Chapter 451: The Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier!

This Wolf-headed Demon Bat was definitely not easy to deal with. Except for not using the Soul Tamer method and Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique, Su Yi had already done his best.

If it were not for the surging vitality in Su Yi's Dantian Yuanqi vortex, he might not have been able to hold on.

This Wolf-headed Demon Bat is very powerful in both speed and combat ability.

"Rumble..."

In the low altitude, the man and the beast collided once again, and the beast roared like thunder, with a muffled rumble and a powerful gust of wind that swept away everything in its path.

Su Yi stood in the sky, with a crimson light shrouding his wings behind him, just like a war god.

The Wolf-headed Demon Bat looked somewhat miserable, with bloodstains all over its body, and it kept trembling and retreating.

"Come on!"

As the battle raged on, Su Yi became increasingly brave and inspired, determined to forcibly subdue the Wolf-headed Demon Bat. His true energy surged, his eyes flickered with a red light, and an unfathomable sense of majesty and destruction emanated from him.

"Boom!"

Su Yi flapped his wings and took the initiative to attack, with his true energy surging and making a whooshing sound, striking fiercely!

the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats was alarmed and angry, with fear growing in its heart. However, it had no other choice but to act out of anger and continue the fierce battle.

"Puff..."

Soon, the right wing of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat cracked again, spilling beast blood and appearing quite awkward.

"Continue!"

Su Yi's fighting spirit was awe-inspiring, with a solemn expression on his face as he continued to kill.

"Howl!"

The Wolf-headed Demon Bat roared fiercely, with no way out. This human boy was too terrifying. With a loud shout, a bloody mist suddenly spread from its body and mouth, instantly covering a vast expanse of the surrounding space.

"Clatter, clatter..."

The bloody light was like a crimson mist, with a terrifying aura that was frightening to behold. Amidst it, there were faint traces of ghostly howls and cries that made one's heart tremble with fear.

"Howl..."

The surging blood mist was like towering waves, covering the body of the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

The shocking howl of the wolf, carrying a surging aura of bloodthirst, overwhelmed Su Yi with an overwhelming force.

"This is the ultimate move of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, the Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier, which can affect your soul. Be careful!"

In the distance, Situ Muyang exclaimed in surprise at the sight of Su Yi.

That is the ultimate move of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, which is said to be impossible for an ordinary Wolf-headed Demon Bat to perform.

The most horrifying thing about the Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier is that it can affect a person's soul.

Any attack that is related to the soul is feared by all and is the most difficult to deal with!

"Splash..."

The billowing blood mist swept down, emitting light, causing the surrounding vegetation to wither quietly, and the bloodthirsty aura engulfed everything.

This is the ultimate move of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, Bloodthirsty aura destroys everything, devours vitality, and influences the soul.

Su Yi watched as the bloodthirsty aura rolled in, but he remained unmoved and his soul was affected in his mind.

The bloodthirsty aura is indeed very powerful and terrifying, as it can affect the soul in a strange and frightening way.

However, Su Yi's soul in his mind was immediately filled with a red light, and a huge aura surged in and directly wiped out the bloodthirsty aura in his mind.

"Is that all you've got? Let's finish this!"

Suddenly, Su Yi flapped his wings and the brilliant red light spread. In the amazed gaze of Situ Muyang in the distance, Su Yi actually flew straight into the blood mist.

In that instant, with Su Yi advancing instead of retreating into the blood mist, a mysterious aura surged out, accompanied by the faint sounds of wind, thunder and beast roars.

"Roarrrr..."

The blood mist surged and rippled like waves, carrying an immense and mysterious aura that could not be extinguished. It swept with a fierce demonic energy seemingly going to tear apart the blood mist.

The demonic energy was rolling, yet not evil or dark, but carrying a supreme might, as if capable of shaking the Nine Heavens and sweeping the vast sky.

"Roar....."

Amidst the blood mist, the wolf howled miserably and incessantly roared, but as the wind blew, both the rolling blood mist and the oppressive aura of blood dissipated into nothingness.

In the stunned gaze of Situ MUYANG, an even more shocking scene was immediately seen.

At this moment, Su Yi was already riding on the back of the massive leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, with his vital energy wings spread behind him, suffused with a bright red light. He punched fiercely, striking down with great force.

"Bang! Bang!"

Su Yi's punches fell one after another, hitting the flesh with each blow, causing blood to gush out with each punch, making the Wolf-headed Demon Bat scream in agony.

The blood-colored light on the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats dimmed, and its aura weakened as Su Yi finally crushed it directly to the ground.

"Roar..."

The Wolf-headed Demon Bat screamed and roared, writhing in its final struggle, with its last breath of cursed blood emanating, trying to break free from Su Yi's oppression.

"Monstrous beast!"

With a deep shout, Su Yi's Qi wings on his back folded, but his fists didn't stop as he fiercely punched down again.

"Bang!"

This punch smashed Wolf-headed Demon Bat's back to a bloody pulp, revealing its bones, and causing the beast blood to spurt out.

Situ MUYANG was shocked, his eyes widened in disbelief.

The Wolf-headed Demon Bat of the Peak of the Fifth Grade of the Demonic Spirit Realm was unexpectedly defeated like this. Su Yi appeared like a war god, riding on the back of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, and suppressed it firmly.

This scene made Situ MUYANG rub his eyes in disbelief.

That was the Wolf-headed Demon Bat of the Peak of the Fifth Grade of the Demonic Spirit Realm, yet that guy Su Yi turned out to be so fierce.

"You evil beast, considering your strength is not weak, submit to me, otherwise I'll kill you!"

Su Yi spoke, declaring that the powerful Wolf-headed Demon Bat of the fifth grade of the Demonic Spirit Realm was needed as a helping hand within the Battlefield of Ten Thousand Swords.

"Roar..."

"You puny humans, you're dreaming. I am the Wolf-headed Demon Bat. How could I submit to such small-minded humans like you? If you don't let me go, I'll kill all of you. Do you few humans really think you can handle our entire clan?"

the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats roared in the language of beasts, with blood flowing from its mouth, adding to its ferocity.

It had already spotted humans in the distance, who must be with the youth beside it.

"How dare you threaten me? Do you really want to die?"

Su Yi's eyes sank, and he punched angrily on the wound on the back of the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

"Ao!"

With a piercing pain, the Wolf-headed Demon Bat roared in anger as a dark blood-colored light emanated from its body. In the language of beasts, it shouted, "Charge with me and kill all of them!"

The Wolf-headed Demon Bat roared fiercely, its face twisted with ferocity. Unwilling to bow down to humans, it was determined to make a final stand.

"This is troublesome. The Wolf-headed Demon Bat is the most difficult to subdue."

Hearing the furious roar of the leader of the Wolf-head Demon Bat, Situ MUYANG felt a chill in his heart.

That guy Su Yi seems to want to subdue the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats, but aside from the fact that subduing a demon beast is not an easy task to begin with.

This Wolf-headed Demon Bat is an extremely difficult demon beast to subdue, with a naturally cruel temperament. It would rather die than submit to humans.

"Ah-oooooooo..."

At this moment, as the roar of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat leader fell, the thousands of Wolf-headed Demon Bats lurking in the nearby low altitude roared in unison and flapped their wings.

As those wolf-like beast roars thundered, the void once again shook violently.

With blood and killing intent raging, the aura of blood gathered and surged like waves, spreading out as the towering waves of blood energy surged and expanded.

Thousands of Wolf-headed Demon Bats, some staring at Zhang Qing, Xu Jiahui and others on the back of the Dark Golden Demon Falcon in the distance, some staring at Situ MUYANG, but most of them were focused on Su Yi.

Chapter 452: Uprooting It All!

"Not good!"

Situ MUYANG's heart trembled and his face changed dramatically.

"Awoo!"

"Whooshing..."

In an instant, with a series of howls, the overwhelming Wolf-headed Demon Bat rushed towards Su Yi, Situ Liuyun, Zhang Qing in the distance, Xu Jiahui and others.

"It's finished!"

Situ MUYANG's face turned pale as the Wind Battle Armor fluttered its wings, burst forth with energy, radiated brilliant light, and displayed an astonishing momentum.

At this point, Situ MUYANG could only decide to fight with all his might and break out of the encirclement.

"Boom!"

Just at that moment, a terrifying aura suddenly swept out, spreading throughout the heavens and earth.

As the atmosphere swept over, the bloodthirsty Wolf-headed Demon Bat suddenly trembled and its gaze changed greatly.

Situ MUYANG also sensed it and followed the trail of the powerful and terrifying aura, finally fixing his gaze on Su Yi, who was on the back of the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

At this moment, a domineering and majestic aura swept out from Su Yi's body, carrying a divine radiance and emitting waves of fluctuations. It seemed as if a mysterious power had crossed through time and space from ancient times, sweeping across all directions.

"Hmm..."

Faintly, there were bursts of thunderous noises coming out, echoing through the vast void!

In this instant, Su Yi was surrounded by a blazing red light, making him seem like a war god that had suddenly appeared.

"Roar..."

the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats, who was under Su Yi's feet, trembled in fear and roared at the first moment.

The terrifying aura stirred its soul and made its blood boil, forcing it to prostrate and worship involuntarily.

"Roar, roar..."

All around, thousands of Wolf-headed Demon Bats roared in unison before falling from mid-air and prostrating themselves on the ground, worshipping with their wings.

All the Wolf-headed Demon Bats lay on the ground, trembling uncontrollably, with a look of fear and awe in their eyes.

This scene was too shocking for Situ MUYANG, who had prepared to fight his way out of danger. He was left open-mouthed and unable to retract his jaw for a long time.

Far away, on the back of the Dark Golden Demon Falcon, Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing, and others also gazed in astonishment.

Zhang Qing and the others were not shocked by the Wolf-headed Demon Bats prostrating on the ground, but were still immersed in the shock of Su Yi's battle with the leading Wolf-headed Demon Bat.

"Evil beast, let me ask you one last time: will you choose to submit or die!" Su Yi's red pupils were agitated, appearing as if flames were burning within them. His awe-inspiring and destructive aura spread throughout his body.

"Roar..." "I am willing to submit." At this moment, the Wolf-headed Demon Bat spoke in its animal language. The overwhelming pressure left it with no choice but to submit, unable to resist.

Even now, the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats felt that the human before it was not just a mere human, but rather a powerful member of the demon clan.

That kind of aura is not something that should exist within a human, it is an aura that belongs to the supreme demon clan.

Upon hearing this, Su Yi looked down at the Wolf-headed Demon Bat that had submitted at his feet. He then put away the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique, and the slight stiffness on his pale face quietly dissipated. Immediately after, a smile curved up from the corner of his mouth.

After his battle with the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, which was at the Peak of the Fifth Grade in the Yuan Spirit Realm, Su Yi had suffered immense exhaustion and had come to the brink of depletion.

Without resorting to the Supreme Chaotic Yuan Technique and without suppressing his aura, Su Yi was able to roughly gauge his own combat power.

After a moment, in front of the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, Zhang Qing, Liu Ji, Wang Fan and others had their heartbeats quickened and their eyes turned red.

"So this is the Dark Spirit Fruit..."

Xu Jiahui had only heard of the Dark Spirit Fruit before, but she had never really given much thought to such a treasure. However, she didn't expect to witness it with her own eyes today.

"Master, the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree blooms every five years, and it takes another five years to bear fruit. It takes a total of five years for it to reach maturity. This time, the yield and growth of the Dark Spirit Fruit is the best among those cycles, but it will probably take a few more days for them to fully ripen." the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats stood behind Su Yi, looking at him with awe.

"It takes fifteen years to mature, and it seems we've stumbled across it at just the right time."

A smile curved at the corner of Su Yi's lips. He had found himself in the right place at the right time, as the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree had just ripened. The value of so many Dark Spirit Fruit was immeasurable, and for cultivators at the level of the Yuan Spirit Realm, they were an absolute treasure.

"Unfortunately, we still need to wait a few more days. If we pick the fruit now, it will affect its efficacy and we won't be able to fully utilize the Dark Spirit Fruit's greatest benefits."

Situ Muyang felt a little regretful. The Dark Spirit Fruit would not be fully ripe for a few more days. Unless everyone waited here for a few more days, the benefits of the Dark Spirit Fruit would be greatly reduced.

"We can wait a few more days then."

Zhang Qing spoke up, saying that if they allowed the benefits of the Dark Spirit Fruit to be compromised, the losses would be significant. They could definitely afford to wait a few more days.

"If I've calculated the time correctly, those direct disciples should already have entered the Battlefield of Ten Thousand Swords. Others may not know about the Dark Spirit Fruit, but those direct disciples surely do. There's no need for the other direct disciples to worry about it. However, there are a few rumored to be quite formidable. Besides, there are also quite a few direct disciples in total. It's been several days' time, so I estimate that they should have arrived here already."

Situ MUYANG sneered and said, "The Dark Spirit Fruit is a precious treasure for Yuan Spirit Realm cultivators. Since those direct disciples are also in the Yuan Spirit Realm, the first thing they will want to do upon entering the Battlefield of Ten Thousand Swords is to obtain the Dark Spirit Fruit. It's inevitable that there will be a fight for it."

Although Situ MUYANG was not afraid of those direct disciples, he also knew that they were not to be underestimated. Especially considering there were quite a few of them.

"Well, since they're here, let them just go in."

Su Yi smiled slightly, eyeing the Dark Spirit Fruit all along. Suddenly, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth and he walked up to the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, rolled up his sleeves.

"What does he want to do?"

As everyone looked at Su Yi's expression and movements, several pairs of eyes in the room showed signs of amazement, wondering what Su Yi was up to.

"Get up..."

However, amidst everyone's stunned silence, Su Yi crouched down slightly and with both hands gripping the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree at its base, he drew strength from the ground and with the force of pulling out mountains and overturning seas, he shouted 'Get up!' The palm of his hand was radiating with a red light.

"Crack, crack..."

The ground trembled and started to crack.

Su Yi exerted force, but he didn't dare to use brute force. He carefully and cautiously, as Situ MUYANG and others looked on in astonishment, directly uprooted the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree.

the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats was also shocked. It seemed like he had never imagined that Su Yi not only wanted the Dark Spirit Fruit, but also directly uprooted the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree.

"Su Yi, what do you want to do?"

Situ MUYANG couldn't bear to watch anymore. He had no objection to taking away these Dark Spirit Fruits, but the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree belonged to the Divine Sword School.

He is, after all, the son of the sect leader of the Divine Sword School. He can't just turn a blind eye to someone ruining the treasures of the Divine Sword School.

"Don't worry, you will have your share. If you want it now, I can give you a Dark Spirit Fruit, but I know of a place that is a treasure trove. If we transplant the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree there, its effect may be even better in the future. The place is also secretive, and no one can find it. We can go there to pick the fruit later," Su Yi said to Situ MUYANG.

"Are you telling the truth?" Situ MUYANG was a bit skeptical.

Chapter 453: Six Beasts Siege!

"Of course, if you don't believe me, I can give you a Dark Spirit Fruit right now," Su Yi said generously.

"The Dark Spirit Fruit Tree is no ordinary plant. Even if you have that treasured land, it's not so easy to transplant and have it survive. This is a precious treasure. If you destroy it, the entire Divine Sword School will not let you go."

Situ Muyang had to remind Su Yi that the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree was even more important than the Dark Spirit Fruit. It was a true treasure, and if the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree was destroyed, the Divine Sword School would definitely punish severely.

Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing and others secretly exclaimed in amazement.

The Dark Spirit Fruit Tree is such a treasure, and Su Yi is really daring for actually uprooting it.

Su Yi lifted his lips, and from the very beginning, he had his sights set on the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree.

Especially when seeing the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, Su Yi's first thought was not the Dark Spirit Fruit itself, but rather the benefits of the other medicinal herbs and spirit plants in the mysterious space. If the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree could be transplanted into the mysterious space, who knows how much more powerful it would become?

"Don't worry, it shouldn't be a big problem. Wait for me here, I'll go transplant the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree. The fewer people know about that place, the safer it will be."

Su Yi spoke and then shouldered the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, riding on the Dark Golden Demon Falcon as they quickly departed.

"If anything goes wrong with the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, this guy will definitely suffer the consequences!"

As Situ Muyang watched Su Yi's departing figure, he thought to himself, "This guy is really bold. The Divine Sword School definitely values treasures like the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, but it was unexpectedly uprooted by Su Yi."

Xu Jiahui and Zhang Qing were left speechless, knowing they didn't have the right to speak in such a place and on such an occasion. They were only brought there by others and didn't have the qualification to speak.

"Swoosh, swoosh..."

The space teleportation gate glowed, and figures swiftly emerged from it.

The figures were young but had remarkable temperament and extraordinary aura. After stepping out of the space teleportation gate, they departed directly.

...

In the concealed place, Su Yi had the Dark Golden Demon Falcon guard him while he carried the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree and entered the mysterious space.

Inside the mysterious space, the energy of heaven and earth was so dense that it was like mist. The pool of Spiritual Essence in the center was shimmering with radiant light, and the glow was spreading out.

Su Yi planted the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree inside the mysterious space and even specially irrigated it with some Spiritual Essence, hoping that the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree would thrive.

Then, every fifteen years, it will be possible to harvest another batch of Dark Spirit Fruit.

As for the Divine Sword School's high regard for the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, Su Yi couldn't care too much at the moment since it was such a treasure that was also suitable for planting inside the mysterious space. He decided to take it first and then figure out the rest later.

After tidying everything up, Su Yi looked back a couple of times before leaving.

There were about forty to fifty Dark Spirit Fruit hanging on this Dark Spirit Fruit Tree, and Su Yi hoped that they could survive.

When Su Yi reunited with Situ Muyang, Zhang Qing, Xu Jiahui, and others, he immediately obtained five Sword-patterned Stones from the cavern of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, as well as many spiritual herbs and a Xuan Weapon-level precious sword left behind by someone else.

"I will meditate and adjust my breath for a while before setting off again."

After battling with the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats, Su Yi was immensely depleted and dared not let his guard down in the Battlefield of Ten Thousand Swords, where he needed to maintain his peak state at all times.

Sitting cross-legged inside the cavern of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, Su Yi stuffed a Qi-replenishing pill into his mouth and began meditating and adjusting his breath. Recently, he had plenty of money to spare, including for these pills.

With the Wolf-headed Demon Bats and the Dark Golden Demon Falcon guarding him, Su Yi could meditate and adjust his breath peacefully.

Situ Muyang could only wait helplessly, but he was secretly surprised in his heart.

From what he saw today, Su Yi was too terrifying. He couldn't possibly be an ordinary outer disciple with such power and cultivation. It would be strange if he were only an outer disciple.

Xu Jiahui and Zhang Qing sat cross-legged on the ground and meditated, adjusting their breathing.

They had not yet fully refined the benefits of the Spiritual Essence they had taken. Under the tempering of the Spiritual Essence, it seemed that each day brought an invisible transformation to each person, emanating a special aura from within, radiating outward.

A day passed slowly, the sun set in the west, and the night descended gradually.

The moon was dim, the stars were bright, and the night was quiet and deep.

In the faraway mountain peaks, there suddenly appeared pairs of eyes resembling bloody moons, looming and disappearing.

In mid-air, there were pairs of sharp eyes, and round after round of blood-red moons hung in the distant void like bright lanterns.

"Roar..."

Suddenly, above the mountain peaks, a wolf howl echoed through the empty air.

A large group of Wolf-headed Demon Bats appeared and floated up, emitting a strong bloodthirsty aura.

Pairs of blood-red eyes were filled with dim light, coloring the night sky.

"Ah-oo..."

A shocking wolf howl echoed through the sky, and the Wolf-headed Demon Bat leader fluttered its wings and hovered in mid-air. Its huge body was shrouded in a dark blood-red aura, emanating a powerful bloodthirsty energy. Its eyes were fixed on the distant void.

"Swoosh, swoosh..."

Several figures rushed out of the cave, they were Situ Muyang, Zhang Qing, Xu Jiahui, and others. As they looked ahead, their hair stood on end and they were filled with inexplicable fear.

In the low sky and on the rocks ahead, there emerged blood-red fierce eyes that were as bright as the full moon. In the dim and glimmer of the light, several huge figures appeared, emanating a powerful aura.

"They are demon beasts, all of them are from the Demonic Spirit Realm!"

Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing, Liu Ji and others were shocked and their faces filled with fear. At a glance, they could see that there were several demonic beasts from the Demonic Spirit Realm.

Judging from the invisible aura permeating the area, there were several abnormal demon beasts from the Demonic Spirit Realm.

"They are all demon beasts from the fourth or fifth level of the Demonic Spirit Realm, and they are prepared for this!"

Situ Muyang spoke, and there were faint black earth-elemental fluctuations of aura emanating from his body.

He could feel that those demon beasts had a cultivation level of the Demonic Spirit Realm peak of the fourth level and the fifth level of the Yuan Spirit Realm.

So many powerful demon beasts have gathered here; they have come prepared and with a purpose.

"Something seems wrong. Are they going to start a war?"

Although Xu Jiahui didn't understand the language of the beasts, at this moment she could feel the momentum of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat tribe and the confrontation with the powerful group of demon beasts. She could also guess that an imminent war could break out at any moment.

The group of powerful demon beast arrived together, seemingly intending to besiege the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

"I reckon that these powerful demon beasts may be after the Dark Spirit Fruit..."

Situ Muyang surveyed the atmosphere around him, his brow furrowing in concern.

A few Yuan Spirit Realm demon beast cultivators arrived together, intent on the Dark Spirit Fruit guarded by the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, which meant that they were likely after the fruit themselves.

Treasures like the Dark Spirit Fruit are irresistibly tempting for cultivators at the Yuan Spirit Realm level, as well as for demon beasts at the Demonic Spirit Realm level.

"Roar, roar..."

With a thunderous roar, a massive two-headed monster appeared, ferocious and as big as an elephant, with a body covered in yellow-green skin. Its thick armor-like flesh covered both heads, which were grotesque like wild boars and impossibly fierce. The flesh glowed in the dim light, while its eyes glared with a malevolent, blood-red glint.

Chapter 454: Consequences Are at Your Own Risk!

"Wuwu!"

On a huge rock, a silver scorpion appeared. It was massive in size. Its sharp tail stood up high, towering several meters above, with the tip sparkling and emitting a gloomy aura. Its whole body was covered in a mysterious luminous light, and its fierce eyes were intimidating.

"Roar..."

A huge ape appeared, standing upright like a tall tree, about two zhang high. Its body was covered in red radiance, shining brightly in this dark night.

What's peculiar about this giant ape is that there is a horn as big as a human arm growing on its forehead, emitting a dazzling light and making it look even more ferocious.

"Chirp chirp..."

In the low sky, there are still three ferocious birds circling, each with a body size not much smaller than the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

A grim-looking griffin, with feathered wings as sharp as swords and a dark blue radiance emanating from its body, had hooked claws like those of an Ironclad Griffin.

A fierce bird of prey, like a raging inferno, hovered with outstretched wings, creating a sea of flames in the sky. Its savage and sharp pupils were those of a Red Flame Demon Eagle.

The last exotic beast was the most peculiar, measuring at least five or six zhangs long, resembling a dragon-like creature with eight odd protrusions on its back and no claws on its underbelly. It emanated a black light all over its body, which seemed to appear and disappear in the darkness of the night.

But it was the beast's pair of fierce pupils that made people tremble with fear, savage and grim, with a gaping, blood-filled mouth that roared like a beast.

This is an Eight-winged Demon Python, with a formidable aura and a cultivation level that surpasses that of the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

The six powerful demon beasts emanate a strong aura, filling the void above, while the howling of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat resounds in succession, mingled with the bloody and murderous atmosphere.

By the side of the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats, there are also several Wolf-headed Demon Bats from the Demonic Spirit Realm, whose aura is equally strong.

The Dark Golden Demon Falcon also joined in, with golden light emanating and its pair of eyes awe-inspiring.

"Roarrrr..."

"Roar..."

In the dark night, the bloody and murderous atmosphere surges, with animal roars resounding like thunder, as if responding to something.

"What should we do now?"

Zhang Qing, Liu Ji and others have a solemn expression. If they hadn't been with Su Yi recently and had some experience with the world, just with this kind of momentum, it would have been enough to make them tremble with fear, and collapse directly on the ground.

"Whoosh..."

From behind the rock cave, a gray figure emerged and instantly appeared next to Situ Muiyang, Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing and others, without raising a speck of dust, quietly appearing.

A person stood silently, dressed in a gray robe that could not conceal a particularly arrogant and evil temperament emanating from their body. They were an outer disciple of the Divine Sword School, with a broken and heavy sword hanging on their back, attracting attention.

At this moment, in addition to the shadow's own sword, there was also a large sword on their back. The two swords intersected, the shadow stood tall and straight, with profound and deep eyes, a resolute face, and at the first moment, their gaze looked towards the several huge beast shadows in front of them.

At this moment, the one who came was indeed Su Yi and no one else.

Su Yi was cultivating Qigong at the moment, and this kind of movement naturally alarmed him.

Feeling the commotion outside, Su Yi deliberately took out a Xuan Weapon level big sword from the mysterious space to prepare for any eventuality.

"Ao" (a sound or roar commonly made by animals such as wolves or howler monkeys).

"Master!"

Upon seeing Su Yi's figure appear, the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats and the Dark Golden Demon Falcon who were confronting each other in the sky, suddenly descended and respectfully hovered behind Su Yi in the low altitude.

"Roar!"

One by one, the Wolf-headed Demon Bats of various sizes also immediately hovered low behind Su Yi.

"Swish, swish..."

The six powerful demon beasts ahead also witnessed this astonishing scene. Their fierce gazes were like sword edges, capable of piercing through space, and they fell on Su Yi as if they were scrutinizing him.

Looking at such a human youth, the six powerful demon beast cultivators seemed surprised and puzzled, and their fierce eyes showed some agitation.

"Master, these are the six leaders from the nearby area. They have been coveting the Dark Spirit Fruit for a long time and have come together to wage war against me for it!"

The leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats communicated to Su Yi in the language of beasts that these few demon beasts are very powerful and also the leaders of the nearby demon beasts. They have come together to join forces for the Dark Spirit Fruit.

"Ironclad Griffin, Red Flame Demon Eagle, Eight-winged Demon Python, Two-headed Demon Mane, Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, Demon Flame Ape."

With a glance, Su Yi could tell that these demon beasts were well-prepared.

Six demon beasts, with the Eight-winged Demon Python in the air having the strongest aura and not inferior to the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

Although not as strong as the Eight-winged Demon Python, the Red Flame Demon Eagle and the Demon Flame Ape, as well as the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, had a cultivation at the fifth level of the Demonic Spirit Realm.

Only the Ironclad Griffin fell a bit short, but also had an aura of cultivation at the peak of the fourth level of the Yuan Spirit Realm.

"In order to obtain the Dark Spirit Fruit?"

Su Yi's eyes flickered slightly. These six demon beasts had come prepared and were probably not going to back down until they obtained the Dark Spirit Fruit. However, the Dark Spirit Fruit was now his.

"Bat, where is the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree?!"

In mid-air, the Eight-winged Demon Python flapped its eight wings, with a deep and low voice, and shifted its gaze away from Su Yi, asking the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

The target of the Eight-winged Demon Python is the Dark Spirit Fruit. Judging by the time, it seems that the Dark Spirit Fruit will take a few more days to ripen.

However, the Eight-winged Demon Python felt the shock waves from the commotion during the day and sensed that it had come from the area guarded by the bats. It was very uneasy and wanted to see for itself, so it joined forces with several nearby demon beast leaders. Their goal was to obtain the Dark Spirit Fruits, or at least half of them.

But the Eight-winged Demon Python never expected that when they arrived, they found that the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree was nowhere to be seen.

"Roar... The Dark Spirit Fruit Tree has nothing to do with you. Old snake, scorpion, monkey, you better get out of here, or else I won't be polite!"

The leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats growled in beastly language, knowing full well that these fellows would not give up easily. One by one, they all coveted the Dark Spirit Fruit and had actually joined forces to come for it.

"If you don't hand over the Dark Spirit Fruit, we'll see who's not being polite to whom. Today, you bats and grandchildren, I'm afraid that none of you will survive, and I want to see if you'll hand over the Dark Spirit Fruit!"

The Demon Flame Ape stamped its chest and roared, the sound shaking the night sky like muffled thunder, the momentum was quite astonishing, obviously warning the Wolf-headed Demon Bat.

"Monkey, don't be arrogant. You're probably not capable enough!"

The Wolf-headed Demon Bat roared, its bloody and evil aura surging and shaking all four directions.

"Do their bodies also have Sword-patterned Stones?"

Su Yi spoke up and turned to ask the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

"Master, this monkey, scorpion, and old snake should all have a considerable amount of Sword-patterned Stones on their bodies. In their nests, there are also treasures such as spiritual medicine, but nothing compares to the Dark Spirit Fruit. That's why they teamed up to come and plunder the Dark Spirit Fruit!" The Wolf-headed Demon Bat replied to Su Yi.

"Sword-patterned Stones, spiritual medicines, treasures..."

Su Yi's gaze suddenly changed, shining with radiance as he looked at the Ironclad Griffin, Red Flame Demon Eagle, Eight-winged Demon Python, Two-headed Demon Mane, Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, and Demon Flame Ape - the six demon beasts before him. He said, "Hand over the Sword-patterned Stones and spiritual medicine treasures in your nests, or suffer the consequences!"

Su Yi's voice was calm but it spread quietly and fell into the ears of the powerful demon beasts such as the Eight-winged Demon Python and Two-headed Demon Mane.

Hearing Su Yi's words, Situ Muyang was stunned, filled with surprise as he looked at Su Yi. This guy was incredibly powerful, able to suppress even the Wolf-headed Demon Bat at the Peak of the Fifth Grade of the Demonic Spirit Realm. However, it should be noted that those six demon beasts were all impressive now.

Chapter 455: Threatening the Six Beasts!

This guy wouldn't want to single-handedly contend with the six powerful demon beasts, would he?

The gazes of the six demon beasts including the Two-headed Demon Mane and Eight-winged Demon Python were tightly fixed on Su Yi.

The six pairs of fierce eyes, like blood moons, looked down at Su Yi, revealing surprise and confusion.

"Human, are you speaking to us?"

The body of the Demon Flame Ape moved forward a few steps, and in its thunderous beast language, it stared at Su Yi.

"That's right, I'm talking about you guys."

Su Yi said calmly, nodded earnestly, and showed no sign of joking.

"Human, are you able to understand the beast language?"

The stinger on the back of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion was shaking like an arrow, swaying constantly. Its cold light was shining and its eyes were fierce, making people feel frightened at the first glance.

"It doesn't matter. Hand over the Sword-patterned Stones, or else face the consequences!" Su Yi replied.

The six leaders of the demon beast were completely shocked. Their six fierce eyes stared at Su Yi like blood moons in the moonlit night, showing astonishment and flickering. It seemed that they were trying to confirm whether they had misheard. This human boy was actually threatening them!

"Little human, are you trying to seek death?"

It seems that the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion was the first to settle down. The beast language "woowoos" were alarming, echoing in the void. The huge, silver beast body was filled with a hint of black mist, emitting a pungent odor.

"Be careful, there is poison in this aura. Don't let the poison enter your body, otherwise your body will become weak at best, and at worst it will harm your soul!"

Situ Muyang reminded everyone around him to use their energy to block the black mist that was diffusing. It was a poisonous gas and very eerie.

Upon hearing this, Zhang Qing, Xu Jiahui, Liu Ji and others changed their expressions. They immediately activated their energy to defend themselves and didn't dare to be careless in the slightest.

"Unfortunately, it's poisonous, so I dare not eat it."

Su Yi looked at the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion with a regretful expression. Since arriving at the Divine Sword School, he had not enjoyed good food like this. Thinking about it, he started to feel a bit greedy. However, unfortunately, the entire body of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion was poisonous, so he naturally dared not eat it.

Su Yi's gaze swept over the six demon beasts and the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, which he dared not eat. He then looked at the Demon Flame Ape and shook his head with a hint of regret, saying, "You big monkey, I cannot eat you either."

When Su Yi saw the Ironclad Griffin, Red Flame Demon Eagle, Eight-winged Demon Python, and Two-headed Demon Mane, his eyes finally showed a satisfied expression. He licked his lips and said, "Not bad. With the bird wings and snake meat, as well as big bones to chew on, it's not bad at all. If you don't surrender the Sword-patterned Stones and the spiritual treasures, then I'll use you guys as my meal!"

With an indifferent voice, Su Yi didn't care about these six powerful demon beasts at all. He showed no fear or attempt to hide, as if he didn't even consider them a threat.

The Ironclad Griffin, Red Flame Demon Eagle, Eight-winged Demon Python, Two-headed Demon Mane, Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, and Demon Flame Ape looked at each other in confusion and were momentarily stunned.

"Roarrrr!"

"Roarrrr!"

Immediately, six powerful auras surged out, as the beasts roared, piercing through the clouds and shaking the earth.

"Roar....."

The leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats and several of its counterparts from the Demonic Spirit Realm refuse to be outdone, roaring and moving in a way that makes the mountains and valleys tremble together, with a surging and ominous aura.

"Roar roar....."

The Wolf-headed Demon Bats around also immediately roared and howled endlessly, howling to the moon like this, causing this ancient world to tremble. Their blood-colored eyes flickered in the void, spreading out like red ghost fires.

For the Two-headed Demon Mane, Eight-winged Demon Python, and other six strong demon beasts in the Demonic Spirit Realm with a cultivation level of four or five, a small human not only didn't take them seriously, but also wanted to eat them. This is unacceptable to them.

"Why are you roaring? Hand over the Sword-patterned Stones and spiritual treasures, or we will roast you."

Su Yi looks carefully. These are demon beasts at the fifth level of the Demonic Spirit Realm. If he eats them, not only should they taste good, but he should also gain many benefits.

"This guy is too arrogant!"

Situ Muiyang clicked his tongue. He was never afraid of anything, but he was not even afraid when he entered the Battlefield of Ten Thousand Swords. He intends to compare himself with the top direct disciples of the Divine Sword School this time.

Since he came into contact with Su Yi, Situ Muiyang had to reassess himself a bit.

Su Yi is the truly fearless and arrogant one here. He doesn't even fear six powerful demon beasts like the Eight-winged Demon Python. Not only does he show no fear, but he also threatens to roast them. Who else but him would dare to do such a thing?

"Wu wu!"

The Eight-winged Demon Python roared, engulfed in a black light that made it appear ominous and fierce in the dimly lit darkness of the night. With its ferocious and baleful eyes and its gaping bloody maw, the demon beast's roar reverberated like the howl of a wild animal. Its ferocity was mixed with a hint of majesty.

"Chirp..."

The feathers of the Ironclad Griffin shine like the edge of a sword, emanating a dark blue radiance. Its sharp talons resemble hooks.

"Goo..."

The cry of the Red Flame Demon Eagle pierces the clouds and shatters the rocks, while its wings show off great expanses of fiery clouds in the sky. Its eyes express a fierce and sharp savagery.

"Roar!"

The Demon Flame Ape lets out a long howl to the sky, furious and unrelenting. Its voice echoes like thunder, leaving one trembling with fear and trepidation. Its thunderous stomping sends dust and debris flying in all directions, crushing even the largest boulders.

"Human, do you know whom you are speaking to?"

The Demon Flame Ape glares at Su Yi with a roar, its whole body's red hair standing on end, surrounded by a reddish glow, and its eyes shining with a fierce light.

"Just a bigger monkey, too bad I can't eat you. But that horn on your head looks nice. Pull it out and sell it to a blacksmith, and you can make a good price!"

Su Yi paid no attention and locked his gaze onto the horn on the forehead of the Demon Flame Ape. That horn looked exquisite and could be a perfect material for a blacksmith, as specific parts of demon beasts are often used in forging.

"You puny human, you're asking for death!"

The Demon Flame Ape was furious. This human didn't take it seriously and didn't put it in his eyes at all. He even wanted to pull out its horn.

"Boom!"

In an instant, the Demon Flame Ape attacked. This small human not only didn't take it seriously, but also wanted to eat it. Moreover, he despised its appearance and even wanted to pull out its horn. How could it not be angry?

The Demon Flame Ape came like a moving mountain with a huge body. The ground cracked under its ferocious aura and its body was enveloped in a red glow. The red fur on its massive body fluctuated as it opened its mouth with a ferocious expression, revealing its snow-white fangs emitting a chilly light. It looked fierce and brutal.

Under such ferocious momentum, Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing and others trembled and knew that they were completely powerless to resist.

However, at this moment, Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing, and even Situ MUYANG showed surprised expressions, but they were not too worried about Su Yi. At least with Su Yi's strength, this Demon Flame Ape could not take advantage.

"Evil beast, is stomping your only talent?"

As he watched the Demon Flame Ape jump with its mountain-like body and stomp its feet, Su Yi's eyes sank in that instant. Suddenly, a dazzling light resembling thunder and lightning flickered in his eyes, and his grey robe fluttered as black hair behind his head swayed and flew, giving off an aura of thunderous anger.

Chapter 456: Battle Against Six Beasts!

"Boom!"

In an instant, a black aura erupted around Su Yi's body and he swiftly took a step forward, directly falling towards the direction where the Demon Flame Ape was attacking.

As Su Yi's foot landed, a whirlpool of aura suddenly swept out like a storm beneath his sole!

"Boom..." In that instant, the earth trembled and the air roared inexplicably where Su Yi had landed. Waves of black aura with earth attributes spread out from under his feet like ripples.

"Crack..." Visible to the naked eye, cracks as thick as arms spread out like a spider web and rocks were shattered, sand and stones flew as a majestic and domineering aura was released into a wave of impact towards the incoming Demon Flame Ape.

"Roar" At this moment, for some reason, the attacking Demon Flame Ape's gaze trembled and it couldn't help but let out a low roar.

Everything moved as fast as lightning, and a tremendous force impacted the Demon Flame Ape with a single kick, spreading from the underground and directly crashing onto its body.

"Splurt" A mouthful of blood sprayed out from the big mouth of the Demon Flame Ape, staining its white fangs red, while the ground around its enormous feet kept cracking and splitting.

At the same time, the Demon Flame Ape's fierce expression also underwent a sudden change. While staggering backwards, its eyes continuously showed shock as it looked at Su Yi. The terrifying aura made fear and reverence rise up from deep within the Demon Flame Ape's heart, as if it was compelled to worship and pay homage to Su Yi. How could such a powerful aura come from a human?

"Swoosh..." A series of afterimages trailed behind him as he used the Hundred Transformations Step under his feet. Su Yi had just exhibited the first move of the Wrath of the Eight Wastelands.

Knowing the immense suppression of the Wrath of the Eight Wastelands on the demon beast, Su Yi didn't hesitate as he took advantage of the momentum and dashed forward once again. The power of the technique was already enormous, and he knew he couldn't afford to waste any time.

"Boom!" Everything happened quickly as Su Yi's figure arrived in an instant. His five fingers clenched into a fist, and as he raised his arm, the grey sleeve billowed outwards. A dazzling light burst forth from his fist along with an enormous burst of elemental energy, erupting like a volcano and fiercely blasting forward.

After all, the Demon Flame Ape is a fifth-level demon beast of the Demonic Spirit Realm. In its panicked fear, it subconsciously extended its massive arm and threw a punch to collide head-on with Su Yi's attack.

Amid the watchful gazes of everyone, the big and small fists collided in an extremely disjointed manner.

"Boom!" In an instant, Su Yi's fist seemed to swell up and expand, accompanied by a crisp sound of wind and thunder that rang out like thunder. With the awakening of an overbearing regal power, a huge aura spread out, as if a king had descended, bringing with it a crushing force.

This kind of pressure directly caused Two-headed Demon Mane, Eight-winged Demon Python, Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, and others to feel a tremble of fear, as well as to be oppressed inexplicably, with their animal souls trembling in their minds.

"Crack!" Powerful winds formed waves and shot out like hurricanes, creating a circular impact.

"Plop, plop..." In the midst of the powerful wind, the massive body of the Demon Flame Ape was also directly overturned and flew backwards, with blood pouring out from its mouth like a rain of blood, falling to the ground.

"Bang!" The body of Demon Flame Ape crashing onto the ground caused cracks to appear on the ground. Its thick armor was shattered by the punch, and its body was covered in bloody wounds, with blood flowing out of them. It was a gruesome sight to behold.

"Chi..."

Su Yi's figure followed closely behind, stepping on the fallen Demon Flame Ape's huge head. His hands tightly gripped onto the horn that glowed red like flames.

"Sever it for me!"

With a loud shout, Su Yi displayed immense strength, as if he could move mountains and part rivers.

"Crack, crack!"

The horn of the Demon Flame Ape broke with a 'crack crack' sound and was then completely uprooted.

"Splurt!"

"Howling..."

Screaming endlessly and shaking the night sky, the Demon Flame Ape's blood spurted like a pillar from its forehead.

The vicious gaze of the Demon Flame Ape was replaced by shock and it struggled in pain with continuous convulsions. Its mind went blank, and it was about to faint.

Its horn on the forehead was forcefully pulled out by Su Yi.

All these events were happening too fast and almost simultaneously.

Everything exceeded all expectations, which left even the Eight-winged Demon Python in a state of confusion, unable to come to its senses.

But soon, both the Red Flame Demon Eagle and the Ironclad Griffin regained their senses. Their fur and scales stood on end, emitting a dazzling light and an astonishing aura. Their eyes widened with rage.

"Ow ow..."

"This human is not ordinary, let's attack together!"

With a roar, the Eight-winged Demon Python urged the Ironclad Griffin and Red Flame Demon Eagle to attack together. Its eight wings stirred, emitting a daunting black light as its massive body charged towards Su Yi. The creature had realized that this human youth possessed an arrogant temperament and was not an easy opponent.

"Old serpent, don't act arrogantly!" The Wolf-headed Demon Bat moved, spreading its wings and screeching with a ferocious roar. Its body emitted a bloody mist that pervaded the surrounding void, like immense waves surging in all directions. With a momentum like an avalanche, it blocked the Eight-winged Demon Python's advance.

"Roarrrr!"

The Four fierce demon beasts, Two-headed Demon Mane, Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, Red Flame Demon Eagle, and Ironclad Griffin, all moved together at this moment. With deafening roars that shook the sky and soaring momentum, they charged towards Su Yi to attack.

Four strong forces swept across together, causing earthquakes and landslides with a terrifying power.

"Sss..."

Su Yi's eyes flickered, and he quickly retreated with a step on the ground. At the same time, the Qi from his foot swept out and a red light rose behind him. He gathered his Qi into two wings, soaring directly into the air.

They had not expected the young man in front of them to be able to soar into the air. The attacks of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion and the Two-headed Demon Mane missed, almost colliding into each other.

"Squeak!"

The Ironclad Griffin arrived out of nowhere, its wing-shaped blades made of steel and as sharp as a sword, sweeping towards Su Yi and threatening to cut him in half.

"Hum!"

The cavern behind Su Yi's back was filled with a red light as his Qi wings materialized. A sound like that of a golden spear echoed through the area.

A large sword was unsheathed behind Su Yi. He invoked a sword technique with his hands, causing his Qi to surge and converge in his body, flowing through specific meridians before gathering at the tip of the sword.

"Hum!" In an instant, a faint dragon roar seemed to echo upon the greatsword, as if it were thunder and wind. The light of the sword dazzled as it directly struck down with unmatched ferocity.

The sword was like a raging dragon and its momentum was like a fierce tiger!

This is the first sword of the Three Sabres of the Raging Dragon, the Raging Dragon Slash!

"Swoosh..."

The light of the sword was dazzling, and a terrifying aura erupted from it. Instantly, it clashed directly with one of the wings of the Ironclad Griffin sword in a sharp collision.

"Crackle, crackle..."

As the golden spear burst forth, sparks flew in all directions. Accompanied by the sound of "crackling", the blade-like wings of the Ironclad Griffin were engulfed in flames and immediately shattered into pieces.

"Swoosh..." The sword gleamed brilliantly, and in the startled gaze of the Ironclad Griffin, scales and feathers similar to sword edges fell, with blood mist pouring out. The beast immediately lost its balance, and its massive body plummeted downward.

"Gurgle!"

The Red Flame Demon Eagle then swooped down and attacked, arriving near Su Yi. Its body was like a roaring flame, with sharp eyes exuding a fierce killing intent. Its claws were like hooks, and it was determined to tear Su Yi apart.

"Damned beast!"

Su Yi shouted in a deep voice, fully prepared. His vital energy wings lifted behind his back, and his body hovered and elevated. A crimson light flickered in his eyes, and radiant light shone from under his feet, forming a dazzling and beautiful scene.

Chapter 457: Overwhelming Force!

"Boom!" In an instant, vital energy covered Su Yi's legs and began to flow in mysterious, ancient patterns along his feet. Freshly formed symbols sprouted out, and a huge aura swept forth.

In this moment, the radiance in Su Yi's eyes flickered like lightning, sharp and intimidating, and his entire being resembled that of a resurrected deity or demon. His black hair was flying backward, and his aura was infused with the wrath of thunder, giving off a powerful and terrifying force that made people tremble!

"Roarrrr..." This aura frightened both the demon beast and the Wolf-headed Demon Bat below, but the Red Flame Demon Eagle, being the first to bear the brunt of the pressure, was particularly overwhelmed.

"Wrath of the Eight Wastelands, Rampage Shadow Shatter the Nine Yaos!" Su Yi grumbled in his heart as he kicked the empty space and disappeared like lightning.

In an instant, it was as if an endless stream of footprints burst forth from Su Yi's feet, gathering a radiance that directly struck the Red Flame Demon Eagle and exploded like a small sun, dazzling and radiant.

"Bang, bang, bang!" The void trembled and the space seemed to distort in silence. The dazzling energy radiance stirred around the body of the Red Flame Demon Eagle, causing the void to tremble.

"Howl, howl..." Such a terrifying aura made the beast souls of the surrounding Wolf-headed Demon Bats tremble and roar continuously.

"Splash..."

With blood spewing from its mouth, the Red Flame Demon Eagle's body trembled and it flew in a straight line from mid-air. Flames surged from its body as its huge figure fell backward onto the ground, causing the earth to reverberate and shake.

"Whoosh..."

With a sound like a breaking space, a silver light burst forth, permeated with cold radiance. The black mist filled the air and rose up to pierce towards Su Yi's back with a strange arc, which was astonishing.

For the second sword of the "Three Sabres of the Raging Dragon," Su Yi didn't back down or dodge. Gripping the big sword tightly in his hand, his elemental energy surged through his meridians and gathered on the sword's body. With the second sword of the "Three Sabres of the Raging Dragon," he directly swung the sword to unleash the "Tyrant Dragon Whirlwind Slash."

The light of the sword whirled and brought about a radiance like an electric arc. It seemed like a curved moon streaked across the void, with a faintly luminous shadow that conjured up a fleeting dragon image, colliding with the silver cold light.

The terrifying pressure was fierce and violent, as if a Tyrannosaurus was dancing wildly.

"Clang clang..." The collision of the swords produced sparks and splashed fire. The violent wind spread like a storm.

"Swoosh..."

Immediately following, blood was shed and the silver cold light was cut off alive.

"Woo-woo"

Screams were heard from below, they were the cries of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion. One of its scorpion tails was severed at once, and it suffered severe damage.

"Roar!"

The Two-headed Demon Mane dashed out, roaring with its two heads. It stamped the ground with force, causing it to crack open and explode. Its terrifying aura was as if a mountain torrent had burst out, shocking the heart. It rushed towards Su Yi with the intention of killing him.

Su Yi's black hair fluttered and his wings flapped as if he had long been prepared. He swooped down, like a fierce bird of prey spreading its wings viciously, with a horrifying and intimidating presence.

At the same time, Su Yi's large sword in his hand was also waving in the air, with a ferocity that mixed with speed, just as it cut through uneven patterns in the air. The sword was like a fierce tiger and as powerful as a raging dragon.

"Hmm..." In an instant, Su Yi waved his large sword, lifting up a sword light and shadow, with a resounding sound that echoed like a dragon's roar and a tiger's roar. It gave off an imposing and majestic aura, like that of ten thousand galloping horses. A surge of fiery red elemental energy rushed out, instantly becoming violent.

In an instant, from the void around Su Yi, there seemed to be a solidification of fiery elemental energy that diffused out from the empty space. It instantly coiled around the large sword and rotated around it.

A blazing storm surged forth and the energy swept in all directions, as if spreading out into a small, intense storm around Su Yi's body.

One of the surges had a ferocious and sharp might, which caused the air around to start distorting.

Su Yi's large sword also became covered in a level of crimson radiance in his hand, as if there were flames about to burst out, with molten lava flowing on the sword edge.

"Roaring Dragon Emperor Slash!" In a flash of lightning and sparks, Su Yi swung his sword and slashed out, and on top of the large sword, crimson light burst out like a volcanic eruption.

A surge of crimson aura swept over everything, covering the sky and the earth.

A beam of sword light shot out, trailing a long scarlet thunderbolt.

In that instant, the nearby Wolf-headed Demon Bat also had its blood-red eyes filled with agitation.

As the Two-headed Demon Mane rose into the sky, its fierce pupils were also fully covered by the sky-shrouding crimson sword light. The unmatched, massive and tyrannical power swept over, causing its beastly soul to tremble in fear!

"Roar..." Within the sword light, there seemed to be a shadow of a crimson dragon, faintly appearing and disappearing. It made the ground below crack inch by inch, the cracks exploding, the giant stones turning into powder, and even towering trees breaking apart. The terrifying aura shook the night sky.

"Roar!" The Two-headed Demon Mane screamed in agony, with a deafening roar that made the sky tremble, and a surge of deep red beast blood splashed up into the sky at low altitude.

One of the ferocious heads of the Two-headed Demon Mane was directly chopped off.

Blood flowed profusely as the Two-headed Demon Mane screamed in agony and its body plummeted from the low sky.

"Coo..."

In the distance, even though Situ Muyang, Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing, and others knew of Su Yi's ferocity, they were still stunned and horrified at this moment, taking in cold breaths.

In the blink of an eye, five Demonic Spirit Realm demon beasts of the fourth and fifth levels were directly defeated in a devastating manner.

Situ Muyang only realized at this moment that Su Yi's previous battle, even with the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats, was fought with full force but without using his lethal moves.

Just by looking at Su Yi's recent attack, these were the killing moves.

The Dark Golden Demon Falcon had the least shocked expression; it was the most clear that these demon beast leaders were not a match for its master.

Judging from its own master's terrifying aura, it was enough to suppress the Two-headed Demon Mane, the Eight-winged Demon Python, and others. It seemed that today the Eight-winged Demon Python was doomed to back luck.

"Boom!"

With one sword, Su Yi beheaded one of the Two-headed Demon Mane. Without stopping, he spread his wings and an intense red light filled the air, bringing a whirlwind of flying sand and rocks. His aura was overwhelming and his momentum was terrifying as he rushed towards the Ironclad Griffin, which had just stabilized its staggering body.

At this moment, the Ironclad Griffin was completely terrified with no way to retreat. It used all its power, and its feather tips stood up like sword blades, shining brightly as it exploded towards Su Yi.

"Swoosh, swoosh..."

Su Yi's figure flew horizontally from mid-air, and under the Hundred Transformations Step, he flapped his wings and made a mysterious curvature. His figure soared up and his sword shone brightly before falling down again.

"Crackle, crackle..."

With this sword, a burst of intense red light erupted, as its brilliance flashed like lightning. The golden sword edge exploded, fire sparks flew out in all directions, and the continuous sound of "clang, clang" echoed. It sprayed a mist of blood into the air.

"Grumble..."

The Ironclad Griffin let out a miserable scream, as its left wing was severed, leaving only a tendon connected to it; thus, it could never fly again.

In the rain of blood mist, the enormous body of the Ironclad Griffin fell straight down and crashed to the ground.

"Whimper..."

The Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion was unwilling, and its eyes were filled with both fear and resentment. It raised its head and sprayed black light from its mouth, causing a huge black cloud to rise and immediately envelop Su Yi.

This is a poisonous fog with strong toxicity. Whoever comes into contact with it will be unlucky.

Before the poisonous fog arrived, the toxin had already spread and diffused, affecting the soul.

Chapter 458: Sinful Beast, Where Can You Run?!

If it were someone else, they would be completely enveloped by the poisonous gas in this kind of environment.

However, the Heavenly Yuan Demonic Soul in Su Yi's mind seemed to be fearless and was not affected. It spread its wings, erupted with a powerful burst of energy, and scattered the poisonous fog. The remaining scattered black fog was blocked by the Qi barrier.

"Boom!"

A terrifying aura erupted as the dazzling light in Su Yi's eyes flickered like lightning. His black hair fluttered and his imposing manner was full of wrath and thunder. With a dark Elemental Qi condensed in his right foot, he descended like a meteorite and suddenly stomped towards the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion below.

At that moment, a vortex of Elemental Qi surged beneath Su Yi's feet. Ring after ring of black soil-based Elemental Qi energy swept out from under his feet, creating a storm.

"Boom..." With this step, the earth shook and the air rang out with a deafening roar.

"Ow ow..." Under such terrifying pressure, the fierce gaze of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion trembled and it couldn't help but roar and growl in a suppressed manner.

"Boom!"

Su Yi rushed down and pressed the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion onto the ground with one foot.

"Crackling..." Suddenly, from the body of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion as the center, cracks spread out like a spider's web on the ground as thick as arm around it.

Rocks crumbled all around, with sand and stones flying everywhere.

"Poof..." A muffled groan containing pain came out from the mouth of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, and its body directly sank into a deep pit on the ground. A look of horror surged in its fierce eyes, and blood immediately spewed out from its mouth in large amounts.

The back of the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion was also bleeding profusely, a gruesome sight to behold, and its breath became weak and feeble in an instant.

"Squeak..."

The Red Flame Demon Eagle, which had already swooped down again with the intention of making a full strike, stopped in mid-air when it saw the fate of the Ironclad Griffin and the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion. Horror surged in its fiery fierce eyes, and without hesitation, it directly retreated.

"Evil beast, where do you think you're running!"

Su Yi soared into the sky, and with the help of his elemental wings flapping behind him, he chased after the Red Flame Demon Eagle, whose speed seemed to be slower than his.

"Buzz!"

The sword's radiance pierced through the air, like a flash of lightning.

"Chirp..."

In the void above, the Red Flame Demon Eagle let out a mournful cry that shattered clouds and rocks. Its body was engulfed in flames, and its right wing was severed halfway, causing blood to gush out like a rainstorm. Its body staggered and swayed as it seemed to be on the verge of collapsing.

"Evil beast!"

Su Yi's figure appeared and landed directly on the back of the Red Flame Demon Eagle, while his sword gleamed and flashed out.

"Swoosh..."

Blood flowed abundantly as the Red Flame Demon Eagle's right wing was completely severed. Amidst its mournful cry, its body crashed heavily onto the ground, causing dust to rise and the mountains to shake and crack.

"Roarrrr..."

All around the mountain wilderness resounded with roars, screams, and howls of despair. In no time, the five powerful demon beasts - the Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, Ironclad Griffin, Demon Flame Ape, Red Flame Demon Eagle, and Two-headed Demon Mane - had all collapsed on the ground.

The five fierce demon beasts were now roaring and struggling, a pitiful sight to behold, with no strength left to fight.

"Woo-woo!"

"Ah-oooh!"

In mid-air, the battle between the two creatures - the Wolf-headed Demon Bat and the Eight-winged Demon Python - was equally astonishing.

Two beastly shadows and a deep black light, all filled with gory and bloodthirsty energy.

A rushing torrent of bloody aura, as a dark crimson light spread across the night sky.

As the two beastly shadows battled, terrifying waves of elemental energy erupted like volcanoes.

Su Yi soared in the air, his back surrounded by a crimson aura from his dual vital energy wings. He hovered mid-air, his gaze fixed upon the fierce battle ahead between the leader of the Wolf-Headed Demon Bats and the Eight-Winged Demon Python. His eyes flashed with a crimson light as he brandished his sword, flapping his wings in preparation for battle.

The leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats and the Eight-winged Demon Python have already fought fiercely for over ten moves. The leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats knows that it's all the Eight-winged Demon Python's idea and wants to lay his hands on its Dark Spirit Fruit Tree.

Although the Dark Spirit Fruit Tree no longer belonged to the Wolf-headed Demon Bat, the behavior of the Eight-winged Demon Python still angered them and they refused to let it go.

"Roar..."

The leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats let out a furious roar, and suddenly a bloody mist emanated from his entire body, filling the surrounding void in an instant.

"Wu wu..." A bloody light shone with a blood-red mist that was terrifying and intimidating. Faintly, there could be heard ghostly howling and crying sounds that emanated from within. This was the ultimate move of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat - the Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier.

"Roar..." With the surging blood mist that was like towering waves, the howls of wolves shook the sky. It carried a violent and bloody aura that swept towards the Eight-winged Demon Python like an irresistible force from the mountains and seas. The Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier's aura overwhelmed everything and was capable of devouring vitality and affecting the soul.

As the Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier approached, the Eight-winged Demon Python's eyes fixed upon it with a focused expression. Its eight wings trembled in unison, causing a burst of black light to radiate from its entire body. The intense light shone like runes, provoking a terrifying aura that reverberated throughout the void and even caused the mountains and forests below to tremble!

"Wu wu..."

The Eight-winged Demon Python charged forward, flapping its eight wings, emitting an unparalleled and robust aura. It was like a black shining sun as it collided ahead.

"Rumble rumble..."

Two massive figures touched each other amongst a sea of Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier and black light, causing a deafening "boom" in an instant.

The Bloodthirsty Enchantment Barrier aura and the black airwaves surged and churned, echoing thunderously!

"Snort..."

"Roarrrr..."

The beastly roar shook the sky, as two massive figures simultaneously retreated in opposite directions. Both their ferocious mouths were smeared with copious amounts of blood, and the surrounding air was filled with a half-empty gale that resembled a hurricane.

Su Yi's figure appeared beside the retreating Eight-winged Demon Python. He spread his wings and soared into the sky, infusing his great sword with elemental energy and activating his sword skills. Along with a thread of crimson fire elemental energy, the surrounding space was filled with fire energy that seemed to materialize out of thin air. In an instant, the energy swirled around the great sword, creating a scorching storm that swept in all directions.

"Boom!" Suddenly, Su Yi's body expanded into a small scorching storm, exuding a fierce and sharp aura. His great sword was covered with a level of crimson light, as if flames were about to burst forth, and molten lava flowed on the tip of the sword.

"Roaring Dragon Emperor Slash!" Su Yi executed the technique once again, fiercely wielding his sword and unleashing a beam of sword light that trailed a long streak of crimson thunder.

On the edge of the sword, crimson light erupted like a volcanic eruption. It seemed like a faint silhouette of a red dragon was visible, and the fiercely sharp force exploded with such power that it could seemingly cut through the void.

"Wu wu..."

The Eight-winged Demon Python roared in frustration. Its earlier full force attack against the Wolf-headed Demon Bat didn't give it the upper hand, and now this terrifying aura made it even more horrified.

In a panic, the Eight-winged Demon Python had no escape. It thrashed its giant tail, unleashing black light and sweeping ferociously toward Su Yi.

"Swoosh..."

As the sword light descended, with a "swoosh" sound, the Eight-winged Demon Python screamed in agony. Although it managed to avoid a fatal blow, its back suffered a severe wound. Dozens of pounds of flesh and blood were sliced off its back, with skin and tendons attached. They fell to the ground and emitted a black light.

Blood flowed copiously from its back, where its bones were now visible. It was a terrifying sight, but at the same time, the Eight-winged Demon Python, with the giant tail on its back, unleashed a devastating shockwave and thrashed violently toward Su Yi.

Chapter 459: The Most Tragic Eight-Winged Demon Python!

"Hmph!"

Su Yi snorted coldly and faced the attack without flinching. His body towered majestically as he unleashed his vital energy, flapping his dual wings and hovering in the air. His left hand reached out, shrouded in a crimson glow, forming an invisible seal that dispersed his energy outward. In an instant, he blocked the giant tail with his defensive technique.

"Sizzle..."

Under the crushing force, Su Yi's body was repeatedly shaken back even as he hovered close to the ground. His vital energy wings emitted a reddish glow that managed to halt his retreat. Simultaneously, his hand formed a seal that grasped the huge snake tail tightly.

"Boom!"

His body was filled with vital energy that surged and flowed through his meridians, a powerful and magnificent aura erupting forth.

Su Yi restrained the Eight-winged Demon Python with great strength, causing his own body to descend as he forcefully tore off the enormous tail.

"Get down from there!"

With a deafening shout, Su Yi stood on the ground, using one hand to spin and unleash a terrifyingly powerful swing, sending the huge tail flying.

"Crack, crack..."

With a strong tug and shake, Su Yi's foot caused the ground beneath to crack open with a terrifying scene of fierce and brutal power.

"Swoosh..."

The pitiful Eight-winged Demon Python's body immediately plummeted down and was forcibly pulled down by Su Yi, finally landing on the ground with a loud crash.

"Boom, boom!"

The body of the Eight-winged Demon Python was smashed, causing blood to flow out like a fountain. The body convulsed and it coughed up blood, with its eight wings mangled and torn apart.

"Crash..."

Dust rose all around as large cracks spread and covered the ground.

The Wolf-headed Demon Bats were densely packed together, their pairs of fierce eyes looking around startled and fearful.

The expressions of Situ Muyang, Xu Jiahui, Zhang Qing, and Liu Ji were frozen, their eyes wide open, as if petrified.

So many powerful Demon Beasts had come together, only to end up with such an outcome.

Even the strongest Eight-winged Demon Python fell straight to the ground, like a small snake, displaying such terrifying and overbearing power.

Compared to Xu Jiahui and Zhang Qing, who had grown somewhat numb, Situ Muyang was even more shocking.

Initially, Situ Muyang didn't believe that Su Yi alone could handle so many ferocious demon beasts, but now he realized that he had underestimated him completely.

The terror of this guy Su Yi surpassed his expectations time and time again, proving to be even more ferocious than he had imagined.

Situ Muiyang's eyes brightened as he frowned slightly, looking at the ferocious figure of the young man at this moment. The prospect of fighting against him outside grew even more serious in his mind.

"Oooh..."

The Eight-winged Demon Python struggled and roared. Its flesh was powerful, yet it was now suffering such heavy blows and being so ruthlessly trampled.

In great pain, the Eight-winged Demon Python tried to struggle to its feet, but to no avail. Its eight wings were damaged, covered in bloody traces, making for a pitiful sight.

"Can you turn over the Sword-patterned Stones and spiritual treasures now?" Su Yi asked, looking at several demon beasts lying on the ground.

And the outcome was already predetermined. When the fierce demon beasts arrived, they were intimidating and ferocious, yet now they were all trembling with fear, having no choice but to be terrified and frightened.

However, the Sword-patterned Stones and spiritual treasures were not carried by the demon beasts, such as the Two-headed Demon Mane or the Eight-winged Demon Python. They were all kept in the nest.

"Go back and get it for me yourself. If you haven't brought it back within two hours, I will go to your nest and then pull out your tendons and flay your skin!"

Su Yi scolded and let a few demon beasts go back to get the Sword-patterned Stones and spiritual treasures themselves.

Anyway, we are in the Battlefield of Ten Thousand Swords, so we are not afraid of these demon beasts running away.

Several demon beasts left in a miserable state, with bleeding wounds, missing wings and horns, looking utterly distressed and embarrassed.

Situ Muiyang, Xu Jiahui, Liu Ji, and others were all shocked to see the six mighty demon beasts leave in such a miserable state.

"Zhang Qing, Liu Ji, come over and help."

In the distance, Su Yi spoke up and picked up a large piece of meat from the body of the Eight-winged Demon Python, as well as the wing of the Red Flame Demon Eagle on the ground.

Zhang Qing and Liu Ji ran over with some confusion, their eyes still filled with shock.

"This big snake meat can only be roasted to eat, otherwise it will be too gamey. The bird wings are also delicious when roasted, and the pig head can be made into soup. Unfortunately, I didn't bring a pot, and the pig head looks too ugly. I'm afraid of having psychological trauma if I eat it, so let's forget about it. The broken wings of the bird and the snake meat are enough for me."

Su Yi spoke up, wanting to roast the meat as he hadn't had a good meal in a long time. He said to Zhang Qing and the others, "Help me find some firewood, set up a fire pit, pluck the feathers and scales off the bird wings and snake meat, then wash them clean. We'll roast them to eat later."

Su Yi assigned tasks, asking Zhang Qing and the others to help.

"This is about to be a meat feast!"

Zhang Qing, Liu Ji, and the others swallowed their saliva in surprise, only then realizing that Su Yi was planning to have a meat feast.

This is the old lair of Wolf-headed Demon Bats and it's not too far from the water source.

There is a gushing spring nearby and the sound of a mountain stream.

Xu Jiahui, Wang Fan and the others worked together to pluck and scale the animal fur and clean the meat.

The feathers on the wings of the Red Flame Demon Eagle are thick and sturdy, making them difficult to pluck.

The scales on the meat of the Eight-winged Demon Python are even harder to clean, extremely hard and sharp, requiring careful handling.

Su Yi tinkered from the space bag on the sidelines, then pulled out some jars and bottles containing oil, salt, vinegar, and sauce from the amazed looks of Situ Muyang, as well as the Dark Golden Demon Falcon and the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats who were standing beside him.

"Is this guy always ready to eat demon beasts?"

Situ Muyang was amazed and looked at Su Yi's well-prepared appearance, as if he was ready to barbecue demon beasts at any time. This guy is too fierce.

The leaders of the Dark Golden Demon Falcons and the Wolf-headed Demon Bats are even more awe-inspiring. Aren't they the ones who usually prey on humans?

However, their lord in front of them seems to be not a normal human being. It's completely reversed, always ready to eat demon beasts.

After making the preparations, finally, the Red Flame Demon Eagle's wings and the Eight-winged Demon Python's meat were plucked and scaled, and were neatly presented to Su Yi.

Concentrating the fire attribute elemental energy into flames, Su Yi seriously barbecued the meat using fire.

Not long after, the wings of the Red Flame Demon Eagle and the meat of the Eight-winged Demon Python were filled with oil and made a "sizzling" sound. The aroma of the meat was delicious, with a golden luster, and even a radiance emanating, which made people drool.

This is the meat of the demonic beasts that belong to the fifth level of the Demonic Spirit Realm. It can definitely be considered a treasure. Their blood and flesh contain energy. If consumed, it is enough to benefit and greatly enhance one's cultivation.

Zhang Qing, Liu Ji, Wang Fan, and others were initially curious and stood aside watching Su Yi barbecue. In the end, after smelling the aroma and looking at the mouth-watering roasted meat, even their saliva started to flow.

The meat of demon beasts from the fifth level of the Demonic Spirit Realm is something they can't even dream of eating on a regular basis. This level of demon beasts is not something that can be eaten by just anyone.

"So fragrant!"

Xu Jiahui and Situ Muyang were also watching on the side the whole time. They were initially curious and amazed, but at this moment, they couldn't help but drool a little.

At this moment, even if it's not just Xu Jiahui and Situ Muyang, but also the Dark Golden Demon Falcon and the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats standing aside, all of them are secretly swallowing saliva.

This is not just any meat, it is the meat from the Eight-winged Demon Python and the Red Flame Demon Eagle, which are super delicious.

Chapter 460: "Come Over and Eat With Me!"

"Bring me that pig's head and I'll help you roast it, and I'll reward you for it."

Looking at the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats and the Dark Golden Demon Falcon, Su Yi spoke up, commenting that one of the heads of the Two-headed Demon Mane was too unsightly and may cause psychological trauma if consumed, but it could still be given to the Dark Golden Demon Falcon and the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

Upon hearing this, the Dark Golden Demon Falcon immediately went and grabbed the head of the Two-headed Demon Mane and handed it over to Su Yi with a look of anticipation and awe on its face.

This One Head of the Two-headed Demon Mane is not small, weighing at least 200 catties, it is not easy to put it up for roasting.

However, Su Yi still roasted the head of the Two-headed Demon Mane carefully, even though he had no intention of eating it. This was the minimum respect for food.

Finally, the roasted meat was cooked to perfection, with the aroma of the meat permeating and its gloss enticing, making everyone unable to resist salivating.

"Each of you take half, go wherever you want!"

Su Yi tore open the head of the Two-headed Demon Mane, and with steam and a fragrant scent emanating from it, he threw it to the salivating Dark Golden Demon Falcon and the leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats.

"So fragrant, let me try it first!"

It had been a while since they had a celebration feast, and Su Yi couldn't resist it anymore. He tore off a piece of meat from the Red Flame Demon Eagle's wing and stuffed it directly into his mouth.

The mouth was filled with meaty aroma that wafted in, and it melted in the mouth, leaving a lingering aftertaste and a face of intoxication.

"Mmm, it's really delicious."

Su Yi slightly closed his eyes, as if still reminiscing about the delicacy. No wonder it was the Red Flame Demon Eagle from the fifth level of the Demonic Spirit Realm, the texture of the meat was really different.

Looking at Su Yi's intoxicated expression, Zhang Qing, Liu Ji, Situ Muiyang and others couldn't help but feel a bit nauseous and envious of the obviously delicious appearance.

As cultivators, although their cultivation level was not yet high, they generally didn't need to overeat. Although grains and cereals were good things, they could also produce a lot of impurities in the body for cultivators.

However, this appetite is something that humans are born with.

Especially at this moment, Su Yi is roasting the flesh of a fifth level demon beast from the Demonic Spirit Realm in this way. The aroma and color of the meat is making Zhang Qing, Situ Muiyang and others drool uncontrollably, unable to resist its temptation.

"Come on, all come and eat together."

Su Yi opened his eyes and wolfed down the roasted meat in his hand, shouting at Situ Muiyang, Zhang Qing, Xu Jiahui and others to come and eat together.

"It looks so delicious." Zhang Qing, Liu Ji and others couldn't help themselves long ago and rushed forward together.

Xu Jiahui was not shy either, but compared to Zhang Qing and Liu Ji, she was much more elegant.

Situ Muiyang hesitated, but in the end, he couldn't resist it.

"This is really delicious, it's a heavenly treat!"

And when he took a bite of the roasted meat and swallowed it, the expression on Situ Muiyang's face changed completely. He savored it endlessly, never having tasted meat so delicious.

"If it's delicious, then have some more."

Su Yi's greasy hand patted Situ Muiyang's shoulder without hesitation, appearing very courteous.

Situ Muiyang raised his brows in dissatisfaction, ignoring Su Yi. He then began to relish the food heartily, wolfing it down.

"Roarrrr..."

At this moment, the pitiful Two-headed Demon Mane, Red Flame Demon Eagle, and Eight-winged Demon Python reappeared in a sorry state, looking wretched and miserable.

They came back to deliver Sword-patterned Stones, elixirs, and treasures out of fear that Su Yi might raid their lair. The creatures dared not refuse, for apprehension that the consequences would be dire.

"My wings!"

"My flesh!"

However, upon seeing those individuals in the field eating voraciously, Red Flame Demon Eagle and Eight-winged Demon Python almost collapsed in despair.

They recognized at a glance that the individuals were eating their wings and flesh.

Watching someone eating their own flesh, roasting it with such a tempting aroma, left Eight-winged Demon Python and Red Flame Demon Eagle with a complex array of emotions.

Two-headed Demon Mane also suffered greatly, as it watched one of its heads being gnawed to the bones by the Wolf-headed Demon Bat and Dark Golden Demon Falcon.

Ironclad Griffin, Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, and others trembled at the sight. Although they weren't being eaten, this brutality was still terrifying.

All along, it had been demon beasts eating humans. They had never seen anyone so brutal as to eat them, roasting and devouring their flesh.

"Hoot hoot..."

However, at the same time, as they smelled the aroma, even Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion couldn't help but feel their mouth water and swallow, feeling a strong desire for it.

Eight-winged Demon Python, Red Flame Demon Eagle, and Two-headed Demon Mane were very angry and were eager to fight to the death, but in the end, they all restrained themselves.

They were well aware of the terror of that youth. If they provoked him again, they would only be providing another meal for that brutal young man.

Therefore, the Eight-winged Demon Python, Red Flame Demon Eagle and others obediently handed over their Sword-patterned Stones, elixirs, and some treasures collected in their nests.

Su Yi was very satisfied and put the treasures into the space bag. With a smile on his face and a mouthful of oil stains, he said to Red Flame Demon Eagle, Eight-winged Demon Python and others, "You have worked hard. Would you like to eat something with me?"

"No, I refuse!"

The Eight-winged Demon Python shook its head in beast language, immediately retreated in panic. Looking at the way these humans wolfed down the food, it was worried that if there was not enough meat for them to eat, it would be unlucky.

The Silver Crystal Poisonous Scorpion, Two-headed Demon Mane and others dared not linger, wishing to leave as soon as possible.

What if this ferocious teenager wants to change his taste and eat their roasted meat? What should they do?

"Eat, but don't waste it."

Su Yi continued to wolf down the food, not only because the taste of these demon beast meats was good, but also because the flesh and blood contained energy that could be absorbed by eating more and refined for his own use.

Immediately, these people gathered around the old path in the dark, feasting voraciously and greasily.

The leader of the Wolf-headed Demon Bats had long finished eating, while the Dark Golden Demon Falcon watched on, deeply moved. Its fierce and complex gaze questioned if its master was truly human, as his brutality exceeded even that of a demon beast.

After more than half an hour, several dozen pounds of Eight-winged Demon Python meat and Red Flame Demon Eagle wings were completely consumed by the group, and they burped with satisfaction and happiness on their faces.

"It's so delicious, very flavorful."

Situ Muiyang was happy to eat, and suddenly he felt that being with Su Yi, this ferocious guy, was becoming more and more interesting.

"Breathe and meditate, we'll set off again tomorrow!"

Su Yi patted his round belly and let out a satisfied burp.

In a great battle, although it seemed that Su Yi had easily defeated several ferocious demon beasts, he knew best that he had constantly used all his skills and tricks to fight quickly and decisively, causing him to be almost exhausted. Now that he had eaten so much demon beast meat, it was time for him to breathe and meditate, refining it for his own use.

Soon, several figures sat cross-legged on the ground, breathing and cultivating their skills, gradually being enveloped in a bright light.

This is the nest of the Wolf-headed Demon Bat. The heads of the surrounding demon beasts, such as the Eight-winged Demon Python, have already been brutally defeated and gone. Therefore, everyone doesn't need to worry about anything.

Soon, several figures were completely enveloped in a bright light, radiating a dazzling aura and emanating energy fluctuations.

At night, everywhere was silent and the moon and stars shone dimly, giving rise to an inexplicably oppressive atmosphere.

In the vast terrain, surrounded by towering trees and giant rocks, many figures appeared at this moment, all of them looking very disheveled.
