Chapter 631 A Story

The voice of the Purple Elite Ghost sounded no different from that of an ordinary human. It even sounded young. Gerald did not walk in and could not see his appearance clearly.

Gerald stood in the passage and resisted the burning heat. He even suspected that there was magma flowing there.

“Say it!” Gerald let out a breath.

He didn’t know if the story was related to the coming of the Elite Ghosts.

The voice of the Purple Elite Ghost was heard again. “In my hometown, whose size should be many times bigger than yours and the civilization is also more advanced, there is a place that sounds like the City of Phoenix in your country.

“The City of Phoenix is very big, the streets are very clean, and there are floating trains everywhere. The town has a long history. Four ancient families have lasted for a thousand years in that city, They are also the true rulers of the city.”

The story went on. “Among the Four Ancient Clans, there was a child. He was seen as a bastard. His parents died, and he was sent to another family to be raised when he was very young. The family in which he was raised also looked down on him. But he was from a bigger family, so they didn’t dare to hurt him seriously. But all along, they would very often beat and scold him!

“That child endured silently and cultivated silently. He became a super expert at the age of 16. At the age of 18, he amazed the world and challenged the super-level genius of his original family at a family gathering.

“He thought that he would be valued by this family and be invited back to it. However, what surprised him. was that he was not recalled, but was framed. He was tossed in jail!

“In jail, he met some friends. He was framed several times, but he survived.”

The Purple Elite Ghost continued, “He spent 20 years in jail. When he was 38 years old, he relied on himself to reach the level of Flame Decay after really hard cultivation. He led his friends whom he met in prison and successfully broke out. He wanted revenge!”

“However, the Four Ancient Clans were too powerful. He was hunted down by the joint forces. He led his friends to run away and ended up wandering in the starry sky. In the continuous pursuit, his friends died one by one. Later, his vehicle ran out of fuel and he became a total wanderer. One day, he wandered to a world he was completely unfamiliar with..."

Then the Purple Elite Ghost's voice stopped abruptly.

When Gerald heard that, his eyes twitched slightly. He frowned and asked, "So that boy is you, right? You came to Earth, and those Elite Ghosts had come after you. But they found that there were those bones after they came, so they began to invade again and again?"

didn't say that. This is my story. It's your choice how to interpret it. This is all I can tell you. If one day you reach the level of Flame Decay, I will tell you everything. It is useless you know it now," the Purple Elite Ghost said indifferently. "Blaine is safe for now. Don't worry, you can leave."

Gerald exhaled slowly, then nodded and said, "I understand! I heard that there are some problems with your body, which is why I came here. Is that so?"

"That's true. But you won't understand even if I tell you about it before you reach the level of Flame Decay. Go. Come to me when you make it." The Purple Elite Ghost seemed to have thought of something as he continued, "Oh, right. I've chosen two people in this world. One is Blaine, and the other is called Philander Frantz. He is a very talented young man. He's a quick learner in science, but he is a bit paranoid and terrifying. Recently, he went to an island. You guys... take care of yourselves!"

When Gerald heard this, the corner of his mouth twitched slightly. Then, he frowned and asked, "Has he reached the level of Flame Decay?"

"No, he is not as gifted as Blaine is in martial arts. However, from the last time I met him, he is infinitely close to that level. You, too, but there is still a gap between you and him. And you might never cross the gap for a lifetime," the Purple Elite Ghost said calmly, "You can leave now! After Blaine recovers, I will let him come back!"

Gerald slowly let out a breath and said, "I understand. I'll come to you when I reach the level of Flame Decay."

The Purple Elite Ghost stopped talking. At the same time, Gerald only felt a heat wave, and he was thrown out.

It could tell how much more powerful one at the level of Flame Decay was!

Gerald was already close to that level. There seemed to be only a thin line, but it was actually a huge gap.

He was lifted into the hall. Then he found that Valery was sitting in front of the stone table. There were many books on the top. Some of those books were even engraved on wood.

"There are many medical books here, and they are all the only copies extant," Valery exclaimed.

Gerald glanced inside, then curled his lips and said, "Pack them up and take them away!"

"I don't think it's a good idea," Valery frowned and said.

“He can hear our conversation, but he doesn’t say them away. We’ll just take them. There are so many books. here, it’s useless for him to keep them,” Gerald said, and then he started to pack the books.

Valery was indeed reluctant to part with these books. She gritted her teeth, picked up the rest of the books, and ran out.

In the empty cave, it was quiet. After Gerald and Valery left for a long time, a long sigh came, and it was unknown what the Purple Elite Ghost was sighing about.

Gerald carried the books outside and found their parachutes. He picked up his parachute and then put the books in it.

Then he stopped in the snow and said with a frown, “There seems to be a problem.”

Valery nodded and said, “True. How should we go back?”

The plane had already flown away. The vast Arctic made them feel a little helpless.

“We should not be too far away from Europe. If we can tell the direction, we still have a chance to reach Europe,” Valery muttered.

“That’s the only way,” Gerald sighed.

At the same time, in Davis’ house in Sin City, a dozen people were sitting in a room. Dax had also arrived, and he was in a seat in the middle.

Among Dr. T’s Ten Slayers, Dax was considered to be at the middle level, not the best, nor the worst.

“Right now, most of the regional leaders have already surrendered to us. Those who are unwilling to give in are mostly killed. However, there are some old people here that we can’t make sure whether they will cooperate with us or not,” Roland reported in a hoarse voice.

“Don’t mind the old guys. They can just live their life as they used to,” Dr. T said indifferently, “Dax, tell me about the situation on the battlefield.”

Dax slowly let out a breath and said, “The Night Watch won. The Purple Elite Ghost was killed by Blaine with a single slash, and it was his last strike.”

When Dax said this, a trace of pain appeared on his face.

The others were overjoyed.

“Blaine could only strike once. After that, he will definitely die, Roland shouted excitedly, “After Blaine dies, no one in the entire Night Watch could resist Dr. T. We...”

Dr. T interrupted Roland and asked, “Go on. What about the casualties?”

“Some recluse soldiers appeared but a lot of them died. Seven super experts died. The Night Watch has about 300 thousand to 400 thousand soldiers left in the whole world now,” Dax said calmly.

“What about Gerald?” Dr. T asked. “How did he perform in this battle?”

Chapter 632 Changes

“Gerald... He killed 6 Gold Elite Ghosts. Now he is probably the spiritual support of the Night Watch!” Dax said with a hint of yearning in his eyes.

Dr. T frowned deeply. After a moment, he said, “What I’m waiting for has not been completed. I thought that the Night Watch would not be able to resist this time. Even with Blaine defeating the Purple Elite Ghost, I did not expect that they would win, even though their victory was somewhat tragic.”

“Dr. T, what do we do next?” Jaden sat at the side and raised his head to ask.

Dr. T touched his chin and exhaled. “Stay in Sin City and wait for the next opportunity. We have been waiting for so many years. It’s fine to wait for 1 or 2 more years!”

Everyone was silent.

Dr. T smiled, “Don’t worry. You’ll get the things that I promised you. With Sin City as the base camp, sooner or later, we’ll make it.”

“Then... Are we still going back?” Jaden asked.

“We’ve harmed people from the Night Watch. We might be able to negotiate with Blaine. However, Gerald is in charge of the American Night Watch now. You should have heard of his character. If we stay and control Sin City, perhaps they won’t do anything because the Night Watch also needs time to restore. But if we leave, with Gerald’s character, he will definitely attack us one by one,” Dr. T smiled and said, “Therefore, you stay here and wait for a few years. Of course, I can go back because they can’t handle me. If you are not afraid of death, just feel free to go back.”

The scene was once again filled with silence.

Dr. T stroked his chin. No one knew what he was thinking!

At this time, at the front line of the battlefield, Carolyn returned. Seeing that Carolyn was alone, Zackary frowned and asked, “Where are Gerald and Valery?”

“Gerald said that he wanted to take Dr. Manning to a place. They left,” Carolyn mumbled, “I feel that they are.

going to be together.”

Carolyn did not think much, but Zackary was different. When he heard that, a smile appeared on his face.

He could somewhat guess what Gerald and Valery were thinking, but he did not say it directly. He smiled at Carolyn and said, “Don’t think too much about it. You and Gerald are not suitable. Gerald has always treated you as his sister, and you have always treated Gerald as your brother. I’ve been there, too. I can understand!”

Carolyn pouted and said, "But I still feel a little uncomfortable!"

Zackary smiled, "Don't. It's just a beloved toy of yours being snatched away. Dr. Manning is your good friend. It's fine to give it to her."

Carolyn nodded. "That makes sense. I really don't feel that bad anymore. Oh, right, Blaine's corpse..."

"Don't worry about Blaine And don't ask too much about that Purple Elite Ghost," Zackary said

"Fine" Carolyn pouted again!

"By the way, Kristen is awake. Go and see her! Zackary glanced at Carolyn and said.

Carolyn was happy to hear that as if she had forgotten what had happened just now. She skipped in the direction of the infirmary.

After Carolyn left, Zackary touched his chin and said, "I hope you can find Blaine. Even just taking a look at him is good. Then I can be relieved."

As he spoke, he cursed again, "Gerald the damn brat is trying to leave this mess to me!"

Although Zackary was cursing, there was a trace of a smile on his face

Anyway, the battle result was good.

Five days passed by unknowingly.

Society began to slowly restore order. People started to go to work and go to school Everything was going well.

Of course, there were some subtle changes!

For example, some martial arts clubs, which were originally quite desolate, had flourished again. For example, many people signed up for Hazel's father's club in Los Angeles.

Of course, Hazel's father had performed to prove that he was good at martial arts.

There were also many people going to the Dobbin family's martial arts club in Sacramento!

At the same time, some of the aristocratic families in Washington also began to send their children to martial arts clubs to practice.

In the coming days, the prosperity of the martial arts clubs was inevitable.

Another change was the recruitment of the Night Watch!

However, after the recruitment announcement was released, there were not as many people as expected to sign up. Most people would rather send their children to the martial arts club than let them be Watchmen.

The cruelty, the bloodiness, and the terrifying casualties of wars that Watchmen fought had deeply imprinted in the minds of countless people.

For people who grew up in peacetime, wars were simply unimaginable. Therefore, they would never send their children to take risks. They only wanted them to learn martial arts to protect themselves and that was all.

There were also people signing up, but not many. After signing up, the Night Watch would conduct a background investigation. After confirming it was OK, they would include the applicants in a unified training!

The people who were newly recruited would have to be trained for almost a year or two before they could be put into a battle. Of course, except for those with extraordinary talents.

Gerald and Valery did not know all of this. They crossed mountains and waded through the water. They traveled south from the North and finally arrived in the country after days of walking.

It was a small country located in northern Europe, near the Arctic Ocean, with a population of about 300 thousand.

After arriving there, Gerald and Valery finally had mobile signals. Valery contacted Christopher and found out that Christopher was in Europe. So they waited there for Christopher to pick them up.

They walked into a restaurant and ordered some food and each ordered a cup of coffee.

They had not had a good meal in the past 5 days.

They had come out in a hurry, neither of them brought any money or cards with them, but they were not worried. They had already sent the address to Christopher, and Christopher would pay for them later.

Sitting there, Gerald put the box on his back on the ground. It had two red lightswords in it!

Not long after sitting down, Gerald looked at Valery. He found that Valery was also looking at him.

“The way people look at us doesn’t feel right!” Valery let out a breath and said, “But I can sense that they are just ordinary people!”

Gerald also nodded, but he was alert in his heart.

Although the leader of Blood Lotus, Franklin, was dead and Xavier was also captured, there was no guarantee that there were no other Blood Lotus survivors. Perhaps other underground organizations were eyeing them.

Then the dishes were served. The waitress was a typical European beauty. She had blond hair and blue eyes. She was very tall and had a good figure!

She looked at Gerald suspiciously. Then, at some point in time, she seemed to have mustered up a lot of courage and asked, “Excuse me. Are you Gerald Kenneth?”

She spoke in French, but Gerald still understood. Gerald and Valery were stunned for a moment. He subconsciously nodded and said, "Yes."

The next moment, the waitress suddenly grabbed Gerald's arm. She was extremely excited. She turned around and shouted, "It is Gerald. It is really Gerald!"

Her voice was very loud. Many people ran over and surrounded the confused Gerald and Valery!

Chapter 633 Hero

Gerald and Valery were dumbfounded. Looking at the excited crowd around them, they were confused!

If these people were not ordinary people, Gerald might have used his saber to deal with them.

That girl grabbed Gerald's hand and said, "It's really our hero Gerald. I didn't expect you to come to our country! Can I take a picture with you?"

She looked at Gerald excitedly with tears in her eyes.

"Hero!"

"Hero!"

"Hero!"

They chanted in the restaurant. Some people on the street heard them and were drawn over. In no time, more and more people gathered around the restaurant.

Gerald and Valery were both bewildered.

Gerald never considered himself to be famous. On the contrary, people always looked down on him wherever he was on missions in the past.

Now that so many people chanted his name, Gerald was dumbfounded!

Gerald knew about the live stream. He noticed many aviation cameras in the air during the battle.

But there were hundreds of thousands of people on the battlefield. Gerald did not think that many cameras would capture him.

The footage of Gerald was taken from afar, so most of the time his face was invisible except in the last minutes of the battle. Before the battle ended, the cameras were always on him. However, in the past five days, Night Watch changed its strategy. Gerald's photos appeared in all kinds of newspapers and television programs.

In addition to his performance on the battlefield, Gerald was known by many people in the world.

However, Gerald couldn't get used to being treated enthusiastically!

Some people knelt on the ground to worship Gerald. They shouted "heroes", and some were moved and shouted to thank Gerald for saving them.

Many people saw how tragic the battle was and how fearless the Watchmen were. They were grateful for these watchmen's fighting and respected them, so they could still eat in this restaurant safely.

Gerald looked awkward being surrounded by these people.

This was the first time Gerald had encountered such a situation in his life. He was at a loss for what to do.

After a short moment of astonishment, a smile appeared on Valery's face.

Gerald had unknowingly become a hero.

In fact, in Valery's opinion, Gerald had always been a hero for Night Watch, the human race, and... her.

Many people were looking for Gerald to take photos, ignoring Valery. She quietly sat there and looked at Gerald with a smile, a lot going on in her mind.

Valery thought of the first time she met Gerald when he was on the verge of death. At that time, he was on a mission in Atlanta. For the first time, he used Death Storm to protect a girl. Later on, Gerald came back covered in wounds whenever he was on a mission.

His ability was constantly improving in battle. Valery knew what Gerald had been through,

Gerald changed from being closed off to being cheerful. He learned to banter with her and confessed to her again and again, but she never took it to heart. She silently paid attention to him though. Starting from being a member of Dennis' team, Gerald built the Elite Team. Through the miracle performance in the battle of Brightjoy Peak, as a top expert, he killed the Red Elite Ghost and won the Medal of Star Glory.

Then Gerald became Watchman No. 1 and went to Sin City to carry out a mission and became a super expert!

Gerald made a lot of achievements on his way forward. But Valery knew how many injuries Gerald suffered although not many scars were left under her treatment.

Later, Gerald disappeared, and it was said that he was dead. Night Watch searched for him with great effort, but it went in vain.

Until then, Valery panicked and found that she seemed to have a special feeling for Gerald.

In those three years, Valery kept looking for Gerald. She didn't believe that he had really died. As long as she didn't find his body, she didn't believe it!

Finally, Valery found Gerald on the work site in Los Angeles.

Then Valery found that Gerald was married after an investigation. She was a little angry and sad.

It turned out that Gerald had only lost his memory. Valery wanted to ask Gerald to come back to her.

But Valery was unhappy to have him back because Gerald had already married a woman.

After finding out Gerald had divorced, Valery was a little happy.

However, being aloof, Valery still felt that Gerald had gone a little too far. He confessed to her every day in the past, but he actually married someone else although it was under such a circumstance that he lost his memory.

Gerald returned just like that. He was still the same as he used to be three years ago, bringing her miracles over and over again.

Gerald kept improving, standing at the top of the world. He was not only her hero but also everyone's Gerald seemed to be a little dominant. He liked to shoulder everything alone, placing himself in the most dangerous position.

Gerald was a little stiff, making hand gestures and taking photos with people. At the sight of this, Valery smiled with a lot going on in her mind!

Many people wanted to take a photo with Gerald. He really couldn't take it anymore. He winked at Valery and made a gesture at the same time!

Those who could recognize the code words of Night Watch knew what Gerald meant...

"Let's get out of here!"

Valery smiled slightly. She held the books and food on the table in her hand. Then Gerald moved, dissipating the people around him away with his Vital Energy. He picked up the lightsword on the ground, the two plates of food on the table, and ran out swiftly!

At the sight of this, some people in the restaurant who got the chance to take photos with Gerald were excited, but those who didn't felt upset!

Gerald and Valery ran to the top of an empty building before stopping.

"Damn! It's a lot of pressure to be famous." Gerald wiped the sweat on his forehead. He felt that this was more miserable than fighting with a Gold Elite Ghost!

Gerald sat down on the roof and took out a serving of pasta. "Fortunately, I brought the food. I'm starving to death."

Valery did not say anything. She sat down beside Gerald and slowly leaned her head on his shoulder.

Gerald turned his head and looked at Valery in shock. The corner of his mouth curled into a smile. Then he picked up the pasta with a fork and put it into his mouth.

Chapter 634 Your Ex-Wife Has Come

On the rooftop, Gerald and Valery were sitting. Gerald had finished eating, and Valery was smiling. Then Gerald placed the plate on the ground. Valery's good smell made him want to reach out to hold her waist!

"Behave yourself!" Valery sensed Gerald's intention and said. Her tone was cold.

Speechless, Gerald drew his arm back.

His heart was beating fast!

On the battlefield, Gerald was the Slaughterer in the underground world, he made people tremble with fear. But he actually never had any romantic experiences.

His feelings for Doreen started from nowhere and soon disappeared after he left Sacramento.

Later, he got married. Back then, he was amazed by Irene's beauty, but Irene didn't have any feelings for him. There was only shouting and beating. The three years of marriage were not a good experience for him. The marriage was arranged by Irene's father, while the two of them had no love for each other.

Then he met Audrey and was attracted to her.

The next woman was Leana. What was between him and Leana was more like a fling. Leana drugged him, and they had one night together.

So at this ordinary moment, Gerald's heart surprisingly beat fast.

"Is this a yes?" Gerald asked "Why don't we go back and get married?"

"You wish" Valery snorted. "You have too many women around you."

Gerald did not know what to say. Just when he was about to explain, he noticed Valery's phone ringing. Valery took the phone and looked at the screen. Then she stood up and said, "Christopher is here!"

Gerald blamed Christopher for not coming at the right time. Then he got up, putting the stuff from the restaurant on his shoulder. "Is he downstairs now?"

Valery answered the phone. After saying a few words, she nodded and said, "Yes. He's called a taxi. It'll take us to the airport."

Gerald replied, "Afright, let's head straight back to Sacramento

"Aren't we going to Night Watch's headquarters?" Valery asked.

"I can't be bothered to go there. Zackary will take care of things there. Although I have taken over Sparkle, when Blaine returns, I'll return it to him. I think we have something more important to do!" Gerald said.

"You mean Sin City? Valery asked.

Gerald nodded. "Yes. Later, I'll go over things there."

Gerald and Valery walked down the stairs and found Christopher. Christopher took a taxi over and was sitting in the front passenger seat. When he saw Gerald and Valery, he leaned out to greet them.

An hour later, the plane took off!

On the plane, Gerald and Valery sat next to Christopher. Gerald asked, "Has anything happened these days?"

"Yes. Watchmen from all over the world had a meeting. And the Watchmen Alliance still exists, Christopher said, "Besides, recruitment around the world has begun, but few people are willing to join. For those who are known to be a Watchman by their family, they're told to resign."

Gerald was silent. What Christopher said was inevitable. Everyone had seen the danger of being a Watchman.

For people who grew up in peaceful times, that was simply something unacceptable.

"As to Night Watch, they go for a plan of building and healing. They will help the members reach the top level. After the battle... Everyone thinks that those below the top level won't be of much use in that kind of large-scale battle," Christopher said.

He continued to talk about the recent changes, including the booming of martial arts clubs, and companies and schools coming back to normal.

Gerald kept nodding while listening!

The world finally became peaceful again. But Gerald knew that this was only temporary.

Perhaps in the next month, next year, or several decades later, Elite Ghosts would invade again. Perhaps there would be even more powerful ones than the Purple Elite Ghost.

What Gerald had to do was keep strengthening himself, and reach the level of Flame Decay. When that day came, he would go find the Purple Elite Ghost in the Arctic. He would get information from it and find ways to avoid Elite Ghosts' invasion.

As for the level of Flame Decay... It was a level very difficult to reach.

Gerald did not know what he could do.

Blaine went on a different path. His experience could not be applied to Gerald. Plus, no human beings ever rose to the level of Flame Decay.

About only three hours later, the three landed at Sacramento Airport on time.

The airport also restored order. It was bustling with surging crowds.

Due to what happened the other day, Gerald and Valery went in disguise to avoid being recognized. But the box on Gerald's shoulder still caught people's attention. The passers-by looked at them curiously. There were admiration and gratitude in most eyes.

Night Watch was no longer a secret to ordinary people. They also knew the way the Watchmen were dressed and were grateful for what they had done for the world.

Gerald and Valery went across the airport and got into a car.

They contacted Jolie and the others in advance. Carolyn came to pick them up. After Night Watch's post-war meeting, Carolyn and the others returned to Sacramento. Sacramento was now a base for Gerald and his team.

Gerald got into the car. Carolyn glanced at the two of them and joked, "Tsk, tsk. You've been gone for five days, and I've started to think about a name for your kid."

Blushing, Valery said, "We went out to deal with something important. Don't talk nonsense."

"Hehe!" Carolyn gave them a doubtful look. Then she said, "By the way, Gerald, I have something to tell you."

"Yes?" Gerald looked at her.

"There seems to be a problem in Sin City," Carolyn said in a gloomy tone, "When we fought with Elite Ghosts, our people there suddenly lost contact. We tried to send another group over afterward, but they disappeared too. We can find nothing left!"

"Does it have to do with Dr. T?" Gerald asked.

"It looks like so. Dark Net was out in full force, but they didn't find any trace of Dr. T or his people," Carolyn answered.

Gerald rubbed his nose and said, "Looks like I have to get busy again. Do I need to go to that city this time?"

Sin City's airport had always been expanding. Flying there would not take long.

"Yes, Zackary has the same idea. He hopes that when you and Dr. Manning return, you will take some super experts to take a look there," Carolyn nodded and said.

"Alright!" Gerald replied. "When are we setting off?"

"We haven't decided the time yet. Let's wait until Zackary tells us." Carolyn looked with an odd face at Gerald through the rearview mirror. She then said, "There's something else."

"What?" Gerald returned her look and asked suspiciously, "Why are you looking at me like that?"

"From Night Watch Base... came some people," Carolyn cleared her throat and said, "Your family had been back to Pondark Road, but today, they also came. I'm afraid you have to deal with this in person."

“What does people coming from Night Watch Base have to do with my family?” Gerald did not understand.

“Your ex-wife has come,” Carolyn answered mockingly.

Chapter 635 I Don't Deserve Him

At the Cousy's place in Sacramento.

In the huge villa of the Cousy family, many people were sitting in the dining room. Doreen was dressed very beautifully and sat there quietly. Beside her was her older brother, Armand, who was very robust.

Armand was smiling as he looked up and down at a man wearing glasses! The person looked gentle and was in his thirties. He was dressed in a suit and tie, looking like a successful person!

This was Doreen's fiancé. Doreen and this man had already met each other's parents.

Armand was very satisfied with his future brother-in-law. He now acted completely different from how he disapproved of Doreen's relationship with Gerald.

Doreen's current fiancé was a young talent in Sacramento. He was only in his thirties and had already achieved a good performance in the business industry. He had an asset worth tens of millions.

His family also valued this marriage very much.

Originally, they planned to let the young couple get along for a while. But firstly, Doreen was a little slow. Every time her fiancé asked her out, she would find all kinds of excuses to avoid him. Secondly, the matter of the Elite Ghost made the two families a little worried, so they sped up the progress!

Doreen had a smile on her face, but if one paid attention to look at her more carefully, one could see a trace of sorrow in the depths of her eyes.

She did not like this man, but at the age of marriage, she was willing to find a proper person to marry!

Looking at the smiles on the faces of the two families, Doreen smiled and said, “Excuse me.”

As she spoke, she stood up from her seat and walked towards her room!

When Armand saw Doreen's action, he frowned. Then, he also found himself a reason and returned to the room!

Inside the room, Doreen was sitting aside. On the table placed a tablet! There was a video shown on the screen. The video was an edited one.

It was the video of Gerald fighting alone in the battle between the Watchmen and the Elite Ghosts. The video showed how Gerald fought the Gold Elite Ghost, roared to the Purple Elite Ghost, and how he constantly entered the battlefield to fight, holding a lightsword and shouting, “For every being who is breathing!”

Because there were many people in the battle, Gerald's figure didn't appear too long in the video. So this edited picture lasted only five or six minutes, but Doreen watched it again and again during this period of time!

The boy who grew up together with her, the boy who had once made her heart move, now became a hero, a hero of the entire human race. But the two of them had drifted apart.

Doreen would accept this man she was dating and get married someday. She just didn't mind the time being. She just wanted some more time to get used to it.

Armand walked into the room. When he saw the tablet on Doreen's table, he frowned and said, "Doreen, you are about to get married. Don't watch the video again. What's the point of looking at that?"

"I know, and I'll accept it. Are you satisfied?" Doreen sat on her chair and said calmly without raising her head to look at Armand

Armand was stunned. "I'm doing this for your good!"

"Yeah, you're doing it for my sake. All of you say it like that. You all want me to find a man with a property so that my future can be guaranteed. Go and find Gerald. Tell him that I don't deserve him." Doreen chuckled and said, "But I've always been curious. Is our family short of money?"

Armand was stunned and wanted to refute, but Doreen continued, "Gerald bore the infamy of nine years. I once felt that there was something wrong with him. After he came back and stood up for his name, I thought I could start over with him again!

"But you said that he doesn't deserve me. It is kind of funny." Doreen looked at Gerald on the screen and said, "Look at him. The one who isn't good enough is not him, but me!"

Armand's eyes showed a hint of speechlessness. Then he said hesitantly, "He is good at martial arts, so what? If he fights to death outside, what kind of life will you face? I don't want you to..."

"Your life, my life, and all of our lives were saved by him at the stake of his own life." Doreen suddenly stood up and said, "I won't allow you to talk about him like that!"

Armand was stunned. Doreen was always a gentle girl. She had always been an educated and reasonable person. She had never used such an excited tone to talk to him.

"I'm in a bad mood!" After saying that, Doreen seemed to feel that something was wrong. She shook her head and said, "Go and stay with them. I want to be alone. Don't worry. Now that I promised to marry, I won't go back on my word. I just need some time to adjust. I will play the role of a good wife."

Armand felt a little complicated. For some reason, when he heard this, he felt a bit of sadness and regret in his heart.

"Alright, you should make some adjustments to your emotions," Armand said and left the room.

Doreen thought for a moment. Then she took out her phone, found Gerald's phone number, and dialed it!

On the other side...

In the car, Gerald felt a headache coming on. He looked at Carolyn and said, "Why are they here? How many people have come?"

"There are quite a lot of people. It is a large family, including about a dozen people!" Carolyn said, "Anyway, she wants to get remarried to you. Your parents have gone over, and it is extremely awkward over there. Your parents were so pissed to find out that you have been married and almost fainted."

Speaking of this, Carolyn had a mocking expression on her face.

Beside her, Valery couldn't help but smile, looking like she was waiting to watch a good show.

Gerald felt a headache. He had never mentioned his marriage with Irene to his parents.

Just as he was talking, his phone suddenly rang. He took it out and looked at it. Then he said in surprise, "Why did Doreen call me?"

"Tsk tsk," Carolyn said with a meaningful smile, "Your ex-wife is here and your old lover is here too. Boss, you are so popular with the girls."

At the same, a trace of coldness appeared on Valery's face. Gerald felt so troubled.

"Nothing is going on between us," Gerald said. "I'll turn on the speaker. Be quiet!"

Then he picked up the call and put it on speaker.

After the call was connected, Doreen's voice came from the phone. "Gerald! We haven't contacted each other for a long time since the incident involving the Kenneth family."

"Indeed. It's been a while. Do you have anything to tell me?" Gerald asked.

Doreen was silent for a while and then said with a smile, "Do you think we can only contact each other when there is something to be dealt with? Are you treating me as an acquaintance now?"

Upon hearing this, Gerald's forehead was covered in sweat.

"But I do have something to talk to you about," Doreen said. "I'm going to get married!"

Hearing this, Gerald was stunned. Then, he hurriedly said, "Congratulations! I wish you all the best!"

"If..." Doreen spoke halfway and then fell silent. After a minute, she said, "The wedding will be held in ten days. Are you willing to come?"

Gerald frowned. "Ten days later... You should know now that I am a Watchman and often go out on missions. I have been very busy recently, so I am afraid I can't come. No matter what, I wish you happiness!"

On the other side of the line, Doreen fell silent again. After a while, Doreen smiled and said, "Alright! Sorry to disturb you!"

After that, she hung up the phone!

Gerald looked at his phone, wiped his forehead, and said, "Look, there is nothing going on between her and me at all!"

A smile appeared on Valery's face. And Carolyn said, "In short, I look forward to your return to the Night Watch Base. You'll meet your ex-wife there! That will be the show of the year!"

Chapter 636 Irene's Purpose

There were many people at the temporary base of the Night Watch!

Among the people who came from Sin City, apart from some core members, all had returned to Sacramento. They either went back to work or returned to their daily life routines.

The Night Watch Base was returned to Dennis. Dennis survived the last battle and suffered a serious injury. Although he had returned to the base, he was still in a state of convalescence.

He was still responsible for the area of Sacramento.

The Lam family who came from Washington had all returned to Washington, except for Abraham and Stacey, who intended to stay and express their gratitude to Gerald in person.

In addition, Scar had also returned to the Night Watch Base.

At this time, in the empty field of the Night Watch Base, there were many people. Apart from Watchmen, Malcolm and others were also there. They all stood there and looked inside the room.

The people of the top level had good hearing. They moved their ears and listened to the conversations in the room!

Quite a few people were swarming on the couch of the living room.

Irene sat there with her head down. Beside her, Mary, Vivian, and more than a dozen people from the Everett family were all sitting there!

Opposite them sat Mason, Lilia, Yazmin, and the others, who all looked embarrassed.

"Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth, we came this time to dissolve the past grudges with Gerald. No matter what, Gerald used to be my son-in-law. Actually, it was the wrong time for Gerald and Irene to get married." Mary said with a smile, "I came here this time to see if we can get them back together. As you can see, Irene is quite pretty. Besides, she now knows what she has done wrong."

Mason and Yazmin looked embarrassed. The sudden appearance of their ex-in-laws made them feel helpless.

Beside them, Jolie frowned.

When she was in Sin City, she had more or less heard Gerald and the others mention this matter, but they did not say much. Naturally, she did not know much about it.

She sized up Irene and evaluated her in her mind.

“She is quite beautiful, and her figure is nice. She has a hot body, but she didn’t look elegant enough. She is much worse than Valery and the others.”

“Well, Gerald has never mentioned this to us. We are feeling a little confused now. How about this? We will accommodate you here first. As for the rest, can we wait for Gerald to come back before talking about it?” Mason asked in a consulting tone.

Yazmin frowned. She looked at Irene and thought about Audrey’s appearance, comparing them in her heart.

At this time, they suddenly heard the sound of a car from outside, and then some noises sounded outside.

Carolyn brought Gerald and the others back to the base. Just as Gerald got out of the car, he saw Dennis, who was tied up like a mummy, walking over.

Dennis looked at Gerald and chuckled. “Tsk, ts, bro, I can’t wait to see the show. Wow! How exciting!”

Gerald was speechless and shouted, “Fuck off!”

“Well, man, why didn’t you tell me about your ex-wife? In my opinion, that girl is very beautiful and attractive. Why did you divorce her?” Scar walked over and said loudly!

Claude also came up and looked at Gerald with a mocking expression.

Gerald felt helpless. He found a way through the crowd and ran into the room!

“Mom! Dad!” As soon as he arrived at the door, he hurriedly shouted. At the same time, he saw Irene, Mary, and the others. His eyebrows were tightly furrowed!

When Mason and Yazmin saw Gerald come back, they immediately stood up. Mason frowned and said, “Gerald, what is going on? Why haven’t you mentioned your previous marriage to us before?”

Gerald was nervous and said, “At that time, we had already divorced. I felt that there was no need to mention it anymore. Don’t worry. I’ll deal with it!”

As he spoke, Gerald frowned and looked at Mary, Irene, and the others. He furrowed his brows and said, “Didn’t I make everything clear the last time? What do you want?”

Irene raised her head and looked at Gerald. At this time, Gerald's appearance was completely different from the one in her impression. It was hard for her to imagine that Gerald, who used to be beaten and scolded by her, would now become a hero.

"I..." She looked at Gerald and said as if she had made up her mind, "I want to marry you again!"

Gerald frowned.

At this time, Mary said, "Gerald, what we did in the past was wrong, but ever since we went back from Sacramento, Irene has been restless. She still likes you. She has been married to you for three years and still has feelings for you. She can't get over you. If you still remember the time when Irene's father saved your life, please get back together with her!"

Gerald laughed.

The last time, Gerald asked Bradley to arrange work for Irene and Vivian. The purpose was to make them stop contacting him and completely cut off the relationship.

Originally, after that, Irene and her family hadn't come to disturb him again.

However, they suddenly came to visit now. Gerald thought that it was probably related to the invasion of the Elite Ghosts.

He guessed that the Everett family must know that he would not marry Irene again. The true purpose behind their request of asking Irene and Gerald to get married again was actually to fulfill another goal. For example, they might want to live in the Night Watch Base, which could further ensure their safety.

Thinking of this, Gerald was a little speechless. He looked at Mary indifferently and said, "Do you believe in what you said?"

Gerald thought to himself, Irene still has feelings for me? What the hell!

He had spent the three years working hard and taking care of Irene with all his heart. But in the end, Irene forced Gerald to get a divorce because of Adriel. Now that Gerald was wealthy, Irene wanted to get back together with him. How hilarious!

"Gerald, what is going on?" Yazmin's expression turned cold.

As a parent, she felt that she needed to know the specific situation of her child's marriage.

Gerald was speechless. He could only make the long story short. He briefly explained the matter of his memory loss and marriage till they divorced. After listening to it, Yazmin's expression suddenly became cold. She said lightly, "They can't get married again!"

When Irene heard this, she looked nervous. Mary gritted her teeth and said, "It's fine if you don't want to get married, but Irene's father saved your life once. And because of you, the lives of our family were once at stake. You have to repay the kindness. From now on, you have to let our entire family live in the Night Watch Base in Sacramento. I think the request is not unacceptable, right?"

“Just as I expected!” Gerald narrowed his eyes.

Irene raised her head to look at Gerald and said, “Gerald... we have never sat down to have a decent talk ever since we got married.”

Speaking of this, she seemed to have mustered up a lot of courage and said, “Can we have a good talk? Let’s talk alone! I promise that I won’t ask you to marry me again.”

Chapter 637 The Last Time

When Gerald heard Irene's words, his expression slightly changed.

To be honest, he didn't think he had anything to talk about with Irene.

It was already a miracle since Gerald didn't go against the Everett family. Those three years were the most miserable memories of Gerald's life.

Watchman No. 0 became a matrilocal son-in-law, but in the end, he was cheated. No man could accept such a humiliation.

Fortunately, they didn't have a child.

However, the matter was a little troublesome, and there were many people watching around. Gerald felt that it was necessary to settle the matter as soon as possible.

He exhaled and said, "Okay, you come with me!"

Irene looked a little happy. She got up and followed Gerald out.

Gerald didn't intend to talk here. The group of people were some experts. If they talked here, these guys could hear it clearly. They might ridicule him later.

He took Irene out of the room. Scar, Theo, and others began to cough.

Gerald wanted to kick Theo away. When he passed by, this guy was still throwing meaningful glances.

Irene's face was red. She was not stupid. She naturally knew why those people were coughing.

The two walked through the crowd and walked in one direction for a long time. They arrived at a nearby pavilion. Beside it was a swimming pool that was not small. It was usually built for Watchmen.

In the pavilion, Gerald sat down and said, "If you have anything to say, just say it!"

Irene bit her lips and looked pitiful. Gerald didn't know if she was pretending or if it was real.

Gerald glanced at her, but there was no fluctuation in his heart.

"I know from your expression that there is indeed no possibility for us. Alright. I think back on it during this period. During those three years, we were really too bad for you. It was the same for both me and my family. Moreover, you're a respected man now. You are now a hero of the entire human being. I am not worthy of you," Irene said as if she was talking to herself.

Gerald frowned and said lightly, "If that's all you want to say, it is meaningless."

Irene nodded. She walked to the side and sat down. Looking at the swimming pool below, she had her eyes filled with sadness. "People always know to cherish when they lose it. I did look down on you back then, but I didn't think I made a big mistake. This is the truth in this era. I just want to pursue a better life."

"It is okay to pursue a better life, but you should rely on yourself, but not others. Your family, apart from your father, has some problems in your views," Gerald frowned and said.

Yes, you're right. If I knew that you were so powerful and rich, maybe we would have had children now." Irene laughed and said, "I never thought that the man I yearn for was once my husband, but I failed to catch him."

Irene paused and swallowed. "Don't worry. I didn't say so much to gain your agreement. I just have mixed feelings. I can't express my feelings for work and life. Now that so much time has passed, I have become more open-minded. It's just that my mother is always stubborn."

"It's good that you've gotten over it. We have nothing to do with each other. I don't owe you anything," Gerald said calmly.

In those three years, he worked hard. He gave them every penny he earned. Later, he saved them several times. In the end, he arranged a good job for Irene and Vivian in order to save some trouble. Their salaries were much higher than those of most jobs, and they had much free time.

"Yes!" Irene nodded, then let out a sigh and said, "Let's get to the point. This time, I actually came here to ask you for help. This time, I clearly saw Elite Ghost land in front of me. At that time, I was extremely scared. I felt like I was going to die there. I saw the same bloody scene as on the TV. Even now as extremely scared. I felt every day, so... I hope you can protect us. For the sake of my father, is that okay? Let our family live here! We will not cause trouble for you. We will live our own lives in peace. We can also be responsible for some work, such as cleaning and cooking.

I still have nightmares

Gerald waved his hand and said, "Don't worry. I can promise you. When the war began, many of my friends were here."

At that time, the Lam family of Washington, the Maddox family, Daphne and her mother Jessica, as well as Wesley and Leila were all sent there by Gerald. But after the victory, only a few people from several families waited for Gerald to come back and wanted to thank him in person. The others went back, including Wesley and Leila.

Because the new semester was about to start, Leila had to go back to school, while Wesley went back to take care of her.

“For the time being, nothing will happen. Of course, if there is something later, you can come back” said indifferently.
Gerald

“I originally thought so.” Irene shook her head and said, “But my mother is still afraid. How about this!”

Irene gritted her teeth and said, “With your ability, it is not difficult to arrange a job for me in Sacramento. My mother and I will sell the house in Los Angeles and move to Sacramento. If there is really a problem, we can come over faster. I know I may pass the line, but we just want to keep us safe.”

Gerald frowned. This was not a problem.

“I promise I won’t harass your family, and I won’t ask you to remarry me!” Irene repeated.

Gerald’s eyebrows twitched slightly, and then he slowly sighed and said, “Alright, I can agree to this condition, but this is also the last thing I will promise you. Don’t make trouble for me, and we will be even!”

After saying that, he sighed in his heart.

No matter what, his life was saved by Irene’s father, and he would owe her for the rest of his life.

When Irene heard Gerald agree, her face lit up and she said, “Thank you!”

Gerald stood up and said, “You can go back. You can go and find a house in the next few days. I will get someone to contact you about work.”

Speaking of this, he frowned and said, “You haven’t changed your phone number, right?”

“No!” Irene quickly nodded.

“Alright, if there’s nothing else, I’ll go back first,” Gerald said as he stood up and left.

Looking at Gerald’s back, Irene slowly let out a breath and then revealed a smile.

Chapter 638 The Video Conference

Returning to the area where he lived, Gerald scolded those who had meaningful expressions, “Go, What are. you looking at?”

“How is it? Boss, have you agreed to remarry her?” Theo leaned over and asked with a smile.

Gerald glared at him and said, “I think your progress has been a little slow recently. I should help you practice!”

The corners of Theo’s mouth twitched. Vital Energy erupted from his body, and he fled.

When the others heard Gerald say this, they also scattered in an instant.

After seeing them leave, Valery leaned over and asked, “How is it?”

“We’ve talked about it. They were just afraid, so they wanted to seek shelter. They took another step back and said that they would live in Sacramento. I would arrange work for Irene and Vivian. You don’t have to worry about anything else,” Gerald said.

“That’s good. No matter what, they saved your life back then. Valery nodded. “This request is reasonable.”

After that, Valery said, “Zackary just called and asked you to gather the members of our team. He wants to have a video conference!”

Gerald nodded and said, “Alright, call them over!”

The members of Team 11762 quickly gathered together. Then, in a room, Zackary appeared on a huge TV screen. Zackary looked at Gerald through the screen with a smile and said, “It seems that you have a good trip with Dr. Manning!”

Valery’s face turned slightly red. “Zackary, don’t make fun of me!”

Zackary nodded and said, “Alright, let’s get to the point. In the morning, Ms. Shaffer and Red Rose contacted me. They escaped from Sin City.”

“They escaped?” Gerald’s expression changed slightly as he asked.

“Yes, they did. Now, Dr. T has almost conquered Sin City with his people. They were reckless. Those who do not obey them will be killed without exception. Under such circumstances, many people have submitted. The entire Sin City can be considered a considerable force. Now, it is controlled by Dr. T,” Zackary said. indifferently. “And the Watchmen we sent were killed by Dr. T.”

Gerald’s eyes suddenly turned cold. “So what do we need to do?”

Zackary looked at Gerald and said, “In two days, Charles, Triston, Eugene, and Erik will all come to your place.

You need to go to Sin City.”

Gerald raised his eyebrows slightly.

Now, after Kristen woke up, his team had successfully passed the test. She had reached the super level. However, she was severely injured and needed a period of rest. She was still in the hospital.

The rest of the people, apart from Claude, had all reached the super level.

Carolyn’s current strength was no weaker than Perrin’s.

Valery’s improvement was also fast. Charles had reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay, surpassing Davis, Triston, and Eugene. She was even as powerful as Red Elite Ghost. Even though they didn’t have many members, it was enough to shake the world.

Gerald’s eyes flickered. “You mean, you want us to wage a war with Dr. T?”

“There is no need to start a war!” Zackary revealed a smile and said, “How should I explain it to you? Sometimes, you can’t defeat the enemy at once. It takes some time. For example, this time, you can go to them and ask for an explanation. They need to pay a price for killing Watchmen.”

Gerald’s expression changed.

“Dr. T doesn’t want to fall out with us. He isn’t sure whether Blaine is dead or not, so he will compromise. We can slowly deal with the Ten Slayers.” Zackary had a sinister smile on his face.

Gerald was speechless. This old bastard!

He nodded and said, “No problem! When are we leaving?”

“Set off after they arrive. In addition, you have to deal with Roland this time. Help Erik take revenge and then Erik will return to your team,” Zackary said.

Gerald furrowed his brows.

Because of the incident with Scar, Gerald’s impression of Erik was not very good.

When Carolyn heard that Erik was coming back, a hint of joy flashed in her eyes. Then, she quickly hid her joy.

Gerald looked at Zackary. Zackary said, “This world is not black or white. People make mistakes. Just give him a chance.”

Gerald said, “Alright!”

Zackary smiled and nodded. Then, he said, “Oh, right. Before they come, you have to represent Night Watch to film a program. The program team will contact you. You can communicate with them yourself.”

Gerald was stunned for a moment. Then, he said with a frown, “Can I not go?”

“Of course not!” Zackary smiled and said, “You are the leader of Night Watch! I have rejected most of the interviews and program invitations, but you still have to go to this program. First, it can make the Night Watch better known by others. Second, we can recruit more Watchmen after becoming popular. After we issued the recruitment announcement, there are not many people willing to come. Fewer young people came to join us. I need you to introduce the Night Watch through this program! You can take Theo and Carolyn with you!”

“I won’t go!” Carolyn hurriedly shook her head.

“We also need a female Watchman. You are the best candidate. That’s a deal. I have given your contact information to the program team. They will contact you later. This is the content of this meeting. You can finish recording the program first. When they come to Sacramento, you can go to Sin City. The ten of you should be enough!” Zackary said.

Gerald nodded. "Alright, I've wanted to meet Dr. T for a long time."

Beside him, Carolyn still wanted to refuse, but Zackary hung up!

Carolyn said with a bitter smile, "Dr. Manning, can you take my place?"

Valery spread out her hands. "I won't go!"

Beside them, Theo said excitedly, "During the last war, I didn't show up many times. This time, I will attend a TV program with Boss. When I become famous, I can date whoever I like!"

Gerald said in distress, "Well, since we have decided, let's go and record it. I also found it troublesome, but I have no choice. I hope Blaine will come back early!"

As they talked, Gerald's phone rang.

Gerald picked it up and looked at it. It was a strange phone number. He picked up the phone and said, "Hello!"

"Hello, is this Mr. Kenneth?" A very pleasant voice sounded from the phone.

Gerald nodded. "It's me. May I know who you are?"

"Hello, I am from Sacramento TV. I want to do an exclusive interview for you. The name of the program is 'Night Watch'. I'm the one in contact with you. You can call me Debra." The voice was a little nervous.

Gerald paused for a second and said, "Okay!"

"The program record is at 12 o'clock at noon tomorrow. Can you arrive on time?" Debra asked carefully over.

the phone.

"No problem!" Gerald said with a nod.

"I hope you can wear the combat suit of Night Watch. This will be more intuitive. Is that okay?" Debra asked cautiously.

"No problem!" Gerald nodded.

"Alright. There are no specific requirements or scripts. This program is an interview. There are two segments, and I might need you guys to show your skills..."

Debra spoke very politely and carefully. Most of the requests were not troublesome. After all, he had to publicize the Night Watch. Gerald had agreed to all the requests that he could.

Chapter 639 The Famous Hostess

That night, Gerald returned home with his parents. To Gerald's surprise, his parents did not tell him to leave the Night Watch and live a peaceful life.

Seeing that his parents did not mention it, Gerald naturally did not ask too much.

When he returned home, the people at home looked at him with different expressions from before!

This was completely different from when he just returned to Sacramento.

Gerald also foresaw this ending. When the Night Watch was exposed, this was for sure.

In the evening, Yazmin made many dishes. After dinner, Gerald rested early. Around nine o'clock the next morning, Jolie drove Gerald to the TV station. After getting off the car, Theo dragged the reluctant Carolyn and waited at the entrance of the TV station.

Gerald got out of the car and thought of Irene. He took out his mobile phone and called Leandro, asking him to arrange for Irene and Vivian to go to work. As for the rest, he left it to Leandro.

Gerald mentioned their previous salaries. As for what Leandro would do, Leandro would not interfere.

After the call, Jolie said, "Then I will go to work at the company first."

"Okay!" Gerald nodded.

After Jolie left, Carolyn complained, "I really don't want to go!"

Gerald said, "Me either. Theo is the only one who wants to come, but Zackary requested us to do so. I have no choice."

As he spoke, he contacted Debra. Soon, a young girl with a round face and some baby fat ran out of the TV station. When she saw Gerald and the other two, her face slightly lit up, and then she was a little nervous.

"Hello, nice to meet you!" She hurriedly said.

"Why are you so nervous? We are not going to eat you. Of course, if you are willing to, I don't mind!" Seeing the girl's nervous look, Theo smiled and teased her.

The girl blushed immediately. She was in her twenties and might have just graduated from university.

"You... you are all great heroes. I..." Debra said with a red face.

"We are not great heroes. We are just doing what we should do. Let's go in!" Carolyn said with a smile.

"Alright, this way please!" Debra quickly pointed in a direction. Following her lead, the three of them successfully entered the TV station.

As they walked, Debra also introduced some of the buildings in the TV station to Gerald!

"This is the No. 1 studio. We are recording a variety show that has been very popular recently. The place we are recording is in the No. 3 studio, which is also the largest studio in our TV station." Debra explained as she walked, "It can accommodate almost 800 audiences. Today's tickets have been sold out. We said that you will come today. The audience is so excited. Now everyone's idols are changing!"

"Idol?" Theo's eyes lit up slightly.

"Yes, before Elite Ghost came, many little girls were chasing stars. But since this time, many people have begun to fan the Night Watch. You may not know yet, but Team 11762 is now called the strongest team!" Debra smiled as her eyes curved.

Gerald didn't say anything. They did not know all of this.

"This is the lounge. You can rest here for a while. Then, I will show you the script. You can know something about the process!" Debra said.

Gerald nodded!

They walked backstage and sat down on the sofa. There were quite a few staff members backstage. When they saw Gerald and the others enter, their faces were filled with curiosity as they constantly sized them up.

"What would you like to drink?" Debra asked.

"Just water, Gerald said with a smile.

Debra nodded and said, "Okay, the script is on the table in front of you. You can go through it yourself. It is not a problem not to read it."

'Debra, go and get the props!"

At that moment, a sound came from afar.

"Okay, I'm on the way!"

She hurriedly ran out, grabbed the props, and poured water for Gerald and the others!

Before she could sit down and take a breath, a voice rang out again, "Debra, there's something wrong with the clothes. What exactly happened? Hurry up and change them!"

"Okay!" Debra let out a breath and quietly clenched her fists before running out.

"What a hardworking girl," Carolyn said.

Gerald nodded. At this time, a beautiful woman in a suit with short hair walked toward them. Gerald saw that this woman looked a little familiar. He had seen her on TV, but he couldn't remember her name.

On the other side, Theo's eyes lit up slightly. "Damn it. Is she the hostess of today's program?"

"Who is she?" Gerald asked in surprise.

"Don't you know her? She is the most famous hostess in our country, Carina Myers!" Theo said.

"I don't know!" Gerald shook his head.

At this time, Carina walked to Gerald and smiled. "Thank you for coming. I have been studying the Night Watch recently. I know that you are low-key. You don't show your faces on TV. Don't worry. Today, I will interview you. Just relax."

She gave Gerald and the others a good first impression, Gerald smiled and reached out his hand. "Hello, I'm Gerald Kenneth. Nice to meet you!"

Carina looked at Gerald's hand. The smile on her face did not fade, but she had no intention of reaching out to shake it. Then, she smiled and said, "You can rest here now. I'll go to put on my makeup. When the recording starts later, a staff will come to inform you!"

After that, she turned around and left, like a proud swan.

Gerald frowned slightly. Theo curled his lips and said, "Fuck. What does this woman mean? Boss, did you annoy her? Or did you flirt with her and leave a bad impression?"

"Get lost!" Gerald snapped.

"Is she looking down on us?" Theo touched his chin and asked.

Gerald ignored him. After a while, Gerald heard a furious roar.

"Do you know how to do it? If you don't know, then fuck off. What's going on with the staff here? All kinds of trash have been recruited!"

The voice belonged to Carina!

Gerald and the others looked in the direction of the dressing room. Carolyn frowned. "It seems to be the little girl called Debra."

Yes, Debra was standing there with her head lowered. She looked like she was trembling in fear. In front of her, Carina was pointing at her nose and cursing.

Debra trembled slightly. Her eyes were filled with tears, but she kept apologizing, "I'm sorry! It's my fault."

"Go over and see what's going on!" Gerald stood up and walked over to the dressing room.

Chapter 640 Ban Her From the Entertainment Industry

Gerald went over. At this time, Debra was holding a lot of clothes in the dressing room. There was some water on the clothes. At the same time, there was a lot of gray liquid flowing on Carina's white suit.

There was a coffee cup on the floor. The coffee spilled all over the floor.

Debra felt very wronged. She was constantly apologizing.

"I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I didn't mean to do it." Debra was almost in tears.

Carina was furious. Carina pointed at Debra and shouted, "Who recruited you? Did you secure advantages through influence? You don't know anything. Do you know how much my clothes are worth? Do you know how much the clothes in your hands are worth? Do you know that my clothes are worth a year of your salary? Go to the Human Resources Department and resign yourself. Get out of the TV station. What's more, you have to compensate me for my clothes."

Hearing this, Debra's facial expression changed. She hurriedly said, "Carina, I really didn't do it on purpose. Can you give me a chance? I won't make any mistakes next time. Just now, there were too many things. I..."

Gerald frowned. Beside him, a person frowned and said, "Poor Debra! She is often bossed around. She needs to do all kinds of trivial things. Just now, Carina asked her to buy coffee and to get clothes. When Debra came over to give the coffee to Carina, Carina was playing with her phone. Carina did not look up. Carina just raised her hand and knocked the coffee over."

"Be quiet. Carina is the most famous hostess in the country. Don't let others hear what you said. Or you be fired," someone besides the one who spoke reminded him.

The person who spoke lowered his voice.

Carolyn glanced at Gerald. Then, Carolyn muttered, "Should we do something?"

Gerald did not say anything. He stood there and watched quietly.

Carina cursed, "What are you doing here? Hurry up and get away! Do I have to personally call to fire you?"

will

Debra didn't know what she should do. After a moment, Debra gritted her teeth and bent her knees slightly, about to kneel in front of Carina.

At that moment, a person appeared in front of Debra. He held Debra up and said, "Why are you kneeling?"

Debra raised her head and saw Gerald. For some reason, Debra could not hold back her tears any longer. She said, "I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I've caused you trouble."

Gerald could tell at a glance that Debra was a newcomer who had just graduated not long ago. Debra was an aspirant and was eager to do something. However, while working in a TV station, the more things one did, the more likely he would make mistakes. Moreover, most people were used to handing everything over to newcomers to do.

Debra clearly did not understand these things.

Gerald smiled and said, 'You don't have to apologize. I just heard the ins and outs of the matter. It is her problem. It has nothing to do with you. Moreover, you signed a contract with the TV station. She can't fire

you."

Debra was stunned. She wiped her tears away.

Carina frowned slightly and said, "Mr. Kenneth, this matter doesn't seem to have anything to do with you."

Gerald looked at Carina indifferently and said, "Protecting justice is one of the duties of Watchmen. Can't I do justice to this injustice?"

Carina sneered and said, "Gerald, I know you. So what if you're a Watchman? Don't take yourself too seriously. Don't you want to come to my show to promote the Night Watch? Do you know why I didn't shake hands with you just now? That is because your hands are stained with blood. I think they are dirty."

Hearing that, many people in the dressing room looked angry, but because of Carina's status, they dared not say anything.

Gerald looked up at Carina. With a faint smile on his face, Gerald said, "Do you think they're dirty? Who do you think you are?"

"Don't you know me? I am the most famous domestic hostess," Carina said proudly, "I am the one who presided over the most popular variety show in the country. I am the one who presided over the most ratings..."

Carina looked very proud.

It was true that Carina's status in the domestic entertainment industry was indeed very high. No matter where she went, everyone would be polite to her.

Carina disliked Gerald's hands because she thought they were stained with blood, and it was her real thoughts, so she did not choose to shake hands with Gerald.

Carolyn looked angry. She took a step forward and said in a cold tone, "How dare you!"

Seeing that Carolyn seemed to want to hit her, Carina sneered and said, "I don't want to argue with you. You go to the Human Resources Department and settle the resignation procedures."

"You can go to the Human Resources Department and settle the resignation procedures," Gerald pointed at Carina and said indifferently, "from today onwards, you will be removed from the entertainment industry."

"Who do you think you are?" Carina said with a sneer.

“Let’s wait and see,” Gerald said indifferently. Gerald then took out his phone. Gerald found Zackary’s phone number and called Zackary.

Soon, after the phone was connected, a voice came from the other side of the line. “What is it? Have you arrived at the TV station?”

“We’re here. We’re in a bit of trouble. This hostess is not very professional, and she speaks rudely. She looks down on me, and also the Night Watch.” Speaking of that, Gerald said lightly, “Don’t let her be in the entertainment industry in the future.”

Carina was not worried at all when she heard what Gerald said. She did not know that the Night Watch could influence the ordinary world.

“Have you thought this through? If you really want to do something to me, think of the consequences first. What will happen if I make a post on Twitter?” Carina said with a sneer.

“I don’t care what the consequences are!” Gerald said indifferently,

“You can’t scare me. Do you really think you can do something to me?” In fact, when Carina said this, she already felt a little guilty because Gerald was too calm. From the start of the call, Gerald seemed to be talking about something completely insignificant.

Gerald didn’t want to pay attention to Carina. Gerald pulled Debra to the side and asked as they walked, “Are you alright?”

Debra was still crying. Carolyn walked to Debra’s side and helped Debra wipe her tears. Carolyn said, “Don’t cry. Everyone knows that you work hard. Moreover, if you’re fired, you can go to my company to work. I tell you; I am rich and have a lot of companies.”

Carolyn was the Watchman No. 2 of the Night Watch, and she had a lot of industries.

At the same time, Carina’s phone rang. Carina’s assistant quickly took the phone and walked up to Carina. Carina’s assistant handed the phone to Carina and said, “Carina, it’s a call from Mr. Cage.”

Carina’s heart skipped a beat. An uneasy feeling emerged in her heart. She swallowed and quickly answered the phone.

“Hello, Carina?” A slightly helpless voice sounded from the phone.

“Yes, Mr. Cage. What’s the matter?” Carina said, “I’m preparing to interview with Watchmen.”

Bartley said, “I am calling you to tell you about this matter. You don’t have to do the interview. Leave this interview to Rachel!”

“What? Mr. Cage, Rachel is still a newcomer. She...” Carina panicked.

Bartley said, "It's because she is a newcomer that she needs more time to sharpen herself. This interview was originally planned to be handled by her. In addition, you have been quite tired recently. Go home for a break and rest for some time."

Carina was on the verge of collapse.

Carina remembered that Gerald had previously said on the phone that he wanted her to not be in the entertainment industry anymore. Her throat suddenly became dry. She thought of something and her face instantly turned pale.
