Chapter 831 Encounter

Looking at the stone pillars on the screen and the words on the stone pillars, the entire hall instantly fell into silence.

Benson left this word, meaning that he left alive. As for the other people from the Four Ancient Families, up until now, no one had returned safely. The answer was self-evident.

The people they had sent out had all died in battle.

Six experts at the level of Flame Decay, two Purple Elite Ghosts, a dozen of experts at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay and the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay, and a score of Gold Elite Ghosts.

This kind of lineup was already quite awesome for the Four Ancient Families.

The number of Purple Elite Ghosts was not many in the Four Ancient Families after so many years. As for experts at the level of Flame Decay, there were only dozens of them. In this half a month or so, eight were lost, representing nearly a quarter. A group of Lightchasers was directly removed.

This was a major loss for the Four Ancient Families.

Arvin, the head of the Ingram family, looked extremely gloomy.

In this group, three experts at the level of Flame Decay were from the Ingram family. This meant that the Ingram family lost three experts at the level of Flame Decay in this operation. Arvin had the urge to go crazy.

Similarly, there were people from the Quintin family and the Cruz family who had extremely ugly expressions.

The geniuses of the Cruz family had fallen, and the Quintin family had lost two experts at the level of Flame

Decay. Evan, a powerful expert at the level of Flame Decay, was the captain of Lightchasers and also the mainstay of the entire Quintin family.

He sacrificed just like that.

The Quintin family was relatively weak among the Four Ancient Families. This time, it directly lost two experts, which weakened its foundation.

Comparatively speaking, the Guerrero family had not suffered too many losses until now.

The Guerrero family was the head of the Four Ancient Families, and now its position as the head was becoming more and more solid.

Sauven didn't look good either. The Four Ancient Families were of the same branch and had been friends for countless years. At this time, he was silent for a while and then said, "I'm afraid... there will be some trouble."

"Trouble... Of course, it will be troublesome. In such a short period, we have lost eight experts at the level of Flame Decay. We have many enemies. This time, our strength has been weakened, and we have also offended the Pierce family." Arvin sneered and said. "We have directly incurred hatred. The Pierce family has a mysterious origin. No one knows how strong they are. What if they want to attack us..."

Everyone was silent.

"No," Elton exhaled and said, "we have to speed up the attack on that planet. We have to get Bone of Eternity in that world, send a few Purple Pioneers over, and recruit some people to drive red and golden Purple Pioneers to support us!"

"What exactly is going on with them? They have been launching a large-scale attack for more than a year. Three Lightchasers were sent. Up until now, no news has been sent back." Arvin also had a gloomy expression.

The return of a large number of Bones of Eternity would allow many of the super experts from the Quintin family to increase their strength rapidly.

The Four Ancient Families had Bones of Eternity, but there were very few of them. They could only be left for the geniuses of the families to use.

Sauven let out a breath, then nodded. "Let's send five Purple Pioneers to back high-end forces. It's time to take down that planet."

Gerald naturally did not know about the decisions of the Four Ancient Families. Because he had used Death Storm, he rested for a night before recovering. They sat on the floor in the car sleeping.

In the car, there was actually a berth, but there was only one. At this time, several girls were lying on it.

Lexie tilted her head and looked at Gerald and the others who were sleeping on the floor. She looked at Gerald's face and for some reason, she had a strange feeling in her heart.

She did not know the origins of Gerald and the others. They were extremely mysterious as if they had appeared out of thin air.

However... they had terrifying talent and strength.

Moreover, they did not pay any attention to details. Benson slept on the sofa inside the hover car, but Gerald,

Triston, and the others directly sat on the spot and slept.

At this moment, she noticed that Gerald's eyelids moved. She quickly closed her eyes.

Gerald opened his eyes and looked at Claude, who was on guard. He said softly. "Claude, go to sleep first. III pay attention,"

Their hover car was an artificial intelligence driverless car. Because it was following the front car, there was no need for a driver to operate it.

Claude nodded. He found a place and sat down. Then, he closed his eyes.

Gerald walked to the sofa and sat down. He glanced at Benson.

There was some hesitation in his eyes.

In fact, letting Benson go was actually a gamble. Benson, Lexie, and the others left Gerald with a good impression. He was betting on his trust in Benson.

As long as Benson was not exposed, then Gerald would make the right bet.

When Benson returned to Rime City, the Pierce family from Rime City and the Four Ancient Families would definitely not let it go. From Benson's provocative message, Gerald knew that Benson was really angry

He didn't wish that the Pierce family could completely destroy the Four Ancient Families, but he hoped that the Pierce family would be able to hold back the Four Ancient Families and buy time for the people on the main planet.

on the main planet, there was a group of geniuses who were constantly making progress.

Gerald believed that one day, the number of experts at the level of Flame Decay on the main planet would surpass that of the Four Ancient Families.

By then, it would be the time for Gerald and the others to truly counterattack and retaliate against the Four Ancient Families.

He looked outside the window, and the surrounding scenery was constantly retreating.

Gerald had to admit one thing. The wilderness of Havotune was protected much better than that on the main planet. Perhaps it was because humans could not completely conquer this planet, and there were many natural landscapes that were shocking.

Eh!

All of a sudden, Gerald saw two dots of light flashing across the sky. Then, the dots of light continued to fall.

At a certain time, Gerald saw their appearance clearly. They were two aircraft.

The aircraft fell straight toward Gerald and the others.

“Someone is coming!” Gerald shouted in a low voice.

tant

In an instant, everyone in the entire hover car quickly woke up. The hover cars that Hugo and the others were driving suddenly stopped.

The hover car behind them also stopped.

Boom!

At this time, they were in a large red forest. There were countless red leaves around them. They looked like maple leaves, but they were completely different from maple leaves.

The two aircraft stopped not far ahead of them. Then, on the aircraft, some Elite Ghosts and people jumped down from the aircraft.

Gerald glanced at them. There were twelve Elite Ghosts, including six Purple Elite Ghosts and six Gold Elite Ghosts. In addition, there were three people walking out. Among the three, there was a middle-aged man who was about forty years old with a poker face..

The other two were young men who looked to be in their early twenties.

However, the auras emitted by these three people were all at the level of Flame Decay. As for the middle-aged man, he looked unfathomable.

“Is this Fallen Phoenix Mountain?” After Benson looked around, he frowned and said. “Hurry up and get out of the car with me.

At this time, they clearly noticed Gerald and the others too and were walking toward them.

The clothes these three people were wearing were obviously much more gorgeous than those of Gerald and the others. They were somewhat similar to the clothes of Anabel, who Gerald had met before. On their cloaks, there was a fiery red cloud.

“Higher-ups?” Gerald asked.

Benson nodded and said, “How unlucky! I thought it would be fine after last night, but we met this bunch of ghosts. Let’s go down first.”

There was not much reverence in his words, but it seemed that some rules were necessary to be told.

At this time, the cabin door opened, and Benson jumped down. Gerald and others also followed Benson and jumped out of the hover cars.

Chapter 832 Benson Is Arrogant

Maple leaves continued to fall, and Gerald and the others got out of the cars. What made Gerald frown was that Peter, who was seriously injured, got out of the car too.

The hover car was very stable, and his injuries were not aggravated.

At this time, he held his chest and stood there with a pale face.

The three people walked in front of Gerald and the others Gerald followed Benson and others, and they beat their chests and saluted. "Hello, Superior Envoy"

The middle-aged man waved his hand.

Only then did Gerald and the others look up.

The middle-aged man's gaze swept over them.

They hid their strength around the level of Half-Step Flame Decay by concealing their auras. The middle-aged man's eyes ran down them and landed on Peter. He said with a frown, "You're from the Pierce family in Rime

City, right?"

"Yes!" Benson hurriedly went up and said, "Peter is injured and can't talk too much. Please forgive me."

The middle-aged man glanced at Benson and shook his head. "It doesn't matter."

Beside him, the two young men were very curious. They kept looking at Gerald and the others. When their eyes fell on Valery and the other girls, their eyes couldn't help but light up.

"Let me ask you, is this Fallen Phoenix Mountain?" the middle-aged man asked.

"Yes," Benson quickly replied honestly, "this is Fallen Phoenix Mountain."

The middle-aged man nodded and asked, "Then do you know where Phoenix Grave is?"

"Phoenix Grave?" Benson shook his head and said. "How would we know about such a legendary thing?"

The middle-aged man frowned. Then, he pondered for a moment and said, "Alright, you can leave!*

"Uncle!" At this time, one of them carefully pulled the middle-aged man's coat and called. "I heard... they said that if we see beautiful girls down here, we can take them back to be our mistresses or slaves... I have taken a fancy to them."

As he spoke, he pointed to Valery and the others.

Gerald's eyelids twitched violently.

Triston, Claude, and the others held back their anger, but they were prepared to make a move at any time.

The middle-aged man frowned. He raised his head and looked at Benson, asking. "Are they from the Pierce family?"

"No, but they are my friends," Benson said.

"Then can you bear to part with them? My two nephews are gifted. Taking the four of them to live on the satellite can be considered a fortuitous encounter for them. These girls are quite talented. Maybe our family can help you cultivate them," said the middle-aged man in a flat tone, but his tone was unquestionable.

"No need!" At this time, Triston said lightly. "We are having a good time down here."

"What right do you have to speak here as an expert at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay?" The middle-aged man frowned and glanced at Triston. At the same time, Gerald felt a wave of air sweeping over.

At this time, Hugo stepped forward and stood in front of Triston, blocking the wave of air. He frowned and looked at Harper. He raised his eyebrows and said, "Buddy, don't make a move so easily!"

"What? Is your Pierce family planning to go against us for a few unrelated women?" The middle-aged man raised his eyebrows and looked at Hugo.

Benson's face darkened a little. He looked at the middle-aged man gloomily and said, "Based on your family logo, you don't seem to be from the Eight Forces."

"Of course not," the middle-aged man said.

"If you are not from the Eight Forces, stop pretending to be important here!" Benson directly scolded. "I don't want to break the rules. When I saw you come down, I got off the car and saluted you. Don't tell me you really think you are important. You dare to take my friends away to be your slaves! Believe it or not, I will make you unable to go back to your satellite."

Benson's words stunned Gerald.

In fact, Gerald had a certain understanding of Benson.

This guy was very pretentious. It could be seen from the previous auction that he was very pretentious. But when he got along with Gerald and others, he became approachable.

To put it simply, this man had a high EQ, but when it was time to make a move, he would absolutely not compromise.

He did not expect that Benson would actually be so tough when facing the people on the satellite.

He directly threatened.

He thought of what Hector had said before, if the Pierce family in Rime City wanted to go to the satellite, they could go at any time. It was just whether they wanted to go or not.

Gerald had asked Benson about this before, but Benson denied it, saying that it was just a rumor.

But now, it seemed that these words were true.

“How dare you speak to us like this as a person living on the main planet!” Among the two people, a young man was furious, and the aura at the level of Flame Decay on his body emitted.

Hector’s aura rose slightly, revealing a little bit of it without any trace.

The middle-aged man’s expression changed slightly as he thought to himself, a Supreme Flame Decayer?

He quickly stopped the angry young man and smiled at Benson. “I’m just asking. It’s their first time here. They are a little rude. You can leave now!”

Benson snorted and said, “Let’s go!”

The man compromised. Benson did not say anything, turned around, and got into the car. Soon, the hover car started and disappeared from their sight.

The young man cursed, “Uncle, why did you let them leave? There are only at the level of Flame Decay.”

“This world is not as simple as you think it is. The history of the Pierce family is not shorter than that of the Eight Forces.” The middle-aged man shook his head. “We are not existences like the Eight Forces. If we can respect him, we should respect him!”

“Hmph, no matter how long its history is, it is still on the main planet below. I don’t believe that they will be stronger than our family!” the young man cursed.

The middle-aged man shook his head and said, “Let’s find Phoenix Grave first. There are quite a few large. beasts on Fallen Phoenix Mountain. It is also an opportunity for you to gain experience!”

At the same time, in the car, Benson asked Lexie proudly, “How was it? Was I cool just now? I scared them to the point of peeing.”

Lexie curled her lips and said, “Aren’t you afraid that they will take revenge on you?”

“There is nothing to be afraid of. On the satellite, there are many families who are just qualified to go up there. They are living like dogs up there. It is better to be on the main planet. It is a bit dangerous, but at least we can be the leader,” Benson said with a smile.

However, Gerald did not think this way. Benson had directly cursed when he was sure that the man was not from one of the Eight Forces.

Did this mean that other than the Eight Forces, the Pierce family from Rime City were not afraid of others on the satellite?

Gerald put away his thoughts and asked, “What are these guys doing here?”

“They’re here to collect resources and take the younger generation here to gain experience,” Benson said. “Only those big families and forces can attract some families on the main planet of Havotune to attach themselves to them and offer their services every year and seek their protection. Those small families on the satellite have to come down on their own to explore and find their own resources!”

“I knew it when I saw them bring Pioneers. These people are probably small forces. They are not to be afraid at all. It’s just that we have to follow the rules,” Benson said.

“Humph, only your family dares to be so arrogant to them. We don’t dare,” Lexie said from the side.

Chapter 833 Arrive In Rime City

Benson chuckled and said, “Actually, we are also afraid!”

Lexie seemed to be afraid of “What are you afraid of? Although you live on the main planet of Havotune, I heard my grandfather say that your family is the oldest in the entire Havotune. The surname Pierce something, so she stopped. Then, she snorted and did not say anything else.

Gerald naturally did not believe Benson’s nonsense. A smile appeared on his face, but he did not say anything

He was like rootless duckweed on Havotune. In order to destroy the Four Ancient Families and Nether Palace. a hidden danger, they had to build a foundation.

Perhaps they had to start building the branch of Night Watch on Havotune.

Gerald thought of what Lexie had said. He raised his head and looked at Benson, asking, “Your family has a long history. Have you heard of an organization?”

Benson was stunned for a moment. He did not deny it. Then, he nodded and said, “What is it?”

Gerald said, “Nether Palace!”

“Nether Palace?” Benson shook his head. “I’ve never heard of it. Is it powerful?”

Gerald muttered to himself. According to the records on the earth, during ancient times, the earth had fallen, and even the first-generation civilization had been destroyed at that time. This was probably done by Nether

Palace.

Back then on the earth, the number of experts at the level of Flame Decay was shocking. But Nether Palace was able to do that, which meant it was much stronger.

“It might be... tens of thousands of them,” Gerald pondered for a moment and said a number.

When this number was said, Benson and Lexie fell silent. The two of them looked at Gerald strangely.

“What’s wrong?” Gerald asked.

“Uh, how should I put it? Such an organization cannot exist in this world. Havotune is so huge, but even the Eight Forces do not have such a scale. Tens of thousands of them... It is impossible to exist. I guess that the Eight Forces together are only tens of thousands,” Benson shook his head and said.

Gerald frowned. Could it be that after ancient times, Nether Palace was actually destroyed?

However, Gerald had previously asked Cohn, the leader of Rho Guild. But Cohn kept silent, proving that this organization really existed. It was just that for some reason, the name had become a taboo.

At this time, Laylah suddenly said, “Nether Palace. I seem to have heard someone mention it before.”

Everyone looked at her.

Laylah frowned and thought for a while. Then, her eyes suddenly lit up. “I remember it now.”

“Huh?” Gerald’s eyes lit up.

“Benson, do you remember we celebrated your grandfather’s birthday once when we were young? My parents took me and my elder sister to your house. You took us to your library to show off how many books there are at your home.” Laylah looked at Benson and asked Benson scratched his head awkwardly and said, “I still remember this. Back then, weren’t we locked up for two months?”

“That’s right. At that time, I saw a very ancient book in your library. There were some small people and a super huge spaceship drawn on it. It seemed that the spaceship had the words ‘Nether Palace’ written on it.” Laylah’s eyes lit up. “That’s right. I saw it on the spaceship. Moreover... that spaceship seemed to have a corner broken.”

“It has been more than a dozen years. How could I still remember it?” Benson curled his lips and said.

“Are you sure?”

“I remember it. I still remember the weird old man who guarded your library. When he saw me flip through the book, he suddenly appeared in front of me. He almost scared me to death,” Laylah said.

Gerald’s eyes lit up slightly.

Benson touched his chin and said, “If it is true, I think my grandfather would definitely know. When we arrive in Rime City, we will ask my grandfather.”

Gerald nodded.

He did not continue to ask.

As the cars drove forward, they also encountered some large beasts along the way. Many of them were at the level of Flame Decay. But they didn't bring too much trouble to them. The two cars went past the wilderness and stopped in two cities to get supplies.

Unknowingly, another two days passed by quietly.

The group of people was getting closer and closer to Rime City.

And Peter's injuries were constantly worsening.

Valery's medical skills were outstanding, but Peter's heart was injured. She was helpless and could only try her best to maintain it. However, after three days, Pete was completely unable to make it.

Benson, Valery, and Carolyn had already run to the first car to take care of him. They were ready to rescue him at any time.

As Valery's assistant, Carolyn was also busy in the first car.

In the car behind sat Gerald and the others. According to Lexie, they were already very close to Rime City. If it was on the earth, they only spent about an hour.

Far away, Gerald saw the outline of a city in the distance.

Under the sun, there seemed to be a towering building in the middle of the city. The building gave off a strange luster that could be seen from far away.

"We're almost there!" Laylah said with a sense of homesickness. "It hasn't even been a month since we left. but when I think that we would come back, I'm still a little excited"

"That building is so tall. Awesome!" Triston tilted his head and said.

"Of course, that is the tallest building in Solein Kingdom. It has a total of a thousand floors. It is also one of the industries of Benson's family. All of them are houses built with glass. The name of Rime City is also related to this building. This tower is called Rime Tower," Laylah said.

Gerald and the others were secretly amazed. The height of each floor was about 10 feet. This meant that this building was over ten thousand feet tall. How could there be anyone living in such a tall building?

"If one lives on the top floor, he must have symptoms of altitude sickness!" Triston said in shock.

"Anyway, if we look down from the top floor, we'll see clouds and mist. It's very awesome. You will know when you go up and take a look," Lexie said.

"No, I don't dare to go up. I am afraid that I will fall down and die," Triston hurriedly said.

Gerald also nodded in agreement.

Gerald might not die from falling over ten thousand inches thanks to his Vital Energy, but he would probably be injured.

“Tsk! None of you understand that it is a glory to be able to reach the top of Rime Tower,” Laylah said.

“My dream is to climb to its top, but only experts at the level of Flame Decay are qualified to do it.”

“Let’s forget about formalism,” Triston said. “As long as we know how strong we are.”

“That makes sense!” Lexie said.

As they talked, some buildings slowly appeared around them.

However, what surprised Gerald and the others was that most of these buildings had been destroyed. There were many strange footprints on the ground. The roads they were on were built, but... these roads were a little bumpy as if there had been a battle.

“No!” At this moment, Lexie frowned.

Gerald asked, “What is it?”

“These places can be considered as the outskirts of Rime City. Although there are not many people living, it is impossible to be so quiet. Moreover... look at these footprints!” Lexie glanced outside the window. Her expression was a little solemn as she quickly jumped onto the driver’s seat.

Gerald’s heart also jumped violently as he said, “Is it a beast attack?”

“Probably... Yes!” Lexie gritted her teeth and said. “I wonder what the situation is like in Rime City.”

“But around here... there doesn’t seem to be any beasts!” Triston said in confusion.

“We’ll know the details when we get to Rime City. Everyone, sit tight. We’ll speed up,” Lexie said.

The car continued to move forward. Gerald looked up at the sky through the window. Not long after, he saw many large birds flying in the sky. There were at least a hundred of them. They were circling in the air as if they were detecting something.

Along the way, many buildings were destroyed, like ruins.

Chapter 834 Beast Attack (1)

“Lexie, Lexie!” At this moment, Benson’s voice rang out from within their car.

With the two hover cars so close, the phones in the car could be connected.

“I heard you. Speak!” Lexie quickly replied.

“Do you feel it? Beasts seemed to have attacked the area around us. There are also some birds in the sky. They are all eagles. They seem to be reconnoitering,” Benson said in a trembling voice.

“Can you get in touch with the people in Rime City?” Lexie hurriedly asked.

"I have contacted them. Some of the bases have been destroyed. There is almost no signal. It is impossible to connect. Maybe we should get closer," Benson said. "Seems that beasts have retreated!"

"In short, be careful. Try to speed up as much as possible. Let's return to Rime City first!" Lexie reminded.

Benson nodded. "Alright!"

The two hover cars were shuttling at an extremely fast speed at this moment. Suddenly, a big bird in the sky seemed to notice them. Then, a bird swooped down directly toward them.

"Be careful!" Lexie reminded. "These eagles are almost all at the super level. Their mouths are highly penetrating."

"Trash at the super level!" Claude shouted coldly. "Open the cabin door. Let's roast them tonight!"

The window was opened. While the car was moving forward rapidly, Claude directly put the muzzle of his gun on the window, then aimed at the diving bird, and began to shoot.

Bang!

The bullets he used were ordinary. He was still saving on using those compressed bullets.

The bullet was shot out, and the bird that was diving down paused. The blood on its neck splashed, and its huge body fell forward.

Boom!

It smashed into the ground, raising a cloud of dust.

"Damn, why is this bird so big?" Claude was shocked.

It looked not so big in the sky, but when it really fell, they felt that this eagle was quite big.

This shot also attracted the attention of the other birds in the sky, and several birds began to dive in their direction in an instant.

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

At this moment, Claude continued to shoot, one bird at a time.

After seven or eight birds were killed in a row, they did not dare to continue attacking. Instead, they took the initiative to fly higher as if they had intelligence.

The two cars galloped in the wilderness, and they constantly moved towards Rime City. There was almost no one on the road. After several of those birds were killed, they did not dare to continue attacking them. They successfully went past the wilderness.

Half an hour later, Gerald's expression changed slightly. A huge metal wall appeared in front of them.

Lexie let out a breath and said. "There is not a single person outside of Rime City. The rampart has been lifted. It seems that there was indeed a beast attack."

"The rampart has been lifted?" Gerald frowned and said. "Usually, isn't your rampart lifted?"

"That's right!" Laylah nodded and said. "Because of beasts, every city has a rampart. Under the mechanical operation, when beasts attack, these ramparts will rise and protect the city."

Gerald and Triston looked at each other. They found that their understanding of the technology of this world was still too low.

A rampart that could rise and fall could not be seen around the City of Phoenix at all!

This rampart was tightly sealed, and no one knew what kind of metal it was made of. It was very heavy.

Presumably, it was definitely fueled by a huge amount of energy stones to be able to rise up.

Energy stones were the core of most of the energy on Havotune, including hover cars, aircraft, etc... They were all powered by energy stones.

The cars continued to move forward. Slowly, along the way, Gerald saw the corpses of some humans that had died on the ground. No one came to collect these corpses...

"This..." Triston gulped. "This beast attack... Is it that terrifying?"

"I..." Laylah's face was a little pale as she said. "This is the first time I have seen it. In fact, there is almost no beast attack happening in such a big city like Rime City.

Not long after, Gerald frowned and said, "Someone is on the left!"

On the left, there were some buildings, but these buildings were also destroyed. At this time, at the top of a certain building, there was a person holding a red flag waving.

At the same time, at the windows of some buildings, there were people lying. They were more or less injured, and their eyes were full of hope and despair.

"Let's go take a look!" Gerald said.

Hugo said in the car in front, "Gerald, beasts clearly attacked once and temporarily retreated, but no one knows when they will come again. Most of the people living here are probably lower-class people. There is not need to risk for them."

"Their lives matter too!" Triston gritted his teeth and said,

"Let's go!" Benson nodded.

When Benson said this, the front car made a U-turn and quickly moved in that direction.

When they got closer, they saw a tragic scene.

There were many buildings in this place. It was almost the size of a small town. The whole town was filled with a strong smell of blood. The walls and ground were all bloody red.

The car stopped. Benson jumped out of the car and shouted, "I am Benson of the Pierce family. Speak to me!"

On the top of the building, the man who was waving a flag jumped down from the top. He was wearing the uniform belonging to City Defenders. However, he looked extremely miserable at this time. His arm was broken. It was tied with a white cloth. His other hand was holding a flag. He should be a super expert.

When Gerald saw this scene, his heart beat violently..

He gasped for breath and said, "Everyone, come out quickly. Mr. Pierce is here. We have hope. We have hope to live."

Then, a burst of footsteps sounded. In many buildings, some people ran out. Most of them were children and young people. Many were also injured, but they were simply bandaged. Gerald counted, and there were about fifty or sixty of them.

"Mr. Pierce," The City Defender gritted his teeth and said, "three days ago, when beasts attacked, the residents outside the city suffered terrible casualties. There is a cellar in this town that can accommodate more than fifty people."

When he said this, there was a trace of blood flowing in his eyes. "I had brought them to the City of Phoenix to take refuge, but the city gate was closed. They were unwilling to let us in. I had no choice but to bring them back. We unanimously decided to protect the children. I took these children to hide under the cellar."

The man sighed and said, "As for the other people... They were almost all killed by the beast attack. I did my best..."

"We will talk about the details after we enter the city!" Benson waved his hand and interrupted him. "Clean up the cars. Let those who are seriously injured get in the car first and bring them to the city to be treated."

"Benson!" Seeing that Benson planned to take them back for no reason, Hugo frowned. He said, "They are all low-class people!"

When Hugo said this, the children, as well as the City Defender who had lost his arm, all showed despair on their faces.

*The lives of lower-class people also matter. Don't talk nonsense, hurry up," Benson said..

Hugo sighed, then nodded, and began to arrange for these people to get in the cars.

The space in the two cars was relatively large, but Hugo told the injured people to get in the first car and told the children to get in the second car.

The two cars could accommodate them if they got tightly close.

“Hugo, drive your cars forward. We will follow you,” Benson said.

Hugo frowned, but since Benson had spoken, he did not say anything else. Then, he nodded and said, “Alright!”

Chapter 835 Beast Attack (2)

The two cars started up again. The people in the two cars, except for Hugo, all got off.

The two cars crossed the wilderness again. Gerald and the others surged their Vital Energy and followed the two sides of the car, quickly running in the direction of the city. Gerald looked at Benson and felt more admiration.

In this world, lower-class people were inferior to anything, and if they died, they just died in vain.

There was a huge gap between upper-class people and lower class people.

Hugo also didn't care about the lives of these people. Even if he could help them, he didn't want to do it.

This was almost the rule of this world.

Of course, there were also some good upper-class people, such as Benson.

His last words and his decisive decision after seeing this group of people made Gerald impress.

The car drove on for another ten minutes before they approached the city wall.

When they really arrived near the city wall, the expressions of Gerald and the others became completely gloomy.

Below the huge city wall were piles of corpses.

Yes, piles of corpses.

These lower-class people who lived outside the city could no longer enter Rime City when the city wall rose.

They could only die under the beast attack.

In three days, no one even came to clean up. The air was filled with the smell of blood and a strange stench.

Even though Gerald had experienced the battle with Elite Ghosts. He witnessed the death of large groups of Watchmen, but he could not help but feel nauseous seeing this scene.

“I am somewhat glad that I live on Earth...” Triston and the others were running while muttering Although Earth had the threat of Elite Ghosts, it was far from being so tragic.

Under the beast attack, no one survived.

This was a world that humans could not completely rule over. Under the beast attack, people appeared weak and helpless. Even in such a highly civilized and developed social environment, facing such a thing, they seemed to be powerless.

"I... feel sick," Carolyn said.

They spoke English and did not use the common language of this world.

Benson and the others did not find it strange. This world was very large, and it was normal for each place to have its own local dialect.

Buzz...

In front of them, the sound of brakes was heard. They stopped at the city gate in front of them. At this time, the huge city gate was closed. At the top of the metal wall, there were some people standing on it. They were looking down.

"Open the door!" Benson walked to the front and shouted

Above the city wall, a man poked his head out. When he saw Benson, he frowned and said, "Benson?"

This person didn't look old. He was about the same age as Benson, but his strength was already at the level of Flame Decay.

When Benson saw this person, he frowned and said, "I have completed the mission. Open the door and let me in."

"It is no problem to let you in." The person above said indifferently, "But, there seems to be quite a number of lower-class people in your car. They are not allowed to enter. There are enough lower-class people in the city."

"They are all people who survived the beast attack. Many of them are seriously injured and need to be treated urgently!" Benson shouted, "Rowan, open the door quickly."

"Lower-class people are not allowed to enter." Rowan said indifferently, "No one knows how long this beast attack will last. The resources in this city are limited. These lower-class people will be a waste of resources.

It is better to let them die outside."

"You..." Benson's expression was extremely gloomy.

Gerald and the others frowned deeply.

These words sounded so disgusting.

Rime City was very large, even larger than the City of Phoenix. There were only a few dozen children. Even if they lived here for a year, how many resources could they consume?

Benson roared with a gloomy expression, "With the supplies stored in Rime City, even if the beast attack lasts for a year, it can still be settled. They are just a group of children! What can they do? Rowan, I know you don't like me, but there is no need to be like this."

"Anyway, the lower-class people outside are not allowed to enter the city. This is the order that has been issued." Rowan looked indifferent, shrugged his shoulders, and said, "If you want to enter the city, drive these people out of the car."

At this point, he licked his lips and said, "Of course, if you kneel down and beg me, maybe I will be in a good mood, and I will open the gate for you."

Hearing his words, Gerald understood at this time.

Obviously, although they were both surnamed Pierce, the relationship between Benson and Rowan was not that harmonious.

Indeed, Rowan looked about the same age as Benson. It was normal for the younger generation of such a big family to compete with each other.

It was not that Rowan did not allow these children to enter the city. He just wanted to disgust Benson.

As for the lives of these people, he did not care at all.

Benson's expression was extremely gloomy. He shouted, "Rowan."

Rowan stood above and looked down from above. He said provocatively, "Think about it carefully."

"Gerald!" Benson turned to look at Gerald with a grin and asked, "Can you jump onto the city wall?"

"Of course I can," Gerald nodded and said.

"Go kill him." Benson stared at Rowan and said, "I'll take responsibility if you kill him."

"This is what you said," Gerald said.

"I said it. Chop him to death!" Benson shouted.

Gerald narrowed his eyes. He had long been annoyed with Rowan. His Vital Energy enveloped the top. A layer of frost quickly climbed up the city wall.

The moment Rowan felt Gerald's Vital Energy, he was shocked.

He did not expect Benson to actually dare to ask people to attack him. He also did not expect that the person below him would attack without hesitation.

He took a step back and said, "Stop! Open the city gate, and you will be responsible if anything happens."

Yes, Rowan felt Gerald's rising energy, and he was a little scared. He really felt that kind of killing intent and determination from Gerald.

Along with his words, Gerald's Vital Energy slightly shook, and then quickly retracted.

Buzz...

The city gate slowly opened.

Benson looked up at the city wall and sneered, "Rowan, you are a coward. No matter how strong you are, you are still a coward."

After saying that, the car started and drove towards the city. Gerald also restrained his energy and followed.

Rowan stood on the city wall and looked at Benson, Gerald, and the others who had entered the city. His expression was extremely gloomy.

"Mr. Pierce," at this time, a middle-aged man beside him leaned over and said.

"Who are those people with Benson?" Rowan asked with a gloomy expression.

"I'm afraid they are his bodyguards. Perhaps he has already brought back Thunder Saber. He has successfully completed the mission." The middle-aged man smiled and said, "In the competition between you and him, I am afraid that you are at a disadvantage again."

"I don't need you to remind me. I know." Rowan said with a gloomy expression, "I really don't know what the people in the family are thinking. My talent is clearly much stronger than his!"

"This group of lower-class people can be used to doing something," the middle-aged man said with a smile.

Rowan pondered for a moment, then nodded. "You go do it."

"I guarantee that you will be satisfied, Mr. Pierce," the middle-aged man said with a smile. Then, he turned around and walked toward the foot of the city wall.

Chapter 836 City Defenders Are Here

Rime City was much larger than the City of Phoenix. However, at this moment, Rime City was not as bustling as the City of Phoenix. Apart from some robots cleaning up the ground, there were very few people on the streets. There were also very few hover cars in the sky or on the ground.

Because of the beast attack, most of the people were hiding in their own houses.

Those who had combat strength were attending battles.

No one could escape from the beast attack. Those who were at the top level had to attend battles. When the beasts attacked again, battles were necessary.

This wall could not be defended all the time. When necessary, those who were at the top level had to rush out and beat back the beasts.

It was the first time Gerald saw such an empty street since he came to this world.

The car moved forward and soon arrived at a place that was similar to a hospital. Benson jumped out of the car and looked at Hugo. Benson said, "Hugo, I know it's hard for you. Johnny and I will bring the saber and Peter home. After the treatment, all the expenses will be on me. If you would like to settle down somewhere, you can settle them in my house."

As the son of the Pierce family, Benson must have a lot of villas under his name.

"No problem!" Hugo nodded, then hesitated to speak,

"If you have anything to say, just say it directly!" Benson reminded.

Hugo nodded and said, "I brought so many children back this time. Moreover, it was the period of beast attack. I'm worried that Rowan will use this weakness to cause any trouble."

Benson curled his lips and said, "Who cares if he does something or not? It's good that I have a clear conscience when I do things."

"Alright!" Hugo nodded and said, "It's good to hand over the mission quickly."

Benson nodded. The injured City Defenders were grateful to Benson. Benson did not say much, nor did he ask too much. He only treated these people.

After watching City Defenders enter, Benson looked at Gerald and the other people. Benson said, "Let's go!"

Lexie shook her head and said, "I don't want to go with you. It wasn't easy for me to come back. I want to go back home to take a look. There was a beast attack, and I am a little worried about my parents!"

in fact, judging from the scale of the beast attack, the city was still peaceful and did not have any problems.

However, Lexie and Laylah were a little worried.

"Okay." Benson muttered, "Then I'll take you guys to see my grandfather!"

Gerald did not refuse. Although Cohn had warned Gerald not to inquire about Nether Palace, the more Cohn said it, the more worried Gerald became. Nether Palace once invaded Earth and even caused the fall of civilization on Earth. The more mysterious Cohn said it, the more worried Gerald was.

Therefore, Gerald still planned to take the risk and ask about the truth.

Lexie thought for a moment, then looked at Gerald. Lexie said, "By the way, you've come here. We must do our best to be a host."

After that, Lexie said to Benson, "Take Gerald and the others back. After asking about the matter, Laylah and I will come and pick them up for dinner."

"Okay, I guess I will be very busy the whole day after I go back today. You can help me entertain them first," Benson nodded and said.

Benson brought Thunder Saber back. Thunder Saber involved many things. In addition to the beast attack, the Pierce family was the backbone of the entire Rime City. They had to be at the front line, and Benson was the heir of the Pierce family. At this time, he would be very busy!

Gerald smiled and said, "After I ask your grandfather about the matter, I think we should rest for a day. Since the beasts have not come yet, we may leave tomorrow."

"What? It's too rushed." Benson frowned and said, "I was thinking that I would entertain you guys after the beast attack. My life was saved by you."

"We'll meet again in the future." Gerald smiled.

The beast attack continued for an unknown period of time. A large city like Rime City was likely to be able to withstand it. Gerald and Blaine had agreed to return to Earth in half a year..

Gerald did not want to waste too much time in this place.

After resisting the beast attack, the grudges between the Pierce family and the Four Ancient Families had to be solved. At that time, it was good for Gerald and Benson to cooperate. They would meet each other again.

Because of the beast attack, Benson did not have too much time to think about it. After everyone left, Benson, Gerald, and other people got in the hover car and rushed towards the center of the city.

Like the City of Phoenix, the buildings in the center of the city were much shorter. The surrounding environment was also quite good. Soon, Benson, Gerald, and other people arrived in front of a huge mansion. There were three words written at the entrance of the mansion. They were "The Pierce's House".

There were two people standing at the entrance. When they saw Benson arrive, one of the people came over hurriedly and said, "Mr. Benson, your grandfather is in Rime Tower now. He knows that you have returned. He told you to go to Rime Tower immediately after you arrived. The people from the major families of Rime City have all gathered together to discuss the matter of this beast attack. In addition, the person who treats Mr.

Peter Pierce is already waiting in the courtyard.”

Benson frowned. Then he looked apologetically at Gerald and the others. Benson said, “Sorry, I have to go to the meeting.”

After that, Benson looked at Johnny and said, “Johnny, please take Gerald to my house. After the meeting is over, I will bring Grandpa to you!”

Gerald smiled and shook his head. Gerald said, “The beast attack is more important. I am not in a hurry. You go ahead and do your work!”

Benson nodded. He held Thunder Saber and ran towards Rime Tower.

Johnny exhaled and said, “Hurry up and bring Peter in for treatment.”

Two people at the door carried Peter into the house. Then Johnny turned around and said to Gerald and the others politely, “Gerald, come with me!

They all knew that their lives were saved by Gerald and his people. Facing the siege of the Four Ancient Families, if it weren’t for Gerald and his people, they would definitely die in the stone forest.

Therefore, Johnny and the others were very polite to Gerald and his people.

Under Johnny’s lead, they were brought to the side quickly.

Benson’s usual residence was equivalent to a single villa on Earth. The area it occupied was quite large, and it was not too far away from the Pierce’s house.

Johnny opened the door for Gerald and his people. Johnny led them into the room and said, “You can just treat this place as your own home. Help yourself. I have to go to Rime Tower as well.”

Johnny was an expert at the level of Flame Decay. He was also one of the top experts in Rime City, Johnny had to attend this kind of meeting.

Gerald nodded and said, “Thank you!”

After Johnny left, Triston let out a slight sigh and said, “What the fuck! The entire city is too depressing under this beast attack.”

Then Triston licked his lips and said, “Speaking of which, we haven’t seen this beast attack before. Why don’t we stay and see how beasts attack us? We can think of a way to leave after the beasts retreat.”

Carolyn glared at Triston and said, “Don’t forget what our mission is. Don’t waste time here.”

Triston coughed and said, "I'm just saying!"

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

At this time, someone was knocking on the door.

Claude walked to the door. Just as he opened the door, Claude frowned and said, "City Defenders are here!"

Chapter 837 A Troublesome Problem

"Are City Defenders coming? What are you doing here?" Gerald frowned.

At this time, someone was outside the door and said, "We just received a report that there was a thief in Benson's mansion. Who are you?"

Several people were wearing the uniform of City Defender and walking into the living room on the first floor. A man with a scar on his face stepped forward and stared at Gerald and the others. The man asked, "Who are you?"

Gerald's expression changed. He felt that something went wrong.

Gerald thought they had just entered the house. The group of people came once Johnny left.

Other than Benson and Lexie, Gerald and the others did not know anyone in Rime City. This group of people did not come for Gerald obviously.

They were in Benson's house, and it was obvious that this group of people came for Benson.

Gerald frowned and said, "We are Benson's friends."

"Mr. Benson's friend?" The man with a scar on his face stepped forward. He glanced at Gerald and said, "You don't even have the identity number plate of the upper-class people. How could you be Mr. Benson's friends?! suspect that you are here to steal things from Mr. Benson's house. Take down all of them!"

"What is the identity number plate of the upper-class people?" At this time, Hector said indifferently, "We're all at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. The identity number plate of the upper-class people is worthless for us."

"Then take out your identity number plate and let us check it," The scar-faced man spoke again.

Gerald was speechless. He could guess the purpose of this group of people.

Obviously, they were people sent by Benson's opponents. Some people knew that Benson had returned and brought some men with him. Therefore, they wanted to use this excuse to investigate the background of Gerald and the others.

There was some information on the identity number plate. Origins and levels were shown on the number plate.

The identity number plate which was on the market couldn't be valid.

Of course, many people including City Defenders, would not check the number plate carefully.

According to Gerald's speculation, the scar-faced man was sent by Rowan.

Then Gerald revealed disdain on his face. Gerald looked at the scar-faced man indifferently and said, "I don't care who sent you here. Before I get angry, you'd better get out of my sight."

"You!" The scar-faced man said with a gloomy face, "Are you not willing to take out your identity number plates?"

"I'll give you three seconds to get out!" Gerald said indifferently.

The scar-faced man's face looked extremely sullen. He sneered and said, "Okay, I will remember you. Let's wait and see."

"You should wait and see!" At this time, Hector said calmly, "I will remember your City Defender numbers. When Benson comes back, I will explain today's matter to him."

There were Identification Cards of upper-class people and City Defender numbers on the chest of the scar-faced man's uniform.

The scar-faced man didn't care. He snorted and turned to leave.

When they left, Hector shook his head and said, "His serial number is probably fake, so he is so unscrupulous."

"I don't even know if they are City Defenders." Claude curled his lips.

Gerald frowned and said, "It seems that after we finish asking, we still have to leave here as soon as possible. I don't want to be involved in the internal conflict of the Pierce family."

It was normal to have inheritance conflict in rich and powerful families. Although Gerald had a good impression of Benson, Gerald did not want to be involved in these internal conflicts. He could not afford to be involved.

Gerald was going to leave after asking the truth and getting a hover car which was given by Benson.

This trip was actually quite profitable for Gerald, Carolyn, and others.

First, Gerald and the others knocked down six Flame Decayers and two purple Elite Ghosts.

Secondly, Gerald and the others got a payment of billions of golorbs. They could buy a lot of things with this amount of money.

Thirdly, Benson gave Carolyn the saber that he had spent 2 billion golorbs on buying it. Carolyn also gave the saber a name. It was called 'Rainbow Saber'.

Apart from this, there was also some news about Nether Palace.

If Gerald stayed in the City of Phoenix, he would not have such a great reward..

Even if Gerald accepted the mission, he would not be able to kill so many Flame Decayers of the Four Ancient Families in the City of Phoenix in a short period of time.

"I'm going to take a shower," Carolyn said, "I think there is a bathroom over there."

"Let's go together!" Valery smiled and said.

Gerald coughed and said, "Well, can I come with you?"

Carolyn turned around and looked at Gerald with an insincere smile. Carolyn said, "If you dare to come, I don't mind."

Gerald clearly felt that Valery's gaze began to turn cold.

"I was just joking," Gerald quickly replied.

Valery sneered and said, "I haven't even asked you how you know Lexie and Laylah. Do you want to learn from Triston and get an alien wife here?"

"I definitely don't have such thoughts!" Gerald said quickly.

"Really? Actually, I don't mind," Valery said, "But I feel that you used Death Storm in the previous battle. There seems to be a problem with your body. I'll give you special treatment later."

"I..." When Gerald heard this, he almost cried.

Gerald didn't get to answer. Valery had already turned around and walked to the bathroom.

Carolyn made a funny face at Gerald and she also ran into the bathroom.

"Bless you!" Triston walked over to Gerald and patted him on the shoulder.

Then Triston sat down and said, "But I think it's really good to get an alien wife. Who do you think is better? Lexie or Laylah?"

“Are you interested in them?” Claude asked in surprise.

“Aren’t you interested in pretty girls?” Triston looked at Claude strangely.

“I have a wife. She is different from a single like you,” Claude chuckled and said, “Well, I’ve been away for more than a month. I missed my wife so much. My child should have been several months old. I think he will kick Aleen’s stomach.”

Triston looked at Claude with disdain, and said, “Lexie has a good figure and she is more mature. She has big breasts and a big butt. Lexie is easy to give birth to children. Laylah is eccentric and she has a good personality. It will be very fun to be with her. However, Laylah doesn’t have a plump figure. It is really a troublesome problem!”

Gerald looked at Triston and said, “You make it sound like someone likes you.”

They were chatting and taking turns to take shower.

Three hours passed.

Gerald took a shower and changed into a new set of clothes.

As soon as Gerald walked out of the bathroom, he noticed that Lexie and Laylah were both in the living room.

“Let’s go. I’ll take you to the best restaurant in Rime City for a big meal!” Laylah said with a smile.

Chapter 838 Lexie’s Trouble

Gerald and the others nodded. Since Benson could not come back for the time being, they could have a meal first.

They walked out of the room. Lexie and Laylah had already changed into a hover car. After getting into the car door, the car sped forward.

However, what Gerald did not know was that after they left, a hover car followed closely behind them. At the same time, the middle-aged man beside Rowan walked out from the side of the street with a smile.

Half an hour later, in the middle of Rime City, at the entrance of a three-story luxurious restaurant, Gerald and the others stopped. Laylah said happily, “After we eat later, let’s go see the children. My sister and I ordered a meal in advance. We will send it to the children later.”

Gerald was speechless. He did not expect them to be so considerate.

With Lexie and Benson, the children would probably not suffer too much and would be able to get a good place to settle down.

Even if they could not become upper-class people, it was not difficult to arrange a shelter for them with Benson’s status in Rime City. With Benson’s financial resources, it was not a problem to raise these dozens of children.

“Sure,” Gerald smiled.

They walked into the restaurant. Lexie ordered a private room, and then they walked into the room.

On the other side, near the Pierce’s house, a voice sounded in the ears of the middle-aged man.

He smiled in satisfaction. Then, he took out his phone and dialed a number. Soon, the call was connected. He asked, “What’s the matter?”

“It’s nothing. I just wanted to tell you that Lexie has returned to Rime City. She came back with a few men. Lexie and one of the men looked very intimate,” the middle-aged man said with a smile.

“Where are they?” The voice on the other side of the line suddenly became cold.

“At Faron Restaurant,” the middle-aged man said with a smile.

Then, he hung up and walked towards Faron Restaurant. Next, we can enjoy the show. Benson will probably be very happy to know about this.”

In Faron Restaurant, Gerald and the others sat down in the room.

After ordering the dishes, in a very short time, the robots came in with food.

“We plan to leave with you tomorrow,” Lexie said.

Gerald asked in surprise, “There is a beast attack here. Aren’t you going to stay?”

Lexie shook her head and said, “I went back and asked. My family said that if there was no larger beast attack, Rime City should be able to resist it. It is quite difficult for the beast attack to break through Rime City. It is safer inside Rime City, but the people living outside may...

Gerald did not want to talk about this with them.

In fact, whether it was Lexie or Benson, they were people who grew up in this world. The group of people who had died outside the city did not have that much of an impact on them.

The difference between upper-class people and lower-class people was too great. This was something they had grown accustomed to since they were young. However, they never bullied lower-class people.

Laylah chuckled and said, “Moreover, we have to go to the City of Phoenix to gain experience and inquire about some news about the Four Ancient Families and the people who assassinated them. However, I have one more reason to go there. I’m escaping marriage.”

“Escaping marriage?” Triston’s eyes moved. “Are you going to get married?”

“Laylah, don’t talk nonsense,” Lexie glared at Laylah and said.

Laylah pursed her lips, but Triston asked curiously, “What exactly is going on? Could it be that your family is forcing you to marry someone?”

After saying that, he quietly looked at Laylah and whispered to himself, "It seems that there is no choice"

Gerald almost choked when he heard Triston's words.

"Actually, it is nothing." Lexie said, "There was someone who wanted to marry me, and my family agreed. In a fit of anger, I took Laylah and left the City of Phoenix. It could be considered leaving home. I thought that my family would be anxious if I left for a month, so I rejected the marriage. I didn't expect that after I returned..."

Laylah snorted coldly, "After returning, not only did they not worry about me and Laylah, they even said that the marriage was not canceled."

Gerald was speechless. He did not expect such a thing to happen in this world.

"That's why I hope to leave with you tomorrow," Lexie said.

"Did your parents agree?" Gerald asked.

"Yes. My parents don't want me to marry that person either." Lexie shook her head.

"With your status, there shouldn't be anyone in Rime City who can force you, right? Could it be someone from the Pierce family?" Triston's expression changed as he said, "Could it be Benson?"

"That's not right. I feel that your relationship with Benson is quite good," after saying that, he asked in surprise.

"It's not Benson!" Laylah said, "Benson and my sister grew up together. They met when they were in school. They were friends. However, my sister's marriage is indeed about a man in the Pierce family. His name is Dillon Pierce, the third successor of the Pierce family.

"He is the same age as my sister and has been pursuing my sister for many years. Later, my sister refused him all the time, so he used his family relationship," Laylah said.

"Doesn't Benson have a good relationship with you? He can't help you?" Gerald asked in surprise.

"It won't help. Benson doesn't dare to interfere in this matter. Dillon is the third successor, but everyone knows that he can't inherit the Pierce family. The Pierce family will definitely belong to Benson or Rowan." Lexie shook her head and said, "So, whoever Dillon supports, the other two may have much more power at home."

"Anyway, that person is so bad." Laylah said, "I heard that he is a playboy. He has a dozen beautiful slaves at home. When he sees those lower-class people who are beautiful, he will force them to his home. If someone is unwilling, he will kill her parents and bring her to his home by force. In short, he's hateful."

“Laylah, I am afraid that it is not good for you to say that about your future brother-in-law.” At this time, a voice suddenly sounded outside the door. Then the door of the room was pushed open.

The staff of Faron Restaurant had helpless expressions on their faces. They did not dare to stop Dillon.

If Benson and Rowan could be considered to have the highest status among the younger generation in Rime City, then Dillon was the most arrogant person.

Benson and Rowan, because they wanted to inherit the Pierce family, could not be so unscrupulous.

However, Dillon was different. He would not be able to obtain the Pierce family in the future. As the third successor of the Pierce family, he did not care about his reputation at all. He was arrogant and domineering. He was the wealthiest playboy in Rime City.

“Dillon, what are you doing here?” Lexie asked with a frown.

“What am I doing here?” Dillon walked into the room and looked at Triston, who was sitting next to Lexie. He sneered and said, “Of course I’m here to see if my future wife is flirting with another man.”

As he spoke, he placed his hand on Triston’s body and asked in a gloomy tone, “Is it you?”

The moment he landed, his Vital Energy suddenly erupted. Triston also did not expect him to suddenly attack. Moreover, Dillon’s strength had actually reached the level of Flame Decay.

Triston could not dodge in time. The stool under his butt instantly shattered into pieces. Triston screamed and fell to the ground. He spat out a mouthful of blood, and his entire body began to swell.

“The attribute of water!” Hector’s expression changed.

“Fuck you!” Gerald was furious. He grabbed Dillon with one hand, and Vital Energy surged from his entire body.

Chapter 839 | Will Kill You

Gerald was angry.

This time, Triston was ambushed. Dillon suddenly attacked Triston, and Triston did not even have time to react. This was the attack of an expert at the level of Flame Decay. Under the water attribute, the water in the human body could be used for his purposes.

At this moment, Triston’s entire body began to swell rapidly. He was sitting on the ground alone, letting out a painful roar.

Triston was Gerald’s comrade-in-arms. When Gerald saw Triston being attacked, he did not care about the consequences at all.

Regardless of whether Dillon was a member of the Pierce family or a member of the Eight Forces, Gerald did not care. At this moment, he only wanted Dillon to die.

Boom!

Gerald's energy burst forth. He took a step forward and grabbed Dillon with his hand.

"How dare you beat me? I will kill you, and you will never leave Azure..."

Before he could finish speaking, a terrifying surge of Vital Energy surged out from Gerald's hand. He pressed down on Dillon's head and smashed it down onto the ground.

"Not only am I going to beat you, but I am also going to kill you!" Gerald roared furiously.

Buzz.

The magma attribute bloomed at this moment. In almost an instant, Dillon's clothes, hair, eyebrows, and all the hair on his body were burned to ashes.

Dillon's head was pressed under the floor. His hands were on the ground, and he wanted to raise his head. At the same time, the Vital Energy in his body was surging. He wanted to stand up, but his head was pressed by Gerald.

The attribute of his body surged, and he tried his best to resist Gerald's magma attribute.

"You are courting death!" Behind Dillon, there were two people. When they saw that Gerald really attacked Dillon, their expressions changed greatly.

They were both experts at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay. Now, the other people at the level of Flame Decay were all holding a meeting in Rime City.

But at this time, they had to go up.

The moment they wanted to make a move, the flames on Carolyn began to rise, blocking their way. She said lightly, "Go over, or die."

Both of them trembled. The person they were facing was a Flame Decayer!

It was impossible for them to beat a Flame Decayer.

Moreover, the most important thing was that they had the intention of killing them.

Dillon, the third successor of the Pierce family's younger generation, was most likely going to die here.

Their expressions changed drastically

The Vital Energy in Gerald's body surged even more violently.

The ground shattered Dillon's entire head was buried under the ground. His water attribute was surging crazily, wanting to block Gerald's magma attribute. However, his strength couldn't be compared to Gerald's. Even under his full strength, his body began to emit sizzling sounds and burn.

“Stop! I am Dillon Pierce of the Pierce family. You can’t kill me!” At this time, Dillon was a little scared. He never thought that Gerald would dare kill him.

“Who fucking cares who you are? If something happens to Triston today, not to mention you, Dillon, I will kill all of your family!” Gerald roared loudly.

At this time, Faron Restaurant was noisy. The smell of a Flame Decayer bloomed, making many people run out in fear. Gerald’s angry roar also resounded in their ears.

Everyone was scared.

In Rime City, there was someone who attacked Dillon and even said that he wanted to kill the Pierce family.

Valery was treating Triston urgently, but Valery had never treated anyone who had been injured by a Flame Decayer’s attribute. At this time, Triston began to have pustules all over his body. Some parts of his skin began to break, and blood flowed out.

“I can’t do anything! I can’t do anything!” Valery panicked. She hurriedly said.

Triston was in so much pain that he couldn’t bear it anymore. He kept screaming. At some point, he seemed to be unable to bear it anymore. He shouted, “Kill me! Kill me!”

All the unforeseen events happened in an instant. Lexie and Laylah were shocked. They never expected things to turn out like this.

“Go to hell!” Hearing Triston’s painful roar, Gerald was enraged. The air around him surged, and wind blades floated out. The entire room was a mess. Dillon’s body was instantly cut by the wind blades. The intense pain made Dillon roar as well.

At this moment, Lexie came back to her senses. She hurriedly shouted, “Gerald, stop! You can’t kill Dillon!”

“Why? He attacked Triston first!” Gerald’s eyes were filled with killing intent. At this moment, he looked like Slaughterer.

This was the first time Lexie had seen Gerald so angry. She was somewhat frightened.

Then, she came back to her senses and said, “The Pierce family! There is someone in the Pierce family who can cure Triston. If you kill Dillon, you will completely shed all pretense of cordiality with the Pierce family, and Triston will not be able to get treatment!”

Gerald's expression changed. He thought of the doctor who could cure Peter before. His face showed anger. He stared at Dillon and shouted, "I spare your life this time, shit."

As he spoke, he kicked Dillon away.

Then, he ran to Triston.

Triston's body began to fester, and the water attribute inside him made him crazy bloated. He was one size bigger.

"Hold on! I'll take you to the Pierce family," Gerald said loudly.

Then, he lifted Triston up and said to Lexie, "The doctor is treating Peter all the time. He should be at the Pierce's house! Take me there."

"I will lead the way for you." Lexie hurriedly nodded.

Hector and the others did not stop. Under Lexie's lead, they quickly rushed towards the Pierce's house.

Fortunately, they were in the center of the city, not far from the Pierce's house. They quickly rushed to the Pierce's house. At the entrance of the Pierce's house, two people were still standing there. They clearly recognized Gerald and the others. They knew that Gerald and the others were brought back by Benson: One of them hurriedly said, "Mr. Benson Pierce has not returned yet."

"What happened?" When he saw Triston, he was slightly stunned.

Lexie did not explain. She quickly asked, "Is Dr. Weber here?"

"He's inside. He's currently treating Mr. Peter," the person at the door hurriedly said.

"Bring me in!" Lexie hurriedly explained.

The man frowned.

"If you don't let me in, I will ask Benson to kill you when he comes back," just as he was hesitating, Hector slowly let out a breath and said.

Hearing this, that person no longer hesitated. He hurriedly nodded and said, "Come with me."

They rushed into the Pierce's house.

Just as they left, the two people brought by Dillon quickly carried Dillon over. However, at this time, Dillon's face was completely burned. He was covered in a large area of burns on his body. He was not a human at all.

"Go ask Dr. Weber to come over! Mr. Dillon will not be able to hold on for much longer!" one of them shouted loudly.

The expression of the gatekeeper changed drastically.

Chapter 840 Dr. Weber

The first floor of Rime Tower!

Inside this building, the higher the floor, the smaller it became. So the first floor was the largest floor of Rime Tower. Usually, Rime Tower had many visitors. This was a huge business of the Pierce family. People could watch the view and buy things here.

The first floor had been completely rebuilt. In a place on the first floor that was once the auction hall, there were many people sitting inside.

The meeting seemed to be halfway through, and some people were cursing and swearing.

“The people of the Pierce family are outrageous. They actually told us to attack first. The Pierce family is so powerful; why don’t they go first?”

“It’s just that the Pierce family is in charge of different places. I still think this method is fine. After all, the Pierce family will be the ones to make the frontal attack. I don’t know how long this beast attack will last.”

“I hope that the last beast attack will still be the hardest one. If it lasts too long, there will be large birds in the sky. Our aircraft will not be able to get through them, and the resources will not be able to get in. Things will be really difficult at that time.”

Various opinions resounded in the room. In another room, the people of the Pierce family were there.

At this time, an old man suddenly stood up and said, “What? You said that Dillon was beaten half to death by those Benson brought back?”

Near them, Benson was talking to an old man. The old man was listening to him with satisfaction. And the old man was holding the Thunder Saber.

However, when they heard this, Benson and the other members of the Pierce family all raised their eyebrows and looked at the old man who was holding a communication device and talking to someone.

This man was an elder of the Pierce family and also one of the pillars of the Pierce family.

After Benson heard his words, his heart jumped. Dillon... He had a conflict with Gerald and his pals? And Gerald almost killed Dillon?

“What happened?” Beside Benson, the old man frowned and asked, “The people you brought back are the bodyguards you said just now?”

“Grandfather, they would never attack Dillon for no reason. You also know what kind of guy Dillon is. There must be some conflict between them,” Benson hurriedly said.

Benson’s grandpa frowned and said, “If there is a conflict, your friends shouldn’t have beaten Dillon half to death in Rime City. If you want to inherit the Pierce family, the support of Dillon's clique is indispensable."

Benson's expression changed, and he said, "Grandfather, you are not getting back at my friends, right? They saved my life!"

"The meeting should be suspended for a while. I will go back with you to see the situation first."

Benson's grandpa let out a breath and said, "If it comes to a critical moment, I hope you can make the right choice."

Benson's expression changed slightly. He understood what the old man meant. The so-called right choice was that if things came to a dead end, he wanted Benson to give up Gerald and the others.

Benson couldn't care about anything else. He stood up with his grandfather and hurriedly rushed home!

After he walked a few steps, his gaze suddenly became firm.

No matter what, he must keep Gerald and the others alive.

When saving those children, Gerald and the others were the first to make up their minds. Therefore, in Benson's heart, Gerald and his pals should be kind people. And after spending the past few days with them, Benson didn't think Gerald and his pals were troublemakers of any kind.

As he walked, his expression changed and he said, "Grandfather, I... I probably know why they fought."

"Huh?" Benson's grandpa looked at him and said, "Tell me!"

"Didn't Dillon go out to answer a phone call during the meeting and leave with two people?" Benson said.

"True" Benson's grandpa nodded and said, "So what?"

"This time, it was Lexie who introduced me to these people. Lexie ran across Gerald and his pals in the City of Phoenix and then introduced them to be my guards," Benson said. "You know that Dillon has always wanted to marry Lexie, and though you never said anything, we know you approve of it. And today, Lexie is planning to treat Gerald and his pals to dinner."

"So... You mean that your friends know about the things between Lexie and Dillon and then stand up for Lexie?" Benson's grandpa asked.

"Don't you know what kind of person Dillon is? Obviously, Dillon saw Lexie eating with Gerald and the others and was very unhappy. He wanted to beat up Gerald and his pals, but he discovered that he was not their match. Instead, he was beaten up. I'm afraid there are other reasons. We will know when we get back,"

Benson said with certainty.

Just as the two were rushing home, Gerald rushed into a room with Triston!

In the room, a middle-aged man sat there with a frowning face. "What's the hurry?"

Opposite him, Peter was sitting there, drinking something.

The injuries on his body seemed to have completely healed.

“Gerald.” When he saw Triston, who was on Gerald’s back, his expression changed slightly. He said, “This...

What happened?”

“Dr. Weber, now is not the time to talk. Treat him first, please!” Gerald hurriedly reminded.

Keaton was a middle-aged man. He seemed to be quite a character. His hair was all shaved except for those.

at the top of his head. And it was put together into a standing braid. And there was a beard on his chin.

He looked at Triston and frowned. “The water attribute is raging. This must have been caused by Dillon!”

Then he frowned and said, “If I treat him, I’m afraid Dillon will see me as an enemy.”

Peter frowned. Then, he smiled and said, “If you don’t help, you will be Benson’s enemy. They are the saviors of me and Benson. Oh, right, you will also be my enemy.”

“I’m just joking. Joking!” Keaton smiled and said, “Make him lay flat on this bed.”

Gerald no longer hesitated and quickly put Triston on the bed.

At this moment, a voice came. “Dr. Weber, help! Hurry and help us. Mr. Dillon is dying.”

While they were talking, two people ran in with disfigured Dillon in their arms. At this time, Dillon was breathing his last breaths. His whole body was badly burned.

When Peter saw this, the corner of his mouth could not help but twitch violently. Looking at Dillon, he knew that it was Gerald who did it.

He looked at Gerald in surprise.

At this time, Keaton saw Dillon and said, “Damn, what happened? Quickly bring Mr. Dillon over.”

They put Dillon down on another bed.

Gerald saw Vital Energy surge around Keaton’s body and instantly envelope Triston and Dillon.

What surprised Gerald was that Keaton was actually at the level of Flame Decay. And the attribute in his Vital Energy seemed to have healing power. Triston’s edemas were disappearing rapidly, and he let out moans in pain.

Green rays of light circulated around his body, and Keaton’s Vital Energy ceaselessly flowed into their bodies.

The burns on Dillon, who was nearby, were also slowly healing.

Seeing this, Gerald let out a long breath!

Peter frowned and asked, "What's going on? Why did you get into a fight with Dillon?"

"I want to kill him even now!" Carolyn said angrily.
