Chapter 601 Scar Is Poisoned

“Ari, we haven’t seen each other for many years, have we?” Dr. T flipped through the cards in his hand and said with a smile. “Your gambling skills are still so good!”

“Of course. This is what I do for a living,” Ari sneered.

Gloria rolled her eyes.

Dr. T looked at Gloria and asked Ari, “Is this girl their child?”

Ari said, “Yes!”

Dr. T said with a smile, “I miss the time when I was with you guys. But unfortunately, we separated later.”

“Stop pretending in front of me. You know that we have always been in Sin City.” Ari curled his lips.

Dr. T smiled. He touched his chin and said, “You came to me this time. Are you planning to join us?”

“Join you?” Ari curled his lips. “Forget it. I came here because I wanted your help. If you can help, this disaster can be avoided. Blaine can deal with the Purple Elite Ghosts, and you can easily deal with those Gold Elite Ghosts! You also have many experts that listen to you...”

Dr. T interrupted Ari and asked, “Why should I help those people? Give me a reason.”

“For the sake of all living beings. It’s not easy to have a peaceful era. You don’t want it to be destroyed, right?” Ari said.

Dr. T shook his head. “What do all living beings have to do with me? I can build a world that should exist myself. And before that, elimination is necessary. In this world, many people should die. They are not qualified to live in this world.”

Ari frowned and then shook his head. He stood up and said, “Fine. You won’t listen to me.”

“You don’t want to stay here?” Dr. T asked. “We’ve known each other for many years. At the very least, I can guarantee your absolute safety and allow you to survive this disaster!”

“Live here? Can I survive?” Ari curled his lips. “We still don’t know how many people will die here! I am also an old man, and it’s time for me to do something for this world. I will go kill those Elite Ghosts!”

After saying so, Ari turned around and walked out.

Gloria made a face at Dr. T. Then, she followed Ari and walked out.

After leaving the underground casino, Gloria asked, “Grandpa, is that man Dr. T? I remember you saying that he's about the same age as you. Why does he look so young? He looks like a middle-aged man, and he is quite handsome."

"That guy is just a pervert. I even suspect that he is no longer human." Ari let out a breath.

"Then where are we going?" Gloria asked.

"Go back to Sacramento. Go to the Night Watch Base. But I have to go to the frontline!" Ari said with a smile.

"Oh. Grandpa, you have to come back safely! If you don't come back, I will no longer have a relative in this world," Gloria said.

"Sure!" Ari nodded. "I'll send you to Sacramento first!"

The next morning, Gerald didn't get up early. After he went to the first floor, he found no one there. Most of the people had already eaten breakfast. After breakfast, they returned to their own rooms. They were trying their best to improve themselves.

On the first floor, a lady was packing up. When she saw Gerald, she said, "You must be Gerald!"

"Hello, lady!" Gerald said with a smile.

"Alas. Mr. Hanson told me to take good care of you. Please be prepared for the war. We all have to rely on you to survive. Well. I can't help you even if I want to. If the Night Watch still needs new blood, I can give you one. I have a kid at home who is addicted to games. I can send him to you," she said as she cleaned up the dining table.

"Haha..." Gerald couldn't help but laugh. The lady made a good impression on Gerald because of her words.

"It won't help much even if you send him in. It needs to take a few years for him to get on the battlefield," Gerald smiled. "Don't worry. We will guard this place well!"

The lady put the things back into the kitchen and brought breakfast for Gerald. "Then I will let him join you and practice."

Gerald took the breakfast and thanked the lady. He chatted with her. At the same time, Gerald was thinking about how to improve the speed of his absorption of the Dragon Bones!

Beep...

After having a few bites of food, Gerald's phone rang. Gerald took out his phone and took a look. He found that it was Jolie's call.

"Hello, Jolie. Is there anything?" Gerald asked.

"Gerald, come over quickly. Something has happened." Jolie's anxious voice sounded on the phone.

"What's wrong?" Gerald asked.

"It's Mr. Scar... Mr. Scar seems to be poisoned. They said that Mr. Scar might die. Jacob and Erik had a conflict with the people of Sin City. They said that it was Erik who had done that. Now, the two of them are surrounded by those people," Jolie said.

"What?" Gerald's expression changed slightly. "Alright. I'll be right there."

Scar was poisoned!

Erik had a conflict with the people of Sin City. This was something that Gerald had never expected. Thinking of what Valery had said about Erik, Gerald frowned!

Gerald put down the breakfast in his hand and rushed to Valery's room. He knocked on the door and said, "Dr. Manning, I need you to go to the Night Watch Base with me."

Valery opened the door and asked, "What's wrong?"

Gerald briefly told Valery what had happened. After knowing what had happened, Valery immediately took her things and followed Gerald. The two of them drove toward the Night Watch Base.

More than an hour later, their car successfully arrived at the Night Watch Base.

At this time, it was noisy in the Night Watch Base.

After Gerald entered the base, Malcolm came to greet him.

Gerald hurriedly asked, "What the hell is going on?"

"It's not clear yet. After Scar ate lunch at noon, his whole body began to turn black," Malcolm said. "The food Scar ate today was sent by Erik. But Erik denied it. He said he ate with Scar."

Valery and Gerald looked at each other.

"Take Dr. Manning to see Scar first. Leave the matters here to me!" Gerald said to Malcolm.

After saying so, Gerald walked into the crowd.

In the crowd, Erik and Jacob were surrounded by a large group of people from Sin City.

"What the hell do you mean by this? You poisoned him, but you don't dare to admit it. If not for the fact that you are a member of Gerald's team, I would have killed you already!"

"That's right. Tell us honestly. Did you do it? You and Scar are not familiar with each other. Why did you eat with him?"

The sound of the crowd was very loud! It was as if this was an interrogation.

Obviously, Scar had quite a high reputation among this group of people.

"I also had lunch with him at noon, But I am fine. How would I know why he got poisoned?" Erik snorted and explained.

But no one believed Erik. Jacob tried his best to mediate between them. But no one listened to him.

Chapter 602 Interrogation

Gerald parted the crowd and walked to the front.

When everyone saw Gerald coming over, they all quieted down.

When Jacob saw Gerald coming over, he heaved a sigh of relief and said, "You are finally here. I don't know what to do now."

Gerald looked at the crowd. Then, he turned to look at Erik and said, "I need an explanation!"

Erik was stunned. Then, he shook his head and said, "I don't know what happened either. I ate with Scar at noon. I didn't expect him to be poisoned. If there were poisons in that food, I should be poisoned too!"

Gerald asked lightly, "There are two things suspicious. First, why did you want to stay in the Night Watch Base instead of acting with my team? Second, you and Scar have never met each other before. Why did you suddenly eat with him?"

Erik had also thought about these questions. So he replied lightly, "I just want to stay here. I have no other thoughts. As for eating with him, I have heard a lot about him, so I want to know him."

"It sounds far-fetched. It's not enough for me to believe that you are innocent." Gerald shook his head.

Erik was slightly stunned. Then, he spread his hands and said, "If you don't believe me, I don't know what else I can do. But this is the truth."

"It's fine," Gerald said indifferently. "Erik, I will give you one last chance. If you really didn't do it, I will apologize to you in front of everyone! Dr. Manning is the best doctor in the world. She can find out what kind of poison Scar has gotten. Then, we will need to do two things. First, we will search your body and see if you have any antidotes on you. Don't doubt the current technology. Second, Dr. Manning needs to hypnotize you! You said you ate with Scar. But no one knows whether you really ate with him or not."

After saying that, Gerald turned to look at Erik and said, "You think you are innocent. Then there is no problem with these two checks, right?"

"I am a member of your team, and you don't trust me." Erik frowned.

"It's different!" Gerald said lightly. "My trust in you is based on Carolyn. Because you are her disciple, I trust you. But now that something has happened, someone has to be accountable. If you really didn't do it, I will personally apologize to you in front of everyone."

After saying so, Gerald's eyes suddenly turned cold. He added, "Of course, if you did... you will have to bear the consequences."

"I refuse to be examined," Erik said indifferently. "Like you, my trust in you is also based on my master. Who knows whether I will tell the truth after you hypnotize me?"

"I will record the whole process!" Gerald said.

"The video can also be edited," Erik said.

"Are you feeling guilty?" Gerald said again.

"It's not guilt but disappointment!" Erik shook his head. "I thought that after I joined your team, I would have your team members' trust. However, I was wrong."

Beside Erik, Jacob frowned deeply. Jacob looked at Erik and said, "Erik, actually, I have always had a question. Ever since you came back this time, I feel that something is wrong with you. Did someone... threaten you? If yes, you can say it. We are all buddies. Don't hide it."

Jacob and Erik had been together for a few months. Thus, the relationship between Jacob and Erik was naturally deeper than that between Gerald and Erik.

Gerald looked at Jacob and asked, "What do you mean?"

up, he Jacob slowly let out a breath and said, "Before he came to Sacramento, when I picked him was in a straight state and seemed to have something hiding in his heart. In fact, after hearing your questions, I also suspected that it was Erik who did it. I am not defending him. Erik and Scar don't know each other. Scar has been in Sin City for almost thirty years. But Erik is still young. When Scar entered Sin City, Erik was only a kid. Their lives didn't cross paths!"

Jacob analyzed and added, "So if Erik wanted to attack Scar, it should be that someone ordered him to do so."

Erik frowned and said, "Jacob, don't talk nonsense. If you all really suspect me, then there is nothing I can do. I can only withdraw from the Night Watch to prove my innocence."

But Gerald said sternly, "Withdrawing from the Night Watch might not be able to prove your innocence. Erik, you will have my word. If you are innocent, you don't have to be afraid of being examined. If it is as Jacob said, and you have been threatened, I will give you one last chance. Explain the ins and outs of the matter clearly. If you explain, I may be merciful to you according to

●the situation!"

Erik did not expect Gerald's attitude to be so tough. His face suddenly became gloomy.

At this time, Valery came over. Valery said with a serious expression, "His life is not in danger for the time being. The poison he ate contains a highly toxic substance. Fortunately, he did not absorb it much. I washed his stomach. Besides, his body is very strong and healthy, so he survived. But he will be very weak for some time. If he ate more, he would die in a few hours."

Hearing this, Gerald felt slightly relieved. Then, he said to Valery, "Sorry. But I need you to hypnotize Erik and ask him what happened exactly!"

"Did Erik really do it?" Valery asked with a frown.

"Scar ate lunch with him," Gerald said.

"I got it!" Valery nodded.

Erik gritted his teeth and said, "Gerald, I can't accept it."

"So many people are suspicious of you now. If you didn't do it, why aren't you willing to prove your innocence? If you don't want to accept the examination, then I will have to force you. If it is proved that you are really innocent, I will apologize to you. Others will also apologize to you," Gerald said in a cold tone. "If you still want to resist, then don't blame me for forcing you."

In fact, at this time, Gerald already felt something was wrong with Erik.

All of Erik's actions were linked to this matter.

Jacob looked at Erik and said, "Just accept it. This is not a big deal. You are our friend, and we don't want to lose you."

Erik looked around and gritted his teeth. Then, his aura erupted. He jumped up as if he wanted to escape.

"He has reached the super level!" Everyone, including Gerald, was completely stunned at this time.

The aura that Erik had erupted indicated that he had actually reached the super level. He was no longer a top expert.

"This son of bitch!" Gerald cursed. At the same time, the Vital Energy in his body surged. Gerald quickly rushed out and chased after Erik.

Chapter 603 Valery's Hypnosis

Indeed, no one had expected that Erik was a super expert. Before today, Erik had not displayed his strength at all. He had completely hidden his strength and pretended to be a top expert. He must know some kind of secret technique.

At this time, a surge of rage rose in Gerald's heart.

Gerald had been deceived by Erik. Erik's strength was greater than Carolyn's, but he had taken Carolyn as his master. Now, Erik had poisoned the people around Gerald. What exactly was Erik going to do?

Gerald was furious. His Vital Energy had completely erupted. His speed was extremely fast. Gerald quickly approached Erik and grabbed him.

"Let me go!" Erik turned over and kicked Gerald. He moved a little away from Gerald and said, "I mean no harm to you!"

"It's meaningless saying this now," Gerald sneered. "Tell me, who exactly are you? What is your purpose? Why did you get close to Carolyn and join the Night Watch? Of course, you can also keep silent. I have taken you as a watchman, Carolyn's disciple, and a member of my team. So I have always been nice to you. But now, you have exposed your true face. Don't blame me for being ruthless to you!"

"I have never thought of hurting you!" Erik said: "My feelings for my master are also true. This time, I had no choice but to do it. Scar is still alive, isn't he? Let me go. Let me leave!"

"What if Dr. Manning failed to save him?" Gerald said indifferently. "Stop talking nonsense. You have to bear the consequences of doing this!"

After Gerald finished speaking, his expression changed. His speed was extremely fast, and he appeared next to Erik the next second.

Erik's expression changed slightly.

Erik was super, and his talent was extraordinary. Erik was as young as Gerald, and his talent was the top in the world.

However, even if Erik was a super expert, he was still no match for Gerald. Erik couldn't even resist and was directly knocked out by Gerald.

After knocking Erik out, Gerald sneered and carried Erik on his shoulder. Gerald didn't carry Erik back to the Night Watch Base.

Erik had escaped. This almost confirmed the fact that Erik had poisoned Scar. If Gerald carried Erik back, Erik would probably be swallowed up alive by a group of people. Moreover, Erik was Carolyn's disciple anyway. Some things had to be done under Carolyn's witness.

Gerald called Valery and said, "I caught Erik. Drive over and pick us up. We will interrogate him after we return to the villa."

"Alright!" Valery said. "I'll bring Scar along as well. He needs some time to recuperate. I'll leave the matters here to Jacob."

Gerald nodded. "OK!"

Soon, Valery drove over to pick Gerald up. Then, they went directly to the villa.

Carolyn and the others quickly came downstairs. After Gerald explained what happened, Carolyn was slightly stunned. She looked at Erik and said, "Is this kid a super expert?"

"Yes," Gerald said. "We have to wait for Dr. Manning to hypnotize him before we can find out what happened. This kid doesn't seem to be willing to speak."

Carolyn's expression became gloomy. She seemed to recall what had happened back then. She of muttered, "In fact, I also felt it was very strange back then. At that time, I was chased by a group of people and was saved by him. At that time, I knew that he was a martial artist. However, I was unconscious at that time. So I didn't know how he did it. It seems that he had already reached the top level or above at that time."

Valery didn't

much. She directly took out her special tools and attached them to Erik's body.

Soon, Erik woke up. Seeing that the surrounding people were all looking at him, Erik was stunned. Then, Erik wanted to struggle. But he found that he couldn't move at all. Valery used the special tools to stop Erik from moving.

This was what was truly terrifying about Valery.

Valery had not reached the super level yet, but her special tools and scalpel were all terrifying weapons.

Erik looked at Gerald and asked with a gloomy face, "What do you want?"

"What do I want? I want to ask you, what do you want? Why did you poison Scar? Why did you hide your strength? What is your purpose?" Gerald asked with a sneer.

Erik's face was gloomy as he looked at Gerald. "I..."

"You don't have to speak now!" Gerald curled his lips. "You have fooled Carolyn for almost four years. I don't believe any word that comes out of your mouth. Dr. Manning, let's begin!"

Valery nodded. Then, she raised her hand slightly, and a pocket watch hung down, constantly swaying in front of Erik.

"Don't try to hypnotize me," Erik said through his gritted teeth.

Valery smiled slightly. Her originally cold voice had become incomparably gentle at this moment.

"I know that you must have many secrets in your heart. You are not willing to tell them to others. Have a good sleep. When you wake up..."

Just like when Valery gave Gerald a hypnosis treatment, Valery's voice was very gentle, making people feel comfortable!

Plop!

After a while, Erik was still awake. On the contrary, Claude, who was at the side and had looked at the pocket watch for a long time, fell asleep on the ground first.

Seeing this, Theo felt speechless. "This idiot!"

Gradually, Erik felt as if his eyelids were out of his control. At a certain point in time, his eyes closed, and he fell asleep.

Gerald gave Valery a thumbs-up and asked in a low voice, "Are you sure he has fallen asleep? This kid has been pretending at Carolyn's side for three years. He is a great actor."

Carolyn was in a bad mood after hearing Gerald and the others talk about it. Carolyn had been with Erik for three years, and she still had some feelings for him.

"He fell asleep. I will start asking him questions," Valery said.

The others nodded.

Valery's voice was still very gentle. She said to the sleeping Erik, "You can treat me as a tree hole.

You can tell me everything. Why did you save Carolyn in Los Angeles three years ago?"

Erik seemed to be talking in his sleep. He murmured, "I have hatred in my heart. I had no way to take revenge in the past. On that day, I found some traces in Los Angeles. By chance, I saw my master being chased. I recognized her because of her Night Watch clothes. So I saved her. I also took her as my master and became her disciple. I thought that one day, I could rely on her to join the Night Watch and take revenge for myself with the power of the Night Watch!"

"Revenge? What hatred do you have?" Valery asked softly again.

"My father, mother, my brother, and my sister were all killed by Roland. I have been looking for Roland. But I couldn't find any trace of him," Erik said. He sounded a little sad.

Hearing this, Carolyn was stunned.

Carolyn had known Erik for so many years, but Erik had never mentioned this to her.

Carolyn looked at Gerald and asked with a frown, "Do you know Roland?"

"I had seen his information in the Night Watch database. But he has disappeared for who knows how many years. According to his age, he should be from the same era as Blaine." Gerald rubbed his nose. Then, he continued, "At that time, he was a super expert. But later, he suddenly disappeared and left no trace in the world."

Valery pondered for a moment. Then, she continued to ask Erik, "Then why did you poison Scar?"

"I am not the one who wants Scar dead," Erik said in a somewhat vague tone. "Not long ago, I met a person. He told me that he knew the location of my enemy. But... There was a precondition. He asked me to kill Scar first. It was an exchange, and I chose to poison Scar."

Gerald was right about it!

Gerald thought, that's it!

No wonder Erik had always wanted to stay in the Night Watch Base. After all, Scar had been living there. Erik stayed in the Night Watch Base to wait for an opportunity to kill Scar.

Gerald slowly exhaled and said to Valery, "Ask him who let him kill Scar!"

Valery nodded. Then, her gentle voice sounded again. "Who asked you to kill Scar?"

Erik paused. Then, he seemed to struggle. After a moment, his lips moved slightly. "The boss of the underground casino in Washington, Jaden!"

Chapter 604 The Slayers

When he heard this, Gerald's eyes suddenly turned cold.

Erik burdened himself with a long-running feud. To a certain extent, it was understandable for him to do that. However, as for how to punish him, Gerald let Carolyn deal with it. After all, Erik was Carolyn's disciple and had indeed saved Carolyn's life.

However, one person had to be responsible for Scar's being poisoned.

The existence of Scar could easily control these people who came out of Sin City, which saved Gerald and the others a lot of trouble.

Moreover, Scar might not be as strong as others, but Gerald spoke highly of him. In Sin City, Scar was only at the advanced level. But when Gerald and the others ran into trouble, Scar was willing to protect them and did not run away. Gerald appreciated Scar's bravery and loyalty.

Jaden actually wanted to attack Scar, which made Gerald very angry.

Gerald glanced at Carolyn and said, "Erik is yours. As for how you want to deal with him, it's up to you. But no matter what, Erik has to apologize to Scar and get his forgiveness."

Carolyn looked at Erik, who was still asleep. She had mixed feelings.

Gerald ignored them. He took out his phone, found Nova's number, and called her.

When Nova first appeared, she wanted to follow Gerald. But when she arrived in the North, she could not adapt to that kind of life. Under Gerald's suggestion, she returned to Sacramento. Because Elite Ghosts had not arrived there, she was relatively safe in Sacramento. Later, she returned to Washington.

After this incident, Gerald planned to find her. After all, they had some agreements with each other.

After the all-out war started, he had to protect Nova.

It was just that at that time, his call to Nova did not get through, and afterward Washington was under control.

But when he called, she still didn't answer.

This made Gerald frown deeply.

Although many people had reminded Gerald to be wary of Jaden, Gerald had a good impression of Nova. Previously, Nova had indeed helped him a lot. He had to figure out what exactly was going

1. on.

But he could not contact her. He did not know what had happened to Nova.

“No one answered?” Valery approached him and asked.

Gerald nodded and said, “Yes. I ... I’m afraid I have to go to the underground casino in Washington.”

“Hmm?” Valery frowned. “Are you going to find Jaden?”

“Yes. On one hand, I am going to find Jaden and ask him what he meant. After all, we have worked together before, and Nova has helped me a lot,” Gerald said. “On the other hand, I’m going to end the cooperation with him.”

“End the cooperation?” Valery asked. “What about Nova? Do you still need to protect her?”

“Yes, Jaden is too unpredictable. Back then, we cooperated with him because of the Dragon Bone. However, we don’t know much about him. Moreover, they all said that he is very dangerous, so our cooperation has to end. Moreover, Jaden also works for Dr. T,” Gerald shook his head and said, “As for Nova, she’s different. She helped me before. Now it’s my turn to help her. In short, we’ll see when we meet them.”

Valery nodded and said, “No problem. But I won’t go with you this time. I need to hurry up and reach the super level. Take care of yourself.”

Gerald nodded and said, “Okay, I will pack my things and then ask Christopher to send me there.”

Valery agreed.

Gerald returned to his room. He planned to bring his weapon with him. No one knew what Jaden was planning right now. Gerald didn’t know why Jaden wanted to attack Scar. If he met Jaden, Jaden might do something to him. It was necessary to bring his weapon.

However, this time, Gerald brought two red lightswords. The lightswords were all wrapped up in cloth.

These red lightswords could improve his fighting ability a lot. He no longer used the Void-breaking and the Nameless. The Nameless was given to Milo, and the Void-breaking was given to Carolyn.

Carolyn’s current weapon was also one of the top ten weapons in the weapon manual.

After packing up, he was going to leave.

Just then, his room was pushed open, and Carolyn walked in.

“What’s wrong?” Gerald looked at her and asked.

“I intend to let Erik go,” Carolyn said. “He saved my life back then, and he was my disciple. We also lived together for three years.”

Gerald smiled and said, “I can understand what happened to Erik. Now that Scar is not dead, you can deal with Erik however you want.”

“OK, thank you. I will make him apologize to Scar and get Scar’s forgiveness. No matter what Scar wants to do, Erik won’t refuse. But Scar can’t kill him,” Carolyn said. “Then... I plan to go out with Erik.”

“Huh?” Gerald’s expression changed. “What do you mean?”

“Erik said that Jaden knows where his enemy is. I plan to find Jaden and help Erik take revenge. Of course, we will come back before the final battle,” Carolyn said. “When we come back, he will do whatever Scar asks. What do you think?”

Gerald nodded and said, “No problem. Do as you want. I also have to go find Jaden. Let’s go together.”

Carolyn was stunned for a moment. Then she ran to Gerald’s side and held his arm. “Then hurry up. Let’s go now.”

“Go get your weapons,” Gerald slowly let out a breath and said.

Carolyn nodded. She returned to her room and picked up the Void-breaking and the Sapphire Star. She wrapped them in cloth too, and the three of them drove directly to the airport.

Christopher had already arrived here in advance to wait for them.

He was now Gerald’s exclusive plane pilot.

Then, the plane soared into the sky and rushed toward Washington.

It was in the underground casino in Washington. The underground casino was no longer open to the public during this period. There they couldn’t get any signals. It was requested by Dr. T. He did not want the people there to have too much contact with the outside world during this period.

Of course, no one knew the specific reason.

At that time, in a certain room, Dax was still lying inside. Although a day had passed, his physical condition was still very bad. It was impossible to recover completely in a short time.

There was a baby carriage beside him, and a baby was sleeping soundly with a milk bottle in his arms.

Creak...

At this time, the door to his room was opened.

Then, two people wearing masks walked in.

Dax frowned and said, "What do you want?"

One of the two people who came in was Jaden, and the other was tall and had a red mask on his face. He looked a little scared.

"We are both Slayers under Dr. T. We should get to know each other," Jaden smiled slightly and said, "This is the tenth Slayer. You can call him... Roland."

Dax's expression changed. "You are Roland?"

The man nodded and then said in a hoarse voice, "Now you are working for Dr. T. There is no need to fight for those stupid people."

"It's none of your business," Dax said faintly. "What do you want? If there is nothing else, I need to rest."

"There is one thing I need to ask you about," Roland said.

Chapter 605 Serious Situation

"Whom are you asking about?" Dax lay on the bed and no longer looked at them. Instead, he looked at the baby who was sleeping well next to him!

Roland's red mask made others panic. He coughed in embarrassment and asked, "I want to ask you about an old member of Night Watch. His name is Jorge. Do you know if he is still alive?"

Dax's expression changed. He seemed to have recalled something. Then, he frowned and answered indifferently, "I've never heard of him."

"He should have been quite famous in the history of Night Watch. He is very tall and belongs to the same generation as Blaine. It is said that he even fought against the first Gold Elite Ghost that arrived in this world along with Blaine," Roland reminded Dax.

"I don't remember him among Watchmen. He may be dead or I didn't know him before!" Dax said calmly.

Right at that moment.

The baby next to him woke up and cried out.

Dax turned around to check the baby and then calmly said, "Please leave. The baby is crying.

Moreover, please invite the babysitter in."

Roland still wanted to ask more. At that moment, Jaden hurriedly stopped him and said, "Okay, you should take care of yourself. We will leave now."

After they left, Dax felt relieved. He shook the baby's bed and comforted the crying baby. Dax seemed to recall something. After a moment, he murmured, "Jorge..."

At that moment, the door of the room was pushed open. A middle-aged woman walked in from the door. She walked to the baby and picked him up. She shook the milk bottle and handed it over to the baby!

The baby slowly stopped crying.

Washington Dulles International Airport was still in a mess, and many workers had already started to repair it.

After Gerald and his men landed, the car that the Night Watch had arranged for them arrived.

The damage in Washington was much greater than in Sacramento. Sacramento was quickly controlled and returned to normal, but Washington became the main place for the force of the Elite Ghosts to land. Although the TV news said that the Elite Ghost had left now, most of the companies still chose to be closed. Many people would rather stay at home. They did not dare to take risks coming outside!

Most of the workers who left their houses to work outside were hired at a high price.

For the sake of money, they overcame the fear of death and still came out for a job.

They had no other choice. In this era, people without money had to live a tough life. There were too few opportunities to earn a lot of money in one day.

Gerald and his men came out of the airport and got the car sent by the Night Watch. Gerald drove passing through the city.

In vast Washington, there were very few people on the streets. Only some sprinklers were washing the blood on the ground. The supermarkets were still open, but almost no one was willing to come outside.

The streets were empty.

Carolyn sighed, "The massacre after the arrival of the Elite Ghost seems to have made everyone a little scared."

"Of course. Ordinary people will naturally be afraid of it," Gerald slowed his breath and said. "After a while, after we win this battle, it will be much better. There are too many deaths this time."

Too many people died this time, including Watchmen and ordinary citizens.

The recruitment of the Night Watch was about to begin. Of course, it had to be after half a month of the final battle!

They drove through the city and first went to Nova's house.

Gerald wanted to find Jaden, but Jaden was good at hiding and hard to find. Jaden could be rarely seen. So Gerald had to find Nova first.

After arriving at Nova's house, Gerald started his power and found that there was no one in Nova's house because he felt no breath.

"No! No one is here." Gerald frowned. Then he took out his phone and tried to contact Nova, but he could not get through.

He frowned and said, "Let's go to the underground casino to check it. Maybe they are hiding there."

The underground casino was on the first underground floor. Relatively speaking, it was indeed safer there. When Elite Ghosts arrived, it was normal for Nova to hide there.

They drove the car again and headed for the underground casino. After an hour, they stopped in front of the underground casino. Usually, there were countless luxury cars parked in front of the underground casino, but today, there were very few cars.

They got out of the car with their sabers on their backs and headed towards a house above the underground casino!

At the door of the house, a few people were sitting there. They seemed to be guarding it.

What surprised Gerald was that those people were all of the top levels. They were sitting around at the door and playing cards.

After seeing them come over, someone put the cards on the table and said, "Hello, you are in a good mood. In such a horrible situation, you still come here for gambling! But I'm sorry, the underground casino is not open to the outside world. You can leave now!"

Gerald glanced at them and said, "I am looking for Nova or Jaden!"

When those people heard it, they frowned and replied, "We don't know them here. You have found the wrong place. Please leave now"

"We'll go inside and check it ourselves!" Carolyn frowned and was about to walk inside!

Those guards quickly stood up and blocked the door.

One of them mocked, "In those few days, no one will pay attention to it if we kill more others. This is not a place where you should come."

"Something is wrong," Gerald frowned and said. He then stopped Carolyn and continued, "Then please report our visit here. No matter if it is Nova or Jaden who is in, tell them that Gerald is waiting for them at the door."

"Fuck. Stop your nonsense. No one would be allowed in today. Hurry up and get away," someone stepped forward and cursed at them. He added, "I'll give you five seconds. Of course, if you wanted to be killed, you would be allowed to stay here.”

Hearing it, Gerald moved his eyebrows slightly.

“Son of bitch! You are not qualified to be at the top level.” When Carolyn heard what they said, she got furious. The Vital Energy in her body suddenly started. Then, the cloth behind her was broken.

The Sapphire Star and the Void-breaking could be seen!

Those who were guarding the door did not seem to have heard of Gerald’s name. Or they could not remember it. However, the moment they saw the hilt of the Void-breaking, they were almost shocked to death.

The Void-breaking was too famous!

“So you are...” Those who were guarding the door suddenly changed their expressions.

Carolyn sneered at them. She took a move and pulled out her saber.

“Stop it!”

At that moment, they heard someone speaking from inside the room. Gerald looked over and saw a person wearing a mask slowly walking outside. The mask she wore was a fox mask. From her figure, she should be judged as a female. Her voice sounded charming, which was quite weird.

Chapter 606 Choice

“I didn’t expect the one who currently ranked second on the Sun List to be so young. So heroes indeed come from young generations!” the lady wearing the fox mask said with a smile.

Then she added unhappily, “You guys, were you polite just now? How dare you talk to them like that? Gerald is the honored guest of Dr. T, and he now ranks second on the Sun List, and he is also a big boss of Night Watch. He is someone you cannot afford to annoy. Kneel and apologize!”

Those guards got sweaty on their backs..

The moment they saw the Void-breaking, they already regretted what they had said before.

At that moment, they stood there, trembling with fear. Gerald glanced at them and then said indifferently, “It doesn’t matter. I came here to find Nova and Jaden. Are they here?”

The lady wearing the fox mask smiled and replied, “Of course. But Dr. T said that if you came here, he would invite you downstairs for a talk.”

Gerald thought for a moment and said, “I want to see Jaden!”

“Of course, you can see Jaden or Nova, but before that, you have to meet Dr. T first.” The lady smiled.

Gerald touched his chin and nodded. “Okay, then please go ahead!”

“Only you are allowed to go along with me!” She still put on a faint smile.

“Gerald...” Carolyn’s expression changed.

“Don’t worry! Just wait for me here,” Gerald smiled and comforted Carolyn.

Carolyn was a little worried because they didn’t know Dr. T well.

But since Gerald had agreed, she chose to trust him.

“I will bring Jaden out to see you later,” Gerald said with a smile.

“Okay!” Carolyn and Erik nodded.

Gerald followed the lady and walked downstairs to the underground casino. Not long after, she pressed the headphones on her ear and said, “Dr. T, Gerald is here.”

Soon, they arrived at the first underground floor. Gerald saw many people there. They were either gambling or sitting there for a chat. What surprised Gerald was that most of them were at the top level. There were at least a hundred people there.

Gerald was shocked and thought secretly, there is indeed a force behind Dr. T. We can’t ignore it.

There might not be so many people as Watchmen, but Gerald felt the force was of great power.

They did not stay on the floor and directly entered a room on the third underground floor. The room looked more like an office. The usually noisy underground casino looked a little empty at that moment.

The office was very empty. The lady wearing the fox mask pulled out a chair and said, “Mr. Kenneth, please sit down here. Dr. T will be here soon.”

Gerald found a seat there.

She also sat down. At that moment, others slowly entered the room. There were males and females. They were all wearing masks, so it was impossible to figure out who they were.

After they arrived, they all looked at Gerald playfully with much interest.

Of course, Jaden also arrived.

However, Gerald had never met Jaden before, so he did not recognize Jaden.

They just sat there and kept silent.

Gerald looked around. There was a total of nine people. Judging from their Energy, those nine people were all at the super level.

Then the room was pushed open. Dr. T walked in from the door in a suit. He was still holding a cane in his hand. He smiled faintly and said, “Gerald, welcome to my world.”

Gerald frowned. He did not want to talk with Dr. T. He came here just to see Jaden.

Dr. T walked to Gerald and sat down. Then, Dr. T put on a faint smile and said, "They are among those Ten Slayers working for me. They are masters that I have trained for so many years on my own. Of course, adding Dax whom you know well, there are a total of ten of them! They are not on the Sun List, and others do not know about them, either. It is because I have secretly trained them. And three of them have the same power as Perrin or even more powerful than Perrin."

Gerald frowned and said, "I am not interested in your power and your organization. I am here to meet Jaden."

Dr. T smiled. "Are you talking about the one on my left?"

"What?" Gerald looked in the left direction of Dr. T. On his left was a man wearing a mask. His hair was gray and Gerald couldn't see his face.

At that moment, Jaden smiled faintly and said, "Gerald, we finally met. When you leave, please follow our agreement and bring Nova away."

Dr. T smiled and said, "Gerald, let me remind you. Jaden may be a bit more powerful than Davis, and he is qualified to be your rival now."

Jaden got up and thanked Dr. T, "It was all thanks to Dr. T."

Gerald was a little surprised.

Dr. T pursed his lips and said, "You're right. They may all have martial arts talent, but they can't reach their current level by relying on themselves. They only improved rapidly under my guidance. Moreover, I don't bother with their plans, such as Dax. Do you know why he is willing to join us?"

"I'm not interested to know it!" Gerald curled his lips. He looked at Jaden and was about to ask something.

Dr. T smiled again. "Dax shares the same opinion with me, and I can also help him improve himself quickly. He wanted to replace Blaine. He admired Blaine and wanted to make himself more powerful, so Dax joined us."

As Dr. T spoke, he looked at Gerald. "You are the same. Your talent can be rarely seen in my life. There is no one here who can compare to you. You have now reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. If you joined us, you would be at the level of Flame Decay in three or five years under my guidance. I'm sure about it.

"So you asked me to talk to you and brought all your men out to show off your power. You did it to prove that you would be able to make others more powerful. Did you try to persuade me to join. you?" Gerald frowned and asked.

"Yes, you can understand it in that way," Dr. T replied calmly. "You should be satisfied with it!"

"Not at all," Gerald curled his lips and said, "if I don't join you later, are you going to capture me here since you all arrive?"

Dr. T shook his head. "No. You don't have to worry about your safety at all. If I didn't take a move, no one here would be able to capture you! Do you indeed have no interest in becoming a Flame Decay? If you joined us, you would still be a Watchman, I won't bother you on the matter. But if I had an order for you, you would have to carry it out."

Gerald curled his lips and answered, "Sorry, I'm not interested in it at all! In three to five years, I feel that I can be at the same level by myself."

Dr. T narrowed his eyes. "You're quite confident. Let's put it in another way!"

After that, Dr. T said indifferently, "After this battle, Blaine will no doubt be dead. I can lend you Ten Slayers. They can join the final battle with you. If they joined, perhaps you would win. I can also tell you a way to speed up your process by taking the power of bones. In this period, you will be able to get power from a few more bones, and you will be sure to beat Gold Elite Ghosts. In the battle, you will have a fifty percent chance to win."

Dr. T's suggestion could be counted as a great temptation!

"I don't force you to join me, either!" Dr. T said indifferently. "But I have a condition. After Blaine dies, you will become the hero and leader of Night Watch. I hope that you can be in charge and cooperate with me!"

Hearing it, Gerald could not help but feel a little excited. He was interested in it.

Chapter 607 Refusal

Yes, Gerald was moved.

These Ten Slayers were super experts, and one of them was comparable to the Gold Elite Ghost. Two of them were comparable to the Red Elite Ghost, and the remaining seven people could kill a Red Elite Ghost together.

In this battle, even if Blaine fought to the death, Night Watch's chances of winning were still low. According to Zackary's analysis, their chances of winning were less than 30 percent, although Gerald had made a breakthrough during this period.

What the Watchmen lacked the most in the face of this group of Elite Ghosts was this kind of top-notch combat power.

The number of experts with peak combat strength was the deciding factor in this decisive battle.

With ten people joining the battlefield like this, their combat strength would indeed increase by a level.

More importantly, Gerald had never known how to speed up the absorption of bones. Dr. T had told him that there was a way to absorb them fast. If Gerald really absorbed these bones, he would be able to completely crush the Gold Elite Ghosts.

The most important thing in this battle was the number of Gold Elite Ghosts. Gerald now could kill the Gold Elite Ghost one-on-one, but he didn't know whether he could deal with two Gold Elite Ghosts alone. Moreover, there were more than two Gold Elite Ghosts now.

Therefore, even if Blaine had killed the most powerful Purple Elite Ghost with his saber, Gerald would still have to risk his life for the rest of the battle. Moreover, Gerald might not be able to win. even if he put his life on the line.

Gerald was indeed too tempted by the conditions given by Dr. T. Besides, Dr. T did not ask Gerald to join. Dr. T just said that after he took over the Night Watch, they could cooperate.

And during that time, Gerald could do a lot of things.

For example, Gerald might not take over the Night Watch.

He did not trust Dr. T. Up until now, and he still did not know what Dr. T wanted to do.

Did Dr. T want to treat this turmoil as an experiment?

As a scientific madman, Dr. T might do this kind of thing. However, Gerald did not think that this was his ultimate goal. Perhaps, other than himself, no one knew Dr. T's ultimate goal. If Dr. T just wanted to use it as an experiment, he did not need to secretly cultivate so many experts.

Blaine and Zackary also did not believe Dr. T at all. They even repeatedly warned Gerald not to cooperate with him.

At this time, Dr. T took out a small bottle and placed it on the table. He smiled and said, "It's up to you. If you agree, drink this bottle of medicine."

"What is this?" Gerald frowned.

from going

"Don't worry, it's not poisonous. It's just a medicine I developed myself. To prevent you back on your words, you should all drink it," Dr. T said with a smile, "Every year, I will give you a certain amount of medicine. As long as you drink it, there will be no problem. However, if you don't drink it, you will die."

Dr. T was telling the truth.

When Gerald saw this scene, he knew that things were complicated.

Drinking it meant that he would be completely controlled by Dr. T.

However, Gerald had to admit that the conditions given by Dr. T were too tempting. With Dr. T's method, the chance of winning the battle would raise to 50 percent.

Seeing the conflicted expression on Gerald's face, Dr. T was not in a hurry. He waited slowly. He smiled and said, "You can think about it slowly. I never force anyone to do anything."

After a moment, Gerald let out a long breath and said, "I can't agree to this matter."

He still listened to Blaine and Zackary's warnings.

“What a pity!” Dr. T shook his head and said, “You don’t have to be in a hurry to refuse it now. There are still some days before your decisive battle. You can consider it carefully. If you agree, you will reduce the deaths in the battle, and many ordinary people will be saved by you.”

“Forget it.” Gerald shook his head and let out a long breath.

Dr. T saw Gerald refuse again, and his eyes narrowed slightly. Then he stood up and said, “Think carefully and contact me at any time. Believe me, you will contact me.”

After Dr. T finished speaking, he looked meaningfully at Gerald, then looked at Jaden and said, “Since Gerald is here for you, then you should chat with him. I remember that you cooperate with each other. Help me persuade him.”

As Dr. T spoke, he stood up.

Other people did not speak the entire time. They were mostly just tools Dr. T showed off to Gerald. After everyone left, Gerald calmed down from his previous emotions for a while. He looked at Jaden and said, “Don’t you think you should give me an explanation?”

Jaden looked at Gerald and shook his head. “Come with me. This is not the place to talk.”

As Jaden spoke, he stood up.

Gerald suppressed the anger in his heart.

When Jaden asked Erik to attack Scar, Gerald was very angry.

Gerald got up and followed Jaden. Soon, Jaden found Nova. Nova still looked like a classical beauty. When she saw Gerald, she got up and smiled, “You came to pick me up.”

Gerald was stunned for a moment, then nodded.

Jaden still did not say anything. He brought Gerald out of the underground casino.

At the door, Carolyn and Erik saw Gerald come out safely. They heaved a long sigh of relief and quickly greeted him.

“Now you can say it,” Gerald said.

Jaden shook his head and said, “Is your car here? I can only tell you after we leave this place.”

Gerald frowned. They got into the car. Gerald, Nova, and Carolyn sat in the rear. Erik was driving in the front while Jaden was sitting next to him. The car drove for more than 6 miles before Jaden took off some electronic equipment from his body and said, “I wasn’t the one who wanted Scar to die. It was Dr. T who asked me to do it. He wanted to recruit a group of people from Sin City.”

“Huh?” Gerald’s expression changed slightly.

“You also know that I drank that potion. I can’t refuse some of his requests. It is correct that you didn’t agree to his request today. Dr. T is a madman. He has unparalleled talent, but he is a complete madman,” Jaden said slowly.

“He wants to recruit Scar’s fellows, right?” Gerald asked.

“Yes, he has recruited a lot of people who came out of Sin City during this time,” Jaden said.

Carolyn and Gerald looked at each other silently.

Gerald did not dare to believe what Jaden had said, Jaden finally provided a reason.

Gerald let out a breath and said, “You hurt my people this time. Fortunately, he did not die. I owed you a favor before. This time, I will repay it. I will not do anything to you, but our cooperation will end here. As for Nova, I will fulfill my promise to protect her and ensure her safety. However, if we lose in the final battle, I cannot guarantee it.”

understand, Jaden nodded and said.

“Of course, if I figure out that you were not ordered by Dr. T, and you asked Erik to do it, then I will not let you go,” Gerald said in a serious tone.

Jaden nodded and said, “Okay.”

“Where is Roland?” At this moment, Erik asked.

Chapter 608 The Changes in the Team

Gerald also raised his eyebrows and looked at Jaden.

Jaden sighed and said, “I have to say that I lied to you about this matter. I can tell you where Roland is now, but... You can’t hurt him now.”

Gerald’s expression changed slightly. Then, he narrowed his eyes and said, “Is Roland the fellow of Dr. T?”

Since Gerald and Carolyn were currently unable to hurt Roland. There was a high chance that Roland was Dr. T’s fellow.

Jaden nodded. “You should have seen him just now. The man with the red mask.”

“So, he’s in the underground casino right now, right?” Erik’s tone was cold, and then he suddenly stepped on the brakes.

He was the driver, and the moment he heard that Roland was in the underground casino, he chose to turn the car around without even thinking about it.

“Calm down,” Jaden said indifferently. “I did make use of you, but right now, you are the opponent of Roland. Roland ranked third among the Ten Slayers under Dr. T, and his strength is equal to Perrin. He is not someone you can deal with. Moreover, Dr. T can’t watch his subordinates be killed by you. Therefore, even if Gerald makes a move, it will be useless.”

“Even if I die there, I will also hurt him badly,” Erik gritted his teeth and said.

Gerald frowned deeply.

Gerald could have ignored Erik.

After Erik attacked Scar, Gerald had a bad impression of him, but he was Carolyn's disciple. If Carolyn wanted Gerald to help Erik, then Gerald had no choice but to help Erik.

"Calm down," Carolyn frowned and said, "If you go now, what else can you do besides die there? If you die there, how can you take revenge?"

Erik listened to Carolyn's words.

He stepped on the brake and sat in the driver's seat with red eyes.

Carolyn looked at Gerald.

Gerald slowly let out a breath. "After this battle ends, I will do my best to help you get a chance to fight with Roland. The premise is that you can defeat him. So, seize the time to improve yourself."

Erik was stunned. Then, he asked in surprise, "You... Did you forgive me?"

"What I can't accept the most is this kind of betrayal. The reason why I agreed was only that you saved Carolyn's life," Gerald said indifferently.

Carolyn sighed.

The meaning of Gerald's words was very obvious. He was not willing to accept Erik into the team again.

The most important thing among the team members was trust.

No matter what the reason was, Erik betrayed them. Even if this reason was understandable, it was useless.

This was only in the case that Scar was not in danger. If something really happened to Scar, Gerald would not let Erik go easily.

Carolyn did not say anything. Every team had its own bottom line. Erik had obviously touched the bottom line of Team 11762. Theo and Claude also didn't want Erik to join the team again.

As for Erik, whether he continued to stay in Night Watch or leave, Carolyn would respect Erik's decision.

Jaden saw this and smiled slightly, "Then I will leave now. Thank you for taking care of my granddaughter."

Gerald nodded and said, "This is my promise to you. I will be responsible for Nova's safety. Of course, there is one more thing. The cooperation between you and me will end here."

Jaden was stunned. Then he smiled and said, "In fact, there are many benefits to our cooperation. We may be able to trade some things about Dr. T.

"There is no need," Gerald shook his head and said, "As for whether we will be enemies or friends, everyone can't say for sure."

"We will become friends. Maybe we will become relatives," Jaden said with a smile. Then, he pushed open the door.

Nova, who was sitting next to Gerald, blushed slightly when she heard Jaden's words.

After Jaden left, Gerald slowly let out a sigh of relief. He told Carolyn about what had happened in the underground casino. After that, Carolyn's expression changed slightly. She said, "So, there is still a way to speed up the absorption of bones. At the very least, Dr. T has mastered it."

Gerald nodded and said, "We should find this method in half a month. Maybe after I absorb those bones, I can infinitely approach the level of Flame Decay. With Triston's saber, there may be a chance to make a slash for Blaine."

Carolyn fell silent and said, "Then why don't we go back and look for him?"

"Blaine and the others repeatedly warned us not to trade with Dr. T. Right now, I can't see through him at all. It's too risky to cooperate with him," Gerald shook his head and said. "Let's take it one step at a time. There is still half a month. We can also study it ourselves."

"That's the only way." Carolyn let out a bitter laugh,

In front of them, Erik had been silent the entire time. He drove the car quietly.

This time, they didn't make a move at Washington. It was relatively peaceful.

After all, Gerald was a little afraid of Dr. T. From Dr. T's words, he was probably already at the level of Flame Decay as Blaine was.

Gerald was restraining himself, and Gerald did not know what Dr. T was planning. However, this trip to Washington was not in vain.

Firstly, Gerald had roughly grasped the strength of Dr. T's subordinates. Gerald had to admit that Dr. T was a genius. After all, he could cultivate so many super experts. It was truly terrifying.

Of course, Blaine's choice of people was also quite terrifying.

Gerald, Carolyn, and Triston had all been chosen by him.

The people he had chosen were all extremely talented.

As for Dr. T, his development of talent was quite outstanding. According to him, Dax joined them in order to catch up to Blaine. Before Dax joined them, Dax was below the super level. It was under Dr. T's control that Dax reached the super level.

Most importantly, he had cultivated ten super experts. Three of them were above Perrin's level. According to Dr. T, Jaden was no worse than Gerald. Jaden was also at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

In terms of developing the innate talent of the human body, Dr. T was truly formidable.

Besides, it could be considered as returning Nova's favor. She once helped them search for the Dragon Bone. Bringing her to Washington could be considered as returning the favor.

Nova was very sensible. She sat in the back row and did not speak.

These four people left Washington again and returned to Sacramento.

After sending Nova to the Night Watch Base, Gerald and the other two returned to the villa.

Erik naturally very sincerely apologized to Scar. After Scar learned the reason for the matter, he did not care too much, and the matter could be considered over.

As for Erik, after receiving forgiveness from Scar, he took the initiative to leave the team and directly took a plane to the front line. He did not intend to withdraw from Night Watch. His specific arrangements would depend on Zackary.

The next few days passed quickly and slowly for Gerald.

He constantly tried to absorb the bones, using the Death Storm to absorb them and looking for a place to absorb them in the process of fighting with several people.

In this case, the speed of absorbing the bones would indeed become faster, but the degree of speed was also quite limited.

Over the past few days, Gerald had only absorbed one bone.

On the fourth day of living in the villa, there was a piece of good news. Valery reached the super level, and then she rushed back to Night Watch Base to find her own bones.

On the sixth day, Theo reached the super level.

The high pressure during this period caused the members of the team to improve greatly.

At this time, there were nine people on the team. Aside from Jacob, Kristen, and Claude, everyone else had all reached the super level. There were six super experts in a team, and this was quite a terrifying thing.

However, Gerald was still quite distressed.

He still hadn't found a way to quickly absorb the bones. At this time, he was on the balcony of the villa.

Gerald touched the bone in his hand and frowned.

In a trance, he thought of the time when he faced Dylan, his blood had penetrated the ground, and then the Dragon Bone had integrated into his body by itself.

Thinking of this pressure, Gerald touched his nose. He took out a bone, then found a dagger and swiped it toward his finger.

Chapter 609 Half a Month

On the balcony, fresh blood dripped from Gerald's finger to the Dragon Bone!

Gerald suddenly had a strange feeling.

There was an intense fusion in the Dragon Bone again.

Gerald was overjoyed. "Does it work?"

But at this moment, he felt a sharp pain in his finger.

It was as if someone had ripped the wound on his finger, and he grimaced in great pain!

Then, he felt blood gush out of the wound and flow to the stone, which began to absorb the blood as if it came alive. At a point in time, the stone seemed to have absorbed enough blood and floated up. It reached Gerald's wound and slowly integrated into it.

There was a loud sound!

Vital Energy suddenly came out of Gerald and stirred the curtains, making them flutter!

"It worked!" Gerald was stunned.

He didn't expect to absorb the bone in this way.

"But... it seems to use much blood!" Gerald frowned and said.

He took out another stone and cut another finger. The same thing happened again. His blood was completely absorbed by the stone. When it absorbed enough blood, it would automatically merge with Gerald's body.

Gerald was ecstatic!

He had been sitting with his legs crossed and suddenly stood up, feeling a little dizzy.

"Is it because I lost too much blood?" Gerald shook his head.

He rarely suffered from anemia, thinking that the dizziness was obviously because of the loss of blood.

After a rest, he quickly found Belinda and the others and told them about the news.

But to his surprise, this way didn't work on Belinda, Milo, and even Carolyn. They couldn't have the same effect as Gerald.

Helplessly, Gerald had no choice but to do it alone.

Milo had never absorbed bones, so the speed at which he absorbed them was quite fast.

Belinda was not very fast, however. She had been a super expert for a long time but still couldn't absorb the stones quickly after getting them.

However, apart from her, the overall power of Team 11762 had been greatly improved.

For one thing, Milo and Carolyn absorbed the stones quickly after reaching the super level.

For another, Theo and Valery reached the super level and were now selecting their bones in the headquarters of Night Watch. After they absorbed the bones in the early stage, their strength would also be improved!

Valery, in particular, was a talented person, but she was distracted by medical learning and couldn't fully concentrate on martial arts! Gerald felt that she might not be as powerful as him and Carolyn after absorbing the stones for the first time, but she still made progress!

The entire team would be terrifyingly powerful.

But Gerald thought it was not enough. He was the only one who could confront the Gold Elite Ghosts, and it would be better to have a few more experts who could fight against the Red Elite

Ghosts.

The victory of the battle still depended on him and Blaine!

As time went by, Valery and Theo came back on the seventh day. Valery absorbed 11 bones in one go, which was a bit less than what was absorbed by Gerald and the others. Theo only absorbed three bones and was almost the same level as the last one on the Sun List. He was much worse than Belinda.

But for him, it was enough. Becoming a super expert meant that he could fight against the Red Elite Ghosts!

The trump cards were still Gerald and Claude!

Claude was a top expert, but his specially designed gun could cause damage to and even kill the Gold Elite Ghosts.

Moreover, Carolyn now could face the Red Elite Ghosts alone. If Valery went to the front, she could be the main attacker and cooperate with the other three people. By then, they could kill the Red Elite Ghosts directly.

The strength of the entire team was rapidly increasing.

In the following days, Gerald lost a lot of blood every day.

He could feel that his power was strengthened after he absorbed the bones, but he was also becoming weaker.

He had lost too much blood. Although Valery would give him a blood transfusion every day, it was still not good for his health.

Originally, Valery advised him not to damage his health in this way but still gave up at Gerald's insistence.

Therefore, as time went by, it was soon the day before the appointed time of the battle!

On this day, Team 11762 left the villa where they had stayed for half a month. At the same time, Scar also led 50 top experts out of the Night Watch Base!

Gerald required him to do this.

50 top experts could fight against more than 50 Blue Elite Ghosts. They were powerful and could help ordinary teams a lot.

They gathered at Sacramento Airport, and one of them had a blood infusion bottle, looking a bit strange.

The two groups of people left Sacramento one after another, and their planes headed north.

In the underground casino of Washington, Dax stood up. He stretched himself and then walked out with his sabers.

Beside him, Jaden said, "Why? Night Watch only has a win rate of less than 30%. Going there is no different from courting death!"

Dax looked at him indifferently and said, "I just follow my heart and try to do something that I can do."

Jaden frowned and said, "Dr. T should have stopped you. He doesn't want you to go either."

"He said that he wouldn't stop me. I..." Speaking of this, Dax let out a breath and said, "I just want to see Blaine for the last time!"

Jaden fell silent. Then he nodded and said, "Okay, go and come back early!"

"In fact, we can also watch the battle here. Aren't there streaming platforms? Many live streamers intend to take the risk to broadcast the battle?" the woman with a fox mask said beside Dax.

Dax ignored her. With the two sabers on his back, he stretched himself and said, "I'll leave the child to you."

"Alright, since we can't persuade you, then come back safely!" Jaden said.

Dax nodded. Then, he turned around and left the casino with two sabers on his back.

It was extremely cold in the Arctic!

In front of the cave Blaine had been in, scorching heat could be felt.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Suddenly, something seemed to slowly walk out and occasionally let out a roar, like a beast.

At the same time, there was purple light constantly flickering in the cave.

Chapter 610 Live Stream

In the twinkling purple light, a long sigh came from Inside. Then, footsteps came toward the entrance of the cave.

In the north, many tents were set up 3 miles away from Elite Ghosts. And in the place 0.6 miles from Elite Ghosts, a saber mark running across the ground was still there.

away

An old man sat there, and a red saber was beside him.

Blaine had been sitting there for two weeks. At that moment, he narrowed his eyes and looked at the night sky. He muttered, "The final battle will start tomorrow."

With that, he stood up and no longer paid attention to Elite Ghosts. He walked toward the camp.

Behind him, there were many tents. More than ninety percent of Watchmen in the world were there.

The other ten percent could not move.

It was the final battle with Elite Ghosts. Night Watch had turned out in full force. That night, most Watchmen would probably be sleepless.

They all knew that the chance of surviving the battle was not high.

Especially the ordinary Watchmen, they were cannon fodder.

However, they did not feel much fear. If they ran away instead of forging ahead, anything could happen to the billions of humans behind them.

Mila Goldwell was an outdoor host. Her appearance was sweet, and she had practiced in a fight club. She live-streamed some boxing matches, which made her popular in the outdoor live-stream domain. She was also one of the most popular online celebrities.

With the permission of Night Watch, the final battle could be exposed to the public. Therefore, two hosts of every platform were allowed to live-stream the battle. As for the candidates, they were -decided by the platforms.

And they also decided what was to be filmed.

Mila live-streamed while walking around the camp of Watchmen.

She did not speak because she felt a terrifying murderous atmosphere.

It could not be seen on TV or in movies.

On TV, the momentum formed by the collision of tens of thousands of people was depressing. In reality, hundreds of thousands of Watchmen would face the fatal battle the next day.

Mila live-streamed but said nothing.

Watchmen and Elite Ghosts had been discussed by everyone. Too many things would be decided in the final battle, and the world was paying attention to it.

In the live stream, there were many comments.

“Good luck.”

“Good luck.”

“Good luck, Watchmen.”

Although many people were dissatisfied with Watchmen and thought their concealment had led to casualties.

At that moment, they had no choice but to wish Watchmen good luck. They knew that if Watchmen could not hold on, Elite Ghosts would rush into the crowd like before.

After more than two weeks of popularization, most people knew well about Elite Ghosts.

Firearms did not affect them. If Watchmen were defeated, Elite Ghosts would enter the world of ordinary people like before and carry out slaughters. Then, people might not survive.

At least, their stable lives would be gone.

Watchmen did not object to being filmed. There was nothing to conceal. Of course, the hosts could not live-stream some meetings.

Mila held her phone. After a while, she walked out of the camp. The lights there were dimmed. She said, “After the incident, many people denounced it, but there is no need. If not for the silent guardian of Watchmen, the world would have been in chaos. If they released the news, could everyone work and live peacefully? Those keyboard warriors are disgusting.

-“Watchmen are fighting in the front while someone is cursing behind their backs. That is shameless,” Mila snorted.

With that, she sighed again. “Do you know what the Watchmen talked about? They discussed their will and that those who survived must help take care of others’ families.

“They are all prepared to die. Many of you still don’t know how cruel the battle will be. They are risking their lives for you.”

Mila sighed and said, “I am like a war reporter.”

“By the way, do you know what they talked about the most today? That was two names. One was Blaine, and the other was Gerald. They said the two of them could decide the result of the battle. You might have known about Blaine. He is the one who spouted insults on Twitter. He is the leader of American Watchmen. He can only wield his saber once. After that, he will die.

“The other is Gerald, a genius. He is second to Blaine. The two of them will lead in the hardest battle...”

Mila talked about everything she had heard in a place where no one was around.

“Gerald’s team is also strong. It is the strongest team now. They are Team 11762 in American Night Watch.”

“Other than them, there are also many experts. You should know super experts. There are many of them, but the fighting power is still not enough. In short, we wish...”

At that moment, Mila heard the sound in the distance. A bus slowly approached. Its lights were bright. Mila couldn’t help but cover her eyes.

The camera of her mobile phone turned to the bus.

Some people got off the bus, and the followers of the live stream became excited.

What made the followers excited was the beautiful woman in front of the camera. Those people were in Watchmen’s clothes.

Most importantly, one of them was receiving a blood transfusion and walking step by step.

“What? Someone is receiving a blood transfusion but will join the battle.”

“Who is he?”

“So many beauties.”

There were many comments.

Mila could not help but look curiously at the people who suddenly appeared.

More than ten people got off the bus and walked towards the camp. Gerald was supported by someone, and a blood bottle was beside him. He walked slowly towards his tent.

Passing by Mila, Gerald glanced at the camera. Then, his pale face creased into a faint smile.
