Chapter 411 The Battle

There was a road between the Eastern and Southern Districts. At this time, many people gathered on this road. At the crossing, a strong man was standing there with two hammers.

This man was famous in Sin City and the underground world. He was an expert who worked directly for Adam. And his name was Dawson Frederick.

Dawson ranked fourth on the Moon List, second only to Gerald, Saul, and Farris.

Dawson stood on the street with two hammers in his hands and looked at the people coming from afar. He licked his lips with a hint of excitement on his face.

Not far away, Scar and Gerald slowly walked over with their fellows. Dawson's eyes fell on the Void-breaking and the Nameless saber on Gerald's back.

Scar's people quickly approached. When they were about 150 feet away, Scar waved his hand, and everyone stopped.

"Scar... Where did you come from? How dare you challenge my boss?" Dawson sneered.

He held a big cigar in his hand and took a deep puff. Smoke was curling around him.

Just like the people brought over by Scar, Adam's people seemed to have been mobilized. They were not afraid at all. On the contrary, there was a trace of excitement on their faces.

After Gerald arrived, he did not look at the people in front of him. Instead, he looked at the top of a three-story building next to him. Four people were standing there.

They were Adam, Alan, Dax, and... Franklin.

When Gerald's eyes fell on Franklin, Gerald's eyes burst with coldness.

Franklin noticed the coldness in Gerald's eyes, and Franklin could not help but tremble.

"Gerald, do you dare to fight?" Adam looked at Gerald and said provocatively.

The people on Scar's side were very confident this time because of Gerald's joining. They did not see Gerald's appearance, but they saw the two sabers on Gerald's back. These were the sabers in the weapons manual. They all recognized them.

Gerald glanced at Carolyn next to him.

"Gerald, Carolyn," At this time, Theo looked at them and said seriously, "Be careful. I'll wait for you to come back."

Gerald grinned and patted Theo on the shoulder. He looked at Carolyn and said, "Let's go."

Then, Gerald and Carolyn suddenly jumped up and landed on the roof, directly rushing toward Adam.

Adam and the others sneered. They quickly jumped on the roof and left the place. Gerald and Carolyn also quickly followed.

The battlefield for people of the super level was not here.

The battle between people of the super level was influential. It might cause a lot of unnecessary damage, and even their own people might suffer heavy losses.

Watching several people leave, the people of the Lightbringers looked at Scar. They found that Scar had not left. All the people of the Lightbringers showed a trace of excitement on their faces. On their side, there was only one person at the super level.

Suddenly...

Scar did not waste any more words. He directly pulled out his saber.

At this moment, the sound of both sides pulling out their sabers constantly resounded. This street was destined to be filled with blood today.

“Go to hell!”

Scar pointed his long saber forward and roared.

Puff!

At the same time, not far away, a muffled sound rang out. Claude pulled the trigger and fired the first shot of the battle.

At the same time, Dawson raised his sledgehammer and pointed in the direction of Scar, shouting,

“Kill him!”

Swish!

At this time, his eyelids suddenly twitched.

Dawson ranked fourth on the Moon List, second only to some people on the Sun List in this world. He was very strong. At the very least, he believed that no one here could defeat him.

But at that moment, he felt as if his soul had been trembling.

Dawson suddenly realized, it was on the right!

His expression changed slightly, and he suddenly retreated backward, wanting to avoid this danger.

Swish!

However, at this moment, the bullet cut through the sky, and Dawson had just retreated when his head hit the bullet.

The specially made bullet pierced through his head.

Dawson was stunned. Then, his body fell down to the ground behind him.

The battle had just begun. Dawson, who ranked fourth on the Moon List, was dead.

This was the Legendary Sniper of the Night Watch. And this was what Claude could do. Even though Gerald had reached the super level, he still respected Claude.

When Claude was still at the intermediate level, he injured Davis. If Claude was given a chance, even when he was still at the super level, he could cause some trouble. After he reached the top level, he would be more powerful.

The crowd of both sides began to rush toward each other.

The people of the Lightbringers were all shocked at this time. At the same time, their faces were full of excitement.

Claude shot with perfect timing. Everyone saw Scar draw his saber, and then Dawson, who ranked fourth on the Moon List, died there. Therefore, the people of Lightbringers subconsciously thought that Dawson was killed by Scar. Scar killed Dawson in an instant 150 feet away.

“Look at what our boss did!”

“Let’s kill them!”

Dawson’s death did not cause the morale of the people in the Northern District to drop. Soon, someone stood up to preside over the situation. It was too normal for people to die in such a large-scale battle.

The people from both sides quickly began to collide.

Clang!

Clang!

Clang!

The crowd began to disperse, and the battle quickly spread out, extending to the entire street and even the entire Northern District.

On the tall building, after Claude fired a shot, he no longer paid attention to this side. Instead, he hurriedly said, “Find the position of the boss and the others!”

Kristen held a pair of binoculars and continuously observed.

Meanwhile, the people watching the battle from the tall buildings were filled with shock.

In this city, it had been a long time since such a large-scale battle had occurred. When the battle really began, it was still extremely shocking.

After the battle broke out, Rayna, Ellamae, and many other experts from the Northern District began to quickly kill their way to Adam’s manor. They wanted to go in that direction to find their family.

On the other side, Gerald and Carolyn chased after their enemies.

The two sides continued to jump on the roof.

When Gerald saw that the distance had been far enough, he increased his running speed. At the same time, the Void-breaking saber on his back was unsheathed and flew straight forward.

Clang!

Alan also pulled out a saber from his back and turned to block.

“We will not stop until we die. You want to kill me, and I also want to kill you. It’s almost enough. There’s no need to run too far,” Gerald said indifferently.

“Watchman No. 0, You are still so confident,” Alan said.

Gerald looked at Alan and said lightly, “Yes, it’s a pity that a bastard like you, the servant of Perrin, is not qualified to be called a Watchman. I didn’t expect that one day, a Watchman would be together with people of the Blood Lotus and even become Blood Lotus’ lackey.”

Alan and Dax frowned slightly.

“It’s just a different choice,” Dax said lightly.

Blood Gerald glanced at them indifferently. Then he looked at Franklin and said, “Three years ago, Lotus and Dark Phantom set up a trap in Los Angeles. Perrin is your spy. At that time, hundreds of your people surrounded the three of us. In that battle, my brother died.”

As he spoke, he muttered, “I lost my memory for three years because of this. It is time for revenge. Saul is dead, and you will be the next one. Then, Perrin will also be punished. None of you can escape.”

Franklin swallowed his saliva. He gritted his teeth and looked at Gerald. Then, he sneered, “Today, I will send you to see your brother!”

“Mr. Stanley, come out!” Franklin sneered.

Chapter 412 One Versus Four

Swish...

The Void-breaking saber was controlled by Gerald’s Vital Energy and hovered in the air. In front of him, four people stood there. At the same time, an old figure jumped to the top of the building. He held a sword in his hand, and his eyes lowered. However, Gerald recognized him at a glance.

He was Jordan, once ranked No.6 on the Sun List. He was one of the people on a Blood Order issued by the Night Watch. He was also the strongest person of the previous generation of Blood Lotus.

Gerald didn’t expect Jordan to be alive.

Jordan had been missing for at least thirty years. According to his age, Jordan was not much younger than Dylan.

Seeing Jordan appear, Gerald couldn't help but change his expression. It was somewhat different from the information he had learned.

"Is it going to be one against three?" Gerald let out a breath. In fact, when he came over, he had thought of this possibility and was prepared for it.

Carolyn let out a breath and said, "I can block two people, but I don't know how long I can hold on."

"Block two people?" Adam looked at Carolyn with a faint smile and said, "Young girl, you think too highly of yourself."

"Franklin, this little girl should have just broken through to the super level. You can deal with her, right?" Alan asked.

The corners of Franklin's mouth twitched, but he still gritted his teeth. He took out a red pill and swallowed it. Then, Gerald felt Franklin's aura rising continuously. Franklin reached the super level.

Franklin was a fake super expert. He could rely on a special medicine of Blood Lotus to temporarily reach the super level, but it could only last half an hour.

"It can only last for half an hour," Franklin said.

"Half an hour is enough for the four of us to deal with Gerald," Alan licked his lips and said. "I don't think he is as powerful as Blaine or Davis."

Gerald stood there and slowly exhaled.

Then, he placed his right hand on his back and slowly unsheathed the Nameless saber.

After Franklin had reached the super level for a short period of time, there were five super experts on the other side.

"In fact, I don't know how strong I am now," Gerald drew his saber and muttered. "I will use you to test it."

As he spoke, he pulled out his saber and pointed forward. He muttered, "For every being who is breathing!"

Clang!

Next to him, Carolyn took out her Sapphire Star. At the same time, she chanted together with Gerald, "We devote ourselves to the future we want!"

Even though they had left the Night Watch, at this moment, they could not help but recite this sentence.

"We shall never give up!"

The next moment, they roared. This sound was like a signal. When the two of them had to fight against five enemies, they did not choose to retreat. Instead, they directly rushed forward.

“Your opponent is me!” Franklin pulled out two daggers, his aura locked onto Carolyn, and the other four people headed straight for Gerald.

On the rooftop in the distance, Davis and the others were sitting there. At this time, including Charles, they all stood up and looked at the battlefield in the distance with binoculars.

“These people... are so boring. I thought the battle would be very fierce,” Belinda suddenly said.

They were observing the battlefield of people below the super level. As a result, they found that the battlefield was very large and spread out toward the entire Northern District. However, there were very few people who really wanted to kill others. Most people mainly just collided.

Most people in this city were thinking about how to live. These people were all cunning.

They were all clear that only battles between super experts could decide the victory of this fight, and their performance was not important.

So, many people did not hold the determination to fight until they died. Of course, some people still have to die on the battlefield, such as Theo and Milo.

The two of them were like two Slaughterers on this battlefield.

Davis licked his lips and said, “Well... It is interesting.”

“Turn 60 degrees northeast,” Davis said, “Gerald seems to have been tricked in this battle between super experts. I didn’t even know that the previous War God of Blood Lotus was actually in this city.”

Belinda quickly looked over. The next moment, her expression changed slightly.

“It’s one against four.” Belinda’s expression changed drastically. At the same time, she hesitated to go over and help.

“Don’t you think Gerald can win against me?” Davis said coldly, “I’m not boasting. If I were to face these four people, I might not lose.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he suddenly found that the telescope in his hand had been snatched away by someone. He turned around and found that an old man wearing sunglasses had appeared beside him. The old man grabbed his telescope and looked in the direction that Davis had said. The old man cursed, “Damn it, you’re still so good at boasting. Five years ago, when Blaine’s plane was hovering in the sky, you didn’t even dare to do anything.”

Davis wasn’t angry. He looked at the old man in surprise and said, “Ari, you really come.”

The person who came here was Ari, who lived opposite Gerald. At the same time, Gloria also stood next to Ari. She urged, “Grandpa, let me have a look.”

“It really is four people fighting against one.” Ari scolded, “How shameless!”

Just as he finished speaking, Gloria had already snatched away the telescope from his hand.

Ari glanced at Charles and smiled slightly, "Mr. Dominic, take care of my daughter."

Charles did not speak and nodded slightly.

Ari turned around and walked downstairs.

Davis frowned and said, "Where are you going?"

"That's my grandson-in-law. Damn it, these people are playing dirty. Suddenly, there is one more person, and I have to participate. I haven't exercised for a long time," Ari said while exercising his shoulders.

Davis' expression changed slightly. He looked at Charles beside him. Seeing that Charles did not stop Ari, Davis did not say anything.

At the same time, on the other side, Kristen looked around. At some time, her expression changed.

"Found it."

However, her tone was very serious at that moment.

"What's wrong?" Valery's heart skipped a beat.

"Gerald... is being besieged by four super experts," Kristen said.

"What?" Valery's expression changed.

Claude directly snatched the binoculars from Kristen. He quickly searched around and saw Gerald in the binoculars. After confirming his location, Claude immediately began searching around.

"Follow me!" Then, with a flick of his wrist, Claude threw the sniper rifle behind him and quickly rushed toward the stairs.

Claude had to find a sniper position quickly. Regardless of whether he could kill a super expert or not, at least Claude had to harass the opponents and help Gerald.

Valery and Kristen quickly followed.

On the other side, Jessie and the others also noticed this scene. At this time, the faces of the two girls turned pale.

"One versus four!" Malcolm exhaled and said, "He was still the high-spirited young man five years ago."

This time, Eileen and Jessie didn't beg their fathers to help because their fathers could not participate in battles of that level.

"He must win!" Jessie and Eileen muttered.

Chapter 413 Davis Is Shocked

The entire Northern District was now filled with the smoke of gunpowder. Shouts of war resounded in all directions. There were also quite a few people watching the battle. However, the telescopes in their hands were completely facing the same direction.

In that direction, the Vital Energy was boundless, and the surrounding buildings seemed to be trembling slightly.

“Go away!” Carolyn slashed out with the Sapphire Star in her hand, wanting to split Franklin away.

Franklin was split by a single slash. Carolyn wanted to join the battle on the side, but at this time, Franklin quickly came up to her again. For a short period of time, he also reached the super level. He didn’t intend to kill Carolyn. Instead, he wanted to stop her with his current ability.

Next to them, the battle group of five people was fighting fast. The Void-breaking saber hovered in the air. Gerald held the Nameless saber in his hand and faced the four super experts. He moved left and right.

Under the siege of the four super experts, Gerald could only resist.

At that time, the eyes of the other four experts were full of shock.

They were a little scared.

Four super experts were surrounding Gerald. And it seemed that he had managed to block them for the time being.

Gerald was even younger than thirty years old. It was hard to estimate what level Gerald would reach in the future.

“Everyone, don’t hold back!” At this time, Alan said coldly, “If the battle keeps going on for another half an hour, Franklin will be unable to hold on. Then, Carolyn will join the battle group here and fight with one of us. I’m afraid things will be difficult at that time.”

Dax snorted coldly. He slowly let out a breath. Boundless Vital Energy spread all over his saber at this moment.

“Gerald, I will show you my saber!” Dax sneered. At that moment, his movement was as fast as lightning. In an instant, he arrived in front of Gerald and slashed down with his saber. The terrifying Vital Energy seemed to distort the air.

“You suck!” Gerald was disdainful. At the same time, in the other three directions, the Vital Energy of the other three people suddenly rose and attacked from three directions.

On the other side, Carolyn had been paying attention to the situation here. When she saw the aura of the four people rising again, her expression changed. She gritted her teeth as if she had thought of something.

“Do not use the Death Storm!” At this time, Gerald seemed to have seen through her thoughts. He said indifferently, “I can still withstand it. Look at how weak they are. I can still hold on for half an hour.”

In this battle, Gerald was also testing out where his limits were.

Looking at the four people surrounding him, Gerald put on a slight smile. The next moment, he suddenly looked up and let out a loud roar.

Buzz!

At this moment, the aura on his body also began to increase explosively.

At the same time, not far from this battle group of super experts, Ari wore a pair of sunglasses and quickly approached.

“Huh...”

Suddenly, Ari seemed to feel something. He turned around and punched to the side.

Bang!

At this time, a figure appeared next to him. Their fists collided, and their Vital Energy fluctuated. The street lamp next to them was directly blown away.

“It’s you!” Ari withdrew his fist and frowned. “What do you mean?”

In front of Ari stood a bald man. He also put away his fist and muttered with a sigh, “I’m sorry. If you want to join the battle, you have to fight against me.”

“Huh?” Ari took off his sunglasses and narrowed his eyes. “What? Do you have a grudge against that man?”

“I have never met him before, but I have received a favor from Farris. And I have to help Farris this time,” the bald man said.

“Damn it.” Ari frowned.

The next moment, they looked at Gerald at the same time. Ari said in horror, “This is...”

“Is Blaine here?” Ari was startled. He turned around and was about to run, but then he shook his head and said, “No, this is not Blaine’s aura. Could it be that man?”

At the same time, on the rooftop, Davis was looking at the battle in the distance with a pair of binoculars. At that moment, his expression froze.

“He is only 27 years old...”

“What a young man!

“He has reached the super level.”

Davis muttered and lowered his head. No one knew what he was thinking.

Belinda frowned and said, “What do you mean?”

Her face was full of worry.

Davis did not answer her. Instead, he looked at the side. Davis found that Charles, who was beside him, had a smile on his face. Because Charles rarely smiled, his smile was very stiff, but it was indeed a smile.

At the scene, Gerald's aura rose. He roared like a monster.

Under the terrifying burst of Vital Energy, the four people attacking Gerald were somewhat affected.

"Void-breaking!"

Gerald bellowed, and the Void-breaking saber hovered over, charging straight at Dax, who was rushing over.

Clang!

The saber in Dax's hand collided with the saber controlled by Gerald's Vital Energy. The next moment, Dax was sent flying like a cannonball.

Bang!

Dax landed on the roof of a house, and the roof collapsed. After that, Dax rushed out with a face full of disbelief, "How is this possible? Can he beat me from far away?"

Gerald didn't care about anything else. At this time, he had completely raised his momentum and state to the highest level. However, there were four super experts in front of him.

Gerald seemed to have reached the limit to remain undefeated.

"I didn't expect you to reach that level at such a young age," Jordan muttered, "Today, I will fight to death and kill you."

Clang!

Clang!

Clang!

The sound of weapons colliding resounded. Gerald looked calm. He was waiting for an opportunity, an opportunity for him to turn his defense into an attack.

"Here it is!" On the roof of a 12-story building about 0.6 miles away from the battle, Claude jumped to the top of the building, sweating profusely. He took out a telescope to determine the direction and quickly put the sniper rifle on his back.

He slowly exhaled and touched the side.

Valery and Kristen both took out their telescopes and guarded Claude. They didn't dare to speak because they were afraid of disturbing Claude.

Claude had already held his breath. For two minutes, he didn't say a word.

The sniper rifle in his hand steadily aimed forward, but he didn't pull the trigger.

What Gerald needed to break the balance was Claude's sniper rifle.

However, the battle between super experts ahead was too fast.

It was a coincidence that he had injured Davis.

This time, it was too difficult to kill a person with one shot during the battle between super experts.

It was hard to aim at someone.

Moreover, it was 0.6 miles away. It would take some time for bullets to fly.

Time passed.

Claude had never pulled the trigger.

"Will it work?" Valery looked at Gerald, who was not far away, fighting against four people. Valery was secretly anxious.

Finally...

They heard the sound of exhaling.

Claude, who had been holding his breath, suddenly let out a long breath.

Bang!

The next moment, he pulled the trigger in his hand.

A specially made bullet shot out from his sniper rifle.

It shot out 0.6 miles away.

"Old bastard!" Claude cursed. At the same time, he pulled the rifle bolt and aimed his glasses at the scope again.

Gerald held the Nameless saber in his hand. Facing the four enemies, he was fearless.

Jordan's aura rose to its peak. His expression was solemn as he raised his saber and charged at Gerald again.

When he was about 15 feet away from Gerald, his pupils suddenly shrank. He felt something whistling toward him.

Everyone felt that because they were all super experts.

Super experts could dodge or block ordinary bullets with their hands.

Bang!

At that moment, Jordan, who was rushing over, was hit. He flew back in an extremely strange posture. He looked at his lower abdomen in horror. There was a sharp pain, and blood was flowing out.

“Go die!”

He heard a voice. He suddenly looked forward and found that Gerald had instantly appeared in front of him.

At the same time, the cross saber light lit up in front of him.

Chapter 414 Do You Deserve to Say This?

Cross Slash was one of Gerald’s classic skills!

At that moment, his speed was extremely fast.

He arrived behind Jordan before his saber.

Jordan’s aged face was filled with shock. He slowly stopped breathing and fell to the ground directly. His body slowly split into four pieces and scattered on the ground!

A super expert fell!

In this world, there were only a small number of super experts. According to Gerald’s estimate, there were probably no more than 20 super experts, including the 12 ones on the Sun List.

It was very difficult to have a breakthrough, which depended too much on one’s talent.

But now, Gerald had defeated three super experts in his life!

They included the Holy Lord of the Western District five years ago, Dylan, and Jordan!

But this was only the beginning, not the end.

Gerald looked at Dax and the others who stood not far away in shock and said lightly, “Today three more super experts will die here!”

The balance was broken!

The four people could temporarily control Gerald by surrounding him, but it was still difficult for them to kill him.

Moreover, among the four people, Jordan was clearly the strongest.

Thirty years ago, he already ranked sixth on the Sun List. Now although he wasn’t as powerful as Perrin or Davis, he had naturally improved a lot and was even stronger than Alan.

Jordan’s death broke the balance, and only three people were left to fight against Gerald.

Gerald was able to fend off the four people’s attacks, so now he could easily fight the remaining three people!

At this time, Alan, Dax, and Adam all had a sense of despair!

When Gerald was a rookie, Alan was ranked sixth on the Sun List.

At that time, Gerald became famous in a battle and obtained the Medal of Star Glory. But Gerald was just at the top level and had a bit of luck to gain the medal and rise to fame in Night Watch.

Later, he became famous again when he challenged the super-level Holy Lord of the Western District as a top expert in Sin City!

After that, he disappeared for three years, and almost everyone in the world thought that he was dead. American Watchmen even made his code name vacant.

But after three years, he made a comeback. He killed the expert ranked second on the Moon List at first and then fought against two super experts.

The two super experts almost killed Gerald last time.

It had just been a short time before Gerald met them again. But this time, he challenged four people and was not at a disadvantage at all.

“Sniper rifle! Is he American Watchman No. 12?” Alan asked in a deep voice.

American Watchman No. 12 was an extremely special existence in the entire system of Night Watch. Among the top 20 Watchmen, he was the only one at the advanced level. It was all because of his sniper rifle.

Gerald made terrifyingly fast progress!

Next to him, Franklin panicked!

He had panicked the moment he saw Jordan die.

At that moment, he just wanted to escape!

He was cowardly. Since Gerald said that he would kill Franklin, Franklin had been keeping a low profile for many years. He hid everywhere in case anyone would find him, even in the three years when Gerald disappeared.

Franklin wanted to survive.

But now the situation had changed. He wanted to escape but was tightly grabbed by Carolyn, whose heart was trembling.

She had waited for three years to avenge Terry’s death.

A swish was heard!

Gerald’s Void-breaking saber hovered in the sky. He looked up and pointed his Nameless at the three people, saying indifferently, “Traitor of Night Watch, a lowly lackey of Perrin, and a sinister mouse hiding in Sin City. I will get you killed today!”

“We have a chance to deal with him!” Alan gritted his teeth, and a violent aura began to rise from him.

“Death Storm?” Gerald narrowed his eyes slightly.

The faces of Adam and Dax changed slightly.

Alan’s aura continued to rise as he looked at the other two people and said, “I will attack first, and you can assist me. Even if I die, you have to keep his dead body here.”

After saying that, he breathed out and continued, “For all the people who’re...”

“Do you deserve to say that?” Gerald’s eyes suddenly turned cold as Void-breaking moved toward him. He was as quick as lightning and instantly rushed toward Alan.

Swish!

Right at this moment, another bullet moved toward its target Adam rapidly!

Adam’s face changed drastically, and his speed became extremely fast. He fended off the bullet with the long saber in his hand.

Clank!

The sound of a bullet and a saber hitting each other was heard clearly. Adam shielded himself from the bullet.

But he still looked around vigilantly!

Claude, who was hidden in the dark, put them under great pressure after shooting Jordan. Because they didn’t know when the next shot would target them.

On the rooftop of the tallest building in the Northern District, Belinda was looking around with a telescope. Seeing Claude and the others standing on the rooftop in the distance, she swallowed and asked, “Is this the intermediate-level watchman who hurt you?”

Davis said, “There is a reason why I was shot by him. You don’t understand. I took the initiative to see if he could hurt me. I can fend off his attacks easily. Even if I took the bullet, it only injured my skin.”

Belinda narrowed her eyes slightly and muttered, “The team used to be kicked out of Night Watch, interesting! They could compare with a faction of Watchmen considering their ability. Gerald is the most powerful among super experts, Carolyn reached the super level, and Legendary Sniper could hide in the dark to pose a threat to super experts. If I join them, do you think Night Watch will still dare to issue Bloody Order against the new team?”

Davis frowned and said, “Have you decided?”

“What do you think?” Belinda said, “Davis, don’t brag. If you were surrounded by four people, could you do better than Gerald?”

On the other side, Jessie stood on the balcony and also saw what had happened. She almost exclaimed in excitement. Eileen said, “He is indeed Garrett. He fought against four people and even killed one!”

“This... What is going on? Why did that old man suddenly fly back?” Malcolm looked confused!

They were far away and didn’t know what was going on. They didn’t know what happened to Gerald as much as Davis did.

Jessie said, “Dad, haven’t you heard that Garrett has 11 helpers? One of them is Legendary Sniper, who hurt Davis five years ago!”

“Yes, Legendary Sniper has the ability to do that. He seems to be the one called Claude,” Eileen said excitedly.

In the entire Northern District, the battle was ongoing.

In a building, Theo and Milo went all the way here with Scar. Theo and Milo were covered in blood, but Scar didn’t get hurt at all.

Most people considered Scar a super expert and didn’t dare to attack him!

“Damn it!” Scar wiped the sweat from his forehead and said, “It is not easy to pretend to be a super expert!”

“What should we do next?” he asked.

“Let’s hide here and wait!” Theo paced back and forth, looking very worried!

He did not know what happened to Gerald and was very worried. After all, Gerald had to confront three super experts!

Suddenly, his phone rang.

He took it out to take a look and quickly answered, “Dr. Manning, what’s going on now?”

“Claude and Gerald have killed a super expert. Not surprisingly, they should...”

Boom!

An explosive sound was heard as if the phone fell to the ground.

“Dr. Manning, Dr. Manning!” Theo was shocked and asked, “What happened over there? Dr. Manning, say something!”

But there was no reply over the phone!

Chapter 415 Protect You From Behind

On the other side, there was a somewhat tense atmosphere on the rooftop.

Beside them stood a group of six people, male and female. All of them had blonde hair and blue eyes, the lower half of their faces covered with black masks, which were exactly the same as what Valery wore.

They were wearing black clothes specially made for Watchmen, with two sabers on their backs. They were European Watchmen!

“From the beginning of this war, Mr. Hiebert has said that we need to find the Legendary Sniper of American Night Watch. Now we finally found you!” one of those people said lightly. He looked at Valery and said, “Dr. Manning, American Watchman No. 7, once went to Europe and treated our comrades by virtue of her consummate medical skills.”

Valery looked cold. At that moment, she didn't use her scalpel but directly pulled out the two sabers on her back.

She could not only write a medical book but also fight with her sabers!

This was what American Watchmen said of her. As the best doctor in the world, she was also Watchman No. 7!

She rarely used her sabers, but it did not mean that she could not fight with them.

“Kristen and I will protect you from behind! I won't let them get close to you,” Valery said calmly.

Claude nodded slightly, looking in the direction of Gerald!

He didn't look behind him because he unconditionally trusted his two comrades!

“How arrogant!” The person who spoke saw that Claude didn't care about them, and his face darkened.

He took out his saber and waved it toward Valery, saying in French, “I'm European Watchman No. 11, glad to fight you!”

Valery sneered and glanced at Kristen, who grinned, “Kill them!”

There were only the two of them, but they chose to rush over and fight the six Watchmen!

At this time, the situation of the main battlefield of super experts had completely changed. Looking at Alan with Death Storm, Gerald wasn't afraid and moved upward, wielding Void-breaking and hacking at Adam and Dax on the other side.

Adam and Dax could only parry Gerald's attack from the side!

But Gerald had rushed to the front of Alan with Nameless!

His Vital Energy surged as he wielded the saber.

Even with Death Storm, it seemed Alan could only resist the attack. Nameless moved downward from the sky to him.

Blood gushed out of Alan's mouth!

He felt completely frustrated. Even with Death Storm, he was still no match for Gerald.

The other two people failed to help him. For one, Gerald's Void-breaking distracted them. For another, when seeing that Gerald was powerful enough to kill Jordan, Dax and Adam had the idea of escaping.

But they were distracted by Void-breaking and couldn't run away!

Gerald slashed at Alan and shouted, "Blood Lotus and Night Watch have been fighting for a lifetime. Since the establishment of Night Watch, it has been against Blood Lotus! Perrin, known as the hero of Watchmen and the winner of the first Medal of Star Glory, actually cooperated with Blood Lotus. You have long betrayed Watchmen and are not qualified to say the slogan!"

Alan gritted his teeth and said, "You don't know what I have experienced. Your medal is just a plaything, and you can't understand how terrible the things we have to face are. It's just a matter of choice. Mr. Dempsey has personally experienced it..."

Gerald sneered, "Experience? Is that the reason why you betrayed your comrades and plotted against them with Blood Lotus?"

"Three years ago, the three of you joined forces to kill me. You didn't expect me to survive and show up now, did you?" Gerald laughed and waved his long saber. "You don't deserve to talk to me about choices. You are just a group of disgusting selfish people!"

Gerald laughed disdainfully and slashed at Alan with the long saber in his hand.

Alan felt that Gerald gradually exerted more strength and raised the saber higher.

When Gerald attacked for the sixth time in a row, Alan felt the concentration of strength, and the part between his thumb and forefinger was torn. He knelt on the ground and vomited blood.

"Wave... Wave Blades, you know how to use this skill!" Alan's face changed drastically!

Wave Blades was Blaine's unique skill. In this world, only he knew how to use it. Alan didn't expect Gerald to use the skill at that moment!

"Go to hell!" Gerald shouted coldly as the saber fell for the seventh time.

A bang was heard!

Nameless fell, and the road, the ground beneath their feet, was instantly cut open with a long cracking.

There was a cracking sound.

At the same time, the two sabers in Alan's hands were broken into two pieces. The special sabers of Watchmen were directly cut by Gerald's Nameless.

"Go to hell!"

Gerald's eyes turned cold. The tip of his long saber moved upward and cut Alan's throat.

Alan, a European Watchman, ranked sixth on the Sun List, died!

Gerald slowly looked at Dax and Adam and grinned, "It's your turn."

He looked at Adam, who was nothing to him. To be precise, he was looking at Dax!

"Each Watchman No. 0 has a mission, which is to kill you. As a traitor of American Night Watch, you should die today," Gerald said lightly.

Dax resisted the attack of Void-breaking and gritted his teeth. "Gerald, you can't kill me!"

Gerald chuckled and brandished Nameless in his hand. The saber reflected the sunlight, and he said lightly, "I can't kill you? You used to hide everywhere like the Hermit. Why did you suddenly show up to cause trouble? Aren't you courting death?"

"The boss doesn't want you to kill me either!" Dax said through his teeth.

"You have been a person of ill fame in Night Watch," Gerald said indifferently.

As he spoke, he brandished the long saber!

"It's over!" At this time, a voice sounded, and a figure quickly landed on the roof next to Gerald. It was Davis!

"Gerald, two super experts have died. It's almost enough!" Davis stood on the roof and looked down, saying calmly.

Gerald frowned and said, "You want to be on their side?"

"No, I just feel that two super experts have died, and you don't have to kill more. In this world, there are very few super experts. If you kill one more, the number will decrease," Davis said.

"Mr. Hodges, help!" Adam saw Davis as if he saw a silver lining!

Now he was in despair.

They were a team of four and fought against Gerald!

But in the end, most of them were killed.

"Oh!" Gerald took back his long saber and narrowed his eyes. "No one here can escape. Adam, Dax, and Franklin should be torn to pieces!"

As he spoke, he looked up at Davis and said, "If you want to stop me, then I will fight you to death!"

Chapter 416 Franklin Wants to Live

Gerald looked at Davis, his voice calm.

Davis knew that if he tried to stop Gerald, he might actually fight him to the death.

Although Davis was not afraid, he still hesitated.

At this time, Charles jumped onto the building. He looked at Gerald and said, "Gerald, leave Dax to me. I will take him to see the old man. You are no longer a Watchman and have no obligation to kill Dax. Moreover, Dax was raised by Blaine. Blaine would have many questions to ask him."

Gerald frowned and looked at Charles. He then nodded and said, "Alright!"

"Do you also want these two?" Gerald pointed at Adam and Franklin!

At this time, Franklin was still fighting with Carolyn and was at a disadvantage. He looked anxious and desperate.

He knew that he would probably die here today.

-It wasn't that he underestimated Gerald.

But Gerald improved so fast that it made him despair.

Franklin wanted to escape. He was afraid of death. He had been hiding for many years, but now he might have to die here. It was not what he had pursued.

"Davis, save me!" Suddenly, he shouted to Davis with his eyes red, "Save me, and I'll agree to your request!"

When Davis heard this, his eyes widened, and he turned his gaze to Franklin!

"As long as you save me, I will give you all the bones you can use. I have at least 15 of them," Franklin hurriedly said.

Apart from performing killing missions, the people of Blood Lotus had been collecting all kinds of bones throughout their lives. As one of them, Franklin had surely saved a lot after so many years!

To be honest, Davis was a little tempted. Davis could not leave the city to collect the bones himself. As a result, every single bone was valuable to him.

Let alone 15 bones!

Gerald stepped in front of Dax. At this time, Dax had already put away his saber. He knew that it would be meaningless to continue fighting.

"We can talk now," Dax looked at Gerald and said calmly.

"Who wants to talk to you?" Gerald directly slapped Dax on the neck, knocking him out. Then he grabbed Dax and threw him at Charles. "Consider it as me returning a favor to the old man."

"Should I tell him that?" Charles asked.

Gerald frowned and nodded. "Yes, just tell him that."

Then Gerald looked at Adam.

Adam stood still. At this time, he didn't even dare to fight. He looked at Davis desperately and said, "Mr. Hodges, save our lives. Franklin won't lie to you. You should know that he has what you want."

Davis frowned, and then he looked at Gerald!

Gerald said indifferently, "You can help them and fight me. You can even gang all your people in this city to fight me. But there is only one result, and that is, between you and me, things will never end until one of us dies!"

Davis' mouth twisted slightly. He looked at Charles next to him but found that Charles had no intention of speaking. Davis sighed and slowly turned his back.

"Davis!" Adam felt his heart sinking!

"Swish!"

Just then, Gerald suddenly appeared in front of Adam. His Nameless had already pierced Adam's chest!

Today, three super experts died!

It was the first time in the history of Sin City.

"Bang!"

At the same time, up above, Franklin, who had been fighting with Carolyn for a long time, finally could no longer hold on and was kicked to the ground by Carolyn.

Franklin spat out a mouthful of blood and quickly got up. He knelt in front of Gerald and said, "Gerald, please spare my life. I have a lot of Dragon Bones. As long as you absorb them, you can surpass Blaine. Moreover, the fight three years ago was led by Perrin. I just..."

"Wait. Tell me more about Perrin," Gerald looked at him and asked.

"Perrin was very powerful, beyond what we could imagine. He was one of the first Watchmen to get the Medal of Star Glory. However, as time went by, he grew old, and it was even difficult for him to carry a saber. So he started to seek ways to prolong his life."

In order to survive, Franklin decided to confess all. He quickly said, "There is such a method in Blood Lotus, but we rarely use it. That is to constantly exchange blood with talented fighters. In this way, one can continue to live, and to a certain extent, even get those fighters' geniuses."

"Perrin has worked with us for many years, and in those years, you were the most dazzling fighter.

Perrin took a fancy to you wanted to kill me and thus became the biggest danger to Blood your talent, and we wanted to get rid of you. So we allied with Saul. We threw out a bait to Night Watch, and Perrin, as our spy..." Franklin hurriedly explained.

Now Gerald understood everything.

The cooperation between Perrin and Blood Lotus had been long. That was why Blood Lotus could be able to retreat safely most of the time. Perrin was their spy. So they could get inside information about Night Watch.

Perrin wanted Gerald's talent. His goal was Gerald.

However, the one who died was Terry.

"What exactly is that box?" Gerald asked again.

The target of their mission had been that rectangular iron box.

"It's a signal! It's a signal about the Lord! Every once in a while, they would send such a signal to us. Some can be received, some not," Franklin said.

Gerald frowned. He also had a box like that, which was obtained from the Maddox family.

"Can you decipher it?" Gerald asked again.

Franklin paused and then quickly said, "I can decipher it, but it will take a lot of time. If you spare my life, I am willing to help you!"

For Franklin, as long as he could survive, it did not matter how. He Wanted to live.

"I don't care whether you can decipher it or not!" Gerald sneered, and then slowly raised the saber in his hand.

"Gerald, please! Let me live! I can help you! I am the leader of Blood Lotus. I can testify that Perrin is working with us so that you can have a fair reason to fight him!" Franklin hurriedly said.

Gerald put down his saber.

He had to admit that what Franklin said was reasonable.

Franklin was the leader of Blood Lotus, and now that he was caught, if he was willing to accuse Perrin, then it was true that Gerald would have a fair reason to fight Perrin.

Carolyn quickly said, "Gerald, this guy is very cunning!"

"Bang!" Gerald knocked Franklin out. He threw Franklin to Charles and said, "Mr. Dominic, please watch over him. When I leave, I will take him with me!"

'Charles didn't refuse.

Gerald slowly exhaled. He took out his phone and dialed Theo's number.

Half an hour later, a voice sounded in the entire Northern District.

"Adam has already died in my hands. From today onwards, I, Scar, will be the Holy Lord of the Northern District!"

Chapter 417 The New Lord of the Northern District

Scar accepted the victorious fruit. He had now been pushed to the front, and many people thought that he was a super expert. When they were outside of this city, as long as Davis didn't announce the truth, there would be another super expert in Gerald's team.

This could make people more afraid of them. Besides, Gerald didn't like to manage people. It was better to let Scar do it.

After everything was done, Gerald informed Scar to come. Theo and Milo took Scar and drove a car wandering through the streets. Then Scar rushed into the manor where Adam lived!

In every Holy Lord's manor, there was a system to broadcast news to the entire district. Adam was the Holy Lord of the Northern District. His manor was surely no exception.

"Adam has already died in my hands. From now on, I, Scar, will be the new Lord of the Northern District!"

"Now, all people who are loyal to Adam put down your weapons! Those who give up resisting will be spared!"

Many people heard the broadcast!

On the rooftop, there was blood on Valery's clothes. On the ground, six European Watchmen died.

There was not a single trace of sympathy on Valery's face. Hearing the voice of Scar on the broadcast, Valery revealed a smile.

"It's over!" Claude put away the gun in his hand. Then, he thought of something and pulled out the saber on his back. He pointed at the sky and muttered, "Terry, we are only one step to success!"

Valery and Kristen felt upset. They also took out their sabers and pointed at the sky.

"Let's go and find Gerald and the others!" After a long silence, Valery put away her saber and said.

www

Jessie, Malcolm, and the others heard the broadcast, too. In fact, they had already seen everything through the telescope.

"He never let us down!" Eileen said excitedly.

But after she said that, her expression became a little sad.

"What's wrong?" Jessie looked at Eileen and asked.

"He said that he would leave the city after everything was over," Eileen said, her voice sounding sad. "Maybe in this city, only he and Davis can freely come and go as they want!"

Hearing Eileen's words, Jessie also fell silent. After a moment, she forced a smile and said, "Let's wait for him at Slum Street!"

Seeing the two girls leave, Paxton looked at Malcolm and said, "It seems that you made the right bet this time!"

"What do you think?" Malcolm asked.

"The team is yours from the start. What I think is not important. The key is what you think," Paxton said calmly.

"Let's join them then!" Malcolm smiled.

On the rooftop, Belinda slowly turned around. Behind her, Aleen quickly came over and asked, "Are you going to Gerald?"

"No!" Belinda smiled brightly, "Go pack up. In a few days, we will leave this city."

Aleen was stunned, and then a smile appeared on her face.

On the roof where the fight had taken place, Charles and Davis had already left with their people. Gerald warned Charles that he must lock Franklin up. He didn't want Franklin to come into contact with Davis. If Davis couldn't resist the temptation and released Franklin, it would be difficult to find Franklin again.

Charles agreed.

Gerald had a kind of instinctive trust toward Charles!

Although Charles was mysterious, Gerald trusted him.

After everyone left, Gerald sat down on the rooftop. He took out a pack of cigarettes, lit one, it in his mouth.

He didn't smoke but just let the cigarette burn on its own.

and put

This was what Terry liked to do after every fight. Wherever they won, Terry would put a cigarette in his mouth and sit right where they fought, letting the cigarette burn itself. Only when his mouth was scalded did he throw it away and replace it with another one.

Terry thought this kind of behavior was cool!

Carolyn sat down next to Gerald, her legs dangling in the air. She grinned and asked, "Gerald, now we are only one step to success. With Franklin's accusation and Wendy as the witness, we can rightfully challenge Perrin!"

"Do you think we could be able to return to Night Watch then?" Carolyn asked.

"Who knows?" Gerald laughed bitterly.

"What do we do after we kill Perrin and avenge Terry's death?" Carolyn asked again.

Gerald fell in silence. He looked up at the sky and muttered, "What else can we do? We are super experts now. We have to take on the responsibility. The war is about to break out. Although the old man wasn't able to protect us this time, we should protect him now. He's old. We can't let him fight go back to Washington and hang out with friends!" anymore. He should

Carolyn chuckled and said, "I wonder if that could work!"

"Who knows? Anyway, I have been issued a Blood Order," Gerald said. Then he threw the cigarette away and lit another one.

Then, Gerald heard footsteps behind him. There were a total of four people. He knew they were Claude, Theo, Valery, and Kristen.

"I thought you would be driving all around," Carolyn said.

Theo smiled and said, "I asked someone else to do it!"

"We... are going to become enemies with Night Watch," Gerald said suddenly. "We would meet many European Watchmen and old friends!"

His words made everyone silent.

Gerald held the cigarette in his mouth and then turned around. "Actually, you can still go back to Night Watch. After all, I am the one who has been expelled. Scar and Milo have three thousand men. After this, there will be more. With nearly 100 top-level men, I can handle it myself!"

Carolyn curled her lips and said, "They all have a new team. I don't have one. Anyway, I haven't go back." returned to Night Watch for more than three years. I won't

"Gerald!" Claude said seriously, "I will follow you wherever you go!"

"We, too!" Theo and Kristen also said.

Valery did not speak. She walked to Gerald's side, reached out her hand, and gently pressed Gerald's temple. Then she murmured, "Do as you wish. I will be with you until we win the final victory."

Chapter 418 Exchange

On the roof of a tall building in the Northern District, six people were sitting there.

"Don't think too much about it," Theo patted Gerald on the shoulder and said, "What if you go over alone and lose your memory again? Without us, what if you become a matrilocal son-in-law and get bullied for another three years?"

Gerald's face darkened!

His history of those three years had been ridiculed all the time!

Hearing Theo's words, Claude smiled and said, "To be honest, I still can't believe that our boss. even never held hands with his beautiful wife for three years. What a model for men!"

Theo also called out, "Boss, is there something wrong with you? Do you need to see Dr. Manning?"

“Can you please stop teasing me?” Gerald sighed.

Kristen said on the side, “You seem to forget that in the end, that woman cheated on our boss and asked for a divorce. Boss, I really feel sorry for you!”

A smile appeared on Valery’s cold face.

Gerald said resignedly to Carolyn, “Before I regained my Vital Energy, these three people bullied me every night. Look at the wounds on my body that haven’t recovered yet. You need to help me!”

Carolyn’s eyes lit up. “Okay, since you’ve ordered…”

“Gerald, how could you use Carolyn against us?” Claude shouted.

“I suddenly remember that I have something to do at night. I have to leave!” Theo said, “By the way, I have been in this city for a long time, but I haven’t had the chance to feel the local customs and meet beautiful girls. I think I’ll go to the Western District first.”

Carolyn grabbed Theo and said, “You are still the same, always talking about girls! Speaking of which, didn’t you even flirt with me before?”

“It has been such a long time! Can we forget it?” Theo cried out.

-Seeing them laughing, Gerald felt relaxed. He stood up and said, “Let’s go back. Scar will take care of the aftermath. Valery, I want to eat steak.”

Valery smiled and nodded. “I’ll make a sumptuous dinner tonight for celebration!”

The group of people chatted and laughed as they walked down the stairs.

At this time, everyone’s attention was on Scar. No one noticed them. Of course, those who came to watch the fight, the big shots of Sin City, all knew how terrifying Gerald was in the fight!

After five years, Gerald came to this city again and still left an indelible impression on people.

Gerald and his group returned to the place where they lived. Except for Jessie, Eileen, and the others, Malcolm and a handsome middle-aged man were also there!

Seeing Gerald and the others come back, Malcolm hurriedly stood up. Unlike the first time they met, he was a little nervous now, as if he was afraid of Gerald.

“Gerald…” Malcolm said.

“Don’t be nervous,” Gerald said, “You are not my enemy. I will not do anything to you.”

“I didn’t expect that you were the Watchman…” Malcolm said.

“I am no longer a Watchman,” Gerald waved his hand and said, “What’s the matter?”

Malcolm gritted his teeth and said, “I want to take my people and join Lightbringers.”

Gerald’s eyes lit up slightly.

He looked at Malcolm and asked, “How many people do have?”

you

“We have 451 people, 12 at the top level. I ranked eighth on the Moon List. This is Paxton Yates, Eileen’s father, ranked 19th on the Moon List,” Malcolm said.

As one of the top teams in the Eastern District, Malcolm’s team had the best men. Plus Gavyn in the Northern District, who ranked ninth on the Moon List, Gerald’s team was full of masters now!

Gerald nodded and said, “Okay, you go to the Northern District and talk with Scar! Or come over tomorrow. I will call Scar over and we can talk.”

“That would be great. We’ll come tomorrow!” Malcolm quickly said. He sensed that Gerald didn’t want to talk about these things right now.

On the side, Jessie and Eileen looked at Gerald and wanted to say something, but they were pulled away by Malcolm and Paxton.

After everyone left, Theo went to close the door. Valery and Kristen went to the kitchen.

Jolie and the others had heard the news of Gerald winning from Jessie. Jolie was very happy. She looked at Gerald and asked, “Can we go back to Sacramento now?”

Gerald rubbed her forehead and said, “Yes! We will set off in a few days. There is still something we need to prepare. We will go to Europe first, and then I will send you back to Sacramento from there!”

Jolie smiled.

She did not like Sin City, and size was indeed incompatible with the city.

Jolie was an ordinary person who lived an ordinary life. She liked to go shopping and watch TV dramas after work. These had become her habits which she could not change.

She wanted to go home, and she didn’t want her family to worry about her.

“How long will it take for us to leave?” Jolie asked.

“This island is in the Western hemisphere. There is no plane, so we will leave by boat. It would take about 10 days to arrive in Europe. Then I will find a plane to send you back to Sacramento!” Gerald said.

Jolie nodded and said, “Okay!”

Roger and his family were also happy. Nikki asked, “Are we also going to the city called Sacramento?”

Gerald nodded and said, “Yes, you will go to Sacramento, too. You will be taken good care of there. When we are done in Europe, we will come to see you.”

“Good!” Roger and his family seemed excited.

Gerald smiled and touched Jenna's head. At this time, Carolyn said, "The three of you come with me to the backyard. It has been three years, but you have not entered the list of the top ten Watchmen. It seems that you have been slacking after Gerald and I left."

Kristen said ingratiatingly, "Carolyn, not everyone is as talented as you and Boss. We have been working hard."

"Don't talk nonsense. Let's practice!" Carolyn said with a sneer.

Soon, there came screams from the backyard!

Gerald walked to the balcony on the second floor and sat down. On the opposite side of the street, Ari had set up a stall. He still wore a pair of sunglasses and waved at Gerald and the others.

Gerald looked at him, jumped down from the balcony, and walked to sit down in front of Ari.

"Do you want me to read your fortune?" Ari asked with a smile.

On the side, Gloria curiously looked at Gerald, and her eyes were shining.

"You are a super expert. Why do you have to do this kind of trick?" Gerald said.

"You don't understand!" Ari chuckled. "If you succeed in deceiving people, you will feel a sense of satisfaction."

Hearing this, the corner of Gerald's mouth twitched slightly.

"I have a favor to ask of you," Ari said suddenly.

Get Born

"What?" Gerald asked.

"If nothing goes wrong, you should be planning to leave this city, right?" Ari took off his sunglasses and said with a sigh, "This city is a cage that we can never get out of for the rest of our lives, but you can come and go as you please!"

"Yes, we will be leaving in a few days," Gerald said.

"Take my granddaughter out!" Ari said, "In exchange, I can tell you one thing."

Chapter 419 Crazy Scientist

Taking one person out?

For Gerald, it was a piece of cake. This time, he intended to take thousands of people out directly. He didn't bother to take one more person.

But what surprised Gerald was that Ari's words sounded like he did not intend to go out with Gerald!

"You don't plan to go out by yourself?" Gerald asked.

Ari smiled and said, "Hehe! Other than those who were born in this city, people have all kinds of reasons to come to this place. I don't want to go out, and I don't dare to go out! So does Belinda!"

“Belinda is not simple at all. Do you really believe that she will follow you out? I know that as a Watchman, you must have conditions to restrain her when she goes out. But Gerald, she is a super expert, so it is not so easy to restrain her,” Ari said.

Gerald touched his nose and said, “I know what to do!”

Ari rubbed Gloria’s head and said, “Well, it’s good that you know what to do. I won’t say more. Will you take Gloria away? If you are willing to marry her, it is best. If you are unwilling, I hope you can take her out and find a job for her. It is even better to let her go to school. She is only seventeen years old. She should get to know a few close friends and enjoy college life, instead of accompanying an old man like me here.”

“Grandpa!” Gloria pouted and said, “Let’s go together. I will not leave without you.”

Ari looked at Gloria and said, “Gloria, listen to me. We will meet again in the future. This city will not be hidden for too long. When the real war breaks out, there is no safe place in this world. I want you to go out and enjoy the normal days outside.”

Gloria did not speak. She pouted. She then looked at Gerald and asked, “Are you willing to marry me?”

Gerald was speechless. “Gloria, you are still underage! I can take you away, but I won’t marry you.

You are so young.

“Alright, then go out and arrange a blind date for her. Find a gentleman with better conditions, OK?” Ari said again.

“She’s only 17 years old. Why are you in such a hurry?” Gerald didn’t know what to say.

Then he changed the subject and asked, “What do you mean by the message that I want to know? Is it related to Perrin?”

Ari said, “About Perrin... I can tell you something. Perrin was an era earlier than Blaine. He has lived for a long time, and you know the secret of his longevity. It is related to Blood Lotus! But what I want to tell you is that the ranking of the Sun List may not be true.”

“What?” Gerald looked at him.

“The Sun List and the Moon List were originally created by Davis. He created two lists for selfish reasons. Of course, Davis is indeed very strong, but he hasn’t fought with Perrin before, so it’s hard to say who is stronger!” Ari said. “They are all people who have reached that level. So did you. But you shouldn’t underestimate Davis!”

Gerald nodded and said, “Got it. This news is for me. What is the other news?”

“Another piece of news is also related to the Sun List. When Davis created the list, there were some people who he did not dare to put on it,” Ari said. “For example, I am not on the list. And Davis does not dare to put Charles on the list. Dr. T is not on the list either.”

At this point, he smiled and said, "As the former Watchman No. 0, you should have heard of this person!"

Gerald took a deep breath and said, "Isn't this person ... dead? His body is..."

"His body?" Ari curled his lips and said, "In this world, there are very few people who know this secret."

He looked at Gerald and asked, "Do you know who I am?"

Gerald said with confusion, "You are Dr. T? I remember that he is a foreigner!"

"No, I'm not!" Ari coughed and said, "But his laboratory was on our side at that time. Then, I was invited by the Night Watch to be his bodyguard. I saw him leave in person back then. The so-called corpse was probably left by him. He wanted the Night Watch to regard him as dead!"

At this point, he licked his lips and said, "Do you know Dax? He works for this person now."

Gerald sucked in a breath of cold air!

This news indeed shocked him!

Dr. T was a genius. Once, he was a scientist working for the Night Watch. He was known as a crazy scientist.

There were a lot of things in the Night Watch invented by him, including the standard sabers and the current combat suits of the Watchmen.

The Watchmen's combat suit could bring out the Vital Energy of the human body to the maximum level, and the standard saber was the key to winning.

Later on, this person did something extremely terrifying. But there was no detailed information. That was forty to fifty years ago. However, at that time, Blaine was forced to kill him!

Then, Blaine announced that Dr. T was dead.

"Where is Dr. T? What is he doing?" Gerald asked.

"I don't know," Ari shrugged his shoulders and said. "No one in this world knows, including Dax."

"So, because of Dr. T, Dax betrayed the Night Watch?" Gerald narrowed his eyes and asked.

"Dax said that he wanted to talk to me several times. It seems that this Dr. T also has his eyes on me," Gerald touched his chin and said suspiciously.

"I guess so!" Ari smiled and said, "And I have to remind you that this crazy scientist is not only powerful in the field of scientific research. This person is an all-around genius. He is also good at martial arts. I even thought that he was stronger than Blaine. But when Blaine stabbed Dr. T, I felt that Dr. T was not that strong.

"Because of that, I was sent to this city for decades!" Ari sighed.

Gerald asked suspiciously, "In other words, Gloria was born in this city? Then what about her parents?"

"Her parents?" Ari put on a self-mocking smile. "I don't know where they are."

"In short, that's all I have to tell you. You should keep this information to yourself. At least now Dr. T seems to have stopped," Ari said. "Now that Dax and Perrin are working together, I am worried. that Perrin and Dr. T may become alliances. When you go to find Perrin, if Dr. T appears, it will be much more difficult to deal with them."

Gerald slowly sighed and said, "This news is really important to me! Thank you!"

Ari waved his hand, then lay down on the chair and said, "Tell me when you leave."

"Okay!" Gerald nodded!

He stood up and went back to Roger's house.

More than an hour later, on the first floor of Roger's house, there was a table full of dishes. They smelt so delicious!

"Oh, what a coincidence. It's time to eat!" At the door, Scar walked in with a face full of excitement and said, "Can I join you?"

He held a bottle of red wine in his hand and said, "I got this from Adam's manor. Damn it! There are many good things inside."

"Hurry up and go take a shower!" Carolyn saw him and said, "And, put on your clothes. Isn't it disgusting?"

Scar scratched his head in embarrassment and walked directly to the bathroom. After taking a shower, he put on his clothes and walked to the table to sit down.

"Has everything been settled?" Gerald asked.

Scar nodded and said, "Yes, the families of the residents in the Northern District have been found. Some of the people on Adam's side have pledged allegiance, and some have left! Some people died in this battle. Now, there are about 3,800 people under our hands. Most of them are above the intermediate level, and there are very few primary ones."

Chapter 420 Invitation From Davis

There were about 3,800 people!

Gerald couldn't help but gasp.

This number of people was really a bit too many.

At this time, Scar pursed his lips and said, "Are you sure you want to take all these people out? This number... is really too big. Will Davis agree?"

"It is not up to Davis," Gerald said calmly.

“I haven’t told them yet. I’m afraid that if I can’t do it, they will not trust me anymore,” Scar coughed and said.

Gerald nodded and said, “You’re right. In fact, I don’t have enough confidence to take all of them away!”

Gerald was not afraid of Davis, but Davis had been here for so many years. He controlled the entire -city, and no one knew how capable he was.

If Gerald wanted to take those people away, he would have to talk to Davis tomorrow and discuss it with him.

Of course, Gerald had one more thing, and it was related to the missing people in Sin City.

Gerald suspected that this matter was just like what Carolyn had experienced. Charles had arranged for people to take away some talented children. However, when he went to that town that day, he did not see any children. He also asked Charles, and Charles denied it.

Then the only one who knew about this matter was probably Davis.

“When are we leaving?” Milo could not wait any longer.

He had been waiting for revenge for 20 years. Now that things were almost done here, he wanted to leave this place as soon as possible. He wanted to go to Europe and kill Perrin!

“In a few days. After we’re done here, we have to make a good plan. We have already waited for 20 years. We can wait for two more days!” Gerald said calmly.

Milo nodded and said, “Yes!”

“Taste this red wine. I saw that the wine was placed on the highest lattice. It’s probably a good bottle of wine,” Scar licked his lips and said.

Gerald smiled. Valery went to the room and took out a few glasses. Everyone poured some wine and raised their glasses. Then they said, “Cheers. For victory!”

Everyone’s glasses were raised in the air.

“Let’s enjoy our food!” Gerald smiled.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

At this time, there was a knock on the door.

Theo got up and ran over to open the door. At the door, Davis’ butler was standing there with his hands behind his back. He wore a smile on his face. Then he saw Gerald and the others eating. He bowed slightly and said, “Ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Hodges is holding a banquet at home to celebrate your victory. Mr. Dominic and Ms. Charlton are also there.”

Gerald looked at the food on the table and looked at Valery.

“We had something to talk to Davis, so let’s go,” as he spoke, he looked at Roger and Nikki and said. “Nikki, you and Jenna eat first. After that, put the food in the refrigerator. When we come back, we’ll heat the food and eat.”

Scar coughed and said, “Well, you go ahead. I won’t go.”

Gerald looked at him and nodded. “Okay!”

“I don’t like to deal with people like him,” Milo said.

As he spoke, his gaze was fixed on that bottle of red wine in front of him. He was probably quite satisfied with the taste of the red wine.

Gerald stood up and said, “Then let’s go!”

“Alright!” Valery and the others said.

Jolie stayed behind. In the end, only six people from Team 11762 drove over. Soon, they arrived at Davis’ manor!

Every time he came to this place, Gerald would sigh in his heart. The life that Davis had was no different from the king’s.

They walked into the dining room, and a long table was placed inside. The table was filled with all kinds of food, which were specially prepared for Gerald and his fellows.

Davis was sitting there. He was holding a glass of red wine, swaying there. When he saw Gerald come over, he smiled slightly, “Please sit!”

Davis was sitting in the main seat. In the secondary seat, Charles was sitting there, while Belinda was sitting beside Charles, not in the other secondary seat.

That seat was for Gerald. Gerald walked over and sat down. And the others also sat down!

“Congratulations!” Davis snapped his fingers. A few people dressed like waiters walked over and poured red wine for them. “Let me toast.”

Gerald nodded, then raised the glass in his hand and said, “Well, before drinking this wine, I have two requests.”

Then he looked at Davis and said, “The first thing, we intend to leave. According to Mr. Dominic’s request, I need to defeat you first. Choose a time and place. Let’s fight. In fact, I don’t like your way of doing things. I have long wanted to beat you.’

Davis was speechless. Then, he smiled and said, “Not necessary. You have already reached my level. You can leave. I have already prepared the ship for you. And the sailors are ready, and the food has been prepared. I guarantee that you will be able to safely reach Sacramento!”

Gerald shook his head and said, “The ship is not enough. I remember you have two luxurious cruise ships in your hands, one that can accommodate two to three thousand people, right?”

The red wine glass that Davis was shaking suddenly stopped. He narrowed his eyes and looked at Gerald, saying, "What are you going to do?"

Gerald smiled slightly, "We are not the only ones who will leave this time. There are also close to 4,000 people from Lightbringers leaving, so I have to borrow your two cruise ships."

When Davis heard this, his expression changed slightly. "Gerald, this is the underground world. Do you know what will happen if 4,000 people from the underground world come to an ordinary city? And there are no rules in this city. They..."

"I will find a way to restrain them myself. You don't have to worry," Gerald said.

"Lend the ships to him!" Charles suddenly said.

Davis looked at Charles's gloomy expression.

Charles let out a breath. He looked at Gerald and said, "Do you know why Blaine did not choose to break all ties with the United Army this time and let you leave?"

"I don't understand!" Gerald waved his hand and said, "I don't want to talk about it anymore."

"You have to listen," Charles said. "Because you have to leave the Night Watch to deal with Perrin.

At that time, it will be easier for you to deal with him."

"We have direct evidence now," Gerald said faintly. "Franklin is willing to testify. I can kill Perrin justifiably."

Charles frowned and said, "You took so many people out. I told you so much because I hope you won't hate Blaine. Sometimes, he has no other choice. You have reached their level, and the Night Watch will be in your hands sooner or later. Leaving is only temporary."

Gerald looked up at Charles and asked, "Are you not going with us?"

"I belong here," Charles said faintly. "Of course, I think we will meet again soon."

Gerald knew what Charles meant. Meeting again meant that the war would start again.

"When do you need the ships?" Davis asked.

Gerald looked at Davis and said, "Three days later!"

Davis nodded and said, "Alright!"

Gerald looked at him with interest.

"Why are you looking at me like that? I gave you the cruise ships. Are you still not satisfied?" Davis asked.

Gerald shook his head and said, "I'm just wondering what your standpoint is."

Davis said with great interest, "You can guess!"

Gerald was not interested in riddles with him. He waved his hand and said, "There is another thing. In this city, some people often disappear mysteriously. I think... You should know what is going on!"

When Davis heard this, his expression suddenly froze, and then he said with a fake smile, "In this city, people are dying and disappearing. Isn't that normal?"
