Chapter 451 Pave the Way With Medals

With a loud sound...

The helicopter flew in the sky. Theo, wearing headphones, drove the helicopter slowly through the mountains.

The country that Gerald chose to fly to was not too far from the headquarters of Watchmen and the United Army.

On the helicopter, Gerald looked at the mountains that were constantly retreating below and then looked at Franklin next to him. His eyebrows twitched slightly as he said, "You won't rebel, will you?"

Franklin hurriedly said, "No!"

In fact, during this period, Franklin was so obedient that Gerald was a little confused.

After being caught by Gerald, he never thought of escaping. Whether it was on the way back from Sin City or on the uninhabited island, he did not even try to escape.

Gerald did not think that such an old fox would accept his fate.

So he was a little puzzled. When Franklin arrived, would he go back on his word on the spot? Would he not only not expose Perrin but also falsely accuse Gerald and then escape with Perrin's help?

Beside him, Wendy looked ambivalent. She looked at Gerald and asked, "Gerald, after I testify for you, will you let me go?"

Gerald looked at her indifferently and said, "Let's talk about it later!"

"We're almost there!" At this time, Theo said.

Gerald looked down through the window, and sure enough, he found that buildings began to emerge below.

The buildings were all European-style.

"Let's go there!" Gerald exhaled and said in a heavy tone.

Finally, this day came.

"There is someone!" At this time, Valery said with a telescope.

Gerald took the telescope and looked at it. He saw that many people were standing at the top of the buildings.

Gerald was not surprised. He was in Europe, and he came here with great fanfare. If European Watchmen did not find him, he would be even more surprised.

At the same time, a voice came from Theo's headphones. "Gerald, Gerald, you have approached the United Army's headquarters. Please land quickly or stay away. Otherwise, you will suffer our indiscriminate attack!"

Gerald was also wearing headphones. He naturally heard this warning. He frowned and said, "Let's land first!"

Claude let out a breath and looked around. He frowned and said, "Send me to that mountain!"

He pointed to a place not far away. Claude nodded. The plane circled and stopped above a mountain. Then the rope was thrown down. Claude and Valery followed the rope and slid down.

If they attacked, Claude would give the key person a fatal blow in this position.

After Claude went down, the plane circled again and landed on relatively flat ground in the forest.

Gerald let out a breath, looked at Franklin, and said, "Go down!"

Franklin calmly jumped down from the helicopter.

"Come with me!" After Theo jumped down, he headed for the headquarters of the United Army.

They were only about 0.6 miles away from the headquarters of Night Watch. They were extremely fast and soon approached the headquarters. Under the stairs, there were many buildings similar to city walls. Inside was the headquarters of Night Watch and the United Army.

The moment Gerald's group of six approached, the door slowly opened to both sides. Immediately after, many people dressed in Watchmen uniforms came out in a line and stood on both sides. Gerald glanced at them and saw that there were about forty people.

They were about a thousand Watchmen from everywhere in the headquarters every year. They were all at the advanced level and above.

Gerald took a look and found that none of them were American Watchmen.

He couldn't help but smile secretively.

That was right. No matter what, it was impossible for American Watchmen to make a move on him.

"Gerald!" At the same time, a slim figure walked out of the door.

She was tall and hot with fiery hair.

Unlike Gerald and the others, she was the only one who only held a huge saber, which was three times bigger than Scar's.

She was wearing a mask, so no one could see her face.

However, Gerald recognized her at a glance. In the battle on Brightjoy Peak, when Gerald became famous, she was his comrade-in-arms, April, from South Australian Night Watch.

"Clang!"

She put the saber on the ground, then stood at the door, and looked up at Gerald.

At the same time, Gerald heard an old voice coming from the broadcast at the door. "Gerald, why is Franklin here? What are you leading the leader of Blood Lotus to our headquarters? Are you working with Blood Lotus? Are you going to betray us?"

"I don't want to fight with you. Leave!" April said from above, "Leonardo will not let you set foot in the United Army's headquarters."

Unlike her figure, she spoke in an unusually gentle voice.

Gerald looked up lightly and said, "I came here for two things!"

"First, I want to ask all of you in the United Army. Why did you expel me from Night Watch? Where did you get the right to fire me?" Gerald looked at April calmly.

"Second, I am here to prove that Perrin is the traitor of the Night Watch. He colluded with Blood Lotus. Three years ago, he killed my brother, Terry, and caused me to be seriously injured and lose my memory. He caused Watchman No. 2 to escape for three years!"

April frowned deeply when she heard this.

After a moment, she looked up and said lightly, "You carry a Blood Order. Logically, I should have attacked you directly, but at Brightjoy Peak, you and I were comrades-in-arms. You saved me and saved my friends, so I refrain from attacking you. What I said is the result that the United Army agreed on after discussion. I..."

"You can try to stop me!" Gerald said indifferently.

After that, he took a step towards the door.

"Pull out your sabers!" April shouted coldly.

"Clang!"

"Clang!"

"Clang!"

The surrounding people, the people on the walls of the city, and the people on top of the houses, all pulled out their sabers at this moment.

Because of the time difference, it was almost evening in Europe. The sun was setting, and the shadows of Gerald and a large group of people were drawn very long.

The moment they saw that the group of Watchmen really pulled out their sabers at them, Carolyn and Theo, who were following beside Gerald, couldn't help but reveal a bitter smile.

These people were once their comrades-in-arms. Now, they were actually aiming their sabers at them.

Everything that had happened before, whether it was a Blood Order or being expelled from Night Watch, Gerald had always been resentful.

Everything he had was given by Watchmen. He had a strong sense of belonging to Watchmen. However, the moment these people drew their sabers, that sense of belonging quickly collapsed.

He took off his mask with two sabers on his back.

“You can’t stop me.” Gerald raised his head and looked at April.

“I don’t want to fight with you. I don’t believe what they said, but I am a warrior. I have to carry out the order. I may not be your match, but if you want to cross this door, you have to cross my body!” April said indifferently and then pointed her long saber at Gerald.

“For every being who is breathing!” April said.

“We devote ourselves to the future we want!”

“We shall never give up!”

This was the slogan of Watchmen, and they shouted it out in French.

“Carolyn.” Gerald stretched out a hand to the side.

Carolyn nodded and handed Gerald a package.

Seeing this, April frowned slightly. She didn’t know what Gerald was going to do.

At this time, she saw Gerald open the package. When she saw everything in the package, her pupils contracted violently.

She saw that in the package, there were badges of various colors. They filled the package.

“These are all the medals I have obtained during my six years at Night Watch!” Gerald said indifferently, “I don’t want to fight with you. I came here today just to seek justice. Today, I will pave the way with my achievements and scatter all my medals. After today, I will cut off with Night Watch!”

As he spoke, he picked up a blue medal and walked forward. He said indifferently, “This medal is obtained when I carried out my first mission to attack pirates and rescue hostages. It is a third-class merit citation. This is also my only blue medal.”

Gerald said and threw the medal at his feet.

Chapter 452 Stepping Forward on the Medals

“Thud!”

The blue medal fell to the ground.

All the Watchmen were stunned. They looked at the package in Gerald’s hand, which was full of medals. Like Gerald, they were members of Night Watch, and they all knew what these medals.

meant.

Obtaining a medal of merit was very difficult, even if it was a third-class merit medal!

However, in addition to that third-class medal, there were many medals inside Gerald's package, all of which were of higher rank.

Among them, there were first-class merit medals, special merit medals, and the Medal of Star Glory that Gerald was awarded!

Until then, they realized that the young man standing in front of them was also a hero of Night Watch.

He had lost countless blood for Night Watch. He had used Death Storm and placed himself in a dangerous situation several times.

He was a hero of Night Watch!

I

April frowned deeply. Gerald was close to the gate. He took out the second medal.

"This medal was awarded to me in Asia. In that battle, I led the team to kill three Red Card Assassins, got the second-class merit citation, and won the purple second-class merit medal!"

"Thud!"

After saying that, Gerald threw the medal on the ground.

Then he walked to April's side.

April was holding a long saber in her hand. She frowned because none of the men with sabers did anything at this moment.

April let out a bitter laugh.

She then placed the saber on the ground and made way for Gerald.

Immediately after that, Gerald led his team through the gate and officially stepped into the base of the United Army.

There were many monitors inside a tall building in the headquarters of the United Army.

And there were many people standing in front of the monitors, including Leonardo, a few managing directors, and Billy!

The director of European Night Watch frowned and said, "What is April doing? Why did she let him in? Carl, I know the South Australian Night Watch has always had a good relationship with the American Night Watch. But what are you guys doing? Are you trying to fawn on the American Watchmen now?"

Hearing this, a strong man raised his eyebrows. He looked up at the director of European Night Watch and said, "You'd better watch your mouth. Do you want to fight?"

Billy was lying on a sofa and watching the show. Suddenly, he frowned.

“What’s wrong with these people?” The others also realized that something was wrong. Because the first level of alarm was turned on, all the Watchmen in the headquarters of the United Army had gone out. There were nearly 2,000 Watchmen here, and there were many Watchmen in the streets and on the roofs of the buildings.

Apart from the American Watchmen, everyone else had gone out.

But at this moment, no one made a move against Gerald.

Wherever Gerald passed, the Watchmen all put down their sabers or put their sabers into the sheaths.

“He is...” When Billy saw Gerald’s actions, his expression suddenly changed, and he sat up violently from his seat.

“It seems that he is really sad,” the old man, beside Billy, sighed slightly.

“It’s all your fault! Fuck!” Billy cursed.

At this moment, there were many people in this place where the surveillance videos could be seen, but they fell into a short silence.

Only the director of European Night Watch said loudly, “Tell them to take action. If it goes on like this, Gerald and his team may come directly towards us.”

Leonardo frowned. He did not want to say anything, but when he thought of what Perrin said before, he gritted his teeth, pressed a button, and then said into the microphone, “Attention to everyone, surround Gerald and kill him!”

Leonardo’s voice echoed throughout the town.

When Gerald heard it, the look in his eyes grew colder.

He took out a purple medal and muttered, “This medal was obtained in the North. I was 20 years old that year...”

“This medal was also obtained in the North when I was 20 years old...”

Every time Gerald took out a medal, he described the origin of the medal.

His merit medals made almost all the Watchmen’s throats a little dry.

On the top of a mountain far away, Valery was looking through the binoculars, and so was Claude. Both of their gazes were somewhat heavy.

To pave the way with medals!

Gerald was paving the way for himself to move forward with all the medals he had won in Night Watch!

When he finished this journey, he would leave all his glory behind. It meant that Gerald seemed to intend to withdraw from Night Watch.

“He is heartbroken!” Valery sighed.

“If they had done this to me, I would have been sad too!” Claude said. “Our partner was killed by Perrin, but instead of admitting his guilt, Perrin took Gerald to the United Army’s court. Then, without evidence, the United Army voted to expel Gerald from Night Watch. Blaine knew the truth, but he didn’t try his best to defend Gerald!”

Valery frowned and said, “We all know what Blaine thinks of Gerald. He didn’t help Gerald from being expelled, probably because he had something to fear. If Blaine had tried his best at that time, it might have confirmed Perrin’s claim that American Night Watch wanted to be dominant. That’s not what Blaine wants to see.”

Claude curled his lips and said, “I didn’t expect that these people would be so afraid of such fabricated words. In this case, there is no need for us to fight together with them anymore. It’s better for us to leave. In the future, we can find a place and gather all our family members together. Although we can’t protect other people, it’s no problem to protect our relatives and friends. And we have a lot of industries now. That’s enough for us to live on.”

Hearing what Claude said, Valery frowned slightly and didn’t say anything else!

At the same time, in a tall building, Billy looked at Leonardo intently. He was angry at first, and then he showed a relieved smile. He spread his hands and said with a slight smile, “You want to know what Gerald is doing, right? He is paving the way with medals. Look at the medals in his package. Those are the ones he has obtained in Night Watch over the past six years. Since he became Watchman No. 0 in the third year after joining Night Watch, he has participated in almost all large-scale missions around the world. But you voted to expel him and issued the Blood Order to him. The medals he has won are something you will never have in your lifetime!”

Billy gritted his teeth and continued, “Now, Gerald is paving the way with medals, and he will leave all his glory behind. It means he has been completely disappointed in you. And it also means he may leave Night Watch from today on!”

The building fell into silence once again!

After a moment, Leonardo gritted his teeth and said, “Gerald killed the family members of a hero. He deserves to die. The merit cannot offset the demerit!”

After that, Leonardo spoke into the microphone again, “What are you doing? I now order all the Watchmen in the headquarters to surround Gerald and kill him! Hurry up!”

However, no one moved!

Everyone was compassionate. Seeing that Gerald placed the medals one by one on the ground and led his team to step forward on the medals, all the people were silent.

They slowly lowered their raised sabers. Some of those who had worked with Gerald bowed their heads, and there were tears in their eyes.

In such a case, Gerald passed through the long road, and the medals kept falling!

Blue, purple, gold...

Every time Gerald walked a distance, a medal lay on the ground, shining brightly!

The medals, showing the honor of Watchmen, were spread all the way at this time. It was touching.

Unknowingly, Gerald had approached that tall building. At this moment, the package was gone, and there were only two medals left in his hand. He froze for a moment and then pinned the medals on his chest!

One of the two medals was so bright that it shone like the stars in the sky!

It was the Medal of Star Glory, representing the highest honor of the Watchmen.

Since the founding of Night Watch, only three people had been awarded this medal!

The first one was won by Perrin!

The second one was won by Blaine!

And the third one was won by Gerald.

Chapter 453 Questioning

Another gold medal was obtained by Gerald three years ago. Terry died in that battle.

Gerald pinned the two medals on his chest and gently touched them. Then, he took the Medal of Star Glory off.

At this moment, all eyes were on Gerald. Every Watchman stared fixedly at him. As they looked at the medal that represented the highest honor of the Watchmen, their hearts were in their throats.

All the Watchmen wondered if Gerald was really going to throw this medal away.

Gerald looked up at the tall building. Then he said lightly, "I got this medal on Brightjoy Peak when I joined in the first large-scale battle. Most of the people present took part in the battle. This is the medal of the highest honor I have gained. It is called... Medal of Star Glory!"

After saying that, Gerald slowly exhaled and then released his hand. The shining medal slowly fell to the ground.

Behind Gerald, Carolyn was touched, and there were moving expressions on Theo's and Milo's faces.

There was dead silence!

"Thud!"

The medal fell on the ground and made a crisp sound. After several consecutive bounces on the ground, this medal lay quietly on the ground. Gerald continued forward and walked downstairs.

There was only the golden medal left on his chest at this time.

Gerald looked up at the tall building.

At this point, in front of the countless display screens in the tall building, the representatives of various countries were silent.

Only Billy's voice was heard. "Blaine, it's all over. This guy is crazy. He is paving the way with the medals. I'm afraid... he is really going to get out of Night Watch. He may not understand your thoughts. After all, he is quite young. Such grievances are too much for him to bear..."

At this point, Billy froze for a moment, and then he stared fixedly at one of the screens in front of him.

"What's wrong?" A voice came from the phone.

"He... threw the Medal of Star Glory on the ground," Billy muttered.

In the far east, Zackary was answering the phone in an office at the headquarters of American Night Watch. Next to Zackary, Blaine was sitting somewhat angrily. As he heard Zackary pause, his expression changed slightly. He frowned and asked, "What's wrong?"

"That guy..." Zackary exhaled and went on, "He entered the headquarters of the United Army and paved the way with the medals. Just now, he threw away his Medal of Star Glory."

"Little bastard!" Blaine slammed the table. Then the solid wooden table in front of him instantly broke apart.

"Ahem, haven't you thought about it?" At this time, Zackary suddenly smiled. "This guy's personality is quite similar to yours in some ways."

Hearing this, Blaine frowned and sat back down on the chair.

At this point, Gerald led his team to the bottom of the tall building. Then he looked up and said lightly, "Leonardo, everyone, come down!"

He looked up at the top of the tall building.

There was a burst of footsteps above the building. Billy rushed down first. He looked at Gerald in the distance and wanted to say something.

Seeing that there was still a medal on Gerald's chest, Billy was slightly relieved. But looking at the Medal of Star Glory on the ground, he was a little distressed.

Billy did not expect that one day the medal representing the highest honor of the Watchmen would be thrown on the ground.

Soon, a large group of people walked out. These people were all the representatives of the Night Watch from various countries, a total of dozens of people.

They came down from upstairs in droves, and Leonardo was walking in the front.

Behind Gerald, April and the others also walked over. They did not attack and just followed behind Gerald all the way. They watched as Gerald threw the medals one by one on the ground.

And they were silent!

“Gerald!” Leonardo sneered. “Do you think you can leave here safely today by such a trick?”

Gerald grinned and said, “You announced before that you have expelled me from Night Watch, but I haven’t decided to leave, so I haven’t done anything to you. After all, these people are still my colleagues. But I have said that I will pave the way with the medals. When the last medal falls on the ground, I will no longer be a Watchman. Whether you issued the Blood Order to me before or attack me now, I will take action!”

After that, he looked around at the Watchmen at the scene, who numbered more than 1,000. “There are only four of us here. Oh, there are two more people on the mountain. You can try if you can keep me. Or, you can wait and see how many casualties you will suffer if you try to keep me.”

Wildly arrogant!

Gerald was still the same wildly arrogant as before!

That was what Gerald was, and that was what they thought of Gerald.

He was the Slaughterer in the underground world and the strongest weapon of Night Watch!

After saying that, Gerald looked at Leonardo and continued, “No matter what, I will get out of Night Watch today. But before that, I have two questions to ask you!”

He pointed at Leonardo and said, “You old bastard, I have fought outside for many years in order to guard Night Watch. And I have made countless battle achievements. But you stay at the headquarters every day. You are just a waste. Who are you to expel me from Night Watch?”

Gerald showed no respect to Leonardo.

Leonardo’s face turned very red. He then sneered, “According to Mr. Dempsey, two of his family members were killed by you in America!”

“Where is the evidence? Take it out and show it to everyone!” Gerald asked.

Leonardo froze for a moment.

He certainly had no evidence.

Leonardo pretended to be tough and said, “Evidence? Mr. Dempsey’s words are evidence. He is a hero of Night Watch. Would he falsely accuse a junior like you for no reason?”

“Ho, so there is no evidence. You believe Perrin just because he has said a few words? Are you all Perrin’s dogs?” As Gerald spoke, his eyes fell on the group of representatives behind Leonardo.

“Perrin said that American Night Watch might be dominant, and then you believed it?” Gerald curled his lips. “If you choose to believe Perrin, I’ll quit today. Then you can continue to be so stupid. By then, Blaine will also quit. When the war breaks out in the future, you will have to rely on yourselves!”

After Gerald finished speaking, the expressions of the representatives changed slightly!

In fact, they were very conflicted.

They all knew that Blaine was very powerful, Gerald was very talented, and Blaine was their hope!

However, they did not want the American Watchmen to be too powerful. They wanted to keep American Night Watch pinned down.

Therefore, even though there was no evidence, many of them voted to expel Gerald!

Gerald looked at Leonardo and sneered, “So, you expel me without any evidence? Perrin is your hero, but so am I. The battle on Brightjoy Peak has just passed, but it seems that you have forgotten.”

Hearing Gerald’s questioning, many people lowered their heads in shame. They felt guilty and did not dare to look at Gerald.

Gerald chuckled, then waved his hand and said, “Forget it, I don’t want to argue with you anymore. Anyway, from today on, I will leave Night Watch. If you still want to deal with me, just do it. I will fight against you!”

Billy sighed at the side. He wanted to stop Gerald, but he did not speak anything eventually!

At this time, Gerald said lightly, “The second thing I came here today is to tell you that my purpose of coming to Europe this time is to kill Perrin! Do any of you object to it?”

“What?”

After Gerald finished, an uproar was sparked!

“He is going to kill Mr. Dempsey!”

“Is he really crazy?”

There was a heated discussion!

Perrin had a great reputation among the Watchmen in Europe and even the entire world.

Therefore, Gerald’s words shocked everyone.

Leonardo sneered, “Sure enough it did. Gerald, are you coming here with Franklin to declare war on us? You want to tell us you’re joining Blood Lotus and being on the wrong side of us, right? Everyone, listen up. Gerald has betrayed us. Hurry up and kill him!”

Chapter 454 Speaking the Truth

Looking at Leonardo, who was a bit annoyed, Gerald chuckled and said, "Didn't you say that I killed two of Perrin's family members?"

Speaking of this, he smiled and then went on, "Well, I can tell you that I did kill them!"

At this moment, there was an uproar!

Countless people looked at Gerald in shock. Some people who had put down their sabers raised them again.

Perrin did a great job of self-promotion, so he had a very strong influence among the Watchmen, especially among the European Watchmen, who worshipped him.

Gerald said that he killed Perrin's family members, which was equivalent to confirming the charge Perrin made against him earlier. Thus, some people directly raised their sabers.

Leonardo was wild with joy. He shouted, "Did you hear that? Gerald offered to admit it. Both Farris and Sean were killed by him. All Watchmen, listen up, catch Gerald, alive or dead!"

Gerald chuckled and said, "So before I admitted it, you convicted me without a fucking shred of evidence. You're a fucking genius!"

"Haha!" Behind Gerald, Carolyn could not help but laugh. Gerald continued to say, "And you never gave me a chance to explain.

"The second thing I came here today is to tell you that I want to kill Perrin!" Gerald glanced at everyone and said lightly, "I will tell you what the reason is!"

After that, he shouted, "Milo!"

Milo took the initiative to step forward and then took off his mask!

When Billy saw Milo, the muscles in his face trembled slightly, and he said, "Milo!"

Billy and Milo were Watchmen of the same era. In their generation, Milo was one of the most dazzling people.

Seeing Milo, Billy was a little excited and trembling. "This person is Milo. Twenty years ago, he was in the top ten of the American Watchmen. He once joined in the competition on behalf of the American Night Watch at Exploro. After that, he was sent to Sin City, and I brought him out!" Gerald said in a flat voice.

When Milo heard what Gerald said, a somewhat moved expression appeared on his aged face.

"Three years ago, I took Watchman No. 7 and No. 2 to Los Angeles to carry out a mission. In that battle, No. 7 died. He was killed by Franklin. No. 2 went missing, and I lost my memory for three years!" Gerald went on.

"In that battle, the people of Blood Lotus and Dark Phantom seemed to know all the routes of the retreat we had set. After we seized the target item, there was no way to escape," Gerald continued evenly.

“Two months ago, I was carrying out a mission in Washington! My family lived in Sacramento. Wendy, who came from Sin,City, kidnapped my younger female cousin and brought her to Sin City, with the intention of luring me there! In Sin City, I saw Alan, the Watchman from Europe!”

Hearing this, everyone was in an uproar!

Alan had an extremely high status among the European Watchmen.

He was the sixth on the Sun List.

“Oh, he has been killed by me. Don’t be shocked, you guys!” seeing their looks, Gerald curled his lips and said disdainfully.

These words caused another uproar in the crowd, and more people raised their sabers.

Leonardo roared at Gerald in a rage, “Gerald, how dare you do such a thing? Alan is at the super level, and he is the treasure of Night Watch. When the war breaks out in the future, he will be the one who rushes to the front! How dare you kill him!”

Gerald sneered and said, “In Sin City, he joined forces with Adam, Dax, and Jordan, a former member of Blood Lotus. They were all at the super level. They were united and tried to kill me. Do you think I should kill him?”

“Don’t bullshit!” Leonardo was furious. “Mr. Hiebert is the god of war of European Night Watch. How could he ally with the former member of Blood Lotus?”

“Why not? Franklin is here. He was caught by me in that battle. Dax was also caught by me. He is now watched over by American Watchmen. If you don’t believe me, you can go ask!” Gerald still said in a flat tone.

“Of course, this matter is not led by Alan. All of this is planned by Perrin, by your hero!” Gerald said.

“Perrin colluded with Blood Lotus many years ago and learned how to extend his life.

“Twenty years ago, Milo, the American Watchman, led the team to participate in the competition. Perrin killed them and drank their blood to extend his life!

“Three years ago, Perrin colluded with Blood Lotus and framed me. Watchman No. 7 died on the spot. No. 2 disappeared. I was seriously injured and dying, and I lost my memory for three years!

“After I recovered my memory, I got in touch with American Night Watch. Perrin had an insider there. The insider knew the news about me and informed Perrin. Then Perrin quickly sent Sean to look for me. My partner was killed by Perrin, but I had no evidence, so I didn’t come to him for revenge. But Sean appeared. He took Saul, the leader of Dark Phantom, and found me. Sean injured No. 2, and I killed him!

“Later, Farris colluded with Saul and Dax and wanted to kill me. In that battle in Washington, Dax was beaten back by me, and Saul died on the spot!

“In order to kill me, Farris asked Wendy to take away my younger female cousin. My cousin was just an ordinary person. She was brought to Sin City. Farris did it just to force me to go there. After I found him, he was shot on the spot by American Watchman No. 12!

“Farris threatened me with my cousin’s life and told me to reach the Fantasy Hotel in Sin City within three days. During that time, I couldn’t use Vital Energy. He wanted to take the opportunity to kill me!”

Gerald murmured all of this. The more he said, the heavier the incredible expressions on all faces!

“Stop talking nonsense.” Leonardo gritted his teeth. “Mr. Dempsey is a hero of Night Watch. He used to...”

“That’s who he used to be!” Gerald looked at Leonardo calmly. “He has changed a long time ago. The two people I bring today are witnesses!”

Gerald looked at Wendy as he said.

Wendy briefly told everyone about what happened in Sacramento.

Leonardo sneered, “Do you think we will believe you because you have brought a few people and made up a few stories? Perrin is the hero of Night Watch. He could not have done such things.”

“Ahem!” At this time, Franklin took the initiative to say, “That’s true. Perrin has been working with us for many years. Much of the information we got was leaked by him. I am a dying man. It doesn’t matter whether you believe me or not.”

“It’s impossible!” Leonardo was furious. He shouted, “Gerald, you are colluding with Blood Lotus and trying to frame the hero of Night Watch. Do you think you will be allowed to succeed? Everyone, raise your sabers. For every being who is breathing, kill Gerald!”

Gerald looked indifferently at Leonardo, who got annoyed, and said, “I have brought witnesses and said so much, but you don’t believe me. Perrin just said a few words and didn’t have any evidence at all, but you want to expel me from Night Watch because of his words! You guys... do stick to the original idea!

“I have said what I should say. And I came here today to tell you all that. I want to deal with Perrin for good reason! Whether you believe it or not, or if you want to investigate it, it has nothing to do with me. From today on, I am no longer a Watchman!” Gerald said in a flat voice. “I will make a move on Perrin tomorrow. If you want to help Perrin, then... I will fight against you!”

Speaking of this, Gerald looked into the distance. The sun had completely gone down.

It was like the end between Gerald and Night Watch!

Gerald turned around and said, “Let’s go!”

Chapter 455 Are You Buying Time?

Gerald turned around. He glanced at Franklin indifferently. Theo pressed Franklin’s head and said, “Now, go!”

The group of six slowly walked out.

Gerald took a few steps and found that the large group of Watchmen standing behind him did not seem to want to get out of the way. The Watchmen stood there, seemingly unwilling to let Gerald leave.

April also showed a little complicated expression at this time.

What Gerald said just now brought them too much shock.

Perrin was the first recipient of the Medal of Star Glory.

However, Gerald said that Perrin cooperated with Blood Lotus to prolong his life, killing Watchmen and becoming the spy of Blood Lotus in the Night Watch. All of this sounded incredible.

Blood Lotus and the Night Watch were now completely on the opposite side.

At this time, everyone knew that the war was getting closer and closer. This news was undoubtedly a bolt out of the blue for them.

They did not want to believe it!

“Gerald, do you think we will believe this dirty trick? Everyone, listen up! Raise the sabers in your hands. Gerald has betrayed the Night Watch. Gerald wants to kill our hero. Kill him now and let him stay here forever. Otherwise, when the war breaks out, he will be our greatest enemy,” Leonardo shouted.

To some extent, Leonardo was a faithful fan of Perrin. Leonardo did not believe that Perrin would do such things.

When Leonardo heard that Gerald was going to attack Perrin, he was completely flustered.

Leonardo wanted to kill Gerald now.

“Aha,” Gerald sneered. Gerald ignored Leonardo’s words and raised his head. Gerald looked at the group of people blocking his way and asked indifferently, “I am no longer a Watchman. If you want to attack me, you can do it. But... I will resist!”

After saying that, Gerald gave a cynical laugh.

April twitched her mouth slightly. April and Gerald were friends, and she received Gerald’s favor, so she knew Gerald’s character.

Moreover, the medals along the way were still on the ground. The Medal of Star Glory was dazzling on the ground, and the golden one hanging on Gerald’s chest seemed to be the last.

Gerald kept this one and planned to give it to Perrin tomorrow.

Leonardo was still roaring in anger.

However, no one made a move. They all stood where they were and no one spoke.

Although Perrin was a hero, Gerald was also a hero.

Everyone had his consideration. Many people believed what Gerald said, but they found it hard to accept the truth.

It was a crazy day for the Watchmen of the world. When the news spread, the entire world would probably be stirred.

It was just like when Gerald left the Night Watch, a Blood Order was issued.

Perrin's influence in the Night Watch was terrifying.

"Get out of my way!" Gerald looked indifferently at April, who was holding a giant saber.

April pursed her lips and moved to the side.

"April, what do you want to do? Are you going to let the traitor of the Night Watch leave?" Seeing that April stepped aside, Leonardo roared angrily, "What are you all standing there for? Attack and kill Gerald!"

After saying that, Leonardo shouted, "Kadin, kill Gerald now."

When Gerald noticed that Kadin was here, he was slightly surprised.

Kadin, ranking 4th on the Sun List, came from Washington!

Gerald met Kadin in Washington before. However, according to Gerald's information, Kadin should not be a Watchman. Gerald wondered why Kadin suddenly appeared in the headquarters of the United Army.

However, no matter how loudly Leonardo roared, no one made a move.

The scene of Gerald paving the way with the medals amazed everyone here. The medals on the ground, especially the Medal of Star Glory, shocked all the people.

Seeing April move aside, other people besides her also moved aside, slowly making way for Gerald and the other five people. They were willing to let Gerald leave here.

Seeing this scene, Leonardo showed a miserable expression on his face, and Franklin also turned a scared face.

The reason why Franklin came to help Gerald testify was that Franklin wanted to buy time. If Franklin did not do so, then he might have died when he was in Sin City.

Franklin thought that after he testified, Gerald and Perrin would fight against each other. At that time, Franklin could use his explosive power to enter the super level, and then take advantage of the chaos to escape!

As a result, Franklin underestimated the influence of Gerald in the Night Watch. At this moment, no Watchman had made a move against Gerald.

The most important thing was that Perrin did not even come to the headquarters of the Night Watch.

If Franklin left now, there was only one way out, and that meant death!

Franklin's expression was somewhat pale.

But if Franklin stayed, as the leader of Blood Lotus, the United Army would not let him leave so easily.

This made Franklin feel a little desperate!

Although Franklin could leave this place later, he would only have a dead end.

Franklin constantly searched for a way to stall for time.

Meanwhile, Gerald slowly left along the crowd.

Seeing Gerald leave safe and sound, Leonardo was a little anxious. Suddenly, Leonardo gritted his teeth!

"Clang!"

Leonardo suddenly pulled out a saber from the hands of a Watchman next to him, and he let out his strength, rushing straight to Gerald.

Leonardo entered the top level, and he rushed to Gerald.

Gerald did not turn back. Instead, Carolyn turned around to look at Leonardo coldly. At the same time, Carolyn also released her power, and the Sapphire Star suddenly came out of its sheath!

"Bang!"

Leonardo, who rushed over, was sent back and smashed into a house.

"The Super expert!"

"The Super expert!"

Recurrent cheers broke out. All the people looked at Carolyn in shock!

Gerald and Carolyn both entered the super level.

They were the best of the Watchmen of their generation, Watchman No. 0 and Watchman No. 2 of American Night Watch.

And now, both of them broke into the super level.

In the long history of the Night Watch, super experts were extremely rare. Now, Gerald and Carolyn both entered the super level, walking ahead of the rest of their generation.

And they have already left the Night Watch.

"You're so weak!" Carolyn looked at Leonardo not far away with disdain.

They then slowly left along the street.

All the people standing only watched them leave. No one made a move. At this time, all of them showed complicated expressions.

This once rebellious super genius brought his team members and left the Night Watch forever.

Before the war broke out, the Night Watch had lost two super experts. Everyone knew that the Night Watch was at a disadvantage.

Billy looked at what happened and sighed.

Billy did not know what the others were thinking. He only knew that the American Night Watch had already suffered a loss.

Gerald and the other five people passed through the streets and the arches and walked down a road.

On a distant mountain, Valery put away her binoculars and sighed, "Let's go there, too!"

Claude nodded. He carried the sniper rifle on his back, turned around, and rushed in the direction of the helicopter.

After more than ten minutes, they finally arrived in front of the helicopter. Gerald stopped, turned around, and looked at Franklin. Gerald said indifferently, "It's time to deal with you!"

When Franklin saw Gerald's eyes, Franklin felt so fearful.

"Gerald, I have something to tell you. I have something to show you about the Night Watch," Franklin hurriedly said. "This news is worthwhile for you!"

Gerald frowned and said, "Are you buying time?"

"I want to live a few more days, but I didn't lie to you. It is useful to you," Franklin hurriedly explained.

Gerald frowned.

"Gerald!" At that moment, a loud voice sounded. Gerald saw two figures approaching him from afar!

Chapter 456 Be Careful With Jaden

Looking at the two people who came down, Gerald was slightly shocked. The people who came were Billy and Kadin.

Billy and Kadin walked to Gerald's side. Kadin smiled and said, "I didn't expect that we would meet again in such a situation after we parted in Washington last time. The things are still there, but we are no longer the same."

"Gerald!" Beside Kadin, Billy also sighed and said, "I know what you are thinking. Blaine did not say anything, but no matter what, the American Night Watch has always been on your side. This time, it is indeed our fault for having failed to protect you well and made you suffer such a huge grievance."

Gerald smiled and said, "It's nothing."

"You should make allowances for Blaine. He can't do anything about it. He has to take the whole picture into consideration." Billy said, "And... The war might break out at any time. We still hope that you can help!"

Gerald waved his hand and said, "I can't make allowances for Blaine. Anyway, if this happens to Blaine that he will be expelled from the Night Watch, I would not let him suffer if I were in his position, even if it means I have to directly leave the Night Watch."

Billy was stunned, but he thought for a moment and realized that this was indeed something that Gerald would do.

Kadin smiled and said, "Let's forget about it. Are you sure you will make a move on Perrin.

tomorrow?"

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, I will go to Exploro tomorrow. If a lot of Watchmen go to help Perrin, I will not let them go either. The men I've brought here are all of the top levels, and every one of them is comparable to the top 100 in the entire European Night Watch!"

That was true. A lot of the Watchmen, who Gerald had brought, were of the top level, and with three of them, who were of the super level, present, Gerald had nothing to be afraid of even if the Watchmen in Europe made a move.

Kadin frowned, then looked at Gerald and said, "I have to remind you that Perrin is actually very strong.

Gerald said lightly, "How is Perrin compared to Davis?"

"Although Davis ranks second on the Sun List, second only to Blaine, Davis has never fought with Perrin. No one knows who is stronger." Kadin said, "Both Perrin and Davis have reached another level which I'm just getting close to. Moreover, it has been many years since Perrin got into a fight. No one knows whether Perrin has improved or regressed during this period of time!"

Gerald nodded and said, "I see. By the way, I remember that you are not a Watchman, right? Why are you here?"

Kadin smiled bitterly and said, "Blaine asked me to come over. Blaine and Zackary came to find me before, saying that the war was about to begin and no one would be able to stand by. Blaine hoped that I could come out and join the United Army, representing the American Night Watch."

Gerald looked at Kadin in surprise, then nodded and said, "I got it!"

"Of course, I came to you this time mainly to tell you something." Kadin pondered and said, "You know Jaden, right?"

Gerald raised his eyebrows and nodded. "Yes."

Jaden, the boss of the underground casino in Washington, was a very mysterious man. Gerald had contacted Jaden before, but Jaden did not show up at that time. And Gerald had once dealt with Jaden and obtained two pieces of Dragon Bone from Jaden. Moreover, Gerald was relatively familiar with Nova, Jaden's granddaughter.

At that time, Gerald and Jaden had reached a deal that Jaden would provide Gerald with some information about Dragon Bone, and Gerald had to protect Nova when the war broke out in the future.

"What happened to Jaden?" Gerald asked.

"Blaine asked me to bring you a message." Kadin paused and said, "Be careful with Jaden!"

Gerald paused and frowned. "Just this? Put it straight."

Blaine should have known Gerald was in cooperation with Jaden, so Gerald believed that it was Zackary who asked Kadin to say that rather than Blaine, and only Zackary liked to say something confusing like that.

"Jaden works for Dr. T," Kadin said.

When Gerald heard this, his eyebrows twitched slightly.

Gerald had never dealt with this so-called Dr. T before, but there were indeed many rumors about Dr. T.

Gerald did not expect that Jaden was also one of Dr. T's men. Moreover, the men of this organization seemed to be very low-key and did not seem to be very active. The only one of them Gerald knew was Dax. Dax would show up occasionally to do something and then quickly disappear.

"Got it!" Gerald exhaled.

Kadin said, "In short, no matter what, be careful!"

Gerald looked up and smiled at Billy and Kadin. "Okay! Then we will go first!"

At this time, not far away, Valery and Claude walked over.

When Claude saw Billy, C

frowned slightly. There had been some bad times between the two.

Claude snorted coldly and did not also pursed his lips. Then Billy said to Gerald, "Then be careful!"

Gerald nodded.

The helicopter slowly took off again. This time, the destination was an uninhabited island.

Three hours later, on the helicopter, Gerald saw several ships on the sea outside the uninhabited island. Gerald looked down and Theo cursed, "Damn it, do you think the Watchmen of Europe will take action tomorrow? I feel that they have a kind of almost fanatical faith in Perrin."

Gerald said, "Who knows!"

"What if they really fight against us?" At this time, Valery asked, "Many of them have fought side by side with us. We really..."

"We'll talk about it when the time comes," Gerald said, waving his hand.

In fact, Gerald did not know what he would do when the time came.

These Watchmen were innocent. They knew nothing about what Perrin had done. They chose to help Perrin only because of faith.

The helicopter whirled past, slowly heading towards the uninhabited island.

At the same time, at the headquarters of the United Army, in Leonardo's office, Leonardo was wearing some bandages. He had been seriously injured by Carolyn.

Leonardo sat in his office, his phone on speaker. A cold voice came from the phone. "Leonardo, do you not take my words seriously now? Gerald came to the headquarters of the United Army and left safely!"

"Mr. Dempsey!" Leonardo smiled bitterly, "I gave orders several times, but... You know that I can't completely control the United Army. Gerald brought a witness here and many people are convinced a little!"

"So, those guys suspect me? They suspect the hero of the Night Watch?" asked Perrin, exasperated.

"I don't know, but Franklin and that woman did accuse you." Leonardo paused and said,

Dempsey, have you really done anything?"

"Mr.

"Do you think it is possible?" asked Perrin.

Hearing this, Leonardo was delighted. "I knew it. Gerald must have falsely accused you."

"Don't talk so much nonsense. I only have two thousand men here in Exploro. Gerald is coming tomorrow. Tell the Watchmen of the major departments to come to Exploro tomorrow and help me get rid of Gerald," Perrin said in a low voice.

"I'm... I'm afraid it will be a little difficult!" Over the phone, Leonardo smiled bitterly and said, "The Watchmen from various faculties now have doubts in their hearts. They don't trust you as firmly as I do, so I don't think anyone is willing to go."

Perrin's face darkened and he sneered, "Alright, you bunch of people will just watch the hero of Night Watch be killed by a traitor?"

At this point, Perrin sneered and went on, "Alright, it seems that since I haven't made a move for too long, I have been forgotten by those men!"

Leonardo fell silent and then let out a sigh. "I will try my best to get some people to help you!"

Chapter 457 There Is One Month L

"Also, don't have too much hope. I've received news that Blaine has set off from American Night Watch and is heading towards Europe," Leonardo said.

Hearing this, Perrin became a little nervous. He asked warily, "What is he doing here in Europe? Does he want to deal with me too?"

Leonardo said, "I've asked. He said that he wouldn't do anything. But his arrival may mean that we can't do anything either. In other words, I may not be able to find many people to help you."

"As long as you don't help Gerald, it will be fine. He's just a kid. He will understand the gap between the top three of the Sun List." Perrin sneered.

They chatted for a while, and then Perrin hung up the phone!

At the same time, in Atlanta...

-Gilda and Red Rose were sitting on the sofa. Red Rose pouted and said, "Gerald is really going to make a move toward Perrin. He is ranked third on the Sun List. I wonder if he can come back safely!"

"Gerald is truly talented. Unfortunately, he is too impulsive." Gilda frowned. Then she thought of something and said, "Go buy two tickets to Europe!"

Red Rose was stunned for a moment and then asked, "What are we buying tickets for?"

"At the critical moment, I may be able to save Gerald," Gilda said.

Red Rose suddenly raised her eyebrows and asked, "Do you mean that Gerald may not be a match for Perrin?"

"He is indeed very talented, but he is not skilled enough. He is still too young." Gilda sighed and said, "Let's go!"

Red Rose frowned gloomily.

At that time, Gilda looked at her and said with a smile, "Speaking of which, Gerald is indeed a good life partner."

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

Red Rose frowned and said, "Why is someone knocking on our door? Is it from the real estate company?"

Red Rose walked over and opened the door. A middle-aged man was standing at the door. He looked in his fifties. He was dressed in a suit and was smiling at Red Rose. "Let me guess. You must be Red Rose."

Red Rose's expression suddenly changed. She took two steps back and asked warily, "Who are you?"

"Don't be so nervous!" The middle-aged man walked into the room and looked at a place not far away. He bowed slightly and said, "Gilda, we haven't seen each other for many years. How are you?"

"I'm fine!" Gilda said indifferently. Then she looked up at the middle-aged man and asked, "Jaden, what are you doing here?"

Yes, this person was Jaden.

He smiled and said, "Of course, I didn't come here willingly. The doctor asked me to come to you!"

Gilda frowned and said, "What does that pervert want?"

Jaden smiled and said, "He asked me to tell you that your master will show up in one month."

Hearing this, Gilda and Red Rose changed their expressions.

Jaden smiled slightly and said, "I've sent you a message. I'm leaving."

Gilda frowned and said, "What does that pervert want? Is he going to support them?"

"He won't support anyone. He just wants to see what kind of drama it will be. He wants to see what we will look like under the laws of nature." Jaden smiled.

"He is indeed a pervert!" Gilda sneered and said, "What about you? What do him?"

you think? Are you like

"He won't interfere with our choice." Jaden smiled and said, "As for me, I just want to live."

After that, he bowed slightly and said, "Then I'll get out of your hair!"

After that, he left the room.

Red Rose frowned deeply. Gilda sighed and said, "There is one month left, which is still very short. Buy a plane ticket. Let's go to Europe!"

Gerald didn't know about these things. At that time, he was in the sky, and the helicopter slowly landed on the island!

After Gerald and the others came down, he quickly found Scar. Scar quickly came over and asked,

“How is it?”

“I have gone to the headquarters of Night Watch. I will make a move toward Perrin tomorrow,” Gerald said calmly.

Scar swallowed hard and nodded. Then he gritted his teeth and said, “Okay, I will inform my people now and let them get ready!”

Gerald nodded and sent Scar away. He took Franklin and the others back to the fifth deck of the small cruise ship. Belinda also came over to ask about the situation. Gerald briefly told her about the situation. Then he looked at Franklin and said, “Speak! What do you want to tell me?”

“Hurry up! If I am not satisfied, I will kill you right now!” Theo sneered.

On Franklin’s forehead, cold sweat appeared. He gritted his teeth and said, “I can crack your box. The information will be of great use to you!”

Gerald frowned.

That rectangular iron box was their mission item back then, and it was because of the iron box that Terry died!

“Didn’t you say you couldn’t crack it?” Claude asked with cold eyes.

“I suddenly thought of a way to crack it. Believe me, but it will take two days to crack this box!” Franklin hurriedly said.

“Two days?” Valery frowned and looked at Gerald.

They were going to make a move toward Perrin tomorrow. They couldn’t wait for two days. Gerald was not sure. If he died in Perrin’s hands, Franklin might escape.

He had to admit that Franklin was scheming, but Gerald was quite curious about this mysterious box.

“What exactly is this box?” Gerald asked.

Franklin gritted his teeth and said, “This box has some information about them. It is protected by mysterious codes. There are only a few people in this world who can crack it. I am one of them.”

Gerald frowned deeply. After a moment, he sighed and said, “Take him away first!”

“What if we lose tomorrow?” Carolyn frowned.

“If I lose to Perrin tomorrow, then Belinda, I’ll have to trouble you to help me kill this guy!” Gerald looked at Belinda and said.

Belinda nodded and said, “Understood!”

“Then let’s go to sleep! Tomorrow, we will start a war with Perrin,” Gerald said, looking at the stars in the sky.

Chapter 458 Professor of Georgetown University

They nodded. Milo was a little excited. He had waited for this day for 20 years. When he heard Gerald's words, he couldn't keep calm anymore. He was excited and returned to the cabin. Gerald knew that Milo wouldn't be able to sleep at night!

They returned to their rooms.

Gerald returned to the cabin. He took out his bag and found the rectangular iron box. He frowned slightly.

Three years ago, they fought for this rectangular iron box, and as a result, things ended up like this.

Sitting on the boat, Gerald held the box in his hand and frowned.

According to Franklin, this box was about "them", but Gerald didn't know whether it was true or not. He suspected that this was a way for Franklin to stall for time.

Of course, if what Franklin said was true and this box really had a lot of things about "them", then there was a need to break it.

The other box had been taken back to Night Watch for a long time, but until now, it had not been completely cracked.

Gerald looked at it for a while and frowned slightly. He took the box and found Franklin. Then he gave Franklin the box.

"I know you are stalling for time! I will give you two days," Gerald said indifferently.

"I will definitely crack it!" Franklin hurriedly said.

Gerald did not comment on his words. Right after he gave the box to Franklin, he left.

Seeing Gerald leave, Franklin held the box in his hand and looked at Gerald with sinister. muttered, "Give me some more time. When my master arrives, all of you will die!"

eyes.

He

Gerald returned to the cabin. He tossed and turned, unable to fall asleep. He got up from the bed, walked to the deck, found a chair, and lay down, looking at the starry sky!

There was some light on the deck. Gerald took out a photo!

There were 12 people in the photo. They were members of Team 11762.

Gerald looked at them with a complicated expression.

"If not for that battle, Terry wouldn't have died, and I wouldn't have lost my memory. If Terry and I were still with you, you wouldn't have died one after another. Only a few of us are alive now."

Gerald stroked the photo and muttered, "You died because of Perrin!"

Gerald ed.

“Tap...”

At that time, footsteps sounded beside him. Gerald held the photo and turned around. He found that Valery had walked to the deck. She was wearing fluffy pajamas, revealing her slender and straight legs.

“I knew you wouldn’t be able to sleep,” Valery said.

“Why didn’t you go to sleep?” Gerald asked in surprise.

“I want to come and see you.” Valery smiled. She took a chair and walked to Gerald. After sitting down, she took Gerald’s head and placed it on her lap. She gently massaged his head and said, “Don’t think too much. Rest well. Tomorrow, it will be a tough battle. Only by resting well can you take revenge!”

“Yes!” Gerald touched his nose and said, “Scar has prepared a medical team for you. You will be responsible for the logistics tomorrow.”

As a doctor in the team, it was impossible for Gerald to let her charge in front.

Valery nodded and then asked, “Have you finished taking the bones in?”

“Yes!” Gerald nodded and said, “I finished it two days ago.”

He had obtained five Dragon Bones in Sin City and two from Charles, so Gerald had a total of seven bones.

At that time, after he absorbed five pieces a day, he found that the speed of absorption began to slow down. He spent more than ten days completely absorbing the two pieces.

After absorbing these two bones, Gerald felt that he had improved a little. But at the same time, felt that his improvement was not as great as before. When he absorbed the bones very quickly before, he could feel that his speed of improvement was very fast too.

Of course, he was still a bit stronger, which made Gerald feel a lot more confident.

“We will definitely win tomorrow. You just have to slow Perrin down. We still have two super experts. When we kill the people in Exploro, I will let Belinda and Carolyn go to help you!” Valery said.

he

“It will be fine if it is just the people from Exploro!” Gerald touched his nose and said, “What I’m worried about now is that the Watchmen might help him. I said so much today, so the Watchmen of other countries may choose not to help any of us, but Perrin has too much influence in Europe. For example, Leonardo is almost a big fan of Perrin.”

“The United Army has a big problem in position.”

elf.” Valery sighed. “Leonardo is old, but he is still in that

Perrin

The United Army was established at the beginning of Night Watch. After the first war, became a hero of Night Watch. After the United Army was established, European Watchmen were in charge of it. Most of them had a deep relationship with Perrin.

“Well, it’s time to make a change.” Gerald touched his nose and said, “This is the last mission I will carry out for them after I leave the Night Watch!”

He touched the medal on his chest!

Yes, Perrin betrayed Night Watch. When the war broke out, he would stab Night Watch in the back, and no one would be able to bear the consequence.

Valery nodded and said, “After we win, what are you going to do? Do you want to keep these people from Sin City or what?”

Gerald looked at the starry sky and smiled, “We all know that no one can get away with it when war breaks out. I will fight in my own way.”

Valery nodded again. She gently massaged Gerald’s head.

Under the starry sky, on the cruise ship across the sea, they sat on the deck.

It was getting late!

After a long time, Valery looked at Gerald, whose eyes were closed, and smiled. She leaned over and rested her head on Gerald’s chest. She slowly closed her eyes.

At Georgetown University in Washington...

Because of jet lag, it was early in the morning in Washington. The entire university was filled with a lively atmosphere!

At that time, in a classroom, a professor was wearing glasses. He looked in his forties, and there were many female students.

“Wow, he is so handsome!”

“The professor is so cute.”

In the classroom, voices were coming from time to time.

The professor heard it, but he seemed to be used to it.

He said, “The strong ones will live. This is the law of natural evolution. It works in the entire universe. We study life science. In this world, everything can be explained by science...”

As he talked, he suddenly saw a beautiful woman standing at the door and bowing to him.

If Gerald was here, he would recognize this person. It was Jaden’s granddaughter, Nova.

He smiled and said, "You can discuss it yourselves. I'll go out for a while."

Then he walked to the door.

"Doctor!" Nova bowed to him and said, "Grandpa asked me to tell you that he has told Gilda about the news."

"He still doesn't want to talk to me, right?" the professor touched his nose and asked.

Nova smiled bitterly and said, "Yes, he said that he didn't want to talk to you."

"What about Gerald? Have you been in contact with him recently?" the professor asked again.

"Ever since he went to Sin City, I have not spoken to him." Nova sighed and said, "I wonder how he -is doing now."

"He is talented. In this world where the strong ones live, he is at the top of the food chain. Unfortunately, he has to protect those weak people." The doctor shook his head and looked to the west. "He is back. If nothing goes wrong, he will fight Perrin tonight."

Nova's expression changed slightly. "Perrin? Does he rank third on the Sun List?"

"Yes! They won't make peace!" the professor adjusted his glasses and said with a smile.

Chapter 459 Set Off for Exploro

On the island, a day slowly passed. On the second day, it was eight o'clock in the morning!

Gerald appeared on the deck with two sabers on his back.

At that time, everyone had appeared on the deck. They were all carrying two sabers.

Although they had left Night Watch, they still carried two sabers. Therefore, on the small yacht, other than Belinda, everyone else was carrying two sabers on their backs.

At the top of another yacht, Scar was standing there with a lot of top experts! They licked their lips. with excitement on their faces.

Those who came out of Sin City were all violent. They were all excited to challenge the third position of the Sun List.

If they won, Scar would have the power of the top three in the Sun List. They really found a powerful backer.

The key was that Scar promised to take them to the city after the battle and let them go to the real world.

At that time, on the fifth-floor deck, Jenna had an excited smile on her face.

When they sent Jolie away, they were not in a hurry to leave with Jolie and the others. First, they wanted to be with Gerald even if they had to serve him.

Second, they did not have the guts to leave!

They had lived in Sin City for too many years. If Gerald did not go back with them, they wouldn't feel safe.

Therefore, when they left back then, Gerald asked them to leave with Jolie, but Roger and his wife didn't agree.

They were afraid that they would not be able to fit in.

Gerald did not insist on this. It would be the same if he brought them back after this matter was over.

In this battle, the family of three was arranged to be responsible for the logistics, including Jenna. They would assist Valery. Of course, Jenna could not do many things.

Everyone took out their weapons and appeared on the deck!

On the deck of the luxury yacht, they licked their lips and waited to set off.

Gerald stood on it. At that time, Scar looked over.

Gerald waved his hand and made a gesture of OK!

Scar licked his lips and drew his long saber with excitement. He shouted loudly, "Gentlemen!"

A loud sound let out.

It kept letting out.

When Scar drew his saber and roared, the top experts on the deck drew their sabers at the same time. When the others heard the sound, everyone began to show their weapons!

"The destination of this battle is Exploro! We will kill the third person on the Sun List, Perrin!"

"Kill!"

Everyone roared.

Under the noisy voices, everyone was excited.

Gerald licked his lips. At his side, Claude let out a breath and said, "The last time that everyone was so excited was on Brightjoy Peak."

It was a large battle, and tens of thousands of Watchmen shouted in unison. Their voices shook the sky.

They were roaring.

The two cruise ships set off.

After docking at the port for two days, the two cruise ships from Sin City, along with more than 2,500 thugs from Sin City, slowly headed for Exploro.

Gerald leaped and stood at the forefront of the deck. The two cruise ships advanced together!

Scar saw Gerald jump up and felt excited, so he also jumped up.

They were heading straight for Exploro.

At that time, in Exploro, which was 50 miles away.....

This island was Perrin's. It was very large and had many buildings. At that time, on a beach, many people wearing uniforms of Night Watch were gathering.

There were about three thousand people. Every ten of them formed a square formation.

This was a joint attack formation of Night Watch.

There was a castle behind them. At that time, in the basement of the castle, a skinny old man was sitting on a chair.

There were many instruments down there. These instruments were tied to his body. There was red liquid inside, and there was a strong smell of blood. The liquid passed through these instruments. and continuously flowed into the old man's body.

The old man revealed a look of enjoyment.

This old man was Perrin.

"Father!" At that time, a voice sounded.

Then, a gray-haired old man walked into the basement.

It was Perrin's son, but he looked a few years older than Perrin. He looked really old.

This man was Perrin's eldest son, Muller Dempsey.

"How is it?" Perrin asked.

"I received the news that they had set off. It seems that they have about 2,500 people and about 70 top experts. I'm afraid it will be troublesome!" Muller said.

"About 70 top experts." Perrin got rid of the instruments and said, "What about us?"

"We have 39 top experts on the island. We hired many killers and mercenaries over the past two days. Now, we have eighty-three top experts," Muller said.

Perrin stood up from his seat. He said indifferently, "That's enough. I've also invited the two of them, so we have three super experts. Can Gerald fight against us?"

"Father, if you kill Gerald and those skilled members of Team 11762, you will be able to live a long life!" Muller said excitedly.

"Let's go to the beach and meet them!" Perrin grabbed a long spear.

The long spear ranked third on the weapon list, only inferior to Blaine's Crimson Slayer and Gerald's Nameless!

He waved his spear and wore the uniform of Night Watch. He looked imposing.

"It's a pity that Franklin and Dax are useless so you have to go yourself," Muller cursed.

"It's my fault. I underestimated this kid's ability," Perrin said. "Now he has brought me quite a bit of trouble, but it doesn't matter. They are coming soon anyway. It doesn't matter whether they find it out or not!"

"But this time, this kid will definitely die!" As he spoke, he waved his robe and walked out of the basement!

Just as he walked outside, he couldn't help but cover his forehead with his hand.

"I haven't come out for too long. I'm a little unaccustomed to the sun." Perrin licked his lips and said, "Take me to see my two old friends."

At the same time, there were also a few ships moving forward on the sea. On these ships were European Watchmen. They used to keep an eye on Gerald. When Gerald set off, they also set off. Leonardo and his men were all on those ships!

At that time, they saw a small white yacht rapidly approaching. On the small yacht, two old men were sitting there!

The yacht slowly drove to the side of several giant ships. When Leonardo saw the two people on the yacht, he was stunned. Then he asked with a dark face, "Blaine, what are you doing here?"

"It has nothing to do with you!" Blaine raised his eyes and scolded, "I'll find you another day to settle the debt of forcing Gerald away, you bastard!"

As the person in charge of the United Army, Leonardo had an extremely high status, but he was now being scolded by Blaine. It was a humiliation for him.

But Zackary said happily, "Everyone, what a coincidence. Blaine and I are here on vacation! We didn't expect to see you here."

A vacation? No way!

"Blaine, you better stay out of it. Gerald is no longer a Watchman, and he is on the Blood Order. If you make a move, I have to suspect that you, an American Watchman, want to take over Night Watch," Leonardo warned him.

Hearing this, Blaine looked up with cold eyes.

A sharp sound let out.

Suddenly, a red saber flew out from the cabin of the small yacht.

Chapter 460 Perrin, Go to Hell

When the people on the cruise ship saw Crimson Slayer, they couldn't remain calm anymore. Almost at the same time, all of them took a step back!

Cold sweat instantly broke out on Leonardo's forehead, and a chill ran down his spine!

This person was the Invincible!

Everyone knew the power of the Crimson Slayer.

"What are you going to do?" After being scared for a while, Leonardo braced himself and said, "Do you want to swing your saber at your colleagues?"

"Fuck you! I want to kill you right now. Damn you. If you force Gerald to leave Night Watch, you be a fucking monster." Blaine cursed.

As he spoke, he took out Crimson Slayer.

Crimson Slayer was unsheathed!

The saber was red as if it was covered with blood.

will

When Leonardo saw Crimson Slayer, he couldn't even stand still. He fell on the deck in shock, and the others also looked at Blaine in shock.

Blaine could only swing his saber once, but they felt that under Blaine's attack, no one would survive.

Leonardo did not dare to speak.

Blaine continued to shout, "Bastard! You hide yourself all day long and give orders behind my back. You don't know anything, but you are quite good at scheming. You like to soften Perrin up, right? I'm telling you. Sooner or later, I will kill you.'

At this time, Zackary smiled slightly and said, "Everyone, don't be nervous. Zackary is just cleaning his saber."

As soon as he finished speaking, Blaine let out two breaths at Crimson Slayer. Then, he began to wipe it with his clothes.

Seeing this, everyone was slightly relieved.

Someone helped Leonardo up. Only then did he realize that it was impossible for Blaine to really attack him. However, the scene just now was truly embarrassing.

"Blaine, as the leader of Night Watch, you are filth. You..."

Before Leonardo could finish, Blaine cursed loudly, "I'm filth? Fuck you! Fuck off! I won't kill you, but I can kick your ass. I can beat the crap out of you!"

Leonardo did not dare to speak. He knew that Blaine might really do such a thing.

Zackary smiled and said to the cabin below. The small yacht sped up and kept a distance from the ships.

After leaving, Blaine cursed, "I don't want to be the leader. I have to consider so many things before doing anything. If I didn't have to consider so many things, I would have hacked that bastard."

Zackary smiled and said, "There is a reason for the United Army to exist, but it is time to change the person in charge. By the way, where did you learn those curses?"

"I learned those curses online," Blaine said.

Zackary was speechless. Then, he pursed his lips and said, "Don't go to a cyber cafe again. It may damage the image of Night Watch."

Exploro was actually an island. It was the Dempsey family's private island.

Most people on this island did not know about him. The Dempsey family was the most powerful family in Europe. The Dempsey family was large. It has business in many industries. According to Gerald's understanding, the Dempsey family controlled an extremely large business empire in Europe.

At that time, on the beach of the island, at the top of the castle in the back, three old men were sitting there. In addition to Perrin, there was also a westerner, who was fat. Although he was very old, his appetite seemed to be very good. He was chewing meat.

Beside him, there were two sabers!

The other person had three sabers on his waist. He had a bun tied on his head. He was wearing clogs and a kimono! He was dressed like a warrior!

He held a cup of tea in his hand and sat there with his eyes half-closed.

"My friends, I'm afraid I'll have to trouble you today," Perrin said with a smile.

"It doesn't matter. I won't go easy on the villains of Sin City!" The warrior opened his eyes, there was a glimmer of light in his eyes.

and

"Yes!" The fat man smiled and said, "I heard that Belinda is very beautiful. I have to capture her today and have some fun with her."

"You are still so lustful." Perrin shook his head with a smile.

"I didn't expect that Gerald would betray Night Watch. He's so talented. When the war breaks out in the future, he may replace Blaine. What a pity." The man in the kimono sighed. "They're here!" Suddenly, Perrin spoke slowly and looked into the distance.

In the distance, two cruise ships were whistling and heading toward them.

At the same time, on the beach, all the Watchmen in Exploro stood up. They looked at the two cruise ships with grave expressions. Many people swallowed hard!

Gerald was very famous.

He was the Slaughterer of the underworld. Gerald was famous because of his achievements in several battles.

As the two cruise ships got closer and closer, everyone's eyes fell on the bow of the ships!

Under the light of the rising sun, Gerald stood on the bow of the ship. On his back, Void-breaking and Nameless were extremely eye-catching.

He looked at Exploro with burning eyes and he looked calm.

He held a gold medal in his hand. He looked calmly at the beach calmly. He was approaching the castle and the beach.

Finally, the two cruise ships approached the beach and landed on the beach!

Behind Gerald, the others all stood up. Claude's sniper rifle was placed on the side of the ship. Then he licked his lips and said, "I found them!"

"Bang!"

The next moment, he pulled the trigger!

The bullet of the special sniper rifle broke through the chamber and headed straight for the castle.

"Is he the Legendary Sniper from Night Watch?" The man in clogs suddenly jumped up. Then he drew his saber and threw it out.

The bullet and the saber collided in the air, and the saber flew back.

"I'm afraid we won't be able to take this shot!" He narrowed his eyes, got up, and looked in the direction of the ship.

Gerald stood at the bow of the ship. He looked down at the people in the uniforms of Night Watch and then looked up at the castle. His lips moved slightly. Then he opened his mouth and shouted, "Perrin, come out and die!"

At the top of the castle, Perrin sneered and said indifferently, "Let's go down!"
