Chapter 1041 Someone From the Royal Family

Inside the dining room, Gerald Kenneth and Hector Ingram were sitting together.

Hector sighed, "I did hide something from you at first, or as you think, I did take advantage of you, but more importantly, I want to destroy the Ingram family. You want to destroy the Four Ancient Families, but now it seems that the result is not bad. The Four Ancient Families were destroyed, and I achieved my goal. You also relieved the crisis on Earth!"

"That's not what I want to hear." Gerald shook his head.

Hector looked at Blaine and the others and smiled faintly, "Don't worry. I'll tell you everything about Yair, and what is to be done next may not go on without you!"

"The story I told you before was generally fine. Of course, I adapted it a little. That is, the reason why I was chased by the Four Ancient Families was actually because I was chased by the Ingram family. I was gifted and was indeed envied by the Ingram family, but the real reason was that I discovered their secret." Hector seemed to have fallen into a period of memories.

"This secret is not only about the abundance of Bone of Eternity on Earth, but also about the Ingram family's exclusive possession," Hector said.

"The Four Ancient Families hold another secret in the Ingram family's hands. They didn't tell the Four Ancient Families!" Hector said with a smile.

"I knew it by accident, and then I was hunted down miserably." Hector Ingram sighed.

Gerald was surprised. "What secret?"

"This secret involves the building in the suburbs that the Four Ancient Families have always controlled, the Foliage Manor." Hector said calmly, "The Foliage Manor was originally the Herman family's legacy.

Among them, in addition to the abundance of Bone of Eternity on Earth, there is also a secret about the beehive."

"Foliage Manor?" Gerald looked at him in surprise.

Indeed, the Four Ancient Families had always valued this place very much. Although he was in a suburban area of the City of Phoenix, the Four Ancient Families had always sent Flame Decayer-level masters to guard there.

Gael Cruz, the second assassin of Gerald, was guarding Foliage Manor at that time. Gerald seized the opportunity, and then Foliage Manor was set on fire by Carolyn.

Hector continued, "You'll know the specifics when you get to Foliage Manor."

Gerald frowned and said, "I'm not interested in other secrets of the Four Ancient Families. We're a win-win collaboration, but no matter what, I hope you can keep Earth's affairs a secret!"

"Not interested?" Hector shook his head and said, "You might have to come with me to that place. I'm not sure if I can go alone!"

"What if the thing inside can help you successfully step into the level of the eternal flame Decayer?" Hector couldn't help but ask when he saw that Gerald was still not interested.

Gerald's eyes lit up, and his interest was piqued.

"Can I step into the level of the eternal flame Decayer?" Gerald asked in surprise.

"I know you don't want to believe it. Forget it. Come with me to Foliage Manor. You'll understand when you see that thing." Hector Ingram said.

Gerald nodded. "Sure!"

"Charles Dominic!" Gerald walked to the kitchen and greeted him. Then, he called Carolyn and said, "Let's go to Foliage Manor."

Carolyn and the others were excited when they heard what Gerald said.

Just then, a figure ran up to Gerald and said, "Watchman No. 0, the royal family is here."

“Huh?” Gerald’s expression changed slightly. “Someone from the royal family?”

“Yes!” The man said, “They want to see you. The other people from the Red Moon Star have also been found and have been successfully taken down!”

Gerald glanced at Hector and frowned slightly. “Why don’t you take Carolyn and the others over first? I know where that place is. I’ll come and find you when I’m done here.”

Hector nodded.

After watching Hector Ingram and the others leave, Gerald Kenneth, led by Watchman No. 20 of the City of Phoenix, walked towards the center of the city.

Not long after, he arrived at the Core District.

In the Core District, the members of the Four Ancient Families had been kicked out of the City of Phoenix, and the entire Core District had been temporarily empty.

In the past few days, the core area had been cleaned up by a large number of cleaning robots. Most of the corpses had been transported outside the city, and some of the floors damaged in the previous battle were being rebuilt.

Gerald walked into the huge reception hall in the Guerrero residence.

There were four or five people in the hall!

One of them looked to be in his thirties. He was dressed in yellow and exuded a luxurious aura. There was no doubt that he was from the royal family.

The other people around him were also masters at the level of Flame Decayer. One of them was even the supreme Flame Decayer!

Seeing Gerald walking in, the man with the supreme Flame Decayer smiled and saluted slightly. “Congratulations on successfully destroying the Four Ancient Families and becoming the ruler of the City of Phoenix!”

Gerald smiled faintly and said, “It’s just a small matter. I wonder who you are...”

At this time, the supreme Flame Decayer took the initiative to introduce himself, “Let me introduce myself to you. I am the Cabinet Minister of Solein Kingdom, Reno. This is the prince of our royal family, Prince Joaquin. This is”

He introduced them one by one.

Gerald nodded continuously as a greeting.

Joaquin, on the other hand, was sizing Gerald up. There was a hint of disdain flickering in the depths of his eyes. Although he hid it well, Gerald caught it clearly.

Gerald didn't care too much. After greeting them, he took the initiative to ask, “I don't know why you're here.”

“Well...” Reno, the Cabinet Minister of Solein Kingdom, said, “Firstly, congratulations on taking over the City of Phoenix, and secondly... I want to invite you to the Capital. Our Majesty wants to see you and discuss...”

“Reno!” Joaquin said calmly, “There's no need for us royal family to be subservient to others.”

After saying that, he looked at Gerald and said, “I came here mainly to talk about three things. The first thing is that although you have taken over the City of Phoenix, no matter what, the City of Phoenix is still under the rule of Solein Kingdom. Since you are a new ruler, we will send the City Defenders here! We will ensure the safety of the City of Phoenix!”

Gerald's eyes narrowed upon hearing that.

“Secondly, I heard that you have proclaimed a new system that requires equality for all and abolishes the mechanism of upper-class and lower-class people. This system has changed our foundation and must be abolished.”

“The third thing is that in the future, the royal family will collect 60% of the tax from the City of Phoenix, and the remaining 40% will be at your disposal.”

“Do you have any objections?” After saying that, he looked at Gerald with a condescending look.

Gerald glanced at him and then at Reno next to him. Gerald asked with a smile, “Is this an order from your royal family?”

Reno nodded and said, “To be honest, this is not only what our royal family wants, but also what the Blood Tribe wants! You should know that the Solein Kingdom relies on the Blood Tribe!”

At that moment, Joaquin seemed to have thought of something and said, “By the way, I heard that Leon Ingersoll, the supreme Flame Decayer of our royal family, died at your hands? You have to give us an explanation for this!”

“So... There are four things in total, right?” Gerald asked with a smile.

“That’s right,” Joaquin replied calmly.

“I’m sorry, but I can’t promise any of these things!” Gerald said calmly.

Chapter 1042 Do You Think I’m Afraid of the Blood Tribe?

Gerald had guessed something when Joaquin started making requests.

He was Dragon Bone, the apprentice of Alcoholic. Now most people in the Havotune Galaxy knew that.

Logically, even if people from the royal family came over, they would at most take advantage of the situation, but the conditions proposed by them were extremely harsh.

But he didn’t expect that behind the Solein Kingdom was the Blood Tribe!

When the Blood Tribe and Soulreaper Sect were in Underground Palace, they had a complete conflict with Gerald. It was normal for them to want special treatment.

The royal family thought that one of the Eight Forces was standing behind them, so it was reasonable for them to make things difficult for Gerald.

But so what? The people of the Blood Tribe didn’t dare to attack him openly for three years, and Gerald was not afraid at all.

Hearing Gerald’s resolute rejection, Joaquin and the others couldn’t help but be slightly stunned.

Joaquin narrowed his eyes.

Gerald, however, said with a smile, “The first one, City Defenders? You can arrange it if you want, but their role in the city of Phoenix is no different from before!”

“Second, the concept and system of equality for all people must be implemented by the City of Phoenix, which we have promised to the people of Abandoned Land before the war started. We only govern within the City of Phoenix, and what happens in other parts of Solein Kingdom has nothing to do with us.”

“Third, 60% of the tax?”

Gerald flashed a half-smile and said, “From what I know, you just took 5 to 10 percent of the tax when Four Ancient Families ruled this city. But now, you’re asking for 60 percent from me. Do you think I’m a pushover?”

“The Four Ancient Families are backed by the Archaic Tribe!” Joaquin couldn’t help but say.

“So you think my mentor is easy to bully?” Gerald asked with a smile.

Joaquin couldn’t help but be stunned. He didn’t dare to admit that alcoholic was easy to bully.

Gerald glanced at him with a smile and said, “As for the fourth point, I killed Leon Ingersoll. He helped the Four Ancient Families to attack me at that time. So what if I killed him? Do you want an explanation? I’d like to see what you want to say.”

Joaquin’s expression darkened when Gerald snapped back at him.

He looked at Gerald gloomily and asked, “Gerald, are you going to go against the Blood Tribe?”

Gerald smiled at Joaquin and asked nonchalantly, “You can represent the Blood Tribe?”

Upon hearing Gerald’s words, Joaquin’s expression stiffened.

Gerald sneered, “I dare to start a fight directly with the Eight Forces in Underground Palace. If you can represent the Blood Tribe, go back and tell the bastards in the Blood Tribe that I don’t have the guts to do these tricks after three years. Besides, if I grow up, the first thing I’ll do is the Blood Tribe and the Soulreaper Sect!”

Once again, Joaquin was intimidated by Gerald.

When he first saw Gerald, he thought that he was just an ordinary person. So what if he was the Dragon Bone?

If it weren't for Alcoholic, Gerald would have been nothing.

On the other hand, with his back against the Blood Tribe, he didn't think he was any worse than Gerald.

However, what Gerald said was true. Most of the people in the Underground Palace knew nothing about him provoking the Eight Forces.

It was just that when he saw Gerald earlier, he felt that the latter was too ordinary and did not seem like a very arrogant person. However, at this moment, when Gerald became arrogant, he found that his aura seemed to be suppressed.

Then, he said sternly, "Gerald, don't be too arrogant. Don't you just have a good mentor? I'm telling you, the law you want to enforce that everyone is equal will not be tolerated by the entire Havotune, or even the Eight Forces. Our Solein Kingdom will not tolerate it either. If you insist on carrying it out, then I'm afraid we have to force you to withdraw from the City of Phoenix!"

"Forced withdrawal?" At this time, a cold voice came from outside, "Does it mean that Solein Kingdom plans to start a war against the City of Phoenix?"

Immediately afterward, a silver-haired Anabel and Sylvie walked in outside the door!

The blue sign of the Archaic Tribe on their chests was a little dazzling!

Seeing Sylvie and Anabel, even Joaquin hurriedly saluted, "Superior Envoy!"

Anabel said faintly, "If you want to ask for help from the Blood Tribe and start a war against the City of Phoenix, then as long as the Blood Tribe supports you, I will do the same to the City of Phoenix. I can also promise you that the royal family in Solein Kingdom will be replaced!"

In the face of Gerald, Joaquin's sense of superiority was instantly replaced by terror.

The world's strict rules were deeply rooted in people's hearts, and he didn't dare to retort at all in front of Sylvie.

"Superior Envoy!" At this time, Reno said, "It would be fine if Gerald and Kenneth ruled the City of Phoenix as usual, but they let people from Abandoned Land come out and be equal with the upper-class people. The Eight Forces will not tolerate it. He is an enemy of the whole world."

"What's wrong? Can you represent the Eight Forces again now?" Sylvie asked with a smirk.

"Of course not!" Reno quickly nodded.

Gerald exhaled slowly and said, "I've said what I should and shouldn't have said. If you're here to congratulate me, I'm more than happy. If you're here to cause trouble, I'll follow you to the end! As for what you said, you can't accept the system we're going to implement, then... I can also announce that the City of Phoenix will be independent!"

"You want to establish your own country?" Joaquin's expression changed.

Gerald shrugged his shoulders indifferently and said, "If you can't accept our system, so what if you go out on your own?"

"So! You're going to completely turn against us, aren't you?" Joaquin gritted his teeth and said, "Okay, I'll relay what you just said to the Blood Tribe! I hope you can still be so arrogant by then!"

"Bye!" Gerald said with a smile.

Joaquin gritted his teeth in anger when he saw Gerald's disrespectful attitude toward the Blood Tribe.

"Fine, Gerald. I'll remember this. I hope you can still be this arrogant when the Blood Tribe and my army are at the border."

As soon as he finished speaking, the face of the Cabinet Minister Reno next to him suddenly changed.

Gerald raised his eyebrows and looked at Joaquin. "So.... You've declared war on me on behalf of the royal family and the Blood Tribe, right?"

"In that case!"

With that, he walked up to Joaquin and grabbed him by the neck. "A loser who spends countless resources but can't even reach Flame Decayer barks like a dog in front of me for a long time. Do you think I won't kill you?"

"Gerald, that's not what Our Highness meant. He doesn't represent the royal family, and he certainly doesn't represent the Blood Tribe," said Reno when he saw Gerald making a move.

"Get out!"

Gerald scoffed and threw Joaquin out of the room. At the same time, he sneered, "If you shout at me again, I won't spare you!"

He couldn't stand this man, but he didn't kill him after all!

Killing someone meant a complete break with the royal family, and even a direct war.

Gerald was not afraid of anyone expect eternal Flame Decayers.

But at this time, the City of Phoenix had just been in a war and needed to recuperate, and Night Watch needed to develop!

It was best for him to guard the land. It would be inappropriate to fight again.

However, Gerald had to show his attitude and tell the royal family and the Blood Tribe that he did not like the idea.

Anabel stuck out her tongue at Gerald's appearance.

She recalled the first time she and Gerald met. Gerald wanted to end her life too.

Beside him, Sylvie frowned and said, "But Gerald, in fact, what they said is not unreasonable. The system you are going to implement is indeed not tolerated by the whole galaxy!"

Chapter 1043 The Goldie Has Helped

Gerald shook his head when he heard Sylvie's words. "This is what we intend to carry out. This is also a promise to the people in Abandoned Land from the beginning. In fact, I was not interested in this world's rigidities!"

"Okay!" Sylvie smiled sweetly and said, "Do whatever you want! Anyway, the eternal flame Decayer doesn't come out, and you and Carolyn don't have to be afraid of anyone now."

"By the way, why are you here?" Gerald asked in surprise.

"I heard that the Leacock family from Solein Kingdom came over. I knew they had royal support and I was worried that they would make things difficult for you. I gave you some harsh conditions, so I came over to take a look!" Anabel said, "But it seems that you don't need me!"

Gerald was touched.

If he still had some doubts and worries about Sylvie, he would truly approve of Anabel.

Anabel was a smart woman. No matter how curious she was, she didn't ask too many questions!

As for Sylvie, Gerald still felt that she was shrouded in mystery.

For one thing, her attribute was unclear, but according to the previous statement, it was most likely related to divination.

Coupled with its uniqueness, her attributes did not seem to be worse than Dragon Bones and Phoenix Bones.

Gerald had a feeling that she was up to no good. He wondered if she was up to something.

Although now it seems that she is really quite frank

“Thank you!” Gerald insisted.

While they were talking, they walked out of the hall.

Outside the hall, Watchman No. 20 asked, “Should I take you to meet those people from Red Moon now? It’s them who leaked the information, and many of our people died because of them!”

The Abandoned Land was actually quite tragic! A large number of people died in this battle.

“Leave this matter to Jacob!” Gerald pondered for a moment and said, “Put those people in the City Defender’s prison first and guard them. We’ll make the decision after Jacob wakes up!”

“Okay!” Watchman No. 20 nodded hurriedly and said.

At this time, Anabel and Sylvie asked, “Anything else?”

“Yes! There’s still a lot of work to do. It’s time for the Pierce family to come into the city to collect what they want,” Gerald said.

“By the way!” At this time, Sylvie reminded, “Someone from the Eight Forces will probably come to look for you during this time. You may have to receive them.”

After saying that, she didn’t ask any more questions and said, “Sylvie and I will go back to the other courtyards first. Call me if you need anything. We are now considered to represent the Archaic Tribe, and most people will still respect the points!”

“Okay!” Gerald nodded again.

After bidding farewell to the two girls, Gerald took a hover car and headed out of the city. At the same time, in the car, he answered Benson’s call.

“Hey!” Benson’s voice came in.

“You guys are almost ready to enter the city!” Gerald said, “We haven’t taken anything from the Four Ancient Families, including the Bone of Eternity that died in the battle. They are all in the core area of the city of Phoenix. Just come in and get them!”

“Okay!” Benson said, “But in this battle, we didn’t do much. I have discussed with my family that we will only take half of the things from the Four Ancient Families, and they will leave all their property in the City of Phoenix to you!”

Gerald’s face lit up.

The Pierce family of Rime City was originally a business family, and they were very rich.

The Four Ancient Families had monopolized many industries in the City of Phoenix. Gerald had thought that Benson Pierce and the others would take over these industries, but he didn’t expect that Benson would actually leave these industries to him.

Of course, there were many things left behind by the Four Ancient Families over the years, including a large number of pioneers, energy stones, and some other resources!

However, for Gerald and the others, the four families’ businesses were the most important.

Millions of people had come out of Abandoned Land, and these people had to be placed. The industries of the Four Ancient Families could provide many jobs.

As for the development of Night Watch, in this world, the main thing is to cultivate two paths, from the essence, and myself.

It was impossible to say that everyone in Abandoned Land was included in Night Watch.

The transformation of the City of Phoenix was not something that could be completed in a few days.

After discussing with Benson, the Pierce family began to approach the city of Phoenix. They interacted with some people in Abandoned Land, which were all greeted by Gerald in advance.

Gerald, on the other hand, was heading toward Foliage Manor in a hover car.

Foliage Manor had been on fire by Carolyn before, but after a few months, it had recovered to its original state.

Gerald had to admit that the technology of the Havotune was really quite advanced, and the speed of construction of houses was even faster. As long as there were enough resources, the productivity was quite fast.

Valery was waiting for him at the entrance when he arrived.

After Gerald got off the hover car, Valery came over and said, "I caught a person inside!"

"Huh? Who is it?" Gerald asked.

"A master of the Flame Decayer level has the attribute of Shadow!" Valery said.

"Originally, Carolyn and Hector planned to kill him with a saber, but... that person claimed to know you." Valery Manning said.

"He's from Rho Guild!" Gerald smiled. "He's also from the Herman family. It's strange that Rho Guild hasn't shown up until now. This place belongs to the Herman family, so it's normal for them to know about it. I guess they're trying to take something away from here!"

After saying that, he said suspiciously, "By the way, his attribute is Shadow. How did you find out?"

"Actually, we didn't find out." Valery Manning said, "It was Goldie... Hector Ingram took us to a place underground of Foliage Manor. It was already dark there, and we didn't notice anything. And Goldie called out a few times and ran to a dark place..."

Valery blushed and said, "It peed on that place, and then... that person ran out by himself."

Gerald was speechless.

"Let's go in and have a look!" Gerald ordered.

With that, Valery led Gerald into the interior of the villa. After turning left and right, they walked down a stairway to the basement. It was about the third floor of the basement. In a room, an energy stone lamp was on, and inside were Carolyn Berry, Belinda Charlton, Kristen Acrey, and Hector Ingram.

In addition, there was another person who was dressed in black, revealing only one pair of eyes. It was Shadow from Rho Guild!

But at this time, he looked a little Wolfie, his whole body was wet, and there was a strange smell emanating from his body.

“Woof! Woof!”

At that moment, Goldie ran to Gerald and barked at him while wagging its tail as if it was claiming credit.

Gerald rubbed its head and said, “Well done. I’ll cook something delicious for you later!”

After saying that, he raised his head and looked at Shadow with a smile on his face.

Seeing Gerald’s smile, Shadow couldn’t help but swing a pose.

Chapter 1044 A Technology Company

Gerald looked Shadow up and down and said with a smile, “Shadow, the Herman family and the Four Ancient Families have such a deep feud. The Four Ancient Families were wiped out by us, but you didn’t come out to kill the Four Ancient Families fiercely. Instead, you cowered.”

“With the strong intelligence network of the Rho Guild, it shouldn’t be that you don’t know it well, right? Even the spies you planted in the Four Ancient Families didn’t care about it,” Gerald said with a smile.

Rho Guild was an organization of assassins, and intelligence was their primary ingredient. Their network of intelligence was absolutely terrifying.

This was also what Night Watch needed to do in the future. Now that the City of Phoenix was in his hands, Gerald wanted to build a relatively fair city. Sooner or later, Gerald had to find a way to get rid of an assassin organization like Rho Guild.

Shadow only showed a pair of eyes, unable to see his expression. He rolled his eyes slightly and said, “Gerald, we’re all on the same side.”

“What are you doing here?” Gerald asked with a smile.

“This is the Herman family’s territory. I’m here to pick something up,” Shadow said.

“Did you get it?” Gerald asked.

Shadow frowned slightly and said, “Gerald, we are all partners. What do you mean by that? I’m just going back to the Herman family’s land to get something!”

“No!” Gerald shook his head and said, “Cooperation was only before that. Now that the Four Ancient Families have been taken down by me, Foliage Manor does not belong to the Herman family. Now it’s my place. You coming to my place to get something is equivalent to stealing!”

Shadow was stunned.

“I’m just kidding!” Gerald waved his hand with a smile.

“Can I leave now?” Shadow asked hurriedly.

“It seems like you’ve gotten what you wanted,” Gerald said with a smile. “Hand it over, and you can leave now.”

Shadow said, “I haven’t gotten anything yet!”

“Why would you choose to leave if you didn’t get what you wanted?” Gerald chuckled. “I’ve been working with you guys a few times, and I’m happy. I don’t want to ruin our relationship, but the things in Foliage Manor are of great use to us. You have to hand them over.”

Seeing Gerald’s aggressiveness, Shadow narrowed his eyes slightly and said, “Since you’ve said so, then I’ll be frank with you, Gerald. You must have heard of the Nether Palace, whose power overwhelms the entire Havotune and is even able to confront the Eight Forces head-on!”

Gerald raised his eyebrows. “Yes, I’ve heard of it.”

“The Herman family is the direct line of Nether Palace. The City of Phoenix used to be the headquarters of Nether Palace’s Rho Guild! If you’re trying to push me, you have to consider the consequences!” Shadow said.

Gerald was left silent. He smiled and nodded. “I know you’re from Nether Palace, but you still have to hand over the things.”

Shadow’s expression changed slightly.

He did not expect Gerald to be so firm with his words.

He rolled his eyes and gritted his teeth, "What if I don't hand it over?"

"Then you can't leave here!" Gerald said with a smile, "We can settle the score the last time we worked together against Conor Guerrero, and you ran away early."

Shadow was stunned.

After a while, he slowly exhaled, then fumbled behind him and took out a drawing from behind..

He put it on the ground, and said, "Gerald, since you've made this decision, I hope you can consider the consequences. You're right. You've worked well with us before, but no one can say anything about the future. You can take this as my advice to you. No matter what, we're at least acquaintances now!"

Gerald pouted at Hector, who brought the scroll over. After a while, he looked at Shadow and said, "There should still be three keys!"

Shadow was uncertain for a while, then he took out three metal keys from his pocket and handed them to Hector!

"Got it!" Hector said.

Gerald could not see Shadow's expression, but there was a hint of reluctance in his eyes. He looked at Gerald and gritted his teeth. "Gerald, I know you're Dragon Bone, and you have Alcoholic behind you, but you really can't afford to mess with Nether Palace."

"You don't have to worry about that!" Gerald said with a smile, "Since you gave me a piece of advice, I also want to give you a piece of advice. Now that I have won the City of Phoenix, and some systems are starting to be implemented in the City of Phoenix, go back and tell Cohn not to have any assassination missions in the City of Phoenix in the future. No killing is allowed in the City of Phoenix at will, and even a casual fight between us will be punished by law!"

Shadow looked at Gerald and hesitated.

"You may leave now," Gerald said with a smile.

Shadow nodded. Gritting his teeth, he turned into a shadow and disappeared quickly.

Gerald, on the other hand, looked at Hector's hand and asked, "Is this what the Ingram family holds?"

"Yes." Charles nodded and said, "This thing is in a secret compartment in the basement. That place is very inconspicuous. Of the Four Ancient Families, only the Ingram family knows it. It's also the first time I followed them a to the Follage Manor on duty and accidentally heard it."

"Then I was not familiar with Foliage Manor at that time and accidentally broke into the basement. At that time, I saw Arvin and Nathaniel discussing this matter here." Hector sighed, "At that time, I was young and famous in the Four Ancient Families, so after they found out about me, they didn't kill me to avoid the suspicions of the other three families. Instead, they put me in jail, and my people were all killed by the Ingram family in those years."

He told them the truth word for word!

"What's this?" Gerald asked.

"A key to the door of Promise Tech Group! And a construction map of the interior of the company." Hector said.

"What is that?" Gerald was speechless. "You said this thing can help me break through to the eternal level of Flame Decay? It's just a company!"

Hector, however, smiled faintly and said, "Just a company?"

"If you tell Anabel that the Promise Tech Group is just a company, I guess they will laugh at you to death!" After the Four Ancient Families perished, Hector seemed to have relaxed a lot and played a joke on Gerald.

"What do you mean?" Gerald asked in surprise.

"This company has made a huge contribution to the development history of the Havotune. They have passed down and gone through three epochs. Now most of the technological civilization of Havotune is derived from their theoretical knowledge!" Hector said, "It is not an exaggeration to say that they have driven the entire civilization of Havotune forward. Including the current Pioneers were developed by them."

Gerald took a deep breath and asked in surprise, "Why is the company so powerful? How could it not be one of the Eight Forces?"

"They disappeared during the handover of the fourth and fifth epochs, which was the Age of Chaos." Hector sighed and said, "Back in that time, they were transcendent. The goal of all people with craftsman attributes was to enter this company.”

“H-How did it disappear?” Gerald was dumbfounded.

“It seems that they did some research and made a problem, and then there was a big explosion, blowing a piece of the original board on the main map directly out of the board and floating to the ocean, forming an island that is actually on the sea now, but because of that explosion, the island was torn apart, and there is not much place in it that is suitable to live.” Hector sighed.

Chapter 1045 An Opportunity

Gerald was stunned. “What did they do?”

“No one knows. Anyway, there are many rumors. Some say that they are studying robots comparable to supreme Flame Decayers. Some say that they are studying pills that can make people live for a long time, or maybe even a pill that can live forever, and they have been punished by God.” Hector Ingram said, “But it’s just a rumor. What’s going on exactly? There is no way to find out now.”

“No one survived?” Gerald asked.

“I don’t know!” Hector shook his head and said, “In the record, it was a man-made natural disaster. The whole planet. was shook by the explosion and countless deaths and injuries! No one from this company showed up later. Later, when the disaster was reconstructed, the pirates discovered this island on the sea, but at this time, the island was full of many strange things.”

“A lot of strange things?” Gerald asked in surprise. “What things?”

“How should I put it? Some mutated humans seem to have mutated genes. They have no consciousness and are like wild animals. When they see people, they attack them. Many people thought it was subhumans living here before they found out that these people are not subhumans.

They are fundamentally different from subhumans. They are very powerful, and some even say they are mutated by people from Promise Tech Group.” Hector Ingram said.

“And that island was left by this technology company. It has the accumulated experience of this technology company for countless years, so although it is very dangerous and not suitable for human habitation, there are still many people going to build a base there, wanting to find their legacy, including the Eight Forces. The base beehive made by the Infinito is the most famous one.” Hector Ingram explained.

Gerald’s expression changed slightly. The wealth, resources, and technology that the company had accumulated over the years were indeed worth looking forward to..

Geza the Great couldn’t even possess such a strong foundation.

Gerald looked at Hector Ingram and said, “You said it so seriously, but... I only heard you say that this company is very powerful, but... what does this have to do with me breaking through to the eternal flame Decayer?”

“It has something to do with it!” Hector Ingram said, “This technology company has two things. One is the cultivation pod, which can absorb and maximize the energy stone. The other is a drug that has the potential to stimulate people. Injecting this drug is of great benefit for breaking through the bottleneck.” Hector Ingram said,

“Moreover, there are no side effects of this drug yet.”

“How do you know so much?” Gerald asked in surprise.

“This map in our hands has the place where the drugs are stored. These three keys are the keys to open that place.” Hector said, “If you find the drug smoothly, you and Carolyn, without any surprise, should be able to successfully break through to the level of the eternal flame Decayer.”

Gerald’s heart skipped a beat when he heard that.

“Is there a lot of drugs?” Gerald asked.

“It’s definitely not much, even when this company existed. Now that we’ve experienced a big destruction. It’s probably even lesser” He for shook his head and said, “Of course, we have to find a way to enter the core area of the Promise Tech Group, but this place is shared by the Eight Forces. If we want to enter, we have to work with the Eight Forces. You have a good relationship with the Archaic Tribe, so we have to work with them to get into that place and then rely on this map to find our target!”

Gerald gulped and nodded slowly. “Sure!”

If he and Carolyn successfully became the eternal flame Decayer, it would be a different situation at that time. The Eight Forces had to think twice before they made a move.

“How about this? I’ll go to the Archaic Tribe with Sylvie and the others later to discuss it with Wyatt,” Gerald said.

“Okay!” Hector said, “But we don’t have to rush. We’ll talk about it when the City of Phoenix is completely stable. You have to implement some rules of the earth in the City of Phoenix. There is indeed a big risk to build a relatively equal city with a legal department, police bureau, and so on!”

“It doesn’t matter once we’re in the permanent flame Decayer,” Gerald said calmly. “Besides, I have to find a way to get an eternal flame Decayer from the Archaic Tribe. Otherwise, the City of Phoenix might be in trouble after we leave.”

Hector nodded.

“Should we go to the basement again?” Hector said, “This is the hideout of Nether Palace’s assassin organization. I guess they got this map by accident, but before they could use it, Nether Palace was hit hard on Earth and then destroyed.”

“Forget it.” Gerald shook his head. “You can keep this for now. I’ll go to the Archaic Tribe and set off after I come back. I’m quite curious about what the island looks like now.”

Hector nodded and said, “Okay!”

A group of people walked out of Foliage Manor, However, to be on the safe side, Gerald ordered some people to guard the villa.

Back in the City of Phoenix, he contacted Anabel and told her that he was going back to the Archaic Tribe with her to discuss something with Wyatt. After that, he went to the core area of the City of Phoenix!

In the core area, the Pierce family members were constantly moving inside. Many people drove some Elite Ghosts out of it, and a large number of supplies were also moved out!

Gerald found Benson, who was so excited.

Benson laughed out loud when he saw Gerald. “Gerald, I’ve gained more than I expected.”

Pioneer’s things were all instant combat. They had taken tens of thousands of Elite Ghosts, including some purple ones. As for energy stones, there were even more!

Although the Four Ancient Families were not as rich as the Pierce family, they were already quite powerful on the main planet of the Havotune after all.

“It’s good that you don’t think it’s a loss.” Gerald smiled.

“How could that be?” Benson said, “We earned it. Almost no one died in the battle. We only got so many supplies, and after this battle, I returned to the Pierce family. The position of heir should be able to be completely stable. This achievement is too great.”

Gerald nodded and said, “By the way, you must have one of the Eight Forces backing you up, right?”

Benson was stunned for a moment, then shook his head and said, “No, if there is, it should be the Archaic Tribe. We are indeed a branch of the Archaic Tribe! But for some reason, we broke away from

it. It involves internal secrets, so I can’t tell you clearly!”

“It’s fine.” Gerald shook his head.

“How long are you guys going to be busy? I’m afraid I’ll have to go to Azuro later. I have something to do with the people from the Archaic Tribe,” Gerald said.

“I don’t know. Anyway, I only take what the Four Ancient Families left behind. I won’t take anything else. Don’t worry!” Benson said.

While they were talking, a hover car stopped near them. Then, the door of the car opened, and Sheryl and an old man with a sword walked out of it!

“Elder Swordsman!” Benson’s expression changed slightly when he saw the old man.
