Chapter 281: The Might Of The Sword!

"Granny has reached the end. Even an elixir also cannot save a desperate situation. From the day you entered the Ancient Spirit Village, granny could already feel that you were unlike an average person. As expected, granny has not chosen the wrong person!"

Shangguan Cheng Ya look at Su Yi and Shangguan Xi Wei at his side with a smile as she said to Su Yi: "Child, promise granny. In the future, you must take good care of the people of the Ancient Spirit Village and protect the bloodline of the Divine Demonic Sect."

She paused as fresh blood spilled out. Shangguan Cheng Ya took Shangguan Xi Wei's hand and placed it onto Su Yi's hand with the elixir and forcefully pressed them together with many difficulties. With great effort, she continued: "Today if you guys can leave, you guys must take care of one another as sister and brother in the future, or else I"

"Grandma, stop talking. Stop talking anymore. Quickly take the elixir" Shangguan Xi Wei cried while she tried to wipe off the fresh blood on her grandmother's lips.

"Granny Shangguan, quickly take the elixir. I promise you. Just quickly take the elixir." Su Yi kept nodding his head while tears dripped along his cheeks and fell.

"Good child. Then, I will be at ease."

Shangguan Cheng Ya smiled. The shrinking pupil could already no longer stay focus and lost its last glimmer as it started to become dim and shut tightly.

"Grandma!"

"Granny Shangguan!"

Su Yi and Shangguan Xi Wei sorrowfully roared with heart-wrenching pain as they shook the elderly in their arms, but she no longer could be awoken anymore.

"Crack.."

A curved saber was akin to lightning as it turned into an arc of lightning, once again striking towards Su Yi.

The elderly with the curved saber once again attacked as that young man was notably strange while his instinct gave him an uneasy feeling, so he must eradicate the source of trouble.

"Be careful!"

A loud shout traveled out along with a tiger roar. An elder of the Hunting Tiger Tribe appeared with a piece of treasure like a scissor and like a fork as though along with a tiger shadow, blocking before Su Yi.

Crack"

The might of this elder was extraordinary, but he was incomparable to that elderly with the curved saber and abruptly got blown away while his weapon grew dimmed with cracks and fell.

The elderly with the curved saber staggered and retreated two steps back.

Su Yi got up and handed over Shangguan Cheng Ya to Shangguan Xi Wei.

"Ah!"

Su Yi looked at the sky and gave a loud roar that could deafen the ears while the scorching and mighty aura on his body churned out and got denser and denser with might and destruction.

Such an aura caused the surrounding strong beasts to also unknowingly trembled. A series of blood moon-like fearsome gazes unitedly glanced over, mixing with astonishment.

From within Su Yi's body, a crimson glow like the naked flames became even real while his eyes, were also covered with crimson color. The scorching aura caused the surrounding air to bring along traces of distortion and illusory.

"What a strange brat. His body has an outer power that does not belong to him. It should have a connection with the Divine Demonic Sect.."

Feeling the frightening aura that was released from within Su Yi's body, inside the depths of the nearby elderly with the curved saber and the middle-aged man with the spear, there were shocked, followed by a blazing gaze that flashed and passed.

At a distance, there were also obscure auras landing, which had noticed this aura that was different from the crowd.

"No matter who you guys are, I will never let you guys go!"

Su Yi's crimson gaze closely stared at the middle-aged man with the spear and grew cold. It was unknown whether it was because he had formed his Heavenly Yuan Demonic Soul or under the influence of the outer power from the inside of the mysterious space, his entire person had an added destruction-like sharp drive.

This aura was mighty and robust. To strong, to Yang, to firm and to vigorous, it formed into a special kind of mighty air!

Su Yi's hair was disheveled while his robe was already tattered by the outer power from his body, but the momentum on his body sublimed. Veins flashed and revealed on his face, adding on a ferocious appearance to him.

"What a unique brat. Since he is a remaining evil, he cannot be left behind!"

The middle-aged man with the spear spoke while his gaze was secretly and hiddenly scorching as if he wanted to capture Su Yi as he did not use the long spear in his hand. His left hand shook, and from a low altitude, he dived down with his five fingers slightly crook as though distorting the sky with a claw heading towards Su Yi, collapsing from the top of Su Yi's head.

"I want you to pay with your life!"

Looking at that claw print, Su Yi did not retreat and instead went forward. His crimson eyes were as though intense flames were burning while radiance stormingly escalated. The scorching aura that blotted out the sky and covered the ground on his body exploded as he shook his arms, and Overlord's Fist detonated out, mixing with wind and thunder-like sound that instantly blasted out and clashing with the former's claw.

"Boom!"

The fist and claw collided. The explosion sound was like a shocking thunder while the surrounding air was also roaring with frightening raging wind energy sweeping through and shooting out.

"Pat pat!"

Su Yi staggered and stormingly retreated continuously while the ground beneath his feet directly cracked.

However, at the moment, that middle-aged man with the spear also did not gain any advantage as his body staggering retreated too.

"What a strong outer power!"

The middle-aged man was shocked, but then his gaze became even more blazing as he felt that the momentum and aura on the body of the brat, most likely was remains of the Divine Demonic Sect. Most probably, it was on the body of this brat before him.

"Swish!"

A saber glow sliced through the air as the figure of the elderly with the curved saber suddenly appeared in front of Shangguan Xi Wei while the curved saber in his hand struck down.

"Be careful!"

Shangguan Chen Feng appeared, blocking before Shangguan Xi Wei with a sword glow explodingly emitted out in his hand.

However, it was too weak. Everything was for nothing as the sword glow was simply not its enemy. That curved saber fiercely stabbed into his chest while fresh blood instantly dyed his white robe red.

"Brother Chen Feng"

Shangguan Xi Wei sorrowfully and tenderly cried.

Su Yi glanced sideways and saw the scene as his body trembled!

"Take care of the Ancient Spirit Village." Shangguan Chen Feng looked at Su Yi and spoke along with fresh blood shooting out from his mouth.

"A mantis rising its forelegs trying to stop an oncoming car. Overestimating your ability."

The elderly with the curved saber had no mercy as his gaze was icy cold while plucking out his saber.

Shangguan Chen Feng's body directly exploded, turning into a bloody fog.

"Ah!"

Su Yi sorrowfully and angrily roared while pulling out the broken sword on his back. Inside his body, unknowingly was it because of the ferocious outer power or it had received Su Yi's agony in his heart, and got implicated, the glow on the broken sword was brilliant and twinkling while a monstrous sword aura directly instantly gushed out.

In an instant, from within the broken sword, a trace of surging energy also flooded into Su Yi's body, complementing and mixing with the outer power from inside his body, causing his power to once again increase.

However, at the same time, a gruesome killing intent also followed along with that surging energy and assaulted into Su Yi's body, making him as though he could see the scene of blood flooding into a river and bone stacking up before his eyes.

This sort of killing intent was too terrifying as if it wanted to destroy and slash everything, causing Su Yi's physical body with his cultivation now, to also directly tremble as though he was going to be crushed into powder under the sweeping killing intent.

The power inside the mysterious space counteracted the influence of the killing intent on Su Yi's body.

But, within Su Yi's crimson eyes, the bloody glow of killing intent had instead, once again climbed up and covered everything.

"Hong hong!"

On the broken sword, currently, the glow was brilliant with the clanging of the wind and thunder.

That terrifying aura was as though a monstrous fearsome beast was awakening.

"Crack"

The sword aura was monstrous with blinding sword light.

"Kill!"

The crimson glow in his eyes was brilliant with a stern bloody light. Su Yi unhesitatingly clenched the broken sword tightly and directly slashed towards the elderly with the curved saber.

Everywhere the sword light passed by, the air would upheave along with killing intent all over the sky, making people's hearts palpitate!

The elderly with the curved saber seemingly could feel something as his gaze had fluctuation while the glow on his body instantly became even more brilliant.

...

Chapter 282: What A Strong Killing Aura!

"Swish swish"

A curved saber slashed the sky with dense saber glow that instantly charged out with several hundreds of saber glows speedily sweeping towards Su Yi.

Such saber glows unitedly went out while every single saber glow could seemingly slash through the sky.

The saber glows unitedly went out while the scene was shocking, as though it could slash everything.

The surrounding light became dimmed as though in this small space, only these several hundreds of saber glows, were left as they crisscrossed.

"Boom!"

The sword light and the saber glow clashed. Su Yi's sword light only had one and appeared flimsy, but in an instant, it released a monstrous power that when it touched the saber glow, it turned into endless sword aura along with a terrifying killing intent sweeping through, slashing everywhere.

The frightening sword aura's light was as though flooding water pouring down. It was entirely no longer a single light, but a ray of sword light like the sunlight, blotting this entire small space.

They vigorously collided with the clanging of metals.

At this instant, the elderly with the curved saber was astonished while the middle-aged man with the spear not far away also had shock gushing out from his gaze.

Very quickly, the saber glows of the elderly with the curved saber got shattered inches by inches by the sword aura's light.

There was a sword light sweeping through containing killing intent as the ripples arrived before the elderly with the curved saber.

The elderly with the curved saber scurrying resisted as the curved saber in his hand scaled the sky and exploded, emitting out sparks of fire. A crack appeared while the figure scurrying retreated.

Fresh blood then followed along the wrist of the elderly with the curved saber and flowed out. The curved saber in his hand also had a nick while his astonished gaze stared towards Su Yi with great shock.

"What a powerful outer power. What a strong killing aura!"

The heart of the elderly with the curved saber had waves as the young man had such frightening outer power.

That sword just now with the gruesome killing aura had exceeded his expectations.

He did not have any reservations and almost got severely wounded. But even like this, his current wounds were not light.

Su Yi's body also slightly retreated back. However, a trace of killing intent surged over to behind his back that was swift and ruthless.

"Come on!"

The aura on his body stormingly gushed out with exploding scorching energy aura.

Su Yi knew that the one behind him was the middle-aged man with the spear. He released his aura to the extreme while some places on his skin even blasted out cracks with mangle flesh as though a bloody man while dripping blood. In retaliation, a sword slashed out.

"Boom!"

The mysterious power and the broken sword, were now merged as the killing aura along with mighty, and destruction mixed together forming a frightening vast, and mighty wind storm as it swept through.

Familiar figures one by one got killed bloodily.

Granny Shangguan died in front of him, and Shangguan Chen Feng died in front of him.

Su Yi was now in extreme anger and unbearable pain. Not caring about everything, the killing intent from his heart surged and exploded, covering everything, wanting to kill these great enemies.

"Clack!"

The sword light and the spear collided. Abruptly a glow erupted very vigorously and also as fast as lightning.

However, it was only in an instant as the spear bent and crack. Then, it got rebounded and blown back.

The gaze of the middle-aged man gushed with shocked as his body got blown away and crashed into a stone wall behind him while he spewed out blood and left a puddle of blood on the ground.

Su Yi's gaze was crimson and bloody with a brilliant broken sword in his hand as the hair behind his back madly danced as though he was a killing god.

The nearby strong cultivators had noticed it while a huge beast and two brilliant figures appeared and stared towards Su Yi.

"You guys have all come!"

Su Yi stabbed the presently brilliantly glowing heavy sword into the ground. The surrounding ground collapsed with cracks extending while he stared at the surrounding gazes that were looking over here with mighty, destruction, and monstrous killing aura on his entire body.

That was a sort of monstrous might that emitted an aura which suppressed the empyrean!

"That brat is very strange. Let's kill him together. Maybe he has something to do with the remains of the Divine Demonic Sect!"

A strong cultivator in her 50s with a loose robe and a hairpin in her hair had a frightening aura and wavering light on her body. Her gaze was icy cold while she scaled the sky in giant steps at a high altitude. She waved her hand, which appeared like the black cloud covering Su Yi and directly crushed over.

"If today I am not dead, in the future, none of you will live! You must pay back a hundred times!"

Su Yi furiously roared while the killing aura in his body burnt as his hair danced, and the surrounding huge rocks also rumbling moved. He plucked out the sword and directly slashed towards that strong cultivator.

"What a powerful outer power. Let's kill him together. This seedling must not be left behind!"

Another beast and a strong cultivator joined in and unitedly attacked, wanting to suppress Su Yi.

In actual fact, it was only their guesses. This young man was so extraordinary and incomparably strange. The remains of the Divine Demonic Sect might be on the body of this young man.

At the depth of the sky, a big battle was even more intense as sword shadows scaled the sky with beast claws tearing the sky and fresh blood dripping. It was remarkably terrifying.

The Honourably Demon went mad with the last splendor, having a big battle everywhere!

At this moment, the Honourably Demon was fighting with its all.

That few super-strong cultivators were also exploding as all kinds of Yuan Qi elements already formed into heaven and earth energy with surging aura and intense battle.

"Roar"

The old state of the Honourably Demon's body was presently incomparably powerful, transforming into a massive body, standing in the sky while glancing with hostility. It had a demonic aura that was different from the crowd as it charged into the sky as though it was a godly tiger from the ancient!

This type of demonic aura was not any typical demonic aura. Instead, the mighty pressure came from the demon clan and the heaven and earth that was demonic, yet not evil!

The strong cultivator from the Sacred Mountain had a sword light in his hand as brilliant as the galaxy that could cast light on this dark night, releasing a holy aura that could slash this space.

The body of that fearsome tiger was also expanding while a glow intersects on its body. Its hook-like claws seemingly could crush the stars.

A ferocious bird spread its wing while its blood moon-like fearsome eyes shone like the sun and moon.

There were a few more glistening figures that were incomparably powerful.

An old figure had brilliant eyes while he and the fearsome tiger were the ones who wanted to kill the Honourably Demon the most.

The old figure was ruthless, yet the glow on his body was blinding as it blotted out half of the sky with gruesome terrifying aura on his body like a deity standing on the sky. He took the chance and struck out a palm print with intersecting glow appearing as though the falling star clouds, smacking onto the body of the Honourably Demon.

Fresh blood spilled out from the body of the Honourably Demon, but it continued to have a furious fight with the surrounding strong cultivators seemingly forgotten about its life and death, while its demonic might could not be, stopped.

"Kill!"

A few super-strong cultivators attacked jointly, exhausting everything they could to fight together to kill the Honourably Demon.

However, the hearts of these few super-strong cultivators were also frightened and incomparably astonished. No wonder this tiger was the remaining Honourably Demon of the Divine Demonic Sect. It was actually so powerful that even at its end, it could fight with its own strength against so many joint attacks of theirs.

"An arrow at the end of its flight can still be this mad, but it has also reached its end!"

That fearsome tiger loudly roared as it could tell that the Honourably Demon already getting more and more exhausted.

As expected, the Honourably Demon continuously got wounded while its massive tiger body retreated in the sky.

"Roar"

The Honourably Demon roared while its eyes shone. The demonic aura on its body got more and more flourishing as it glanced at the surrounding circle of great enemies. The glow on its body grew even brilliant, forming into a series of ripples as if nets above and snares below, covering the sky.

The nets above and snares below interweaved, letting out 'hong hong' sound and a brilliant glow with twinkling runes. It actually captured the few super-strong cultivators inside it as though going to bind them while emitting a type of demonic aura that covered the empyrean.

"Demonic Abstruse Divine Net. This is your last method, right? Do you really think that you can deal with so many of us?!"

The old figure spoke with a glistening glow as though a deity standing at the sky. From that surrounding brilliant glow cover, seemingly many faint beast figures could be seen.

...

Chapter 283: The Last Method!

The remaining super-strong cultivators were also not afraid.

They knew that this was the last method of the Honourably Demon, but relying on this final method, it could not do anything to their joint attacks.

After the Honourably Demon had cast its last method, it would then reached its real end!

"It is indeed impossible to kill you guys. However, this is also enough!"

The Honourably Demon spoke while its gaze suddenly had laughter in them as it glanced below and abruptly said: "If you don't show up now when are you going to appear? Just bring out as much as you can. Remember your promise to me. You will become the new Honourably Demon of the Divine Demonic Sect. In the future, the Divine Demonic Sect will be, handed over to you guys!"

When such words landed down, it resounded in the air.

"Whoosh"

All of a sudden, at the bottom of the collapsed Yao Luo Mountain, abruptly, there were rolling flame spreading and sweeping through, pouring down from the sky while everywhere it passed, it would burn everything into nothing.

These scorching flames were too overly scary, while the entire space was also fluctuating.

"Not good. This old demon has another arrangement!"

"This old demon wants to arrange for people to bring the remaining of the Divine Demonic Sect and escape!"

Seeing this, the complexion of the few super-strong cultivators changed.

"Crack!"

The fearsome tiger grew cold as huge claws slashed the air, wanting to break free from the restrain of the Honourably Demon.

The ferocious bird spread its wings that seemingly could cover the sky, causing the air to distort and break.

There was beast roaring on the surrounding of the old elderly as even the empyrean was shaking.

The strong cultivator of the Sacred Mountain waved his sword with a monstrous sword light that could slash everything.

And the few strong cultivators were also going all out, releasing monstrous auras as all kinds of attack scaled and crisscrossed, wanting to break the restraint of the Honourably Demon and stopped its arrangement.

Only, the might of the Honourably Demon was beyond their expectations as it actually made them completely unable to escape.

At this moment, they then realized that this Honourably Demon had purposely lured them to a high altitude and gradually restraint them while it had another arrangement.

"Rumbling"

The ground started to crack as gruesome flames appeared while a scorching aura got more and more intense.

The ground moved, and the mountain shook as a frightening aura charged into the clouds.

Lines followed along the ground and cracked, spreading in this ancient turmoil big land.

On the sky, gruesome flames whistled out and converged together, surging turbulently, making the skins of the strong cultivators on the scene painful as flesh broke out in goosebumps!

"What is going on?!"

The color of the complexion of the incoming groups of great enemies changed as this scorching aura was unlike typical, causing them to unknowingly felt a type of creepy feeling while their hearts secretly quivered.

All of them glanced at the gruesome flames in the sky. There seemed to be something inside that was going to emerge out.

"Whoosh"

Gruesome sea of fire seemingly blotted out the sky and covered the ground as it instantly wanted to blot out the entire giant sky.

Su Yi was as though a killing god, battling against several strong cultivators. The sword light was brilliant with monstrous killing aura, but under the joint attacks of the several strong cultivators, he also was forced to retreat back slowly.

However, the middle-aged man with the spear, the elderly with the curved saber, and the rest felt even more shocked.

That young man was actually so frightening. Although it was obvious that he borrowed a sort of outer power, yet he could endure that terrifying outer power and fight with them so intensely to this extent, which was even more horrifying.

A real killing intent raised in their hearts. If such a young man could leave today, most likely, without long, he would be able to grow to a frightening stage.

In the sky, the sudden commotion also allowed the mad Su Yi to feel it.

His figure staggering retreated while Su Yi's gaze followed that frightening scorching aura and glanced at the direction where the commotion started. In that gruesome erupting sea of fire, he seemingly could feel a whiff of familiar aura was surging.

"Boom!"

Within the gruesome sea of fire, a massive virtual figure emerged from the sea of fire looming.

When that massive virtual figure emerged, those strong cultivators were the first to sense it.

Within that virtual figure, an indescribable horrifying mighty pressure could be felt making the faces of the people to surge with astonishment.

Especially, when the strong cultivators and beasts on the scene felt the spreading aura of the virtual figure in the sea of fire, a creepy feeling started to climb in their hearts.

"Let's deal with this brat first!"

The middle-aged man intensely shouted and gritted his teeth. On that pale complexion, the long spear once again emitted a blinding glow and directly shot over to Su Yi.

The elderly with the curved saber and the other strong cultivators once again stared at Su Yi as none of them wants the brat before them to land into someone else's hand and unitedly swept out with powerful attacks.

Su Yi's eyes became crimson with an undiminished killing aura as the sword light in his hand, along with a killing intent all over the sky, fluctuated.

"Chirp"

All of a sudden, at this instant, at the sea of fire on the sky, a cry pierced through the clouds and cracked the rocks resounded while a massive virtual figure of a flaming flying bird like a phoenix and a roc speedily formed a shape. Its extensive wings spread and flapped, enveloping with fluttering flames. The entire sky was also trembling as this sort of momentum made the people in the surrounding shocked.

"Crack"

Brilliant flames swept over towards the surrounding of Su Yi, covering him and the others within.

"Bang bang bang"

Almost without any maneuver, those initially strikes from the joint attacks towards Su Yi landed onto that gruesome flames while explosion sounds traveled out, yet the several figures, were abruptly bounced back and harshly landed faraway.

"Chirp"

The virtual figure once again cried while its spread wings flapped with raging flames over all the sky, casting light on this dark night.

On the surrounding sky, a space distorted and collapsed with a series of flames sweeping out, converging into a series of fire as though it had grown eyes as it landed onto the bodies of the strong enemies in the sky.

"Bang bang bang"

The fire exploded, and the sky was in turmoil. A strong cultivator, was blown away while someone spurted out blood. There were also strong cultivators falling down with shrieks.

"Go"

The flames all over the sky landed down like a light screen as it lastly enveloped this piece of the ancient land, covering many people of the Ancient Spirit Village, Hunting Tiger Tribe, and the Mighty Bear Tribe, bringing them to the sky.

The bodies of Su Yi and the not far away Shangguan Xi Wei, Shangguan Yan, Shangguan Xiu, and the rest, were also enveloped within as if an endless colossus hand reached down, making the surrounding land to dim while they were involuntary covered.

"Go!"

Such a shout seemingly resounded inside Su Yi's ears.

Vaguely on the sky, a space was torn open, revealing a black hole.

The surrounding glow distorted while the profound black light that emitted out seemingly could swallow people's souls inside too.

"Whoosh"

That massive flaming virtual figure brought many people of the Ancient Spirit Village, Hunting Tiger Tribe, and the Mighty Bear Tribe to the black hole.

"Who dares to intervene?!"

Up in the sky, that fearsome tiger, old figure, and the rest had cold expressions as they never expected that someone would actually intervene right under their eyes, bringing away the remaining evils of the Divine Demonic Sect.

"Rumbling"

Going out with full force, every one of the super-strong cultivators no longer had any reservation as they blasted the sky while brilliant glow exploded with energy kept crushing the sky and shooting out like countless meteorite landing, destroying this ancient land.

The Honourably Demon could no longer persist while that big net had already cracked.

However, as it watched the gruesome flames disappearing in the direction of the black hole, the eyes of the Honourably Demon revealed smiling intent as it mumbled: "There is a successor. Heaven blessed my Divine Demonic Sect. Now, I can die without any regrets!"

...

Chapter 284: Escaped And Leave!

"Roar!"

The Honourable Demon roared while its eyes were like the sun as its body kept dripping blood. However, at this moment, the aura on its body was getting hot and soared the clouds with a brilliant glow, bringing along twinkling runes.

"This old fellow wants to seek death!"

A strong cultivator had a changed of color on his complexion as he was shocked.

"Not good"

The surrounding super-strong cultivators had a change of color in their complexions as though they had seen the most shocking thing as they speedily stormingly retreated.

"The Divine Demonic Sect will stage a comeback. Heaven will not exterminate my Divine Demonic Sect!"

The Honourably Demon spoke while its voice echoed in this land. The glow on its entire body seemingly burned up, becoming incomparably magnificent like the tides, while the demonic aura turned into a boundless ocean. The power of its body was as though an ancient tiger god standing up.

"Bang!"

All of a sudden, the burning and blinding body of the Honourably Demon directly inflated and exploded like a bomb got detonated. Frightening energy swept through in the sky, so blinding that the sky was entirely flaming, and nothing could be, seen exploding out an incomparable might and demonic aura.

"Ah"

At a low altitude, someone horribly screamed as many descended great enemies suffered the ripples while they shrieked and fell. Some of them their bodies got directly crushed with blood flying and spilling like the rain. Some giant beasts, were even assaulted by the energy as their bodies got split into two.

Such an explosion caused all of the soul of every living thing to shiver while every incomer enemies escaped, avoiding that frightening ripples.

Afterward, the sky recovered, and everywhere was empty. The ancient land recovered its dark night and got covered by the night scene.

"Find them. They must not have gone far!"

Faraway in the sky, someone spoke while his voice sounded very sinister.

The surrounding was crimson while Su Yi could not struggle. His eyes were still crimson with a babbling killing aura, but the conscious in his mind was not hidden and got clearer and clearer.

"Crack"

Unknown how long had passed, a few hours or a few minutes, Su Yi felt that his body was dropping while his surroundings was no longer crimson and he could clearly see that he was falling down from mid-air. The bottom was still a cliff abyss, so dark that the bottom could not see.

"Hong!"

The instant when his body fell onto the cliff abyss, the heavy sword in Su Yi's hand stabbed down. With the clanging of the metals and sparks of fire, the heavy sword struck into the rock wall, cutting the rocks like soil while his body dropped down. Then it gradually slowed down and stopped as the surrounding large rocks trembled before it was safely secured.

"Ah"

His body gained power while the heavy sword glowed as his hair stood. Su Yi gave a loud roar, and his foot tapped onto the rock wall as his body abruptly leaped onto up to the abyss.

On the abyss, the crescent moon was like a hook with twinkling stars. Su Yi opened his eyes wide and looked at the high sky. The surroundings were quiet while he never saw any great enemies chasing over, but just now, there were many people seemingly falling with him, scattered around the area.

With the heavy sword in his hand, the outer power currently in his body had still not dispersed. Su Yi glanced at the sky, not knowing where he was.

"Roar!"

Beast roars abruptly traveled over from afar that could deafen the ears.

Su Yi waved his sword and felt the direction where the roars came and abruptly madly dashed over as he knew that earlier, many people had landed in that area.

Very quickly, Su Yi reached the place. Under the moonlight in the night, the chaotic mountains and rocks, presently, there were several figures while coincidentally, Su Yu knew some of them. There were Hu Chi and Hu Mo from the Hunting Tiger Tribe, Xiong Zhan and Xiong Lie from the Mighty Bear Tribe, and a few elderly of the Hunting Tiger Tribe and the Mighty Bear Tribe, but their cultivation levels were not high, only a little stronger than Xiong Zhan and the rest.

"Roar!"

A several zhang big black ferocious beast was currently staring closely at Hu Chi, Xiong Zhan, and the rest. Its entire body was swarthy with long dense fur while emitting a black glow and a mouth full of sharp teeth. It appeared like a pig and a wolf with a fierce aura on its body.

"Humans interrupting me while I am cultivating. All of you shall die!"

The ferocious beast howled, speaking in the human language while emitting killing intent.

It was initially in closed-door cultivation at this place as it desired to breakthrough in this night with moon, but it never expected that so many humans would suddenly appear and interrupted it, so it was furious.

"Demonic Void Realm!"

Hu Chi, Hu Mo, Xiong Zhan, and the rest that just landed, did not expect that they had alarmed a beast in the Demonic Void Realm while they knew that they were not its opponent.

"Scam beast, or else I will kill you!"

Su Yi rushed over while the agony in his heart had not disappeared, and his eyes crimson.

"It's him!"

When they saw Su Yi, the expression of Hu Chi, Xiong Zhan, and the rest moved as previously, they had seen Su Yi battling the strong cultivators while sweeping through everywhere.

The ferocious beast looked at Su Yi, seemingly feeling a sort of aura as the aura of Demonic Void Realm on its body also fluctuated. That whiff of might, destruction, and gruesome killing aura made people's heart quiver without reason.

"Roar"

The roar of the ferocious beast also became a little soft that even though it was somewhat unwilling, it did not dare to get close. It had indeed been frightened as it carefully stared and sized up Su Yi.

"Crack"

All of a sudden, not far away, a bloody glow swept out as a dozen zhang long big boa in the color of blood swept out. Its tongue in the moon night was like bloody lightning flashing while its aura was much stronger than that ferocious beast. It dived towards Su Yi and opened its big bloody mouth with a foul smell that assailed the nostrils, wanting to swallow Su Yi in one bite.

"Foul beast, you are courting death!"

Su Yi was precisely angry in his heart. Although the outer power on his body was gradually dispersing, it had not totally gone yet. The heavy sword in his hand directly slashed out with sword light along with wind and thunder. The glow was turbulent with a sword glow like the boundless ocean sweeping out.

That bloody big boa seemingly did not expect Su Yi's speed and might to be so strong as its giant tail swept out and actually shattered many of Su Yi's sword glow.

The giant tail lastly swept onto a pile of rocks. The rumbling rocks exploded and rolled down.

"Humph!"

Su Yi's inexplicable agony was about to disappear while the heavy sword in his hand fiercely swept out akin to lightning with momentum like dashing lightning, directly piercing the giant tail of the bloody big boa, stabbing the tail into the rocks.

The brilliant glow on the heavy sword exploded out a frightening killing aura, forcefully restraining the boa's tail and locking it inside the rocks.

"Hiss hiss"

The bloody big poa was in pain as it shrieks. Its raised ferocious head dived down with a foul smell assailing over wanting to swallow Su Yi.

"Come on!"

Su Yi did not retreat and instead went forward. With a loud roar, the aura on his body erupted while a fist directly detonated out. The crimson glow on his fist was like the sunlight, as though a little comet crossing through the sky with a mighty and destructive aura emitting, directly booming out.

At this instant, in the eyes of the bloody big boa, it suddenly gushed with astonishment for unknown reason while it speedily raised and wanted to avoid, dodging at a fast speed, entirely not daring to contend against it.

However, it was too late, Su Yi's fist had already landed down. The bloody big boa got engulfed in the crimson glow while the fist fell beneath the skull. The bloody snake scales and meat mangle as it abruptly suffered severe wounds.

The enormous bloody big boa's body directly rolled down, harshly landed onto a side of the mountain wall. Within the rumbling sound, the rocks crushed, and the body got wilted and cracked.

"!"

Su Yi's foot tapped the floor as his figure leaped through the air, directly jumping onto the skull of the bloody big boa.

...

Chapter 285: Soundless Pain!

Su Yi straddled the bloody big boa on its back with an exploding crimson glow in his hand. In an instant, both fists were as though the rain as fists dropped down like a rainstorm continuously.

"Bang bang bang bang bang"

"Ah"

Low and deep explosion sounds rang out as all of the punches hit. On the head of the bloody big boa, its skin split open, and meat broke forth while blood dripped everywhere. It shrieked but was utterly unable to move as its tail, was stabbed until it totally could not move an inch. Its head struggled, but following after Su Yi's few punches, it had also wilted.

"Bang bang!"

Su Yi exploded with surging crimson light along with a mighty and destructive aura. Every single fist that punched down, the skull of the big bloody boa would blast out a hole.

The aura on Su Yi's body got weaker and weaker while the speed of the fist landing down also got slower.

When the last strand of energy got exhausted, the speed of Su Yi's fist also entirely stopped.

The skull of the bloody boa had utterly turned into a meat paste. A skull of the strong beast in the Demonic Void Realm had directly gotten blasted.

"Roar"

The roars of the strange and fearsome beast got further and further away. Unknowingly when it had already escaped without any traces.

"Ah."

Su Yi loudly shouted to the sky sorrowfully, making people that heard it feel unknowingly sad too.

The crimson glow in his eyes and the aura on his body had entirely dispersed, but his eyes were still bloody red, covered with the color of blood.

Xiong Zhan, Hu Chi, and the rest glanced at each other, feeling shocked in their heart as a strong beast in the Demonic Void Realm could actually also be killed by that fellow.

However, following after, Xiong Zhan, Hu Chi, and the rest one by one looked at the sky in one direction. That was the direction of their home. At the moment, they had separated away too far and escaped out while the rest of their clansmen were killed and slaughtered by people.

Each one of them clenched their fists tightly and had wet eyes with tears rolling in their eye sockets.

On the back of the bloody boa, Su Yi panted with a complexion as pale as a paper with wet and bloody eyes.

He popped a few recovery elixirs into his mouth and then climbed down from the back of the bloody big boa. He took out a Spirit Weapon from his interspatial bag and sliced through the snakeskin of the boa with force. He later took out a fist-sized demonic core that was emitting a bloody light.

Hu Chi, Xiong Zhan, and the rest glanced at a distant, watching everything that Su Yi did. They stood afar, wanting to come over, but didn't and kept silently standing at one side.

Keeping the demonic core, Su Yi plucked out the broken sword that had recovered back to normal on the snake tail. He found a firmed tree vine and once again placed the broken sword and the new big Spirit Weapon saber onto his back.

"Are you guys injured?" Su Yi now then walked to the front of Hu Chi and the rest and asked them as he swept his glance over them.

"Nothing serious." Xiong Zhan, Hu Chi, and including those elderly glanced at each other and then shook their heads.

"Do you guys know where are we?" Su Yi sized up the surroundings and then questioned everyone.

"We should be inside of the Demon Woods." An elderly from the Hunting Tiger Tribe spoke while sizing up their surroundings. This place should be the Demon Woods.

"There are still many people that have landed in the area. We will go and look for them now."

After hearing this, Su Yi's eyes moved. Here was the inside of the Demon Woods and legends said that it was the heaven of the beasts, which strong beasts were everywhere. He must find everyone so that there would not be any accidents.

When his words landed, Su Yi left to find the others.

Hu Chi, Xiong Zhan, and the rest hesitated, and then also followed behind Su Yi.

In the dark night with the crescent moon landing at the west.

When crossing the mountains, Su Yi's footsteps were hard, supporting himself to go over the mountain and down the dale. Along the way, they had found several people, and amongst them were Shangguan Ye and Shangguan Xiu.

"Died. Mother has died, and father too. Village head granny had died and the old village head too. So many people have died!"

Shangguan Ye cried while sitting on the rocks. The tears in his eyes unbearably dripped down.

"Wu wu"

Shangguan Xiu cried as tears poured down.

Looking at the scene, the agony in Xiong Zhan, Hu Chi, and the rest also unbearably got stirred up. The group of people was incomparably sad.

Su Yi clenched his fist tightly while his eyes were red. So many kind villagers that were peaceful with the world were killed just like this.

"Go. We must quickly find all of the people!"

Su Yi loudly shouted with red eyes, but he forcibly endured the tears in his eye sockets and continued to search the surroundings. Along the way, he also left behind the marks of the Ancient Spirit Village, Hunting Tiger Tribe, and the Mighty Bear Tribe, so that he could find all of them.

The sky had become bright, and the group of people had found more and more people. Shangguan Yan and Shangguan Yu were also within, along with some of the youngsters of the Hunting Tiger Tribe and the Mighty Bear Tribe. They already had dozens of people in their line-up.

Lastly, at a mountain top, Su Yi found Shangguan Xi Wei and Su Tian Que.

At this moment, Su Tian Que's eyes were a little red while its body still did not have any feathers. As it watched Su Yi come over, it as though was not surprised. The appearance of arrogant on account of one's seniority was even denser as it said to Su Yi: "You have come."

Su Yi nodded his head and looked at Shangguan Xi Wei.

Shangguan Xi Wei squatted on the ground. Such a pose seemingly had maintained for a very long time as she was still hugging granny Shangguan in her arms. Her tears had long dried while she had cried until she had no voice.

Su Yi gently walked over to Shangguan Xi Wei and stood beside her. Looking at granny Shangguan's pale and kind complexion, his heart was in pain. A drilling kind of pain.

"Village head granny."

Shangguan Yuan, Shangguan Xiu, and the rest of the people of the Ancient Spirit Village all surrounded over.

The surrounding people did not say anything while they silently stood at one side.

After a long time, Su Yi glanced at Shangguan Xi Wei and said: "We will bury granny in the ground to rest first. This place is not far from home. We will bury granny here, and in the future, we can visit here often."

Shangguan Xi Wei then moved her dazed gaze at this moment and looked at Su Yi while nodding her head.

Su Yi took over the village head's corpse and gently hugged her into his arms to one side. Then, he searched for a place in the beautiful mountains and clear waters that looked towards the direction of the heaven of peace and happiness from afar and started digging.

The surrounding people were silent, but all came over to help without speaking any words.

Finally, they buried the village head while Shangguan Yan found a huge rock, wanting to inscribe the gravestone.

"Inscribe the gravestone next time!"

Su Tian Que came over to stop while it said: "Everyone has escaped out, so most likely, those great enemies will not let it go this easily, and continue to find us. We must quickly leave this place and try not to leave any traces as much as possible."

Su Yi nodded his head and also stopped the people.

"Grandma."

In front of the grave, Shangguan Xi Wei's voice was hoarse as she cried until she had no voice.

"Village head granny!"

The people of the Ancient Spirit Village could no longer endure it as they teared up. All of their eyes were red, flooding with tears.

Su Yi forcefully endured it while he glanced at the sky from afar. The burning sun already hung high up in the sky. He looked in the direction of the heaven of peace and happiness as he kneeled before the grave and respectfully kowtowed three times with reddened eyes. Afterward, he wiped his tears and abruptly turned his body around and left.

...

Chapter 286: A Secluded Place.

Everybody bid their last farewell before they followed after Su Yi with red eyes.

Su Tian Que also glanced at the grave before turning around to leave.

"Brother Yi Su, where are we going now?"

Shangguan Yan and the rest came over and asked Su Yi.

"Leave this place. The farther, the better."

Su Yi responded. Those great enemies were all incomparably strong and would not be willing to give up. They must leave this place, the faster, the better.

"We still have some clansmen that have left."

Xiong Zhan, Hu Chi, and the few elderly from the Hunting Tiger Tribe and the Mighty Bear Tribe came over and said to Su Yi.

"There are still some clansmen that left? So, where are they now?"

After hearing this, Su Yi's sorrow heart felt a little relieved. At least the Divine Demonic Sect had left behind many bloodlines.

"At a secluded place. We know the path. That secluded place is arranged by our ancestors to take caution of such a day so that they could migrate some bloodlines."

Hu Chi replied, back then, the strong cultivators wanted to take them to the secluded place to take refuge, but they had come back halfway. Yet, when they went back, they then found out that with their strengths, they absolutely could not do anything.

If it wasn't because they were there, perhaps some of the strong cultivators of their tribes could escape out. At this instant, it caused their hearts to be incomparably regretful.

"That secluded place might not be truly hidden. However, as far as I know, we can only go back and gather everyone before we plan anything." Su Tian Que spoke while its small eyes mistily moved.

But, at the moment when they glanced at Su Tian Que, nobody laughed at it while a sort of respect gushed out from their eyes.

Everyone distinctively knew that the one who rescued them out yesterday night was this featherless meat chicken before them. It definitely must be a powerful beast.

As for the matter about yesterday night, Su Yi also had many questions that he could not understand and wanted to ask Su Tian Que, but now was not the time.

All of the people glanced at each other and finally landed their gazes onto Su Yi.

Indistinctively, everyone had treated Su Yi as the leader now.

"You will decide and see what we should do." Shangguan Xi Wei spoke with a hoarse voice.

"Will you guys be willing to listen to my words?"

Su Yi looked at all of the people at the scene. The Honourably Demon had lastly passed the Divine Demonic Sect to him while Su Yi had not mentioned about this matter, nor was it the time now to discuss it.

However, towards everyone that was before him, whether it was the Hunting Tiger Tribe, Ancient Spirit Village, or the Mighty Bear Tribe, all of them were the remaining bloodlines of the Divine Demonic Sect.

With the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse on him and he had gotten the remainings of the last sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect, Su Yi had already subconsciously treated everyone as his own.

Especially when the Honourably Demon risked its life to seize everyone a chance to escape, it had made Su Yi's heart quivered. No matter what the reasons were, he could not let down the trust of the Honourable Demon.

"Just say it!"

Xiong Zhan, Hu Chi, and the rest did not hesitate and nodded their heads.

At this moment, they knew very clearly that they were totally powerless to lead everyone to escape from danger.

All of them were arrogant in their generation, and might not be obedient even if they knew that Su Yi's strength was exceedingly powerful.

However, from last night till now, they had witnessed how Su Yi, for the sake of everyone, swept through everywhere and rescued them while killing the bloody big boa in the Demonic Void Realm ferociously.

They could feel that Su Yi's heart was also in agony like theirs and could clearly see his reddened eyes.

Indistinctively, in Hu Chi and Xiong Zhans hearts, they had already considered Su Yi as one of their own and their clansmen. They knew that they had no capability to lead, but if they followed this young man that was younger than them, there might still be hope.

After all, they had witnessed with their own eyes his exceptional.

Su Yi looked at everyone and did not decline.

Although his reincarnated person was only 15-16 years old, adding on his previous life, if he actually counts the people at the scene, they might not be older than him. He nodded his head and asked the people: How far away is that secluded place from here?

Hu Chi lifted his head and looked at his surroundings while reckoning said: If we can find a flying beast, we will reach around two to three days.

We cannot find a flying beast. Hide your presence and slowly walk there!

Su Yi shook his head. Here was the inside of the Demon Woods, which everywhere were strong beasts. With the strength of this group of people, it was definitely unsafe.

And if they subdued some flying beasts mounts, there would be more harm and no gain in midair as they could become the prey for those lords of the sky.

Furthermore, in midair, although the speed was indeed faster, they would directly become the targets of those great enemies as it was remarkably easy to expose themselves.

The group of people set off according to the direction of the secluded place to gather the batch of clansmen that had set off in advance.

Right now, it was the inside of the Demon Woods. Along the way, they had met with many beasts while most of them were beasts in the Demonic True Realm, whereas the beasts in the Demonic Void Realm were not something you could meet at any time.

With the aura on the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique on Su Yi's body, it was enough to frighten off the beasts in Demonic True Realm and below, so they did not meet with any big troubles.

At night, everyone took a short break while Su Yi took out many elixirs and handed them over to everyone to recover and rest.

Inside the heaven of peace and happiness, Alchemists were extremely rare. Even though there were many herbs, there was also not enough Alchemists to make it.

Hence, for all along, whether it was the Ancient Spirit Village, Mighty Bear Tribe, or the Hunting Tiger Tribe, the elixirs they could get were very little.

Seeing that Su Yi had taken out so many elixirs, the group of people was very astounded and feeling very grateful in their hearts.

After the big battle, they were miserable while escaping. Every one of them somewhat could not bear the tortures along the way. They indeed need the fastest speed to recover and heal themselves.

Tonight, the moon was dark while the stars were bright. Night clouds were drifting and gathering in the sky. Occasionally, the night breeze would gently stir. From a very distant place, beasts roar would irregularly echo.

Shangguan Xi Wei hugged her knees with her hands, sitting on a tall and large rock with a sluggish gaze looking at the night sky. Her hair was a little disheveled with a few strands covering her face.

"Looking at the color of the sky, most likely it is going to rain soon."

Su Yi slowly walked over and softly spoke, sitting beside Shangguan Xi Wei.

"Grandma is dead, Brother Chen Feng is dead, Auntie Ming is dead, Elder Qing Ming is dead, Big Elder, Second Elder, and so many people have died. What are the backgrounds of those people? Why are they so vicious?"

Shangguan Xi Wei did not lower her eyes and continued to glance silently at the night sky. Her voice was clear. Only her face had the expression of hissing pain of grief while her eyes contained tears, trying not to let it drip out.

Su Yi crooked his mouth. Listening to Shangguan Xi Wei's words, fresh and lively faces seemingly floated passed before his eyes. He secretly gritted his teeth and spoke: "Don't worry. In the future, I will never let those people go."

Shangguan Xi Wei did not respond and dazedly sat.

Su Yi sat before Shangguan Xi Wei as he understood her feelings. At this moment, most probably, it was useless to say anything, and futile to comfort her, no matter who the person was. Only she could comfort herself.

...

Chapter 287: The Token Of The Sect Leader

The two of them did not speak while the night breeze gently stirred.

After a long time, Shangguan Xi Wei lowered her eyes and glanced at Su Yi while something was spinning in her eyes.

Looking at Shangguan Xi Wei, Su Yi's heart abruptly became heavy with grief as this type of feeling, nobody could understand it, yet Su Yi could somewhat feel what she was feeling.

"From now on, I have nobody at my side anymore. All of them have left, leaving me behind. Only I alone is left." Shangguan Xi Wei finally could not endure it while her voice trembled. When her words landed, she pounced into Su Yi's arms.

Su Yi opened his arms and hugged Shangguan Xi Wei. Feeling that trembling and sobbing tender body, he tightly hugged that warm jade to his shoulders.

Without saying anything, Su Yi only tightly hugged that sobbing tender figure, feeling that the tears on his chests were boiling hot temperatures.

Su Yi knew that she needed to let it all out. The extent of the sudden change in the situation for a village lady that was peaceful with the world since young was too big.

Time slowly passed by while Shangguan Xi Wei cried unbridled. After a long time, she then gradually calmed down.

Su Yi accompanied her second by second until she quietened down with only the sound of the surrounding night breeze stirring the leaves traveled over.

At this moment, Su Yi then softly spoke: "There are the remaining people of the Ancient Spirit Village. Shangguan Yan, Shangguan Ye, Shangguan Xiu, Shangguan Yu, and the rest are all here. There is still me. I am here. Before granny left, she mentioned to let me take care of you."

"What grandma clearly said was for me to take care of you. Don't forget that you are much younger than me." Shangguan Xi Wei lifted her head and drilled out from Su Yi's arms. Her crying face was a mess with hair sticking to her face.

Looking at the girl before her, Su Yi slightly smiled. After crying out, perhaps it was much better for her. He gently smiled and said: "I am younger than you, but I am a man. Naturally, I must take care of you."

"Okay. But I remember that when grandma left, she wanted us to take care of each other."

Shangguan Xi Wei glanced at the young man before her while her face unknowingly became a little red as she inquired: "Is my crying very ugly?"

"Not ugly. Not a tiny bit ugly. The crying appearance of the ladies in the entire world cannot even be, compared to you." Su Yi laughed.

"To think that you know how to say fancy and sweet words. In the outside world, most likely many girls have been fooled by you, right?"

Shangguan Xi Wei rolled her eyes at Su Yi, but in her eyes, there was a rare trace of smiling intent. Looking at Su Yi, she continued: "In the future, we, sister and brother, must take care of one another. But I am afraid that as an elder sister, I don't really know how to take care of people while I also do not know if you will acknowledge me as your sister."

"Such a pretty sister, how can I bear not to acknowledge? If, elder sister doesn't know how to take care of people, then in the future, I will take care of Sister Xi Wei." Su Yi pursed his lips and laughed while the agony in his heart had added strands of warmth.

"Still saying such coaxing words. Quickly go and meditate. These few days, you will need to work hard to take care of everyone." Shangguan Xi Wei nodded her head and smiled. Afterward, she turned around, and her graceful and tender figure left.

Glancing at that back, Su Yi slightly smiled. Then, he stood on a huge rock and lifted his head to look at the profound night sky. His expression gradually became dark, and sharp with chilling light emitting from his eyes.

"What are your plans?"

A crisped voice suddenly transmitted over as Su Tian Que's body swayingly appeared while tucking its tail. Its small eyes were particularly bright and brooding in this night.

"Have your might recovered?"

Su Yi glanced at Su Tian Que with a light surging in his eyes as his heart was, filled with expectation.

The gruesome sea of fire from yesterday night, that vast scorching aura, and the massive virtual figure, it was not hard for Su Yi to know that it must have a connection to Su Tian Que as that was the aura on Su Tian Que's body.

To be able to bring so many people, and escaped, moreover right under the eyes of so many super-strong cultivators, how much strength does this require?

It was not hard for Su Yi to guess that the only possibility was that what Su Tian Que had previously said was real. This fellow might really be a peacock and had already recovered its might.

"It is still too early to recover entirely!"

Su Tian Que shook its head while that tiny body stood on the large rock below Su Yi's feet. It also lifted its head and glanced at the night sky, saying: "It is that Honourably Demon. It has helped me, lending me a hand and allowing me to recover a lot, even finding some memories back."

"What exactly is going on?"

Su Yi felt strange and a little dubious, not knowing when Su Tian Que and the Honourably Demon had been in contact.

"The first day we came here, that old tiger already knew. It could feel that you are exceptional and seen through some signs of my background. After you entered the Tian Yao Cave, that old tiger came to find me."

Su Tian Que said, roughly telling Su Yi about the situation.

It turned out when Su Yi and Su Tian Que entered the Ancient Spirit Village, the Honourably Demon had known about it distinctively and had been secretly observing them.

The Honourably Demon had also long foretold Su Tian Que's exceptional and had always been worried about the descending of the great enemies, so it left itself a loophole and found Su Tian Que. After understanding the situation, it promised to lend a helping hand to Su Tian Que, helping it to recover.

However, the Honourably Demon had a request. It required Su Tian Que's promise to join the Divine Demonic Sect.

In the beginning, Su Tian Que did not accept it, but the Honourably Demon mentioned that as long as it is alive, Su Tian Que did not need to become the Honourably Demon of the Divine Demonic Sect and was also free.

Even if the Honourably Demon had died, at then, Su Tian Que could also consider.

Hence, Su Tian Que momentarily promised it.

Without long, the Honourably Demon once again found Su Tian Que and said that the great enemies had already come while Su Yi had become the sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect. It required Su Tian Que's help to do one thing for the last strand of survival of the Divine Demonic Sect.

"That tiger knew that its days are not many and wholeheartedly wish for death. It wants me to hand a thing over to you."

From Su Tian Que's mouth, it spat out a palm-sized jade token with some dark red color while on it, was many carving of ancient runes.

Su Yi caught the jade token in his hand. He clearly could not feel any aura, yet he could sense a sort of demonic aura emitting out while on it were three big cravings of the 'Divine Demonic Sect' lively and vigorously flourished in calligraphy.

"That old tiger said that this thing is the token of the sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect, which has some connections to the future of the Divine Demonic Sect. You must keep it safe as there will be a great use for it in the future."

After Su Yi heard this, he thoroughly sized up the token of the sect leader in his hand, yet he also could not discover anything except that the material was a little special. He then asked Su Tian Que: "Did the Honourably Demon say what was, the use of this token of the sect leader? Is it a treasure?"

"That I do not know. You also have no ways to ask it." Su Tian Que arched its eye. When mentioning about the Honourably Demon, there was some glow fluctuating in its small eyes.

"Then how much have you recovered?"

Su Yi kept the token of the sect leader with him while asking Su Tian Que. The Honourable Demon had helped it to recover, so that fellow must have recovered considerably.

"I did not recover much. Rather, I have remembered about some matter. The effect is not too huge and can regard as being tricked by that old tiger.

Su Tian Que's gaze slightly frowned. It did not recover much while yesterday night, it could help everyone to leave was also because of the arrangements set by the Honourably Demon.

...

Chapter 288: Divine Demonic Phenomenon!

After hearing this, Su Yi was a little disappointed. If Su Tian Que had recovered, there would be another source of protection for the people of the Divine Demonic Sect.

"You acknowledge being the sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect?"

Su Tian Que looked at Su Yi while it blinked its small eyes with a glow secretly moving.

"This..I'm only afraid of disappointing the Honourably Demon."

Su Yi bitterly laughed. He already had a bunch of troubles with him, while furthermore, any one of the great enemies of the Divine Demonic Sect was a strong cultivator. With the strength of his cultivation, he was afraid that he would let down the trust of the Honourably Demon.

"This Divine Demonic Sect seems to have some background, but after a long time, it has already waned to such an extent along with a big group of enemies."

Su Tian Que slowly spoke while looking at Su Yi, saying: "Or is it that you are afraid?"

"Those at the scene yesterday, if there is a day in the future, I will never let anyone of them off!"

Su Yi gradually clenched his fists. The death of granny Shangguan, Elder Shangguan Qing Ming, Shangguan Chen Feng, and the death of the honest villagers, if there was a chance in the future, he must take revenge.

"That's it. Although this Divine Demonic Sect is humongous trouble, for you, it might not be a bad thing."

Su Tian Que chuckled with a face of mystery and moved to Su Yi's ear saying: "According to what I know, many of the Hundred Fruits Wine of the Ancient Spirit Village have been, brought out. You are now the new sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect. At then, you can give me some. The taste of the Hundred Fruits Wine is truly not bad."

Su Yi very hopelessly rolled his eyes at Su Tian Que. This fellow was still so gluttonous. At this time, it was still thinking of the Hundred Fruits Wine.

Afterward, Su Yi glanced at Su Tian Que and stated: "The Honourably Demon wants you to become the new Honourably Demon of the Divine Demonic Sect. What are your thoughts?"

Su Yi reckoned that even though this Su Tian Que had a mysterious background, at least he could confirm that his origin was extraordinary, but unlike what it always claimed to be a peacock. However, its background should also be remarkably enormous. If it could become the new Honourably Demon, in the future for the Divine Demonic Sect, there would be benefits and no harms. Furthermore, this was also the arrangement of the Honourably Demon before it dies.

"But, I never promise that I will become the Honourably Demon of the Divine Demonic Sect. That old tiger also agrees that it is up to me to decide if I want to accept to become the Honourably Demon of the Divine Demonic Sect."

Su Tian Que arched its eye and pursed its lips, saying: "I am a dignified peacock. How can I become an Honourably Demon of such a small Divine Demonic Sect? If this goes out, where should I put my face?"

"Youa peacock."

Su Yi rolled his eyes at Su Tian Que, almost wanting to kick it. He rudely exclaimed: "If you are a peacock, then yesterday night, we don't need to escape."

"It is because my strength has not yet recovered. Wait till my strength has recovered, I can easily step those enemies to death." Su Tian Que defiantly faintly responded.

"Say these words to someone else. To me, it is useless."

Su Yi spoke. Then, he came to one side and sat cross-legged, ignoring Su Tian Que. His own consumption and severe wounds were very grave. He had only endured the day, and now, he urgently needed to recover.

Initially, entering the mysterious space to recover was the fastest, but there were many people now, while also, it was not a safe place.

Though Su Yi also wished to enter the mysterious space too, to see how much it had extended.

It must be, known that Su Yi's improvement was shocking while he also hoped to know what stage the Golden Python, White Jade Swallow, Flaming Beast Eagle, and the rest inside the mysterious space were at currently.

But Su Yi had to endure. The mysterious space was especially important, so he needed to reach a definitely safe place to summon it out.

"I will also go meditate and recover."

Seeing that Su Yi no longer paid attention to it, Su Tian Que felt bored and started to sit at one side in a condensing cultivation state enveloped by the moonlight, taking in the power of the moonlight and absorbing the heaven and earth energy while meditating and recovering.

As a beast, its cultivation method and the humans were a little different, but all things that had noumenal or phenomenal existence could not go off without heaven and earth energy.

After taking a healing and recovery elixirs, Su Yi's robe shook while circulating the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique and started to meditate.

A faint crimson glow speedily covered his whole body while emitting a mighty aura. His entire person twinkled with a blinding radiance in the moon night. Luckily, this place was hidden and could not be easily discovered.

At this instant, as Su Yi circulated the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique and meditating, in his mind, he was looking through the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse that he had gotten.

There was no doubt that the Divine Demonic Sect was not simple as it could attract so many great enemies that even the people of the Sacred Mountain was also amongst them. Also, with such a powerful existence like the Honourably Demon, it was enough to explain everything.

After getting the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse that the previous sect leader had painstakingly left behind, Su Yi was naturally filled with curiosity in his heart as earlier, when he had gotten it, he did not have the time to read and understand it. Just perfect that he could now study and learn about it.

"Divine Demonic Phenomenon, Myriad Beast Phenomenon, and images of a myriad of beasts, Creation Phenomenon, and an image of creation, heaven and earth people with dense air of heaven and earth. All things become pure with image acquisition and direct reading function, while the easiest is mysterious. The five elements all transform into a myriad phenomenon while heaven and earth people combine into one as star turn and change into battle to determine the course of events. The Yin Pan Qi Men has no mutually counteract. Innate aura, formless and imageless, seen but not truly seeing, listen but heard nothing and seize but grab nothing. The incomer from the void, the myriad beasts are formed real and formless, at there yet shapeless, real with existence, true yin, and true yang, void yet nothing along with two-eighth initial Xuan aura"

"If there is a color with no form, then it is not the real final part of the five elements of heaven and earth people. Even if there are five elements of heaven and earth people, they must be in a harmonious proportion. Not too many, not too little, without bias and without favor, not rush and not slow, neither something nor nothing, neither too familiar nor too distant, not impetuosity or not a coward. Like wood feed fire, fire creates the earth, earth bears gold, gold carries water, water nourishes the wood, or fire feels the earth or the earth uses gold, or gold becomes water. The outside and the inside unite while heaven and earth combine with the people. A beast image form from the empty void with a Divine Demonic Phenomenon shocking the heaven and earth while making the ghosts and god cry"

When he checked and read the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse in his mind, the aura on Su Yi's body started to fluctuate, while the astonishment in his mind could not even be put into words as it was inexplicably shocking.

A night quickly passed. When the darkness before the dawn passed, the horizon on the eastern was a little glimmering. In the brooding and slightly white sky, there were, still shattered stars.

The valley was, pitched dark while the surrounding was, enveloped in a mysterious thin light. Far away at a spacious firmament, reflected blue and copper color. Within the valley, there were many figures with Yuan Qi fluctuating on their entire body, emitting all sorts of brilliant and colorful glows.

"Hu"

At a particular moment, Su Yi suddenly opened his eyes. The Yuan Qi radiance on his body resided, yet the glow in his eyes did not dissipate after a long time while his face was, filled with astonishment that he seemingly could not return to his senses after a long time as he was entirely shocked by it.

"Divine Demonic Ancient Verse!"

Su Yi softly mumbled as he was truly deeply shocked by it.

From the reading of the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, Su Yi then found out that within the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, it contained an all-inclusive and frightening might. No wonder it was left behind by the previous sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect.

Su Yi had already seen before the Mighty Desolate Verse and Heavenly Tiger Art. Both of them were the strongest cultivation technique of the Mighty Bear Tribe and the Hunting Tiger Tribe, which was incomparably powerful!

But from within the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, Su Yi then found out that both the Mighty Desolate Verse and the Heavenly Tiger Art initially came from the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse.

...

Chapter 289: The Insane Divine Demonic Ancient Verse!

Only, he was not sure it was because of something as the might of the Mighty Desolate Verse and Heavenly Tiger Art that Su Yi seen before, although they were powerful, they seemed to be missing something compared to the Mighty Desolate Verse and Heavenly Tiger Art recorded on the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse.

Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation, this was also what Su Yi had read from the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse.

The Heavenly Tiger Art means 'momentum'; the Mighty Desolate Verse means 'force'; while the Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation means 'spirit'. "Divine Demonic Phenomenon, Myriad Beast Phenomenon, and images of a myriad of beasts, Creation Phenomenon, and an image of creation, heaven, and earth people"

Su Yi muttered with a shocking gaze.

Momentum as the sky, force as the ground, spirit as the people, so sky as momentum, the force from the ground while people as the spiritual ancestor!

The Mighty Bear Tribe cultivates the Mighty Desolate Verse, and the Hunting Tiger Tribe cultivates the Heavenly Tiger Art. If everything went well, then the Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation should be the cultivation technique of the Ancient Spirit Village.

However, what made Su Yi shocked was, from what he read of the Divine Demonic Verse, the most astonishing thing within the Divine Demonic Verse was not the Mighty Desolate Verse, Heavenly Tiger Art, Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation, but was the Divine Demonic Phenomenon. If he could hugely successfully cultivate the Divine Demonic Phenomenon, he could shock the heaven and earth while making the ghosts and gods cry.

Shocking heaven and earth while making the ghosts and gods cry, this sort of cultivation technique, how could Su Yi not be astonished?!

And from what Su Yi could read from the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, it was indeed incomparably terrifying.

But, the one that made Su Yi felt terrifying was the Divine Demonic Phenomenon within the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse. This Divine Demonic Phenomenon caused Su Yi to suck in a cold breath.

After thoroughly studying it, Su Yi now then understood why for all these many years the Ancient Spirit Village, Hunting Tiger Tribe, and the Mighty Bear Tribe, the descendants of the Divine Demonic Sect, nobody could get the biggest benefit inside the Tian Yao Cave, which was the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse.

It turned out that wanting to cultivate the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, the requirements were too harsh, much harsher than becoming a Soul Tamer.

Because the main requirement to cultivate the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse was that the person must first become a Soul Tamer.

The Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, with the Mighty Desolate Verse, Heavenly Tiger Art, Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation as the foundation.

The Mighty Desolate Verse means force, the Heavenly Tiger Art means momentum, and the Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation means spirit.

Meaning that to cultivate the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, one must not only cultivate his physical body, but he must also fortify his noumenon and also cultivate his spiritual soul.

Typically, a Soul Tamer had mighty spiritual power, more towards the spiritual soul, and their physical body would be worse as they did not have the time to cultivate it.

This Divine Demonic Ancient Verse was extremely harsh to the physical body and also to the spiritual soul, which a typical Soul Tamer could not competent.

Soul Tamers were already incomparably rare, while their spiritual power basically surpassed an Alchemist or a Tool Refiner. Furthermore, it was already hard to become a typical Soul Tamer. Adding on a Soul Tamer with a robust physical body, it was harder than ever.

However, all these harsh requirements were because of the Divine Demonic Phenomenon within the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse.

"Innate aura, formless and imageless, seen but not truly seeing, listen but heard nothing and seize but grab nothing. The incomer from the void, the myriad beasts are formed real and formless, at there yet shapeless, real with existence, true yin, and true yang, void yet nothing along with two-eighth initial Xuan aura Divine Demonic Phenomenon shocking the heaven and earth while making the ghosts and god cry"

Su Yi softly muttered with a not dissipating shock in his gaze as the Divine Demonic Phenomenon shocked the heaven and earth while making the ghosts and god cry.

A Soul Tamer could condense remnant soul, and summon out the remnant soul of this world relying on their own power, which could be a cultivator or a demon race.

When they got summoned out, they would be, used by the Soul Tamer.

The strongest Soul Tamer could summon out a remnant soul of an ancient cultivator to appear. How strong was that?

It could also be, put in this way that if under the situation where they could choose, people would rather offend an Alchemist than a Soul Tamer as the Soul Tamer themselves were very powerful.

And the Divine Demonic Phenomenon, it could summon out the remnant soul that not only could be used but also could mingle with himself.

Some of the strong beasts have their own unique talents, that relying on these talent methods, they were often incomparably powerful.

The remnant soul that was summoned by a typical Soul Tamer was just only for their own use.

How terrifying were these remnant souls of the strong cultivators?

As for the Divine Demonic Phenomenon, it could merge with this remnant soul with two souls in one body.

A typical Soul Tamer could urge the remnant soul of the strong cultivator that they summoned out. Although horrifying, at best, these remnant souls of the strong cultivators did not have any intelligence while they entirely relied on their instinct to battle their opponent.

Divine Demonic Phenomenon, mixing with the remnant soul could allow himself to merge with that remnant soul in one body as though he had turned into that strong cultivator of the remnant soul.

For example, summoning a powerful remnant soul of a Serene Void Brutal Heavenly Leopard, a typical Soul Tamer could only borrow the remnant soul for their own use to battle against the enemy.

But the Divine Demonic Phenomenon could make him as if the powerful Serene Void Brutal Heavenly Leopard and to be able to urge the talent methods of the Serene Void Brutal Heavenly Leopard himself meaning that he could become a powerful Serene Void Brutal Heavenly Leopard for a brief time.

One relied on its instinct to battle while another could merge with his body, and fight. The good and bad could be, instantly concluded.

However, for the Divine Demonic Phenomenon, the most horrifying part was not just this. Reportedly, after mingling with the remnant soul of a strong cultivator, if the talent was enough, he could gain enlighten from the remnant soul of the strong cultivator, which then could be, used for himself.

If he could summon out an ancient dragon, and gain its enlightenment, then, he could gain the power of the dragon, and in the future, he totally did not need to summon a remnant soul as he could just initiate this power of the ancient dragon. How strong and frightening was this?!

"Divine Demonic Ancient Verse

Su Yi's heart was very shocked. No wonder this Divine Demonic Sect was not easy and could make so many super-strong cultivators remember about it, wanting to get the remains of the Divine Demonic Sect.

This Divine Demonic Ancient Verse indeed could lure all of the strong cultivators in this world like a flock of ducks.

Not only was the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse a cultivation technique, but it was also an all-inclusive, especially with many martial art techniques. Like back then, when Su Yi had seen Shangguan Chen Feng's 'Iced Shadows Sword Style', it was from the Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation.

And also all of the martial arts techniques that Xiong Lie, Xiong Zhan, Hu Chi, Hu Mo, and Hu Yue used before, came from the Heavenly Tiger Arts, and the Mighty Desolate Verse.

But, according to what Su Yi knew from the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, all of the martial art techniques of the Mighty Desolate Verse, Heavenly Tiger Art, and the Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation, the might should be far surpassed than what Shangguan Chen Feng, Hu Chi, Xiong Zhan, and the rest cast. It should be much stronger.

"What a good Divine Demonic Ancient Verse!"

The inside of Su Yi's heart could not become calm after a long time. If, this was an average cultivation technique, even if it was also an incomparably powerful cultivation technique, for Su Yi, he also definitely would not be this shock.

Su Yi knew that the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique, from the mysterious sphere of light inside his mind, everything on him was also related to the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique.

And the might that the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique cast out could also surpass this Divine Demonic Ancient Verse.

It could be, said that no matter what kind of cultivation technique, Su Yi would definitely not choose to truly cultivate it as the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique was his everything.

Vaguely, Su Yi had a sort of confidence that the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique on his body could surpass all of the cultivation techniques in this world.

Yet right now, everything inside the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse was anything but an average cultivation technique, especially that Divine Demonic Phenomenon, it was utterly as though tailor just for him.

...

Chapter 290: Cold Waves Golden-Red Beast!

Su Yi pondered in his heart. If he could cultivate the Divine Demonic Phenomenon of the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, then on the method of the Soul Tamer, there would be a further improvement. That was also the most terrifying method of the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse.

"Brother Yi Su, how is your recovery?"

Shangguan Yan and the rest came forward. They had stopped their meditating and came over, interrupting Su Yi's thoughts.

"I am already fine."

Su Yi returned to senses and glanced at all of the people. After consuming the recovering elixir, in a night time, he had already recovered a lot. That had an extreme connection with the recovery elixir, but it also proved that the Mighty Desolate Verse, Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation, Heavenly Tiger Art, and the rest were all exceptional.

"Additionally, my name is Su Yi. Yi Su is just a fake name. Please forgive me." Su Yi got up and hugged his fists while apologizing and recovering his real name.

"Yi Su, Su Yi. Haha, it turns out to be the same." Shangguan Ye and the rest smiled and did not care.

"Let's continue on the road and quickly gather everyone."

Su Tian Que also stopped meditating. The short and featherless wings seemingly stretched its body like a rooster going to crow in the morning. No matter how they looked, it caused them to somewhat could not help but laughed, only nobody at the scene dared to laugh.

Everyone's hearts, were still immersed in agony and had no heart to laugh.

The people continued on the road, heading towards the secluded place that the Divine Demonic Sect had long arranged, wanting to gather the clansmen that had gone ahead.

Here was the Demon Woods. Along the way, there were many beasts, while their cultivations got higher and higher the farther they ventured.

Fortunately, there was the excellent effect of the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique on Su Yi's body.

"So strange. Why do these beasts retreat away without fighting?"

Someone exclaimed and unbearably asked. Along the way, there were so many beasts, and amongst them were powerful beasts in the Demonic True Realm.

There were even some powerful beasts in the Demonic Void Realm, yet they also retreated without battling when faced with Su Yi. How could they not be shocked?

"Brother Su Yi has his own extraordinary point. No need to fuss about it." Shangguan Yan, Shangguan Ye, and the rest spoke, appearing very prideful on their faces.

"All of us are the descendants of the Divine Demonic Sect. The later generations of the Divine Demonic Sect!"

"Divine Demonic Sect. Does our ancestor come from the Divine Demonic Sect? Why must they always be hiding?!"

On the road, someone started to discuss. The people at the scene were seemingly quite young while the older ones only had the appearance of 30-40 years old, and had also recently discovered that they were all the descendants of the Divine Demonic Sect.

"Those great enemies, what backgrounds do they have? Why must they be so ruthless?"

"The Honourably Demon has died while the two Demon Emperors on the Yao Luo Mountain have also died. Even if we know the backgrounds of those great enemies, how are we going to take revenge?!"

Everyone was in pain, but they also knew clearly that even their protector, the Honourably Demon, and the two Demon Emperors of the Yao Luo Mountain had died. They had witnessed with their own eyes how scary those great enemies were that even if they knew who the enemies were, the chances of wanting to take revenge were also notably little.

"We must become a strong cultivator. We must take revenge and let those people pay the debts with their blood. Even if we are not their opponents, we must also let them fork out the ultimate price!"

Xiong Zhan spoke while on his arm, the armor on his body had bloodstain.

He had struck out but was not their opponent. Just solely based on the remaining ripples of the raging winds from those great enemies could already almost killed him. He then knew how frightening those great enemies.

However, Xiong Zhan did not give up and did not get blown down as he was still young. In the future, he must become a strong cultivator to take bloody revenge for his clansmen.

"Not bad. We are still alive. Wait until the future when we become strong, we must let them pay the debts with their blood!"

Hu Chi spoke with a ragged battle suit and a pale complexion, but the glow in his eyes did not disappear, appearing like a tiger's eyes.

"A bloody debt must be paid with blood!"

The gaps of Shangguan Yan's teeth emitted out a cold intent as his father, mother, so many uncles and villagers that watched him grow up were all ruthlessly killed by those people. How could they not take revenge?

Su Yi did not speak while his gaze swept over these surrounding youngsters that were about the same age as him without leaving any traces. There was some glow fluctuating in his gaze.

"The Honourably Demon said that my Divine Demonic Sect has a new sect leader!"

Lastly, someone mentioned about the matter of the new sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect. The Honourably Demon had said before, and everyone had heard it.

"That day, there is a strange scene inside the Tian Yao Cave that shocked people. Could there be a connection?!" A middle-aged man pondered.

"Back then, inside the Tian Yao Cave, are Shangguan Yan, Shangguan Ye you guys, right?!"

Hu Chi spoke while his gaze glanced at Shangguan Yan, Shangguan Ye, and the rest.

Without guessing, they also knew that at that time, the ones inside the Tian Yao Cave were Shangguan Yan and the rest.

The scene of commotion from the Tian Yao Cave shocked people. If they deduced farther, probably around 80-90 percent it was, connected to the people inside the Tian Yao Cave.

Following Hu Chi's words, a series of gazes then landed onto Shangguan Yan, Shangguan Xi Wei, Shangguan Ye, Su Yi, and the rest.

Everyone also knew that the first batch of people to enter the Tian Yao Cave from the Ancient Spirit Village was only these people.

Including some of the people of the Ancient Spirit Village, they were also looking at Shangguan Yan, Shangguan Xi Wei, and the rest now.

Indeed, back then, it was these people inside the Tian Yao Cave. Could it be that the new sect leader truly landed onto them?

"New sect leader"

And at this instant, Shangguan Xi Wei, Shangguan Yan, and the rest were glancing at each other.

Back then, they were inside the Tian Yao Cave, so they did not know about the matter on the outside and had not heard the words of the Honourably Demon. Their expressions were a little shocked.

"What is going on?"

Shangguan Xi Wei was also doubtful. The things she knew were also not much while she had also found out about the Divine Demonic Sect in the big battle.

The people roughly told Shangguan Xi Wei and the rest about the situation and then asked: "When you guys are inside the Tian Yao Cave, is there anything unusual? Who has gotten the biggest benefit of the Tian Yao Cave?"

Shangguan Xi Wei, Shangguan Ye, and the rest had a shocking and a realizing gaze. Afterward, each of their gazes unitedly landed onto Su Yi.

Back then, the reaction inside the Tian Yao Cave, all of them had seen it, and only on Su Yi's body did it had an unusual response.

Su Yi kept smiling bitterly and did not say anything.

"You guys, the descendants of the Divine Demonic Sect, no need to guess anymore. He is already the new sect leader of your Divine Demonic Sect." Su Tian Que swayingly followed within the crowd and said to everyone.

"New sect leader"

Everyone stopped their footsteps, and shockingly paused. A series of gazes with incomparable astonishment landed onto Su Yi.

"Is it really him.."

Many people were shocked and secretly discussed. Although they could not confirm, it was also not hard to know that this matter was probably correct. No one had ever thought that the position of the new sect leader of the Divine Demonic Sect would actually lastly landed onto an outsider.

"Everyone, let's hurry on the journey, and gather everyone first." Su Yi said softly.

All of the people glanced at each other with unbearable shock while within the gazes of Shangguan Xi Wei, Shangguan Yan, and the rest also gushed out with fluctuation.

"Roar!"

All of a sudden, the mountain at the front trembled while the dense forest stirred, transmitting out a frightening beast roar.

"There is a strong beast again!"

The group of people was abruptly on guard and instantly secretly moved into defense and attacking formation as along the way in these two days, they had already met with such a situation many times.
