God of Slaughter

Chapter 1491: Are you her?

Inside the rolling darkness, a shadow came and roared furiously.

Roars and howls reverberated like the bell of death, pounding on everybody's soul. The souls of the ordinary people living on the surrounding star areas exploded instantly as if they were struck by lightning.

It was the enraged roar Edgar had sounded as he had to bear the agony of his son's death. His roar had shattered souls and blasted soul altars.

Hiro and Montecie had confined Devour, but they didn't expect that Devour in this situation could bring Edgar here to destroy their plan. As soon as Edgar appeared, his thundering bellow had smashed Montecie's Time Seal to rescue Devour.

Hiro hadn't reacted when Edgar shouted at Labitte, asking why Pu Tai was dead.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The bell of death echoed unceasingly in Gay, Mei Ji, and Emperor Sea Shark's heads. They changed their countenances while attacking Labitte. The stream of their energy was interrupted, and they couldn't maintain their attacks anymore.

Labitte seized the chance and turned into a jet of black light, returning to the Dark Abyss. From a distance, he pointed at Shi Yan while talking, "Edgar, brother, Shi Yan killed Pu Tai. He's the heir Bloodthirsty had chosen! He killed Pu Tai and got all of his power Upanishads. He wants to kill our Ancestor too!"

Edgar had a dark green skin, his face twitching. He pulled the void, and the blood of the dead creatures on those planets was drawn instantly.

A blood pond congregated in front of Edgar, the dazzling red hue looking like some bizarre but magnificent gemstone. Edgar panted like an enraged beast while pointing his finger at Shi Yan.

The blood pond generated a hoarse scream then turned into a massive, gory serpent with the power of death and destruction. It crawled as the mysterious patterns on its body gathered the negative emotions, including fear, wild, and brutality in this world.

"Ahhhhh!"

Xuan He, Frederick, and Ming Hao clutched their chest while groaning, their faces ashen,

As the serpent gazed at them, they were immediately flooded with thick negative energy. Shortly, they felt their souls occupied. It was similar to the time their Master Bloodthirsty had taught them lessons.

Edgar, the expert that had suddenly appeared, had the Death, Destruction, and Chaos power Upanishads that were even stronger than Bloodthirsty!

Strictly speaking, Edgar was the high-level creature Devour had created directly. If Desolate had exerted a lot of efforts to create Bloodthirsty, Devour had used his blood as the foundation to give life to Edgar, imparting him the power Upanishads and making him the Chief of the Devouring Clan.

Edgar wasn't the first generation of the Devouring Clan, but he was the one who had boosted the Devouring Clan to the equal position with the other six big clans. As he had reached the Territory Ancestor Realm without the Devouring power Upanishad, it was enough to show how fierce he was!

In the Sea Domain of Nihilicity, Edgar was known as the "God of Death," the appearance of evil in this world. Wherever he passed, the life stars were destroyed, and lives were reaped. He didn't even leave a single tuft of grass. He was Death as he absorbed the energy of all living things.

He had fused the Death, Destruction, and Chaos together, cultivating them to the profound level. In the Sea Domain of Nihilicity, Edgar was a fearsome character. Even Montecie and Hiro, his peers, didn't want to provoke this man, because Edgar was a real mad dog! When he got his nerves stimulated, he didn't have a bit of consciousness left in him.

It was the side effect of the Rampage power Upanishad.

The bloody, massive serpent carried the three power Upanishads. It opened the red-blood mouth on the several thousand meters long body that looked like a massive tree trunk. While moving, the serpent continually released the power of brutality, evil, and destruction. Xuan He, Frederick, and Ming Hao were baffled for seconds, then they had to retreat.

They couldn't endure it!

DeCarlos and the others also recognized that they couldn't stand such negative attacks. They had to retreat, not standing next to Shi Yan anymore.

After seconds, only one person stood by Shi Yan.

It was Audrey; although she was only at the First Sky of Immortal Realm, she looked at the serpent, her eyes cold and clear while shooting a cold light.

The Soul Refining Cauldron arose from the crown of her head. The cauldron turned as big as the sky, shielding her. Billions of Absolute Beginning symbols wiggled on the cauldron. Those symbols were like ghosts swimming in a river, emitting a cold vibe, Shi Yan looked surprised as he lifted his head to see the Absolute Beginning symbols moving around the Soul Refining Cauldron. They were the soul and spirit symbols which created the magical and mysterious formations.

"Go!"

Billions of Absolute Beginning symbols created by the brutal soul, ghosts, and departed souls had become one like the young birds returning to the nest, and attacked the giant serpent.

BOOM! BOOM!

Pieces of souls shattered in the rumbling, earth-shaking explosions. The brutal souls turned into gray smoke. However, the serpent's head was smashed flat, and the meandering patterns on its skin dimmed.

"Soul Refining Cauldron! It's Neptune's Soul Refining Cauldron!" Edgar screamed furiously. "The Soul Refining Cauldron, so what? Neptune didn't dare to fight me even if he had the cauldron! You're just a small warrior at the First Sky of Immortal Realm. You think you can use the Soul Refining Cauldron to resist me? Ridiculous!"

"Right, I'm not his opponent." Audrey muttered.

Shi Yan turned to her, seeing two trickles of blood running down the corners of her mouth. The blood trickles ran like snakes on her snow-white neck, which was somehow horrible to see.

Audrey's eyes dimmed; this attack had hurt her badly. She couldn't fight anymore.

"Rest well...Don't force yourself." Shi Yan comforted her. He rose one hand, sending an ivory-white seal, which then turned into an ancient Life symbol, to Audrey's body. It was his vitality to recover her wounds.

"Stars break!" He turned back to Edgar while grinning. Right next to the serpent, a barren planet responded to him. Its nucleus cracked, blasting frantically.

The massive serpent was covered in the energy of the star's explosion. It was shattered instantly into pieces in front of everyone, beams of energy shooting everywhere.

Edgar shook, his crazy face fearful. "You've fused with Desolate's will to become the temporary master of this territory! That's how you can control the stars here!"

"Stars move!"

Shi Yan slightly closed his eyes, focusing on urging the Star power Upanishad and using the soul to control the world and the stars within this territory.

Many planets with living creatures quickly left this place while the barren planets without lives came one after another. Dozens of stars aligned behind him like a massive, shining lantern.

Then, he began to speak, "If it were another arena and not this Desolate Territory, I would have no chance of surviving in a fight with you."

Edgar's eyes became lucid as he tried to press his flame of anger due to Pu Tai's death. He had to solve this seriously.

"But, we're in Desolate Territory...This is my territory. I can move the stars and control the natural powers. I can even change the principle in a short time." Shi Yan wore a cold and calm face while talking, "It's not easy to kill me here! You can try. Let's see whether you can break the principle in another's territory or not at the Second Sky of Territory Ancestor Realm!"

"You little devil, since when have you mastered a lying skill like that?" A charming voice came from a light dot which was just as big as a fingernail. However, afterward, it swelled rapidly until it was the size of a room.

A magnificent seven-colored crystal lotus throne arose. Zi Yao wore an amethyst long dress, sitting on the lotus throne, her eyes radiant with bright light.

Tian Xie, the chiefs of many clans, the Elders of the God Clan's Elder Committee, Lena of the Heavenly River Temple, and Gu Lian of the Thousand Fantasy Sect, along with many experts emerged behind her. There was one warrior whose appearance surprised Shi Yan the most.

It was Cecilia!

Cecilia had accompanied him while they were on Desolate. They used to have some romantic moments too. She stood by her teacher Lena, her face upset. She looked both sorrowful and reluctant.

Cecilia also had a small, dark green snake on her forehead...Zi Yao's crest!

All the warriors under Zi Yao's commands had this mark. It was the proof of sending her the Soul Seal and becoming her slaves. All of them had submitted to Zi Yao. Their lives and souls were tied to Zi Yao. Once she was dead, they wouldn't survive either.

Zi Yao brought her subordinates from the Ancient God Star Area here. As soon as she emerged, Hiro and Montecie looked shocked. They exchanged looks and stopped confining Devour, returning to Shi Yan's side.

"The energy on her body is...stronger than Devour. If I'm not wrong, she must be the other Absolute Beginning creature you've mentioned, right?" Montecie said, her ice stern.

Shi Yan sighed inwardly, giving her a slight nod.

Hiro, Montecie, Gay, Mei Ji, and Emperor Sea Shark returned to Shi Yan's sides, separating them from Edgar in the Dark Abyss and Zi Yao's team. The air of this area suddenly became quite strange.

"You, after all...are you her?" Shi Yan turned to Zi Yao. After a while, he suddenly shouted.

Zi Yao smiled, her glamor being no less than Mei Ji. Perhaps she could defeat the other when talking about charming demeanor. Her bright eyes had ripples of light. "I'm sure she's me. And I, I can be her...but I perhaps am not her. It depends on your actions."

"What do you want?"

"I don't want anything but my power. I want my things back. Ah, right! The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower you got belongs to me. You should return it to me too. I brought Brian and Ming Hao there in the hope that they could bring it back to me. Unexpectedly, you got it instead." Zi Yao smiled, extending one of her fulgent, jade-like hands. "Give it back to me."

Boom!

Shi Yan felt thunderclaps booming hard in his head as billions of light rays bloomed. The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower was stimulated, trying to escape from his brain and return to Zi Yao's hand.

Everybody turned aghast.

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1492: The dialogue between the Absolute Beginning creatures...

Shi Yan got the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower from a vestige on the seabed of the Sea of Annihilation. It was an Absolute Beginning vestige that hid the secrets and glory of that era.

Currently, their glorious time was gone, and many Absolute Beginning creatures had fallen. The small numbers of the remaining Absolute Beginning creatures had secluded, themselves, rarely showing up.

Zi Yao was a clone of the Absolute Beginning creature Hui. She was the materialization of Hui's spirit, will, and soul. That year, she had brought Ming Hao and Brian to the Absolute Beginning vestige undersea with the hope of taking back the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower. She had laid a wisp of her Soul Seal in the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower!

That seal had the same aura as her soul. She could use it to control the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower.

"Give it back to me..."

Zi Yao's voice was gentle and charming like a sweet little lover. People who heard her would unconsciously follow her.

"Her attractive voice...Why is it so similar to our Phantom Clan?" Mei Ji's face slightly changed. She had a strange feeling when she saw Zi Yao. It seemed like Zi Yao had a magical connection with the Phantom Clan's enchanting technique.

The women from the Phantom Clan were born with the gift of mind or enchanting secret techniques. It wasn't a power Upanishad, but something magical that existed in their souls.

At this moment, Zi Yao's voice was much similar to when they used the mind or charming techniques.

Shi Yan wore a stiff face.

Many thunderclaps were booming and reverberating in his head. The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower slowly flew out of his soul altar, getting away from his control. The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower had a snake Soul Seal that was hidden deep inside the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower. Shi Yan had never seen it before.

At this moment, that Soul Seal appeared following Zi Yao's voice. It drew the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, heading toward her hand. Zi Yao's seducing voice had attracted his soul, troubling him from concentrating to control the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower.

The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower slowly enlarged as it emerged from Shi Yan's head, flying toward Zi Yao.

Hiro, Edgar, and Montecie had their eyes brightened. They were mesmerized as they gazed at the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower.

Hiro and Montecie were hesitant. They were afraid that they would wound Shi Yan, so they didn't dare to take any rash action.

Edgar didn't mind it that much.

His eyes glowed with a basil green light like a savage wolf seeing its prey. He didn't care why Hui was here, raising his hand to snatch the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower.

The blood hand shadowed the sky, bringing the power of Death, Destruction, and Chaos as it aimed at the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower. A tricolored vortex spun in the middle of the hand. It was black, blood-red, and gray. A terrifying suction force appeared like a giant snake opening its mouth to suck the air, drawing in all lives, souls, and God power of creatures in the surrounding areas.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

The strong blast of wind entered that blood hand. The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower was now a massive kite swaying in the air, as if it was tied to two lines at the same time. Sometimes, it was pulled toward Zi Yao, and in the next moment, it headed to Edgar.

Abruptly, Edgar and Zi Yao were vying for the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower!

"Edgar, your Ancestor taught you rules, didn't he?" Zi Yao was intercepted, so her beautiful face began to frost. "I know your Ancestor has asked you to take the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower. But, if I don't help it with its current condition, do you think it can deal with them? Dare to compete with me! You don't know right and wrong!"

"I don't know what my Ancestor has discussed with you, but I know he really needs the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower!" Edgar's eyes were cold and harsh. "So, I have to get it! No matter who will be my enemy, I will take it!"

"Er..."

Montecie was surprised. Then, she sniggered, her little face happy. "Just let them bite each other!"

Hiro also wanted to get involved in that competition for the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, but he was afraid that he would offend Shi Yan. He hesitated and didn't advance. Seeing Edgar suddenly interrupt Zi Yao, he could finally relax.

Shi Yan's Sea of Consciousness was intruded by Zi Yao's charming technique. At this moment, he was trying to cut off the evil thought in his Sea of Consciousness. He didn't have extra efforts left to do anything.

Thick mist rolled out of the Dark Abyss behind Edgar while waves of blood scent came with the mist. Devour was doing something...

"Finally, you guys have come," Labitte sounded relieved, his voice coming from the Dark Abyss.

Then, a group of Devouring Clan clansmen emerged from the Dark Abyss. Most of them had profound realms at the Immortal Realm, and the lowest realm was the First Sky of Incipient God Realm. There was also a guy who had just reached the Territory Ancestor Realm like Labitte.

Devour had summoned them from the Sea Domain of Nihilism to this Desolate Territory. There were around one hundred of them, giving Edgar a strong backup.

As soon as they appeared, they turned to greet the Dark Abyss using their tribal language. Then, they focused their Soul Consciousness to supply energy to Devour. Slowly, the Dark Abyss changed as it was receiving energy from the others.

A brutal, wild roar of some beast from the chaotic time of the world arose from the Dark Abyss, shaking everybody in this area.

Edgar was pulling the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower from Zi Yao, his face happy and laughing, "Our Ancestor's calling his real body. Wait until he comes...Let's see what you have to vie with us then!"

"True body?" Xuan He, Ming Hao, and Frederick were stunned. They became skeptical. "Isn't that Dark Abyss Devour's real body?"

When Zi Yao heard Edgar, her face changed for the first time. She rolled her eyes at the Dark Abyss. "You dare to take your body out here? You... Aren't you afraid of vanishing in this place? If it finally merges all the clones, within its territory, you and I, or anybody else, will be refined. We can't even run to the end of the void. It will hunt us down and eat us up!"

"ROOOAAAARRRR!"

A roar which conveyed some meanings using the Absolute Beginning language arose from the Dark Abyss, echoing around the Ancient Demon Star Area.

As Zi Yao was distracted, Shi Yan had finally cut off the evil thought in his head. At this moment, he immediately understood the meaning on hearing the roar, "You and I had struck it hard, and its body was divided into five parts. Now, some of its parts have fused with other individuals. It will never be recovered fully!"

That was what that roar conveyed.

Only the ones who understood the Absolute Beginning language could get the message of that roar.

Zi Yao was a clone of Hui, so she could understand it easily. Besides her, only Shi Yan could do that. Since Audrey hadn't fused completely with the Origin, she just felt familiar and got some words of it.

"The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower should belong to me! Do you really want to vie for it against me?" Zi Yao shouted indignantly.

"ROOOAAAARRRR!"

The roar resounded from the Dark Abyss again.

"Phantom had built the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, not you. It should belong to the Phantom Clan! The Phantom Clan was born from Phantom's fragments when she died. How could the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower belong to you?"

Shi Yan understood what Devour was talking, but the others didn't.

He was stunned, turning to look at Montecie and Mei Ji. He knew the origin of the Phantom Clan now.

It turned out that there was another Absolute Beginning creature called Phantom. After she died, the Phantom Clan was created. She was the Ancestor, the soul and flesh of the Phantom Clan.

Phantom had built the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, so it should belong to the Phantom Clan.

“Phantom and I were like sisters. I had contributed a lot of precious materials to build the tower. I’m the co-owner! She is gone, so it should belong to me! If you dare to vie for it, I won’t satisfy you!” Zi Yao used the Absolute Beginning language to reply to Devour.

Some of the warriors here knew the Absolute Beginning written language like Montecie or Hiro. However, they didn’t understand the spoken language. They didn’t know what was going on to react properly.

“You’ve got a clone of Desolate, so you should understand the Absolute Beginning language. What are they talking about?” Montecie turned to Shi Yan, who answered instinctively. “They’re talking about your origin, about your Ancestor. The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower belongs to you guys...”

The warriors of the Phantom Clan were stunned on hearing him. Montecie and Mei Ji had a sparkling light in their eyes. “Tell us more details!” Montecie hissed.

“They said that your ancestor’s called Phantom. After she was gone, her soul and flesh became the Phantom Clan. They also said that Phantom had fabricated the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower...” explained Shi Yan.

Montecie’s and Mei Ji’s soft bodies trembled slightly.

They didn’t know their origin. They didn’t know how the Phantom Clan was created, neither anything about their Ancestor until today!

Finally, they knew that the Ancestor of the Phantom Clan was also an Absolute Beginning creature called “Phantom.” She had even fabricated the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower!

“Ah...haha! Turns out the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower belongs to our Phantom Clan. It’s our possession!” Montecie gritted her teeth, her face grimaced. She urged Shi Yan again, “Why did our Ancestor Phantom die? Listen carefully please. We want to know the details!”

“Do you think you can take the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower using your true body? Don’t forget that half of my true body’s here too! If you dare to come, I can still suppress you!” Zi Yao was filled with the flames of anger.

The void was torn in the center of the Ancient God Continent, revealing the chaotic space basin. Six massive snakes were discernible, half of their bodies connected to the Ancient God Continent. Explosions echoed deafeningly; as the mountains cracked and collapsed, a bunch of giant snakes crawled out of the ground.

The snakes hissed at the voice as if they wanted to scare some creature away from this area.

The space passage was cracked open above the God Zenith on the Ancient God Continent. People could vaguely see the scenes happening on the Ancient Demon Continent.

It seemed that as long as the Ancient Demon Continent had some commotion, half of Hui’s real body could come from the chaotic space basin and join with the other half on the Ancient God Continent. Then, they could come to the Ancient Demon Continent at any minute.

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1493: I saw that I died!

In a corner of the Ancient God Star Area, seven suns were burning brightly. The magnificent red-orange flames on them were like fish scales moving in water. A small space floated in the center of the seven suns, in between the levitating flames.

A ferocious beast slowly moved inside the current of lava. Its belly made a “boop boop” sound as if it was burning fierily. The seven blazing suns sent the furious flames toward that beast and quenched its body. The beast looked like a scorching, red iron.

It was Ghost Hunter in its bestial body!

Sizzle! Sizzle! Sizzle!

It sank into the rapid lava current as the acid fluid inside the stomach was melting Pu Tai’s body to take in the remainder of Bloodthirsty’s aura in Pu Tai’s body.

It roared earth-shakingly, which stimulated the flames. The seven suns exploded at the same time.

After the suns were shattered, a space tear emerged, two ancient continents flying out of it. They were the Desolate and Ancient Demon Continent.

The sky was filled with the shooting flames from the broken suns. With such a background, the two continents magically merged together like two drops of water.

After less than ten seconds, the two ancient continents became one, turning into a massive, dazzling planet.

Ghost Hunter swelled and doubled his size. His bestial body moved above the ancient continent to absorb the immensely abundant heaven and earth energy there. The life energy in his body accumulated and fluctuated incredibly and his eyes changed slowly. They weren’t savage anymore, and had become calm and archaic like a prominent wise, old man or a sage. He gave people an impression of a person with a deep and wide knowledge.

Waves of blinding light emerged from the beast. Slowly, he transfigured into his human form.

He was still Ghost Hunter, who somehow took after Shi Yan. However, his aura was mysterious and profound, his eyes like deep lakes that people could never gauge in terms of the mysteries they kept.

He turned toward a direction and flew away. The massive continent that had just formed followed him closely like his shadow.

On another sun, God Lord Brian looked stern. Five-colored flames shot out of his eyes as he was having some magical transformation.

Brian had the Immortal Realm cultivation base with the Dark Energy, being just one small step away from the Territory Ancestor Realm. At this moment, he was fusing the heaven flames for the last time to activate the seal of Desolate's clone in his Sea of Consciousness. It would help him understand the Absolute Beginning language and something marvelous of that era.

Ten thousand years ago, he got the ability to fuse the heaven flames. However, he had hesitated and didn't make that step. He wasn't so sure that he would still be himself if he took that step. He was afraid that Desolate's clone would possess him.

Thus, he had hesitated for ten thousand years, not daring to try. He had laid his hope in Shi Yan, waiting to see what would happen to him.

While they were on the seabed of the Sea of Annihilation, his soul and Audrey's soul had fused with Desolate's clone in Shi Yan; they had all survived, and nothing unexpected happened. Moreover, Audrey got the Soul Refining Cauldron while he got the Dark Energy. Shi Yan had also received big benefits.

He thought that if he finally fused all the heaven flames, the error wouldn't happen like he had thought. Thus, he now started his final fusion.

The five-colored, magnificent flames mingled with each other in his Sea of Consciousness. His soul was light, floating through the past and present, sinking in the river of Time.

He was just a bystander watching a terrifying battle. This scale of battle should belong to the Absolute Beginning Era. It was the war between the Absolute Beginning creatures.

He could see many pieces of memory from one of the five clones of Desolate. Although the images he got weren't complete, they were parts of the history of that era when he had fused with the heaven flames and the Origin of the Grace Mainland.

Time flew hurriedly; vaguely, it seemed so long, but short like a blink of an eye at the same time. He didn't actually have any concept of time.

He woke up, his eyes puzzled. Right after that, he seemed to realize something magical, and his expression changed.

Lifting his head, he faced the sky.

Something had shaded the sun. He focused and found a massive planet. From that planet, he could feel an old but very powerful aura that he couldn't resist. That aura...he used to sense it: it was Desolate's aura.

Ghost Hunter plunged from that continent, landing by him. Brian was frightened as a strong vibe came from deep in his soul. It was a desperate feeling from when the apocalypse had happened.

He had the consciousness of Desolate in his soul, so he knew who this Ghost Hunter standing in front of him was.

"In my world, there shouldn't be a new Territory Ancestor. Otherwise, my world will be divided, and my strength will be split up." Ghost Hunter looked at him indifferently. His face had the expression that shouldn't appear on a human, looking extremely nonchalant. "After Bloodthirsty had reached the Territory Ancestor Realm, you also joined that bloody battle. You still didn't get it, did you?"

Ghost Hunter spoke in Absolute Beginning language.

Brian understood clearly. He was dazed for a while, then he ran away as soon as he realized something suddenly.

“As you’ve completely fused with my clone and a part of my soul, you’re predestined to be killed,” said Ghost Hunter, his face cold. “Every ten thousand years, I gave away a Genesis Fruit. I hoped the one who got it could merge all of my clones into one. Unfortunately, no one succeeded. The chosen one this time has a high success rate. But, I didn’t estimate that Hui and Devour would be awakened. I didn’t give him more time to do that. It’s really begrudging that I have to take action earlier than planned. Although I will have to lose part of my power, I don’t have any other options around...”

Ghost Hunter opened his arms, his hands towering the entire sky. Billions of holy rays tied Brian’s soul and destiny like a cage.

“You’re a loser! If you had succeeded that year, there wouldn’t have been many troubles like that.” Ghost Hunter spoke coldly. Then, he opened his mouth and inhaled. Brian was like a frozen, tiny person. The light refined him and dragged him into Ghost Hunter’s mouth. “You were born in my world. From the moment you were born, you got my Soul Seal. How could you rebel against me?”

Swish!

Brian had turned into a streak of light, disappearing into Ghost Hunter’s mouth. Ghost Hunter flashed and reappeared on the ancient continent above his head.

That ancient continent moved strangely inside the Ancient God Star Area, heading toward the Ancient God Continent of the God Clan.

“Listen and tell us what they are talking about. I want to know the origin of our Phantom Clan and why our Ancestor died!” Montecie asked Shi Yan to listen carefully. Shi Yan frowned. He listened to her and eavesdropped at the conversation between Devour and Zi Yao.

He was different from Brian. After fusing completely with the heaven flames—the Origin, he could see some events in the Absolute Beginning Era, and could understand the Absolute Beginning language. However, he still didn’t know about the conflict between those Absolute Beginning creatures.

He knew one-fifth of what Desolate had experienced. They were just missing pieces of a whole picture, which didn’t help him much.

It was like he got only a piece of a five-pieced picture. He couldn’t know what that picture was about. As long as he gathered all the pieces, he could know about the full contents.

“Oh!”

Shi Yan suddenly screamed in fear, his face pale. He put a hand on his forehead while mumbling, “I don’t know why I feel extremely insecure like something very terrible has happened...”

This feeling had come unknowingly, and it was hard to explain. It was the instinctive feeling that came from deep inside his soul.

“Ah!”

Audrey screamed from behind him. She was clutching her head, her eyes panic-stricken as if she had seen something very horrible. She shook her head and screamed ear-piercingly, "Don't come here! Don't come here!" It seemed like she was tortured by her nightmare.

"What's wrong? Are you okay?" Adele screamed.

"I...I saw that I died. I saw someone kill me!" Audrey yelled like she was suffering from some serious mental disease. She didn't have any color on her face. "It's like I foresaw something that would happen in the near future. It's so scary..."

Shi Yan darkened his face. He walked to Audrey, lowering his voice, "In your nightmare, who...killed you?"

"Ghost Hunter! It's Ghost Hunter who had killed me!" Audrey shook her head helplessly. "God Lord Brian was killed. I'm sure he was killed. I saw Ghost Hunter kill and then eat him!"

"You're just tired. You should rest first. You got a nightmare in daylight. It seems you've borne a lot of pressure these days," Adele tried to comfort her.

"No! It's not a dream!" Montecie who cultivated Time power Upanishad intervened, "What she saw will happen soon. She's a soul clone of Desolate. She has Desolate's Seal in her soul, so she can vaguely get what Desolate has calculated."

Montecie turned to Shi Yan, then pondered then said, "Before that man appeared, I had felt strange. I think it doesn't look like a beast. Now that I have heard from Audrey, I'm sure he's Desolate! He got the thought of killing Audrey, and she could feel that because she has a part of its soul in her head! It's like the connection between your host soul and the co-soul. You can exchange thought and plans. Audrey can get its ideas that way too."

"Shi Yan, you've made another step ahead of Audrey. You've completely fused with one of its soul clones. If Audrey can feel something, what about you?" Ming Hao asked.

Xuan He, Frederick and the others turned toward him, their faces uncontrollably stern.

"I could only feel that something terrible is about to happen. But, it's not clear like Audrey. I don't know why." Shi Yan squinted as a terrifying fear churned in his heart. He had never thought that Desolate would possess Ghost Hunter.

Ghost Hunter...Ghost Hunter...Did he develop the magical relationship with Desolate because he had swallowed Cang Yun, or was he a piece on its chessboard right from the beginning?

Is he the perfect creature Desolate had used the second essence drop of its blood to create after Bloodthirsty?

Chapter 1494: The true body arrives!

At the end of the void where space rolled and shattered, so many wrecked battleships and corpses were floating and drifting around. It was an ancient battlefield.

Until today, this place was still an abandoned place. Even the Territory Ancestor Realm experts from the Seven Great Clans didn't dare to wander in this area. It was at the edge of the Sea Domain of Nihilism.

A spot that had layers of corpses, battleships, and broken stars suddenly shook fiercely for a while. A beast roar came from that spot, which people had never heard before. Billions of light beams boomed and an Absolute Beginning creature emerged in all this commotion. It was as big as a whole planet, with innumerable tentacles.

At first glance, that Absolute Beginning creature resembled a giant octopus that had been zoomed billions of times. From some aspects, it looked like a massive leech with tentacles and suckers. When it wiggled its massive body, space around twisted as if it could collapse at any minute.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Thick darkness multiplied under this ink-black creature, creating a deep abyss.

It slowly sank, disappearing into that abyss of darkness. As soon as it disappeared, the ancient battlefield where it had hidden for so many years exploded immediately.

The bestial roaring thundered unceasingly from the Dark Abyss in the Ancient Demon Star Area. The thousand-meter-long tentacles jutted out of the abyss, wriggling and twisting their way you.

The members of the Devouring Clan like Edgar and Labitte were full of admiration and respect. They pressed their foreheads on those suckers like children receiving love from their parents; they looked happy and satisfied.

"Welcome Ancestor!"

"Welcome Ancestor!"

"Welcome Ancestor!"

Edgar, Labitte, and all other members of the Devouring Clan cheered wholeheartedly, their faces filled with joy.

Shi Yan felt chilled. He suddenly realized that the entire world was frozen by some evil power. And, although he was the master of this star area, Shi Yan had lost his control.

His face changed drastically. When he heard Edgar and the others cheering, he knew that the horrible incident had happened. "Devour's real body has arrived at the Dark Abyss. It's complete now!"

The moment the tentacles stretched outward from the Dark Abyss, Montecie and Hiro knew that it wasn't good. They stopped talking, their faces solemn, especially Montecie and Hiro. After a while, Hiro sighed, "What a powerful life magnetic field!"

"Yeah, that's the Absolute Beginning creature which has lived for billions of years. No matter what they've experienced, their life form and level are the most terrifying," Montecie was also surprised, nodding her head.

“I got it!” Hiro’s eyes brightened. “The Dark Abyss is just the brain of Devour’s body. It’s like his territory. What has just arrived is his real body! He’s complete now. His energy fluctuations are more intimidating than Edgar’s!”

“Desolate and Hui had joined hands and fought against Desolate, who was divided into five pieces. Devour and Hui were hurt severely, and then they all went dormant,” Shi Yan remembered the images he got in his head, talking gloomily, “But, Devour hasn’t recovered its strength fully now...”

“Hasn’t recovered fully?” Montecie looked bitter.

“He dares come here!”

However, at this moment, Zi Yao was enraged. Her beautiful face looked as though she had a flame on it. Her pretty pupils had nine brilliant rainbows.

ROAR!

The beast roared crazily from Zi Yao’s body, no less brutal and evil than Devour. Right above Zi Yao, a massive snakehead swayed through the space slit and broke it.

Twelve snakes—Hui’s true body—were coming while bringing its wrath. They wanted to take the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower and arrive at this Desolate Territory to fight Devour.

“The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower is used to refine the Absolute Beginning Original Symbol. It’s really magical and precious. But, it’s just a tower, and the two Absolute Beginning creatures even want to fight with their real bodies? Don’t you think they are making a scene?” Mei Ji was shaken. She didn’t care about the others anymore as she clutched Shi Yan, her face surprised.

After she had reached the Territory Ancestor Realm, Mei Ji was more deliberate. She didn’t care about what the others might think anymore.

“Perhaps the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower has something magical we don’t know yet. Otherwise, Devour and Hui wouldn’t need to fight like that.” Shi Yan was puzzled as well.

He thought that when he obtained the Grace Mainland’s Origin completely, he could understand the Absolute Beginning language to decode the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower.

But, it wasn’t that simple.

He had fused with one soul clone of Desolate and finally understood the Absolute Beginning language, becoming able to read the tadpole symbols. However, he hadn’t found the secrets of the tower yet. It seemed that there was something stopped him from knowing the secret. He guessed that it should be something really big.

“Phantom and I had to endure so many obstacles to create this key. To make it, we had to pay a lot. Phantom has fallen, perhaps because of this tower. You dare to take things belonged to me! No matter what, I will let you know my power.”

Zi Yao became frantic all of a sudden, screaming in Absolute Beginning language. Amidst her screams, many massive snakes appeared in the void.

Hui's body was in the Ancient God Star Area to refine the Ancient God Continent. Since Devour had brought its real body here, she couldn't help but tear the space to arrive as well.

This star area became completely chaotic because of the two Absolute Beginning creatures.

Shi Yan had fused with the Origin of the Grace Mainland. In this star area, he was affected, so he couldn't use the power from the planets anymore. He had recognized that the Ancient Demon Star Area couldn't endure it, even though the two beasts hadn't fought yet.

"Key?"

Shi Yan was startled when he got the keyword from the two's dialogue.

Finally, he could confirm that the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower wasn't only used to create the Absolute Beginning Original Symbol. It was also a crucial key. But, Hui and Devour hadn't mentioned the function of this key.

"What are they talking about?" asked Hiro and Montecie.

"Nothing important. They're just quarreling." He didn't want to share the information about the key with Montecie and Hiro.

"Shi Yan!"

The little skeleton hadn't said anything since the beginning. At this moment, it came and looked at Shi Yan, his eyes begging.

Hiro and Gay reacted, and the former said, "How are you doing? You got a lot of energy already. Is it enough to awaken our precursors?"

Shi Yan nodded toward Gay in response, who used his power to make the two coffins fly over, ceasing right in front of Shi Yan.

At this moment, Hiro and Gay had observed the situation and found that everything had turned beyond their control. They didn't know if the White Bone Clan could receive any benefit from this. Thus, if they could achieve the goal of this trip a little earlier, they could retreat shortly and easily.

The members of the White Bone Clan opened their eyes wide, yearning and waiting. Shi Yan pondered for a while and then ignored the quarrel between Hui and Devour, talking, "Let me try."

The black holes of the Devouring power Upanishad in his acupuncture points were stirred up as he willed. They were like fierce furnaces that sent the mysterious rolling energy from his acupuncture points to his Incipient Extent. The Light Ball created by his Life power Upanishad was sucking the energy quickly.

Shortly, the Absolute Beginning Original Symbol inside the Life Ball, an amber source of life, was brimming with an incredible vitality.

Shi Yan held his breath, rolling his eyes. He used the Absolute Beginning language, hissing, "Surging Vitality!"

Boom!

Two flows of sea-like vitality gushed out of his eyes. That sort of energy was ivory colored and crystal clear, which could create lives and nurture every creature. The abundant vitality was poured into the two skeletons inside the coffins, which were ash-gray and didn't look shiny, seeming about to decay soon.

Receiving the life energy, the skeletons glowed slowly. Light dots like the fireflies flashed inside the skeletons. It seemed that their flame of soul had been ignited one more time. The light dots moved slowly and stopped in their skulls, entering the soul altars.

Thump! Thum! Thump! Thump!

Although the life energy in them was feeble, Shi Yan could hear the heartbeat clearly. Hiro, who was at the Second Sky of Immortal Realm, sensed it immediately and screamed in thrill, "It has worked!"

The little skeleton had tears in his eyes. His bony arms stroked his parents' bodies, speaking in the ancient language of the White Bone Clan. "Father, Mother..."

At the same time, on the Ancient God Continent...

Because the heaven snakes of Hui's body had continually sucked the energy of the continent, the Ancient God Continent had only the ash-gray gas hovering in the atmosphere; there were no creatures on this planet. The mountains collapsed and the rivers dried. Without a minute sign of life, it was a barren, isolated planet.

There were several life stars around where dwelled the twelve families of the God Clan. They lived there to guard the Ancient God Continent.

All of them had the green snake mark on their foreheads: they had a new Master now. Hui was now their Goddess Mother; they had lost their faith and betrayed their bloodline.

At this moment, Charlint of the Charteris family was cultivating on a life star when his heart suddenly beat frantically. He couldn't help but lift his head to look at the high sky while mumbling. "Why do I feel like a kalpa's about to come? This feeling comes from deep in my soul, but it's really magical..."

He was not the only one who had that feeling. The ones whom Zi Yao had asked to guard this area were also frightened unknowingly. It was like a shadow had shrouded their soul altar, pressing their soul and making them insecure.

A great planet came with so many clusters of clouds, shadowing the entire Ancient God Continent.

Charlint and everybody else were frightened. They walked out of their life stars, watching the colossal planet in fear.

Hui's body had just left. She had sent her soul message through the snake mark on her subordinates to make them watch over the Ancient God Continent. After just a second, something really bad was about to happen.

The warriors who stayed here like Charlint were insecure, looking at that planet when a shadow slowly came into their vision.

It was Ghost Hunter!

As soon as he emerged, his eyes showed his cold and resolute intention. “Hui can hide your souls, but it can’t erase the mark I’ve left inside you. Unless it has finished the Ancient God Continent, the mark will still work. Too bad for you guys that I’ve had Brian and the soul clone of the Ancient God Continent. So, you low people who have betrayed me once, you’ve been predestined to be erased.”

Thousands of magical light rays rained from the sky like sharp daggers, piercing through Charlint’s and the others’ soul altars.

Everyone with the snake mark on their foreheads was killed instantly!

Not long after Hui’s body was gone, the Ancient God Continent, after billions of years apart, had finally returned to Desolate.

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1495: The day the star area ends!

The two ash-gray skeletons inside the coffins slowly had a fulgent light emitting from them; vitality could be detected inside their skulls.

The little skeleton had tears in his eyes, holding his parents’ hands while crying inaudibly.

Hiro’s eyes were red as well. “Even though we didn’t get anything from Desolate Territory, it’s enough that they’re finally awakened.”

“Congratulations! The White Bone Clan will have two more Territory Ancestor Realm experts! The White Bone Clan will thrive faster now!” Montecie congratulated sincerely.

Hiro and the White Bone Clan members were joyful, nodding excitedly.

Shi Yan stood still, his eyes closed while the energy on his body moved unceasingly. Suddenly, he opened his eyes, looking at Ming Hao, Xuan He, and Frederick. “Your chance’s coming...”

Ming Hao, Xuan He, and Frederick were thrilled; they knew what Shi Yan meant. They immediately prepared to receive the energy from him.

“That Power Upanishad Symbol Tower...” Mei Ji said skeptically.

At this moment, the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower was floating between Hui and the Dark Abyss. Zi Yao was sitting on the head of a massive snake, her face cold, her eyes radiant.

Tian Xie and the others hovered behind that snake, struggling with the Devouring Clan.

On the Devouring Clan’s side, Edgar, Labitte, and the others were surrounding the Dark Abyss. The two energies, one was the nine-colored outer space divine light and the other was a column of dark light, were coiling around the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, pulling and tugging.

Hui and Devour vied for the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, but they didn’t ignite the battle. They didn’t use their lives to fight, as it seemed that they were both afraid of something.

They didn't mind Shi Yan's team much. To them, the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower was the most important thing.

Mei Ji screamed as she wanted to ask if Shi Yan wanted to join that competition for the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower. Anyway, the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower had a connection with him and his co-soul.

As Shi Yan was about to answer her, he felt his soul shaking hard; he then turned to Audrey.

Audrey was shivering, sweat beading her forehead. It was like she was having a nightmare, and the darkness had shrouded her one more time. She was panicked beyond words.

He suddenly recognized a terrifying threat that had risen and expanded like the tide. He pondered, then talked to Hiro and Montecie. "We should get back to the Grace Mainland first. I am giving the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower up. I feel quite insecure right now!"

Hiro and Montecie turned to Audrey as if they could also feel that horrible terror. Montecie cried, "It...Has it awakened?"

"It has woken up." Shi Yan forced a smile. "Audrey saw Brian being killed. It means it's taking action. Because Audrey, Brian, and I have a soul connection, I know it has started to take action. Since Hui and Devour are in its territory, they don't know yet."

Everybody was terrified.

In one's territory, there was no chance to defeat him. Shi Yan's presumption had frightened everybody else. Without hesitation, they nodded as they knew that the situation would be unfavorable.

"We should return to the Grace Mainland first. Then, we have to move the Grace Mainland out of here!" Shi Yan resolutely said, and everybody nodded in agreement.

While Devour and Hui were still vying for the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, Shi Yan, Hiro, Montecie, and the others had forcefully torn the space barriers to leave the Ancient Demon Continent.

They urged the power Upanishads, using the maximum speed to enter the Agate Star Area and Grace Mainland.

"Shi Yan, are you going to move the Grace Mainland out of Desolate Territory?" When Xia Xin Yan and Fu Wei got to know of Shi Yan's intention, they were scared out of their wits. They thought that he was crazy.

"I don't have time to explain carefully. The Grace Mainland must leave Desolate Territory as fast as possible. Otherwise, it will be the biggest calamity ever." Shi Yan looked worried. He thought, then asked Ming Hao and DeCarlos, "You've mastered Space power Upanishad. I'm giving you four hours. You must bring all the warriors who have a good relationship with us to the Grace Mainland. We're in a rush. I hope you can do that as fast as you can!"

"Shi Yan, can you tell us what's going on? What will happen to Desolate Territory?" Blood Devil and Yang Tian Emperor changed their countenances.

Checking Audrey, Shi Yan tried to find the premonition in his soul. He took a deep breath and then said, "Desolate will destroy this world to gather energy. All creatures in this Desolate Territory have taken in the heaven and earth energy. So, the stronger they are, the more energy they have used. When Desolate was separated, it couldn't do that. But now, it has woken up. All the warriors born in Desolate Territory are parts of its power. In the past, it wouldn't do that. But now, it needs a lot of energy to fight Devour and Hui. It's possible that it will annihilate this entire world to gather energy!"

Shi Yan only had a vague feeling, which wasn't really clear. "Normal people wouldn't be killed because they didn't absorb the heaven and earth energy. Hence, Desolate won't aim at them. It wants warriors...The stronger the warriors are, the harder it will be to escape!"

Yang Tian Emperor, Blood Devil, Xuan He, Ming Hao, and DeCarlos were chilled from fear.

"If I'm not wrong, it has started now. Today, it's slaughtering the Ancient God Star Area." Shi Yan took a deep breath and shouted, "We don't have much time. You guys, scatter and take action. I know the Grace Mainland has many teleportation formations. Every warrior with Space power Upanishad should activate them all. Bring the ones who have a good relationship with us here! Hurry up!"

DeCarlos and Ming Hao exchanged looks, then turned into jets of light and disappeared. Ming Hao had prepared to receive energy from Shi Yan, but now, he didn't care that much, immediately flying away.

"All of you, go!" Shi Yan urged.

Xia Xin Yan, Yang Tian Emperor, Blood Devil, and Holy Beast Azure Dragon of the Heavenly Monster Tribe, as well as Fu Wei of the Potion and Tool Pavilion, looked like they knew that the end of the world was near. They turned into jets of light, moving away to prepare.

Shi Yan tried to control, not letting his energy vanish as he talked to Hiro and Montecie, "Give us some time!"

"Alright!" Hiro and Montecie nodded, "You should know your limit. We can't linger here. If Desolate has recovered fully, you're not his match in this Desolate Territory. Hui and Devour are here too. If they can't realize this situation earlier, they will face big troubles as well."

"I know. After it killed all the creatures in the Ancient God Star Area, it will come for Audrey and me. We're the key!" Shi Yan felt a flame burning his heart. "Watch the Grace Mainland for me. I have to leave and prepare. I owe somebody, and have to bring them with me."

"Sure!" Hiro and Montecie understood how dangerous the situation was, so they didn't ask and just agreed immediately.

Shi Yan's body flashed, disappearing into the void of the Grace Mainland. In just a blink of an eye, he had moved thousands of miles.

Fortunately, the Agate Star Area had merged with many other star areas. With the Origin of the Grace Mainland, Shi Yan could create the connection with the other stars in this star area to teleport immediately.

He reappeared in the Fantasy Mist Star Area, landing on a life star. It was the Water Cloud Star under the Drifting Fire's management. The Shang family was cultivating in a massive city. Shang Ying Yue was trying to comprehend her power inside a snow chamber.

Shi Yan appeared there all of a sudden.

"Who's there?" Shang Ying Yue opened her eyes, carrying a murderous aura. However, she turned thrilled instantly, screaming ear-piercingly, "Shi Yan!"

"Come here, all of you!" Shi Yan's Soul Consciousness covered every corner of the city. Shang Qiu, An Liya, Shang Chen, and Shussia had received his message. They immediately gathered in the secret chamber.

"Shi Yan, where have you been?"

"Kid, why are you here?"

"What happened?"

Shi Yan wore a heavy face, "I don't have time to explain much. I'm here to take you away. I give you fifteen minutes to prep. Then, I will take you out of here. I repeat, you have fifteen minutes to bring your relatives here. All the experts in this star area will be killed shortly. If you want to live, you have to listen to me!"

He looked at Shang Ying Yue deep in her eyes and then disappeared.

Everybody of the Shang family was petrified. Shang Qiu and An Liya didn't get a clue. They thought that Shi Yan was crazy.

Shang Chen was bewildered for a while and then yelled resolutely, "Why are you still idle? He gave us only fifteen minutes. You think you got plenty of time? Move, quick! Gather all the people you want to take with you!"

"Hey?" An Liya was perplexed.

"Shut up!" Shang Chen bellowed, "Move, quickly! He's the master of the Bloodthirsty Force now. His life magnetic field is much more powerful than Ming Hao. Do you think he would come here just to prank you at his realm and new position?"

An Liya was frightened. Shussia, her mother, also knew that the doomsday was coming. She hurried as if she had her brows on fire. "Do as he said!"

Shi Yan's next stop was the Fiery Rain Star Area.

Yu Shan was teaching Xuan Fei Fire power Upanishad inside a massive volcano with running lava. She had set up layers of barriers that normal people couldn't break.

Boop! Boop! Boop!

Yu Shan knew her barriers were torn. As she was still baffled, she saw a shadow landing. It was Shi Yan!

“All creatures in this star area will be obliterated soon. If you want to live, leave with me. Now!” Shi Yan didn’t talk any nonsense. As soon as he arrived, he told them his purpose right away.

Yu Shan and Xuan Fei were dumbstruck, looking at him blankly. After a while, Yu Shan nodded solemnly, “We always work alone. We can leave at any minute.”

And just like that, they left the place with Shi Yan.

With Soul Control power Upanishad, Shi Yan could make thousands of soul clones visit the Gu God Sect in the Hollow Fearsome Star Area, the Wu family in the Prosaic Star Area, and the Xiao Family in the Sirius Star Area...

At the same time, DeCarlos, Ming Hao, Xuan He, and Frederick were gathering all the ones they could at their maximum speed.

The warriors in the Agate Star Area like Fu Wei, Blood Devil, Gu Te, and Bath also took action. The teleportation formations on the Grace Mainland were working at their max capacity, bringing many warriors to the land. The scattered experts everywhere, the ones who had good connections with Shi Yan, had been gathered.

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1496: The Ark!

Many warriors at high realms in the Ancient God Star Area were crouching on the ground. They faced the deep sky while shaking uncontrollably.

It was due to the vibe that came from deep inside their souls.

Those with a soul altar felt extremely aghast, with a deep despair originating from the soul. They watched the sky and the Ancient God Continent that was disappearing, and many life stars exploding. Finally, they knew something very terrible was taking place in this star area.

Although heaven and earth energy on many life stars was drained, the ordinary human beings weren’t affected. They were safe and sound, even though the most terrifying doomsday was coming.

So many life stars that were higher than level 3 had many warriors gathering to absorb the heaven and earth energy. However, at this moment, those warriors were all dying!

Many soul altars had cracks that they couldn’t heal or stop. They fragmented, scattering everywhere!

Many souls were erased in the Ancient God Star Area!

The massive ancient continent moved above the Ancient God Star Area like a horror phantom that cast its shadow all over the star areas. Wherever it passed, the soul altars of the experts exploded.

A massive ancient tree grew on the ancient continent that could shade the entire ancient continent. Ghost Hunter was standing on the tree, his eyes gray and cold. He didn’t have any human emotions on his face.

The fierce soul magnetic field shot out of him. He was the reason why the others' soul altars were shattered. He was harvesting lives of the powerful experts; he would make this star area his exclusive world. It would change and transform into his sharp weapon.

He drove the ancient continent, moving to a dead star while his cold eyes were gazing at it.

He raised his hands to tear the space.

Crack! Crack!

The icy dead star was cut into pieces as if some metal blades had minced it.

Four shadows stormed out, releasing the strongest powers they had while risking their lives to attack the other.

They were the four Heavenly Kings!

The Four Heavenly Kings were returning to the Ancient God Continent after their failed mission of killing the God Lord. However, they couldn't pierce through the space to return to Hui. They had tried every method they could to leave the Ancient God Star Area.

Unfortunately, the Ancient God Star Area was closed.

After fusing Desolate and the Ancient Demon Continent, Ghost Hunter was slowly recovering. Before he took action, he had sealed the Ancient God Star Area.

If even Hui or Devour came here, they shouldn't dream about getting in!

This was his world. Here, he was the only rule maker, the sole God!

The four Heavenly Kings couldn't escape. They had to hide with the hope of ducking this kalpa. However, in Desolate Territory, they looked funny trying to hide...because no one could!

Ghost Hunter arrived, and they finally admitted that it was the doomsday today. They couldn't duck, so they had to risk their lives.

"You were born because of me...and you will die because of me. It's your fate that was decided when you were born." Ghost Hunter's eyes were cold while glaring at the four Heavenly Kings. Halfway, their bodies withered strangely as though they were big balloons that got deflated. They were dried up shortly.

The light in their eyes dimmed. Before they could reach Ghost Hunter, their soul alters had been shattered already.

The four streams of pure energy scattered, and the towering ancient tree on the ancient continent became lush.

Ghost Hunter stood on the big tree, driving the ancient continent around the Ancient God Star Area to find the spots where the experts were gathered and continuing to bring them a catastrophe.

...

Ancient Demon Star Area...

Zi Yao's graceful body emitted billions of rays, making her the Goddess of auspicious clouds. She used the five-colored rays to tie the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower.

The rough, big tentacles reached out of the Dark Abyss. The Absolute Beginning creature Devour was grunting and roaring, vying for the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower with Zi Yao.

As Zi Yao didn't order them, Tian Xie and the others didn't attack the Devouring Clan warriors. When she had prepared to let her real body attack Devour, her face changed. It was also the moment the four Heavenly Kings were slaughtered...

Different from Charlint and the others, Zi Yao had left a powerful seal in the souls of the four Heavenly Kings. As they were all at the Third Sky of Immortal Realm, Zi Yao had had to pay a big price to make them obey. Thus, when Charlint and the others were massacred in the Ancient God Star Area, Zi Yao didn't feel anything.

But, it was different in case of the Four Heavenly Kings.

When their souls vanished, Zi Yao felt it immediately. She frowned, using the Absolute Beginning language to talk to the Dark Abyss. "Something's wrong!"

The tentacles from the Dark Abyss ceased as it seemed to know that Zi Yao wouldn't cheat, waiting for her to talk more.

Zi Yao stood still, knitting her brows. She released her Soul Consciousness to tear the space and enter the Ancient God Star Area to check the situation. But, she suddenly found that the space barrier of the Ancient God Star Area was now ten times tougher.

Since she couldn't tear the space barrier, it meant that she couldn't enter the star area. She understood instantly!

Except for the Master of the star area, no one could strengthen the space barrier to that level! No one!

"It has awakened!" Zi Yao looked fearful for the first time as she screamed immediately. "It has awakened! It has started to merge the clones!"

By now, she suddenly realized that Shi Yan's side had left all of a sudden. Combining the two stories, she knew that things had gone wrong. "The warrior with the Ancient God Continent's Origin is dead. It must have gotten the Ancient God Continent now. The one with the Ancient Demon Continent's Origin is missing. Surely he was eaten as well."

"You meant that it has fused with two clones already?" Devour screamed from the Dark Abyss.

"Certainly!" Zi Yao took a deep breath, her face stern. "You and I had joined hands, and we couldn't defeat it. We're all hurt now, and it's its territory. So..."

Devour came here for the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower only. Listening to Zi Yao, he said resolutely, "We shouldn't let it take the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower at any cost!"

Swish!

The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower turned into a beam of dark light, falling into the Dark Abyss. Zi Yao didn't stop it.

"We must leave this territory. Fighting here, we won't have a chance to win!" said Zi Yao.

"We should go!"

Devour didn't linger. He announced to his clansmen through the soul message, then the Devouring Clan experts jumped into the Dark Abyss one after another. The Dark Abyss that had existed in Desolate Territory for so many years now shrank and disappeared eventually.

Zi Yao was bewildered. She cursed in Absolute Beginning language, then tore the space, running to the chaotic space basin with Tian Xie and her supporters.

The chaotic space basin outside Desolate Territory was where she used to live. Even if she had to fight Desolate here, she could move freely.

Shortly, all the members of the Devouring Clan, Tian Xie, and Zi Yao's subordinates had disappeared from the Ancient Demon Star Area, which regained its quietness.

Shortly after, the massive ancient continent appeared right where Zi Yao and Devour had just disappeared. Ghost Hunter stood on the Life Ancient Tree on the ancient continent.

He squinted, his face icy cold as he knew that he was late. His archenemies had discovered the strange commotion and left already.

"Well, I haven't fused completely. Otherwise, they wouldn't have escaped," he mumbled, his eyes gazing at another continent—the God-blessed Continent.

Desolate had gotten two of the continents, which had strengthened him a lot. Now, only the God-blessed Mainland and the Grace Mainland were left. He eyed the former, closing his eyes to sense for a while, "That little girl isn't here. If I don't kill her to get her soul, I can't fuse with the body..."

Then, he decided to go to the Grace Mainland Star Area first.

Grace Mainland...

The teleportation formation in different areas on the Grace Mainland flashed constantly, transporting many warriors to this continent. Shi Yan had created many clones, using the Space power Upanishad to move through many planets to gather his friends. Shang Ying Yue, Shang Chen, Wu Feng, Wu Bai, Sha Zhao, Xiao Mu, and the others, had gathered on the Grace Mainland.

Fu Wei, Blood Devil, Feng Han, Ling Xing, Xuan He, Frederick, Ming Hao, and DeCarlos had used all methods they got to bring their friends to Grace Mainland as well.

They were insecure and worried, as they knew the apocalypse was coming.

"What happened, after all? Is it true?" Wu Feng and the Wu family was gathered on a corner of the Grace Mainland. They were still skeptical about what Shi Yan had told them.

“If you don’t believe him, you can decide to not come. It’s not compulsory, anyway.” Shang Ying Yue said.

She also didn’t buy it. She didn’t think that this immense universe would come to an end like Shi Yan had said. However, when she got here, she found many familiar faces, as well as the strikingly powerful experts. She gradually understood that the situation was really serious.

“If this world will be destroyed, how can Shi Yan protect us?” An Liya had a blurry layer in her eyes, asking Shang Chen. Sha Zhao, Xiao Mu, and the others also turned toward Shang Chen, waiting for an answer.

In this moment, they all felt their bodies and spirits sinking. They wanted to clutch on a buoy. They hoped that someone would show them a brighter future.

“This is the Grace Mainland. Shi Yan has fused completely with the Origin of this continent. He’s trying his best to bring us here from miles away. He has his plan to do that.” Although Shang Chen cultivated the Fate power Upanishad, he couldn’t foresee his own fate or the movement principle of this world. It was like a massive shadow was covering everything, such that no one could see the future.

“Precursor Hiro and Montecie, please help me protect this continent from the chaotic currents in the space basin!” Shi Yan appeared in the voice, crying loudly.

Hiro, Montecie, Gay, and many experts nodded at him, waiting solemnly.

“Star floats!”

Starlight bloomed from Shi Yan’s body like the waterfall. Instantly, all the stars in the sky seemed to resonate with him, twinkling brightly like diamonds.

People then found that the Grace Mainland was moving really quickly. They also found that the void out there had so many bands of outer space streamers and energy storms, which were frighteningly dazzling!

They screamed in fright when the entire continent tore the sky and jumped into the chaotic space basin, moving forward rapidly!

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1497: Wipe out the entire world!

A massive planet suddenly appeared in the Grace Mainland Star Area. Ghost Hunter looked enraged; it was the first time he felt so insecure.

The Grace Mainland could escape from Desolate Territory!

His soul moved, and the entire star area emerged in his mind, showing him the population of warriors on different stars, and even their realms.

He was the sole God of this territory!

“They got the girl too!” His face turned colder as he couldn’t detect Audrey’s aura. He didn’t hurry to go to the chaotic space basin. He knew Hui was there. He knew that his power hadn’t recovered fully; if he got in there, he wouldn’t get anything.

So, he decided to merge his territory!

Under the stimulation of his will, spirit, and soul, the three inter-star-areas—Grace Mainland, Ancient Demon, and Ancient God star area—slowly merged with each other.

The impenetrable space barriers between the three star areas became supple like water, then slowly disappeared. Without the space barriers, the star areas merged easily and quickly. Ghost Hunter then used his supernatural power to recover Desolate Territory’s original appearance.

From inside the massive ancient continent, life energy fluctuated. The continents moved, changing the layout of the entire star area.

Ghost Hunter was Desolate’s appearance as he began to move around the new star area. The experts Xuan He, Shi Yan, and Ming Hao didn’t bring with him were killed the same way. The energy from them had become the purest energy in Desolate Territory.

Ming Hao and Xuan He had asked some of them to leave, but they didn’t believe them and decided to stay.

Many people didn’t want to leave their wealth or their grandchildren. Many others thought that they could avoid this slaughter. They hid in the strange forbidden area between the star areas to avoid this kalpa.

However, they couldn’t do anything as they all disappeared amidst Ghost Hunter’s massacre. Deep in their souls was Desolate’s seal, which had rooted since they were born. There was no way to clear it.

With that mark, Ghost Hunter could easily subdue and kill them.

If they were at the Territory Ancestor Realm, they could resist for a while. Anyway, such an invincible existence like Bloodthirsty couldn’t avoid his destiny. After he had reached the Territory Ancestor Realm, he was still obliterated.

At that time, Desolate hadn’t fused with three clones. It just used the hands of the God Clan and the other experts to destroy Bloodthirsty.

But now, he had taken action himself. So, no one could escape!

The three continents were now one, becoming the real Desolate Territory. None of the warriors with the soul altars in this territory could escape Ghost Hunter’s genocide.

Due to their deaths, the earth and heaven energy in Desolate Territory became thicker magically, and more marvelous life stars were created. The Life Ancient Tree on the ancient continent became more vibrant and towering. The life magnetic field became almost viscous.

Chaotic space basin...

It was a strange place where no life star had ever existed. A massive planet flew quickly, crossing the place. That planet had layers of gold, silver, and orange-red halos that covered it entirely.

The cold flood of outer space, colliding asteroids, and strong blasts of winds were wreaking havoc everywhere, hitting that planet.

However, under the protection of those massive light cages, explosions happened continually like the most brilliant fireworks outside the planet. However, it couldn't affect the space inside by even a bit.

Millions of warriors were gathered on the planet. Most of them had high realms, but they had never had a chance to visit the chaotic space basin. At this moment, looking at the strange and terrifying scenes around them with energy attacking their planet, they were petrified.

They had finally recognized that they had finally left their familiar surroundings, leaving for a strange place.

Most of them believed in Shi Yan and what he had told him. But, some still held onto their belief that their sky wouldn't face the apocalypse like he had mentioned.

...

The sky above the Immortal Island...

In between so many clusters of clouds, Shi Yan, Montecie, Hiro, and the other experts sat on the clouds, their power surging. Light columns raised alarming smoke that reached the sky.

As soon as those light columns connected the light cages around the planet, they strengthened their protection, preventing them from the dangers in outer space.

Next to them, Audrey was unconscious. Ming Hao and Adele were watching her, in case something happened to her.

Ming Hong's little figure appeared on Audrey's shoulder, his face aghast. He was so weak; after his soul form came out, he swayed as if he was affected badly. Ming Hao and Adele hurried to send him energy and protect his soul.

Then, Ming Hao asked him what had happened.

He was Audrey's soul slave, so he had a soul connection with her, which enabled him to know about her condition. As he had finally gotten out, he should have something to say.

Ming Hong turned to Shi Yan, admiring him, "It's lucky that we have him. If he hadn't taken action resolutely to move the Grace Mainland, we would have all been killed..." It was the first thing Ming Hong said.

Shi Yan was connected to the Grace Mainland, protecting it from the dangers in the chaotic space basin. He didn't hear Ming Hong appraising him.

"What had happened?" Adele asked hurriedly.

"After we left Desolate Territory, I could escape that nightmare and get out of Audrey's head," Ming Hong pulled a stern face. "In her nightmare, I saw the things that happened in Desolate Territory. It was a world-destroying calamity! As long as the warriors had soul altars, they couldn't escape death! The space barriers between the Grace Mainland Star Area, the Ancient God Star Area, and the Ancient Demon Star Area are gone. The three star areas have merged into one, turning into the original appearance of Desolate Territory. Desolate was divided into five parts, and because of different parts, many smaller star areas had appeared. However, they are all gone. Now, we have only one Desolate Territory..."

Xuan He, Ming Hao, Adele, and DeCarlos stood around them. Listening to Ming Hong, they all had a pale face.

They finally believed in Shi Yan. He was right, and his resolution had saved everybody. They weren't killed in Desolate Territory.

Without Shi Yan, they would have been ignorant till their deaths. They wouldn't have known the terrifying things waiting for them, and would have been like the ones who were killed. They would have ended their lives in fear and despair.

Ming Hao, Xuan He, and Frederick looked at Shi Yan, feeling sincere respect from the bottom of their hearts for him.

They had finally believed in him.

"Ohh..."

All of a sudden, they heard someone groaning inside the two coffins by the little skeleton, who jumped in excitement. "They woke up! My parents have finally woken up!"

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1498: Foresight

The two precursors of the White Bone Clan had slept for ten thousand years. At this moment, people could see lights glowing in their skulls as they were about to wake up.

Hiro and Gay were in midair, helping Shi Yan create and maintain the light protection while they were moving in the chaotic space basin. When they heard the little skeleton cheer happily, they became astonished and joyful as well.

Among the Seven Great Clans, the White Bone Clan was famous for their solidarity. However, their reproduction was a problem. That's why they had never had a civil war. For the welfare of the race, the White Bone Clan members could sacrifice themselves without a thought.

To wake up their precursors, Hiro and Gay had crossed thousands of miles to Desolate Territory. It was an excellent example of their unity.

"Is it okay now?" Hiro turned to Montecie, "Can I go down first?"

Montecie's little face had a thin layer of sweat. She gave him a slight gentle nod, her eyes looking tired.

Hiro immediately landed on the continent, approaching the little skeleton and eyeing the two precursors with a bright look. As he was watching, the two precursors of the White Bone Clan murmured something as if they were sleep-talking. Then, they slowly opened their eyes. However, they still looked low-spirited and weak. It would be hard for them to recover shortly.

They all looked at the little skeleton, their eyes showing their deep love and affection...

“Father, Mother...” The little skeleton was so happy that he burst in tears.

“My son, it’s our biggest luck to see you now. We can’t believe we can see you again!” The female skeleton raised her shining bone hand to fondle the little skeleton’s smooth forehead. She was talking in the archaic language of the White Bone Clan.

In the sky, Shi Yan’s body gushed out starlight, which strengthened layers of light protection outside the Grace Mainland.

After a while, he stopped, nodding to Montecie. “It’s laborious for you.”

“You’re welcome,” Montecie smiled gently. “We’re family. Don’t be too polite.” She threw a glance to Mei Ji, who was shy and blushing.

Shi Yan descended, only to see the little skeleton talk to his parents, and Hiro, Gay, and the other members of the White Bone Clan greet their precursors. He nodded inwardly, then landed by Xuan He, Frederick, and Ming Hao, sending his soul message.

After one hour, the warriors cultivating the eight power Upanishads like Yang Tian Emperor, Blood Devil, Leona, Ka Tuo, and Fei Lan gathered.

They were skeptical when they saw Shi Yan, because they didn’t know why he had called for them.

“I killed Pu Tai in the Ancient Demon Star Area, and obtained his power Upanishads, soul, and spirit. After I had absorbed him, I’ve reached the Third Sky of Immortal Realm. Then, Hiro and Montecie joined hands to fight Devour, also giving me a lot of pure energy. It’s really enormous...”

Shi Yan spoke calmly, his eyes bright like diamonds as he gazed at the others. Xuan He, Fei Lan, and the others were shaken with excitement. As they were used to it, they knew what would happen next.

They didn’t need Shi Yan to talk more, immediately sitting down cross-legged and surrounding him.

“This amount of energy was extremely enormous. I will need time to digest and refine it. You guys should be ready.” Shi Yan checked his body, his face earnest.

Many of the warriors whom Devour had killed instantly had a profound realm, most of them being at the Incipient God Realm. Their energy was enough for Shi Yan to accumulate his God power to the upper limits of the Third Sky of Immortal Realm. Moreover, he still had a huge amount of extra energy he couldn’t digest in his body, which would benefit the Bloodthirsty Force a lot.

Shi Yan sat down, closing his eyes to digest the energy in his soul altar and acupuncture points.

Adele looked fearful, while Gillette and the other hotshots of the Imperial Dark Tribe looked pensive. Audrey seemed to sink deep in a terrible nightmare. She was still unconscious, and her condition was getting worse.

“Is it true that we don’t have a solution?” Adele stroked her daughter’s hair, her face worried. “Your soul has fused with hers. Can you wake her up?”

Ming Hong looked bitter. At this moment, he was pocket-sized, standing on Audrey’s shoulder. He shook his head, “I don’t know why I can’t see what’s going on in her dream. I know her condition must relate to Desolate. As Desolate’s getting stronger, she will become weaker and weaker. She could die eventually.”

The warriors of the Imperial Dark Tribe wore a desperate look when they heard him say so.

“How could it be?” Adele shook her head continually as she couldn’t believe it, “Shi Yan also has the Origin. Why wasn’t he affected? I can see that he’s alright.”

Ming Hong was also suspicious, looking at Shi Yan from a distance. At this moment, Shi Yan was refining the energy he had absorbed to give to the ones surrounding him. Xuan He, Ming Hao, Frederick, and the warriors cultivating the eight evil power Upanishads were sitting there, waiting for the chance that arrived once in a blue moon.

Shi Yan didn’t look like he was affected by Desolate’s recovery at all. It was unbelievable.

Ming Hong and Adele thought that Shi Yan wasn’t different from Audrey in nature. They were both the ones who had fused with the Origin. Why was Audrey unconscious while nothing had happened to Shi Yan?

It was too inexplicable!

“Perhaps, after he’s done with taking in energy, he will give us an answer.” Ming Hong pondered and then said begrudgingly.

...

In another corner of the chaotic space basin drifted a brown-red asteroid, with Hui’s real body under it. The twelve snakeheads were like a massive, ferocious beast that was supporting the asteroid.

The asteroid was moving in the turbulent space current. Zi Yao, Tian Xie, and the others—her servants—were riding this asteroid.

Zi Yao watched a space slit that slowly materialized in a distance. She was smiling, but her eyes were icy. “It’s good that we left timely. Otherwise, it would be a lot of trouble. At this moment, I’m afraid that no creature can live in Desolate Territory anymore. To recover, he...has begun to butcher the energy containers he has fed for a long time.”

Tian Xie respectfully stood by Zi Yao. He was baffled when he heard that. “Goddess Mother, you mean...he’s massacring in Desolate Territory?”

“Yeah, all the warriors who had cultivated to the point they developed soul altars are dead.” Zi Yao nodded while smiling, “He has fed them for so many years to have fat piggies for this moment. He used the deaths of the creatures in his territory to recover his energy. From the day he was separated, he has been waiting for this day to come.”

Tian Xie understood clearly. He was frightened, but he didn't dare to ask more.

"It couldn't recover fully. Or else, it would have come to the Sea Domain of Nihility. Oh, I've underestimated that Shi Yan." Zi Yao smiled. She looked at a direction while mumbling, "You little devil, you brought the Grace Mainland here. Seems like we have to meet up again."

The snakes under the massive asteroid wiggled, bringing the asteroid toward the Grace Mainland in this turbulent space basin.

Shi Yan opened his eyes...

He calmly stood up, looking around. Xuan He, Ming Hao, Frederick, and the others were meditating to comprehend their power and refine the energy Shi Yan had bestowed them.

He faced the sky to check the light protection that covered this planet, protecting it from the terrifying impacts in this basin. It would ensure no creature on this continent got hurt.

After he had digested the energy in the black hole and the acupuncture points, he had reached the Peak of Immortal Realm. The life energy in his body was brimming. He believed that if he had to fight against the Territory Ancestor Realm experts, he wouldn't fall into a disadvantage.

Eating up Pu Tai, he had gained great benefits. The eight power Upanishads Pu Tai had cultivated for years were now his. It was extremely magical.

Even though he could devour more warriors, he couldn't make their power Upanishads his powers. But, Pu Tai was special. Pu Tai had cultivated Devouring power Upanishad as well. The eight evil power Upanishads had a mysterious connection. After Shi Yan had swallowed them, they had become his glory.

Today, he had reached the Peak of the Immortal Realm, and he already had the Dark Energy. He felt that he would enter the Territory Ancestor Realm soon!

His soul observed inwardly. His Incipient Extent was like a deep and vast universe in the ancient time where stars were twinkling dazzlingly. Except for having creatures, this Incipient Extent wasn't much different from many territories.

He frowned, thinking about which way to go and where to relocate the Grace Mainland. At this moment, Adele came to him with a glum face, asking, "Please come and see Audrey..."

Shi Yan walked to Audrey, whose eyes were closed and breathing was weak. It seemed that her vitality was being taken away. She appeared as though her soul flame would be extinguished soon.

Ming Hong, Gillette, DeCarlos, and Azure Dragon were gathering by Audrey, their hands tied.

They had tried many methods to wake Audrey, but none of them worked. Audrey was still dormant.

"It...is harming her. The stronger it is, the weaker Audrey becomes. Despite the distance, it can still affect Audrey. As it's getting more intimidating, Audrey will be drained to death..." Ming Hong looked at Shi Yan, his eyes strange. "You also have the Origin. Audrey's condition is dangerous, but why are you still safe and sound?"

Everybody was bewildered because of this.

Looking at Audrey, Shi Yan's eyes sparkled. He knew the difference between them.

Audrey was born in Desolate Territory. At birth, her soul had its Seal. It could use the seal in her soul to affect her Origin.

Finally, Shi Yan knew why Bloodthirsty had to ask Xuan Shan, Lao Luo, and Xuan He to bring a soul from another world and give it the inheritance. Bloodthirsty had foreseen things. In his time, he knew what would happen in the current time.

Shi Yan wasn't affected due to Desolate's increasing strength because he didn't have its soul seal in his soul.

He wasn't a soul born in Desolate Territory.

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1499: Walk on the road of fusion!

On the icy stone bed, Audrey's eyelashes shivered, her face twisting in agony. It seemed that she was being tortured in her dream.

Adele felt terrible. She clutched Audrey's hand, muttering to her, "It's alright. Everything will be fine. I will think about a solution to wake you up..."

"It's getting worse," Ming Hong pulled a solemn face, turning to Shi Yan. "Desolate's strength is increasing, to the point that even I can feel it. Audrey's condition is getting worse. If you don't have any solution, her flames of soul will extinguish shortly."

Ming Hong's eyes became gloomy. He understood clearly that when Audrey was gone, being her soul slave, he wouldn't exist anymore either.

Adele, Gillette and the others were so flustered and restless. They wanted to find a way to wake Audrey up as fast as possible. Azure Dragon frowned while mumbling, "Once Audrey's gone, Desolate will naturally get the Origin she has fused with. It will get three clones at the time, and you will be its next target." He turned to Shi Yan.

"Let me try..." Shi Yan sighed, urging his Life power Upanishad. He wanted to use the life energy to shroud Audrey's soul.

An ivory stream flooded Audrey, giving a tonic to her soul altar. However, in just a blink of an eye, Shi Yan knew that it couldn't work. It was Audrey's soul that was affected. The weakened soul wasn't something his Life power Upanishad could recover. Hence, his method wasn't suitable.

If Audrey's body were hurt, he could use vitality to heal her. The two precursors of the White Bone Clan had been dormant because their vitality was too low, which affected their souls.

However, Audrey's situation was different. Her life energy still fluctuated vigorously. It was her soul altar, especially the host soul that had a problem.

For the time being, Shi Yan didn't have any way to solve this situation.

When Hiro and Montecie saw him awake, they walked toward him together.

The two precursors of the White Bone Clan walked with them. Although they hadn't recovered fully, their mobility wasn't affected. The little skeleton took them to see Shi Yan. The two precursors of the White Bone Clan had used the etiquette specialized to treat a noble person to greet and thank Shi Yan for helping them.

"Thanks for your help." Dracula said sincerely.

He was the little skeleton's father. At the Second Sky of Territory Ancestor Realm, he was as strong as Hiro. Unfortunately, he would need a long time to fully recover.

"You're welcome."

"I can see that you have a problem." Dracula had a white bone body that seemed like a crystal. Inside his crystal bones, Shi Yan could see many starlight dots twinkling, which was really mesmerizing. His eyes were like emerald gemstones. They were clear and serene, making people comforted on looking at them. He came and stooped to check Audrey. "The energy from her Origin is being taken by an Absolute Beginning creature..."

Everybody turned to this old man of the White Bone Clan, waiting in hope.

Shi Yan was moved. "You've lived for a really long time. You must have a wide knowledge. Do you know how to save her?"

"Her soul has a part of the Absolute Beginning creature's Origin. As it's getting stronger, it can absorb her Origin's energy through the seal in her soul." Dracula said straightforwardly, "I can tell you that when the Absolute Beginning creature starts to merge its divided parts, there will eventually be only one thing left. It happens this way...If she's strong enough, she can swallow the consciousness of the clone, or the clone will swallow her soul if she's weak. Nothing can change this. It's the Absolute Beginning creatures' nature..."

Adele was almost desperate, talking in agony. "You mean either my daughter's strong enough to swallow Desolate, or Desolate will eat her and fuse with her? There's no other option?"

"No other option," Dracula's eyes were calm. "The Origin she has fused would vanish with her soul altogether. If nothing unexpected happens, she will perish and vanish from this world."

The members of the Imperial Dark Tribe had their eyes dark and their faces stiff when they heard that.

"Of course, if you just want to keep her life, there's a method," Dracula added.

"What method?" Shi Yan and Adele shouted at the same time.

"With her current condition, it's the worst situation. We can't change her fate of being fused with Desolate." Dracula suddenly turned to Shi Yan, "But, don't forget that you're one of Desolate! You can also swallow her. If you want and she cooperates, you can take the Origin and spare her soul..."

"Me?" Shi Yan was stunned.

"It's the only way," Ming Hong walked to him. "This precursor is right. As things have come to this, Audrey has to give up her Origin to live. Her Origin will be taken by Shi Yan or Desolate. If Desolate gets it, her soul will be buried together. But if Shi Yan gets it, she will lose only her Origin. Her realm, soul, and body won't be affected much."

He turned to Dracula, asking him to verify.

Dracula nodded, "It's true. If she and Shi Yan cooperate, she will lose only her Origin, a part of Desolate's consciousness. She won't lose herself. In other words, she will just discard something that doesn't belong to her. She'll still be herself."

"Let's do this!" Ming Hong hissed, asking resolutely, "Shi Yan, do it now. Take Audrey's Origin. You will get two-fifth of Desolate's soul parts. As Desolate isn't complete, it can't rule the Desolate Territory fully. We will have a chance!"

"What chance?" Adele and the others were puzzled.

"One day, Shi Yan will be strong enough to reach the Territory Ancestor Realm. At that time, he can resist or even refine Desolate!" Ming Hong pulled a dark and cold face, "Only Shi Yan can do that, and only he will have a chance to counterattack. After all, he isn't bound to Desolate Territory's rules!"

Not many people knew that Shi Yan was a soul from another universe. However, being the Soul Control Chief, Ming Hong knew it a long time ago.

Finally, Ming Hong knew the true reason why Bloodthirsty had to labor to guide a soul from another universe. Turned out that Bloodthirsty had prepared well for today. Bloodthirsty had failed that year because he was created by Desolate. He was a soul born in Desolate Territory.

It was the cause of his tragic consequence!

To not let his heir walk on the same failed path, he had ordered Xuan Shan, Xuan He, and Lao Luo to find a soul from another world!

"Brother, are you sure?" Adele still hesitated.

"If you want to see Audrey die, you can wait. If you miss this only chance, not only will Audrey die but Desolate will receive one more Origin. No one can estimate how strong it will be. At that time, Shi Yan will have not even the slightest chance." Ming Hong snorted.

Listening to him, many warriors from Desolate Territory couldn't sit still. They had finally recognized the horrible truth, and began to urge Shi Yan to take action.

"You, you do it! Please, promise me that Audrey's soul will be safe!" Adele said helplessly. She was the current Matriarch of the Imperial Dark Tribe, and also Audrey's mother. If she agreed, no one would oppose this.

"How to ensure that her soul will be safe and her realm won't be affected after I take her Origin?" Shi Yan bit his lips. He didn't hesitate anymore, turning to Dracula. "I don't know how."

“You need to use your soul to intrude her soul altar and contact her host soul. Let her host soul cooperate with you to extract the Origin. Once you guys have extracted the Origin, you have to take it before Desolate does that. You have to be very careful,” reminded Dracula.

Shi Yan was nervous as he pondered for a while. Audrey was getting worse; her soul was about to perish. As people were urging, he gazed at Audrey.

Swoosh!

A group of souls created by flames flew out of his pupils. Just like a lively and agile spirit, it intruded Audrey’s soul from the corner of her eye.

Audrey’s soul altar floated above her Sea of Consciousness. Her tier of power Upanishad was like Hell in the Underworld. So many ghosts and brutal souls were gathered in the center of her Sea of Consciousness and power Upanishad. As they saw Shi Yan’s co-soul, they were like mosquitos that had smelled blood. They became savage, trying to come forward and tear Shi Yan’s co-soul apart.

“STOP!”

Ming Hong’s yelling echoed around Audrey’s Sea of Consciousness. The brutal souls and departed ghosts behaved as they were scolded.

Ming Hong was the most powerful brutal soul here. He had connected with Audrey and helped her rule those sinister souls; he was the leader of the brutal souls. Under his intimidation, no soul dared to attack Shi Yan.

Thus, Shi Yan could continue to move forward. He had passed millions of evil souls to get to the tier of power Upanishads.

Audrey’s Incipient Extent was above the tier of power Upanishads. It was a gloomy, cold, and gray world that he couldn’t see through. Vaguely, a massive cauldron was moving in her Incipient Extent. Many Absolute Beginning symbols were glowing. It was the Refining Soul Cauldron that had fused with Audrey’s soul.

As Shi Yan’s soul had appeared by the Incipient Extent, the Soul Refining Cauldron released waves of threatening energy.

That attacking energy aimed at Shi Yan. Then, billions of symbols flashed, turning into the ancient devil Gods covering the entire sky and swarming toward Shi Yan.

It was the instinct of the Absolute Beginning divine weapon to protect its master.

Shi Yan in his soul form felt overwhelmed when so many evil Gods flocked toward him. He changed his power, and many burning flames were conjured. Those flames seemed to have a life as they became flame spirits attacking those evil Gods.

At that moment, Shi Yan sent a soul message that was like a jet of light crossing through the dark world.

“I am Shi Yan!” He spoke to Audrey.

Swoosh!

He got a response from a place pretty far away, but it wasn't from Audrey. It was from the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower!

Shi Yan was bewildered.

God of Slaughter

Chapter 1500: Thing returns to its rightful owner

A massive, black cave was spinning somewhere in the Sea Domain of Nihility where the Devouring Clan gathered.

In the thick darkness, an imposing, majestic Power Upanishad Symbol Tower hovered. The Absolute Beginning symbols on the tower were sparkling with many colors. Wisps of pure Dark Energy crawled on the tower to clear the Soul Seal Hui had left there.

Devour had released its evil, cold Soul Consciousness to refine and erase the Seal Hui had left.

All of a sudden, a sincere call came from a place far away. As the enormous tower had just got rid of Hui's Soul Seal, it was attracted by the call. Without waiting for Devour to react, it accelerated instantly and flew away. In the blink of an eye, it had moved billions of miles.

Tearing layers of space, Devour had escaped from Desolate Territory. He had to consume a lot of energy, and erasing Hui's Soul Seal on the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower took a big part of his energy too. Devour had just ceased to breathe when the tower had already flown away.

At this moment, Devour's power hadn't recovered yet, and he didn't have the power to hold it back. He could only see the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower pierce through layers of space and disappear.

Devour, the giant black octopus, howled to call his clansmen of the Devouring Clan.

Shortly, the two Territory Ancestors, Edgar and Labitte arrived. Edgar hovered by the Dark Abyss, asking respectfully, "Ancestor, why are you enraged?"

"The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower escaped my control, flying to Desolate Territory!" Devour's voice arose in the Dark Abyss. "If it's not Hui, it's the new master of the tower. He had contacted the tower, but Hui's Soul Seal had stopped him. As soon as I erased Hui's seal, I don't know why it's so coincidental that the kid called it! Damn it!"

"Where's he?" asked Edgar.

"The void outside Desolate Territory."

"Let me figure out the way to go there."

"Get that kid before Hui. Otherwise, you won't get the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower. The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower is crucial. We must get it!"

"Yes, Sir!"

The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower had pierced through layers of space, crossing billions of miles in just a blink of an eye as if it could tear space.

It had turned into a jet of starlight, flashing and then disappearing. Many warriors had seen it, feeling their souls shaken. They immediately understood that some treasure would be near them, but when they pulled themselves together to check, they got nothing.

The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower flew all the way, breaking spaces. Shortly, it pierced into the chaotic space basin outside Desolate Territory.

Zi Yao sat on a high, seven-colored throne on a massive asteroid. Her eyes were deep as if they could see through the whole world. She released her Soul Consciousness to find Shi Yan in the turbulent space current.

Sizzle!

A jet of starlight zoomed over; the light flashed and then disappeared, but it could still make her soul shiver.

She opened her eyes, shooting an amazing light as she was surprised. "The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower!" She screamed. She was stunned at first, but she got a hold of herself shortly after. Immediately, she used her soul to check the direction of that jet of light. Then, her true body moved, turning this asteroid into a shooting star.

The shooting star moved rapidly toward the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower, also heading to Shi Yan's location.

Grace Mainland...

Adele, Ming Hao, and Xuan He gathered behind the Immortal Realm. They were observing Shi Yan and Audrey, their faces dark and grieved.

Shi Yan had escaped the soul altar, entering Audrey's head. They were waiting with hope to see her situation getting better. Unfortunately, she was still unconscious, her breath weakening.

Shi Yan's body frowned as if he was facing a big trouble. It made their hearts sink further as they became tenser.

Dracula, Hiro, and Gay of the White Bone Clan; Montecie and Mei Ji of the Phantom Clan were gathered, watching Shi Yan send his soul to swallow her Origin.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

All of a sudden, a fierce wave of energy came from a far area in this space basin, swarming the Grace Mainland.

Hiro and Montecie changed their countenances. They sensed for a while and found it was so intimidating that it could threaten the Grace Mainland.

Shi Yan had asked the two of them to protect the Grace Mainland. As they had agreed with him, they must ensure that the Grace Mainland would be alright. Seeing that fierce energy attack, Hiro was stern, "I'm going there to check!"

Hiro turned into a gold arrow, shooting out of the barrier. As soon as he came to the chaotic basin, his eyes brightened, almost choking on his own breath, "Power Upanishad Symbol Tower!"

Seeing the strange situation, he pondered, then sent a message to Montecie. "Retrieve the light barriers. The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower just came back!"

On the Grace Mainland, Montecie was thrilled. She didn't think much, seizing the time to control her power Upanishad in cooperation with Hiro. They lifted layers of barriers on the Grace Mainland.

Boom!

The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower turned into a jet of starlight. As soon as it came near the Grace Mainland, it transformed back into a giant tower.

Slowly, the colossal tower landed through layers of clouds in the sky, aiming at Shi Yan's head.

It was so strange that the tower halted above Shi Yan's head, as if it was hesitant.

"It... What's happened?" Dracula of the White Bone Clan asked. He hesitated for a while before he could get it. "The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower has fused with Shi Yan's co-soul. And now, his co-soul is in Audrey's head, which makes his aura different."

Hearing him, the crowd of warriors was frightened. They all looked skeptical.

The thing that had fused with the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower was actually Shi Yan's soul. And now, his co-soul had gone to Audrey's head. As his aura on his body was changed, the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower was confused about whether it should go to Shi Yan's body or Audrey's head.

The onlookers held their breath, watching the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower.

Swoosh!

The Power Upanishad Symbol Tower changed into the cluster of light, heading toward Audrey, intruding her soul altar. The people around couldn't help but scream in panic on seeing this.

...

On Audrey's soul altar, Shi Yan's soul was like a dark shadow, hovering in front of Audrey's Incipient Extent and calling her host soul, which was floating above the Incipient Extent.

Audrey hadn't answered Shi Yan, but the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower had come first. It seemed to run toward him.

While Shi Yan was still bewildered, the terrifying energy fluctuations of the Soul Refining Cauldron came from the dark area in Audrey's Incipient Extent. Right after that, countless soul vines slithered like snakes, reaching toward him and trying to pull his soul into the Soul Refining Cauldron.

The Soul Refining Cauldron was a divine weapon in soul class, and it had fused with Audrey's Origin. As Shi Yan intruded this area, the soul Refining Cauldron had instinctively considered him an enemy.

Without Audrey's control, the Soul Refining Cauldron began to attack Shi Yan.

It was almost unavoidable!

It was him who courted death as he dared to use his soul to attack another expert in her soul altar who even had the soul of an Absolute Beginning creature.

At the moment the terrifying aura of the Soul Refining Cauldron was slowly reaching toward him, Shi Yan was frightened. He continually sent messages to Audrey, but she hadn't answered yet. Seeing the dangerous situation, he didn't dare to linger and decided to retreat.

However, at this moment, a powerful light that could tear the dim-lit world in this place came dazzlingly.

The massive Power Upanishad Symbol Tower suddenly came from the world outside, becoming the armor that could protect everything, shrouding his soul immediately. The Soul Refining Cauldron couldn't pierce through this thick protection, so it couldn't attack Shi Yan's soul.

Shi Yan suddenly had a feeling of blood connecting. It was like he had finally and officially fused with the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower at this moment.

Previously, his fusion wasn't complete because the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower still had Hui's Soul Seal, which was like a contaminant. Before he could clean that contaminant, he couldn't fuse with it fully.

Today, that Soul Seal was cleared by Devour.

Shi Yan had lost the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower for a short time. Unexpectedly, it was his luck amidst a misfortune. Devour had cleaned the tower for him, and today, he had finally fused with the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower. With his soul and aura, no one could easily snatch the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower from him.

Unless he was gone and his Soul Seal vanished from this world, no one could dream to take the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower from his hands!

Shi Yan suddenly understood many things.

As the Power Upanishad Symbol Tower was protecting him, he wasn't afraid of the Soul Refining Cauldron anymore. He focused on calling Audrey.

"I am Shi Yan!"

"I am Shi Yan!"

"It's me!"

He called her continually, trying to contact Audrey to receive her help.

After an unknown time, the Soul Refining Cauldron stopped attacking him. As Shi Yan was still perplexed, Audrey had finally answered him. "Shi Yan, my condition... isn't really good. It's...getting stronger. It can use the Origin to block my soul. It's consuming me. I can't hold on for a long time..."

Audrey's messages were interrupted. She was being weakened faster.

"I'm here to help you. But to do that, I may harm you. I need you to cooperate with me. Let me take your Origin. Otherwise, your soul will be consumed until you die." Shi Yan didn't dare to linger, trying to explain the situation briefly. "It's the only method. The Origins are gathered and fused. Your soul has its Soul Seal. It can use that seal to find you through the Origin to kill you."

"Can you tell me why you aren't affected?" Audrey asked all of a sudden.

"My soul doesn't belong to Desolate Territory," Shi Yan pondered and then answered.

Audrey pondered for a while, then said, "Okay, I'll cooperate with you."
