Chapter 331: You Are Not a Coward!

"Shameless!"

Nine Lives Cat Demon's face became gloomy and a breath of air suddenly surged from within her body. Silver hair danced on her head, emitting rays of light. Her slender hands formed an invisible imprint that contorted space, shooting toward the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon.

"Let's go!"

At the same time, Nine Lives Cat Demon's voice spread in Su Yi and Su Tian Que's ears.

"Let's go"

Su Yi and Su Tian Que had no hesitation. In the face of the fight at the Demonic Emperor Realm level, they didn't even qualify to be affected by the battle.

"Whoosh"

Energy bubbled up underneath his feet, and Su Yi's figure darted out without looking back, running away as fast as he could, the farther away he got the better.

Su Tian Que's speed, at this moment, was not beneath Su Yi's. His short wings fluttered and his small body moved like a rooster ready to take off. He proudly marched forward, like pale red lightning.

"Bang bang bang."

The low, echoing energy behind them began to spread and the light shone through the void.

From the oppressive energy, one could tell that their encounter was quite intense.

Su Yi Su Tian Que ran away and didn't dare to stay any longer.

Running through the darkness, Su Yi felt a sense of unease rising in his heart and thought of Nine Lives Cat Demon.

With Nine Lives Cat Demon's current situation, although she had recovered a bit in the past two days.

But Su Yi guessed that Nine Lives Cat Demon was probably not recovered enough to be a real match for the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon.

"We escaped, what about Nine Lives Cat Demon? It's probably not looking good for her?"

Half an hour later, not knowing how far he had escaped, the distant sound of an energy collision had already disappeared and Su Yi finally stopped.

"We are no match for that snake, and we can't help anyway. Besides, this doesn't have anything to do with us, it's none of our business."

Su Tian Que stopped, trembling wings, panting heavily.

"Actually, that cat demon was quite alright, saving us once and letting us escape this time."

Su Yi whispered softly, his heart uneasy and unwilling to move on. He knew Nine Lives Cat Demon wasn't a match for the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon, yet he had escaped himself.

"This"

After a pause, Su Tian Que said, "You saved her once too, so I guess it's even now."

"We have been traveling together for a few days, but still, she is a woman. Does this seem inappropriate?"

Su Yi muttered to himself, feeling slightly uneasy in his heart.

"You don't really have anything to do with that cat demon, do you? Remember, she's not some female human, she's a Demonic Emperor Realm cat demon. If it was at her peak, she could 100 of you with a finger."

Su Tian Que gave Su Yi a cold glance and said, "Even if we go back now, it would just be sending ourselves to our doom."

Su Yi clenched his fists a little tightly, what can he do even if he goes back now? How can he possibly be able to face a Demonic Emperor Realm powerful demon beast?

"Wait for me here and please do me a favor. If something goes wrong, you should find a high-level healing medicine and go to a place called Man City to deliver it to an old man named Su Yuntian. Don't say anything else."

Suddenly, Su Yi looked at Su Tian Que and spoke with a serious expression.

Su Tian Que was stunned, looking at Su Yi and asked, "What do you want? Do you want to go back? Don't be foolish and go back for your own death. You are not a match for the two-headed snake. Even one hundred of you won't make a difference!"

"I'm just going back to take a look, I won't push it."

Su Yi smiled faintly and said to Su Tian Que, "It's not right for a woman to tell you to run away and then you run away. If you really did, you would be unsettled for life."

As the words fell, a surge of energy appeared behind Su Yi, coalescing into a pair of wings. His figure turned into a red light and he flew away toward where they came.

"This idiot"

Su Tian Que cursed angrily, watching Su Yi's retreating back and grumbling to himself. Finally, he gritted his teeth and said, "I am a fool too; a fool to go and die with you."

After the words fell, Su Tian Que fluttered his short wings, and immediately pursued Su Yi.

"Bang bang"

Rumbling like thunder, the bamboo grove was already in disarray.

A giant white cat around ten meters in length floated in midair, its eyes like two shining amber stones emitting a faint light. Its body was slightly curved and poised to pounce, its white fur glimmering, stained with many bloodstains.

Under the night sky, such a cat, its amber eyes like torches, underneath its four paws, its claws slightly moving, space trembled slightly.

"You are at the end of your rope, what else can you use to fight me? If I want to destroy you, you would have been killed long ago. Can't you appreciate my good intentions?"

Eyes fixed on the white giant cat, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon spoke confidently with a faint smirk.

"Go ahead!"

The white giant cat opened its mouth, and within its amber-like eyes were rays of light like lightning.

"Humph, how dare you don't accept my good intention. You will be punished!"

When the words fell, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon's ghostly figure rushed out. From its left head came a burst of icy light, while from its right head came intense flames.

Nine Lives Cat Demon moved her body along an unknown trajectory, charming and alluring, yet with a certain majesty. Though it seemed slow, her speed was beyond that of the former, leaving only traces of a lingering shadow, making one think she was still in place.

Nine Lives Cat Demon dodged the cold icy light and slightly bowed her body before darting out with her claws, bursting out a dense cold energy, accompanied by the claw piercing through the air, slashing towards the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon.

"Give up, you can't defeat me!"

With a cold smile, as if prepared in advance, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon's body extended out and burst forth with a fist. A red fire roared through the sky, suddenly clashing claws with Nine Lives Cat Demon's body.

"Bang!"

Power erupted like a fireball, shaking people to their core. Every clash of fists and claws caused the void to boom with energy as a gust of wind swept through the surroundings, blowing everything into pieces. The light illuminated the darkness of night.

"Pooh"

Nine Lives Cat Demon was sent flying in a straight line, her mouth spluttering with fresh blood.

"Let's finish it now and follow me afterward; I guarantee you will like the taste of my dick day and night!"

The twin-headed ice and fire dragon suddenly emitted a cold laugh, and its legs suddenly lit up and expanded. In an instant, it strangely transformed into a huge tail adorned with red and green, like a bolt of lightning, wriggling directly towards Nine Lives Cat Demon's flying body.

"Snake, take my blade!"

Suddenly, at this very moment, a figure swept in and appeared in the void, with long hair scattered and eyes red. Behind him were wings of elemental energy flapping, and a majestic and destructive aura emanated.

The one who came wielded a large sword and brought with them a scorching storm, energy swirling in all directions. From it came a formidable and violent aura, making the air around twist and distort.

"Roaring Dragon Emperor Slash!"

In an instant, a long red thunderbolt burst out with a long blade of light, accompanied by a tremendous and unmatched tyrannical might.

The blade flashed, as if an image of a red dragon vaguely appeared and the void trembled.

This kind of atmosphere suddenly caused the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon to be stunned.

...

Chapter 332: Your Daddy Is Here!

"Swoosh"

But soon, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon's huge tail whipped out and without hesitation, it crashed directly into the blade of light.

"Bang!"

Su Yi's blade was directly destroyed, and even his Spirit Weapon greatsword in his hand was directly shattered inch by inch.

In the next instant, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon's giant tail was like a huge bolt of lightning that fiercely struck Su Yi. The light shone brilliantly and a loud rumble echoed throughout.

Su Yi tried to avoid it, but the area around him was like solidified emptiness and he couldn't move an inch.

This is the terrible place of the Demonic Emperor Realm's powerful beings. Their powerful aura could condense the void.

"Pooh"

Su Yi spewed out a mouthful of fresh blood, as if he had been crashed by a hundred thousand mountains, and his whole body bones seemed to be dismantled.

Especially the half body that was whipped by that huge tail, the bones seemed to be about to break.

Su Yi was hammered to the ground like a cannonball shot from the sky under the mighty impact.

"Kaaka"

The ground cracked apart, the earth shook and the mountains trembled!

Nine Lives Cat Demon's shadow was ahead of Su Yi by half a step, cast downwards.

Nine Lives Cat Demon struggled to her feet, her white hair stained with blood, her gaze intense to the extreme.

Su Yi coughed up blood and with great effort managed to get back on his feet. It felt like his organs were about to burst and every part of his body was being scattered.

If it weren't for Su Yi's Indestructible Vajra Body, his body would have been blown up by now.

When Su Yi was able to get up even after taking such a beating, even Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon furrowed its brows. In its imagination, surely this human should have died ten times over.

"It's you, human. Seems a bit strange that you'd dare come back, but you're still an ant."

Although slightly surprised, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon didn't pay much attention.

A human from the Yuan Spirit Realm is just an ant in his heart. An extraordinary ant and a common ant are both ants to him, and there is no difference between them.

"Swoosh"

The Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon struck again with a flash of great brilliance. The huge tail swept away with a dazzling red-green light and fiercely fell down towards Su Yi.

Su Yi's body was swaying unsteadily and he felt powerless to resist; his head was still groggy.

Nine Lives Cat Demon's situation seems to be pretty bad, barely managing to get back on her feet.

"Your daddy is here!"

Suddenly, the empty air was filled with burning heat, blazing fire spreading in all directions, blocking Su Yi's way.

The flames were rampant, the air was scorching, and there was a great majesty.

"A chicken"

Surprised, the waves of fire spread apart to reveal a bright and clear vision-- a bald, red chicken flapping its wings as it approached with short claws, like eagle talons, sending out a red light.

"Bang"

Just a touch, and the sparkle of fire shattered with a thunder-like rumble.

But in the raging fire, a turkey fell like a meteorite and slammed hard in front of Su Yi.

"Ouch!!!"

With a pitiful wailing, the turkey's body was like an asteroid hitting inside, scraping out a long crack in the ground.

"Boom"

Dust flew, the ground trembling, ending up right before Su Yi. Who else could it be but Su Tian Que?

"Poof"

Blood was dripping from Su Tian Que's mouth, but his body immediately crawled up and towards Su Yi. With an expression of solemnity, and blood still dripping from his mouth, he said to Su Yi, "I told you we were no match for it, now we're in trouble."

"Su Tian Que, whether you are a chicken or a peacock, you are my forever brother from now on!"

Su Yi had blood in his mouth, looking at the bleeding Su Tian Que, yet there was a hint of a smile at the corner of his mouth.

Su Tian Que didn't leave, but instead ran over, which warmed Su Yi's heart; this guy is really loyal.

"I must be out of my mind to think that I could take on the Demon Emperor with you."

Su Tian Que gave Su Yi a look, then turned his gaze to Nine Lives Cat Demon with a solemn expression, saying, "Little cat demon, can you hold out for a bit? Just a bit. I need some time."

Being called "Little Cat Demon" by Su Tian Que, Nine Lives Cat Demon originally wanted to flare up, but under the present circumstances, looking at Su Tian Que's eyes, she silenced for a moment and almost gritted her teeth before nodding reluctantly.

"Hula"

Without hesitation, Su Tian Que was surrounded by a strong red light, and his expression suddenly became solemn.

"Eh"

The Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon looked at Su Tian Que with amazement again, wondering what was so strange.

"Hmph, go die!"

Being blocked in succession, even the Twin-Headed Dragon became displeased. Its expression sank slightly, and a vast breath surged forth. Its imposing manner increased greatly, and its huge tail swept across to viciously lash toward Su Yi and Su Tian Que, wanting to kill these trivial ants first.

"Boom!"

Nine Lives Cat Demon moved, and a brilliance appeared on her body, she was divinely martial and awe-inspiring, with overwhelming animalistic might. The halo swept everything and she stood there with an amber gaze that seemed to be able to survey all directions!

"Hula"

Nine Lives Cat Demon rushed forward again, her breath pouring out like the flame of an oil lamp that had been refueled, the fire rising and her presence intensifying at that moment.

"Burn your blood? You're asking for trouble!"

Feeling Nine Lives Cat Demon's breath, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon was stunned and his face became even gloomier.

Nine Lives Cat Demon said nothing, her large body flying straight at the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon. Her sharp claws were like hooks, her body was shining brightly, blocking its snake tail while emitting a strong authority. She was grand and agile, swift and dignified.

A muffled thunder echoed through the vast night sky.

"Hiss!"

Right now, Nine Lives Cat Demon's aura was surging and burning, her breath piercing the heavens; she had regained the true Demon Emperor Realm's strength!

"Hiss"

It seemed that even the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon dared not act recklessly, and it also transformed into its true body. Its true body had two heads, one head as red as fire and the other head with green and white icy breath. Its four eyes were scarlet and its cold, containing a kind of gloomy atmosphere.

Su Yi grabbed a handful of pills from the space bag in his embrace and stuffed them into his mouth without caring what kind of pills they were, only knowing that they could heal and restore his energy. He watched the two giant creatures in the void, as if they were about to tear the void apart.

This is a duel between powerful people of the Demonic Emperor Realm level, and there's nothing he can do to intervene. If it weren't for the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon not using its full power just now, then no matter how strong his physical body was, it would still be useless.

"It's all for naught, no matter how much blood and sweat you put into it! You can't defeat me!"

The Twin-headed Ice and Fire Dragon soared across the sky; one of its mouths unleashed a blazing inferno, and the other mouth spewed out icy cold air, blanketing the empty void. Like a giant flying dragon, it suppressed Nine Lives Cat Demon.

...

Chapter 333: Ignite the Blood!

Such collisions made Nine Lives Cat Demon's rage rolled up, but she was powerless to do anything.

"Kill!"

In the sky, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon burst forth; its attacks were swift and venomous.

Nine Lives Cat Demon was agile and imposing, swift as lightning, but she was still suppressed.

"Pooh"

Nine Lives Cat Demon coughed up blood again and her body was blown away, slamming into the ground below, shattering the mountainside.

Soon, Nine Lives Cat Demon burst out, her amber eyes filled with rage and a brilliant light emanating from her body. The surrounding void began to ripple, coalescing into an energy vortex, roaring like a storm through the sky.

Nine Lives Cat Demon was enveloped in an energy storm, sweeping toward the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon. Everywhere she went, the energy storm left a long trail of terrifying energy vortexes in the night sky.

The Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon stared at the energy vortex charging toward it, its eyes dark and gloomy. Both its mouths spewed out a red flame and cold energy as two light columns fiercely clashed with it.

"Hua La La"

The void roared, and the light of a lunar halo shone in the night sky. With a huge collision of energy, it was like a thunderous rumble echoing through the night sky.

"Poof"

Nine Lives Cat Demon coughed up blood, her body shook and was sent flying backward, tumbling down.

But at this moment, the huge body of the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon was also shaken back, as if it had been greatly affected.

"Boom!"

At the same time, a fierce flame had formed, creating a fiery sea that spread outward.

In the raging sea of fire that erupted, a massive phantasm emerged from the fire, vaguely visible, emitting an indescribable feeling of terror.

"Ji" The loud roar pierced through the sky, and a huge flaming phoenix-like phantom quickly formed. With its massive wings spread wide, the whole sky began to tremble.

"Su Tian Que!"

This awe made Su Yi startled, looking away-- that was Su Tian Que.

A brilliant flame swept downward and crashed towards Su Yi and Nine Lives Cat Demon, engulfing them both.

"Go!" The echoing sound reverberated in the ears of Su Yi and Nine Lives Cat Demon as the space around them was torn apart, revealing a black void.

The four-sided glow twisted, and the deep black light that emanated from it was as if it could swallow the souls.

The indescribable pressure in the sea of flames made the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon shudder in fear and its heart beat faster.

"Where to escape!"

But soon, suppressing the palpitations, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon burst out.

If Nine Lives Cat Demon, the strange human, and the weird bald chicken were to escape today, it would be a disaster.

The Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon used all its strength. A surging breath filled the air and made the surrounding void tremble slightly. Two powerful energies burst forth from the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon's jaws, colliding towards the ocean of fire.

To stop Su Yi, Su Tian Que, and Nine Lives Cat Demon from leaving, the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon had done all it could.

"Bang!"

With a low rumble, the fire was blasted open and the energy ripple forced the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon to retreat hastily.

When the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon steadied itself, its four eyes stared intently and nervously forward.

But the void ahead has already been restored and Nine Lives Cat Demon and the human, as well as traces of the hairless chicken, have long since vanished.

"You scoundrels, you won't get away!"

The Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon's enormous body transformed into a human form, its eyes filled with rage to the extreme, its face was cold and ominous, and its figure flicked its sleeve and instantly disappeared in place.

"Roar!"

In the distance all around, within the wild mountains, countless beasts roared unceasingly.

"Kill them all, leave none alive, slaughter these human beings!"

The night sky was ablaze with shimmering lights.

"Ah"

"Roar!"

"Bang bang"

Screams, beastly roars, and a hum of power, all intertwined and reverberating through the night sky.

This is a small town nestled in the mountains, yet now it is in chaos, with blood flowing like a river.

A large number of demon beasts surged out, accompanied by many Ice Savage Wolves, roaring and shocking the sky, and spewing out ice-light columns.

In the sky, there stood a towering Ice Savage Wolf, its body spanning tens of meters and its entire body covered with icy crystalline snow-white brilliance, radiating light and emitting iciness. Its fangs glinted sharply.

There were also several huge Demon Beasts, standing in the sky, with intimidating eyes. They commanded the Beast Tide to sweep across the town.

In the void, crimson light pierced through the sky. There was a middle-aged man with long red hair draped over his shoulders, wearing a yellow robe and a crimson cloak on his back, exuding a powerful and awe-inspiring aura.

"Emperor Blazing Dragon, you have bloodied our land, and we, the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance, will not let you go unpunished!"

There were two elderly people floating in the void, surrounded and attacked by several powerful demon beasts. They were wounded, panting, and had pale faces. They stared at the middle-aged man with red hair in the void, their eyes filled with horror.

"I'm coming to slaughter the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance!"

The red-haired middle-aged man shot a glance and spoke in a deep voice. His figure appeared like a ghost in front of the two old people.

"Swoosh"

Crimson flames filled the sky.

"Click"

Two elderly cultivators at the Yuan Void Realm level, one pierced through the chest with a claw mark, and one whose head was directly grabbed and burst.

"Kill them all, no survivors!"

The red-haired middle-aged man shouted, his red eyes full of murderous intent.

Suddenly, the middle-aged man with red hair glanced up towards the sky, as if he had sensed something.

In the darkness of night, a red glimmer appeared in the depths of the night sky, shimmering brightly. The crimson fire descending became increasingly dazzling as if something was falling.

After an unknown amount of time, a few hours or minutes, Su Yi felt his body falling, just as before, he could clearly see himself plummeting from the sky, and below were raging fires, screams, and howls of beasts.

"What is this?"

"Bang!"

Su Yi had not prepared yet and fell heavily to the ground, the ground shook, chaos all around, with demon beast corpses and human corpses scattered in every direction. It was a terrible sight.

"Bang"

Su Tian Que also fell to the ground, not far from Su Yi.

In Nine Lives Cat Demon's case, she quickly floated up in midair.

Such a scene that someone descending from the sky made everyone stunned for a moment, many eyes looking into the emptiness, very surprised and puzzled.

The red-haired middle-aged man was also stumped, his eyes filled with shock!

...

Chapter 334: Escaping From the Claws of Fate

"Nine Lives Cat Demon!"

Seeing Nine Lives Cat Demon's body, the middle-aged man with red hair was surprised. How did Nine Lives Cat Demon, of the Demonic Emperor Realm level, suddenly appear in the Forest of Demons?

Su Yi stood up, his body filled with energy and fury. He surveyed the chaotic surroundings and noticed an especially conspicuous white Ice Savage Wolf flying through the low sky. The echoing loud roar of the beast made him uneasy in his heart.

"Roarr"

A beast about half a meter tall, yet with a length of several meters, emitted golden light from its body. It had sharp fangs and exuded a fierce aura, aiming its single horn on its forehead at Su Yi.

"Evil animals!"

Su Yi growled, stomped his foot and activated the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique inside him. His left hand reached out with surging energy and firmly grasped the beast's single horn.

"Huo la la"

Under the tremendous impact, Su Yi backed up several meters, his feet scraping the ground. The stones and mud sent out sparks, forming two cracks in the ground until he finally hit a broken wall. But behind him, the wall was filled with fissures, and then it collapsed, turning into ruins!

At the same time, Su Yi had already been ready and waiting to strike, his fist clenched tightly, a thick glow covering his fist unleashed a powerful and domineering wave of energy that then burst out!

Simple and direct!

The fist was close at hand, lightning-fast and striking the head of the fierce beast; the resulting thunderous sound was truly shocking.

"Kaka" A majestic air of destruction spread, cracks appeared in the ground all around, spreading out in all directions, and rocks crumbled into powder.

This awe-inspiring aura of destruction caused many Demon Beasts around to tremble in fear, shaking their bodies, and looking towards Su Yi.

"Roarrrr!"

The ferocious beast let out a miserable howl, its body suddenly became soft and limp and fell directly down. Its hard head was smashed, the bones were crushed and blood burst out, splattering all over Su Yi.

"Ow"

The howling of the wolves never ended, one after another, echoing through the emptiness.

"Emperor Blazing Dragon, it's him, he's the human you're looking for!"

This is beastly language; an Ice Savage Wolf saw Su Yi, its eyes became bright with excitement, and suddenly howled.

"Not good!"

Su Yi's face suddenly changed.

The middle-aged man with red hair stared at Su Yi in amazement, his eyes flashing with red light.

Su Yi tremored involuntarily under the gaze, feeling like he was being crushed by a mountain. It seemed that the middle-aged red-haired man was Blazing Heavenly Dragon who had already survived the Changing Shape Tribulation!

At this moment, Su Yi seemed to be under pressure. The Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique ran at full power, and a rolling breath surged up.

"Boom!"

Su Yi didn't stop but fully drove the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique, causing waves of qi to begin emanating from within his body in an instant. The light was dazzling, like flames burning, emitting an immense majesty that was daringly tyrannical, awe-inspiringly destructive!

"Kid, you made me search for you so hard, and today I found you easily!"

This aura made Emperor Blazing Dragon secretly surprised, but more of it was rage, his face ferocious and daunting.

His egg was stolen by this human and he searched in the dark forest specifically targeting the Raging Dragon Mercenary Alliance, but to no avail. When he recognized this human this time, how could he let him go?

"Emperor Blazing Dragon, it was all a misunderstanding"

Su Yi opened his mouth with a solemn face, overwhelmed with grief and regret. He hadn't expected that after Su Tian Que had taken everyone away from the Twin-Headed Ice and Fire Dragon, they would encounter the Emperor Blazing Dragon.

Su Yi also knew why Emperor Blazing Dragon was so furious; it seemed that his identity as the one who stole the Blazing Heavenly Dragon's egg had been exposed.

The Blazing Heavenly Dragon's egg is no longer in his own hands, but is now taken away by Mo Yue. What's more, he has no clue about the identity and origin of Mo Yue!

"Hiss"

Emperor Blazing Dragon didn't give Su Yi a chance to explain, his figure flashed like lightning and swept away with a strong bloody smell. His five fingers were slightly bent, a claw mark twisted the void and descended towards Su Yi.

Su Yi felt the space around him solidifying, as if there was a great power coming at him from all sides, getting tighter and tighter, trying to crush and imprison him.

"Hiss"

As Emperor Blazing Dragon just moved, Nine Lives Cat Demon also took action. A pure white cat tail flew through the air, carrying an icy yet fierce strength. It fiercely thrust forward and directly blocked the former's claw.

The Emperor Blazing Dragon looked gloomy at her, with a hint of dread. An imposing aura emanated from within and his breath surged, his claws clenched into fists, then he suddenly roared and clashed against the white cat's tail.

"Swoosh"

When the two forces collided, the collision was not as loud and powerful as expected, but the point of impact shone brightly, causing the void to tremble.

The white cat's tail was shaken, its body glowed dimly.

The Emperor Blazing Dragon's fist shook slightly, his gaze dimming, and he suddenly stared at Nine Lives Cat Demon. Immediately, the look of dread in his eyes was replaced by a cold laugh. "It seems you can no longer protect yourself. After burning your essence to the end, you are finished!"

"I know you, I didn't expect that you have set foot in the Demonic Emperor Realm. Quickly leave, I can pretend this never happened. Otherwise, hum!"

Nine Lives Cat Demon snorted coldly, her amber-like eyes like two full moons shining in the nearly dawning night sky, exuding an awe-inspiring aura.

"Jeje, I know you too. Nine Lives Cat Demon clan has been destroyed, and you should have been in danger by now. This human and I have deep resentment. Why bother to intervene? Leave before I change my mind!"

The Emperor Blazing Dragon looked upon Nine Lives Cat Demon, no longer feeling fear, for Nine Lives Cat Demon could no longer threaten him.

Nine Lives Cat Demon exuded an aura that was a sign of her attitude as she looked at Su Yi and Su Tian Que, who had already gotten up, and said, "Leave him to me. Go!"

"Want to escape? You can go nowhere!"

The Emperor Blazing Dragon's blazing eyes were blood-red, and a roar filled with rage and coldness echoed from his mouth, "Bind that human!"

"Roar!"

As Emperor Blazing Dragon's voice fell, the beasts around roared incessantly, and many fierce eyes suddenly stared intently at Su Yi.

Above the low altitude, several mighty Demonic Void Realm demon beasts cross the sky, blocking Su Yi's way in the air.

"Oh no!"

Su Yi took a deep breath upon seeing this lineup; it was definitely going to be trouble.

...

Chapter 335: The End!

"Since you insist on getting involved, don't blame me for not being polite!"

Looking at Nine Lives Cat Demon, Emperor Blazing Dragon's gaze was dark and a strong burning breath accompanied by an aura of terror suddenly surged out; his figure was like a crimson light, directly shooting toward Nine Lives Cat Demon. In Su Yi and Su Tian Que's serious gaze, his voice roared and shook the night sky.

Nine Lives Cat Demon's eyes sunk. Normally, the Blazing Heavenly Dragon who had just stepped into the Demonic Emperor Realm wouldn't dare to attack her. In her amber-colored eyes, she watched as the red figure grew larger and its aura filled the air, its claws reaching out quickly.

"I feel like you have reached the end, no one can stop me today!"

Emperor Blazing Dragon roared, facing the claw, and didn't retreat. His body moved, and red and crimson light spread like raging flames, accompanied by a bloodthirsty breath that enveloped half of the void. Some demon beasts with weaker strength were directly affected, trembling all over.

"Swoosh"

With a single punch, Emperor Blazing Dragon's fist shattered the air, and a scorching energy spread out like a raging tidal wave.

"Bang!"

The two clashed and an explosive force was emitted instantly, the scorching breath like a storm sweeping through, like a sun rising in the night sky, illuminating the Forest of Demons.

Nine Lives Cat Demon was shocked and directly hit, with blood in her mouth.

Rising with the momentum, Emperor Blazing Dragon's body emitted an intense heat; a blazing fire spread and filled the void as if setting the heavens and earth ablaze.

"Roarrrr!!!" A loud roar echoed like thunder, and a dragon of more than thirty meters long suddenly appeared in the air. Flames surrounded it, flooding its body, and its crimson eyes looked like two volcanoes. On its head was a cluster of flickering fire, its scales stretched wide open, and its bright red wings beat fiercely, spewing flames like a volcanic eruption, covering the sky.

"Swoosh"

Its wings trembled, the void roared, flames spouted, and Emperor Blazing Dragon incarnated into its true form, Blazing Heavenly Dragon, fiercely colliding into Nine Lives Cat Demon's body.

"Bang!"

An invisible pressure spreads from the void, bursting out with fervent ferocity and crashing against Nine Lives Cat Demon.

"Poof"

Nine Lives Cat Demon's radiance had already faded and her body suddenly fell into a pool of blood, withered and slumped down, crashing in the distance, making a loud thud that shook the ground, splitting it like a spiderweb that spread in the far distance, with mountains and rock walls collapsing and burying her in the ruins.

"Be careful"

Su Yi shouted, completely powerless to stop it, watching Nine Lives Cat Demon fall helplessly.

"Kid, no one can help you today."

Emperor Blazing Dragon paid no attention to Nine Lives Cat Demon; its target was Su Yi, seemingly unwilling to waste time. Its fleshy wings flapped, its body spun rapidly, head-first it dove down, billowing flames burst forth from its body and eventually a flaming wave crashed towards Su Yi.

A wave of fire covered half the sky, and the intense heat caused white smoke to rise from the surrounding void.

With such a high temperature, Su Yi felt a chill down his spine and his hair standing on end!

"Swoosh"

Within the sea of flames, the massive dragon's body appeared. A fiery claw mark distorted the void, then suddenly pressed down towards Su Yi.

That was too fast! The speed was so fast that Su Yi had no room to slow down.

But Su Yi could feel that the Emperor Blazing Dragon seemed unwilling to take his life, holding back, not as intimidating as when it was dealing with Nine Lives Cat Demon.

Su Yi gritted his teeth, and in a flash, by using the Hundred Transformations Step, he condensed wings, which were shrouded in a red glow and gave off a simple and awe-inspiring radiance. Glittering light spread all around his legs, and a mysterious ancient pattern flowed on the soles of his feet, accompanied by rough runes. A formidable aura spread out.

"Boom!"

In that moment, Su Yi's black hair flew back and forth, his eyes flashing like thunder, sharp and imposing, as if a god or demon had been resurrected. His robe fluttered in the wind with an aura of thunder and lightning, looking powerful and terrifying.

"Wrath of the Eight Wastelands, Rampage Shadow Shatter the Nine Yaos!" Su Yi spread his wings and leaped into the sky, roaring as he kicked out with both feet. His footstep blazed like lightning and the light converged, seemingly exploding like a mini-sun.

This series of actions was done in one breath, as fast as lightning!

"Roarr!!!" The roar filled the air with a dominance unmatched, an aura of destruction and majesty that made the nearby demon beasts shudder in fear and trembling!

Such an aura also made the Emperor Blazing Dragon feel surprised. The momentum in his claws became even stronger.

"Bang bang bang" The loud thuds echoed through the void. As the footprints and claws collided, a stunning burst of energy and flames surged forth with tremendous pressure. The ground below shattered and the void trembled as if it was capable of destroying everything.

"Poof"

The sound was too loud, and this was a gap that even the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique couldn't bridge. Su Yi spat out blood as he was enveloped by a scorching force, like a bomb being harshly hit and crashing into the ground below.

Su Yi had already suffered serious injuries, and now he was wounded again. He could barely hold himself together as his blood flowed incessantly, and he had cracks in his body, making it difficult to even crawl up with his weakened wings behind him.

"Kid, you can't escape the consequences of your actions"

The Emperor Blazing Dragon coldly scoffed, diving downwards with its massive body. Its sharp claws viciously probed towards Su Yi on the ruins pile. A blood-chilling aura swept across its wings.

"Be careful!"

Su Tian Que appeared, glowing with a red light. Although it could not be compared to Emperor Blazing Dragon, it still possessed a powerful aura. Its small body flapped its short wings and soared into the sky, and even in front of Emperor Blazing Dragon, its light would not be overshadowed and crashed into it.

Compared to its original state, Su Tian Que's light had dimmed significantly, and its breath was rather weak.

"Huh, a weird chicken? Go die!"

After being blocked so many times, Emperor Blazing Dragon's rage was boiling; seeing Su Tian Que blocking his way, he let out a low growl with menacing eyes, his nostrils emitting hot steam. His tail immediately swished out.

The Blazing Heavenly Dragon's gigantic body, yet extremely agile, directly collided with Su Tian Que.

"Dang"

The Blazing Heavenly Dragon's huge tail swept across, fiercely hitting Su Tian Que.

"Poof"

Su Tian Que coughed up blood; his small body was blown away, like a comet flying through the sky, and left behind a faint red trace in the night sky before disappearing completely.

"Su Tian Que!"

Su Yi stood up, his face pale and solemn. Fresh blood was flowing before him, and his body was covered in blood. He helplessly watched Su Tian Que being blasted away, unable to do anything about it.

...

Chapter 336: Self-Destruct Demonic Core

Emperor Blazing Dragon didn't pay any attention to Su Tian Que, its huge body continued to dive downwards towards Su Yi; its target had always been Su Yi.

Even across the void, Su Yi felt his heart pounding and held the broken sword on his back tightly.

Su Yi wanted to unleash the killing power of the broken sword, which had burst out with a terrifying force twice in critical moments. Su Yi hoped that this time he could do it again.

As for the other means at his disposal, including his Soul Tamer identity and the last move in the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, Su Yi hadn't even thought about them.

Because even if he activated his Soul Tamer skills and the last move recorded in the Divine Demonic Ancient Verse, he was still no match for Emperor Blazing Dragon.

If he could summon the terrifying power within the heavy sword behind him, he might still be able to counter Emperor Blazing Dragon.

But for some unknown reason, this time in the face of crisis, the broken sword was completely silent, without the terrible killing intent and the horrible power erupting.

"Not good!"

Su Yi could only grit his teeth as a fierce aura surged out.

Su Yi triggered the Iced Shadows Sword Style, a martial arts skill from Demonic Spirit Truth Interpretation. At first, Shangguan Chenfeng had also used it.

But Emperor Blazing Dragon seemed completely unfazed by Su Yi's attacks. Its ferocious dragon head suddenly raised and opened its huge wings, releasing a wave of blazing heat.

"Hula-la-la"

Su Yi's body was again blasted to fly directly, heavily smashing in the distance, with dust flying, and blood vomited again.

Su Yi jammed his heavy sword into the ground, standing up with support. His mouth was dripping with fresh blood and his body was completely stained red. His body had many wounds and gashes, and his hair was disheveled.

Looking at Su Yi who could still stand, Emperor Blazing Dragon's eyes twitched in surprise, but his eyes soon became cold again and his chill didn't decrease. His huge body swooped down.

When the immense figure of Emperor Blazing Dragon appeared before Su Yi, its body glowed and transformed again into that middle-aged man with crimson hair.

"Swoosh"

He reached out with one hand and shrouded Su Yi.

Faced with that terrible claw, Su Yi could not retreat. Gritting his teeth, his face became ferocious and his veins bulged. Roaring in his heart, he raised his right fist and struck furiously at the claw mark.

A terrifying surge of power burst forth like a volcano before Su Yi's fist.

In the blink of an eye, Su Yi's punch swelled up like thunder and lightning, echoing like a low rumble and booming with majesty, as if a king had awoken and descended with great power.

"Boom!" The two suddenly collided, with such a head-on crash, sand and stones were flying around, and the ground blew up.

Su Yi spat out a mouthful of fresh blood as he was sent flying again.

"Hiss"

The figure of the Emperor Blazing Dragon appeared, and before Su Yi had even landed, his five fingers curved slightly and one hand pressed down onto Su Yi's left shoulder with a blazing force.

The sound of 'Kaka' bones breaking came to Su Yi's shoulder, as if the bones were cracking and spreading intense pain.

A terrifying force swept over, overwhelming Su Yi, wanting to tear him apart in an instant!

"Mankind, hand over my child, or I will tear you to pieces!"

Emperor Blazing Dragon stared coldly at Su Yi, and with a powerful power swept down, causing Su Yi's shoulder bones to crack.

Suddenly, Emperor Blazing Dragon's eyes changed, and he stared intensely at Su Yi.

In this moment, when Su Yi's shoulder was grabbed by Emperor Blazing Dragon's claw, his already feeble breath suddenly rose. On the body full of wounds, blue veins were exposed and his eyes gradually turned red. A breath of volcanic eruption came forth from within his body as well as majesty and destruction!

When such an atmosphere spreads, even Emperor Blazing Dragon was shocked and secretly anxious!

Only Su Yi himself was most clear about it, this was the familiar mysterious force, coming from the mysterious light group.

His Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique was like a sovereign who could not be provoked, it broke out and the mysterious power in the mysterious space also began to respond.

If the sovereign was provoked, he would erupt in an instant!

Mysterious power emanated from the mysterious light ball, surging into Su Yi's body, making his body tremble, and swell up as if about to burst.

"Ah!" With a loud shout, Su Yi's eyes were now bloodshot, his aura reaching its peak, his scarlet eyes surging, a terrible power poured into the broken sword in his right hand and he swung it towards Emperor Blazing Dragon.

The radiance engulfed the broken sword, the breath was rampant and fiery, exuding a kind of destruction.

Emperor Blazing Dragon was shocked as a terrifying force surged from the shoulders of the human and connected to him, sending chills down his spine.

Unconsciously throwing Su Yi away, Emperor Blazing Dragon was shocked and a surging wave of crimson flames burst out.

"Hula"

The sword light slashed through the sky, releasing a devastating gust of energy, radiating a blinding light that caused a crack to appear in the sheet of crimson flames in front of Emperor Blazing Dragon.

Emperor Blazing Dragon's face was shocked, he waved his sleeve and a red light like lightning struck out and shattered the sword light, but his expression had already drastically changed.

In that moment, it seemed like something had changed within this human kid and a feeling of unease and palpitation filled his heart.

"Kill!"

A deep cry of rage suddenly burst forth, and Su Yi's figure rose into the air with a crimson glow. An imposing aura surged upwards, his right hand tightly gripping a heavy sword, which was like thunder and lightning flashing brilliantly. With an unparalleled ferocity, the sword split downwards.

"Roar"

All around, the demon beasts roared and trembled; their senses were overwhelmed by the aura emanating from Su Yi's body; their souls were suppressed and their hearts were thumping in fear!

"This power is not yours!"

Emperor Blazing Dragon discovered a clue. Such a terrible force, definitely not belonging to the human teenager in front of him.

Suddenly, Emperor Blazing Dragon opened his mouth and a shadow of Blazing Heavenly Dragon flew out. With a roar, the dragon collided with that terrible power from Su Yi.

The light shone brilliantly, while the fearsome gale raged like a hurricane.

"Swoosh"

Su Yi fell backwards, crashing heavily into the ruins below, and chunks of stone shattered.

Blood spurted from his mouth and wounds burst open on his body, emitting a red glow.

Under the dreadful force within his body, Su Yi found it hard to bear. His body seemed to explode anytime and he became a bloody person, too horrible to look at.

In the ruins, Su Yi clenched his teeth, rationality and the last consciousness telling him that he must fight to the death.

"In the end, it's not your own strength. You can't control it!"

Emperor Blazing Dragon coldly laughed. That was not the power of the human kid, and it was impossible for him to bear. Forcibly supporting it would be no different from courting death.

...

Chapter 337: The Short Old Man!

"Boom!"

Suddenly, at this moment, the void quivered inexplicably.

In that instant, Emperor Blazing Dragon's face changed drastically, as if sensing something. Suddenly, he glanced behind him where a terrifying aura was rising.

As Emperor Blazing Dragon looked out, his line of sight was filled with the form of Nine Lives Cat Demon, perched in the void and radiating a blinding light. An alarming aura spread out.

At this moment, only the huge body of Nine Lives Cat Demon was seen to swell up, getting bigger and bigger, and the light was getting brighter and brighter, and the breath was getting more and more turbulent.

"She is trying to detonate her demonic core! Not good hurry and go"

A startled sound emitted from the mouth of Emperor Blazing Dragon, and its body immediately fled towards the sky in the first moments.

At the same time as Emperor Blazing Dragon emerged, it immediately changed into its huge body, flapping its fleshy wings, quickly fleeing, as if it had seen the most terrifying thing and dared not stay for even a moment!

"Roar!"

The surrounding Demon Beasts shrank back in fear. The Ice Savage Wolves and other Demonic Void Realm Demon Beasts quickly fled while the Beast Tide scattered around and ran away.

"Boom"

Nine Lives Cat Demon's body exploded in the void, like an endless thunder, vast and boundless, illuminating dawn.

An astonishing energy swept through, as if countless bombs had exploded simultaneously, radiating brilliant light and shaking the heavens!

"Boom boom boom boom."

Below, the mountainous land ruptured and cracked open, with huge and deep gullies spreading out from the cracks, stones blasted open and the heavens falling apart.

"Roaring"

An astonishing gust of wind swept through, like a hurricane scattering everywhere, Su Yi was swept up in it and suddenly blown away.

"I never thought I would be connected to a human being, but I hope you can live."

The faint sound entered Su Yi's ears and, at the same time, as if an invisible force enveloped Su Yi's entire body.

Under the tremendous impact, Su Yi's already-about-to-crack body seemed as if it was going to explode, blood spurted, and a terrible force swept through his body until he gradually lost consciousness.

"Boom boom boom"

The sky cracked, light flashed across the sky, the entire Forest of Demons seemed to be trembling, the mountains were destroyed, and the land was in chaos, transforming into ruins.

A vast number of Demon Beasts were swept up and transformed into a blood mist.

But everything soon calmed down.

The sky was beginning to lighten, and it was now early morning.

Deep in the forest, at dawn, with the rising sun, the mountain peaks were engulfed by a blanket of mist.

The mist was pervasive, atop the mountain peak, a figure was sitting cross-legged, with a faint glow emanating from its body.

This figure looks no more than eleven or twelve years old.

"Whoa"

When the first ray of sunshine emerged from the east, illuminating this figure, its faint halo condensed. A gust of turbid breath was exhaled, and its eyes opened with a halo in them, like divine light, and then it was restrained.

This figure was short, but the face was slightly elderly. It seemed to be in his late sixties or seventies, with faint wrinkles on his face, which were the marks left by time. The outline of the face was three-dimensional, and one could faintly see that he must have been quite handsome when he was young.

The figure stood up, and in the black hair strands, three-eighths of white hair was interspersed, giving it a slightly vicissitude. The entire figure was thin and small, as if an eight or nine year old child, but dressed in a long robe that fit perfectly.

This short figure, standing on the peak of the mountain, looking at the rising sun in the east, stretching, and then the figure strangely disappeared in place.

The mountain walls, crags, and the distant sound of beasts roaring all around.

The tiny figure suddenly appeared on a huge boulder, its eyes filled with puzzlement. It murmured, "Such a strange aura."

The words fell, the small figure's eyes were slightly closed, and a faint light wave rippled around the body.

"Hiss"

When the little old man opened his eyes again, a light flashed out and he disappeared in place.

When the short old man re-appeared again, he appeared behind a huge rock.

After the huge rock, a figure slumped unconscious, not knowing if he was dead or alive; his hair scattered and blood flowed everywhere.

Gazing at the figure, the short old man glanced faintly, with a hint of perplexed expression on his face. He stepped closer and kicked the figure over, revealing a bloody face.

The face was blurred by fresh blood, but it was faintly visible that it was about fifteen or sixteen years old. Everywhere on the body were scars, and he was still firmly grasping a broken sword in his hand.

The little old man gave a faint glance and left immediately.

The unconscious young boy was lying quietly, with deep wounds seemingly to the bone. There was no sign of any breath, as if he had already died.

No one saw it, the broken sword in the hands of the young man was absorbing strands of fresh blood from his body.

The boy was bleeding profusely, and the blood seemed to be drawn by an unseen force, gathering and flowing towards a broken sword until it was completely absorbed.

Absorbing fresh blood and the broken sword still has no reaction, covered with rust, with no change in the luster.

"Roar"

In the distance, there was a continuous roar of beasts echoing through the void.

Half an hour later, several ferocious demon beasts appeared, their fangs glistening and their fierce eyes fixedly gazing at the young man who was not sure if he was alive or dead, gradually approaching him.

"Ow!"

Several demon beasts roared as they were about ten feet away from the figure of the young man, as if sensing something, warily moving around him without daring to come too close.

Finally, the leading demon beast roared menacingly. With a low roar, it seemed to have been unable to hold back any longer. Opening its huge mouth, it lunged towards the teenager, wanting to swallow him up in one gulp.

"Bang"

Suddenly, without warning, the figure of the demon beast was blasted and blood mist spewed forth, turning into a bloody mud.

"Roar!"

Other dozen demon beasts glared menacingly and roared, their fierce gazes searching for something.

A small figure appeared silently and grimly, gazing coldly at the several demon beasts.

"Wuwu"

Suddenly, these demon beasts shuddered, wailed, trembled and then fled in panic.

The short figure was the old man who had just left not long ago. His gaze looked at the young boy lying on the ground with fresh blood all over him. He squatted down to check and his brows slightly furrowed.

In the hands of the short old man, there appeared a pill, he opened the boy's tightly clenched jaws and put the pill in, murmuring softly, "If you don't die, it means that your life should not end."

A river winding its way, passing through the vast mountains.

Majestic mountains standing tall between heaven and earth.

Simple room, extremely plain, but clean and tidy, the sunshine outside the window was bright and beautiful.

On the bedside, a young boy lay unconscious, his eyes tightly closed.

"This guy was badly injured, yet he's still alive - it's a miracle!"

...

Chapter 338: Curing the Injuries

In the room, there was a fourteen or fifteen-year-old girl, dressed simply but cleanly, wearing two long pigtails. She had a delicate face, especially her big eyes, glistening and very clear.

The girl used a handkerchief to wipe the blood on the face of the unconscious boy on the bed, muttered softly under her breath.

"You must persevere, looking at you already shows how brave you are."

The girl muttered to herself as she carefully wiped away the bloodstains on the face of the young man who had fainted on the bed.

"It's pretty nice."

When that clear face appeared clearly, the girl couldn't help but take an extra look, slightly surprised.

Although this face looked pale and grayish at the moment, it was not fair-skinned. However, the features were highly three-dimensional. Although his eyes under the long slender eyebrows were closed, there was a special temperament in between.

"It's your luck to meet Elder Su, even though others say he is sharp-tongued and mean, but I know he has a kind heart."

The girl was like a chatterbox, muttering to herself as she wiped the bloodstain on the boy's body.

Su Yi fainted, falling into a deep sleep, not knowing how long he was asleep for. He gradually regained consciousness, but his whole body ached and he couldn't move his body, not even being able to lift his eyelids.

"Have I died? It seems I haven't"

Su Yi felt dizzy in his head and a sharp pain in his body, making him feel like he hadn't died yet. Then a voice came from his ear.

"So much blood has been shed, it's really pitiful, I don't even know where Elder Su brought you back."

The girl whispered to herself, her handkerchief quickly becoming soaked in blood. She put it in the basin of water beside her to wash it, and continued wiping.

So many times, basins of clear water were tainted with blood.

"The injury is so severe, but you're still alive. You're really lucky."

The girl murmured, looking at the boy on the bed, his chest and back full of deep, visible bone-like wounds, and her heart pounding in terror.

The girl hesitated for a moment, then wiped the boy's upper body clean.

But the boy's lower half was still covered in fresh blood, and the girl glanced at the door outside and bit her teeth in secret. After hesitating for a moment, as if she were committing a crime, she reached the door and closed it.

"Men and women should not be too intimate, but that's not right for you. I have to clean you up thoroughly and give you medicine, so that the wound will get better. Otherwise, you are likely to die."

The young girl looked at the boy on the bed, her words seemed to be directed at herself; then, as if mustering her courage, she removed the tattered and bloodstained trousers from the boy on the bed, leaving his whole body completely exposed.

"Woman? What are you doing with my pants?"

In Su Yi's consciousness, amazed at this moment, he could feel himself stripped bare, and apparently by a little girl, exposing himself without any cover, his nakedness revealed in front of a little girl.

Right now, Su Yi's heart was helpless but he couldn't move, only his consciousness was still awake.

"Ah"

With a soft cry, the girl suddenly realized something and stopped in her tracks, her face already flushing red. Her hand covered her eyes and her eyes tightly shut.

But soon, the girl's fingers quivered slightly, and she quietly opened one eye. The black pupils shifted, glinting through her fingers, and quietly gazed towards the bed.

The young girl slowly looked towards the area below the young man's dantian, her face already flushed red. She then blinked her eyes and mumbled softly, "So this is a man?"

The girl took a deep breath, stepped forward, wrung out her handkerchief, and wiped the blood from the boy's body again.

Su Yi knew that the girl was wiping his bloodstains gently, as if afraid of hurting her wounds, but who is this girl?

Right now, Su Yi's heart felt helpless. He wanted to stop her, but he couldn't do anything

Finally, the girl finished wiping off Su Yi and looked at the terrible scars on him.

The girl took out a bottle of ointment and began to apply it to Su Yi. She muttered to herself, "This is the ointment the Elder gave me. Don't worry, you'll be fine."

The ointment was so spicy that when the girl applied it to Su Yi's wound, he felt like countless ants biting him but he could not scream.

However, it was proved that the ointment was indeed effective. Su Yi could clearly feel the medicinal power entering his body, repairing his injuries.

"No, don't put medicine there"

Soon, Su Yi was on the verge of tears, and the spicy flavor that suddenly hit him was simply too painful. The sourness was absolutely unforgettable in his lifetime.

"Wow, it really works!"

The girl was very happy when she saw Su Yi applying the ointment.

Finally, the girl directly covered Su Yi with a gauze cloth, and it was not suitable to wear clothes for the next few days because she has to help Su Yi apply the ointment every day.

"Elder Su."

The girl turned around, suddenly and was startled to see a small figure had appeared behind her without her knowing when.

His figure was small, but there was an inexplicable aura that made people shudder.

The girl knew who it was and immediately bowed in respect, her gaze full of reverence.

"How is he doing, is he still alive?"

The small old man opened his mouth and spoke, but at the same time, his figure made no movements, not even a step. His figure had already reached the bed and he gently lifted the gauze on Su Yi's body, revealing a look of slight surprise.

When the old and short man lifted the gauze, the girl's cheeks suddenly flushed again. She didn't dare to lift her head up, and spoke in a low voice, "Elder, he still has a breath, but the injury is too serious. If he is an ordinary person, I'm afraid he has already died."

"Go on. Oh, I'm going out for a few days again. The Conference of Thirty-Six Peaks will be held in two days. I decide to let you represent the 36th Peak and take part in it." The small old man said calmly.

...

Chapter 339: Elder Su

"I am representing the Thirty-sixth Peak to participate!"

But when these words fell into the girl's ears, it was like a thunderbolt, almost causing the basin full of blood to drop to the ground.

"It's you, go down." The short old man had no more words.

The girl paused, her eyes dazed and seemingly still in shock, before leaving the room. "Yes, elder," she said.

"Eh"

In the room, the short old man was looking at Su Yi's injuries with a slightly surprised look on his face. He then gently put a cloth covering over him and his expression returned to calmness. He opened Su Yi's clenched jaw and put a pill in, then gently helped Su Yi sit cross-legged.

"This kid seems to be somewhat extraordinary, I don't care what your background is, since I saved you, I will save you till the end. However, if you are an evil person committing heinous crimes, I, Su Kuangge, will personally execute you."

The small old man spoke faintly, as if he were talking to himself. Sitting cross-legged behind Su Yi, his hands glowed brightly and finally placed softly on Su Yi's back, a soft green aura surged out, slowly flowing into Su Yi's body.

"This old man is a super strong one!"

This time, Su Yi was clearly aware. Although he had never seen the old man, just by listening to his voice, he could also feel that this was an extremely powerful person.

As the elderly person stepped into the room, the air in the room changed in an unnoticeable way, and the whole space changed as well.

"He saved me, Thirty-sixth Peak, Elder, Su Kuangge, what is this place exactly?!"

Su Yi thought to himself, it looks like the old man had saved him and brought him here.

A gentle wood attribute qi flowed into Su Yi's body, bringing with it an inexplicable vitality, warm and gentle like the spring breeze, flowing inside Su Yi's body, wrapping around his five viscera, six bowels, muscles and bones, and all of his injuries.

This vigor was healing Su Yi's injuries, making his painful body suddenly feel a pleasure that couldn't be put into words.

This surge of vigor spread throughout his body, amplifying the potency of the pills Su Yi had just swallowed and the medicine applied externally, allowing the medicine to flow and diffuse throughout his body.

With the just-applied ointment and the power of the medicine taken, Su Yi felt a sense of relief as it spread throughout his body.

Su Yi wanted to speak his thanks to the old man who was healing him, but he couldn't find the words for his gratitude.

"Oh, weird, unusual"

After an hour, the short old man stopped treating Su Yi's injury, his eyes widening in surprise as he examined Su Yi's body, his brows furrowing.

After a while, the old man got up, put Su Yi on the bed, looked at it, and then left.

In the room, only Su Yi was left, and it was silent.

"Heal the wound, heal it quickly!"

Although he had not died yet and didn't know where he was, Su Yi knew he had to recover as quickly as possible and he needed to treat his injuries as soon as possible.

Although the old man just healed himself, he still cannot circulate the qi inside his body at this moment.

Su Yi could feel that his Indestructible Vajra Body was recovering on its own, albeit slowly. Fortunately, the ointment and pills were extraordinary. Combined with the old man's treatment, his injuries were healing steadily.

But Su Yi knew he had to be able to get over it himself.

The body was trying to circulate the energy inside, but the injuries were too severe.

After multiple attempts and several hours, Su Yi finally drew a smidgen of energy from his depleted reserves.

"Continue"

Su Yi kept going, not daring to stop, wanting to recover quickly, feeling like he was still alive but not knowing how Su Tian Que was doing.

Su Yi also thought of Nine Lives Cat Demon, he didn't know how she was doing now. In the end, it seemed like she was self-destructing. Could it be that Nine Lives Cat Demon was already dead?

Time slowly passed, after a few hours, Su Yi was shrouded in a faint crimson glow.

As time passed slowly, the scarlet glow on Su Yi's body became more and more intense.

At this moment, no one saw it, inside Su Yi, from within to without, there was a mysterious force surging. The deep and visible wound was healing, though slowly, it was already terrifying.

The ointment on Su Yi's skin started to dry out.

The next day, Su Yi's tightly closed eyes suddenly opened, his pale face still gray, but there was a faint light flickering in his eyes.

Just for a moment, Su Yi sat cross-legged, his hands cupped together, and his eyes closed again.

Activate the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique to refine the medicinal power and circulate it through the body.

This pill is extraordinary, definitely worth a fortune, Su Yi had never seen a healing pill of such high grade before.

At this moment, Su Yi's severely wounded body was being healed by Indestructible Vajra Body, which had played a great role in self-healing.

That feeling made Su Yi feel as if he were being reborn, able to clearly feel his body recovering.

With Su Yi operating Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique, the medicine within him and the ointment on his body also completely dispersed in his body, becoming dense energy.

Time passed slowly and quietly, and Su Yi's body gradually began to emanate waves of energy, radiating a red glow like flames burning and emanating a feeling of majesty.

"Wow"

The light on Su Yi's body was becoming brighter and brighter, and the trembling sound in his body was gradually replaced by the roaring sound, like thunder and lightning, clanging into the ears, emitting a burst of howls.

A layer of crimson light flowed around Su Yi, as if a mysterious power was flowing, like a shower of light bursting out, making the entire room brilliant.

This radiant glow abounded, and Su Yi's wounded body was recovering, healing at an imperceptible speed, and the wounds on his body were fading away.

As time passes, everything keeps going, Su Yi's body is shining brighter and brighter, ringing out clangs of metal, and mysterious power is constantly overflowing around him.

Su Yi sat cross-legged, his body glowing. After the ointment on his body dried out and the wounds scabbed over, it gradually fell off. His pores seemed to be relaxing and absorbing mysterious energy, incorporating into his flesh and emitting divine light. Everything was so mystical that if someone had seen it, they would definitely be shocked. Healing could be so quiet yet powerful!

For three whole days, the girl hadn't come back to the room, which was just enough to let Su Yi recover comfortably.

It was only three days, but Su Yi's scars had not only healed but the wounds were beginning to fade. There were still quite a few traces left.

In the morning, a beam of sunshine came in through the window.

"Crunch"

The door was pushed open, and a fourteen or fifteen year old girl entered. But upon seeing the figure shrouded in red light on the bed, a terrible aura also spread forth.

"Ah"

Under the intimidating atmosphere, the young girl stumbled backwards, steadying herself only after a few steps.

At the same time, the girl's face changed drastically.

...

Chapter 340: Divine Sword School!

A chillingly oppressive atmosphere suddenly descended, causing a feeling of dread to well up in the young girl's heart as if even her soul were trembling!

Raising her gaze to the room, the girl was shocked at what she saw; the bed and couch were glowing a bloody red. This dreadful atmosphere seemed to carry an air of defiance.

The imposing aura of destruction emanated from the figure wrapped in the red light on the bed. There was an intermittently thunderous sound that made one's heart beat faster.

"Wow"

As the girl was shocked, the red light on the bed swayed and pulsed. As if it had gone into the pores of the figure sitting cross-legged, it all converged and disappeared.

That figure, although the body could still faintly be seen with wounds, it had already dimmed and was only a trace. The complexion was no longer pallid, and a few traces of healthy redness had appeared.

"Whoa"

At the same time as Su Yi exhaled a mouthful of murky air, he opened his eyes with a red glow sparkling in them.

The girl stood at the threshold, staring at the boy on the bed in astonishment.

Is this really the critically injured teenager?

The appearance of the young man before her doesn't look like the one who was on the brink of death just three days ago.

"Are you awake?"

The girl walked into the room. The young boy's face was clearly outlined with sharp edges and his gaze was deep and resilient yet seemingly unforgettable. The girl couldn't help but look twice.

"Ah"

Suddenly as if remembering something, her face quickly turned red. She gasped and let out a shriek, then immediately turned around and flung a pile of clothes onto the bed, saying, "Why aren't you wearing any clothes? I'm so embarrassed."

Su Yi felt someone entering, so he immediately stopped cultivating to heal his wounds and was about to speak when he heard a scream.

"I"

Su Yi suddenly realized that he was completely uncovered and the voice seemed to be coming from the girl who had been bandaging his wound.

"Weren't you who took off my clothes?"

Su Yi muttered to himself, then quickly put on the clothes thrown at him by the young girl.

The clothes were new and very clean.

They were a gray long coat and a pair of cotton cloth long boots, both of which were embroidered with a special flower pattern, and all fit very well.

"This is what I asked Zhang Qing to pick up from the Outer Gate disciples, I don't know if it will fit you."

The girl turned around, her cheeks blushing so fiercely that it reached her ears.

She came this time, originally wanting to come and apply medicine to the young boy again.

Knowing that the young man's clothes were no longer fit to wear, so she asked a disciple called Zhang Qin to get a new ones. She didn't expect that she would see this scene after entering the room.

"Thank you very much, girl."

Su Yi quickly put on his clothes, tidied himself up, and got off the bed.

"Have you put on your clothes? It looks like you don't need to apply ointment to your wound anymore."

The girl slowly turned around, her face delicate and beautiful, and her big eyes glittering like a pool of clear water.

Su Yi looked at the young girl; his gaze shifted slightly. She was about the same age as Wan'er, her face and her skin were fair like snow. Her delicate face had a small dimple on each cheek, now blushing faintly with shyness.

"Thank you very much for rescuing me."

Su Yi thanked her; although she was not old, her figure was quite delicate. On her, there was a surge of leaky energy, it was estimated that she had reached the Yuan Soul Realm Seven or Eight Grade.

At the age of fourteen or fifteen, with a cultivation level of seven or eight grade in the Yuan Soul Realm, this already indicates a considerable talent.

Su Yi still remembers when Ji Chao of the Scared Mountain first came to Man Mountain, he was only at the Yuan Xuan Realm First Grade, but Ji Chao was a bit older than him.

"It wasn't me who saved you, it was Elder Su. Elder Su said it was a miracle that you were able to survive."

The girl shook her head and the blush on her cheeks gradually faded. She stared at Su Yi with a curious look.

In only three days' time, the boy had already recovered to his original state.

Plus that terrible smell she felt when she just opened the door and came in, everything was proving that the teenager in front of her was not simple, very special.

"What place is this, and who is Elder Su?"

Su Yi asked, after regaining consciousness, he heard someone speaking and healing his wounds.

That was a super-strong man, whose breath was unfathomable. In the distance, he heard the name "Su Kuangge".

"This is Divine Sword School and Elder Su is no ordinary person in Divine Sword School. Even the Headmaster has to be polite when he meets Elder Su."

When the girl heard the mention of Elder Su, the corners of her mouth lifted into a faint smile. Then, as if she'd remembered something, her expression changed slightly, and she didn't say much more, only adding in the end, "Elder Su isn't around these days, so he left instructions for me to watch you. If you wanted to thank him, you'd have to wait a few days."

"Of course, I will express my gratitude in person."

Upon hearing this, Su Yi nodded. Since Elder Su had saved him, out of propriety and reason, he naturally had to thank him in person.

"Then you can rest here for the next few days. After all, there aren't usually any outsiders who come to the Thirty-Sixth Sword Peak. You can also walk around nearby, just don't go too far," the girl said.

"Thank you very much."

Su Yi was surveying the room.

On the bedside of the room, there was a broken sword quietly lying across which gave Su Yi a slight sigh of relief.

This broken sword is not ordinary, luckily it hasn't been lost.

"You're welcome."

The girl gave a slight smile, her dimples becoming more pronounced. She asked Su Yi, "Oh right, my name is Xu Jiahui, what's your name?"

Su Yi replied, "Su Yi."

Worried about Su Tian Que, Su Yi immediately asked Xu Jiahui if Elder Su had seen Su Tian Que when he returned with him.

"Su Tian Que is a chicken who looks"

Xu Jiahui shook her head, looking at Su Yi with slight confusion, and said, "No, Elder Su only brought back you alone."

Upon hearing this, Su Yi's heart sank, not knowing the fate of Su Tian Que, not knowing whether he was alive or dead.

After that bald-feathered chicken had been by his side for so long, even though it always kept chattering, Su Yi became worried at this moment, remembering all the times they went through life and death together.

"Are you being chased by your enemy? It's a miracle that you are still alive with such serious injuries."

Xu Jiahui looked over Su Yi from head to toe with a curious expression and said, "If you have any enemies outside, you can ask Elder Su to shelter you in Divine Sword School. Even if you can't become an outer disciple, even if you are just a miscellaneous worker, he will protect you well."

In Xu Jiahui's mind, Su Yi was so severely injured and was rescued by Elder Su. She feared that he has enemies outside. If he could stay in Divine Sword School in the future, with just the words 'Divine Sword School', it would be enough to protect him.
