Chapter 311 Gerald's Vital Energy Disappears

When Gerald entered the office, Leila and Wesley immediately felt at ease.

They knew that Gerald would be able to help them deal with this matter and not let them suffer.

And it turned out to be true.

Uriel sat on the ground helplessly.

Without these three clients, the office would be in turmoil tomorrow.

He would lose his position. If his affair was exposed, the Tucker family would not let him go. Compared to losing these clients, it would be much worse.

His face darkened. Then he looked at Brisa and said, "Brisa, go apologize!"

Brisa was stunned. She looked at Uriel in shock. It seemed that she never expected Uriel would ask her to apologize to Leila and Wesley.

In fact, even now, she still looked down on them.

"Honey..." Brisa pursed her lips.

"Go apologize!" Uriel repeated. His tone was a little tough.

Brisa gritted her teeth and walked to Wesley and Leila. She said impatiently, "I'm sorry!"

Leila and Wesley were both dumbfounded!

"Where is your sincerity?" Valery indifferently said.

"Apologize properly!" Uriel said through gritted teeth. Then he bowed to Wesley and Leila and said, "Sorry, we didn't train our dog well. We shouldn't let it run around. It bit you and p was our fault. It is our fault to force you to compensate us. I hope you can forgive us."

you in danger. It

Brisa was stunned. She looked at Uriel in shock. Then, she gritted her teeth and lowered her head, saying, "Sorry. Please forgive me."

Wesley and Leila were both honest people. Seeing the two of them being so sincere, Wesley hurriedly said, "It's fine. It's fine as long as you make it clear."

Gerald sneered and said, "You know it's your fault. But you enjoy bullying honest people. Well, since my friend has forgiven you, it's over."

Uriel gritted his teeth, looked up at Gerald, and asked, "Mr. Kenneth, since we've apologized, could you call those three families..."

"How dare you? If I don't call them, will you apologize?" Gerald looked at him and asked.

Uriel sighed and said nothing.

He regretted it deeply. He did not expect that the two bumpkins could push him in this way.

Gerald glanced at that manager.

Those employees from the property management office were completely stunned at this time.

Those living in the villa area were scolded by a person living in a flat without any temper. They knew that they were on the wrong side this time.

Valery glanced at them and said, "Before tomorrow, I need an explanation!" Then she turned to

Gerald and said, "Let's go!"

After saying that, she supported Gerald.

Gerald hadn't fully recovered. He had been sitting in the car for a long time. It was a long day. For the sake of Wesley and Leila, he was angry again. He was not in such a good state. Valery wanted this to come to an end so that Gerald could have a good rest.

Gerald glanced at those employees and then nodded. He looked at Wesley and said, "Wesley, Leila, let's go!"

Leila and Wesley were both confused. It was not a smooth experience for their first day in Washington. Luckily, it was over.

They quietly glanced at Uriel and Brisa and then walked out with Gerald.

As for how that office was going to deal with it, Valery did not care.

As for that manager, both Gerald and Valery would not let him go.

Their basic requirement was to fire him.

After they left, Brisa said sullenly, "Honey, why did you apologize to that man? Why should I apologize as well?"

Uriel sighed. He glanced at that manager, then looked at Brisa, and said, "We can't afford to offend that man."

With three calls, Gerald almost broke Uriel's office. Besides, Gerald got something on him. How could Uriel afford to offend him?

And that manager had a headache now.

Gerald ignored them. He returned home with Valery and the others. After comforting Wesley and Leila, Gerald went to his room. After checking Gerald, Valery let out a sigh of relief and said, "Fortunately, you are well. Don't be too emotional. Let others do things. You should take care of yourself!"

Gerald nodded and said, "I see!"

Valery looked at Gerald and said, "Then have a rest! I will think of a way to help you recover your Vital Energy. Don't worry. It will just take some time!"

Gerald nodded.

After Valery left, Gerald let out a sigh of relief, closed his eyes, and fell asleep.

Early the next morning, news came from the property management office. That manager had been fired, which made Gerald feel a little better.

In the next few days, Gerald lived in a relaxing way. He stayed at home every day, watching TV, eating, and sleeping.

As for other things, Valery arranged well. Gerald didn't need to worry about it.

Wesley was given a cushy position in Wisdom Group with an annual salary of 160 thousand dollars, which made sure that Wesley could live a very comfortable life in Washington even if Gerald left.

Camilla and her family also moved over. They lived next to Gerald. The work of her family was also properly arranged by Valery. They all had a very good income.

Leila gradually became familiar with the life of Washington.

Claude and Theo found a villa in Washington. When Gerald recovered, he and Valery would move over.

This house would be left to Wesley by then.

They were Watchmen. It was not convenient for them to talk about things in the presence of Wesley and Leila.

With his connection, Gerald helped Leila transfer to a top school in Washington.

On the fifth day after returning to Washington, Gerald had mostly recovered. With Valery's high medical skill, there were no deep scars left.

Gerald was almost healed.

But Gerald's mood sank to the bottom.

He could feel no Vital Energy. This was completely different from the previous times.

Death Storm would make Gerald injured. But when he recovered, his Vital Energy came back. With a trace of Vital Energy, Gerald could quickly recover.

But this time was completely different. Gerald also recovered, but his Vital Energy still hadn't appeared.

And he couldn't absorb the two bones gotten from Charles.

Right now, he was just an ordinary person. It was just that his strength was slightly greater.

"I haven't recovered," Gerald said when Valery took out stitches for him.

"Don't worry! It takes time," Valery said when she finished.

Gerald frowned and said, "I thought I could take revenge on Perrin with those bones. However, my situation is way worse.

He waved his hand and looked at Valery. "By the way, is there any news about Jacob and Carolyn?"

"No... They disappeared in the Eastern District," Valery shook her head and said.

"Fuck!" Gerald cursed.

If he had recovered, he would have run to Sin City without hesitation.

Valery knew what Gerald was thinking. She frowned and said, "Don't think too much. Before recover, you are not allowed to go anywhere. Stay by my side. I will protect you!"

you

Then she continued, "Alright. Get dressed. Let's go to Mr. Jackson's house. Mr. Jackson is experienced and knowledgeable. Maybe he has a way."

Chapter 312 Let Me Think

Today Derick invited Gerald to dinner.

There were two reasons. One was that Gerald had saved Leana. Derick had never had the opportunity to thank Gerald.

The other was because of Kadin.

Ethan and Gerald had a conflict. Knowing this, Kadin wanted Ethan to apologize to Gerald. However, he could not contact Gerald. Besides, Ethan was somewhat unwilling.

Therefore, he asked Derick for help.

Ethan ranked fourth on the Sun List.

He lived in an ordinary city. He was close to Night Watch. It was said that when he was young, he was often on missions with Watchmen.

They made an appointment tonight at Leana's house.

They left the house and drove towards the Jackson's house.

They arrived at around half past six in the evening.

After getting out of the car, they knocked on the door!

Soon, Leana ran over. She opened the door with a happy face. When she saw Valery beside Gerald, the smile on her face slightly froze for a moment. Then, she said with a smile, "Please come in!"

The Jackson's house was a villa with three floors, not as big as the Thornton's place or Abraham's house. There were only two servants.

When Gerald arrived at the hall, he found Derick sitting on the sofa. There was music coming from the phone.

Derick looked at the phone and smiled.

He made no response to the arrival of Gerald and Valery. Gerald walked to his back. Derick was browsing Tik Tok. It was a video of a beautiful woman dancing.

Tik Tok is intruding into everyone's life! Gerald sighed in his heart.

Then he coughed.

Derick raised his head and found that Gerald was looking at him strangely. He quickly put away phone and said with a dry cough, "Welcome!"

his

He looked at Gerald and said, "You look good! It seems that you have recovered. It has only been half a month. You do have a strong body!"

Gerald exhaled and noticed that Leana and the two servants were busy in the kitchen. He said, "Mr. Jackson, may I ask something?"

Derick pondered for a moment and said, "Yes. Follow me to the study room!"

Leana also followed. She was a little worried about Gerald.

After arriving at the study room, Derick gestured to Gerald and others to sit down and asked, "What's wrong?"

Gerald pondered for a moment and said, "Mr. Jackson, you must know my problem."

Derick nodded and said, "Yes. I could feel it the moment I saw you. You are physically well, but there seems to be no Vital Energy in your body."

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, when I faced Dylan and Gordon, I used Death Storm, but I still couldn't beat them. Then I absorbed three Dragon Bones, which made me able to kill Dylan and seriously injure Gordon. Later, I was saved. Now I have recovered, but I can't feel my Vital Energy at all. You are experienced, are you..."

"What is Death Storm?" At this time, Leana suddenly asked.

Derick looked up at Leana and said, "You get out. You can't know this!"

This matter involved some deep secrets of Night Watch. Although Leana knew about Night Watch and had always wanted to be a Watchman, she did not know that Derick was in control of Night

Watch's Dark Net.

Derick did not want her to be part of this. Thus, he asked her out.

Leana muttered, but still obediently walked out.

When Leana walked out, Derick sighed and said, "Gerald, Death Storm cannot be often used. When you reach the super level, the aftereffects of Death Storm are too great. In fact, it is a miracle that you can survive!"

Gerald knew this. Many Watchmen died of Death Storm in desperate situations.

"So, what's wrong with me?" Gerald asked.

Derick walked to Gerald's side and looked at him. "You're exhausted!"

"I heard from Blaine that you used Death Surge more than once on missions. Death Storm will exhaust you. You could survive because you're strong enough. That's why you can recover, But this time, after Death Storm, you absorbed three Dragon Bones! You got drained again! In fact, no one could absorb Dragon Bone as fast as you when one reaches the super level. It usually took several years to absorb one piece!"

"You absorbed three pieces in one go. Your body is overburdened!"

Gerald's expression became a little strange.

"What's wrong?" Derick looked at Gerald's expression and asked with a frown.

"Is it difficult to absorb the bones?" Gerald asked.

Derick nodded and said, "Of course! You know the energy contained in those bones. After absorbing it, you have to digest the energy. It takes time!"

Gerald scratched his head and said, "But... before I absorbed these three bones, I've absorbed four successfully. It's quite smooth."

When Derick heard Gerald's words, his whole face suddenly became dull. He looked at Gerald and said, "You mean... besides these three bones, you've absorbed a total of seven bones? And they are all absorbed at once?"

"Yes. I thought everyone was the same. You absorb them when you find them," Gerald said blankly.

Derick looked at Gerald in shock. Then, he couldn't help but cover his face. He sat down on the chair and said, "Shut up. Let me think!"

Gerald looked confused. When he entered Night Watch, he broke through rapidly. The way those people looked at him was exactly the same as the way Derick looked at him now.

After a long time, Derick calmed himself. He didn't say anything more about absorbing bones. He let out a sigh and said, "In short, your current situation is probably because you're exhausted. Your need to wait until your body recovers."

Hearing Derick's words, Gerald and Valery heaved a sigh of relief.

No matter what, it was good that he could recover!

Gerald asked, "Then how long will it take?"

"How could I know? Maybe three days, maybe three years!" Derick curled his lips and said.

Gerald frowned. He couldn't wait for years.

If something happened to Jacob in Sin City, Gerald couldn't even find their bones after a few years.

"Is there any way to recover quickly?" Gerald asked with a frown.

"No!" Derick said in a bad mood.

Chapter 313 Jolie Is Missing

Hearing Derick's denial, Gerald sighed and said, "It seems that we can only wait."

Derick thought for a moment and said, "By the way, I also have something to tell you!"

"Huh?" Gerald asked. "What is it?"

Derick sighed and said, "Your current situation has been known by Perrin. He must know that you are still alive."

Gerald frowned slightly.

– Not many people knew about Gerald's current situation. Valery wanted Gerald to hide in the city as a spy for the Night Watch.

However, Gerald was Watchman No. 0. In Sacramento and Washington, he had contacted many Watchmen. The news of Gerald's return naturally spread among Watchmen. So, Perrin would definitely know it.

"Great!" Gerald sneered. "Speaking of which, Perrin has a son who came to Washington this time, but he has not shown up. I want to cut him to death!"

"Flory Dempsey?" Derick asked. "He is indeed in Washington and is also investigating you. As expected, he is the one who spread the news that you are in a terrible condition now."

Gerald's expression changed, and he said, "You mean that Perrin not only knows that I have returned but also knows about my current physical condition?"

Derick nodded.

Not many people knew about Gerald's injury, only Gerald's friends and some of the Watchmen on Troy's side.

However, there were many people at that time. It was understandable that this news was spread out.

“Did they send people to kill me?” Gerald asked.

Derick sighed and said, “In fact, we all know that Terry’s death has something to do with Perrin. But there is no evidence to directly prove that. Moreover, Perrin’s status is too high, and no one dares.

to speak it out. But at the same time, when Watchmen know that you have returned, those who know your character will know that you would definitely seek revenge on Perrin no matter what method it is. Perrin has already made several moves against you in the open and in the dark, including the matter of Sean, but he had no evidence. He was stopped by Blaine!”

“Your current physical condition is not good. It is indeed a good opportunity for him to hurt you. You’d better be careful,” Derick reminded him.

Gerald smiled and said, “Do you know where Flory is now?”

“I knew it before, but I don’t know now. I don’t even know if he is still in Washington,” Derick sighed.

At that moment, the doorbell rang.

Someone came.

Derick smiled, “Alright. You can rest assured and recuperate in Washington now. This is our place. Even if Perrin wants to hurt you, he has to consider the consequences. Let’s go see Kadin first. This old man is actually quite good. It’s just that his grandson is too talented, and he spoiled him. too much. This time, his grandson suffered a loss. It can be considered a lesson!”

Gerald nodded. The two of them walked out of the room. Sure enough, Kadin was sitting on the sofa in the living room with Ethan, who had a bloody nose and a swollen face.

Seeing Derick and Gerald, Kadin quickly stood up and said, “Derick, this is Gerald, right?”

Kadin gave Gerald a kind smile.

Gerald was slightly surprised.

Kadin, who was ranked fourth on the Sun List, was actually so polite to him. This was something that Gerald did not expect.

Gerald was the kind of person who would be kind when others treated him well.

Hearing Kadin’s words, Gerald smiled and said, “Yes. Mr. Borman.”

Kadin looked at Gerald and sighed, “It’s really good to be young. I always thought that my grandson. was talented, but he is still a lot worse than you. You are at the super level at such a young age. It is almost no problem for you to reach the top of the Sun List in the future. The American Night Watch would have a promising future to have you in it!”

Kadin’s tone was a little polite. Derick said with a smile, “It’s good that you know these things in your heart. But don’t say it!”

Kadin laughed and said, "I forgot that you have always been low-key!"

Kadin thought for a moment and said, "My grandson was ignorant and provoked you. I apologize to you on his behalf. It's all my fault that I doted on him too much and caused him to be arrogant."

Ethan's expression was not very good. Regardless of whether he was willing or not, he still said to Gerald, "I'm sorry about what happened before!"

Their attitude was so good that Gerald was a little embarrassed. Gerald waved his hand and said, "After he was beaten that day, I didn't take it to heart. I even said that I should visit you another day!"

Ethan and Kadin couldn't help but the corners of their mouths twitched.

What is the fucking visit for? Kadin cursed in his heart, but his face was still full of smiles as he said, "It's good that it's over!"

Derick also laughed and said, "What a happy ending! The food is almost ready. Let's go to the table and talk while eating!"

Sitting on the table, Ethan smiled and said, "By the way, Derick, I don't know what happened to the Thornton family recently. It seems that there is an internal contradiction."

Regarding the death of Dylan, the Night Watch had blocked the news, and the Thornton family naturally would not spread it, so not many people knew about it.

If Kadin knew that Gerald had killed Dylan and severely injured Gordon, he would be shocked to death.

Derick curled his lips and said, "Their matter has nothing to do with me. I don't want to be involved in these matters. In order to get property, these rich people can do anything."

Kadin nodded and said, "This is also why I don't do business. It's enough to live well. If there are too many properties, people will fight against each other for the inheritance."

As they were talking, Gerald's phone suddenly rang.

Gerald found that it was Mason calling.

Gerald quickly picked up the phone and said, "Hello, Dad, what's the matter?"

Mason said anxiously, "Gerald, something happened."

Gerald's expression changed slightly. "What happened?"

"Jolie is missing!" Mason quickly said.

Chapter 314 Information About Wendy Silver

"Jolie is missing!" Mason's voice sounded a little anxious over the phone.

Gerald frowned slightly.

Jolie and Lilia did not treat Gerald kindly when Gerald had just returned to Sacramento. However, Lilia and Gerald's mother were sisters, and they had some family affection.

After Gerald gave the villa to his parents, Lilia's whole family moved in to live together. Jolie and Gerald's relationship was also not bad. After all, they had grown up together since their childhood.

Jolie suddenly disappeared. Gerald was a little worried about her. He quickly asked, "What happened? How long has she been missing?"

"It has been two days." Mason smiled bitterly and said, "It happened the day before yesterday. After dinner, we went out for a walk by the river. Jolie always works hard. She often works overtime to sort out some data after she is back home, so she does not go for a walk with us.

"When we came back home after a walk that day, she was not at home. We did not take it seriously back then. We thought that she hung out with her friends. When we got up yesterday morning, we did not see her either. We checked with her office and were told that she did not go to work. Her phone could not be put through. Then we realized that something was wrong and called the police.

"Until now, we haven't received any information from the police yet." Mason looked worried a lot.

Gerald frowned and asked, "Why didn't you tell me earlier?"

"Considering that you work in Washington, which is so far away, we didn't intend to disturb you. But now, I have no other choice," Mason sighed.

"What did the police say?" Gerald asked.

"Nothing. The only bit of information they had was that they checked the surveillance in the community and found a woman who had been visiting her regularly for a while. By the way, you know that woman. Her name is Wendy Silver. You went on a blind date with her before," said Mason. "She came to our house every day after we went out for a walk. However, she was missing, too."

Gerald's heart skipped a beat, and a figure appeared in his mind.

Jolie's disappearance must have something to do with Wendy. Gerald just did not know what the connection between them was.

"Okay, I got it." Gerald heaved a sigh of relief and said, "I'll go back to Sacramento right away.

After hanging up the phone, Gerald took a deep breath, looked at Derick, Kadin, and the others, and said, "Excuse me, Mr. Jackson and Mr. Borman. I'm afraid I can't finish this meal with you."

"What happened?" Derick asked.

Gerald took a deep breath and said, "Something happened to my family. My cousin was missing suddenly. I have to go back to Sacramento."

Derick frowned, thought for a moment, and said, "If you need any help, don't hesitate to let me know. I will do my best to help you."

"Thank you." Gerald nodded to Derick, then got up, and cast a glance at Valery.

Kadin was silent for a moment. After a while, he took out a business card and handed it to Gerald. He said, "Gerald, here is my contact information. If you have any needs, just call me. The Borman family and I will work all out to help."

Gerald was surprised.

He and Kadin had just met by chance.

Then Gerald figured out the reason. He had a good relationship with Blaine. Gerald assumed that Blaine had mentioned to Kadin that he would hand over the Night Watch to Gerald later or something.

Therefore, Kadin naturally tried to build a good relationship with Gerald.

Kadin had given Gerald a very good impression, so Gerald showed his respect to Kadin.

"Thank you." Gerald took the business card and looked at Leana. Then he walked out of the Jackson's house.

When Gerald just got to the door, Leana chased him out. "Gerald."

"What's up?" Gerald turned to look at Leana.

Leana ruffled her hair and asked with a shilly-shally look on her face, "Gerald, will you come back to Washington?"

Gerald was stunned. He thought, will I go back to Washington?

He did not know the answer.

Everything was fine in Washington for the time being. This time, he was going back to Sacramento for two things. One was to look for Jolie, and the other was to stay with his parents before he got the Vital Energy restored.

When his Vital Energy was restored, Gerald had to go to visit Sin City. The matter of Jacob and Audrey made Gerald a little anxious as well.

However, his current physical condition made him a little helpless.

As for whether to return to Washington or not, who would know?

As a Watchman, Gerald belonged nowhere for the order of this underground world, as well as for the threats hidden in the darkness.

For every being who was breathing, Gerald had to drift from place to place across the world.

That was why Gerald disagreed with many people joining the Night Watch. It was unnecessary because the Watchman's life was quite dull.

Of course, the Night Watch needed new members. Gerald would choose some qualified people. and let them join the Night Watch under the situation that it was not against their will.

Gerald smiled and said, "I guess... I will come back."

"Okay. I will wait for you." Leana pursed her lips, gritted her teeth, and said. "When you come back, remember to contact me."

When Valery heard this, she frowned but did not say anything else.

Gerald waved his hand and got into the car with Valery. Valery did not say anything, and her eyes. were a little cold.

"Well, are you not going to ask me about anything specific that happened in Sacramento?" Gerald cleared his throat and asked.

Valery squinted at Gerald and said, "It's fine as long as you know what to do. There's no point in me asking too many questions."

Gerald was speechless.

He took out his phone, took Valery's passport, and booked air tickets online. After that, he notified Claude and the others.

Since Claude and the others had joined him, Team 11762 could be considered to have been restarted to a certain extent. It just had not been incorporated into the staffing of the Night Watch.

Of course, this would be done sooner or later.

Claude and the other two would naturally follow Gerald.

Gerald did not tell his friends in Washington that he would leave. This was a small world. Wherever they wanted to meet, it was just a matter of taking a flight.

Gerald only told Wesley and Leila that he had to leave Washington for some time and let them stay. in Washington at ease.

After that, Valery drove the car, heading straight for the airport with Gerald.

Claude and the other two did not get the air tickets on the same flight as Gerald, so Gerald and Valery took the flight first, rushing to Sacramento.

Two hours later, Gerald and Valery walked out of the International Airport of Sacramento.

Outside, a black off-road vehicle was parked at the exit of the airport, and Dennis was standing at the car door.

Gerald had communicated with Dennis before he got onboarding the plane.

“Here is the information about Wendy Silver.” After getting into the car, Dennis handed the document to Gerald.

Before the plane took off, Gerald had already told Dennis about the matter, and Dennis quickly started the investigation.

Gerald took the document and looked at it. After a moment, he frowned tightly.

Wendy showed up in Sacramento about six years ago. Previously, she rented an apartment next door to Jolie’s. They became neighbors, so Wendy happened to know Lilia.

Everything Wendy did was normal. After she came to Sacramento, she changed her jobs at several companies and finally worked for Goldsun Group as an ordinary office worker, and she had been working at Goldsun Group for three years.

“Everything she has done is normal. However, there are two questions. One, she only has the information for the past six years, and all the information before that is fake,” said Dennis.

“Two, it is about Sean Dempsey. During his stay in Sacramento, he has been in contact with some people, and Wendy is one of them. However, their contact time was very short. They met at a restaurant, and Sean asked for her phone number,” Dennis continued. “Back then, when we monitored Sean, we did not take their short meeting seriously.

“Apart from that, she is a common office worker. She wants to find a rich man to marry. She went on blind dates many times, but all failed. Either she did not take a fancy to others or she was not to others’ favor.”

Dennis explained to Gerald while Gerald was browsing.

Chapter 315 Return to Sacramento Again

Hearing Dennis’ words, Gerald frowned deeply.

According to Dennis, Wendy seemed to be a money-oriented ordinary woman. Other than that, there was nothing wrong with her.

It also fitted Gerald’s impression of her.

When the two went on a blind date, Wendy acted so frivolous that she made Gerald sick.

After Wendy learned from Lilia that Gerald worked at Universe Group and had a high salary, she contacted Gerald and said that she wanted to date him again. But Gerald refused her. In order to dodge her, he had to find Audrey to pretend to be his girlfriend.

Gerald had thought that he wouldn’t meet Wendy again. He had not expected that the two were connected again now.

Wendy was a mysterious woman, and she often went to Jolie’s place before Jolie went missing. It was obvious that Jolie’s disappearance had something to do with her.

Gerald didn't say anything.

He was almost certain that Jolie was just a chess piece. Her disappearance also had something to do with him.

Gerald was in low spirits.

Because it meant that his identity had been exposed. His opponent had started to target his family.

After Gerald became famous as a Watchman, he never returned to Sacramento and didn't expose the Kenneth family. Because he had worries about it.

If he returned to Sacramento and his identity was exposed, the people he had offended in the criminal underworld world would be likely to vent their anger on his family.

This time Gerald returned to Sacramento because no one knew that he was Watchman No. 0. Many people thought that he had already died, which was why he finally decided to settle what had happened back then.

But now, his enemy really tried to target his family.

What was more important, Gerald still didn't know who was behind Wendy.

Blood Lotus? The Dempsey family? Dark Phantom? Or other underworld organizations?

Gerald didn't know. He exhaled, took out his phone, and dialed Red Rose's phone number.

However, the phone was hung up.

Gerald frowned, and before he said anything, his phone buzzed. Red Rose sent him a Line video call invitation.

Gerald cleared his throat dryly and glanced at Valery, who was sitting next to him, but he still picked up the phone.

A sexy woman appeared on the screen. Red Rose sat on a Yoga cushion and it seemed like she was practicing Yoga. The leggings perfectly outlined her curvy body shape.

Gerald almost had nose-bleeding when he saw this, and his crotch quickly hardened.

"Disgusting!" Valery sat next to Gerald and said coldly.

At the same time, Red Rose's charming voice came over the phone with a trace of grievance, "Well, you finally call. I thought you had forgotten your promise to me."

What promise! Gerald shouted in his heart.

They just reached an agreement to cooperate!

Gerald cleared his throat again and said, "Don't talk nonsense. I need to ask you something. Is there anyone called Wendy Silver in Blood Lotus?"

“Wendy Silver? Never heard of it. I will look into it,” Red Rose said.

And then she continued, “Wait for a few minutes. I’ll get someone to look into it now. Hold the phone, dear. I want to see you. You have no idea how much I miss you.”

Gerald was dumbfounded. Red Rose was like a fucking witch!

However, he didn’t hang up. After a few minutes, Red Rose shook her head and said, “We don’t have a Wendy in Sacramento. What’s going on?”

Gerald frowned and said, “Have you found any other underground organizations in Sacramento recently?”

“If Night Watch couldn’t find out, how could I? I’m very behaving now. I practice Yoga at home every day to keep in shape. I also have learned many new positions so that we can try them together one day. I promise. You will be satisfied! Are you excited now?” Red Rose said with a smile.

Gerald tried to talk about serious matters, but Red Rose deviated from the topic and flirted with him non-stop.

Gerald secretly glanced at Valery. Valery still looked indifferent, but the corner of her mouth was slightly raised, and her smile became colder.

Gerald had a bad feeling and he quickly said, “Since you don’t know, I gotta go. Keep an eye on Franklin and inform me immediately if he makes a move.”

After hanging up the phone, Gerald heard Valery sneer.

Gerald hurriedly said, “Dr. Manning, listen to me. You know Red Rose. She is always like this. But I will never be tempted by her. After all, you are the only one in my heart.”

Valery chuckled.

Dennis was driving as he scolded, “Damn it, that woman is so fucking sexy. Her voice turned me on.”

“Do you have any ideas?” Valery looked at Gerald and asked.

“Let’s go home and appease them first.” Gerald said calmly, “As for the rest...”

He sighed and said, “Don’t be anxious. They took Jolie away, but their goal should be me. They will find a way to contact me sooner or later. They want to threaten me with Jolie, then they won’t hurt her now.”

Valery nodded and said, “Anyway, let’s go home and have a look first.”

Half an hour later, on the 69th of Pondark Road, the car stopped. Gerald and Valery got out of the car.

They signaled Dennis and went to knock on the door.

Soon, Mason ran over and opened the door. When Mason saw Valery, he was slightly stunned, but he quickly said, "Come in."

Gerald nodded and walked into the living room on the first floor. The sofa in the living room was full of people.

Jadon's family, Rayne, Yazmin, Mason, Lilia, and her husband were all here.

Lilia threw herself in her husband's arms, sobbing and saying, "It's all my fault. Wendy Silver is so scheming. It's all my fault. I thought she was a nice neighbor, so I took the initiative to get to know her..."

Lilia couldn't help but complain.

Jolie was her baby girl. She got a good job with high pay, and Lilia was so proud of her.

But now Jolie disappeared and no one knew where she was. It was a huge blow to Lilia.

All the others also sighed. There was nothing they could do at all. They could only wait and believe that the police would find Jolie.

"Don't worry. Jolie will be fine," Gerald said to Lilia.

Lilia sighed and looked at Gerald, but didn't speak.

Gerald glanced at the clock. It was already past eleven o'clock. They all had dark circles under their eyes. It was obvious that they didn't have a good sleep recently.

Gerald comforted them one by one, helping them to calm down.

In fact, Gerald had become a central pillar in this family now. After all, this villa was given to Rayne by Gerald.

After everyone returned to their rooms, Gerald sat down on the sofa.

Valery rubbed her forehead and asked, "Are we just going to wait and do nothing until they reach you?"

"We have no clue at all. Wendy used counter-surveillance tactics and avoided the cameras. That was why she could make Jolie completely disappear."

Gerald sighed and said, "There is nothing we can do but wait."

Suddenly, Gerald's phone buzzed.

He picked up the phone and found that it was a message from an unknown number.

"Come to Phoenix Road No. 79 if you want to know Jolie's whereabouts. Remember, come here alone. You don't want to know what will happen to her if I see you have any company with you."

Chapter 316 The Conspiracy of the Dempsey Family

Seeing this, Gerald threw the phone at Valery.

Valery frowned and said, "You can't go."

Gerald smiled at her and said, "I want to know who is behind them. They may not know my current physical condition. It will be fine if I go to take a look."

But Valery shook her head and said, "If you were fine, I wouldn't have any problem with it and you can go wherever you want. But you know your condition as well. I can't let you take the risk."

Gerald smiled at Valery.

"Don't smile at me. I won't agree with it," Valery gritted her teeth and said.

"Are you worried about me?" Gerald smiled, "Dr. Manning, actually, you can tell me if you have feelings for me. I will say I do."

"Fuck off!" Valery gave Gerald a kick and said, "Do whatever you want!"

"Then I'll be leaving now." Gerald chuckled and then ran out of the villa.

Looking at Gerald's back, Valery frowned and slightly sighed.

In fact, she knew that she couldn't stop Gerald. Gerald would definitely be determined to go to meet them for his family.

Valery took out her phone and called Dennis. She also sent messages to Claude and the others. before she came out of the villa.

Gerald rushed out of the villa and hailed a taxi to rush towards No. 79, Phoenix Road.

The destination was a shop that seemed to be selling equipment for field survival. It was twelve o'clock, but the shop was still brightly lit up. After getting out of the car, Gerald looked at the shop.

not far away.

There were two blond and blue-eyed people standing at the door of the shop.

Gerald sized them up and down for a while, his eyes narrowed slightly.

He touched his nose and then walked through the road to the door of the shop.

The two people obviously recognized Gerald. A trace of fear flashed across their eyes as they said in French, "This way please."

They sounded polite to Gerald. Gerald was led into a room that was steaming inside. There were about seven or eight people in the room who had their hands behind their backs..

In the middle of the shop was a table. On the table, there was a plate. A middle-aged man was sitting at the table in a suit.

He looked aged, while his elegant behavior made him more like a noble.

Gerald recognized him at a glance.

It was none other than Flory, European Watchman No. 2!

Sure enough, Jolie's disappearance had something to do with the Dempsey family.

Gerald sighed. As expected, the Dempsey family could no longer sit still and were eager to deal with him.

Seeing Gerald walk in, Flory began to clap.

Then, he said, "The former Watchman No. 0, the Holy Lord of Sin City, the existence that made the entire underworld tremble with fear, who was once ranked first on the Moon List and should be ranked on the Sun List now. Oh, wait, it was all the past. After all, you are now a piece of shit who can't even pick up a saber."

Flory said sarcastically.

Gerald cast him a cold glance as he said lightly, "Is Wendy one of you? Did you take Jolie away?"

"No." Flory smiled and said, "You are right about Jolie being taken by us, but Wendy is not one of us."

Gerald asked lightly again, "What am I supposed to do to let you release her?"

Flory smiled and said, "No wonder you were American Watchman No. 0. You are smart and straight.

I like

you."

As he spoke, Flory cut off a piece of steak on his plate and said, "But I don't like you standing and talking to me like this. Why don't you kneel?"

"This is the best steak I have ever eaten. It tastes really good." He stuck the steak into his mouth and smiled with satisfaction.

All of Flory's men around them revealed smiles.

They were on Flory's team.

When they saw Gerald, the cream of the crop, being humiliated, they felt endless pleasure in their hearts.

"What? Don't you want to know where your cousin is?" Seeing that Gerald didn't move, Flory smiled at him gently.

Gerald slowly took a deep breath and then walked towards Flory.

The smile on Flory's face grew when he saw Gerald walk towards him. He had already pictured the scene of this former American Watchman No. 0 kneeling in front of him like a puppy.

Gerald walked to the table, and then, under everyone's shocked gazes, he held the edge of the white tablecloth.

Clank!

The next moment, Gerald pulled off the tablecloth hard.

Clank!

The plate and dishes on the table overturned.

Flory reacted quickly and immediately retreated to dodge. His face darkened. "Gerald, what the hell do you think you are doing!"

"Don't put on airs in front of me," Gerald looked at him and said indifferently.

"Humph! You're nothing but a loser who doesn't have Vital Energy now," Flory sneered. "I can get rid of you with a finger!"

"Really?" Gerald looked at him and said, "Then cut my throat now. Let's see if you can get out of this place if I die here. Let's see if Blaine will turn his blade to that old man in your house or not."

Flory's face darkened.

Because Gerald was right. If Gerald died in his hands, he would not be able to get out of this place. Blaine's anger would definitely vent on his grandfather as well.

Flory didn't expect Gerald to be so arrogant and domineering even though he was disadvantaged now.

He was quite unhappy about that.

"I have your cousin!" Flory glared at Gerald and said.

"You caught Jolie just because you wanted me, didn't you?" Gerald sneered and said, "You dare not kill me here, so let's be straight. Tell me, how will you let Jolie go?"

Flory let out a sigh and said lightly, "The Watchman No. 0 is really as good as I have heard. Then I'll be frank. Your cousin might have already arrived at Sin City."

Gerald narrowed his eyes.

Flory narrowed his eyes and said, "You must arrive at Fantasy Hotel in Sin City within three days. If my people see you in the hotel lobby, your cousin will be fine. But if you don't show up, she will die. Well, she might not die. After all, she is quite pretty. She should be able to earn money with her body in that place."

Gerald finally understood what was going on.

The Dempsey family wasn't going to let him grow stronger. They heard the news that Gerald was seriously injured and lost his Vital Energy.

Therefore, they thought it would be a good opportunity to get rid of him.

But if Gerald stayed home, it would be extremely difficult for them to deal with Gerald.

Sin City would be a better choice, for even the Night Watch couldn't reach that place. If they could make Gerald go to Sin City, it would be much easier to get rid of Gerald.

This conspiracy was so obvious to see through. But for the sake of Jolie, Gerald had to go to Sin City.

"What a great family," Gerald said slowly. "The Dempsey family used to be the pride of the Night Watch. But now it actually lowers its level to team with Red Lotus."

Flory curled his lips and said, "Unfortunately, you don't have evidence, including the conversation I had with you here today. Our Dempsey family is still great!"

Gerald looked at him and then sighed deeply, "Yes, I'm not as shameless as you guys. But... You shouldn't have come to meet me just to show off tough."

Flory's face darkened when he heard Gerald's words. "What do you mean?"

Chapter 317 Do You Think I Will Spare Him?

Gerald looked at him indifferently and said, "You tell me. You said that you have kidnapped Jolie and sent her to Sin City and that you can't contact your men in Sin City. Do you think you can still walk out of Sacramento?"

Flory's expression suddenly changed as he said, "Gerald, I'm from the Dempsey family. Do you want to kill me?"

Gerald said indifferently, "I just want to collect some interest. When I come back from Sin City, I will send your father to meet you."

Hearing Gerald's words, Flory shuddered.

It was not until then that he realized how terrifying the man standing in front of him was.

Flory looked around, and after a moment, he said, "Gerald, I know your physical condition. Stop pretending. You don't have any Vital Energy in your body right now."

"Why should I get my hands dirty to deal with trash like you?" Gerald curled his lips and said.

At this time, there was a burst of footsteps outside. A man rushed in and shouted, "Captain, something happened!"

"What?" The shout sent a chill down Flory's spine.

"Dennis Graham came with a large number of American Watchmen and blocked the door!" the man exclaimed.

Flory's expression changed slightly. He looked at Gerald and said, "You didn't come alone!"

"Why should I come alone?" Gerald looked at him with a smile and asked, "I will never give the initiative to my enemy. Even if I die!"

Flory was flustered as he glared at Gerald. The noble air on his face had disappeared. He roared, "Gerald, you better know what you are doing. I can kill you at any time. And you will cause a commotion if you fight me. Aren't you afraid that others will know?"

Gerald sneered, "Try me."

"Gerald, do you really think that I don't dare to kill you? Dismiss your men. Otherwise, I will try my best to kill you today!" Flory sneered.

"None of you here can leave here today," Gerald smiled and said lightly.

"Dennis Graham isn't capable enough to catch me. Since you want to kill me, then don't blame me for being rude. Even if the higher-ups investigate it, I will only plead self-defense!" A fierce look came into Flory's eyes as he gritted her teeth and said, "Kill him!"

Clank!

As soon as Flory finished speaking, a man pulled out his saber and attacked Gerald!

Bang!

Suddenly, a whistling sound and a striking sound rang out at the same time. The man rushed toward Gerald and when he was about 10 feet away from Gerald, he flew away!

His head was pierced through by a bullet!

The man smashed into the ground with his head hitting the floor hard and blood flowed out. He was clearly dead.

In fact, for Watchmen, ordinary bullets were not of much harm to them. When they reached the top level, they could even become bulletproof.

However, the sniper rifle Claude used only had nine in the world. No matter whether the gun or the bullets were all specially made. Even the super experts might not be able to block them!

And the person who had just taken down that man was none other than Claude.

After Gerald left, Valery called Gerald and told him that Claude had arrived, while Dennis and the others had set off.

She couldn't watch Gerald take the risk and do nothing.

Gerald acquiesced to Valery's actions.

Why should he have to come alone when he was asked to? He would at most show up alone to get the information he needed.

No matter what mission he carried out, Gerald would never put himself in a passive situation. Even if he died in battle, he would try his best to control the situation.

The hostage, Jolie, was the enemy's trump card. Gerald didn't want anything to happen to Jolie. They also didn't dare to let anything happen to her. Therefore, even if they found out that Gerald had brought his companies, they would at most threaten Gerald with Jolie to escape unscathed.

But Gerald didn't expect that Jolie had already been sent to Sin City by the Dempsey family.

After getting the address, Claude stood on the roof of a tall building not far from the shop. He had a cigarette in his hand and looked down at the shop with a trace of disdain on the corner of his mouth.

Gerald knew where Claude was, so he stood in a spot that had no cover or shelter. As long as someone was within 10 feet of him, Claude would capture them.

Seeing the first man fall to the ground and die, Flory knew that Gerald was not joking. Gerald really wanted to kill him today!

"It's Claude Caldwell!" Flory shouted. He instantly knew who the sniper was.

It was the famous Watchman, "Legendary Sniper"!

"You'd better think twice, Gerald. I'm from the Dempsey family. Killing me will not benefit you at all. If you kill me, you will be sent to the Night Watch's court!" Flory glared at Gerald and said.

"If that place is really so intimidating, your old man would have his neck broken long ago." Gerald curled his lips and said, "Moreover, as you said, where is your evidence? Don't you like to play this trick the most? We have no evidence to prove Terry's death, and neither do you. You have no evidence to prove that I have anything to do with you and Sean's death."

Flory stared at Gerald, and then he gritted his teeth and said, "My father will not spare you!"

"Do you think I will spare him?" Gerald looked at him coldly and said, "When I come back from Sin City, I will go to Europe myself."

Flory could tell Gerald's determination.

At the same time, he also heard the noise outside the door. Many people had already surrounded this place. At the same time, Valery, Dennis, Kristen, and Theo rushed into the room.

When Valery saw Flory, her face darkened. "I knew it. Since when did the Dempsey family be so shameless to attack ordinary people?"

Flory's expression changed slightly, but he sneered, "What are you talking about? I just invited the former Watchman No. 0 for a meal. What are you doing here? Did you just surround us? Do you want to cause internal strife in Night Watch?"

Flory would not admit anything they said because he was worried that Valery and the others had recording equipment. Only Gerald was thoroughly checked when he came in.

Gerald turned around and let out a breath. "Cut the crap. Kill them all."

Flory's face changed. He stared at Dennis and said, "Think twice, Dennis. If we died here..."

"Kill them!"

Before Flory could finish speaking, Kristen and Theo had already rushed up with their weapons.

"You can't kill me! I'm European Watchman No. 2. My father won the first Medal of Star Glory! I'm from the Dempsey family. You..." Flory was completely flustered.

But it was too late.

Just as Gerald had said, Flory could use other methods to inform Gerald.

But Flory came to meet Gerald himself. He wanted to see the angry look on Gerald's face after hearing the news. He thought that Gerald would take the risk and go to Sin City before his body had not recovered.

He wanted to put on airs in front of Gerald.

He wanted to force Gerald, the man of the moment in Night Watch and the underworld, to kneel at him.

Flory never expected that Gerald would actually not fall for his trick.

Valery didn't make a move. She stood by Gerald's side to protect him. Outside, all the other Watchmen also rushed in.

On this day, European Watchman No. 2, Flory Dempsey, died.

It was the second direct descendant of the Dempsey family who died in a short period of time, and the first one was called Sean Dempsey!

Chapter 318 Reminder

In Sacramento, an off-road vehicle was slowly moving forward. In the car, Gerald was sitting in the back row. Next to him were Valery and Kristen. Theo was driving, and Claude was sitting next to him!

Claude's sniper rifle had been placed in the trunk of the car.

"Boss, what are you thinking?" Claude asked.

Gerald had told them the news just now, so they were silent.

The people of Team 11762 had been to and came out of Sin City with Gerald.

Gerald let out a breath and said, "What else can we do? Carolyn was missing in the Eastern District of Sin City. Some of my friends were sent to Sin City and disappeared along with her. Jolie was also missing this time. I feel that there is an invisible force pushing me toward Sin City!"

Valery nodded and said, "That is true. Jacob and the others were sent to Sin City and then disappeared. I even suspect that it was all done by Zackary.”

“No way. Zackary is also one of us,” Theo curled his lips and said.

Valery shook her head and said, “How should I put it? The conflict between Gerald and the Dempsey family is irreconcilable. They know Gerald well. They know that Gerald will go to Europe to fight the Dempsey family sooner or later! But they also know that such a battle is not a good thing for the Watchmen. We don’t have any evidence now!”

Valery shook her head and continued, “And the place that can restrain Gerald is Sin City. But this is just my guess. Of course, it may be a coincidence!”

Valery said calmly, “But if we go to Sin City, it is also dangerous. The Dempsey family has already made it clear that they want to take Gerald’s life when Gerald is ill. I’m afraid Gerald won’t be able to recover in three days.”

Valery pondered for a moment and said, “They have been planning for nearly half a month. I’m afraid that they are fully prepared in Sin City. As long as Gerald appears in Fantasy Hotel, he may be surrounded by them.”

The others also fell silent.

They had to admit that Valery’s analysis was reasonable.

Gerald also thought so before. Jacob and the others had just joined Night Watch. Even if Gerald wanted to let them grow quickly, it was a bit inappropriate to put them in such a place!

“No matter what, the Dempsey family only gave me three days. I still have to spend more than ten hours on this plane.” Gerald sighed and said, “Jolie fell into such a dangerous situation because of

1. I have to go there!”

“Let’s go together!” Theo said.

“I’m in!” Valery said.

Gerald looked at her, and he didn’t reject her.

He let out a breath and said, “Okay, I have to go home first. I have to let Dennis look after my parents. I don’t want anything to happen to them again.”

“Why don’t we bring them to Night Watch?” said Valery.

Gerald shook his head and said, “They are not used to living in that place. I don’t want them to know that I am doing dangerous things.”

The others nodded!

They also had parents and families, who did not know what they were doing. They all understood

Gerald!

“Then when do you plan to set off?” asked Valery.

“The sooner the better. I’ll go home first and remind my parents of a few things. Then we’ll to Washington overnight!” Gerald said with a sigh.

go

His two blades were still in Washington!

Valery nodded. Soon, they returned home. After parking the car, Gerald opened the door and entered the villa.

Just after entering the door, Gerald heard the sound of breathing in the living room. A woman seemed to be sobbing.

Gerald frowned. He turned on the light.

Right now, in the living room, Lilia was sitting there and crying.

Although she had been tricked by Gerald to go to sleep, it was obvious that she could not sleep because her daughter was missing!

Gerald sighed.

Lilia was realistic, or in other words, most middle-aged women were realistic.

Gerald had just returned. Her attitude toward Gerald was not good, but when Gerald gave her this villa and found a good job for Jolie, her attitude toward Gerald totally changed!

Gerald walked up to her and said, “Lilia, go to sleep. Don’t think too much. I know where Jolie is.”

Lilia was stunned for a moment. She rubbed her eyes and looked at Gerald excitedly. “Really? Are you serious?”

Gerald nodded and said, “Yes. She is not in danger now. She...”

At this point, Gerald was a little shilly-shallying. He could not tell his family about Night Watch. He did not know how to explain the matter of Sin City to his family.

He thought for a moment and said, “In short, Lilia, believe me. I will go to Jolie one day and bring her back to you! She will be safe and sound.”

Lilia looked at Gerald, then nodded deeply, “Okay, Gerald, I believe you. You must bring your cousin back. Without her, I don’t know how to live. It’s all my fault. It’s all because I know Wendy!”

“Go back to your room and rest,” Gerald said softly. “I will bring her back, and I will guarantee that she will not be hurt at all!”

Lilia nodded. Seeing Lilia walking upstairs, Gerald walked to his parents’ room. His parents lived on the first floor.

He knocked on the door of Mason and Yazmin's bedroom!

Soon, the sound of footsteps and lights came from inside. Soon, the door of the room was opened. Yazmin stood at the door and asked, "Why are you still awake?"

Gerald walked into the room. Mason also got up from bed. They didn't sleep well. After all, such a big thing had happened at home.

"Mom, Dad! I heard the news of Jolie," Gerald said.

They were happy. "Where is she? Can you save her?"

Gerald frowned. Then he let out a sigh and said, "Dad, Mom, I can't tell you exactly where she is, but I promise that I will bring her back safely. I came here to tell you in advance. I will be leaving in a while, and I can't contact you for a while."

Mason and Yazmin were stunned. Then they sighed!

Mason said, "Gerald, we are not stupid. You told us before that you did not go to jail during this period. Then you and Leandro have a good relationship. You have just returned to Sacramento. In such a short period, you have turned Sacramento and the Kenneth family upside down! We all know that you are definitely not ordinary."

Gerald did not answer.

He could not say much about Night Watch. If he said too much about it, his parents would be more worried.

"In any case, you must come back safely. Your mother and I just want to live a peaceful life and have a grandson soon," Mason said.

Yazmin nodded. Then she thought of something and said coldly, "Gerald, who is the girl you brought back today? Let me tell you something. I like Audrey. You can't cheat on her. The girl you brought back is beautiful, but you already have Audrey. If I find out that you are cheating on her, I will break your legs!"

Gerald coughed drily and said, "She is just my colleague. Don't think too much! Audrey has returned to Los Angeles. We are in a good relationship!"

He chatted with his parents for a while before saying, "Dad, Mom, you should go to sleep. I have to go. Please help me comfort grandma and the others. Don't worry, I will definitely bring Jolie home safely!"

"Good!" Mason said. "Remember to take care of yourself outside. When you come back, take Audrey with you and get married. You are not young anymore!"

Gerald scratched his head and walked out of the room resentfully!

Outside the villa, Theo was standing at the door of the car and smoking. When he saw Gerald come out, he asked in surprise, "Are you done?"

Gerald nodded and said, "Let's go back to Washington and then go to Sin City!"

“Okay!” Theo smiled and said. “Damn it. I have begun to look forward to those open beauties in Sin City!”

Chapter 319 Go to Sin City

The car set off again. It went to Washington from Sacramento in one day!

On the way to Sacramento airport, Valery called Blaine. After she explained the situation, Blaine was silent for a long time. In the end, he agreed to let Gerald go to Sin City. Moreover, Gerald didn't have to return to the headquarters of Night Watch. He could set off from Washington!

Currently, Gerald heading to Sin City was too dangerous.

His body was in terrible condition.

In Sin City, there were many people that Gerald had personally exiled. The only good thing was that Gerald's appearance had not been exposed, and there should not be many people who knew him.

Gerald was going to Sin City. It could temporarily resolve the conflict between him and the Dempsey family.

At four o'clock in the morning, Gerald returned to his residence in Washington and woke Wesley and Leila up.

“Wesley, Leila, I am leaving Washington,” Gerald said.

Wesley was stunned and then asked, “How long will you be gone?”

Gerald smiled and said, “I don't know. I'm going on a mission.”

Hearing this, Leila pursed her lips and said, “Can you not go? You haven't recovered yet?”

Gerald rubbed Leila's head and said, “No, Watchmen are like this. You must study hard in Washington. If anyone bullies you, call Kerr. Didn't I call you before? If anyone bullies you, you can let Kerr beat them up!”

“I will keep it in mind. If anyone bullies me, I'll call Kerr. Then I'll throw that card on their faces,” Leila obediently said.

Gerald rubbed her head again, then looked at Wesley and said, “Wesley, if there is any trouble in Washington, you can also call Kerr. He should be able to solve it!”

Although Wesley was honest and would not cause any trouble, Gerald was worried that he would encounter something like before.

With Kerr there, there shouldn't be a big problem.

Wesley let out a long breath. After thinking for a moment, he stood up and was about to kneel in front of Gerald.

Besides Wesley, Valery hurriedly stopped him.

Gerald frowned and said, "Wesley, what are you doing?"

"Gerald, I really have to thank you. If not for you, I would probably still be living in the countryside and still bearing..."

Gerald interrupted him and said happily, "Speaking of which, you saved my life. Don't think too much about it. Live well in Washington. When I come back, I will drink with you! Leila, you have to study hard. If I come back and you become one of the top 100 students, I will reward you!"

Leila pursed her lips and said, "I will become one of the top 10 students!"

The school she studied in was the best high school in the country, and it was quite difficult to become one of the top 10 students.

"Then I'm leaving!" Gerald picked up the two blades next to him and smiled at them.

At six o'clock in the morning, at Washington International Airport, a plane slowly took off. The destination was Sin City. It was the paradise of the people in the underworld and was also the territory of the people in the underworld! The outside world couldn't contact the people there.

A huge island was on the vast sea. This place was almost completely isolated from the outside world.

Anyone could go there, but no one was allowed to go out without the consent of that person in Sin City. Then, they would have to die there!

This place was not much different from the cities outside. This place had its own network. However, it was just a regional network. No one could contact the outside world. There were bars and clubs. Everything there was like that in a normal city.

Most of the people living there were ordinary people.

The only difference was that the people there could not contact the outside world. The people there knew the existence of the people in the underworld.

There were no good people in this place!

There were no rules in this place.

At that time, a black car drove into Sin City. The driver was a middle-aged woman. Wendy was sitting in the front passenger's seat, putting on makeup in front of the mirror in the car.

Jolie was sitting in the back seat, trembling slightly. She looked terrified and did not dare to speak.

"I didn't expect it, Wendy. Five years ago, you spent a lot of effort sneaking out of this place. In the end, after five years, you came back." The middle-aged woman said while driving, "There are only a few of us who are still alive now."

"I don't want it to happen either!" Wendy put away the makeup box and sighed. "But my identity has been discovered..."

“What’s the situation with her?” The middle-aged woman pointed at Jolie and asked.

“Let’s not talk about it. She used to be my neighbor, but perhaps it is fate. She is actually the cousin of the man; who once turned Sin City upside down.” Wendy sighed. “And for some reason, that man had a conflict with the Dempsey family. By chance, I was recognized by the people of the Dempsey family. Under their request, I had to bring this girl back to Sin City.”

“Are you crazy?” The middle-aged woman, who was driving, cried out in shock, “How could you mess with the Dempsey family or Watchman No. 0?”

“Yes, I couldn’t mess with them,” Wendy sighed and said, “So I came to you. I will hide in your place for a while!”

“What about her? Are you going to let her be a prostitute in my place? She is a beautiful woman, I don’t have the guts to mess with that man,” the middle-aged woman hurriedly said.

but

“Stop the car!” Wendy smiled. When the car stopped, Wendy looked at Jolie and said, “I should have handed you over to the Dempsey family, but you are my friend. They asked you to come to this place just to force Gerald to come. I didn’t expect that the person who went on a blind date with me was the former Watchman No. 0!”

Jolie didn’t understand what they were talking about, but the experiences of the past two days were about to break her down.

“We are friends. I don’t want to see you die. You have come to Sin City. The Dempsey family’s goal is achieved,” Wendy smiled and said, “As for whether you can survive in Sin City, it depends on you.”

Jolie’s expression changed as she said, “Wendy, what are you trying to do? Can you take me back?”

“Get out!” Wendy’s tone was filled with coldness.

Jolie was a little afraid. She could only get out of the car, trembling in fear.

She looked at the car slowly disappearing into the distance, this strange city, and the empty streets!

Jolie broke down. She covered her face and squatted down on the sidewalk.

The middle-aged woman frowned in the car and said, “Wendy, you are too bold. She is an unarmed woman. In Sin City, she will die. Aren’t you afraid that he will find you?”

Wendy pursed her lips and said, “It’s all his fault. I had begun to enjoy the peaceful life outside. If not for Perrin targeting him, I wouldn’t have returned to this damned place. It’s her luck that I let her be. Moreover, I heard from Perrin that Watchman No. 0 is not in good condition. He probably won’t live for long.”

When the middle-aged woman heard her words, she smiled and said, “That’s interesting. If she wants to live here, she has to seduce a powerful man or be a prostitute!”

The car passed through the streets of Sin City, leaving Jolie crying alone on the sidewalk.

Chapter 320 On Her Own

On the roadside, Jolie's face was full of tears, and she had broken down.

She was kidnapped by Wendy for no reason. Then she was brought to such a strange city and left on the roadside!

She had been living in fear for the past few days. She did not know where this place was and she felt no sense of security at all.

There were not many cars on the road, and the whole city seemed to be very empty. There were very few pedestrians on the streets, and when pedestrians passed by occasionally, their eyes looked strange.

After a brief emotional breakdown, Jolie quickly adjusted her emotions. She quickly took out her phone and wallet from her pocket.

Wendy did not take away her things.

Wendy did not hurt her either.

Wendy just left her there, and Jolie was on her own in this place.

Of course, if Gerald knew it, he would scold Wendy. This place was like hell for a person like Jolie who did not know anything. Jolie was on her own. It might be worse than killing her!

This place had no contact with the cities outside.

This was not a place where one could live on their skills. The money from other cities could not be used here.

Sin City had its own currency.

Jolie took out her phone. She wanted to call her family and book a flight ticket to leave this place.

But when she took out her phone, she found that there was no signal at all.

Jolie felt helpless again. She did not know where she was, and the feeling of grievance appeared again.

At that time, a noise suddenly sounded.

A sports car suddenly stopped in front of her. Then, a whistle sounded. From the front passenger's seat of the car, a man poked his head out and said, "Hey, miss, are you alone? Why are you crying? I want to protect you..."

When Jolie saw this man, she instinctively took two steps back in fear.

This man was so strange. His upper body was naked. He had dreadlocks, and there was a ring on his nose. When he spoke, she could see his tongue stud,

There were big earrings on his ears, and his naked upper body was full of tattoos.

The most important thing was that Jolie saw two daggers on his waist and a long blade in his hand.

It was common to see such a person in Sin City, but Jolie grew up in a peaceful city. Someone dressed like that was too terrifying for her.

“What do you want?” Jolie cried out in shock.

“What do I want?” the man grinned and said, “Miss, don’t be afraid. I just want to sleep with you.”

Jolie was stunned. It seemed that she did not expect him to be so straightforward and say words to her.

As the man said that, he reached out his hand and grabbed her!

Jolie almost fainted.

At that time, there was a sound of footsteps.

Then, a middle-aged woman quickly ran to Jolie. Jolie had rarely seen a woman running so fast.

She ran to Jolie and grabbed Jolie’s hand. Then, she said, “Come with me!”

At that moment, Jolie did not know what else to do. She felt that this middle-aged woman was a savior and her hand was so warm!

She didn’t dare to think too much and followed behind the middle-aged woman, running into the distance!

“Damn! It’s a pity that she was taken away by this old woman,” the man with tattoos all over his body said.

“Well, the middle-aged woman seems to be the boss of the Tuberose Bordello. She took that girl away, so you can still sleep with that girl. You just need to spend some money.” In the driver’s seat, a man wearing a cap said, “We have more important things to do now!”

The man with tattoos nodded and said, “You don’t understand. It seems that the girl just came to Sin City. She is very pure. It will feel awesome to get her. You know, it costs a lot to sleep with a pure woman in Sin City!”

“Alright, cut the crap. Let’s hurry to the Eastern District. We have more important things to do,” the man with a cap said.

The man with tattoos muttered, “Damn it, those people are fucking trash. They let a few newcomers smash our casino!”

As they talked, the sports car started and rushed toward the Eastern District of Sin City!

Gerald didn't know what had happened in Sin City. At that time, the plane was flying steadily.

The plane belonged to Night Watch, and an airline stewardess was serving them.

She was very beautiful. She sat not far from Gerald and the others. Theo was flirting with her!

Of course, Theo's reputation in Night Watch was extremely bad. The airline stewardess ignored him, but it didn't stop Theo from flirting with her!

"There will always be consequences. Your destiny is me!

"Come on, give me your number!

"Do you know why my eyes are so beautiful? It's because you are in my eyes!"

Theo could keep saying those lame love for two hours. Hearing it, Gerald had goosebumps all over his body.

Gerald looked outside the window!

Because of jet lag, it was still nighttime at Gerald's place.

Outside the window, it was also dark.

Valery sat next to Gerald. For some reason, she looked at Gerald with worry in her heart!

She had heard of this mysterious island city many times, but she had never been there.

There were a few Watchmen in this city. They were responsible for investigating Sin City and trying to find a way to send information out of the city.

No one was allowed to leave this city. Valery was a little worried about what would happen to this trip!

"Dr. Manning," Gerald turned to look at her and said, "This trip will take more than ten hours. You have not rested yet. I suggest you sleep for a while."

Valery shook her head and said, "I am not sleepy!"

As she spoke, her usually cold face revealed a trace of a smile. "I've heard some things about Sin City, but I don't know if they are true. Tell me what kind of place that is."

When Claude heard Valery's words, his expression suddenly became strange. He looked at Valery and said, "Dr. Manning, you should know that our boss has a nickname, right?"

"The Holy Lord of Sin City?" Valery asked.

Claude smiled and said, "Yes. Our boss is an influential man in Sin City. But I want to keep it a secret. for now. You'll know later."

Team 11762 had once been led by Gerald to Sin City to carry out a mission. All members of the team successfully arrived in the city and left the city. It had never happened in Sin City before.

Of course, Gerald knew that they were able to safely leave back then, probably because of Blaine!

After all, the person from Sin City was also on the Sun List. He was only one rank lower than Blaine and was ranked second on the Sun List!

As they chatted and laughed, the plane flew through the clouds and moved forward!

“Sleep for a while!” Gerald said to Valery.

Valery thought for a moment, then nodded and said, “Give me your shoulder!”

With that, she leaned her head on Gerald’s shoulder and slowly fell asleep.

When Theo saw this scene, his eyes lit up. He walked to the airline stewardess and said with a smile, “Miss, may I have your shoulder too?”

The airline stewardess glared at him and said, “You are a famous jerk. Stay away from me!”

It was peaceful on the plane.

Gerald also had a smile on his face. Then, he tilted his head and rested his head on her head. He also slowly fell asleep.

At that moment, they looked like a couple.

Gerald slept very soundly. He didn’t know how long he slept. A gentle voice sounded in his ear, “Everyone, we have arrived at our destination.”
