

Slumdog 301

Chapter 301 Scumbag

Gerald looked arrogant, and no one took his words seriously at all!

Who was Jared? Although he didn't often show up in public now, he was still one of the big shots in Washington.

Gerald meant that even Jared had to be humble in front of him. He looked less than thirty years old, yet he was so presumptuous. People would only think that he was bragging.

Milford stared at Gerald and calmed down a lot. He put away the baseball bat in his hand and said lightly, "Look at him. He insulted me and my grandfather!"

The waiter had a headache.

He seemed to be in a dilemma and had offended both Gerald and Milford at the same time. Originally, he wanted to accept Milford's double rewards and drive Gerald and the others out.

However, the current situation was beyond his expectations. Gerald was also rich and wasn't afraid of the Thornton family at all.

Seeing that the waiter fell silent, Gerald looked at Milford and asked, "Who is your father? Cale, Vernon, or Edric?"

Milford sneered, "It's none of your business."

The waiter said hurriedly, "His father is Mr. Vernon Thornton."

Gerald was amused and put on a faint smile. "Your father just died, but you went out to pick up girls. If I were Vernon and had a son like you, I would have charged out of the coffin and taught you a lesson."

Gerald's words stunned Milford. He stared at Gerald and asked, "How do you know?"

The Thornton family had hidden Vernon's and Dylan's death from the outside world.

In fact, the Thornton family was in a mess right now!

Edric had kicked Vernon out, which caused Vernon to be killed by Gerald. Then, Dylan claimed that he would take back Edric's power. Since that was the case, who should be the one to replace Edric's position? Among the younger generation, Cale was the only candidate.

Cale was the third son of the Thornton family.

Dylan was dead, and the Night Watch did not deal with Jared and the others. Thus, Edric was naturally unwilling to give up on his power, even though Jared was supporting Cale!

Edric was still powerful in the Thornton family. Since he had no intention of resigning, Cale was fighting for power with him and even intended to separate the Thornton family.

Because of Vernon's death, Milford was ignored.

As a member of the Thornton family, he did lack money.

Gerald smiled at Milford and said, "How would I know? Because I saw it with my own eyes. Dylan also died in front of me. You know Dylan, right?"

Although Gerald was smiling, Milford's forehead was starting to sweat.

He stared at Gerald.

Gerald continued, "Speaking of which, there are still some contradictions between me and the Thornton family. Since I have returned to Washington this time, I am going to solve them. You can call Jared and ask him who I am."

After that, he reminded Milford, "By the way, my name is Gerald Kenneth!"

Milford had not heard Gerald's name before.

He was still a college student. Most of the time, he was not in the Thornton's house because he did not like the atmosphere there.

With a conflicted expression on her face, Athena sensed that something was wrong.

Gerald looked so calm and confident. He didn't care about the Thornton family at all. His tone was natural, and he didn't pretend to be composed.

Athena knew that she had met a powerful enemy this time. For a moment, she began to struggle.

Milford took out his phone, walked aside, and dialed a number. Soon, the phone was connected.

Jared's aged voice sounded. "Milford, don't be sad. Although our family is in a mess now, I will keep the family property that belongs to you. Don't worry."

Jared felt exhausted both mentally and physically while facing the current Thornton family.

Because Vernon was dead, Jared had to take care of Vernon's son. He thought that it was the reason why Milford called him.

Milford said through gritted teeth, "Grandpa, I met an arrogant man here. He said his name is Gerald Kenneth."

"What? Gerald?" Jared's expression changed drastically. "Did you hear it clearly?"

"He did say that. He is less than thirty years old. He seemed to have been injured and bandaged," Milford said. "My girlfriend and I had a little conflict with him."

“Conflict?” Jared had a headache. He said eagerly, “Hurry up and apologize to him. Don’t tell him that you are from the Thornton family. Leave that place as soon as possible and stay away from him! Understand?”

In an instant, Milford felt his scalp numb!

He could sense Jared’s fright toward Gerald!

It seemed that Gerald hadn’t been joking. Jared may indeed have to be humble in front of Gerald.

Milford swallowed and nodded. “Yes, I understand.”

“Milford, don’t provoke him no matter what happens,” Jared warned Milford hurriedly.

After hanging up the phone, beads of sweat appeared on Milford’s forehead, and he walked shakily to Athena. Athena saw the change in him and began to be anxious.

Gerald and Valery were still sitting there.

Valery looked indifferent as usual, while the smile on Gerald’s face grew brighter. He propped himself up on his hand and crossed his legs, looking sloppy.

“How is it?” Athena had guessed the result, yet she couldn’t help but ask.

“Apologize to him. Hurry up!” Milford glanced at Athena.

He felt a little helpless. He had never thought that a person who treated a group of farmers would have such a high status. He guessed that Gerald was just a nouveau riche.

It was easy for him to deal with a nouveau riche.

Athena was stunned. However, she was clear about the current situation. Without hesitation, she walked to Gerald and bowed to him. “Mr. Kenneth, I’m sorry. I was reckless just now.”

Athena was indeed a little scheming.

When she apologized, she did not cover her collar, and her bow was quite skillful. Gerald was able to see her plump bosom at a glance!

What a model figure! Gerald said inwardly in surprise.

Valery also noticed Athena’s trick. She frowned and said, “Get lost. Don’t dirty my eyes here.”

Athena felt relieved after hearing that. She stood up quickly and ran back to Milford. “Let’s go!”

Milford did not dare to stay any longer. He couldn’t provoke a person who even scared Jared.

He got into the car and drove away. The waiter stood in place with fear in his heart.

He witnessed everything and was also scared of Gerald.

“Go do your own business!” Gerald waved his hand.

Although the waiter looked down on ordinary people and only flattered the rich ones, Gerald did not make things difficult for him.

Earning money was not shameful!

After the waiter left, Valery snorted, "That scheming bitch even exposed her chest when she apologized. Nobody cares, okay? Is she so confident?"

"What? Did she do so? I'm a gentleman. I didn't even look at her just now. What a pity!" Gerald said.

Valery turned to look at him with a trace of disdain!

Gerald felt a little guilty. He cleared his throat and said, "I just glanced at her!"

"Bah! Scumbag!" Valery cursed. She turned around and walked toward the banquet hall.

Chapter 302 Return

Milford's arrival was just an episode. Valery entered the banquet hall, and Gerald didn't follow her. It was indeed a bit noisy inside, so he wanted to stay outside for a while longer.

He had some expectations in his heart as Claude, Theo, and the others were coming.

The five people in Team 11762 who were still alive would be all present. If Valery was included, there would be six!

An elite team should be formed by 12 people in total.

Before the start of the war, Gerald planned to gather 12 members.

Because of Gerald, Carolyn, and the others, the team they were in could only be an elite team.

Now, Erik could barely keep up with them, and Jacob played a more and more important role.

Gerald knew Jacob well. Jacob was quick-witted, and Zackary said that he would train Jacob to be an adviser. If so, Jacob's combat strength would not be the most important thing.

Whether Zackary's plan could work depended on Jacob's advancement.

Audrey and Hazel were a little falling behind, so Gerald sent them to the Night Watch. Hazel was strong enough, and Audrey took the initiative to join.

If the war started, Gerald would not allow two girls to fight on the battlefield.

Just as Gerald was thinking, someone poked him with a finger.

Gerald turned around and saw Leila standing behind him with a red face.

Her hair was still tied up in a ponytail, and she seemed to have drunk some wine.

Leila had never paid attention to her hairstyle or been to a hairstylist.

Her hair was usually long. In the town, there were vendors who specialized in collecting hair, which could be used as a wig. Leila would sell her hair to them for a bit of money to support her family.

“Gerald, can I sit next to you?” Although she had eased her guard against Gerald, Leila was still a little shy and self-abased.

During the past few days, Gerald found that Leila always lowered her head.

She was beautiful, yet she didn’t like others’ attention to her. This was a typical performance for a self-abased person.

“Of course. Don’t be so reserved,” Gerald said with a frown.

The school he arranged for Leila would be an outstanding one, where there would be many students from rich families. Leila might feel even more inferior there and even dare not talk to others. Gerald planned to find a way to cultivate her self-confidence.

He thought, what a beautiful girl she is! But why is she feeling inferior?

Leila sat next to Gerald, and her face was still red. After a while, she pursed her lips and said, “Gerald, the Night Watch you mentioned before...”

“How is it? They are handsome, right?” Gerald smiled, “I used to be much more handsome than them. With the two sabers on my back, I was known as the most handsome guy in the Night Watch.”

Anyway, bragging was free, so Gerald didn’t restrain himself.

Leila was amused by Gerald. She shook her head and said, “I don’t believe it. I saw several people with better figures that day.”

“They are all sissy. Maybe they have a better figure than me, but they lack a bit of masculinity,”

Gerald said without blushing.

Hearing Gerald’s words, Leila giggled. Suddenly, she said, “I want to join the Night Watch after I graduate.”

After that, she tilted her head and looked at Gerald with yearning in her eyes.

Gerald was stunned.

Leila might not even know what the Night Watch was doing, but she actually wanted to join it. It was probably because she was shocked to see a large group of people wearing black uniforms and carrying double sabers on their backs that day.

Gerald rubbed Leila’s head and said, “It’s better to study properly first! We can talk about it later!”

“OK!” A hint of disappointment appeared on Leila’s face.

Gerald began to brag again. Leila’s disappointed look disappeared in an instant and turned into a smile.

After lunch, not many people were willing to leave. For Wesley's relatives, this was the first time they had come to such a high-end hotel, so they wanted to stay for a while longer. Wesley told them that they could rest there at night or soak in hot springs. Therefore, many of them were looking forward to it.

Gerald didn't care too much. After lunch, he returned to the room with Valery.

People living in the same town would be somewhat familiar with each other, and Camilla knew most of Wesley's relatives. Moreover, as a doctor, she was famous in the town.

With the help of Camilla, even if Wesley was drunk, he was still able to maintain order.

Gerald didn't know how they had spent the night. Early in the next morning, at the entrance of the hotel, Wesley and Leila were sending the guests off one by one.

Wesley's relatives and friends had complicated feelings.

Some of them wished sincerely that Wesley could live a good life from now on, and some of them were envious.

They struggled for a lifetime, yet they were unable to leave the town, let alone live in a big city like Washington.

Some were jealous....

And some wanted to ask Wesley to help them find a job...

Wesley's relatives and friends had different attitudes toward the change in him.

Gerald was clear that people were not always the same. Wesley had lived in the town for almost half his life as an ordinary person, and he couldn't part with his relatives.

Gerald could guess that in the future, many people would go to Washington and ask Wesley for help.

Wesley had to balance it himself. Gerald could improve Wesley's living environment, but he couldn't make decisions for Wesley.

After sending off his relatives, Wesley put on a smile.

Sure enough, in the snobbish world, everyone hoped to live with their heads high.

Wesley was the same.

"Let's go. We're going to Washington," Gerald said with a smile.

Wesley nodded.

They put all their luggage in the trunk. Valery got into the car and drove. After more than two hours, they arrived at the house in Washington where Gerald and Valery lived.

Gerald intended to leave this house to Leila and her father. He didn't send them a villa as it might be too sudden.

The house was enough for two people to live in. Wesley had to work, so Gerald planned to arrange an idle management position in Wisdom for him, just like Gerald's father. This way, they didn't need to work hard but could get a salary as usual:

Leila was both curious and reserved. She had been to Washington once because she had to participate in a competition. At that time, it was her school that paid for her travel.

Without money, she didn't even go out for a stroll. She stayed in the hotel for two days and then went back.

Looking at the well-decorated place, her eyes lit up.

Gerald rubbed Leila's head and said to Wesley, "Wesley, you and Leila will live here. Valery and I will stay here for a period of time. After that, we will leave. As for the house, I have gotten someone to transfer it to you. From now on, this will be your home!"

Wesley's eyes turned a little wet.

Gerald noticed it and said hurriedly, "In addition, you can cook by yourselves. This is the key. Take Leila a round and familiarize yourself with the surroundings. I have something to do with Valery, and we'll go out for a while."

Gerald was going to meet his teammates.

Chapter 303 Meet Again

After instructing Wesley and Leila, Gerald and Valery left.

Gerald planned to take Wesley to his workplace tomorrow.

A short period of discomfort was inevitable for Wesley.

He used to live in the countryside, and it would take some time to adapt to life in a big city. Gerald had arranged a house in the same community for Camilla and the others, and it was downstairs Wesley and Leila's place. After Camilla and her family moved over, Wesley and Leila would feel better when they met acquaintances.

Gerald and Valery were driving to a hotel.

He was going to see his three teammates.

The three of them arrived in Washington last night and were staying in a hotel.

Around three in the afternoon, Gerald and Valery reached the hotel and then went straight to a certain floor.

Standing in front of a suite, Gerald knocked on the door.

“Coming!” In the room, a deep voice sounded. Then, the door suddenly opened.

But the person who opened the door quickly ran back.

“What’s going on?” Gerald touched his nose.

He pushed open the door and walked in. As soon as he entered, his eyes became slightly wet.

In the room, three people in black uniforms and masks carried bags, as well as a long saber and a short one, on their backs. Seeing Gerald, they suddenly stamped their feet and saluted in unison. They said one after another, “Watchman No. 12, Claude Caldwell!”

“Watchman No. 15, Theo Roach!”

“Watchman No. 19, Kristen Acrey!”

After that, they shouted at the same time, “We apply to return to Team 11762. Mr. Kenneth, please approve!”

Gerald’s eyes welled up with tears.

When Team 11762 was first established, there were 12 people. Now, only seven were left, including Valery and Watchman No. 69 who had disappeared in Sin City.

The three remaining official team members all ranked in the top 20 of the Night Watch.

Looking at the former comrades-in-arms, Gerald let out a sigh of relief. He saluted and said, “I agree. For every being who is breathing!”

“We devote ourselves to the future we want!

“To be invincible!”

Gerald and the others finally reunited. They ignored the people around them and shouted. Valery was the same, and she seemed to be a little unable to control her emotions.

As soon as they finished their words, a furious voice sounded in the room next to them. “Fuck! It’s at no on! What’s wrong with you?”

Gerald’s sadness was removed by the furious roar.

Theo took off the mask on his face and scolded, “Fuck! Boss, I’ll go and beat him up. He destroyed the touching atmosphere of our reunion.”

Theo’s face was fair, and it had something to do with his unique physique. The work of the Night Watch was quite tiring, and they had to carry out their missions regardless of the strong wind or burning sun. However, even if Theo was tanned, he would recover in a short time. He was two years older than Gerald and was almost thirty, yet he looked young and handsome as if he was in his twenties.

In private, everyone called him a gigolo.

Gerald said, "Forget it. We did disturb others."

Claude and Kristen also took off their masks. Claude's appearance was much more ordinary. Apart from his sharp eyes, he was the same as the common people walking on the street.

Kristen was another female member of Team 11762. When Gerald left, she had just advanced to the top level. Because of a secret mission, Gerald left quietly with the two strongest teammates, and the others stayed.

In the few years that Gerald was gone, Team 11762 had scattered, and the team members were included in the other teams. Some died in battle, and only three survived.

Theo, Claude, and Kristen walked to Gerald and held him one after another. They didn't show much concern about Gerald's injuries. Claude even laughed and poked Gerald's bandaged wound. "Damn it! I didn't expect you to be like this one day. I heard that you fought two super experts at the same time and killed one!"

Theo scolded, "Fuck. When can I reach the super level?"

Kristen nodded and said, "That's right. Gordon had been sent to the prison of the Night Watch. Before I came to Washington, I went to see him and beat him up. The feeling of fighting super is quite good."

Kristen was forthright and didn't mind her words like a man.

Hearing Kristen's words, Claude sighed, "Kristen, we haven't seen each other for so long, and you are still like a tomboy. I am worried that no one will marry you. What if you force me to marry you?"

Compared to Carolyn and Valery, Kristen's appearance was much more mediocre, and she could only be considered an ordinary girl. She was about the same age as Gerald and joined the Night

Watch at the same time.

Kristen glared at Claude and said, "Claude, don't say that I bullied you. Let's go out and practice now. I will beat you to death."

"Boss, save me." Claude hid beside Gerald.

Although Claude was ranked at No. 12, his comprehensive combat strength was not that outstanding. He was at the advanced level and didn't advance to the top level. Even so, he was worthy of his ranking as Legendary Sniper.

When it came to killing enemies, he was much better than Carolyn and even Gerald.

They hadn't seen each other for so many years, but they were still familiar with each other. Gerald couldn't help smiling.

"Okay, change your clothes. Let's go out for a walk. I'll treat you to dinner tonight," Gerald said.

Theo's eyes lit up slightly. "Is there a beauty?"

When he talked about beauties, his eyes lit up.

Sure enough, he was an experienced pervert.

Claude rolled his eyes at Theo. "Boss, let me tell you. Theo secretly went out to explore at midnight. As a result, he was unlucky and found by the police. In the end, he didn't even have time to wear his pants. He jumped out of the window and ran back."

Gerald and Valery were speechless.

Theo wasn't embarrassed. Everyone knew what he was like. He pursed his lips and said, "I am single. I just went out for some fun. What's wrong?"

He looked confident.

Then he asked Gerald again, "Is there a beauty?"

Gerald touched his nose and said, "If you want, I can fulfill your wishes, but you can't have improper thoughts."

"I promise I won't," Theo stretched out a hand and swore.

Gerald didn't pay attention to Theo anymore. He had been missing for such a long time, and it was time to treat Ingrid and the others to a meal. After he recovered, he would have to leave Washington and go to Sin City.

Jacob and the others had been missed, and Gerald was a little uneasy.

Gerald called Ingrid, Leana, and Keira.

After thinking about it, he called Kerr and asked him to bring his sister over.

Gerald knew what Theo was thinking. He thought that Kerr could let Theo relax a little.

After the calls, Gerald breathed a sigh of relief. He left the hotel with all the members of his team. He did not notice that in the lobby, a middle-aged man wearing glasses and a suit looked at them.

A sinister smile appeared on his face.

Chapter 304 Charles' Warning

After the group of five left the hotel, there was still some time before dinner. They were in the car, and Gerald sat in the passenger seat.

They drove toward Quadriety.

They would have dinner at seven in Quadriety.

They had to consider when Keira went off work.

Gerald went there earlier than the agreed time before he wanted to get the two Dragon Bones from Charles.

It was about five in the afternoon. They arrived at Quadriety. Even though it was only five o'clock, there were already many people inside Quadriety.

This place was really busy.

Quadriety had six floors. The sixth floor wasn't open to the public. At this time, there were already people on the other five floors.

When Gerald arrived, he took out his phone and sent a message to Charles, saying that he had arrived and that he was going to have dinner with his friends here tonight.

Soon, Charles replied, "I will let Kaven go take you here."

It seemed that he did not want to show his face.

Gerald nodded and hung up the phone. Soon, Kaven came out. When he saw Gerald, he was slightly happy. When he saw some bandages tied around Gerald, he frowned and asked, "Are you injured?"

Gerald smiled and said, "Almost recovered."

Kaven frowned and said, "You don't look so good. I'll make you some nutritious food later."

"Are these your friends?" Then he looked at Valery and the others.

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, we will have dinner here later. I'll treat my friends to dinner."

Kaven nodded and said, "Waylon, come here!"

Soon, Waylon came over. Kaven said, "Arrange a place for them to sit. After Gerald comes out, take them to eat on the sixth floor."

Waylon Perez was the lobby manager here. Hearing Kaven's words, he was slightly stunned!

The sixth floor in Quadriety was not open to the public.

However, Kaven did not care about what Waylon was thinking. He led Gerald toward the kitchen.

Soon, he saw Charles. Charles was also wearing the uniform of a chef. He sat at the entrance to the kitchen in the backyard. He stayed there silently with a cold face. He just stared at those chefs.

When Hamish saw Gerald, he took the initiative to say hello to Gerald and then continued to cook.

“Just go!” Kaven said to Gerald.

Gerald thanked Kaven and walked toward Charles.

Charles raised his head to look at Gerald, and then said to Kaven, “Kaven, keep an eye on them!”

“Yes!” Kaven nodded, and then Charles said to Gerald, “Come with me!”

The two passed through the passage and arrived in the backyard. Charles brought Gerald to the stone table and sat down. After sitting down, Gerald stretched out his hand and said, “You know why I came to you.”

Charles nodded, but he did not give the Dragon Bone to Gerald immediately. Instead, he looked Gerald up and down. Suddenly, he asked, “How old are you?”

Gerald was stunned and said, “Does it have anything to do with this matter?”

“No.” Charles shook his head and said, “I am just curious.”

“27!” Gerald said.

Charles pondered for a moment, then nodded and said, “Dylan and Gordon could rank sixth to seventh in the Sun List. If they joined hands, even Perrin might not be able to defeat them easily. And Perrin ranks third on the Sun List.”

Gerald frowned and said, “Do you mean that I’m as powerful as Perrin?”

Charles did not speak. Instead, he sighed and said, “The last time when I met Blaine, he boasted to me about how talented you are. I didn’t take his words seriously. It’s rare for someone to reach the super level before thirty years old, but there are still people who can do it. But you could rank in the top three on the Sun List at the age of 27. This is indeed amazing.”

“What do you want to say?” Gerald asked with a frown.

“Nothing. I’m just amazed,” Charles said.

Gerald was speechless.

Charles wasn’t a talkative person, but this time, he said so many things. Gerald indeed didn’t know what to say.

“Don’t worry about that. I killed Dylan anyway. You said that if I kill Dylan, you will give me two bones,” Gerald said.

Charles looked at Gerald. After a while, he asked, “Your body condition is extremely poor. It seems that you were also seriously injured in that battle. There is no Vital Energy in your body at all. If I am not wrong, you should have used Death Storm. It is better to use less of this skill. Although you survived this time, there might not be the next time.”

Gerald stared at Charles. After a moment, he exhaled and said, “Damn, you talk so much nonsense. Do you want to go back on your word?”

When Charles heard Gerald’s words, he was stunned for a moment. Then he put on an ugly smile.

He took off the two Dragon Bones from his neck and threw them to Gerald, saying, “You are thinking too much. Dylan died, so I said something more.”

After Gerald got the Dragon Bones, he carefully put them away. He looked at Charles and asked, “But again, what is the grudge between you and Dylan?”

“My parents were killed by Dylan,” Charles said calmly. “Now that he is dead, it is about time for me to leave Washington.”

Gerald’s expression changed slightly.

Charles stayed in Washington for so many years. He established Quadrity. He did all this with the goal of killing Dylan.

Dylan had died, and he would leave Washington soon, so he felt a little emotional and talked more?

“Are you Watchman No. 1?” Gerald asked.

This time, Charles neither admitted nor denied it.

Watchman No. 1 was always mysterious. Gerald was curious about the identity of Watchman No. 1.

Charles stood up and said, “At last, let me give you two warnings!”

Gerald’s expression changed slightly as he looked at Charles.

“First, Sin City is not as simple as you think. The reason you were able to leave there was that the people inside were willing to let you out. It was also because Blaine was already in the plane that hovered above Sin City,” Charles said indifferently.

Gerald frowned slightly.

People could enter Sin City easily. But it wasn’t easy to leave there. There were strict conditions about leaving there. One could only leave there when someone inside was willing to let her or him

1. go. Otherwise, nobody could leave.

Back then, Gerald thought that he led Team 11762 to break out from there. Now, judging from Charles’ words, there were some hidden secrets.

Blaine's plane was hovering in the air at that time. As the strongest one on earth, his deterrence naturally made the people in Sin City afraid. Was it because of this that Gerald could leave safe and sound?

After Charles said this, he did not explain much. He then said, "Second, don't attack Perrin. You can't do anything to him. And you won't be able to afford the consequences if you attack him."

Charles was in Washington all year round and he seldom stepped out of the courtyard. But he knew everything about the underworld.

Gerald stood up and said lightly, "Alright. I understand. In that case, I will go back first. My friends are still waiting for me outside. I have to treat them to dinner tonight. You have to make us a good meal later. In order to complete the task for you, I almost died. I don't even know when I will recover."

Charles waved his hand and said, "Got it!"

Gerald turned around and walked out.

Looking at Gerald's back, Charles frowned and said, "He doesn't seem to take my words seriously. But it's better for him to go to Sin City than go find Perrin in Europe. The Night Watch really worries me."

Chapter 305 No. 4 on the Sun List

Gerald passed through the kitchen. Kaven saw Gerald come out and chuckled, "How is it?"

Gerald waved the two bones in his hand at Kaven and smiled.

"Alright, go wait for us on the sixth floor. There are several private rooms on the sixth floor, but they are not open to the public. I don't know what Charles is thinking." Kaven said with a smile.

Gerald nodded. He didn't stay in the kitchen for long to talk to Kaven and left there. As soon as he walked out, he found that Valery and others were sitting not far away from him.

Valery and Kristen were sitting together, whispering something to each other.

Theo and Claude were sitting on the other side. From time to time, they would look around. Theo almost drooled when he saw beautiful girls. He also scored the girls in a low voice.

Theo had his own standards to score girls. Others couldn't tell what the standard was at all.

When Gerald approached, he heard Theo's voice.

"This woman in a white dress. It's a pity. She looks good and has a good figure. But the shapes of her legs aren't good enough. 80.23 points at most.

"Damn, this girl is not bad! At least 87.62 points. But she's a little short."

Theo commented on the girls one by one. The points he gave must arrive decimally hind two.

According to him, this was called professional!

Of course, Gerald and the others were already used to it. Theo scored every woman.

For example, he gave Valery 99.20 points. The 0.8 points were deducted because Valery was too cold.

Later on, he was injured and bleeding profusely. When he was being bandaged, Valery stared at his bleeding leg. Helplessly, he raised his score to 100!

Carolyn also got 100 points because Theo couldn't beat her.

As for Kristen, in his words, he didn't know how to describe her, so he couldn't score her.

Seeing that he was still the same as before, Gerald almost vomited.

"Damn stupid thing." Gerald walked over and kicked Theo. He said, "Don't score anyone later.

Everyone who comes to eat today is my friend."

Theo nodded and said, "Fuck you, a top beauty with at least 95 points!"

Just as Gerald was speaking, Theo couldn't help but exclaim and look toward the door.

At the door, a tall girl walked in. She was wearing tight clothes, which completely accentuated her exquisite figure. She was almost 5.6 feet tall. She had short hair and looked handsome.

After walking into Quadriety, she saw Gerald with complex emotions in her eyes.

Theo saw the look in her eyes and said with a guilty conscience, "Damn, I don't know this woman, do I? When did I let her down? She looks so sad.

"No way. How could I let a beauty of this level down? I would definitely keep in touch with her no matter what." Theo muttered to himself.

"Don't think too much. She's looking at Boss." Claude scolded, "You are really disgusting. I really want to shoot you."

Leana came over and saw Gerald. Then she pretended to be fine and said, "It's good that you are fine!"

Gerald looked a little embarrassed. No matter what, they did have sex.

At this time, the lobby manager called Waylon came over. He said, "Everyone, follow me to the sixth floor."

Gerald nodded, and the others followed to stand up.

At this time, at the door, a group of men and women walked into the Quadrity. At the same time, a voice sounded, "Mr. Perez, I remembered that the sixth floor of Quadrity is not open to the public, right? Mr. Borman and I have never been there before. You actually want to bring people up today?"

When Gerald heard this familiar voice, he couldn't help but laugh. Then, he looked over and found a familiar guy among the people who came in.

It was Luke, who had been punched in the head by Leana!

In fact, Luke could also fight. It had been a few days since he was punched by Leana. He seemed to have recovered. Now, he went out to have fun again.

When he saw Gerald, he was not too surprised. Instead, he whispered to a young man with a buzz cut next to him, "Mr. Borman, this guy is Gerald!"

At the same time, Leana's expression changed slightly. She whispered beside Gerald, "Gerald, this person is called Ethan Borman. He is a member of the Borman family in Washington. He might be a little more powerful than me."

In the younger generation of Washington, not many people were at the top level. Leana was one of the best among them.

In addition, there was another powerful one, Ethan.

Get Bonus

Gerald knew about the Borman family of Washington.

The Borman family could be seen as an underground power.

The Thornton family didn't dare to say that the Thornton family was No. 1 in Washington because of the Borman family.

The Borman family did not do business. They did not have many industries. They only opened several martial arts clubs and security companies. With such a scale of business, the Borman family couldn't even be called "rich".

However, in Washington, no one dared to offend the Borman family, including the Thornton family.

Because there was an extremely terrifying man in the Borman family.

No. 4 on the Sun List, Kadin Borman.

Nobody dared to offend Kadin. Both people in the business world and the underground world thought so.

The whole underground world was afraid of Kadin, so they would never offend the Borman family.

Of course, Gerald also knew that the Kadin and Blaine were close, so the Borman family was close to Night Watch.

Gerald did not have much interaction with the Borman family. He never met any members of the Borman family after he came to Washington, but now, he suddenly met one of them here.

Moreover, Ethan and Luke were so close.

Those rumors were obviously true. The Borman family was close to some people in the gray areas of Washington.

"You are Gerald?" Ethan walked to Gerald under the gazes of many people. He sized Gerald up and asked.

Then, his gaze fell on Leana and Valery. He was shocked by their appearances.

Luke's expression was the same. At the same time, he cursed in his heart, he's surrounded by beautiful women every time I meet him. Damn it.

Gerald ignored them and looked at Waylon, saying, "Mr. Perez, lead the way!"

Waylon glanced at Ethan and the others. He didn't pay too much attention to them. He turned around and wanted to bring Gerald and the others upstairs.

At this time, Luke grabbed Waylon's arm and said, "Mr. Perez, you can't get over this. The sixth floor of Quadrity is never open to the public. What right do you have to take them up? Do they deserve that? You took them up and didn't take us up. Are you looking down on me or Ethan?"

"Yes, he's looking down on you. What are you doing here, silly kids? Go back to drinking milk. Don't try to cause trouble." When Theo heard Luke's words, he said this.

Theo was a troublemaker. Gerald had helped him solve many problems.

Sure enough, after hearing Theo's words, all the people who came with Ethan had their faces darkened. Luke stared at Theo and said, "Do you know who is the one with me? He's Ethan Borman. Do you know who he is? Do you still want to stay in Washington?"

Chapter 306 The Blind Date

Luke was really angry.

He lost to Gerald two times in a row.

The first time, he found that Nova and Gerald were eating together. He followed them and was almost knocked down by Gerald.

The second time, he wanted to find trouble with Gerald. But he was hit on the head by Leana, who was drunk.

Originally, he planned to continue to find trouble with Gerald, but he did not expect that Gerald would suddenly disappear later. He didn't dare to find trouble with Leana. He was afraid that Derick would break his legs.

And this time, he saw Gerald again. He found that Gerald was invited to eat on the sixth floor of Quadriety. This made him quite unhappy.

The key was this time, Ethan was standing beside him.

Who was Ethan? Ethan's grandfather was Kadin!

Hearing Theo's words, Gerald smiled and didn't care too much. Indeed, in their eyes, Luke and Ethan were both just kids. With their rich and powerful families to support them, they began to find trouble everywhere.

But when Ethan and Luke heard this, both of them had their expressions turn gloomy.

Ethan stared at Theo with burning eyes.

"Who are you looking at? If you are not convinced, let's have a fight?" Theo asked provocatively.

Seeing that Theo was so arrogant and that Leana was also here, Ethan had his face sink. "Who are you?"

Ethan subconsciously thought that Theo might have some background. After all, Leana was here. People who could deal with Leana should have some ability.

Theo said disdainfully, "Why should I tell you? If you don't dare to fight with me, just get out of my way. Do you think you are qualified to get onto the sixth floor?"

"Mr. Perez, lead the way!" Gerald ignored them and said lightly.

Waylon was a little afraid of Ethan and Luke. He looked a little troubled. He took the initiative to explain to Ethan and Luke, "Our boss asked me to bring them to the sixth floor. So... Sorry!"

Hearing this, Luke and Ethan looked at each other at the same time. This time, they did not speak.

Gerald ignored the two of them and followed Waylon to the sixth floor.

Seeing them leave, both Ethan and Luke looked angry. Ethan pondered for a while. Then he said, "Luke, who is Gerald exactly? Is he really close to Nova?"

"Yes! Otherwise, why should I cause trouble with him?" Luke cursed. "Nova said it herself that Gerald would take care of her for a lifetime. I can accept you as my rival in love. Nova can choose whoever she likes between us. But who the fuck is Gerald? How dare he compete with us for Nova's favor?

"Moreover, he was so pretentious just now. Can you bear it? Will you just let them go?" Luke cursed.

Ethan's expression was a little gloomy. After a moment, he said, "Until now, no one has ever treated me like this, including my grandfather. No matter who he is, I have to vent my anger today."

As he spoke, he let out a breath and said, "Call all the experts of your family here. Stop them when they leave."

"All the experts?" Luke was stunned.

"Yes, at least five or six experts at the top level." Ethan said, "The young man who spoke just now was also an expert. He's stronger than me."

"Then I will call them directly here to Quadrity. Damn it, I also want to go to the sixth floor to eat," Luke said.

Ethan shook his head and said, "My grandfather said that I can do whatever I want, but I can't cause trouble in Quadrity. If I lose here, he won't help me."

Luke was speechless. Then he nodded and took out his mobile phone.

Gerald didn't care so much. He just went to the sixth floor with his friends.

Around six o'clock, Ingrid brought Daphne and Jessica to Quadrity.

Theo almost fainted when he saw the three top beauties. If Gerald didn't keep an eye on him, he would have gone to ask for their numbers.

After that, Kerr also arrived with Stacey.

Only Gerald and Carolyn came to carry out a mission in Washington back then. So other members of the team didn't know Stacey.

Gerald took the initiative to introduce them. Of course, he did not reveal their true identities. This was just a meal anyway.

This was a reunion after Gerald got injured and went missing for more than ten days. And it was also a farewell meal.

In the end, Keira also arrived here. Most of Gerald's friends in Washington were here.

When everyone arrived, Valery looked at Gerald and said in a low voice, "Gerald, not bad. The friends you made in Washington are all top beauties."

Gerald was shocked and quickly whispered, "Dr. Manning, please listen to my explanation..."

Obviously, Valery didn't intend to listen to Gerald's explanation. She turned around and continued to chat with Kristen.

Gerald smiled bitterly and greeted the people who came. He held the two pieces of Dragon Bones in his hand and tried to absorb energy from them.

Gerald felt insecure with no Vital Energy in his body.

He even couldn't beat an ordinary adult man.

His body was really too weak.

Gerald

had many enemies. Sometimes, he offended others when carrying out missions. Sometimes, he offended others in daily life. But all his enemies wanted to kill him.

With his mission to take revenge, Gerald naturally wanted to recover as soon as possible.

The two Dragon Bones gave Gerald hope. He hoped that his strength could recover sooner.

However, Gerald was disappointed!

Before, he felt that the Dragon Bones were compatible with his body and they wanted to merge with his body. But now, the feeling was gone.

He was unable to absorb the Dragon Bones!

Gerald became upset. He knew that the injury he suffered this time was beyond his expectations.

"What's wrong?" Valery noticed that Gerald was in a bad mood. She couldn't help but ask.

Gerald let out a breath and whispered to Valery.

Leana was eating at the side. Seeing this, she lowered her head. Keira also turned sad.

They couldn't help but secretly size up Valery. It was hard to tell what they were thinking.

At the same time, in Sacramento, Pondark Road No. 69.

This was a villa beside the sea. The location was great.

Gerald gave this villa to his grandmother, Rayne. Since the villa was too big, the entire family moved here, including Jadon's family, Jolie's family, along with Mason and Yazmin.

At this time, the villa was brightly lit.

The whole family went out for a walk by the river. In the villa, only Jolie and another girl were left.

Ever since Jolie went to work at Universe Group, her salary became higher, her taste became better, and she looked more elegant. She had changed in all aspects.

If Gerald was here, he would definitely be able to recognize another girl in the room. It was the woman he had gone on a blind date with before, Wendy!

Wendy was still wearing light makeup. She was looking at Jolie up and down. Jolie said, "Wendy, I already said that I don't know when Gerald will come back. Also, he already has a girlfriend. If you want to find him, go to Washington!"

“I will replace his current girlfriend.” Wendy smiled confidently.

Jolie’s face showed a trace of disdain. Wendy was not even as good-looking as her, so how could Wendy compare with Audrey?

However, she could not tell Wendy this directly. She smiled bitterly and said, “Then enjoy herself here. I have to work first.”

“Okay! Then I will walk around by myself. Anyway, I will live here for the rest of my life,” Wendy said. She stood up and began to stroll around the villa.

Jolie was a little helpless. Wendy came here every day at this time. And every day at this time, Jolie was the only one left at home.

Jolie didn’t want to think too much. She turned on the computer and continued to work. She cherished her job at Universe Group very much.

Jolie didn’t notice that Wendy, who had turned around, was strolling around the villa with a smile on her face. The smile was sinister. It even looked horrible.

Chapter 307 Blocked

Gerald did not take what happened in Sacramento to heart.

In their eyes, Wendy was just an ordinary working girl. Also, every day, she only came to the house when Jolie was the only one left in the house.

Jolie did not take it to heart. She did not think that Gerald would like Wendy since he had a top beauty like Audrey by his side.

Just like this, Wendy would choose a time to come home every day. As for her purpose, other than herself, no one knew.

At this time, Gerald was eating with a large group of people.

After dinner, it was already eight or nine o’clock in the evening.

Gerald was a little weak. His body still had not recovered. Valery explained the situation to everyone. Then they dispersed.

Of course, Kerr and Theo had already planned that they would go out to play. According to Kerr, he would take Theo to see the night in Washington.

Claude usually looked honest. After Kerr said something to him, his eyes lit up. He said that he was depressed and wanted to go out to drink.

Gerald was speechless. Valery rolled her eyes at them and dragged Gerald away. After eating, everyone left to do what they planned to do. Theo and Claude took Kerr’s car.

Kristen and Gerald took Valery's car.

Since Kerr had other plans, Keira would send Stacey home. After all the other people left, Ingrid and Leana would take another car.

The four cars left Quadri together.

They all head to Washington. The four cars maintained a certain distance as they moved at a certain speed.

As soon as the four cars left, Ethan, Luke, and their people followed.

Not long after the four cars drove forward, the people in the cars all frowned. They all found that several cars blocked their way in the front.

Quadri was in the suburbs. And it was eight or nine o'clock at this time. There were not many pedestrians on the road. The only lane left by these people was enough for other cars to pass.

When Gerald and the other three cars got close, something unexpected happened. The only lane was also blocked.

Helpless, Valery could only stop the car. Kerr and the others also stopped.

"Huh?" Gerald frowned and looked at them.

On each of the lanes, there stood several people, who were looking at Gerald and his friends with seeming smiles.

Buzz.

At the same time, behind them, the sound of cars braking sounded.

"I'll go down and see what's going on." Valery frowned.

Gerald was now injured, so he naturally had no intention of going down.

Just as Valery went down, a voice rang out from behind her, "Ingrid, Leana, take your friend and leave. What happened here has nothing to do with you!"

Gerald poked his head out of the window to take a look and found that the one who spoke was Ethan.

Ethan had a cold smile on his face, while Luke, who was next to him, had a face full of excitement.

It was obvious that Ethan and Luke arranged for people to block the lanes.

Kerr got out of the car and frowned. "Mr. Borman, what do you mean by this?"

"You're here too?" Ethan frowned and glanced at Kerr. When he saw Theo in Kerr's car, he frowned slightly. Then he looked at Gerald, who was sitting in the front car.

Indeed, Ethan was a little shocked.

There were people from the Jackson family, the Lam family, and the Maddox family here in the cars.

He had to be careful when dealing with this situation.

However, when he thought about how Theo scolded him in Quadriety, he got angry again. He said to Kerr, "Leave by yourself. This has nothing to do with you."

At this time, Theo and Claude also got out of the car.

After getting out of the car, Theo grinned at Ethan and said, "So it was you? What? You want to set us up?"

Before Ethan said anything, Luke sneered first, "Set you up? Do you deserve it? We just want to tell you. You are now in Washington. Restrain yourselves in front of me and Ethan. Understand?"

Theo was happy. He took out a cigarette and lit it up. Then he looked at Gerald.

Gerald said to Ingrid and Keira, "You go first."

Ingrid and Keira were stunned, but they still listened to Gerald's words.

Ingrid knew that Gerald was very powerful, but she was a little worried. After all, Gerald was now injured.

As for Keira, she always did whatever Gerald asked her to do.

The people brought by Ethan and Luke let them pass. After all, these people were from the Maddox family, the Jackson family, and the Lam family.

After they left, two more people stood in the lane and blocked the way.

"Are you still not leaving?" At this time, Ethan stared at Kerr and asked.

Kerr shrank his neck. He was a little afraid of Ethan.

As a member of the Washington Great Four, Kerr wasn't afraid of many people in Washington. Only the Thornton family, Ethan, and Luke would make him a little afraid.

The Thornton family was rich, powerful, and arrogant.

As for the Borman family, it wasn't that rich. But there was an expert at the super level in the Borman family. And this expert ranked No. 4 in the Sun List. The Borman family naturally had a high position.

As for Luke's family, they did business in the gray zone. They had complex social networks. And they liked to use dirty methods.

Of course, Kerr didn't have much contact with these people.

When he heard Ethan's words, he frowned.

At this time, Theo suddenly held Kerr's shoulders and said, "Go stay in the car. You have to take us for some fun later."

Ethan sneered and said, "Fun? Do you think you can still play later? Let's have a good talk now."

As he spoke, he looked at Gerald and said faintly, "Gerald, get out of the car! From today on, you better stay away from Nova!"

Then he looked at Theo and said, "As for you, you better apologize to me now. Perhaps I will be in a good mood and be a little gentler."

As Ethan said this, his face and tone were full of disdain.

Theo and Claude looked at each other. Then they smiled. Theo said happily, "Dr. Manning, take Boss away from here. We can handle this here. Boss, do you agree?"

Gerald looked at the people outside. There were about ten people blocking the way here. About six to seven of them were at the top level. Theo and Claude could be able to deal with them.

However, to make sure no accident would appear, Gerald glanced at Kristen. Before he said anything, Kristen already got his meaning. She took the initiative to get out of the car.

"You have a place to live in Washington, right? Find a place to stay after you are done. I will contact you tomorrow!" Gerald said.

"Okay, you should go back to rest!" Kristen said to Gerald.

Ethan could tell that Gerald, Kristen, and Theo didn't put him and his people in their eyes at all from their conversation. He was really angry.

No one dared to look down on him like this in Washington.

"Gerald, are you sure you still want to act as a big boss this time? Do you think you can really leave?" Ethan sneered. "If you can let the beautiful driver sleep with me for one night, my mood you might get better. And maybe, I will let off."

"Beat him to death!" Valery's cold voice sounded.

Gerald also smiled and said, "Go back and tell Kadin that I will visit him personally another day!"

With that, Valery started the car.

"Stop them!" Ethan shouted at the people who blocked the way in the front.

"Whoever stops them will die!" Kristen's voice sounded. After she said that, she made a move. The two people who stood in the middle of the road immediately fell.

At the same time, Theo and Claude also took action.

Valery drove the car and took Gerald past the blocking. Behind them, miserable screams sounded.

Chapter 308 Apologize to Gerald

Three people among the top 20 in Night Watch made their move.

The men brought by Ethan were no match for them.

Soon, there sounded screams.

Gerald naturally heard the scream. But Valery drove the car and took Gerald away. Gerald leaned against the passenger seat and frowned.

“What’s wrong? Are you worried about Kadin?” Valery asked.

“What the hell am I worried about?” Gerald curled his lips and said, “This bastard has come to provoke me. He is not properly taught by his parents. So what if we teach him a lesson? I’m just worried about my body. I don’t know when I will recover.”

Gerald was not worried about the Borman family at all. Ethan came to find faults, so he deserved to be beaten.

“Dr. Manning, tell me the truth. Do I have a chance to recover?” Gerald asked seriously.

Valery did not reply. She quietly drove the car. Sensing Valery’s silence, Gerald felt his heart sink.

Valery looked at Gerald and said, “Don’t think too much. I will do everything I can to help you recover. The Night Watch also needs you.”

Gerald tried to squeeze out a smile and nodded. “Got it.”

Behind him, many fighters fell to the ground.

In less than ten minutes, almost all of the people brought by Ethan were beaten to the ground.

Three Watchmen among the top twenty were here. Even if Claude was not good at fighting head-on, it was no problem for him to fight against these people.

At this time, Ethan fell to the ground. His face was trampled by Theo.

“When I began to bully others, you were still an infant. How dare you challenge me here?” Theo sneered at Ethan.

Luke was beaten until his face was swollen, wailing and lying on the ground. This time, he had to go to the hospital again for quite a long time.

He felt a bit sad.

He was studying abroad and only came back for fun during the summer vacation. The vacation was only a month or so. But he stayed in the hospital for nearly ten days and just came out. Now, he was going to be hospitalized again. He had to spend most of his holiday in the hospital.

He even regretted coming back.

Ethan lay on the ground and gritted his teeth. "Do you know who I am? My grandfather is Kadin!"

"Oh, so what?" Theo gave Ethan another hard kick on his lower abdomen.

Then Theo said lightly, "Did you hear what our boss said? On another day, we will personally pay a visit to your home. Do you know what our boss means?"

Ethan didn't dare to talk. He was worried that if he continued to talk, he would be beaten again.

"It means beating you up is not enough. We have to go to your place and ask for compensation," Theo said disdainfully. "Don't think that since your family has some money and power, you can act as you please."

"Who exactly are you?" Ethan gritted his teeth and asked.

These three people were too fierce. They knocked all the fighters down in such a short period.

Only now did Ethan know that Gerald was extraordinary. His background was not as simple as Luke claimed.

Gerald had some relationships with the three famous families of Washington, and his people were top-level fighters. This ... was too abnormal.

Theo no longer paid attention to him. He said to Claude and the others, "Bros, get in the car!"

When they got in the car, they found that Kerr was shivering in the driver's seat.

Kerr had just clearly seen that scene.

He was stunned when he saw these people press Luke and Ethan to the ground and beat them hard. He felt the same as when he saw Gerald slap Jared in the Thornton's home.

"Let's go!" Theo said to Kerr.

Kerr gave them a thumbs-up and said, "Damn it, you are really Gerald's friend!"

When Kerr drove away, several people ran over and helped Ethan up.

Ethan sat on the ground. His body was covered by footprints. His whole face was swollen, and his nose was bleeding!

He sat down on the ground and searched his body for a while before taking out his phone.

He knew that Gerald had a special background, but he still refused to accept the result.

His grandfather Kadin ranked fourth on the Sun List.

Ethan found Kadin's phone number and quickly dialed it. Soon, the phone was connected.

An old voice came out from the other end of the phone, "Ethan, what's up?"

In fact, Kadin liked this grandson very much. After all, Ethan reached the top level at such a young age with his talent and gained Kadin's special attention. He hoped that after he died, Ethan would reach the super level and support the entire Borman family.

"Grandpa, I was beaten up." When Ethan said this, his nose was a little sour.

He had never been beaten up since being a child, let alone beaten so badly.

Theo particularly kicked his face. His face was swollen with shoe prints on his face.

Kadin's expression instantly sank. "Who did this?"

"A guy named Gerald. Those who beat me are all his people," Ethan said aggrievedly. "Grandpa, you have to help me!"

His begging would work every time.

However, this time, the situation seemed to be a little different.

When he heard Gerald's name, Kadin suddenly fell silent. After a long time, he sighed and said, "Ethan, go and apologize to Gerald!"

"What?" Ethan thought he had heard his grandfather wrong. His bruised eyes were instantly filled with astonishment.

When they returned home, it was almost ten o'clock in the evening. Valery parked the car in the garage and took the elevator back to their floor with Gerald. As soon as they got out of the elevator, they frowned slightly at the same time.

They saw two people standing at the door of the apartment. They were dressed very formally and had walkie-talkies on them.

"Who are you?" Gerald frowned. "What are you doing standing at our door?"

Hearing Gerald's voice, the two men quickly looked over and said, "Is this Mr. Kenneth?"

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, it's me. Who are you?"

"Hello, we are from the property management office. Today, your friends kicked to death the dog of an owner in our community. Now they are arguing with the property management office and asking for compensation. Your friends can't pay for it, so they asked us to find you..." one man said.

"Is that so?" Gerald's expression changed slightly.

Obviously, something had happened to Wesley and Leila.

"Take us there," Gerald quickly said.

"This way, please!" the property manager said.

After entering the elevator, Gerald asked, "What exactly is going on?"

"An owner in our community has a dog and he walks the dog every day. Today, your friends are taking a stroll in the community. The dog accidentally bit the girl's clothes. Then her father kicked the dog and killed it. "The man frowned and said, "Your two friends are from the countryside, right?"

Hearing this, Gerald raised his head and glanced at him, unhappy.

Judging from the man's tone, he tended to help the owner of the dog and looked down on people from the countryside.

"How much did they ask for?" Gerald asked.

"160 thousand dollars!" the property manager sighed.

"What was he thinking?" Gerald asked with disdain.

"Well, he lives in the villa area..." The property manager wanted to say something.

Gerald interrupted him and said, "So what if he lives in a villa?"

As they talked, they walked out of the elevator and went to the property management office. As soon as they approached the office, Gerald heard a loud voice inside.

Chapter 309 Extremely Furious

In the office, Wesley and Leila sat there with faces full of fear.

Opposite them stood a young couple.

The woman's figure looked quite sexy as she was wearing a tight-fitting skirt.

Her appearance was also very good, but Gerald wasn't interested, for this was a standard face of an Internet celebrity.

Gerald assumed her to be one.

Next to her was a man. The man looked much older than her and had a thick beard. However, he was dressed in a suit and wore a golden Rolex on his hand. His clothes and shoes were famous brands. This was a typical outfit of rich people.

At this time, the woman was pointing at Wesley and Leila, cursing, "As expected, you are two country bumpkins and are unreasonable. Do you know how noble my dog is? His clothes and food are much more precious than yours. How dare you kick my baby dog to death!"

"You have to pay 160 thousand dollars to me. Don't think about one penny less. Otherwise, I won't let you off!" he screamed.

The bearded middle-aged man said, "Darling, don't worry. They have to pay for the money.

Otherwise, I will sue them until they go bankrupt! You have to believe in my ability!”

The property manager said, “Hey, you bumpkins, you just make trouble for us. When you come to visit your relatives, you just stay at home. Why did you kick a dog to death?”

Leila’s eyes were red.

160 thousand dollars was a number Leila had heard of, but she had never seen it.

At this time, they were asked to pay 160 thousand dollars. Leila was immature and felt terrified. This pressure was just like how she felt when Raiden used to urge them to return the money.

Now that they had paid all the debts to Raiden, Leila felt that their days would slowly get better. But now she was involved again.

Wesley muttered in a low voice, “But that dog bit my daughter.”

“Bit your daughter? Where did he bite? And how can a small pet dog hurt her? Even if he did, I can pay for your treatment. Do you have to kick it to death? His life is much more precious than your daughter’s life!” the woman screamed.

“Ms. Greer, don’t worry. Their relatives have come over. We will discuss the specific compensation later!” At this time, the property manager quickly said politely.

The couple lived in a villa.

The property manager naturally stood on their side. Wesley and Leila were just two farmers from the village. They were not the owners of the community. The manager did not care about them.

“Why shall we compensate you?” At this time, Gerald’s furious voice sounded from the door.

While walking over, he heard their conversation and became extremely angry.

The woman called Brisa Greer had an arrogant tone and kept saying the life of the dog was more precious than that of a human.

Gerald knew Wesley and Leila very well. As newcomers to the big city, they had some psychological inferiority. Such words were indeed hurtful.

Gerald felt extremely regretful. He had brought them to the city. On the first day, such a thing happened. However, he did not give them timely support and let them suffer so much.

“Who are you?” Brisa looked at Gerald and said.

Gerald sneered, “I am their friend. Your dog bit her, right? The dog bit her, and my friend kicked it. The dog was vulnerable and died. What does it have to do with my friend? Compensation? Damn no.

Fuck off as far as you can!”

Gerald was extremely furious. He did not hold back his anger and directly cursed.

The property manager did not expect Gerald to be so stubborn and fierce.

At this time, a manager frowned and said, "Sir, please sit down and talk. Don't be so angry. The couple lives in the villa area. They are both famous people."

Gerald suddenly turned to look at him and asked, "What? You're only serving the one living in the villa area. We're not your customers, right?"

The property manager's expression changed slightly as he frowned. "Why are you unreasonable?"

"Unreasonable?" Gerald looked at him and said, "Have you been reasonable? You all know that the dog bit my friend and then was kicked to death. But you asked my friend to pay for their loss? How could that be? Are rich people your father? Why don't you call me father now? If you call me so, I will give you 1,600 dollars."

"Mind your words!" The property manager's expression suddenly changed.

Gerald looked at him coldly. Then he walked to Leila and asked softly, "How was your wound? Where did you hurt?"

Leila shook her head and said, "It was not a big deal, My clothes were broken, and my waist was left with a scratch, but I was not injured."

"You heard what she said!" At this time, Brisa screamed, "She was not injured, but my baby dog was kicked to death by her."

At the same time, the middle-aged man stepped forward and said, "Sir, we are not here to cause any trouble to you. Let me introduce myself. I am Uriel Lloyd, the director of Equilibrium Law Firm! You might have heard that our clients are some big families in Washington, including the Frey family's Apex Group, the Lam family, and the Maddox family. They all hire us to be law consultants for them!

"As for me, I am the best lawyer in Washington. My friend, it is useless to say harsh words. I can tell you that you must give us 160 thousand dollars as compensation. Otherwise, you may lose more at court," Uriel looked at Gerald and said with a smile.

Hearing his words, the property manager said, "Well, elites speak differently."

Then he looked at Gerald and said, "This is why he can live in a villa and you can't."

Beside him, Brisa seemed to have confidence. She said lightly, "Why was I wrong to say my baby dog lives better than them? They look like bumpkins. My baby dog costs thousands of dollars every month. Do you understand?"

Gerald licked his lips. He looked at Leila and said, "Leila, is the card I gave you still there?"

Leila nodded and quickly took out the card from her pocket.

Just as she was about to hand it to Gerald, Gerald said lightly, "Throw it at the face of the woman opposite you!"

Leila was stunned. She did not dare to do so.

But at this time, both Brisa and Uriel recognized this card.

"The Diamond Card issued by New Bank! How is that possible?" Brisa swallowed her saliva.

"You want to see how rich I am?" Gerald looked at Brisa and asked, "How dare you compare with me? With your plastic face?"

After that, he looked at Uriel and said, "Equilibrium Law Firm? From today on, you will lose your big customers in Washington, including the Maddox family, the Frey family's Apex Group, the Lam family, and so on!"

Chapter 310 Apologize!

The office was silent at this time.

Gerald showed his strong attitude when he stepped into this office.

The atmosphere turned over in an instant.

No one expected Brisa, who was strong and arrogant, to suddenly lose her temper.

Valery walked to Leila. She did not speak the entire time, as if she was waiting to see how Gerald would deal with this matter.

Brisa looked at Leila's Diamond Card. She was totally surprised when Leila took it out.

A girl from a village was dressed poorly. Leila had no advantages other than being pretty. However, she had a Diamond Card from New Bank!

How was this possible?

Of course, Brisa was even more shocked by Gerald's words. This card was given to Leila by Gerald.

What kind of family was this? The Diamond Card of New Bank was given as a gift.

Uriel's eyebrows were tightly furrowed. What bothered him was not Gerald's words.

That Gerald had a Diamond Card from New Bank meant that he was not ordinary.

As for Gerald's threat, he did not take it to heart at all.

How could Gerald have a say in those families? It was impossible.

He looked at Gerald and said, "That's not the fact. The one who kicked our dog to death should take responsibility."

The property manager was also quiet at this time. Hearing Uriel's words, the property manager hurriedly said, "Mr. Kenneth, let's deal with this based on the procedure. Don't be angry!"

Gerald suddenly turned his head and looked at him with cold eyes!

Gerald asked, "Why didn't you say that just now? Why didn't you try to persuade them when they asked for 160 thousand dollars? What's wrong with you? Why didn't you mediate just now? Are you a flatterer to the rich?"

The manager was so embarrassed that he dared not say a word!

Gerald looked at him indifferently and said, "Get the one in control out! What house do I need to buy so that you can be fired?"

Gerald was unhappy. He was pissed off at the manager.

That manager failed in his role as a mediator. He just let Brisa make a scene.

Uriel felt that Gerald was not a person to be trifled with. He was a lawyer, a very observant person. From the moment Gerald came in with a Diamond Card of New Bank with a strong air, he knew that provoking such a person was not a wise choice.

The Diamond Card of New Bank demonstrated that 160 thousand dollars were just a piece of cake to Gerald. It was his unhappiness that led to his strong attitude.

To offend such a man due to a dog was not worth it for Uriel.

The reason why he was willing to do this was that Leila and Wesley had no background. However, he did not expect that there was such a person behind them.

He said, "Mr. Kenneth, don't be angry. Making it big will benefit no one. How about we both take a step back? You're responsible for my dog's death, and I will pay your friend's medical fees."

"Why?" At this time, Brisa said, "Darling, our puppy was kicked to death. We can't just let it go!"

Gerald's eyes glowed with cold light. At this time, Valery patted Gerald on his shoulder and handed him a phone.

Gerald took the phone. There was a picture of Uriel and some information about him from Google.

It showed that Uriel was the director of Equilibrium Law Firm, a top lawyer. Most importantly, he was married!

And his wife was a lady from the Tucker family, not the woman in front of Gerald.

A trace of a sinister smile appeared on Gerald's face. He raised his head and looked at Uriel and Brisa, saying, "No wonder you are so unreasonable. You are a mistress!"

When Gerald finished speaking, the expressions of Uriel and Brisa changed slightly.

And those workers' expressions also changed.

Uriel's face sank slightly. He did not expect Gerald to know this.

Indeed, he was a famous person. He could be googled. However, he did not expect that in such a situation Gerald could google him.

His expression darkened, and then he let out a sigh. He pulled Brisa and said, "Brisa, stop talking!"

Gerald had something on Brisa. To be a mistress was not something nice.

"Mr. Kenneth, I know you have some ability. After all, you have the Diamond Card of New Bank. I have a good relationship with those of New Bank, including Mr. Lam. We're all respectable people. Just let it go. Forget this. Besides, please don't publicize my relationship with Brisa," Uriel said with a sigh.

He chose to admit defeat!

Gerald grinned at him and said, "No! Apologize to my friend sincerely!"

Uriel and Brisa were stunned. Brisa said subconsciously, "Apologize? Let me apologize to two bumpkins. Are you crazy?"

Hearing the word "bumpkin", Gerald sneered and said, "A kept woman with plastic surgery, do you think you are noble?"

Uriel frowned and said, "Mr. Kenneth, we're over this. Please don't cross the line. Can't we take a step back?"

"We did nothing wrong. Why should we take a step back? Do you think I was joking?" Gerald said lightly.

Uriel sneered and said, "You have the Diamond Card of New Bank. I really underestimated you, but my connections in Washington are not what you can imagine. It is not good for everyone if we fall out with each other. Could you let those families stop cooperating with me? We are not only working partners but also friends."

Gerald was tired of talking with Uriel. He took out his phone and called Arthur, Abraham, and Irvin.

He didn't want to talk with Uriel anymore.

While Gerald was calling, Uriel still sneered.

Uriel did not believe that those families would listen to Gerald. He believed in his ability.

In fact, those families chose Uriel as their legal consultant due to his reputation. It was easy for them to change to another one.

Gerald hung up the phone.

Soon, Uriel's phone rang. The first one to call was Abraham!

When Uriel saw the name, he showed a trace of uneasiness. When the call was connected, his mood quickly fell to the bottom!

“Uriel, New Bank’s cooperation with your office will come to an end today!” Abraham said.

“Mr. Lam, you...” Uriel hurriedly wanted to explain something!

But Abraham directly hung up.

Then Uriel received calls from Apex Group and the Maddox family.

After the three calls, Uriel sat down on the ground.

The profit these three clients brought accounted for more than half a year.

Without them, their loss was unimaginable. The law office would be in turmoil tomorrow.

And all of this was done by this person in front of him with just a few phone calls.

Uriel knew that Gerald was someone he could piss off.

Moreover, once the matter of him keeping a mistress was exposed, the Tucker family would be furious!

He raised his head and looked at Gerald: Gerald was also looking at him. Gerald said indifferently, “Whether you keep a mistress or not has nothing to do with me. I can leave you a way out. Apologize to my friend now! Otherwise, I promise that the matter of you keeping a mistress will be spread tomorrow!”
