Chapter 1181: VIP

Country X was actually an independent island near North Africa. There was only one bridge that connected it with the outside world which allowed cars to pass through. Of course, one could also come in through the water route.

In the earliest years, dating back to the 1960s, a rich man rented this independent African island as his private territory with ten thousand black slaves working for him.

After the liberation of the black slaves, the blacks on the island united, overthrew the rule of the rich slave owners and formed a temporary state of their own. However, as time went by, the island had stationed a number of other forces and established its own temporary political power here.

In other words, Country X was originally a rented land, but for historical reasons, it had formed an independent country. Although the rental fee had not been paid for more than ten years, the local management department had also acquiesced to this fact.

Yang Ming knew all this through Old Buffon's investigation. It could be said that these were already some ancient stories. Nowadays, few people knew these details.

Unless there was a person like General Kars, one could not get in touch with some of the secrets within it.

However, Old Buffon actually found the local management department in Africa to invest in the island where Country X was located! The local management department was naturally delighted with the money sent to his door! This was simply like a free lunch. Although they owned the land of Country X on paper, it was in trusteeship for more than ten years.

Therefore, the local management department had shown great enthusiasm for someone to buy this land! However, when they investigated the Old Buffon's background, they were not delighted!

If it were someone else who wanted to buy this land, they would naturally be happy to sell it. But for Old Buffon, no!

For this piece of land, although the local administration had ownership on paper, they had no sovereignty over it. If it were ordinary people, after they sold it, they could completely shirk any responsibility and let the buyer retrieve the land themselves. As for whether they could retrieve it, it was not their business.

As the person selling you the land, in regards to what is on the land, how can that person be responsible for helping you to expel them? However, Old Buffon was not an ordinary person. Africa was close to Europe. With just some inquiries, one could find out about the identity of Old Buffon. This person was not someone who could be provoked casually.

Therefore, the local management department was somewhat troubled. If they did not sell it, they would lose a fortune in vain. If they sold it, they were afraid that Old Buffon would look for trouble from them.

However, after weighing the pros and cons, the local management department felt that it was necessary to explain the situation to Old Buffon. After all, for a person like Old Buffon with such a status, they really could not afford to offend him.

The person in charge of this matter was Jason, a Caucasian official. When Old Buffon came over, he gave a warm welcome.

Since it was Yang Ming's matter, Old Buffon didn't want others to do it. It would seem that he was not sincere enough, so he personally came over to negotiate this matter.

"Patriarch Old Buffon, hello. If you want to buy land here, we naturally welcome you a lot..." Jason couldn't offend Old Buffon, so his tone was also polite. "However, near this island, there are still many isolated islands. Although they are not as big as Country X, they are still considered not bad. Do you want to pick other islands?"

Old Buffon immediately waved his hand. "No, no! I want Country X, this land. Why? You don't want to sell it?"

"It is not that I don't want to sell... but Mr. Buffon, you may not know much... Country X's land, although it belongs to us on paper, it has been under trusteeship for more than ten years. Hence, even if we signed the agreement, we can't guarantee that you can successfully retrieve Country X's land..." Jason explained.

"Hehe, I see!" Regarding the current situation in Country X, Old Buffon had already gotten news from Yang Ming. Otherwise, what was the use for him to buy Country X's land? Did he have nothing better to do? Was Old Buffon short of property? There was no need to go so far to buy a war-torn island. Was he out of his mind!?

"Yeah, Patriarch Buffon, because of this, I can't scam you, so I have to tell you everything." Jason said, "I'd advise you to buy another island."

"Hehe, you don't need to care about that. When I buy this place, naturally, I have a purpose. Just tell me the price!" Old Buffon shook his head and smiled.

"This..." Jason was a bit dumbfounded. He didn't know Old Buffon's intention. Is he still buying despite the situation?

However, since Old Buffon insisted, and the situation was also explained, then Jason could not be helped. He gave a very low price symbolically since this land did not belong to them. At this moment, this money came for free no matter what. It was a profit in any amount.

As a result, Old Buffon received the permanent use of the Country X land at an extremely low price. At this point, Country X had legal status in the international arena. Although it could not exist completely as a country, it could exist as a private territory.

Old Buffon had already given the legal procedure to Li Qiang. This time, Yang Ming came to Country X and brought the legal procedure.

The minibus slowly entered the territory of Country X. At the border, the heavily guarded soldiers were conducting a detailed investigation of the passing vehicles. However, when they arrived at Yang Ming's vehicle, they saw that Li Qiang was driving. All the soldiers showed a respectful expression suddenly, watching Li Qiang's minibus driving away.

Even though this little detail was not a big deal, it touched the hearts of Zhang Jingyao and Huang Xiaofei! They did not know that these soldiers knew Li Qiang. They felt that the respect of these soldiers was due to the pass in front of the vehicle.

Although the passing vehicles had special passes, the attitude was different from that of Li Qiang's minibus. Other cars could only pass through after verification. Only Li Qiang's vehicle could pass through smoothly.

It was proof that Li Qiang had an outstanding status in Country X. He was also a popular figure. Were those people, who could have a special pass more powerful than normal passes, average?

However, with only that, they still did not think that General Kars would see Yang Ming and Li Qiang in person.

When they saw that there were special passes on all the vehicles in Country X, Li Tianjia and Li Zhichun knew that this pass was not bad*ss. As they entered Country X, detailed inspections and inquiries were also carried out on Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia. Only after learning that they came to invest in gold mines, were they released.

"Tianyu, this pass seems to be on every car?" Li Tianjia frowned without batting an eyelid.

" Ugh ..." Li Tianyu's face turned red after Li Tianjia's comment. Although Li Tianjia's tone was very dull, Li Tianyu felt that Li Tianjia was against him and wanted to make him lose his face in front of his father. "Only people who do business here can have it. Ordinary people can't have it!"

" Oh ..." Li Tianjia nodded.

Li Zhichun also knew that his two sons could still unite in big matters, but they were always fighting over small issues. This was irrelevant, but it was taken up as a matter of derision.

"Well, let us not talk about this. Tianyu, what happened to the iron mine?" Li Zhichun asked.

"I have not seen the top person in charge of the military here. The situation is still tough to say. I think we should visit General Kars first. From a private point of view and a commercial point of view, it must be done." Li Tianyu said with a very knowledgeable look.

" En , that's true." Li Zhichun nodded. " This time, we have to visit General Kars for sure."

Li Zhichun was still supportive of Li Tianyu's point of view, so he agreed on the spot.

"Tianyu, how big is the hope of our bidding this time?" Li Tianjia also threw away his envy of his younger brother and talked about business.

Before, Li Tianjia did not put Li Tianyu's Africa career in his eyes. It was just a small iron mine. Although there were still interests, compared with the family business in Singapore, it was still far worse after all.

However, for the re-bidding this time, the Li Family might get a gold mine or even a diamond mine, and the benefits far exceeded the family's fundamental business. As a result, the father's emphasis on Africa's business was undoubtedly greater than the domestic. Li Tianjia also began to be jealous of Li Tianyu.

Originally, he was able to sit firmly in the position as the Li Family's heir, but at the moment, his position weakened.

"The official open documents said that this time we must compete fairly, but this thing, I think it is an article on paper. Whoever has the connections can get the mines." Li Tianyu had insider analysis. At this point now, he wanted to establish his own authority and image in front of his father.

"En, this is true." Li Zhichun also strongly agreed with Li Tianyu's words. "We are visiting General Kars just to ask about the inside story of this bid. So, I will call General Kars first and contact him. If it is possible, let us visit him in a while!"

Li Tianjia and Li Tianyu nodded in agreement. Li Zhichun picked up the phone and dialed the phone number of General Kars' office. After the call was connected, it was the voice of General Kars' secretary, "Hello, this is the Kars government office."

"Hello, I am Li Zhichun of the Li Family in Singapore. Can I trouble you to transfer the call to General Kars?" Li Zhichun said respectfully.

"General Kars is going to visit a very important guest. He isn't here at the moment. Do you have anything issues?" asked the secretary.

Chapter 1182: Shock and Excitement

"I... nothing. Then I will call again later. When will General Kars come back?" Li Zhichun and General Kars' secretary naturally had nothing to say, so he asked.

"I don't know this either." The secretary was telling the truth. Did she have the right to stipulate the travel time of General Kars?

"Well then, thank you." Li Zhichun hung up the call.

"What's wrong? Father, is General Kars not there?" As Li Zhichun hung up the phone, Li Tianjia asked quickly.

"His secretary said that he went to visit a very important guest..." Li Zhichun shook his head and said, "I don't know who can make General Kars pay so much attention. He even has to visit in person."

"Is it that Yang Ming? Hahaha ..." Li Tianjia made a joke.

" Hahaha , that's so funny!" Li Tianyu also laughed.

But Li Zhichun couldn't laugh. He didn't know why he suddenly felt uncomfortable in his heart.

This was a very depressing feeling. It seemed that something terrible would happen. However, at this point, there was no sign of it. General Kars was just going out. It wasn't a big deal if he couldn't meet him today, but Li Zhichun always felt like something bad was going to happen.

"Father, what's wrong with you?" Li Tianjia also noticed that his father's expression was somewhat wrong.

"Nothing..." Li Zhichun waved his hand. Although he felt awful, it was only a feeling, so he didn't want to say anything that would cause unnecessary panic.

.....

General Kars came early to Li Qiang's station, which was the gold mine of the Huang Family. Every time he saw this gold mine, General Kars regretted it. Why am I so stupid? I didn't touch others' gold mines, but it just happened that I touched Yang Ming's wife's family assets. Isn't this courting death?

Fortunately, Yang Ming didn't pursue his responsibility, but General Kars didn't think that this matter would just be over. Although Yang Ming didn't say anything, his heart still definitely felt unpleasant.

Therefore, when the Huang Family came here as a guest this time, General Kars felt that the time for his performance had arrived. It was not too late to make up for it. As long as this time, he showed the proper attitude, then he believed that Yang Ming wouldn't blame him.

Especially after General Kars learned that Old Buffon had bought the land of Country X from Africa, his heart was in fear and trepidation. Before, it could be said that Yang Ming only conquered the land by force, but now, in the international arena, Yang Ming had actually become the master of this land. This was protected by international law.

In other words, Country X had now become Yang Ming's private land. Yang Ming could exercise all rights on the island. General Kars wanted to continue to be the president of Country X, which was Yang Ming's big butler. How could he not please Yang Ming?

After receiving the call from Li Qiang, General Kars was waiting at the gold mine's entrance with eagerness. Of course, knowing that Yang Ming was coming, in addition to Li Qiang driving to meet Yang Ming, Liu Chao, Wang Peng, Golden Bull, and Lu Xinyang also waited at the entrance of the gold mine with General Kars.

For a time, the top characters of Country X were all gathered together. If a businessman from Country X saw this, he would be shocked. However, they obviously didn't have this opportunity. Since the gold mine had become a temporary base for Li Qiang, he had cordoned off an area. Ordinary citizens couldn't get close.

Even if General Kars came, he had to go through layers of inspection.

As he looked at the familiar road, Huang Xiaofei's mood was inexplicable. The gold mine in front belonged to his family. It was the place that once carried all of his dreams.

Huang Xiaofei was a powerful businessman who also invested in gold mines here. However, this also explained that it was impossible to be successful based solely on hard work. If he wanted to operate in such a place, it wouldn't work without strong contacts and armed forces. Therefore, the following tragedy would only happen because of that.

Although Huang Xiaofei had looked for General Kars several times, there was no result. He had to turn to Li Zhichun of the Li Family in the end, but he was cheated by Li Zhichun eventually.

Thinking of the sad past, Huang Xiaofei had some emotions. This time, he set foot on this land once again, sitting in Yang Ming's vehicle and going to the gold mine that once belonged to him.

Of course, this gold mine would eventually return to the hands of Huang Xiaofei, but Huang Xiaofei was filled with emotion. If there were no Yang Ming, wouldn't the Huang Family be finished this time?

This wasn't impossible. Since that time Li Zhichun cheated on him, the Huang Family had been devastated. Looking at Zhang Jingyao besides him, weren't these all brought by Yang Ming?

At the moment, Zhang Jingyao was also very emotional. He wasn't sure what was the relationship between Yang Ming and General Kars. However, since he had already taken this step, he had no choice. Once he showed his regret, then Yang Ming would definitely kill him.

"Why is the security here so strict?" The closer the minibus approached the gold mine, the more the guard posts, but no soldier went to intercept Li Qiang's vehicle.

When Li Qiang's vehicle passed by, the soldiers raised their guns in salute, watching Li Qiang's minibus go far.

Huang Xiaofei and Zhang Jingyao had this question in their hearts, but they didn't ask. As for Huang Lele, she asked unscrupulously because she was close to Yang Ming.

"They are our people." Yang Ming explained, "They are all Li Qiang's men."

" Oh !" Huang Lele nodded. She was just curious, so she didn't think much.

However, Yang Ming's words made Zhang Jingyao and Huang Xiaofei suddenly stunned, and the way they looked at Li Qiang had changed. From the initial ridicule and disdain, now it had become awe.

Li Qiang was not just a driver!

Perhaps, in front of Yang Ming, he was a driver, but in front of others, he was a powerful man.

Thinking about what Li Qiang said before, it didn't look like he was bragging. However, Huang Xiaofei and Zhang Jingyao didn't believe that General Kars would come to Yang Ming personally.

After all, Yang Ming and General Kars were not in a master-subordinate relationship. Even if Yang Ming had money and social connection, there could only be a private friendship between them.

However, when Huang Xiaofei saw a tall white man standing at the entrance of the gold mine, Huang Xiaofei's body trembled suddenly! He was shocked!

If that person wasn't General Kars, who would he be? Huang Xiaofei had met General Kars before. He had met General Kars more than once because of the gold mine, but he couldn't make any agreement.

General Kars at the time was strong and unreasonable. He wouldn't listen to Huang Xiaofei's explanation at all. He forcibly retrieved the gold mine.

However, at this time, General Kars had a solemn and pious face. It was like a believer waiting for his god to come.

This kind of expression made Huang Xiaofei's heart inevitably trembled a little... Is it true that he came to visit Yang Ming? What is Yang Ming's identity?

Huang Xiaofei was getting more and more confused about his son-in-law... He is still young; his clothes are ordinary, but there seem to be endless secrets with him.

Everything seemed to have a solution in his hand.

Looking at his daughter... Huang Xiaofei was really full of emotions. Huang Lele such a casual girl; did she actually pick such a treasure? Can this work too?

As the vehicle got closer and closer, Huang Xiaofei finally saw it clearly, and it was indeed General Kars! At this moment, Huang Rongtian also saw the appearance of General Kars, and he immediately exclaimed, "Father, it is really General Kars!"

At the time, Huang Rongtian put much effort on the African gold mine. He also came here with his father, Huang Xiaofei, many times to negotiate with the General Kars about the gold mine. However, General Kars was very bad*ss; he simply ignored them.

But now, Huang Rongtian felt that General Kars seemed to be welcoming him! This expression, this stance... made Huang Rongtian look dazzled.

Zhang Jingyao also heard Huang Rongtian's exclamation. Although he didn't know General Kars, the shock in his heart was indescribable after hearing the words of Huang Rongtian.

General Kars really came to welcome us? The words of Yang Ming and Li Qiang are all true. Zhang Jingyao was surprised, and his heart was relieved. He really picked the correct stance this time.

It wasn't wrong to follow Yang Ming. This was the most correct choice he made in his life. Just let that Li Zhichun dumb*ss laugh about it. The more he laughed, the more miserable he will be.

Zhang Jingyao could now foresee the ending of Li Zhichun, father and son.

Familiar with General Kars? Nonsense! Yang Ming is not only familiar; he is even respected by General Kars. That is basically two different concepts!

He believed that if Yang Ming wanted to make a move on Li Zhichun and his son, General Kars would definitely support him. In the face of absolute strength, everything was fake. Zhang Jingyao understood this truth deeply.

Huang Xiaofei and Huang Rongtian looked at each other, they could see the shock and excitement in each other's eyes! Yes, it was excitement! The person in front of them was actually General Kars, the one who once was deemed superior by them.

Now, he was quietly standing there, waiting for Yang Ming's arrival.

The vehicle slowly stopped. Li Qiang jumped from the minibus first. Liu Chao, Wang Peng, Golden Bull, and Lu Xinyang were all strictly trained and disciplined. After Li Qiang got off, they stood straight; they wouldn't do anything without Li Qiang's order.

Chapter 1183: Bidding Rules

General Kars ran over enthusiastically. "Captain Li, Mr. Yang, he..."

Li Qiang did not bother with General Kars, but hurriedly ran to the front of the rear compartment and opened the door. He respectfully said, "Brother Yang, we are here. Kars is here already."

Yang Ming nodded, then pulled Huang Lele's hand and said, "Let's go."

"Mr. Yang!" General Kars saw Yang Ming got off, and he immediately greeted him. His head stayed down as he changed his attitude that was above the others. General Kars also came around to the idea recently. If he wanted to continue to be a great leader, he must first learn to be a follower.

Only by being a good follower, he could be a great leader in front of others.

Especially after knowing that Yang Ming had obtained the legal ownership of the land of Country X, General Kars had no more fantasies. With the armed forces and legal formalities of Yang Ming, even if General Kars were expelled out of Country X, no one would appeal for him.

However, Yang Ming apparently had no interest in managing some of the government affairs in Country X. The work of a big butler fell to General Kars.

"Lele, this is Kars." Yang Ming glanced at General Kars, then he introduced him to Huang Lele.

Huang Lele looked at this man who acted very humble in front of Yang Ming in surprise. In her impression from the conversations between her father and her eldest brother, General Kars should be a fierce and sinister guy. But at the moment, she felt that he was very harmonious.

"Hi, Mrs. Yang." General Kars quickly replied to Huang Lele's diligent nod.

Huang Xiaofei, who was about to get off, saw this scene in front of him, and he almost fell off! Is this person General Kars?

Huang Xiaofei blinked. This shouldn't be fake, right?

Why does he seem like a servant now?

Just as Huang Xiaofei was in his thoughts, General Kars quickly rushed over and supported Huang Xiaofei's arm. Then he said, "Mr. Huang, be careful. The terrain is high, and it is easy to fall when getting off."

Huang Xiaofei was somewhat overwhelmed by the fact that he was supported by General Kars. This kind of different treatment made him slightly uncomfortable. A person who you originally could only look up to suddenly become someone like a follower. No matter who it was, it would be hard for someone to get used to.

“General Kars...” For Huang Xiaofei, even after experiencing strong winds and waves, it was still tough for him to keep calm at this time. After saying these two words with difficulty, he didn’t know what else to say.

“Mr. Huang, I did something wrong in some matters previously. I hope you aren’t bothered by it...” General Kars thought that Huang Xiaofei would bear grudges against him, so he was secretly shocked. He couldn’t care too much about where they were, and he hurriedly explained.

“Don’t say this first. Let’s go in and talk.” Yang Ming frowned. Huang Lele, who was next to him, was very tired after a long journey. Yang Ming was not willing to waste time here.

“Yes...Yes...” General Kars did not know why Yang Ming said this. He thought that Yang Ming was dissatisfied with him, so suddenly he was in fear and trepidation. However, he did not dare to show any doubts.

Zhang Jingyao saw General Kars in fear and trepidation and sighed slightly. It seems that I underestimated Yang Ming. How big is the power of this guy?

The Huang Family has such a son-in-law. It may be a matter of time before they will achieve great success. What’s ridiculous is that Huang Xiaofei is actually in fear and trepidation. It seems that he can’t do anything significant!

Looking at General Kars who was eager to please Yang Ming, Huang Xiaofei had also calmed down. Although he once thought that everything in front of him was an illusion, all of this was actually there.

Huang Xiaofei sighed. It is all true. It seems that I should adapt to this life.

Zhang Jingyao was also no better than Huang Xiaofei, but the shock that he had was not as strong as Huang Xiaofei because Zhang Jingyao himself felt that Yang Ming was a very bad*ss person. So now, he was just a little more bad*ss.

From the conversation between Yang Ming and General Kars, Huang Xiaofei and Zhang Jingyao also noticed something! The real behind-the-scenes decision-maker of this Country X was actually Yang Ming! General Kars was only a big butler that Yang Ming placed in front!

Huang Xiaofei also finally understood why Yang Ming was so fearless and boastful! This land belonged to Yang Ming. Whatever he said would be realized. Even General Kars was just a servant of Yang Ming’s subordinate.

Zhang Jingyao secretly rejoiced for his savvy decision. This time, Li Zhichun and his son will be dead.

Huang Xiaofei also gradually adapted to General Kars’ flattering welcome. In fact, he did not hold grudges against General Kars at all. He didn’t dare to hold previous grudges.

Now, there was no need to hold grudges. Looking at the huge gold mine that was returned to the hands of the Huang Family, Huang Xiaofei was relieved. However, he was somewhat self-deprecating. In the eyes of Yang Ming, this family business may not mean anything at all.

In the presence of Huang Xiaofei and Zhang Jingyao, General Kars and Li Qiang could not say a lot of things openly, so this banquet was only carried out in a happy atmosphere. It did not involve some major events.

After the meal, General Kars left. Yang Ming must be very tired on the first day. Even if he had a lot of things to ask Yang Ming, he could only wait until tomorrow.

In the guest room, Huang Xiaofei touched the contract of the gold mine, but there was still an unreal feeling.

“Father, I didn’t expect Yang Ming to be so powerful. He actually has such a big force!” Huang Rongtian has just recovered from the shock.

“I also didn’t expect it. If I had known earlier, would I still need to beg that Li Zhichun? I not only lost face, but I was also played by him.” Huang Xiaofei laughed at himself self-deprecatingly.

“Don’t worry. Yang Ming said that Li Zhichun and his son would not live for a few days.” Huang Rongjin smiled. Regarding Yang Ming’s character, Huang Rongjin still understood some of it. Yang Ming wouldn’t easily let Li Zhichun and his son go.

Looking at the official documents of the bidding, Li Zhichun was stunned; Li Tianjia was also stunned; Li Tianyu was even more stunned!

“Why do they still want to have underground boxing?” Li Tianjia frowned and said helplessly.

“There is actually such a custom in the place!” Li Tianyu explained with some helplessness, “If there is a conflict between two mine owners, they will usually hold an underground boxing match to determine the outcome of the conflict from the victory of the boxing match.”

“That means, no matter how much money we make if anyone else wants our mine, we will have a match with him. Otherwise, we can only give out the mine?” asked Li Zhichun.

“Theoretically, this is the case.” Li Tianyu nodded.

“Do we have people who can fight?” Li Zhichun asked.

“Yes, but compared with other people, our people are not opponents at all!” Li Tianyu shook his head.

“The armed forces on our side are all only somewhat able-bodied. How are they the opponents of professional underground boxing guys?”

“It seems that we can only find General Kars again to see if there is any other way. If we continue like this, we will not get any benefits!” Li Zhichun was very clear-headed. After listening to Li Tianyu’s words, he knew that they couldn’t bid with the usual way.

Li Zhichun finally got in touch with General Kars. However, General Kars already knew about the grudges between Li Zhichun and Huang Xiaofei. If Yang Ming didn’t instruct him not to take action on Li Zhichun, General Kars would have taken Li Zhichun and the others to be slaves.

At this time, General Kars naturally showed a displeased expression. After listening to Li Zhichun's words, he said coldly, "Fair competition, can't you understand? So many people can pull strings with me; can I care about all of them?" Is that fair?"

Li Zhichun suddenly choked and couldn't speak, but he couldn't help it. If the person didn't want to attain private ends by abusing the public position, you can't beg him to make mistakes, right? General Kars's attitude had made Li Zhichun understand that it was impossible to use the back door.

In fact, the boxing match was nothing more than a competition set to demonstrate who was more powerful. It was understandable that these people who could invest in mining here did not lack money!

Therefore, if the price of the bid were simply increased, it was likely to be endless and climb to a terrifying number. However, in this case, only the Country X government would be benefiting from this; these miners would not gain any benefit.

Therefore, to not spend innocent money and keep the mines at a reasonable price, these could only be solved by force.

General Kars and Li Qiang acquiesced to the existence of such rules. Sometimes, they must also consider the interests of these people. To want others to be willing to invest money, they also must let others earn money. Therefore, since they proposed the bidding method, then they would just implement it accordingly.

When Li Zhichun knew that things could not be changed, he quickly got busy. Li Zhichun was not stupid. This was the only rare opportunity. Even if he hired someone, he should hire someone who could fight. No matter how much it cost, he must deal with the underground boxing first.

Li Zhichun's social relations were actually very extensive. He soon contacted a relative that was part of Muay Thai Association. This person was his distant niece. Although the blood relationship was very weak, there were frequent contacts. This niece seemed to belong to a very powerful organization. When they last met, the niece gave him a business card and told Li Zhichun to call her when something happened.

Initially, when he heard his niece brag about Muay Thai, Li Zhichun still did not believe it. However, at this time, he had no other choice. He could only contact his niece.

"Hello? Is it Li Lexin?" Li Zhichun dialed the phone number on the business card.

Chapter 1184: Disappeared Together

"It's me. Who are you?" Li Lexin's tone was a little vigilant. After all, this phone was her private phone, and not a lot of people knew about it.

"I am Li Zhichun, your distant uncle!" Li Zhichun quickly introduced himself. "Have you forgotten? We met before at the last family meeting."

Li Lexin frowned. She remembered the uncle who developed well in Singapore. Li Lexin was part of the Shadow Ghost Group, an organization that specialized in theft, black boxing and assassination.

Although the boss behind-the-scenes had not cut off the funding for the Shadow Ghost Group, Li Lexin was a woman, after all. Once she became older, she certainly could not participate in black boxing and assassination, so she had always been looking for a way out.

At the family gathering, Li Lexin paid attention to Li Zhichun, the rich man in Singapore. When she grew older after retiring, it was not bad to be a bodyguard for her distant relatives, or she could also find a more relaxing job post. In short, regarding this relatively reliable family relationship, Li Lexin was still very attentive to build a connection.

"It's Uncle!" Li Lexin breathed a sigh of relief and immediately remembered the distant uncle in Singapore. "What's the matter, Uncle?"

"It is like this. There are indeed things for which I need to trouble you." When Li Zhichun noticed the other side was indeed Li Lixin, he was relieved. "I am bidding for a gold mine in Africa. However, according to the rules here, I have to participate in a black boxing match. The winner will get the ownership of the gold mine, so I thought of you. Can you give me a helping hand? Of course, the reward is not a problem."

"Oh?" Li Lexin hesitated. Logically, she usually didn't take this kind of private work. Even if she went for a mission, it was through the organization. But now Li Zhichun's identity was different. Li Lexin deliberately wanted to maintain this connection. Hence, Li Lexin decided to give a helping hand in the end.

Since she had nothing to do now, the Muay Thai competition was put on hold for some reason, and the boss behind-the-scenes did not speak. She could no longer challenge the Song Jiang Industry University.

This made the Song Jiang Industry University's side baffled. How come the Thai Boxing Society from the Thai school disappeared all of a sudden? Were they scared?

In fact, the behind-the-scenes boss also considered the series of recent events and suspended other plans. He tried to implement another plan. According to the young military advisor, they should focus on the key weakness. Once they harvested all Yang Ming's forces and connections in Song Jiang, they could act against Yang Ming!

Otherwise, Yang Ming's current social connection in Song Jiang was too broad. He had an unclear relationship with the underworld, making it difficult for the boss behind-the-scenes to make a move. Only by destroying these forces could he deliver a fatal blow to Yang Ming.

Li Lexin didn't have a mission, and she had nothing to do. Li Zhichun just happened to call, so Li Lexin thought about it. "I will ask my captain first. If there is nothing wrong, then I will give you a helping hand."

"Okay, then please ask for it, and contact me later." Li Zhichun was assured as he replied quickly.

Once he hung up the phone, Li Tianjia and Li Tianyu quickly asked, "How is it, Father? Did we find the right person?"

"En, we found one. It is your distant sister. She is very powerful. She is rumored to be a distinguished player of a Thai boxing association in Thailand!" Li Zhichun nodded and said, "I just called her. She needs to get permission from her captain, but judging from her tone, this matter is most likely settled!"

"That's great!" Li Tianjia said quickly, "I also heard that Muay Thai is very powerful. With this cousin helping, we are going to win for sure!"

"You can't say that, Tianyu. You have to ask around these days; look at the specific rules of boxing. We must know ourselves and know our enemies so that we can emerge victorious in the battle!" Li Zhichun was still a bit sensible. He waved his hands as he instructed.

"Okay, Father. I got it." Li Tianyu nodded.

Li Lexin asked Captain Liu Kaixi to confirm whether the boss would have any commands in the near future. Li Lexin also decided to help Li Zhichun.

Black boxing? Li Lexin was not afraid at all. Before she joined the Shadow Ghost Group, she was a female player in the underground boxing city. She was called the female King Kong and had beaten a macho who was twice as heavy as her. Moreover, she finished it in one shot, so Li Lexin was very famous in the boxing field in Thailand.

Not long after, Li Zhichun received a call from Li Lexin. Li Lexin agreed to help Li Zhichun to play, which made Li Zhichun very happy. He promised any reward on the spot.

However, Li Lexin did not want any rewards, but she hinted indirectly that when she retired, she wanted to work for Li Zhichun's company. Li Zhichun naturally agreed to it. This was a small matter.

On the other hand, the results of Li Tianyu's inquiries also came back. Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia were surprised and very happy!

"Father, Elder Brother, I have asked around. According to the custom here, you are right that there is a brawl, but most people will send a woman for the fight. This woman is their professionally trained thug. In the end, it became a custom in the long run. Only female brawlers can participate all this while!" Li Tianyu said, "There are no rules in the game. It is a life and death battle. Most of these female brawlers are slaves for sale, so no one will feel bad when they die."

"It turns out to be like this!" Li Zhichun exclaimed, "It seems that I really looked for the right person this time!"

After reading some information about Li Lexin, Li Zhichun, Li Tianjia, and Li Tianyu also became full of confidence. Li Lexin came out when she was fifteen. At the age of eighteen, she reached the peak state. In the underground boxing market, she was unmatched. She maintained the record of defeating or killing her opponents in ten consecutive games!

"It seems that Li Lexin is really not easy!" Li Zhichun looked at the information and said with surprise.

"Yeah." Li Tianjia also said, "I didn't expect her to have killed so many people!"

While Li Zhichun's family had high hopes for the bidding, Huang Xiaofei had given up the intention to continue bidding. This gold mine was enough for him to operate. On the way, he could help Zhang Jingyao to carry out his money laundering. With General Kars and Li Qiang looking after it, this gold mine could be said to be safe and secure. It would be not be affected anyhow.

At the moment, Zhang Jingyao was also completely assured in his heart. With such a strong figure like Yang Ming, it seemed that he really chose the right partner.

While Sun Jie drove on the highway between Song Jiang and Donghai, she gave her father a few calls but couldn't connect. This made her very baffled. Generally, her father's phone would be switched on twenty-four hours a day. Even if her father did not pick it up, his secretary, Little Wang, would answer the call. After he returned home, Sun San would answer the phone.

However, when she called, it appeared temporarily unable to connect or was turned off. This was a situation that she had never encountered before.

As Sun Jie was suspecting, the phone rang. It was Sun San.

"Uncle San?" Sun Jie picked up the phone.

"Miss, where are you?" Sun San's tone seemed a little quick and anxious.

"I am on my way back to Donghai." Sun Jie replied, "What's the matter? Did something happen? Uncle San? Right. How come my father's phone can't be connected?"

"Miss, I need to tell you this. Don't come back to Donghai at this time!" Sun San said immediately after hearing Sun Jie's words, "Hurry back!"

"What's wrong? Uncle San?" Sun Jie was somewhat confused with Sun San's words.

"Something seems to have happened to the Master!" Sun San said quickly.

"Something happened? What happened?" Sun Jie was surprised and asked quickly.

"Master has not yet returned home. I can't contact him on the phone! And, the most important thing is that the Master's driver and bodyguard, Little Wang, has disappeared. He is unreachable through the phone!" Sun San said, "This situation has never happened before. I suspect that something happened to the Master, so, Miss, you must not come back at this time!"

"Then, there's more reason I have to go back!" When Sun Jie heard that something had happened to her father, she was anxious deep down in her heart.

"Don't come back... Wait a minute. The situation hasn't been cleared up... Ugh..." Sun San suddenly snorted, and there was no movement.

"Uncle San? Uncle San? What's wrong with you? Speak up?" Sun Jie was surprised and realized something had happened to Sun San.

It seems that neither did my father forget to bring his phone nor did his phone break down, but something unexpected happened!

The phone was hung up over there. Sun Jie was not aware of what happened there. However, Sun Jie calmed down at the moment. It was not a wise choice to return to Donghai now.

Now, there were no clues to the matter. Although Sun Jie was worried about her father's safety, she also understood that it was not helpful to go back now. She did not even know who her opponent was. Going back was merely walking right into a trap.

But if she did not go back, what should she do now?

Sun Jie had always believed that she was no worse than the boys, but rather, she was stronger instead! It could be proved from the fact that she had taken care of the company on her own.

However, now that something happened to both her father and Sun San, Sun Jie had no idea what to do! It was the first time she had this feeling of powerlessness. She didn't know how to get started. She didn't know what enemy the Sun Family had!

At the moment, what could she do? She did not have a person to talk to! Even if Sun San didn't call Sun Jie, Sun Jie would call him, but now something happened to the only person who she could discuss it with. What else could Sun Jie do?

Sun Jie thought of calling the police, but since people dared to do these things to the Sun Family, probably, it was not something the police could easily investigate. Moreover, Sun Jie was not clear about the interest involved. Sun Jie was not clear if the police report would bring trouble to the Sun Family. Hence, making a police report right now was not the optimum choice.

Chapter 1185: The Person Behind-The-Scenes

At the next exit ramp, Sun Jie got off from the expressway. Then, she turned the car around and decided to go back to Song Jiang before making plans.

Seeing Sun San being pushed into the room, Sun Hongjun frowned. Sun San had been staying at the villa at home, and the villa had good security. How could he be brought here?

"Lao San?" Sun Hongjun stood up and looked at Sun San with some surprise. "How come you are here too...?"

"I... naturally came." Sun San smiled bitterly, "Master, something really happened to you..."

"Who brought you here?" Sun Hongjun had already calmed down by this time. If it were a blessing, then it wouldn't be a disaster; if it were a disaster, it couldn't be dodged. No matter what, peace of mind was the most important thing.

"We didn't expect that... it was that person..." Sun San smiled bitterly and said the name of a person.

"What!? It is actually him!" Sun Hongjun heard the name and suddenly widened his eyes. "It turned out to be like this... I wondered how someone got into the villa and kidnapped... All of this makes sense now..."

"I didn't expect that..." Sun San shook his head, "Appeasement brings disaster..."

“Not good! Little Jie is coming back today. She can’t...” Sun Hongjun didn’t value his own life so much anymore, but he was greatly concerned for his only daughter. When he thought Sun Jie might be in danger as well, he immediately became a little uneasy.

“Master, I have called the Miss before to tell her not to come to Donghai.” Sun San said, “I couldn’t contact you and Little Wang previously. I felt something was wrong, so I quickly gave the Miss a call to tell her not to come back first... As a result, when I was talking on the phone, I was kidnapped!”

“Thank goodness!” Sun Hongjun breathed a sigh of relief. He didn’t want Sun Jie to get involved in this matter. Sun Hongjun was clear about what the person who planned all this wanted. Even if Sun Jie were involved, it would be an unnecessary sacrifice.

“Master, now we are...” Sun San asked carefully.

“Now, I have to wait for him to come to see me; I don’t know how greedy he is.” Sun Hongjun snorted. “However, if what he wants is nothing more than that, I will just give it to him.”

“Give him?” Sun San was astounded. “Master, you fought for so many years to accumulate the family business...”

“I am really tired from the past few years.” Sun Hongjun waved his hand and sighed. “Yang Ming also has no intention of taking care of the family business here, and I am exhausted. I am not young anymore. I should really have some peaceful days!”

“Master? You really think so?” Sun San looked at Sun Hongjun incredulously. He didn’t expect Sun Hongjun to let go so easily.

Sun Hongjun nodded. “Sometimes I want to relax a little after being tired for so long.”

As Sun Hongjun just said this, the sound of clapping was heard outside the door. “Pa,”“Pa,”“Pa !”

“Very good!” Sun Hongjun and Sun San were very familiar with the voice. “If you have this understanding, then I won’t waste so much effort.”

“ Oh , it really is you.” Sun Hongjun heard the voice and sneered. He was very familiar with this voice. It belonged to a person who fought for him for many years and achieved many significant contributions.

However, at this moment, he became Sun Hongjun’s enemy and betrayed him.

“ Hehe , since I dare to do this, I don’t want to hide it.” The man smiled, pushed the door, and came in. This person was Tian Long, the current leader of the Tian Family, the father of Tian Donghua.

“Actually, I should have thought of it for a long time. You have been with me for so many years, so you will definitely be unwilling, but I did not expect that you will betray me.” Sun Hongjun was very calm at this moment. He spoke calmly facing his old friend.

“Since I am unwilling, rebellion is naturally a matter of time.” Tian Long said faintly, “Boss Sun, I have paid enough in these years...”

“Yes, you have paid enough, but did you get any less?” Sun Hongjun looked at Tian Long with some disappointment. “I have given you enough, and the Tian Family has become second after the Sun Family in Donghai. Are you still not satisfied?”

“Yes, you gave me enough!” Tian Long put up a stern expression and said, “But, no matter what, my Tian Family can only be a subordinate of the Sun Family. You are the master; I am a servant! This can’t be changed forever! In history, why did so many princes want to usurp the throne, to rebel? They already had a wealthy family, and they were already the second-most powerful man! Because no matter what, they were always a subordinate, not the master!”

“I didn’t expect you to think so much.” Sun Hongjun listened to Tian Long’s fierce argument, but he smiled helplessly. “In all these years, to be honest, when did I consider you my subordinate? I have left the underworld’s matter for you to manage; I never intervened. Isn’t that enough?”

“Yeah, you really didn’t intervene!” Tian Long nodded. “But, no matter what, my power still comes from you. As long as you are there, I can become nothing at any time! The decision of the superior is unpredictable. Haven’t you heard this sentence? Maybe there is nothing now. However, if I make some mistakes that make you feel unforgiving in the future, then what would you do to me?”

At this moment, Sun Hongjun also remained silent. Indeed, no matter what, the Tian Family would be under the Sun Family. This fact could not be changed. Tian Long was reasonable to have such concerns.

“However, don’t you think that your approach is too extreme? Do you think you can get the Sun Family’s business by kidnapping me?” Sun Hongjun looked at Tian Long and asked indifferently.

“You don’t have to worry about that.” Tian Long smiled enigmatically. “Since I can put Little Wang by you for so many years, I will naturally have confidants in the company. Maybe the Sun Family will become an empty shell tomorrow.”

“Are you not afraid that my people will retaliate against you?” Sun Hongjun first thought of Yang Ming; he wasn’t a person that could be offended easily.

“Retaliation? Hehe, the people in the underworld now only look up to me.” Tian Long smiled. “As for the person you said, are you referring to your son-in-law, Yang Ming?”

“You know him?” Sun Hongjun didn’t expect Tian Long to know about Yang Ming.

” Hehe , he can’t even save himself. He will not bother about you.” Tian Long smiled unbelievably. According to the behind-the-scenes boss, Song Jiang’s underworld and Yang Ming’s company would also be finished this time together. He had sent an invitation on behalf of the boss to Mount Jing’s Sui Family to let the Sui Family clean up Song Jiang’s underworld.

“Can’t even save himself? What do you mean?” Sun Hongjun was stunned. “You still want to make a move on Song Jiang?”

” Hehe , it’s not that I’m making a move on Song Jiang, but it’s the Sui Family of Mount Jing who wants to make a move on Song Jiang and Jidun!” Tian Long said with some conceit, “Jidun was originally the territory of the Sui Family, but it was stolen by Song Jiang’s people. Who will be reconciled for that?”

Sun Hongjun naturally knew that Jidun City was the territory of Mount Jing's Sui Family. It was plundered by Yang Ming, and they would naturally be uncomfortable. But Tian Long and the Sui Family's boss, Sui Yuejin, were cooperating. This made him somewhat puzzled.

The two people weren't on the same level. Although the Sui Family was involved in the underworld, most of their businesses were formal. The few gray businesses were gradually turning into formal legal businesses. This made it difficult for the Sui Family and Tian Long to have any intersection between them.

Tian Long managed the entertainment-oriented businesses such as nightclubs, bars, bathing centers, game halls, and KTV halls, while the Sui Family's main businesses were in real estate, hotels, and trade sales.

"You planned all this? There is someone behind you, right?" Sun Hongjun naturally wasn't stupid. He suddenly thought that this matter wasn't simple. Perhaps there was something unknown behind it.

Based on the businesses in Tian Long's and Sui Yuejin's hands, there was no need for cooperation between them.

After listening to Sun Hongjun's question, Tian Long showed a startled expression. He seemed to be baffled by Sun Hongjun's keenness. However, he didn't explain it. He just said, "You don't have to worry about it. This has nothing to do with you."

"Hehe, then it means that you are admitting it? Tsk tsk, Tian Long, I didn't expect that after you betrayed me, you still found a new master. What is the difference between this and the past?" Sun Hongjun looked at Tian Long sarcastically and said.

"At least, I get more than what I have now. The current boss won't interfere with my normal operation and management. I don't have to give him any money. All I have to do is help him at the crucial moment. That's all." Tian Long shook his head and explained. Of course, regarding this, he must explain to Sun Hongjun. Otherwise, Sun Hongjun would definitely think he was crazy.

"Do something?" Sun Hongjun smiled and said, "I haven't told you about this thing yet? Tian Long, you sometimes can be ruined by your own wisdom. Is this an easy task? Since the one behind you is so capable, and he asks you to do things that he can't do, think about it yourself whether you will gain or lose."

As Sun Hongjun said this, Tian Long's face became stiff and pale. Before that, he was just immersed in the excitement of replacing the Sun Family and becoming the first in Donghai. He didn't think about these far-reaching things.

But now, since Sun Hongjun had pointed it out, Tian Long had to consider it. Sun Hongjun is right. Can the behind-the-scenes boss be troubled by ordinary matters? What is the key to this matter?

Initially, Tian Long didn't think so much before, but now after he thought about it, he was getting a little annoyed. "Now, it's useless to say this! What is certain is that I will definitely live better than now!"

Chapter 1186: Abduction

"I hope so." Sun Hongjun shrugged and said faintly, "I can give you what you want. When will you let us go?"

"Let you go?" Tian Long shook his head. "Since it's done, you have to suffer grievances and stay here! If I let you go, won't you add more trouble for me?"

"What you want is nothing more than the business of the Sun Family. I will sign the document and transfer it to you." Sun Hongjun also thought it through. Over the years, his decentralization resulted in many of his men having more power, and these people were likely the confidants that Tian Long had inserted. Now, even if he took back the company, its money and assets may have been transferred out by these people. What he took back would just be a shell company.

So, instead of doing this, it was better to give these things to Tian Long as gifts.

"Not at the moment. If I let you go, you will notify Yang Ming and Bao Sanli." Tian Long said, "When I take over Song Jiang, I will naturally let you go, but now... Hmph hmph, not only you but I will also detain Sun Jie first to stop her from passing the news to Yang Ming."

After listening to Tian Long, Sun Hongjun opened his mouth, but he did not say anything in the end. Now, it was obviously impossible to get Tian Long to let go of Sun Jie. After all, letting Sun Jie go may cause his plan to be ruined.

Sun Jie may inform Yang Ming. In the end, the situation in Song Jiang would be unknown. Therefore, Tian Long would detain Sun Jie no matter what to ensure the smooth progress of the plan at Song Jiang.

Thinking of this, Sun Hongjun also gave up the idea of persuasion. He just said, "Don't make it difficult for Sun Jie."

"No matter what, I, Tian Long, am a man. I understand the principle that the scourge of war does not involve the wife. Don't worry. I won't hurt her." Tian Long could guarantee this. After all, he had been with the Sun Family for so many years. Although at the moment, they had a fallout, some things still had to be done well.

.....

When Sun Jie was at a complete loss, she received a call from Tian Long. Tian Long was the head of the Sun Family's illegal business. Sun Jie naturally trusted him, so she had no doubts about him.

"Miss? This is Tian Long..." Tian Long's voice was peaceful as usual.

"Uncle Tian!" Sun Jie was looking for someone to discuss the matters between her father and Sun San. She was just worried about not being able to find anyone when Tian Long took the initiative to call, so Sun Jie was naturally very happy. "Uncle Tian, where are you?"

"I am hiding now. Someone is going to do something bad to the Sun Family. Maybe they will attack me!" When Tian Long said this, he lowered his voice. "I am unable to contact Mr. Sun and Third Brother. I suspect that something has already happened to them!"

" Ah !" Sun Jie heard Tian Long's words and said, "Yeah, Third Uncle called me before, saying that my father seems to have encountered some trouble. As a result, the call was disconnected halfway through the conversation..."

" Ai , I don't know who wants to harm us this time!" Tian Long sighed. "Miss, where are you now? Is it safe?"

"I was heading to Donghai, but Uncle San said on the phone before telling me not to go to Donghai. I am now on the way back to Song Jiang!" Sun Jie said without any precaution.

"So it's like this..." Tian Long said, "Right, the situation is not fixed. I don't know if there will be any accidents. It's not wrong to be a little more careful!"

"Uncle Tian, are you alright?" Sun Jie asked with concern. After all, other than Sun San, the person who was close to her father was Tian Long. Sun Jie naturally worried about Tian Long's safety.

"I'm fine. It's nothing. My place is safe here. Miss, what if I come to pick you up? Let's figure out how to save the Master!" Tian Long thought and said.

"This is also good!" Sun Jie did not doubt it. After all, the safety of her father was the most important thing, so she agreed without thinking.

"Then, how about you drive to the exit toll booth of the Donghai Expressway and wait for me? I will drive there to pick you up!" Tian Long said.

"Okay, I will go there now." Sun Jie agreed. Once again, she found a place to make a U-turn and head toward Donghai...

Tian Long hung up the phone and smiled. Sun Jie really believed him. She didn't even have any doubts. He thought that it would take some effort to catch her. He didn't expect that it would be so easy to deceive her since he devised the plan at the last minute.

Before, Tian Long was afraid that Sun Jie would leak the news, so he wanted to capture Sun Jie as soon as possible. However, Sun San had already leaked the news to Sun Jie, so Sun Jie would definitely be vigilant. She would not easily appear in Donghai. Even if she returned to Song Jiang, she would hide carefully and would not show up. In this way, it was not easy to catch Sun Jie.

Therefore, Tian Long called Sun Jie and wanted to test Sun Jie's words. However, Sun Jie apparently did not suspect Tian Long, and she still treated Tian Long as politely as ever.

After hearing that Sun Jie was concerned about his safety, Tian Long had a good idea. He'll make an excuse to discuss how to save Sun Hongjun letting Sun Jie take the initiative to come to him! Sure enough, Sun Jie would agree very forthrightly. Then, Tian Long could capture Sun Jie without any effort.

Tian Long was secretly happy. Sun Jie, don't blame me. If the boss behind-the-scenes didn't promise to give me a cake that was too tempting, I wouldn't do anything like this.

People are always unsatisfied. When there is something better, they will never be satisfied with what they have now. Their current status may be high in the eyes of many people. However, as long as there was the Sun Family, the Tian Family would always be a subordinate, a lackey and servant of the Sun Family! Once the Sun Family was displeased, they would kick the Tian Family off!

In this way, what the Tian Family had would become nothing.

Tian Long drove his modern Hyundai in the direction of the expressway. This Hyundai was changed at the beginning of the year. Tian Long preferred off-road vehicles, but he never dared to buy an expensive car. It was also a sadness of Tian Long.

In the eyes of outsiders, his identity was always the lackey of the Sun Family, no matter how dazzling it was. In this way, if he drove a car that was too luxurious, it would be showing off too much. This was an important reason why Tian Long never dared to buy cars that were worth more than one million.

Therefore, Tian Long's car could only be graded in the hundreds of thousands regardless of what car he changed. Hyundai was a modern new car, but it was not the top-of-the-line off-road vehicle.

Tian Long arrived first at the expressway toll station. Although cars could not be parked here, Tian Long's license plate number was very famous in Donghai. The toll collector of the expressway just took a look at it, and let him stop at the toll booth.

The license plate number was also a sadness of Tian Long. The people of the Sun Family, Sun Zhiwei, could put those auctioned license plate number with a few "6s" or "8s." His own cars could only put license plates with irregular numbers.

Although his license plate was also considered very good in Donghai, it was not as bad*ss as the Sun Family's. It was not that he couldn't afford this auspicious number plate, but he didn't dare to buy it. He was afraid that the Sun Family people would take it as an offense after seeing it.

All of this has become the leading cause of Tian Long's falling-out. Tian Long sighed slightly. In the future, wouldn't I get anything I wanted and become the first family of Donghai?

Whatever Sun Hongjun just said was still hovering in Tian Long's mind! Yes, the boss behind-the-scenes is so capable, almost omnipotent. He asked me to help him with a matter that he can't do. How difficult is this matter?

As he thought of this, Sun Hongjun's head hurt a little. What Sun Hongjun said was right, this thing became a knot lingering in Tian Long's heart. He was proud just before, but now, he was getting upset again.

Sun Jie's car came from afar. Tian Long put away his thoughts and got out of the car. He went over and greeted, "Miss! You are here!"

"Uncle Tian, how is the situation? Is there any news from my dad?" Sun Jie also asked in a hurry.

Tian Long shook his head solemnly. "Not yet... I am not even clear about who the enemy is..."

"Ai, Uncle Tian also doesn't know?" Sun Jie was also a bit dejected. The most fearful thing was this. The enemy was still unknown to them. This made them unable to make a move.

“We can only rely on analysis. Miss, leave your car here first. Come to my car. We will find a safe place and then think of a solution again.” Tian Long told Sun Jie.

“It can only be like this.” Sun Jie nodded. She parked the car in the temporary storage, and then went to Tian Long’s car. Although the temporary storage here was charged at an hourly basis, this little money was nothing for Sun Jie.

Tian Long glanced at Sun Jie, who was sitting by the side. He was so sure that he had already succeeded in most parts. The Sun Family was completely controlled by him.

Now, only Yang Ming is left. How can I capture Yang Ming? This was a tricky thing. If Tian Long used the same way to contact Yang Ming and tell him that something happened to the Sun Family, Yang Ming would definitely not believe him entirely like Sun Jie. Yang Ming would be vigilant. At that time, the situation would be a bit complicated.

However, if he did not capture Yang Ming, there would always be a hidden danger. Moreover, the boss behind-the-scenes also said clearly that he must capture Yang Ming at all cost!

As long as I can capture Yang Ming, I will get more wealth and status than I have now. Moreover, the boss behind-the-scenes will not ask me for other favors anymore...

At first, Tian Long didn’t take it seriously, but after listening to Sun Hongjun, Tian Long finally made up his mind that he couldn’t let the boss behind-the-scenes control him. Tian Long must break away from him!

The only way to get rid of him was to capture Yang Ming!

Chapter 1187: Family and Friends

Tian Long naturally did not regard Yang Ming as a child. He was also a well-informed person. He also heard about the subtle relationship between Yang Ming, Bao Sanli, and Hou Zhenhan. Moreover, last time at the Immortal Resort, Tian Long also saw the mature and cold-blooded side of Yang Ming, so Tian Long always regarded Yang Ming as a worthy opponent.

Tian Long would try his best to avoid a tit-for-tat with such a person. What he wanted was only Donghai’s territory! In fact, he really had no greed for Song Jiang.

If it were not for the boss behind-the-scenes asking him to involve Song Jiang, Tian Long would not take the initiative to touch Song Jiang. However, Tian Long also understood that if not for the support of the behind-the-scenes boss, he would not be able to turn all the gang members into his own confidants in this short period of one year.

It was undeniable that money was the boss. As long as you have money, you can do a lot of things, such as buying people’s loyalty. Although Tian Long could get more money after he was in the upper position, it was difficult for him to achieve great things without the support of large sums of money in the early stages.

The boss behind-the-scenes was the constant source of funds, and Tian Long also saw with his own eyes how powerful the people around the boss were.

Tian Long initially wanted to abandon his benefactor upon achieving his goal. Since he was already in the upper position, he didn't have to worry about the boss behind-the-scenes. However, after seeing the might of the people around him, he dismissed the idea.

Tian Long sighed slightly. It seemed that this time, he had to go against Yang Ming. The matters in Song Jiang couldn't rely solely on the Sui Family. However, catching Yang Ming was a bit difficult.

The car slowly entered an abandoned salvage station on the outskirts of the city where Sun Hongjun and Sun San were under house arrest. Sun Jie looked at the unfamiliar place with some doubts and asked Tian Long, who was nearby, "Uncle Tian, where is this? How come I have never been here before?"

"It is a safe place. It naturally is impossible for everyone else to know, right?" Tian Long smiled, looked at Sun Jie lovingly, touched his chin and said, "This place was originally a salvage station, but I haven't used it for many years, so very few people know about it. This is a very safe place!"

"I see!" Sun Jie nodded. "Being safe is good. I am worried about the safety of my father and Uncle San. I don't know how they are."

"Me too..." Tian Long looked at the handbag in Sun Jie's hand and said, "Miss, can you lend me your phone? Mine has no battery left."

"Sure." Sun Jie did not suspect anything. She took the phone directly from her bag and handed it to Tian Long. "Here it is, Uncle Tian."

Tian Long took Sun Jie's mobile phone. After a glance, he didn't dial but put it into his pocket. Sun Jie was baffled as she looked at Tian Long. "Uncle Tian? What are you doing? Why aren't you calling?"

"I just don't want you to call." Tian Long smiled and said faintly, "Miss, I am sorry..."

"What do you mean?" Sun Jie was stunned and looked at Tian Long suspiciously.

Tian Long shook his hand slightly. Two black-shirted macho men approached Sun Jie from the left and right. Tian Long waved at them again and said, "Miss, please. I don't want them to use force."

"You..." Sun Jie frowned and suddenly understood everything. "Tian Long, it was you!"

"Hehe, yes, it's me. Miss, you react pretty fast." Tian Long said, unimpressed, "However, it is too late for you to figure out this time. Mr. Sun and Third Brother are waiting inside for you. Please walk yourself..."

After that, Tian Long made a "please" gesture, and his gaze turned to the two black-shirted macho men around Sun Jie.

Sun Jie looked at Tian Long and looked at the two people around her. She snorted and walked into the room at the side. In this situation, Sun Jie also had no intention to resist.

The two black-shirted macho men were obviously not weak. Sun Jie was a girl too. She was obviously unable to go against them. Sun Jie did not want them to make a move and walked directly into the room.

Tian Long also tried not to make a move on Sun Jie. After all, she was his junior. Although he was ambitious, he wanted to safe keep his reputation. Acting on a junior made him feel ashamed.

At the moment, Sun Jie probably understood this. Tian Long borrowed her mobile phone just now because he just wanted to collect her mobile phone. However, Tian Long was not willing to rob in a violent manner, but he let her voluntarily hand it over.

Seeing her father and Sun San sitting on the bed and on the sofa, Sun Jie was speechless. All the core characters of the Sun Family were gathered here. The behind-the-scenes person who did all this was Tian Long. A person who the Sun Family trusted the most.

“Dad, Uncle San.” Sun Jie didn’t know what to say. Indeed, there was really nothing to say at the moment. The reasons and methods for everyone to come here were almost the same. It would be difficult to leave.

“Little Jie, you are here too?” Sun Hongjun bitterly smiled a little. “Did you suffer any grievances?”

Sun Jie shook his head and said, “No, Tian Long is still a gentleman. He did not use force... but the results are still the same.”

Sun Hongjun and Sun San were relieved to hear that Sun Jie did not suffer a grievance. The result did not seem important at the moment. Justice will be tilted towards the victor, and the defeated will be treated unfairly. Now they were just prisoners, so there was no need to think too much.

With Tian Long’s attitude, they should not face any life danger. Otherwise, they would not be under house arrest, but they would have long been killed by Tian Long. However, it was unknown how long the house arrest would last.

Tian Long did not say much. He commanded his men once again to lock the door of the room as he walked out with a sigh. Indeed, for the Sun Family, he had a very special feeling. Although the Sun Family was always the leader in front of him, he owed gratitude and favor from Sun Hongjun. If there were no Sun Hongjun, Tian Long would not have such status today.

However, people were always unsatisfied. Even if Tian Long had all of this, he still wanted to have more. But even if he had it, Tian Long didn’t want to be judged as ungrateful, so he couldn’t bear to kill off the Sun Family.

Now, he could only temporarily put them under house arrest. As for what to do in the future, he could only decide in the future.

At present, the biggest headache for Tian Long was how to capture Yang Ming and use him to really clear the relationship with the boss behind-the-scenes.

Yang Ming... Tian Long finally thought of his son, Tian Donghua. Tian Donghua and Yang Ming lived in the same dormitory. If he asked Tian Donghua to make a move on Yang Ming, it should be easier...

As Tian Long thought of this, his mouth slightly smiled. He finally came up with some ideas in the end.

In the evening, Tian Long met his son, Tian Donghua.

“Donghua, you come to my study.” Tian Long stood up and called Tian Donghua who was texting on the sofa.

” Oh ? Ok, wait a moment. I need to send this message.” Tian Donghua quickly finished up the text message in his hand, and sent it to Wang Xue before he stood up and said, “Dad, what is it?”

“You come with me. We will talk about it once we are upstairs.” When Tian Long saw that his son was holding his phone at all times, he knew that his son had a girlfriend. However, Tian Long did not intend to interfere in this matter.

Previously, Tian Donghua was very hurt because of a woman. He even transferred to another school. Tian Long witnessed all of it in his eyes. Right now, seeing that Tian Donghua managed to get over this shadow, Tian Long was delighted.

The Tian Family was not short of money and social connections at the moment, so Tian Long really did not want to interfere with the kind of girlfriend his son was looking for, as long as Tian Donghua was satisfied.

Tian Donghua followed his father and went upstairs to his father’s study.

“Sit down.” Tian Long pointed to the sofa next to him and said to Tian Donghua.

Tian Donghua sat on the sofa with some doubts. For your information, his father would not allow him and Tian Dongguang to enter the study most of the time. Moreover, his father rarely spoke about anything with him in such a stern manner. This seemed to be the first time.

“Dad, you are looking for me...” Tian Donghua couldn’t help but ask.

Tian Long made a gesture to tell Tian Donghua to be patient before he spoke up, “Donghua, your relationship with Yang Ming is not bad, right?”

“Yeah, I am like a blood brother to him. What happened?” After listening to his father’s words, Tian Donghua was even more baffled. Did my father look for me this time to chat about my daily life? Tian Donghua naturally took his father’s words as daily chatter, or else, why would his father ask him about matters at school?

“I see.” Tian Long nodded. He was pondering his words. He didn’t know how to open his mouth. He hesitated a while. “Donghua, if there is one matter where you must make a choice. Do you think that family interests are more important or a friend’s interest?”

Tian Donghua was somewhat inexplicable from Tian Long’s words. What about family interest? What about friend’s interests? Isn’t this topic too deep?

“Dad, what are you talking about? How come I don’t understand?” Tian Donghua was really a bit baffled. Previously, it was daily chatter. With a twist on the topic, it ended up like this.

“Why you can’t understand?” Tian Long waved his hand and said each word at a time, “Do you think that family interests are important or a friend’s interests are more important? Answer me!”

“This...” Tian Donghua calmed down and carefully pondered what Tian Long said. However, he still could not figure it out, and yet he replied, “Family interests... It depends on what kind of interest... In terms of friends’ interests, it also depends on what kind of friends... Dad, what you asked is a bit too general, so I can’t answer.”

Chapter 1188: Yang Ming Is My Friend

“If the family interest involves your friend’s interest, how do you choose?” Tian Long looked at Tian Donghua and asked.

Tian Donghua didn’t understand why his father, who had never talked about these things with him, suddenly became serious today. He had to ask why it was so. However, Tian Donghua still shrugged and said somewhat helplessly, “Dad, what you said is still too general. Family interests – what kind of interests are they? Friend’s interests – friends to what extent? These will affect my final answer.”

“Well, since you asked this question, then I will talk to you openly and honestly.” Tian Long looked at his son for a while and said, “I rarely talk about these matters to you because you are still young. Besides, my status seems to be very glorious, but it is actually an abnormal embarrassment; I am just a pawn of the Sun Family. But today, what I want to say will be related to the future fate of our Tian Family!”

Tian Family’s fate? Tian Donghua was slightly astounded, and he could not help but sit up straight. Regardless of whether he was involved in previous important family conversations, he couldn’t help but become serious at the moment. Indeed, what Tian Long said was somewhat shocking. How could it be connected to the fate of the family?

“Dad, just say what you want to say.” Tian Donghua nodded. He said, “I know what kinds of things you want me to do, but what exactly do you want me to do?”

“If I say that you had to choose between our family interests and Yang Ming, what choice would you make?” Tian Long said what he wanted to say.

Tian Long initially planned to talk to Tian Donghua after he beat around the bush, but since Tian Donghua asked in advance, Tian Long didn’t need to beat around the bush again, so he said it directly.

“Yang Ming? Family interests?” Tian Donghua was astounded listening to Tian Long’s words, then he immediately said, “Dad, what is the relationship between Yang Ming and our family interests? Are you mistaken?”

Indeed, Tian Donghua would not think that his family interests could be related to Yang Ming. Never mind that they were two irrelevant matters. Yang Ming was in Song Jiang; his family was in Donghai. There would not be any conflict of interest. Therefore, Tian Donghua could not figure out why his father would ask this.

“You don’t care about that first; answer me. If there is such a moment, do you choose to stand on your friend’s side or the family’s?” Tian Long made a gesture and interrupted Tian Donghua’s words. He said one word at a time.

"I..." Tian Donghua hesitated for the first time. Although he didn't know the reason his father asked, he did have a hard time answering his father's question. Yang Ming... was the only brother that could get along with him in Song Jiang. Tian Donghua couldn't do something that would ruin their relationship no matter what. However, family interest... just like how the TV dramas and novels always said: family interests were more important than everything else. Tian Donghua was even hot-blooded when he was watching it, but when it happened to Tian Donghua, he hesitated instead...

Seeing that Tian Donghua didn't talk, Tian Long frowned and seemed to be annoyed. "Donghua, I always thought that you were a sensible child. Why can't you make such a simple judgment?"

"Dad, you're asking me to make a decision, but you have to tell me what is it, right? Is it really related to Yang Ming?" Although Tian Donghua didn't believe that his family interests could be related to Yang Ming, now his father's expression and tone were so serious. This made Tian Donghua have a dilemma.

"It's about our family's life and death. Can you decide now?" Tian Long raised his tone. He did not expect that Tian Donghua would value Yang Ming so much. Indeed, they lived in the same dormitory. However, even if the friendship between students was important, it wasn't as important as family matters, right? Tian Long previously didn't think that convincing Tian Donghua would be a big deal, but now it was different. The relationship between Tian Donghua and Yang Ming seemed to be much better than he imagined.

"This..." Tian Donghua was astounded. He really couldn't figure out why the Tian Family was in a life and death situation. The Tian Family was in Donghai; although it wasn't as prominent as the Sun Family, it was not an exaggeration to say that they ruled over Donghai!

How many people in the upper class did not know Tian Long? It could be said that there was almost nothing impossible for the Tian Family in Donghai. Of course, it falls within that reasonable range.

"Dad, are you kidding me? Isn't our family still doing well? Why is it in a life and death situation?" Tian Donghua forced a smile. "Is the Sun Family going to abandon us?"

"It's not the Sun Family abandoning us; we're abandoning the Sun Family!" Since the Sun Family had been controlled by Tian Long, Tian Long didn't need to hide anymore, so he spoke directly when Tian Donghua asked about it.

"Abandon the Sun Family?" Tian Donghua suddenly changed his face. He was not stupid. He could roughly guess from his father's expression. "Dad, you mean..."

"Yes, we have rebelled. We want to overthrow the Sun Family and be the first family of Donghai! We will get the company and glory that belonged to the Sun Family!" Tian Long solemnly nodded. "The Sun Family is already under my control. Donghai will soon belong to our Tian Family."

"Ah!" Tian Donghua had psychological preparations before, but at the moment, he still exclaimed!

However, Tian Donghua didn't have any particular impression of the Sun Family previously. It wasn't like having a good or bad impression. Because his father rarely let him be involved in family matters, he only roughly knew about the Sun Family. Aside from seeing Sun Hongjun and Sun Jie a few times, he didn't have much contact with them.

As for the arrogant Sun Zhiwei, Tian Donghua was disgusted by him from the bottom of his heart. At this moment, when he heard that the Sun Family had fallen, the thing he felt good about was that Sun Zhiwei couldn't be as high-spirited as before!

But for the other people of the Sun Family and the direction of the Sun Family, Tian Donghua wasn't very concerned.

"In the future, we no longer have to be afraid of others when we do things." As Tian Long said up to here, he stood up excitedly and looked at Tian Donghua with a glistening gaze.

Tian Donghua sighed slightly. Although the Sun Family didn't have a close relationship with him, his heart was also a little uncomfortable at this moment. The Tian Family had always been the servant of the Sun Family, but now they rebelled against their master. This made Tian Donghua feel that it wasn't appropriate. It would look ugly if this matter were spread.

However, the contest at that level was not something that Tian Donghua could control. It was a matter between his parents. He was only a junior, so he could only listen to it. As long as he stuck to his own bottom line and principles, it would be fine. He could not do anything about everything else.

"Dad, although I don't understand the matters at your level, and I don't understand what is so bad about our family's current situation, why do you want to rebel? I have reservations about this." Tian Donghua said, "However, you have gotten what you wanted. I don't understand what this has to do with Yang Ming!"

Tian Long hesitated a moment and said, "Well, since this is the case, I will tell the truth. The reason why this is successful is that there is a mysterious boss behind me. He provided me with the funds enough to buy my loyalty. However, he also made his request, that is the rebellion must involve Song Jiang this time; I did it as well.

"However, besides that, I still needed to agree with the mysterious boss for one more matter. Although the mysterious boss had not said it now, it will definitely be done in the future. This is definitely a very difficult task.

"Fortunately, the mysterious boss said that if I can help him control Yang Ming, he can forget about this matter. Therefore, I want you..."

Tian Donghua listened to his father's words, and he was somewhat shocked! Is this the father who used to teach me to be loyal when I was young? Why is he so snobbish now?

"What do you want me to do?" Tian Donghua's tone was a bit cold, and his impression of his father suddenly turned worse. Before, his father had rebelled against the Sun Family. Although he felt that it was not right, he did not say much. After all, he did not understand a lot of things. Maybe the Sun Family had done something wrong to the Tian Family, so his father would only do this.

But now, to repay the mysterious boss behind-the-scenes, Father actually wants me to harm Yang Ming. Is this what a real man should do?

"You find some way to get him to be a guest in our home, and then you don't have to bother about other matters." Tian Long said, "As long as he comes to my territory, I will have an arrangement for it."

After listening to Tian Long's words, the noble image of his father collapsed in Tian Donghua's heart. Even the last bit of respect had disappeared too. Tian Donghua would not and could not do this!

Although he and Yang Ming had not known each other for a long time, Yang Ming was definitely a person who he could deem as a friend and a brother! From Yang Ming's forgiveness of Wang Xue, he could see Yang Ming's generosity to his friends.

Wang Xue had betrayed Yang Ming once; Tian Donghua would not betray Yang Ming for the second time. This was absolutely impossible. Even if someone threatened him, he would not do so.

If Tian Donghua really did this, he would feel that he was inhuman. So after listening to his father's words, Tian Donghua immediately repudiated. "No, I will not do this. Yang Ming is my friend. I will not harm him!"

"You..." Tian Long didn't think that Tian Donghua would be so tough in this matter. This made him somewhat overwhelmed! Initially, Tian Long thought it was a simple matter, and Tian Donghua would definitely promise, but now, it was deadlocked!

Chapter 1189: Planning and Decision

"Why can't you differentiate between right and wrong? If you do this, our Tian Family will have no worries in the future; but if you don't do it, you may have trouble in the future!" Tian Long looked at Tian Donghua resentfully as he spoke.

"Dad, I don't want to care about the matters you have with the Sun Family, and I don't have the rights to care about it. However, I have already said that Yang Ming is my friend. I will never do anything that is not good for him." Tian Donghua's tone became stronger and stronger. "I don't know about whatever behind-the-scenes mysterious boss, why he wants to control Yang Ming, and what grievance has with Yang Ming. However, don't involve me. I won't do it."

Tian Long opened his mouth, but finally, he did not say anything. He understood that Tian Donghua's character was very prejudiced and stubborn. Otherwise, he would not fight in school over a girl.

Therefore, Tian Long also understood that once Tian Donghua had decided, it could not be changed. He underestimated Tian Donghua's friendship with Yang Ming.

Since this way did not work, then Tian Long could only find another way.

Tian Donghua seemed to notice Tian Long's thoughts. Although there was some hesitation, he still added, "Dad, I advise you to dismiss the idea of making a move on Yang Ming. Otherwise, I will definitely inform him."

"You...!" Tian Long was shocked by Tian Donghua's words. He did not expect to cause such a big backlash in Tian Donghua.

“I can’t interfere with the things you do, but I will protect my friends.” Tian Donghua said, “Of course, if you don’t do anything to Yang Ming, I won’t speak of what you did.”

Tian Long had some regrets for telling Tian Donghua of his thoughts in advance. Now it was difficult to stop halfway. If he did not reveal this matter to Tian Donghua, he could secretly think of other ways to go about it. However, now that he let Tian Donghua know, then Tian Donghua would not allow him to do this. Moreover, Tian Donghua also claimed that he would go and notify Yang Ming, so Tian Long really had no way to go about it anymore.

It seemed that this matter could only be planned in the future. It was impossible to take action now. Thinking of this, Tian Long said, “Alright, let’s just forget about this matter. You just treat it as if I haven’t said anything.”

Tian Donghua then smiled and nodded. “Naturally. I am not very interested in those other matters anyway.”

Tian Long had bribed many high-level executives of the Sun Family’s business in Donghai with a large sum of money. Of course, this bribe came from the mysterious boss behind-the-scenes.

On the second day after Sun Hongjun, Sun San, and Sun Jie were placed under house arrest, the Sun Family’s legal representative of the Sun Group in Donghai changed from Sun Hongjun to Tian Long.

From this day on, the Sun Group officially became the Tian Family’s business. Of course, the name of the Sun Group would not be used anymore. It was only because renaming the company required a specific procedure and time and could not be completed in an instant. Even though Tian Long had a deep network of contacts in Donghai, he would still need to follow procedures for certain things.

Some of the small local gang leaders in the underground business were Tian Long’s own people, so there was no need to worry at all. At this moment, Donghai’s entire Sun Family business could be said to be in the hands of Tian Long.

In fact, once people like Tian Long, who have formed a bridge between the past and present, had ambitions, they could easily control the overall situation without the master realizing.

This was also why many of the upper-level people did not decentralize and concentrated power in their own hands. However, Sun Hongjun was too decentralized. He had no ability to intimidate these people. It was difficult to achieve success by relying on his own personality.

Aura of triumph, that was just nonsense in the novels. Even when the past emperor seized power, it was also with grace and majesty.

However, Yang Ming was different. Bao Sanli, Hou Zhenhan, and Li Qiang were afraid of Yang Ming not because of Yang Ming’s so-called “aura of triumph” but because of Yang Ming’s strange agility and terrifying acupoints techniques, as well as his superb assassination skills.

There was not much to say to such a person since his underling would hardly have the intent to rebel. If they did not rebel, then they would live a life of luxury; if they rebelled, death was their only answer. Who would do such a stupid thing?

Sitting in a spacious and bright office, Tian Long was in a great mood. He did not expect that the day would come where he could sit in this position. Compared to Donghai, the progress of the Sui Family at Mount Jing was a bit slow.

Here in Song Jiang, Sui Yuejin felt like he did not know where to start. After all, he was someone who followed in the footsteps of powerful people. It was unlike Tian Long who had already penetrated power deep into the bones of Donghai; he could win the whole situation with a little bribing.

Sui Yuejin was different. Although Liu Chan and Qu Daming were working together, the businesses of Bao Sanli (actually Yang Ming's business) were too scattered.

Although Ming Yang Heavy Industry was a brother company to Ming Yang Entertainment, in fact, the two companies had no relationship. There was no such thing where one controlled the other. So, it was an impossible mission for Sui Yuejin wanting to infiltrate Ming Yang Heavy Industry.

It wasn't only him, but Liu Chan and Qu Daming were also troubled. Not only was it impossible here, but even the business left by Wang Xifan's Wang Group, which was solely run by Guo Jianchao, had no substantive connection with Ming Yang Entertainment.

Therefore, aside from the Nightless Club and several small-scale bars, there were no other businesses under the control of Ming Yang Entertainment. Although there was still Ming Yang Real Estate that was just established, Ming Yang Real Estate was just a start-up company, and it was invested by Sun Hongjun and President Hua. It was not easy to control.

However, Jidun City was easy to handle. Bao Sanli's foundation was not quite firm at the place. Moreover, the focus had changed from the previous underground business to the current new and growing business, entertainment business, catering business, and gradually, the previous unspoken rules were abolished. It was developing positively, so it was more feasible to get involved in Jidun City.

Although Liu Chan and Qu Daming were bribed over, as long as Bao Sanli and Hou Zhenhan were still alive, there would be some resistance in the success of this matter. Their other businesses and forces could not be eliminated and annexed together, which would cause future trouble. Once Bao Sanli did a counterattack, Liu Chan and Qu Daming were not his opponents at all.

Even if Sui Yuejin had a profound foundation in Mount Jing, it was still difficult to compete with the local forces of Bao Sanli in this land that was not his own.

In the conference room, Liu Chan, Qu Daming, Sui Yuejin, and Tian Long sat together to discuss how to get rid of Bao Sanli and Hou Zhenhan.

"We have tried our best, but in our capacity, it is unlikely that we can get close to Bao Sanli and Hou Zhenhan. Moreover, the people around him have no possibility of being bribed." Liu Chan sighed, threw up his hands, and spoke a little helplessly.

Qu Daming at the side also nodded and expressed that Liu Chan was right.

Tian Long also slightly nodded. Indeed, he was unlike Liu Chan and Qu Daming. He was in the Sun Family's Donghai circle for many years and thus was able to buy people's hearts smoothly. Most importantly, Tian Long's status and identity were second only to Sun Hongjun! However, the identity of Liu Chan and Qu Daming was obviously a bit low. Although they seemed to be at the manager-level, they actually did not enter Bao Sanli's core group.

In addition to knowing some of the Nightless Club's operating accounts, they knew nothing else. Now, the only finances that they could funnel out were the Nightless Club, several bars, KTV, and at most its newly established real estate company.

In other respects, they simply couldn't interfere, and they didn't know where to start.

"It seems that this is indeed a very serious problem." Sui Yuejin did not think that Liu Chan and Qu Daming did not work hard, but knew that their ability was limited, and they could not force anything at all. "How about this? I feel that it is imperative to eliminate Bao Sanli, Hou Zhenhan, and Guo Jianchao. Once these core figures have disappeared, then you will be able to take advantage of Song Jiang's business."

"Eliminate?" Liu Chan and Qu Daming were both surprised. They never thought about killing Bao Sanli, Hou Zhenhan, and others. It was very dangerous. Once something went wrong, there was no hope of reprieve! And the most important thing was that neither of them could do so! Thinking of this, Liu Chan said quickly, "Hou Zhenhan's skill is one of the best in Song Jiang. How could we both have the ability to do it?"

"Of course, you don't have to eliminate them yourself." Sui Yuejin waved his hand, "Can't we hire someone to do it? If there is a problem, then it would never implicate you."

"Hire someone?" Liu Chan was stunned. He wasn't originally born in the underworld. He didn't know much about these things, so this time, he showed a puzzled expression.

"There are specialized assassins to be hired to assassinate Bao Sanli, Hou Zhenhan, and Guo Jianchao. When they die, we will be alright!" Sui Yuejin had resentment for Bao Sanli. The grievance of Jidun City must be avenged. "Let me handle this. I have been in contact with people who have been assassins in my early years. I still have a certain understanding of this line. As long as the money is in place, I can hire the world's top assassins!"

"The problem that money can solve is not a problem!" Tian Long made a direct decision. "I have money!"

Not only did Tian Long now have the financial support of the behind-the-scenes boss, but also the Sun Family's business income, which could be described as rich and powerful. The money was still nothing to him.

"Good." Sui Yuejin did not deny it. After all, the money was not a small amount. If there was someone else paying for it, he did not have to fight for it.

Chapter 1190: Two Missions

After discussing the plan, Liu Chan and Qu Daming were relieved. Among these people, the least powerful and least useful were Liu Chan and Qu Daming. If it were not for the mysterious boss behind-the-scenes asking them to work with Tian Long, they would not be included at this table today.

However, it was obvious that neither Tian Long nor Sui Yuejin looked down on them. Although they were of little use, they were able to serve as a messenger. They were still very useful at critical moments.

In Sui Yuejin's early years, he once met a person in the assassin world, who was also quite famous in the assassin profession, so he knew about the assassin platform.

After returning to the company, he used the agent to visit the international assassin group platform. He had heard that the world's most famous assassin group was the Butterfly Assassin Group, and the number one was the King of Assassins.

However, the King of Assassins had retired from the underworld many years ago, so Sui Yuejin focused on the Butterfly Assassin Group, which ranked first in terms of organizations and second in the accumulated points ranking.

He took a peek at the commission of the Butterfly Assassin Group. It was indeed costly, but it did not matter. Anyway, Tian Long would be paying, so he did not care much. Sui Yuejin issued a mission request following the requirements on the platform.

Of course, this was only a preliminary bounty. Whether the Butterfly Assassin Group would take the mission or not was another matter. It wasn't the case that people will definitely do it after you issue a mission request.

Many assassin groups were picky in their own missions. In many cases, money was secondary. They mainly focused on mission difficulty. However, Sui Yuejin was confident that this kind of task was trivial for this large assassin group. The review was just a procedure.

After doing all this, Sui Yuejin breathed a sigh of relief. It was undeniable that this was a good opportunity to get back Jidun City's territory, and he could also get revenge on the previous defeat.

The current Jidun City developed much better than the time when Guo Jinbiao was in charge. At that time, the entertainment industry of Jidun City was very chaotic. It was completely shady management safeguarding the venues, fighting, and collecting protection fees. There was no order at all. However, after Bao Sanli went there, he set up a professional security company to manage those entertainment venues. All of the entertainment industry became orderly. This made Sui Yuejin envious while holding a grudge in his heart. After all, these should belong to him!

So, now that this opportunity had come, how could he let it go? Moreover, people were paying for him.

The Butterfly Assassin Group actually did not have a strict review of these small missions. This kind of mission was simply too common, and even the first-time reviewer could make a decision.

Sure enough, Sui Yuejin received a letter of approval on the review.

Sui Yuejin was thrilled. He had just been sitting in front of the computer, constantly refreshing his mailbox, and finally saw the letter. Sui Yuejin quickly picked up the phone and dialed Tian Long.

"Boss Sui, what's the matter? Is there anything wrong?" Tian Long picked up the phone, baffled. We had just seen each other a short while ago. Did Sui Yuejin get the news so soon?

“Mr. Tian, I have already contacted the assassins. They also accepted the mission. Now, as long as we pay, we can wait for the mission to be executed.” Sui Yuejin stared at the computer screen and spoke to Tian Long on the phone.

” Oh ? So soon?” Tian Long was amazed at Sui Yuejin’s efficiency. “Great, how much does it cost? I will deposit it to you!”

“About twenty million...” said Sui Yuejin.

“Twenty million... so much?” Tian Long was a little surprised. Isn’t the price a bit too high? However, the behind-the-scenes boss would pay for it, so Tian Long did not care. Thus, he said, “Okay, then you give me the account details. I will transfer the money to you now.”

Sui Yuejin did not expect Tian Long to be so forthright. Once he recalled that the money should come from the boss behind him, Sui Yuejin was relieved. He gave his bank account information directly, “My account is XX Bank, the account number is XXXX...”

“Okay.” Tian Long said, “I will transfer the money now.”

Soon, Tian Long’s money was transferred to Sui Yuejin’s account. Sui Yuejin sent the money to the Butterfly Assassin Group’s account through an international credit card. Then, he provided photos of Bao Sanli, Hou Zhenhan and Guo Jianchao, the locations they frequented, office locations, license plate number, as well as the habits of the three people to the Butterfly Assassin Group.

These things were provided by Liu Chan and the Qu Daming.

For Liu Chan and Qu Daming, Sui Yuejin was not disdainful to them. Although the two did not put much effort, Sui Yuejin was originally interested in Jidun, not Song Jiang. Song Jiang was such a huge cake that he couldn’t swallow it, and he didn’t want to swallow it!

Sui Yuejin was a smart man who knew his capabilities. Liu Chan and Qu Daming as the local boss were more powerful than a big shot like him in Song Jiang. Rather than him not being able to restrict Liu Chan and Qu Daming retaliating against him, it was better off to give them a favor. There might be opportunities for cooperation in the future.

After doing all this, Sui Yuejin was lost in thought. He didn’t know who the mysterious boss behind-the-scenes was, and he didn’t see why the mysterious boss wanted him to work with Tian Long.

At least, from his own viewpoint, he could get a lot of things without paying any costs. It gave off a feeling of it being somewhat unreasonable as though something fell into his own lap.

If it weren’t for Tian Long’s status in Donghai, he wouldn’t work with Tian Long all of a sudden. But so far, what he saw was only that Tian Long was benefitting without paying any price.

There was no free lunch in the world. Sui Yuejin had mingled in the underworld for so many years. Could he not understand the truth? However, with Sui Yuejin’s current status, he was not afraid of anything.

In his view, the boss behind-the-scenes was nothing more than just a little rich without much power. If he had any power, would he still need Sui Yuejin and Tian Long to help him to do these things!?

Wang Kejin was the new assassin generation of Butterfly Family. He was an orphan since childhood and was adopted by the Butterfly Family and trained as an assassin. Although he was only twenty-one years old, he was already an experienced killer.

Although the missions he performed were relatively simple, Wang Kejin's skill was enough to qualify for a higher-level mission. However, Wang Kejin did not take the initiative to fight for anything because a rookie's growth required learning through experience.

Wang Kejin was already the fastest-growing assassin in the new generation. He had already become the focus to be trained. In the future, if he had better performance, he could be recruited under his master – "Tombstone" and learn more sophisticated assassin knowledge. This was the dream of all disciples in the Butterfly Family.

Wang Kejin was fortunate. He also understood that although these things were the result of his hard work, luck played a role in it. If the missions he received were not too difficult, he couldn't create a record of one hundred percent completion.

It was precisely because of this record of one hundred percent completion of tasks that he had become the focus of the family's training. The disciples who were his peers would more or less have some failures in their completed missions. They could not be blamed for this. It was just that some of their missions were quite difficult.

Therefore, Wang Kejin was lucky. He became the person who was envied by everyone. Wang Kejin also cherished this hard-won opportunity. He became more conscientious so that he would not expose his shortcomings to others.

"Wang Kejin, you have not performed any mission in China yet, right?" The person asking this question was Wang Kejin's training instructor. On paper, the training instructor was on the same level as Master Tombstone, but he did not get the martial arts essentials from the Butterfly Family. He just learned some general knowledge.

"Yes, instructor." Wang Kejin replied respectfully.

"There are two missions this time. Both of which are located in Song Jiang in China. You go and finish both of them." The instructor handed over several pieces of information to Wang Kejin.

Wang Kejin took the information and read it carefully. While Wang Kejin was reading, the instructor said, "The rewards for these two missions are not little. One of them was received a few days ago. The assassination target is a university student named Yang Ming. He is nineteen years old, and he studies computer science at Song Jiang Industry University.

According to the client's request, we must kill a woman near Yang Ming. The information is unavailable. But what is certain is that this woman is his girlfriend, so you just need to kill the woman who is close to Yang Ming directly. "

Wang Kejin listened to the instructor and nodded. He had read briefly about Yang Ming. This was not a difficult mission; it was just a college student and should be easier to complete.

After Wang Kejin read the information on Yang Ming, he put it aside and focused his attention on the second piece of information.

“Of course, there is no difficulty in terms of Yang Ming as previously mentioned.” The instructor did not take the mission of assassinating Yang Ming as one thing but focused on the latter assassination mission. “This second mission has some difficulties. The three people on the information are all powerful people in the local area. They have power that can’t be belittled in both the official world and the underworld. There have bodyguards around them. Moreover, they are more likely to have guns on them. However, all three are affiliated with the same company.”

Wang Kejin nodded. Although the information was not clearly stated above, he could judge it based on some of the data. The three people must be the big shots of the local underworld. This mission was not simple.

However, Wang Kejin was very excited in his heart. The family finally appointed him to take a more challenging mission! In contrast, he was more eager to perform these difficult missions because he could only improve himself in this way and be recruited under Master Tombstone as soon as possible.
