

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1484

"If your Mommy doesn't want to move, I can move over here too." Liam entered with his hand in his pocket. He smiled and said to Siena, "Siena, why don't you sleep in my room?"

"Sure." Siena nodded in agreement. She said to Ivy, "Mommy, I'll go to bed then. Good night, Daddy and Mommy."

Ivy was speechless.

Seeing Siena leaving the bedroom, Ivy looked at Liam. "How could you come to my room?"

"V, I can't sleep well alone." Liam walked over to hug her. "I haven't hugged you to sleep in a long time. Can you let me do that tonight?"

"Liam, how old are you? why are you still being coquettish?"

"I'm only thirty." Liam chuckled and kissed her behind her ears. "Mainly because being coquettish works with you. If not, I wouldn't be that childish."

"Who says that it works? It doesn't." Ivy pushed him away. "Why don't you head downstairs to sleep?"

"Isn't Mrs. Shelby downstairs? I'm afraid?"

Liam smiled in satisfaction.

Although it made it hard to bear, he wanted to just ravish the girl in his arms, but he still hugged her, not willing to let her go.

The next day, Ivy got up early to make breakfast for Siena and Liam. Siena has never been that happy before.

She held her Daddy and Mommy's hand on the way to school, she turned around and said to them, "This is the first time I have a Daddy and Mommy send me to school. I'm so happy."

"Is that so? It's great that you're happy," Liam said with a chuckle.

He never thought that her biological parents had never sent her to school before.

"Go to class, then." Ivy said with a smile.

Siena happily entered her classroom.

Ivy looked at Liam and smiled a little. "Let's head back."

"Okay."

They walked together under the sycamore trees. Ivy said, "I'm going to meet the director of the orphanage later."
