

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1456

When she stepped foot into Ivy's room, Meredith noticed that Ivy had already changed into her clothes.

She was wearing a sky blue knitted dress. And perhaps Ivy had lost some weight, hence the dress was hanging loosely on her body. But Ivy still looked elegant.

"Miss Ivy, you..."

Ivy was standing in the middle of the room as she had her gaze fixed on Meredith and Cooper.

Ivy looked calm and composed as she moved toward the both of them.

"I thought that I would look too insincere if I wore too casually, so I wanted to at least dress up a little." Even though Ivy looked like she was clearly holding back her tears, her eyes were turning red little by little.

Especially when she turned to look at Cooper, her eyes started welling up with tears.

Ivy pulled Cooper into a tight hug, ruffled his hair and said, "Cooper, you must take good care of yourself, okay? "

Cooper nodded gently and patted Ivy's shoulder. "You too."

"Mm." Ivy gave a small squeeze around Cooper before finally letting him go.

"Meredith, is Josiah in the next room?"

"Yes, he is. Would you like to see him?"

"Oh no. I was thinking of letting Cooper stay with him for a while."

"Ah, sure." Meredith then said to Cooper, "Cooper darling, your dad is in the next room, go find him there alright?"

Cooper replied, "Okay, Mommy. I can go there on my own."

"Alright, darling. Go on then."
