

The God of Sky and Earth

Chapter 5: Go fk yourself

At the moment the Fifth Chamberlain finished his words, a faint voice traveled through the air and a young man appeared in front of Wan Er, cold air surrounded him.

The young man's cold expression could not hide his sharp facial features. Under his sword-shaped eyebrows, his black eyes looked misty, but also showed an indescribable sense of sharpness. He had an air of maturity unlike his age, but it did not make him seem like an old man. Ferocity within a cool-headed mind, it was a presence that was hard to explain.

This presence was a bit prideful, and a bit demonic. It seemed to come from within his bones as if it brought with them a tint of arrogance. If one had just glanced at him, there seemed to be no pressure coming from him, but if you looked a little longer, you would find out that involuntarily you would start trembling where you stood.

The one who came out was Su Yi. He had just tidied up himself when he heard the noises outside. With his sharp intuition, he already had an idea of what was happening.

Young- Young Master Su Yi!

A few servants who saw the young man, who seemed to appear from out of nowhere, started shivering.

Even if the Young Master had not been around for 3 years and came back pathetically, but in the past, no one dared to provoke or offend him. All those who saw him would keep their distance out of fear. It may have been 3 years, but the trauma still lingered.

And now the servants were watching the young man in front of them closely. Was this really the pathetic good-for-nothing Young Master in the rumors? Donning a blue robe, black engravings on his sleeves with not a speck of dirt on his clothes. His hair swayed ever so slightly in the wind. He stood perfectly upright and proud, unlike his skinny-looking figure. He was just like a sharp blade, hidden within an unimaginable toughness and strength.

This kind of youth, no matter how the servants thought, they could not make him out to be the trash in the rumors.

Looking at the Su Yi now, Wan Er was also slightly dazed. She had a feeling that something in the Young Master was different than three years ago.

Young Master Su Yi, the Fifth Chamberlain and the rest-

But immediately, Wan Er started becoming tense. She knew that this person was a not an easy foe. She had heard that he was almost becoming a true cultivator.

Furthermore, she had also heard that the Fifth Chamberlain had a backer. With the Young Masters current position in the Su Family, he would not be able to gain any favors from others. Wan Er started worrying in her heart.

No need to worry. Come tell me, for the past few years, did this dog of a slave bully you?

Seeing Wan Er's once soft hands, now thick and hardened, the expensive goods in his courtyard had also vanished without a trace, Su Yi could easily imagine what kind of life Wan Er had lived over the past three years.

Young Master Su Yi, I am fine, but the goods in the courtyard have all been taken away by the Fifth Chamberlain and his followers. Wan Er is so useless. Wan Er could not protect Young Master Su Yi's items. Wan Er whispered, her face full of self-blame.

For these three years, have your salary also been deducted quite a bit by this dog?

The physical objects in the courtyard, Su Yi did not care even a bit about them. He thought about how he had always treated Wan Er as his younger sister. She had also lived a good life with good clothes, and good food. How could the lifestyle of the other maids and servants ever compare to her lifestyle?

But looking at the Wan Er now, all she wore were shabby clothes. The Su Family had always paid their servants well. The numerous benefits they got were the few of the best in the city. Su Yi knew that there was definitely someone who had purposely deducted Wan Er's salary, and the Fifth Chamberlain was in charge of her salary.

Salary, I-

Wan Er started talking but then stopped. Looking at Su Yi's gaze as if she had seen a source of might, she gathered her courage and said, The Fifth Chamberlain had said that since I was not registered as a servant, I have no salary. If I do not follow him, then he would chase me out of the house.

Su Yi's eyes started becoming scary. He originally thought that Wan Er only had most of her salary deducted, never had he imagined that these dogs would be so brave to actually not even give her a single cent, and had even plotted to obtain Wan Er.

It had been three years while not a single cent had been given to her and she had also been bullied by numerous people. Su Yi could not think how this delicate little girl in front of him survived these three years.

Thinking until here, Su Yi's heart was shattered.

Su Yi had never treated Wan Er as his own personal maid. In his heart, Wan Er had always been his younger sister. *R*read latest chapters at n/ov\(e\)lbin\(.\)co/mlbin(.)co/m)

And for the past three years, Wan Er was actually bullied to such an extent!

You dog of a slave!

Su Yi turned and stared at the Fifth Chamberlain. His eyes were now full of darkness, like staring into two abysses. His entire body exuded this kind of cold and sharp presence.

This presence sent a shiver down the Fifth Chamberlains spine, turning his body cold.

But soon afterward, the Fifth Chamberlain clenched his teeth and his face fell.

All these years, he had a huge backing and as the Fifth Chamberlain, some people of the Su Family will even greet him when they met him. When had he ever been insulted like this? Scolded by someone as if he was a dog.

The Su Yi in front of him was the Young Master. That was correct, but the present was nowhere like the past.

Su Yi, dont you be too arrogant. I have come today to notify you that the family may want to take back this yard, you-

Slap! Slap!

The Fifth Chamberlain had not even finished his words when a crisp clear sound of a slap came from his cheeks. A red swollen print of a palm was stamped on half of his face. There was some blood in his mouth and he spat a few teeth out.

The servants present there were shocked. They could not even see clearly what had just happened.

You dare to hit me?!

The Fifth Chamberlain was also shocked. His face froze. He seemed to be unable to believe what had just happened.

Slap!

Su Yi once again threw another slap over. The crisp clear sound answered his question. The other side of the Fifth Chamberlains face grew red and swollen, strands of blood flowing out of his mouth.

You trash! You dare hit me? Do you think that I do not dare to teach you a lesson!

With shock and anger mixed together, the Fifth Chamberlain broke out of his daze. He made his decision. He raised his arm and threw a merciless punch towards Su Yi's chest.

The Fifth Chamberlain's punch was without a doubt, strong.

As the Su Family's chamberlain, he may be just a servant, but he also had the right to cultivate.

The Fifth Chamberlain's age was also not too old, just a little over 30 and he had already completed the Foundation Building Stage. Once he enters the Soul Yuan Realm in the near future, his position in the Su Family would become even higher.

Looking at the Fifth Chamberlain's terrifying punch, the corner of Su Yi's eyes just twitched slightly. He stepped to the left. He inhaled and his chest sank in and then he just twisted his waist.

With a whoosh, the Fifth Chamberlain's fist missed Su Yi's chest slightly with the sound of the air exploding.

Everything was just as Su Yi had expected. His face did not change one bit. His wrist suddenly shook fiercely, his five fingers bent, and he grabbed onto the Fifth Chamberlain's waist.

At that instant, the Fifth Chamberlain who was still confused about how Su Yi dodged his fist felt something creep up his spine. A feeling that he was in extreme danger crept out of his heart.

Crack! Crack!

There were sounds of bones breaking followed by the cry of anguish from the Fifth Chamberlain. It was like he had felt the most unbearable pain. His entire body just fell on the floor, spasming.

Everything had happened in a flash!

Su Yi's clutch had just snapped clean a few of the Fifth Chamberlain's ribs near his waist.

The Fifth Chamberlain was definitely not weak. Defeating one or two tigers and wolves would be no problem for him, but now in front of Su Yi, he was nothing. His ribs were broken so easily by Su Yi.

At the same time, Su Yi lunged onto the Fifth Chamberlain without a sound. That kind face full of perseverance turned into a lion who had bared his fangs. Su Yi's fist landed straight on the Fifth Chamberlain's face.

Bang!

It was way too quick. As the Fifth Chamberlain was crying out in pain, half his face seems to have been shattered by the punch. The bones had already been dented in and his face looked like it had been twisted. He spat out mouthfuls of blood and looked utterly pathetic and hideous.

Go fk yourself! How could Wan Er ever be bullied by the likes of you, a dog!

You do not even listen to your Master. Today I will teach you how to be a proper slave!

Bang!

Bang!

Su Yi was furious. Punches and kicks rained down upon the Fifth Chamberlain's body. He picked up a brick on the floor and without any pity or mercy, slammed it onto the Fifth Chamberlain in a fit of rage.

Aah!

The pitiful Fifth Chamberlain continued crying out in anguish. After a few more hits he stopped crying. His face had already been battered to the point where crimson red blood covered him. His face became unrecognizable. The bones all over his body kept on creaking.

You dog! Do you still want Wan Er to follow you?

Su Yi was enraged. His final blow with the brick was ruthlessly smashed in between the Fifth Chamberlain's thighs. In a blink of an eye, that area became mashed together with blood and flesh. The Fifth Chamberlain's third leg was directly turned into mashed meat. The sight was so awful that one could not bear to see it.

Aah!

After the Fifth Chamberlain cried out in anguish for one last time, his eyes filled with fear blacked out and he fainted.

Only after that did Su Yi throw the brick in his hand to the side. He clapped his hands. His expression was one which would make another freeze with fear.

The servants could not stop trembling, their eyes full of blatant fear.

The young man in front of them was already calm now but the feeling they got was otherwise, which made their hearts palpitate and their hairs stand on their ends.

Drag this slave away and tell those who should be told, the salary that should have been Wan Ers shall be given back to her a hundred-fold! Also, three days later, if my yard is still missing even just a single piece of paper, I do not care whether hes innocent or not, at that time all those who are related to this incident shall meet a similar end as this dog in front of you!

Su Yi hollered. This time he really was furious.

Even just a few lowly slaves dared to be so arrogant in front of him. Looks like, in the past three years, the Su Family had really changed quite a bit. There was a need to tell everyone that he wasnt dead, that he had already returned to the Su Family.

After being stunned for a few moments, the servants then woke up from Su Yis shout. As their bodies trembled and shook, they carried the completely unconscious Fifth Chamberlain and ran away in a panic.

Chapter 6: Preparing to enter Foundation Building Stage

Young Master Su Yi!

Wan Er was a bit sluggish as she was a bit dumbfounded and also slightly scared.

It is all fine now. I will not allow anyone to bully you in the future.

Su Yi turned around. The scary and cold expression on his face disappeared. He looked at the fragile little girl in front of him and only felt sorry for her.

Young Master I am fine, but you have beaten up the Fifth Chamberlain. I am afraid that this will cause some problems. You should not have done that.

Wan Er was full of concern. She had heard that the Fifth Chamberlain had backing from someone.

Su Yi felt even sorrier. At this moment the little girl was still only thinking about him. He smiled and said, Dont you forget, no matter what I become, I am still the Young Master of the Su Family. Beating up a measly slave is just a small matter. You should tidy up the place. I will go and visit grandfather.

Okay. Hurry up and go see the Old Master. With the Old Master around, no one would dare harm you.

Wan Er only felt slightly relieved after hearing Su Yis words. She thought that Su Yi was going to look for the Old Master for protection. With the Old Master around, naturally, there was nothing to worry about.

Su Yi smiled bitterly and did not say more. Returning to the Su Family, it was a natural thing to look for the grandfather who loved him the most.

From the moment he was born, Su Yi already had his memories. He brought his memories with him when he reincarnated.

Su Yi remembered that not long after he was born, his mother had left him. But when his mother left him, the tears and reluctance in his mothers eyes had always been engraved in his heart.

Su Yi, please forgive your father. The greatest thing I can give you is that one day I would find and bring back your mother. When you grow up, you will understand my actions!

Not long after, his father left such words and had also disappeared.

15 years had passed. There was no contact with him. No one knew if he was alive or dead.

From when he was young, Su Yi had never blamed his father and mother and had also never asked about his parents.

The tears and grief his mother had when she left, the perseverance and pain his father felt when he left, Su Yi was very clear that he was not abandoned. If something big did not happen, his parents would not have left him.

Although he brought the memories of his past life when he reincarnated, Su Yi had integrated into the Su Family very early on and accepted reality.

The past life was over. Since he had the chance to be reborn, he could not waste this chance.

Even since young, in the Su Family, Su Yi loved his grandfather the most.

Three years ago, it was also his grandfather Su Yun Tian who showed up and suppressed the mess he had caused.

Even though he did not say it, Su Yi had always felt guilty in his heart.

Su Yi appeared in the Su Estate. As he walked along, he had attracted the eyes of many and raised quite a commotions.

Young Master Su Yi, thank god you have finally returned.

When the old servant who always followed Su Yun Tian saw Su Yi, he was very happy, his face full of kindness.

This old mans face may be full of wrinkles but the light in his eyes was still strangely clear.

Su Yi did not feel anything back then, but now he could tell that this old servant was not a simple man.

Soon after, the old servant told Su Yi that his grandfather went into Closed Door Cultivation a month ago.

Young Master Su Yi, it is good that you are back. Please rest first in the estate while you wait, the old servant said.

Fine.

Su Yi nodded and could only leave.

Anyways, it is also about time. Then I shall first prepare to enter the Foundation Building Stage!

Leaving the yard, Su Yi raised his eyes and whispered, I have prepared for so long. It is about time for me to enter the Foundation Building stage. Quite a bit of time has already been wasted.

Preparing to enter the Foundation Building stage, Su Yi did not dare to be careless. He needed to first go to Vast Martial Pavilion.

The Su Family had the Vast Academics Pavilion and the Vast Martial Pavilion.

Vast Martial Pavilion. It was the place where disciples of the Su Family went to learn the language and culture.

Even though the martial way flourished in this world and martial arts came first, but people still respected culture and languages.

If there was no foundation in culture and languages, then even if you have obtained a very deep and good cultivation technique or martial arts technique, sadly you would still be unable to understand them.

So, in some of the big families, they were very strict with the disciples in this area. Su Family was no exception.

Vast Martial Pavilion. It was the place which stored everything that was related to cultivating, including techniques, pill recipes, etc. It was also the place where Su Yi used to frequently visit in the past.

Su Estate inner courtyard. Houses were everywhere, each hugging the terrain. Though they were not arranged neatly, there was a unique beauty which made the entire inner courtyard look like it was a piece of natural artwork.

Su Wu was hurt by that brat personally?

At a desolate hall in a corner of the courtyard, a gorgeous woman looked at the unconscious Fifth Chamberlain lying on the floor.

Yes. It was personally done by Young Master Su Yi!

A young servant still had fear lingering in his heart. His head was lowered and did not dare look at the gorgeous woman. He gathered his courage and said, Young Master Su Yi had even said, tell those who should be told. The salary that we owed Wan Er must be returned a hundredfold, nothing should be missing from his yard, not even a single piece of paper! if I do not do it in three days then at that time, all those who were related to the incident, they would meet-

They would meet what? The woman said grimly.

They would meet the same end as the Fifth Chamberlain!

The young servant bit his teeth and said. Looking at the mess of meat and blood in between the legs of the now unconscious Fifth Chamberlain, he could not resist shivering.

The Fifth Chamberlain can be considered crippled. When the time comes and the Young Master comes looking for them to settle the score, no one would be able to escape.

What a bold statement. Does he really think nothing has changed? There was coldness in the woman's eyes.

Madam, what should we do now? Young Master Su Yi has already said, if we do not return the items, then at that time we would-

The young servant was scared out of his wits. He could not offend the woman in front of him. She was the sister-in-law of the Acting Head of the House, the biological sister of the wife of the Acting Head of the House, as well as the daughter of the Ninth High Elder. All these years, the good stuff from Su Yi's yard all ended up in her hands.

But Young Master Su Yi was the same. He also could not afford to offend him. The sight from not long ago caused fear to linger in his heart and made him shake.

Trash, all trash. Why should we fear that piece of trash? The Old Master is still in a retreat! Even if he knew about this matter, he would also not be able to protect that jinx.

So what if he has returned? He survived for three years in the Forest of Demons, but if he has not succeeded in entering the Foundation Building Stage, the outcome will still be the same. He would still have to be exiled from the city. This time, no one can protect him. A piece of trash, what can he do to me?

The woman's face was gloomy. She stared at the servant and said Carry Su Wu down. For that trash, there will be someone to deal with him. You need not worry!

Yes, Madam, The young servant trembled as he carried off the unconscious Su Wu.

Once the servant had left, a handsome young man walked out from the inner hall. Under his long eyebrows were a pair of narrow long eyes, his face cold.

Little Wei, has that brat really not enter the Foundation Building Stage? No matter what, Su Wu has already completed the Foundation Building Stage and he was hurt to such an extent, When the woman saw the young man, her face let out a smile, and some shock.

I can confirm that he has not completed the Foundation Building Stage. But he is a bit special. Being able to live in the Forest of Demons for three years, he should have some skills, Su Wei said.

Agreed. How could that piece of trash ever be able to succeed in entering the Foundation Building Stage? When the time comes, he will surely be exiled out the city. This time, not even the Old Master can protect him! The woman smiled coldly. As long as that jinx was exiled out of the city, there will be no one left in the Su Family that can cause her to worry.

Two days later, I will defeat him with my own hands!

Su Wei's eyes shined. If he was able to defeat the brat in front of the entire Su Family and personally force that brat to be stepped by him under his feet, only then will he be able to prove that it is he, Su Wei, who is the future of the Su Family and the one who they should all value and favor.

Vast Martial Pavilion. Su Yi did not require a pass to enter it. This was the special right given to him by the Old Master.

Unlike other disciples of the Su Family, if they want to enter the Vast Martial Pavilion, it was not all an easy thing to do.

But coming to the Vast Martial Pavilion, Su Yi did not come to search for techniques. Rather he came to look for materials related to the Foundation Building Stage since he had already decided to start entering the stage, then he must prepare appropriately.

After staying in the Vast Martial Pavilion for four hours, it was almost dusk, only then did Su Yi leave the Vast Martial Pavilion.

Young Master Su Yi, you really have returned!

Just as he walked out of the Vast Martial Pavilion, a big guard who looked around 40 years old, his body packed with muscles was waiting near the entrance.

The big man was observing Su Yi, looking a bit surprised.

This was not the depressed figure that was traveling through the Su Family like wildfire, instead, with his accumulated experience of bringing troops out to fight all year round, the young man in front of him gave him an indescribable feeling.

Uncle Han, is there something for me?

Su Yi knew Su Bai Han. He was always the leader of the Su Family's guards. Even though he was a member of the branch family, but his position in the Su Family was not at all low. He was also someone who the Old Master had praised. When Su Yi was young, Su Bai Han had even carried him before.

Hence Su Yi was always very polite and respectful when facing Su Bai Han.

There is some trouble. Mo Bu Fan, He San, Song Wu Qiu have brought quite a few people and have blocked the main gate. They say that they want to meet Young Master.

Su Bai Han was very polite, but in fact, the truth was that Mo Bu Fan, Song Wu Qiu, and He San had brought quite a few young masters from different families in the city and were currently blocking the main gate, shouting out that they wanted to kill Su Yi.

Mo Bu Fan and the lot of them were young, but their identities were not simple.

The High Elders of the Su Family chose to remain silent at this point in time. No one wanted to intervene in Su Yi's matter.

The Old Master was also in Closed Door Cultivation, hence Su Bai Han had no choice but to look for Su Yi personally.

They can block the main gate all they want, I do not have the time to bother with those little kids. Sorry to trouble Uncle Han, but can you pass on the message that after two days, once I have finished my work, I shall go and look for them.

After finishing what he said, Su Yi left the place calmly.

In any case, he had lived for 20 years in his previous life. Su Yi was too lazy to bother with a few little kids.

Looking at Su Yi leaving, Su Bai Han was also bewildered. This Young Master was way too shameless.

In Su Bai Hans eyes, Su Yi returned to the Su Estate without any trace and at this time, he would not meet Mo Bu Fan and the rest and he had said it in such a nice fashion. It was obvious that he was intending to hide in the Su Estate and not go out.

Why is his personality so different from his father? is he really his fathers biological son?

Looking at Su Yis back, Su Bai Han felt so helpless. He could only smile bitterly. The father of this Young Master may have been young back then, but he was already such a great person. But as for the personality of this Young Master in front of him since young, he could not say much more
