There was a hint of ploading by Vincent's tone as he spoke

From his perspective, Triston was Flame Decayer and Triston's apprentice, which was out of his league ite was a he worried that Tybton would disagree

"I prombe you, I promise you!" Triston said, "Don't tell me.."

"That's good!" Vincent's face was covered in blood, and the corners of his mouth curled up slightly, revealing a bright smile

He felt that... at the last moment of his life, his life... was brilliant.

His hand loosened from Triston and tell wealdy to the ground.

War... meant death!

Many people had died in the battle, including those in Abandoned Land.

However, at this moment, they were not afraid

"Vincent! Vincent!" When Triston saw Vincent's hand fall to the ground, endless grief welled up in his heart.

He had been through many wars.

Every time, countless colleagues died.

He also hated wars.

But he also knew that only when his strength reached a certain level could he be qualified to guard peace.

“The Four Ancient Families!” He gritted his teeth.

Then he stood up from the ground, dragged the blue spear, and murmured, “Your sacrifice... will be worth it.”

With that, he walked forward step by step!

With each step he took, his aura grew stronger, and he headed straight for the Supreme Flame Decayer!

Triston Beck... was a martial arts genius, a real peerless martial arts genius.

Claude’s eyes widened. There were rows of bullet casings next to his feet. He had no idea how many times he had pulled the trigger.

When the war started and there was no target, Claude’s threat to Flame Decayer and Purple Elite Ghost and above was much reduced. They were too fast and it was too difficult to predict.

Of course, he could still rely on tacit understanding to cooperate with Gerald and Carolyn!

At that moment, he was going to cooperate with Gerald.

Gerald was facing twenty Flame Decayers and a Half-Step Flame Decayer, who was at the top of the hierarchy. One could imagine how stressful he was.

Claude aimed his sniper rifle at the group of Flame Decayer ranked experts.

Killing was best. Even if it couldn’t be killed, it could have a certain interference effect.

Just then, six purple rays of light rose from the ground and headed straight up!

Indeed, Claude's existence had long been a concern of the Four Ancient Families. The existence of such a person who could pose a threat to the supreme Flame Decayer from a distance was a headache for the Four Ancient Families.

They had been searching for Claude for a long time, but due to the constant change of the battlefield, Claude's position was constantly adjusted. Until the battlefield was fixed again, the Four Ancient Families did not continue to retreat, and Claude's position was temporarily fixed.

The members of the Four Ancient Families also seized the opportunity and charged toward Claude with the Purple Elite Ghost.

Claude's expression changed slightly when he saw the Purple Elite Ghost.

"You hit you, they can't touch you!" At this time, a soft grunt rang in his ear.

Behind him, Anabel, in her cloak, buckled a mask on her face. Then, Vital Energy surged out of her body, and a stream of water instantly surged out of her hands!

It was Anabel's pure water attribute.

The water instantly wrapped around the six Purple Elites, and they were instantly fixed in the air.

Bang!

Bang!

Yes, they were completely controlled and unable to move.

Anabel's strength had made great progress after practicing in Underground Palace. Elite Ghost, who was trapped in the water, became Claude's target.

Claude kept pulling the trigger. The six Purple Elite Ghosts did not self-destruct and fell from the sky.

"Thank you!" Claude said.

"It's nothing. Gerald doesn't allow me to do it. I'm itching to do it now," Anabel replied.

Claude let out a long sigh. He pondered for a moment and said, "I don't plan to stay upstairs. Although the view here is relatively good, the buildings in the City of Phoenix are too tall. It still affects my performance!"

"Huh?" Anabel looked at him and asked, "Then what are you going to do?"

Claude glanced below and then up at the sky. "I'm planning to go up there!"

"Okay, I have Silver Wings too, I can protect you!" Anabel said.

Claude nodded.

As Silver Wings fanned the flames behind him, he leaped into the air and aimed his sniper rifle at the ground below.

Outside the city, Benson looked up at the sky and said enviously, "I'm envious. It's not easy to get the Silver Wings of the Archaic Tribe. It's said that there are not many inside the Archaic Tribe!"

Sylvie smiled and said, "It's quite difficult to build the Silver Wings. Every year, only a few dozen pairs of Silver Wings are built in the Archaic Tribe."

"Huh, is that man holding a sniper rifle?" Benson asked.

Jacob was greeting Zackary Benjamin and the others who had just landed. After hearing Benson's words, Jacob smiled and said, "He is our sniper. The sniper rifle in his hand can threaten the supreme flame Decayer."

"What?" Benson was stunned.

Jacob chuckled. "His name is Claude Caldwell. Remember his name. He might become a god in this battle!"

On the main battlefield, Gerald's attributes were entangled with each other.

One was the magma attribute, which he used to resist the ice attribute of Raphael.

The thunder attribute was the most powerful of Gerald's six attributes.

Wind blades appeared one after another within the range of his Vital Energy. These wind blades were used to oppress the twenty or so Flame Decayers.

"Boy! You're crazy! Do you really not treat me as a person?" Raphael sneered.

Gerald was too lazy to talk nonsense. Dragon Saber let out a roar, and Gerald rushed to Raphael in an instant!

Chapter 1032 Give Me Ten Minutes

These thin ice lines stretched, one by one, as if they had formed a huge cage!

“Ice special treatment!” A sneer appeared on his face!

Gerald’s first Vital Energy burst out, and Dragon Saber slashed at him.

“Clank”

“Cank”

The Vital Energy collided with these ice lines, making a sound of nails as if hitting some weapons.

The ice lines were densely packed as they waved toward Gerald.

Gerald’s expression changed slightly. He had used too little of the ice attribute’s attributes. Gerald knew that his understanding of the ice attribute could not be like this.

He let out a breath, and the Vital Energy burst out again. This time, he gave up all his attributes and used magma exclusively.

It was undeniable that the magma attribute was very good at restraining the ice attribute.

“Boy, are you sure you want to grab other people?” He looked at Gerald.

Yes, even now, Gerald was still using Vital Energy to cover the twenty masters of Flame Decayer. This was a huge consumption of his Vital Energy.

Gerald ignored him. He was thinking about how Raphael had managed to make the ice attribute so subtle.

The ice line kept flowing into the magma attribute and melted for a moment.

“Then I’d like to see how long you, as a Dragon Bone, can last when you’ve consumed such a huge amount of Vital Energy!” Raphael sneered.

“It’s enough to hold on until all of your Purple Pioneers are killed!” Gerald sneered.

If it was a one-on-one fight with the other party, he would have a certain degree of certainty, although the other party’s attribute understanding was much better than his.

However, Gerald had more attributes, so he still had an advantage.

When Raphael heard this, he frowned slightly and said, “What you said does make sense, so... before he deals with those Purple Pioneers, I have to kill you!”

After saying that, the cold aura on his body rose again, and in an instant, he rushed to Gerald!

The moment he arrived in front of Gerald, the surrounding ice lines almost immediately enveloped him like an ice cage. He wanted to envelop Gerald, but the silver sword in his hand slashed at Gerald.

These thin ice lines stretched, one by one, as if they had formed a huge cage!

The moment he arrived in front of Gerald, the surrounding ice lines almost immediately enveloped him like an ice cage. He wanted to envelop Gerald, but the silver sword in his hand slashed at Gerald.

"Dragon wagging tail!"

Gerald still used his Dragon-Slaying Saber Skills.

The Dragon-Slaying Saber Skills cost a lot of Vital Energy, so Gerald tried his best not to use them.

But at this moment, the Guerrero family was aggressive, and Gerald had to use it.

The magma attribute seemed to form a tail, accompanied by Gerald's Dragon Saber flick horizontally and directly back.

Boom!

The terrifying impact of the magma and ice attributes sent chills down one's spine.

Gerald backed away again to keep a distance.

He frowned slightly!

The strength of the other party's Vital Energy was not inferior to his at all, and Gerald's Vital Energy was too scattered. In order not to let those masters of the Flame Decayer-level interfere with other battlefields, he had to do all this.

Boom!

Beside him, a terrifying wave of Vital Energy spread. Valery Manning held a Soul Saber in his hand. She rushed into the midst of the twenty Flame Decayer-level masters shrouded by Gerald's Vital Energy. At the same time, she yelled at Gerald, "Leave them all to me. You can deal with this old man with ease!"

After Hector and Blaine arrived, Valery's hands were free. At first, she planned to cooperate with Carolyn to deal with Purple Elite Ghost, but when she found that Gerald was a little tired of carrying so many people alone, she returned directly.

Gerald's expression changed slightly. "There are too many of them. You-"

Valery Manning had just joined the Supreme Flame Decayer. With her strength, she could only pull five ordinary Flame Decayers at most.

“My attribute is life, and I’m resistant to beating!” Valery smiled at him, and his whole body went deep into the opponent’s crowd, rushing left and right!

When those people saw Valery’s arrival, they also surrounded him.

Gerald was still a little worried. They had an absolute advantage in the number of Supreme Flame Decayers, but the number of them was still a little small.

“Count me in!” At the same time, a blue light approached quickly not far away.

Triston... He’s coming!

At that moment, his aura changed drastically. He had actually broken through to the level of Flame Decay.

“You’ve broken through?” Gerald asked in surprise.

He didn’t know what had happened to Triston before this.

“I’ve made a breakthrough!” Triston’s eyes were red as he said, “Leave these people to Dr. Manning and me. Today, I’m going to kill all the members of the Four Ancient Families!”

Gerald looked at Triston with bloodshot eyes, then at Valery. He nodded and said, “Okay, hold on for ten minutes!”

Triston nodded and said, “Okay!”

In ten minutes, Gerald had to deal with the old man in front of him.

His Vital Energy burst out instantly, and he rushed into the crowd with his gun.

The Vital Energy enveloped more than twenty people. At the same time, the plague attribute instantly exploded on him.

At that moment, the twenty or so Flame Decayers only felt pain in their heads, and a sense of helplessness rose all over their bodies.

Among Gerald’s attributes, Triston was undoubtedly the one who wanted to find the most lethal attribute.

His plague attribute was strong and could reduce the opponent’s weak strength. During the stalemate, he could cause a large number of plague to spread. When fighting head-on, his attribute was like a weak buff that could reduce the opponent's strength.

On the battlefield, Valery Manning's and his attributes were more of an accomplice.

Gerald let out a sigh of relief when he saw that. Leaning against the two of them, he tried to stall the twenty or so people for ten minutes. It might be stressful, but it was not that stressful.

His gale attribute was restrained, and then he suddenly turned his head and looked at Raphael, "old dog, I'll kill you in ten minutes!"

Raphael sneered, "You brat, you can't kill me."

"Is that so?" Gerald sneered. Then, he slowly exhaled, and his aura rose abruptly.

"Death... Storm!" Gerald sneered.

Gerald's aura began to rise. At that moment, he felt as if he had broken through something. He had reached a completely new realm, but he quickly weakened.

"Is it because of Death Storm that you can't reach that stage?" Gerald frowned.

But what he didn't know was that Raphael, who was not far away from him, was shocked.

He was certain Gerald's aura had reached the threshold of eternal flame Decayer.

Chapter 1033 The Grudge Between Hector and His Family

At that moment, Gerald had a mysterious and mysterious feeling. The moment Death Storm just started, he had a feeling that everything was under his control.

However, that feeling was quick and fleeting. Gerald, too, had an illusory feeling.

Then his aura fell again.

It was rare to see a Flame Decayer at the Eternal level. Even in the Eight Forces, it was still a rare existence.

The masters who could reach this level were enough to record in the history of the Havotune. Without a doubt, they were all big figures in the clan. They were also at the top of the food chain when they were placed into the web of the universe.

This was Gerald's first time encountering a bottleneck in his martial arts.

This bottleneck, stuck in Raphael for a hundred years, could not be broken through.

He had never even touched the back of the doorsill, and at that moment, he clearly felt that Gerald seemed to have crossed the past.

The young man in front of him actually touched the bottleneck that had plagued him for a hundred years.

Talent!

This was the difference in talent.

"Is this the talent Dragon Bone has? The chosen one?" A strong sense of unwillingness surged in his heart as he looked at Gerald with anger and hatred in his eyes.

If he didn't enter Eternal, he wouldn't have many years to live!

Most people pursued martial arts not only for their own strength, but also for a higher lifespan!

The Four Ancient Families had a way of exchanging blood for their lives.

They used the method of devouring the blood of talented babies and children to prolong their lives. They had handed it over to the Blood Lotus before, and the Dempsey family had used it at that time!

And for more than a hundred years, Raphael also relied on this method to survive.

He's too old.

This method was extremely cruel. Over the years he had lived, many children had died at their hands.

But after a long time, the results will get worse and worse.

Even Raphael himself knew well that if he still couldn't make it to the eternal flame Decay, he would probably die in a few years.

98.77%

Gerald's young age made him feel like he had reached the threshold of eternal flame Decay. Gerald had experienced it once before, but it was only a matter of time before he could achieve a breakthrough.

Thinking of all this, Raphael was furious.

"Brat, I want you to die. I want you to swallow your flesh and eat your bones. I will replace your blood and help me break into eternity!" Raphael sneered.

Not far away, Gerald, who had activated Death Storm, was surrounded by red magma. The bronze sword swirled into his hand, his right saber and his left bronze sword.

"Sizzle! Sizzle!"

The attribute of the thunder attribute appeared again.

"Valery Chopping!"

Gerald was too lazy to argue with him, so he took his saber and charged forward.

"Clank!"

"Clank!"

"Clank!"

His speed was so fast that it was difficult for the naked eye to blur!

Valery Chopping was a set of swordsmanship that Gerald had come up with himself. It was mainly for quick attacks.

When it reached the level of Flame Decay, it was still very useful.

He and Raphael had become enemies!

In the sky, two figures flapped their wings and hovered in the air. Claude shot down one after another.

His target was the purple Pioneers.

There were still dozens of Purple Pioneers left, and he planned to cooperate with Carolyn as soon as possible to finish them off!

As long as the Purple Pioneer was settled and Carolyn could make a move, they would definitely win this battle!

The flames in Carolyn's body were blazing. The speed at which she solved the Purple Pioneer was not fast, but the number of opponents was still a little too much. She needed time!

"Wait for me! Old man, you must wait for me. I'll come over and kill them all once I get rid of these things." Valery's saber split a Purple Pioneer into two. He looked at the battleground of Flame Decayer in a Wolfie patch not far away and prayed in his heart.

Yes, the battlefields at the Flame Decayer-level are too terrifying!

The place had reached the middle of the city. The collision between several Flame Decayers had caused several tall buildings around it to collapse.

The collapsed area had also temporarily isolated ordinary members of the Four Ancient Families and the people from the Abandoned Land.

Of course, it was just such a place isolated. At this time, the war had quickly spread throughout the entire city of Phoenix.

Excluding the main battlefield, the people in Abandoned Land began to expand the battlefield and infiltrate the entire city.

The main battlefield was also divided into four or five groups!

In a certain place, Hector Ingram and Arvin Ingram kept colliding, then separated, and crashed together again.

The flames around them burned into darkness!

"I didn't expect that you were still alive, you son of a bitch. I should have killed you with a saber back then!" Arvin looked at Hector and roared with anger.

Hector snorted coldly, "Yes, I unintentionally discovered your secret, so you sent me to prison and killed all my people. Do you know how much I hate you? I look forward to the day when I will kill you, and I look forward to nearly a hundred years. Today, you will personally watch the Four Ancient Families being destroyed."

"You?" Arvin sneered.

"See? Even if you have a trump card, victory still belongs to us. Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone, we will definitely win. The only difference may be that those people in Abandoned Land will die a little more!" Hector Ingram said faintly, "But so what? They are just pawns in my eyes. I just want you to be destroyed!"

"Don't you dare!" Arvin roared in anger!

"There's nothing I don't dare to do. Your trump card will definitely die in the face of Gerald. Remember what I said. I've seen too many times that Gerald is weak and strong, let alone that he is not weaker than Damon!" Hector licked his lips and said, "And you, you can't do anything! You killed me because you were afraid that I would tell the secret, weren't you? Are you afraid that the other three families would know?"

Hector let out a sinister laugh and said, "Don't worry, after you die, I will inherit your legacy. Your secret, will help you get it, and I will help you enjoy it. After all, we are all Ingrams!"

"I'll kill you!" Arvin was furious..

"Kill me?" Hector sneered, "Then let's have a look! Death Storm!" that thing, I

The next moment, Hector's aura rose abruptly. He quickly pulled away, and at the same time, he put the saber in his hand into the sheath of the saber, bent down, and made a gesture of pulling the saber out!

"Arvin Ingram!" Hector said faintly, "It's time to end our feud. You... will become the first supreme flame Decayer to die in this war!"

“Bastard, I’ll kill you!” Arvin roared furiously, and flames rose from his body. He took his saber and charged toward Hector!

“Unsheathing Slash!” Hector also snorted coldly and swung his saber!

Chapter 1034 Blaine Villanueva’s Attributes

Boom!

The terrifying Vital Energy was compressed to the extreme in an instant, and then burst out instantly!

This move invented by Triston was Night Watch’s biggest killing move now.

Except for Gerald and Triston, the others rarely used it.

At this moment, when Hector used the Unsheathing Slash, endless energy surged directly out under the Death Storm, and he passed through Arvin Ingram’s body!

Immediately afterwards, monstrous flames bloomed on the body of Arvin Ingram as if they were performing a magic trick!

There was no screaming!

When the flames receded, the Arvin Ingram in the middle had disappeared. He turned into a skeleton, glowing with crystal light, and fell to the ground.

“Instant kill!”

“Plop!”

Hector’s body also went limp, and he felt endless weakness and pain.

He fell to the ground.

The side effects of the Death Storm, coupled with the side effects of the Unsheathing Slash, surged up at this moment.

Hector Ingram, who had a fire attribute, even felt his body a little cold.

Death Storm was in Night Watch. Once it was used, the rate of casualties reached more than 90%.

There were very few perverts like Gerald. Death Storm had no other side effects for him besides being weak for a short time after the meeting.

But for Hector Ingram, this was the first time he used such a move. A huge sense of weakness came, and at this moment, he even felt death coming!

“You can’t die!” Hector murmured, “There are still some things that have not been done!”

He had used Valery Manning because it possessed a life attribute. As long as he could save his life, Valery Manning would definitely be able to save him when the war was over!

He just didn’t know if he could hold on until that moment!

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

On the battlefield of Flame Decayer, explosions kept resounding-

Valery Manning and Triston were facing more than twenty Flame Decayers. They were under immense pressure, and both of them were more or less injured!

After all, the opponent was Flame Decayer, and Triston’s attributes had limited influence!

Fortunately, Claude, who was in the air, saw their situation and kept using sniper rifles to interfere and support them, so that they could still hold on for the time being.

On the other hand, Blaine was facing Sauven. In his hand, the Crimson Slayer had not been unsheathed so far. He used his body method to dodge the attacks of Sauven. It seemed that he was not as powerful as he said at first. He just wanted to pull the latter.

“Do you only dare to hide?” The man was furious.

“Don’t worry!” Blaine said calmly, “You don’t even have the right to ask me to pull the saber.”

At that moment, Arvin’s death made his scalp tingle.

There were not many opponents, but each of them was the supreme Flame Decayer!

This was completely beyond his expectations. The effect of the sniper in the sky was even a little stronger than the supreme Flame Decayer.

The Purple Pioneer was constantly dying in battle, and he felt that if he continued to do so, the scales of victory would completely tilt towards Gerald.

He knew the reason!

If they were to fight to the death, both sides might split in half!

However, Gerald was better than Triston and the others. They were so imposing that they were completely risking their lives.

However, the Four Ancient Families, including himself, did not want to risk their lives.

If they really wanted to fight desperately, they would sacrifice their lives to exchange with Valery

Manning and Triston. How could the two of them hold on to twenty people?

They were just ordinary Supreme Flame Decayers. Perhaps their attributes were a little special, but they were not able to hold up more than twenty people.

“You’re losing?” muttered Sauven Guerrero.

Then he said with a shocked expression, “Why are you still afraid? Do it with all your strength. Otherwise, when Lady Phoenix comes, everyone will have to die! Before she comes, we must...”

Bang!

Just then, Blaine kicked him and cursed, “Shun up! You bastard!”

Suddenly, he turned around and looked at Blaine. At this moment, the two looked at each other, and he looked at Blaine's pupils. At this moment, he felt that Blaine's eyes became extremely deep.

"We're friends!" Blaine suddenly spoke.

His voice reached the ears of the Guerrero.

All he could feel was a buzzing in his head. Instinctively, he wanted to resist, but for some reason, looking at Blaine's unfamiliar face, he subconsciously felt that Blaine was really his friend.

"Yes!" He nodded.

"As a friend, how could you do anything to your friend?" Blaine continued to stare at him and said.

"Yes, I can't do this to my friends!" He nodded subconsciously. The Vital Energy in his body slowly converged, and his ice attribute was also constantly retreating at this moment.

This was Blaine's attribute. It was called "Clown", which could disturb people's minds!

"A man dies for his friend!" Blaine continued, "Are you willing to die for me?"

"Huh?" There was an endless struggle in his eyes as he looked at Blaine. At some point, his eyes became clear again, and he suddenly swung his saber at Blaine.

Blaine quickly stepped back and pulled away!

"Clown attribute!" Shocked, he glanced at Blaine and said, "You really are a Clown!"

"I'm your father!" Seeing that his attributes couldn't affect Sauven, Blaine cursed and continued to pester him.

On the other hand, the reminder from the Sauven worked.

At this moment, the twenty or so Flame Decayers became more and more determined to attack, and the pressure on Valery Manning and Triston suddenly increased!

Buzz!

At this moment, a huge dragon shadow appeared in the sky. Gerald and Raphael, who had been fighting each other for a long time, looked a little messy. The Dragon Saber in Gerald's hand was raised high. Lightning flashed around the Dragon Saber, and at this moment, Gerald seemed to be the God of Thunder.

“It’s time to tell the winner!” Gerald stared at him and growled in a low voice.

Roar!

In the sky, the phantom dragon seemed to have come back to life at this moment. It pressed down on Gerald below, as if it was going to merge with him.

“Magma Strike!”

Gerald let out a roar.

“Sizzle! Sizzle!”

This time, Gerald’s Magma Strike seemed to be completely different from before. When he swung his sword, the Vital Energy rose as if it had been absorbed by the shadows in the air.

Then, the dragon shadow suddenly opened its eyes and opened its mouth!

A terrifying purple bolt of lightning shot out!

“Just because of this? That’s not enough!” Raphael gritted his teeth.

Layers of ice attributes formed a huge shield around him, trying to withstand Gerald’s attack.

“Air extract attribute!”

At that moment, Gerald used the air withdrawal attribute that he had been hiding.

The surroundings turned into a void in an instant.

Suddenly, Raphael found that he couldn’t breathe, and his whole body couldn’t help but freeze. The shield formed by the ice attribute in front of him dissipated in an instant!

“No!” His expression changed, and he reacted very quickly, and the ice attributes began to condense quickly.

But it was too late!

A fight between masters could determine life and death in an instant!

Before the shields could be condensed, the purple lightning had split down, and the uncondensed ice shield had broken into pieces, and the lightning had fallen on Raphael's body.

"Ah!" A huge scream resounded throughout the City of Phoenix.

Just as the battle in the City of Phoenix was in full swing, the City of Hope!

The city had fallen into the control of the Eight Forces. At this time, there were also a large number of people outside, and the eight troops of the United Army were approaching the city!

On an aircraft, an Immortal Flame Decayer from the Infinito stood above. His eyes were fixed on the city wall in the distance.

Up there, a woman was standing there. She had a beautiful face and long black hair fluttering in the wind. She was not afraid at all when facing the Eight Forces's United Army.

She was one of the people in Nether Palace who trusted Death.

She stood at the edge of the city with a smile that seemed to be able to attract all men's attention. Facing the people of Blaine Villanueva's Attributes the Eight Forces, she was not afraid at all. Instead, she had a mile of miteipation on her face.

Further away, between the mountains and foreste, a Treasure Hunter team fit next to them and boked at the distance in feat.

"What should we do? Captain, It seems that the City of Hope can't be returned," a man salid

"Audrey, what do you think we should do next?" The team leader looked at Audrey and asked.

Within a month, Audrey had advanced to the half-step Flame Decay at the peak of Mount Moores. She had also gradually taken control of the team's voice.

Audrey pondered for a moment and said, "Why don't we go through Mount Moores and go to other cities?"

Chapter 1035 Killing

"Through Mount Moores!" The leader of the Treasure Hunter looked at Audrey in astonishment.

In his opinion, this was impossible. Mount Moores was a forbidden place for humans, and there were too many large beasts living there!

Not long ago, there was a beast attack here.

Mount Moores of Beast Attack (X) was very dangerous. Usually, when they entered Mount Moores to expand or look for treasures, they were on the outskirts.

They were either looking for things left behind by some dead people, or looking for rare herbs or materials on the periphery.

However, they rarely went deep into the Mount Moores. As for crossing the Mount Moores, even Flame Decayer-level masters were not sure about it!

If one went deep into Mount Moores, they usually had to be equipped with a Purple Pioneer. The Purple Pioneer was actually more important in the process of treasure hunting than a master at the level of Flame Decay. The most important thing was that the Purple Pioneer could fly.

Although their team was strong, there were no Flame Decayer experts in it, let alone a Purple Pioneer.

The price of a Purple Pioneer was too high. The reason why most Treasure Hunter came to explore was to collect herbs and sell them for money in exchange for training and supplies that could allow them to practice martial arts.

“T-This is too risky,” the captain said.

“But now we can’t go back to the City of Hope at all.” Audrey said, “The Eight Forces and Nether Palace have been confronting each other for too long, and haven’t you noticed? Once the Eight Forces and the people of Nether Palace start fighting, the beasts of Mount Moores will move. There have been many times in the past month, and we might be noticed by the beasts next time!”

Hearing her words, everyone fell silent.

That’s right. The Eight Forces is the most powerful force in Havotune.

Nether Palace had previously become a forbidden topic due to the alliance of the Eight Forces.

However, within a month or so, the Eight Forces' authority in this galaxy had been affected.

The torrent of history was rolling past, and the chaotic world was coming!

Audrey's words caused everyone else to fall silent.

They were lucky enough to dodge one or two beast attack, but the beasts kept attacking. Could they really dodge it?

The leader of the Treasure Hunter gritted his teeth and said, "Okay! Then... let's try to cross the Mount Moores!"

After making the decision, the group of women began to retreat. Next to the captain, a metal object lifted off. This was the detection device in this world that could detect everything within a range of about five kilometers, which was a detection item that most Pioneer teams would equipped.

They moved and began to walk deeper into Mount Moores.

In front of them, the confrontation between the two armies was still ongoing. At the city gate, a beautiful woman suddenly looked into the veins of Mount Moores. Then she shook her head and said, "Are you mistaken?"

Beside him, an old woman shook his head and said, "That's right. I also feel six auras, albeit very weak."

"When will Nether King return?" the woman asked.

"I don't know!" The old woman shook her head.

Gerald naturally had no idea what had happened in the City of Hope. A huge bolt of lightning split the ice shield and landed on Raphael.

"Ah!"

A loud scream resounded, and Raphael spat out a mouthful of blood.

Before he could react, Gerald had come again with his saber.

“Magma Strike!”

Gerald’s attack followed closely.

Boom!

Conor was sent flying, and his magma attribute points burned all over his body.

“Pfft!”

Blood spilled from the corner of Gerald’s mouth. Unwilling to give up, Gerald raised his saber and slashed at Gerald. again.

He used his air extraction attribute from Gerald Kenneth and seized the opportunity within an instant.

Gerald had the advantage of multiple attributes. He could achieve great results with his attributes and combination.

“Clank!”

“Clank!”

Dragon Saber and the white-colored longsword kept colliding, and Gerald seized the opportunity to attack.

With the start of the Death Storm, Gerald’s Vital Energy was a little better than the supreme Flame Decayer’s, which, under the circumstances that he had the upper hand, was enough to turn things around.

Gerald was experienced in combat. Seizing the fleeting skill, Magma Strike struck twice, and then directly slashed down Wave Blades with one saber.

“Fifteenth saber!”

“Sixteen saber!”

With Gerald’s saber at the center of the circle, the hole in the ground would widen every time it fell.

“The twenty-ninth saber!”

The moment Gerald superimposed the twenty-ninth saber, he felt that he had also reached the limitation of Wave Blades.

The terrifying Vital Energy fell with pressure, and Conor’s entire face was deformed.

Boom!

Under the collapsed ruins, all the building materials seemed to be crushed by the Vital Energy.

The entire battlefield couldn’t help but look towards this side at this moment.

Wave Blades were more powerful than one saber.

Gerald’s saber had surpassed Magma Strike and was close to the level of his Unsheathing Slash. It was also a huge consumption of Vital Energy.

And this move was infinitely close to the level of the Eternal Flame Decayer.

After the smoke and dust dissipated, Gerald descended from the sky. In the center of the deep pit on the ground, Raphael was lying on the ground covered in blood,

“I won!” Gerald looked at Kenneth coldly.

“You...” Raphael trembled all over. He didn’t want to die!

He had lived for so many years and didn’t want to die in this place.

However, Gerald did not linger much. Dragon Saber’s saber flickered, and Raphael’s throat instantly broke open. His eyes were wide open, and his breathing was getting weaker and weaker!

“It’s time to end!”

Gerald raised his head.

The time of Death Storm was not over yet. Gerald looked at Triston and Valery, who were covered in blood.

Although Triston had broken through to the supreme Flame Decayer in this battle, the pressure was still too much for him and Valery to deal with more than twenty ordinary Flame Decayer masters. If it weren't for Claude's constant interference in the sky by a hand of God gun, these twenty people wouldn't have been able to stop for even a second, and the two might have been unable to hold on for a long time!

"Leave it to me!" Gerald growled at the two of them. Before the side effects of the death storm came, he rushed into the battle group.

At this time, he could really kill an ordinary master like Flame Decayer in seconds.

In the blink of an eye, a Flame Decayer-level master died.

The twenty or so people began to flee quickly.

They could not even muster the courage to fight Gerald.

Not far away, when Sauven saw this scene, it looked at the dead Raphael and Arvin Ingram, and then at the powerful Gerald Kenneth and Carolyn Berry!

The other party... also had two supreme Flame Decayers.

Despair rose in his heart. He knew that he had lost!

The City of Phoenix, the Four Ancient Families, would completely go down in history today and no longer exist.

Chapter 1036 Waiting for a Hundred Years

In despair, Sauven was held back by Blaine.

Blaine shouted very loudly, saying that he was just a piece of trash and could be killed with a saber.

But this guy had never used his saber, and he was completely suppressed.

At that moment, Sauven was filled with despair.

The Four Ancient Families had been in the City of Phoenix for so many years, and he thought that his generation could fulfill the expectations of generations. They discovered a treasure that could let them live on satellites!

Although they had been surveying and exploring for nearly a hundred years, they did not manage to take the ball down. Instead, they were counterattacked.

There weren't many people who fought back, but they all supreme Flame Decayers and they had Dragon Bones or Phoenix Bones.

Desperate, he looked at those who wanted to escape. He didn't hold them accountable. A few Flame Decayer-level masters escaped, and maybe some of them could protect the Four Ancient Families and survive.

He knew that in this world, the survival of the fittest would be better protected by Flame Decayer.

"Old bastard!" At this time, he found Blaine in front of him, staring at him and saying, "You guys are finished."

The battle between Raphael and Gerald would determine the outcome of the war. If Gerald died, the Four Ancient Families would have an advantage against Carolyn!

When Raphael died, Gerald had no time to fight, and they were also powerless to fight against the two big weapons,

Gerald and Carolyn!

He knew that the situation was over.

Thinking of all this, he roared, "The Four Ancient Families belong! Everyone... stop fighting and escape! Escape from the City of Phoenix!"

If he didn't mention it, those ordinary Flame Decayer-level masters were already on the run.

As soon as the backbone died, these people scattered like birds and beasts.

Fight to death?

It's impossible in this world.

The so-called alliance of the Four Ancient Families was just a union under the general trend. They looked like they were in the same boat, but they had never been monolithic.

People in this world needed to be united, but at some point, they were selfish!

Especially these Flame Decayers!

They had a lot of secrets about the Bone of Eternity in their hands, and they could use this information to exchange for a good position.

In addition, they did not have any hope of winning at this moment. Therefore, those experts at the level of Flame Decayer chose to run away immediately when they saw Gerald coming.

On the other hand, the Purple Elite Ghosts was still being slaughtered by Carolyn. Many of them had died in the battle before, and there were not many left after Carolyn's massacre.

At this moment, when the roar of the Sauven Guerrero resounded, all the Purple Elite Ghosts were lifted up in an instant!

They also began to disperse in all directions!

When they fought, they wouldn't fight to the death, but when they fled, they would choose to run away immediately.

There was a fundamental difference between this and Watchmen.

If it was Gerald, Carolyn, and their people who died in the battle just now, there was no doubt that they would immediately start a Death Storm to fight with the enemy!

In fact, the whole Night Watch or Earth had been able to hold on for a hundred years because of their determination!

When faced with a life-and-death battle, Watchmen were always facing the Elite Ghosts, using their lives to protect the future of the entire earth from generation to generation.

After a hundred years of suffering, they finally came to the day of counterattack

"Despair?" Looking at Sauven, Blaine asked faintly, "Are you happy to see your friends and family die one by one?"

"Shut up!" With a roar, Sauven drew his sword and charged toward Blaine.

But at this moment, Triston and Valery also came over, and the three of them surrounded Sauven.

Blaine threw the Crimson Slayer aside, and it sank into the ground. He looked at the Sauven Guerrero and the defeated people of the City of Phoenix, and the playful expression on his face suddenly disappeared.

At this moment, hot tears came out of his eyes!

“Don’t worry, I won’t let you die so easily.” Blaine murmured, “For a hundred years, you have now felt the pain of your family members dying in constant wars. I have experienced this pain for a hundred years!”

“I watched my comrades die one by one in your hands. You’ll never imagine how much I hate the Four Ancient Families. You’re the culprit. I’ll let you watch them die one by one!” Blaine reached out and wiped her tears!

“What nonsense are you talking about? Come and kill me if you dare!” roared Sauven.

In the air, Gerald’s wings were constantly shaking, and his speed was extremely fast. He was grasping the last moment to chase the escaping Flame Decayer-level masters!

“Ignore the Purple Elite Ghosts. Let’s kill Flame Decayers first!” Gerald roared.

Carolyn nodded. She ignored the besieged Sauven Guerrero.

No matter how strong Sauven was, he couldn’t fight back against Valery Manning, Triston Beck, and Blaine Villanuveva.

Their top priority was to kill all the other Flame Decayer-level masters.

These people had a lot of secrets about the Bone of Eternity on Earth, so it was impossible for them to escape just like that.

From the moment Gerald killed Raphael, the entire Four Ancient Families showed a posture of defeat!

Blaine dodged the attack of the Sauven Guerrero while saying faintly, “For a hundred years, I didn’t dare to find a wife or have a child because I knew that my child would definitely face you bastards in the future. I was afraid that he would die with me!”

“But for the past hundred years, I still have countless good friends and children I raised. I watched them grow up, watched them become talented, and then... watched them die in your hands.” Blaine murmured, "I have experienced this kind of pain of life and death countless times, and I even feel a little numb in the future."

"Today, I can't let you die so easily! The Four Ancient Families, from old to young, no one can live! I will cripple you and make you kneel in front of the city wall, watching them die one by one in front of you, so that you can hear their pleas and screams, so that you can't die! I'll let you experience it a thousand times!" Blaine said calmly!

Listening to Blaine's cruel words, Raphael felt a chill run down his spine.

"The Four Ancient Families! Run! Escape from the City of Phoenix!" roared the Guerrero.

With the Vital Energy running, his voice spread far and wide!

The entire City of Phoenix seemed to have fallen into silence for a moment, and then, monstrous screams resounded.

again!

The Four Ancient Families heard the sound of the Sauven Guerrero. They knew that they had lost in the collision of the top fighters.

They began to run around.

The crowd in Abandoned Land let out a thunderous cheer. They knew that they had won the battle.

The Four Ancient Families' fighting spirit had reached heights they had never felt before. They began to hunt down the Four Ancient Families frantically.

Similarly, outside the city gates, the sound of the Sauven Guerrero could be heard.

The Pierce family from Rime City stood over there. He looked at Jacob Eden with a slight expression.

Jacob's expression was calm.

But Zackary and the one-legged old man burst into tears. Zackary even knelt on the ground with his hands clasped together as if he was praying for something.

"What's wrong with them?" Benson didn't understand!

He didn't understand the grudge between Night Watch and the Four Ancient Families, nor did he understand what the destruction of the Four Ancient Families meant to Zackary Benjamin and the others.

This meant that the Earth would end the invasion of the Elite Ghosts and enter complete peace in the future.

This meant that their comrades-in-arms and friends would no longer die on the battlefield!

“Benson Pierce, please inform the guards to guard the major city gates. If the Four Ancient Families want to escape, they will be killed without mercy!” Jacob Eden, who was next to them, said calmly.

Chapter 1037 An Unpardonable Death to the Runners!

Gerald had discussed this matter with him. The purpose of the Pierce family was to trap the members of the Four Ancient Families within the City of Phoenix, Benson quickly notified the others!

“Can we go in now?” Joshua wiped his tears and asked.

“Don’t worry, Mr. Joshua. After Gerald and Kenneth take control of the situation in the city, they will call us in. We promised you that you would see the destruction of the Four Ancient Families with your own eyes!” Jacob said hurriedly.

There was bound to be chaos in the city now, and it was indeed not a good result for them to go in now!

Jacob thought for a while and felt uneasy. He walked over to Benson and continued to urge, “Please inform me again that anyone from the Four Ancient Families, no matter what level, no matter who, no matter why, will be killed!”

At the same time, a roar resounded through the city of Phoenix!

Gerald roared, “Everyone in the City of Phoenix, listen up. The Four Ancient Families have been destroyed. No one can leave the City of Phoenix now. The Pierce family has surrounded the entire City of Phoenix. Anyone who goes out now will be killed.”

In fact, Gerald and Kenneth had exhausted all their Vital Energy. Relying on the Silver Wings, he had taken advantage of the last few minutes to kill eleven Flame Decayers. The rest of the people had to be handed over to Carolyn!

He flapped his wings and landed on the roof. Leaning against the wall, he breathed heavily.

It was already evening, and the entire City of Phoenix was shining brightly under Kristen.

“It’s not over yet,” Gerald muttered.

He wanted to continue fighting, but the feeling of weakness after Death Storm still made him unable to muster a bit of strength.

“Carolyn, you must kill everyone!” Gerald murmured with a hint of worry in his heart.

Twenty or so Flame Decayers, these people all knew that there was a hidden danger on Earth, and they had to solve it.

But now, he had no choice.

From the moment this battle was exposed in advance, it was a little off their planned route.

Fortunately, it was still within the frame!

Benson guarded all the crossroads, and if people couldn’t get out, there was a chance to solve it!

Gerald leaned against the wall and sat down, panting heavily.

Next, it was Carolyn’s turn.

Carolyn’s body was constantly retreating, and above the sky, Sylvie and Claude also scattered. This was Claude’s request, and he hoped that Sylvie could take the initiative to track those who fled.

Naturally, Sylvie agreed.

On the main battlefield, the three of them surrounded the Sauven Guerrero,

On top of that, Triston and Sauven continued to verbally attack him.

Sometimes, he even wanted to commit suicide, but he couldn't bear to, and wanted to seek a chance to escape.

However, there was no chance!

The hope is getting smaller and smaller!

Gritting his teeth, Sauven raised his head to look at Blaine and yelled, "I won't let you live if you kill me!"

The next moment, he used all his Vital Energy and roared to the sky, "Benson Pierce, everyone in the City of Phoenix, listen to me. There is a huge treasure in the hometown of Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone..."

"Treasure you!" Just then, Triston rushed forward in an instant, and a powerful surge of Vital Energy burst out from his spear, piercing through the energy core of Sauven Guerrero.

The Vital Energy on the body of the Sauven Guerrero began to dissipate instantly.

Under the encirclement of the three of them, he was at the end of his rope.

By this time, all the supreme Flame Decayers in the City of Phoenix had lost their fighting power.

Next, they were going to hunt and kill Flame Decayer-level masters who had escaped, as well as dispose the aftermath.

Triston's shot only destroyed the energy core of the Sauven Guerrero, but it didn't kill him. As Blaine said, he also hoped that the Sauven Guerrero could see the destruction of the Four Ancient Families with his own eyes.

He looked at the mattress of the Sauven Guerrero.

Blaine restrained his excitement and glanced at Valery Manning. "Valery, watch them. I'll continue to chase the others. Also, Hector Ingram just used the Death Storm to treat him!"

Valery nodded. She was drained of energy as well.

But at this time, she still had to do these treatment tasks.

Triston lay on the ground, raised his head, looked at the sky, and murmured, "Is it over?"

Valery said, "Maybe... it's over!"

The pursuit continued. Outside, on the side of the Pierce family in Rime City, many drones also lifted off. Benson had contacted Carolyn and Gerald. Gerald still told him not to come in and rely on drones to detect the escaping Flame Decayers of the four Ancient Families!

Gerald's heart would only be in his stomach once Flame Decayer was gone.

Carolyn kept flying in the sky. After a long time, she said, "Gerald, Kenneth, I killed eleven people. There were a total of twenty-three people who fled before. How many did you kill?"

"I killed eleven too!" Gerald frowned.

The Four Ancient Families were Flame Decayer-level masters. So far, there was only one left, which meant that the Four Ancient Families were really going to be completely destroyed.

A top master determined the status of a family.

When Flame Decayer-level masters were almost all dead, the Four Ancient Families were completely destroyed.

Countless people from the Four Ancient Families began to run towards the City of Phoenix. They couldn't leave at all with Benson's men at the city gate!

In addition, in order to stop Benson and the others, the walls of the city rose, which made it easier for Benson and the others to block it.

Gerald knitted his brows tightly.

He even ran away from Flame Decayer!

If we manage to escape and find a force no less powerful than the Four Ancient Families, the Earth will still be under pressure once the news leaks!

Gerald rested for a long time, and his body regained some Vital Energy. He staggered to his feet, pressed his ear, and asked, "Didn't you find the last person?"

Benson's voice rang out, "Our people have been staring at the detection range of the drone, which covers almost the entire city of Phoenix. We haven't found him for the time being. According to the information, the person who escaped should be one of the Quintin family, named Pierre!"

The Pierce family decided to fight this battle, so naturally, the information was collected very comprehensively. All the experts at the level of Flame Decayer were in their hands. According to the comparison between the dead and the fled, it was not difficult to guess who the remaining person was!

“Please continue to investigate.” Gerald said, “Then ask Jacob Eden to inform those people in the Abandoned Land to drive the people from the Four Ancient Families to the center of the city. Find a place to inform the whole city that the City of Phoenix has changed its owner. There is a huge reward for those who find people from the Four Ancient Families and report or catch them!”

“Okay!” Benson said, “Shall we go into the city now?”

“We still have to keep watching over them,” Gerald replied. “Don’t worry. I’ll keep all the things that belong to you!”

After saying that, he stood up, stood on top of the building, and looked down at the City of Phoenix!

Except for the elderly, women, and children, most people in the City of Phoenix and Abandoned Land participated in this historical battle.

And the Abandoned Land was quite quiet.

A figure jumped out of it. He looked outside, and pain appeared on his face!

He was Pierre, the only one who escaped from the Four Ancient Families!

“Mr. Guerrero! I’ll find a way to avenge you!” He gritted his teeth and turned around, intending to leave the city of Phoenix from Abandoned Land.

But when he turned around, he found a woman wearing a veil not far away, standing there.

As the wind blew, her cloak was blown off, and her silver hair was blown away by the wind!

Pierre was overjoyed. He ran to Sylvie and knelt on the ground, saying, “Sir, sir, I am the Flame Decayer of the Quintin family of the City of Phoenix. I am Pierre. The City of Phoenix was attacked. I hope the Archaic Tribe can help us get revenge!”

“I saw it!” Sylvie said calmly. “There are two questions. One, why did Gerald and Kenneth insist on killing you?”

After pondering for a moment, Pierre gritted his teeth and said, “Superior Envoy, I’ve told you that you must help us get revenge. This news is enough for the Archaic Tribe to rule the Havotune!”

“Go ahead!” Sylvie asked.

“Gerald Kenneth... is the hometown of Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone. There is a large number of Bone of Eternity. At the end of the last epoch, Nether Palace invaded their planet and suffered a tragic defeat, which caused the downfall of Nether Palace and the rise of the Eight Forces. But in Gerald Kenneth’s hometown, there is a huge amount of Bone of Eternity, which is enough to cultivate an existence that surpasses the Eight Forces.”

Sylvie’s expression changed slightly, and then her eyes moved. “The second question is, as far as I know, Gerald and Kenneth’s operation started in Abandoned Land. How did you know about it and deploy it in advance?”

“There’s a group of refugees from Red Moon who live in Abandoned Land and went to look for Mr. Guerrero,” said Pierre hurriedly.

After saying that, he added, “Superior Envoy, take me away quickly and go to the Archaic Tribe to ask for backup to kill them all!”

Sylvie’s eyebrows suddenly bent slightly, as if she was smiling!

“Do you know the name of Gerald’s organization?” Sylvie asked.

“Superior Envoy, they seem to be in that world. It’s called Night Watch.” Pierre said anxiously, “Please take me away quickly. I’ll tell you the coordinates. You can kill Gerald and go to that star ball. You can get a large amount...”

Chapter 1038 The Four Ancient Families Ending!

After Sylvie finished speaking, he looked at her with a dull expression. For a moment, he seemed to be unable to react to the meaning of her words!

How could the Archaic Tribe have anything to do with Night Watch?

Before he could finish his sentence, Sylvie suddenly pinched his fingers and said, “I’ll do it with my fingers!”

She didn’t look like a young woman in her twenties. Instead, she looked like an old liar on Earth.

Twisting her fingers, Jasmine was like a little mystic!

“You have a bloody disaster today!” After saying that, Sylvie walked past him.

Immediately afterward, Pierre, who was kneeling on the ground, froze slightly. The next moment, his neck tilted to the side, and his whole head fell to the ground.

On Sylvie's hand, small beads of blood slowly condensed on a silver thread that was hard to be found by the naked eye. She found a cloth, wiped the beads of blood on the thread, and then bent her finger to flick it. The thread wrapped around his middle finger, connecting her clothes like a ring.

After that, she dialed Gerald's phone. When the phone rang, she smiled and said, "I found a Flame Decayer. He's been killed. He's in Abandoned Land!"

Gerald frowned slightly on the roof of the building.

She didn't doubt that Sylvie had killed someone, but she didn't know if Sylvie had learned anything from that person.

He asked tentatively, "Did you hear anything from him?"

"Well, I got two pieces of information. One is about your world, and the other is that the reason why your operation was detected in advance was that someone took the initiative to talk to the people of the Four Ancient Families. It's a person named Red Moon, who was invaded by the Four Ancient Families not long ago!" Sylvie said.

Gerald felt a chill run down his spine.

Although Sylvie didn't say it directly, from the first sentence she said, it was obvious that she knew about the abundance of Bone of Eternity on Earth.

Behind her was the Archaic Tribe.

This was a real giant, not something that could be tackled by the current Earth. He felt his hair stand up one by one at this time.

"Don't worry, Gerald!" At this time, Sylvie said, "You're my choice. You're the hope I've predicted and seen. I won't betray you, and I'll keep all the news to myself. This is my attitude. Although you haven't agreed yet, I've already regarded myself as a Watchman."

Gerald let out a sigh of relief when he heard that.

Indeed, from Sylvie's point of view, if she got this news, she could just leave quietly without saying anything, even now!

When she revealed her identity, Benson would never dare to attack her. He might even take the initiative to send her back to Skylark City.

Now that she took the initiative to say it, it was indeed clear her attitude.

"Thank you!" Gerald said.

"I might be the one to thank you in the future!" Sylvie smiled faintly and said, "You can come over and recognize people!"

Gerald nodded.

All the experts from the Four Ancient Families who were at the Flame Decayer level died in the battle. According to the information Gerald had before, except for these people, no one else should know about the existence of Earth.

Perhaps some of the information he knew was just a few words.

Of course, to be on the safe side, Gerald would not spare anyone above half-step Flame Decayer.

After so many years of feud between the Four Ancient Families and them, countless brothers of the earth died at their hands. This was revenge. Gerald and Kenneth would definitely kill them!

He hung up the phone and looked at the people of the Four Ancient Families who fled, and the people of Abandoned Land who were in high spirits. A smile appeared on his face.

It was over!

It was completely over!

The predicament that had plagued Earth for a hundred years was temporarily over.

Yes, for the time being, he had to think about other things, but no matter what the most direct threat was, the Four Ancient Families had been completely destroyed.

After that, he would develop well in the City of Phoenix, and if there was a chance, he would put the future battlefield in Havotune.

He stood in place, emptying his mind for a while, and his whole mental state also entered an unprecedented relaxation.

The invasion of the Four Ancient Families and the Elite Ghosts against the Earth was like a mountain pressing down on Night Watch, also on top of Gerald.

At this time, the mountain was unloaded, leaving only some finishing work!

He was not a professional in this area. With Zackary Benjamin and Jacob Eden around, it was not difficult for them!

He stood on the roof for a while and then said to the phone, "Benson, please continue guarding the gate of each city.

All the members of the Four Ancient Families are killed without mercy. Also, Jacob, bring Zackary and the others in!"

Next, he went into the final work.

The change of ownership of the City of Phoenix caused a big sensation, four Ancient Families, who had been ruling the city for so many years, was overturned in one day. The organization called Night Watch take over the City of Phoenix

Soon after Jacob Eden and Zackary Benjamin entered the City of Phoenix, the citywide broadcast rang out.

"Hello everyone, I'm Jacob Eden, the person in charge of the Night Watch of the City of Phoenix!" Jacob's voice resounded throughout the city as he said faintly, "All the masters of the four Ancient Families have died under our sabers. In the future, the order of the City of Phoenix will undergo earth-shattering changes..."

"In the next few days, please don't go out. The rules of the City of Phoenix will slowly recover." Jacob said, "There is an irreconcilable conflict between us and the Four Ancient Families. From now on, I will bother you all to find the Four Ancient Families' fugitives, arrest them, or report them. There will be generous rewards!"

It was the wrists of Jacob Eden and Zackary Benjamin!

The City of Phoenix changed its owner, and Night Watch became the new ruler. In order to please the new ruler, most people in the City of Phoenix would report or arrest people from the Four Ancient Families if they found out!

“Those who hide will also be killed!” Jacob’s voice kept resounding through the city of Phoenix!

In the City of Phoenix, the City Defenders began to put down their weapons and surrender.

Leon Ingersoll was seriously injured by Gerald Kenneth and could not continue to participate in the battle. He was beheaded by Blaine.

The members of the Four Ancient Families were constantly driven towards the core area of the city of Phoenix.

And Jacob’s voice, over and over again, resounded through the entire City of Phoenix.

Outside the city, the Pierce family of Rime City was surrounded. Someone also left in an aircraft. They wanted to go back and inform the Pierce family that they had won the battle!

Benson looked inside, but two things kept hovering in his mind at this time.

One of them was what Sauven had said there was treasure in Gerald’s hometown.

The second one was the Night Watch mentioned by Jacob!

As per his agreement with Gerald, he had been guarding the city gates of the City of Phoenix, not even taking a step inside.

The aftermath of the war lasted for three whole days.

In the past three days, everything about the City of Phoenix began to spread towards various parts of the Havotune.

Chapter 1039 Reaction by the parties

Three days later, in the City of Phoenix!

In the center of the City of Phoenix, where the Four Ancient Families used to stay, the people of the Four Ancient Families were surrounded. The Four Ancient Families had been passed down for so many years, and their numbers were extremely large, almost filling the entire core area of the City of Phoenix.

They were surrounded by the people of Abandoned Land, not giving them any chance to escape!

And this day, the core area of the City of Phoenix was bound to be a river of blood.

Gerald, Kenneth, Earth, and the others were not the only ones they hated. The same applied to the people from Abandoned Land.

They lived in the shadow of the Four Ancient Families! Because of the Four Ancient Families, most people in Abandoned Land lived a rather miserable life!

In the beginning, Gerald, Blaine, and the others were planning to kill them.

But later, they found that there were too many people from the Four Ancient Families, and it was indeed too inhumane to massacre all of them.

After all, most of the people were just following orders, and they were not the culprits.

However, Gerald and the rest had no intention of staying with those who were above the super level.

As for the rest, they were ready to be banished and let them leave the City of Phoenix to fend for themselves.

Without the protection of the city of Phoenix, these people who wanted to cross the mountain in the wilderness probably wouldn't be able to survive.

At this time, on a certain tall building in the core area, Blaine, Gerald, and Kenneth were sitting there. Even after three days, when it really came to this scene, they were still excited!

Many warriors on Earth have died at the hands of the Four Ancient Families in a hundred years!

Blaine was the one who had experienced all of this. When the Four Ancient Families were destroyed, no one knew how excited he was.

Beside them, Sauven was still holding its breath.

Yes, he wanted to die, but he couldn't die at all. His energy core was broken, and he had lost his Vital Energy. Facing Gerald and Kenneth, he didn't even have a chance to die.

"Kill me! Please, kill me!" he pleaded.

From that position, one could see the Four Ancient Families being executed continuously.

"Kill you?" Blaine's eyes were cold as he said, "You can't take it anymore? Who would those dead people talk to about the planets you invaded? If it weren't for your large numbers, I would have killed them all!"

Gerald stood at the side. At this time, he had completely recovered. In the end, he was unable to take this crucial step to reach the level of the eternal flame Decayer.

"Open your eyes and watch your relatives die one by one, and watch them being exiled out of the City of Phoenix and dying in this endless wilderness!" Triston gritted his teeth and said.

No one knew how much they hated the Four Ancient Families before the Elite Ghosts invasion.

It was a bloody day for the City of Phoenix!

And news was spreading among various forces.

Azuro, the Archaic Tribe!

Wyatt was sitting in a hall, looking at the intelligence in his hand, and frowned!

Most of the information he had was about Nether Palace, and every piece of information would make him feel more depressed.

"Eh?" Suddenly, he saw one of the messages and said dumbly, "Gerald Kenneth has taken over the City of Phoenix?"

After saying that, he smiled and said, "Are you planning to join this wave after all?"

He stared at the Four Ancient Families for a long time. After seeing that Gerald and the others had killed many people, he frowned slightly and said, "It's too cruel."

Then he waved his hand and a man walked in. He threw the intelligence to him and said, "Go to Nether Domain and find Joy. Tell him the news!"

"Yes!" The man took the intelligence and ran out!

At the same time, on the other planet of the three satellites, there was a city called Sixth Path! It was the place where the Soulreaper Sect belonged.

In the middle of the city, there was a huge attic. At this time, on the top floor of the attic, a middle-aged man was sitting in it.

This person's name was Kaius. Of course, in the Havotune Galaxy, he had two other famous names, the leader of the Soulreaper Sect, the world's number one killer!

Until now, no one knew what his attribute was, because when he wanted to kill someone, that person would definitely die, and his death was strange. He was at the top of the world.

"My lord!" A man was half-kneeling on the ground. It was Thiel, the young man who had called on everyone to kill Gerald in Underground Palace.

"The rise of Nether Palace, the birth of Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone, and the owner of Dragon Bone, Gerald Kenneth.

The Phoenix Bone has Carolyn Berry and formed a brand new organization called Night Watch, exterminating the City of Phoenix. It seems that they want to expand their power based on the city of Phoenix. The Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone can't be left!" Junior Thiel said, "And Gerald Kenneth has a grudge against us. He named us. If he breaks down. on the day of his rise, it will be Soulreaper Sect!"

Kaius didn't look up at him, but said calmly, "He's Joy's disciple! Can't you wait for three years?"

"Three years! Gerald seems to be very young. Not long ago, he participated in the trial of the Eight Forces. He is under thirty years old. Given such a terrifying talent, if he became an eternal Flame Decayers, it will be difficult to kill him," said Junior Thiel hurriedly.

"It's not easy to become the eternal Flame Decayer." Kaius shook his head and said, "You'd better put more effort into Nether Palace. As for Gerald, three years later, I'll do it myself!"

Frowning, Junior Thiel looked at him and said, "My lord, are you afraid of Joy?"

Kaius raised his head and looked at Junior Thiel. At this moment, he only felt a little chill on his back "Forget it!" Kaius murmured, "Go ahead!"

“Huh?” Junior was stunned.

“I said, go find Gerald and Carolyn and kill them!” Kaius said, “Don’t let Joy know about this.”

“Yes, my lord!” A murderous look flashed across Junior Thiel’s eyes.

In the back garden of the palace in Infinito, a tall woman was strolling in the backyard. She was the current Empress of the country.

She was so beautiful that no one dared to look at her directly!

Beside her, Sheryl followed closely with her head lowered.

“Sheryl!” At this time, Empress Regina suddenly said, “Let’s go to the City of Phoenix!”

“Huh?” Sheryl’s expression changed. “Master, you...”

“He’s Joy’s disciple and the owner of Dragon Bone. Since Joy said that for three years, he has to respect her. This is a shameless person!” Empress Regina sighed and said, “We had an enemy with Gerald Kenneth in the Underground Palace. Since he has taken over the City of Phoenix, he should go and congratulate us. Of course, we have to teach him a lesson!”

“I’m sorry, but I don’t understand,” Sheryl replied.

“It doesn’t matter whether it’s the City of Phoenix, the Eight Forces, or other forces. He won’t care too much, but he has no right to stretch his hand too far now! Even if he makes big steps, Joy can’t protect him!” Empress Regina spoke calmly, but there was endless majesty in her voice.

Sheryl was stunned for a moment before nodding. “Understood!”

Chapter 1040 Entrance of the Night Watch

Empress Regina shook her head and said, “You haven’t understood yet! Forget it! Let your uncle accompany you to gn. By the way, find out about the origin of Gerald Kenneth! His rise to power was too sudden!”

Sheryl frowned and said, “I’m afraid I’ll annoy him!”

“His revulsion?” Sheryl chuckled. “Is his revulsion important? Although Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone is very strong. it’s not to the point that we need to please him. Remember, Sheryl, you are the future of the Infinito! Your future will not be lower than anyone else’s. Your attribute talents are not the most important thing.”

She said calmly, "We can show goodwill, but goodwill doesn't mean ingratiation!"

Speaking of this, she shook her head and said, "Forget it. It's good that you don't understand. Now that the chaotic world has come, Nether Palace has returned, and the Havotune will fall into great turmoil. When the war starts, the Flame Decayer level may only be able to protect themselves. After you go to the City of Phoenix, you can go directly to the beehive!"

When Sheryl heard the name, her expression changed abruptly. "Master, I..."

"Break through to the eternal flame Decayer sooner!" Empress Regina said calmly, "I need your help, Infinito needs your help!"

After a while, she gritted her teeth and said, "Yes, Master!"

An hour later, Nether Domain was seen above the sea level of Havotune.

In the Nether Domain, 49 pillars were still there, as if they were ancient, and a trace of black mist lingered under the pyramid.

At the entrance of the pyramid, there was a grill in the Alcoholic, eating game happily while throwing the finished bones into the passage! There were already a lot of bones in the passage.

"Senior!" At this time, a figure leaned over and said, "Patriarch asked me to tell you that Gerald has conquered the City of Phoenix and destroyed the ruler of the city, four families! At the same time, he established an organization called Night Watch!"

Alcoholic nodded and said, "Got it!"

"The patriarch also asked me to ask if Gerald Kenneth wants to expand his influence in Havotune. He can provide some help!" The man added.

"No need." Alcoholic spat out the bones in his mouth and said, "Just let him fend for himself. Also, go back and ask your men to pass on two things to Gerald!"

“Go ahead!” the man said hurriedly.

“First of all, tell Gerald Kenneth to become an eternal Flame Decayer in three years, if not, I won’t care about him anymore!”

“Secondly! Help me raise that dog!”

“Got it!” The man said and then slowly backed away!

After the visitor left, Alcoholic took a sip of wine, stood up, looked at the pyramids, and said faintly, “Are you Lamont Valdez or not? If you are, can you still be so calm when you see Dragon Bone rise?”

The peace of the pyramid! No one answered Alcoholic.

Feeling bored, he stood up, took off his pants, and peed inside the pyramid.

The major forces were discussing Gerald’s matter.

Perhaps the fall of the City of Phoenix was nothing, and it was not worth the attention of these big forces on the satellite!

On the Havotune, it was normal for dynasties and families to change.

It was only because of the Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone that they attracted their attention. Some people showed goodwill, some secretly killed people, and some watched coldly!

If they didn’t become eternal Flame Decayers, they wouldn’t enter the eyes of these real forces.

Whether it was a friendly gesture or a secret assassin, they were just trying to gain a future in advance.

But no matter what, Night Watch had completely made an appearance in Havotune.

Aarav was sitting on the walls of Mount Moores, a city far away from the City of Phoenix. He smiled as he looked at the news he had just received.

“You really came to this world, destroyed the Four Ancient Families, reached the Flame Decayer, and had a collision. with the Eight Forces...”

With that, a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth. “It’s faster than I expected. Hurry up. Don’t let me down.”

Naturally, Gerald was unaware of the different reactions of the parties.

After the City of Phoenix almost wiped out people above the super level of the Four Ancient Families, the members of the Four Ancient Families were driven out of the City of Phoenix.

At the same time, a series of new rules that could shake the foundation of the Havotune were issued from within the City of Phoenix!

In the City of Phoenix, the division of the class of people was abolished and a system of equality for all was implemented... A series of laws were proclaimed.

After these things were announced, the entire City of Phoenix was in turmoil!

Those once upper class people were used to enjoying the privileges brought by the upper-class people and couldn't accept it at all, but those lower-class people and Abandoned Land people ran to the streets and marched and cheered!

Once this news gets out, I'm afraid there will be unprecedented unrest in Havotune!

This was an unprecedented way.

It had been close to five epochs till now, their technological civilization was extremely advanced, but their levels had always been strict.

At this time, Gerald and Kenneth's method of governing the city of Phoenix would definitely change the root of the Havotune.

Especially the Solein Kingdom belonging to the City of Phoenix!

Of course, Gerald did not care about the turmoil.

Jacob Eden and Zackary Benjamin were in charge of all the aftermath work. They selected a large number of people from the Abandoned Land and began to assign tasks!

At this time, Gerald, Blaine and the others were drinking in a restaurant in the core area of the city of Phoenix!

This was their belated celebration party!

There were only a few of them. All of them were from Earth, and the total were only around twenty. Charles personally cooked!

The restaurant had been emptied. At this time, a group of people were playing and drinking in the restaurant, unprecedentedly relaxed.

Yes!

The demise of the Four Ancient Families meant that the Earth would not be attacked too much for the time being. For them, as Watchmen, it was an unprecedented victory!

In the past few days, the smile on Blaine's face had never disappeared!

As time passed, a large group of people were a little drunk!

Inside the box, there was a mess.

Valery Manning and Carolyn helped the girls down to rest. Blaine was holding a bottle of wine. He was completely drunk and was hugging Zackary Benjamin's thigh, saying something in a daze.

"Zackary Benjamin, believe it or not, I have a good eye for choosing people. See, Gerald was brought out of prison by me. He directly killed the Four Ancient Families with his own hands, and we are completely free from the danger of an Elite Ghosts invasion! Are you convinced of my taste?"

"No, I'm going back now. I'm going to tell everyone the good news!"

Zackary was also drunk, and he said with tears, "I want to go back too! Tell everyone, as well as my dead old friends, I want to jump on their graves for three days and three nights, and I want to drink with them for three days and three nights!"

"It's over! It's all over!" Derick laughed.

"I'll only pursue martial arts from now on!" Triston said, "I still have a lot of things to do, and I'm going to find an alien girl to take back..."

A group of drunk people completely removed the pressure in their hearts at this time and said something nonsense!

Gerald Kenneth was not completely drunk because he was a good drinker. In case of any other trouble, he did not get drunk completely. He looked at Hector, who was standing in front of the window not far away, holding a bottle of wine with a smile on his face.

Gerald walked over and asked Hector, "Now that everything is over, I think you should tell us something!"

Hector raised his head.

"You're hiding something from us. You're not telling us the truth," Gerald said calmly.

Hector let out a sigh of relief and then smiled faintly, "Yes, it's time to tell you the reason why I was really chased by the Four Ancient Families, or rather, by the Ingram family!"

At the same time, the Rho Guild was located in the City of Phoenix.

"How's it going? Has the people from Rime City retreated? Is the ban on leaving the city still there?" Cohn asked anxiously.

"They're still here!" Shadow nodded. "The people from Rime City are still guarding the entrance. They haven't come in yet. I went out to check today. Gerald and Kenneth probably haven't noticed the existence of Foliage Manor yet."

"I can't wait!" Cohn gritted his teeth and said, "What the hell is the people in Rime City doing? Why hasn't they entered the city or left?"

"I go to Foliage Manor, find it, and bring it out. When the City of Phoenix reopens, we'll leave!" Shadow said, "Foliage Manor is completely empty now."

"This is a feasible plan. Remember, don't let anyone from the Pierce family find any clues!" Cohn reminded.
