Chapter 701: The King-Grade Soul

In a corner of the palace hall, several disciples of Yutian Palace were there, pushing three old and worn stone tables into place from the side.

The square tables stood at waist height, about half a zhang in length, placed respectively in front and behind the three Deputy Palace Masters.

Following that, several disciples of Yutian Palace bowed and respectfully stepped back to the side.

In the hands of the three Deputy Palace Masters, each of them then placed a small square stone, about the size of a baby, onto the stone table.

They called it a square stone, but it was pure white like jade, sparkling and crystal clear, just like a piece of crystal. On its surface were intricate patterns of symbols that seemed to come alive.

A gentle and elusive aura emanated from it, giving one the sensation that even their soul would be stirred by its presence, bringing a profound sense of enjoyment.

"This is the Soul Measuring Heavenly Crystal. When it is time for the testing, you should relax your whole body and mind. Do not resist it. This kind of testing will not harm you even the slightest bit. It simply measures the quality of your soul's level."

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding took the lead and spoke to the first young disciple of Tianxuan Sect in front of him, saying, "Take three big steps forward and state your name, age, and sect. Others, please don't interrupt later!"

Upon hearing this, the young disciple of Tianxuan Sect stepped forward, his eyes filled with a hint of nervousness but more importantly, excitement. With confidence in his stride, he took three big steps and respectfully bowed to Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, saying, "I am Zhao Chuannan, a disciple of Tianxuan Sect, exactly twenty years old. It's an honor to meet you, Palace Master!"

"Um, let's begin the test!"

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding nodded, his gaze gentle as magical hand seals started to form in his hands. His robes rustled slightly, and his body began to emanate waves of energy.

On the side, Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu also began to move, forming hand seals, and in front of him stood a young disciple of Tianxuan Sect.

As Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu's final hand seal landed, a radiant glow enveloped his palm, instantly touching the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone in front of him.

"Splash..."

Suddenly, the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone began to emit a gentle glow from its surface. The light grew brighter and brighter, dazzling and pristine, while the mysterious runes upon it shimmered incessantly, releasing a profound aura.

Finally, a brilliant light emerged, accompanied by fluctuations of energy. It enveloped the young man as if it were a radiant curtain descending upon him.

And then the radiance on this curtain of light, like a cocoon of light, completely enshrouded the young man within it.

The dazzling light made it impossible for the young man to look directly at it, causing him to squint slightly.

"Boom!"

On the side, in front of Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, stood a young man named Zhao Chuannan from the Tianxuan Sect. At this moment, he too was enveloped in the same cocoon of light.

A faint, elusive light shimmered like a serpentine wave, flowing into Zhao Chuannan's forehead.

As the shimmering light flowed into Zhao Chuannan's forehead, suddenly, within his brow, there began to ripple an invisible wave of motion. It was a kind of soulful tremor.

And then, upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, there suddenly flickered a brilliant arc, as if it contained the likeness of lightning and thunder.

Finally, above the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, two glowing halos, resembling moons, appeared. Five arcs of light also shimmered intensely upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone.

Upon seeing the five arcs of light and the two glowing halos, Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding nodded and said, "Zhao Chuannan, a Rank 2 Intermediate Artifact Refiner, possessing a King Grade soul level. Having passed the examination, come forward, imprint your blood as an oath, and engrave the Yutian Palace registration emblem on you."

As Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding's words echoed, a disciple from Yutian Palace beside the hall was also recording the results of the examination.

The light on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone gradually dimmed and returned to a state of calmness.

"Thank you, Palace Master Yun Ding," she said with gratitude.

Zhao Chuannan opened his eyes, his expression filled with delight. Not every alchemist could pass the examination of Yutian Palace, especially not someone with a remarkable King Grade soul like him. Overjoyed, he eagerly approached to have the emblem of Yutian Palace's level engraved.

In the hands of Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, a bronze emblem appeared. It had two corners and started to engrave the badge for the disciple.

"Kingly soul, well done, well done."

Upon hearing the words of Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, Elder Jian Wannian of Tianxuan Sect couldn't help but show a faint smile. The power of a King Grade soul was indeed impressive.

"Wu Yu, a highly skilled alchemist at the second rank, possessing a noble and powerful soul, has passed the examination."

From the side, the gentle voice of Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu could be heard, as he announced that the young alchemist had also passed the examination.

The young man's face lit up with joy, his happiness knew no bounds.

Looking at these two individuals passing the examination, both possessing King Grade souls, many young disciples couldn't help but envy them.

"A second-grade high-ranking alchemist, with a King Grade soul level, very impressive, very impressive." Elder Jian Wannian's expression was filled with joy, appearing quite proud.

"Second-grade Weaponsmith, Alchemist, Intermediate Level, High Level, King Grade soul..."

As for these things, Su Yi secretly pondered, his face filled with confusion, completely unable to understand.

"Just look at it, later you can check calmly. I will tell you later. As for the results of those two, at best they are just ordinary."

Xi Wuqing's message whispered into Su Yi's ears, as if sensing Su Yi's confusion.

"Just ordinary stuff..."

Su Yi glanced sideways at Xi Wuqing, clearly not believing his words. This guy just had high standards, that's all. Looking at Jian Wannian's expression, it was clear that he possessed a soul of King Grade.

"Come up for testing, please. Tell us your name, age, so we can estimate your level."

Just as Su Yi was muttering to himself, the words of Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan finally came. The Soul Tamer testing was about to begin.

"Liu Xiaohu, from the Tianxuan Sect, is twenty years old this year."

The young man dressed in a robe, who was standing first in line, immediately stepped forward to Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan. He had a confident expression on his face.

"Um, let's begin the testing now. Just relax yourself, the testing won't harm you at all."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan spoke up, and his handprint began to solidify. It was just like the testing done by alchemists and craftsmen. Above the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone in front of him, a radiance started to spread, growing brighter and more dazzling. Finally, it enveloped Liu Xiaohu like a cocoon of light.

Under the dazzling light, Liu Xiaohu's eyes gently closed, and there was a ripple of movement at the center of his forehead.

In that instant, Jian Wannian's gaze immediately fell upon Liu Xiaohu, filled with attention. It seemed that he held great expectations for Liu Xiaohu, and his expression grew subtly nervous.

The gazes of Bai Mingshan and Elder Suyun also met each other's eyes.

After all, Soul Tamers are somewhat different compared to alchemists and craftsmen. They attract special attention.

In front of Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone shimmered with increasingly radiant light. Even the stone itself trembled slightly, flashing dazzling electric arcs, as if there were bursts of thunder and lightning contained within.

Finally, on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, three crescent-shaped glows appeared, and six dazzling electric arcs sparkled intensely on the stone.

"Roarrrr..."

Faintly, upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, there also emanated roars of beasts, accompanied by a tremendous surge of energy that resonated throughout the hall, causing quite a commotion.

Chapter 702: The Quasi Heavenly Grade Soul!

When Guan Lan, the Deputy Palace Master of Yutian Palace, laid eyes upon the six arcs of electricity and the three radiant lunar halos, her gaze filled with utmost admiration as she nodded and said, "Liu Xiaohu, a Soul Tamer at the Initial Stage of the Third Grade, possessing an Emperor Grade soul. After the examination, step forward and shed blood as a pledge, using your soul as proof, and imprint the emblem of registration for Yutian Palace."

"Hahaha..."

Jian Wannian burst into laughter, feeling incredibly proud. Liu Xiaohu had definitely lived up to his expectations.

Bai Mingshan's gaze flickered as he observed Liu Xiaohu. At such a young age, Liu Xiaohu was already an Emperor Grade Soul Tamer at the Initial Stage of the Third Grade. This was truly a rare sight, a remarkable talent that was, in a sense, overshadowed by the influence of Tianxuan Sect. Bai Mingshan couldn't help but feel a slight unease in his heart.

Elder Suyun also felt quite shaken in his heart. The Emperor Grade soul was truly extraordinary. If everything went smoothly, in a few decades, Tianxuan Sect would gain another powerful Soul Tamer.

Many other young disciples were deeply shocked and filled with envy. The Emperor Grade level of soul, what an incredible gift of talent it was.

"Thank you, Palace Master Guan Lan."

As everything settled down, Liu Xiaohu opened his eyes and respectfully greeted Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, a look of pride and arrogance gleaming in his eyes.

The Emperor Grade level of soul, as he had expected, gave him confidence in his own talent. In the upcoming Saint Martial Assembly, he believed that he would have a place of his own, and soon, he would become renowned throughout the Central Region!

"Emperor Grade soul, is it very strong?"

Su Yi still didn't quite understand. Although the mysterious old man at the edge of the cliff had passed on some information to him, he didn't have all of it. He hadn't even looked at these materials within the Divine Sword School. So at this moment, he felt completely lost.

"Thank you, Palace Master Yun Ding," she said gratefully.

"Thank you, Palace Master Yan Lu!"

In the two queues around them, Zhao Chuannan and Wu Yu each received an emblem from Yutian Palace. They joyfully hung it on their shoulders and walked down.

Curiously, Su Yi took a glance and saw that the emblem on Zhao Chuannan's shoulder faintly resembled two horns. It had an antiqued bronze color, with five electric arcs shimmering and fluctuating within.

The emblem on Wu Yu's shoulder was exactly the same, but it shimmered in a silver-white color, also with five radiant electric arcs.

"Next!"

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu spoke up again, and they began to proceed with the examination of the next one.

After a moment, Liu Xiaohu's Emblem of Yutian Palace had also been engraved and he walked forward. However, he still held a deep respect for the young man in the purple silk attire. He then raised his head high, purposely passing by Su Yi. His gaze carried an undisguised sarcasm, and he let out a faint cold snort from his throat, anticipating how this young man would embarrass himself later.

"Let's begin the next one!"

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan spoke up and proceeded with the examination of the next one.

"The disciple Gong Qianxing of Tianxuan Sect greeted the Palace Master. He is twenty years old this year. Thank you, Palace Master Guan Lan, for your help."

A young man in a deep purple robe from Tianxuan Sect took a few steps forward. His expression remained calm, and his profound features were enchanting, captivating those around him. He possessed an invisible aura that emanated from within.

Su Yi also paid attention, always feeling that this young man was extraordinary.

"Okay, let's begin."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan had such keen eyesight. He looked at Gong Qianxing with a gentle smile on his face, his admiration showing even before he had conducted any assessment.

Following the usual procedure, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan began to assess Gong Qianxing.

And at this moment, Jian Wannian's expression suddenly became incredibly focused. He stared unwaveringly at the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, his eyes filled with even more nervousness compared to Liu Xiaohu's assessment.

Only Jian Wannian knew that Liu Xiaohu was one of the most important disciples of the Tianxuan Sect and the future of the sect.

But this time, the true heart of the Tianxuan Sect was focused on the young man before them, who was currently undergoing a Soul Tamer assessment.

Gong Qianxing, that was the true pinnacle of the young generation of the Tianxuan Sect, the true future of the Tianxuan Sect!

A shimmering cocoon enveloped Gong Qianxing, his eyes tightly shut. His robes rustled gently, and from the center of his forehead, a stirring of his soul began to slowly ripple outwards.

"Boom!"

Almost at the same time, the entire hall inexplicably trembled fiercely.

This kind of trembling, unlike any other, not only caused the entire hall to tremble, but also made everyone's hearts tremble inexplicably, as if their souls were also trembling.

"Boom!"

Just as everyone felt this unusual movement, their faces suddenly turned pale. On the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone in front of Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, it began to tremble abruptly, radiating an invisible energy that expanded and shone brightly like a dazzling sun.

At the same time, outside the windows around the hall, the light suddenly dimmed, and the invisible energy of the sky and earth started to ripple.

In the sky, dark clouds gathered, covering the sun and casting a shadow over the land.

"Boom..."

With Yutian Palace as the central point, winds surged, clouds billowed, the world transformed, and dark clouds covered the sky.

"What is going on?"

Feeling this scene, with Yutian Palace at its center, many gazes within the Central Region City were instantly filled with shock, and there were quite a few cries of surprise.

"Roarrrr..."

Inside Yutian Palace, within the divisional palace, in the midst of the detection hall, a thunderous beast roar reverberated. Inside the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, faintly, there were multiple animal shadows emerging.

A dreadful wave of spiritual energy swept through like a raging storm.

With such commotion, it completely concealed the activities of the two young alchemists and craftsmen who were in the process of detection. They had no choice but to stop their examination.

Such astonishing commotion caught the attention and stirred the hearts of Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu and Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding.

Immediately, on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, a dazzling light radiated, and three radiant moon halos appeared. The stone emitted fluctuating waves of lightning, and upon closer inspection, even a faint seventh light could be glimpsed.

Inside the hall, many gazes were filled with astonishment and changed colors. Several young disciples even turned pale with soul-rattling fear.

This was a pure soul pressure, emanating from within the soul.

Even Jian Wannian, Bai Mingshan, and Elder Suyun were affected.

Among the crowd, in this moment, only Su Yi and the woman in the white dress seemed to have been unaffected by the situation. However, their eyes also held an expression of utmost astonishment.

"What a strong soul emanation!"

Su Yi was stunned. This soul emanation was not just strong, it carried an absolute soul pressure. No wonder he had always sensed something extraordinary about Gong Qianxing's aura.

With all the commotion, the entire crowd was astonished. After Jian Wannian's expression changed, he suddenly became extremely proud. He lifted his head high and a look of delight appeared on his face.

Jian Wannian's gaze fell upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone in front of Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan. As he observed the fluctuations on the stone, his heart couldn't help but race. He exclaimed, "As expected, truly as expected! The Tianxuan Sect is about to witness the emergence of an absolute prodigious Soul Tamer!"

Listening to Jian Wannian's words, Bai Mingshan gazed at the fluctuations on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, and his brows slightly furrowed with concern.

On the walls of Central Region City, a tumultuous commotion stirred up, but it didn't last for long. Gradually, it faded away and disappeared.

Outside the testing hall, a gentle glow gradually brightened, and everything scattered like the wind and clouds.

"Gong Qianxing, a Soul Tamer at the Quasi Heavenly Grade, was a third-stage beginner, with a quasi heavenly grade soul!"

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan uttered a few words that carried a hint of astonishment, and they quickly spread, reaching the ears of everyone present.

Chapter 703: Li Qingwei!

Su Yi didn't know what the Quasi Heavenly Grade soul represented, but judging from the expressions on everyone's faces at the moment, it was not difficult to understand that this Quasi Heavenly Grade soul was very powerful and definitely reached a terrifying level.

"The Tianxuan Sect has brought forth many exceptional talents this time. It won't be long before a mighty Soul Tamer, who will reign supreme in the world, emerges from the Tianxuan Sect. Congratulations!"

Elder Suyun said to Jian Wannian, wearing a smile on her face.

"Haha, then I am truly grateful for Elder Suyun's kind words,"

Jian Wannian was not at all polite. A Quasi Heavenly Grade soul level, how rare it was! To possess a soul at the Quasi Heavenly Grade level, it could be confidently said that one was destined to become a powerful Soul Tamer.

"Congratulations, congratulations."

Bai Mingshan felt a hint of dissatisfaction in his heart, but at this moment, he had to force a smile and congratulate them.

"You're welcome," Jian Wannian said with a cheerful heart.

At the testing platform, Gong Qianxing began engraving the emblem, and everyone around couldn't help but admire and envy him in awe.

"Let's continue!"

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu, who were forced to interrupt the testing, resumed with a look of astonishment.

Soon, Gong Qianxing's emblem was engraved, and he bowed to Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan before walking away.

Gong Qianxing stood tall, his expression remained calm, without much fluctuation. His gaze was deep, as if everything around him was serene and undisturbed.

Su Yi observed the emblem that Gong Qianxing was wearing, its golden radiance shimmering. Inside it was a triangular shape, with six dazzling lightning bolts, and a faint appearance of a seventh bolt. It closely resembled the emblem on Xi Wuqing's shoulder.

"Next."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan continued, her eyes still showing a hint of ripples, able to detect a Soul Tamer with a Quasi Heavenly Grade soul. It was indeed a rare find.

"Li Qingwei, a disciple of the Qingyun Sect, has met Palace Master Guan Lan. I am nineteen years old this year. Thank you for your kind attention, Palace Master."

Whispering softly, like a heavenly melody, the graceful lady in her elegant dress took delicate steps forward. She tilted her body gently, with clear, star-like eyes that held a sparkling clarity.

"Li Qingwei... The name sounds quite pleasant..."

Su Yi quietly took note of this name. Just now, under the overwhelming soul pressure emitted by Gong Qianxing, he also sensed the reaction of the woman in front of him. At this moment, there was a faint premonition lingering, perhaps she was yet another terrifying figure.

Bai Mingshan, Jian Wannian, and others turned their attention to the scene. This time, Qingyun Sect was only testing one Soul Tamer, which piqued their curiosity.

"Just relax, everything will be fine."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan nodded, her gaze gentle and smiling, as if she was afraid that Gong Qianxing's extraordinary display just now would put pressure on Li Qingwei and affect her performance.

"I understand," Li Qingwei nodded, her eyes calm and serene.

"Okay, let's begin."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan was secretly a little surprised, feeling that the girl in front of her was not ordinary. Her hand formed seals, and she began to examine.

The testing process was unique in every way, as the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone began to stir. It radiated a dazzling light, forming a cocoon that enveloped Li Qingwei within it.

Under the dazzling light, Li Jiawei's eyes immediately shut tightly.

As Li Jiawei closed her eyes, a gentle wave of soul energy slowly overflowed from within her brow, radiating a faint glow.

And under the overflow of soul energy, the light upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone instantly burst forth. At the same time, the roars of beasts echoed like thunderous rumbles.

"Roarrrr..."

The roar of the beast echoed like thunder, causing the numerous gazes in the hall to flicker. The commotion was truly overwhelming.

"Boom..."

Almost at the same time, the hall trembled, and the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone shook. Outside the window, everything suddenly turned dark, except for the dazzling light shining upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, as bright as the sun.

"Boom, boom..."

Faintly, from an unknown place, there echoed the sound of lightning and thunder.

In the presence of several powerful individuals, including Xi Wuqing and the Green Emperor, their breath immediately became heavy.

Xi Wuqing, the Green Emperor, Bai Mingshan, Jian Wannian, and others were all powerful individuals. In that moment, they were the first to sense the energy stirring within this world.

From within that young, graceful and vibrant figure, a subtle yet powerful soul pressure was slowly spreading and diffusing out.

"Boom..."

With Yutian Palace at its center, the heavens and earth once again fell into darkness. Thick masses of dark clouds gathered, with arcs of lightning flickering in the sky, gradually spreading throughout the entire city.

"What's happening?"

Countless gazes lifted, and someone exclaimed in surprise.

"Did you hear a sound coming from Yutian Palace?"

This was already the second time, and many gazes sensed an aura, all looking towards the direction of Yutian Palace.

"What happened inside?"

Especially those people waiting in line outside Yutian Palace, they could all feel that sudden commotion coming from inside Yutian Palace.

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu's examination, at this moment, had to once again be abruptly interrupted. Their expressions were filled with surprise and astonishment, their eyes shining brightly, pulsating with excitement and anticipation.

The two Deputy Palace Masters, at this moment, tightly clenched their palms in nervousness. Could it be that this time's examination would reveal another extraordinary Soul Tamer?

On the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, a dazzling light radiated, displaying the exact same scenes as Gong Qianxing had just examined.

"It's also a Quasi Heavenly Grade soul!"

Watching the movements on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, Jian Wannian and Bai Mingshan couldn't help but gasp in astonishment. This female disciple of Qingyun Sect possessed a Quasi Heavenly Grade soul, just like them.

At this moment, Elder Suyun's gaze was filled with apprehension. For a Soul Tamer, the quality of one's soul was of utmost importance, akin to a warrior's natural talent. Its significance was unparalleled.

The higher the quality of the soul, the greater the potential for a Soul Tamer.

If Li Qingwei possesses enough soul quality, given enough time and cultivation with the resources of Qingyun Sect, she could become a renowned powerful figure and propel Qingyun Sect further ahead.

In this world, the strong are respected, and it applies to all major powers as well.

As a Soul Tamer, possessing terrifying strength, a powerful Soul Tamer becomes especially important for sects like Qingyun Sect.

In the end, when all major powers compete, to a great extent, they are competing in terms of how many powerful Soul Tamers they have.

"Wow, it seems like it hasn't stopped yet. Could it be...?" Bai Mingshan exclaimed in surprise as the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone continued to make noise.

Upon hearing this, Jian Wannian and several others felt their hearts skip a beat.

Gong Qianxing, who had always appeared calm, was no longer calm at this moment. He looked at the movement on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone and a hint of disbelief and astonishment filled his deep eyes. His gaze became somewhat complicated.

"Will a Heavenly Grade soul really appear?"

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu, and Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, their gazes were fixed on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone that emitted dazzling light and powerful fluctuations. Their hearts couldn't help but beat faster.

Under the gaze of many, Li Qingwei's brow quivered ever so slightly. An unseen and colorless soul began to become transparent, with tiny specks of light. It swiftly darted towards the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, gathering upon it.

Chapter 704: The Half-Step Heavenly Grade!

"Rumble rumble..."

The Soul Measuring Yuan Stone continued to tremble, as if it was about to crack under the immense power of the soul.

With Li Qingwei at the center, her robes fluttering and hair dancing, radiance enveloped her, resembling the Holy Maiden. As a soul storm surged like a hurricane, spreading and impacting, it shook the grand hall.

In an instant, the entire Yutian Palace seemed to tremble, echoing with a resounding "rumble".

At this moment, the people in the inspection hall were astonished to discover a blockage in their vital energy. The souls in their minds were throbbing, and from the depths of their souls, a sense of absolute awe surged forth. Facing that young and graceful figure filled with vitality, they felt an overwhelming desire to worship!

This was a reverence on the level of souls, as the soul encountered the Soul King!

"Boom, boom!"

In the hall, several young disciples immediately felt their legs go weak, and they suddenly collapsed to the ground, pale-faced, with astonished and reverent eyes.

Su Yi's eyes trembled. At this moment, under the imposing aura of the soul, the soul in his mind also began to stir. The Heavenly Yuan Demonic Soul was rippling, as if it was being pulled by some mysterious force, causing it to surge and fluctuate.

The terrifying commotion was astonishing, but it only lasted for a while before coming to a sudden and complete halt, quietly dissolving into calmness.

A gentle stir of the soul rushed back into Li Qingwei's heart.

On the walls of Central Region City, all the commotion had just emerged, lasting longer and becoming more intense compared to the earlier disturbance caused by Gong Qianxing.

"Again, what is happening?"

The wind blew away the clouds, causing many curious gazes within Central Region City. They were unsure of what had happened.

Inside the testing hall, the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone also calmed down.

But the gazes of Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu couldn't calm down for a long time.

Li Qingwei's eyes, as beautiful as stars, opened. Her hair flowed loosely, adding to her extraordinary and mesmerizing charm. She greeted Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan with a polite bow and asked, "I wonder how my test results turned out?"

Upon hearing this, Elder Suyun, Bai Mingshan, Jian Wannian, and others all immediately cast their gaze upon Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan.

Although they had already sensed such commotion and had an idea in their hearts, they were still waiting for Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan's final test results.

"Initial Level Soul Tamer of Heavenly Grade three, a soul on the verge of reaching Heavenly Grade!"

Under the watchful gaze of many, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan took a deep breath, his face filled with astonishment, and spoke out the test results.

"Huff..."

As Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan's words fell, several gasps of astonishment echoed throughout the hall. Bai Mingshan, Jian Wannian, and others all had their eyes wide open and were left speechless, their expressions changing drastically!

"Halfway to Heavenly Grade!" exclaimed.

Xi Wuqing's eyes welled up with astonishment, and he whispered softly, as if deeply shaken.

Gong Qianxing's countenance, with its deep and profound features, underwent a slight change in color.

Halfway to Heavenly Grade, it had already reached a level comparable to Heavenly Grade.

And his Quasi Heavenly Grade, to truly speak of it, was just incredibly close to the level of Heavenly Grade. In comparison, the former clearly had a slight advantage.

Zhao Chuannan's expression didn't look too good. He had always thought that, aside from Gong Qianxing, he had the best talent and aptitude. Little did he know that Li Qingwei from Qingyun Sect had a soul that was so formidable.

"Thank you, Palace Master Guan Lan, for your help."

With a semi-step Heavenly Grade soul, Li Qingwei nodded slightly, her expression lacking much joy. It seemed that she wasn't completely satisfied yet. A true Heavenly Grade soul was her ultimate goal.

"You're welcome, let's prepare to engrave the emblem."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan smiled warmly and said, "Being a Soul Tamer with such exceptional soul talent, at a semi-step Heavenly Grade, it is almost certain that with time, he will achieve greatness surpassing others. It is fortunate for him to be able to personally detect such gifted souls today."

Li Qingwei nodded and stepped forward to engrave the emblem.

"Congratulations, Elder Suyun."

Jian Wannian congratulated Elder Suyun, but deep inside, he felt a trace of jealousy. He had thought that Gong Qianxing was the one with the strongest soul talent in this soul detection, but little did he know that Li Qingwei would turn out to be even stronger.

"Congratulations, Elder Suyun, on Qingyun Sect gaining such a disciple."

Bai Mingshan also politely offered his congratulations, but deep inside, he felt extremely frustrated.

The Tianxuan Sect detected a Quasi Heavenly Grade soul, while the Qingyun Sect detected a Half-Step Heavenly Grade soul. This made him feel a bit discouraged, unable to hold his head up high.

"You two elders are being too polite. The Tianxuan Sect and the Divine Sword School are also full of talented individuals. I believe that the upcoming Saint Martial Assembly, which happens only once, will be particularly lively."

Elder Suyun spoke up, a smile filling her face at this moment. Although a Half-Step Heavenly Grade soul is not a true Heavenly Grade soul, it was still a rare sight to behold.

A true Heavenly Grade soul, how many years would it take for one to appear? The same as Heavenly Grade talent, they were almost only found in legends.

Rumors had it that a true Heavenly Grade soul was almost destined to become a powerful cultivator.

If a Soul Tamer were to possess a Heavenly Grade soul, in due time, they would be able to traverse the world and reach the pinnacle of power!

"I believe that during this Saint Martial Assembly, the Qingyun Sect will shine brightly!"

Jian Wannian spoke up with a slightly sour tone, Li Qingwei, a Soul Tamer with a Heavenly Grade soul, was also at the initial stage of the third-grade. There was no doubt about her strength.

"The Tianxuan Sect is also very powerful, with talented individuals emerging one after another. At the Saint Martial Assembly, it will surely attract attention from all directions."

Elder Suyun spoke with a sincere expression, although she had a clear understanding of Li Qingwei's strength, she sensed that her soul was at the half-step Heavenly Grade level.

However, this level of soul doesn't necessarily completely determine one's combat power.

Even with Tianxuan Sect's Gong Qianxing in front of us, who is also a third-grade initial stage Soul Tamer, it is still unknown who possesses the greater combat power.

Moreover, among other forces, there may also be extraordinary individuals that emerge.

With the exchange of pleasantries, Li Qingwei's emblem has also been engraved. After a graceful bow, she stepped down from the testing platform. The emblem on her shoulder gleamed with a radiant golden hue, shaped like a triangle with six dazzling lightning bolts inside. A faint seventh lightning bolt appeared as if it were about to materialize, more pronounced than the seventh lightning bolt within Xi Wuqing's emblem.

"Half-step Heavenly Grade soul!"

Looking at Li Qingwei, many of the disciples present were filled with admiration and awe. They were deeply moved by her presence, knowing that she was someone they aspired to but could not yet reach.

"Martial Sister Qingwei, you are the most skillful!"

Standing in the alchemist testing team was a joyful young girl of around fourteen or fifteen years old. She was beaming, with her head held high, feeling delighted for her senior martial sister.

Li Qingwei glanced sideways, giving a gentle smile. As she passed by Su Yi, she smiled and nodded gracefully, her eyes sparkling like stars and shining brightly, with no hint of arrogance.

Su Yi also nodded, but at this moment, he felt inexplicably nervous in his heart.

The two people in front seemed to have stronger test results, one outdoing the other. After all, Su Yi was still young at heart. If his own test result turned out to be unsatisfactory later, it would be somewhat embarrassing, wouldn't it?

"Let's move on to the next one!"

After taking a deep breath, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan on the testing platform managed to restrain the calmness in her heart and proceeded to test the next one.

On the side, Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu were both waiting in anticipation. It seemed as though they wanted to pause for a moment before conducting the next test, in order to avoid any further interruptions.

Their previous tests had already been interrupted twice in a row.

"Is it my turn now?"

Su Yi took a deep breath, steadied his mind, and walked forward with determined steps.

Chapter 705: Overestimating One's Abilities!

"Hehe..."

As Su Yi approached, Jian Wannian, who had been feeling displeased, discreetly raised an eyebrow and smirked.

Such a young boy made him extremely displeased, but surprisingly, he was also testing to become a Soul Tamer.

However, with two Soul Tamers possessing exceptional soul talents ahead of him in the testing, it seemed that there might be a moment when the young boy would feel embarrassed.

"Hmph!"

Zhao Chuannan let out a faint cold snort from his throat. Although his limelight had been stolen, how could this young boy in front of him even be compared to him? Arrogant little kid, there would be a moment when he would embarrass himself.

"Do not worry, did you ever have a mountain gate? How old are you this year, so we can conveniently assess your soul's quality?"

As Su Yi stepped forward and stood on the testing platform, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan smiled and gently asked in a soft voice, as if afraid that the previous exceptional performance of the two Soul Tamers might put immense pressure on Su Yi and affect his performance.

"Master Yi Su from the Overlord Sect, greets the elder. I am a young boy of sixteen years old. Thank you for your help, elder."

Su Yi bowed respectfully, displaying both humility and confidence.

Su Yi had a very favorable impression of these Deputy Palace Masters, and he had never concealed his age.

The tests conducted by Gong Qianxing and Li Qingwei did indeed add a lot of pressure to Su Yi.

Su Yi, like any other person, worried that the outcome of the test would be too embarrassing considering the impact of age on the judgment of one's character and inner qualities.

"Are you just sixteen years old..."

Upon hearing this, the people present looked at each other with a hint of surprise.

Su Yi's disguise made him appear to be around eighteen or nineteen years old, so when they heard that he was only sixteen, everyone couldn't help but feel a little surprised.

However, some people naturally have a more mature appearance, and no one would question it too much.

This kind of test, surely no one would deliberately hide the truth.

It is easy to detect the amount of time one has spent in cultivation on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, so trying to intentionally conceal one's age is difficult to pass through.

"The testing process, just relax and don't have any pressure. Now let's begin the testing."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan nodded, seemingly showing extra care towards Su Yi, as a favor to Xi Wuqing. After giving him special instructions, she formed hand seals and began the continued testing.

Su Yi, too, secretly adjusted his mindset, and at this moment, there was no doubt that he was feeling quite nervous.

In the past, during the examination in martial arts, Su Yi was deemed suitable only as a menial servant.

Although on this journey, Su Yi had already proven with his own abilities that he was not inferior to any genius, as they had previously believed of him being just a menial servant.

But at this moment, this soul examination also made Su Yi nervous.

"Crash, crash..."

Upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, a radiant light began to emit, dazzling and eventually enveloping Su Yi as if he were encased in a cocoon of light.

Under the glaring light, Su Yi's eyes immediately became unable to see properly and he tightly shut them.

At this moment, curious gazes from the hall were cast upon him.

After all, besides Su Yi, the ones present were all disciples of the Three Great Factions being examined.

Everyone was curious about this disciple of the Overlord Sect, a faction they had never even heard of before among the Three Great Factions. They wondered what kind of soul quality this Soul Tamer would possess.

Xi Wuqing and the Green Emperor's gaze shifted onto Su Yi.

Especially Xi Wuqing, his eyes narrowed slightly, seemingly a little nervous.

Xi Wuqing knew that Su Yi's soul was extraordinary and unique, but he was still unsure of the extent of Su Yi's soul quality.

Wrapped in a cocoon of radiant light, within the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, a subtle and invisible ripple quietly spread into Su Yi's forehead.

Su Yi could feel clearly that this was a pure energy, surging directly into his forehead, as if trying to penetrate into his own soul.

With the advice of Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan and the examination by others, Su Yi relaxed. This energy didn't seem to cause any harm to him.

Su Yi, however, still had some concerns. He wondered if the mysterious space in his mind would absorb the energy from the Yuan Testing Stone, just like it absorbed the energy from the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, leaving it completely drained.

However, this Soul Measuring Yuan Stone seemed to be more than just a simple Yuan Stone. Su Yi hoped that the mysterious space would have no reaction, otherwise this test might not be able to be completed.

Luckily, as the energy surged into his forehead, the mysterious space remained completely silent without any reaction. Su Yi quietly breathed a sigh of relief.

The energy surging into his forehead was gentle, carrying a hypnotic touch, and slowly spread throughout Su Yi's ocean of souls.

At this moment, only Su Yi could feel the energy from the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone spreading through his mind and soul, bringing an indescribable pleasure. It was like a gentle breeze, making him feel drowsy and sleepy.

In Su Yi's mind at that moment, his soul began to tremble, gently swaying with a faint crimson hue.

Inside Su Yi's mind, there was a space—a pure space formed by the concentration of soul power. The soul power surged like waves, spreading within as the energy from the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone diffused into it. It was as if a calm water surface suddenly had a small stone thrown into it, creating layer upon layer of ripples.

But Su Yi's soul ocean only rippled slightly in response, without much of a reaction.

In the testing hall, under the watchful gaze of many, even Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu were eagerly interested. They wondered if another genius would appear.

After all, the one accompanying them was a mighty Soul Tamer. The people he brought with him might also be extraordinary.

Unfortunately, on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, after a long while, there was not much of a reaction. Enveloped in a cocoon of light, Su Yi's eyes remained closed, and he appeared unfazed.

Everything was calm and peaceful, without any unnecessary special reactions.

Ten breaths, twenty breaths, after a good while, under the watchful gazes, the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone still showed no signs of a response.

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu had originally shown a hint of anticipation, but gradually, their expressions faded away.

It seemed that everything had already become a foregone conclusion. This Yi Su from the Overlord Sect, although a Soul Tamer, appeared quite ordinary, to the point where he couldn't even pass the Yutian Palace's assessment.

In such a scene, Xi Wuqing was also surprised. His face showed a look of confusion. With his intuition, Su Yi's soul would definitely not be ordinary.

"Hehe, overestimating oneself. It's not something that just anyone can come to Yutian Palace and participate in the test."

Jian Wannian's soft voice emanated, filled with mocking and ridicule, without any attempt to conceal it.

He wasn't really mocking and ridiculing Su Yi, just a young and inexperienced boy, whom he didn't pay attention to.

Jian Wannian's mocking was aimed at Xi Wuqing, an elder of Tianxuan Sect. Even though he was an extraordinary Soul Tamer, so what?

"Hehe..."

Bai Mingshan also smiled lightly, as it seemed that not everyone could participate in the Yutian Palace's assessment.

"Who are the cat and the dog? Can anyone participate in the Yutian Palace's test? How presumptuous!"

Zhao Chuannan's mouth curled up with a hint of a cold smile curve, indeed, there are times when kids feel embarrassed, unable to pass even the Yutian Palace's test, what qualifications do they have to be arrogant in front of him.

Chapter 706: Unexpected Change!

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan's face also showed surprise. He thought that he had a sharp eye, but he felt that the youth named Yi Su in front of him had an extraordinary, unique aura. However, why was he so ordinary? He couldn't even pass the basic Soul Tamer test of the Yutian Palace. Could it be that this time he truly misjudged him?

But the fact was already right in front of them - there was not the slightest movement on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, not even a hint of any additional response.

The fact was already right in front of Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan. The young boy before him, perhaps extraordinary in other aspects, indeed had an ordinary soul quality.

This kind of ordinariness, perhaps for ordinary warriors, was already considered gifted, after all, he was a great Soul Tamer.

But for the Yutian Palace, this was an inadequate Soul Tamer.

Secretly feeling a bit regretful, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan let out a faint sigh in his heart. He gradually eased his hand seals and came to a halt, there was no need to continue the examination any longer.

"Let's continue the story..."

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu spoke up, and they began to prepare to continue examining the young disciples of the Tianxuan Sect in front of them.

As Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan's hand seals gradually eased, the glow within the palm of his hand faded away, returning to tranquility.

"Is it truly ordinary...?"

On Xi Wuqing's face, his eyebrows slightly furrowed. Could this boy really have an ordinary soul? The tests conducted by Yutian Palace were never wrong, after all.

"Okay..."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan took charge, and everything fell into place. Today, two exceptional Soul Tamers were tested, while there were also those who couldn't even pass the most basic assessment. Such is fate.

"Hmm..."

Suddenly, at this very moment, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan's face turned incredibly astonished, and her gaze instantly shifted, fixating firmly on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone before her.

He had already ceased his examination of the young boy, but atop the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone in front of him, a dazzling light still emanated. A wave of invisible energy continued to surge into the boy's forehead.

Just as he was about to begin examining the young alchemist and craftsman before him, Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu and Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, Su Yi noticed the abnormal reaction as well. His gaze, which had just shifted away, immediately returned to rest upon Su Yi once more.

"Splash, splash..."

On the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, at this moment, a continuous stream of invisible energy automatically surged into Su Yi's forehead.

It seemed as if it was being pulled by a certain force, the invisible energy grew stronger and stronger, causing the light on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone to shine brighter and brighter.

"Boom!"

Suddenly, on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, it trembled abruptly.

Immediately, from the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, a dazzling light burst forth, surpassing the brilliance that had just been detected from Gong Qianxing and Li Qingwei. It was like a shining sun in the sky, radiating a dazzling and brilliant light, directly enveloping Su Yi.

A tremendously powerful invisible energy, identical to a compressed energy surge on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, suddenly erupted, rushing directly into the center of Su Yi's forehead.

This unexpected turn of events caused the once mocking gazes within the entire testing hall to become filled with astonishment and confusion once again.

In Su Yi's mind, the ripple of his soul that had previously emerged, now, with the impact of that massive surge of energy, resembled a thrown water mine, instantly creating a powerful and turbulent disturbance, causing waves to surge.

"Splash..."

From within Su Yi's soul, there emanated an immense aura, filled with both destruction and majestic solemnity.

The coexistence of destruction and majestic solemnity in the air was emanating from the depths of Su Yi's soul, from his Heavenly Yuan Demonic Soul.

"Boom!"

Su Yi's mind and soul were no longer calm. Waves of turmoil surged through his soul, like never-ending ocean waves, stirring up a tumultuous storm.

Within the energy of the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, there existed an invisible force that gently pulled and spread within Su Yi's soul at that moment.

It made Su Yi's soul burst forth with a dazzling crimson light.

At this moment, faintly, from the depths of Su Yi's soul, a shadow of a beast emerged.

From a distance, it appeared as if an ancient giant god had crossed through time and space, traversing and arriving with an overwhelming and awe-inspiring presence. The resounding boom echoed endlessly within the ocean of souls, causing the pressure on the souls to grow stronger and more terrifying.

The crimson light surged and undulated in Su Yi's mind, shaking the surroundings. Radiant rays shimmered and appeared, like a small sun, shining brilliantly!

"Hoo-lah-lah..." In an instant, a ripple of energy emerged from within Su Yi's mind, exuding an aura of dominance and majesty, as if capable of suppressing the ancient and reigning supreme over the heavens and earth!

Inside Su Yi's mind, at this moment, the Heavenly Yuan Demonic Soul was completely stirred and erupted, shining brightly like the sun. A divine radiance filled the air, emanating waves of fluctuations.

Finally, from the center of Su Yi's forehead, a streak of crimson light burst forth like a dazzling red lightning bolt, shooting straight towards the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone and merging with it.

In that moment, it was as if a mysterious power had transcended through time and space, descending from ancient times and filling the hall with rumbles of thunder.

"Roar..."

And as a flicker of soul power, resembling a red lightning bolt, raced into Su Yi's forehead, a colossal burst of radiance erupted from the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, accompanied by thunderous roars echoing through the air.

"Boom..."

At the same time, the entire Yutian Palace trembled and outside the window, darkness suddenly engulfed the surroundings.

Only on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone did the radiance shine brilliantly, as if the sun itself shone brightly overhead.

"Boom..."

With Yutian Palace at its center, the Central Region once again fell into darkness, rapidly spreading throughout the entire city. Suddenly, a thunderous roar echoed through the sky, causing the entire city to rumble and the heavens to shake, making a resounding boom in the empty air.

"Sizzle, sizzle..."

Suddenly, from above Yutian Palace, the empty sky began to tremble uncontrollably, with thick dark clouds gathering and pressing down overhead.

From the depths of the dark clouds, faintly, lightning darted through, and the sound of thunder - rumbling and rolling - spread from within the dark clouds. In an instant, it engulfed the entire Central Region, shaking the heavens and the earth!

A tremendous aura of pressure swept and permeated the empty sky of this Central Region, causing an eerie sensation to creep up on people.

Under the magnificent aura, people felt their souls tremble deep within!

"What's going on again..."

At this moment, inside the entire Central Region, everyone was stunned. This scene was too horrifying, causing the heavens and earth to change color.

"Vision, was this the beginning of a remarkable sight that brought forth wonders from the heavens and the earth?"

Inside the Central Region, at this very moment, countless powerful individuals gathered together. Many of them were seasoned and experienced, and they exclaimed in astonishment. It was a phenomenon from the heavens and the earth.

A series of fierce and sinister gazes, then lifted their eyes towards the direction of Yutian Palace. Sensing the source of that dreadful aura, it was none other than Yutian Palace.

"Whoosh..."

Inside the Central Region, all around the city, suddenly, a series of mysterious auras soared into the sky, abruptly coming to a halt near Yutian Palace.

The previous two times the sky and earth changed colors, they vanished in an instant without lingering for too long.

But this time, it was a true marvel of the heavens and earth.

Over the Central Region, dark clouds hung in the sky, lightning flashed, and the entire Central Region was enveloped in dimness as a tremendous presence descended!

Inside the testing hall, at this moment, a cocoon of light enveloped Su Yi and the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, their radiance intertwined, and a glow emitted from Su Yi's forehead.

From within Su Yi's body, a majestic and destructive aura spread, accompanied by faint sounds of thunder and wind, roaring and echoing throughout his entire being.

"Roarrrr..."

On the testing platform, within the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, lightning crackled and thunder rumbled, accompanied by a deafening beastly roar that shook the heavens!

Chapter 707: A Stirring of Heaven and Earth!

In the Hall of Testing, everyone's eyes widened in disbelief. They were all shocked and taken aback. Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu, Elder Suyun, Bai Mingshan, and Jian Wannian, were all visibly stunned, as if struck by lightning.

Xi Wuqing and the Green Emperor's gaze also underwent a drastic change. They were left wide-eyed and speechless. The commotion was simply too great. Compared to this, the commotion caused by Gong Qianxing and Li Qingwei was nothing short of child's play.

"Rumble, rumble..."

Upon the Central Region's city, the empty sky rumbled, with dark clouds rolling and lightning darting through.

Everyone trembled in fear, for this aura was too terrifying, causing one's soul to chill and one's heart to tremble in fright!

"Whoosh..."

In certain parts of the Central Region city, figures soared into the sky, treading upon the lower clouds. Their gaze extended into the distance, fixed upon the direction of Yutian Palace, the source of this dreadful commotion.

"Roarrrr..."

Suddenly, from the depths of the empty space of Yutian Palace, dark clouds rolled and lightning darted, as the ominous silhouette of a fierce beast emerged, roaring with thunderous vigor.

There, across the vast sky, a phantom of a blue dragon stretched out, traversing the nine provinces with its majestic presence, as it journeyed through ancient times and descended upon the present day.

For several days, a breathtaking phantom of a divine sparrow spread its wings, radiating brilliance and magnificence, casting a vast shadow over half of the sky, while flames painted the heavens and earth in vibrant hues!

The White Tiger roared fiercely, poised to pounce, as if it wished to tear apart the heavens and earth, arriving from the depths of ancient times!

There, the Black Tortoise resided, with the turtle and snake entwined, towering into the sky, spanning across the heavens!

This was truly awe-inspiring. There, the Azure Dragon and White Tiger stood, alongside the divine Sparrow and Black Tortoise, as if ancient legends had come to life in the present world.

The world was in turmoil, with winds stirring and clouds billowing.

The entire Central Region city trembled intensely at that moment. Dark clouds rolled, lightning flashed, and thunder roared. Divine birds soared through the sky, while divine beasts gazed proudly upon the heavens!

One by one, divine birds and beasts descended, carrying an incredibly terrifying aura, causing the entire world to blur.

Everyone trembled in fear and awe, prostrating themselves in worship.

This aura was too terrifying, and no one could resist it.

"Oh my goodness, what is happening!"

Across the entire Central Region, countless people looked up in astonishment. Up in the sky, winds roared and clouds billowed, causing the world to quiver and tremble. An overwhelming and terrifying pressure filled the air, evoking a sense of reverence and awe in all beings, as if they were compelled to bow and worship.

"The sky and earth are displaying a wondrous phenomenon! This is a remarkable sight!"

Someone spoke, their eyes filled with astonishment, and their heart unable to calm down!

Inside the depths of Yutian Palace, in a humble stone chamber, an elderly figure suddenly awakened. Their face turned pale with a sudden change, and they immediately closed their eyes slightly. A soulful tremor emanated from their forehead, gradually spreading out.

Just a moment later, the elderly figure opened their eyes, a look of astonishment appeared on their weathered face. The profound impact in their eyes couldn't settle down, and they couldn't help but speak to themselves, saying, "I can't believe such spirits truly exist in this world!"

"Roarrrr..."

Inside the testing hall, at this moment within the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, the Azure Dragon and White Tiger, the divine birds Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise, manifested and emerged. An ominous aura swept across the four corners, intertwining with Su Yi.

Su Yi, at this moment, closes his eyes tightly. The divine ring, gathering radiant brilliance, shudders with power, exuding an unparalleled dominance and destructive pressure. It fills the air with astonishing momentum, terrifying and overwhelming, causing everyone present to tremble in fear, feeling an indescribable terror.

"The pressure is so strong, I can't resist!"

Someone couldn't help but feel their legs go weak, and, more importantly, they were overwhelmed by a suppression from within their soul and fell to their knees.

One, two, three. Instantly, figures knelt down one by one, their eyes filled with fear.

Inside and outside Yutian Palace, many figures also knelt down directly, filled with inexplicable fear!

Inside the testing hall, gazes were fixed on Su Yi, and at this moment, they were utterly astonished and speechless to the extreme!

"It is so scary!"

Jian Wannian, Bai Mingshan, and the others were usually full of confidence, but at this moment, they were completely stunned and terrified!

Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, and Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu, the three of them, were utterly stunned and shocked when they witnessed the commotion caused by Su Yi. Their faces were filled with astonishment!

Unaware of all the commotion, Su Yi felt his soul stirring as if in response.

Su Yi's robes fluttered, surrounded by a divine aura. All eyes were fixed upon him, experiencing a sense of facing an eminent presence. The overwhelming pressure exuded a dominance that seemed to command the entire world.

"Clickety-clack..."

Upon the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone, dazzling lightning of prayers emerged. But at the same time, cracks started to appear, spreading one after another.

From Su Yi's body, a majestic and soul-like aura surged forth, rapidly undulating and permeating the air, connecting with the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone.

At this moment, within Su Yi's mind, a terrifying pressure from his soul spread to its utmost limit. It caused even Bai Mingshan, Jian Wannian, Elder Suyun, and the Green Emperor in the detection hall to turn pale, their souls trembling in fear.

Gong Qianxing and Li Qingwei, two Soul Tamers possessing half-step Heavenly Grade souls and Quasi Heavenly Grade souls, were also trembling with fear at this moment. Their souls recoiled, unable to resist.

This pressure is irresistible, emanating from the depths of the soul.

"Bang!"

Finally, the cracks on the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone completely split open. Then, with a loud noise, it exploded into pieces, emitting a brilliant light and an astonishing aura that surged from the Ninth Heaven. The entire hall trembled as if it was about to collapse.

The Soul Measuring Yuan Stone exploded, and the invisible energy abruptly came to a halt, dissipating from Su Yi's forehead.

Everything gradually calmed down, and Su Yi's aura suddenly stagnated, slowly dissipating.

Across the Central Region, both inside and outside the city, a tumultuous wind swept through, and the extraordinary phenomenon of the sky and earth changing colors quietly dispersed.

The dark clouds scattered, the shadows of beasts disappeared, and it returned to tranquility.

The terrifying aura of oppression gradually faded in the world. Those who were kneeling finally rose to their feet, their faces filled with astonished expressions.

"What on earth is going on?"

"What on earth is happening?"

"It seems that there is some commotion coming from Yutian Palace. Could it be that within the palace, they have discovered a genius?"

There was a lot of discussion, and many people immediately headed towards the direction of Yutian Palace.

"From Yutian Palace, go, quickly go and find out the truth!"

Among the major powers within Central Region, someone immediately set off and hurried towards Yutian Palace.

"Whoosh..."

In the testing hall, everything appeared a bit messy, as if a hurricane had swept through.

As the gazes fell upon Su Yi, whose eyes were still partially closed, his heart remained shaken and unable to calm down for a long time.

Especially Jian Wannian and Bai Mingshan, along with Zhao Chuannan, the previous smirks and mocking expressions on their faces have now been completely replaced by astonishment. From the looks of it, they have already sensed that Yi Su from the Overlord Sect, a Soul Tamer, is unexpectedly unable to pass the test. This situation is far more intense compared to Gong Qianxing and Li Qingwei.

"Huff..."

After a moment, Su Yi finally opened his eyes. A glimmer of red light flashed by, and then his eyes became clear and profound. He looked at the expressions of the people around him and the chaotic hall, appearing very surprised, as if he had no idea what had happened.

"Hmm..."

The testing platform cracked, and the Soul Measuring Yuan Stone turned into powder. Su Yi was stunned and muttered in surprise, completely unaware of what had happened.

Chapter 708: The Mysterious Elder

"Senior, have I passed the test?"

Su Yi looked at Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, who still appeared quite surprised. Timidly, he asked with a hint of unease, uncertain if he had passed the test.

Upon hearing this, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan finally regained her senses. She exchanged glances with Deputy Palace Master Yan Lu and Deputy Palace Master Yun Ding, and then looked back at Su Yi. The shock in her eyes remained for a while without subsiding as she said, "Of course, you have passed the test. However, your soul's quality is..."

"What's wrong?" Su Yi's heart tightened, and he looked at Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, wondering if there was something wrong with his soul.

"To be honest, I have never seen a soul of such extraordinary quality before in my entire life. The Soul Measuring Yuan Stones in the Yutian Palace of Central Region can only measure souls up to a certain level, and it seems that they might struggle to handle the caliber of your soul."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan's face was filled with both shock and a hint of bitterness. This kind of soul caliber was beyond anything she had ever seen before. And now, even the Soul Measuring Yuan Stones had shattered, making it truly difficult to determine the level of this soul's quality.

Upon hearing this, Su Yi's face was suddenly filled with surprise, and he asked Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan, "Senior, did I actually pass the test or not?"

"Of course, they passed, but..."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan smiled bitterly, hesitated for a moment, and looked at Su Yi with a gentle expression. She said, "However, I truly can't definitively say to which extent this soul quality has reached. Perhaps there is someone who can tell you. Please follow me."

"Where are we going?"

Su Yi was also helpless. He never expected that within the Yutian Palace, they couldn't determine the extent of his soul quality.

"Don't worry, you'll find out once you follow me," Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan reassured.

"Go ahead, I'll wait here for you," the shock on Xi Wuqing's face gradually subsided, and upon seeing this, he spoke to Su Yi.

"Okay."

Upon hearing this, Su Yi nodded at Xi Wuqing before responding to Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan. This was one of the branch palaces of the Yutian Palace. Judging from the Deputy Palace

Master's attitude, the Yutian Palace shouldn't give them a hard time, nor did they have any grievances with the Yutian Palace before.

Seeing this, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan ignored the others and took Su Yi, leaving the hall.

"This..."

Bai Mingshan, Jian Wannian, and Zhao Chuannan were dumbfounded. They were not fools, how could they not see the Yutian Palace's attitude towards Su Yi? It seemed that after Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan took the boy away, there must be something they wanted to discuss privately. Perhaps the Yutian Palace was trying to win over the boy directly.

Looking at the expressions on Jian Wannian's face and others, Xi Wuqing glanced lightly, with a faint smile on his lips. He called out to the Green Emperor and said, "Let's go, let's explore around. We'll wait for that boy outside."

"Yes."

The Green Emperor nodded, his face filled with pride. Then, the two of them turned around with their hands behind their backs and left directly.

Bai Mingshan, the expression on Jian Wannian's face didn't look good. His eyes twitched at the corners, especially Jian Wannian, whose face was filled with gloom.

Su Yi followed closely by Guan Lan, the Deputy Palace Master, as they walked from the testing hall to the inner court. Not knowing where they were going, Su Yi could only continue closely behind.

"I'm not sure which esteemed master Yi Su learned from, to be honest. I have some knowledge about the sects in the Central Region, but I must admit that I am not familiar with the Overlord Sect. Could it be that the Overlord Sect is not located in the Central Region?" Along the way, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan broke the silence between the two and curiously asked Su Yi.

"Replying to the senior, the disciple's master has always lived in seclusion in the mountains and the Overlord Sect is just a small gate hidden in the wilderness, never appearing in the world, so the senior is unaware."

Su Yi replied, also choosing his words carefully, saying that he had a master supporting him from behind, which made him feel like he had someone backing him up.

"Is it like this..."

Guan Lan, the Deputy Palace Master, felt a flicker of doubt in his eyes, but he didn't show it. He smiled slightly and said to Su Yi, "No need to be so polite in the future. I am a bit older than you, so if you think highly of me, just call me 'brother'."

"I dare not."

Su Yi forced a smile. This was the respected Deputy Palace Master of the Yutian Palace in the Central Region. Judging by the attitudes of Jian Wannian, Bai Mingshan, and others, he was an intimidating powerhouse, undoubtedly a formidable figure of great significance. It wouldn't be wise for him to be too casual.

"No need to be polite, just call me 'brother' from now on. Young brother, you have extraordinary talent, and your future is boundless. It won't be long before I can benefit from your brilliance," smiled Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan. His expression was gentle, clearly trying to build a relationship. With his discerning eyes, how could he not see the limitless potential of this young man? Given time, he would surely rise to great heights in the world.

"This..."

Su Yi felt helpless. Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan had already gone this far in his words. If he were to refuse again, it would seem inappropriate. Su Yi sighed bitterly and forced a smile, then generously said, "In that case, I cannot be impolite. From now on, I will address you as senior brother Guan Lan."

"Good, this also appears friendly," Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan chuckled.

Su Yi smiled. Inside the Central Region, with no one behind him, it was a good thing to be able to establish some relationship with Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan.

"Okay, we're almost there. Inside, someone is waiting for the little brother. Perhaps, with the little brother's soul quality, the people inside will have a more accurate judgment."

As they spoke, ahead of them, a very peaceful and quaint little courtyard appeared. Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan pointed towards the courtyard and said to Su Yi, "There are already people waiting inside."

"May I ask, older brother Guan Lan, who is inside?"

Su Yi was very puzzled, not knowing who could be inside. Judging from Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan's attitude, it seemed that the person inside held a much higher status than Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan.

"Go inside, and you will find out."

Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan smiled faintly, reassuring Su Yi not to worry, and then turned and left.

Su Yi was surprised, but Yutian Palace didn't seem like it wanted to cause trouble for him. Without hesitation, Su Yi walked into the small courtyard.

"Come in, please."

As Su Yi stepped into the courtyard, an ancient voice immediately reached his ears.

Su Yi's eyes widened, and there was no doubt in his mind that inside this small courtyard stood an absolute powerhouse.

In the quiet little courtyard, everything was simple and showed signs of age.

Inside the courtyard, Su Yi walked along a short corridor and arrived at a small hall.

In the small hall, an elderly figure had been waiting. He looked at Su Yi with a slight smile and said, "I never expected that this time in the Central Region's Yutian Palace, we could detect such an extraordinary soul."

Following the sound, Su Yi's gaze fell upon the elderly figure. He was a kind-faced old man, with a weathered appearance but a lively spirit. His face even had a healthy flush to it. His silver-white hair was tied up in a bun, and he wore a grey robe. He appeared to be in his seventies or eighties. With smiling eyes, he looked at Su Yi in a gentle and kind manner, just like a friendly neighbor, making people feel comfortable and close to him.

Chapter 709: Palace Master Gu Yue!

"I have met my seniors."

Su Yi stepped forward, clasping his fists and bowing in a respectful manner. The old man had a gentle and kind demeanor, with no visible fluctuations in his energy. However, with Su Yi's keen sense of soul power, he couldn't help but sense that this old man was far from ordinary. He was undoubtedly a formidable and unfathomable presence.

"No need to be polite, let me introduce myself. Most people call me Gu Yue, and I am the Palace Master of the Yutian Palace in the Central Region. Could you also introduce yourself, young brother, so that this old man can get to know you?" Palace Master Gu Yue smiled faintly and asked Su Yi.

I have met Palace Master Gu Yue. I am Yi Su, a young disciple from an unknown small mountain sect called the Overlord Sect," Su Yi bowed once again. No wonder Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan was also so polite. It turned out he was none other than the esteemed Palace Master of the Yutian Palace branch in the Central Region.

"The Overlord Sect, perhaps, won't be unknown for much longer. Maybe in a few days, the Overlord Sect will become famous in the Central Region!"

Palace Master Gu Yue looked at Su Yi, sizing him up. This young boy, with such a pure soul, has already caused a phenomenon in the heavens and earth, shaking the Central Region. It won't be long before his fame spreads throughout the entire Central Region.

"Palace Master Gu Yue, you are too kind. May I ask, what level of soul quality does this young man possess?"

Su Yi asked directly, and Palace Master Guan Lan informed him that Palace Master Gu Yue knows about his soul quality. Su Yi was also very curious about his own soul quality.

"The Soul Measuring Yuan Stones in Central Region cannot handle the quality of our young friend's soul. However, based on the fact that his soul detection has caused a phenomenon in the heavens and earth, at the very least, it is at the Heavenly Grade level. But if we want to know the exact soul quality, we may need to go to the headquarters of Yutian Palace for testing," said Palace Master Gu Yue with a serious expression on his face. His eyes shimmered with awe-inspiring ripples. The Central Region had never detected a soul of such quality before.

"Heavenly level!"

Su Yi's lips lifted, revealing a slight smile. Although he didn't know the specific meaning of the Heavenly Grade level, judging from the tests of Li Qingwei and Gong Qianxing, a true Heavenly Grade soul appeared to be exceptional.

"If you have the time, you can accompany me to the headquarters of Yutian Palace. I believe we will be able to determine the true quality of Yi Su's soul," said Palace Master Gu Yue, as he looked at Su Yi.

"Is the headquarters of Yutian Palace also in Central Region?" Su Yi asked. If they could determine the true quality of his soul, it might be worth making a trip.

"The headquarters of Yutian Palace is not actually located in Central Region," explained Palace Master Gu Yue. "To reach the headquarters from here, we would need to pass through two spatial portals, which would take approximately two days."

"So far away..."

Su Yi furrowed his brows. The distance was a bit far. His purpose of coming to Central Region was to participate in the Saint Martial Assembly.

"I can go to Yutian Palace headquarters anytime. As a representative of Yutian Palace, I warmly welcome my little brother Yi Su to come and have a check-up at our headquarters."

Elder Gu Yue seemed to understand Su Yi's thoughts and smiled slightly, saying, "The Saint Martial Assembly is approaching. My young brother, you can focus on participating in the assembly. With your strength, you will surely shine in the Saint Martial Assembly. This old man is also looking forward to it, waiting for your name to resonate throughout the Central Region!"

"The Saint Martial Assembly... um."

Su Yi secretly wore a bitter smile on his face, only to remember that he seemed to have not yet registered for the Saint Martial Assembly. The City Master of the Central Region was searching for him everywhere, so whether he could participate in the Saint Martial Assembly was still a question. That's why he came to Yutian Palace for the check-up.

"There is one more question that needs your forgiveness, young friend."

Palace Master Gu Yue looked at Su Yi with a hint of a bitter smile on his face.

"Please, Palace Master Gu Yue, go ahead." Su Yi inquired politely.

Palace Master Gu Yue said, "Young friend, the spiritual quality of your soul is at least Heavenly Grade. However, within the Yutian Palace divisions in the Central Region, there is no Heavenly Grade soul emblem. It seems that you will have to make a trip to the Yutian Palace headquarters to have your soul quality retested. It will also be a good opportunity for you."

"No emblem..."

Su Yi couldn't help but smile bitterly. He had hoped that with the reputation of Yutian Palace, he could participate in the Saint Martial Assembly. Little did he know that there wouldn't be his own emblem in the Yutian Palace.

"Brother, you don't need to worry. Although Yutian Palace doesn't have the Heavenly Grade emblem for souls, your accomplishments will be recorded in Yutian Palace. In order to prove your identity, they will give you a semi-Heavenly Grade emblem for souls. With this, you can enjoy all the conveniences and resources that a Heavenly Grade Soul Tamer can have within Yutian Palace."

As Palace Master Gu Yue's words fell, a shining emblem of Yutian Palace appeared in his hand. It gleamed with a radiant golden color and had a triangular shape. He said, "Brother, you have detected a Soul Tamer with a Heavenly Grade soul quality, but for now, Yutian Palace only has a semi-Heavenly Grade emblem for souls. However, the records will remain unchanged. You will need to bind it with your blood, imprinting your soul. With this emblem, you will enjoy many conveniences."

"Thank you, Palace Master Gu Yue." Su Yi was already very happy to have an emblem in place of it. With the reputation of Yutian Palace, he could confidently participate in the Saint Martial Assembly without worrying about any trouble from the people in Central Region.

"Let's begin then," smiled Palace Master Gu Yue. "I will engrave the emblem for you, young brother."

Su Yi nodded. Having witnessed Li Qingwei, Gong Qianxing, Liu Xiaohu, and others engrave emblems, he found the process to be quite simple, similar to the identity emblem he had engraved back in the Divine Sword School.

By pledging allegiance with a drop of blood, a spiritual power was imprinted within his mind. With Palace Master Gu Yue's personal engraving, Su Yi obtained his Emblem of Yutian Palace.

As the emblem was engraved, Su Yi couldn't help but feel an invisible connection forming between himself and the emblem.

Su Yi carefully examined his emblem, which was exactly the same as Li Qingwei's emblem from the Qingyun Sect, with no differences at all.

Palace Master Gu Yue gazed at Su Yi, his eyes flickering, and said, "I wonder if young brother is interested in joining Yutian Palace?"

"With this Yutian Palace's detection emblem, doesn't that mean we are also considered as people of Yutian Palace?"

Su Yi smiled slightly and gently tucked the Yutian Palace emblem into his chest, never placing it on his shoulder. Based on the test results of Li Qingwei and Gong Qianxing, it seemed that this emblem would create a lot of noise if revealed to the outside world. It would be better to remain discreet. Coming to Yutian Palace for the inspection was solely to ensure a smooth participation in the Saint Martial Assembly.

"I meant joining in, but not by passing Yutian Palace's test, but truly becoming a member of Yutian Palace."

Palace Master Gu Yue smiled slightly and spoke to Su Yi.

"The real joining?"

Su Yi was moved and understood in his heart the words of Palace Master Gu Yue. No wonder Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan had brought him here alone. So it turned out that Yutian Palace wanted him to truly join Yutian Palace.

"Not bad, truly joining Yutian Palace will bring many conveniences, but only by truly joining Yutian Palace can one obtain its core resources, which may exceed your imagination."

Chapter 710: The Olive Branch From Yutian Palace

After a brief pause, Palace Master Gu Yue continued speaking to Su Yi, "It can be said that if you can obtain the resources of Yutian Palace, it would definitely be the ultimate dream of all Soul Tamers, Alchemists, and Weapon Refiners. With your exceptional spiritual quality, if you can officially join Yutian Palace, there is no doubt that you will receive the highest attention from the palace. You will have full access to all of Yutian Palace's resources and even receive guidance from the experts who have retired within the palace. Given time, with your exceptional talent and soul, you will become a prominent figure in the world. In other words, even the top forces such as Sacred Mountain, Taiqing Sect, Wuliang School, Divine Tiger School, and Tianlong Sect cannot provide such resources!"

Palace Master Gu Yue gazed at Su Yi with a serious tone. On his aged face, there was an expression of anticipation. For a young boy like Su Yi, it would be a great honor for Yutian Palace if he could join. The true reason for Yutian Palace's current status, lies in the fact that it houses the most skilled Weapon Refiners, Alchemists, and Soul Tamers in the world. They are the key pillars supporting Yutian Palace's position today.

Su Yi squinted his eyes, trying to appear unaffected, but deep down, he couldn't deny the stirring in his heart.

From Xi Wuqing's words, as well as the attitudes of Bai Mingshan, Jian Wannian, Elder Suyun, and others towards Yutian Palace, Su Yi had no difficulty in understanding the extent of Yutian Palace's strength. Although Yutian Palace remained indifferent to worldly conflicts, Su Yi had no doubts about Palace Master Gu Yue's words. Yutian Palace's power would not be inferior to Sacred Mountain. If he could truly join Yutian Palace and receive guidance from the most formidable Soul Tamers within, as well as access to the vast resources of Yutian Palace, he would be able to become a strong individual at the fastest possible speed.

This temptation was something Su Yi found most difficult to resist.

Palace Master Gu Yue gazed at Su Yi, awaiting his answer. He was well aware of what the Heavenly Grade soul represented, and it was worth Yutian Palace's utmost sincerity to win over Su Yi. In no time, this young man before him would be capable of becoming a core powerhouse within Yutian Palace. Yutian Palace could stand unshakable in the world precisely because it continuously recruited talented individuals with strong potential.

"Thank you, Palace Master Gu Yue, for your kindness. However, I already have a master, so I can only express my gratitude."

With a slight movement in his gaze, Su Yi bowed to Palace Master Gu Yue. His ability to become a Soul Tamer was all thanks to that mysterious powerhouse who had taught him the Heavens Taming Incantation. Although he had not officially apprenticed under that powerhouse, nor could he help the mysterious powerhouse to escape from his predicament, in Su Yi's heart, it was thanks to that mysterious powerhouse that he was able to become a Soul Tamer. Even if he were to join another sect, he felt obligated to inform that mysterious powerhouse at the very least.

"Truly joining Yutian Palace doesn't conflict with the mountain sect you're currently a part of, little brother," Palace Master Gu Yue said to Su Yi. "Yutian Palace has always remained detached from worldly disputes. However, by joining Yutian Palace, you would assume an added responsibility towards the palace. This is also the very reason why Yutian Palace has stood strong throughout time."

"Thank you, Palace Master Gu Yue, for your kind favor. This matter is of great importance at the moment. After I return to report to my sect, I will give a response to the Palace Master."

Su Yi bowed, realizing the immense significance of the situation. The abundant resources and favorable conditions offered by Yutian Palace were tempting and hard to refuse. However, he couldn't officially join Yutian Palace just yet, as he was still the Sect Master of the Divine Demonic Sect.

"So, is that so? But Yutian Palace is always happy to welcome little brothers."

Palace Master Gu Yue was a bit surprised. It was an opportunity that any alchemist, artifact craftsman, or soul tamer would dream of. Yet, this young boy had refused without much hesitation, which left him rather puzzled.

But Palace Master Gu Yue didn't insist, as it was evident that the young boy had some concerns in his heart. After this news reached the headquarters of Yutian Palace, it might pique their interest and someone would naturally come again in the future.

"Thank you, Palace Master Gu Yue."

Su Yi bowed and intended to leave, while Xi Wuqing and the Green Emperor were still waiting for him outside.

"Dear young brother, you have passed Yutian Palace's evaluation. Although your emblem is only at the half-step Heavenly Grade, your treatment will not change. In any of Yutian Palace's branches, you will have unhindered access. You will be able to access all the information that Yutian Palace opens to the outside world. If you need any help, Yutian Palace will also provide full assistance," Palace Master Gu Yue finally said to Su Yi. The treatment of a Heavenly Grade Soul Tamer is something that many people dream of, and is difficult for ordinary people to imagine.

Su Yi finally bid farewell with a bow, feeling that the treatment at Yutian Palace should be good. However, at this moment, Su Yi didn't yet know how powerful the treatment as a Heavenly Grade Soul Tamer at Yutian Palace could be. The benefits were unimaginable.

Watching as Su Yi departed, a weary look crossed Palace Master Gu Yue's aged face. His slightly narrowed eyes held a contemplative gaze for a long time. A faint smile appeared on his face, and he murmured softly, "Such a remarkable disguise technique... Does the Overlord Sect truly possess a gate like this?"

After bidding farewell to Palace Master Gu Yue, Su Yi walked out of the courtyard. A young disciple from Yutian Palace was already waiting outside, showing great respect in his attitude and expression. He secretly assessed Su Yi and his heart was restless. He had witnessed the terrifying testing scene in the hall firsthand, almost as if it were a miracle.

The young disciple informed Su Yi that Xi Wuqing and the Green Emperor were already waiting outside.

Guided by the young disciple, Su Yi walked through several long corridors. After a short while, they finally arrived at a secluded hall where Xi Wuqing and the Green Emperor had been waiting for some time.

"It's getting late, let's go outside and talk earlier."

Upon seeing Su Yi, Xi Wuqing stood up.

"Ladies and gentlemen, Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan has given instructions. She requests that you enter through the side door to avoid any inconvenience. The recent commotion caused quite a stir, and now many people have gathered outside Yutian Palace. Several powerful individuals have come to inquire about the situation. Deputy Palace Master Guan Lan is currently attending to them," said the young disciple of Yutian Palace. The area outside Yutian Palace was now crowded, with numerous strong individuals from Central Region's city who had come to inquire about the recent disturbance.

"Then let's go through the side door," nodded Xi Wuqing, casting a glance at Su Yi. In his eyes, a trace of astonishment could be seen. Who could have known that this young man would be able to detect souls and cause such a commotion? It was truly a remarkable display, an extraordinary phenomenon of the heavens and earth.

Guided by the young disciple of Yutian Palace, Su Yi, Xi Wuqing, and the Green Emperor quietly departed through a side door of the palace.

Outside Yutian Palace, Su Yi looked up. The sky was already turning dusk, and the sky was half covered with a blanket of colorful evening clouds. The bustling chatter from the city grew louder and more lively.

"How are you doing?"

As the young disciple of Yutian Palace stepped away, Xi Wuqing asked Su Yi, his eyes filled with curiosity, wanting to know who Su Yi had just seen.

Su Yi didn't hide anything and informed Xi Wuqing of the general situation.

"It was actually Old Man Gu Yue."

Xi Wuqing's eyes were filled with astonishment, surprise, and a touch of disbelief.

"Does big brother know Palace Master Gu Yue?"

Su Yi curiously asked, looking at Xi Wuqing's expression, as if he knew Palace Master Gu Yue.
