roars from the beasts had traveled over. Beasts were galloping and leaping across within the canyons chain of mountains!

There were also ferocious birds, spreading their wings while crossing the void sky!

All of the beasts were frightened as they were scurrying and swarming with vast and mighty momentum!

Howl howl

Endless wolves howls were heard as a big group of Ice-Cold Wild Wolf cubs rushed out from the rumbling mountain peaks cave.

Bang bang bang!

Many cubs of the Ice-Cold Wild Wolves were scared and at a loss. With a mad dash, some cubs rolled and climbed as they wheeled off the icy road.

Howl

The strong beasts among the Ice-Cold Wild Wolves raised their heads and howled as, within moments, many of them rushed forward trying to protect the cubs.

The Blazing Heavenly Dragons massive body had also violently retreated as it no longer attacked Cheng Jian and glanced towards the cave. Its fearsome eyes drastically changed as it immediately frantically stormed towards the mountain peak.

Quickly conceal your presence and hide within these Ice-Cold Wild Wolf cubs.

Su Yi hugged the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon and instantly concealed his presence the moment he charged out of the cave. His figure tightly followed the Ice-Cold Wild Wolf cubs and directly slid down the icy road.

Mo Yue's eyes moved as she was secretly surprised. Following Su Yi's movement, she tightly followed behind him.

There were swarms of the Ice-Cold Wild Wolf cubs. Although they were only cubs, many of them were much enormous than Su Yi and Mo Yue.

Adding on to the chaos and the sudden case of such unforeseen events, it was enough for Su Yi and Mo Yue to hide within this big group of Ice-Cold Wild Wolf cubs.

Howl!

The Blazing Heavenly Dragon howled as its expression was anxious, and its eyes were grave. It flew over the heads of Su Yi and Mo Yue as it frantically stormed into the cave.

After sliding down the icy road and past the frost-covered ground, Su Yi did not dare to continue because right in front of them, a few of the mighty Ice-Cold Wild Wolves had pounced over.

Come over here! Su Yi said towards Mo Yue and instantly rolled as he seized the chance to land between the large rugged rocks.

Mo Yue followed after him, but her actions were not as skillful as Su Yi and appeared very miserable as she almost hit her head onto the large rock.

Rumble

The enormous and majestic mountain peak was already shaking as small stones started to roll off from the top.

Swish

From within the cave, boiling magma spilled out, and flames swept through. As it poured down from the void sky, all of the rocks that it had passed by got instantly burned into ashes.

The volcano has erupted. Not good. We have to leave quickly!

Su Yi frighteningly cried out. If they were submerged, within the magma of the volcano, even if he had ten lives, it would not be enough to save him. Promptly, he traversed between the cracks of the weird ragged rocks, fleeing towards the opposite direction of the Ice-Cold Wild Wolves and the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance.

At this moment, under such an anxious atmosphere, Mo Yue wholly followed behind Su Yi without saying any words.

Rumble

The ground moved, and the mountain shook. Tremendous amounts of magma sprinkled down like a rainstorm from the sky.

The land had abruptly become frantic as boiling magma had turned into lava and flooded down from the sky!

Volcanic smoke billowed through the sky, attracting lightning and thunder!

Rumble rumble

Massive cross-shaped lightning had converged into a thunderbolt accompanying with the flames and lava, submerging everything.

Such a horrifying scene had terrified the people. The scorching temperature had made the air emanate flames without reason.

From the start of the entrance of the cave on the mountain peak, only a sea of fire could be seen flowing over the entire sky.

Rumble

Raging fiery waves suddenly surged everywhere as it bared fangs and brandished claws while it swooped down and charged, splashing in every place as though the end of the world had come!

Not good. We are in deep trouble!

All of this had happened too fast. Su Yi rapidly retreated, but there was not enough time to escape far.

Chirp

Right at this moment, a chirp resounded as the Flaming Beast Eagle swiftly came and dived down while spreading its wings. Words in the beast language landed into Su Yi's ears: My lord, quickly come up. It is dangerous.

Flaming Beast Eagle!

Su Yi's expression revealed a pleasant surprise as he had never thought that the Flaming Beast Eagle would suddenly appear.

Swoosh!

Taking the chance that the Flaming Beast Eagle was diving down, Xuan Qi surged under his feet as Su Yi instantly leaped.

In one hand, he hugged the egg while using another to grab the feathers on the back of the Flaming Beast Eagle as he leaped onto its back.

Swoosh!

Mo Yue had also leapt onto the back of the Flaming Beast Eagle. Her movements were much more graceful than Su Yi.

You guys wait for me! Bring me along!

A featherless turkey leaped out of nowhere as though it had been following after the both of them. Presently, it was flapping its short fluffy meat wings and had unexpectedly directly landed onto the back of the Flaming Beast Eagle too. Its five claws tightly grabbed onto the feathers of the Flaming Beast Eagle.

Although the Flaming Beast Eagle found it weird that there was another addition of a featherless meat chicken, it thought that it was together with Su Yi. Since time was running out, it quickly spread its wings and rapidly left.

Su Yi and Mo Yue glanced at each other with shock as they had never thought that the featherless meat chicken would actually come uninvited and even directly come up here.

A meat chicken that could speak the human language had made both Su Yi and Mo Yu wary of it and secretly be on guard.

Rumble!

Bang bang bang!

The majestic mountain peak had entirely exploded. Within the lightning and thunder, boiling lava along with gruesome flames spewed out.

The immensely loud rumbling sounds pressed onto the surrounding layers of the void sky. The rocks of the mountain peak were punched out from the erupting lava as they launched into the sky and then galloped down, leaving thousands of fiery red traces in the smoke covered sky, landing far away.

The entire massive mountain peak had also subsequently collapsed.

A tremendous amount of huge rocks galloped down with a rumbling sound.

This kind of terror was hard to put into words!

Howl

That was a destructive disaster. Those Ice-Cold Wild Wolves that couldn't escape in time were mostly engulfed by the lava, instantly turning into ashes.

Some Ice-Cold Wild Wolves could not even cry out before they were submerged within.

The strong cultivators from the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance were also continuously retreating from the explosion of the volcano. All of their eyes had mixed of shock in them!

What a horrifying eruption of the volcano. It is beyond ordinary!

That terrifying commotion had made Mo Yue who was standing on the back of Flaming Beast Eagle to tremble endlessly in her heart.

It seems unusual!

Su Yi's heart also secretly trembled. The eruption of the volcano was too horrifying and it did not seem like the typical eruption of a volcano.

Chapter 174: Your Daddy, I, Am A Peacock!

The featherless meat chicken glanced at the erupting volcano behind while it flapped its wings. A meat wing patted on its chest as its eyes became wide, looking as though there was lingering fear in its heart as it kept muttering non-stop: Scared me to death, scared me to death. Luckily, luckily.

Howl

Su Yi did not have the time to pay attention to the featherless meat chicken that had come uninvited as within the collapsing mountain peak with lava exploding out and flames sweeping through the clouds, an enormous figure of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon could be seen roaring angrily while the sound quivered both heaven and earth.

Quickly avoid it!

Su Yi said towards the Flaming Beast Eagle as he could not let the Blazing Heavenly Dragon know that he had stolen its egg.

The commotion at the moment had frightened the surrounding beasts. Ferocious birds filled the sky, hindering people from noticing Su Yi and Mo Yue who was seated on the back of the Flaming Beast Eagle.

Humans, you guys are too shameless. I will not be done with you guys!

A frightening voice had strikingly spread out from within the flashes of lightning and the howling of thunder. Far away, the Blazing Heavenly Dragon seemingly had gone mad without any reason as it charged towards the people from the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance.

Cheng Jian was secretly taken aback as he had no idea why the Blazing Heavenly Dragon would suddenly be so frantic. Because nobody else could be the opponent of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon, he instantly rushed over to block.

Rumble!

Not far away, the volcano was erupting as it shook the whole surrounding.

Bang bang!

The battle between Cheng Jian and the Blazing Heavenly Dragon had once again become intense.

Howl!

Seeing that so many of their cubs and clanmates, had been buried within the lava, the strong beasts from the Ice-Cold Wild Wolves seemingly had also placed the debt onto the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance as they frantically charged out.

Looking at this from afar, Su Yi did not dare to pause as he trembled with fear while making the Flaming Beast Eagle fly away; the farther, the better.

The noise from afar had already become softer and softer, but Su Yi still did not feel at ease, only allowing the Flaming Beast Eagle to find a hidden place to rest after two hours.

They will be able to find us. Inside a hidden valleys cave, the Flaming Beast Eagle said to Su Yi, reassuring him that the Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger, Golden Python and the rest would be able to find this place.

Hu

Su Yi took a deep breath as he appeared to be very miserable with disheveled hair. There was still a lingering fear in his heart that was hard to calm down.

With the threat of a Blazing Heavenly Dragon, stealing treasures from its cave while also successfully getting the egg of the same Blazing Heavenly Dragon was initially enough to make Su Yi anxious.

However, to think that he would meet with such a thing at the end. It had utterly petrified his soul. Fortunately, the Flaming Beast Eagle had come just in time. If not, the consequences would be disastrous.

At the moment, Mo Yue's situation was not that far off from Su Yi's as she had disheveled hair too while that bewitching face looked appalled.

Where is this place? You guys sure are gutsy, daring to steal the egg of that big snake!

The featherless turkey appeared to be fatigued as it collapsed onto the floor. But, its gaze kept landing onto the egg that Su Yi was hugging tightly while its misty-eyes kept following.

Who are you?

Speaking in unison, Su Yi and Mo Yue had practically questioned at the same time.

At this instant, both of their gazes were closely staring at the body of the featherless meat chicken.

Such a meat chicken that could speak the human language and also had a mysterious origin that kept trailing after them had made both Su Yi and Mo Yue to feel worried and wary.

Presently, the Flaming Beast Eagle kept its wings as it too curiously sized up the featherless meat chicken. There was something strange in its eyes as though it could faintly feel something, not daring to get close rashly.

Who am I I wonder who am I

After listening to them, the featherless meat chicken mumbled to itself. Without any reason, its expression began to be lost in thought as its eyes became absent as though it had indeed forgotten who it was.

Glancing at the reaction of the featherless meat chicken, Su Yi, and Mo Yue also secretly found it strange. Could it be that the featherless meat chicken had lost its memories?

Do you have amnesia? Su Yi stared at the featherless meat chicken. To be able to speak the human language proved that the meat chicken was unquestionably not simple and should at least be a beast in the Demonic Void Realm.

A strong beast in the Demonic Void Realm. How could it be that easy to have amnesia?

No, I do not have amnesia. I merely cannot recall. It seems something huge had happened, and when I woke up, I met you guys. The featherless meat chicken glanced at Su Yi, and Mo Yue as its gaze was a little uncertain and hazy.

Are you in the Demonic Void Realm? Su Yi arched his eyebrows as he watched the reaction of the featherless meat chicken. It did not seem to be lying.

I dont know. My cultivation seems to be gone, and I cant remember anything The featherless turkey was devoid of any expression as it slightly bowed its head down, seemingly trying to think hard and hoping to recall something.

Su Yi and Mo Yue exchanged a glance, not daring to be careless.

Towards a featherless turkey that had come uninvited, Su Yi must guard against it.

However, seeing the state in which it had escaped from the mountain peak, Su Yi concluded that this featherless meat chicken indeed did not seem like a strong beast in the Demonic Void Realm, or perhaps its cultivation had really slipped back.

I truly cannot recall anything. Not thinking anymore.

Moments later, the featherless meat chicken shook its head and glanced towards Su Yi and Mo Yue with a smile before staring at the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon that Su Yi was hugging. With a pleasant and clear voice that could be, learned that it was a guy, it said: But I can feel that if I am able to eat this egg, it will help with my recovery tremendously.

Simultaneously when it was speaking, the featherless turkey looked at the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon in Su Yis arm. Drool was about to drip out from its pointed mouth.

This is mine!

Su Yi stared at the featherless turkey and hugged the egg in his arms tighter. This featherless turkey had unexpectedly dared to think about his egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

This is that big snakes, right? You have stolen it. Believe in me, the taste of this egg is unmistakably good. We can eat it together. If that big snake finds out that its egg is with you guys, then the consequences will be, hehe

The featherless meat chicken glanced at Su Yi while laughing maniacally. Its cunning eyes moved while slobbering. That pointed mouth smiled like a human, yet although it was laughing, the intention of the threat was self-evident.

Su Yi looked at the featherless meat chicken as he couldnt help but think of a word which was cunning.

That was unquestionably a featherless meat chicken, yet it gave Su Yi an idiotic yet cunning feeling.

However, the way that the featherless meat chicken had addressed the Blazing Heavenly Dragon by calling it a big snake had made Su Yi secretly alert.

Balding chicken, what is your origin?

You are the chicken! Your Daddy, I, am a peacock! Not a chicken!

The cunning eyes of the featherless meat chicken momentarily darkened as it glared at Mo Yue and exclaimed.

You are a peacock

Mo Yue was stunned while Su Yi was also stunned.

Su Yi had never seen a peacock before, but whether it was his previous life or this life, he had heard about it.

Especially in this world, a peacock had a top existence within the demons in the legends.

Reportedly, now there were no longer any traces of the peacock clan.

There were even rumors that it was impossible, for a peacock to exist now as apparently, they had long vanished during the times of the Ancient.

Haha

After a moment of being dazed, Mo Yue abruptly uncontrollably giggled like a trembling flower while pointing at the featherless meat chicken and said: You? A peacock? With your appearance, even a rooster is unlikely. Haha

Tiny ignorant human. As expected, a woman that looks ugly also has a poisonous mouth. The featherless meat chicken who was formerly in a rage had later calmed down as it faintly rolled its eyes at Mo Yue.

Chapter 175: Sure Enough, Women Are Unreasonable!

Who are you calling ugly? Mo Yue abruptly glared at the featherless turkey. On her bewitching face, although her complexion presently looked miserable, her eyebrows were curved with big beautiful eyes and had an outstanding temperament. She was simply a girl with peerless beauty like a celestial. Occasionally, she would appear like a saint, while at other times, seductive like a witch. Unquestionably, she had no relation to the word ugly.

You should see yourself in the mirror. Such a tiny waist and tiny butt. Luckily, I am not a human or else I would unmistakably spurn on such a woman like you. The featherless meat chicken pointed at Mo Yue as its short wing moved up and down with an appearance like an elder with a serious face.

Ha ha ha ha

Su Yi had long could not bear it as he roared with laughter. To think that this girl, would unexpectedly, be scorned by a featherless meat chicken.

Presently, glancing at the appearance of the featherless meat chicken, Su Yi couldnt help but chuckle.

Rolling her eyes at Su Yi, Mo Yue sneered. Her pair of beautiful eyes were already boiling with anger as she glared at the featherless turkey and said: You featherless turkey. Do you believe it or not that I will roast you to eat?!

Once again, I say that your father, I, am a peacock!

Being called chicken by a human and even a featherless one at that, the face of the featherless turkey uncontrollably became dark as it gritted its teeth with a look as though it wanted to bite someone.

Does a peacock look like this? You might as well be a rooster. Even if you are a rooster, with your appearance, no hen will fancy you!

Mo Yue placed both of her hands on her waist. She was actually called ugly by a featherless chicken that had even declared that her waist was not big enough and her butt was too tiny. Was this featherless chicken blind? Broad waist and a large butt, how ugly was that? She honestly could not dare to imagine it.

Ignorant human.

The featherless turkey shook its head with a pitying expression as it said towards Su Yi: Young man, is this girl your wife? Why would you be together with such a girl? Divorce her. This girl is ugly and has a poisonous mouth, totally unworthy even a fraction of you. She will only pull down your temperament. In the future, I will find you another pretty one.

This, hehe, she is not my wife Su Yi was feeling gleeful in his heart that this chicken indeed had a good eyesight for knowing that he had an exceptional temperament.

But, if this girl were to, indeed be his wife, Su Yi thought about it and then let go of the idea.

Featherless chicken, you are going to die!

Mo Yue finally could no longer endure it. This meat chicken had still dared to speak about her in this way. Moreover, how was she not worthy of that young man and that she would even pull down his temperament?

There were practically no more words to be said as this was absolutely intolerable for any girl.

Bang!

Mo Yue directly attacked as her aura surged. A palm directly smacked towards the featherless turkey while Yuan Qi waves swept towards it in close vicinity.

Sure enough, women are unreasonable!

The featherless turkey loudly cried as it simultaneously flapped its two wings. Although that figure appeared short, it could run extremely fast, precisely avoiding the attack in a manner that unbelievably dodged Mo Yues strike.

Today, I must roast you to death!

Mo Yue was furious as her delicate face went mad. Her tall figure wriggled with her impressive curves while she once again raised her hands with ten slender fingers as red Yuan Qi emitted out from her fingertips like the radiance of fresh blood with a bloody aura. The glow scaled through the air, directly enveloping towards the featherless chicken.

A girl in the Yuan Xuan Realm yet, you still cant defeat me. With just a few words and you become angry from embarrassment. You are so ugly and fierce that in this lifetime, Im afraid that no one will want you!

The complexion of the featherless turkey changed as it flapped its wings while escaping. However, its mouth was still unforgiving.

Stupid featherless chicken!

Mo Yue was so angry that her face was flushed red. She tightly bit on her scarlet lips while a radiance gushed out from her body, making her hair to fly all over. Her eyes closely glared as series of attacks directly swept towards the featherless meat chicken.

Dont hurt the innocent!

Su Yi retreated backward. He should not be injured when he was innocent. Then, his gaze secretly changed.

He secretly sized up the strength of Mo Yue and the featherless meat chicken. Mo Yue was powerful, but she had yet to reach the Yuan Spirit Realm.

Su Yi estimated that Mo Yues cultivation should be around the Yuan Xuan Realm Seventh or Eighth Grade.

And for the self-proclaimed peacock, the featherless turkey with a mysterious origin that could speak the human language which was a sign that it must at least be a strong beast in the Yuan Void Realm.

However, at this moment, Su Yi could feel that the self-proclaimed peacock, the featherless turkey only had the gift of dodging. It looked miserable, yet with its speed and abnormal changes, it could make Mo Yue unable to deal with it. Nonetheless, it did not have any type of temperament that a powerful beast should have.

Su Yi could also feel that the featherless meat chicken was not pretending.

For any powerful beast, they would also, most likely, not pretend to be so miserable like the featherless meat chicken.

However, if that was the case, then for a featherless meat chicken to be able to speak the human language, Su Yi was even more unsure of its origin causing the featherless meat chicken to appear more and more mysterious.

The Flaming Beast Eagle also kept retreating to Su Yis side. In regards to the battle between Mo Yue and the featherless meat chicken, it was also secretly dumbfounded.

Nevertheless, at the moment, the Flaming Beast Eagle was only cautious as it was afraid that the battle between Mo Yue and the featherless meat chicken would injure Su Yi.

Rumble!

Mo Yue appeared to be really furious as there was no mercy in her moves while she chased after the featherless meat chicken around the cave.

Only, the cave was not huge, causing her to be unable to put her moves into good use.

The figure of the featherless meat chicken was very tiny. Although its wings were short, it flapped them rapidly as it fled around the cave making Mo Yue unable to do anything to it. However, it was getting more and more miserable.

Girl, I am in the wrong, ok? You are the prettiest and also the kindest. You are the symbol of beauty, is that alright? As though it could feel Mo Yues anger, the tone of the featherless meat chicken abruptly changed as it started to admit defeat while appearing even more miserable.

Shut your nonsense. A balding chicken, yet your mouth is so wicked. Today, I must roast you to eat your chicken thigh! Mo Yue refused to reconcile as the anger had rushed to her head.

Young man, persuade your girl, ah! You have to know that you guys are still unsafe. If she lured that big snake over and let it know that you guys have stolen its egg, you guys will be dead!

Forget it. We are still not safe!

Su Yi's complexion secretly changed as he related this to Mo Yue. What the featherless meat chicken had said was right. The place they were in now might not be safe. If, the commotion was too big, it would be easy to get found out with the strength of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Humph!

The entire aura around Mo Yue gradually receded as the bloody aura on her body diminished. Glaring at the featherless meat chicken, she forcefully endured her anger as she was also genuinely afraid that it might lure the Blazing Heavenly Dragon over.

Howl!

My lord!

My lord, are you alright?!

At the same time, Spectral Mouse, White Jade Swallow, Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly, Fiery Red Demonic Mink, Da Bao, Xiao Ling and the rest had found this place and arrived inside the cave.

The Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger, Golden Python, and the rest waited on the outside of the cave as it could not contain their size.

Im fine.

Seeing that the Fiery Red Demonic Mink and the rest were safe and sound, Su Yi was finally reassured.

Following that, as they glanced towards the featherless turkey in the cave, the Fiery Red Demonic Mink and the rest became puzzled.

Hu, so tiring!

The featherless turkey had already collapsed on one side while panting heavily.

Chapter 176: A Wicked Featherless Chicken.

I am going out to inquire about the situation!

Mo Yue glared at the featherless turkey and walked out of the cave with graceful movements while the anger on her face had not yet subsided.

Su Yi did not say anything. Anyway, the most valuable treasure, the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon was still in his hands so he was not afraid that Mo Yue would leave.

The featherless meat chicken watched as Mo Yue leave. Its small eyes rolled as it seemingly let out a breath. It then glanced towards Su Yi and said: Young man, I have to tell you, that girl has a tiny waist and butt which is not suitable for giving birth. With such a terrible temper, you must think wisely.

Su Yi rolled his eyes. The mouth of this featherless turkey was still so wicked. No wonder Mo Yue wanted to roast it.

Oh right, you seem to understand the beast language? In my memories seemingly a long time ago, only a powerful cultivator could understand it

The featherless turkey glanced at the Fiery Red Demonic Mink, Flaming Beast Eagle and the rest. As its gaze swept by, its expression became deep in thought as though it was trying hard to recall something, wanting to remember something.

However, the featherless turkey did not succeed as it could not recall anything even if it tried harder. Later, it looked at the Fiery Red Demonic Mink and the rest. In the beginning, it was not paying much attention to them, but it suddenly changed its expression secretly as its small misty eyes moved along the bodies of the Fiery Red Demonic Mink and the rest. With an unbearably shocked expression, it said: Eh, they do not seem to be like the typical beasts. This presence shouldn't appear on these bloodlines. It is impossible. Strange, too strange

My lord, is that a chicken?

Da Bao and Xiao Ling climbed onto Su Yi's arms and raised their small heads to size up the featherless turkey as they were also curious.

Have you guys seen such a beautiful chicken before

The featherless turkey glared at Da Bao and Xiao Ling with anger. Just as it wanted to explain, it glanced at its own appearance and instantly had its head down as it could not look at itself anymore.

Sigh

The featherless chicken sighed as it felt melancholic. It might as well not speak anymore.

After a short moment, Mo Yue came back while carrying several chickens in her hands.

That's right it was indeed chickens. Every single one of them was big and around 10-kilograms with bright-colored feathers.

My luck is quite good as I have unexpectedly encountered a nest of Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens. It has a tremendous effect when stewed into a soup. It is also delicious when roasted, great for treating injuries. Mo Yue carried the Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens in her hands while she fiercely glared at the featherless meat chicken.

Finally, there is something to eat

However, the featherless chicken totally did not seem to care as its gaze momentarily shone.

Come and help. Mo Yue shouted for Su Yi to help pluck the feathers. There were no pots for stewing soup so they could only roast them.

Not long after, there were six Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens without feathers as their entire bodies were crystal-cleared while emitting an aromatic smell. Mo Yue stacked them onto the pile of burning wood and started to roast.

Su Yi's eyes moved. This type of roasting was not unfamiliar to him in his previous life. But, he had never imagined that Mo Yue, this girl, was really unusual for liking this kind of food.

After a short moment, the roasted meat had already let out a sizzling sound as drips of meat oil slid down the chicken skin that had begun to burn. The aroma of the chicken spread everywhere.

The aroma of the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken was too unique, causing Su Yi's gluttonous side to be, swiftly lured as he uncontrollably swallowed his saliva.

Da Bao, Xiao Ling, Spectral Mouse, and the rest raised their heads. Facing this aromatic fragrance, they seemingly did not have much resistance too.

Is it cooked? Is it ready to eat? The featherless meat chicken had long been waiting at the front as it licked its face, getting on intimate terms with Mo Yue.

Are you going to eat your own kind? After all, you are all chickens. Mo Yue faintly glanced at the featherless meat chicken.

No, I am honestly a peacock. These chickens and I are not related. The featherless meat chicken smiled as its saliva dripped all over the floor.

Done, it can be eaten now.

Moments later, all of the Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens were already cooked while the aromatic fragrance spread through the entire cave.

Want to try some?

Mo Yue said towards Su Yi. She had already torn off a large chicken thigh and started to nibble on it. Suddenly, the picture of that enchanting face with the curvy figure did not match at all.

Su Yi initially hesitated as he had to be on guard. This girl was not the same as ordinary people, so it was better to be on guard. If he were to be secretly drugged by Mo Yue, things would not be good.

However, the feathers of the Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens in front of him were plucked by him, and he had been watching closely when Mo Yue was roasting, so there shouldn't be any problems.

Furthermore, Su Yi knew that there weren't any knockout drops or poisons on her as her interspatial bag, had been returned by him. He had previously checked carefully, and additionally, he had been with her for these past few days.

Therefore, it should be impossible to drug him.

There is nothing for you. Get lost!

All of a sudden, Mo Yue softly cried as she blocked in front of the featherless meat chicken.

It turned out that the featherless meat chicken had wanted to do it by itself but, was directly blocked by Mo Yue.

Please give me one. You had grilled it so aromatic that my drool will be dripping out soon! The featherless meat chicken glanced towards Mo Yue with a pitiful expression.

I thought you said that I was ugly? Mo Yue glared at the featherless meat chicken as her anger was still unresolved.

No. My eyes are blind. It is me that is jealous of your beauty. In reality, you can ruin a country or city. You are as beautiful as a fairy. You are the prettiest among all humans, the incarnation of beauty. That brat is the one who is unworthy to be with you. It is him standing beside you, affecting your temperament, affecting your beauty. The featherless meat chicken said with an earnest face, yet its gaze was staring at the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken while restraining its saliva.

Hearing this, Su Yi glared at the featherless meat chicken. This featherless meat chicken was truthfully wicked.

That is much better. I will momentarily forgive you. Mo Yue raised the corner of her mouth as she threw a whole Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken over to the featherless meat chicken.

I knew it that you are the prettiest. The featherless meat chicken had long been unable to bear it as it directly grabbed the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken that was numerous times bigger than it with its short wings and instantly started to nibble on it.

Delicious. Truly delicious!

While it was nibbling, the featherless meat chicken still ate while saying: Not greasy and no odor while it is crispy on the outside and tender on the inside. The meat is fresh and delicious, having an indistinct flavor

Su Yi finally could not bear it as he took one and tore off the two chicken wings for Da Bao and Xiao Ling on his shoulders. Then, not bothering about the hotness, he took one big bite after another. It had been such a long time since he had eaten in such a way.

Mmm, not bad

After a bite, Su Yi couldnt help but praise. He did not know whether it was Mo Yue that was good in cooking or the meat of the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken that was good. The chicken meat was boiling hot in his mouth with its aroma spreading everywhere. It seemed as if it was naturally born with delicious flavors.

A mouthful of chicken meat went in his mouth with a tender, smooth, and crispy texture. Momentarily, it was dancing inside Su Yis mouth, while the aroma of the meat was directly on the tip of his tongue.

This time, it is all thanks to you for saving me. Come have one. Mo Yue gave the Flaming Beast Eagle one. This time if not for the Flaming Beast Eagle, all of them would have been in deep trouble.

The Flaming Beast Eagle looked at Su Yi, waiting for his instruction.

Try it the taste is quite good. Su Yi nodded his head.

Seeing that Su Yi had nodded his head, the Flaming Beast Eagle immediately ate it devoid of any manners as it had long been enduring its saliva.

All of you guys also come and try it. Dont consume too much.

Seeing that at the moment, the gazes of the Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly and the rest were watching the Flaming Beast Eagle, Mo Yue directly threw the remaining Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens over to Fiery Red Demonic Mink, Golden Python and the rest.

Chapter 177: Pitiful Meat Chicken!

Howl

Smells so nice.

The Golden Python, Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest had not tried roasted Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken before and were outside the cave now, sharing the meat.

But with their appetites, although the sizes of the few Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens were not small, it was only enough to fill the holes in their teeth.

Whereas for the featherless meat chicken, it was hugging a Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken that was several times bigger than itself, chowing down on it without any manners.

From afar, it was a strange sight to see a featherless meat chicken holding onto a roasted chicken while nibbling on it.

The two chicken wings, were also swallowed by Da Bao and Xiao Ling in just one mouth.

It was hard to imagine how such two little things could swallow it. There seemed to be a separate space inside that tiny bodies as there were no traces to be seen after they ate it.

Seeing the eager gazes of Da Bao and Xiao Ling, Su Yi had no choice but to tear off another two pieces of meat for them.

The remaining part of the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken was also unceremoniously gorged down by Su Yi.

So full So delicious

The featherless meat chicken had unexpectedly eaten an entire Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken faster than Su Yi.

Its small stomach was stuffed to the extreme as its stomach almost dropped onto the floor. Its entire body had become rounder while its short wings patted on its bulging belly as it kept burping non-stop.

It was hard to imagine how it could stuff an entire Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken that was much larger than itself.

Su Yi was also very full. It had been such a long time that he had eaten such a fulfilling meal.

Most importantly, this Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken was like what Mo Yue had stated that eating it would bring tremendous benefits.

Su Yi could distinctly feel strands of energy permeating out from within the chicken inside his stomach.

The energy was very gentle as though it could nourish his bones, muscles, and all of his limbs, making him feel warm.

Have I consumed too much? Why do I feel dizzy? The body of the featherless meat chicken begun to sway. It wanted to smack its head, but its wings were too short that it could not reach. Before the words could land, it had directly collapsed onto the floor.

Why do I feel dizzy too Before the beast language of Da Bao could finish, it had fallen off from Su Yi's shoulder. Immediately, Xiao Ling also dropped off too.

Su Yi also felt dizzy and drowsy.

Not good!

Su Yi's heart was in shock as he glanced towards Mo Yue while his sight began to blur.

Within his line of sight, Su Yi could only see a smile hanging on Mo Yue's face as the corner of her mouth was curved upwards as though everything was within her expectations.

So dizzy Outside the cave, Fire-Eyes, Beast Tiger and the rest also gradually fell onto the floor unconscious as they had fainted.

Su Yi circulated his Yuan Qi, wanting to resist. He immediately initiated the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique while urging the Heavens Taming Incantation inside his mind, trying to keep his spiritual soul awake.

However, it seemed to be too late.

Su Yi was getting more and more drowsy. His sight became blurry as his eyelids involuntarily shut together. Following that, he had also collapsed.

Inside the cave, only Mo Yue was unaffected as a triumphant smile hung on her face.

When Su Yi woke up, his mind was still a little dizzy, but his consciousness was focused. Only, his body was still weak as he did not have any strength in him.

His eyes abruptly opened as he glanced around the cave.

Inside the cave, traces of Mo Yue, had already been lost.

Not good, the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon

The first thing that Su Yi sought to find was the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Its missing

Like what Su Yi had predicted, the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon indeed had disappeared like Mo Yue, with no traces to be found as it was no longer inside the cave.

Inside the cave, Da Bao, Xiao Ling, Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly, Spectral Mouse and the rest were still unconscious on the ground.

I was tricked! There was something strange inside that Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken!

Su Yi was lost in thought as he tried to recall. There must be something strange with that Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken. It might have been drugged by Mo Yue.

At the moment, only he was awake. With the cultivation of the Spectral Mouse, Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly and the rest, although they had also eaten the least, they were still laying on the floor.

Su Yi reckoned that it was the effect of him urging the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique and the Heavens Taming Incantation at the end.

He wanted to get up, but his body was not obeying him. Moments later, he managed to have some strength to sit up.

Help! Help

Su Yi followed the sound of the voice and was momentarily stunned.

He could see that at a corner of the cave, on the pile of wood with burning hot flames that were formerly used to roast the Spirit Jade Jewel Chickens.

The featherless meat chicken was at the moment, tied up with a special kind of tree vine around its wings, roasting on top of the pile of burning wood.

Help! Who can come and save me.

The featherless meat chicken screamed at the top of its lungs. Seemingly, its entire body felt weak as its voice was not loud as though there was no strength left in its body.

When the featherless meat chicken saw that Su Yi had awakened, it immediately pleaded: Young man, quickly save me! It must be that girl! There is something strange with the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken. She tricked us.

I also know that there is something strange with the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken!

Su Yi arched his eyebrows. He wanted to chase after the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon as soon as possible, but he did not have any strength. He could already guess that she must have endured for a very long time, and her motive was the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Quickly save me first, I am going to be roasted alive!

The featherless meat chicken cried for help as its tears were going to fall.

Su Yi rolled his eyes at the featherless meat chicken. Although it was on top of that pile of burning wood, it was evident that nothing was happening to it. Not even a single hair had burned from the layer of fluff on its body, showing that the flames did not have any effect on it.

Su Yi checked his body and found that there was nothing wrong with his body, only that he lacked strength.

Also, every single interspatial bag on his body was not missing.

That made Su Yi surprised. That girl seemed to have only taken the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Young man, you have to hurry up and save me. Seeing that Su Yi was not responding to it, the featherless meat chicken was gloomy as it kept calling for help.

Why should I save you?

Su Yi faintly said as he was feeling anguished. If he had not eaten the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken, how would there be a chance for that girl to take away the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

Even though none of his interspatial bags were missing, as though Mo Yue had developed a sense of conscience.

Su Yi knew that with all the things added up inside his interspatial bags, it would not even be worth one out of a thousandth compared to the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon.

If not for the Flaming Beast Eagle, that girl, would most likely be buried within the eruption of the volcano.

Su Yi figured that she must have found her conscience hence she did not take any of the interspatial bags from him.

We are all victims drugged by that girl. That girl has tricked both of us and took away the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon that you wanted while tying me up here to be roasted. Therefore, we are all her victims. That girl is my enemy while naturally, she is your enemy too. We can go and find her together to seek revenge. My enemys enemy is my friend, so we are already friends. Why wont you save me?

Chapter 178: The Present State of Morality Is Unlike The Past!

The featherless meat chicken said it all in one breath.

What you said does indeed make sense. Su Yi nodded his head, almost persuaded by it.

Since you admit that what I said makes sense, then quickly save me. I am a peacock. How can that girl bear to burn a peacock? Shes a lunatic! The featherless meat chicken felt very anguished. It was a peacock, yet at the moment it got tied on top of a pile of burning wood. That girl was simply a lunatic.

You cant even defeat her, yet you claim that you are a peacock. Which part of you is similar to the legendary peacock? Right now, you even got yourself tied here to be roasted so easily, then what is the use of saving you? Su Yi had to be on guard against this featherless meat chicken with a mysterious origin.

He had already been tricked once by that girl. He would not be fooled again by this featherless meat chicken.

The corner of his mouth curved up into a smile as Su Yi glanced at the featherless meat chicken and continued: Furthermore if you are truly a peacock, the taste should be quite good when you are roasted. I also want to know how a peacock will taste like!

You surprisingly want to eat a peacock

The featherless meat chicken was stunned as its tiny pair of eyes firmly glared at Su Yi as if they were going to bulge out. Then, it shook its head while sighing: Indeed, the present state of morality is unlike the past! The present state of morality is unlike the past

Say it. Where do you come from? Su Yi rolled his eyes. Meeting with such a featherless meat chicken was too bizarre.

I am truly a peacock. The featherless meat chicken was very gloomy. A dignified peacock had unexpectedly been tied up by people onto a pile of burning wood. It was unquestionably the first one among the peacocks.

If you are a peacock, then how did you end up in this state? Why cant you defeat even that girl? Su Yi coldly smiled as he had to be suspicious.

I also do not know why I became like this. I truly cannot recall anything. The featherless meat chicken smiled bitterly.

Su Yi frowned while glancing at the featherless meat chicken. He honestly did not know whether he should trust in this featherless meat chicken.

Young man, you must be kind to others. If you save me today, then you will form good affinities with me. One day when I have fully recovered, I will pay you back heavily! The featherless meat chicken said to Su Yi.

Su Yi watched the featherless meat chicken while he hesitated.

He did not want the large repayment from the featherless meat chicken, and moreover, he doubted that the featherless meat chicken would have anything to pay him back.

Such a featherless meat chicken like this, although its origin was mysterious, it was very odd.

But it was also enough to prove that it was unusual and was not that simple.

Finally, Su Yi decided to help the featherless meat chicken. Anyway, that pile of burning wood did not have any effect on the featherless meat chicken.

Most likely without long when its energy had recovered, the vines would not be able to restrain the featherless meat chicken.

Su Yi slowly got up and released the featherless meat chicken.

She is a lunatic! I will never let that girl off. I already said that the girl is too poisonous. The most vicious is the woman's heart! The featherless meat chicken collapsed on the ground as it did not have any strength, yet its mouth kept spewing out remarks.

Su Yi ignored the featherless meat chicken as he forced himself to sit cross-legged and initiate the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique, starting to meditate and recover.

Following when Yuan Qi gradually circulated within his body, Su Yi could distinctly feel that wherever the Yuan Qi had passed, the feeling of powerlessness on his body was slowly disappearing as everything was recovering.

An hour later, the Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly, Spectral Mouse, Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest woke up with no strength on their body. They instantly started to circulate their power to recover.

The featherless meat chicken no longer chattered as it closed both of its eyes tightly while a radiance emitted out from its body like a holy light with aura fluctuating.

In no time, Su Yi had mostly recovered as most of the powerless feeling in his body was gone.

Feeling the Xuan Qi in his Xuan Qi Whirlpool within his Dantian, Su Yi was slightly surprised.

It was unknown if it was the effect of the Spirit Jade Jewel Chicken as the Xuan Qi inside his body had increased by a lot, slightly improving his cultivation of Yuan Xuan Realm First Grade.

Su Yi got up. The Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly and the rest were still recovering inside the cave, while Da Bao and Xiao Ling were still unconscious.

As he was worried about the Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest outside the cave, Su Yi walked out.

Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger, Snow Jade Ape, Golden Python and the rest were still recovering, and it seemed like they would need some more time to recover.

While outside the cave, Su Yi dropped by to inquire about the situation.

Standing at a high point, Su Yi could see the places affected by the volcano eruption were still billowing with smoke.

A scorching aura had emitted over from afar with thick ashes of the volcano floating in the air.

Howl

In the surrounding valley within the chain of mountains, beast roars were heard.

Several ferocious birds were gliding in the empty sky while many beasts had shown up, heading in different directions as though they were searching for something.

It seems something is not right

Su Yi hid his body with the help of a rock and concealed his presence while he secretly frowned.

Although the effect of the volcano and the battle of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon was not small, it was unlikely that there would still be a big commotion at so far out, as though the surrounding myriad of beasts were revolting.

Swish swish

All of a sudden, a several zhang long beast had crawled out from the bottom of the mountain.

It was a giant lizard beast with remarkable speed as it instantly appeared before Su Yi.

The eyes of the lizard beast shone as the tongue in its mouth kept flicking while giving out a si sound. Its big tail moved from left to right, directly crushing the surrounding rocks.

Wu wu Glancing at Su Yi, an excited bloodthirsty neighing sound was emitted from the lizard beasts mouth while its gaze was ferocious.

I found another human. Go and die!

The beast language landed into Su Yis ear as Su Yi could understand it.

It seems to be especially finding humans. Su Yis eyes moved, but he was not in a hurry to escape.

The Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest were still at the cave recovering.

However, judging from its aura of Demonic Xuan Realm Sixth Grade, this Vajra Demonic Lizard was not on the level where Su Yi would have to escape immediately.

Back when he was at the Yuan Soul Realm Ninth Grade, Su Yi had not escaped even while facing beasts in the Demonic Xuan Realm Third or Fourth Grade.

Presently, Su Yi was in the Yuan Xuan Realm First Grade. It was the perfect opportunity for him to test out his power.

Swish swish!

When Su Yi was pondering, the Vajra Demonic Lizard moved as the tongue from its blood-dripping mouth spat out like a long whip with a bloody aura, sweeping towards Su Yi.

The tongue was much faster than a long whip, especially that bloody aura which would make people retch.

Swish!

The long tongue crossed through mid-air in an arc, directly storming out.

Su Yi had always been secretly on guard, but at the moment, he was shocked by the speed of the Vajra Demonic Lizard.

Boom!

In an instant, Yuan Qi surged out from Su Yi's feet as he initiated the Hundred Transformation Steps, quickly dodging the attack of the Vajra Demonic Lizard.

At the same moment when Su Yi narrowly avoided the attack, his back abruptly felt a sharp and chilling intention as a frightening aura swept through. The big tail of the Vajra Demonic Lizard had arrived over like a long lance.

Overlords Fist!

Without any hesitation, Su Yi turned his body around as he clenched his fist tightly. The Overlords Fist covered his fist in a thick layer of radiance.

Boom!

Chapter 179: The Power Of A Soul Tamer!

Bang!

Both of them clashed as a frightening explosion sound rang out like thunder and traveled through the air.

Ka ka

There were monstrous waves of radiance while cracks on the surrounding floors abruptly spread in all directions.

The big tail of the Vajra Demonic Lizard got blown off directly as the massive body also staggered back several steps. The rocks on the ground where its feet landed had instantly turned into powder.

Su Yi's feet had also sunk into the ground.

When the big tail of the Vajra Demonic Lizard landed, an enormous force had lashed out, causing Su Yi's feet to directly sink and fall into the ground.

Wu

The Vajra Demonic Lizard let out sounds of wu wu as though it had suffered a hidden loss. Its gaze became even more ferocious and in the blink of an eye, it once again pounced onto Su Yi.

Crack

Its body leaped up while the mighty claw under its belly glowed and fiercely slashed towards Su Yi with a sharp aura.

Swish!

Because of his feet, that were sunk into the ground which affected the movement of his body, Su Yi's expression became dark, while he grabbed the saber on his back, and attacked.

Raging Dragon Slash!

He deeply roared in his heart without pause.

Su Yi initiated the technique in his hand as the Yuan Qi within his body speedily surged through his meridians, rushing towards the special meridians and converged. Then, it gathered onto the saber.

Roar!

In an instant, there was a faint sound on the saber like the roar of a dragon similar to the wind and thunder.

Crack

The glow of the saber was blinding as it directly slashed down with a peerlessly fierce stance.

Clack

A sharp and fierce aura erupted as the force of the saber struck like the wind and thunder. Following along the sound of clack spreading through the air, a trace of blood had appeared on the mighty and powerful claw of the Vajra Demonic Lizard.

Pat pat

The massive impact force had also blown Su Yi away. With the help of the recoil from the impact force, Su Yi took advantage of the chance and attacked.

Wu wu

The Vajra Demonic Lizard cried out in pain as a wound had appeared on its claw.

However, the wound was not deep, only leaving behind a faint cut.

The Vajra Demonic Lizard was famous for having rough skin and thick flesh, with its defense being abnormally strong.

Presently, if someone saw that Su Yi with his cultivation of Yuan Xuan Realm First Grade had injured the Vajra Demonic Lizard in the Demonic Xuan Realm Sixth Grade with one slash, they would be shocked into staring dumbfoundedly!

Whoosh

With its claw wounded, the eyes of the Vajra Demonic Lizard turned crimson as it became frantic. The hook-like big tail directly whirled and quickly struck towards Su Yi again.

Tyrant Dragon Whirlwind Slash!

Although Su Yi got pushed back, he did not dodge.

The moment the hook-like big tail barbed down, Yuan Qi in his meridians surged and once again converged onto the saber, causing it to tremble. Tyrant Dragon Whirlwind Slash, the second saber of the Three Sabres of the Raging Dragon from Su Yi's hand was directly slashed out.

Swish

The glow of the saber whirled with radiance as though an arc of lightning crossing through the empty sky like a crescent moon, faintly bringing a ray of a virtual figure like a dragon flashing by before disappearing.

Boom!

The saber contained a terrifyingly sharp and frantic mighty pressure as if a raging dragon was dancing while the surrounding sand flew and rocks rolled.

In the middle of defending.

Dang dang dang

In an instant, the glow of the saber and the big tail of the Vajra Demonic Lizard clashed with sparks of fire. The raging wind blasted everywhere, causing the surrounding sand to fly and rocks to roll while the ground to crack.

Wu wu

The Vajra Demonic Lizard shrieked horribly as the tip of its tail bled like a river. A saber wound about the size of a small fist had exploded open as though the tail was almost directly cut off.

Su Yi was also not feeling great as he got blown away due to the massive impact and crashed heavily onto the ground.

Pu

The blood in his body surged, and his throat felt sweet. Fresh blood uncontrollably spilled out from Su Yi's mouth. Numerous cracks had also emerged on the saber in his hand while the edge of the saber was bent too.

Its defense is certainly strong!

Su Yi was secretly astonished as he had never thought that the skin and flesh of the Vajra Demonic Lizard were actually this thick that even the edge of the saber got bent.

Although it was not a treasure saber, it was cast by stainless steel through severe hammering, which made it even more evident how remarkable the defense of the Vajra Demonic Lizard was.

Wu wu

The Vajra Demonic Lizard roared with a wu wu sound. Its gaze became ferocious as it glanced at Su Yi, with eyes full of murderous intentions.

However, the Vajra Demonic Lizard was now absolutely wary, not daring to get close rashly. Nonetheless, it did not plan on leaving as it waited for an opportunity at one side.

Staring at the reaction of the Vajra Demonic Lizard, Su Yi's eyes became dark. At this moment, there was also nowhere to retreat while Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly, Golden Python, and the rest were still recovering.

Furthermore, there were beasts everywhere. If he attracted the attention of other beasts, it would be even more dangerous.

Even though he had wounded the Vajra Demonic Lizard, its wounds did not seem to be grave.

He was also injured. With his cultivation of the Yuan Xuan Realm First Grade, while facing against a Vajra Demonic Lizard in the Demonic Xuan Realm Sixth Grade, Su Yi could feel that even if he were to risk his life, it would still be hard to kill the Vajra Demonic Lizard.

I can only try it this way!

Su Yi arched his eyebrow as he made a resolution in his heart. Then, both of his eyes slightly closed while a strange hand seal was condensing in his hands.

Crack

While the hand seal was condensing, the air current around Su Yi fluctuated as if a glow was going to flare out.

The Vajra Demonic Lizard looked at Su Yi's action and felt very strange. Its fearsome eyes sparkled with light as it stepped back and forth, wanting to go forward but was also wary at the same time.

Su Yi's hand seal kept condensing. On the surrounding empty space, strands of crimson energy emerged and were fluctuating.

The strands of crimson energy converged together as it got hotter and hotter. Finally, it became like a fireball before Su Yi's body.

Wu.

The Vajra Demonic Lizard seemed to feel that something was wrong and finally could not bear it anymore. With fearsome eyes and a wu wu roar, its body started emitting a black glow. From its blood-dripping mouth, a bloody aura assailed the nostrils. In an instant, it flounced towards Su Yi.

At the same time, Su Yi's face abruptly became incomparably white when he condensed the last hand seal.

Roar!

All of a sudden, an explosive thunder-like roar of a tiger emitted from the fireball-like scorching energy that Su Yi had condensed.

The glow fluctuated like an eruption of flames. Then the virtual figure of a several zhang long flaming tiger violently stormed out.

The flaming tiger was like a real being as its entire body was crimson with a king pattern on its forehead permeating radiance.

The gigantic virtual figure of the tiger assumed a posture as though it was going to pounce with fire brewing in its eyes with full of hostility. It was as if it contained a sea of fire that was mean and ferocious.

Roar

When the virtual figure of the flaming tiger appeared, the surrounding clouds moved as a powerful aura fluctuated and then swept out.

A frightening flame swept like a wind storm, causing the mountain head to abruptly transform like a sea of fire as the temperature rose.

At this instant, the Vajra Demonic Lizard seemed to have felt something as the expression of the flouncing figure drastically changed while its fearsome eyes showed signs of wariness and shock.

However, everything was too late as the two instantly collided.

Bang bang!

Horrifying energy with the sounds of the explosion abruptly swept through and then blasted out. The flames swept through everywhere with a peculiar power clashing all around.

Rumble

The mountain head collapsed. The gruesome flames were as though a bomb had exploded while scorching aura swept out.

Wu wu

Along with the wu wu cries from the Vajra Demonic Lizard, everything on the scene, had been submerged within the flames of the monstrous aura.

Chapter 180: Killing The Vajra Demonic Lizard!

Bang bang bang!

The gruesome flames surged, and the enormous body of the Vajra Demonic Lizard crashed harshly onto the ground. Its body was charred black as if the skin had been directly burned off with blood dripping while the scene was too horrible to watch. For an unknown reason, the eyes of the Vajra Demonic Lizard, were dazed as though it was absent-minded.

Su Yi felt weak all over as his complexion was as white as paper. Looking at the Vajra Demonic Lizard that had fallen, he charged off quickly with the last strand of power he had.

Swish!

Although the sabers edge in his hand was already bent, when Su Yi reached the side of the Vajra Demonic Lizard, a Yuan Weapon treasure saber from his interspatial bag was held in his hand as he leaped down and brutally stabbed so deeply between its eyebrows that only the handle was seen peeping out.

Crack!

The area between the Vajra Demonic Lizards eyebrows exploded as blood flowed like a river. The light within its eyes dimmed as its eyelids slowly shut together. The aura on its body stagnated as its life faded away.

Roar

My lord!

At the moment, several massive figures rapidly came over. There were also ferocious birds in the sky spreading their wings. They were precisely the Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger, Golden Python, and the rest that had rushed over here.

Whats going on? Why is there such a big commotion?!

A crisp voice sounded as a featherless meat chicken with its tail tucked, walked out from between the beasts. It was precisely that featherless meat chicken.

When the featherless meat chicken walked out, its small misty eyes sized up the Vajra Demonic Lizard. Then, it craned its neck, sizing up the area while its nose seemed to be trying to sniff something. Later, it glanced towards Su Yi with a shocked and astonished expression as it said: The aura of the remnant soul and fire element. Young man, unexpectedly you are a Soul Tamer!

Pulling out the saber, the wound between the eyebrows of the Vajra Demonic Lizard spurted out blood.

Su Yi landed on the ground as he looked at the featherless meat chicken before him. This fellow seemed to have recovered quite fast and could actually directly sense his identity of a Soul Tamer.

Is being a Soul Tamer that hard?

The corner of Su Yi's mouth crooked as he faintly smiled and popped a Yuan Qi recovery elixir into his mouth.

Earlier when he had faced the Vajra Demonic Lizard, although he had relied on the might of a Soul Tamer in the end, to impact massively and eventually killing it, regardless of his Yuan Qi or spiritual power, Su Yi was now suffering from overexertion.

Hearing that, the featherless meat chicken was gloomy as it rolled its small eyes deliberately towards Su Yi.

From within its memories, Soul Tamer seemed to be only one out of ten thousand people, even rarer than an Alchemist and Tool Refiner.

You killed the small snake by yourself? The featherless meat chicken stared at the Vajra Demonic Lizard before it. It was only slightly aware of Su Yi's cultivation.

However, for this beast, it should have at least been in the Demonic Xuan Realm Sixth or Seventh Grade. The levels between them were a little too much.

Sort of!

Su Yi nodded his head. He kept having the feeling that the featherless meat chicken in front of him was not that simple.

Su Yi had not thought that the might of the Soul Tamer could exceed his expectations and heavily injured that Vajra Demonic Lizard which was something Su Yi had not anticipated.

What Su Yi did not know was that in terms of the might of a Soul Tamer, he had indeed surpassed a Soul Tamer on the same grade as him by a massive margin.

But to genuinely contend against the Vajra Demonic Lizard was also not an easy matter.

Only, that Vajra Demonic Lizard had suffered injuries and was trying hard to hold in its anger. While it was flighty and impulsive, it was incautious and had unexpectedly sustained a heavy blow to its spiritual soul. Then, Su Yi took the chance when its spiritual soul had not recovered and used his Yuan Qi to kill it.

Seeing that Su Yi had nodded his head, the featherless meat chicken revealed a faint astonishment as it pursed its lips and said: Young man, not bad!

When the Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger, Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly and the rest saw that Su Yi had actually killed the Vajra Demonic Lizard in the Demonic Xuan Realm Sixth Grade by himself, all of them revealed flabbergasted expressions as they were utterly shocked.

However, for the Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest, they did not reveal too much of a flabbergasted expression as they had already been used to it.

Howl

Chirp

Beasts roared like thunder as they went through the clouds. It seemed like the commotion over here had alerted quite many beasts over.

Howl

The ground moved, and the mountain shook. Many enormous beasts were dashing over here while ferocious birds in mid-air were spreading their wings like the dark clouds covering the sky. Their auras were swift and sharp.

My lord!

The eyes of the Silver Spirit Demonic Butterfly, Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest secretly moved as all of them unitedly glanced at Su Yi.

These beasts seem to be searching for humans right now. I will go first while you guys will sneak in among them to inquire about the situation and find out what is going on!

The moment Su Yi's words landed, he instantly left.

There were beasts everywhere, and some of them were powerful beasts that he could not defeat.

The Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest were only at the Demonic Spirit Realm which was not high, so it would be hard for them too.

Moreover, if they attacked, it would only lure more and more beasts.

Wait for me. The featherless meat chicken spoke as it tucked its tail and instantly followed behind Su Yi.

Su Yi had not gone too far as he returned to the cave from before.

The cave was secluded. Additionally, with the Fire-Eyes Beast Tiger and the rest outside, it should be enough to block those beasts that had been lured over.

Inside the cave, Su Yi glanced at the featherless meat chicken. His eyes locked onto the downy yet featherless body and stated: You have already escaped from danger. You can leave now.

I am unfamiliar with the outside world and cannot remember much of the stuff. Seeing that you, this young man is not bad, why not I follow you first? The featherless meat chicken hesitated for a while before looking at Su Yi and asked seriously, as though it did not have any intention of joking.

Su Yi glared at the featherless meat chicken and questioned: You want to follow me?

That's right. I find that you are not bad. The featherless meat chicken replied.

But I can't even protect myself. Su Yi rolled his eyes at the featherless meat chicken. At the moment, he could not even protect himself as he kept hiding everywhere. If, he was to bring such a featherless meat chicken with him, it would be much more difficult.

Besides, he was unfamiliar with the origin of this featherless meat chicken. With it following by his side, it would be inconvenient, and he would also be uneasy.

You do not look like you will need to protect yourself. With that little strength of yours, you cannot even deal with that lunatic girl. The featherless meat chicken glanced at Su Yi with its small eyes, putting on a face of disdain.

Su Yi wanted to say something but then hesitated as he had no words to refute it.

From the situation when the featherless meat chicken was battling against Mo Yue, he indeed did not seem to be able to protect this featherless meat chicken.

The featherless meat chicken also looked untrustworthy however, there were many things on its body that were not simple too.

Then you better go ahead

Su Yi waved his hand. Leaving such a featherless meat chicken with a mysterious origin by his side would, no matter what, be an extremely unworthy thing to do.

Aren't you afraid that I will go find that big snake and say that its egg, was stolen by you guys?

The featherless meat chicken stared at Su Yi and stated faintly. Its short wings softly flapped while its eyes betrayed its menacing intentions.

Don't forget that the girl has already taken the egg of the Blazing Heavenly Dragon away. Su Yi responded to the featherless meat chicken.

Then you can try to explain that to the big snake and see if it believes you. The featherless meat chicken nonchalantly stated.

Are you threatening me?!

Su Yi's gaze sunk as he had not expected that he would be threatened by a balding chicken one day.

His complexion changed as the corner of his mouth slightly curved up in a smile. Su Yi glanced at the featherless meat chicken and coldly continued: Don't forget, I have a bunch of beasts with me. By then, it should be enough to roast you or perhaps stewing you into soup is also a great idea as I have yet to try a peacock soup.
