

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1473

"Is Cooper back too?"

"Cooper..." Ivy shook her head. "Not this time, but he'll surely visit you next time."

"Really?"

"Yes." Ivy nodded. "You can also visit him when you go back."

"Okay." Then, Siena asked, "Aunt V, is Cooper doing okay?"

"Yes, he's doing exceptionally well these days."

"I bet he's really happy now."

"Yes." Ivy patted Sienna's little head. "On behalf of Cooper, thank you."

Liam stared at Siena and felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity and fondness. Was it because Ivy liked her?

"Alright. Come over and play at my house tonight."

"Okay."

Siena happily ran home.

Ivy watched as Siena left, followed her a few steps, and finally stopped.

"V, are you okay?" Liam looked at her sad expression and asked, "Are you overthinking again?"

"Liam, does Siena really look like me?"

Liam remained quiet. Even though they did look alike, Liam did not dare to tell the truth, what if he said they were alike and Ivy took Siena back? Hence, after thinking about it, he shook his head and answered, "Not really, but she's just as beautiful as you."

"Liam, tell me the truth!"

"Really. V, I'm not lying to you."

Ivy looked at him, eyes reddened in disappointment. In her opinion, he should have just lied to her and said that Siena looked like her.
