Chapter 16 New Boss

Bang!

In a private room on the second floor of the bar, Decker knelt down on the ground in front of Gerald.

Adriel and Matthew, who were slapped by Decker, sat there in a daze.

Irene was even more shocked. According to Adriel and Matthew, Decker was fearless in Los Angeles. How could he kneel down to Gerald?

The sharp contrast made her completely confused.

Decker knelt on the ground with an apologetic smile on his face. He looked at Gerald and said, "Mr. Kenneth, I'm sorry. I didn't know that you were a friend of Mr. Herman. Otherwise, I wouldn't have dared to provoke you. Please forgive me!"

Gerald was speechless. He guessed that after he disappeared, Audrey called Bradley, and then Bradley called to deal with this.

Irene was also shocked.

Gerald is Bradley's friend?

A friend of the richest man in Los Angeles?

The corners of Adriel's and Matthew's mouths twitched. They didn't understand what was going on.

For no reason, they thought of Bradley kneeling to Gerald yesterday. For a moment, they had figured out a lot of things.

Why could Gerald go to the top floor of the Marriott Hotel for dinner? It was because Marriott Hotel was the property of Bradley!

But what they didn't understand was that they said they had mistaken the wrong person. Why did they help Gerald now?

When they were overwhelmed by a myriad of thoughts, Decker said with a smile, "Mr. Kenneth, please forgive me. All your expenses in the bar today are on me!"

With a faint smile at the corners of his mouth, Gerald stood up. "Don't bother me!"

Then he turned around and walked towards the door.

Seeing that Gerald didn't want to argue with him, Decker breathed a sigh of relief.

Seeing Gerald walking towards the door, Decker stood up and suddenly looked at the two of them, Adriel and Matthew. "Drag these two out and beat them up. Damn it! They set me up!"

"Decker, how dare you hurt us!" Adriel's face changed and he said in a stern and timid tone.

"Go to hell!" Decker's face darkened.

Around them, seven or eight people quickly surrounded Matthew and Adriel!

Decker was almost pissed off.

Gerald dressed like a loser, but even Decker's uncle didn't dare to provoke him. If anything happened to Gerald, Decker would be fucked.

Chapter 16 New D.

Hearing the noise and screams behind him, Gerald stopped at the door and said calmly, "Don't hurt women!"

"Mr. Kenneth, no problem!" Decker said in a hurry.

Ignoring what was going on inside, Gerald pushed the door open and walked out.

Outside the door, it was still very noisy. In the hall on the first floor, many people were dancing in the middle of the dance floor.

Gerald walked through the crowd and returned to the booth.

Seeing Gerald come back, Audrey was relieved and said, "He's fine."

Then she looked at the girl next to her and said, "Let me introduce you my best friend, Hazel Sinclair. This is Gerald..."

After saying that, she showed a smile and said, "I'm not good at drinking. I'm afraid that you won't be happy, so I called my bestie here. Is that okay?"

Gerald smiled and said, "As long as you are happy, and... I just drink a little."

"Wow, cutie. Audrey has never been to a bar. You asked her out! Does Audrey have a crush on you?" Obviously, Hazel was much more outgoing.

"Hazel, don't talk nonsense." Audrey glared at her and whispered in Hazel's ear, "Don't talk nonsense. Get him drunk!"

Hazel smiled noncommittally, poured a full glass of wine, and said, "It's the first time we have met. I'd like to have a toast to you first!"

Gerald was surprised. Audrey ordered strong spirits, but Hazel drank up a glass directly. She looked like she could drink a lot.

At the back door of Radiance Bar, Decker kicked Adriel and Matthew onto the ground. He spat at the two and said, "Idiots! How dare you provoke him! Get out of here!"

Behind them, Irene and Angeline were standing there with two pale faces.

Decker glanced at the two women, curled his lips, turned around, and took his people back to the bar!

After he left, the two of them hurried over to help the two men up. "Are you okay?" they asked.

"Bah!"

Adriel threw up and spat blood. His face darkened.

Of course, Decker didn't dare to kill them. Adriel and Matthew had powerful backgrounds. Decker couldn't explain to his uncle if he killed them.

But Decker beat them up.

"Didn't you say that Gerald was just a loser who moved bricks on the construction site?" Adriel looked at Irene with an unfriendly expression.

Adriel was angry, but he couldn't deal with Decker, so he subconsciously vented his anger on Irene.

Irene's face changed slightly and she said, "Yes, I have been married to him for three years. He is just a loser. He doesn't fight back at home. You saw him when we first met him at New Bank."

"Then why is Decker afraid of him?" Adriel asked with a long face.

Irene was stunned and said in a low voice, "I... I don't know either."

Adriel's face darkened. He looked at Irene, gritted his teeth, and said, "I'm injured. You must stay with me tonight, or we'll break up. You have to return me the car I gave you and the funds I bought!"

Irene frowned. She was not easy to deal with either.

She knew that Adriel wouldn't cherish her if Adriel could get her too easily!

"No, I have something to deal with at home tonight." Irene shook her head.

At the same time, in Irene's house, Cherry Garden, Mary was sitting on the sofa bought by Gerald and watching TV. Next to her, Vivian was sitting there with a worried look.

"Vivian, what's wrong with you? I don't know when Irene will come back." Mary looked at Vivian and asked, "What are you thinking about?"

Vivian gritted her teeth and said, "Mary, we have a new boss."

"Just a new boss. It won't affect your work," Mary said casually.

Vivian shook her head and said, "You are wrong. Do you know who our new boss is? It's Gerald, Irene's ex-husband."

Mary looked at Vivian in astonishment.
