

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1476

Ivy almost choked on the watermelon. Liam quickly patted her back and said, "Be careful. Even Siena didn't choke on her watermelon."

After saying that, Liam smiled at Siena and asked, "The person Aunt Ivy likes? Siena, why don't you tell me more?"

"What's there to tell you?" Ivy glared at Liam.

"I'm just curious." Liam glanced at Siena.

"What does Siena know? She's only a child."

Siena looked at Ivy and then at Liam. Soon after, he said, "Cooper said his Mommy likes someone in Jehovah city."

Ivy was helpless.

On the other hand, Liam laughed with great satisfaction and raised Ivy's chin with his hand. "Tell me, is it me?"

Siena pointed to the TV and replied, "My nanny watches many TV shows, so I joined her and learned about it from there." "That's not good. It'll affect your studies."

"Aunt V, I don't watch it every day."

Ivy suddenly thought of something and asked. "By the way, who did you hear it from? Cooper?"

Ivy would still believe it if Siena said it was Suzy, but Cooper?

"Yes." Siena nodded.

"But how did Cooper know? I never told him that." Ivy was surprised. "Let alone talking about this with Cooper, he doesn't communicate with me at all."

"Aunt V, Cooper is brilliant. He knows everything."

"I agree. I heard this from Josiah," Liam nodded and chimed in, " Cooper is young, but he is a genius, and he's really good with the internet."

"I know this, and I found out early that he's a little genius. It's just that...it's surprising that he understands things like feelings."

"What's so surprising? Maybe you often stared at my photos because you missed me, and he saw it."
