Chapter 671 Watchmen in the Mountains

These people were no worse than those following Dr. T, or even stronger.

At this time, Gerald was a bit confused. Ever since he entered this mountain, many things had exceeded his expectations.

In this world, there was actually such a group of people. Moreover, they were willing to live on this mountain. This truly made Gerald a bit shocked!

This was different from dealing with Dr. T. He dared to fight with Dr. T with his life, but... these people... Gerald didn't have this confidence and felt that there wasn't too much of a need.

Gerald let out a breath and said, "Go ahead!"

The old man revealed a proud expression and said, "Young man, remember to respect the old and cherish the young. Don't compete with us.

"How old are you?" he asked indifferently.

"I'm almost 28," Gerald replied.

"Almost 28..." The old man showed a trace of disdain on his face and said, "I thought you were a good talent, but you don't seem to be very strong. How old did you start learning martial arts?"

"18 years old!" Gerald said honestly.

When the old man heard this, he smoked a cigarette and then choked. He didn't want to lose face. He swallowed, and his face was red.

After a while, he coughed and said, "You only started at the age of eighteen. You do have some talent."

After that, he narrowed his eyes and said, "Why did you come here?"

Gerald frowned and said, "Carry out the mission!"

"Bullshit. What mission is there in the deep mountains?" As he spoke, the corners of his mouth curled up. "If I'm right, you guys must be planning about Burial Ground!"

Gerald's pupils suddenly contracted as he said, "You know about Burial Ground?"

"We live here. How could we not know? Your IQ is a bit low." The old man could not help but mock.

"Robert, get to the point. There is no need to be so sarcastic." At this time, the middle-aged man who brought Gerald and the others back said, "Gerald, let me tell you!"

The old man snorted, walked to the side, and sat down. It seemed that he did not intend to interfere.

The middle-aged man pulled out a chair from the side and sat down. "I am actually very familiar with you. Let me introduce myself. My name is Keenan Berkeley. Your friends are fine, and we are not hostile. We just want to invite you over and at the same time, test you."

Gerald frowned. In his mind, he began to search for information about Keenan.

Keenan was also unfathomable and was above the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

"You must have never heard of my name. Keenan smiled and said, "But you should know who my father is."

Gerald frowned. His eyes fell on the memorial tablets. They were all from the Berkeley clan. It seemed that this was a big family.

Suddenly, Gerald's pupils contracted slightly. He looked at Keenan and said, "Is Jaden Berkeley your father?"

Keenan smiled and nodded. "That's right. My father is called Jaden Berkeley, ranked third in the family. This is my uncle, the fourth in the family. My father and two older sisters have passed away."

Gerald's heart beat violently.

Jaden. This mysterious man had such a terrifying power behind him. When he thought of the relationship between Jaden and Dr. T. Gerald felt a headache and his breathing was in disorder.

This force here was extremely terrifying. Adding on to Dr. T's power, the Night Watch would have no chance if Blaine did not come out.

"Don't worry. There is no relationship between us and Dr. T. My father also has no intention of becoming enemies with the Night Watch. It can even be said that we have the same goal as the Night Watch. We can be allies," Keenan said with a smile.

Gerald's heart kept beating fast. It was difficult for him to calm down for a long time. He looked at the memorial tablet in front of him. He looked at the unfathomable old man and Keenan. Gerald actually had an indescribable feeling at this time.

"Who... are you?" Gerald exhaled slowly.

Keenan smiled and said, "You have been dealing with Elite Ghost all year round. In fact, in this final battle between you and Elite Ghost, some of us have witnessed, including me. However, when I saw that you could defeat them, I didn't make a move. We have our own mission.

"You guys deal with Elite Ghost. You should know that the goal of Elite Ghost is actually Bone of Eternity. right?" Keenan said.

Gerald nodded!

“Since you have come to this place, you must have learned through some methods that there are many Bones of Eternity in the Burial Ground!” Keenan asked again.

This time, Gerald did not deny it. He nodded again.

Keenan smiled slightly and said, “We were once Watchmen too. We were also considered members of the Night Watch Later, Elite Ghost invaded. There were also people on this mountain who joined the first battle. The name of the Night Watch was proposed by him. However, we have different responsibilities After that battle, we returned to the depth of the mountain and continued to guard this place. As for you, you are just guarding the outside world. Our goal is always to resist all the people outside the earth.”

Gerald was shocked. The origin of the Night Watch was actually related to them.

*Of course, you can also call us Grave Guardian!” Keenan smiled and said, “We live on this mountain to guard Burial Ground against being taken away by others.”

Gerald was stunned! He did not expect the name of Night Watch to have a certain relationship with the people in the mountains.

He smiled and said, “When my father came back for the New Year last year, he kept bragging about you. Today, I see that you are indeed worthy of your reputation.”

Keenan had told him a lot of information. Gerald rubbed his temples. Keenan also looked at him quietly and let Gerald accept all this.

Beside him, Milo and Belinda were also stunned.

After a long time, Gerald finally recovered and asked, “Since we are on the same side, why did you capture them? And how did you know we were in that place?”

“We already knew when you stepped into Estasate.” Keenan smiled and said, “I haven’t told you yet. Aarav’s wife is actually my eldest daughter and Nova’s elder sister. Her name is Isla Berkeley!”

Gerald was dumbfounded again!

What the hell was this?

Chapter 672 The Test

In the huge wooden house, Gerald stood there with a complicated expression.

All the news that Keenan had told him was too shocking.

In the depths of this mountain, there was a powerful force. This force guarded this so-called Burial Ground!

Jaden had walked out from the mountain. Aarav's wife was Jaden's granddaughter!

No wonder she always looked so strange and mysterious.

At this time, Carolyn suddenly moaned.

She opened her eyes and saw the rope tied to her body. She frowned and noticed Gerald. Her expression changed slightly. "Where is this? What happened?"

"Robert, untie them!" Keenan said.

Robert nodded and waved his hand. The ropes were broken, and Gerald quickly went to support the others.

The others also slowly woke up!

Keenan said, "I know that you still have a lot of questions in your heart. Actually, I lured you here to tell you everything. Moreover... I just said that we are testing you now!"

Gerald hesitated.

"Let's go eat first! We can talk while eating. It's time for lunch now." After Keenan finished speaking, he looked at Robert and asked, "Robert, do you want to eat with us today?"

"Do I have another choice?" Robert said in a bad mood.

"What a bad temper!" Gerald was speechless.

Carolyn and the others were dumbfounded. They did not know where they were, nor did they know who the person in front of them was. However, Gerald did not let them do anything. They could only follow behind Gerald.

They walked out of the room. At this time, not far away, there were more than a dozen people wearing black cloaks. Several of them were carrying bags on their backs. They were the things that Gerald and the others had left by the creek.

They also took the weapons of Carolyn and the others.

Yesterday, when Gerald and the others came to chase after them, they couldn't bring the things along, including the tents. They also packed up and brought them over!

Keenan brought Gerald and the others into the house where there was a woman before. Inside the house, there were two tables, but they were pieced together.

There were three women sitting around the table. Other than the woman who greeted Gerald and the others just now, there was another woman his age. The other person was Isla. She was looking at Gerald with a fake smile. When she saw Gerald, she raised her hand and said hello, "Are you surprised?"

The corners of Gerald's mouth twitched slightly, but he did not reply!

Keenan said, "Sit!"

Gerald and the others didn't refuse. After sitting down, the table was already full of dishes!

Then, Keenan began to tell them what happened deep in the mountain.

After sitting down, they ate while Keenan said, "Just as you think, there is Bone of Eternity in Burial Ground. If a super expert can absorb it, there will be more people reaching Flame Decay.

"And we have guarded this place for many years. In the beginning, the Berkeley clan was large. Now, there are only a few dozen people left. Keenan said with a bitter smile, "And because of the decrease in population, we have to consider a lot. We don't contact the outside world. Before this, we are in the deep mountains and forests, separated from the outside world!

"In my father's generation, they picked the one with the worst talent in martial arts. That is my father. He represented the Berkeley clan and went to the ordinary world. In Washington, he had me and my two younger sisters. He let me practice martial arts since childhood. My talent in martial arts is not bad. After I became an adult, I got married and had children, he sent me back here. He kept it secret, so the Night Watch probably does not have my information!" Keenan said with a smile.

Gerald agreed in his heart. There was indeed no information about him in the entire Night Watch.

"This world is very big. The ones who are interested in Bone of Eternity are far more than just Elite Ghost," Keenan spoke again.

At this time, Valery seized the opportunity to ask, "In fact, I have always had a question in my heart. The group of people we met just now looked the same as us, other than their clothes. But they spoke the same language as Elite Ghost."

Keenan smiled and said, "The universe is very big. There are not just us and Elite Ghost on this planet. The goal of these people and Elite Ghost is the same, and it is also for Bone of Eternity of Burial Ground. I don't know why they speak the same language as Elite Ghost. Moreover, we are under greater pressure. Now we can't completely take all these things. We can only confront them. Fortunately, they can't simply enter Burial Ground! Even those at Flame Decay can't enter that place!"

Gerald nodded!

The Purple Elite Ghost at Flame Decay beside Blaine was seriously injured in Burial Ground and had no choice but to go to the Arctic.

At the same time, Gerald also told everything to Carolyn and the others. When Carolyn and the others heard it, they were shocked!

Gerald had probably accepted all the information he had.

To put it simply, the purpose of Keenan and the rest of the Berkeley clan was to guard Burial Ground. But Keenan did not tell him the reason.

“Are there only a few dozen of you?” Gerald could not help but ask.

“Yes! It’s been too long. Over time, the members of my family will become fewer and fewer!” Keenan smiled bitterly. “In this boundless mountain, other than us, there are also the other three clans. We will guard this place together. Of course, there are also benefits. Burial Ground can also be considered a holy land for cultivation. Every once in a while, young people can go in and receive some gifts. That is why the people here are better at martial arts.

“Similarly, we are also waiting!” Keenan looked at Gerald calmly and said.

“Wait? What are you waiting for?” Gerald asked.

“What’s the use of saying this?” At this time, Robert knocked on the table with his pipe. “This little child’s talent is not bad, but whether he can withstand the test of the Four Ancient Clans is still uncertain!”

“Test... me?” Gerald asked.

Keenan nodded. “Yes, we want to test you!”

Gerald frowned deeply and said, “How will you test me? I think...”

“You will know when the time comes.” Keenan smiled and said, “You don’t have to be too wary. If you can’t pass the test, we won’t make things difficult for you. We will let you go!”

Gerald thought for a while and didn’t hesitate. Instead, he asked, “I am still more curious about something else. How many people like the one I met before are on this mountain? What is their strength?”

“There are six small tribes like what you encountered just now.” Keenan said in a solemn tone, “Unlike Elite Ghost, these people don’t attack ordinary people. They just want Burial Ground. It is completely different from the large-scale attack of Elite Ghost. They are elites. The people who come are all super experts or above. There are not many people, but each one is very strong!”

Chapter 673 Leave

Gerald fell silent. At the same time, he felt lucky that this group of people was only on this mountain and did not enter the ordinary world. Otherwise, their killing power would be terrifying.

According to Gerald’s speculation, in the Berkeley clan, there was at least one person at the level of Half Step Flame Decay. Gerald thought, Keenan’s uncle is at least at the level of Dr. T, but they can only restrain those people. They can defeat those people directly, which is enough to prove that there is at least one person at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay in that group of people.

In addition, if these people attack the same way as Elite Ghost did, they will undoubtedly cause damage to the ordinary world

The others also fell silent!

Similarly, Keenan was also talking about some details. Gerald and the others listened to Keenan quietly.

Beside them, Isla looked at Gerald from time to time with a playful look in her eyes.

Gerald pretended not to see it. He was not sure what Isla was thinking. Gerald thought, the members of the Berkeley clan are all strange and mysterious.

Just then, Keenan said, "Many people want to enter Burial Ground. There are a large number of Bones of Eternity in that place, including Dragon Bones!"

Gerald was slightly surprised.

"Those Bone of Eternity outside were thrown out by us on our initiative. They were mainly given to rich people. How should we put it? If people want to practice martial arts, they must be rich. Previously, our goal was to pick some talented people In the future, they will enter the mountain and guard Burial Ground with us. But later, the pressure became greater and greater. We had no time to care about the people outside." Keenan smiled and added, "Your talents are all good, so you can take the assessment. If you pass the assessment, you have the qualifications to enter Burial Ground!"

Gerald's expression changed and he said, "What kind of assessment?"

"It is an assessment jointly conducted by several families guarding Burial Ground. Just now, I also said that other than us, there are three other families. They are the Nelson clan, the Roberson clan, and the Mcdowell clan. The scale of their three clans is more than a hundred people, and they are relatively sound Therefore, they have not yet gone to the ordinary world to develop like us. Of course, most of them are close relatives if they are married, they have to go outside to find people to marry and have children," Keenan explained with a smile

Gerald nodded and said, "As long as I pass the assessment, I can enter that place, right?"

"Yes, if you pass the assessment, you can enter. However, the assessment is quite difficult. We are willing to give you a chance. If you pass the assessment, you can enter. If not, then I am sorry. I hope that you can return the same way," Keenan said calmly.

Gerald nodded. "Okay! When will it begin?"

"Three days later!" Keenan said. Then, his gaze swept over Carolyn and the others. Keenan added, "As for the others in your team, other than the two girls, the others can go back. It is quite dangerous to stay in the mountains.”

Keenan referred to Valery and Carolyn. Carolyn was almost at the level of Davis Valery was also on the same level as Perrin. They had at least the ability to protect themselves. As for the others, they were too weak.

When faced with Elite Ghost, the super level was the absolute main force. In this world, the super level was also the absolute top fighting force.

However, in the depths of this mountain, it was not enough. It was ridiculous.

“I will stay too!” At this time, Claude suddenly said, “If there is a conflict with them, maybe I can help!”

“You? Get as far away as you can. Why is there a top expert here?” the old man said in disgust.

Damn it! Claude cursed in his heart!

In Night Watch, a top expert was qualified to be a captain of the Elite Team. However, the old man looked down upon the top expert.

“Claude’s ability does not depend on how much his martial strength is. Back then, when I faced the six Gold Elite Ghosts, I was unable to break through. It was Claude that broke the balance,” Gerald said.

The old man looked at Gerald with disdain. “I have heard about this before. The battle formation formed by the six Gold Elite Ghosts was broken. I thought you broke it yourself. It turned out that you relied on someone else. I have overestimated you.”

Gerald was speechless.

Keenan smiled faintly and said, “Alright, since you want him to stay, he can stay. In short, be careful. The others should return the way they came. I will get someone to take you out.”

Kristen, Erik, and the others were unwilling, but they had no choice. They had been knocked down easily before.

After they ate something, Isla walked out and said, “I will take you out!”

Gerald nodded. He glanced at Isla and said, “Thank you!”

“You are welcome. We are family,” Isla said with a smile, “Family?” Everyone looked at Gerald at the same time.

“I don’t understand what you are talking about,” Gerald quickly explained.

Isla smiled and said, “My grandfather and my sister are very satisfied with you. You may be my brother-in-law in the future, so it’s not wrong to say that you are family in advance!”

Gerald quickly said, "Don't talk nonsense. I have nothing to do with Nova."

"Really?" Isla revealed a strange smile.

Then Isla didn't say anything more and walked forward.

Gerald pulled Kristen and said, "After you go out, contact Theo. Theo is probably very panicked now. If he had known that Isla was Jaden's granddaughter, he would probably have been furious. He might even suspect that we were being schemed against by Dr. T. He must panic. After you contact Theo, contact Zackary and tell them about this matter. This matter is not suitable to be publicized."

"Got it!" Kristen said.

Other than Claude, Valery, and Carolyn, the rest of the team had all left.

As for the bones, if Gerald could enter Burial Ground at that time, then he would bring the bones back.

Of course, Gerald did not know if he could pass the assessment or if he could enter Burial Ground after passing the assessment. After all, that place was a place where even the Purple Elite Ghosts at Flame Decay level were seriously injured.

After they left, Keenan arranged two rooms for Gerald and the others at home. Although their houses were made of soil and wood, the interior decoration was very warm, including the sofa and other things.

Gerald was speechless. He thought, how did they transport those things in?

Of course, Jaden has an underground casino in Washington, and the income in the gray zone is quite high.

Jaden is not short of money.

After making the arrangements, Keenan smiled and said, "You can stay here for a while. Try not to run around. First, you haven't lived here for a long time, so it is easy to get lost. Second, you may encounter those people, and then it will be troublesome. The Four Ancient Clans will decide on the date of the assessment. It will take some time!"

Gerald nodded and said, "No problem! We won't run around. Rest assured!"

Right now, Gerald was not short of time. What he needed to do was to continue to improve. It was best to reach the level of Flame Decay as soon as possible to prepare for the next invasion of Elite Ghosts.

Keenan nodded and said, "Alright! I'll go to work now."

"Are you planning to attack those people?" Gerald asked.

"No, I'll go... to chop some firewood. There's not enough firewood at home," Keenan said.

Gerald was speechless.

Gerald thought, yes, there is no natural gas in this place. We can only rely on firewood to live and cook!

When Keenan left, the two women in the room seemed to have something to do and left. Gerald looked at Carolyn and asked, "What happened to you guys that day? Did you feel the person who attacked you?"

"No!" Carolyn shook her head and added, "We didn't even feel anyone. At that time, we were outside the tent when we were suddenly hit by someone. Then we fainted."

Chapter 674 The Nelson Clan

Gerald took a deep breath and then muttered to himself, "Isla is not an ordinary person. She has practiced martial arts, and her strength is not low. I did not find out about it before. This is the real ancient martial arts family. They probably have some ability to cover up their Vital Energy, so I didn't detect it at all."

When Gerald arrived here, he saw that most of the people here looked like ordinary people, but when those people started fighting, they were all the super level and above. And people at the super level were relatively fierce.

Of course, there were still not many people who reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

In the afternoon, they just stayed there obediently!

At around 7 pm, it was dark. In the depths of the mountain, there was even no electricity. Fortunately, Gerald and others' eyesight wouldn't be affected in the dark.

The dinner was made by Keenan's two sisters. After dinner, Gerald and the others sat at the door in a daze.

Carolyn was playing a mobile game with a charger bank in her hand. Apart from snacks, there were only charger banks in her backpack.

Gerald and the others were not interested in playing with the mobile phones, but it was boring here, so they just watched Carolyn playing games from behind.

Carolyn was playing a single game to kill time. It attracted several children in the village to come and watch!

Around eight o'clock in the evening. Keenan came back with a large bundle of firewood. After throwing it in front of the door, Keenan went to the kitchen to get some bread. He walked to the door, sat down, and gulped down the food.

He looked no different from an ordinary villager. No one could imagine that such a person was at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

At the door opposite them, the gray-haired old man squatted at the door and smoked. He looked at Gerald from time to time.

At this time, several figures flashed and quickly approached them.

After they arrived, Gerald noticed these people. Two of them were about the same age as Keenan, and another two of them were younger. They looked less than thirty years old. One of the two had bruises on his face as if he was injured.

“You were beaten up by that brat from the Nelson clan again?” Keenan looked at the young man and asked with a frown.

The man looked a little embarrassed. Then he nodded and said, “Yes, Pryor has always been against me.

After I went over, he found an excuse to spar with me. I was beaten up!”

The man did not feel embarrassed. He answered honestly, “I can’t beat him.”

Keenan smiled bitterly and said, “Alright, I got it. Have you informed them?”

“There are no problems with the Roberson clan and the Mcdowell clan!” the other two replied.

At that time, the young man who had been beaten up said with an embarrassed expression, “The Nelson clan... is not very willing. They said that they wanted to see Gerald. They said that they didn’t believe in our judgment.”

Keenan paused.

At the opposite door, the old man was furious when he heard this. He stood up and shouted, “Damn it! Jonathan, the son of a bitch, is getting more and more excessive now He must have seen that we have fewer and fewer people. Every time Jensen goes there, he will be beaten up by Pryor, the son of a bitch Jonathan doesn’t care about it. Now Jonathan doubts my judgment. I will go and fight with him now. Fuck!”

The old man threw the cigarette to the ground and returned to his room. He picked up a saber and was about to rush out!

“Robert, calm down!” Keenan hurriedly said, “If they want to see Gerald, let them see Gerald. I will take Gerald and the others there tomorrow.”

The other people also rushed over to stop Robert.

Robert was extremely angry. He scolded, “Fuck, get out of my way. I’m going to kill him now.”

“Let’s go tomorrow. When the time comes, we’ll go together!” Keenan hurriedly said.

Robert glared at Keenan, then nodded and said, “Okay, tomorrow I will go and cut off Jonathan’s legs. Fuck!”

After that, he took the cigarette and sat at his door angrily to start smoking.

Only then did Keenan let out a sigh of relief. He said, “Tomorrow, I will bring Gerald to the Nelson’s house. You can go back and rest first. Moreover, keep an eye on those guys. If there is anything wrong, inform Robert and me as soon as possible!”

“Got it!” Jensen hurriedly said.

When they dispersed, Keenan said to Gerald, “Something unexpected happened. Come with me to the Nelson’s house tomorrow. This assessment can be proposed by one family, but it must be agreed upon by the Four Ancient Clans. The Nelson clan probably wants to see you before deciding. Don’t worry. It’s not a big problem.”

“Okay!” Gerald nodded.

It didn’t matter for Gerald to contact these people.

Because Gerald didn’t sleep much on the first day, he fell asleep early. He spent a peaceful night. Gerald slept for more than ten hours. He woke up at seven in the morning the next day. He felt refreshed.

After breakfast, he put two swords in a box. The four people set off under the lead of Keenan and Robert!

Robert had a long face all the way. He carried a saber on his back. Last night, Robert had polished his saber all night, and it was shiny.

Keenan seemed to be used to Robert’s temper. He said nothing but smiled bitterly.

They walked for about four hours, setting off at eight in the morning. It was close to twelve before they arrived at their destination.

There were still many buildings in the middle of the countless mountains. These buildings were no different from those of the Berkeley clan. Of course, there were more buildings and more people. There were also some cleared lands nearby, with some vegetables planted on them.

However, there were no cornfields. They should go out to the town or the city to buy corn.

This place was livelier. The Berkeley clan had already contacted the outside world. Most children lived in the city. When they reached a certain age, they would be sent back.

Therefore, there were not many children in the village, but the Nelson clan was different. The Nelson clan had more than a hundred people, and the number of children was not small.

Moreover, the buildings there were much more imposing.

A stone road followed by stone ladders, up to the place where the Nelson's house was located.

As soon as they arrived at the entrance of the village, Robert shouted, "Jonathan, bastard! I'm coming to kill you!"

"Robert! Come to me, and I'll not let you lose badly!" Another voice came from the building.

Robert widened his eyes in anger and rushed in the direction of the voice with his saber.

Gerald was amused. He asked, "Shouldn't you prevent him?"

This was most likely a battle between two people at the Flame Decay level. If they fought, there might be a big commotion. This village might be destroyed directly.

"Leave them alone!" Keenan smiled bitterly and said, "The older they are, the more narrow-minded they are."

"Let's go up!" Keenan walked up the stairs. At this time, two young people were sitting at the entrance of the stairs. They were wearing short-sleeved shirts and shorts, sizing up Gerald and the others. When their eyes fell on Valery and Carolyn, their eyes lit up slightly.

Chapter 675 Pardon?

After looking at Valery and Carolyn for a while, they did not act too arrogantly. They said to Keenan, "Keenan, you are here!"

"Pryor, long time no see!" Keenan's eyes fell on one of the people who looked to be in his thirties. Then, Keenan smiled and said, "You beat up Jensen again yesterday?"

"It's the Berkeley clan's third generation that isn't doing well. I'm trying to spur him on," Pryor said proudly.

After Pryor finished speaking, his gaze swept over Valery and Carolyn casually. Then he added, "By the way. Keenan, how is the thing I told you last time? Mary either Isla or Nova to me!"

Keenan curled his lips and said, "Forget it! They both grew up in the city, so they don't like a bumpkin like you. Take me in. The most important thing is to get down to business!"

"I have never been to the city. If I go there a few times, I will be much more handsome than them!" Pryor said, pointing at Gerald and Claude.

Gerald frowned!

The first impression that Pryor gave him was not very good.

Most of the members of the Berkeley clan Gerald met before were polite and reserved!

However, Pryor was arrogant.

Pryor should be the genius of this generation of the Nelson clan. In addition, with the aid of Burial Ground, he should have achieved a lot in martial arts!

However, Pryor should be deliberately restraining himself. Gerald could not see his true strength.

However, Gerald was sure that even with the help of Burial Ground, it was also very difficult for Pryor to reach the Half-Step Flame Decay level.

“Don’t waste time. We have more important things to deal with!” Keenan said coldly. It seemed that Keenan didn’t want to waste time on Pryor.

When Pryor saw this scene, the corners of his mouth revealed a trace of disdain. Then, he glanced at Valery and Carolyn again before saying somewhat impatiently, “Please come in!”

Under their lead, Gerald and the others walked into a relatively tall building. Then, Pryor winked at another person. That person then said, “Keenan, let me take you to see Great-Grandfather! This matter still has to be decided by Great-Grandfather!”

Keenan glanced at Gerald with a faint smile. He said, “Alright.”

After that, Keenan said to Gerald and the others, “Wait here for a moment. I’ll be back soon.”

“Okay!” Gerald nodded.

After Keenan left, Gerald sat down on a wooden chair and looked around at the same time.

The building they were in was very big, a bit like a country mansion. They sat in a hall. Behind them was an open-air dam. It was a bit like a garden, and there were many things planted inside.

After Keenan left, Gerald heard a lot of footsteps. Outside the door, there were more than ten young people around fifteen to thirty years old. They ran to the door, tilted their heads, and looked inside, curiously sizing up Gerald and the others.

For the Nelson clan in this big mountain, there was almost no chance of contact with the outside world. Even if they went out to buy things, they were only fixed people!

This was different from the Berkeley clan. The Nelson clan almost prohibited young people from going out. If they saw the wonderful outside world, they would never return to the big mountain.

Even Gerald couldn't stand living in this place for the rest of his life.

Gerald thought, there are no cell phones, computers, or cars. People must communicate with each other face to face. People may walk for hours or even a day. I can never stand it!

Pryor and the other two people were sitting in the hall with them. A man and a woman were curiously looking at Gerald and the others!

Pryor looked at Gerald with a fake smile. Then, Pryor raised his eyebrows and said, "Hey!"

Gerald looked up and frowned. "Are you talking to me?"

"Of course!" Pryor sized up Gerald and said, "You are Gerald, right? The person next to you is just a top expert.

He is just a loser, right?"

"Are you referring to me?" Claude's eyebrows twitched slightly as he asked.

"I didn't say anything wrong. In our opinion, a top expert is just a loser. Are you unconvinced?" Pryor asked, his eyes flickering

"Pryor, they are guests from afar. How can you speak like this!" At that time, a tall and strong young man walked in through the crowd. Seeing Valery and Carolyn, he said shyly, "Damn it! I have never seen such beautiful girls before!"

He licked his lips and said, "Pryor, introduce the girls to me. It is best to let one of them marry me."

Hearing this, Gerald, Carolyn, and the others frowned deeply.

They thought, the members of the Nelson clan, or rather, the youths, are so arrogant.

"Watch your words!" Carolyn's eyes flickered as she looked coldly at the strong man.

The strong man licked his lips and said, "Oh! You have a hot temper. I like it. Let me introduce myself. My name is Dalton Nelson. Among the younger generation of the Nelson clan, I'm only inferior to Pryor. In your ordinary world, I'm one of the top three on the Sun List. It is your honor to marry me!"

Dalton still wanted to tease Carolyn.

Carolyn was angry. She directly pulled out Void-breaking and threw it out!

Clang!

Dalton chuckled and slapped the saber away. He took a step back and said, "Oh, you've got something."

“Dalton, stop messing around!” At that time, Pryor waved his hand and then looked at Gerald happily. Pryor looked at Valery and said, “But I think Dalton is right. Gerald, they are beautiful. Dalton likes that girl with a hot temper. I like the one beside you. She is quiet and sexy. It must be easy for her to bear children for me!”

When Gerald heard this, his eyes became slightly cold. He looked at Pryor and said, “Pardon?”

Pryor didn't take Gerald seriously. Pryor even stood up and took the initiative to walk to Valery's side. Pryor said, “Beauty, are you interested in marrying me? I am strong. I will let you...”

Pryor looked at Valery and started to tease her. He even took the initiative to put his hand on Valery's shoulder.

Before Pryor finished speaking, he suddenly found that Gerald, who was sitting there before, had moved. Almost in an instant, Gerald came to Pryor and raised his hand!

Gerald slapped Pryor in the face.

Pryor couldn't dodge in time.

Pryor was slapped hard and was directly sent flying from the door.

The scene was instantly silent.

After a short silence, Dalton said with cold eyes, “Gerald, you dare to attack us here? I think you are courting death!”

“How dare you!”

“Do you know where this is?”

The people outside were also furious!

Gerald turned around and looked at those people indifferently. He said, “Do you want to fight? All of you can come at me together!”

Chapter 676 Teach You a Lesson

“If you want to fight, you can fight together!” Gerald stood at the door and said calmly, his tone full of provocation.

Behind him, Carolyn stood up in an instant.

Carolyn slapped the box with one hand, and the box fell to the ground. The Void-breaking and Sapphire Star fell into her hands in an instant!

Valery was also on the alert, with several special tools in her hands.

Claude jumped onto the chair, raising his sniper gun.

Gerald took the initiative to provoke them.

First, Pryor was so arrogant that Gerald was very unhappy. Pryor flirted with Valery and Carolyn again and again.

Second, Gerald came here this time because the people of the Nelson clan wanted to test him. The so-called test was to see his strength, wasn't it? Now that the enemy provoked Gerald first, how could Gerald not fight back? This was just the right time to display Gerald's strength!

Third, it was obvious that Keenan knew what kind of person Pryor was. When Keenan left, he glanced at Gerald casually. At that time, Keenan thought that there might be a conflict. Gerald thought, Keenan didn't tell me not to fight, which meant that he acquiesced in fighting against these people. It is okay as long as I don't kill them.

All in all, there was no reason for Gerald not to take action. After Pryor's provocation, Gerald stood up and slapped Pryor.

Moreover, even if the Nelson clan wanted to make trouble, Gerald would not be afraid, because they were in the right.

Gerald intended to let these young people of the Nelson clan know what it meant to be unreasonable.

Hearing this, the people of the Nelson clan couldn't stand it anymore. In the room, Dalton's face was full of anger. He stared at Gerald and said, "I want to challenge you. Dare you accept it?"

"Challenge?" Gerald turned to look at Dalton and asked, "Do you think you deserve to challenge me?"

"You!" Dalton was furious, but he didn't dare to lose his temper in this place. Dalton stared at Gerald and said, "I know you are a coward! I know you are afraid."

"It seems that you are out of your mind. You don't understand me! I mean you don't deserve it!" Gerald said as he moved his feet quickly.

Dalton's expression changed slightly. He wanted to fight back, but he found that he didn't even have a chance to fight back. Gerald slapped him again and said indifferently. "This slap is for Carolyn. Do you think you deserve to flirt with her?"

Bang!

Another figure flew out of the room!

know where

He smashed hard into the ground. At that time, Pryor got up from the ground and rushed to the door. His face was extremely gloomy. He stared at Gerald and said, "Bastard, you are courting death. Do you you are? How dare you hit me? Believe it or not, I will make you unable to leave here forever!"

Pryor was a genius of the younger generation of the Nelson clan. Among the Four Ancient Clans that guarded Burial Ground, he was also one of the most outstanding people of the younger generation.

Pryor was very arrogant. For example, when Pryor met Jensen, Pryor would bully, challenge, and beat Jensen.

Pryor had never been humiliated like this before. He was slapped in public.

Even his father didn't dare to beat him, let alone Gerald.

"Do you believe that if I can't leave here, I will let more than half of the Nelson clan die with me?" Gerald's face revealed a bloodthirsty expression.

Gerald crawled out of the crowd of dead people. He was more ruthless. He had been in danger many times.

Gerald was much more ruthless and arrogant than Pryor.

Seeing the evil smile on Gerald's face, Pryor was slightly stunned. After a short period of daze, Pryor gritted his teeth and looked at Gerald. He said, "Do you dare to accept my challenge?"

"Go and ask your father to come with you. I'm going to beat your father for giving birth to such a bastard as you." Gerald pouted.

Pryor was so angry that his Vital Energy was surging, but it seemed that he couldn't take it out.

The Nelson clan should have agreed not to fight in this place.

Judging from Pryor's Vital Energy, Gerald found that Pryor was about the same level as Davis. Pryor was very close to the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

Pryor's strength was not much greater than that of Triston and Carolyn. Pryor might be a little stronger than Carolyn, but he might not be able to defeat Carolyn in the real fight!

Carolyn's fighting experience and strength were not something that Pryor could compare to.

Of course, Pryor was a genius! He should be proud to reach such a level at such a young age.

However, Pryor had the help of Burial Ground, so it seemed normal for him to reach such a level at such a young age.

"How arrogant!" At that moment, a powerful voice sounded.

"Sumner!"

"Sumner!"

At this time, the people at the door moved aside. At the same time, a middle-aged man in a white shirt walked toward the door. He looked at Gerald indifferently and said, "You are Gerald, right? What's wrong with Watchmen now? Are you young people so arrogant? You don't know any rules when you go to other people's places."

"Who are you?" Gerald asked with a serious look.

The man was reserved, giving Gerald a sense of crisis. The man should be at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

Judging from other people's attitudes towards him, he should have great prestige in the Nelson clan.

"I'm Pryor's father! I am Sumner!" Sumner Nelson said lightly.

"Oh, you are his father!" Gerald said with disdain, "You said I didn't know the rules, right? What rules? The rules of the Nelson clan are that young people will flirt with a beautiful girl! You don't teach your son well. By the way, it is not a good rule!"

Staring at Gerald, Sumner said with flickering eyes, "I heard that you are the strongest power of Night Watch now. You can defeat Gold Elite Ghosts. In the battle in the north, the Nelson clan had to guard this place and did not participate in it. The Berkeley clan led some members of the Mcdowell clan there. You have reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. I admit that your talent is very good, but this place is different from the outside world. Someone at Half-Step Flame Decay level is not that strong!"

Sumner was at the same level as Gerald.

"It is enough to defeat you!" Gerald said indifferently.

Sumner's face darkened. He stared at Gerald and said, "Brat, I'll give you one more chance. You are my guest. I don't want to make a fuss about it. Now, apologize to my son. It's over, or you'll pay for it!"

Behind him, Carolyn laughed and said, "Boss, I know why Pryor is so arrogant. His father is also arrogant."

"You!" Sumner stared at Gerald and sneered, "I admit that my son's strength is not as good as yours. Since you have challenged me, don't blame me for bullying you. Do you dare to accept my challenge?"

"How?" Gerald asked, raising his eyebrows.

"Go to the battle ring. As long as we don't beat each other to death, we can do anything!" Sumner said indifferently.

Gerald looked at him with a faint smile and asked, "You and your son go together?"

*Just me! My strength is enough to deal with you! Do you dare to accept my challenge?" Sumner said.

"No problem. I'll teach you a good lesson on behalf of your father, Pryor's grandfather. The reason why you are so arrogant is that your father didn't teach you well when you were a child. So that is why you and your son are like this!" Gerald added with a sigh, "Lead the way!"

Chapter 677 That's It?

Sumner was unhappy. His face was dark as he walked towards the other side of the village.

Gerald, Carolyn, and the others glanced at each other and slowly followed. At that moment, they were also angry.

The dozens of people who were watching quickly spread out and began to tell others what had happened. Soon, many people were rushing over, including some originally working nearby. They also put down their work and ran over!

This village was not big. The people quickly passed through the village and arrived at a huge empty ground. Sumner walked into the open space and said indifferently, "Right here!"

"Dad!" Pryor ran over in a hurry. He threw an ancient bronze sword to Sumner. Then, he stared at Gerald and shouted, "Beat this bastard!"

Dozens of people gathered around. Their faces were full of interest.

"What's going on? Is that guy Gerald, who will attend the test of the Four Ancient Clans?"

"Yeah, I don't know why they quarreled with Pryor. Look at Pryor. His face is swollen."

"Humph, if not for the rules that we can't use Vital Energy in the village, Pryor wouldn't have been beaten like this."

"So Pryor's father is going to hit him?"

"Interesting. Sumner also comes out this time. That guy will have to suffer a lot! Pryor and his family will never lose out."

Valery heard the discussions around. At the same time, she felt that those people were looking at them unfriendly.

Indeed, Pryor and Sumner lived in the village. Those people also lived in the village or nearby. Of course, they were on Sumner's side.

Sumner held the ancient bronze sword. He looked at Gerald indifferently, "Do you think you are invincible since you are at Half-Step Flame Decay level? Do you think you can do anything anywhere?"

"Isn't it?" Gerald curled his lip.

“Like people at the top level or the super level are different, people at Half-Step Flame Decay level are different too,” Sumner said indifferently. “Today, you will have the opportunity to experience the difference.”

“So, can we start now?” Gerald asked.

“Anytime!” Sumner said arrogantly. At the same time, he shook the sword in his hand, and a surge of thick Vital Energy suddenly burst out from his body.

Gerald slightly lifted his eyelid. The next second, he threw the box backward.

The box was just an ordinary item. It could not withstand the battle between two people at the Half Step Flame Decay level. So, Gerald threw it to Valery so she and Carolyn could protect it. But the blue and the red swords flew out Buzz!

Growl!

Gerald’s Vital Energy suddenly burst forth. In the sky behind him, a coiling dragon-shaped phantom flashed!

Terrifying and powerful Vital Energy instantly surged out of his body!

As he saw that, Sumner’s face turned pale because of shock. “How could that be!”

The strength of the Vital Energy displayed by Gerald had scared Sumner.

Gerald held the blue saber, looked at Sumner, and revealed a sinister smile. “You are right. There is a huge difference between people at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.”

The onlookers standing behind were all shocked. They seemed to have never thought that Gerald would be so strong.

That terrifying Vital Energy made them feel unbearable even from far away. The pressure was too great.

“Cross Slash!”

Gerald was extremely fast. In an instant, he arrived in front of Sumner, and at the same time, a cross light of sabers flashed.

Sumner felt his scalp tingle, and his head was black. When he saw Gerald rushing over, the Vital Energy in his body surged, and his feet took a strange step. In a second, his body became like a ghost, avoiding the attack of Cross Slash.

“Hmm?” Gerald was slightly surprised!

The cultivation methods, skills, and weapons that the people in the mountain had were completely different from what Gerald knew.

Gerald's aura just now completely enveloped Sumner, but he did not expect that Sumner would be able to dodge his attack.

"Interesting!"

Gerald moved his feet slightly and caught Sumner's figure. He suddenly turned around and jumped up at an extremely fast speed. He jumped into the sky and slashed down again.

This time, Sumner had nowhere to dodge. He had no choice but to raise the ancient bronze sword in his hand to fight with Gerald.

Clang!

Their weapons collided, and their terrifying Vital Energy surged.

The ground where Sumner was standing collapsed in a second.

At that moment, Sumner felt like a mountain was pressing on his shoulder.

He had a feeling that he was facing Jonathan.

"Ah!"

The clothes on Sumner's body were instantly torn apart by Vital Energy, revealing his strong upper body. The hand he was holding the sword was bleeding. The part of the hand between the thumb and the index finger was torn apart!

"Kneel!"

Gerald sneered and shouted in a deep voice.

Plop!

Sumner could not resist. He only felt that the strength above him increased a bit, and his whole person knelt on the ground.

His sword also slipped out of his hand. When he wanted to grab it again, Gerald's blue saber was already on his neck.

Sumner's expression changed slightly. He raised his head and looked at Gerald. A trace of fear appeared on his face!

The difference was too big!

Gerald was probably already very close to the level of Flame Decay, and his strength was much higher than Sumner's.

There was a mistake in Sumner's information. When the people from the Berkeley clan came back, they only said that Gerald had dealt with the Gold Elite Ghosts but did not mention Gerald's strength. On the one hand, they did not expect Gerald to come to this place. On the other hand, Gerald belonged to the outside world and had nothing to do with them.

Moreover, Gerald was not even in his thirties and reached the Half-Step Flame Decay level without the help of Burial Ground. That already shocked them.

They couldn't have thought that Gerald would be so strong.

Pryor, who was standing aside, felt his scalp was numb, and then his face showed fear.

He was a very proud person. As one of the strongest people in the younger generation of the Four Ancient Clans, he had the ability to be arrogant.

But now, Pryor found there was a huge gap between Gerald and him. They were not at the same level. Pryor had not reached the Half-Step Flame Decay level yet.

The people of the Nelson clan around were also shocked.

Their discussion stopped. They just looked ahead in horror, looking at the young man standing in front of Sumner, and Sumner was half kneeling on the ground.

Originally, they thought Gerald would have to suffer a lot, but it turned out that they were wrong.

The battle ended very quickly. In a few seconds, it was over. Gerald moved two times in total. The first strike was dodged by Sumner's strange movement technique, but the second one made him kneel on the ground.

It was almost equivalent to an instant kill.

"That's what you got?" A disdainful voice suddenly sounded out.

The Nelson clan sensed the irony in the voice.

Sumner looked at Gerald, and his expression was gloomy. Then, he said with gritted teeth, "I lost!"

"That's it?" Gerald looked at him with disdain and asked. "What about your son teasing my friend and my girlfriend?"

As she heard this, Valery's face turned slightly red, but she did not deny it.

Sumner frowned and said, "Don't go too far. You are in the Nelson's place!"

"So what!" Gerald sneered. "I don't care which family you are. I would have been polite to you if you were polite to me. But you were not, so I will teach you a lesson!"

Then Gerald looked at Sumner and said, "You didn't educate your son well, and your father didn't educate you well. So, I will take over your father's duty and teach you a lesson!"

As he finished, he raised his hand and wanted to slap Sumner.

At that moment, a figure passed through the crowd and instantly arrived in front of Gerald. The figure grabbed Gerald's hand and said, "It's enough!"

Chapter 678 Both Take a Step Back

The hand holding Gerald looked very old. Gerald looked up and found that it was an old man. He was bald, and his face was full of wrinkles. He was bent and looked very weak. His hand holding Gerald did not have much strength, but Gerald's hand could not slap out!

This old man was at the same level as Robert

Robert and Keenan also walked into the crowd. They watched the scene with great interest, and their mouths also curled

"It's enough," the old man said lightly.

"Oh? Is it enough? Pryor saw that my girlfriend was pretty and teased her. He wanted to hurt my girlfriend, so I gave him a slap. This man wanted me to kneel and apologize to Pryor," Gerald chuckled. "He challenged me but couldn't beat me. Now you tell me that's enough?"

After finishing, Gerald looked at the old man nonchalantly and said, "Is this how the Nelson clan handles things?"

"Yes. Jonathan, you are too much." Robert smoked his pipe and looked like he was watching a show.

"You defeated him, and he was also injured. No need to slap him to humiliate him," Jonathan said calmly.

Gerald raised his eyebrow and said, "What if I lose? Will I have to kneel and apologize to him? That's what you think, right?"

Jonathan frowned. Then, he shook his head and said, "Sometimes, taking a step back is a better choice"

"Then why should I take a step back?" Gerald asked, "Why didn't you, the Nelson clan, take a step back?"

Jonathan sighed and shook his head. He looked at Robert behind him and said, "Robert, this young man has an unusual talent, but his character is extremely stubborn. If something is too stiff, it is easy to snap.

Although he owns Dragon Bone, he is not the person we are looking for. We should wait. I don't agree with him taking the test to Burial Ground."

Hearing this, Robert frowned slightly Jonathan, it's not up to you. We have been waiting for so long. Our Four Ancient Clans have been hiding in the Myriad Mountains for a thousand years. It's too long "

Gerald frowned and said indifferently, "Whether I can take the test or not, I don't care. I won't let him go. You can't stop me today!"

"What if I insist?" Jonathan said. "Gerald, do you think you can still leave this place if you continue like this?

Even if you don't care about yourself, you should care about your friends."

Robert was dissatisfied. "Jonathan, don't be so arrogant. He did the wrong thing first. There's nothing wrong with Gerald slapping him."

"This has nothing to do with you!" Jonathan said.

Keenan also frowned. He looked at Jonathan and said, "Mr. Nelson, I brought Gerald and his friends here. I'm responsible for their safety. If you insist on standing in the way, I'm afraid I have to stand on Gerald's side."

Jonathan raised his eyebrows and said, "You want to betray the Four Ancient Clans?"

"It's not that we want to betray the Four Ancient Clans, but you don't abide by the rules!" Robert replied. "Gerald, you can do whatever you want. I will protect your friends!"

Jonathan frowned, looked at Gerald, and said, "Let's end this. We both take a step back. You forget what happened today, and I agree to let you take the test!"

"We can talk about the test later. I can follow your rules and not slap him. He wanted me to kneel to apologize. Fine. His son teased my girlfriend and wanted to hurt her. I won't ask him to kneel and apologize to me. But he has to kneel and apologize to my girlfriend," Gerald said.

"Impossible!" Pryor sneered. "Gerald, where do you think you are?"

"It doesn't matter." Gerald stared at Jonathan. "Mr. Nelson, we might have to have a fight today."

Gerald's eyes flickered with excitement.

He had never fought with someone like Jonathan. He also wanted to know if he burst out with all his strength, could he beat Jonathan?

Jonathan, Robert, and Dr. T were all at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. Although Gerald also reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay, he was still far behind them.

Robert and Keenan were both surprised. They didn't expect Gerald to challenge Jonathan!

Jonathan let out a breath and said, "Okay!"

After saying that, Jonathan waved his hand. Pryor, who was not far away, was moved in front of Valery and knelt on the ground.

"Great-grandfather, I won't apologize!" Pryor gnashed his teeth.

"You are indeed too arrogant and overbearing. It is time to restrain your temper. Apologize!" Jonathan said.

"Otherwise, you will be confined for half a year!"

As he heard this, Pryor's expression changed slightly..

Gerald was surprised.

He had a general understanding of what kind of person Jonathan was. His thoughts were very traditional. In his opinion, Sumner was an elder and couldn't kneel or be slapped by a young man. Jonathan would never let such a thing happen.

But he could accept Pryor for doing that.

Gerald provoked them because he didn't want to be looked down upon by them.

If they both took a step back, then the matter would be solved.

Pryor gritted his teeth. But after hearing Jonathan's words, he finally said to Valery, "I'm sorry. I was rude just now. I hope you can forgive me."

Valery glanced at Pryor nonchalantly and said, "Actually, your talent is just so-so. You are about the same age as us, and with the help of Burial Ground, you have only reached this level. In the younger generation of Watchmen, more than three people are at the same level as you!"

The three people Valery was talking about were Gerald, Triston, and Carolyn.

Triston's strength was definitely above Pryor's. If Carolyn fought with Pryor, she could also defeat him.

"If they can enter Burial Ground, they will definitely reach Half-Step Flame Decay level when they come out," Valery said.

Pryor gritted his teeth but did not dare to speak.

“Alright.” Keenan looked at Jonathan. “Since Mr. Nelson has agreed, Gerald can take the test. The time of the test will be in five days. Are you okay with that?”

“Sure! See you in five days!” After saying that, Jonathan held Sumner, who looked pale, and turned to leave! Robert walked to Gerald. He smoked the pipe and patted Gerald on the shoulder with satisfaction. “I found that I began to admire you. I have never seen Jonathan be like that in my life. You are not bad!”

Gerald rubbed his nose and smiled, “Then what should we do next?”

“What else can we do? We already had a conflict with them. Do you still think they will invite us to dinner? Let’s go back. I’ll take you to the test in five days!” Robert said.

“Uh, I’m a little hungry,” Gerald touched his nose, cleared his throat, and said.

Robert was speechless!

At the same time, on the vast sea, Jaden was sitting on the deck. He had been looking at the sea for two days, and he still wore that mask. It seemed that he had never taken it off for so many years.

He glanced at Dr. T, who was sitting on the deck not far away. Under the mask, his forehead furrowed slightly.

In Jaden’s opinion, Dr. T was very powerful. It didn’t mean that Dr. T was good at fighting. He was powerful in his intelligence.

Jaden felt that no matter what Dr. T did, he could make everything under his control. Jaden felt that Gerald coming to Dr. T and killing Roland in front of him were also in Dr. T’s plan.

In the mountains, there were people on the same level as Dr. T, but Jaden didn’t know what Dr. T was going to

As if sensing Jaden’s gaze, Dr. T looked over, smiling brilliantly. Then, he got up and walked over to Jaden.

Chapter 679 The Plans of the Nelson Clan

Dr. T walked to Jaden’s side and stood on the side of the ship. Then, Dr. T asked Jaden with a smile, “What are you thinking?”

“I’m thinking what exactly do a person like you want to do in the Myriad Mountains?” Jaden replied calmly.

“Didn’t I tell you about it before? I’m going to find a very interesting place,” Dr. T smiled and said, “you seem to be a little absent-minded these past few days. Do you know something?”

Jaden shook his head and said, “No. It’s just that... I’ve been reluctant to go back there all these years. My hometown is a sad place for me.”

“A sad place?” Dr. T smiled slightly and said, “Myriad Mountains are extremely mysterious. Like the Amazon Forest, they have not been fully exploited to date. There are even many places that can’t be entered. Many people, including me, know just a little bit about them.”

Speaking up to this point, Dr. T smiled and said, “I have to say, that place is really a good place to hide people.”

Jaden’s facial expression under the mask changed slightly. He did not reply.

Dr. T smiled and said, “Your son, granddaughter, and two daughters should all be in the Myriad Mountains.”

Jaden turned his head to look at the sea and said calmly, “Dr. T, what do you think of my chances of winning if I fight you?”

Dr. T laughed loudly and then said, “I just said it casually. I don’t intend to harm your family. This time, I will go to your hometown. I will just pass by there. Don’t worry. Now is not the time for you to fight with me.”

Jaden stood there calmly and looked at the sea. It was unknown what he was thinking.

Dr. T patted Jaden on the shoulder and said, “When everything is over, your goal will be accomplished, and my goal will be accomplished. I will give you the antidote, and I won’t control you forever.”

“In fact, I have not been able to figure out why those people in the cabin trust you so much,” Jaden shook his head and muttered, “what you do is obviously to fool people. Why do they believe you? It is the Night Watch who is trustworthy and not you. You are far worse than Blaine.”

“Is that so?” Dr. T smiled and said, “Blaine will only take care of everything he has now and be content with the status quo. As for me, if my goal is achieved, I will make the civilization of mankind progress a step further.”

Jaden did not comment. He looked at the sea level, thinking about something.

In the depths of the mountain, Gerald and the others spent another day returning to where the Berkeley clan was. When the Berkeley clan saw them return, Jensen and the others hurriedly came over and asked, “How is it? Did they agree?”

“Yes. How dare they not listen to me?” Robert held a cigarette and said excitedly.

Jensen’s face was still swollen, but when he saw Gerald, he was happy.

When Gerald saw Jensen’s and others’ expressions, he couldn’t help but be slightly stunned.

Gerald didn’t know why they were so excited when he only got a chance to take the test.

Robert said to Jensen, "Moreover, you have to thank Gerald. Today, Gerald has avenged you. Gerald directly beat Pryor to the ground to apologize. Pryor's father was almost chopped to death by Gerald!"

"Did you have a conflict?" Jensen was stunned and asked.

"It's not a conflict. It's just an accident," Robert smiled and said, "no matter what, the test starts in five days. With Gerald's current strength, he will make it."

At this time, Keenan said, "Let's go eat first. I am a little hungry.*"

Gerald and the other three followed Keenan to the room. At this time, the sky was a little dark. In the room, some oil lamps lit up the whole room.

After sitting down, Gerald frowned and said, "How come Jensen and the others seem to be quite excited when they know that I got the chance to take the test?"

Keenan smiled slightly and said, "Actually, I'm quite happy too. You don't know that the Burial Ground has been holding back the Four Ancient Clans for too many years. In the Myriad Mountains, the people of the Four Ancient Clans are getting fewer and fewer. To avoid consanguineous marriages, we all marry into different families. But after so many years, the phenomenon of consanguineous marriage cannot be completely avoided. We can't do anything about it, and then there are fewer and fewer people."

"Didn't we say that we were waiting for someone?" Keenan said, "the Burial Ground can help us cultivate, but we still can't take out the bones inside on a large scale. As long as these bones are here, we have to stay here. The one who has the Dragon Bone can open the Burial Ground. And you are that person!"

"As long as the Burial Ground is opened and all the bones are taken out, our mission will be completed. We can leave the Myriad Mountains and enter the ordinary city to live in. Now my father has laid a foundation for us in Washington. After we leave here, we can live very well!" Keenan smiled and said, looking hopeful.

At this time, the woman said, "That's right. The three of us grew up in an ordinary world. After graduating from university, we had no choice but to return here. Everything here is good. The scenery is beautiful, but....

it's too boring to live here!"

Gerald was surprised that after living in an ordinary world for so long, they could say goodbye to their computers and phones and live in the mountains for decades.

The three of us don't feel bored," Keenan said, "almost every month, we go out to buy some food, rice, meat, and other things. However, the other people in the family have seldom left this place in their lives. They are very eager to go to the outside world, so when they see you come, they are very excited. The Mcdowell clan and the Roberson clan also think so. So when we send people over, they immediately agreed.”

Gerald was stunned and said, “Then why does the Nelson clan seem to be unwilling for me to participate in the test?”

“The Nelson clan has great ambitions,” Keenan sighed and said, “in ancient times, it was the head of our Four Ancient Clans. They have always been looking forward to having a person with Dragon Bone in their family. This Burial Ground has too many things. The things there are enough to make many people reach the level of Flame Decay. As for the Nelson clan, they hope that this place belongs to them. In this way, if they cultivate enough people at the level of Flame Decay, no one in this world could stop them. They are people with great ambitions.”

“We might have had one before, so there were once people with Dragon Bone who came. However, most of them refused each other. After countless years, there were fewer and fewer people in the family. Everyone had seen it through. They don’t think highly of their cultivation. They’d better live freely outside. Back then, my father and Robert fought until they bled because they wanted to decide who was the one to go out. Later, my father won and was sent out,” Keenan added.

After hearing that, Gerald’s facial expression suddenly changed. Gerald said, “Are you saying that your father is more powerful than Robert?”

“Yes,” Keenan nodded and said, “it was the case when they were young. As for now, I don’t know. My father hasn’t fought for many years. I don’t know what level he has reached now. Robert is only a step away from the level of Flame Decay.”

Gerald frowned slightly. Gerald thought, isn’t Jaden strong? If Jaden is so strong, how could he be schemed against by Dr. T?

There were many things that Gerald couldn’t figure out.

At the same time, five old men were sitting in the Nelson clan’s hall.

The old people sat on wooden chairs in all kinds of strange postures. Jonathan stood in front of the spirit tablets.

A person said, “Jonathan, the strength that kid showed today is above the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. He is close to the level of Flame Decay. By agreeing to let him take the test, you’re giving him the opportunity to go to the Burial Ground. It’s a chance that our family has been waiting for thousands of years.”

“There is no one in the family who can absorb Dragon Bone during the past thousands of years. This is not my fault,” Jonathan sighed and said, “moreover, the test is not so easy to pass. It is not so easy to enter the Burial Ground.”

Chapter 680 Karla Mcdowell

“He is 28 years old. Since he is at such a level, it means he is talented. The chance for him to enter the Burial Ground is extremely great. Our family has waited for this opportunity for thousands of years. We can’t him enter the Burial Ground like this,” an old man said as he was smoking. His face was full of wrinkles. He looked calm

Another old man also said indifferently, “This man must die. Then, let Pryor exchange blood with him, so Pryor can inherit the man’s ability to absorb Dragon Bone.”

Jonathan turned around and said calmly, “He is Gerald, the Watchman No. 0 of Night Watch. Keenan and the others said that Blaine has already reached the level of Flame Decay. This is a level that no one in the Four Ancient Clans can reach.”

The old man who spoke first said calmly again, “Blaine can only use a saber. He has already died. In the outside world, the strongest one is that man. If we trap him in the test, he will definitely die!”

“But he still has to be responsible for the safety of the outside world,” Jonathan said, “there are too many people outside. If he dies and the Elite Ghost attacks, we can’t bear the consequences.”

The wrinkled old man said calmly, “As long as he dies, I will personally come out to guard the people. As long as Pryor enters the Burial Ground and gets the remaining Dragon Bones and the treasure of the Burial Ground, he will reach the level of Flame Decay. In this way, this world will be safe. Our long-cherished wish can also be completed.”

Jonathan let out a long sigh and said, “You and I are the only ones who can compete with him. Who do you think should compete with him?”

“I’ll go!” the old man said again, “I’ve watched him. Although he has reached a level close to us, he is not so strong. On the day of the test, I will compete with him on behalf of the Nelson clan.”

Jonathan was silent for a while. He then nodded and said, “Alright then.”

Time passed. Unknowingly, four days had passed. During these four days, Gerald and the others all lived in the village where the Berkeley clan was. Robert was surprised during this time.

Robert wanted to test Gerald’s talent, so he took the initiative to show two unique martial skills of the Berkeley clan.

One skill was called “Ghost Steps” and the other was called “Army Breaker”.

Then, something made Robert surprised appeared. After Gerald saw Robert show the skills once, Gerald tried to use them. After using them a few times, Gerald had almost mastered them.

What made Robert the most surprised was that Valery and Carolyn also mastered the skills soon.

Ever since then, Robert had shut himself in the room for two days before coming out gloomily.

On the fourth day, Isla returned. This time, she brought two more people with her. They were Triston and Charles.

Although Zackary knew what happened, he was still worried when he knew there were a lot of martial arts masters Zackary had privately informed Blaine and had Charles and Triston come over as well Charles had reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. Triston was close to the level of the Half-Step Flame Decay. Both of them were helpful.

Robert was congenial to Triston. Knowing that Triston was also a Watchman, Robert taught Triston unique martial skills. After discovering that Triston also mastered the skills quickly, Robert shut himself up for the entire night.

Unknowingly, five days passed in the blink of an eye.

Five days later, in the morning, Gerald and the others got up early. Today, their destination was the location of the Roberson's home. The Roberson's home was closer to the Berkeley's home than that of the Nelson's home, but it would take them two hours to get there.

Robert did not go to the Roberson's home this time. He wanted to stay behind to guard the people nearby. Keenan brought a few people from the Berkeley clan to rush towards the Roberson's home.

Isla also went to the Roberson's home. She wanted to join in on the fun.

What surprised Gerald was that Isla was actually at the super level. However, she should have just stepped into the super level not long ago.

The Burial Ground was indeed very mysterious. It could make the people of the Four Ancient Clans reach the super level more easily.

This made Gerald extremely envious. If the Watchmen could also endlessly enter this place, and the number of people who were at the super level could increase, it would be great.

Two hours later, they once again arrived near a village. This village had a lot of buildings. Keenan said, "The Roberson's home is the oldest place among our Four Ancient Clans. It is said that they contributed the most to the formation of the Burial Ground, so the test is arranged here. Don't worry, the so-called test is just a formality. It can't stop you. As for whether you can enter the Burial Ground in the end, it depends on you. That place is quite dangerous."

Gerald nodded

Gerald knew that the Burial Ground was very dangerous. This time, he had only come to try. It was just that he never thought that there would be so many people and so many things hidden in the Myriad Mountains.

The veil of Jaden, who was mysterious, was considered to have been lifted.

As for whether or not he could enter the Burial Ground, Gerald did not think too much about it. He had only accepted the test because he wanted to give it a try.

If they could bring out a large number of Bones of Eternity, their strength would be significantly improved.

Gerald had no Dragon Bone. Triston and the others also had quite a few Dragon Bones. The speed at which they absorbed the Dragon Bones was very fast. Sooner or later, they would completely absorb all of them. At that time, without the Dragon Bones in their hands, their promotion would become slower.

Gerald hoped that by the time of the next Elite Ghost invasion, Carolyn, Triston, and Watchman No. 2 could reach the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

From the last large-scale invasion, Gerald realized that the most important thing in the case of the large-scale Elite Ghost invasion was cutting-edge combat power. It would be best if those who were involved were all at the top level. However, it was difficult to reach the top level.

Even if there was a trend of everyone becoming a martial artist, it was still hard to say how many people could reach the top level.

Therefore, Gerald wanted to bring some usable Bones of Eternity back, so that those who were at the super level would not have to worry about this and could just focus on improving themselves.

Just as they were about to walk towards the building in front of them, a series of sounds came from the side. At this time, more than ten figures came out from the trees next to them.

"Keenan," one of the middle-aged women smiled at Keenan and said.

At that time, Isla's eyes lit up. Isla said, "Karla, you're here too!"

Isla ran towards Karla.

In the crowd, there was a graceful figure. She was Karla. She wore a dress with long hair that reached her waist. There was a gentle smile on her face. She looked to be around 25 years old.

However, since Isla was respectful to Karla, Karla should be older than Isla Karla's appearance was extremely good, and when she stood in the crowd, one could see her at a glance.

"Isla, you are here too!" Karla said with a smile.

“Karla, are you the examination officer from the Mcdowell clan this time?” Isla blinked at Gerald.

“Of course not,” Karla smiled and pointed at the woman in front of her, saying, “my mother is!”

“Since we are meeting each other, let’s go there together,” the middle-aged woman smiled and said.

Keenan nodded and said, “OK.”

The middle-aged woman’s eyes fell on Gerald and the others. She sized them up and said.

Keenan took the initiative to introduce. This is Gerald, the person who will take the test. The other people are Watchmen. They are worried and sent some people here.”

“It doesn’t matter if they are worried. They probably didn’t expect that there would be so many martial arts masters in the depths of the mountains.” The middle-aged woman smiled slightly.

At this time, Karla looked at Gerald in surprise. Karla and then smiled slightly, saying. “Come on! Try your best to pass this test.”

Isla chuckled and said, “Do you think Karla is beautiful? Let me introduce her to you. Her name is Karla Mcdowell She is unmarried.”
