Chapter 491 The Gathering of Blood Lotus

"I'll deal with it myself. I didn't think you would help me!" Gerald curled his lips.

At this time, the two of them were like children arguing with each other

"Damn, you brat, what the hell do you mean?" Blaine cursed

"Nothing. As the American Watchman No. 0, I was sent a Blood Order, and you didn't say a word. I am very disappointed. That's all, Gerald said indifferently

"Damn. I've told you already. I have my own difficulties! Blaine cursed. Forget it I don't want to waste my time on you. You're just a kid. You can't compare to me."

"Hum!" Gerald curled his lips

"The three recluse families have already gone to Washington Tonight, at Fate Restaurant in Washington, in the No. 1 private room, they want to negotiate with you," Blaine said "You can talk to them yourself if these people join Blood Lotus, you know what kind of trouble they will cause at this time!"

"Got it!" Gerald said.

"Brat, I'll say it again. I objected at that time. And I have many difficulties. You don't know about this when you are not in this position. When you become the leader of American Night Watch, you will understand that many things are really out of your control!" Blaine said.

"I'm no longer a Watchman, Gerald said faintly I won't be the leader of American Night Watch. You should guard American Night Watch yourself!"

"Fuck you! If you are in front of me now, I'll slap you!" Blaine was so angry

"You can't beat me now," Gerald said with a pout.

After saying that, in Sacramento's Night Watch base, Blaine instantly blushed. He cursed for a while, then directly hung up the phone, and said, "Damn, Gerald, if I don't beat him up, I won't be surnamed Villanueva!"

Valery stood next to him and said somewhat resignedly. "You guys are already so old. Why are you acting like children? Don't you understand what Gerald means? He asked you to keep watch over Night Watch, which means that he won't let you fight with them."

Blaine was stunned, and then sneered, "Don't let me fight with them? He's so weak. Does he think that he can replace me by beating Perrin? He's still young!"

Next to him, the others shook their heads speechlessly.

On the other side, Gerald curled his lips and hung up the phone.

Beside him, Leila tilted her head and asked, "Are you arguing with someone?"

Gerald coughed and said, "No, I am talking to an unreasonable old man."

Lejla did not believe him. Then she got up and said, "I have to go to school now. I took leave before, but now that woman has left. I have to go back to school to study!"

Gerald nodded and said, "Go! Do you want me to drive you?"

Previously, Carolyn and he bought two cars. One was given to Keira, and the other should still be in the garage.

The key to this car had always been at home, but Wesley did not have a driver's license and did not know how to drive. Therefore, no one drove this car in the past two months.

"No need. I can take a taxi there." Leila shook her head and said, "Shall we have dinner together tonight?"

Gerald shook his head and said, "I have an appointment tonight. You can eat with your father I have to go out tonight."

"Alright!" Leila's face showed a trace of disappointment. She said, "Then I will go out now!"

Gerald nodded.

When Leila left, Gerald glanced at Wesley's room. Wesley clearly hadn't fallen asleep. He should be staying in the room alone and smoking

Wesley could only think it clearly and should make the decision himself.

Gerald found a room, and after entering, he took out the five Dragon Bones.

He held the smallest Dragon Bone, closed his eyes, and began to absorb it

For him, improving himself was the most important thing, because he didn't know what he would experience in the future.

This time, the speed at which he absorbed the Dragon Bone was rather slow.

The Dragon Bone in his hand was only about the size of a pinky, and he had only absorbed about one-fifth of it in the afternoon.

This made him frown deeply. This meant that Gerald might not be able to absorb all five Dragon Bones in the next twenty days.

If other super experts knew what Gerald was thinking, they would probably feel a deep sense of shame.

The super experts absorbed Dragon Bones very slowly. It was very normal to absorb one piece of Dragon Bone a year

After a long time, Gerald opened his eyes. He looked at the clock. It was already five thirty in the afternoon.

He touched his nose and said, "The other recluse families? I have to meet them!"

After saying that, he stood up and looked around the living room. He found the car key. Then he didn't greet Wesley and walked out the door

At the same time, in a house in Washington, Red Rose and Gilda were sitting inside. It was dinner time, and the two were sitting at the front of the dinner table, planning to have dinner

At this time, a knock on the door sounded.

Red Rose frowned and said, "Jaden?"

As people of Blood Lotus, they lived in the same place and almost didn't get in touch with anyone else, except for their subordinates. But those subordinates had to wait until they took the initiative to contact them before the subordinates dared to come to them..

Therefore, they subconsciously thought of Jaden.

"Go and open the door," said Gilda.

Red Rose nodded. She walked to the door and opened it

Then, her expression changed slightly "Mr Felton!"

Franklin glanced at Red Rose indifferently Then, he smiled and said, "Now, you are the only top assassin in Blood Lotus!"

Indeed, Blood Lotus suffered too many losses during this period of time. Many top assassins died and were captured. They lost many Golden Card Assassins and Red Card Assassins

"You came to find Ms. Shaffer?" Red Rose asked.

Franklin nodded. He walked into the room and closed the door He walked in front of Gilda, bowed, and said very politely. "Ms. Shaffer, Mr Morton ordered that all the people of Blood Lotus will gather in the North within ten days!"

"All the people of Blood Lotus will gather?" Gilda raised her eyebrows and asked, "Why? Will the people of Sin City come as well?"

"People of Sin City won't come," Franklin said. "Mr Morton wants to invite you over I wonder if you are willing."

Gilda looked at Franklin and then calmly said, "Okay, I see. Ten days later, I will arrive in the North."

Franklin nodded and said, "Then we will meet in the North! Thanks for your time."

After that, he left.

After confirming that Franklin had gone far away, Red Rose frowned and said, "Everyone will gather in the North? What are Franklin and Mr. Morton planning to do? And why did you agree? I don't want to go to the North!"

Zavier is a ruthless person. He released this news. If I don't agree, I think Franklin will think of a way to kill me." Gilda shook her head and picked up the dishes. "Just go to the North. That place might be the main battlefield! I don't know how many people will come this time."

Red Rose nodded, then smiled bitterly and said, "Alas. I didn't expect that Franklin could run away after he was caught by Gerald. It seems very difficult for me to leave Blood Lotus for a while!"

Gilda looked at Red Rose and said, "It doesn't matter whether we leave or not. None of us will be spared. It is just the final choice."

On the other side, Washington, Fate Restaurant.

This was a luxurious restaurant, and everyone was dressed like the ancient people. They stood in a row at the door. After Gerald stopped the car, someone quickly came and said, "Hello, sir Do you have an appointment?"

"Yes!" Gerald nodded.

Chapter 492 Are You Threatening Me?

"VIP No. 1 private room," Gerald said to the waiter.

The waiter smiled. She was wearing traditional clothes and holding a silk scarf in her hand. Then, she stretched out her hand and said, "This way, please!"

Gerald nodded and followed her. They walked along the way and soon arrived at a huge private room.

The private room was still antique, with only a huge round table and a large row of waiters standing in front.

The VIP No. 1 private room was the best private room in this restaurant. It was very expensive. Some programs would be performed there.

The service was also quite good.

Gerald knew that the dishes in this kind of restaurant might not be so good. They just sold these services, but many people liked to come to this place.

Many people were sitting in the room. Victor, who was on the overpass before, seemed to be the representative of the Mahoney family. At the same time, there were two old men and two middle-aged men.

There was no doubt that the two old men were the super experts of the other two families. Those two middle-aged people should be the current person in charge of the two families.

After Gerald walked in, their eyes also fell on Gerald. Other than Victor, the others revealed a trace of shock on their faces.

Although they had already known that Gerald was very young, when Gerald walked in, they were still shocked.

He ranked third on the Sun List, and he was less than thirty years old.

This made them speechless.

However, after a brief moment of shock, one of them let out a cold snort. He said lightly. "All of you should leave first."

"Alright." The large group of waitresses dressed in traditional clothes all bowed and walked out.

When the door closed, one of the old men looked at Gerald.

Gerald walked over and pulled out a chair. Just as he was about to sit down, the old man said indifferently.

"Did I allow you to sit down?"

Gerald was amused. He glanced at the old man and said with a fake smile, "Do I need your permission to sit down?"

Gerald's words stunned the old man for a moment, but when the old man thought of Gerald, who was ranked third on the Sun List, he gritted his teeth and snorted coldly, "Alright, then sit down first. Let's talk slowly Let me introduce myself first. My name is Edward Zumthor This is the person in charge of the Zumthor family, Killian Zumthor The person next to him is Steven Kaufman of the Kaufman family."

Edward pointed to another old man and then pointed to another middle-aged man. "This is the current head of the Kaufman family, Ralph Kaufman."

After that, Edward said lightly, "You should know Victor, right? I won't introduce much."

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, I know If you have something to say, just say it

He picked up the saber and fork, glanced at the dishes on the table, and then took a bite.

Seeing Gerald's indifferent look, Steven's face showed a trace of displeasure. "Gerald, are you also so arrogant in front of Blaine? After all, we are senior to you. How dare you begin eating when we haven't started?"

Gerald waved his hand and said, "Just tell me about the things. As for seniors. I only acknowledge those who I am familiar with as my seniors, and I don't care about others."

"You "Steven gritted his teeth.

"Well, young man, do you think that you are invincible just because you have some abilities? Gerald, do you really think that no one can punish you? Edward said coldly.

Gerald was speechless. He put down his fork and said indifferently. "Alright, then you can talk first. You are here to negotiate with me. What do you want to talk about? Just say it!"

"It's very simple. I want to ask you something. Jason was killed by you, right? Edward said indifferently.

"You can say that, Gerald nodded and said. "Do you have any questions?"

"Pay attention to your attitude" Edward was furious when he heard Gerald's casual tone. He sneered and said, "Since you have admitted it, there is no problem. You should know that the four families with super experts have signed an agreement with Night Watch, and we have been following the agreement and not interfering with things that happen in society. We never break the rules of the ordinary world, but now, you have taken the initiative to break the agreement."

"You are thinking too much," Gerald said indifferently, "I was expelled by Night Watch and was issued a Blood Order. I think you should have heard about it. So, to put it bluntly, this matter has nothing to do with Night Watch. Moreover, Jason has done some disgusting things first, and he happens to be my friend's enemy. I helped my friend to take revenge, and that's all."

"Do you believe what you said?" Steven sneered and said, "Were you fired by Night Watch? Are you pretending to be fired? Is it because Night Watch thinks that the existence of the four families is a threat? Does Night Watch want to pretend to fire you and then let you deal with us?"

Gerald was speechless.

He frowned and looked at Victor. Then he said lightly, "Now that things have happened, what are you going to do?"

Steven suddenly narrowed his eyes and said, "I don't care what Jason has done in the past, but he is an ally of us and has an agreement with Night Watch. Now you take the initiative to break the agreement. You killed Jason, and you have to pay a sufficient price. We need an explanation."

"What kind of explanation do you want?" Gerald narrowed his eyes and asked.

Hearing Gerald's calm words, they thought that Gerald had compromised. Edward licked his lips and said,

"It's very simple. You need to meet our three requirements. The first requirement is to hand over Belinda. She killed Jason, so naturally, she should pay the price with her life.

"The second requirement is that you should cut off one of your arms and will punish yourself because you are an accomplice.

"The third requirement is that you personally go to Atlanta and kneel down to apologize to the Mahoney family until they personally forgive you.

Speaking of it, Edward said faintly. This is also a request we made for Blaine I think he won't dare to refute it."

Gerald was amused. He found that these people from the recluse family seemed to be really arrogant

Indeed, if more than a hundred top experts joined Blood Lotus, it would be a huge trouble for Night Watch. They used it as a threat and believed that Gerald could not bear the consequences

However, when Gerald heard this condition, he almost slapped the two old men in the face

He looked up at them and said, "What if I don't agree?"

Edward said lightly, "All

"This is what we want You have to agree to every condition If you don't agree, then the people of our three families will join the Blood Lotus The Blood Lotus will have a great force, and I think you can't bear the consequences.

Steven also said lightly, "Young man, I admit that you are very talented, but you are still too young. You have. to think about the consequences when doing things. This is your only choice.

Gerald touched his nose and looked at them happily "You think too much. I will not agree with any of the conditions you have said."

"Huh?" Steven's gaze turned cold as he said, "You are forcing us to join the Blood Lotus. If Blaine knows about it, what do you think he will do?"

"I don't know what he will do, and I have no interest in knowing it." Gerald waved his hand. Then, he glanced at everyone and said, "I am the one who did this. It has nothing to do with him and Night Watch. If on joining the Blood Lotus, then I will naturally teach you a lesson."

you insist

As he spoke, his eyes shone with a cold light. "You can choose to join the Blood Lotus, and I am also here to give you a guarantee. As long as you join the Blood Lotus, I will kill all three of your families. I will not leave anyone alive!"

Chapter 493 The Change in Sin City (1)

“As long as you join the Blood Lotus, I will kill all of you.” Gerald’s tone was full of undisguised threats.

He did not believe that these three families would help Night Watch at this critical moment

It was fine if they did not cause trouble, but if they wanted to join the Blood Lotus to cause trouble, Gerald naturally would punish them.

After saying that, looking at the shocked five people, Gerald chuckled and then picked up his fork to eat.

Even Perrin was killed by him, and Davis was polite to him now. It was a joke that these families wanted to threaten him.

“Gerald!” Edward gritted his teeth and said, “Do you really think we don’t dare to join Blood Lotus?”

“Do you think I’m joking with you? How dare you let me break my hand? Who do you think you are? Since Perrin was killed by me, don’t talk nonsense in front of me.” Gerald said disdainfully. “As long as you join the Blood Lotus, I promise that you two old men will be the first to die. I don’t care about whether you will join the Voyage or run away, but if you dare to join the Blood Lotus, I will kill you first. Remember my words, and I promise to do what I say.”

As he ate, he looked at the five people with a smile, and his eyes fell on Victor

Victor never spoke anything. There was no super expert in his family. If Gerald really wanted to deal with them, they would not be able to resist at all.

Looking at the few people who had been silent for a long time, Gerald sneered. He ate some food and patted his stomach in satisfaction. He said, “I am full. You can continue. Remember what I said just now. I am not joking with you. Night Watch can get a lot of information. Some people in the upper echelons of Blood Lotus also cooperate with me. As long as you join the Blood Lotus, I will know immediately I have brought a lot of people out of Sin City. They are very idle now. You can try and see if I can kill you all,”

After saying that, he was too lazy to care about the expressions of these people. He chuckled, turned around, and walked out.

Behind him, the five people’s faces were extremely ugly.

However, before Gerald left, none of them dared to speak.

For some reason, they always felt that if they argued in front of Gerald again, Gerald might really kill them on the spot.

When Gerald left, Edward gritted his teeth and said, “He is absolutely lawless.”

Steven let out a breath and said, “We forgot one thing. He is really the third on the Sun List. He killed Perrin alone.”

“Father, what should we do next?” Ralph frowned and asked, “I really can’t stand him. Why don’t we join Blood Lotus? I want to see what he can do to us.”

Hearing this, everyone fell silent. Then, Steven sighed and said, “He ranks third on the Sun List. Edward and I might not be able to defeat him. We just want to put pressure on Blaine and make Gerald pay a certain price.

However, it was clear that Gerald was not going to give in. If we really joined Blood Lotus, not only Gerald but also Blaine would choose to fight us to the death

Hearing this, everyone fell silent

“Should we only suffer in silence? Edward was furious. He took out a mobile phone and dialed a number

Soon, on the other side of the line, Zackary said with a smiling voice, “Hey, Edward It seems that you have finished talking with Gerald How is it? Are you satisfied with the result of the negotiation?”

Zackary, what do you mean? Edward gritted his teeth and asked. “Did you ask Gerald to come here to show off? He just threatened me that if we joined Blood Lotus, he would kill all of us is this also Night Watch s intention?”

“Hey, I have told you that Gerald is no longer a Watchman Gerald attacked Jason out of personal grudges between his friends It has nothing to do with Night Watch You don’t believe it,” Zackary said with a wry

smile

“Zackary, have you really not thought about what will happen if we join the Blood Lotus? Do you think that this matter will be over if you let this kid threaten us? Edward asked with an ugly expression

Zackary was silent for a long time Edward looked happy. He thought that Zackary would compromise

“I said it. First, Gerald is not a Watchman Second, this is a personal grudge between Jason and Belinda I think you should know what Jason did in the past,” Zackary said indifferently. Third, you may not know Gerald very well. If you dare to join Blood Lotus, he will really kill you all.”

As for what the three families would choose, Gerald did not think too much about it. Just as Blaine had said, since Gerald had done this, Gerald would take responsibility. As long as Blaine told them that the three families had joined the Blood Lotus, then Gerald would bring the group of people from Sin City to search the world for the three families.

Gerald returned to the community at night. For the next few days, he lived a comfortable life.

During this period of time, he had no tasks. He was completely in a relaxed state. He wandered around every restaurant in Washington every day Nova was helping him to search for the news of the Dragon Bone.

However, she hadn't found anything recently. It would also take a lot of time for him to absorb the five Dragon Bones in his hands.

Therefore, Gerald went to see some acquaintances in Washington every day, such as Keira, Ingrid, and others to have a meal and chat with them.

In fact, since Gerald joined Night Watch at the age of eighteen, he hadn't enjoyed much peaceful time. At such a relaxing time, he didn't need to pay attention to anything.

Although he used to look very idle, he still had many tasks, and he often thought about the tasks.

Even in the three years when he lost his memory, the exhaustion of his body and mind was quite huge.

At that time, he was despised even though he worked hard every day. He was living a super tiring life.

Now, there was no mission. Although he had to consider the matters of the future war, he tried his best to let himself relax and enjoy these days.

He had already planned that if there was no news of the Dragon Bone, he would first return to Sacramento to accompany his parents.

Unknowingly, more than ten days passed by quietly. These days, Gerald absorbed two pieces of Dragon Bones. Moreover, the speed of absorption was getting slower and slower, and the improvement was relatively limited.

On this day, Gerald was still absorbing the Dragon Bone at home. At this time, there was a knock on the door.

At the same time, in the distant Sin City, Charles was standing in front of a beach. He had his hands crossed, and his face was still expressionless. He looked at the sea in the distance. Soon, several huge ships slowly appeared above the sea.

Then, they quickly approached him.

About ten minutes later, the ships slowly approached the beach. On one of the ships, an old man was sitting on the side of the ship.

He was very old. He didn't even have a few strands of hair on his head. However, his hair was still combed meticulously. There were only a few teeth left in his mouth, but as he spoke, his voice was clear and loud.

"Blaine has ordered Watchman No. 1, Charles, to lead Watchmen of Sin City to go out. Your destination is the North," He stood on the side of the ship and said calmly.

Charles stood below and bowed slightly. "Roger!"

At the same time, a person quickly ran toward the manor of Davis in Sin City. He then bowed and said, "Mr.

Hodges, the cruise ships of Night Watch have arrived at the beach. I'm afraid Mr. Dominic is leaving."

Davis pursed his lips and said, "Leave? We can't let him leave so easily. It's time for our people to gather."

Buzz

After a few minutes, an alarm suddenly sounded in the sky above Sin City. Along with the alarm, many people in Sin City began to gather towards the manor in the center.

In Slum Street, Ari, with sunglasses, cursed, "Damn it. Are you going to start work immediately? If I had known it earlier, I would have left with that kid. Fuck!

Chapter 494 The Change in Sin City (2)

Ari was extremely angry. There were reasons why he stayed in this city, but he felt that if he wanted to leave, there should still be some opportunities.

The alarm resounded in the sky above the entire Sin City. On Slum Street, people stared at each other in confusion!

Seeing this, Ari took out his phone and dialed a number!

Soon, the phone was connected.

The person who picked up the phone was the man in charge of Lightbringers. Although Lightbringers had left, it was still in control of the entire Northern District

Ari had a good relationship with Lightbringers. When Gerald left, he had asked Ari to lend a hand if necessary

On the phone, a polite voice sounded, "Hello, Ari. What's wrong? Why is there such a loud alarm in Sin City?"

"Cut the crap! There is about to have a war between Davis and Charles. Organize all the people of Lightbringers and Slum Street to evacuate from this city. Ari quickly said, "Remember! All the people!

Besides..."

Ari licked his lips and said, "Kill anyone who is heading toward Central Square now!"

"What..." On the other side of the line, there was a look of disbelief on the man's face. "What do you mean?"

*Just do as I said. We still have time to evacuate from the Eastern District. Do you understand?" Ari said anxiously “Okay, I will do it right away!” Then the man quickly hung up the phone. Ari shouted to his side, “Run out of Sin City! If you want to die, it is fine to stay here!”

Hearing Ari’s words, people on Slum Street were stunned for a moment, and then someone began to run.

The alarm was scary, and everyone began to pack up their things and run outside.

On the beach, although far away from Sin City, Charles heard the alarm. The old man on the boat frowned and asked, “What is this sound?”

“The alarm in Sin City. Davis should’ve known of your arrival,” Charles said calmly, “He has secretly developed great power in Sin City over the years.”

“This is what can be foreseen from the beginning.” The old man sighed and said, “Now that he pulled the alarm, does it mean that he is not going to let us leave?”

“I guess,” Charles said expressionlessly as usual.

“What do you think?” the old man asked.

“Kill him and leave!” Charles said indifferently.

In the town deep on the island, the ear-piercing alarm was also sounded. Almost all the people there started to form groups and appeared on the streets.

Jacob and the others were in training. When they heard the alarm, they were confused!

“What what is going on?” Jacob frowned.

“Stop talking nonsense,” The instructor kicked him and said, “Damn it! You four pack your things and go to the west beach. There should be a few boats. You board on one and wait there”

Erik frowned and said, “What what are you doing? There are so many people.

The instructor smiled. He picked up the two sabers next to him and put them on his back. He said, “We are leaving. The balance of this island has been broken. Some people may not want us to leave peacefully

“So we may have to kill them all and then leave The instructor smiled and licked his lips. He seemed excited

Seeing the four people in a daze, he kicked Jacob and scolded, “What the hell are you doing here? If you don’t want to die, hurry and pack up!”

Only then did Jacob come back to his senses. He hurriedly said, “Okay!”

Jacob quickly ran to the place where he lived. Along the way, he found that all the people were dressed in the uniform of Watchmen, carrying sabers on their backs and walking out of the town in groups.

“What the hell is going on?” Erik could not help but said.

Just like Jacob and Erik, many people in Sin City did not know what was happening. They only saw men in groups gathering towards Central Square while others ran to get out of the city!

However, most people were still staying in their homes in confusion.

In Central Square, the center of the four districts, more and more people appeared, including the only existing Holy Lord of the Southern District and people like Farris.

Soon, thousands of people gathered there.

In the room, Davis was smiling, holding a glass of wine. He seemed to be counting something with one hand.

"It has been so long that I even can't remember how many years I have stayed on this island," Davis said, "I am the king here! Anyone who wants to leave has to get my permission."

"Mr. Hodges, if we win against Charles, will we still stay here?" A man beside Davis asked.

"Of course, we will stay here. Leave the matters outside to the outside world. Forcing Charles and Night Watch to stay here is the greatest contribution we can make!" Davis said with a smile.

"Gabriel's boat has just arrived at the port!" The man in front of Davis said.

"Good. Bring him here. I wonder if there is any news this time" Davis smiled.

Just then, a man walked in through the door He was wearing a red uniform. The man knelt in front of Charles and said, "They have already gathered together and are heading towards Sin City

Davis' eyes suddenly narrowed. "Charles is indeed a green boy I was planning to stop him at the beach. But he came over himself hearing the alarm. It saves me a lot of trouble! Let s go and meet the best of Watchmen!"

In Washington, Gerald was absorbing the bones in his room as usual Suddenly he heard someone knocking on the door

Gerald frowned

Normally, Gerald stayed at home alone since Wesley had to go to work and Leila had to go to school

Gerald thought it was Leila's mother. He stood up and walked to open the door

However, outside the door stood a foreigner in a suit

When Gerald saw the man, he frowned slightly.

Gerald had no impression of him at all and asked, "Who are you?"

"You are Gerald, right?" The man at the door smiled. He spoke fluently in English.

"And you are?" Gerald's expression changed slightly

"Hello, let me introduce myself You can call me Dr T! He smiled slightly.

Hearing this, Gerald was stunned.

How come the legendary figure came to him?

After a brief moment of shock, Gerald recalled that it was this man who saved Franklin! His eyes flashed with anger.

“Aren’t you going to invite me in?” Dr. T smiled.

“It doesn’t seem like it’s necessary,” Gerald licked his lips and said, “You were the one who released Franklin. You seem to owe me an explanation!”

Chapter 495 The Origin of Sin City

Gerald’s energy rose as he spoke.

The corner of Dr. T’s mouth trembled slightly, and he said with a fake smile, “Isn’t the rule of Watchmen that you can’t fight others in public?”

“I’m not a Watchman now,” Gerald licked his lips and chuckled.

“If we fight against each other, the building will probably collapse. Are you sure you want to do this?” Dr T asked with a smile.

After that, Gerald’s energy slowly diminished, and he curled his lips, saying, “Come in!”

Dr T smiled and wasn’t worried at all. He stepped into the room where Gerald was and sized Gerald up after sitting down on the sofa.

“Just drop the act and tell me what you want to say Gerald waved his hand.

Dr T said with a smile, “I came here to tell you that you only have a few days left

“I know that, and you don’t have to remind me. I am very curious about whose side you’re on. You don’t look like a member of Blood Lotus or the Voyage. Sometimes, you are even willing to help Watchmen. Whose side are you exactly on?” Gerald said lightly

“It’s easy to answer the question. I’m an onlooker and won’t support both of them. I am conducting a natural experiment. Dr T smiled slightly and added, “Of course. It is useless to tell you about this kind of scientific research.”

“In that case, would you please go out?” Gerald only wanted to end the conversation.

“Let’s talk about something serious. Do you want to know the origin of Sin City?” Dr. T asked.

Gerald raised his eyebrows and looked at him in surprise.

Dr T said, "Sin City was actually established by the first generation of Watchmen and the seven leaders of Blood Lotus. At that time, American Watchman No. 1 and Davis were in charge of the place together. Its establishment aimed at distinguishing between the underground world and the world above ground!"

Gerald looked at him indifferently, without knowing much about the establishment of Sin City.

Seeing that Gerald looked interested, Dr. T continued, "Blood Lotus at that time was different from now. It was only a group of people with different ideals from Watchmen. However, led by those who had the right of speech among the seven people, it went the wrong way and became a large organization of killers, which is completely against Night Watch!

"The establishment of Sin City had a simple purpose at first. Night Watch would find those who practiced martial arts and ask them to leave the ordinary world. People who were willing to sign the agreement stayed. Otherwise, they would be thrown into Sin City and fight each other there! To put it bluntly, this place is a prison," Dr. T said lightly.

"Davis could be considered the warden of the prison and so could American Watchman No. 1

"To deter Davis, you threw the strongest Watchmen on that island and scared him a lot!

"This formed a situation of counterbalance!

"As time went by, all sorts of people were thrown into the city, which became what it is now after several hundred years."

Hearing this, Gerald was a little shocked. This was the first time that someone had told him about the origin of Sin City.

"Why did you tell me this?" Gerald asked with a frown.

"Didn't you hear the key information? I'm a little disappointed," Dr. T said with a smile.

Gerald's face changed slightly. He thought of something and said, "Do you mean. Davis belongs to Blood Lotus?"

Dr. T nodded slightly "You finally reacted!"

Hearing this, Gerald frowned and was about to say something, but Dr T said with a smile, "Although the founders of Blood Lotus were at odds with the development of Blood Lotus, they only had one goal, which was to submit to them. In your words, it means becoming their lackeys, and Davis was no exception. Now that they are coming, Davis naturally should do something. For example, the North is the main battlefield, so he might keep the strongest Watchmen there and prevent the group of extremely powerful Watchmen from leaving the island!"

Gerald sneered, "Is he capable of doing that?"

"He's ranked second on the Sun List Moreover, in the past few decades, he has chosen many top experts from Sin City and developed a force that can shock the world." Dr. T added, "I came to find you to tell you that Davis and Charles might have a fight in Sin City. That means the group of most powerful Watchmen might not be able to join the war in the North!

"I hope you can pass this message on to Blaine. After all, he might die in the North. Blaine gives mental support to the world's Watchmen. If he dies, how will the other Watchmen feel?"

"I see!" Gerald heard this and breathed out. "But he will not die!"

Dr T said, "Is that so? Compared with Blaine, you are still a lot weaker. He is the most talented person I have ever seen in my life. You may be good, but..."

"Yes, as long as I am alive, he will not die!" Gerald looked at Dr. T and said, "If that's what you want to say, you can leave now!"

Dr T chuckled, slowly stood up, and said, "Okay, then I'll be leaving. I look forward to your performance in the future. You are one of the people I focus on in my experiment I hope you won't disappoint me!"

"Be careful. After i settle these things, I will catch you and get you to make inventions for me every day. If you fail to do that, I won't let you eat!" Gerald shouted.

Dr. T did not take Gerald's words to heart. He chuckled, walked out of the room, and closed the door!

After that, Gerald felt upset. He had maintained his inner peace for more than ten days, so he felt very uncomfortable with the sudden change of mood.

He thought for a moment and then took out his phone to call Valery.

He told what Dr. T said to Valery but still couldn't calm down. Therefore, he packed and decided to return to Sacramento first.

When he was packing up his things, his phone suddenly rang.

He picked it up and saw that it was an unfamiliar number. He answered the call, hearing Blaine heave a sigh. of relief and ask, "Are you sure you won't come back?"

Gerald said, "It doesn't seem to matter whether I go back or not! I will join the war! If I go back, I will fight with the team. There is not much difference."

Blaine said calmly, "I've got the news! In the North, a lot of people from Blood Lotus start to show up and make trouble everywhere. Most of the people in the underground world have heard about something and are in turmoil. I will be there in two days!"

Gerald was silent!

“If I die there, you have to help me guard American Night Watch.” Blaine’s tone was calm and serious. He didn’t swear as usual.

“I’ve said that I will help you kill them,” Gerald said calmly and hung up directly.

Chapter 496 They Are Coming!

Gerald hung up the phone and sat down on the sofa.

Ever since he had talked to Dr. T, Gerald had a feeling of panic. He took a deep breath and managed to calm himself down.

Anyway, one couldn’t run away from destiny.

Gerald took out his phone and called Nova.

Gerald would leave Washington with Nova. However, he felt that it might be less dangerous to stay here than by his side since he might be involved in the war.

The main battlefield was in the North. If Night Watch could control the situation and prevent the war from spreading to ordinary cities, Washington should be safe.

But if Night Watch failed, then it would be another story.

After talking to Nova, Gerald called Wesley and sent a message to Leila. Then he got himself together and left Washington with Nova, rushing towards Sacramento.

At the same time, a large number of people were rushing out of Sin City. Some drove and some walked. Though not knowing exactly what happened, many people left when they saw that the people of Lightbringers were leaving.

The people who left first were those from Slum of the Eastern District. After about half an hour, the crowd running out of the city suddenly saw a large group of people dressed in black uniforms, wearing masks, and carrying sabers in the distance. They were heading towards Sin City at an extremely fast speed!

There were at least thousands of men of them!

At this moment, everyone felt a chill down their spine.

Someone said with a trembling voice, “They are... Watchmen!”

“Why do Watchmen come here?”

“And there are so many of them!”

The approaching Watchmen didn’t pay attention to the shocked people. They passed through the crowd like a saber that stabbed directly into Sin City.

They went straight to Central Square!

Soon, they arrived at their destination.

At this time, there was also a large group of people in Central Square. They were all Davis' men. For decades, he had been fostering them.

At the top of a building in Central Square, Davis was standing there in a suit. He seemed to always be a gentleman. He held a glass of wine in his hand. When the group of Watchmen appeared, Davis just calmly looked at them.

At this moment, Charles slowly walked out from the crowd.

This time, Charles dressed differently from before. He carried two sabers on his back and was also wearing the uniform. He walked to the front.

Then, he raised his eyebrows and looked at Davis. "You want to stop me, right?"

Davis smiled, then bowed politely and said, "Mr. Dominic, half of this island is yours. I just hope that you can stay!"

"Clang!"

Charles didn't intend to waste time. He looked at Davis and said lightly, "Then show me the strength of the man ranked second on the Sun List!"

Davis' expression changed slightly, and then he looked at Charles with a faint smile and said, "Do you want to fight me one-on-one? Do you think you are Gerald?"

"Maybe I am stronger than him!" Charles sneered. At the same time, he unsheathed his sabers and said, "For every being who is breathing!"

"We devote ourselves to the future we want!"

"We shall never give up!"

Behind Charles, Watchmen shouted in unison, drawing their sabers.

Charles wanted to leave. Davis wanted him to stay.

Then, war was the only solution!

All of a sudden, Charles rushed out like a flash of lightning toward Davis. The people from both sides also charged at each other.

Before the war in the North broke out, the war within Sin City already began!

Sin City was not connected to the outside world, and it was even more so when there was a war. No one knew who won.

However, outside Sin City, the world was still running as usual.

Gerald returned to Sacramento. He spent most of the time at home and accompanied his parents. As for Nova, he arranged for her to live with Valery and the others.

Five days passed.

As usual, Gerald was absorbing Dragon Bones in his room. Over the past few days, he had finally finished absorbing the third Dragon Bone.

Nonetheless, the improvement was limited.

It was nine o'clock in the evening, but Sacramento was still bustling.

After finishing absorbing the bones, Gerald walked to the balcony and looked down. Gerald's neighbor was a rich man. Now he was walking his dog.

Gerald had good hearing. He could hear the wife of the rich man in their house scolding their son for not doing well on homework!

However, the rich man was calling his lover, saying sweet words.

He seemed to have noticed Gerald and looked up, his expression disgusted.

The people living in this neighborhood were all rich. Gerald's neighbor was no exception. In his opinion, Gerald and his family did not look like rich people at all. They were not even qualified to live in such a high-end neighborhood.

Near the sea, people were playing on the beach, laughing, and drinking.

There were cars on the road.

Some couples held hands and walked on the beach.

Everything was peaceful as if nothing had happened in this world.

Suddenly, Gerald raised his eyebrows and looked up at the sky.

Normally, few stars could be seen in Sacramento, but now Gerald saw many meteors streaking across the sky.

Young couples on the beach noticed the meteors. They put their hands together and closed their eyes to make wishes!

The rich man who was on the phone with his lover was also slightly stunned. He looked up at the sky and whispered, "Dear, have you seen the meteor shower? What wish did you make?"

"I... I wished for a new bag." The woman's soft voice came from the phone.

"I will buy it for you tomorrow!" The rich man smiled sweetly as if he was the happiest man at this moment.

Jolie rushed into Gerald's room excitedly and called out, "Gerald, look! Meteor shower! Quickly make a wish!"

However, Jolie found that Gerald was standing still, staring at the sky. His pupils were dilated, and his breathing gradually became rapid.

"Gerald... What happened?" Jolie was stunned.

She saw an unprecedented solemn expression on Gerald's face.

"Dudy..."

"Dudu..."

Gerald's phone rang loudly.

It was from Valery.

"Valery!" Gerald picked up the phone.

"Do you see it?" Valery's voice was serious!

"Yes!" Gerald slowly let out a breath and said, "They' are coming!"

Chapter 497 Gathering

Gerald looked up at the sky. When Jolie heard this, her eyes sparkled violently.

In the past few months in Sin City, she had followed Gerald and the others. In fact, she knew a lot of things.

For example, "they" that Gerald had mentioned several times in their conversations, most of the time, "they" were called "Elite Ghosts".

Jolie did not know what this was, but every time Gerald and the others mentioned this, their expressions were quite serious. For example, they would talk about where Gerald had a scar on his body, and how he was cut.

And now, Gerald said "they" were coming.

For some reason, looking at the shooting stars in the sky and the city crowded as usual, Jolie had a very unreal feeling. At the same time, she felt a chill down her spine.

Gerald did not notice Jolie's expression. He was standing on the balcony and calling Valery.

"I'm afraid this is a big attack," Valery said. "I saw five red lights and a golden light. This is just what I saw."

"I'm afraid these are not all. We'll be in big trouble!" Gerald gritted his teeth. He quickly said, 'Inform all the other members of our team to gather with weapons and combat suits. Tell Scar to immediately contact the other people to gather at the base of Night Watch. Inform Dennis to protect Sacramento with his life! And call Abraham and ask him to prepare planes for us. All members of our team will go to the North!”

“Got it!” Valery said seriously.

This was the first time Jolie had seen this kind of tough and domineering aura from Gerald. She swallowed!

“What... What should I do?” Jolie was a little flustered. When Gerald hung up the phone, she asked carefully.

Gerald touched her head and smiled slightly, “It’s fine. Just stay in Sacramento. Judging from their current trajectory, they can only land in the North. That is a place that you don’t know at all. Only when we can’t guard it, will these Elite Ghosts appear. Don’t tell others. You should just go to work and get off work as usual. Just live a peaceful life!”

As he spoke, Gerald raised his head and looked at the shooting stars that filled the sky. He muttered, “I ... and Watchmen will protect this world. For every being who is breathing!”

At this moment, somehow, Gerald’s image in Jolie’s heart had completely changed.

“Tell my parents that I went on a temporary business trip. Don’t let them worry,” Gerald said.

Jolie nodded. “I know! I’ll drive you to the airport.”

Gerald nodded, and the two ran downstairs. Jolie drove Gerald to the airport.

“Gerald.” When she was driving, Jolie suddenly said in a low voice.

She was worried about Gerald.

Before this, Jolie had always called him by his name casually. As she drove, she asked, “Is it very dangerous this time?”

Gerald smiled slightly. “Yeah. It should be a little dangerous!”

“You must come back safely, okay?” Jolie said again.

Gerald nodded and said, “OK! I will try my best. But if danger comes, capable people have to deal with it. I am the capable one. After all, I’m the No. 3 on the Sun List!”

He tried his best to make his tone playful so that he could relax the pressure in Jolie’s heart.

An hour later, their car stopped in front of the airport. Gerald saw Valery and the others standing there from afar!

Now, all the people of Team 11762 arrived.

In front of them, Carolyn, Valery, Theo, Claude, Kristen, Milo, and Belinda were all standing there.

Of course, Nova came too. She also chose to go to the North with Gerald and the others.

They were carrying bags on their backs, just like tourists who were going out to travel. However, the things that were tied up with cloth on them looked a little strange, and everyone was carrying such things.

These were their weapons, the standard double sabers of Night Watch.

After Gerald got out of the car, Theo raised his hand and threw a package with Nameless and Void-breaking in his hands to Gerald. After Gerald took them, he carried these on his back.

Gerald turned around and said to Jolie, "Go back. Don't think too much. Find a boyfriend during this time.

You're not young anymore. When I come back, I hope you can bring your boyfriend to see me."

"You should worry about yourself!" Jolie pouted, then waved to everyone, and said, "You... must come back safely!"

After watching Jolie leave, Gerald let out a sigh of relief. He said lightly, "Assemble!"

Theo and the others quickly came over. Valery immediately called Dennis. Soon, Dennis came out from the airport and said, "This way. You don't have to get through security!"

They had to get through a special passageway. After all, weapons could not be passed through conventional security checks.

They walked along another path toward the place where they took off. Dennis frowned and said, "I know. When they appear, you will definitely participate in the battle, but..."

Dennis paused and continued, "Are you still unwilling to return to Night Watch? Then what kind of identity do you use to participate in the battle?"

Gerald did not say anything.

"Actually, you don't have to be angry with Blaine. We all know that you'll be the leader of Night Watch sooner or later. You..." Dennis wanted to say something else.

At this time, Valery suddenly patted him and said, "Perhaps Gerald is afraid of this and is unwilling to go back."

Dennis was stunned. He looked at Gerald and then said nothing more.

The shooting stars lit up the entire sky. Countless people were making wishes, and the world was bustling. They did not know that many people with serious expressions were rushing in a certain direction. They were guarding the peace of this world and even sacrificing their lives!

At this time, the battle in Sin City had already lasted for several days.

What made Charles somewhat helpless was that from the beginning, Davis and the others had chosen to fight them to the death. They had many people and their combat strength was not bad. After fighting for a long time, they found that they were no match for Watchmen.

This was the greatest trump card of American Night Watch, an existence that could change the world.

What shocked Davis the most was that Charles, the mysterious Watchman No. 1, who had seldom fought in his life, was not inferior to Davis.

Therefore, in this battle, their casualties were great at the beginning!

Then, Davis quickly changed his strategy. He didn't fight Watchmen to the death and instead chose to use guerrilla warfare and harassment!

Davis only had one goal, to drag these Watchmen into this place, making it impossible for them to participate in the battle. At the very least, these Watchmen couldn't participate in the battle in a short time.

If Watchmen gathered and wanted to leave by boat, Davis would have people harass them. When Watchmen attacked them, they would run away.

At this time, in front of his manor, Davis and Charles were standing opposite each other.

"I didn't expect you to reach this level," Davis said with a smile. He held a long saber and looked at Charles indifferently.

"Only by killing you, will we be able to leave safely!" Charles said indifferently. "Stop talking nonsense. Come over and fight!"

"Why?" Davis said indifferently. "I admit that I underestimated you, but you can't beat me. You can't kill me either. How about we sit down, drink some red wine, and play chess like before, waiting for the results of the North?"

"Do you see the shooting stars in the sky? Do you think that even if you go out, you can stop such a large-scale invasion?" Davis asked calmly.

Charles raised his eyes and said indifferently, "You are willing to be a dog, but I won't. So I would rather die in this battle!"

Chapter 498 Watchmen's Mission

The planes were flying. The North was mostly desert, and its living environment was very harsh. However, a large number of Watchmen lived there and so did most Watchmen of each branch!

It was a large area with barren land, a terrible living environment, and scarce water sources!

After entering Night Watch, Gerald spent most of his time in this place except when he carried out missions somewhere else in the world.

No one knew when the Elite Ghosts appeared and what their target was. No one could give a perfect explanation, including Gerald and Watchmen!

Gerald only knew that they came from the sky in a strange aircraft. It was a bit like a plane but with no wings!

They seemed to be made of iron and looked very strange with big heads, so American Watchmen called them Elite Ghosts.

No one knew when they would land on the ground because of their random arrival. But now they could only land in one place, which was the North. Watchmen gathered here to destroy them in case they would enter other places!

If they entered the ordinary world, human lives would be nothing to them.

Watchmen shouldered the responsibility to guard the world.

Elite Ghosts came out at a strange time. They descended at night, and Night Watch got its name because of this.

They guarded the world in the dark.

But the ghosts' appearance was not completely useless. If they were defeated, they would be used for research, and the new energy they brought helped human technology develop rapidly.

Their bodies were strange because thermal weapons did not work on them. Only Watchmen's standard weapons could destroy them.

For a long time in Gerald's life as a Watchman, he had been dealing with Elite Ghosts.

In the battle where he became famous, there were many ghosts. They broke through the defense in the North, went to Alaska Mountains, and gathered on Brightjoy Peak. In that battle, a large number of Watchmen went out, even including several super experts. Among the experts, Gerald killed the only red Elite Ghost and rose to fame!

But this time, it was a larger-scale invasion by Elite Ghosts!

At the moment, a group of nine people was on the plane. Theo said, laughing, "I'm afraid we have to exert much effort this time. Gold... Elite Ghosts descended. The last time they came out, they made Blaine become like this."

Claude smiled slightly and said, "Anyway, I can't wait to use my sniper rifle."

He stroked the gun in his hand.

It was specially made. Thermal weapons had no effect on Elite Ghosts, so after the research on them, three special sniper rifles were made. As the Legendary Sniper of American Night Watch, Claude obtained one of them.

In fact, very few Watchmen used guns.

Because their main target was not ordinary human beings.

Claude named his gun Cry of Desert because he thought it was a poetic name. Although Gerald and the others felt that the name sounded quite stupid, he still liked it very much!

“We don’t know the exact number yet, but according to the meteor shower just now, I’m afraid it will be an extremely large number this time. Moreover, the members of Blood Lotus also gathered in the North. I’m not sure if we can guard the place this time. If we fail, Elite Ghosts will enter ordinary cities and make trouble.” Carolyn sighed.

Gerald remained silent and suddenly said, “These are still acceptable! In my opinion, there is probably a higher level above gold. Gold Elite Ghosts have made Blaine pay such a huge price, and I’m afraid that it will be very difficult for me to fight against them. I’m worried that... a higher level of Elite Ghosts will appear this time.”

Theo cursed, “It’s useless to think so much now. Those research departments are completely useless. They haven’t figured out where Elite Ghosts came from and what their purpose is. We can’t fight them just like this. Only a team of Watchmen could resist the attack of a blue Elite Ghost.”

Gerald muttered, “In the past, I might not know what their purpose is. But now... I’m afraid I know. They probably aim at the bones we’ll absorb after reaching the super level.”

Kristen asked in surprise, “Why did you say that?”

“Because Blood Lotus has been searching for these things all these years. The organization has very few of them because of their little value, so I think it collects them for Elite Ghosts,” Gerald said.

“Damn it, I don’t know what the members of Blood Lotus are thinking. They are simply traitors of the human race!” Theo cursed again.

Everyone’s choice was different when facing these Elite Ghosts!

Some people chose to cower, thinking that Elite Ghosts would rule the world sooner or later. To preserve the hope of mankind, they set up the Voyage. Most of these people were from noble families. They were rich and spent a lot of money doing research with the intention to escape one day.

Some chose to submit to Elite Ghosts, such as Blood Lotus. They wanted to surrender and then find a chance to survive!

But more people chose to resist, and they were Watchmen. They had the mission of fighting to the end for every being who was breathing, with no way to retreat!

This was the origin of their slogan. They guarded this world, including all the creatures that were breathing!

"In short, bear in mind that we have to do our best to defend everything." Gerald looked at the others and said, "As I said before, I don't allow any of you to die before me!"

After that, he looked at Milo and said, "You have been away from Night Watch for a long time. Although we are not Watchmen now, we still mainly adopt their style of fighting and cooperation. Previously, Terry and I launch the main attack. Now that he died, you can replace his position!"

"I can do that!" Carolyn said quickly.

Gerald shook his head and said, "You are used to attacking from behind and don't have to change your position. Belinda has never fought with Watchmen, so you have to help her."

Carolyn gritted her teeth and looked uncompromised.

Gerald continued, "I'm afraid that our main target this time is the Elite Ghosts above the red level."

He breathed out and said in a serious tone, "I'll say it again. Each red Elite Ghost can be considered Perrin!" As they were talking, the plane passed through the sky at an extremely fast speed and headed straight for their destination.

In the underground casino of Washington, Kerr, as usual, was having fun with the Great Four!

In a private room in the bar area, he held a woman in his arms and groped her all over, scolding, "Colby, what's wrong with you? Are you stupid after working for a few months? Why are you still sitting there?"

Colby shouted, "Enough! I am thinking about what I've read in the afternoon. I'm so upset that my father wants me to take over our family. I..."

"Bang!"

The door of the room was suddenly pushed open.

What shocked the several dandies was that their elders were standing at the door.

"Grandpa, listen to me!" Kerr coughed dryly and quickly took back his hand!

Abraham looked at him indifferently and touched the ground with his cane, saying, "Go home. I have something to tell you!"

Kerr licked his lips and did not dare to say anything more. He could only follow Abraham in fear and leave the casino.

Chapter 499 For Every Being Who Is Breathing

Kerr followed Abraham back home with a bitter laugh.

As soon as he returned, Kerr found that there were many people at home. Kerr was shocked and said, "Fuck! Have you installed a camera in that private room? Did I live broadcast just now?"

Abraham was speechless. He could not help but pick up his walking stick and hit Kerr, scolding, "Get in!"

Kerr ran in with a bitter face. He walked to Stacey and asked, "Stacey, what's going on? Why are there so many people?"

"I... I don't know, either." Stacey shook her head.

Abraham walked to the main seat and sat down. He knocked on the ground with his cane and said calmly, "Stacey, Kerr, Nathen..."

He called five or six names in a row. These people were all from the younger generation, including Kerr and

After the roll call was completed, Abraham said, "Go back to your rooms and pack your things. A car will pick you up in half an hour. It will send you to the airport. Remember, don't bring any luxury goods, just some clothes."

Kerr was confused, and he felt the heavy atmosphere in the house. He was a little uncomfortable.

Stacey pulled him and motioned him to go outside.

Kerr followed Stacey out of the house and got into Stacey's car.

He also had a lot of clothes in Stacey's house.

"Damn it. What's the situation now?" Kerr could not help but curse.

"There was a meteor shower just now. Grandpa said... He asked us to leave," Stacey sighed.

"What do you mean?" Kerr was speechless and said, "Isn't it a good thing to have a meteor shower? Why did he ask us to leave? I... Also, where is Grandpa going to send us? I am confused now."

Stacey shook her head and said, "I don't know, either. Don't ask too much. Grandpa is in a very bad mood. After the meteor shower, he has been talking about it. I hope nothing bad happens to Gerald."

Kerr nodded and said, "Okay, I don't know where he is going to send us. It's so annoying! I still want to stay in Washington."

Stacey was speechless. She drove the car and rushed home.

Three hours passed without a sound. At that time, there was a huge airport in the desert. If one paid attention to it, most of the planes in the airport were not ordinary passenger planes.

At the airport, there were airplanes landing from time to time, and then teams of people wearing Night Watch clothes walked out from above.

After Gerald and others landed, the group followed them down. Valery, Carolyn, and others were wearing sunglasses. At the same time, they covered themselves very tightly. In this place, they would still pay attention to their physical conditions.

"I'm a little regretful," Nova muttered, "The environment here is too harsh, and the skin will be very dry. After that, I'm sure..."

"You can go back," Theo said lightly.

"Ah!" Nova was stunned.

After Nova came here, Theo treated her very well. Of course, Theo had always treated beautiful women very well. However, she didn't expect that at this time, Theo suddenly spoke to her in a very serious tone.

"I said you could go back immediately. Do you think we are willing to take you with us?" Theo snorted and said, "In fact, you shouldn't have come at all."

Although Nova belonged to the underground world, she had never really experienced these battles.

She followed Gerald because Jaden had told her that it would be very safe to follow Gerald. She was also at the intermediate level and was actually a burden to Gerald and others.

Gerald glanced at her and sighed, "Nova, since there is a deal between you and me, I will keep my promise, but from the moment we set foot in this place, we entered the battlefield. This is not a game, but a real life and death test! Don't talk about the environment here, and don't talk about other miscellaneous things. They don't want to hear these complaints. This is not Sacramento or Washington."

He frowned slightly and said, "I suggest that you return with this plane. It will go back. In fact, if the North falls, I will go back. Moreover, there are more than 1,000 friends of Sin City in Sacramento. They will protect you."

Nova pursed her lips. She felt that the temperament of Gerald and others had changed since they got off the plane.

"Then... I'd better go back. If I get into trouble, you must come and protect me," Nova said quickly.

Gerald nodded.

When Nova got on the plane, Theo cursed, "Fuck, when I saw this kind of weak woman outside, I wanted to protect her. When I came here, I was annoyed at her. I don't know what happened."

Gerald let out a breath and said, "She just hasn't experienced these things. It's normal for a child who has been living a carefree life. She gave me a lot of help, and she helped me get most Dragon Bones. Of course, I have to keep my word."

Claude nodded and said, "It's better to let her go back. It might be more troublesome if she stays here."

Gerald nodded and said, "Let's go!"

After that, Valery pulled Gerald and asked, "Where ... are we going? Don't we belong to the American Night Watch now?"

"No." Gerald pursed his lips, then licked his lips and said, "Let's go to the place where they landed. What exactly is the situation?"

As he spoke, he walked out of the airport.

As soon as he arrived at the door, Gerald frowned slightly. In front of him, Zackary was standing there with a smile, and beside him was a bus.

"What are you doing?" Gerald curled his lips.

"Of course, I'm here to welcome you. Don't be angry. Come with me to see Blaine first. At the same time, we also have some news to share with you," Zackary said.

Gerald frowned, but he did not refuse it. He got into the car.

The car started and continued along a road. The road was a little bumpy as if it had been hit by something. Gerald looked outside.

"How is it? Do you miss this place?" Valery sat next to Gerald and asked, "It might have been a long time since I came here."

Gerald shook his head and said, "I don't miss this place. If possible, I don't want to come here again for the rest of my life."

Actually, without these things, his brothers wouldn't have died in battles. He could stay in an ordinary city, get married, and have a child as his parents wished.

"Look over there!" At this time, Theo suddenly exclaimed and looked in a direction.

In the dark night, a sharp ghost with blue light fell down. At the same time, in the vicinity, dozens of shadows came out in a line. They held double sabers and shouted loudly.

"For every being who is breathing!"

Chapter 500 Meeting

"For every being who is breathing!"

"We devote ourselves to the future we want!"

“We shall never give up!”

A large group of Watchmen shouted and walked out. Among this group of Watchmen, Gerald noticed that the most powerful person was just at the advanced level. He was the leader of this team.

At this time, he rushed to the front. He was the main attacker of this team.

Watchmen were mostly fighting on the scale of a team, and each team had dozens of members!

The elite team, just like Gerald’s Team 11762, the members of these teams were led by top-level leaders. People at the top level and the advanced level were regular members. The configuration of the elite team was generally 8 to 12 people.

In the past, there were only 8 people in Team 11762. Of course, this team now was also an organization of 8 people.

Belinda looked over curiously and asked, “Are they Elite Ghosts?”

Theo nodded and explained, “Yes. The Elite Ghost has a similar strength to the assassins of Blood Lotus. The blue Elite Ghosts are equal to Blue Card Assassins. It is also the most common among Elite Ghosts. The blue Elite Ghosts are equal to top experts. Above it is red. Red Elite Ghosts are equal to super experts. And because of their uniqueness, every red Elite Ghost is very difficult to deal with for a single super expert. Generally, several super experts will deal with it together.”

“Didn’t Gerald kill a red one when he was at the top level?” Belinda asked.

“It was a coincidence.” Gerald shook his head and said, “At that time... I set him up!”

“Set up...” Belinda was dumbfounded.

“Then golden Elite Ghost...” Belinda swallowed and said, “Does the golden one has a similar strength to Blaine? The Invincible?”

“That’s right!” Kristen continued. “The golden Elite Ghost is at the same level as Blaine. However, golden Elite Ghosts rarely appear. In the fighting years between Night Watch and Elite Ghosts, golden Elite Ghosts only appear once. Many years ago, Blaine tried his best to kill golden Elite Ghost, and Blaine also became like this. Blaine now can only attack once with his saber while fighting.”

Upon hearing his words, Belinda’s expression changed slightly. She said in shock, “From what you’ve said, is there a golden Elite Ghost? This means that it’ll be very difficult this time?”

Gerald nodded and said, “Yes. We never expected that there would be a golden Elite Ghost this time. So... I have to kill it for Blaine.”

“You want to deal with that golden Elite Ghost?” Belinda was stunned for a moment.

Beside him, Zackary said happily, "You don't need to worry about Blaine. You can't deal with the golden Elite Ghost now."

After saying that, Zackary gestured to the driver, and the driver stopped the car.

They all looked outside the window.

The battle was very fierce. The blue Elite Ghost waved the weapon in its hand. The moment it waved the weapon, the ground was filled with sand and stones. Most of these were intermediate-level Watchmen, and they could not resist at all. Several of them were seriously injured and flew away while spitting blood.

The others all rushed forward again, and they formed a joint attack formation. The advanced-level Watchman was the main attacker.

"Help them," Gerald said with a frown.

Claude nodded. Then he suddenly stood up, pulled out his sniper rifle, aimed ahead, and pulled the trigger!

The bullet flew out!

"Bang!"

The specially made bullet directly pierced through the neck of the Elite Ghost. The Elite Ghost paused, and then its huge body collapsed.

"Good job!" Zackary looked at Claude with a smile and said, "You're skilled with the sniper rifle."

The members of Team 11762 now all could fight the blue Elite Ghost alone.

"Start the bus!" Zackary said to the driver.

"Aren't we going to greet them?" Theo chuckled. "These people should be very excited when they see us coming back!"

"Let's hurry up and go!" Zackary pondered for a moment, and his tone was no longer as relaxed as before. "I'm afraid that the difficulty this time is quite big."

The bus started again. They walked through the Gobi desert. Soon, they arrived at the places that had some houses.

There were no cities in the North, and Watchmen did not live together. They were all separated. Several teams would be stationed every several miles because no one knew when the Elite Ghosts would come. As long as they came near Watchmen, Watchmen in the nearby teams would immediately attack.

Of course, when there was no Elite Ghost, Watchmen were relatively free and could be sent out to carry out some other tasks.

At the same time, the team behind them let out a long sigh. Their leader was a middle-aged man who looked very tired. He was shouting loudly, "Send the injured to the nearest medical place. The others clean up the battlefield."

The materials of standard weapons and clothes of the Watchmen were all taken from these Elite Ghosts.

"What's going on? Why didn't this Elite Ghost self-destruct?" A young team member came up, his face still filled with fear.

He was a Watchman who had just joined the battlefield, and he had not carried out many missions!

In the battle with the Elite Ghosts, when they found that they could not defeat or were about to die, they would self-destruct and try to cause more trouble for Watchmen.

"Before it self-destructed, it was killed." The team leader sighed and said, "By a sniper."

"Sniper?" The young member asked in confusion.

The leader grinned again. He pointed at the bus in the distance and said, "Have you heard of Team 11762?"

"Huh? Are you talking about Legendary Sniper? Watchman No. 12! Is he on the bus?" The young team member asked excitedly.

"Damn it. Why do you have so many questions? Hurry up and clean up the battlefield. Go," the leader said and kicked him.

The young team member mumbled a few words and ran over.

The leader looked at the bus in the distance and murmured, "Legendary Sniper fired. How many people from Team 11762 come today?"

Gerald used to come to this place often. This was a general station of Night Watch. It was mainly responsible for the joint points of many areas. This was also a medical station nearby.

"Blaine is not at the headquarters?" Theo asked in surprise.

"No, Gerald is angry with Blaine. Blaine is also angry with the people from other places," Zackary said with a smile.

Theo saw his smile and quickly said, "Hey, Zackary, don't laugh like that. I always feel that you are scheming against me. I feel terrified."

Zackary didn't even have Vital Energy, but many people were afraid of him. Zackary was a wicked person with a hypocritical smile.

Gerald nodded and said, "Alright, let's go in now!"

They got off the bus, and the group of people walked into the building.

In this building, people came and went. They were all dressed in ordinary clothes, not like Watchmen.

Watchmen had different jobs in the North. For example, Gerald and his team members were combat personnel. They generally did not stay in the headquarters. Most of the people living in the headquarters were medical staff, intelligence collectors, wounded people, and so on.

When they saw Gerald and the others appear, many people were shocked.

But because Zackary was following them, no one came up to greet them. They walked along the stairs to the sixth floor and entered an office.

Just as he walked in, Gerald noticed that there were several people in the room, and Gerald knew almost all of them.

Blaine was sitting at the head of the conference table. When he saw Gerald, he snorted.

Beside him, there were all Watchmen who were ranked at the top.

Gerald's eyes fell on a woman opposite Triston, and he narrowed his eyes.
