Chapter 761 Emerge From the Ground

When he saw the flying objects in the sky, Ricardo's face changed slightly. He said, "Damn it, those jerks are coming again!"

After that, he looked at the people who were retreating and shouted, "Everyone, be on full alert. There seems to be a lot of people this time!"

He was no stranger to these things. When he was in the Myriad Mountains, every time alien civilizations came here, they would always come in these things. The people who had been lurking in the Myriad Mountains also came here on these things.

The ground was still shaking.

The soil in some places began to collapse, and all the people of the Four Ancient Clans hid on the other side!

In the Arctic, Blaine and Hector walked out of the cave and looked at the sky in a certain direction.

In that direction, the wind and clouds surged. The clouds in the sky were stirred by terrifying energy and then quickly scattered in all directions.

"This is..." Blaine frowned.

"Some of the energy of your planet has been sealed in the Burial Ground, which is why martial arts have declined." Hector said indifferently, "Now, the Burial Ground has been opened."

"Sealed in the Burial Ground?" Blaine said, "How did they do this? And... Why did they do this?"

"There are countless Bones of Eternity in the Burial Ground. It means in the past, there were countless experts in your world. However, for some reason, they all died. I went to the Burial Ground once. I have seen that place, but... I couldn't advance much. At that time, I sensed the seal on the inside!" Hector murmured.

Blaine slowly exhaled and said, "Is the era of national martial arts really coming?"

Hector nodded and said, "It should be. The technology of your planet is in the slow lane, but your planet has an extremely terrifying number of Bones of Eternity. It has attracted the attention of many other civilizations. After this, your strength in martial arts should rise rapidly. There are many things you have to do. After the rise of martial arts, your technology must not fall behind."

While they were talking, Gerald was standing in the central palace hall of the Burial Ground, gasping for breath.

Three moves almost sucked out all of the Vital Energy in his body, and a large amount of the surging Vital Energy surged towards Gerald, so his Vital Energy rapidly replenished!

"Such pure energy." Gerald was overjoyed. This was an opportunity to cultivate!

Without much thought, he quickly sat down cross-legged. As he recovered his Vital Energy, he began to refine his cultivation technique.

The cultivation technique was called the Divine Energy-Gathering Technique. It matched up with the Dragon-Slaying Saber Skills technique. He had to admit Divine Energy-Gathering Technique was indeed much stronger than the cultivation techniques he had practiced in the past. The degree of purity of Vital Energy was not on the same level!

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

A series of explosions were still echoing around, but it seemed to have no effect on Gerald at all.

At the same time, on the other side, after Triston stabilized, he also felt there was extremely pure energy nearby. He quickly sat down cross-legged, wanting to grab this pure energy to break through the bottleneck of the level of Flame Decay.

The others sensed it and also sat down!

Claude longed to use this opportunity to reach the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

Claude knew very well his talent could never be enough for him to reach the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

He was not gifted.

If he had not followed Gerald, he would have never made it to the super level.

He did not want to let go of such an opportunity!

No one noticed that as the palace slowly rose, countless pieces of soil fell from the huge gully between the platform and the palace. All the soil above the palace fell into the gully. Soon, the magma below was slowly disappearing.

The palace seemed to want to break out of the ground.

The process lasted for a long time!

At the same time, outside, more than a dozen flying saucers were also hovering in the air. Many people wearing high-tech clothes were standing above, looking over in anticipation!

Ricardo looked at it, and his heart sank slightly!

There were too many people, and most of them were at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

Those people had been hovering outside of Earth. When the Burial Ground opened, they chose to enter.

“I don’t know if they are at the level of Flame Decay. If they are, I’m afraid it will be a little troublesome.”

Ricardo frowned and said, “We can only rely on Gerald.”

After that, he looked at the trombling ground below and shouted behind him, “The Burial Ground has been opened. It is now the last shift of the Four Ancient Clans. Everyone, prepare to fight to the death!”

“Roger that!” everyone shouted in unison.

An hour passed without anyone noticing. At a certain point in time, the ground in front of the collapsed area began to fall diagonally. The palace on the Burial Ground also collapsed. In the collapsed palace, a layer of black horn was exposed.

The ground shook even more violently. The moment the horn appeared, it broke through the ground and quickly turned into a huge palace. It slowly rose up from the ground!

The surrounding sand and dust flew, and a huge palace continued to rise.

Another ten minutes passed!

Crack!

Crack!

A series of locking sounds rang out as the smoke began to slowly disperse!

In the depths of the Myriad Mountains, a huge platform was formed.

On the platform, huge stone statues stood tall. At that moment, after the platform was revealed, it looked more like a plaza. However, the plaza was extremely messy, covered by broken trees and dirt.

However, those huge stone statues were truly astonishing.

Behind the plaza, there was a patch of soil. The original ravine was completely filled with soil. On the opposite side was an enormous palace. When the palace broke through the ground, it was not damaged in the slightest.

At that moment, it looked majestic.

“Is this... the thing under the Burial Ground?” When Ricardo saw that, he could not help but be shocked.

Grr

At the same time, the flying saucers in the sky suddenly emitted a hoarse sound. More than a dozen flying saucers began to circle toward the palace. The people standing on the flying saucers began to have armor on them!

Ricardo, who had dealt with them for many years, knew these people's clothes could be turned into armor, and the armor was hard!

These flying saucers ignored Ricardo and went straight to the palace!

Buzz

Suddenly, a noise sounded in the palace.

Gerald opened his eyes. He turned around and found the originally closed door behind him had opened, and sunlight was shining down from the outside.

*Have we reached the ground?" Gerald touched his chin.

His Vital Energy had completely recovered, and with the help of this pure energy, he felt he had made some progress!

But now, he was standing at the peak of this world. He didn't have any reference for a breakthrough, so he didn't know just how strong he was.

His gains on this trip to the Burial Ground were too great.

Swish!

Swish!

Suddenly, Gerald heard a swish and quickly walked out of the hall!

He looked up and saw a dense number of spears in the sky. They rushed straight into the sky, and there were more than a dozen flying saucers in the sky.

"Damn, UFO!" When Gerald saw that, he smacked his mouth and said.

Chapter 762 Cope With the Aftermath

There were many rumors about flying saucers, but very few people actually saw them!

Gerald was one of the lucky few. Of course, he also saw the clothes of the people standing on the flying saucers. His eyes were murderous!

At this time, a spear flew over!

In the flying saucer, something also flew out.

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

The spear and the thing from the flying saucer exploded in the sky like fireworks!

Gerald was shocked.

He had felt the power of the spear before. It was almost equivalent to an attack at the level of Flame Decay!

And the person in the flying saucer was actually able to unleash such a level of attack. Gerald slowly let out a breath.

Of course, Gerald did not think this thing was very powerful. In terms of lethality, modern firearms were probably also this strong. It was just that firearms could not break through the defense of the Elite Ghosts.

“Are you coming for the Burial Ground?” Gerald licked his lips, and then he soared into the sky!

He held the Dragon Saber with one hand!

In this period of time, Gerald had been using a sword, but in comparison, he preferred to use a saber. His fighting style was rough, so the saber was a better fit.

The Dragon Saber shone under the sunlight. Gerald leaped high into the air. His entire body was wrapped in Vital Energy as he passed through the exploding smoke. Looking at the dozen or so flying saucers, he licked his lips and slashed down with his saber.

Vital Energy surged, and the saber light appeared!

The two flying saucers in the middle were cut off by Gerald immediately!

Above the flying saucers, the people made a series of creaking sounds. Gerald could not understand them, but judging from their tone, they should be shocked and amazed.

Gerald didn't want to pay attention to them. He slashed at the others with his saber!

With the surge of Vital Energy, even a person at the peak level of Half-Step Flame Decay couldn't withstand Gerald's attack because of Gerald's special property.

As for those who did not reach the level of Half-Step Flame Decay, something weird happened to them!

Half of their bodies were turned into ashes, while the other half was sealed in ice.

At this time, Gerald had three attributes. In battle, it was too terrifying.

The level of Flame Decay was an important divide.

“Brat!” At this time, in the flying saucer, a furious roar suddenly sounded. A person rushed out, and his body emitted the aura of Flame Decay!

Gerald's eyelids twitched slightly. He knew.

These people were a different group from the Elite Ghosts. According to Hector, they weren't from the same world, either, but they also coveted the Burial Ground!

Gerald turned his head to look at him, waving his long saber!

Swish!

At this time, Gerald suddenly felt a bullet whistling past his ear. He turned his body sideways, and a bullet instantly hit the person at the level of Flame Decay who was rushing out.

That person at the level of Flame Decay dashed at Gerald and instantly stopped, revealing a painful expression.

How could Gerald let go of such an opportunity? He moved forward, and a dragon-shaped shadow appeared behind him.

“Skyward Strike!”

His long saber rose from the bottom and swept upwards. Terrifying Vital Energy erupted along with the Skyward Strike.

The Dragon Saber let out a loud sound, like a real dragon roar!

Boom!

On the flying saucer, the person at the level of Flame Decay was hit by a bullet as he rushed out. Before he could react, he was slashed by Gerald.

He was unable to resist, and his Vital Energy burst out as he tried to defend himself against Gerald’s attack!

However, it was too late!

Gerald broke through his Vital Energy and split it from the middle!

Then Gerald stepped on the flying saucer and turned to look down.

Below, at the palace, eight or nine people stood at the top of the palace. Claude was holding a gun and aiming at the sky.

“Ah, it seems I’ve gained a lot. Claude actually reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay,” Gerald said with smile

Then, his Vital Energy completely erupted!

It was time to end this group of intruders!

A few minutes later, several flying saucers crashed into the Myriad Mountains, and the intruders on the flying saucers had been completely wiped out.

Gerald breathed a sigh of relief. Valery, Claude, and the others also came over. Gerald narrowed his eyes slightly. He looked up and down at Claude and the others, saying, “Gee, not bad!”

At this time, Triston, Carolyn, and Valery were emitting auras that were no weaker than Jonathan!

The others all reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay, including Claude!

Yes, at the last moment when the energy appeared, Claude used it to break into the level of Half-Step Flame Decay in a little more than an hour.

It meant his gun could pose a threat to a person at the level of Flame Decay.

Of course, because of his bullets, it was too difficult to kill him. If his bullets just now could have an impact at the level of Flame Decay, then the person at the level of Flame Decay would have been completely destroyed!

"I am so close to the level of Flame Decay." Triston said unwillingly.

Gerald smiled slightly, then looked at Theo and said, "You have to make a trip. There are too many things in this place. Go back and tell Blaine to send people over and empty the things here. There are many things involved Cultivation arts, and ancient martial arts. There are even some ancient books and so on. We don't have time to study them. Let them do it!"

Triston curled his lips and said, "You guys are on the same team. Just stay here. I can go back by myself. Fuck, those brats in my team are all trash."

Theo was happy. He smiled and said, "You should go now This time, you will make a fortune.*"

Triston nodded. He jumped to a tree next to him and disappeared into the forest in a few leaps

At this time, Ricardo and the other people from the Four Ancient Clans also came over. Seeing this, Ricardo asked in surprise, "Is it over?"

"All dead." Gerald smiled at him and said, "Now the Burial Ground has been completely opened!"

Ricardo nodded and said, "It has opened, yes. Our mission has been completed. Finally we can get out of the Myriad Mountains..."

"But we have to wait for a while." Gerald smiled and said, "We have to ask the Watchmen to send someone to move the things out."

Ricardo nodded and said, "We have been guarding for so many years. We can wait for a day or two. But I have to tell the other three clans to go back to pack up and leave this place."

Geraid nodded, then took out the note from his pocket, and handed it to Ricardo. "This thing was obtained in the Burial Ground. It should be the note of your ancestors. It can help your clan, so I brought it over!"

Ricardo's eyes were hot. He took the note and said, "I'm eternally grateful!"

After saying a few words to Gerald, he ordered the people of the Four Ancient Clans to go down.

Gerald and the others were still guarding the Burial Ground. Another two days passed, and five thousand Watchmen under the leadership of Jacob entered the Burial Ground!

After a year, Jacob changed a lot.

He methodically arranged for the Watchmen to clean up and counted the things they had, and then Jacob recorded them while classifying them!

Gerald and the others did not leave because of the arrival of the Watchmen. They did not know if there were any other invaders who coveted the Bones of Eternity.

The Bone of Eternity, cultivation techniques, weapons, and other things were being continuously transported out by the Watchmen.

Five thousand Watchmen took three whole days to transport everything out.

“Gee!”

In the square, Jacob, who was busy and anxious, came over and sat down next to Gerald. Then he asked Milo for a pot of wine and said, “Damn, I am exhausted!”

“Are you done? You actually drank?” Gerald said.

“I’m almost done. There is still some follow-up work and development to be done here. I have to leave some Watchmen behind. Scientific Research Department and some historians will come. This palace needs to be thoroughly studied,” Jacob said with a smile.

Chapter 763 Jacob’s Advice

Jacob drank a mouthful of wine and sat down on the field. With a tired expression, he said, “Damn it, you don’t even know how tired I have been lately. I haven’t slept for more than five hours a day.”

Indeed, especially since the second time the Elite Ghost invaded, Jacob and Zackary had to deal with too many things.

Gerald looked at him with a faint smile and said, “Didn’t you change a lot? Do you regret joining the Night

Watch?”

“Regret?” Jacob curled his lips and said, “I don’t regret it. I am grateful!”

Gerald thought Jacob would be somebody because Jacob was smart and good at words.

But when Gerald left Sacramento and went back, Jacob buckled to the unfair rules of the world. In this day and age, it was difficult to stand out without connections.

Jacob became a salesperson and was behind in his bills. He was no longer confident and hopeful.

After Gerald gave him 800 thousand dollars, Jacob recovered his confidence. After learning from Zackary for a year, Jacob changed a lot.

“Kelly should be regretful when she knows how you are doing, right?” Gerald said.

Kelly was Jacob’s ex-girlfriend who asked him for 160 thousand dollars before marrying him.

Jacob froze for a moment and then sighed, To tell you the truth, Kelly contacted me a while ago!”

“Damn.” Gerald looked at him in surprise and said, “Did you agree to take her back?”

When the others heard that, their faces also showed curiosity. Theo looked at Claude and said, “Damn, bro, I didn’t expect you to be so soft-hearted!”

“Get lost!” Gerald glared at him!

Theo was a prodigal.

Theo was not a jerk. When he picked up girls, he usually wouldn’t find the kind of girl who would easily have feelings for him. He didn’t try to hook up with them. He mostly hooked up with fake bitches who wanted something from him.

It was why Gerald didn’t want to introduce him to Jolie. If Theo didn’t want to settle down, he would hurt Jolie’s feelings.

“I didn’t take her back.” Gerald curled his lips and said. “Didn’t Zackary and I act as the Night Watch representatives and appear on TV? It was broadcast in Sacramento. Kelly probably saw it!

“Her brother is addicted to gambling. You know he borrowed a lot of money on the Internet. His family paid off his debts Then He continued to gamble on the Internet Later, he lost his house” Jacob curled his lips and said, “Kelly met a rich guy after she broke up with me. But he thought she wasn’t good enough for him!

“Her family kept setting her up with men, and she met several men in a row. Finally, she picked one, but he was not rich. He was probably like me!” Jacob sighed.

“As a result... After his brother got into trouble, Kelly’s boyfriend realized something was wrong and dumped her.” Jacob pouted and continued, “I had feelings for her, so I was willing to pay the bill for her. She always used my feelings to exploit me. Her blind date had no feelings for her, so naturally, he was not willing to give her money!

Then, her family found it was good to be a Watchman, so they wanted to make her brother one. Thus, she tried to reconnect with me,” Jacob said unhappily.

“You agreed?” Gerald asked with a frown.

“Hell no. I don’t like her anymore.” Jacob curled his lips.

“A real man should be like this! Theo patted Jacob on the shoulder and said, “You can have any woman now.”

Jacob nodded and said, “Yes, my family has introduced a lot of blind dates to me recently. I plan to go back and get married after I am done with this. By the way, Gerald, what about you? Are you not going to get married?”

Valery’s face suddenly turned red

Gerald looked at Theo and said, “Let me introduce you. This is my wife, the best doctor in Night Watch, Valery!”

Jacob was shocked, and then he winked and said, “Damn, bro, good for you. She is the Princess Charming of Night Watch.”

“She is too charming. I can’t do anything about it.” Gerald coughed.

Valery glared at Gerald. The few of them quarreled for a while. Then, Jacob thought of something and said, “Right, there is something I need to ask you.”

“Hmm?” Gerald asked, “What’s wrong?”

“Do you really intend to let Blaine and Hector go to Havotune?” Jacob looked at Gerald and asked.

Hearing that, Gerald frowned hard.

Gerald naturally did not want him to go. Havotune was old. If possible, Gerald wanted him to live a peaceful life on Earth.

Moreover, Havotune should enjoy peace at his age when he could.

However, someone must deal with the Elite Ghosts. Gerald suddenly wanted to leave this planet and go to an unknown place. He was a little reluctant, so he had not given Blaine an answer back then. He planned to discuss it after he returned.

Gerald did not expect Jacob to suddenly ask him this question.

Jacob looked at Gerald and said, “Actually, I have discussed this issue with Zackary. We feel that if you go, it will be the best. Your goal is to take revenge and quietly destroy the Four Ancient Families!

“According to Hector, the Four Ancient Families have dozens of people at the level of Flame Decay. After you go, you have to assassinate them one after another! Then, you have to unite with other forces. When the experts in those clans are dead, there will naturally be other forces that want to annex them.

“Blaine is not as strong as you now. He is not even so stable at the level of Flame Decay. If he goes, maybe he can’t do it.” Jacoby analyzed the situation and said, “Therefore, Zackary and I suggest we send you over with Team 11762.”

Gerald touched his chin.

Jacob continued, “We discussed it with Blaine, but he rejected it. He wants to go by himself and leave you here!”

“Gerald!” At this time, Claude said, “Why don’t our team go? Since Hector has a way to go there, and the Elite Ghosts have a way to come to our planet, after we go there, as long as we complete our revenge, we will have a chance to come back! I am willing to go with you!”

“I will go with you,” Valery said calmly.

“If I go... I won’t bring everyone with me.” Gerald said, “Going there to carry out a mission is different from doing it on Earth. We have Watchmen on Earth, and we can collect a lot of information. But there are only a you with me few of us over there, and we are unfamiliar with that world. So even if I go, I can’t bring all of After I go back and see Blaine, I will discuss it with him!”

Chapter 764 Decision

Another day passed, and Bone of Eternity, marrow, and cultivation techniques in Burial Ground were all transported out

A building was being urgently rebuilt at the headquarters of Night Watch. This building was going to be named “Eternity Hall”.

The name originated from Bone of Eternity. At the same time, Zackary also informed all the super experts in the world to gather here. Of course, most of the super experts were Watchmen.

As long as they were talented, relying on Bone of Eternity and marrow, most of these super experts could advance to the level of Half-Step Flame Decay

For Watchmen, this would be a huge upgrade.

Of course, along with the opening of Burial Ground, the sealed energy spread all over the world. The whole martial arts world improves quickly. For the use of Bone of Eternity and marrow, Night Watch had to make a series of rules. Otherwise, it would be a bad thing for other people to obtain it.

All of this was done by Zackary and the others. Gerald was a leader, but to put it bluntly, he was still more suitable for fighting and executing missions.

At the same time, many people came to the Burial Ground.

Gerald and the others also packed up their things and planned to leave.

They waited in the square in front of the palace. In the past few days, the branches and the like on the square had been cleaned up by Watchmen, including dirt and others.

After the stone statues were excavated from the Burial Ground, they seemed to have really become stone statues. There were no signs of attack, and the tricks in the palace seemed to have stopped working.

Of course, the design of this palace could be said to be ingenious, but all of this was left to the Scientific Research Department to study.

Lucas, who was in charge of the Scientific Research Department of Night Watch, had arrived.

He also arrived with thousands of people. After arriving, Ashtyn ran over and greeted Gerald and the others.

After learning that Gerald and Valery were together, she was stunned for a moment and then ran away angrily

Gerald was a little helpless when he saw this, but he had no choice. He always felt that there was a problem with Ashtyn's feelings for him. It was just a misunderstanding.

Lucas was an old man in his seventies, but he took good care of himself and looked like he was only in his fifties. He looked at Gerald coldly and said, "Brat, it's your loss to look down on my granddaughter!"

Gerald was very embarrassed He coughed and said, "Mr. Casey, it's not that I look down on Ashtyn. I have always regarded her as my younger sister."

"Is that so?" Lucas sneered as he glanced at Gerald. Then, he said indifferently, "Don't ask for my help in the future. Take it away yourself!"

After saying that, he waved his hand.

Behind him, a person walked over with two boxes.

This is a new type of bullet, paired with Claude's sniper rifle. We used Dr. T's method of energy compressing to improve it. Due to limited time, we only made five hundred bullets. You can use them as you like. We will continue to make more!" Lucas said.

"Thank..." Gerald was just about to thank Lucas, but he directly glared at Gerald and turned to leave.

Gerald was extremely embarrassed.

Lucas returned to the research team. He commanded some people to start building network base stations around... At the same time, some people also walked to the square, looking at the lofty palace in the distance, taking pictures, and recording something there.

Half of the Watchmen stayed there to take care of their safety. When Gerald saw that everything had returned to normal, he greeted the person in charge of Night Watch before they decided to leave.

They and the people from the Four Ancient Clans had agreed to meet in the Berkeley clan's village.

Around twelve o'clock in the afternoon, in the territory of the Berkeley clan, there were about three hundred people from the Four Ancient Clans left, including women and children. After having lunch in the Berkeley clan's village, they began to set out and walked out from the Myriad Mountains.

Because of the women and children, their speed was not very fast.

Most of the people of the Four Ancient Clans, including the Nelson clan who had once had a conflict with Gerald, all looked expectant.

Most of the people had never left the Myriad Mountains. They had no idea what the world outside Myriad Mountains was like.

Originally, Gerald planned to settle them down, but the Berkeley clan decided to take charge of it. The Berkeley clan had enough capital in Washington. They directly bought a villa district for the people of the Four Ancient Clans to live in.

The Four Ancient Clans were interconnected. As the first to know and develop in cities, the Berkeley clan naturally had to help others develop They sent three airplanes to take them to Washington from Chicago. When they arrived in Washington, Watchmen and the Berkeley clan would receive them there.

Keenan and Isla were also in the crowd, so it was not a big problem to arrange them.

The journey was very far. Of course, almost all the people of the Four Ancient Clans were warriors, so their speed was still fast. At eight o'clock in the evening, they successfully hit the highway outside Myriad Mountains. There were many buses waiting here early.

Gerald and others sent the people of the Four Ancient Clans to Chicago. After watching them get on the planes, they took Christopher's plane and rushed to Sacramento.

That night, Gerald did not go home. They went to the villa where they had cultivated before and took a comfortable bath. After a nap, Gerald planned to go back the next day.

After he woke up, he walked down from upstairs.

In the restaurant on the first floor, Valery and the other girls had made breakfast and were waiting there. Gerald went to wash up and sat down by the dining table.

"Have you decided?" Carolyn looked at Gerald and asked. "How about we go there?"

Gerald knew that she was asking about leaving with Hector.

Gerald frowned and could not help but look at Valery.

In fact, he did not really want to leave. Although Valery said that she wanted to go with him. But if he went, he was worried that Valery would be in danger. Moreover, He had just confirmed his romantic relationship with Valery. He also wanted to take advantage of this period of peace to have a good time with her.

He also had enough time to be with his parents.

However... He really did not want Blaine to go over. Just as Zackary said, firstly, Blaine was old, and secondly, Blaine might not be able to accomplish this task.

From Hector's tone, martial arts were prosperous in that world, and it was likely that it was not inferior to the earth that Gerald had learned from the diary, or even stronger.

Considering Blaine's physical condition, he was not even considered completely at the level of Flame Decay If Gerald went, the effect would be much better.

"Let's go there!" Valery suddenly raised her head and looked at Gerald. "I will go with you."

"I think so too. Valery, Claude, you, and I, the four of us will go together!" Carolyn said, "The other members of the team are a little weaker."

"Did you discuss it yesterday?" Gerald asked.

Valery nodded. "Yes. Since Elite Ghosts can come to our world, we can go there and finish the mission. We can definitely come back."

Gerald slowly let out a breath and said, "Since all of you said so, then... go. I'll go back and tell my family. Then... We'll go find Blaine."

Valery and Carolyn nodded. "OK!"

Chapter 765 Street Interview

Seeing that they had all made up their minds, Gerald also made up his mind. Indeed, it was better for him to do this

Valery drank a mouthful of milk, and then her face turned slightly red "There is another thing I have to tell you!"

"What?" Gerald's expression changed.

"Before going to see Blaine, you have to make a trip back to my hometown to see my uncle and my family

When Valery said this, her face became even redder.

Gerald was stunned and asked, "Did you tell your uncle and the others?"

"Yes, they told me to bring you back to see them!" Valery said with a red face.

On the side, Belinda, Kristen, and Carolyn looked at them with a half-smile. Belinda said with a smile, "Before you leave, how about you two get married?"

Valery lowered her head.

She usually looked placid, and it was rare for her to be like that, so they could not help but tease her.

Carolyn said, "That's right. You should get married first. This time, you are going on a mission. Just treat it as a honeymoon. Other couples usually travel to picturesque places. But you will go on an interstellar trip. You can take some photos then. How awesome will that be!"

"Carolyn, don't spout nonsense!" Valery glared at Carolyn.

Gerald coughed and said, "Let's talk about this later!"

Then he looked at Valery and asked, "When are we leaving?"

Valery looked at Gerald and said, "It would be best to set off today."

Gerald touched his chin and said, "Okay, then I won't go home first. Let's go directly in a big way. I'll go to Leandro to fetch a luxury car. Let's drive over!"

Valery's hometown was in Yosemite, and it was not far from Sacramento. It would only take a few hours to drive there.

"Let's take a plane there and then find someone to get a luxury car over there," Valery said.

It was indeed not too much of a problem to get a car in Yosemite.

Gerald touched his nose and said, "Good idea!"

"Shall we go buy some clothes later?" Carolyn asked. "And then have your hair cut. Your hair is too long."

Indeed, Gerald had been busy all this time and had not cut his hair for a long time.

Valery looked at Gerald and said, "You can wear some casual clothes. But you need to have your hair cut."

Gerald smiled. Carolyn and the others teased Valery again. Then, they finished their breakfast talking and laughing. Gerald and Valery went out. Gerald got his hair cut short and bought a set of clothes. He spent a lot of money.

Then, he and Valery appeared at the airport wearing masks.

They didn't bring any weapons with them. They also took an ordinary passenger plane to Yosemite

Both of them were in a cabin in first class. After boarding the plane, they sat down, and Valery rested her head on Gerald's shoulder.

Gerald was slightly stunned. Then he turned to look at Valery. Valery seemed to be at ease, pretended to be calm, and closed her eyes.

Gerald gulped and then took the initiative to hold Valery's hand.

There were two girls sitting next to them. When they saw Gerald and Valery, they were slightly stunned and revealed a trace of surprise.

"The person next to you seems to be Gerald, the Watchman on TV!"

"Seems that he is, but he is wearing a mask," another girl said.

Then she shook her head and said, "It is probably that he just resembles Gerald. With Gerald's status, it is impossible for him to take a plane."

"If only he were Gerald. I like him very much now. If I can take a photo with him, my friends will probably be extremely envious!"

Gerald was a little surprised when he heard the conversation.

In the small country in the Arctic, he had already felt what it was like being a celebrity. He did not expect that he would be recognized when he was on a plane wearing a mask.

He pretended not to hear and then began to close his eyes.

After slowly approaching Yosemite, he became a little nervous.

It was the first time he had come to visit his girl's parents. Moreover, he was indeed a little worried.

Back then, he was forced by Irene's father to marry Irene. In addition, he lived in Irene's home, so he did not feel anything.

At this time, he slowly began to become nervous.

After more than an hour, they smoothly got off the plane. Gerald didn't let go of her hand. At this time, they were a little like a young couple who had just fallen in love.

But after getting off the plane, Gerald felt that his heart was beating more and more violently. He even felt a little nervous.

"Are you a little nervous?" Valery asked. "Your pulse is beating faster than usual."

Gerald coughed and said, "I'm just worried. I'm afraid your uncle won't agree."

“You are now a hero of mankind. They have nothing to disagree with,” Valery said coldly.

“It’s just because of this that I am a little nervous. Your parents died in battle. I’m afraid your uncle doesn’t want you to marry a Watchman,” Gerald said with a bitter smile

He was very clear about this. As parents, they hoped that their children would live well. As a Watchman, Gerald looked very awesome. Now, the whole world knew about him.

However, when they really got married, it was not certain whether his family would agree or not.

No one wanted his daughter to find a husband who would often be in danger.

Moreover, Valery’s parents had once died on the battlefield.

“I just take you to meet them. They can’t make my decision,” Valery calmly said. “So don’t worry!”

Gerald coughed.

They walked out of the airport with sunglasses and masks.

Although they concealed themselves well, they still attracted the attention of many people along the way.

The temperament that they had developed from Night Watch, coupled with Valery’s tall and perfect figure, naturally attracted the attention of many people.

Just as they walked out of the airport, suddenly, a few cameras came over from the side, and a person pushed his way over with a microphone.

Gerald frowned slightly and thought, could it be that we have been recognized?

That person came to Gerald’s side and asked, “Can I interview you? You’re so good-looking. I’m a street interviewer in Yosemite. This video can be uploaded on TikTok!”

Gerald was speechless. Right now, there were indeed many street interviews on TikTok, but most of the videos were edited later to gain attention. They would only show the audience the problems they wanted to see and gain traffic.

Naturally, he was not interested in the interview.

However, that person kept chasing after Gerald and asked, “Are you couple?”

“Yes!” Gerald said calmly. “Well, we have something to do! We won’t accept the interview!”

The person looked a little disappointed. He watched as Gerald and Valery walked to the side of the road, opened the door of a black car, and walked in. He still followed.

After getting in the car, Gerald took off his mask and sunglasses.

“Hey!”

At this time, because the door had not been closed, the photographer next to him clearly captured Gerald’s appearance. His pupils shrank slightly, and then he hurriedly said, "Jim, Jim, this... This seems to be... Gerald!"

The young man holding the microphone was stunned. Then, he quickly ran to the camera and checked it. Then... The camera locked onto Gerald's face.

"It's him! It's really him! Does he have a girlfriend? This is fucking big news!" Jim's entire face revealed a look of ecstasy.

Chapter 766 Their Relationship Is Exposed

Jim newly graduated this year. Originally, he should have been looking for a job. However, the world had not been so peaceful for the past few months. His job had never been confirmed. In addition, when in college, he spent a lot of time on TikTok and had many fans. Thus, he decided to stop working and started to make videos with his roommates.

He had been making videos for two or three months, but he had never gained much popularity. Compared to other street interviewers, he was much worse.

The focus of his videos was mainly on men and women, exposing the direct contradiction between men and women in this society, such as betrothal gifts and income.

However, after a few months, he still lacked much attention.

This time, he had captured such a scene.

Gerald was now a hero for human beings. Topics about him were extremely popular, and many people were discussing how powerful he was. The battle scenes when he faced Elite Ghosts several times had been intercepted into GIF animation which was spread everywhere.

His name was traffic.

And if Jim exposed Gerald's romantic relationship, he did not even know how popular it would become.

"Let's go back now! Jim's voice was trembling slightly as he said. "Let's make this video. We'll edit it immediately when we go back and release it as soon as possible. It must be first-hand information!"

"Good!" A few of them hurriedly ran to the parking lot in a panic.

"Today, our account will gain at least a million fans!" Jim said excitedly.

This was Gerald. As long as this gossip was exposed, the topic would definitely be a hit in an instant.

Gerald naturally did not know that he had been photographed. Of course, it did not matter if he knew. The one who picked them up was the chairman of Valery's industry in Yosemite. After Gerald and she arrived in the city, he gave the car keys to them and left.

Valery's home was in the suburbs. Gerald and she were not in a hurry to go over. The two strolled around the city and bought some gifts.

There were quite a lot of people in Valery's uncle's family. He had three children. His eldest son was in his thirties and liked to play golf. Gerald prepared a good golf club for him as a gift.

His daughter was studying for a Doctor of Medicine and was now twenty-five years old.

In addition, he had a thirteen-year-old daughter.

He opened a medical center in the suburbs. Valery came from a long line of doctors. Even if the medical center was located in the suburbs, there were still many people who went to his uncle for health advice.

Of course, Valery's uncle was different from her. Her uncle was a traditional medicine practitioner, and Valery combined traditional medicine and modern medicine. In terms of medical skills, Valery was still slightly better. Moreover, Valery had learned from Watchmen a lot of medical skills that were lost outside.

They bought gifts until four o'clock in the afternoon. Then, they put large and small packages into the car.

Gerald drove to the house of Valery's uncle.

The closer he got, the more nervous he became.

But Valery was completely different. When she saw that Gerald was a little nervous, a smile appeared on her face instead.

She had never seen Gerald like that in her life. It looked a little funny.

Just as Gerald was rushing to the Manning's home, Jim posted a video on TikTok. The title of the video was "Shocking! I actually met the hero Gerald and his girlfriend in Yosemite!"

In the video, he went to interview Gerald, who responded politely. Then, Gerald and Valery entered the car, took off his sunglasses and mask, and revealed his face.

Then, there was a pause. "As expected of our hero Gerald. His girlfriend is so pretty!"

Then, he closed the door and left.

After this video was posted, the number of comments quickly increased. After his original fans saw it, almost all of them gave it a like and commented.

"Wow, it really is Gerald. Did he have a haircut? He looks much more handsome than before!"

“Gerald is The Invincible. No one should object to it, right?”

Under this comment, a person nicknamed Big B replied, “Damn you! Blaine is The Invincible! A brat like Gerald is not Blaine’s match at all!”

Then, he was abused and began to crazily quarrel with others.

“Wow, his girlfriend is so beautiful. She appeared on TV before, and she seems to be called Valery. She is a doctor in Night Watch and also a very powerful super expert.

“They are a perfect match.”

“How enviable!”

The comments and likes continued to rise. This video quickly became popular in just a few minutes.

Jim’s fans were also rapidly rising.

At this time, Jim, who was in the studio, looked at the increasing number of fans. He was ecstatic. Gaining one million fans was highly possible, and he might even become an Internet celebrity.

In the Arctic, Blaine held his phone and was in the headquarters of Night Watch. Blaine sat on the sofa. He had already returned from the Arctic. At this time, he was holding his phone and constantly tapping it. He was glaring.

“You are already at this age, yet you still want to compete for these titles. You even argued online with... Zackary shook his head and looked at him speechlessly.

Blaine curled his lips and said, “Hmph, I was right. I’m The Invincible.”

After that, he smiled and said, “Valery and this brat ended up together after so many years!”

“It’s a good thing!” Zackary said with a smile. “Regarding the matter of going to Havotune, I think...”

“I’ll go there!” Blaine interrupted Zackary.

Irene was sitting in a certain house in Sacramento.

They sold their house in Los Angeles and then gathered some money and put a down payment on a well-decorated house in Sacramento. She had an idle job in Universe Group, and her salary was not bad. She could also afford the house loan and the life of her family.

At this time, she was checking her mobile phone, and the video was paused. Looking at Gerald and Valery, she didn’t know why, but she was a little sad.

During this period, her surroundings were full of discussions about Gerald, all about how powerful he was.

She thought that if she were Gerald's wife, she would be proud.

And now, the marriage between her and Gerald became the topic of conversation of countless Watchmen. Other than complaining about Gerald, most of it was to complain that her family was ignorant.

Looking at Valery's face, she felt a little inferior

After the end of a relationship, the better one lived, the more uncomfortable the other would feel.

"It's all my fault," she murmured.

At the same time, at the Cousy's home...

Doreen looked at the phone screen in a daze. There was a trace of mist in her eyes.

She slowly closed the phone. No one knew what she was thinking

Beside her, Armand was also checking her phone. There was the same video. He looked at Doreen not far away and slowly sighed.

Did he regret it? Of course, he regretted it!

When Gerald came back, he was worried that Gerald would have something to do with Doreen again. He took the initiative to say something to Gerald, hinting that Gerald was not worthy of Doreen.

"Doreen, Armand looked at Doreen, gritted his teeth, and said, "I'm sorry!

Chapter 767 He's My Brother-in-Law

Doreen raised her head and looked at Armand.

Her life seemed to have been arranged by her family, including the friends she contacted, her marriage, and everything else.

And she was not the kind of person who had the courage to resist.

In the end, she could only let out a long sigh and did not answer Armand.

At the same time, in Washington, in Leana's home.

Leana was a Watchman, but she was stationed in Washington. When she had no tasks to do, her life was no different from the past. At this time, she sat on the sofa and looked at her mobile phone at a loss.

She and Gerald had a one-night stand. At that time, she took the initiative and even drugged Gerald.

She didn't know when she had feelings for Gerald, but after she felt it, she couldn't control herself and ended up doing that to Gerald.

But she knew that Gerald didn't seem to have any feelings for her. She just wanted some beautiful memories.

She had seen Valery before, but when she saw the two get close, she suddenly felt a pain in her heart.

The news that Gerald and Valery were together quickly spread around the world. Even foreigners were spreading the news. Gerald was too famous. The two battles against the Elite Ghost attracted the attention of the whole world, and he became the most dazzling person.

At this time, he announced his relationship, and his lover was the Princess Charming of Night Watch. When such news spread, people around the world were discussing it.

On various forums, Gerald's announcements had become trending topics.

Gerald didn't seem to be affected. He and Valery finished the purchase, got in the car, started the GPS, and drove to Valery's uncle's home.

Jade Clinic was the name of the clinic owned by the Manning family. This clinic had been open for many years.

The clinic was large and located on the side of an expressway. The surrounding buildings were not dense.

Gerald soon arrived near the clinic. People were coming and going in the clinic.

A lot of people came here to see a doctor. The doctors here could treat difficult illnesses. According to Valery, her family planned to transform the clinic into a private hospital with the premise that Valery's younger sister graduated.

At the door, Gerald looked at the bustling crowd, and his face showed a trace of apprehension. He said, "How about we go in when there are fewer people?"

Valery looked at Gerald, and then smiled and asked, "Are you shy?"

"I'm shy? I don't know what this word means," Gerald pouted and said.

"Fine." Valery smiled and said, "Come with me."

As she spoke, she took out her phone and made a call. Soon, the call connected. A voice came out of the phone and asked, "Valery, are you here?"

"Yes, our car is outside." Valery said, "Gerald is here too. Get a few people over. We have quite a lot of things."

"Okay, right away."

The call was disconnected. Soon, a man in his thirties wearing a coat and glasses walked out with a few people. He was excited.

When Valery saw him, a smile appeared on his face. She took the initiative to get out of the car.

That person was Valery's big brother, Colten. He was working in the clinic. However, he was in charge of logistics and management.

Being a doctor was a matter of talent. Obviously, Colten did not have this talent, so he became a manager.

After Valery got out of the car, she saw Gerald holding the steering wheel and looking a little cautious. She could not help but smile. "You are not afraid, are you?"

"I am not afraid." Gerald let out a breath.

Although he was a little nervous, he was not afraid. He coughed and got out of the car.

Colten walked away. When he saw Gerald, a hint of joy appeared on his face. He ignored Valery and walked to Gerald's side. He grabbed Gerald's hand and said, "Hello, Gerald. I'm Colten. I am your big fan."

Valery was confused.

Colten was excited. Then, he turned to the other people and introduced Gerald to them proudly, "I told you, but you didn't believe me. Gerald is right in front of you, is it enough to make you believe? He's my brother-in-law."

"Damn, it's true."

"Gerald, can I take a picture with you?"

"Your posture of slashing an Elite Ghost is amazing.

If the people saying this were girls, Gerald might feel elated, but he felt strange for guys to say this. Moreover, these men were all old.

Beside him, Valery was speechless, but she was still happy from the bottom of her heart.

Although the opinions of her uncle's family could not influence her choice in her marriage, for Valery, it would be best if his family could accept it.

Colten looked like he had no problems with this relationship. He seemed to want to become Gerald's brother.

"No problem," Gerald said with a smile.

Those people came over and surrounded Gerald and began to take photos.

"What are you doing?" Colten said, "Hurry up and take the things to the clinic."

“Let them,” said Valery with a smile.

After taking photos, these people carried the things and walked into the clinic.

There were quite a lot of people in the clinic. Colten held his head high and brought Gerald in. As they walked, he introduced to Gerald, “The first floor of our house is the clinic, and we live upstairs. I will take you there.”

“Colten.” Valery didn’t know what to say. “I’m your sister, okay?”

Up to now, Colten didn’t say much to Valery.

When Gerald saw this scene, he was speechless.

Valery was usually cold, especially when she was at the headquarters of Night Watch. Although she was a beautiful doctor, many people were afraid of her.

She rarely acted like a spoiled child in front of others.

It seemed that deep in her heart, she regarded his uncle and his family as her family, which was why she would do that.

Colten pouted and said, “You are so familiar with this place, but Gerald isn’t. I must show him around.”

“This way.” As Colten spoke, he pulled Gerald into the clinic.

Walking in, Colten coughed.

Gerald was stunned.

Inside the clinic, all the patients and the staff looked over. When they saw Gerald’s face, they were dumbstruck.

“Damn, Colten is not bragging.”

“Is it really Gerald?”

Someone murmured.

Colten was proud. He coughed and said to everyone, “Guys, let me introduce him to you. This is my brother-in-law, Gerald Kenneth.”

Chapter 768 A Gift for You

“This is my brother-in-law, Gerald Kenneth,” Colten said proudly.

Gerald was stunned.

Valery was stunned as well.

Colten seemed to be introducing something extraordinary. His face was full of pride, as if he was Gerald.

After a short silence, the clinic exploded in an instant.

Many people began to approach Gerald. A man in his sixties frowned.

Those people surrounded Gerald.

“Damn, it really is Gerald.”

“Gerald, can we take a picture together?”

“Can I have your autograph?”

In the discussion, Colten was calm. He clapped his hands and said, “Guys, don’t be anxious. Line up. You can take photos with him and have his autograph. We are in a clinic and please be quiet...”

Gerald was petrified.

Valery blushed. She felt a little embarrassed.

Gerald found that Colten was quite funny.

However, under his order, the clinic gradually quieted down. Gerald had no choice but to wait to take photos.

with the crowd. Fortunately, only dozens of people were in the clinic. After they were satisfied, an old man walked over. Colten saw him and said guiltily, “Dad.”

Colten’s father was called Julien. He glared at Colten and said, “How dare you.”

Colten felt guilty.

Fortunately, Julien did not think too much. He looked at Gerald and said, “This is your first time coming to my house. I’m so sorry for what happened. Although my son is not young anymore, he is still childish. Do not take it to heart.”

“It’s fine.” Gerald ignored people who were looking at him from all directions and said with a cough.

“I still have things to do here. Valery, take Gerald upstairs, then, do you want to come down and show cooking skills?” Julien looked at Valery and asked.

“Sure,” said Valery with a smile.

The group of people helped move things. Julien frowned and said, “Why is there so much?”

“Just some small gifts Gerald restrained the nervousness in his heart.

Julien was Valery's uncle. Although Gerald calmed down a lot after the ruckus just now, he was still a little nervous.

"You can just come here without bringing anything." Julien frowned.

"The gifts have been bought anyway. We'll carry them upstairs, Valery said.

"Alright. Then I'll go get busy." Julien nodded.

Soon, they went upstairs.

Upstairs, the decoration was ordinary. It was not luxurious but clean and tidy.

The Manning family was not short of money. Their medical skills had been passed down for generations, and Valery had countless assets. However, they were low-key.

When they went upstairs and put the things in the living room, Valery looked at Gerald and said, "Sit here for a while. You can watch TV and play games on your phone. I will go down to help my uncle."

Colten looked at Gerald reluctantly, then coughed and said, 'I'll go down to help as well. Make yourself at home and do as you please.

Gerald nodded and said, "No problem."

They went down. Gerald sat down on the sofa. In fact, he felt it when he came up. There was a sound of breathing on the second floor. It should be Colten's daughter.

However, Gerald did not intend to disturb her. He sat down in the living room and then took out his mobile phone to play games on it.

At this time, he found that a door was opened, and then, someone peeked from the gap at him.

Gerald looked up and saw a little girl.

The girl saw that Gerald had discovered her and did not hide it. She pushed the door open and looked at Gerald and asked, "Are you Valery's boyfriend?"

She looked like she was thirteen or fourteen years old. She had a ponytail and was looking at Gerald with big eyes. She was curious and excited.

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, you are Ciara, right?"

"You know my name?" The girl asked happily.

Gerald nodded. "Yes, Valery told me about it."

Ciara was happy. It seemed that because Gerald knew her, they became much closer. She walked to Gerald and sat down. When she saw the pile of things Gerald brought, her eyes lit up. "Are these gifts you brought for us? Did you bring any for me?"

"Of course." Gerald walked over and carried one of the boxes over. He placed it on the table and said, "This is the gift for you. Valery and I picked it for a long time.

Ciara was excited. She ran over and wanted to pick it up. However, she found that the box was heavy. The smile on her face became even wider.

"Open it and take a look," Gerald said with a smile.

Ciara nodded. She found a knife and opened the box. Then, she picked up the things in the box and looked at them. Her face suddenly turned gloomy.

Inside were dozens of exercise books.

Ciara felt like she was going crazy.

"Do you like it?" Gerald smiled and asked, "Aren't you studying in junior high school? Valery said that you are studying. She and I chose the exercise books for your three years in junior high school..."

"Like my ass!" Ciara glared at Gerald. "You want me to die!"

After saying that, she thought of something and took out her phone. "Let's take a photo."

Gerald did not refuse. After taking the photo, Ciara glared at Gerald and ran back to her room.

Gerald smiled. Actually, buying the exercise books was Valery's idea. Gerald thought it was fun, so he agreed.

The effect looked good. He smiled and relaxed a lot. He felt that Valery's uncle's family was easy to get along with.

Ciara was in the room. She sent a photo to her friends in the group chat and began to show off that Gerald was in her house.

Then, those girls began to discuss crazily in group chat,

Some wanted Gerald's autograph and some wanted to come to her house.

Ciara was very happy.

Around seven o'clock in the evening, the clinic was closed. Julien came up. He was like an easy-going old man. When he saw Gerald, he smiled and said, "Sorry to keep you waiting."

"It's fine. Are you all done with your work?" Gerald stood up, still a little reserved.

“Yes, Julien said with a smile. Then he shouted into the room, “Ciara, your classmates are looking for you.

They are downstairs.”

Clara ran out of the room and rushed downstairs.

Julien smiled. ‘She’s still so reckless.’”

“I wanted to cook for you, but it’s too late. Let’s eat out. I’ll go change my clothes,” Julien said with a smile.

“Okay, as you wish. Gerald smiled.

Colten winked at Gerald, then went to change his clothes.

Seeing them leave, Gerald breathed a sigh of relief while Valery looked at Gerald with a half-smile.

“Why are you looking at me like this?” Gerald asked.

“It’s rare to see you like this. I find it interesting.” After that, Valery said, “How is it? My uncle’s family is quite interesting, right?”

“Yeah. They’re easy to get along with,” Gerald said.

Indeed, Julien was an easygoing person. Colten was his big fan, and Ciara was a child. He had no problems getting along with them.

“Did you show Ciara the exercise books?” Valery asked.

“Yes, she asked me for a present just now, so I showed them to her. You have no idea what she looked like,”

Gerald said happily.

While they were talking, Colten and Julien changed their clothes and walked out. They looked at Gerald and said, “Let’s go.”

Chapter 769 A Trouble of the Manning Family

When they arrived downstairs, Ciara jumped over. She was no longer angry and said to Gerald with a smile, “Gerald, they are my classmates. Can they take a picture with you?”

Gerald looked over and found that it was a few young girls. Unlike the previous people, they were shyer and more excited.

“Can, can I?” A little girl said with a red face.

“No problem.” Gerald smiled and stood up. “Who will be the first one?”

A girl ran over and said, “I will!”

After that, she asked with some embarrassment, "Can I hold your arm?"

Gerald extended her arm to her. She looked happy and held Gerald's arm. Then, she tiptoed and made a peace sign.

The other girls were envious.

Beside Gerald, Valery smiled. It could be seen that these girls liked Gerald very much.

Ever since the Elite Ghosts invaded, the media had been reporting about Night Watch. These little girls had their new heroes.

Everyone in Team 11762 became well-known and Gerald became a national hero.

However, Gerald did not like the feeling of being a celebrity that much.

Being low-key was something that was engraved in the minds of Watchmen.

Gerald fulfilled the requirements of these girls. After taking photos, Julien said, "That's enough. We have to eat out."

Ciara looked at her classmates proudly and said, "You go home then. I will go eat with them."

The girls looked at Ciara with envy. It seemed that because Ciara would eat with Gerald, they were jealous.

They looked at Gerald reluctantly and left.

Gerald and the other three got into the car. This time, Colten drove the car. They found a quiet restaurant.

Colten said, "Dishes in small restaurants here are authentic."

Valery nodded. "Where is my aunt?"

"She went back to her mother's home," Julien said. "She'll come back tomorrow."

As they ate, Julien asked about Gerald. Most of the questions were about Gerald's marriage, and they talked about Valery's childhood.

The meal was peaceful. Julien was quite satisfied with Gerald.

After dinner, it was around ten o'clock. Gerald and the others drove back home. Just as they arrived at the door, Gerald's eyebrows twitched. He looked at the door and frowned.

Colten said angrily, "These guys are here again."

Valery frowned and said, "Who are you talking about?"

"A local developer who wants to take our house," Colten said. "The piece of land near our old residence is ours. They wanted the area behind us, but they felt that it would be better to include our land, so they came to talk to us.

"This is our heirloom, so we can't give it to them. The price they offered is ridiculously low, so we refused," Colten said with displeasure. "But after these bastards saw that we refused, they harassed us from time to time, and even the police were involved. It has been six months."

Julien frowned and said, "Why are you telling them these things?"

"They even went to my school to stop me from entering. At this time, Ciara added.

Valery's expression changed. She looked at Julien and asked, "Uncle, why didn't you tell me about this?"

"This..." Julien said awkwardly. "You have been fighting hard recently. You must be busy, so I didn't tell you. And in the past two months, because of the invasion of the Elite Ghosts, they behaved themselves."

Before the invasion of the Elite Ghosts, everyone was in a panic, and no one had the mood to do these things.

But after the Night Watch announced that the future would be peaceful, these people began to cause trouble again.

Gerald narrowed his eyes and looked ahead,

At this time, the dozen or so people seemed to recognize their car. They took the initiative to approach and surrounded the car.

Beep beep."

Colten was angry. He pressed the horn twice..

In front of him, the middle-aged man with a bald head was not afraid. He walked to the front of the car and stepped on its engine hood. He said, "Long time no see, Dr. Manning. Regarding this contract, I think you should sign it."

As he spoke, the baseball bat in his hand tapped on the hood and he said, "This way, everyone will have an easier time, right?"

"Call the police," at this time, Julien said.

Gerald smiled and said, "Calling the police can't solve this problem once and for all. They don't attack, so they will be detained for a while and will continue to cause trouble when released. I will solve it.”

Gerald sat in the front passenger seat. He opened the door and got out of the car.

“Yo, how dare you get out of the car?” The bald man smiled and said, “Have you thought it through? Good choice. This way, everyone can have a good time. If the contract is signed, you can get a sum of money, and we can explain it to our superior.”

“What’s the name of your company?” Gerald asked indifferently.

“Huh?” The bald man was stunned. He looked at Gerald. At this time, Gerald walked to an illuminated place.

At the same time, Colten got out of the driver’s seat.

Seeing him get out, Gerald did not say anything.

In front of him, the dozen or so people shivered when they saw Gerald.

“Gerald.” The baldy said in shock, “How could you, how could...”

Colten sneered and said, “You didn’t expect this, right? Gerald is my brother-in-law! You are finished.”

Baldy was frightened. What kind of person was Gerald?

The second time the Elite Ghosts invaded, he killed tens of thousands of them alone, and the scene of him freezing them scared everyone.

The bald man even felt that he might become a block of ice in the next second.

“L..” He couldn’t even speak properly. He didn’t expect this clinic to be related to Gerald.

Colten was furious. He walked forward and ruthlessly hit the baldy. He said, “Weren’t you quite aggressive before? Go ahead. Give me the contract. I’ll sign it.”

Inside the car, when Valery saw Colten’s action, she couldn’t help but smile.

“I was paid to do this.” Baldy could only bite the bullet and say.

The people he brought over also had faces full of fear.

“I’m asking you a question. Who do you work for?” Gerald asked again, and his tone became colder.

“It is Luminescence Group. The bald man gritted his teeth and told Gerald the mastermind.

Gerald nodded and said, “I got it. You guys go and turn yourselves in. Stay in prison for a while.

“Ah!” The baldy was stunned.

“You are not going?” Gerald raised his eyebrows and looked at them. “Don’t think about this. If I know that you don’t turn yourselves in tomorrow, the consequences will be worse.”

The bald man smiled bitterly. “We’ll turn ourselves in immediately.”

Beside him, Colten looked at Gerald with envy. This was the demeanor of an expert. He didn’t need to attack and could make the enemies voluntarily surrender by just showing up.

“Do you know where the owner of Luminescence Group lives?” Gerald turned to look at Colten and asked.

“Huh?” Colten was at a loss.

“Since we want to solve this problem once and for all, we have to find its source. Let’s go find that person.”

Gerald smiled at him!

Chapter 770 I’m Here to Warn You!

A trace of excitement appeared on Colten’s face.

This matter had tortured them for a long time before the arrival of the Elite Ghosts. When it was all settled down, they actually came again.

Julien did not want to trouble Valery, so the matter was never settled.

This kind of mandatory removal was not uncommon.

At this time, Valery and the others also came out of the car. She naturally heard Gerald’s words. She frowned and said, “Do you want me to go with you?”

“It’s okay. You can stay at home. I am worried that they will call other people over later!” Gerald replied.

“Alright!” Valery nodded.

Then, Gerald looked at Colten and said, “Bro, let’s get in the car. Can you find him? If you can’t, I’ll let Night Watch investigate it.”

With the means of Night Watch, it was not difficult to find the residence of a businessman.

“I can. I once went to their house to negotiate with him.” Colten nodded.

They got out of the car, and Colten drove away!

At this time, Julien looked at the car in the distance, and a slight smile appeared on his face.

“Uncle, what’s wrong? Valery asked.

Julien smiled slightly, “I have a good impression of this kid. He is quite a reliable guy.”

In fact, Julien originally thought that Gerald was a somewhat arrogant young man. After all, he was young and already stood at the top of the world. Gerald also had the support of tens of thousands of people and had endless wealth. Such a situation was too easy for a person to get lost.

However... Gerald seemed very humble when Julien came into contact with Gerald. Julien did not feel any arrogance from Gerald at all.

Moreover, Gerald was very calm and reliable.

"That's because you don't know him." Valery said, "When he faced the enemy, he was very arrogant."

Julien said, "That's why he's reliable. Anyway, I am quite satisfied with him. When do you plan to get married?"

Valery was stunned for a moment, and then her face turned slightly red. Fortunately, it was under the night sky, and Julien couldn't see clearly. She touched her nose and said, "We should go on a mission after a while.

Maybe after that mission when we come back!"

After that, she thought in her heart, I don't know if we can come back alive!

They had already decided to head to Havotune. That was a place with many experts, and their opponents were the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix. They had several dozen existences that were at the level of Flame Decay, so Valery did not have any confidence!

Julien nodded and said, "Alright. By the way, before you leave, go meet your parents!"

Valery nodded. "Yes, we will go tomorrow. I will take Gerald with me."

On the other side, Colten drove Gerald to the front of a single villa. In front of the villa, there were two people in suits.

"Are they bodyguards?" Colten was a little speechless. "How should we get in?"

"Go in through the gate. Just say that you are a member of the Manning family and that you are here to talk about the removal," Gerald said.

They walked towards the gate!

Because they were outside the gate, and there was light on their backs, the two people guarding the gate could not see their faces clearly for a while. One of them shouted in a low voice, "Who is it?"

"Colten, from the Manning family. I came to discuss the removal," Colten said.

When the gatekeeper heard this name, the corner of his mouth revealed a trace of disdain. He said, "Wait a minute, I'll go inform Mr. Guzman!"

The owner of Luminescence Group was called Gregory Guzman.

One of them turned around and left, while Gerald turned his back to the door. In his ears, a voice from the villa sounded.

"The Manning family is so stubborn. Mr. Guzman, I have sent people over. This period of time has been well-planned. We will develop the rest while slowly grinding with them," said a voice.

"As soon as possible!" Gregory said, "Right now, many industries have stopped due to the matter with the Elite Ghosts. This is an opportunity for us to take them down as soon as possible. If it doesn't work, we can also use some special methods."

"Special methods?" The other voice spoke up again, "What do you mean? Are you going to give them more money for the removal?"

"Give them more money?" Gregory curled his lips and said, "How is that possible? If they are not willing, let them have some accidents, such as car accidents or something. You have done a lot of such things in the past. You should know."

"No problem! They deserve it!" the other voice also said with a hint of ruthlessness.

At the door, Gerald, who heard this conversation, had a trace of ruthlessness in his eyes!

In fact, he had indeed heard Leandro talk about this kind of thing. In the business world, many people would do anything in order to achieve their goals. Many companies looked glamorous on the surface, but one could not know how dirty they were in private. For example, the Thornton family of Washington, who had a huge business, had been responsible for many murders.

Hearing this, Gerald was determined that he would make Gregory die!

As Gerald waited, he took out his phone and found Jacob's number. He began to type and communicate with Jacob. First, Gerald wanted Jacob to investigate this person. Second, once Gerald had evidence, Gerald could put Gregory in jail and be sentenced!

Of course, before that, Gerald had to solve the problem at hand!

Soon, that person walked over and said, "Mr. Guzman wants you to go in!"

Colten nodded. The person at the door sneered, "Now you want to negotiate? I have been with Mr. Guzman for so many years. I have seen too many people like you. If you don't suffer a little, you will never..."

During the conversation, the guard suddenly saw Gerald walking under the light. His eyes fell on Gerald's face.

The guard thought that he had seen wrong at first. He couldn't help but wipe his eyes and look over again!

Then, his pupils suddenly shrank!

"Ge... Gerald!" he said in shock.

Gerald looked at him indifferently and ignored him. He just said calmly, "Lead the way!"

That person was frightened. He did not expect that the people from the Manning family would actually bring Gerald over to negotiate.

How was this a negotiation? This was fucking asking for Gregory's life!

However, he did not dare to speak. Gerald's two battles with Elite Ghosts had left a terrible impression on everyone.

He turned around and felt as if there was a thorn in his back. He braced himself and led Gerald to the hall of the villa!

Soon, they arrived at the door. The person leading the way said, "Mr... Mr. Guzman, Colten has arrived."

He did not dare to go in and only waited at the door.

Gerald did not make things difficult for him. Gerald and Colten looked at each other and walked into the hall. At this time, Gregory's voice came out with a forced smile, "What, Dr. Manning? Have you thought it over?"

A voice came from inside the room. Gerald and Colten walked in directly. Gerald soon saw two people on the sofa. One was in a suit, and the other was a potbellied middle-aged man. He was wearing pajamas and holding a cigar in his hand. He looked like a nouveau riche.

Obviously, this person was the president of Luminescence Group, Gregory!

Because Gerald was by his side, Colten was very confident. He said lightly, "I'm not here to negotiate. I'm here to warn you. Stop playing fricks!"

"It seems that you have not suffered enough." Gregory said lightly, "I can make your life miserable..."

"Huh?"

Halfway through his words, his gaze suddenly fell on Gerald. His originally lying body instantly sat up. His speed was extremely fast, completely incompatible with his fat body!

“Ge... Gerald!” Gregory cried out in shock!
