

Slumdog 20

Chapter 20 He's Angry

"But I just divorced. Bradley announced it to the public for two or three days, and then I'm going to marry Audrey. This is too fast," Gerald said.

"Bradley is in fear. If not for you last night, Audrey would have been killed," Valery said.

Gerald slowly let out a breath. He pondered, his fingers lightly tapping on the table. "But Dr. Manning, you know that my body and my heart belong to you..."

"Be serious. Only when you are by Audrey's side can we be completely at ease," Valery snorted coldly.

Gerald curled his lips and said, "As for marrying Audrey, whether I am willing or not, it doesn't matter. It depends on Audrey. Bradley knows our existence, but Audrey doesn't."

Valery thought for a moment.

At this time, Gerald's phone suddenly rang. He picked it up and found that it was Irene calling.

Gerald frowned and answered the phone, "Hello, what's the matter?"

On the other side of the line, Irene's voice sounded, "I heard that you are now the boss of Glory World. Amazing! I don't know who you are relying on, but you actually got such a big company!"

There was a hint of jealousy in her words.

Irene had always believed that Gerald was a loser and didn't think that Gerald could buy such a company on his own. This was definitely a gift from someone. Gerald had hooked up with a rich woman.

Of course, Irene was very jealous. The things that Adriel had given her were too shabby in comparison to what Gerald currently had.

Gerald didn't want to explain anything to her. In fact, he felt that it was not bad to draw a line with Irene and her mother through the whole divorce thing.

"Why are you calling me? If there is nothing else, I will hang up," Gerald said lightly.

Irene continued, "It is different when you are rich. You dare to talk to me like this. Gerald, good for you. Don't you live in my neighborhood? Come to my house. I want to make things clear with you since we got divorced!"

After that, Irene hung up the phone.

Gerald frowned, but he still decided to go there. He also wanted to make things clear.

He said to Valery, "I'll go out first."

"Then as for what I've said, you agreed, right?" Valery said.

Gerald hurriedly said, "What are you talking about? I can't get married in haste. Although this may be a fake marriage, what if Audrey falls in love with me? There are many ways to ensure her safety. She does not necessarily have to marry me. Let me think about it."

"This is a strategic plan," Valery quickly said.

Gerald smiled and did not agree. He put on his shoes and disappeared.

Macy said happily, "I told you he won't agree. After all, he just divorced, and the last marriage was not very good."

Valery pondered for a moment and then said seriously, "That's true. He showed fear of getting married. He's mentally ill. He must see a doctor!"

Gerald left the house and returned to his former residence. He knocked on the door, and the door was opened quickly. What surprised Gerald was that there was a large group of people sitting in the room. There were more than a dozen people.

Vivian and her family, Mike and his family, and some other relatives were all sitting inside.

"Come in!" Irene, who opened the door, said.

Gerald walked into the room, and Irene closed the door. At this time, Mary said in a strange tone, "Oh, it's amazing. You hooked up with a rich woman after divorcing and started to plot against us, right?"

Mary was still unwilling to admit that Gerald was Vivian's boss. But, with the confirmation of her brother, Mike, she had to admit that it was true.

"Plot against you? I'm not that bored." Gerald pursed his lips.

This was what he was thinking.

Mary smiled and said, "You don't like us now, do you? You bought the company and immediately stopped cooperation with Mike. If you don't take revenge, then what is it?"

Gerald touched his nose. In the morning, Tyrone called him and told him that he took over the business of the Herman family and then cut off the business of some small companies. And Mike's company was probably in these small companies.

"What? You have nothing to say?" Mary sneered.

Hearing her words, Gerald flew into a rage.

They had saved Gerald's life back then. So even if he had recovered his memories, he was still grateful to them. Mary mocked him a few times, but Gerald just laughed it off.

But at this time, when he heard her strange tone, he felt that there was no need for him to endure anymore. He raised his eyebrows, looked at Mary, and said, "Not to mention that I won't manage the company myself. I will not interfere in the company's affairs. Even if I am the one who did this, so what?"

His tone was a bit cold. In an instant, Mary froze.

After a moment, she screamed, "Aren't you just a freeloader? Why are you so arrogant?"

She stared at Gerald and said, "Don't forget that my husband saved your life. We even let you stay at our home for three years. Now that you are divorced, you forget what we've done for you? You ungrateful bastard!"

At this time, Vivian's father, Leroy, also said, "Yes, Gerald, three years ago, your life was saved by my brother. It is indeed a little unkind of you to do this now."

Gerald was furious. He suddenly looked at Leroy and said, "Are you pretending to be a good person here? In the past three years, you guys have never respected me! Speaking of relying on others, what is the difference between me and Mary and Irene? Did Mary and Irene go out to do some work in the past three years? I worked hard at the construction site. Yes, I didn't earn much money. You have always looked down on my ability over these three years. But I gave you at least 3,200 dollars every month!

"What have you done? I worked hard to earn money and raised you for three years, but I never got a 'thanks' from you. You thought my work was embarrassing. And Irene is beautiful. She deserves better. But she married me. So in the whole family, none of you liked me," Gerald cursed.

For a moment, everyone was stunned.

Gerald sneered and said, "Don't you forget that the house you live in now is bought with my money. And then? Irene cheated on me and found a rich guy. Then Mary kicked me out immediately and asked Irene to divorce me! And drove me out!

"When it comes to relying on others, you are the best!" Gerald said with a sneer.

No one said a word!

The whole room was completely quiet.

They never expected that Gerald would dare to speak to them so loudly one day.

As for Mary and Irene, their faces were extremely pale.

After Mary was stunned for a moment, she suddenly screamed and jumped at Gerald, shouting, "You ungrateful bastard, I will kill you today!"

As she spoke, she waved her hand and rushed towards Gerald.

Pa!

Gerald suddenly raised his hand and slapped her face.

Mary was completely stunned.

“Mom!” Irene quickly ran over and supported Mary. Then Irene looked at Gerald and said, “Gerald, you dared to hit my mother!”

“You dared to hit me, you ungrateful bastard!” Mary was about to go crazy.

Gerald sneered, “This is what you deserve, for what you did to me in the past three years, and what you did during the divorce.”

“Gerald, don’t go too far.” At this time, a few young people stood up.

Gerald showed a trace of disdain. He looked up at them and said, “What? Do you want to fight?”

At this moment, none of the people who stood up dared to move.

Gerald’s eyes were so cold that they made everyone feel strange and afraid!

Leroy was also stunned. He was a teacher and felt that he could read people. But Gerald’s change shocked him.

“Gerald, there’s no need to do this. Everyone, don’t make things worse!” Leroy hurriedly said.

Gerald looked at him indifferently, then looked at Irene and said, “As you said, since we are divorced, there is no relationship between us. After today, we are just strangers. I will not disturb your life, and you shouldn’t bother me either!”

Vivian and Mike’s faces changed!

Vivian was worried that she would lose her job, and Mike was even paler!

The scale of their company was not big. Previously, when they cooperated with Glory World, it charged reasonably. As for the other logistics companies in Los Angeles, they asked much higher, and the efficiency was not as fast as Glory World. This was a huge loss for Mike!

Mike got up and looked at Gerald. “Gerald, our company...”

Gerald curled his lips and said, “Don’t talk to me about this. It’s none of my business.”

Mary recovered at this time. She gritted her teeth and looked at Gerald. “Gerald, how can you be so heartless! You slapped me. Remember, Adriel will not let you go easily. You have some money, so what? Don’t think that you can come to my house to show off!”

Gerald sneered, "As I said, we are strangers from today onwards. As for Adriel, he hasn't married your daughter yet. He'll probably dump your daughter when he gets tired of her. And, I don't even care about Adriel!"

After speaking, Gerald pushed open the door and left, leaving behind a room full of people either standing or sitting. They were looking at Gerald's back with dull and quiet expressions!