Chapter 841 Fishy

Seeing that Triston's body was slowly recovering, Gerald gradually calmed down.

He briefly recounted the whole thing. After Peter heard his words, he frowned slightly. Then he let out a breath and said, "After Triston's body recovers, you'd better leave!"

"Huh?" Carolyn sneered. "We are in the right. We are not afraid of them."

Peter sighed. "In this world, some people are unreasonable. The Pierce family is not like what you think. The Pierce family is three groups of people. The third group is Dillon and his people. Although he is the third heir, he has many supporters. After you beat Dillon up like this, they won't let you off. When Triston gets better, you'd better leave. Leave the rest to Benson and me!"

Gerald frowned slightly. He wanted to ask about the Nether Palace.

However, this place was after all the Pierce family's turf. If Benson chose to stay neutral so as not to make an enemy of Dillon, they would have to face Dillon and his men alone. Then it was likely to be a closely fought battle.

They came to this place mainly to deal with the Four Ancient Families. They wanted as little trouble as possible.

This time, Triston suffered a great loss, and Dillon suffered even more than Triston. It could be considered a successful revenge. However, they probably had to look for information about the Nether Palace elsewhere.

"No one can leave today!" At this time, an angry shout came from outside the door.

Gerald turned around to look. He saw an old man with a ruddy face, gray hair, and a height of more than 6 feet 5 inches, walking in from outside.

He was carrying a huge axe on his back. After walking in, he roared, "Who hurt my grandson?"

At this time, one guy pointed to Gerald and said, "Sir, it's him who injured Mr. Dillon. If Ms. Sadler had not stopped him, I am afraid Mr. Dillon would have been beaten to death by him."

The burly old man suddenly glared at Gerald. Then, he sneered and reached out toward Gerald.

Gerald's expression changed. He felt that the water in his body seemed to be activated. Obviously, this old man's attribute was the same as Dillon's.

Gerald sneered. The Vital Energy in his body surged, and the magma attribute gushed out and instantly dissolved the old man's water attribute.

Looking at the old man who threw a punch at him, he had anger flash across his face, and a trace of killing intent emerged in his eyes.

Yes, he wanted to kill!

Even now, he was still angry at Dillon, and this old man attacked him right after he came in. Gerald's anger was once again aroused.

Vital Energy surged in his body, and he also punched out!

"If you don't want them to die, stop immediately. Are you trying to destroy this place?" at this moment, Keaton shouted loudly.

Gerald's fist was very close to the old man's fist. But even so, the entire room was in a mess because of the impact of the two people's Vital Energy.

If their fists met, the house would probably be overturned.

"Stop!" At the same time, a dignified voice sounded from outside the door. Gerald withdrew his fist and saw Benson and another old man come in, too.

"Are you guys alright?" Benson asked when he saw Gerald and the others.

Gerald shook his head and said, "Triston's body is slowly recovering. He's fine for now!"

"Benson, you have to give me an explanation for this matter!" The burly old man, Neal Pierce, sneered and said, "We know we stand little chance among the heirs, but we can decide who is the future master of the Pierce family."

There, he looked at Gerald and the others and said, "These people almost killed my grandson. Their lives.

must not be spared!"

Hector frowned deeply!

This was Rime City, the Pierce family's place. Because of the beast attack, most of the experts had returned. If they were fighting these experts, it would be very hard for them to escape unscathed.

In Gerald's eyes, killing intent surged. He stared at Neal and said, "I can die, but I promise you that you'll die first!"

"What is going on?" the dignified old man next to Benson asked again.

Peter walked out at this time and briefly recounted the whole story. After Benson heard it, his eyes suddenly moved. He saluted Gerald and said, "Gerald, I was careless in this matter."

"Why are you apologizing to them?" Neal said, "Even if my grandson attacked first, they shouldn't have beaten my grandson to this state."

The dignified old man frowned.

At this time, Benson turned his eyes to Neal and said, "Neal! Things are very clear now. These people are my true friends. Without them, I would have died outside, and the Thunder Saber wouldn't have been able to return to Rime City!

"Now, my friend was almost beaten to death by Dillon! I think you should be the ones who should be giving an explanation here," Benson stared at Neal and said.

"Benson!" Neal's eyelids suddenly jumped. "What? Are you forcing us to take Rowan's side?"

"Humph! Before becoming the head of the family, the most important thing is to be a decent person!" Benson said indifferently, "If I have to sacrifice my friends in exchange for the position of the head of the family, I would rather not!"

"Alright! We heard it! Then, I'll also make myself clear. These few people will not be able to leave Rime City. Mark my words!" Neal shouted, "Even you, Benson, cannot stop me."

"Neal, that's enough!" At this time, the dignified old man slowly let out a breath and said, "This whole thing is very fishy. I've got some questions."

He pointed at the two people following Dillon and asked, "Who told you the location of Lexie and the others?"

As soon as he asked this question, everyone was stunned.

Benson felt that something was wrong. He hurriedly said, "Yes, Dillon was in a meeting in Rime Tower. How did he know that Lexie was back? And even if he did, how did he know where Lexie was eating?"

The two men stammered.

"If you don't want to die, just say it!" The dignified old man's gaze darkened as he spoke.

One of them was scared, and he hurriedly said, "One of Rowan's subordinates said it. He called Mr. Dillon and told him that Ms. Sadler already had a boyfriend and they were all lovey-dovey. He also told Mr. Dillon where they were!

"When Mr. Dillon went over and saw the man sitting next to Ms. Sadler, he thought that her boyfriend was him, so he attacked that man."

There, Gerald's expression changed slightly.

Obviously, Dillon was used as a pawn by the guy called Rowan.

However, Dillon was hardly a good guy. He was too arrogant and willful.

Rowan knew this very well, so he wanted to use Dillon and Gerald to turn Benson and Dillon against each other!

As for the lives of Gerald and the others, they did not care at all.

After he figured it out, his gaze turned slightly cold.

"Rowan!" Benson gritted his teeth and said.

As for Neal, his brows were slightly furrowed at this moment, and his expression was rather grim.

Wham!

While they were talking, a gust of energy suddenly rose up. Everyone looked over and found that Triston's aura was rising. In almost an instant, he broke through the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay and reached the level of Flame Decay.

Chapter 842 The Pierce Family's Speculation

Gerald looked in Triston's direction. At this time, Triston had recovered all over, and his swelling seemed to have gone down.

Lying on the bed, Triston suddenly opened his eyes, with Vital Energy all over. He indeed showed the vibe of the level of Flame Decay.

"Have broken through?" Gerald looked at him with surprise.

There were a total of eight people who came here. At first, only Gerald and Hector were at the level of Flame Decay. Through this period, during the battle with the Four Ancient Families, Carolyn broke through to the level of Flame Decay.

Triston had been tricked once, but it was a blessing in disguise, and he had reached the level of Flame Decay.

Now, they already had four Flame-Decay-level experts.

It was only a matter of time before Valery and Hector broke through to the level of Flame Decay.

In fact, it was indeed more suitable for cultivation on Havotune than on Earth. The environment on Earth was relatively comfortable, and there was no sense of crisis. In a dangerous place with many battles, it was naturally faster to make a breakthrough.

When Lexie saw Triston break through, she was a little shocked.

Beside him, Benson was also very envious.

The three elected heirs of the Pierce family, Rowan, and Dillon had already been at the level of Flame Decay. but Benson was still at the level of peak Flame Decay.

Benson saw Carolyn and Triston break through, and he felt a little jealous.

Suddenly, Benson trembled. He looked at Gerald and the others with surprise.

Gerald and the others, a total of six people, became Benson's guards. Hector reached... the supreme level of Flame Decay. Gerald had the Dragon Bone, Carolyn had the Phoenix Bone, and Triston had also become a Flame Decayer.

Valery was obviously the doctor of this team, but she was also at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay.

As for Claude, although he was only at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay, he was a specially skilled sniper, who could threaten Flame Decayers.

In this way, though Gerald only had six people on this team, their combat strength was quite terrifying. Most importantly, Gerald and the others were very young.

Gerald and the others were very mysterious. Among them, Triston was only twenty-five years old but reached the level of Flame Decay. He was indeed a genius in the entire Havotune.

For a moment, Benson couldn't help but feel a chill down his spine.

The people behind Gerald and the others could nurture so many super experts... Benson found it hard to imagine.

"Could they be... geniuses from one of the Eight Forces? Did they secretly come to cultivate their bodies?"

While Benson was thinking, he said in shock, "If so, Dillon will attack them... If we continue to settle the score, I'm afraid the consequences will be unbearable."

Benson looked at the serious old man, Dwayne Pierce, who also frowned and was thinking about something.

Gerald naturally did not know Benson's guess, but when he saw Triston break through, Gerald was in a much better moon. Next, he needed to think about how to get away.

"Eh!"

At that moment, Keaton let out a soft sound of surprise,

Immediately after, Gerald and the others frowned. Gerald saw that along with the surge of Vital Energy, traces of green fume like poisonous gas flowed out from Triston's body.

In an instant, the room was filled with a stench.

"Is it this guy's attribute?" Claude asked.

After that, Claude frowned and said, "Why do I seem to go limp? I feel a little dizzy."

Gerald also had the same feeling as Claude. Gerald's Vital Energy quickly surged, and he felt much more comfortable. Then, he grabbed Valery's hand and patted Claude's shoulder. Thus, Vital Energy passed through and dispelled the discomfort on both of them.

Meanwhile, Keaton cried out and hurriedly withdrew the Vital Energy that enveloped Triston. He looked at Triston strangely and said, "Damn, brat, what's your attribute?"

The lying Triston suddenly opened his eyes and roared angrily, "Dillon, fuck you! How dare you blindside me?*"

Triston seemed to have completely recovered. The moment he got up, the Vital Energy erupted all over him. He ignored it and threw a punch at Dillon, who was beside him.

Gerald did not stop him. Since Neal was shameless, Gerald wouldn't care. At most, they could have a brutal fight.

At this time, Dwayne, who was next to Benson, moved. He quickly walked past Gerald, went straight to Triston, and grabbed his hand. Dwayne smiled and said, "Kid, this is the Pierce family's fault. I am Dwayne, the head of the Pierce family. I will apologize on behalf of Dillon."

Triston frowned. He felt that he was no match for Dwayne. Triston snorted and put away his fist.

Then Dwayne smiled and said, "Benson, take your friend to the hall to rest. I will come over soon."

Benson pondered for a moment, then nodded, and said, "Gerald, come with me."

Gerald was uncertain. At this time, Benson looked at him and said, "Don't worry. They won't attack you again.

If they do it again, I will sacrifice myself to help you."

Gerald looked at Benson.

At first, Benson was just Gerald's employer, but this time, when Benson chose to stand on his side from the very beginning, Gerald finally decided to make this friend.

Gerald nodded.

After Gerald and the others left, Keaton's room finally fell into silence.

Dillon was seriously injured, and Keaton was still treating him.

Meanwhile, Dwayne looked at Neal and said. "You should discipline your grandson."

Neal sneered. "Listen, this matter is not over. He is Benson's friend, not ours. For the sake of Benson, I won't touch that young man here, but if he leaves Rime City, you can't interfere. In addition, I have also decided on the matter of the family head"

"Have you decided to support Rowan?" Dwayne chuckled. "You were betrayed by Rowan but still work for him?"

"I will naturally ask them for an explanation for this matter, but my grandson was beaten up by that young man This matter is not over. I will give you a face now and won't argue with you. Do not try to stop me from retaliating against them," Neal said with gritted teeth.

"Because you doted on Dillon, he became like this." Dwayne said indifferently, "What do you think about Gerald's strength?"

"Infinitely close to the supreme level," Neal said.

"What if I tell you that among the six of them, there is another supreme-level expert?" Dwayne smiled and asked, "Four of them are at the level of Flame Decay, one at the supreme level, and the other at the quasi-supreme level."

"So what?" Neal said, "Although our faction is weak, we are not afraid of these four people."

"You're indeed brainless." Dwayne shook his head and said, "Our family has been keeping a low profile and enduring for many years. The Eight Forces have never been able to find an opportunity to attack us. Now, you want to push the Pierce family into destruction?"

"Huh? What do you mean?" Neal said..

Dwayne slowly let out a breath and said, "Benson just came back and told me about their trip. He said that he made a few friends, who were not even thirty years old but very talented."

Neal frowned.

"Except for the four Flame Decayers and the supreme-level expert, the others are only in their twenties." Dwayne said, "They're so talented. If they were from Havotune, they would have been well-known."

Indeed, Gael had reached the level of Flame Decay in his thirties. This shocked the entire Solein Kingdom.

"They are unknown but appeared at the same time. Where do you think they are from?" Dwayne looked at Neal coldly.

Neal trembled. He said in a broken voice, "They... came... from the top?"

Chapter 843 Something That Can't Be Brought Up

"Very likely!" Dwayne slowly let out a breath and said, "Otherwise... Why do you think they are so fearless when they know that Dillon is a Pierce?"

Neal became sweaty on the forehead.

He thought about it carefully. Indeed, a group of geniuses was led by a supreme Flame Decayer. They seemed to quietly come down to cultivate.

"W-What should we do?" Neal said.

Obviously, Neal wasn't very smart. After Dwayne said so, Neal completely believed his words and became a little flustered.

"Alas!" Dwayne sighed. "I hope my speculation is wrong I will probe into it. If they don't fuss about it for the sake of Benson, let's just let it go now."

Neal nodded.

Dwayne looked at him meaningfully and said, "As for Rowan, just handle him yourself."

"I handle him?" Neal shouted, "I am angry when I talk about him. I will ask him for an explanation."

Dwayne looked at Neal, turned around, and walked out of the room. He thought, I hope my guess is wrong. Otherwise... it will be a little troublesome.

Dwayne just guessed about the story of Gerald and the others. However, he felt that it was very likely. If Gerald and the others did come from one of the Eight Forces, there would be trouble.

Dwayne was a little worried and walked out.

In the hall of the Pierce's house, Benson kept apologizing to Gerald, "This is all my fault. Please don't take it to heart."

Gerald shook his head and said, "It has nothing to do with you. It is just Dillon's problem."

With that, he slowly let out a breath and said, "Now, there is no point in us continuing to stay here. It is hard to know what your grandfather will think. Although I trust you, I do not trust him. For the sake of the Pierce family, he might choose to sacrifice us regardless of anything."

Speaking of this, Gerald frowned and said, "Why don't you prepare a hover car for us? We can leave now."

Benson was stunned. He hurriedly said, "I will think of a way to settle this matter for you. After all, Dillon is still alive, and we can negotiate."

"We don't dare to gamble." Hector said, "This is Rime City, the turf of the Pierce family. If we lose the bet, we will be finished."

Benson seemed to dwell on it.

He was actually speculating that Gerald and the others might be from above who came to train.

"Don't worry." At this time, Dwayne's voice sounded outside the door. "The Pierce family is definitely not unreasonable."

Gerald naturally did not want to comment on his words. He knew very well what kind of people Dillon and Neal were. It was already decent to say that they were unreasonable.

"I have made it clear to them that it's indeed Dillon's fault. I will apologize on behalf of Dillon again." Dwayne pursed his lips and said, "Also, I can decide on the marriage between Dillon and Lexie. It's over."

Lexie was stunned at first and then joyful.

Gerald was surprised. He did not expect Dwayne to say this.

Dwayne walked into the room. At this time, he looked like a gentle old man. He smiled at Gerald and the others and said, "In the afternoon, Benson told me that he had a few genius friends. I did not have the time to thank you all. In the end, such a matter happened. I am really ashamed."

Gerald and the others frowned as Dwayne's attitude was so good.

So, they wouldn't get ugly with Dwayne. Moreover, Gerald and Benson were friends. Given what Dwayne said, Gerald wouldn't take things personally.

Dillon was beaten hard, and Triston broke through to the level of Flame Decay because of this.

After all, this was the Pierce family's turf. If they continued to pester, they would suffer.

Gerald smiled and said, "That's OK, Mr. Pierce. Since we've made it clear, that's good."

Given that Gerald had let go, Dwayne let out a long sigh and said, "Oh, I heard from Benson that you guys seem to have some questions you want to ask me. Go ahead. I will tell you everything I know."

Gerald was delighted. Then, he thought about it and said. "Mr. Pierce, we have inadvertently seen an organization and have always been very curious about it.

"Huh?" Dwayne looked at Gerald and said, "What's it?"

"It might be an extremely powerful organization from ancient times. It's called Nether Palace. Mr. Pierce, you..."

Just as Gerald said, Dwayne's expression suddenly changed. With a wave of his hand, the door of the hall was instantly closed by his Vital Energy.

This sudden change was only because of the words "Nether Palace".

"Did you see it in some ancient book?" Dwayne looked at Gerald and asked in a serious tone.

Given his reaction, Gerald became more and more serious. There was a high chance that Nether Palace existed. Just like what Cohn said, it was something that couldn't be mentioned.

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, but there are very few records on it..."

"Gerald " Dwayne slowly let out a breath and said, "If you want to ask anything else, I can answer you. I know little about this organization, but I can't tell you anything. In addition, it is good for you to be curious, but please don't ask anything about this organization."

Gerald and others were stunned. Gerald let out a sigh and said, "So this organization really exists?"

Dwayne frowned and looked at him. After a moment, Dwayne nodded slowly and said, "It does exist, but Gerald, since you and Benson are friends, I reminded you. Please don't ask about this organization. Don't ask your family elders, and don't look for this organization."

Dwayne said in a serious tone, "Its name is a taboo that is not allowed to be mentioned."

This statement was similar to what Cohn had said.

Gerald knew that if he continued to ask, there would probably not be any results.

It might be difficult to find information about Nether Palace.

Of course, for Gerald and the others, this was potential. Even if Nether Palace existed, it was hard to say if they would still invade Earth.

“Thank you, Mr. Pierce,” Gerald said with a smile.

“It’s fine.” Dwayne smiled and said, “Alright. I still have to continue the meeting at Rime Tower. I won’t disturb you from chatting. Benson, you can stay with your friends. You don’t have to go to Rime Tower for now.”

Benson nodded and said, “OK.”

After Dwayne left, Benson stood up and said, “It’s good that the problem has been solved, and it’s also very cool. I’ve been unhappy with Dillon for a long time. This time, he was beaten hard by you. It’s so damn great.”

Gerald smiled and stood up. “We have to go.”

Benson was stunned. “Aren’t you going to rest for two days?”

“No. Firstly, we don’t know how long the beast attack will last. If we are trapped and can’t get out, it will be troublesome. Secondly, we have almost asked what we wanted to know, so it is time to leave,” Gerald said.

Benson frowned. He sighed and said, “Alright, follow me to my garage. Pick any hover car. Also, don’t take the matter with Dillon to heart.”

“OK, I won’t.” Gerald shook his head and said, “Moreover, it’s also a blessing in disguise for Triston. He broke through to the level of Flame Decay, and Lexie’s engagement was also removed. We got the best of both worlds.”

With that, he looked at Triston and said, “Well, what is your attribute? Is it poison?”

Hearing Gerald’s words, Triston had a strange expression. He cleared his throat and said, “You will know in the future. It’s amazing.”

Chapter 844 The Beast Attack Is Coming

“You will know in the future. It’s amazing,” Triston said proudly.

“In the future? Don’t show off. Hurry up,” Claude kicked him and said.

Triston’s face turned a little red. Then he cleared his throat and said, “My attribute is light. Do you understand? I can be as fast as light while causing destruction. You can call me Lord Unicorn, the messenger of justice.”

“Get lost. Do you think we didn’t see the green fume when you broke through just now? It was smelly. I almost vomited at that time. My feet went limp.” Claude scolded.

“That’s right. It definitely isn’t some light attribute. Hurry up. What kind of attribute is it?” Gerald asked.

“If you don’t say it, will you believe that I’ll burn you?” Carolyn said, glaring.

Triston was helpless. He gritted his teeth and said, “Alright. I’ll tell you. My attribute... is indeed a bit similar to poison. It’s... a bit like a plague, which can be spread.”

Gerald and the others were shocked.

After thinking about it carefully, they could understand. Back then, Gerald had asked Triston about the Bone of Eternity he had absorbed. Triston said he had absorbed the Unicorn Bone. Later, Gerald was told that it was not the case. It was similar to the Rat Bone. Rats could indeed spread the plague.

“Pfft!” Carolyn was the first to laugh. She grinned and said, “Given your attribute, you are actually the son of the plague.”

“You are a plague.” Triston said gloomily, “Damn it, I’m Lord Unicorn, but I was given such a lowly attribute.

Unbelievable.”

In fact, his attribute was not lowly. In battle, this attribute made the enemies dizzy and weak. To a certain extent, it was quite awesome.

However, its name did not sound good.

“Mr. Plague, if you go back, you can go to the Four Ancient Families and spread some plagues. Wouldn’t that be awesome?” Claude said with a smile.

They continued to joke about him, and Triston was depressed.

Meanwhile, Valery muttered, “When I reach the level of Flame Decay, I hope to get Keaton’s attribute.”

With that attribute, one could cure all people instantly, which was indeed what all doctors dreamed of.

“Let nature take its course!” Gerald patted Valery on the shoulder and said.

As they talked, they walked out of the Pierce’s house and returned to Benson’s house. Benson walked to the back and entered a few passwords in front of an iron door. Then he smiled and said, “You can choose any car.”

“Help yourself.” Laylah said, “There are a lot of limited-edition cars here.”

Men all love cars, and it was the same case in this world. Benson was super rich, or the richest nationwide.

Benson must have a lot of money.

But when the iron gate opened, Gerald saw those cars and admitted that he was jealous.

In fact, even the ordinary hover cars in this world looked extraordinary, much better than the luxury sports cars on Earth.

And in Benson’s garage, every car was very cool and quite expensive.

“How much did you spend... on these cars?” Claude swallowed his saliva and asked.

“I don’t know.” Benson shook his head and said, “In any case, I will buy whatever I like. If I don’t like it after I buy it, I will give it to my friend.”

“I regret asking you.” Triston scolded, “You show off again!”

Benson smiled and said, “Don’t care about this. Choose whatever you like.”

Gerald and the others went in and chose a relatively low-key car. Its appearance was low-key, but the inside was quite luxurious.

The interior space was huge, enough to accommodate more than ten people, like Lexie’s hover car.

They were quite satisfied. Hector went in and fiddled with the hover car for a while, and then he drove out of the garage.

“Are... you leaving just like that?” Benson asked.

Lexie and Laylah also looked unhappy.

The reason why Lexie left was that she wanted to escape the marriage. Now that Dwayne had promised that the engagement was canceled, she didn’t need to leave Rime City.

Gerald smiled and said, “We will meet again in the future. Aren’t you going to the City of Phoenix later? Just call me when you arrive. We can still work together.”

Benson nodded. “Humph, the Four Ancient Families want to kill me. This matter is naturally not over. When the beast attack ends, I will bring people to find trouble with them.”

The Sadler family and the Four Ancient Families had some grudges, and when the time came, the Sadler family would naturally join in.

The enemy of the enemy was a friend. Moreover, Gerald and Benson got on well, so it was normal for them to cooperate.

“Let’s send you to the city gate,” Benson said.

Gerald and the others did not refuse, and the group got into the car again. The hover car started and rushed toward the city gate.

Soon, they arrived at the city gate. Benson said, “Next time you come to Rime City, remember to contact me. I will entertain you. If you encounter any trouble, just ask someone in Rime City to tell me. I will do my best to help you.”

Gerald smiled and said, “Of course. Also... please keep our identities a secret.”

Given Dwayne’s reaction in the afternoon, Benson and the others had not mentioned anything about Phoenix Bone and Dragon Bone to them.

“Don’t worry. We’re tight-lipped,” Lexie said. She looked at Gerald and said in dismay, “I hope we can meet again soon.”

As they talked, Benson ran to the top of the city wall. After discussing with a person for a while, the person nodded and made a gesture. The city gate slowly opened.

Gerald and the others waved goodbye to Benson and the others in the car. Meanwhile, Hector started the car and slowly drove out of Rime City.

In the car, Valery slowly let out a breath and said, “If we don’t leave the city, I’m still a little worried that the Pierce family will plot against us.”

Although Dwayne said that it was fine, they were still worried that they didn’t come out.

“It’s strange. The people in Dillon’s faction were very tough at first. Why did they suddenly let it go? Has Benson’s grandfather threatened them?” Claude asked.

Hector shook his head and said, “They probably got it wrong. You’re young and strong. Plus, I am a supreme Flame Decayer. They might not dare to offend us as they probably thought that we were from the top.”

Gerald suddenly understood. If that was the case, it really made sense.

“Anyway, we have left the city safely. Let’s return to the City of Phoenix as soon as possible. There are still a few months left. We should try our best to eliminate the experts of the Four Ancient Families,” Gerald said.

Hector nodded. He had set the destination for the hover car. The hover car began to accelerate, leaving Rime City and heading in another direction.

“Eh... do you guys... feel that something is wrong?” Suddenly, Gerald frowned and asked.

“What’s wrong?” Hector turned around and asked.

“The car

seems to be shaking.” Gerald turned his head and looked out of the window.

At this time, his expression suddenly changed. On the ground, the stones were shaking, as if there was an earthquake. The shock absorber of the hover car worked well, so they didn’t feel the shaking too much.

Hector’s expression changed drastically. “Damn!”

After that, Gerald and the others looked into the distance through the window. A black line suddenly appeared far away.

The black line was rapidly approaching them.

Like a black tide, it rapidly headed in the direction of Gerald and the others.

In the sky were many birds. They shut out the sun and headed straight for Rime City.

The beast attack... is coming.” Hector’s expression changed drastically as he quickly turned the car around.

Chapter 845 The Tightly Closed Gate

The ground was shaking wildly. In the car, all people’s pupils contracted slightly!

The beast attack was terrifying. It was so terrifying that such a powerful force like the Pierce family could only seal Rime City with hundreds of millions of people.

The beast attack was a kind of natural disaster. No one could do anything about it.

Outside Rime City, countless corpses were still on the ground. They were not to be collected until the beast attack ended. Therefore, before that, these people would be exposed outside.

Only after the beast attack ended would those bodies be cleaned.

In such a large-scale beast attack, Gerald and his team were like a small boat on the sea.

This was the first time Gerald had seen a beast attack. At this moment, he only felt his entire body go numb!

In the sky, birds covered the sky. Some birds were as large as a building. Gerald had never seen such a huge creature.

As for the ground, it was constantly shaking. The black skyline in the distance was like a tide, quickly spreading toward them.

Hector felt his scalp go numb. Cold sweat appeared on his forehead in an instant. He dashed to the driver's seat, turned the car around, and drove in the direction of Rime City!

In Rime City, Benson and Lexie were walking back. Lexie looked so reluctant.

Benson looked at Lexie and said with a faint smile, "Lexie, look at you. Do you have a crush on one of them? You can save it if you are thinking about Gerald. He is with Dr. Manning, and he must love his wife. Triston is a nice guy. Although he is careless, he is rather brave. He gave me a scare when he killed dozens of people with a single shot."

"Bah, don't talk nonsense. I just don't want them to leave." Lexie said hesitantly, "I don't know when we'll meet again. Maybe... it will never happen again."

"Didn't your family have a blood feud with the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix? Previously, my family didn't want to get involved, but now that I was almost killed by their people, my family will not sit idly by. When the time comes, I will tell my family that I will cooperate with you and go to the City of Phoenix. And we can..." Benson said.

At this point, his expression suddenly changed.

So did Lexie and Laylah!

The ground of Rime City began to shake, and the windows made a loud noise.

"Shit!" Laylah's expression changed. "The beast attack is coming. Gerald and the others... just left the city.

Damn it!"

Before she could finish her words, Benson had already turned around and rushed toward the city gate like an arrow leaving the bow.

At the same time, he dialed Gerald's phone. The moment Gerald connected, Benson roared, "Gerald, the beast attack is coming. Come back quickly. I will leave the city gate open the door for you guys. Hurry!"

"We are on the way back." Gerald hurriedly said.

Benson's speed was fast. He rushed up to the city tower of Rime City. At this time, the city tower was on guard. Countless weapons, including cannons, had covered the city wall. These cannons were all aimed at the sky. Obviously, these weapons were used to deal with the birds.

The person in charge of this city gate was a City Defender at the level of Flame Decay.

Benson knew him. He rushed up and said, "My friends who just left the city are coming back. Please open the city gate!"

He did not hang off the phone, and Benson's conversation reached Gerald's ears.

"Mr. Benson, we can't open the gate. It will take a certain amount of time to open and close it. If the beast attack arrives and makes its way into Rime City, the city will be finished." The City Defender said.

"Gerald, how far are you from the beast attack?" Benson asked.

Hector quickly said, "We came as soon as we found the beast attack. Now we are almost at the city gate."

Gerald and the others had left for a very short time. They turned around as soon as they found it, so they were close to the city gate.

"They have arrived." Benson said, "There is enough time. Believe me; there is enough time. Please open the gate for them."

The Flame Decayer frowned.

At this moment, a burst of sinister laughter sounded. "I'll not open the city gate. Once we lose the gate, the consequences will be unimaginable."

"Rowan, I don't need your opinion here." Benson scolded.

"Anyway, I am the deputy commander of the city gate. I declare that everyone can't open it. I can't gamble with so many people in the city!" Rowan said with a sinister smile.

At the same time, he approached Benson and said, "Moreover, to be honest, I want them to die. If you don't accept it, challenge me!"

In the car, Gerald and the others heard Rowan's words.

Benson roared angrily, "Rowan, you bastard!"

"Benson, calm down." Gerald's voice resounded, "We have to hang up. Since we can't come back, we have to try another way.”

“Gerald!” Benson gritted his teeth.

At this time, Gerald slowly let out a breath and said, “Do you remember the way we saved those children that day? There is a cellar there, maybe...”

“I don’t know if I can make it!” Hector turned the car around again.

He pushed the car’s speed to the extreme, and like an arrow leaving the bow, he drove away from Rime City and sped in the direction of the beast attack.

“No, we don’t have enough time. It will take at least ten minutes to reach the town here. The beast attack is too close!” Hector said.

“Can we fight our way there?” Gerald asked.

Hector muttered, “I have no idea. I have never faced a beast attack. I don’t know if we can do it.” Hector said, “However, according to the records, the first wave of beast attack is those that are not very powerful, but I am not sure if we can break through them!”

“Triston, Carolyn, let’s go to the car roof and fight a path for the car!” Gerald slowly let out a breath and said, “Hector, remember to tell us the direction!”

There was nothing he could do now. Under the beast attack, he did not think that they could handle the fierce beasts that came later. There would be too many of them, densely packed. And many of them were at the level of Flame Decay. They only had a chance of survival if they could make it to the cellar in the village.

Triston and Carolyn nodded. Triston grabbed the purple spear and flipped over from the window to the roof.

Following him, Gerald and Carolyn quickly stood at the top of the car.

The car was leaving the city and sped forward.

Lexie and Laylah also rushed over at this time. They heard Rowan’s words and looked at Gerald and the others who were far away. Laylah was so anxious that tears were about to fall.

Looking at Benson’s flustered face, Rowan revealed a satisfied expression.

He was not on good terms with Benson. As long as Benson was unhappy, he was pleased.

“Rowan, you are finished!” Benson’s expression was extremely ugly.

“Is that so? I want to see how I will be finished.” Rowan said, “Look at you now. It really gives me pleasure.”

“Do you know who they are?” Benson said with a gloomy face, “They... are from the Eight Forces!”

“You are finished, and so are we. If anything happens to them, the entire Pierce family... can go to hell with them!” Benson said.

Rowan’s expression trembled. Looking at Benson’s extremely serious tone, his heart could not help but feel slightly cold. He subconsciously asked, “Really?”

Benson did not answer. He turned around and walked towards the city!

At this time, the city was in a panic. People began to appear one after another. They gathered towards the edge of the city. The people with high status went up the city wall, while the people with low status waited below with weapons in their hands.

They hoped that the city wall could withstand the beast attack.

If they couldn’t withstand it, they would have to kill their way out and fight these wild beasts to the death!

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

One after another, light bullets shot into the sky. When these light bullets hit the birds in the sky, they created explosions, stopping the birds from approaching Rime City!

And in the wilderness far away, Gerald stood on the roof of the car, holding a saber and a sword!

With the high speed of the car, his hair was blown up. Three people were standing on the roof of the car. Gerald’s gaze was grave as he looked at the oncoming beasts. He roared, “It’s coming!”

Chapter 846 Dragon and Phoenix Shadows

The spear on Triston’s wrist suddenly shook.

Looking at the beasts rushing from afar, Triston roared angrily, “Fuck you!”

In the car, Valery stood at the window. Claude felt helpless.

The two could only use their Vital Energy to stop the beasts that were left alone. They hadn’t reached the level of Flame Decay, so they couldn’t play a big role. In particular, Claude’s sniper rifle was useless in this situation.

What was worse, Claude could not drive, so he was rather helpless.

Claude wished he could drive and help Hector, but the cars in this world were somewhat different from those on Earth. He could not drive them.

On the roof of the car, Gerald narrowed his eyes as he looked ahead.

Many black horns appeared. They looked a bit similar to wolves in size, but their fur was a bit hard, and their speed was extremely fast.

There were a lot of them, and they began to attack Rime City.

Suddenly, they saw the car coming from Rime City and the people in it.

Squeak. Squeak. Squeak.

Squeaks sounded. The next second, countless wolves jumped up and pounced on Gerald and his group.

“Attack!”

Gerald roared. The magma and wind attributes were released from his body. The wind howled and blocked the creatures that pounced on him.

At the same time, the ancient bronze sword circled in the air and rushed forward to kill the beasts.

Boom!

Green mist covered Triston’s body. His long spear stabbed forward, and the beasts that were trapped in his Vital Energy instantly became weak and fell to their knees.

Gerald’s and Carolyn’s magma and flames rushed over and shattered the bodies of the beasts.

These beasts were as strong as intermediate-level warriors. They were not very strong and would not cause too much trouble. However, there were too many of them. Gerald had been surrounded by them.

Gerald’s heart sank. Countless beasts were charging toward them like mad.

The beasts could not pose any threat to them. However, Gerald knew that this was only the beginning.

Stronger beasts would come soon

They had to reach the cellar and hide before stronger beasts came.

Otherwise, no matter how powerful they were, they would soon be exhausted.

The car was moving forward rapidly.

“Oh no!”

Suddenly, some creatures noticed them. Gerald looked up at the sky in shock.

In the sky, huge birds appeared. They flew downward and pounced on Gerald and his group.

“They’ve reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. How can there be so many of them?” Gerald was shocked.

In the sky, the birds were densely packed, much stronger than those Gerald and his group met on their way to

Rime City

“Triston, continue to deal with the beasts around. I will help you. Carolyn, let’s deal with the birds in the sky,”

Gerald roared.

The loud noise drowned their voices. Gerald roared to catch Carolyn’s attention.

Carolyn nodded. She suddenly shouted, “Death Storm!”

“Death Storm!”

Triston also used the Death Storm.

The Death Storm would work for about fifteen minutes, the same as the time when the car went at full speed. Gerald and his group had to withstand the attacks during this period.

In the sky, there were many birds. Gerald and his group could feel that the beasts around had become stronger.

“Can you resist them?” Hector shouted.

Concentrate on driving! Gerald roared. He then looked up at the sky and continued, “Skyward Strike!*

Vital Energy surged from Gerald’s body.

“Phoenix Strike!” Carolyn also roared.

Carolyn had inherited the phoenix bone and marrow. In that chest, there were also some combat skills of Lady Phoenix from ancient times.

At that moment, two shadows suddenly appeared in the sky.

They were Gerald’s dragon and Carolyn’s phoenix.

This was the first time that Gerald and Carolyn had used the shadow attack after reaching the level of Flame Decay. The dragon and phoenix shadows intertwined as if they had fused together.

Overwhelming flames, magma, and gale rolled upward.

The birds were instantly killed and fell from the sky.

“Something is wrong!”

Triston suddenly said, "Why don't these beasts attack us?"

Gerald looked around. After the two shadows appeared, the beasts around them cleared a passage for their car.

"What's going on?" Carolyn was confused.

Carolyn looked up at the sky. The birds that pounced toward them earlier stopped in their tracks and flew into the air.

"Are they scared?" Triston asked suspiciously.

Gerald shook his head. "That's impossible. They are not afraid of death. We killed so many just now, but they still rushed towards us.

"Anyway, it is a good thing. I hope that we can reach the town and go to the cellar before they pounce on us again, Gerald said with a sigh of relief.

Surprisingly, no other beasts appeared along the way. After more than ten minutes, Gerald and his group arrived at the town smoothly.

Gerald could feel how terrifying the beasts of this world were. They were as huge as houses. Judging from their auras, they had reached the level of Flame Decay. Gerald figured that there were more than a hundred of them.

This meant that among these beasts, at least more than a hundred of them were at the level of Flame Decay.

Gerald did not dare to count how many beasts at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay there were.

It was terrifying!

Gerald was certain that the whole Earth couldn't resist a single beast attack.

Moreover, numberless beasts were running toward them from behind. It seemed as if they were going to devour the entire city.

"Over here!" Hector parked the car in the town. He took a breath and pointed in a direction.

Gerald looked at that place. Under the influence of the air attribute, he felt that there was air over there.

There should be a cellar underground.

Gerald did not hesitate and quickly ran in that direction.

After Gerald and his group arrived in the town, the beasts stopped their pursuit and made a detour.

However, Gerald and his group did not dare to take the risk. They quickly ran down the cellar.

After entering the cellar and covering the lid, the group heaved a long sigh of relief.

Carolyn and Triston felt pain. They began to suffer the side effects of the Death Storm.

Carolyn and Triston were different from Gerald. Gerald would only be weak after using the Death Storm. Although Carolyn and Triston had reached the level of Flame Decay, the Death Storm might kill them.

Valery wasted no time in treating Carolyn and Triston.

Chapter 847 Here You Are

In the dark cellar, Gerald and his group sat down. He looked around and found that it was well equipped.

The cellars of the two worlds were completely different.

This cellar was more like a basement.

Hector looked around and found a switch somewhere. He pressed it and the cellar was lit.

“There is actually electricity!” Gerald was surprised.

Hector sat down and said, “All the energy in this world comes from energy stones. As long as there are energy stones, and the structure of the house is not damaged, electricity can be used.”

“Was it the same in the cave in the Arctic?” Gerald asked.

Hector nodded. “Yes.”

Gerald heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he looked at Valery and asked, “How are they?”

“They...” Valery said suspiciously. “Like you, their bodies mutate and can resist the Death Storm this time.”

Triston felt weak all over. He said with a chuckle, “As I said, you should use it more often. Once your bodies get used to it, it will be fine.”

Valery frowned and said, “No, you can’t use it unless necessary, or you’ll run out of energy.”

Gerald and Triston cleared their throats and did not say anything.

“We are safe for now,” Carolyn said. “I will rest for a while.”

“Why did they suddenly stop attacking us?” Gerald sat on the sofa and frowned.

Hector thought for a moment and said, "I think that it has something to do with your Dragon Bone and Phoenix Bone. After you summoned the shadows, they stopped their attack."

Gerald felt that Hector was right. Then, he thought of something and said, "The beasts attack orderly. Are those at the level of Flame Decay smart enough to command the others?"

Hector shook his head and said, "It's impossible. They are beasts because they have no wisdom and act instinctively. I don't know how they attack, but I learn from some videos that they attack in an orderly manner like a marching army."

"Why do they attack human cities?" Gerald asked.

"I don't know either." Hector shook his head. "Actually, I haven't lived in this world for long. I've been here for only about thirty years. I spent most of my time in prison. After that, I ran for my life. I spent more time on Earth."

Gerald thought about it and nodded in agreement.

Gerald didn't ask any more questions.

Although the cellar was soundproofed, there were tremors above and underground because the beasts were still attacking. From time to time, there were sounds of explosions in the sky.

This seemed to be a decisive battle between humans and beasts.

"I hope that this beast attack can end quickly so that we can leave this place," Gerald said.

Gerald did not want to stay in Rime City for too long. The purpose of their trip was to weaken the strength of the Four Ancient Families and cause trouble in the City of Phoenix to keep the Four Ancient Families busy.

This was their real purpose.

Gerald hid in the cellar and did not know what happened outside. However, in the sky, the sounds of explosions never stopped. It was obvious that people in Rime City were constantly shooting at the sky.

Gerald did not know what happened in Rime City. However, the area around them became much quieter after some tremors.

After about six hours, Gerald had almost recovered. Carolyn and Triston were still a little weak. They needed some more time to change completely.

"It becomes much quieter." Gerald frowned. "Why don't we go out?"

Hector thought for a moment and said, "I'll go with you. If there are no beasts around, we can leave by the hover car."

Gerald turned to look at Valery and Claude. "Take good care of Triston and Carolyn."

“Okay “Valery nodded. “You have to be careful.”

Gerald nodded. Then, he and Hector climbed out of the cellar. The smell of blood was very strong in the town

There was dried blood everywhere, making them feel nauseous.

However, there were no beasts around. It was quiet. Gerald and Hector were surprised. They went out to check their car. The car that was parked in the distance was not damaged.

Gerald and Hector carefully climbed to the roof and found that there were many beasts around the town.

They surrounded the town and looked in the direction of Rime City.

In the sky, the birds almost blocked the sunlight.

“What a large-scale beast attack.” Hector and Gerald hid on the roof and looked around carefully.

Gerald’s expression changed slightly as he suddenly looked in a direction.

There was a huge beast. It was on all fours, and there seemed to be flames on its body. It looked a bit like a lion, but it was much larger than a lion.

This beast was emitting a terrifying aura, which was stronger than what Hector had released before. This meant that this lion was at least at the supreme level.

But this was not what shocked Gerald the most. To his surprise, he saw a white figure on that lion.

That figure seemed to have sensed something. He suddenly turned to look at Gerald.

Gerald hurriedly squatted.

Hector asked, “What’s wrong?”

“I... I saw a figure among the beasts.” Gerald swallowed,

“Where? Why don’t I see it? Your eyes may deceive you.” Hector looked at Gerald in confusion.

Gerald looked in that direction again, but the figure had disappeared.

“Did my eyes deceive me?” Gerald wondered.

If there really was a human figure, the beast attacks in Havotune were most likely controlled by him.

It was hard to imagine.

“The beast attack may last for a longer time. Can Rime City defend itself? If so many beasts break in, the city will be ruined,” Hector said.

“What will happen if the beasts break in?” Gerald asked.

Hector let out a breath and said, “They will have to fight against the beasts. There are many people in the city, and a lot of them are masters. If they can’t defeat the beasts...”

Hector thought for a moment and continued, “Most people will hide among the Pioneers and detonate the nuclear weapons. Then the city will be ruined. The Pioneers can resist firearms, but others will die.”

Gerald fell silent. This was a bit cruel.

“Let’s go back,” Hector said.

Gerald and Hector carefully returned to the cellar and covered a lid.

“How is it?” Valery asked.

“I’m afraid we can’t leave now,” Gerald smiled bitterly. “There are beasts everywhere.”

“We have to wait.” Hector nodded. “At the very least, we are safe now.”

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Suddenly, some bangs rang out above the cellar.

Gerald’s heart beat violently. He looked in the direction of the bangs.

The lid of the cellar suddenly opened.

Then someone looked down from above. She had long silver hair and a delicate face. She grinned and showed her teeth. She said, “Here you are!”

Chapter 848 Only Takes One to Guard a City

At the Ingram’s villa in the City of Phoenix

Anabel sat in the front as she squinted at the screen before her.

The screen was showing the scene of Rime City being attacked by a herd of beasts!

Technology in this world was very advanced. Although communication could not be connected to all parts of the world due to the wild beasts outside the city and the excessive size of the place, images could still be projected by highly-developed satellites.

In fact, Gerald also did not understand why they did not have satellite phones everywhere even with such advanced technology.

Therefore, it was possible to see what these beasts were doing in every corner of the world.

As Anabel watched, she crossed her legs with a smile on her lips.

She was in a good mood. Not long ago, some Flame Decayer of the Four Ancient Families had died in battle

In reality, the Four Ancient Families had been considered powers subsidiary to the Archaic Tribe. The strength of the powers had been reduced. Logically speaking, Anabel should have been worried.

On the contrary, she was extremely happy!

Because she had discovered someone incredible, which was Gerald.

The owner of the Dragon Bone had the strength to kill the Four Ancient Families... Up to now, eight Flame Decayers had already been killed by him..

If Gerald could work for Anabel...

Thinking of all this, she could not help but smile.

However, Anabel found that she had not been able to find Gerald. She did not know where he disappeared to

It was very difficult to find someone in such a large city.

But Anabel was not in a hurry. She believed that Gerald would soon kill again. Sooner or later, as long as Gerald took action, she would have a way to locate him.

Thinking of this, Anabel smiled, turned off the screen, and stood up.

"Ms. Pierce, where are you going?" Seeing Anabel stand up, a servant hurriedly came up and asked.

"I'm going out for a walk," Anabel said calmly.

"Ms. Pierce, it's not safe in the city now. Some fanatics are attacking the people of the Four Ancient Families.

It will be dangerous for you to go out," the servant said hastily.

"I am not afraid," Anabel said indifferently.

"But..." the servant blurted out.

Before the servant could finish his words, Anabel had already walked out of the room

She planned to try her luck and see if she could find Gerald

At the same time, Dwayne stood in front of one of the city walls in Rime City. His expression was extremely gloomy!

The beasts had surrounded the city wall. Some of them leaped high into the air, trying to launch a surprise

attack

On the wall, there were Pioneers everywhere, resisting the attacks of the beasts.

On the other hand, Benson's face was extremely ugly, not only because of the attack.

He was most upset about the news that Benson had just brought.

A few of the higher-ups of the Pierce family stood on the wall, including Neal. He looked at all of this gloatingly.

"I... I didn't know... I didn't know that they came from up there. If I knew, even if I had guts, I wouldn't dare to let them out there to die." Rowan lowered his head, his face full of grievance and worry.

Dwayne looked at the other old man with a very ugly look on his face. The old man frowned and calmly looked at Benson. He asked, "Are you sure they are from up there?"

Dwayne did not answer him. Instead, he said calmly. "Just find another successor for your branch!"

Rowan's expression changed as he heard this, but he did not dare to refute it.

The old man frowned and said, "It is not our turn yet..."

"Just do as t said!" Dwayne raised his head and glanced at him. At that moment, there seemed to be cruelty in his eyes.

The old man did not dare to talk back to him.

Dwayne turned his gaze to the herd of beasts outside.

There seemed to be some strange movements among the beasts. Then, they began to spread to both sides.

"The Unihorned Rhinos are coming!"

After the beast horde in the front dispersed, bigger beasts appeared behind them. They were about 25 feet long and had sharp horns on their heads. Their screams were loud and piercing like sharp blades!

"Inform the men in the sky!" Dwayne said, "Gold Pioneers, come down and block!"

Purple and golden Pioneers were able to fly. Most of them were fighting and resisting the birds in the sky with firearms.

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

However, at this moment, these beasts began to charge forward, using the horns on their heads to ruthlessly smash toward the metal city wall.

A string of rumbling sounds rang out, and the wall seemed to be shaking.

However, Dwayne did not seem to be worried at all. It was impossible for these Unihorned Rhinos to break through the defense of the wall.

His gaze fell on the back of the herd of beasts from afar. There were some huge shadows in those places. Although they were far apart, Dwayne knew that these things were Flame Decay-level beasts. Whether the wall could be broken or not still depended on these big ones.

“Head of the Pierce family, east city wall, east city wall...”

At this time, a voice reached Dwayne’s ears. This was the voice of the City Defenders.

The army was responsible for the east city wall.

“What’s wrong?” Dwayne’s heart sank slightly. Could it be that the east wall had been broken?

“The east city wall... The beasts are falling to the ground one by one!” At this time, the leader of the City Defenders said with a trembling voice, “They seemed to have contracted some sort of illness. They fell to the ground in large groups. The other beasts were a bit scared and had... started to retreat.”

“Huh?” Benson was stunned.

Someone beside him asked, “What happened to the east city wall?”

Benson repeated his words. Benson’s expression changed after he heard him out. “Triston, it must be Triston. Triston told us before that his attribute is to cause very contagious plagues. They came out of the city from the east and were besieged by the beasts. They must have fought with them. His attribute affected the beasts and the plague spread among the animals.”

“You said that his attribute is to cause plagues?” Dwayne asked in shock.

“Yes, what’s wrong?” Benson asked.

Dwayne frowned. He paced back and forth as if he had thought of something. Then, he shook his head and sighed again.

Benson was dumbfounded.

Beside him, Neal also had a look of pity on his face. He saw the astonishment of the few people and explained, “The plague-causing attribute is rather rare, like having Dragon Bones and Phoenix Bones.

Besides...

“If a city possesses a Flame Decayer with this attribute... The city will be prevented from any beast attack.

because he can guard the city alone!” Neal said.

“So it only takes one to guard a city? That guy is really that powerful?” Benson asked in astonishment.

He thought about how Triston was able to kill everyone with just a bullet. He couldn’t help but feel a little dazed.

There were just a few people in this group. There were Phoenix Bones, Dragon Bones, plague, and a sniper....

“That’s right. If he was in this city, the beast attack this time would probably be able to be resolved at an extremely fast speed. However, now it seems that the plague that he spread out is also spread among the beasts,” Neal said, “the beast attack... might soon be over!”

As expected, Triston and Gerald did not know what was happening outside. Triston also did not know that his attribute was so powerful. At this time, they were both shocked to see the silver-haired woman at the entrance of the cellar.

“Found you!” the woman said with a smile. Then, she jumped down and sized up Gerald and the others.

Anabel was wearing a black cloak. She had a very pretty face. She looked to be around thirty years old. charming, and sophisticated.

Of course, this was not important. What was important was that Gerald noticed that there were two words on the right side of the cloak.

“Nether Palace!”

Seeing these two words, Gerald and the others suddenly had chills down their spines.

“I didn’t expect to meet the owner of Dragon Bone and Phoenix Bone!” Anabel smiled at Gerald and the others and said, “I sincerely invite you to join Nether Palace. You have two choices. Either you join, or...”

Speaking of this, she raised her head and smiled, “You die!”

Chapter 849 Ancient and Mysterious

When this woman said this, she had a smile on her face, as if she was joking. But for some reason, Gerald and the others felt a chill in their hearts. He felt that this woman really could kill him.

Gerald never had this kind of feeling before.

Even when he risked his life in a desperate situation and really felt that he was going to die, this kind of feeling didn’t appear.

Before, he was ready to die, and that was completely different from this kind of foreign danger now.

It seemed that at this moment, as long as this woman wanted him to, he would really die.

After Gerald reached the level of Flame Decay, for more than a year, he did not have any sense of crisis. Whatever he did, he felt that everything was under his control.

Although this beast attack was terrifying, Gerald did not have this kind of feeling.

This feeling only lasted for a moment. After a moment, Gerald came back to his senses. He looked at the silver-haired woman in front of him. The aura she exuded was similar to Hector’s. She should also be at the supreme level of Flame Decay, maybe a bit stronger than Hector.

This kind of strength was far from enough to make Gerald feel this kind of death crisis.

Perhaps... Was it because of the two words "Nether Palace"?

The others did not speak, but all of them looked as if they were facing a great enemy.

Gerald slowly let out a breath. After a short moment of astonishment, he regained his calm. He sized up this silver-haired woman, restrained the shock in his heart, and asked with a smile, "Aren't you going to ask where we are from? Maybe we are one of the Eight Forces."

"I won't ask where you come from and where you go to. I only ask if you are willing to join Nether Palace!" the silver-haired woman said as she looked around the hall.

Then, she took out six bottles and placed them on the table. She said calmly, "If you are willing to join, drink this. If you are not willing to join, then you can choose a way to die."

Cool!

Extremely cool!

Gerald did not know where her confidence came from, but since she dared to say this, there must be a reason.

Gerald's heart trembled slightly because the liquid the woman took out seemed to be somewhat similar to the liquid Dr. T drank when he wanted to rope in Gerald!

Could it be that... the Nether Palace had already extended its hands to Earth?

"Before answering you, I have two questions," Gerald said.

"Two questions? You can ask!" The silver haired woman did not seem to be worried at all. She sat down with a smile. Her beautiful long legs were revealed from under the cloak, overlapping together

"Question one, I saw a figure on a beast just now Is that you? Gerald asked.

"That's right. The silver haired woman said indifferently, it's me Gerald's heart skipped a beat. He and Hector looked at each other with shock in their eyes.

In the beast attack, there was a woman standing on top of a beast of the level of Flame Decay That meant

lot

Could it be that this beast attack was caused by Nether Palace? Were they able to control beasts and tame beasts?

On Earth, there were beast tamers. In front of them, lions and tigers were docile and obedient. Perhaps there were also tamers in this world. Was Nether Palace actually made up of many beast tamers?

What was the purpose of the beast attack?

“Was the beast attack initiated by you?” Hector asked almost subconsciously.

Take a guess.” The silver-haired woman smiled and said, “These things are the core of Nether Palace. Only after joining will you be qualified to know.”

Gerald let out a breath and said, “Okay, then I will ask you the second question. You asked us to join Nether Palace, but we know nothing about this organization. Are you not going to tell us? We know nothing. Why should we join?”

The silver-haired woman smiled. She looked at Gerald and said, “First, you will know everything about Nether Palace after you join.”

Gerald frowned. He had originally planned to learn about this organization from this woman.

There were very few things he could confirm now. Nether Palace indeed existed and had been passed down for ages. There were still some people in it now!

It was possible that the beast attack was related to the existence of Nether Palace!

Secondly, he did not understand why Nether Palace had become taboo. The Eight Forces of Havotune Galaxy had jointly avoided talking about it and did not allow anyone to mention it.

Ancient and mysterious!

Just as Gerald frowned, the silver-haired woman said indifferently, “Second, you have no choice. It is still the same situation. You either join us or die!”

She did not notice that while she talked, Gerald’s aura had been restrained to the extreme, and he looked like an ordinary person.

Gerald revealed a smile. He looked at the silver-haired woman and asked, “Isn’t there a third choice?”

“No!” The silver-haired woman said indifferently, “You can drink this now.”

He glanced at the bottles of medicine on the table and said.

“Phew!” Gerald let out a breath and said, “Then... I choose the third one, your life!

The moment he finished speaking, Gerald’s restrained aura instantly erupted. At the same time, with a groan, the Dragon Saber was suddenly unsheathed.

“Unsheathing Slash!” Gerald shouted angrily.

It was impossible for them to join Nether Palace.

Not to mention the grudges between Nether Palace and the ancestors on Earth, just letting Gerald and the others drink this medicine was unacceptable.

Furthermore, the other party had only given them two choices. If they did not join, then... they would have to go against the other party.

Gerald liked to hold the initiative in his hands. Since the other party wanted to kill him, why should he hold back?

Therefore, he restrained his aura and prepared for the Unsheathing Slash.

Vital Energy surged terribly. In an instant, the saber struck out, and the entire cellar collapsed.

The silver-haired woman's expression changed. Her reaction was extremely fast. Her cloak suddenly moved, and the aura of the supreme level of Flame Decay completely erupted from her body!

Boom!

Cracking sounds rang out, and Hector used his Vital Energy to protect Valery and the others. At this moment, the cellar they were in collapsed and was filled with smoke.

A few figures jumped out of the cellar.

Bang!

The silver-haired woman's body was like a cannonball as she continuously retreated, continuously smashing into some buildings. At a certain time, she fiercely smashed into the ground and spat out a mouthful of blood!

Under Gerald's all-out attack, she was severely injured.

However... she did not die. She survived Gerald's attack!

"Hector, add a strike!" Gerald quickly shouted in a low voice.

He had used up all of his Vital Energy just now, and it was too late for him to give another strike.

Hector also understood that even if Gerald didn't ask him to. Hector's body was surrounded by flames as he charged toward the woman.

Buzz!

At this moment, a pair of steel wings suddenly spread out from behind the woman. Then, she soared into the air. Her eyes were fixed on Gerald as if she wanted to remember Gerald's appearance.

"I will remember all of you." The woman's sneer entered Gerald's ears.

Under the vibration of her wings, she flew higher and higher.

“She seems to be a member of the Archaic Tribe.” When Hector saw that there was no hope of chasing, he stopped, and his heart sank slightly.

Yes, Gerald also saw the steel wings. They were almost exactly the same as Anabel’s, and there was a blue symbol like a maple leaf on them.

The Archaic Tribe? Was it Nether Palace?

One of the Eight Forces of Havotune?

Then why would Nether Palace become a taboo in this world and not even be mentioned by others?

Or perhaps, this person was just a member of the Archaic Tribe that Nether Palace had recruited!

Many doubts surged in Gerald’s heart.

But this time, he failed his sudden attack.

He was unable to kill this person from Nether Palace in one blow. In the future, there might be a lot of trouble because of this.

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

At this time, the ground began to tremble again. Hector jumped to the tall building and turned around. “The beasts seem to be retreating.”

Chapter 850 The Beasts Retreat

Hearing Hector’s words, Gerald was stunned for a moment.

The beasts retreated?

The ground was shaking. With the help of Valery and Hector, Gerald and the other two also went up to the tall building.

Triston and Carolyn were still in a weak state. Gerald used the Unsheathing Slash, draining all the Vital Energy in his body, so he was not in a good condition. He could only rely on the help of Valery and Hector

They went to the roof of a building and looked outside. Sure enough, those beasts were retreating, as if they were very afraid!

However, while these beasts retreated, they still avoided the small town Gerald was in.

After the woman left, the beasts suddenly retreated.

Gerald was more convinced that the beast attack was initiated by that woman.

“Nether Palace!”

Gerald muttered.

This organization was ancient and mysterious. It was a taboo, but there was a terrifying power behind it.

It was like a mountain pressing down on Gerald.

The Four Ancient Families had already left Gerald in deep trouble. Now this ancient, mysterious, and powerful organization made Gerald feel as if he couldn't breathe.

In a trance, Gerald even felt a trace of exhaustion. Not only in his body but also in his heart.

The beasts were constantly retreating, and some of the beasts would stop running on the spot.

They watched other companions leave!

Half an hour later, there were only a few beasts left.

Some of them were kneeling on the ground, looking very weak.

Gerald looked around and found that most of these beasts were affected by Triston's attribute-related ability.

His attribute-related ability seemed to be very infectious.

These beasts who felt unwell would stop and let themselves die in this place, rather than following the herd of beasts to retreat into the mountains.

They seemed to know about sacrifice.

Gerald watched all of this coldly. This world seemed to be like this. It was the result of natural selection, whether among these beasts or humans.

In a trance, Gerald really wanted to return to Earth. In that stable world, he could stay with his parents, marry Valery and give birth to a child. He wanted to live a peaceful

On the roof, he leaned against the wall and sat down.

Triston and the others also sat down.

Carolyn said, “I.... want to return to Earth”

When they came to this world, they felt fine at the beginning. They did not have much of a feeling of being brought into this world. They usually lived their own lives and did not communicate much with others, except when they had assassination missions.

Ever since they became Benson's guards, they had experienced too much in the past three days.

Under the beast attack, human lives meant nothing!

And under the beast attack, beast lives also meant nothing!

This feeling was too uncomfortable.

Now the appearance of Nether Palace was like a huge mountain pressing against them.

Hatred supported them in to fight against the Four Ancient Families. They thought that once the Four Ancient Families were settled, everything would be over and they would not need to fight.

Unfortunately, it now seemed that there was still a long way.

They knew nothing about Nether Palace, not their purposes, not anything.

They all missed that peaceful time and wanted to go back and live in peace.

Triston held his spear and leaned against the roof, looking at the sky.

It was already nighttime. The environment of this world was handled well, and one could see the sky full of stars.

“I also want to go back, but we can’t! Someone has to bear this,” Triston said with a smile.

Normally, he looked slovenly, but this time, he said these true words.

Gerald nodded and said, “Yes, someone has to bear this. We have been here for almost a month. There are still five months left until the agreed half-year. Let’s not care about Nether Palace for now. They have their eyes on us, but the world is so big. It will be difficult for them to find us. We will continue to lurk around the City of Phoenix and create trouble for the Four Ancient Families.”

At this point, he smiled and tried to make the atmosphere more relaxed. “Jacob didn’t say that he wanted to go back.”

“That’s because he didn’t see this hell-like world.” Claude swallowed his saliva!

After the beast attack, the surroundings of Rime City looked a little dilapidated.

Before, there were countless human corpses in front of Rime City, and now there were countless corpses of beasts.

Life was really worthless in Havotune.

“Even if he sees it, he probably won’t think of going back. He still intends to start the revolution of this world.” Gerald smiled and said, “Perhaps, he is the most crucial person this time.”

Jacob wanted to provoke class conflicts in this world.

In this world, lower-class people, who made up most of the population, lived worse than animals!

While they were talking, Hector sat there. He did not speak, but looked up at the starry sky, thinking about something.

Claude took out a cigarette. He rummaged in his pocket and said, "The lighter is not here. Come, Watchman No. 2, light a cigarette for me!"

Watchman No. 2 was Carolyn. In fact, it had been a long time since he had called her that.

After reaching the super class, they were not in the serial number system.

Carolyn looked at him speechlessly, but she still flicked her finger. A flame rose from her finger.

Triston originally did not tend to smoke, but when he saw Claude light one, he also wanted one.

"Let's all calm down!" Gerald stood up, stretched, and said, "As the beasts are leaving, we should return to the City of Phoenix. We still have to continue what we need to do. It's our duty."

After a short period of depression, they tried to recover.

Rustle.

At this time, a sound rang out. Gerald looked over and saw that in the distance, a hover car was approaching

them

They had a tacit understanding. All of them restrained and hid their auras.

The hover car soon stopped in the town and several familiar figures jumped out of the car.

Benson, Dwayne, Lexie, Laylah, and... Rowan!

"Gerald Gerald!" After getting out of the car, Benson shouted at the top of his voice, "Are you guys here? You guys must still be alive, right?"

There was a lot of worry in his voice.

After three days of experience, Benson already considered Gerald and the others as his true friends.

When the beasts just started to retreat, Benson had brought his people out.

"Hey!" Carolyn smiled as she looked down. "This world doesn't seem to be so cold-blooded. There are still people who are worth befriending"

Gerald also smiled. Then, he stuck his head out and said cheerfully, "We are still alive. We are here."

When they heard this voice, Benson, Laylah, and Lexie revealed looks of ecstasy. They immediately jumped

As for Dwayne, he heaved a long sigh of relief.

Benson jerked up on the top of the building. He held Gerald and said, "I knew you would be fine."

He looked a little excited, and Lexie and Laylah looked very happy!

Triston opened his arms to the two and said, "I know you guys are very excited. If you want to hold me, then come and do it. I'll let you guys take advantage of me."

"Bah! Hooligan!" Lexie and Laylah said. They ran over to Valery and Carolyn and said, "It's great that you are still fine."

Carolyn smiled and said a few words to the two girls.

At this time, Dwayne carried Rowan and jumped onto the roof. He looked at Gerald and said, "I have heard everything from Benson."

"I have brought you the culprit. You can punish him as you want!" Dwayne said.

When Rowan heard this, his entire body trembled violently. He knelt down to Gerald and the others and said, "I'm sorry, everyone, I'm sorry. It's all my fault..."
