Chapter 461 Attack

Exploro was an island with a good geographical environment and beautiful scenery. At this time, two cruise ships were parked on the beach. On the bow of the yacht stood two groups of over 2,000 people.

They all held weapons and looked at each other.

“They are heading this way!” On the fifth floor of the small cruise ship, Kristen held a telescope. At the same time, she frowned and said, “There are two more people here.”

“Who?” Gerald asked.

“Clement Fleury and Nate Kaiser!” Valery said.

Gerald rubbed his chin and muttered, “These two old men are still alive?”

He turned to look at Belinda and Carolyn and said, “Carolyn, I’ll leave Clement to you. You just need to hold him back. There’s no need to fight him so hard.”

Carolyn nodded.

Carolyn had just reached the super level. She had yet to find a bone suitable for herself, which meant that she had not absorbed a single bone.

Carolyn nodded.

“Belinda!” After that, Gerald looked at Belinda.

“I understand. Leave Nate to me. I will kill him for you,” Belinda said calmly.

Cat Lady, Belinda Charlton, ranked 11th on the Sun List!

“You...” Gerald frowned and was about to speak.

However, Belinda smiled and said, “Don’t tell me you think the Sun List represents my power. I ranked 11th on the Sun List twenty years ago. You are not the only genius. I reached the super level in my thirties.”

Gerald was speechless!

However, since Belinda had said so, he could only nod and say, “No matter what, it is best to ensure your own safety. I will come back after I kill Perrin.”

Speaking of this, he let out a breath and said, “Moreover, these two people might not know anything and may have been deceived by Perrin. They just came to help. They may be of great use in the future if we don’t kill them.”

Belinda pouted and said, “Okay, I understand!”

Theo coughed and said, "Well, Aunt Belinda, you are now in your sixties. Don't act cute, please. When I think of your age, I can't stand it!"

Belinda looked at Theo coldly and said, "Do you believe that I will beat you up before the fight?"

During this period of time, everyone became familiar with each other. Belinda seemed to have gotten used to being part of the team. At the very least, she seemed to get on well with the others. She had long been used to Theo's jokes.

Belinda's nickname had now become Aunt Belinda!

Although she had been retorting, it didn't seem to work. Several people called her that way.

Gerald estimated that after a period of time, she would get used to it. After all, a nickname was something that everyone would resist when it was first called out. After a long time, no matter how vulgar the nickname was, it could be accepted.

Gerald looked at Aleen and Kristen and said, "Claude... I'll leave him to you."

"I want to go to the front!" Kristen frowned and said, "Boss, I'm strong enough to fight in the front."

"If Claude uses his sniper rifle well, he's no worse than someone at the super level," Gerald said. "So you should ensure his safety."

At the side, Aleen smiled and said, "Don't worry! I will protect him."

Hearing this, Claude blushed, and his eyes also lit up.

After that, Gerald looked at Jessie and Eileen next to him. They were both holding weapons, eager to try.

"Protect yourselves!" Gerald exhaled and said calmly.

"Yes!" They nodded.

They were part of the medical team, but no one could be completely safe in a real battle!

On the other cruise ship, Scar was also standing there. There was a trace of cold sweat on his forehead.

looking

He used to be a Watchman. But he did not stay in Night Watch for a long time, nor had he experienced any large battles. Now a large group of people in Sin City thought he was at the super level, and he might be exposed when they fought later.

Gerald had given him instructions. He only needed to be a supervisor. So he stood at the bow of the ship and did not need to go down.

The tricky problems were all left to Gerald and the others.

But even so, he still felt some pressure.

On the other hand, the group of people behind him were all excited. The people who stood on the same floor as him were all top experts.

Malcolm, Gavyn, Rayna, Ellamae...

Rayna and Ellamae were both going to fight on the main battlefield. Gerald was not worried about Rayna. She was a genius and the most outstanding among the top level.

Ellamae was relatively weaker.

Just as Gerald and the others were arranging things, the group of people in the Watchman's uniform in front of them moved to the sides. Perrin came out with Nate and Clement.

Before Perrin could speak, Nate patted his stomach and said, "Gerald, you traitor of the Night Watch. You killed two people in the Dempsey family. You sided with Blood Lotus but complained, and now you want to kill the hero of the Night Watch. Although I am old, I will take my sabers and kill you here today!"

He patted the two sabers on his back.

Gerald ignored him directly, and his eyes fell on Perrin's face.

Perrin also looked at him with a faint smile.

"The hero of the Night Watch? He's just a joke!" Gerald said lightly.

Hearing this, Claude and the others behind him were silent.

Gerald's words had two meanings. Perrin used to be the hero of the Night Watch, but now he had betrayed the Night Watch.

Gerald used to be the hero of the Night Watch, but he was forced to leave the Night Watch.

"Gerald!" Perrin said. "I don't know why you messed with me and killed my family. Today, you are even here. Do you think you can unify the Night Watch? I'll tell you that justice will win!"

In this case, he still had to say these words. These words were not for Gerald, but for the people watching.

On the sea behind them, several ships also stopped there. People were looking at the two sides confronting each other.

Blaine tightly held the red saber in his hand, and veins popped up on his arm.

"You can't use your saber here," Zackary said with a smile.

Blaine gritted his teeth and said, "Hey, I really want to quit."

"If so ... we'll all die together!" Zackary smiled and said, "Let's see how much this kid has grown!"

"He has already left the Night Watch in disappointment. His growth has nothing to do with us," Blaine scolded.

“He said that he would do this for you.” Zackary smiled and said, “He is just a young man. Just cheer him up, and he will come back.”

Blaine curled his lips and said, “Not this time! He used to believe in the Night Watch, but now his principles have been touched. He’s found that there is something rotten in the Night Watch, and he may not come back.”

As he spoke, he picked up the binoculars!

Beside him, there were quite a few people holding binoculars.

On a ship, Theodore gritted his teeth. He really wanted these European Watchmen to help Perrin!

However, on one hand, Blaine was there. On the other hand, Gerald had paved the way for his work yesterday, causing a huge reaction among the Watchmen. There were many people who believed in Perrin, but Gerald’s performance in recent years had made him very popular. Most importantly, Gerald had brought the witness with him.

“Mr. Dempsey!” he murmured.

Hearing Perrin’s words, Gerald couldn’t help but sneer. He muttered, “Justice will win?”

As he said this, he raised his head and looked at Perrin below.

At this time, there was no need to talk anymore. He said indifferently, “Attack!”

“Clang!”

His Void-breaking was shot out forward. Gerald jumped down from the side of the ship!

Chapter 462 We Shall Never Give Up

The moment Gerald jumped down, next to him, Belinda tightened the gloves in her hands. On her gloves, there was something that looked like steel claws, just like the claws of a cat. She licked her lips and looked at Nate. Together with Carolyn, she jumped down!

Behind him, Theo and Milo also jumped off the ship without hesitation!

The members of Team 11762 were naturally the hardest to deal with!

“Kill them!”

On the other hand, Scar drew his saber and shouted, “We shall never give up!”

“We shall never give up!”

“Clang!”

“Clang!”

“Clang!”

The sound of sabers being pulled out sounded. Above the large cruise ship, Gavyn took the lead and also jumped down!

Over two thousand people jumped off the cruise ship at the same time!

The two groups were about 1,000 feet away from each other, and Gerald was like a cheetah, taking the lead!

Perrin narrowed his eyes. He took a step forward with his spear.

In front of him, the more than two thousand Watchmen all exhaled. A burly man with double sabers on his back walked to the front. Looking at the people rushing over, he gave a solemn gaze.

His name was Ascham Whalen, a Watchman in the same generation as Milo. He was No. 3 of the European Watchmen and Perrin's most loyal follower!

He shouted, "For every being who is breathing!"

"We devote ourselves to the future we want!"

"We shall never give up!"

More than two thousand people shouted in unison!

"Kill them!"

The next moment, these people also rushed out. They formed small groups with each other, which was the joint attack formation of Watchmen.

When the sounds rang out, Gerald sneered, "We are not qualified to use this slogan after we leave d, "We are not qualified to use this slogan after we leave Night Watch. But... you are even less qualified!"

Void-breaking was at the front, directly leaping through the crowd and rushing to the front.

It went straight to Perrin. At the same time, Gerald roared and jumped high up. Beside him, Carolyn and Belinda also jumped up. They jumped over the crowd of Watchmen and went straight to the three people at the supper level behind them.

Nameless was pulled out at that moment.

"Perrin!"

Gerald roared and smashed at Perrin. He held the saber with both hands and waved it at Perrin.

Looking at the angry Gerald, Perrin showed no change in his face. His body shook, and he suddenly raised his spear.

"Roar!"

At this moment, a roar suddenly rose from Gerald's body. It was as if a shadow had appeared on his body, and Gerald had already slashed down with his saber.

"He has actually reached this level!" Perrin and the other two were shocked!

In the rear, on the yacht, those who were not super experts did not understand what was going on, but Blaine and the others completely understood.

They had received the news before, but when they saw it with their own eyes, they were still a little shocked.

“What a genius!” Blaine sighed, “If we give him another thirty years, no ... ten years, maybe we can pin our hope on him.”

Zackary smiled and said, “In some way, it is not a bad choice for him to leave Night Watch. Is that why you didn’t stand up to them?”

“Fuck off!” Blaine scolded, “Didn’t you tell me not to stand up to them? If it weren’t for you, I would have killed Leonardo.”

Zackary was speechless.

Blaine may not be so insightful.

Zackary coughed and said, “Do you think he can beat Perrin?”

At this time, Blaine muttered, “I don’t know. Perrin has been at this level for a long time, and he hasn’t fought for many years.”

“Clang!”

While they were talking, on the battlefield, Gerald’s Nameless and Perrin’s Black Dragon Spear were suddenly raised, and they collided in an instant.

“Buzz!”

A buzzing sound came, and a huge wave of air spread out from them. Clement and Nate, who were next to them, were instantly sent flying by this wave of air.

Their eyes were full of shock!

Before this battle, they didn’t know how powerful Gerald was. In their opinion, Gerald had unparalleled talent, but he was too young. Even though he became a super expert, he couldn’t be very strong.

But now they suddenly found that although they were both at the super level, they couldn’t participate in the battle between Gerald and Perrin.

Perrin’s eyes were also filled with shock. He held the spear in both hands and looked at Gerald. He let out a breath and said, “Let’s not fight here. If we keep fighting here, I’m afraid these people will die here!”

Gerald snorted coldly! Almost at the same time, they rushed away and then directly rushed into the depths of the island!”

On the other side, Belinda fought against Nate, and Carolyn fought against Clement. They also fought while moving toward the depths of the island!

And the main battlefield on the beach was left for those who were below the super level!

Milo held a saber in both hands, and the thousands of people on both sides instantly collided.

Milo was undoubtedly the strongest among the people who were below the super level.

Even though he had wasted twenty years, he was still very strong after he recovered. According to Gerald and Carolyn, he was not weaker than Carolyn, who had been at the super level. It meant that he was on the same level as Number 2 and Number 3 of American Watchmen.

His eyes were red, and he took the lead to charge at the front.

“Cross Slash!”

He naturally knew how to use Cross Slash, which was the typical attack of Watchmen. He directly killed a person with that. Then, he went straight to Ascham, No. 3 of the European Watchmen!

Twenty years ago, many of his team members died. And it was Perrin’s scheme. Ascham was involved in it.

He had lost hope of revenge and drank in Sin City all day.

But Gerald lit up his hope. He had waited for this day for 20 years!

“Ascham!” He roared, holding two sabers in his hands as he charged straight at Ascham!

The two thousand or so people from both sides instantly clashed together.

It was different from the previous battle in the Northern District of Sin City.

During the battle in the Northern District, everyone held back their strength and waited for the end of the super experts’ fight.

But this time, they fought to the death!

This was because they knew that if their super experts lost, Perrin and these Watchmen would not let them go.

And if they won this battle, they would be able to enjoy the world!

The battle was for freedom!

The beach was destined to be dyed red by blood today.

“Bang!”

On the ship, Claude pulled the trigger for the first time.

In Gerald's plan, Claude would dominate the balance between the two sides of the beach. Without the interference of super experts, as long as he didn't miss the targets, he could kill all the top fighters. They would take the absolute initiative if all the enemies at the top level were killed.

"Bang!"

The bullet cut through the sky, and a top-level man fell to the ground!

Claude quickly pulled the bolt and held his breath again. And in the next instant, he pulled the trigger!

The war was on!

People fell one after another, and the entire beach was a mess!

On the island, Gerald chased after Perrin. When Perrin arrived at a relatively empty place, he stopped. He pointed his long spear horizontally and turned to look at Gerald. "Alas, after hiding for so many years, I still gave myself away."

Gerald held his two sabers and looked at Perrin. He said lightly, "Today, you will die!"

"Kid!" Perrin looked at Gerald and said, "Actually, there is no need for us to go against each other. I leaked the news and caused your friends to be killed, but you also killed two of my children. We are now even. Moreover, you are not absolutely sure that you can beat me..."

"Humph!" Gerald raised his head and looked at Perrin. He sneered and said, "Do you think it is possible?"

"That's true. If I kill you, when they come, maybe I can get some credit." Perrin said, "Everything I do is just my life."

Chapter 463 Fight to the Death

"In order to survive, you ignore the lives of others and even let them die?" Gerald sneered and stepped forward step by step!

"When they arrive, people will die sooner or later. I just made it earlier." Perrin licked his lips and said, "As the hero of Night Watch, I have sheltered so many ordinary people. So what's wrong with taking something from them?"

"Hero? Are you qualified to be a hero?" When Gerald heard this, he felt disgusted in his heart.

"I'm the first generation of Watchmen. I have guarded the entire human race! I am a hero!" Perrin said proudly.

"But you have already betrayed the human race. You and Blood Lotus have worked together to deal with Night Watch. You are now like the Blood Lotus people, and you have become their slave!" Gerald said indifferently.

"So what? I just want to live, and in the end, I am still a fire seed!" As Perrin said this, he licked his lips and shook his cloak. "And Gerald, let me tell you. Do you think you can win against me just because you have reached this level? Today, I will kill you. When the war breaks out and they come, I will let Watchmen die one by one. I will get merits and become part of them. Are you desperate?"

“Do you think Blaine is your hope? Let me tell you, Blaine is nothing to them. Those who do not submit will eventually die!” Perrin said.

Gerald looked at him, the hero who was once a Watchman, and slowly closed his eyes.

He looked at the sky and smiled, “Terry, open your eyes and watch. I’m here to avenge you!”

There was no need for him to talk nonsense with Perrin anymore. He flew out again with a saber and rushed toward Perrin!

Perrin licked his lips. He held his spear and said, “I haven’t fought for many years. It’s good to use your death to tell this world how strong I am.”

“Cross Slash!”

Gerald slashed out. They started fighting in an instant, and their auras became dominant!

Gerald’s gaze was serious. He didn’t expect this old man to be so strong. He fought with Davis before. In his opinion, there was nothing different between Perrin and Davis.

On the ground, sand and stones flew everywhere.

This was a collision between the strongest men on Earth.

At the same time, on the other side, Carolyn and Clement also fought to the depths of the island.

“Carolyn, with your talent and background as a Watchman, why did you abandon your belief and collude with Gerald?” Clement waved his saber and snorted.

“Collude?” Carolyn sneered. The Sapphire Star in her hand was constantly waved.

“Clang! Clang! Clang!”

They were both at the super level, and they were both Watchmen. Some of their techniques were similar, and it was unlikely to end the fight quickly.

“Do you know what he did?” Carolyn’s eyes flashed with anger. “Terry died because of Perrin. Perrin cooperated with Blood Lotus. We don’t know how many Watchmen died because of him! In the North, many Watchmen are still fighting for the justice that they hold in their hearts!”

“Do you think I will fall for that?” Clement sneered and said, “You’re the one who made a mistake!”

“In this case, there is nothing to say. We have witnesses, and Gerald has not taken any credit. But you still don’t believe it and firmly believe in Perrin.” Carolyn sneered, “Then let’s fight to the death!”

On the beach, people fell one after another, and the beach was dyed red.

Such a large-scale war was tragic.

At this time, Theo was bathed in blood. In the absence of super experts, he was like a god of war.

“Boss, you must win!” He prayed in his heart!

He knew that for them, there was no turning around. Perhaps some of them would be fine. Even if Perrin won, Blaine might be able to think of a way to protect them. However, their peers in Sin City would definitely die here today.

On the ship, Claude was reloading, and Aleen beside him was a little moved.

They were from Sin City, but in Sin City, such a large-scale battle was extremely rare. Between great forces, there would usually not be too many bitter battles.

But this time was different. There was no turning around!

Kristen gritted her teeth and said, “Aleen, I’ll leave Claude to you!”

She ignored Gerald’s warning. After she finished speaking, she directly pulled out her saber and jumped off the ship.

Claude had already killed five top experts. At this time, the enemies also felt Claude’s threat. Three top experts were constantly moving toward them.

Claude had to be killed if they wanted to win!

On the battlefield, the fight between Milo and Ascham was also the center of attention as they fought. Ascham sneered and said, “Milo, you’re like a rat. You actually dared to come out. Twenty years ago, you should’ve died. Today, I will send you to your bros. Oh, right, and your wife!”

Milo said with eyes wide open, “Today, all of you will die here!”

“Is that so? Do you really think Gerald can defeat Mr. Dempsey?” Milo said disdainfully.

“He will definitely win, and you will be killed by me today!” Milo gritted his teeth and attacked crazily!

Further away, many people were watching the battle with binoculars. This cruel battle shocked the European Watchmen.

Leonardo was extremely worried when he saw this. Gerald’s attack had frightened him. Seeing this, he shouted, “Guys, did you see that? Your peers are being killed by the thugs from Sin City. They once fought side by side with you. Mr. Dempsey is our hero. Do you really want to see the hero die here today?”

After saying that, he shouted, “I will take the lead. Who is willing to follow me to help Mr. Dempsey and our peers?”

Some people swayed, but at this time, they saw Blaine standing up on the small cruise ship next to them and wiping his Crimson Slayer!

Those who were swayed quickly quit.

“Huh?” At this time, Blaine suddenly frowned.

He turned around and looked into the distance. A white ship slowly approached. At the bow of the white ship, an old lady holding a walking stick and a woman in red stood there!

“Red Rose!” Many people recognized Red Rose. She was on the underground killer list.

Blaine frowned slightly when he saw Gilda.

Zackary bowed to Gilda and said, “Ms. Shaffer, long time no see.”

Gilda looked up at Zackary and smiled slightly. “You are now an old fox!”

Zackary just smiled and did not reply.

Gilda looked at the island and asked, “How is it now?”

“Perrin and Gerald went to the depths of the island, and we cannot see the situation clearly.”

Zackary said, “What are you doing here?”

“Nothing. Just to check on him and tell you something.” Gilda said indifferently, “Jaden went to me. He told me that you still had a month to prepare!”

Hearing this, Blaine and Zackary frowned at the same time!

In a distant manor of Davis in Sin City, Davis and Charles sat facing each other in the hall. In front of them was a game of chess!

“I received the news yesterday that the battle between Gerald and Perrin had already started.” Davis said calmly, “Mr. Dominic, do you think Gerald will win?”

“What about you?” Charles still had a serious expression.

“I... I bet that Perrin will win!” Davis smiled and said, “What a pity. He’s such a genius in Night Watch!”

Charles did not answer. He stood up, turned around, and walked to the door.

“Mr. Dominic, are you not going to finish the game?” asked Davis.

Charles nodded and said, “I have won! In addition, I bet Gerald will win!”

Davis was stunned. He looked at the chessboard below and then looked at Charles, who was walking away. He grinned and said, “Do you really think that you will win against me? Mr. Dominic!”

Chapter 464 Hurry Up

In Exploro, as time passed by, the battle became more and more intense.

Scar, who was standing on the side of the ship, couldn’t hold it anymore. His forehead was full of cold sweat. While he witnessed his buddies being constantly injured and dying, his heart was bleeding.

Scar was not a coward. When Gerald and the others first encountered trouble in Sin City, Scar didn’t know their identities. Still, he took the initiative to stand up for them even when he knew he couldn’t defeat the enemies!

He had never been a coward and had always been loyal to his buddies!

In this battle, he clearly had no chance to win. The battle was between those seventy to eighty top experts, and he was only at the advanced level. There was no way he could participate in this battle.

Moreover, Gerald and the others had also instructed him not to make a move. Otherwise, he would expose himself.

However, Scar really couldn't bear to watch his buddies die one after another in front of him.

He gritted his teeth. Suddenly, he saw three people quickly get themselves out of the crowd. They dove into the water and headed straight for the top of the small cruise ship!

And on the cruise ship, Claude was holding his sniper rifle. He changed his clip and began the second round of sniping!

"Not good!" His expression changed greatly. He turned around and shouted, "Claude, be careful!"

However, the screams on the beach were too loud. Claude could not hear the warning. Aleen also looked nervously at the frontal attack below. She did not notice all of this.

This was the difference between Aleen and the other members of Team 11762. Aleen had never cooperated with a sniper. The sniper's observer needed to pay attention to both the target and the surroundings, lest anyone would approach the sniper!

The moment Aleen looked outside, her brows suddenly wrinkled. She found that on the deck below, three people were rapidly approaching Gerald, and then three people jumped up!

"Top experts!" Aleen's expression changed.

Claude was also shocked. He quickly moved to the side!

Inside, after Belinda and Nate had arrived at the place, they were not in a hurry to make a move. The two sides had been in a deadlock for half a day. No one had any intention of starting the fight. They just looked at each other. Neither of them spoke.

After a while, Nate chuckled and said, "Little beauty, actually, I feel that there is no need for us to fight at all."

A smile appeared on Belinda's pretty face.

"Actually, I don't want to come over. I don't really believe that old guy Perrin, and I don't believe in Gerald either. But I still have to come. Of course, I don't want to get into a fight. I'm old. It'd be great if I could handle a super expert." Nate laughed and said, "And you also know that the result of this battle doesn't depend on us or those people on the beach. It's between Perrin and Gerald. The people on the beach have to fight for their lives, but we are different. If Perrin wins, I will say that you run away. How about it?"

"Why don't you believe Perrin?" Belinda asked.

"He has been acting strangely these years," said Nate.

Nate was a super expert. He was indeed the best among the Watchmen, but his achievements were very few.

Some records of him had mentioned something!

Nate had a nickname called Lazybones. He rarely carried out missions and rarely fought others. He was very lazy. If he could sit, he would try not to stand. If he could show up at last on a mission, he would do his best to stay behind.

It was also a coincidence that he joined the Watchmen. Nate knew perfectly well that the more capable one was, the greater responsibility one must shoulder. Therefore, he had never paid attention to martial arts.

However, his talent was too terrifying. Even if he didn't intend to improve his skills, he continued to make progress. In the end, in his despair, he became a super expert.

This made many of his peers want to kill themselves.

After he advanced to the super level, he rarely went out on missions.

Afterward, he slowly began his life of retirement.

Super experts seldom carried out Watchmen missions. When a super expert was needed, it meant that the scale of the mission was quite big.

"Since you think he is strange, why don't you help Gerald?" Belinda asked faintly, "Just because of dignity?"

"Perrin treated me well back then. Also, this old man is unfathomable. I don't think Gerald can win. If I didn't help, when Gerald lost, this old man would settle the score with me. I will have to bear the consequences. So, I might as well show up. Let's sit down, have a chat, enjoy the scenery on this island and wait for it to end. If Perrin wins, you should immediately run away. If Gerald wins, I will quickly run to the Watchmen's ship," Nate said with a smile. "How is it? It is so tiring to fight!"

Belinda looked at him with a forced smile. Then, she sat down at the side and looked in another direction where there was a great commotion.

"Gerald is really something. I'm afraid he will be incredible in a few more years," Nate said as he clicked his tongue in amazement.

On the other side, the most wonderful battle was the one between Gerald and Perrin. At this time, the two of them were coming at each other hard.

Many buildings on both sides of them collapsed. They fought all the way from the depth of the island to the edge. Everywhere they passed, sand and stones flew. The Void-breaking spun in the air, constantly colliding with Black Dragon Spear.

Those two weapons were crazily colliding at this time.

"Clang, clang, clang..."

The sounds of collision continuously rang out, and traces of blood flowed out from the corners of Gerald's mouth. It was the same for Perrin!

Under the violent collision of Vital Energy, their bodies were somewhat unable to withstand it.

"Bang!"

After the two of them collided once more, they separated. Gerald landed on the ground and shot out again. With a wave of his left hand, he directly held the Void-breaking in his hand.

At the same time, a cold light shot out from his eyes. "Dual Blades Strike, Valery Chopping!"

His entire person suddenly spun, and the two sabers attacked Perrin at an extremely fast speed.

This move was created by Gerald himself. Vital Energy erupted in a short period of time, striking the same point at an extremely fast speed!

At that time, he named this move after Valery Manning. It was named Valery Chopping.

Gerald's sabers fell down like raindrops.

Even Perrin couldn't defend himself at this moment!

Blood kept flowing out of his mouth.

"Fuck off!" Perrin suddenly threw out his spear and forced Gerald back.

He wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and looked at Gerald. "This is all you've got?"

In the distance, Gerald said, "You got old!"

"But you still can't kill me." Perrin licked his lips and said, "You are only on the same level as me. You can't kill me! I can leave here at any time!"

"Is that so?" Gerald turned his head and looked in the direction of the beach. "Right. I have to hurry up. There are too many deaths here. It is not worth it for these people to die because of an old trash like you!"

"You can't kill me," Perrin said proudly. "I'm the hero of the Watchmen, the top person on Earth!"

"Death Storm!" Gerald looked at him and grinned. In the next moment, the aura around him suddenly rose.

Chapter 465 Let's See Who Can Win

comment

Yes, at this moment, Gerald activated Death Storm.

When Perrin saw Gerald's rising momentum, his expression suddenly changed. "Are you crazy? You actually activated Death Storm. Don't you want to live?"

“Even if I activate Death Storm, I might not die.” Gerald’s aura soared. He licked his lips and looked at Perrin. “If you don’t activate Death Storm, you will be chopped to death by me. Will you be able to withstand my Death Storm? If you activate Death Storm, we will fight head-on to see who will be the final winner!”

There was a hint of madness in his eyes!

Gerald had already planned to use Death Storm when he arrived.

This was his best plan for the worst case.

He had fought against Davis before, but neither side had used full strength at that time. Gerald only felt that he was qualified to confront Davis.

However, many people had reminded him that Perrin was very powerful.

After the two sides fought, Gerald found that it was true. Perrin was indeed a little stronger than him, but Perrin wasn’t doing his best. He was afraid of death, while Gerald was different. He fought with all his strength, so in the fight just now, it was a draw.

At this time, Gerald activated Death Storm, and Perrin was really a little scared.

Gerald did not want to continue to drag things on. He knew that only when Perrin died, this battle would be completely over.

Most Watchmen on Exploro were Perrin’s people. In Gerald’s view, this group of people deserved to die. They followed Perrin, so they must have done many bad things before.

However, Gerald did not want to see too many people from Sin City die.

This

group of people was brought out by him. They were brought out to help him. Moreover, in the future, they might follow him. Gerald had to take responsibility for this group of people.

“Kill!” Gerald looked at Perrin. The corners of his mouth curled into a smile, and then he suddenly rushed over!

Would Perrin dare to go all out to confront Gerald’s Death Storm?

The answer was obviously no.

He didn’t dare to gamble. He was not Gerald. Most of the Watchmen knew how to use Death Storm.

Moreover, there were countless Watchmen who activated Death Storm and consumed their lives on the battlefields in order to finish their mission and keep their faith.

However, Perrin was not one of them. Just as he said, everything he did was to live. For this purpose, he would do anything!

He was too old. Activating Death Storm would take a toll on him.

In his opinion, if he activated it, he would undoubtedly die. If he didn't activate it, he would be able to survive this period of time when Gerald used Death Storm. Then he would have the chance to live. Therefore, he chose to run away.

"You can't escape!" Gerald's tone was calm. In the next instant, his feet moved and his speed soared.

"Cross Slash!"

Gerald shouted and quickly approached Perrin!

A saber light in the shape of a cross flashed.

Perrin turned around and blocked with his spear.

Boom!

Like a bomb exploding, the ground where they were instantly collapsed. The saber light was blocked, and the surrounding trees were instantly cut apart!

Perrin was like a cannonball as he flew backward! He also vomited blood.

How could Gerald let him go? His speed was extremely fast, and he chased after Perrin again. At the same time, he shouted, "Perrin, you have to pay the price for everything you have done today. You and your Dempsey family will be removed from Europe today. If you have the guts to activate Death Storm, come and gamble your life with me!"

At this moment, Perrin's cloak was already broken. He was no longer as arrogant as before. At this time, he was like a stray dog. He was only thinking about how to escape and how he could survive when Gerald used Death Storm.

They caused a big commotion!

On the deck of the yacht, Valery rushed out. There were three corpses lying on the deck. The long saber in Aleen's hand was dripping with blood. However, her eyes fell on Gabriel, who was next to her.

Just now, Claude was ambushed on the yacht. When he was fighting against three opponents, Gabriel rushed out and directly killed one person!

At that moment, what Gabriel revealed was some strength at the top level. Aleen felt that he was much stronger than her!

Gabriel coughed and said, "Originally, we didn't need to do anything, but if this cruise ship is destroyed, I will be scolded by Mr. Hodges when I go back."

Aleen did not say anything, but Valery rushed to the deck. She looked into the distance and gritted her teeth. "Gerald has activated Death Storm."

“What?” Claude was shocked, and then quickly asked, “Can’t he beat Perrin?”

At this moment, they started to panic.

They did not know the situation over there. Now that Gerald activated Death Storm, they subconsciously thought that Gerald was in danger.

Claude held his gun and shouted loudly, “Find where they are!”

Valery had no time to care about the medical team. She quickly picked up the binoculars.

However, Gerald and Perrin were moving too fast. For a moment, she could not keep up with their movements. Claude was also searching with his gun. However, this time, he really could not lock onto them. He could not cut in the battle between these two people at all!

On the sea, two white cruise ships stopped there!

At the moment when Gerald activated Death Storm, even though they were 1.2 miles apart, still stood up instantly. His hand firmly grasped the Crimson Slayer!

“What’s wrong?” Zackary asked with a frown.

Blaine

Zackary was smart. He was not good at martial arts, so he could not sense the situation at all. When he saw Blaine’s expression, as Blaine’s old friend for many years, he instantly felt that something was wrong!

“I ... want to make a move!” Blaine said indifferently. “He is the future. I must protect him!”

“What exactly is going on?” Zackary hurriedly shouted.

Blaine did not say anything. He really wanted to make a move!

Next to him, Leonardo shouted excitedly, “Gerald has activated Death Storm. As expected, he is no match for Mr. Dempsey. How can this traitor defeat the hero of our Night Watch? Mr. Dempsey is invincible!”

“Say one more word, you will be killed today. I will kill you and then quit the Night Watch!” At this time, Blaine suddenly looked over!

Leonardo’s expression changed slightly, but he was stunned and did not dare to speak!

When the Watchmen of Europe heard this, they fell silent for a moment.

As Watchmen, they knew very well what Death Storm meant.

Most of the people who activated it would die, and not even one out of ten would survive.

This meant that the most dazzling genius of the Night Watch all these years might fall in this place.

They fell silent. In fact, many people were willing to believe in Gerald, but Perrin’s influence was too great. Their emotions were very complicated.

Blaine took a step forward. At this moment, a terrifying aura slowly rose from Blaine's body, and the sea on both sides began to seethe!

"What are you going to do?" Leonardo roared when he saw Blaine's change.

Zackary also quickly seized Blaine and said, "Blaine, stop. There are too many things you need to protect with this strike. You can't use it here. Even if Gerald dies, you are not allowed to strike here!"

Blaine's eyes were red. He gritted his teeth, and after a moment, his aura subsided. He then looked at Leonardo and said, "If Gerald dies, someone will pay the price!"

Blaine looked as if he was looking at a dead body. The glance sent shivers down Leonardo's spine.

Beside him, Red Rose also heard their conversation. She looked at Gilda and said, "Ms. Shaffer, can you... save Gerald?"

"I can't participate in a battle at this level!" Gilda shook her head and sighed.

Chapter 466 Showdown

When Gilda said this, there was a hint of helplessness in her tone.

Previously, when she found Gerald, Gerald said that if she did not hand over the person he wanted, he would kill them.

At that time, Gilda did not take these words to heart. Even though Gerald said that he had dealt with four experts at the super level in Sin City, Gilda did not take it to heart.

However, now, she truly discovered that she had underestimated Gerald's talent.

Gerald was not even thirty years old. He had only been a Watchman for nine years and had only been at the super level for three years. During these three years, he didn't remember anything in the past.

Gilda sighed and muttered, "With such talent, if he had enough Dragon Bones, he could really reach that level. He is really a perfect candidate. Unfortunately, he has activated Death Storm..."

She sighed and shook her head.

Beside her, Red Rose suddenly became silent. She looked into the distance and pouted. "You haven't let me sleep with you yet. Are you really going to die? Gerald, you can't. You will win, right? In my mind, you should be invincible!"

Yes, in these years, ever since Gerald joined Night Watch, he had made great achievements. He established his reputation in the underground world through the battles he fought.

Red Rose pursed her lips, and there was a trace of despair on her pretty face, as well as a trace of hope!

They did not know the situation of the fight. They did not know that Gerald only used Death Storm in order to end the battle faster!

At the same time, on the other side, on the battlefield where Belinda and Nate fought, it was quite calm. Nate sat on the beach. He pulled up his shirt, revealing his huge belly. Although he was old, because he was fat and had white skin, when he lifted his clothes, his belly was quite eye-catching.

“He uses Death Storm!” Nate grinned and said, “Alas, what a pity. It seems like you are going to lose. I will go easy on you. I suggest you hurry to run!”

Belinda smiled and said, “Is that so? Not really!”

“Heh, you are quite confident in that kid.” Nate smiled and asked, “By the way, what kind of place is Sin City?”

Belinda did not answer him. Instead, she raised her head and looked in another direction.

On the other side, the moment Gerald activated Death Storm, Carolyn panicked. Her aura was constantly rising, ready to activate Death Storm at any time. She really wanted to help Gerald!

“Little girl, accept your fate. The traitor is Gerald, and now he is the only one who has been convicted. Any other member of your legendary team can return to Night Watch at any time. Although I am lazy, I still have to be at the forefront when the war begins. There is no other way. I will put in a good word for you when the time comes,” Clement said.

“Will you put in a good word for me?” Carolyn sneered. “When Perrin stabs you in the back, I hope you can still say a good word.”

As she spoke, she used all her strength to slash down.

Boom!

As the saber descended, the ground beneath their feet collapsed.

They did not notice that as they fought, they went to the depths of Exploro. It was above the basement where Perrin usually lived. As the ground collapsed, the two of them directly fell into the basement

Carolyn was anxious. She raised her saber and wanted to charge forward again. However, at this moment, her entire body could not help but tremble. She found that there was a cracking sound from the place she stepped on. She looked down and found that there were countless white bones in this place!

Not only was she shocked, but also Clement. He looked at the white bones under his feet in shock, his eyes full of shock

“This... What is going on? Why are there so many white bones under the ground of Exploro!” Clement was shocked.

Then, he sniffed and looked at the other side. He frowned and said, "What a strong smell of blood!"

Carolyn said with a sneer, "I'm afraid these are the people who were killed by Perrin!"

"Impossible!" Clement shook his head. "Perrin is the hero of Night Watch. He has protected us. It is impossible for him to do such a thing."

On the other side, Gerald's eyes were like lightning. He slashed at Perrin with his saber over and over again!

At this time, Perrin was covered in blood, and the hand holding Black Dragon Spear was already shaking.

"The one who will win will only be me! I am the hero of Night Watch!" Perrin roared, and the Vital Energy in his body was surging, but in front of Gerald, who was using Death Storm, it was not enough!

Gerald looked at him, and his saber slashed down like mad. This time, Void-breaking did not circle in the air, but was held in Gerald's left hand!

"You took all the credit, and then started to go against your heart to frame others!" Gerald said with a burning gaze. "In these decades, I don't know how many Watchmen died because of you. I don't know how many geniuses have been deprived of their lives by you."

"So what? I am the hero. I have protected them. I won the Medal of Star Glory. So what if I took something?" Perrin gritted his teeth and said, "Your Death Storm has lasted half of its time. If I hold on for the rest half of its time, you will completely lose your Vital Energy. The one who will win is me!"

He shouted as he fled!

"Then you can hold on as you like. Let's see how long you can hold on with your old bones!" The killing intent in Gerald's eyes soared.

"I will hold on until your Death Storm ends. Then, I will exchange blood with you. I will live on forever. I will join them. At that time, your friends, your relatives, and the geniuses of your Team 11762 will all become my nourishment. Oh, right, there is also Blaine. He will slash that saber in despair and then die!" Perrin was crazy.

However, Gerald frowned slightly!

Perrin seemed to be talking nonsense, but Gerald knew that Perrin was nearing his end though he hadn't activated Death Storm. He was holding his breath to withstand Gerald's Death Storm.

Gerald did not say anything else. He let out a breath and circulated his Vital Energy to attack Perrin.

Clang!

Clang!

Clang!

The sound of dense collisions rang out, and Gerald's clothes were about to turn into pieces. The side effects of using Death Storm were showing themselves.

Some wounds began to appear on his body, which were caused by the surge of Vital Energy. His flesh was torn apart, and blood flowed on his body.

"Here comes the showdown!" Suddenly, Gerald let out a breath. Then, his eyes narrowed, and he withdrew the Void-breaking to its sheath. Gerald only held Nameless in his hands. At this moment, the nameless saber seemed somewhat unreal.

"You... You want to use Ghost Slash!" Perrin saw Gerald's posture, and his expression suddenly changed slightly!

Ghost Slash!

It was the strongest strike in Night Watch. Blaine was the only one who had used this strike.

Chapter 467 You Lost!

This move was the strongest move of the Night Watch. The moves of the Night Watch were all known to the public. As long as one joined the Night Watch, one could learn all the martial arts of the Night Watch. As for how far they could go, or whether they could master these moves, such as Wave Blades, and Valery Chopping, it all required the support of Vital Energy and the control of Vital Energy

As for Ghost Slash, it was Blaine's move. In the entire history of the Night Watch, only he had used it.

At this time, Gerald was going to try this move.

It was undeniable that Perrin was really strong.

Perrin was the third on the Sun List. Even though Gerald had activated his Death Storm, it would still be difficult for him to kill Perrin in a short period of time.

If Perrin really managed to survive his Death Storm, then this battle would become a complete failure.

Gerald held the saber in both hands and raised it in front of him. The Vital Energy in his entire body was completely restrained in this instant.

Nameless was emitting a white aura at this moment, and it looked a little illusionary at this moment.

Gerald suddenly opened his eyes. Then, his lips moved slightly as he said, "Ghost Slash!"

"Whoosh!"

A loud noise rang out. At this moment, Gerald disappeared from his original spot. His entire figure moved like a ghost as he instantly arrived in front of Perrin!

“Clang!”

Gerald waved his saber lightly.

The speed did not seem very fast, but Perrin’s expression changed drastically.

He succeeded!

Gerald had made it!

Perrin did not expect Gerald to really display this move.

The Vital Energy in his entire body surged, gathering on Black Dragon Spear. He wanted to go all out to block this strike.

At this moment, Gerald’s restrained aura suddenly exploded as the saber and spear collided.

“Boom!”

Vital Energy surged, and a strong wind blew.

Gerald looked at Perrin and said calmly, “You lost!”

Outside Exploro, Blaine stood at the bow of the ship. The moment Gerald’s aura disappeared, his expression slightly changed. “Gerald’s aura has disappeared!”

Next to him, Zackary sighed and said, “In the end, did he lose?”

Blaine’s eyes began to turn red, and his aura began to flicker again.

Zackary stopped him again and said, “Calm down. Now... We have to find a way to protect the other kids!”

“1. I can’t calm down!” Blaine looked at the sky with a grave expression. Tears streamed down his face. His left thumb moved slightly, and Crimson Slayer appeared again. His momentum began to rise.

Next to him, Leonardo did not feel the change. He only felt the disappearance of Gerald’s aura. He said with ecstasy. “We won. Mr. Dempsey won! Gerald, the traitor of Night Watch, deserves to die!”

None of the European Watchmen spoke at this moment, and many people lowered their heads.

Many of the people here had participated in the battle on Brightjoy Peak, and they had experienced Gerald’s era.

Some were sad, and some of Perrin’s believers were excited.

“Leonardo!” At this time, a cold voice rang in Leonardo’s ears.

Leonardo turned around and found Blaine standing there. He had already made a posture to unsheathe the saber

“Gerald is the hero of the Night Watch,” Blaine said faintly. “I was the one who brought him into the Night Watch. He has made countless contributions over the years, but now you have caused his death here. I have already begun to suspect what I am guarding. I will slash my saber here today!”

“Buzz!”

Hearing Blaine’s words, at this moment, both Leonardo and European Watchmen fell into a momentary daze.

It seemed that Blaine was anxious!

He had never made a move. From a certain perspective, he believed that Gerald could create a miracle.

However, when Gerald’s aura really disappeared, Blaine realized that he could no longer control his emotions.

Leonardo was also anxious.

Blaine’s strike was their hope.

Zackary sighed and shook his head. This time, he did not stop Blaine. Instead, he sat down and smiled, “We have lived long enough. Carrying these things, we still have to suffer injustice!”

As he spoke, Zackary looked at Leonardo and said, “Do you think Blaine, who is an old peasant, has the ambition to unify the Night Watch? You know very well that even if Gerald brought a witness, as the person in charge of the United Army, you were still partial to Perrin. Today, you not only killed Gerald but also ruined the future of the Night Watch!”

“Blaine, what exactly are you going to do? Do you know the consequence of your strike?” he roared.

“I only know you are a bastard,” Blaine sneered and bowed down. His aura was constantly erupting!

“Buzz!”

At this moment, Blaine suddenly raised his eyes and looked into the distance. His eyes suddenly lit up as he said, “Ghost Slash! It’s Ghost Slash!”

Leonardo also felt it, and his face instantly paled.

It was Ghost Slash!

After Blaine, another Watchman performed Ghost Slash.

“Ghost Slash!” Gilda muttered. She seemed to have thought of something. She looked at Blaine, who was next to her. Blaine stood up straight again. Then, he sat down and said, “Damn it! Gerald, this bastard, he never gives me peace!”

After he finished speaking, a smile appeared on his face.

When Ghost Slash was performed, no one could beat it.

Zackary frowned. He looked at Blaine and said, "Blaine, I'm worried about one thing."

"What?" Blaine frowned. "What's wrong?"

"Gerald activated his Death Storm and forcefully used Ghost Slash. This is the same as what you did back then. I'm worried that his physical condition will become the same as yours, Zackary said.

Beside him, Blaine, who had just relaxed, suddenly felt worried again.

As for Leonardo, he sat on the ground, his eyes filled with despair and unwillingness.

On the battlefield, Gerald's saber struck Perrin's spear. Perrin raised his spear to block. Vital Energy collided, and the ground began to collapse inch by inch.

"You lost!" Gerald said indifferently.

"Boom!"

At this moment, Perrin collapsed with a loud bang. Blood gushed out from his body, and his entire body seemed to be about to split apart.

Smoke filled the air!

When the smoke dispersed, with Gerald and Perrin as the center, there was a pit. Gerald stood there, and Perrin was lying on the ground. He was covered in blood, and his face was full of despair.

"Poof!" His body kept twitching, and fresh blood came out of his mouth.

"Gerald, you can't kill me!" Perrin was still alive, but he could no longer gather any strength. He gritted his teeth and said, "I am the hero of the Night Watch. I have saved countless people. Without me, you may not have the chance to live in this world!"

Planta E

Gerald did not answer him. He used his Nameless to prop himself up against the ground.

There was no longer any Vital Energy left in his body, and there were many wounds on his body. He raised his head slightly and looked at the sky.

"I was wrong, Gerald. I was really wrong. Please spare me this time. I will never do such a thing again. I will apologize to everyone and let you return to the Night Watch," Perrin said. "I am the hero of the Night Watch. For the sake of my previous contributions, please spare me this time."

Gerald still did not speak. He looked at the sky for a while, and then tears began to flow.

"Terry, I have avenged your death. Unfortunately, you will never be able to return to my side," Gerald murmured.

He supported himself with Nameless in his left hand and drew Void-breaking with his right hand!

"I am a hero. You can't kill me! You can't!" When Perrin saw Gerald draw his saber, he began to scream loudly..

Gerald was expressionless. He lowered his head and looked at Perrin. He did not speak. He just raised the saber in his hand and slashed down.

Chapter 468 He Is Dead!

Carolyn and Clement were in the basement of Exploro. They followed the smell of blood and walked to a door

They did not choose to continue to attack. Carolyn did not choose to attack because there might be evidence of the Dempsey family's evil deeds here!

"This door has a password. It can't be opened!" Clement said.

Carolyn snorted coldly. Then, her Vital Energy surged and she directly slashed at the door.

After a few consecutive slashes, she directly split open the iron door

Clement frowned, but he did not say anything.

There was light behind the door. They walked in. When they saw the situation behind the door, they were completely shocked.

Inside the room, there were countless instruments. The bright red liquid inside them was rolling. In some instruments, there were some naked young people. Some of them had dried up and looked like skeletons. Some of them were a bit better. They were in the instruments with their eyes closed. No one could tell if they were still alive!

They had instruments tied to them, and pipes were stuck into their bodies. Bright red blood was being extracted from their bodies.

Suddenly, Clement exclaimed as he looked at a young man in his twenties, his face full of shock, "This is Morris Oliver! Didn't he disappear when he was on a mission? Why is he here?"

Carolyn ignored him and looked forward!

Clement noticed Carolyn's gaze and also looked over

Muller was lying in the front. He was also tied with instruments, and blood was flowing into his body. He seemed not to feel the arrival of Carolyn and Clement. His eyes were closed and his face was full of enjoyment!

Muller did not participate in the main battle. He was very old. He took advantage of the battle outside to exchange blood here.

Seeing this scene, Clement was completely stunned.

“This is the hero of you guys!” Carolyn said lightly.

Clement was stunned for a moment, and then he was full of rage!

“Both auras have disappeared.” At this time, Carolyn’s eyebrows moved slightly. Then, she ignored everything here and directly rushed out!

She was very anxious. She quickly rushed out and went straight to the beach.

The beach was the most tragic place. Theo was bathed in blood, and there were many wounds on his body.

He consumed much Vital Energy

The enemy was Watchmen. They formed a small team, and their joint attack formation was much stronger than that of Sin City. The people of Sin City were stronger in individual combat. The two sides fought evenly, and the casualties were quite large. In only half an hour, hundreds of people were lying on the beach.

The battle was still going on. It was extremely tragic!

“Stop!”

At this moment, a loud shout rang out.

People who were fighting trembled. They looked in the direction of the voice. Not far away, a white cruise ship was slowly approaching. There were two people standing at the bow of the ship, and one of them was an old man holding a red saber. Everyone noticed him, and their pupils contracted slightly at this moment!

“Blaine!”

At this moment, all the Watchmen of Exploro recognized Blaine.

Crimson Slayer was an obvious symbol.

“Blaine, the Invincible!”

Everyone was shocked.

Crimson Slayer and this name were enough to make anyone tremble.

The two sides began to put down the sabers in their hands and retreat.

Blaine stood at the bow of the ship, his brows furrowed.

As soon as Ghost Slash appeared, he knew who would win.

At the bow of the ship, Valery glanced at Blaine and then turned her gaze to the distance. A trace of hesitation appeared on her face!

She felt it. Perrin’s aura and Gerald’s aura had disappeared at the same time. She did not know who the winner was or if they had both died.

“Boss! You will definitely win, right?” Claude held his gun and muttered.

Soon, in the middle of the field, two figures quickly approached. Belinda and Nate also appeared on the beach. They were unharmed, and there was not even a trace of sweat on them.

Belinda frowned!

She directly jumped onto the deck of the cruise ship.

All the people stopped after Blaine roared. The two parties began to separate.

Theo glanced at Blaine, gritted his teeth, and said, “This damn old man has only just arrived. If anything happens to Boss, I won’t let him off!”

After some time, someone suddenly said, “Over there... Someone appeared!”

Everyone looked over from afar!

In the distance, a person covered in blood and tattered clothes slowly walked over. His footsteps were very slow, and his body was shaking.

His right hand was dragging a person as he walked step by step toward the beach!

Behind him, Void-breaking and Nameless were extremely eye-catching!

“Gerald

“We won!”

“The person on the ground is Perrin!”

At this moment, the entire Sin City team was filled with endless cheers, and the people of Exploro all revealed looks of despair

Gerald dragged Perrin’s corpse and slowly walked over. He felt that he couldn’t muster any strength.

He looked at the ship, and then a smile appeared on his face.

Then, he raised his other hand and showed a gesture of victory to the people on the ship.

“Gerald!” On the ship, a smile appeared on Valery’s cold face. Then, tears flowed down her face. She quickly jumped down from the deck.

At this time, Gerald also couldn’t hold on and fell to the side.

At this time, a figure flashed past and quickly caught him. At the same time, this person whispered, “Boss!

Are you OK?”

Gerald looked at Carolyn. The smile on his face became bigger and bigger. Then, he reached out and touched Carolyn's face. I have finally... avenged Terry!"

Carolyn nodded!

"Boss, hold on!" Carolyn hurriedly said.

Too tired Gerald said. Then, he suddenly closed his eyes. His hand that was touching Carolyn's face also fell down!

This scene made everyone nervous.

Gerald used Ghost Slash after activating Death Storm. It was hard to say if Gerald's body could withstand it.

"Gerald!" Gerald heard many shouts, but the voices were getting weaker and weaker!

Everyone in Exploro looked at the corpses on the ground. Some were silent, and some were sad!

Perrin, who ranked third on the Sun List, had died!

Chapter 469 The End

This day was a sensational day for the entire underground world!

Perrin, who ranked third on the Sun List, had perished at the hands of Gerald!

Gerald had been missing for three years. After he returned, he had never been too flamboyant. This time, the entire underground world was in an uproar. The once all-powerful figure had returned, and he had even defeated the third one ranked on the Sun List.

The third one ranked on the Sun List was changed!

At the same time, the entire Night Watch also fell into great turmoil.

For one thing, Gerald was expelled by Leonardo and left the Night Watch. After Gerald proved himself, Leonardo still insisted on the idea and encouraged others to deal with Gerald.

For another, the death of Perrin!

This first-generation hero of the Night Watch, the third one on the Sun List, died.

Many of his believers were completely unable to accept it!

And most importantly, beneath Exploro, there were many devices. And the way Blood Lotus lived was revealed, as well as countless bones and some missing geniuses. This confirmed the fact that Perrin and Blood Lotus worked together to kill the Watchmen!

On that day, countless beliefs were collapsing.

Gerald, a pure person, paved the way for his work and withdrew from the Night Watch. This proved the decay of the United Army!

Before the arrival of a great battle general, this impact on the Night Watch was so great.

This was one of the reasons why Blaine had never dared to handle Perrin, but Gerald had no qualms about this.

At the moment of the announcement, the people who had voted suffered a great deal of pressure. Coupled with the decay of the United Army, the Night Watch seemed to have fallen into a rather unstable situation.

The situation within the Night Watch was turbulent. Before the war broke out, this undoubtedly had a great impact!

There was very limited time for them!

And after the matter was over, no one knew about Gerald's situation.

The underground world was in turmoil, and the lives of ordinary cities were still so harmonious.

At Georgetown University of Washington, Dr T was working the same as usual. He was like an ordinary university professor without any dignity!

At this time, it was time for class to end. He walked around Georgetown University with books in his arms. Occasionally, some classmates greeted him. He showed a very kind face.

After walking for a while, his phone suddenly rang.

"Hello!"

He picked up the phone and asked, "Who's that?"

"Dr. T, we haven't seen each other for forty or fifty years, have we?" A voice came from the phone.

"Guess who

I am?"

"A phone fraud?" Dr. T pursed his lips and hung up.

Soon, the phone rang again. Then, a voice from inside said, "It's me, Davis!"

This time, his tone was not so good. He said, "It's been so many years. You still look like that and don't change at all."

"Oh, it's you!" Dr. T curled his lips and said, "I don't know how many of you old guys are still alive. Why? Are you feeling bored in Sin City? Unfortunately, you don't dare to come out. If you come out, Blaine will stab you."

“Well, that’s not important!” Davis said faintly. “I have a request.”

“What?” Dr. Tasked with a faint smile. “What request?”

“Please help me handle Gerald,” Davis said faintly. I’m willing to pay any price you want!”

“Oh? For any price?” Dr. Tasked with interest.

“Yes!” Davis’ voice rang out again.

“I’m not interested. I’m just a witness, not a participant. You know what I want to see,” Dr. T said, pursing his lips.

After that, he hung up the phone.

“Third on the Sun List!” He stroked his chin and laughed. “Unfortunately, it’s not enough! Blaine only has one saber. In only one month, this matter is getting more and more interesting!”

As for Washington, it was still as usual. It was going on smoothly. Some people were eating and drinking in peace. As for the battle that shocked the world, they had no idea at all. The matter of the underground world seemed to have nothing to do with the world on the ground.

However, some people who lived in the capital city were very shocked.

Three days had passed since the battle of Exploro. On the distant sea, the two cruise ships were still slowly moving forward.

On the deck of the small cruise ship, a large group of people was sitting there. A person was lying down. They were enjoying the sea breeze and the sea scenery.

“Boss, what exactly is going on with your body? Damn it. Is it evolved? After using Death Storm this time, you actually recovered so quickly. I thought you wouldn’t have any Vital Energy again!” Theo looked at Gerald and said suspiciously.

Yes. Gerald woke up three days after the battle.

Under the treatment of Valery, he was slowly recovering. This time, Gerald did not suffer heavy injuries. Most of them were the consequences of Death Storm.

However, after this time, Gerald did not feel too much. Just like how he usually used Vital Energy, he quickly recovered.

And the destination of their trip was Sacramento.

In this battle, there were many people who had died. The number of people they had picked up from Sin City was almost 2,500. Now, only 1,600 people remained. In this battle, more than 900 people died. These people had all been buried in Exploro.

It was the cruel reality!

In Sin City, this was a very normal thing. After a short period of sadness, everyone adjusted themselves.

“What do you think next?” Valery suddenly asked. “Now that this is over, what should we do when we return to Sacramento? What are these people from Sin City planning to do?”

Gerald lay on a chair and shook his head. “I will arrange for them to work in some of our enterprises. The rules will still be set. If they violate the rules, no one will be spared!”

“Yes!” Valery nodded. “Agree!”

At this point, Valery looked up at Gerald and said, “Have you thought about what Blaine said?”

Gerald fell silent when he heard what Valery said.

When he woke up, Valery brought back Blaine’s words.

“Take over the Night Watch after my death,” Blaine said.

“What do you think? Do you want to go back?” Gerald suddenly asked.

“I don’t know!” Carolyn said lightly. “If they don’t give me a satisfactory answer this time, I won’t go back.”

Gerald smiled and nodded. “Yes, how can we go back without a satisfactory answer? Many people in the United Army voted for me to get out of the Night Watch. Why should we go back now?”

“After living for so many years and being a matrilocal son-in-law for three years, things happen one after another after recovering my memory.” He looked at Valery and sighed. “Unfortunately, Dr. Manning, you have never been willing to accept me. I thought that after I go back this time, I will ask my parents to arrange a blind date for me and then get married or something. I will leave some kids for the Kenneth family and then live a peaceful life!”

“One more month!” Claude said. “Blaine said that there is one more month before they may come.”

“Then just enjoy a month of peaceful life.” Gerald curled his lips.

“That is not what I mean.” Claude coughed and said, “What I mean is that it is impossible for you to stay here for a month and get a child! Otherwise, you raise the other’s baby!”

Gerald didn’t know what to say.

Some people laughed. After a short silence, some of them looked at Gerald again.

They were waiting for Gerald’s answer. Where should they go for a month?

“Let’s go back to Sacramento first!” Gerald said with a smile.

After that, he thought of something and looked at Belinda. “By the way, Belinda, when we were in Sin City, you said that you came out with me for revenge. Now that the matter with Perrin has been solved, you can tell me who your enemy is!”

Chapter 470 Belinda’s Enemy

Hearing Gerald mention this, everyone looked at Belinda!

Belinda touched her nose and said to Roger and his wife beside her, “Mr. Aubin, please excuse your family for a moment!”

The couple was slightly stunned at first and then quickly nodded.

Their family was still a little afraid of Belinda. The couple nodded and then carried Jenna back to the cabin. Then, Belinda looked at Jessie and Eileen.

The two of them pouted and did not dare to refute. They obediently returned to the cabin. At this time, only Gerald’s team members were left on the deck.

Aleen was usually not on the fifth floor.

Including Milo and Belinda, eight members of the team had arrived.

Gerald’s plan was to have twelve people. The other four vacancies were left for those including Jacob.

Of course, they were no longer Watchmen, so they could not call the team Night Watch.

After the others left, Belinda let out a sigh of relief. She looked at Gerald and said, “Do you know the Mahoney family in the country?”

The Mahoney family?” Gerald frowned slightly and asked, “Where is it from? Is it big?”

“When I left, it was quite big. I assume you haven’t heard of it.” Belinda said, “This family rose in Atlanta. Forty years ago, their business was very big. Later, they moved toward Washington. After I arrived in Sin City, I lost news about them.”

Gerald looked at Valery and the others and asked, “Have you heard of it?”

“Never heard of it.” Theo curled his lips and said, “Has this family declined? Usually, a family can’t keep rich for more than three generations. Maybe the family has been destroyed.”

Valery shook her head and said, “It was a top family ten years ago. It’s impossible for it to be completely destroyed in just forty years.”

“It’s hard to say. If they gave birth to a few bastards and these bastards went to do business, they would be ruined.” Theo curled his lips.

“That’s not possible. When I left, the head of the Mahoney family was already a super expert and was even outstanding among super experts. It won’t be a big problem for him to live for another 40 years,” Belinda said.

“Can he be compared to Perrin?” Claude asked.

“Definitely not.” Belinda said, “But he is much more powerful than me. A family with a super expert cannot disappear in such a short time.”

Gerald frowned deeply.

They should have more or less come into contact with most of the large families in the country. The rest should all be in the files of Night Watch. It was normal if one of them did not know. But there would be something wrong if all the six of them who had been in Night Watch did not know.

Even though the Charlton family was destroyed now, it was still recorded in the records.

Hearing what Gerald and the others said, Belinda revealed a trace of hesitation.

Hatred was what supported her to walk out of Sin City and be stronger. But now, according to Gerald and the others, it seemed that the Mahoney family had disappeared. This was like a punch on cotton, making her feel a little uncomfortable!

“How about this?” Gerald let out a breath and said, “When we return to Sacramento and I settle them all down, I will accompany you to Atlanta. I happen to know some friends in Atlanta. I will help you ask them if there is any news.”

“Okay!” Belinda nodded.

Valery looked at the time and frowned. “It is time for a check-up!”

Gerald was speechless. Then, with the help of Valery, he stood up and returned to his room.

After he entered the room, he naturally took off his clothes!

Valery had seen his body too many times. Gerald thought that she probably even knew how long his little brother was under different situations

Valery frowned as she examined him. “Do you feel anywhere not well? What about your Vital Energy?”

“My Vital Energy... I feel that it has mostly recovered. There is no longer a recovery period after I used Death Storm anymore. When I woke up, I felt the Vital Energy in my body recovered.” Gerald shook his head and said, “As for my body, other than the wound being a little painful and me being a little weak, I don’t feel anything wrong.”

When Valery heard this, a trace of confusion appeared on her face. She asked, “Does Death Storm have no side effect on you?”

“I don’t know what’s going on either.” Gerald said blankly. “What’s wrong? Will there be any sequelae?”

“Not for now. Maybe after you absorbed Dragon Bones and used Death Storm too many times, your body became immune, so Death Storm has no side effects on you.” Valery looked at Gerald and rubbed her chin.

Although he knew that Valery didn’t have any other thoughts, Gerald still felt a little uncomfortable being looked at like this. He unconsciously covered his little brother. He coughed and said, “Hey, I feel a lot of pressure when you look at me like this!”

“Hehe, I’ve seen it many times,” Valery sneered. Then she threw a towel to Gerald. After Gerald covered it, his eyes revealed a trace of excitement as he said, “Doesn’t that mean that I can use Death Storm at will?”

Valery looked coldly at Gerald and said, “Gerald, I want to talk about this. Don’t use Death Storm at will. This skill exceeds the limit of your body. It’s too much for you. You may be fine this time, but next time you may not. The immunity I just said is just speculation!”

She looked at Gerald and said, “Don’t forget, if you die, what should I do?”

“Huh?” Gerald’s expression changed.

Valery seemed to have noticed that her words were improper. Then, she quickly added, “There are many people behind you. If you die, what should Carolyn and Claude do? We left Night Watch for you. Do you understand? Also, when the war begins, you have to protect your family.”

Hearing this, Gerald smiled and said, “Relax, I’m safe and sound. But then again, a month... is too short.”

He let out a breath and said, “When we return to Sacramento and settle these people down, I plan to accompany Belinda to Atlanta. There are some things I have to do this month. First, I have to help Carolyn find the bones that belong to her. Second, I have to find as many Dragon Bones as possible. Third, I will think of a way to make all of you reach the super level.”

Valery and the others were all at the top level. Moreover, as Watchman No. 7, Valery was outstanding among those who had reached the top level. It was just that it was difficult to reach the super level.

“Yes!” Valery said, “I hope the scale this time is not too big. As for Dragon Bones, do you have any channels?”

“I have some cooperation with Jaden from the underground casino in Washington. There are still a few bones in Washington. I will try to find them. I feel that I will be able to catch up with the old man if I absorb more.

bones,” Gerald said.

Valery heard this and shook her head. “Rest for a while. I’m going out Don’t go to the deck. It’s windy there. You are weak now, so be careful.”

Gerald nodded.

After Valery left, he took out his phone.

The next few days passed peacefully.

Gerald’s body recovered very quickly. On the third day after he woke up, he was able to move freely. His injuries seemed to have mostly recovered.

On the fourth day, Valery helped him take out the stitches!

On the night of the fourth day, the two cruise ships approached Sacramento!

After seven days, they finally returned to Sacramento from Europe!

At two o’clock in the morning, Sacramento’s night scene was very beautiful. Gerald stood on the deck, looked at everything in Sacramento, and showed a smile..

“I finally came back alive,” Gerald touched his nose and muttered.
