Chapter 861 I Have No Interest in You

Anabel's hover car was quite cool and looked very expensive.

However, it was not that Gerald had never seen such a hover car before. In Benson's garage, there were many such hover cars!

"Sit!" Anabel walked into the hover car and smiled. "What do you want to drink?"

"No need. Get straight down to the business." Gerald sat down and said lightly.

Anabel looked at Gerald with interest and asked with a smile, "It seems that you aren't married yet."

Gerald looked at her inexplicably and said, "It has nothing to do with you whether I am married or not."

Anabel sat down at the side with a chuckle, her slender legs crossed, her fingers lightly tapping on the table beside her. "What do you think of me? Are you interested in being a son-in-law of my family? You can follow me back to the Archaic Tribe and live there!"

Gerald glanced at her!

It had to be said that Anabel was indeed beautiful, but Gerald's attention was all on Valery. He had no feelings for Anabel, but he thought of Triston.

He coughed and said, "I'm sorry, but I have no interest in you. However, I can introduce you to a friend of mine. He is a super genius, 25 years old. No, according to the algorithms of this world, he is probably only around 20 years old, but he's already at the level of Flame Decay. He's sastrong. Encountering the beast attack, he can guard a city by himself. I can match him up to you."

Anabel was stunned. Then, she curled her lips and said, "Other than you, is there such a genius among your friends? If so, he has long been famous throughout the Havotune Galaxy."

After saying that, she shook her head and said, "Well, no. You are not famous in the Havotune Galaxy, either. You are the owner of the Dragon Bone, have attacked the Four Ancient Families time and time again, and have a genius friend. I am more interested in your origin."

Gerald's heart beat violently. He suddenly looked at Anabel, and the killing intent appeared in his eyes again.

"Do you want to attack me again?" Anabel smiled, "Don't worry. I am the only one who knows about this. It is just my guess that you have the Dragon Bone. But now it seems that my guess is correct."

Yes, when Anabel saw the look in Gerald's eyes, she was almost sure that Gerald was the owner of the Dragon Bone.

Anabel was overjoyed, but she maintained a calm expression on her face.

"What do you want to do?" Gerald asked.

Anabel smiled faintly. "If the genius is really a twenty-year-old Flame Decayer as you said, he will be qualified to marry into the Archaic Tribe."

"Just tell me why you are here!" Gerald let out a breath and said, "Don't talk nonsense. Didn't you say you want to cooperate with me? How do we cooperate?"

Anabel tapped the table with her fingers and said, "Come under my command!"

"Huh?" Gerald's eyes flashed, and he said with a faint smile, "Do you think it's possible?"

"There's nothing impossible." Anabel said indifferently, "I don't know what conflict you have with the Four Ancient Families, but you are using assassination tactics, which means that the forces behind you and the people behind you are not enough to confront the Four Ancient Families.

"If you come under my command, when the time is right, I can help you destroy the Four Ancient Families. It will be as simple as stepping on an ant." Anabel said calmly.

Gerald was slightly shocked.

This woman... was so smart!

Yes, Anabel was indeed smart and meticulous. She could guess many of Gerald's actions and thoughts from many details, which shocked Gerald.

At the same time, Gerald felt he would have to be more careful in the future and could not leave any evidence.

Anabel could guess so much based on these details. If the people from the Four Ancient Families knew something, they would also be able to guess a lot.

"How long?" Gerald asked.

"What do you mean by that?" Anabel asked.

"I mean, how long do I need to work for you," Gerald asked again.

Yes, Gerald was a little tempted. If he only worked for Anabel for a period and could get the support of the Archaic Tribe, it might be a good choice to ask the Archaic Tribe to destroy the Four Ancient Families.

"At the very least, three to five years, or at the very most, ten years!" Anabel said, "As long as ... raise my status in the Archaic Tribe and destroy...

"Forget it then." Gerald shook his head and said, "I don't agree."

"Huh?" Anabel was stunned. "Are you not willing?

you help me

“If you work for me, your friends can come with you. You can live on the satellite. There are not so many troubles as here. You don’t have to face the threat of the beast attack. Even...” Anabel looked at Gerald and said, “If you are willing, I can marry you! I am not joking with you.”

Gerald felt her words strange. He curled his lips and said, “I refuse. I don’t think there’s a need for me to marry into your family. What’s more, it takes so long.”

“Do you think you have the confidence to destroy the Four Ancient Families in three to five years?” Anabel looked at Gerald with interest and asked.

Gerald curled his lips and said, “Who knows?”

In this world, strength was the most important. If Gerald reached the supreme level of Flame Decay, everything might change.

Besides, if the people of the Archaic Tribe made a move and learned from the Four Ancient Families that Earth had a large number of Bones of Eternity, the consequences would be unbearable for Earth.

After weighing the pros and cons, Gerald felt it was not a good idea.

Anabel’s expression changed slightly. She had never expected that Gerald would refuse.

Anabel was a member of the Archaic Tribe. She was willing to take the initiative to marry Gerald, but Gerald refused.

Anabel gritted her teeth and said, “You don’t have to be the matrilocal son-in-law. I can even marry you, but you have to wait until I take the power of the Archaic Tribe.”

“Well, you seem to have misunderstood. The main reason is that I am not interested in you, nor am I interested in becoming a member of the Archaic Tribe,” Gerald shook his head and said.

Anabel was stunned once again!

Gerald was not interested in her, nor was he interested in the Archaic Tribe!

Anabel thought herself to be a peerless beauty. On the satellite, in the Archaic Tribe, out of the Eight Forces, countless people coveted her. Yet, this person in front of her said he wasn’t interested in her!

The Archaic Tribe was one of the Eight Forces! Many people wanted to join the Archaic Tribe. Countless families on Havotune had been trying hard to be sheltered by the Archaic Tribe though they couldn’t be the core members. However, Gerald... said that he was not interested!

Anabel saw Gerald was stubborn, and a trace of anger flashed through her heart. She stared at Gerald and said, “Anyway, you have to work for me!”

“Hey!” Gerald was speechless. “How can you force me to collaborate with you?”

Anabel looked at Gerald and said, "I get the goods on you. If you don't work for me, I will announce to the world that you have the Dragon Bone. I will tell the Four Ancient Families that you killed their people."

Gerald frowned deeply, and killing intent began to rise in his heart again.

"Don't think about killing me. Since I dared to call you over, I have a way to protect myself." Anabel said indifferently.

"I'll make a concession!" Anabel said, "You can choose not to be my subordinate, but... you must help me once! As long as you help me this time, I will keep your secret for you."

There was still room for negotiation!

Gerald let out a long breath and said, "Help you with what?"

Chapter 862 Each With Their Own Ulterior Motives

Anabel had a point. It was true that Gerald couldn't kill Anabel now. Also, Anabel had something on Gerald.

So he said through gritting teeth, "Help you with what?"

"And before you say anything, you should know that I'll only help you this once!" Gerald repeated, "If you ever threaten me with this again, I will kill you regardless of the consequences."

Anabel was delighted!

Then she looked at Gerald and said, "I am going to enroll in a trial organized by my tribe, which will take place half a month later. The thing is, I have to form a team to qualify for that, with all the team members under the age of 30 and at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay or something even higher."

A look of something like "tell me about more" flashed across Gerald's eyes.

"What kind of trial?" Gerald asked.

"It's a trial among the eight forces. As long as you're a member of them who is also under 30 and at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay, you can partake." Anabel looked at Gerald and continued, "But you have to tell people that you are my subordinate once you're in. That way, I will be able to get into the Corona Pool and cultivate there for ten days so as to become a Flame Decay level achiever. I mean, if we can make it into the top ten, of course.

"And to repay you, I will take you into the Corona Pool as well. I know you're already a Flame Decay level achiever. But you can still improve your attribute in the Corona Pool. Trust me. You won't regret," Anabel exhaled and said.

Gerald's expression changed slightly. Despite not having heard of the pool, he decided that it would be a good place to cultivate according to what Anabel said.

Since getting to the next level was actually something achievable for him, he thought he might as well take advantage of the pool so as to level up himself.

“Well... Will it be difficult to make it to the top ten?” Gerald asked.

Anabel answered, “With you joining hands, it’s not beyond our reach. And if I am lucky enough to find two more peak Half-Step Flame Decay level achievers as our teammates, I would have more faith!”

Gerald gave a little coughed and said, “What if I get you all the three? That should work, right?”

Anabel looked at Gerald in shock, and then her expression got bright. “You can find two more for me?”

“That’s beside the point. What I am asking is, can we make it to the top ten if I find two more guys for you?”

Gerald said.

Anabel answered, “With three Flame Decay level achievers, we can make it into the top ten. Actually, I think.

we might be able to get first place.”

“Will there be a lot of contenders?” Gerald asked.

Anabel replied, “Only a small minority of people have achieved the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay before they were thirty. It’s the case even in Havotune, where, I assume, there are only over one hundred of them. So, in my opinion, the number of these achievers who will participate, along with their teammates, would add up to around 500 people.”

“And the winners get to cultivate, right?” Gerald asked again.

Anabel looked at Gerald, only to find that Gerald was a little tempted. Therefore, she nodded and continued, “Once you win, you will become my subordinate. That will qualify you for the cultivation you want. And I promise I won’t get in your way of your cultivation. I mean, you being subordinated to me is just nominal!*

Gerald became happy upon hearing that.

He thought, if that’s the case, then maybe I will be able to confront the Four Ancient Families.

Moreover, Carolyn and Triston joining me in that will only serve the interests of the two. I mean, they will for sure become stronger.

And if they decide to bring along Valery, Valery then can become a Flame Decay level achiever as well.

He pondered for a moment and then looked at Anabel. “All right. But I have one condition, which is that you should let me go find the other two participants!”

Her expression changing slightly, Anabel asked, “You can do that?”

Gerald nodded. "I will find one Flame Decay level achiever and one peak Half-Step Flame Decay level achiever, both of which are not yet thirty years old!"

Hearing that, Anabel was ecstatic. But she didn't lose her cool. "Deal. Seven days later, you will have to go.

back with me."

"Go up there?" Gerald asked as he looked up at the sky.

"Yes!" Anabel said calmly.

Gerald hesitated for a moment before nodding in agreement.

He thought, perhaps, I can find some information about the Nether Palace up there.

In fact, he kept wondering whether, by referring to the Archaic Tribe, people actually were talking about the Nether Palace. But then, he decided against the possibility.

He thought Anabel was most likely just a spy in the Archaic Tribe.

Otherwise, the Nether Palace would not stoop so low, being marginalized like that.

Then, Anabel spoke again, with her communication device in her hand, "Give me your number."

Gerald frowned and said, "All right. But just this time! Like I said before, if you ever threaten me with this again, I'll kill you."

Anabel said calmly, "Relax. I'm very tight-lipped. Otherwise, you would have been chased by the Four Ancient Families long before instead of standing here talking with me."

Hearing that, Gerald gave her his number without saying anything more.

Then, Gerald got out of the car. And Anabel followed him out as well.

There was a slight flush on Anabel's cheeks. Anabel was just so excited now.

She was overjoyed at Gerald being willing to help her.

Anabel didn't enjoy a high status in the Archaic Tribe.

And to have a high status, she had to have what it took. But there were precious few Flame Decay level achievers who were under the age of 30 out there, Havotune included.

And without them, there was no way she could make it into the top ten!

And that also meant she would remain to be looked down upon by her tribe.

But with Gerald joining hands with her, things had changed. Now Anabel could raise her hopes of becoming a Flame Decay level achiever.

Meanwhile, Gerald was ecstatic as well, despite not showing his ecstasy.

To Gerald, this was definitely an opportunity since it was not like people up there would know about him. Gerald knew there might be some danger, but he was more than willing to shoot for what he wanted.

If they all became stronger, their chances of dealing with the Four Ancient Families would become much higher.

Each with their own ulterior motives, the two got out of the car.

But what they saw after getting out of the car made their eyebrows furrow.

There was a large group of people gathering at the entrance of Timor's Diner.

Gerald found that Neo had been driven out and that the restaurant was a mess as if someone had ransacked

Inside the restaurant, there was also a group of people as well as the owner, who was being pressed onto the ground by two peremptory-looking guys.

Gerald walked up to Neo and asked with a frown, "What... What's happened?"

Neo sighed, "Those are the City Defenders. As for what exactly happened, it beats me as well. Timor didn't tell me. He just chased me out of the restaurant when I offered to help back then. I think he has provoked the leader of the City Defenders."

Chapter 863 City Defenders

Gerald was stunned for a moment.

He wondered, the leader of City Defenders?

How did the owner of a small restaurant offend the leader of City Defenders?

Gerald had seen the leader of City Defenders on the killer list of Rho Guild. Someone wanted to hire killers to kill him.

His name was Dorian Weaver, the head of City Defenders. In the City of Phoenix, he was ranked eighth at the level of Flame Decay!

City Defenders was in an awkward position in such a city. In both the City of Phoenix and Rime City, City Defender was more like a decoration. They could not shake the status of the big families in these cities.

But no matter what, Dorian and City Defenders were undoubtedly second only to the Four Ancient Families. Gerald could not figure out why a small restaurant owner would provoke such a person.

Gerald frowned, thinking about whether to help or not!

If he made a move, it was very likely that he would provoke City Defenders.

He looked at Neo and found that Neo was frowning and his face was full of worry.

Neo was his childhood friend and his best friend.

At the same time, in the restaurant, angry roars and curses didn't stop.

Gerald listened outside for a while, and he roughly understood the ins and outs of the matter.

Previously, the leader of City Defenders, Dorian, heard that the dishes of this restaurant were quite good, so he came over to have a meal.

Dorian also opened a restaurant in the City of Phoenix, so he wanted to invite Timor to his restaurant as the head chef, but Timor refused.

Originally, it was not a serious problem. However, for some reason, Dorian's son heard about this matter and learned that a small restaurant chef refused his father. He was very angry and brought people to cause trouble every three days.

Once, Timor could not bear it and fought back. Therefore, Dorian's son was beaten up.

This matter infuriated Dorian. In addition, Timor had previously rejected him. Because of these two conflicts, Dorian asked City Defenders to destroy the restaurant.

Inside the restaurant, City Defenders kicked Timor to the ground, stepped on his chest, and said, "You refused

Mr. Weaver, and you even beat his son. How dare you? Are you crazy?"

Timor gritted his teeth and said, "Is that all you can do?"

"I give you two choices now. Either you work at Mr. Weaver's restaurant for ten years, or you die. Let me tell you. Your wife and kids have been taken away by us. You look ordinary, but your wife is so beautiful."

The person who stepped on Timor sneered.

He was at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay!

Timor was so angry that he wanted to resist, but his strength was completely suppressed, and he could not move at all.

"Do you just ignore the law?" Timor growled, "I'll fight you to the death."

Obviously, Timor was a very brave man.

Anabel stood beside Gerald. She looked at the scene coldly, as if she had no intention of fighting.

“Fuck!” Neo cursed, seemingly unable to bear it any longer.

Neo suddenly rushed into the restaurant.

The leader of City Defenders saw Neo rush in. He was surprised and he said, “Who are you?”

Neo smiled and said, “Mr. Marce, I am a nobody, but you can’t force me to do it!”

“Force you?” Sherman looked at Neo with an insincere smile and said, “What if I force you? What can you do? Let me tell you. Either Timor signs a contract or... He would be put into the prison of City Defender!

“As for you!” Sherman glanced at Neo and said, “If you don’t want to die, get out of here right now!”

Timor quickly said, “Hurry up and leave. This is none of your business.”

“What?” When Sherman heard this, his expression changed slightly. “Looks like he’s your friend!”

Then he said to Neo, “You are not allowed to leave now!”

At the same time, he suddenly got up and grabbed Neo, saying, “Now, there is another hostage!”

Right at that moment, a figure suddenly came and grabbed his hand. At the same time, a voice came, “Friend, your actions are not friendly.”

“And who are you?” The City Defender raised his head and said with a slight frown, “Show your face.”

The person who came was naturally Gerald, but at this time, Gerald was wearing a mask and sunglasses. He did not want to expose his identity.

Neo recognized Gerald. He was happy in his heart. He knew that Gerald was at the level of Flame Decay. As long as Gerald made a move, this matter would be solved.

“My identity is not important. I just can bear injustice,” Gerald said indifferently, “Can’t you just let go of this matter for the sake of me?”

As Gerald spoke, a trace of aura floated through his body, and the strength of Flame Decay was shown.

When Sherman saw this, his expression changed slightly. He hurriedly asked, “Are you a member of the Four Ancient Families?”

Gerald shook his head. "No!"

"If you are not, then why should I spare him because of you?" Sherman sneered, "Get lost! Otherwise, you can bear the fury of City Defenders!"

Gerald did not expect that when he took the initiative to reveal the strength of Flame Decay, they did not even care about it.

"It seems that City Defenders of the City of Phoenix are so aggressive!" At the same time, a calm voice sounded from the door, "Has the City of Phoenix been under City Defenders' control?"

As they spoke, Anabel, with snow-white hair, walked into the restaurant.

When they saw Anabel walk into the restaurant...

The expressions of all the City Defenders in the entire restaurant changed drastically.

"She's..." When Sherman saw Anabel walk into the restaurant, he was anxious and hurriedly stood up.

All the others also stood up and saluted, "Superior Envoy!"

Gerald looked at Anabel with interest.

Anabel blinked at him, her face still cold. She looked around at everyone and said lightly, "I already know about the ins and outs of the matter."

"The owner of this restaurant is my friend. I like to come here to eat," Anabel said calmly, "How dare you offend my friend!"

As she said, a powerful aura suddenly burst out from her body.

Sherman was scared. He looked at Timor, who was beaten up terribly on one side and felt a sense of coldness all over his body.

He wondered, a friend of Superior Envoy?

This boss... is a friend of Superior Envoy.

How is this possible?

He looked at Anabel in shock. Then he looked at the cloak on Anabel's back, on which was the symbol of the Archaic Tribe. At that moment, he felt that he would be dead.

Plop!

Sherman suddenly fell to his knees, his entire body almost touching the ground. He immediately said to Timor, "... I'm sorry, Mr. Gero. I didn't know you were a friend of Superior Envoy."

Gerald was speechless on the side.

The hierarchy in this world was so strict that he felt a little speechless!

Anabel just appeared, and with just one sentence, she turned the tables.

Timor got up from the ground. He looked at Sherman, and a trace of ruthlessness appeared on his face.

Timor looked around and found a chair.

Then, he walked to Sherman and lifted the chair.

Suddenly...

He smashed down on Sherman.

Chapter 864 Triston and Shyla

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

Timor was a ruthless man. With Anabel's support, he vented all the anger in his heart.

Gerald was very impressed by Sherman. He did not resist at all and just lay on the ground, motionless

When Gerald saw this, he sighed that the hierarchy was so strict!

Sherman bullied Timor, and Anabel was superior to Sherman, which seemed so natural.

Timor did not dare to kill Sherman. He looked at Gerald, knowing that Anabel was willing to help this time because of Gerald.

Timor did not know what would go on in the future!

However, he also knew that with Anabel's order, no one dared to find his trouble again when he ran this restaurant in the City of Phoenix, including the Four Ancient Families.

Timor scolded, "Scram!"

City Defenders quickly came over to help Sherman up.

At this time, Anabel calmly said, "Go and tell your leader that this matter is not over yet. Timor is not willing to work at his restaurant, and he sent people to harass Timor again and again, which is his fault! I hope he can apologize to Timor!"

"I will definitely... transfer to him." Sherman wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and ran out of the restaurant.

When they left, Timor touched his face and said to Gerald and Anabel, "Thank you... Thank you, Superior Envoy. Thank you, sir."

Gerald smiled and said, "There's no need to thank me. Now... Can you still cook?"

"Yes!" Timor hurriedly said, "It's just some superficial wounds. It will be fine after two days of recuperation. It's not a big deal. What do you want to eat? I will cook for you now."

*Just cook some dishes for me casually. I will pack them up." At this time, Anabel said indifferently.

Gerald nodded and said, "Please make the same dishes for me, and I will also pack them up!"

"I will do it right away!" Timor hurriedly ran to the kitchen!

Next to them, Neo did not know what to say. He was quite curious about Gerald's identity!

He could not figure out why Gerald wanted to be an assassin since Gerald had such a good relationship with Superior Envoy.

Anabel picked up two chairs and looked at Gerald, saying. "Do you owe me another favor?"

Gerald curled his lips and said, "I didn't ask you to help. You offered help on your own."

Anabel chuckled. She was not angry, looked at Gerald, and asked, "Can you really find two people at the level of Flame Decay under the age of thirty?"

"You will know it." Gerald curled his lips and said, "By the way, if I go with you, wearing a mask or something else will be fine, right?"

"You seem to be resistant to the people of the Eight Forces?" Anabel frowned.

"No, I just don't want to provoke them. I can't afford to offend them, so I just want to avoid them." Gerald said.

Anabel looked at Gerald with a smile. Then, she nodded and said, "Take it with you. After I bring you there, the people in the tribe will know that I will have three people under my command to participate in the competition with me. That will be okay. They won't investigate anything. Then you will live in my house. When the competition begins, just follow me."

Gerald nodded and felt relieved.

They chatted casually. After almost an hour, Timor walked to Gerald and Anabel with two big bags of food and handed them over!

Gerald asked, "How much is it?"

"It's for free. I don't want your money. You have helped me so much, and I won't have any trouble in the City of Phoenix in the future. How can I charge you for this meal?" Timor hurriedly said.

Anabel seemed to be used to it. She picked up the food and said, "Then see you."

As she spoke, she looked at Gerald and said, "Do you need me to send you back?"

"No need," Gerald smiled and refused, "I can take a taxi myself."

Neo also looked at Gerald and said, "Gerald, see you next time. Then I will stay and clean the restaurant with Timor."

"Sure. You guys go ahead!" Gerald said, "See you!"

Neo nodded gratefully!

Gerald and Anabel walked out of the restaurant. After watching Anabel get in the car, he stopped a public hover car, told the driver his address, and then went back home!

When he got home, it was already noon.

Gerald entered the room, finding that everyone was sitting on the sofa.

"Did you accept the mission?" Valery looked up at Gerald and asked.

Gerald nodded. "Yes! There are two other things I need to tell you!"

"What?" The others raised their heads and looked at Gerald

"The first thing is that I accepted a mission to assassinate a person at the supreme level of Flame Decay," Gerald said slowly.

"What?" Hector frowned and said, "Gerald. You are too radical I know that your strength is close to the supreme level of Flame Decay, but it's almost impossible for you to kill him"

"I know!" Gerald nodded. "This mission will not be completed by me alone. It will be a cooperative assassination Besides me, there will be Flame Decayers called Shadow and Ms Cat to work with me This mission starts with Ms. Cat, and it aims to Conor from one of the Four Ancient Families

"Conor?" Hector's expression changed.

"You know him?" Gerald asked.

Hector nodded and said, "He was responsible for chasing me a hundred years ago. I didn't expect him to reach the supreme level. Since it's Conor... I will offer help!"

Gerald nodded and said, "Okay, you can hide in the dark. If necessary, you can help us. Then four experts at the supreme level will join. I guess Shadow owns the attribute about a great skill in assassination. In that case... There is a chance to complete the mission!"

"What about the second thing?" Valery asked.

Gerald pondered for a moment and said, "The second thing is that my identity has been exposed."

"What?" This time, everyone stood up.

Claude hurriedly asked, "What happened?"

"That person from the Archaic Tribe called Anabel guessed that I had Dragon Bone and had assassinated many people from the Four Ancient Families. However, she did not make it public." Gerald added, "Then she found me today."

Gerald told them everything that had happened!

After hearing this, Valery pondered for a while and said, "So, you want to take advantage of her to break through to the supreme level of Flame Decay?"

"Yes, and... I told her that the other two would be gathered by me. In my opinion... I will go with Carolyn, Triston, or Valery," Gerald said.

Triston shook his head and said, "I don't want to go. I'd better stay here! I will leave this opportunity to Dr.

Manning. She can try to break through to the level of Flame Decay. If she gets a similar attribute as Keaton, our team will be much safer in the future!"

Claude looked at Triston speechlessly and said, "You just want to stay here for women, right?"

"What?" Gerald asked, "How's your progress with Shyla?"

"I will stay to deal with the people of the Four Ancient Families," Triston said, "And to stay with Shyla."

The others burst into laughter!

Then, Gerald said, "Then I, Valery, and Carolyn will participate."

After settling these two matters, Gerald brought the packed food to the table and said, "Then let's have a meal first!"

At this time, Triston looked at the bag in surprise and asked, "Did you ... pack it up from Timor's Diner?"

"Do you know about it?" Gerald asked suspiciously.

Triston was embarrassed, replying. "Well, I wanted to build a good relationship with Shyla in the past two days. She mentioned this restaurant two days ago and said that the food in this restaurant was delicious. I went there two days ago, but I was in a long queue. Finally, I didn't buy anything. How did you get it?"

Gerald and the others looked at Triston suspiciously!

"Did you especially queue up to buy food for Shyla?" Carolyn looked at Triston suspiciously and said, "It seems that you've made great progress in pleasing women."

"Are you sure you want to marry Shyla? Are you sure she is not married?" Claude asked.

Triston curled his lips and said, "I've checked it. She is single!"

After that, Triston quickly took out a few dishes and said, "Please enjoy the meal. I'll send some food to Shyla. And I won't come up to eat with you!"

Chapter 865 Back to the Worldly Wonderland

"Triston, you're so crazy," Claude cursed. Then Claude laughed and said, "Let's eat, too!"

Gerald nodded and woke Jacob and Rylee up. As Gerald ate, he also told Valery about the missions at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

Jacob chuckled, "I set up a gang in the game. There live lower-class people. I also subtly impart the thought of equality to them. I plan to set up an offline party in a while and invite some trustworthy people in the City of Phoenix to start underground activities."

"Awesome!" Claude gave him a thumbs-up!

Jacob was indeed very clever. Gerald and the others have never thought about this matter before!

If Jacob could succeed, the City of Phoenix and even the entire Havotune would be doomed into turmoil.

Triston said, "In addition, the Abandoned Land is probably the best place to start it up. There are some super experts in the Abandoned Land. Because of their innate defects, they are unable to leave the Abandoned Land. No matter how strong they are, they can only stay in that place. They can't see any hope."

"Most of these people are not so afraid of death. Many people are even living like walking corpses. At that time, I will give them a little hope. Perhaps this little spark can start a prairie fire!" Jacob smiled slightly.

"Can you mobilize them?" Claude asked suspiciously.

"Don't forget what I did before I entered the Night Watch. I was a salesman. I'm good at stirring up the emotions of others. When the time comes, I will give them a speech and tell them that the king was never born to be a king. Then they must be excited," Jacob said with a smile.

“Why do I feel like you want to do a pyramid sale here?” Carolyn asked.

“It’s almost the same. In short, we have to brainwash them,” Jacob answered and chuckled.

After saying that, Jacob looked at Gerald and said, “By the way, these things will probably cost a lot of money. In the game, if you want to gain people’s trust, you have to spend some money to get equipment for them.”

Gerald nodded. “I’ll give you most of the money in my bank card. Now there is a total of over 3,000,000,000. You can buy something we need, such as the ones we intend to bring back to Earth when we leave. Remember to buy more science and technology books and products.”

Jacob nodded and said, “Okay.”

Gerald was not worried that Jacob would spend the money randomly. Gerald took Jacob’s gold card and transferred the money to Jacob.

When they said all this, Rylee just listened to it!

Jacob has decided to bring Rylee back to Earth.

According to Jacob, he would marry Rylee.

Rylee was beautiful and sensible... Jacob could not find such a good girl on Earth.

When Jacob told them about this, he was even beaten up by Valery and Carolyn.

In the afternoon, Gerald did not go out. Gerald stayed at home to play cards with Valery and the others for the whole afternoon. Around five o’clock in the afternoon, a mechanical voice sounded in Gerald’s ears.

“Ms. Cat is calling. Would you like to answer?”

“Yes,” Gerald said calmly.

The other people all restrained their auras.

Soon, a voice sounded. “Hello!”

“Hey,” Gerald said calmly, “Are we going to do it tonight?”

“If it’s the right time, we can do it,” Ms. Cat smiled and said, “At this time, Conor should be rushing to Worldly Wonderland. You can go to Worldly Wonderland to wait for him.”

“Should I wait outside?” Gerald asked.

“No, you’d better come inside,” Ms. Cat smiled and said, “Conor doesn’t order any Misses Charm. He is usually on the eleventh floor. You can go to the eleventh floor and wait for him.”

Gerald’s expression changed slightly. Gerald nodded and said, “Alright!”

At this moment, Ms. Cat said, "Oh, when you arrive, you can order a girl called Felicia. She listens to me! Felicia will tell you about Conor's room. If there is a chance, we will find a way to complete the assassination."

"To kill him in the Worldly Wonderland?" Gerald frowned and said, "Aren't you worried about being exposed?"

"With Shadow inside, you don't have to mind it," Ms. Cat explained.

Gerald frowned again and said, "So there's only Shadow and me in Worldly Wonderland tonight. Where will you go?"

"I will be there when the time comes. Just be relaxed. You can come to Worldly Wonderland first! I will contact you later!" Ms. Cat said and hung up the phone.

Gerald was a little hesitant!

It was too risky to complete the assassination in Worldly Wonderland, and the enemy has not revealed the specific plan.

"Worldly Wonderland? A girl called Felicia?" Valery looked at Gerald with an obscure smile. "Gerald, it's a good mission!"

Gerald had a chill. Gerald hurriedly said, "Don't misunderstand. This is not an easy mission. I only came to that place to assassinate Conor."

"I didn't misunderstand. You don't have to explain." A faint smile appeared on Valery's face.

Gerald coughed and said, "I just want to let you know."

The people next to Gerald were all smiling. Gerald said, "I should leave now and adjust my state. I'll be facing an enemy at the level of Flame Decay."

Valery looked at Gerald, then muttered, "If you cannot beat him, please remember to leave at once!"

Gerald nodded and said, "All right."

"I'm going to find Hector!" Gerald greeted them and went to the next room to find Hector!

After explaining it to Hector, Gerald, and Hector walked to the underground garage. Hector drove Gerald to Worldly Wonderland.

Hector did not go up with Gerald but sat in the car. After Gerald adjusted his state, he walked into Worldly Wonderland.

At the door of Worldly Wonderland, there was a group of beautiful women. When they saw Gerald coming, they quickly greeted him.

"I'm going to the eleventh floor!" Gerald said.

Soon, a woman came to take Gerald to the 11th floor by elevator. At the same time, the woman asked, "Who do you want to order?"

Gerald thought for a moment and said, "Felicia."

"Oh, you are looking for Felicia. Felicia has only been here for a short time, and she hasn't even received many guests. I didn't expect that her name has already been spread far and wide. Maybe she could be a Miss Charm in the future. At that time, her price will be much higher!" The receptionist said with a smile.

Gerald said, "A friend told me that Felicia is as beautiful as an angel, so I came to see her."

"Let me check it!" the receptionist smiled. As the receptionist held Gerald's arm, Gerald felt an amazing touch on his arm.

Women in the Worldly Wonderland were all charming, including the women in charge of reception.

Gerald blushed with shame. The receptionist asked, "Felicia is still free now. Come with me, please!"

Gerald was quickly brought into a room. This room was not as luxurious as the one on the 12th floor he came to last time, but it was still quite good.

Gerald looked around. Not long after, he heard a knock on the door. Then, a beautiful woman in skimpy clothes came in with a pink cat in her arms.

Chapter 866 Are You Ms. Cat?

On the 11th floor of Worldly Wonderland

Gerald sat in the room and looked at the woman in skimpy clothes in front of him. Gerald was a little surprised.

The woman looked young and was about in her thirties. She looked like an ordinary person. If there was anything strange about her, it was the cat in her arms!

It was strange for a woman in this place to feed a cat

Her skin was quite fair and her appearance was excellent. Most importantly, she had a hot body!

Her legs were slender and her breasts were about to come out of her clothes.

Gerald could only describe them with his poor vocabulary that they were both so white and big!

Because of her skimpy clothes, Gerald couldn't even control himself.

The woman walked into the room. When she saw Gerald's appearance, she was also slightly stunned. She seemed to have said something in a low voice, but Gerald did not hear it!

Gerald also suspected that this woman was Ms. Cat. After all, they were both holding a cat, and their skin was also quite fair.

However, Felicia must learn about martial arts and seemed to be at the top level.

The cat on her body was also different in color. Ms. Cat's pet was black and looked weird.

"Are you Mr. Zero?" Felicia raised her head and looked at Gerald with her beautiful eyes.

Gerald coughed. "You listen to Ms. Cat, right?"

Felicia walked to Gerald and sat down. She placed the cat on her lap. As she put it down, Gerald couldn't help but feel his heart beat faster.

Felicia's body was so hot that Gerald was almost intoxicated with that.

Felicia said, "Conor was in the second room on your left. Can you feel his aura?"

Gerald raised his hand and maintained a certain distance from her. Gerald then said, "I can feel it."

"It's good that you can feel it!" Felicia saw Gerald's appearance and saw Gerald take the initiative to move to the side. Felicia couldn't help but cover her mouth and laugh. "Is this the first time you have come here?"

Speaking of this, Felicia suddenly reached out her fair hand to Gerald's leg. "There's still a lot of time left. Since the night is long, how about we have some fun first?"

Gerald licked his lips.

Nobody could withstand this!

There seemed to be endless shyness on Felicia's face at this time!

Looking at Gerald's appearance, Felicia showed a smile. Her fingers slowly slid on Gerald's calf, and the entire atmosphere changed.

At this time, Gerald found that the cat in Felicia's arms suddenly opened its eyes.

Gerald's heart pounded fiercely. Gerald just felt the killing intent in the cat's eyes.

It was just like the black cat in the hall of Rho Guild.

Gerald's pupils shrank. He instantly stood up and walked away. "Are you Ms. Cat?"

A smile appeared on Felicia's face. "Tsk, you find it. However, I didn't expect you to find my identity so slowly."

Gerald was stunned!

This woman was indeed Ms. Cat.

Gerald looked her up and down, and couldn't lick his lips again.

In the beginning, Gerald did think that she might be Ms. Cat, but at that time, he felt that this woman was only at the top level, and the cat in her arms was also different in color.

In addition, Gerald heard from the receptionist that Felicia has been in this place for several days. Gerald pondered that Ms. Cat was at the level of Flame Deca, so she would not come to this place to receive clients for the sake of assassination.

At this time, Ms. Cat admitted it directly, and Gerald was speechless for a moment.

Gerald coughed and looked at Ms. Cat. "You have sacrificed a lot for this assassination mission!"

Ms. Cat looked at Gerald with a faint smile. She did not explain much, "I did not expect you to be so young.

You should be less than 30 years old, right?"

Gerald did not deny it.

Ms. Cat was slightly surprised. Then she looked up at Gerald and said, "Ah, so you are a genius. Why do you come to Rho Guild and become a killer? Do you want to enrich your experience? What is your background?"

Ms. Cat asked many questions.

Gerald would not answer her. He shook his head and said, "Let's not talk about this for now. We are just cooperating to assassinate Conor. Tell me your specific plan."

Although Gerald did not answer the questions, Ms. Cat was not angry. She did not ask Gerald any more questions. Although Ms. Cat was curious, she knew that the possibility that Gerald could tell her was almost zero.

Ms. Cat smiled and said, "Do you know the attribute of Shadow?"

"I don't know." Gerald shook his head.

Ms. Cat said, "Although Shadow is not ranked high in level S of Rho Guild, everyone knows that he is the most suitable person to do assassination missions. As long as there is a dark place, he can be completely integrated with the dark. Then, he will attack you from the dark!"

Ms. Cat said, "We plan to let Shadow stay in Conor's room and observe him. At the most critical moment, Shadow will give Conor a fatal blow. At that time, Shadow will bring us over. After we complete it, Shadow will send us back!"

Gerald frowned and asked, "Conor is at the level of Flame Decay. Will your plan work out?"

Ms. Cat curled her lips and said, "If we fail to assassinate Conor, then we can retreat. What are you afraid of?"

Gerald was very confident in Shadow's ability.

However, they were in Worldly Wonderland and there was no surveillance. Even if Gerald left with Ms. Cat, it was very difficult to record anything.

Just like the time when Gerald attacked Rafael.

But Gerald was a little worried. What if they couldn't retreat and were caught by Conor?

"Assassins are all living a dangerous life. Are you scared?" Ms. Cat looked at Gerald.

"I'm not afraid. I just feel that we should be more cautious." Gerald shook his head.

"We're in the City of Phoenix, which belongs to the Four Ancient Families. Also, we'll assassinate a Flame Decayer at the supreme level. This is already the best place and time we can complete the mission after consideration. There are no surveillance cameras here. For us, there will not be any images left..." Ms. Cat said as she patted her cat softly.

After that, Ms. Cat reminded Gerald again, "Remember to kill him with one blow!"

Gerald nodded. "I understand!"

Ms. Cat said, "Now, let's wait for news from Shadow!"

Gerald nodded. He could only choose to trust Ms. Cat.

At the same time, Gerald thought that since Shadow hid in Conor's room, he would be watching the sex live!

Chapter 867 Assassination Begins

In the room, after Ms. Cat finished speaking, everyone fell into a moment of awkwardness.

They were all paying attention to Conor's aura, or more accurately, his breathing next door.

They had to admit that Conor was still hale and hearty.

When Gerald came in, he felt that Conor's breathing was a little fast. Even now, Conor still had no intention of stopping. Their hearing was very good, so they could naturally hear the faint moans of the woman in the room.

This process was a little exciting!

Ms. Cat seemed to be used to it. She sat there, holding the cat and waiting calmly.

But Gerald felt more and more tormented!

On the one hand, he could hear that they were having sex. On the other hand, Ms. Cat, the hot and beautiful woman, was dressed in such sexy clothes.

It was hard for Gerald to stand it.

To divert his attention, he coughed and said, "How many cats have you raised? I remember that it was a black cat last time."

"Do you mean Amber?" Ms. Cat smiled and said. "She's an extremely rare Seven-Colored Cat."

"A Seven-Colored Cat?" Gerald was surprised. Then he looked at the cat in shock and said, "Do you mean that this cat can change its color?"

"Of course!" Ms. Cat smiled slightly!

The cat also raised its head and looked at Gerald provocatively. Then, the color of the fur on its body began to change. Soon, its fur turned black, and it was the same as before.

Gerald was speechless. He knew that there were chameleons on Earth, and they could change their colors according to the environment. But this was the first time he had encountered a Seven-Colored Cat.

Of course, this world was fundamentally different from Earth.

Looking at the surprised look on Gerald's face, Ms. Cat smiled and said, "Haven't you heard of the Seven-Colored Cat?"

Gerald shook his head. "I'm not interested in pets or wild animals."

Ms. Cat smiled, "Is that so? Amber is very powerful. She is the key to our assassination!"

As she spoke, she gently stroked the cat's fur. The cat, which had turned black, closed its eyes and revealed a look of enjoyment.

Ms. Cat stopped teasing Gerald. She took the initiative to introduce, "By the way, although the plan has been made, we don't know each other very well. Let me tell you first. My attribute has a little control effect. My attack can paralyze the opponent for a short period. In a few minutes, I can only exert about 70 percent of the strength at the level of Flame Decay. To cooperate with Amber, I can only allow the opponent to exert 50 percent of his strength.

“When the time comes, Shadow will send me and Amber to give Conor the first attack! In the plan, Shadow is responsible for the last kill. This means that you may have to fight with Conor all the time!” Ms. Cat looked at Gerald and said seriously, “Although Conor can only exert 50 percent of his strength, he is still very powerful. Are you confident about the plan?”

This was indeed her plan at the beginning!

She found Gerald because he was recommended by Shadow and Cohn.

However, she was not sure if Gerald could withstand the process, and he even had to force Conor to reveal his flaw!

Ms. Cat thought that... Gerald looked too young.

In front of Cohn, Gerald had always been wearing a mask. Therefore, Cohn and the others had never seen Gerald’s appearance.

“I have... ice attribute. If he only has fifty percent of his strength left, I can do it,” Gerald said.

“That’s good!” Ms. Cat smiled slightly.

Just as they were talking, Gerald’s heart suddenly began to beat fast. He felt that the aura suddenly began to weaken next door.

“Is it over?” Gerald said.

“It seems so. It didn’t expect Conor to last for a long time” Ms. Cat licked her lips. Then, she walked to the side of the room, found a set of clothes, and put them on. In an instant, she looked no different from when she was in Rho Guild Under the mask, only her lips could be seen!

Gerald was dumbfounded!

He thought, since she has hidden her clothes in this room, why doesn’t she take them out earlier? She’s such a show-off!

“What?” Before Gerald could think too much, he suddenly felt that there was something dark on the ground, floating towards them.

“It’s Shadow. Don’t be on guard,” Ms. Cat said.

Gerald nodded. He quickly put the sunglasses and mask on his face, completely covering his appearance.

At that time, the pitch-black shadow extended directly to the feet of Gerald and Ms. Cat. Then, Gerald felt a mass of darkness wrapping around his entire body in an instant.

Soon, he felt as if he was in endless darkness.

His heart started to beat fast because of the darkness. A feeling of panic emerged from the bottom of his heart

He tried his best to restrain his eagerness to split this place apart.

However, his hand was firmly grasped on the hilt of the saber

Because of the assassination, he came with Dragon Saber, and the ancient bronze sword was in Hector's car

It was normal to bring weapons in this world. Even in Worldly Wonderland, there were a lot of people with weapons, but no one dared to cause trouble in Worldly Wonderland.

The darkness lasted for a very short time. In the next moment, everything became normal.

At the same time, Gerald saw that on the bed, a man wearing a pair of pants suddenly opened his eyes. He turned around and looked at Gerald.

"Meow!"

At the front edge of the bed, a dark shadow floated. The next moment, a cat and a figure dressed in a cloak suddenly appeared!

Gerald didn't know who made that sound. However, two terrifying auras were erupting from both the cat and Ms. Cat at this moment, which belonged to the level of Flame Decay.

"Who are you?"

Suddenly, the old man on the bed had a terrifying aura rising from him. In an instant, the bed collapsed.

"Ah!"

The woman on the bed let out a scream, got up, and wanted to run outside the room!

However, she was unable to resist any other collision between Flame Decayers. As a result, she was sent flying, falling heavily to the ground. No one knew if she was still alive!

Conor turned around, trying to attack Ms. Cat with his palm. At this moment, the cat turned black and attacked Conor's leg with its sharp claws!

Bang!

And Ms. Cat took it with her palm.

In terms of absolute strength, Ms. Cat was inferior to Conor. She was sent flying by the palm strike. Gerald.

frowned and quickly caught her.

The cat also flew back quickly!

“I’ll leave it to you. Try your best to let him reveal a flaw!” The moment Ms. Cat was caught by Gerald, she whispered into Gerald’s ear.

Gerald understood. He threw Ms. Cat to the side, and took out his Dragon Saber!

The temperature of the entire room dropped sharply in an instant!

“Who are you? How dare you try to kill me in Worldly Wonderland? You will be dead!” Conor was furious. As he stretched out his one hand, a long sword next to him suddenly flew out and landed in his hand. Then terrifying Vital Energy appeared!

“What?” Gerald’s expression changed slightly!

The strength that Conor showed... belonged to the supreme level of Flame Decay. And Conor was not affected at all.

“How is this possible?” Behind Gerald, Ms. Cat’s expression changed suddenly.

Chapter 868 Shadow Runs Away

At this moment, the aura emitted by Conor was completely at the supreme level of Flame Decay, not weakened a bit.

Gerald’s expression changed drastically as he unsheathed his Dragon Saber. Gerald stepped forward and slashed!

“Hmph, so it’s a Seven-Colored Cat and an attribute similar to paralysis attribute. Conor sneered. The ice attribute on his body burst out, resisting that of Gerald.

At the same time, Gerald noticed that there was a layer of ice on his right arm and the place scratched by Amber.

Ice attribute prevented the poison from continuing to flow through his body, so the attribute of Ms. Cat had no effect on him at all.

Ms. Cat was shocked and shouted, “Retreat!”

Gerald slashed out with his saber. In Worldly Wonderland, the collision at the level of Flame Decay broke all the glass in this room.

Gerald took a step back and also planned to retreat!

This was Worldly Wonderland, the territory of the Four Ancient Families.

And it was also the City of Phoenix, which was their territory too.

Their plan was to kill Conor in a very short period of time, and then quietly evacuate this place under the lead of the Shadow.

Now that Conor was at the supreme level of Flame Decay, it was too difficult for them to kill him.

Moreover, as time passed, the support of the Four Ancient Families would definitely arrive very quickly.

“Want to run? It’s too late now!” Conor sneered.

Hum!

At this moment, a thick layer of ice appeared on the surrounding windows suddenly.

“Shadow, take us away!” At this moment, Ms. Cat was clearly a little anxious.

Gerald stood beside her, her expression a little grave.

However, at this time, Gerald saw that many shadows on the ground began to retreat continuously. In a very short period of time, the Shadow disappeared. Gerald turned around and saw that a black shadow was running down the building very quickly outside. In an instant, it entered the dark night!

The Shadow ran away!

This guy saw that something was wrong and immediately ran away!

“Damn!” When Ms. Cat saw this scene, her eyes suddenly changed. “He ran away.”

Shadow left Gerald and Ms. Cat and ran away!

“What should we do? What should we do?” Ms. Cat was completely flustered in an instant.

When the change overwhelmed her plan, she was obviously a little helpless.

Gerald’s expression was extremely gloomy. He knew what the Shadow was thinking.

Ms. Cat’s attribute was useless against Conor. If they were held back by Conor, they would face the Four Ancient Families and wouldn’t have any chance!

“Later... take me out of here!” Gerald looked at Ms. Cat, his eyes full of calmness.

Being flustered could not solve any problem.

“Huh?” Ms. Cat looked at Gerald and frowned. She did not understand what Gerald meant.

“Out of here? Do you think you can leave this place?” At this time, Conor stood up. He held a long sword in his hand and said with a smile, “During this period of time, the Four Ancient Families have lost a lot of men at the level of Flame Decay and Half-Step Flame Decay. We thought you didn’t dare take any action, but I didn’t expect you guys to choose me.

“It is a good plan to attack me when I am at my weakest. Seven-Colored Cat and a person with poison attribute first weaken my forces.” Conor smiled and said, “But now? It’s too late! Just die in this place today!”

Speaking of this, he licked his lips and said, “Today, none of you can escape!”

Gerald looked at Ms. Cat again and said, “Forget what you see next!”

“Huh?” Ms. Cat was stunned once again!

But in the next instant, her expression suddenly changed. She saw Gerald’s body suddenly shake, and Vital Energy instantly enveloped the entire room, beginning to clash with Conor’s Vital Energy!

The most important thing was that within this Vital Energy, Ms. Cat got a scary feeling of burning.

On Gerald’s right hand, the ice attribute had now turned into surging lava.

“Dual attributes!” Ms. Cat looked at Gerald in shock.

When one broke through to the level of Flame Decay, he or she would have two attributes. In this world, somebody could do that, but they were extremely rare. They could have two attributes after breaking through the level of Flame Decay. In the entire Havotune Galaxy, most people had only heard of them.

Gerald now revealed his second attribute.

However, this was not the end!

Suddenly, a gust of wind blew in the surroundings.

The wind changed into wind blades and began to howl towards Conor.

The ice on Conor’s palm and legs began to melt at an extremely fast speed.

Gerald knew that it was almost impossible for him to kill an expert at the supreme level of Flame Decay for a short period of time.

He had to borrow the attribute of Ms. Cat. When the ice attribute melted, and the poison entered Conor’s body and started weakening his strength, he would find an opportunity to kill him in one strike!

“Dragon Bone! Conor looked at Gerald in horror and said, “You have Dragon Bone!

“No wonder you killed Rafael and Gael alone. Because you have Dragon Bone. Facing many attributes, we made a mistake in our judgment. We thought it was done by several people at the level of Flame Decay, but it turned out that you did it alone!” Conor stared at Gerald!

At this moment, he felt that his entire body was starting to be numb. The strength of his Vital Energy was constantly weakening!

“Since you know it, you deserve to die!” Gerald said indifferently, “Death is raging!”

His strength increased again, and the Dragon Saber in his hand made a low sound. Gerald was constantly accumulating strength. He was waiting for the moment when Conor’s momentum was the weakest!

Conor’s expression changed wildly. He felt that his Vital Energy was constantly weakening. A trace of panic flashed in his eyes when he looked at Gerald’s momentum close to the supreme level of Flame Decay. At the same time, he turned around and wanted to escape!

But in front of him, numerous wind blades swept over, blocking his way to retreat!

At a certain point in time, Gerald moved. His body suddenly slid over, and he shouted, “Magma Strike!”

This was the most powerful one of the Dragon-Slaying Saber Skills!

Conor was shocked. He knew that it was too late to escape now. He suddenly turned around and said, “I will fight you to the death!”

He exerted all his strength and swung his saber at Gerald.

Boom!

At this moment, an explosive sound rang out from within the Worldly Wonderland.

“Unsheathing Slash!” At the same time, Gerald’s angry roar rang out again.

At this time, there was chaos in Worldly Wonderland. Several guys at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay were in Worldly Wonderland. Nobody made a scene there, and it was the center of the city. Besides, the Four Ancient Families quickly came, so they didn’t send anyone at the level of Flame Decay there.

Those at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay were heading to that place.

At the same time, in the middle of the City of Phoenix, several terrifying auras rose up, rapidly rushing in the direction of Worldly Wonderland.

Chapter 869 Escape

Downstairs, Hector was sitting in the car. He naturally felt the explosion inside Worldly Wonderland. He also guessed that Gerald and the others might have taken action inside.

He did not know the specific plans of Gerald and Ms. Cat, but he did not think it was a good choice to take action in Worldly Wonderland.

Ms. Cat’s plan was very complete, but there was an accident when she practiced it.

“Damn it!” Hector frowned. He planned to get out of the car to help, but the moment he got out of the car, he felt several auras rapidly approaching.

“Fuck, Sauven and the others are here. I’m afraid we will be in trouble this time.” Hector didn’t rush over and stayed in the car.

A room on the eleventh floor of Worldly Wonderland collapsed all the way to the ninth floor. The surrounding rooms were swept by the gale attribute. Under the magma attribute, they were burnt.

In the ruins, a cloud of smoke and dust rose. At a certain point in time, the glass on the ninth floor suddenly exploded, and then a cat’s cry came.

“Meow!”

Immediately after, a cat, a man, and a woman flew out of the shattered glass.

Behind them, there were more than a dozen men chasing after them.

Ms. Cat carried Gerald on her back. At this moment, blood was flowing out of the corner of Gerald’s mouth.

Magma Strike and Unsheathing Slash were quite a heavy burden on his body.

The most important thing was that Conor was still at the supreme level of Flame Decay. When he was fighting with his life on the line, he revealed a terrifying energy and severely injured Gerald.

This was the first time Gerald had suffered such a heavy injury since coming to Havotune!

“How is Conor?” Ms. Cat asked as she fled with Gerald.

“He should be... dead!” Gerald said weakly.

Although Conor was going all out, Gerald felt that he still had the upper hand when he did the last strike, which landed on Conor’s body.

However, before he could look back, he felt more than a dozen men at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay approaching. He didn’t dare to stop and asked Ms. Cat to take him away.

He actually did not know whether Conor died or not. However, he felt that even Conor would find it difficult to survive if hit by Unsheathing Slash.

Of course, he had to ask Cohn’s men to verify the details or tell Anabel to ask about it.

And now, for them, the most important thing was to run!

Ms. Cat could not care about it so much. She directly jumped down from the ninth floor. After landing, she carried Gerald and quickly fled to the edge of the city!

She was also injured.

He was hit by Conor and suffered some internal injuries, but it was not so serious.

“Can you still hold on?” Under the hood of Ms. Cat, Gerald’s face became paler and paler. She felt that Gerald’s aura was constantly weakening.

“For now... I can if I escape safely,” Gerald said.

“I’m afraid it will be a little difficult!” Ms. Cat laughed bitterly as she ran. “There are several guys at the level of Flame Decay approaching, and we can’t get rid of the people behind them.

“If we die here, we won’t be alone on the road to heaven,” Ms. Cat said.

However, Gerald did not answer her. Gerald’s head smashed on her shoulder, and blood flowed down her shoulder skin.

“Are you unconscious?” Ms. Cat said. “You bastard. How can I run if you leave me alone to face these people?”

As she spoke, she sped along a narrow road.

“Stop!”

“You won’t escape from us!”

The angry roar behind continued to resound.

The other auras of the guys at the level of Flame Decay were even closer.

The bitter smile on Ms. Cat’s face grew more obvious.

At this moment, Ms. Cat’s expression changed. “Who?”

She felt that there was a vague voice approaching her.

“Don’t panic. It’s me!” At this moment, Shadow’s voice came out.

Ms. Cat sneered, “You are quite fast.”

Shadow did not answer. However, on the ground, the black shadow kept approaching and wrapped around Gerald and Ms. Cat. In the next moment, the two disappeared.

Behind them, more than a dozen people chasing after them saw Gerald and Ms. Cat suddenly disappear. They were all stunned!

“Where are they?”

“I don’t know!”

“Why did they suddenly disappear?”

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Not long after, a few old men quickly descended. Sauven said with a gloomy expression, "Where are they?"

"I don't know." Seeing Sauven appear, the people stationed in Worldly Wonderland quickly knelt on the ground. One of them hurriedly said, "We chased all the way here, and then the two of them suddenly disappeared."

"Mysteriously disappeared?" Sauven's expression changed slightly as he asked.

"Yes, they disappeared in an instant," that guy hurriedly said.

Sauven's face was extremely gloomy. He checked his surroundings for a while and then sneered, "It's the attribute of Shadow. The Herman family is still here!"

At this time, in Worldly Wonderland, a guy pressed his ear as if he was listening to someone speak. After a while, his expression changed wildly. Then, he hurriedly ran to Sauven and knelt on the ground. "Mr. Guerrero... In Worldly Wonderland... Conor... is in danger..."

"What?" Sauven's expression suddenly changed!

He turned into a blur, instantly disappearing from where he was. The others at the level of Flame Decay also immediately rushed toward Worldly Wonderland.

At this time, there were people from other families who were also rushing towards Worldly Wonderland. In front of Worldly Wonderland, Arvin, Giovanni, and Elton also arrived. At the entrance of Worldly Wonderland, there were more than a dozen people at the level of Flame Decay.

Hector was sitting in a hover car not far away. He had a feeling of fear.

However, he did not leave immediately.

There was also chaos inside Worldly Wonderland. Many people were rushing out. Although there were many experts, Hector restrained his aura, and no one could see him.

At this time, Sauven's figure flashed and appeared at the door.

Elton and the others hurriedly went over and asked, "Have you caught the person who attacked?"

Sauven ignored them. His figure flashed and directly entered Worldly Wonderland. Others at the level of Flame Decay from the Four Ancient Families also hurriedly followed him!

In the next instant, they arrived in a room, where Conor was lying there covered in blood!

He seemed to be dying! Several doctors were there to treat him.

"How is he?" Sauven rushed into the room, and a majestic aura was revealed from his body.

A doctor smiled bitterly, "I... I can't save him."

Sauven's face was extremely gloomy!

He looked at the bed.

Conor's body was almost cut in half. Blood continuously flowed out of his mouth. At the same time, he was muttering something.

"Dragon..."

Dragon..."

Chapter 870 It Causes an Uproar

Conor's face was extremely gloomy

In the Guerrero family, those who were above the level of Flame Decay were the best of the best. Reaching the level of Flame Decay could decide many things. The Four Ancient Families joined hands together because they wanted to get onto and live on the satellite.

And the premise to get onto the satellite was that they had to have a hundred people on the level of Flame

Decay.

The Four Ancient Families had been cultivating their members.

The Bone of Eternity on Earth was their hope.

But now, before they could obtain the Bone of Eternity, eight of them who were on the level of Flame Decay had died.

And this time, they lost someone who had reached the supreme level of Flame Decay!

The supreme level of Flame Decay was the pillar of every family!

The Guerrero family didn't lose anyone until now. What was worse, it was someone on the supreme level killed this time.

Sauven was about to go crazy.

When Elton and the others saw it, their faces darkened as well.

Sauven instantly rushed over to Conor and held his hand, asking, "What did you say? Did they do this to you?"

"Dragon..."

"Dragon..."

Conor tried his best to say something, but no matter how hard he tried, he still couldn't finish a sentence.

“Conor!” Tears welled up in Sauven’s eyes.

Conor and he were peers. When they were young, they once had been at odds because of the inheritance of the Guerrero family. But after Sauven showed his talent, Conor took the initiative to give up and concentrated on assisting Sauven. Soon, they got close to each other and became good friends.

After so many years, they already had each other’s trust and regarded each other as their brothers.

But now, Conor was dying in Sauven’s arms. Sauven was so furious that he was about to go crazy.

Conor stared at Sauven and murmured.

“Dra...

“Dra...

“Dragon...”

However, he didn’t have the strength to finish his words,

Suddenly, his eyes lost focus and his body fell to the ground.

“Conor!”

Sauven roared. The terrifying Vital Energy surged out from his body and instantly exploded all the glass surrounding him.

The City of Phoenix wouldn’t have its peace today.

Downstairs, Hector sat in the room with a faint smile on his lips as he said, “Well... It seems that they failed to catch Gerald. Did he slip away?”

After watching for a while, he followed the hover cars and left Worldly Wonderland.

Conor didn’t get killed without being noticed. He was killed in Worldly Wonderland.

In a place like here, the Four Ancient Families couldn’t cover it even if they tried to.

The news of Conor, who came from the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix, being killed in Worldly Wonderland spread out quickly.

The entire City of Phoenix heard of it overnight.

The strange thing was that this news was getting more and more ridiculous in people’s mouths.

For example, it was said that the Four Ancient Families had been making moves more frequently recently.

and they had already become a target for many people.

It was also said that the Four Ancient Families was going to end its rule over the City of Phoenix soon.

It was also said that...

All sorts of gossip were spreading all over this city.

But it didn't matter to Hector at all. After Hector returned home, he briefly told Valery and the others what happened.

After hearing Hector's story, Valery and the others got nervous instantly.

Although Hector said that Gerald had not been caught by the Four Ancient Families, they were still worried about him.

They kept calling Gerald, but Gerald didn't answer the phone.

They could only wait for news anxiously.

But none of them knew.

Gerald was still in a coma.

At the same time, in the Ingram's villa. Anabel sat on the sofa, and her eyes were full of disbelief.

When Anabel found out that Gerald killed two guys who were on the level of Flame Decay in the Four Ancient Families, she had already been shocked.

It was actually quite difficult to kill a man on the level of Flame Decay under normal circumstances. One who didn't acquire attribute-related ability or enough strength was impossible to kill the other party at all

However, Gerald was able to kill two men who had reached the level of Flame Decay, which shocked Anabel a lot.

So after she saw Gerald, she tried to recruit Gerald. When Gerald refused her, she compromised and offered to cooperate with him, so that Gerald could help her.

But this time, Gerald even finished someone on the supreme level.

From the news of the Four Ancient Families, it is not difficult to tell that someone who did it was related to the magma attribute, the wind attribute, the ice attribute, and also the poison paralysis.

But Gerald didn't have all these attribute-related abilities, and he might cooperate with others who were also on the level of Flame Decay.

No matter what, Gerald still killed a guy who reached the supreme level of Flame Decay.

"Dragon Bone is really as good as I heard." Anabel slowly let out a breath and said, "With such talent and such attributes, if Gerald could work for me, then the Archaic Tribe..."

As she spoke, she shook her head and said, "What a pity."

She had tried to contact Gerald but failed to get through to him no matter how many times she tried.
Gerald

never picked up his phone.

“Did something happen to him?” Anabel frowned.

She did not play an important role in the Archaic Tribe. So she planned to use this trial to gain the attention of the higher-ups of the Archaic Tribe.

And Gerald was the key to her plan.

The more strength Gerald showed now, the better it would be for her plan.

“Hope he will survive.”

Anabel sighed and thought to herself.

Of course, Gerald had no idea what was happening outside.

Three days later, lying somewhere, Gerald slowly opened his eyes.

Meow!

He had just opened his eyes when Gerald heard a cat meow. Then he saw the white wall.

The huge chandelier hung above his head. It was inset with a lot of crystals and was obviously quite expensive.

He felt the Vital Energy was empty inside of him, and he also felt weak all over his body. There was a fierce pain in his chest.

“You are awake!” Suddenly, a sound came from beside him.

Then, the sound of footsteps came closer. Gerald turned around and saw that Ms. Cat was slowly walking towards him. There was a hint of surprise in her eyes as she said, “Mr. Zero, you are younger than I thought. I thought that you had just reached the level of Flame Decay. I didn’t expect that you would be so close to the supreme level. Moreover...

“You have Dragon Bone,” Ms. Cat said and chuckled.

Gerald did not have many worries. Since he was still alive, it meant that Ms. Cat did not intend to kill him and exchange blood with him.

“I hope you can keep it a secret,” Gerald said.

“Well, well.” Ms. Cat pursed her lips and said, “If I were to tell others about it, you wouldn’t be at my place now. By the way, I have to restrain myself so as not to exchange my blood with yours.”

“Is Conor dead?” Gerald asked, “How did we get out?”

“Yep, he is dead, and it also caused an uproar in the city. The Four Ancient Families are searching in the city like crazy. The whole City of Phoenix is blocked now, and no one is allowed to get in or get out,” Ms. Cat said.

“As for us...” Ms. Cat smiled and said, “It was Shadow who saved us.”
