Still Loving You Nonetheless By Snow de Eira Chapter 1441

Ivy raised her head and smiled at Kaylee, "If you don't tell him, he won't feel bad."

Kaylee thought for a while and nodded. "Alright. But if it really does not taste good anymore then don't eat it."

"Okay." Ivy nodded.

After her breakfast, Ivy started to miss Liam, she grabbed Kaylee and said, "Can you bring me to Liam's company to look for Liam?"

"What?" Kaylee was stunned. "You want to go look for Liam? But Liam didn't say you can look for him."

"Liam said I'm the person he loves the most and he wants to see me all day long." Ivy smiled sweetly. "I'm missing him and want to see him very badly."

After spending a lot of time together with Liam, her feelings for him were starting to get deeper. She actually did miss him now.

Kaylee thought for a while and said, "Let me call Mister Liam first."

"Okay, call him," Ivy agreed.

Kaylee picked up the phone and called Liam's number but it could not get through. Ivy saw it and put the phone down. She said, "Let's go to his company."

Kaylee could only agree. Due to what happened to Windy previously, Kaylee reminded her before they left the house. "Miss Landers, you're not allowed to leave my side and run away when we go out. If not, Mister Liam will scold me."

"Don't worry. I won't run away," Ivy said.

With that promise, Kaylee finally brought Ivy out. As the car was on the road, Ivy sat in the back seat and looked at the scenery from the window, she started to see the memories she created together with Liam for the past few days in her mind.

She had to admit that she was really happy being together with Liam. Slowly, she started to have the thought about spending the rest of her life with him.

When the car made a turn, she saw a truck speeding at their car from the left. There was no sign of the truck decreasing its speed or braking.

As the truck sped to their car, Ivy shouted out loud, "Ah—"

Followingly, her body flew and knocked on something. Her consciousness was blurring up too at that moment too...

Today, Meredith needed to visit a client nearby Shelby Group. After visiting the client, she went to Josiah's office. It was rare for Meredith to visit and disturb Josiah when he was working. He was shocked and surprised to see Meredith during working hours.

He asked abruptly, "Mrs. Shelby, you are..."

“I’m here to check on you. Are you afraid?” Meredith purposely raised her brow.

“Are you really here to check on me?” Instead of being scared, Josiah was very happy about it.

If Meredith was really here to check on him, it meant that she cared about him. It was his dream to hope Meredith would be like any normal wife who would care and worry about her husband.

“Yes,” Meredith answered.

“Alright. I’ll bring you around to check.” He brought Meredith to circle around his massive office once and then pulled her into the resting area in his office.

“Where are you bringing me?” Meredith followed in his footsteps and walked inside.

“Under normal situations, don’t people always hide in the resting area?” Josiah pulled her into the resting area and unlocked the door.

“What are you doing?” Suddenly, Meredith had a bad feeling.

Josiah made a welcome gesture. “To check on me. You are welcome to check.”

Meredith crossed her arms in front of her chest, she glanced at him and smiled coldly with her brows raised. “Are you creating an opportunity to let the person leave by bringing me in here?”

“What? What are you thinking of?” Josiah asked.

“Are you denying it?” she purposely used her finger to point at him and questioned him, “Spill it. where did you hide the person?”

“My wife, you misunderstand me.” Josiah stepped forward with a smile and looked at her from behind the door. “I have such a wonderful wife, why should I hide her from anyone?”

“Who knows?”

“Well, if you don’t believe me, you just need to try.”

“Try what?”

“Try to see how hungry and thirsty your husband is.”

Josiah lowered his head and kissed her lips, put his arms around her waist, spun her around and pressed her body against the bed.

Meredith resisted, “Josiah, are you crazy? It’s daytime, and we’re meant to be working.”

“Aren’t you the inspector? I must convince you not to leave.”

“Just kidding you, I’m too lazy to inspect.”

“Huh? What did you say?”

Josiah looked down at her. He was very happy just now because she wanted to inspect him, but now she does not want to anymore?

“I said if you don’t get up again, I’ll call someone.”

“Mrs. Shelby, do you think it’s useful to call someone on me, on my own land?”

Josiah lowered his head and kissed her lips. “Say you love me, and I’ll let you go.”

“What if I don’t say it?”

“Then I’ll...” Josiah did not go on, but replaced his words with actions.

Just when he was about to discipline her, Meredith’s cell phone rang.

Meredith pushed him. “Go away, I want to answer the phone.”

“Don’t pick it up now, wait until it’s over.” Josiah was reluctant to let go of her.

“No, I just told the client that we’ll speak soon.” Meredith pushed him. “Hurry up, pass me my phone.”

Josiah had no choice but to pick up her bag from the ground and hand it to her.

Meredith sat up from the bed, took out her mobile phone and answered it.

An unfamiliar voice came from the other end of the phone, “Hello, do you know Ivy?”

Meredith was stunned for a moment. Thinking of Ivy’s mental state, she immediately replied, “I know, may I ask who you are...”

"I'm calling from the hospital. Miss Ivy had a car accident and I couldn't contact her family, so..."

"What did you say?" Meredith interrupted him anxiously, "Ivy had a car accident? Is it serious?"

"It's very serious, and her family members need to come over. Are you her family member? If not, can you help me get in touch?"

"She has no family now. Please do your best to save her. I'll rush over immediately." Meredith hurriedly walked toward the door of the lounge.

When Josiah heard that Ivy had a car accident, he did not hesitate, and quickly followed her pace.

After Meredith hung up the phone, she said to Josiah, "Ivy had a car accident."

"I heard, I'll go with you."

Josiah dragged her toward the elevator and walked quickly towards the elevator. When she got into the car, Meredith suddenly asked, "Where's Liam? Doesn't he live with her these days?"

"I'm calling him." Josiah held the dialing phone in his hand.

However, he quickly put it down and said, "I can't get through to him."

"How could this be? Try his assistant?"

"I'll try." Josiah dialed Mr. Crawford's number.
