Chapter 14 Audrey's Thoughts

"What?"

Hearing

that Gerald needed help, Bradley didn't show any reluctance but excitement. He quickly asked, "What do you need me for?"

Gerald cleared his throat and said, "In fact, it's not a big thing. I just hope that in the future, you can take care of Glory World. After all, you are the richest man in Los Angeles. If you give Glory World some business, it will be enough to make Glory World make money. It's just a logistics company."

Bradley didn't ask too much. He nodded and said, "It's not a big deal. No problem at all!"

Audrey was stunned again.

She had seen her father negotiate with the bosses of other companies and knew what kind of person her father was in business. He had never been so generous.

Who the hell is this guy? Just because he saved my father once, he made my father so obedient to him? Audrey became more and more curious about Gerald.

Gerald nodded to express his thanks, and then the three of them began to eat.

The food at Marriott Hotel was indeed top-grade and tasted good.

Time ticked away.

Eight o'clock in the evening! In an abandoned factory in a suburb of Los Angeles.

"Bang!"

Macy kicked open the iron door in front of her and rushed into the room. She was wearing a tight black uniform, outlining her curvy figure.

On her back, there were two knives, one long and one short! She didn't look like a girl next door. She had the standard look of a member of Night Watch!

"How's it going?" Valery, in the same clothes behind Macy, jumped into the factory and asked.

After a moment, their eyes fell not far away, and their faces changed slightly!

In the dim light, a man in the same Night Watch clothes was lying on the ground. But he had lost his breath!

"It's the fourth guy. Let them deal with it. Let's go back to our own positions. Don't alert the enemy. Just follow the plan," said Valery with an angry look in her eyes.

"I'm afraid that Gerald won't cooperate." Macy pursed her lips and said, "He just divorced, and..."

Valery interrupted her directly and said in a cold tone, "How dare he refuse to cooperate!"

After dinner, Gerald was about to leave, but Bradley seemed to really want to have Gerald date Audrey. Bradley smiled and said, "You two are both young. It's so early now. You can hang out and have fun. Isn't it said that there's a very large bar here? Young people like to go there. Audrey, take Gerald out. I'm leaving now."

Then he opened the door and ran away.

"Dad... I..." Audrey wanted to refuse at first, but then she suddenly wanted to find out more about Gerald. Then she tilted her neck and said with a smile on her pretty face, "Okay. Anyway, it's still early. Let's go to the bar to have fun."

Gerald thought that he had nothing else to do, and she was a beautiful woman, so he nodded and said, "Okay!"

A sly smile appeared on Audrey's face. The two of them quickly left the hotel. Audrey rushed to the bar with Gerald.

Radiance Bar was the largest bar in Los Angeles!

It was said that the owner of this bar, Gideon Powell, used to be a gangster. Later, he started doing business. But even now, in Los Angeles, no one dared to provoke him.

There were few troublemakers in this bar, so many young people were willing to come.

When they arrived at the entrance of the bar, they heard a burst of noise and loud music.

The two walked into the bar. Audrey was beautiful and soon attracted a lot of attention.

They sat down and ordered a lot of wine.

As soon as she sat down, Audrey said, "Well, have some wine. I gotta go to the restroom first."

Of course, Audrey didn't go to find a toilet. She ran to the restroom and took out her phone to make a call. "Hazel. Come here. I'm at Radiance Bar! Come here and have fun with me!"

"Haha, I don't believe you. You never go to a bar," Hazel Sinclair said in disbelief.

"I'm really in Radiance Bar. Can't you hear the noise? Help me get a person drunk after you come here!" Audrey said with a smile.

"Get drunk? Which man do you like? Are you going to get him drunk and sleep with him?" Hazel asked from the other end of the line.

"Do you think I am the same as you?" Audrey curled her lips and said, "Anyway, I'll give you 20 minutes. I'll wait for you at the gate. Be quick!”

Gerald sat there and poured himself a glass of wine. The wine ordered by Audrey was naturally very expensive. Gerald looked at it and found that most of them were spirits!

He smiled and guessed what Audrey was thinking!

But he didn't care too much about it. Although he didn't drink at all in the past three years, he had never gotten drunk.

After a while, he found that Audrey didn't come back. He frowned and asked, “Is she having constipation?”

Then he sighed. “I feel heartbroken to think that such a beautiful girl would shit!”

He didn't notice that four people were sitting opposite him.

They were Adriel, Irene, Angeline, and Matthew.

Matthew kept Angeline drinking. They wanted to sleep with Angeline tonight.

“Isn't that Gerald?” Just then, Adriel suddenly pointed at Gerald, who was not far away, and said.

Irene looked over and frowned slightly!

She had lived with Gerald for three years, but Gerald had never drunk wine.

“He's drinking alone there. It seems that he's here to get rid of his unhappiness,” Adriel said, holding Irene's waist more tightly.

Matthew sneered. “Yesterday he humiliated me, and today he boasted off in front of me. I was thinking about how to teach him a lesson, but I didn't expect him to come to me by himself.”

“Are you going to find someone to beat him?” Adriel's eyes lit up.

Matthew sneered. “There's no need to look for someone. Now Radiance Bar is run by Gideon's nephew, Decker Townsend. I know him well!”

“Aren't you getting along well with him?” Adriel asked with a frown.

“That's because he also has a crush on Keira, and I happened to be chasing after her, so I am not getting along well with him. But now, if he knows that Keira's boyfriend is Gerald, what do you think he will do?” Matthew sneered! Then he stood up and walked towards the second floor of the bar!
