Chapter 401 Wish You Good Luck

Seeing Jacob like this, Gerald couldn't help but laugh.

Jacob ran over with a bitter smile. At this time, his instructor also walked towards Gerald and the others as he held his hand and ate a chicken leg with another hand.

The instructor looked Gerald up and down and said, "Are you Watchman No. 0?"

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes!"

The instructor licked his lips and said with a grin, "Since you are here, I will give you a chance. I will lend you two hours. They have to come back to the training ground after two hours. Damn it. Your foundation is so terrible, and your bodies are so weak. You have to practice, practice hard!"

"Gerald, take me away. I am so miserable! Can't you see that?" Jacob looked at Gerald with a bitter smile.

The instructor ignored them and left directly.

When the instructor left, Gerald looked at Jacob and said, "Let's get something to eat?"

"Yeah, I'm starving," Jacob hurriedly said.

The others couldn't help but laugh.

When they arrived at the canteen, Gerald ordered a lot of food for Jacob. Jacob began to eat in a wild manner. He ate very quickly. After eating, he spread out on the chair and said, "Is this feeling of having a full meal? This is too good."

"Didn't you eat your fill every night before sleeping?" Erik said, somewhat speechless.

"You don't understand!" Jacob curled his lips and said, "Also, be more respectful to me. Your master is Gerald's friend. Gerald is my friend, which means that I am of the same generation as your master. I'm your senior!"

Erik curled his lips. He didn't bother to argue with Jacob at all!

Getting along with them, Gerald relaxed a lot and felt much more at ease. During this period of time, he had been under a lot of pressure. In addition, he was dismissed from Night Watch, so he was not in a good mood!

After staying with Jacob and the others, Gerald felt that his bad feeling was digested a lot!

They chatted in the canteen for a while and wandered around the town. At two o'clock in the afternoon, Gerald said, "We have to go!"

"Yes!" Audrey nodded and said, "I have to go training too!"

Gerald looked at Audrey. She had a certain expression on her pretty face.

“Do you want to be a Watchman so much?” Gerald said speechlessly. “You were born to be a rich lady, but why did you come here to be a Watchman?”

Audrey looked at Gerald and said seriously, “I will become a Watchman at the top level and the super level. Then I will stand by your side and fight with you!”

Gerald was speechless. He thought that when Audrey reached the top level, she would know that there was a huge gap between the top level and the super level!

After two hours of interaction, Jacob did not mention those things. He smiled and said, “I will also work hard to train, but in the future, when I go on missions or something, you have to protect me!”

Although Jacob cried badly at the beginning, later on, he did not mention leaving. It was probably that he just complained about his experience to Gerald and the others at the beginning.

Gerald smiled, then exhaled and said, “Wish you good luck. When you reach the top level, come here to pick you up.”

I will

“Good!” Audrey and the others said with anticipation.

Erik frowned and said, “I feel that I can leave now.”

“Don’t talk nonsense. If I tell you to stay here, stay here,” Carolyn said, glaring.

Erik pursed his lips, his face full of grievance!

Erik was actually at the top level. Before coming here, he was already at the top level. His improvement during this period of time was also obvious. Of course, his main goal was to learn some attack skills of the joint attack formation and some cooperation skills with the other Watchmen.

“Alright, we will leave now. There are still big things to do in the next few days!” Gerald said.

“Okay!” Jacob and the others nodded. “Goodbye. See you next time.”

After bidding farewell to them, Gerald and the others no longer cared about Charles. The four drove directly to Sin City.

Gerald still had to fight the final to get the five pieces of Dragon Bones.

The final was held at five in the afternoon. For Gerald, the final was not a big deal.

They drove the car and came back to Sin City at about three o’clock. They drove directly back to Roger’s home. When Carolyn saw Kristen and Theo, she was so excited that she shed tears again.

For Team 11762, from the beginning full team to now, there were only five of them left. It was hard for others to understand their relationships. They had gone through thick and thin together.

Just as they were gathering, Gerald suddenly heard a loud noise outside the door.

Gerald walked to the balcony and glanced at it. Then, he found that a couple was being held tightly by two people. This couple were ordinary people. Gerald had met them and recognized that they were one of Roger's neighbors.

The two men were warriors who had practiced martial arts. They were all carrying sabers.

In fact, when Gerald came back, he found that at the end of the street where Scar lived, there were many people carrying weapons lining up.

Gerald estimated that they all wanted to join Lightbringers.

After the battle last night, Scar had completely become famous. The current him had a great reputation in Sin City, and was considered the fifth super expert in Sin City.

The other four were naturally Davis and the three Holy Lords. Gerald was one of them!

Following a super expert meant that they wouldn't have to worry about their well-being. Therefore, many people came to sign up and wanted to join Lightbringers! Among them... There were even some people who brought a force to join, such as Gavyn!

he Gavyn had been the head of one of the top forces in the Northern District, but for some reason, had no choice but to fight this colosseum. Gavyn now heard that Scar became a super expert. After hearing the news last night, he secretly went to the scene to see it. Among Johnnie's men, those top experts all died. Moreover, it happened in a few minutes. Gavyn felt that Scar must be a super expert, so he directly brought his force to join Scar. There were more than 20 top experts. In addition, Gavyn ranked 9th on the Moon List!

Gavyn hoped that Scar would help him accomplish some things through his own strength.

A large number of people came to join Lightbringers, causing this street to be full of experts.

Gerald looked at the few people below and frowned.

The couple looked a little flustered at this time. The husband said, "Sir, you can't do this. You dropped something, and we picked it up and returned it to you. How can we steal your things!

"Humph, don't talk nonsense. We have a total of 400 thousand lucs. We planned to give it to Mr. Scar, but Mr. Scar was benevolent and did not intend to take our money. We accidentally dropped it, but you picked it up. When you returned it to us, we found that there were only 350 thousand lucs. If you don't believe me, you can count the money!" One of the two people carrying the saber said with a sneer.

This made the couple extremely afraid. The husband hurriedly said, "Sir, we found your thing and saw that it was money, so we directly put it at home. It is such a huge sum. We didn't even dare to think about it and didn't count it. I was afraid that we would have trouble. When you came to ask for it, we directly gave it to you. We don't know how much money it is!"

"Don't talk nonsense. Take out the remaining 50 thousand lucs, or we will kill you!" The two men said with a grim smile.

These words made the couple's looks change wildly.

At the same time, in Adam's manor in the Northern District, Adam was still holding two iron balls in his hands. However, the atmosphere in the room was a little oppressive at this time!

"Where is Dax?" Adam looked around and frowned.

"I don't know where he went." Franklin said, "This bastard can't be trusted. If I wasn't interested in the person behind him, I wouldn't even want to cooperate with him. He ran away last time when Saul was in trouble."

Franklin gritted his teeth and said, "What should we do next? Are we really going to give the five Dragon Bones to Gerald?"

Alan pondered and said, "What can we do? Davis had given his order, so Gerald didn't dare to make a move yesterday. We have to satisfy Davis!"

"But!" Saying this, Alan let out a breath and said, "But Davis also clearly means that we can't fight in the Colosseum. However, he probably will keep out of the affair if it is in other places. Now that we have known Gerald's residence, we... When the matter is over, we can directly go there to kill him. He only has one super expert, and it's not like we don't have a chance! We still have the absolute advantage in numbers!"

Chapter 402 Not My Men

In Slum Street in the Eastern District, Gerald stood on the balcony and listened to the debate below with a strange expression on his face.

Gerald could see that this couple was indeed not lying to the two men. These two men were obviously here to blackmail the couple.

50 thousand lucrs were a huge sum for the residents of Slum Street!

There were no good people in Sin City! It was true with the example of this anecdote.

The couple picked up the money and gave it back to the two men, but they were extorted instead.

In fact, it was not that the couple did not want to take the money for themselves, but it was so much money. They might not dare to spend it wantonly even if they kept it. They were even worried that the matter would be exposed and they might lose their lives, so they obediently sent it back.

"Hurry up and pay us," the two men said impatiently.

The couple's faces were full of horror. The husband immediately knelt on the ground and begged. "Sir, you really can't do this. I really don't have 50 thousand lucrs. Even if you sold me, I didn't have so much money."

"No?" One of the two men lowered his head and said with a sinister smile, "Then you owe me 50 thousand lucrs. You have to pay me every month, and there will be interest! Three percent of it!"

Three percent of 50 thousand lucrs would be 1,500 lucrs. For this poor couple, they could only afford the interest every month, and they might not be able to pay it back in their lifetime!

This was the miserable state of these ordinary people!

At this moment, the couple had pale faces, and their faces were filled with sorrow.

They had thought that they had endured so much hardship that they didn't have to pay some protection fees anymore. In the end, they had such an unlucky accident. It was a disaster for them.

"These two men are really shameless." Carolyn stood next to Gerald and saw this scene. She turned to look at Gerald and said, "Aren't you going to do anything to help the couple? Didn't you mention Lightbringers?"

Gerald nodded and said, "Yeah, I should do something!"

Then Gerald walked down the stairs.

At the same time, the couple and the two men were still talking. The two men said, "Don't talk nonsense. I will come to you on this day every month to collect the money. Prepare 3,000 lucrs for me next month!"

The couple collapsed to the ground, but they were helpless. After all, they could not afford to offend these two men.

"Wait a minute!" Gerald came out of the door and said calmly.

The two men obviously did not know Gerald.

appearance.

Many people knew that Gerald had returned, but not many people had seen Gerald's Only those who had been at the scene yesterday had seen Gerald's face, but for the large Sin City, the Colosseum could only accommodate a few thousand people.

The two men did not know Gerald. After seeing Gerald, their faces revealed a trace of disdain.

Gerald lived on this street. There could not be any powerful people living on this street. After all, it business. was Slum Street. Among the two men, the taller one sneered and said, "It's none of your Get the fuck out of here."

Gerald ignored them. He walked over and looked at a bag in front of them. Inside the bag was a stack of lucrs. Gerald calmly asked, "You mean that you lost money, a total of 400 thousand lucrs, but the couple found it and only gave you 350 thousand lucrs, right?"

"So what if it is so? No, little brat, it's none of your business!" The tall man asked impatiently.

Gerald said lightly, "What you mean is that they cheated you of 50 thousand lucrs?"

"We didn't. Gerald, don't talk nonsense." The couple was pale at this time!

“Yes, you are right. They cheated us of 50 thousand lucrs. We have to get our money back.” The tall man smiled and asked.

Gerald nodded and said, “Since you said that, you lost 400 thousand lucrs, but they said that they only picked up 350 thousand lucrs. There is only one possibility. The money they picked up should not be yours. Go and find your 400 thousand lucrs!”

As Gerald said that, he picked up the bag of money and handed it to the couple. “Mr. Reilly, you like.” found the money, and it was not lost by the two of them. Take it back and spend it as you

“Bastard, what do you mean?” The tall man’s expression darkened. “Do you want to die?”

Gerald’s eyes flashed with a cold light!

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

In the blink of an eye, Gerald quickly attacked and slapped both of their faces.

His attack was so fast that the two men did not react at all.

The two men felt a chill in their hearts after being slapped. They knew clearly that from the speed of Gerald’s attack, they were no match for Gerald at all.

The two men swallowed their saliva and took two steps back. The tall man said with a gloomy face, the “Kid, do you know who we are? We are members of Lightbringers, and our boss is Mr. Scar, famous ‘Killing Machine’ Scar in the battle last night. You actually dare to attack us here!”

“Lightbringers?” Gerald looked at the two of them with a half-smile. “Then from now on, you are not.”

The two men’s expressions changed slightly!

he

Gerald said lightly, “This street is the first street that Scar took down. After taking this street, saw that the residents here had lived hard lives. So he didn’t collect their protection fee and let them survive in this city. You can go anywhere to blackmail others, but why do you have to come here to blackmail them? Who do you think you two are? When Scar sees Mr. Reilly, he also has to call him Mr. Reilly kindly. He often goes to Mr. Reilly’s house to have meals with them. You actually want to blackmail Mr. Reilly! You... You are done!”

The two men’s looks changed!

They looked at the couple on the ground in shock and swallowed their saliva!

At this moment, they felt as if they had offended the wrong people.

The tall man hurriedly said, “Bro, it’s our fault, our fault. We only lost 350 thousand lucrs...”

He hurriedly swallowed his saliva and was about to take the money on the ground.

“Bang!

At this time, Gerald raised his feet and kicked the man’s hand away. He said lightly, “I heard it clearly just now. You lost 400 thousand lucs, so the money Mr. Reilly picked up doesn’t belong to you at all. Go find your 400 thousand lucs elsewhere.”

“Well...” The tall man said with a dull face, “Bro, you are too much!”

“Gerald!” At this time, a voice sounded.

Gerald looked over and saw that Scar was holding a saber, his upper body bare, and his face was full of excitement as he ran over.

“Mr. Scar!” At this time, the two men seemed to have seen a savior and hurriedly said.

Scar sized up the two men and said, “Oh, it’s you. I said that we are brothers after joining Lightbringers. Don’t give me money or something. Everyone has a hard life. Moreover, I am not short of money!”

As Scar spoke, he secretly touched his somewhat empty wine bottle, and the corners of his mouth twitched slightly

Then, Scar looked around and asked with a frown, “What... What’s going on?”

The tall man did not dare to hide anything and told everything in detail, including trying to blackmail the couple.

After Scar heard this, his expression sank and he said, “If you join us, you must put away those bad habits of yours!”

“Yes, yes, yes. We won’t do it again,” the tall man hurriedly said.

Gerald looked at him indifferently and said, “You are mistaken. I said that you are no longer members of Lightbringers from now on. In addition, you lost 400 thousand lucs. This means that the 350 thousand lucs are not yours. If you don’t want to die, get lost. Don’t come to this street in the future!”

Scar was dumbfounded.

The tall man looked at Scar for help!

Scar came back to his senses. He quickly waved his hand and said, “Hurry up and get out of here. From now on, you are not my men.

“I...” The two men’s looks changed dramatically!

They completely explained what it meant to go for wool and come home shorn. However, they were afraid of Scar because of Scar’s reputation. They did not dare to say anything. They gritted their teeth and ran away dejectedly!

Chapter 403 I Want to Leave

When they left, Gerald curled his lips and said, "Two bastards!"

After that, he looked at Scar and said, "Scar, you were also a Watchman. It is no problem to recruit some people now, but you have to set rules for them. Don't do what you have done before."

Scar coughed and nodded. "I know. It's just the beginning!"

Then Scar said with excitement, "You don't know. I have recruited almost 2,000 people today. There are fifty or sixty top-level experts. I just feel a little guilty. They are all saying that I am at the super level, and I am too embarrassed to deny it. If they find out that I am not, I will be done!"

Gerald patted him on the shoulder and said, "You have to believe in your acting skills!"

After that, Gerald picked up the bag on the ground and handed it to the husband. "Mr. Reilly, take the money. They won't dare to cause trouble for you. You can just spend the money."

The couple on the ground was stunned. Then, they waved their hands and said, "No, no. We are not at ease with so much money!"

Gerald patted them on the shoulder and said, "Remember, Slum Street now is different from before. Take the money and spend it. Improve your living conditions!"

After that, Gerald turned around and walked towards the room. Scar quickly caught up with him and said, "By the way, I came to find you for something."

"What's wrong?" Gerald walked back to the room and asked.

"Many of the people who joined us this time are the top experts in the Northern District. It seems that something has happened to them. The reason that they joined us is that they want me to come to discuss with Adam and ask Adam to let go of their families." Scar said, "Adam seems to have controlled their families, and later forced them to participate in the competition in the Colosseum."

"But you know, I am just at the fucking advanced level. I will feel weak in the face of super experts. How can I negotiate?" Scar was speechless. "So I want to ask you what to do."

Gerald touched his nose and said, "Go back and tell them. We... We will launch a holy war against the Northern District tomorrow!"

Hearing Gerald's words, Scar sat on the ground, his mind blank!

A holy war!

This meant that Gerald was going to challenge the Northern District's Holy Lord, a super expert.

Moreover, Adam had been in Sin City for many years and his power had long been deeply rooted. No one knew what kind of strength he had behind him.

"Really?" Scar said.

Gerald smiled and said, "Of course it's true. The reason I came here this time was to kill Adam. It just so happens that you have recruited a lot of people now. I will directly make you the new Holy Lord of the Northern District.”

Scar licked his lips, but he was still a little worried.

“Don’t worry. I will kill Adam with one slash. Moreover, I am not the only super expert here,”

Gerald said calmly.

Yes, Gerald speculated that there were probably three super experts in the Northern District. If Gerald was alone, it might be difficult to face them. But now that Carolyn had appeared and Carolyn had successfully broken through to the super level, which meant that Carolyn could at least control one person.

In this way, Gerald would be able to face two men, even if they were ranked sixth and seventh on the Sun List. Right now, he had some confidence!

Dax and Alan might be a bit more powerful than Dylan and Gordon back then. After all, they were already old.

However, Gerald had obtained five Dragon Bones. Adding on the two bones in his hands, he had seven bones. After absorbing them for a day, he felt that he could truly rival Davis.

When he met Davis that day, he knew that there was a gap between him and Davis. But things might have changed since he had absorbed another seven bones.

Hearing Gerald say this, Scar gritted his teeth and said, “Alright, then I will go back... to inform them. Have them prepare. We will fuck them up tomorrow!”

Scar gritted his teeth and stood up from the ground. At this time, Gerald suddenly asked, “Scar, do you want to leave this city?”

Scar was dumbfounded!

It had been 20 years since Scar was exiled to this city. At first, he wanted to leave this city, but after a long time, he had given up on this idea. When he heard Gerald mention this, his heart trembled violently.

Did Scar want to leave? Of course, he wanted to. He had experienced the outside world and knew what the outside world was like.

Scar longed for peace and a rich as well as colorful life!

“Yes!” Scar looked up at Gerald and said, “Even if I have to abandon everything I have just obtained, I want to leave!”

“Recruit more people!” Gerald smiled and said, “When the time comes, I will take you away from here. We will go to Europe and kill Perrin!”

Scar pursed his lips!

Perrin was Gerald’s enemy, Milo’s enemy. Similarly, he was also Scar’s enemy!

Scar had lived a very hard life, especially when he came to Sin City. His teammates all died in Perrin's trap.

But Scar knew that there was no hope for him to take revenge in this life. He did not have good martial arts talent. He had been stuck at the advanced level for a long time.

For Carolyn and the others, reaching the super level was a great chasm. But for Scar, the top level was also a chasm that he could not cross. He knew how large the gap between him and Perrin was!

But now, everything was different. Yesterday, he had personally witnessed everything that Gerald had done. The ground was covered in blood and corpses.

Scar nodded again and said, "Alright!"

With that, he quickly turned around and walked out of the room.

At this time, Carolyn and Valery walked down from the second floor. Carolyn frowned. "Are you going to leave here with these madmen from Sin City?"

"Yes!" Gerald nodded.

"Gerald, don't be impulsive. Can you imagine the sudden appearance of thousands of people from the underground world, let alone the fact that they are those who don't follow the rules of Sin City?

It is a disaster for the outside world." Valery said.

"I will think of a way to restrain these people," Gerald said calmly. "And... Do we have a choice? The place we are going to is Europe, Perrin's headquarters! Unless I reach Blaine's level, it will be difficult for us to kill our way there and take his head off!"

"If you go there, it will be like a declaration of war for European Night Watch." Valery sighed and said, "There is no need to go this far!"

Gerald looked up indifferently and said, "I am not only declaring war on them. I also want to go to the United Army headquarters and ask them why they dismissed me. Perrin is a hero of the human race. Am I not?"

Gerald slammed the table and sneered!

Hearing Gerald's words, Carolyn and Valery fell silent. Carolyn let out a breath and said, "Yes, as long as we can get revenge for Terry, it doesn't matter what we do. Moreover, if this force is used well, why can't we protect the human race?"

Valery looked at Gerald and did not say anything. She sighed and said, "I hope you know what you will do!"

Gerald smiled at her and said, "Let's go to the Colosseum. The competition is about to begin!"

"Yes!" Valery nodded.

Gerald returned upstairs and put his two sabers on his back.

Carolyn also clamored to go with them, but they only had five tickets. In the end... Theo's tickets were snatched away by Carolyn.

Theo didn't dare to grab it back. In Team 11762, the one who was most afraid of Carolyn was undoubtedly Theo!

When Theo first joined the team, he saw that Carolyn was beautiful and teased her a few times. Then, in the next few years, he was often beaten up by Carolyn. It could be said that the one who attributed to his becoming a top expert now was also Carolyn!

They drove two cars and headed for the Northern District Colosseum!

At the same time, a large group of people gathered in front of Scar's residence. Scar was excitedly saying something!

"I will announce it here!" Scar looked at the large group of people below and said, "Tomorrow, Lightbringers will launch a holy war against the Northern District!"

Chapter 404 Something Is Going to Change

After Scar said that, everyone present was shocked.

"Holy war?"

"And tomorrow? Well... Challenge the Northern District's Holy Lord?"

"I'm fucking crazy. I never thought that in my lifetime, I would be able to see it in Sin City. No, I would personally participate in a holy war!"

In front of them, the people that Scar recruited instantly became excited. Everyone was going crazy!

Someone shouted excitedly, "Mr. Scar is awesome. No wonder Mr. Scar is a super expert. If we win this holy war, we will be Holy Lord's subordinates. From now on, we will be the most powerful group in Sin City."

Some people lowered their heads and remained silent, looking a little nervous!

And in the front row, some top experts were standing there. And of these top experts, most of them were people from the Northern District. At this time, some people had excited expressions. They

s decision. never expected Scar would directly make

Challenged Adam and started a holy war!

If they succeeded, they would save their families. If they lost... They could not afford to lose!

They looked firmly at Scar above!

Looking at the excited crowd, Scar felt his heart tremble slightly.

Damn, I am a fake super expert, Scar thought.

But now that he had said it, and Gerald also promised, what he could do was believe Gerald.

Scar slowly let out a breath and said, "I know, some people are afraid of super experts, but when the challenge begins, I will be responsible for dealing with Adam! I will get rid of him. Of course, if you are afraid and unwilling, I won't say anything. From now on, as long as you are willing to quit, come to me to register. I will mark your names."

"Fight!"

In the crowd, Gavyn drew his saber and pointed his saber at the sky, shouting loudly!

"Fight!"

Then...

Everyone followed Gavyn's movement.

They all drew their sabers.

The sound of sabers being pulled out rang out. Everyone pointed their sabers at the sky and shouted, "Fight!"

Scar felt his blood boil at this scene.

He let out a breath and said, "Alright! I promise that even if I die, I will die first! If I win, I can't guarantee that everyone will be rich and powerful. You can also see my style of doing things. I am also a damn pauper now, but I can promise that as long as we win, no one in this city will dare to bully us!"

"Hail Mr. Scar!" At this time, another top expert shouted loudly!

Yes, many people were willing to join Scar's group. Other than his reputation as "Killing Machine", they valued his personal loyalty.

Back then, one of Scar's subordinates was kidnapped, and he killed his way into Johnnie's headquarters alone to slaughter that place.

This showed Scar's loyalty, and many people also took a fancy to his character!

Along with their roars, the news that Scar was going to launch a holy war against the Northern District was quickly spread out!

Of course, Gerald did not know how Scar encouraged the people he recruited. At this time, Gerald had already arrived at the Colosseum. After talking to Valery and the others, he walked into the lounge alone.

In the lounge, there were several other people, including Rayna. After seeing Gerald, Rayna leaned over and said, "Old man, you are here!"

"Well..." Gerald touched his nose and felt that the way Rayna addressed him was a little strange.

Previously, he had put on makeup. It was fine for Rayna to call him old man, but now that he had removed his makeup, he wondered why she called him that.

Gerald coughed and said, "Are you interested in fighting a holy war tomorrow?"

Rayna was stunned, and then her expression changed. "You... are going to attack Adam tomorrow?"

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, how is it? Are you interested in a fight?"

Rayna took a deep breath and nodded. "Sure! Tell me when the time comes!"

The three winners of the other groups looked at Gerald with helpless expressions.

A super expert's participation had completely broken the balance of this battle. They stood before Gerald face to face and even had no desire to fight. They came... just to make a pass.

At the same time, the news that Scar would challenge the Northern District tomorrow quickly spread throughout the entire Sin City!

At this time, in the Eastern District, in Belinda's manor.

Up in the manor, there was a guard pavilion. This place was relatively high. One could see the scenery of Sin City there. Belinda hid there like a cat. No one knew what she was thinking!

At this time, Aleen, who was dressed as a maid, walked over. She bowed to Belinda and said,

"Master."

Belinda raised her head and frowned, "Didn't I say that I wanted to be alone for a while? If there's nothing else, don't come to me."

Aleen smiled bitterly and said, "There's something that I have to tell you. It's about Lightbringers."

"Yes?" Belinda frowned and said, "The organization that Gerald joined playfully? What's the matter?"

"Didn't Gerald kill all of Johnnie's people last night? Those people thought that it was done by Scar of Lightbringers. Then... Today, many people joined Lightbringers." Aleen said. She smiled bitterly and said, "Then there was news just now. Scar said... He would launch a holy war against the Northern District tomorrow!"

"What?" This time, Belinda seemed to be unable to sit still. She looked at Aleen in shock and asked, "Starting a holy war against the Northern District?"

"Yes!" Aleen said, "This... should be Gerald's order."

Belinda's expression changed slightly and said, "Well, this... is interesting."

"Master!" Aleen said, "Isn't it Gerald's final today? Aren't you going to take a look?"

Belinda smiled and said, "What's the fun about him, a super expert, participating in such a low battle? I think he just goes there to put on a show. Those people will just lie on the ground and it will be over.

"But... I do have to go and take a look." Belinda said, "I have to go and inquire what kind of attitude Davis has towards this holy war.

"Take me to the Colosseum!" Belinda said and stood up.

At the same time, in the Colosseum's private room, Davis was sitting there with a glass of red wine. This time, he was the only one in the entire private room.

At this time, Davis' phone suddenly rang. He picked up the phone and said,

"Hello."

"Hello." A voice sounded from the other side of the line. "Scar of the Eastern District will launch a holy war against the Northern District tomorrow. They want to challenge Adam!"

"What?" Davis frowned deeply.

"The Watchman No. 2 that Mr. Dominic took away was picked up by Gerald." The voice on the phone sounded again.

"Got it!" Davis hung up the phone. He narrowed his eyes and looked in the direction of the backstage in the Colosseum. He muttered, "Start a holy war? There are at least three super experts... Gerald, are you courting death?"

As Davis spoke, he frowned again and said, "This kid is going to start a war tomorrow. Is he in a hurry to leave? Does he want to deal with Franklin first?"

As he said that, Davis frowned and said, "Do you really think you can beat me? Interesting!"

At the same time, four people sat next to them. This time, Dax finally arrived!

At this time, other than Dax, the others looked unhappy.

They had been discussing how to deal with Gerald before, but they did not expect that Gerald would actually take the initiative to challenge them.

After Gerald exposed himself yesterday, they easily found out some things about Gerald in Sin City, including the challenge that Gerald and the others had issued in Slum Street.

"Tomorrow!" Franklin swallowed his saliva and said, "How about... Let's retreat!"

Alan sneered and said, "Retreat? Retreat to where? Our goal is to get rid of this kid. He took the initiative to come to us. What is there to be afraid of? You are a coward!"

After that, he looked at Dax and asked, "Are you going to make a move tomorrow? If you don't, our cooperation with the one behind you will end here!"

"Can you keep your word?" Dax said disdainfully, "Can you represent Perrin?"

"I can!" Alan said lightly.

"Then I'll do it!" Dax said.

At the same time, in Slum Street, opposite Roger's house.

Ari did not go to the Colosseum today. He knew that today's competition was not wonderful, so he was not interested.

He took Gloria to the place where Scar lived and set up a stall. There were many people!

Ari looked at the group of excited people in front of him and touched his chin. "Something is going to change!"

Chapter 405 Get Dragon Bones

Next to Ari, Gloria tilted her head and asked "What change?"

"I say, this city is going to change!" Ari tilted his head and said, "Gloria, do you want to leave this city?"

Gloria nodded and said, "I do, but the key is how I can leave. You can't beat Davis, so I can't leave."

"I can't beat him, but the kid living on the opposite side might be able to beat him." At this time, Ari said, "So if you marry him and have children with him, he will definitely take you to leave this city."

"That man ... is quite interesting." Gloria touched her chin and said, "But he doesn't seem to like me. And I feel that I'm not as beautiful as the doctor beside him."

"It doesn't matter!" Ari said, "Whether I can live freely for the rest of his life depends on you."

Gloria pursed her lips and said, "Okay, then let me try?"

Because of Scar's announcement, the entire Sin City was thrown into a storm, including some of the major forces.

At the same time, in the Southern District, Farris was kneeling in front of a building. He cried and said, "Sir, I beg you. Take revenge for my child. He died a terrible death. Just because he attacked a few poor people, he was killed by Gerald. He was Watchman No. 0, but he did not know the rules and killed innocent people.

"Sir, please help me. I can't beat him, but you can. I beg you to come out and take revenge son." Farris begged.

for my

"Go back!" In the room, a slightly old voice came out. "You have been kneeling here for three days!"

"Sir, if you don't agree to come out, I will always kneel here!" Farris said in a low voice.

"Then suit yourself!" The voice sounded from the room.

Farris's expression changed. Then, he gritted his teeth and said, "Sir, are you also afraid of that Gerald?"

There was silence in the room. No one answered him.

At this time, it was already five o'clock. The entire Colosseum was full of people.

After all, the tickets were bought in advance.

At this time, a few iron frames began to slowly extend over. Then, four groups of four men began to walk toward the middle disc from different directions.

Gerald carried two sabers on his back and slowly walked into the middle of the field. When the commentator announced the start of the competition, they only symbolically touched it a few times. Then, the other three people all fell to the ground. Gerald became the only man standing there, so he successfully won the victory of this competition!

The people who came to watch the battle were greatly disappointed. They had wanted to see the super experts use their full strength to fight each other. They had thought that there would be a wonderful show.

However, the result was quite disappointing.

After successfully winning the battle, the host announced that Gerald was the champion, and the one who would award him was Adam!

This was a checkpoint that had been set before!

According to Adam and the others, they were fishing this time to catch Gerald and his men. Then, they would investigate Night Watch and track Gerald's movements, and then kill him.

At that time, they could just casually recruit one person, and then Dragon Bones would naturally return to its original owner!

But now,

all of this.

Gerald had killed his way out, and under Davis' watch, he had no choice but to give Gerald

At this time, in the middle of the stage, surrounded by two scantily-clad beauties, Adam slowly walked towards Gerald, but he looked gloomy!

Adam held a bag in his hand and walked to Gerald. He handed the bag and a bank card to Gerald.

Gerald took the awards and looked at them. After confirming that there were five Dragon Bones inside the bag, he looked at Adam with a faint smile and said, "How is it? Are you feeling well?"

Adam looked extremely awkward. He stared at Gerald and said, "Kid, don't be complacent. Since you dare to challenge me, you will definitely die tomorrow!"

"Is that so?" Gerald grinned and said, "Then I think it is necessary to get rid of you now."

The moment Gerald finished speaking, he pulled out Nameless. A terrifying aura erupted from Gerald and locked onto Adam. At the same time, his eyes narrowed. "Cross Slash!"

Adam was only ranked 12th on the Sun List. His strength was much weaker than Dylan's. When Adam faced the current Gerald, how could he withstand Cross Slash at a close distance?

When Adam saw the terrifying aura coming from Gerald, his expression changed drastically as he quickly retreated.

He never expected that Gerald wouldn't follow Davis' words!

Yesterday, Davis' words were very clear. If they had any private conflicts, they could settle them privately. The battle in the Colosseum was still going on normally. However, Gerald did not follow the rules.

Davis' expression changed drastically. It was already too late to dodge.

"Swish!"

At that moment, a sword flew out from the window above the private room. It was a knight's long sword. The long sword collided with Gerald's saber and was directly sent flying.

However, the power of Gerald's Cross Slash was weakened by more than half. Adam's aura as a super expert erupted, finally blocking Gerald's sneak attack.

At this time, the audience became excited again.

The dust had already settled, but such a scene seemed to indicate a battle between super experts. For a moment, the audience felt that this battle was worth it.

Gerald didn't let Adam off. He raised his saber and charged at Adam again.

"Gerald, that's enough. I don't care what you guys want to do tomorrow. But we'll stop here today. If you want to continue fighting, I'll be your opponent." Davis' voice resounded throughout the entire Colosseum.

Gerald narrowed his eyes slightly.

In fact, he really didn't understand what Davis was thinking.

However, since Davis had said that, Gerald naturally didn't say anything else. He put Nameless into the scabbard on his back and looked at Adam indifferently. "I'll spare your life and come back tomorrow!"

"It's hard to say who will die!" Adam sneered.

Gerald put Dragon Bones into his pocket. Then, he suddenly raised his head and said, "I want to ask you a question. Why did you cooperate with Blood Lotus? You clearly know what is behind Blood Lotus!"

Adam was dumbfounded. He didn't expect Gerald to suddenly ask him this question.

Adam took a deep breath and said, "It's just a different choice. Some people think that in the face of the thing behind Blood Lotus, fighting back is the best choice, and some people think that surrendering is the best choice. I chose the latter. Of course, some people do not make a choice, such as Davis."

"We have chosen different paths, so we can only meet on the battlefield." Gerald said indifferently, "Wash your neck clean tomorrow!"

Adam snorted, turned around, and walked out.

Gerald also put away his things, left the venue, and walked backstage. After reminding Rayna, Gerald left the Colosseum and rushed home with the others!

At the same time, in a room higher than Davis' private room, Belinda suddenly pushed open door. She looked at Davis in the room, who was frowning.

Davis was thinking about the moment when he blocked Gerald.

the

Although Davis was far away, he thought that his sword could block Gerald's Cross Slash. However, he was disappointed. This time, he only weakened the power of Cross Slash a little. Moreover... He could see that Gerald did not seem to use his full strength.

Seeing Belinda walk into the room, Davis raised his head and frowned. "Is there anything I can do for you?"

Belinda sighed and said, "Stop pretending. You should know about it! Lightbringers will challenge Adam."

"Since you already know it, I naturally know." Davis smiled and stood up.

"What is your attitude? Who are you helping?" Belinda asked.

"Help whom?" Davis stood up and said, "Mr. Dominic is a Watchman, so I naturally don't dare to attack Gerald. As for Adam, he belongs to Sin City. It will be best if he can survive."

Speaking of this, Davis faintly said, "But they are well-matched. So, let's see who is stronger!"

Chapter 406 Be Our Boyfriend

Belinda tilted her head and looked at Davis. "In other words, your choice is to help nobody. You want to let them fend for themselves, right?"

"That's what I think," Davis said.

Belinda nodded and said, "You better think so. If you want to interfere, I will also do something for Gerald."

"So, you've already made your decision? You've decided to stand on Gerald's side and join his team?" Davis asked. "By the way, I have a piece of news to tell you. Gerald has been fired by Night Watch. The United Army has also issued a Blood Order to hunt him. If you follow Gerald, you will likely be targeted by Night Watch. You have to think carefully."

When Belinda heard this, her expression changed slightly. She said, "That's impossible. Isn't he the hero in the Night Watch? How could that happen?"

"There is a conflict between him and Perrin. Perrin should have reached an agreement with Blood Lotus. Alan is with Franklin in Sin City. Now, it's like Gerald and Perrin will fight to the last gasp," Davis said calmly "Gerald left the Night Watch, and Perrin was the man behind this."

“You... If you want to make up a reason, make up a good one. Perrin is a Watchman, and Blood Lotus is Night Watch’s enemy How can Perrin cooperate with Blood Lotus?” Belinda did not believe Davis at all.

Davis shrugged and spread his hands. “Then why don’t you ask Gerald yourself?”

Belinda frowned, turned around, and left the arena.

If what Davis said was true, and Gerald was really being hunted, Belinda might really get herself into trouble by leaving this city.

However, Belinda really wanted to leave. Even though Belinda was one of the few people with the highest status in this city, she still thought that staying in this city for a lifetime was dull.

On the other side, after Gerald finished everything, he left the arena with Valery and the others. On the way, Gerald took out his mobile phone and called Ellamae, telling her that there would be a holy war tomorrow. He also asked Ellamae if she was willing to come.

Ellamae naturally agreed!

In any place, a top expert had the top-level combat power among all the Watchmen But there were still too few Watchmen in this world.

There must be a lot of people working for Adam in the Northern District.

Of course, Gerald knew that tomorrow’s battle was mainly the battle between super experts. Whichever super expert won would have a high chance of winning this battle.

The two cars drove and stopped at the door of the house. When the car stopped, Gerald found that there was a silver-white convertible on the road in front of Roger’s house. That was Jessie’s convertible.

Jessie and Eileen were standing at the door of Roger’s house. When they saw Gerald getting out of the car, they excitedly surrounded him and shouted, “Gerald!”

Jessie and Eileen did not talk to Gerald yesterday because Gerald knew that he was fired by the Night Watch and was in a very low mood. After Gerald returned home, he greeted others and went upstairs directly.

Today, Jessie and Eileen still came.

Gerald was Jessie and Eileen’s idol. Thus, Jessie and Eileen would not let go of this chance to get close to their idol

Seeing Gerald get out of the car, Jessie and Eileen quickly walked over.

Valery glanced at this scene. Carolyn giggled and said, “Gerald, you’re setting fires in girls’ hearts again?”

Gerald was a little speechless. He hurriedly said, "Come on, Don't slander me."

Valery and the others smiled. They did not disturb Gerald and walked into the house.

Gerald looked at Jessie and Eileen and asked, "What's the matter?"

Even if Jessie and Eileen knew Gerald's identity, they still didn't feel nervous in front of Gerald. Eileen snorted and said, "You lied to us. I didn't expect you to really be Garrett."

"Didn't I tell you before? You didn't believe it, and I couldn't do anything about it, right?" Gerald said, pursing his lips.

Eileen was stunned. Indeed, Gerald had admitted it before. But at that time, Jessie and Eileen felt that Garrett would not be that cowardly, so they didn't believe it.

Jessie sneered, "It's not our fault. Who would have thought that a person like you would go to a bar to work and be excited just because you had received a tip of dozens of dollars? You misled us Humph!"

Gerald coughed and said, "There is a reason. I had to do that. I just came here and had no money in my pocket. At that time, something went wrong with my body, so I could only make a living by working in the bar."

Jessie and Eileen did not comment on Gerald's words.

7.4

Eileen said, "Anyway, now you know our attitudes. What do you think?"

"What do you mean?" Gerald asked with a blank face.

"Jessie and I both like you. What do you think now? Do you want to be our boyfriend? If you want to get married, you also can!" Eileen said.

"The three of us?" Gerald was stunned.

Eileen nodded and said, "Yes. This place is not like the outside world. People here can have many wives or husbands. Jessie and I are best friends, so we'll be together for a lifetime. Even if we get married, we will marry the same person. Only a person like you is worthy of us"

"What the fuck!" Gerald swallowed his saliva.

Gerald's gaze moved between Jessie and Eileen.

Eileen had short red hair. Her dressing style had always been very hot. She wore a tight miniskirt, thin. revealing her beautiful figure. She had big breasts and a big butt, but she also looked very Jessie had long black hair. Her appearance was also the best. Her figure might not be as hot as Eileen's, but it was still quite good.

These two top beauties actually said that they wanted to marry the same man together. Which man in the world could refuse it?

“How is it? We are good enough for you, but we don’t have the experience of having sex. However, we can learn how to do it, including posture and how to make you comfortable. We will make you satisfied in the future, and we will be willing to carry your babies in the future...”

“Stop it! Stop it!”

Gerald quickly interrupted them. He stood up against the wall and said, “Let me calm down first!”

If the two girls continued, Gerald felt that he would immediately agree to marry the two of them.

Gerald thought this was really attractive to him.

“You are not willing?” Jessie asked with a frown.

“Of course, he is not willing.” At this time, Valery and Carolyn stood on the balcony on the second floor and looked down.

Gerald felt helpless. He cursed in his heart, it will be good if you can ask me this question when there is no one around. Although we may not be able to get married, we can spend a wonderful night together.

Valery was the one who was speaking on the balcony just now. Her tone was cold.

Jessie looked up and asked, “Who are you? Are you Gerald’s girlfriend or wife?”

Hearing this question, Valery blushed and said, “No!”

“Then this has nothing to do with you.” Then, Eileen looked at Gerald and asked again, “What do you think?”

“Eh...” Being stared at by two women, Gerald could only say helplessly, “I will leave here another day.”

Hearing this, Jessie and Eileen could tell that Gerald was tactfully refusing them. Eileen pouted

At the same time, a woman sounded out, “Girls, hurry up and go back! I have something to discuss. with Gerald!”

As the voice fell, a woman in a black dress walked slowly toward Gerald from across the street.

“Huh, isn’t that the woman who was peeked at by Gerald and Terry? She was taking a shower at that time,” Carolyn said in surprise.

Chapter 407 Belinda’s Choice

After Gerald heard Carolyn’s words, the corners of his mouth twitched a few times

Belinda looked up at Carolyn. She seemed to feel something, and her expression changed slightly.

“American Watchmen in your generation are really talented,” Belinda murmured.

Then, Belinda looked at Jessie and Eileen and said, “Go home quickly. You two want to marry the same person. Well Your parents will probably break your legs if they hear this Eileen and Jessie seemed to be very afraid of Belinda. The two of them swallowed their saliva, obediently got into the car, and drove away.

After Eileen and Jessie left, Gerald felt slightly relieved. He looked upstairs with a guilty conscience and found that Valery was also looking at him. Valery's eyes were still as cold as ever.

Gerald coughed and then looked at Belinda. "Have you thought it through?"

"I want to ask you something. Previously, Davis said that you were kicked out by the Night Watch, and they issued a Blood Order to hunt you. Is it true or not?" Belinda asked.

"It's true," Gerald said.

Belinda's face became gloomy after she heard Gerald's reply. She looked at Gerald and said, "If I go out with you, will I be hunted by the Night Watch?"

"It's possible," Gerald smiled. "But of course, all of this depends on your choice. I won't force you to join us. But if you don't join us, I won't take you out of this city."

Belinda pouted slightly and then asked, "Was it Perrin who did all this?"

"Yes!" Gerald nodded. "To be honest, after I leave this city this time, I may go to Perrin's base immediately and start a fight with him directly."

Belinda's eyelids suddenly twitched a few times, and she said, "The Lightbringers have recruited so many people with great fanfare. Are you going to take them all away?"

"Yes! If you join us, you can also take all your people with you," Gerald said.

"Are you going to stand on the opposite side of the Night Watch?" Belinda frowned deeply.

"I will never stand on the opposite side of the Night Watch. I will only stand on the opposite side of Perrin. In my opinion, Perrin is not a Watchman," Gerald said with a sigh.

Then, Belinda fell into a moment of silence. After a moment, she looked at Gerald and said seriously, "Then... I will take this risk with you! When are you going to leave?"

Gerald's eyes suddenly moved.

Belinda, the Holy Lord of the West District, must have many people. This was a great help for Gerald.

The most important thing was that Belinda's people would definitely follow Belinda's lead. At the same time, they could also deter Scar's people.

Belinda's people were like a group of outlaws and bandits.

The two groups of people checked and balanced each other. It was also very easy for Gerald to control them!

Gerald licked his lips and said, "How many people do you have?"

Belinda scratched her head and said, "I don't know exactly how many people I have. But I think I probably have two or three hundred people. There are not many people, but they are all elites, and all of them have reached above the advanced level."

Gerald let out a sigh of relief. He thought this could be used to form their own elite team.

"I'll go back and let them count the number of people," Belinda said. "With the Lightbringers, I'm afraid we will have to use two Davis' big ships to let all our people leave this city."

"Davis will do it," Gerald said indifferently.

"In that case, I won't say anything more. You plan to attack Adam tomorrow, right?" Belinda asked. "I can't participate in this. I hope you can understand."

Gerald nodded and said, "No problem. Just leave Adam to me. This is a grudge between us, Blood Lotus, and Perrin. Even if you join us to attack Perrin, I won't let you do something hard."

Hearing Gerald's words, Belinda was slightly stunned. Then, she nodded and said, "OK. Then I will go home first."

After Belinda left, Gerald breathed a sigh of relief. He returned to the house and went to the second floor. He looked at Roger and his wife. Roger and his wife were much better now. They could get out of bed and walk around. But Valery said that it would take about a month for Roger and his wife to recover completely.

Gerald walked to the room and looked at Roger and his wife lying on the bed. Then, he looked at Jenna, who was writing something on a stool. Gerald rubbed Jenna's head and looked at Roger, saying, "Roger, Nikki, we can't stay in this city for long."

Nikki was lying on the bed. When she heard Gerald's words, she looked up and asked, "What happened? Did we cause trouble for you?"

"No," Gerald said. "It's just that some things have to be done quickly, and then we will have to leave this place."

Nikki sighed and said, "Well. Actually, when you challenged those people last time, I knew that you were all not ordinary people and would leave here sooner or later, But it's good. No matter where you go, you have to take care of yourself. It's good to leave this place. If you stay in this place for too long, you will lose your humanity

But there was still some reluctance in Nikki's expression.

Roger sighed silently

Of course, Roger and Nikki felt that without Gerald's protection, their family might return to their previous lives.

For example, no one would save Roger's family when they encountered something like the previous incident

“Please don’t be like this. It’s not like we will be separated forever.” Gerald saw Roger’s and Nikki’s sad expressions He sighed and said, “I came here to ask you if you want to leave with us.”

Roger and Nikki trembled at the same time.

Nikki ignored the injuries on her body She sat up and looked at Gerald, asking, “Leave. Do you mean to leave Sin City? Go to a large city outside? Just like the place in the photo on your phone?”

Gerald nodded and said, “Yes! Are you willing to leave with us?”

Tears immediately flowed out of Nikki’s eyes She nodded and said, “Yes, we are!”

Nikki had yearned to leave this city several times in the past. But because of Davis, Nikki was not allowed to leave this place. Most people who could leave had their own ways.

However, Nikki and her family were just ordinary people. They only wanted to live a stable life, and they hoped that their children could grow up well.

If Nikki and her family could leave this city, they would definitely leave.

Roger’s eyes reddened. He just couldn’t help it.

Roger was touched.

Gerald smiled. He walked over and patted Roger on the shoulder. “I just came to tell you. If you can move now, you can pack up your things and take everything you need. Of course, it will be best if they are all commemorative things. We will arrange a place for you to live after we leave this place. You won’t lack anything.”

Roger and Nikki were a little excited.

At this time, Jenna tilted her head and asked, “Gerald, can I go to school if we go out?”

“Sure!” Gerald smiled at Jenna.

“Yeah!” Jenna laughed excitedly.

Gerald said a few words to the three of them and then returned to his own room. He sat down and placed all the Dragon Bones in front of him. There were a total of seven pieces.

“How strong will I become after I absorb all these?” Gerald touched his nose. Then, he muttered, “Franklin, you will be dead tomorrow!”

Chapter 408 We Will Let Them Die Here

Gerald closed the door and looked at the seven bones in front of him.

Among these seven bones, the two bones that Gerald got from Charles were the largest, and the bones he got from Adam were much smaller.

Gerald held the two bones he got from Charles. The feeling of mutual attraction quickly rose, and the two bones slowly merged into Gerald’s body.

A wave of Vital Energy came from Gerald’s room!

Then, Gerald slowly closed his eyes.

Now, Gerald needed some time to digest the two Dragon Bones

At about 11 o'clock in the evening, Milo and Scar came to Gerald. At this time, Scar's face was full of worry

As soon as Scar entered Roger's house, he asked, "Where is Gerald?"

Claude greeted Scar and said, "Gerald is in the room. He is improving himself to prepare for tomorrow's battle. What's wrong?"

"I intend to tell him how many people we have now," Scar said "Up until now, we have recruited about three thousand people. Most of them are at the intermediate level, and some are at an even lower level. There are about 400 people who have reached the advanced level, and there are 63 top experts!"

When Claude heard this, the corner of his mouth twitched slightly!

Claude couldn't help but sigh in his heart. He said, "No wonder this is the paradise of the underworld You actually recruited 63 top experts in a day. I'm afraid there are hundreds of top experts in the entire Sin City. The top experts in the Night Watch are mostly team leaders or people.

in the elite team "

Claude nodded and said, "OK. When Gerald comes out, I will tell him this news. We will gather here. tomorrow at nine o'clock in the morning, and then attack the Northern District."

"OK!" Scar said. But then, he said with some concern, "But there are so many of us. Does Gerald really have a way to take us out?"

"Why can't he?" Claude said. "If Davis wants to stop us, we can kill him too!"

The corner of Scar's mouth twitched. He felt like he was working with a madman.

At this time, Milo asked anxiously, "If we leave, where should we go?"

Claude raised his head and looked at Milo. Then, he calmly said, "We are most likely to go to Exploro."

After Milo heard this, his expression changed.

Exploro was a place that Milo would never forget in his entire life. It was Perrin's base, where Milo and his buddies had once represented American Watchmen to participate in the competition That was also the place where Milo's wife and buddies died in battle.

"Good" Milo exhaled and then said, "Tomorrow. I will do my best!"

After saying so, Milo excitedly left with Scar, who was a little worried.

There was a reason why Scar was very down now. He was now considered a super expert. When the battle started tomorrow, Scar felt that he might have to face some super experts. This was very dangerous

After they left, Claude went up to the second floor. He looked at Gerald's private room and then slept on the floor in the hall on the second floor.

"I haven't fought like this for a long time." Theo licked his lips. He said, "The last time we fought on such a scale was when Boss got the Medal of Star Glory. We almost all died there in that battle "

"What? Are you afraid?" Claude asked. "In fact, you don't have to worry. If you are afraid, you can just stay in the back. Our enemy now has three super experts, Adam, Dax, and Alan' Boss can defeat one, and Watchman No. 2 can also handle one. The last one will be mine. You can just be relaxed We will win."

"Shut up!" Theo snapped. "I am excited. Do you understand? Excited!"

"Protect yourself. I don't want to lose my buddy again," Claude suddenly said seriously

This was a big challenge, and it would also be a life and death battle!

When Theo heard this, he grinned and said, "I won't die. I still want to leave here and go out to pick up girls!"

In the room, Gerald was still absorbing the bones one by one!

Somehow, Gerald had successfully absorbed five bones. At this moment, he felt that his Vital Energy seemed to have experienced a qualitative change!

But Gerald also clearly felt that when he began to absorb the sixth Dragon Bone, he couldn't directly absorb it all at once The speed of the bone merging into his body became much slower!

After Gerald continuously absorbed five Dragon Bones, the progress seemed to have reached a bottleneck. The speed at which Gerald absorbed the Dragon Bone became slower!

Even so, Gerald still seized this last bit of time to absorb the Dragon Bone.

A night had passed. In the end, Gerald successfully absorbed six Dragon Bones.

At the same time, the night in the Northern District was not peaceful. The news of Scar's Lightbringers challenging the Northern District had already spread throughout the city. People in the entire city became a little panicked because of this. Everyone knew that this kind of battle meant a catastrophe for the people in the area.

At this time, most of the people in the Northern District who did not want to participate in the battle had already left. However, there were still many people who stayed. In terms of the number of people, there were even more people in the Northern District than the three thousand people on

Scar's side

Adam was the Holy Lord of the Northern District. Therefore, there were many large forces in the Northern District working for him. Just like the current Eastern District, although Belinda only had a few hundred people, if someone wanted to launch a holy war against the Eastern District, the three major forces might stand up to help Belinda.

And those who left the area would all hide outside, planning to come back when the battle was over

There was a rule, and the battle could only last for three days at most!

At this time, in Adam's manor, Adam walked into the hall. In the hall, Alan and the others were all sitting there. In addition, there was an old man. He held a wooden weapon and was sitting next to Franklin, dozing off.

This old man was Blood Lotus' Slaughterer in the past, and his name was Jordan Stanley. He once gave the Watchmen a headache

Later, Jordan disappeared secretly and hid in Sin City.

Franklin went to invite Jordan in person. In the end, Jordan came out again.

Jordan once ranked sixth on the Sun List. Moreover, in the last era of Blood Lotus, he was Blood Lotus' Slaughterer.

This meant that there were now four super experts on Franklin's side.

Seeing Adam return, Franklin hurriedly asked, "How is it?"

"Our people have already been deployed at every intersection in the Northern District. There are also our spies outside," Adam said. "We will let them die here!"

"The four of us fight against Gerald. It can be considered to think highly of him," Alan said indifferently. He wiped the two sabers in his hands with a sneer on his face.

Alan's two sabers were the standard Watchmen sabers.

It was eight o'clock in the morning now. On Slum Street...

Noises began to ring out on the street. At this time, more than three thousand people slowly gathered here. The residents all poked their heads out and watched this scene!

Scar walked out of the crowd and went into the house.

Gerald had already woken up and was waiting for Scar on the second floor. He changed his clothes. and carried his Void-breaking and Nameless sabers on his back.

Scar went upstairs, looked at Gerald, and said, "Gerald, you are our main force this time!"

Gerald smiled and said, "Don't worry. Just leave them to me. But then again, don't you want to say something?"

Scar was stunned. Then, he murmured, "Yeah. In the past, we used to make a speech before a large-scale battle."

Scar thought about it and then walked to the balcony.

Chapter 409 Let's Win This Battle

Below, all the people were somewhat nervous.

After all, this was a holy war. In the history of Sin City, this kind of situation was very rare.

Many people saw Scar walk into that room. They were waiting for Scar to give an order.

They had put their lives and futures in this battle.

Rayna stood in the crowd, looking around. She wanted to find Gerald. But there were too many people around, so Rayna couldn't find Gerald.

"I'm a little worried!"

"We have no other choice but to trust Scar now."

"If we win, we will gain a firm foothold in this city!"

Many people were talking in the crowd. They were cheering themselves on, but they all had uncertain expressions on their faces.

At this time, someone raised his head and saw Scar on the balcony!

Scar was still the same. His upper body was bare, and he had a wine bottle on his waist. Today, his wine bottle was full, and there was obviously a lot of wine in it. After all, Scar was already the boss of 63 top experts. It was not a problem for him to drink a bit of wine!

Scar walked to the balcony. Then, someone threw a loudspeaker at Scar from below.

"Damn it!" Theo cursed when he saw this scene. "This guy has already decided to launch a speech. The loudspeaker is ready. You don't need to remind him at all."

Standing beside Theo, Gerald carried two sabers on his back and felt speechless.

At this time, Scar spoke.

"My fellows!" Scar said with a hint of certainty in his tone. "I know that everyone has all kinds of reasons to stay in this city, and most of the reasons are not so beautiful. We are abandoned by this world. This place is called Sin City. It sounds like we are carrying sins while moving forward."

As soon as Scar finished speaking, the entire street quieted down.

Scar kept saying, "In this city, even if you are a top expert, you may die one day. In this city, everyone is a bandit and has no humanity. Your closest buddy may stab you in the back someday! Because... There are no good people in Sin City."

"I don't like this. I know that you guys don't like this either. So I have been trying to change all this. The Lightbringers is an organization that can entrust our backs to the people around us. The name

'Lightbringers' represents hope!"

Everyone on the street was still quiet.

Scar's words sounded very unexpected in this city because everyone was used to the rules of Sin City Scar continued, "So, we need status. At the very least, we need a Holy Lord.

"Maybe one day, we will give up hope for this world. We may give up hope for this city because up until now, the people in this city are really tired. They are not willing to trust anyone!

"But it is not today!

"Today, we are going to fight! We are going to attack the North District. We are going to win our future and hope. Today, the three thousand fellows here are all trustworthy, reliable, and worthy of your back!

"Leave the super experts to me. Leave the toughest enemies to me and my buddies!

"Let's win this battle!"

Clang!

As Scar spoke, he pulled out his huge saber and pointed it at the sky!

Clang!

Clang!

Clang'

One after another, the sound of sabers being drawn rang out, and all the long sabers were pointed at the sky. At the same time, everyone shouted in unison, "Let's win this battle!"

In the room, Theo snorted and said, "That man is quite emotional. He even made my blood boil. "

Gerald looked out the window and saw this scene. He sighed in his heart, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly

"For every being who is breathing!" Gerald murmured.

The people on the street were trying to earn a bright future for themselves.

As for Gerald, he was doing what he thought he should do. It was to take revenge, to kill Blood Lotus' people, and to kill the person who would stab the Night Watch in the back when the war broke out.

After Gerald murmured, he suddenly felt a little sad. Now that he had left the Night Watch, it seemed that he was not qualified to read this sentence again!

But at this time, Gerald was completely excited.

Scar roared, "My fellows, follow me and head for the Northern District!"

After roaring, Scar directly jumped down from the balcony!

Gerald slowly let out a breath. He looked at Claude, Valery, and the others. Then, he said calmly, "I won't say much to you. Claude, go find the sniping position yourself. Kristen, Dr. Manning, you two are responsible for protecting Claude."

Valery frowned and said, "With my strength, I can fight them head-on directly."

"You are a doctor" Gerald looked at Valery. He said with certainty, "I am more persistent in the battle plan Don't reject me!"

Valery was speechless

Indeed, no matter whether it was in the past or now, Gerald would never let girls go to the front line! Men would always be the ones standing in the front line to fight!

Then, Gerald looked at Carolyn and said, "Carolyn, your enemy is Adam, who ranks 12th on the Sun List I won't say that you must win. Just hold him. Dax and Alan should come to me. I can't be sure whether there will be other people coming after me. But if there are..."

After that, Gerald looked at Claude and continued, "Deal with them!"

"Yes!" Claude said

Then, Gerald looked at Theo and Milo and said, "After we start, I may not be able to take care of you. You are responsible for your own safety. Don't put yourself in an over-dangerous situation."

Theo nodded and said, "OK. Don't worry!"

At this time, Jolie suddenly said, "Gerald... Be careful."

Gerald was stunned. Then, he nodded and said to Jolie, "Don't worry. I will come back safely. I promised your parents that I would send you back to Sacramento safely. After we leave later, Belinda will come to pick you up. Maybe you can follow her to see the situation on the battlefield. She will probably go to see it. If you are not afraid of blood, follow her Jolie pursed her lips and did not speak.

Gerald rubbed Jolie's head and said again, "Although this is a holy war, and the scale is large, the real deciding factor is super experts' combat power. So, there is no need to fight to the death, understand?"

"Yes, boss!" Theo and the others hurriedly replied.

"Well! Let's go!" Gerald let out a sigh. He carried his two sabers on his back and brought a group of people down the stairs.

Chapter 410 The Battle Is About to Begin

When Gerald and the others went to the first floor, all of them put their masks on!

Just like five years ago, everyone had a black mask on their faces, revealing only a pair of eyes outside.

And all of them were carrying two sabers, one long and one short!

Theo and the others only brought one saber over. There were still other Watchmen in this city, who had standard weapons, and those Watchmen did not participate in this battle, so Valery went to borrow some sabers from them.

Only by using double sabers could they display their combat strength to the extreme!

Valery also had two sabers on her back this time.

Including Milo, there were a total of seven people this time!

The moment they appeared at the entrance of the house, Scar's expression changed slightly. He did not know that Gerald and the others would wear masks today!

Gerald looked at Scar and said, "Let's go!"

Scar nodded and subconsciously wanted Gerald and the others to go ahead of everyone.

But Gerald and the others did not move. After all, Scar was the boss of Lightbringers nominally.

Scar reacted and shouted, "Let's go!"

Scar walked in the front. Gerald's group of seven quickly followed behind Scar. Behind them was a group of top experts, including Gavyn, Ellamae, Rayna, and others.

Behind them were more than three thousand people, majestically moving toward the Northern District!

At this time, most of the residents in the Northern District had retreated from the area. They did not want to be involved. This battle was between the super experts. Those residents did not want to be hurt accidentally!

But there were also some residents who did not leave. At this time, there were people all over the tall buildings around the Northern District!

There were dozens of people standing on top of a rooftop. Standing at the front were Davis, Belinda, and an old man with white hair but full of energy

The old man was standing there with a walking stick!

"Mr. Wilcox, who do you think will win? Adam, or the Lightbringers?" Davis was still holding a glass of red wine as he asked with a smile

No matter where Davis went, he was always dressed in suits and holding red wine. It seemed that he really wanted to make him look noble.

The "Mr. Wilcox" that Davis called was Bowen Wilcox, ranked tenth on the Sun List Bowen was also Joseph's grandfather and the Holy Lord of the Southern District of Sin City!

When Bowen heard Davis' words, he smiled slightly. He moved the walking stick in his hand, slightly and said, "Actually, I'm rather curious about your thoughts"

Davis smiled faintly and said, "I think it's 50/50. Adam has quite a lot of people here. The Lightbringers should have at least two super experts!"

Bowen looked at Belinda next to him. Then, he looked at Charles, who was sitting on the sofa not far away. Charles covered his hands and seemed to be thinking about something. Bowen smiled and asked Charles, "Mr. Dominic, what do you think? Speaking of which, Mr. Dominic, why didn't you come to greet me after returning to Sin City? It's a pity that I didn't welcome you back as the Holy Lord of the Southern District of Sin City!"

There were many people that stood behind them, all of whom were their trusted aides. There were about 20 or so people.

When they heard Bowen's words, they all turned their eyes to Charles.

Charles raised his eyes and looked at Bowen. He asked, "It's a pity? Since when did this city become yours?"

Bowen was stunned. He did not seem to have expected Charles to answer him like this. For a moment, Bowen could not help but reveal a trace of embarrassment on his face. "I was just trying to be polite to you.

"Don't! I'm not familiar with you!" Charles said stiffly.

Then, Charles continued to sit there in a daze.

The corners of the mouths of the people behind Davis twitched. Bowen was the Holy Lord. But Charles embarrassed Bowen in front of so many people, and Bowen didn't say anything.

Charles didn't like to talk to others. He showed a disdainful look to Bowen when Bowen took the initiative to show his goodwill.

Bowen was very embarrassed. He smiled bitterly and did not say anything.

"Why hasn't it started yet?" Belinda said with a frown.

"You seem to be looking forward to Gerald winning?" Davis said, rotating his glass of red wine.

Belinda raised her eyes and looked at Davis, replying, "No. I believe that he will definitely win.

Then, he will defeat you and take me away from this city."

"Oh? Belinda, are you planning to leave here?" Bowen asked. "Actually, the outside world is not as good as you imagine!"

"Did you hear what Mr. Wilcox said? The outside world is not as good as you imagine," Davis said with a smile.

Belinda snorted and ignored them.

At the same time, in another tall building whose balconies were very large. There were also four people standing on the balcony!

They were Jessie, Malcolm, Eileen, and Eileen's father!

"I guessed right. That kid is Garrett, the former Watchman No. 1!" Malcolm sighed. "He will turn the city upside down when he shows up in the city."

"That is the man we like!" Eileen said.

Eileen's father and Malcolm felt strange when they heard Eileen's words.

"I'm surprised that Davis didn't send Gerald away this time. After Gerald challenged the Holy Lord of the Western District, Davis sent Gerald away immediately as if Gerald would bring plague to them. This time, the scale of this battle was even greater, but Davis didn't stop Gerald!" Eileen's father said. "I feel it's a bit strange."

"Indeed. Although Davis didn't set any rules, it seems that he has always been trying to reduce this kind of large-scale battle as much as possible. He seems to want to preserve the strength of Sin City. This place is called a land of exile. But for many people, this is also a land of protection. Even if it's the Night Watch, it's still very difficult for them to send their spies here. Davis firmly controls everything here. I don't understand what he is doing this time," Malcolm said.

"The last time Gerald left, he defeated the Holy Lord of the Western District. This time, he wants to challenge the Northern District. I guess he will leave here again after the battle ends this time!" Eileen's father said.

The two girls ignored their fathers' talk. They looked outside in the direction of the Northern District. Gerald and the others were likely to come from that direction.

"When will they arrive?" Eileen frowned.

"They might not arrive here from that direction. There are many Adam's people here. If Gerald and his people want to break in by force, they may suffer a great loss," Malcolm said.

There were many people who came to watch the battle. Of course, most of them were from the top forces in other regions. They had enough people to ensure that they would not be affected in this battle!

In another building about 60 feet away from them, three people were walking to the top of the building.

They were Claude, Valery, and Kristen!

After leaving Slum Street, they quickly found a car and rushed to this place in advance.

Claude was a sniper. He needed to find a perfect sniping position.

Of course, this battle might cover the entire Northern District, and Claude still needed to constantly adjust his position.

The positions that Claude could choose were limited.

“Boss is still the same. He doesn’t want us women to fight in the front line!” Kristen muttered. “Before I came back, I was already a team leader.”

Claude looked at Kristen and said, “Boss doesn’t want to lose the people that he cares about side!” anymore. Just watch it by my “Alright. I got it!” Kristen pursed her lips and raised a telescope.

Through the telescope, Kristen soon saw a few figures appear at the end of the street. Kristen saw clearly that they were Scar, Gerald, and others...

Then, the crowd began to appear densely. Some of them had red ribbons tied to their right arms to identify each other.

“The battle is about to begin!” Kristen exhaled.
