

Soul Pets Bk2 1091

Chapter 1091: Loss on Both Sides, Final Ambition

Evil Good Queen floated down from the Wanxiang Altar. Beside her were two flower roots. These two roots suddenly latched onto Son of Heaven Wu Kuang's Icy Death King and Hero Aide's Steel Eagle King.

"Female Emperor, this is...." Wu Kuang and Lian Yan both looked at the queen with confusion.

Icy Death King and Steel Eagle King were both dominator rank, but they were like kids in front of the Evil Good Queen, easily lifted up.

Evil Good Queen didn't speak, simply glancing at Mu Qingyi not far away and said, "I already told you, I remain neutral."

Mu Qingyi watched this terrifying queen gravely. She didn't know why the woman suddenly said this.

Yet, she was stunned when she saw Icy Death King and Steel Eagle King fall into pieces under the strangling of the two roots!

The two dominator ranks- one became a heap of ice chunks while the other became a heap of flesh. The roots around them didn't do any obvious cutting, yet the organisms were split!

Son of Heaven Wu Kuang and Hero Aide Lian Yan were both in disbelief. Shouldn't the queen be killing Mu Qingyi's Crown Phoenix King and White Tiger? Why did she suddenly attack their soul pets?

Even more terrifying was how the two dominator rank organisms had no chance at all, dismembered between the two roots without apparent reason!!

Only when the pain of their soul pacts ripping hit them did they finally awaken, realizing that their dominator soul pets were really killed by their queen!!

Everyone was shocked, rubbing their eyes to see if they saw wrong.

“What are you doing!” Alliance master Ling Chan also was shocked. He stared wide eyed at this unpredictable woman.

“Heheh~~~~~” Evil Good Queen chuckled, the laughter sounding like the reaper’s last murmurs by your ear before death.

Evil Good Queen’s flower roots again appeared, this time to select Alliance Master Ling Chan’s soul pets!

The roots found purchase on the already weak Meteor Dragon!

“Beng!!!!!!”

Wrapping tight, the powerful defense of the meteor dragon were also shattered!!

When the Meteor Dragon became countless dust particles that scattered into the air, Alliance Master Ling Chan also fell into a daze.

His Meteor Dragon was also killed!!

“You..... you bitch!!” Alliance Master Ling Chan’s face contorted with pain from the soul pact breaking and roared.

“Don’t you understand yet?” Evil Good Queen floated in the sky and glanced at the two factions fighting it out, “I never wanted either side to win.”

“To start a new empire, dynasty, one must first remove all old factions. Didn’t I say this many times already? You are just too stupid to realize that “old factions” included yourself, Soul Alliance.” Evil Good Queen laughed.

Both sides losing!!

She truly wanted both sides to lose!

In a few short sentences, the soul alliance and three palace people went pale as if they were struck with lightning!

“To create new order, you people must first be eliminated. Defeating you one at a time would have taken too long. This was much better. I just need to do some final clean up.” Evil Good Queen looked at all the dominator ranks tired from battle.

Ling Chan thought that, by not getting too near this woman, by simply having a mutually beneficial relationship, he wouldn't get hurt. He never imagined that this woman was using him like a pawn the entire time, or rather, everyone here regardless of faction!

Evil Good Queen smiled and waved his hand to extend another root to the heavily wounded Wounded Slaughter Beast.

"You.....don't you dare!!" Alliance master saw his Slaughter Beast get wrapped up and went crazy, roaring like an animal.

"Of course I don't dare, I'm healing it." Evil Good Queen chanted.

Indeed, countless petals flew around the evil Slaughter Beast. The Evil Slaughter Beast's biggest wound was the location where Chu Mu ripped it open, flipping out flesh and bones.

Yet, under the petals, Evil Slaughter Beast started healing, regenerating bones, muscles, and skin.

Alliance master Ling Chan saw that she was actually healing his slaughter beast, he was even more confused as to what the woman was doing.

However, he quickly understood. Betrayal, anger, and disdain came from Evil Slaughter Beast. Ling Chan was terrified to find that the soul pact between him and the Evil Slaughter Beast seemed to have been lost.....

Looking over at the Slaughter Beast, he noticed its red eyes had gone from a red to a hollow black as if its soul was lost.

“It’s Flower Soul Control! The slaughter beast was injected with a large amount of flower poison, causing its body and soul to be controlled by the evil flower queen.” Old Li’s voice came out.

Old Li’s words were like a lethal blow to Ling Chan.

Now that Ling Chan finally knew why slaughter beast, always hostile to all, was so gentle in front of this woman. When she casted down the flower diagram, she had already injected poison into his soul pet!

This trap had trapped even Ling Chan!!

“Yuan Sui!” Ling Chan glanced angrily at Hero Chief Yuan Sui.

Hero Chief Yuan Sui clearly knew that Evil Good Queen’s true goal. He only stood beside her and said nothing.

Ling Chan finally knew why Yuan Sui could defeat Liu Binglan but wasted this much time. It was because she didn't want to destroy three palace too quickly. Who else would soul alliance have to fight?

"Her Majesty is willing to accept surrender. Retract your soul pets and don’t make meaningless sacrifices.” Yuan Sui said calmly.

As he said this, Yuan Sui’s eyes slowly became hollow and dark as well, similar to Slaughter Beast.

Seeing his eyes, Ling Chan laughed at himself.

War causing two factions to both lose, all of this orchestrated by this woman. Now, even soul alliance was about to lose.

Liu Binglan, Bai Yu, Chao Lengchuan, and Mu Qingyi also went silent!

Even the summoned seven diagram sacred kings were useless. The remaining five sacred kings didn't have much power left in them.

This woman was clearly stronger than the slaughter beast. They had no way to fight back and really could only watch as she used the simple roots to kill everyone!

“Aren't you getting happy a little too soon?” Suddenly, a slightly weak voice came.

Everyone paused to see that Chu Mu stand in front of everyone, eyes on Evil Good Queen.

”She had known Chu Mu wasn't willing to give up. With a mocking smile, she said, “You definitely know how I think about bets, so you knew this was the result long ago, right?”

Chu Mu indeed had guessed Evil Good Queen wanted to defeat soul alliance as well in this war. However, even if he guessed it, what could he do? Before three palace was defeated, she couldn't possibly defeat soul alliance. They had to fight this war no matter what!

However, have they really lost?

"What, you still want to fight me?" Evil Good Queen saw Chu Mu's eyes still burning and smiled, "Actually, I really admire you. I can forget everything you did in the past that made me angry as long as you obey me."

"Have you ever heard of a soul pet commanding a trainer?" Chu Mu laughed coldly and continued, "I think your dream is about to shatter."

"Shatter? I think it's perfect. Everything went as planned. In fact, you helped me to balance the two factions and helped me save time on defeating soul alliance." Evil Good Queen said.

Having absorbed the evil aura in sealed tower and the good in the seven diagram sacred kings, she was even stronger than before. Even if they were all at full fighting strength and combined forces, they still might lose against her. This battle was over. Either they were too obstinate to keep alive, or they would surrender and obey her, helping her create an even more powerful empire!

Chu Mu no longer said anything else. Chanting an incantation, he retracted Little Hidden Dragon and Zhan Ye into his soul pet space.

Evil Good Queen saw Chu Mu retract his soul pets, and her luscious lips curved into a smile.

The Evil Good Queen wasn't lying; she indeed admired Chu Mu's strength. To be able to reach such heights in such a short time, he was the only one in both Tianxia and Wanxiang Realm. If he became her subordinate, her future would be even brighter.

Evil Good Queen was just about to say something nice to alleviate the grudge between them when she noticed Chu Mu's gaze remained hostile, summoning another soul pet!

"Seven sins fox?" Evil Good Queen was somewhat indignant!

Chu Mu summoned a seven sin fox that wasn't even dominator rank!

"Are you thinking of using this untoned lower level fox to defeat me?"

"En, it will become your nightmare" Chu Mu took a step back.

At the same time, the nine tailed Mo Xie stepped forward, her lone and cold eyes glaring at the Evil Good Queen!

Mo Xie's devil pupils burned with a bright flame!!

However, this flame wasn't the seven sin fox's crimson. Instead, it was an angry purple that looked down upon the world!

Chapter 1092: Big Empty Sky, Incomplete Heavenly Fox Image

Was Chu Mu really going to use the Forgiven Seven Sins Fox Inferno monarch to fight the Evil Good Queen?

Right now the Evil Good Queen was even stronger than the Slaughter Beast while Chu Mu's Seven Sins Fox was only a paragon emperor. Such a soul pet would not be able to enter a fight between dominators.

Bai Yu, Chao Lengchuan, Mu Qingyi and Liu Binglan looked at Chu Mu with confusion.

"You've gone mad. The Queen is already willing to recruit you all. Don't be so stubborn and recognize the situation you're in now!!" Hero Chief Yuan Sui swept his eyes over Chu Mu and coldly sneered.

Chu Mu ignored Hero Chief Yuan Sui, and stared coldly at the Evil Good Queen.

The smile on the Evil Good Queen's face gradually turned cold as she saw Chu Mu's eyes and the Seven Sins Fox's angry stare. She really didn't like Chu Mu's expression right now.

This fellow had clearly suffered a total defeat, yet was still acting like he was full of fighting spirit. Just as Yuan Sui had said, he had gone mad beyond cure.

"There will always be people full of arrogance, unwilling to give up, who will ultimately die an insignificant death with their meaningless pride. You're willing to use your life to fight an undefeatable opponent, yet you refuse to surrender and serve? Chu Mu, while you are full of fighting spirit, please use your soul remembrance to clearly see my current strength. Then compare it to your Seven Sins Fox. I'm sure you will tell me that the strength gap isn't just one or two levels!"

The Evil Good Queen had her own level of patience. In her opinion, her willingness to forgive everything in the past and allow Chu Mu to serve her, without harm, was already an extremely enormous blessing to him!

“I’ll remember those words.” Chu Mu cracked a more dead than alive smile.

This smile made the Evil Good Queen even more angry. This fellow was treating it as if she was talking nonsense. But if that was the case, then she could only get rid of him!

“Since you feel your small fox is very strong, I will take control of it first, and then use your adorable pet’s claws to rip you apart!” mercilessly said the Evil Good Queen.

The moment her voice faded, she began chanting an incantation.

It was still two insignificant-looking flower roots that slowly stretched out. They were difficult to dodge and coiled around Mo Xie’s body.

There were numerous densely packed poison needles on the flower roots. These poison needles could easily rip apart any creature’s armor and imbue poison into the creature’s blood.

When the poison infected the whole body, the poison would slowly infect the soul, transferring control over the soul out of the body.

The captivating red flames on Mo Xie’s silver white fur slowly shed, revealing her silver and white, elegant and noble figure.

The flower poison had already entered her blood, yet she seemed indifferent, just standing there. Her two eyes that were perpetually changing color remained fixated on the Evil Good Queen.

The Evil Good Queen contemptuously laughed. The Evil Good Queen was able to control even a middle class dominator rank Slaughter Beast. Why wouldn't she be able to control a paragon emperor?!

"Flower Soul Control!" the Evil Good Queen coldly recited the technique's name. A grey soul imprint mysteriously appeared on her head!

This soul imprint could control the bodies and souls of creatures whose body had been infected by the flower poison. It was similar to a soul pet trainer's soul pact!

The Evil Good Queen felt the flower soul imprint appear on her forehead, and couldn't help but smile.

It seemed that the uneasy feeling earlier was just her overthinking things. This Seven Sins Fox was merely a paragon emperor and had been so easily controlled by her.

The Evil Good Queen glanced at the Seven Sins Fox's eyes. The Seven Sins Fox's silver eyes no longer had flames in them. Instead, they were a vacuous black color, meaning that the Flower Soul Control technique had succeeded.

"Little Sins Fox, make that person shed a bit more blood." said the Evil Good Queen. The flower roots retreated from Mo Xie's body and she gave Mo Xie an order.

Mo Xie quietly stood there. Although her eyes were a vacuous black, they were still fixated on the Evil Good Queen. Aside from her silver fur fluttering in the wind, there weren't any other signs of movement.

“Go kill your master!” the Evil Good Queen’s tone turned hard!

The Evil Good Queen’s words finally made Mo Xie move.

Mo Xie stepped forward, but was unexpectedly moving towards the Evil Good Queen!

“Idiot, I told you to kill him!” the Evil Good Queen suddenly angrily pointed at Chu Mu.

Towards the Evil Good Queen’s orders, Mo Xie didn’t react. She continued to walk forward with apathetic eyes towards the Evil Good Queen!

In her black vacuous eyes, a strand of mighty angry purple flames continued to burn at the very depths of the eyes. As Mo Xie stepped forward, the purple flames turned even more colorful and intense.

The angry purple flames seemed like they were going to jump out of her eyes. Mo Xie’s eyes lost their vacuousness, now resembling the unflinching gaze of an arrogant noble.

The Evil Good Queen was stunned. The flower soul imprint had clearly manifested, and her eyes had visibly changed. Yet, why wasn’t this Seven Sins Fox listening to her orders? Why was it still emitting a terrifying aura and walking towards her?!

“Hu hu hu hu~~~~~”

The mighty angry purple in Mo Xie's eyes had at some point begun to slowly cover her unblemished silver fur.

The mighty purple flame first appeared on her claws. With the step she just took, she left a deep purple flame imprint in the ground.

From a captivating red to angry purple, the color of the flame was ostensibly unexplainable. However, everyone discovered that Mo Xie's body was changing as she was wrapped by the angry purple flame!

This change was extremely strange. It was impossible to tell whether it was her muscle strength growing more powerful or her body becoming more nimble. Or perhaps the true change didn't lie here; instead, she was now covered in an omnipresent and heavenly, enormous demonic aura!

“Hu hu hu hu hu!!!!”

Suddenly, the mighty angry purple flames shot up. Mo Xie's silver body was burned by the angry purple flames to ashes!!

Mu Qingyi looked absentmindedly at mysteriously burning angry purple flame. The moment she saw Mo Xie vanish into ashes, she abruptly had a feeling of familiarity!!

Nirvana rebirth!

Turning into ashes amidst flames and undergoing nirvana rebirth in the flames. Wasn't this the unique characteristic of a phoenix before it was reborn?

However, how could the demon fox species possess the nirvana rebirth ability? It definitely was not undergoing rebirth in fire, nor undergoing nirvana in fire!

The reserved and diffused demonic aura above the angry purple flames suddenly changed!

As everyone discovered this strange phenomenon, when they looked up, they suddenly saw that the demonic aura had unknowingly drawn the outline of a creature in the air like a soul.

The first part of the outline to appear was the creature's tail and when everyone saw the outline of the tail, they were so shocked they couldn't speak!

Although it was an incomplete image in the form of demonic fog, they could clearly see that this creature's beautiful and enormous tails that meandered like a mountain range!

The outline of the nine tails gave people the impression that they were standing at the foot of a mountain and looking up at the meandering mountainback of a mountain range in the clouds.

There were a total of nine of these meandering, long tails. Nobody could tell where they extended from or where they were extending to. The majesty and beauty could not be described by words!!

It was incredibly difficult to believe because this enormous image was only of the creature's tail!

Everyone was shocked for a long while before they finally noticed that the rest of the outline of the creature in the torrential demon aura was slowly appearing!

The demon aura merely gave a hazy outline. The body of this creature was thus being drawn with a few strokes.

These few strokes happened to outline its shoulders, back, waist, and butt. If they were looked at individually, perhaps there would be no difference with cloud lines. Yet, when the nine faintly discernible and snaking, long tails were looked at together, this body could only be described as beautiful and shocking!

The shape of the body was perfect, yet it still exuded a shocking powerfulness to it!!

To take a comparison, the Seven Sins Fox's body was extremely perfect, but was more soft and elegant. On the other hand, the perfection of this enormous demon fox was filled with even more stunning power than the Thousand Wave Beast. It had a more tyrannical nature and savagery than the Slaughter Beast. Comparing the two foxes, the demonic and aloof nature of the demon fox species was even more present on this body!!

It was but a rough outline, but it still gave an intense shock to the hearts of others. Was there a creature in this world more powerful and perfect?

“Wu wu wu wu!!!!!!!”

“Wu wu wu wu wu wu wu!!!!!!!”

The demon fox's heavenly cry; the wind and clouds began to change!

The demon aura that pervaded the air transformed into a cyclone that violently pressed down on the entire city filled with smoke!!

Regardless if it was a fight between humans or soul pets, the millions of life forms in the city came to a sudden halt when the demon aura assailed the city!!

The stunning power made the millions of life forms in the entire city feel extremely insignificant. They felt like they were a group of people dripping in blood and engaging in slaughter when they suddenly looked back and saw the godly spirit of death standing behind them as if they were laughable. As long as this godly spirit wanted to, it could take away all of their lives!

The demon aura stunned the entire city into silence and stunned all of the people whose eyes were red with killing into abruptly realizing how childish and laughable their actions were!!

Genuine strength wasn't defeating everyone but making everyone deeply feel how insignificant they were!

.....

"What... what on earth is this..." the elders and senior elders from the Three Great Palaces were stunned!

"Does such a strong demon fox species exist in this world?"

From their knowledge, the creatures with the strongest species ranks in human territory were the Thousand Wave Beast, Crown Phoenix King, Empress Heavenly Thunder Snake, Slaughter Beast etc. No books had ever recorded a creature with a species rank higher than them.

However, the incomplete image that had manifested in the sky had completely overturned their understandings and deep-rooted theories!

Even if they didn't see what it truly looked like, they believed firmly that this was a supreme king with strength that surpassed the Thousand Wave Beast, had more affinity with fire than the Crown Phoenix King and had a savagery that suppressed the Slaughter Beast!!

Chapter 1093: Species Mutation, Fox Emperor's Anger!

In the angry purple flames, the disintegrated silver fur and beautiful meteor began to merge.

The first thing to appear were nine demon tails. The angry purple flames were like nine wild dragons that danced about, extending from the holy palace to Wanxiang Altar!

When the long tails appeared, although they were not as large or meandering as the ones that appeared in the outline, their grandeur was not any less!

The enormous tails would occupy an entire street while extended, coil around angry purple flames or wave around in the windy air. Each tail gave others a limitless feeling; it was far more soul shocking than the outline they saw in the demon aura.

When the tails were extended, the surrounding ruins would be swept aside, leaving a stunning gulch in the ground. It was as if some enormous creature had rampaged through.

“Wu wu wu wu wu wu!!!!!!”

The majestic cry that rang out awoke everyone from their reverie. Their eyes shifted once more to the ball of angry purple flames. They discovered that a body filled with power, ferocity, a demonic nature and fire had appeared!

Grand silver fur fluttered in the angry purple flames. Majestic, domineering, powerful and slender four limbs were standing on the ground. It seemed like this territory had been conquered.

On the arm and neck, protrusions had appeared in the bone structure, making the silver fur between the two shoulder bones especially prominent. When the fur was fluttering, it was like a king of pure silver was wearing the wind attribute on its body, accentuating an incomparable power!

In the pair of eyes that were as profound as the horizon, a raging flame was burning like the sun. Others could not look straight at it!!

The angry purple flames that burned all over represented this creature's solely supreme side!

Seeing Mo Xie's transformation, Chu Mu was equally shocked. He had never expected that Mo Xie's mutation this time would be so imposing and tyrannical!!

When Mo Xie had mutated from the Royal Flame Nine Tail Inferno Fox to the Seven Sins Fox, Chu Mu had at least heard of the Seven Sins Fox legend from Chu Tianmang.

However, Mo Xie's present mutation had clearly surpassed the knowledge in the human realm. It was a creature that had probably never been recorded. It was like the middle and upper class foxes that had never appeared in human territory that Old Han had spoken of.

"What creature dares to act so unbridled in front of me!" the Evil Good Queen's anger soared!

The Evil Good Queen was the progenitor of the flower species. Her species rank was stunning, and her current strength was enough to look down on all the creatures here.

However, she never expected that the Seven Sins Fox would suddenly transform into a creature with an extremely high rank. Its stunning power caused an uneasy feeling to well up in the Evil Good Queen's heart again!

“Huo!!!! Huo!!!!!!!”

The Evil Slaughter Beast seemingly sensed its new master's anger, and suddenly gave Mo Xie a roar!!

Evil energy coiled around its entire body, and the Slaughter Beast's vacuous eyes turned incomparably savage.

Suddenly, the Evil Slaughter Beast launched an attack. This ferocious monster ran straight at Mo Xie, its ghastly bone blades all standing up!!

“Huo!!!!!!!”

Its roar was terrifying. The enormous ground filled with ruins suddenly protruded with ghastly white bones. Each bone reached the halfway height point of Wanxiang Altar!!

This bone forest trapped Mo Xie inside while the Slaughter Beast's nefarious body passed through the enormous bones. Using its sharpest bone claws, it slashed at Mo Xie who was unable to dodge.

Nobody was able to clearly see the Evil Slaughter Beast's movements clearly. As they were shocked, the Slaughter Beast reached Mo Xie, who had transformed into a purple flame fox emperor!!

With the bone forest's existence, the purple flame demon fox was unable to dodge. Seeing the bone claw that was able to easily pierce the Thousand Wave Beast's body fall on Mo Xie, everyone's heart stood on end!

At such a close distance, could it still dodge?

Angry purple flames continued to flicker. Mo Xie's pair of cold and aloof eyes stared at the Evil Slaughter Beast. Her body didn't move at all, nor did her eyes change.

"Pai!!!!"

Suddenly, the enormous bone pike behind Mo Xie snapped.

Everyone felt something rapidly sweep behind Chu Mu. It was this sweep that had snapped the sharp and durable bone peaks that extended from Mo Xie's back to her side!

"Pai!!!!!!"

The second horrifying sound rang out immediately after. Before anyone understood why the bone peaks snapped, all of the bone blades on the Slaughter Beast's body suddenly snapped!!

The Slaughter Beast's attack practically came to a halt a hundred meters in front of Mo Xie. Its body seemed to have been struck by some force as its body began to seriously warp. The sounds of bones cracking could be heard!!

“Da da da~~~~~”

The bone blades transformed into splinters and fell in front of Mo Xie. On the other hand, the Evil Slaughter Beast's body flew to the side in a deformed state. It transformed into a black light that flew off into an extremely far distance at a speed that was even faster than its running speed!!

“Hong hong hong hong~~~~~”

The piles of ruins were knocked to smithereens. It was unknown how many times the Evil Slaughter Beast crashed into something as it flew from the middle city to the inner city. It knocked down the inner city walls before destroying countless city districts and finally landing between the middle and outer city!!

The three city areas of Wanxiang City, inner, middle and outer, were extremely large. Yet the Evil Slaughter Beast had flown through two of them!!

In the distance, an enormous balloon of dust rose up. Nobody could see where the Slaughter Beast had landed, but their eyes followed the long stretch of ruins through tiny streets and city districts to see the enormous balloon of dust in the distance!!

Even now, nobody understood why the Evil Slaughter Beast's bone blades had shattered nor why its body had mysteriously been smashed somewhere so far away. It wasn't until everyone discovered a tail burning with angry purple flames hovering in front of Mo Xie that they understood.

"Could... could a single tail have knocked the Evil Slaughter Beast flying?" asked Chao Lengchuan, stunned.

The Evil Slaughter Beast's strength was undisputed. Even after the Eight Diagrams combined forces, they were only able to barely obtain a wretched victory. Although the present Slaughter Beast's fighting strength was depleted and not as powerful, it was still a middle class dominator. Despite being weaker, it should not have been deposed of with a single tail strike!

"Is this..." Mu Qingyi looked, with eyes full of shock, at Mo Xie whose body was aflame with angry purple flames.

"Species mutation. This is a species mutation!!" blurted out Bai Yu. Even this half devil couldn't believe the situation in front of him!

Species mutation? A creature at the paragon emperor rank had undergone species mutation??

Species mutation was inherently extremely rare. Among millions of creatures, probably only one would have a mutated bloodline and it would also have to undergo some form of stimulation in order for this species change that defied natural laws to occur.

The number of soul pets in this world were hard to describe. There would ultimately be creatures who mutated, but most of them were between the servant and monarch ranks. Creatures that species mutated at the emperor rank or higher were practically a fantasy!

However, at this moment, they were witnessing one of these fantasies as they watched a creature that had just mutated species annihilate the terrifying Slaughter Beast with one tail!

How strong did it have to be to accomplish this?

Species mutation was a rank advancement or evolution. Nor was it a strength increase. Instead, it was a crossing of an entire rank!!

If normal logic was followed, if a paragon emperor crossed a rank, wouldn't it reach the peak of the dominator rank??

The middle class dominator rank Slaughter Beast was already capable of sweeping through all of the dominator rank experts in the human realm while the Evil Good Queen with slightly higher strength was able to rule over everything. Then what exactly was a peak dominator rank creature??

This surpassed everyone's imagination, and the power involved could not be described!!

"It probably hasn't reached the peak dominator rank, right?" a while later, Liu Binglan who had the highest soul remembrance muttered out of shock.

A true peak dominator could probably annihilate an entire city with a single breath. This species mutated demon fox definitely could not have reached the peak dominator rank. Moreover, most importantly, spirit emperor rank humans could not control a soul pet of this rank!

"In theory, it is a peak dominator, but it also isn't." Old Li's eyes flashed as he spoke.

Old Li naturally knew of the abnormal nature of Chu Mu's small fox. He stroked his silver beard. Each time everyone was confused and he knew the answer, he would always show this unrestrained gesture of pride!

Of course, it didn't matter how proud he was. Towards Mo Xie's species mutation this time, Old Li was incredibly shocked.

This small fox had truly continued to mutate up. This greatly defied natural laws!

"This fox... this fox..." Alliance Master Ling Chan, who had practically become a cripple, pointed at Mo Xie, and seemed to have finally thought of something.

However, no matter how long he stuttered, he was unable to spit the words out!!

Seeing Ling Chan's appearance, Chu Mu couldn't help but laugh. He said: "It seems that you've thought of something. I'll give you a hint: that soul pet egg taken away by the Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon..."

Chu Mu's words caused Alliance Master Ling Chan who had already been reduced to a stray dog violently tremble!!

"It... it truly is the soul pet that hatched from that egg??" the shock on Ling Chan's face couldn't be any more.

In truth, Ling Chan didn't know where the significance of that egg lay!

It wasn't until he finally saw the Seven Sins Fox mutate into an unheard of purple flame fox noble that he abruptly realized that the soul pet egg was a genuine and absolute treasure!!!

"If you carefully investigate this, you will discover that a few years ago when I was in Tianxia City, it actually wasn't a Seven Sins Fox, but a Royal Flame Nine Tailed Inferno Fox!" Chu Mu's tone was calm as he spoke.

"You... you're saying that it mutated twice??" Ling Chan asked in shock.

But as Ling Chan thought harder, he abruptly realized something.

It ostensibly didn't only species mutate twice!!

Chapter 1094: Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor!

When he signed with Mo Xie, she was still servant rank Moonlight Fox. Having experienced Evil Flame Six tail Demon Fox, Royal Flame Nine tail Inferno Fox, Seven Sin Fox Inferno Monarch, Forgiven Fox, and this time, Mo Xie has had five species mutations!

There was no organism in this world that can species mutate five times!

Ling Chan had a lost expression as he gazed at Mo Xie. He finally knew why he couldn't find the organism.

He subconsciously thought that it would be an organism with extremely high species rank. He never would've guessed that its initial phase was as low as servant rank, nor could he predict it would slowly species mutate until it could destroy his slaughter beast in one hit!

“Yellow Spring, Hades, Inferno, Underworld, Limbo.....” Evil Good Queen seemed to already know what the organism was, muttering a phrase no one understood as her expression grew grave!

“So this woman knows.” Rubbing his whiskers, Old Li was surprised, and looked over at Evil Good Queen.

Bai Yu, Chao Lengchuan, Mu Qingyi, and Liu Binglan were all confused. The words that Evil Good Queen had just said were all related to death, so why was she using them to describe this purple flame fox emperor!

Old Li knew that, including Chu Mu, no one knew why Mo Xie was mutating species, so he explained, “Legend says that at the peak of power, one can supercede life and death.”

“The amount of organisms that can reach this point in the world was very few. Only a few species that truly defy the natural order have stepped into this Undead rank, so they were named “Yellow Spring, Hades, Inferno, Underworld, and Limbo”. Legend says one is a demon fox, while Underworld is a water unicorn.”

“Now, we can be sure that Hades is the demon fox, since the raging purple Hell Flames are the best evidence!” Old Li said.

Old Li's legends were things no one has ever heard of- not even the most scholarly and elderly ones had understood!

However, with both Evil Good Queen and Old Li speaking up at the same time, they had to believe that there really were organisms that truly could be undead!

“Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor, I think this organism’s full name should be that.” Old Li said.

Chu Mu turned around to glance at Old Li and slowly repeated, “Called Hades, named Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor!”

The name alone sounded dominating. How many soul pets in the entire soul pet world had unique names?

“Purple emperor, very well.” Chu Mu smiled, eyes glowing as he glanced back at Evil Good Queen, “Looks like your dream is about to shatter!”

Evil Good Queen’s face became sullen. She couldn’t believe a ridiculous thing like species mutation would happen now.

This reminded Evil Good Queen that back in Immortal City, this seven sin foxes’ mutation had interrupted her plans, or else Tianxia City would already be hers!

“Hades? Your fox is still far from the real ‘Hades’!” Evil Good Queen roared as two beautiful evil good flowers blossomed below her.

Evil Good flowers were split between good and evil. The sacred blue was pure and holy while the crimson was evil and demonically charming. Two flowers of different qualities bloomed, causing petals to scatter into the air. The noble and charming petals all hid killing intent that could even rip souls apart!!

The sacred blue and crimson flowers flew across the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor's sides!

The very space was instantly cut into countless pieces as the sky seemed to fracture!

If it could even cut space open, what was some mere flesh? The Evil Good Queen's flower petals kept expanding as larger regions of space were quartered.

If a tiny petal touched one, even a dominator rank would instantly die. Mu Qingyi and Liu Binglan, who were nearby, quickly backed off.

"Mo Xie!" Chu Mu knew very clearly how terrible these petals were. Though he could cut space, he couldn't cut it nearly to the degree the woman's petals were!

Mo Xie's gaze focused, causing her pupils to come ablaze. Using her mind, she created an angry purple flame screen!

All the petals that were about to reach Liu Binglan and Mu Qingyi were ignited by the purple Hell Flames!

"Huhu~~~~~"

The flower petals were instantly ashen. The string of shattering space also stopped where the screen was!

Evil Good Queen humphed, and suddenly gathered all the petals around Mo Xie!!

“Shua!!! Shua!!!! Shua!!!!!!”

Above Mo Xie, the space had already become a chaotic space ravaged by winds. Below her, the ground had already disappeared.

Yet, the flower petals floated through the chaos, frenziedly ripping at Mo Xie’s body.

“Wuwuwu!!!!”

Mo Xie lifted her head, and let out a dignified call.

Her noble fur started lifting as the silver mane around its shoulders lifted up. Immediately brilliant hell flames rolled outwards from Mo Xie, looking like hundreds of dragons roaring outwards!

The purple hell flames were incredibly dominant. All the millions of petals were burned clean by the flames!!

The angry purple took over the entire space, dispelling even the spatial storms.

“Beng!!!!”

Suddenly, Mo Xie’s four limbs stepped upon the already shattered space and sent all the flames in the sky spiralling downwards!!

Angry purple flames were like the demon aura before. It created a massive heavenly fox shadow in the mottled sky. With a wild roar, it dived with destructive force towards the Evil Good Queen!!

A mere shadow causing the entire sky to collapse. The purple flames blossomed in the mortal world, causing the hundred thousand flower demon army to disintegrate before it even neared Evil Good Queen!!

Mountainous tail, sky covering body, the angry purple flames surpassed all techniques. It was like god sending down divine judgement!!

“Honghonghong!!!!!!!!!!”

Finally, the purple heavenly fox stamped down heavily. The Evil Good Queen’s sacred blue and crimson split body was completely covered by this world destroying flame!

Purple flames caused the entire city to become hell!!

Even more flower demons perished under this technique while all the nightmare species were perfectly fine.

The sea-like blood red plants instantly cleared out an entire region. Where the hell flames were most dense, it was already a hell. No one could look at it but the destructive force that spread outwards signified just how powerful this technique was. If it landed on a large group of pseudo dominator ranks, they would still all get instantly killed!

“Huhuhu~~~~~”

Hell flames still burned within the space and city. Within the purple flames, one could see the woman that suffered the largest blow slowly appear within the flames!

Her alluring body was especially enchanting, full of absolute charm. However, her angel like face was pale and frigid, her gaze staring with raging killing intent.

Sacred blue and crimson flower armors were already burnt, but she didn't care at all. Her hands grew an angry flower diagram within the hell flames!

The diagram was made only of a few strokes but it was the source of an unending growth of flower vines, branches, and leaves.

The rampant growth spread extremely quickly. Even the worst spatial storms could be home to new leaves. Instantly, the leaves took over all the hell flames, causing the city to become a flower empire!

Mo Xie didn't let her have any time to cast her territory. Her body suddenly turned completely purple, as she opened up to dash towards the Evil Good Queen!!

Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor was many times faster than even the Slaughter Beast. Even Chu Mu included couldn't even catch a glimpse of Mo Xie's shadow, let alone see her actual actions.

This speed was no longer running -- it was straight up teleportation!!

The flower vines connected to become a plant python, covering the sky in their writhing dense masses with no space at all.

This scene reminded Mu Qingyi of the sky devouring plant esophagus made by devil trees in the Ancient Wasteland.

Clearly, this Evil Good Queen's plant territory was far beyond the million devil tree army's. This was a plant calamity that made escape feel futile.

What caused Mu Qingyi even more shock was how the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor went right up against the shocking plant esophagus. Its agile body could run easily through the plants with absolutely no gaps between them, not losing any speed!!

“Wuwuwu!!!!!!!”

The Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor suddenly called out. One could see streaks of hell flames appear like comets within the dark plant esophagus.

“Shua!!!!!!!”

This plant territory had millions of layers, yet when the purple passed through, they all split apart, clearing a way towards the Evil Good Queen at the very back!!

Evil Good Queen stared shocked at this attack, and very frantically cast Flower Shadow Dodge!!

Breaking through millions of plants, the claw was still terrifying. Even with a dodge, Evil Good Queen suffered a deep claw on her arm!!

The entire plant army seemed to be just soothing grass, creating no obstruction for the purple Mo Xie to appear in front of the Evil Good Queen!

Its nine shocking tails opened up and stabbed into the ground from above, creating a nine pillared cell that locked Evil Good Queen inside!

Evil Good Queen was about to escape between the tails, but angry purple flames immediately closed up all gaps, causing the nine tail heavenly cell to blow up into flames!!

Chapter 1095: Trample Her and Her Arrogance

Evil Good Queen flew into a rage out of humiliation. Slowly creating a flower chain in her right hand, she whipped it heavily towards the nine tail prison to try to break Mo Xie's tail.

The flower chains were powerful, creating bloody ripples in the entirety of inner city and even reaching outer city.

However, no matter how the flower chain rippled through the city, the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor's tails were unmoving. In fact, burning hell flames started burning within the entire prison.

Like dragons and phoenixes flying, the entire prison was now a terrifying prison. Hellfire burned the Evil Queen that wished to dominate all!

The Evil Good Queen's flower chains were easily destroyed. She bit her lips in pain, but was too stubborn to let out a single whimper!

The woman seemed ready to endure the burn as long as it took; her determination was truly impressive!

Mo Xie and hellfire was endless, but even so, there was a slight pause. The Evil Good Queen was incredibly calm, picking out this time while being burned. Her jade-like feet quickly stepped out a magnificent pattern, creating flowers that allowed her to forcefully pass through the flames between Mo Xie's tails!

“Hu!!!!”

The flame screen was forcefully breached. Evil Good Queen's cold pupils glanced and said, “I will snap all your tails!!”

With a cold voice, evil good queen's body floated up and into the night sky.

Her eyes were like two evil crescents in the dark night, causing everything in this world to dim out, including the golden dawn!!

The world fell into complete darkness, leaving only Evil Good Queen's pupils of good and evil lit, watching over all the weak of the earth!

“Don’t look up, it’s her mental technique!” Chu Mu used mental voice to say to everyone.

With these two eyes, she could charm the entire human race. Other than the spirit dominator rank Liu Binglan, anyone else would fall for the illusion web she set up!

“You think you can be spared just by not looking?” Evil Good Queen’s angry voice came from above, heavily pressuring everyone’s heart.

The air was filled with thick pollen, as a blow from Evil Good Queen’s quickly spread it throughout the city!

“A flower is good and evil. It is in human natures to be’ good and evil. Whether its good or evil, nothing can escape my control!!” Evil Good Queen’s voice passed through the entire city.

Chu Mu suddenly turned around to find the five diagram sacred kings’ pupils to have become emptiness, as if their souls were taken.

Not only the five diagram sacred kings, Bai Yu’s Icy Pupil Unicorn, Mu Qingyi’s good Crown Phoenix King, Chao Lengchuan’s good Thousand Wave Beast. Other than Chu Mu and Liu Binglan’s soul pets, every other dominator rank fell into the illusion!!

“Block it!” Evil Good Queen’s command came down from the skies. She had seen the powerful Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor leap into the sky!

After the queen gave a command, nine low dominator rank soul pets floated upwards apathetically and pounced towards Mo Xie!!

Nine dominator ranks almost simultaneously cast techniques. Different color yet powerful dominator rank techniques formed an energy storm that filled Mo Xie's sky!

Mo Xie paused in the air, stomping down with her purple flaming paws, creating an energy ripple that slammed into the nine dominator rank organisms' storm!!

“Honghonghong~~~~”

The sky groaned with the destruction, twisting and collapsing from the energy collision.

In the chaotic air, nine mentally controlled dominator ranks seemed out of their minds. Before their techniques even dissipated, they had already dashed towards the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor as their eyes were filled with an unfound grudge!

Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor watched these dominator ranks and their eyes became imposing.

Its purple handsome figure disappeared in place. One could only see a light shadow flit through the nine dominator rank soul pets followed by nine tails flying through!!

“Pa!! Pa!!!! Pa!!!!!!!!!!”

Nine tails, each slapped a dominator rank. Even if the domiantor ranks tried to dodge, they would still get slapped, falling from the skies one after another!

Chao Lengchuan, Mu Qingyi, Bai Yu and even chief hero Yuan Sui saw the nine dominator ranks all fall onto the ground and momentarily lost focus.

With the Slaughter Beast and Evil Good Queen in comparison, they knew deeply the power of Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor. However, they had never expected it to be this powerful, able to easily slap nine dominator ranks onto the ground!

Evil Good Queen's expression clearly changed. Her evil pupils suddenly looked to another side where the three palace members stood!

The charming lips again blew out a gust. This time, it reached further, shrouding almost all of the three palace elites and military.

Chu Mu turned around to glance at the area that suddenly showed commotion. Clearly, being even lower level than them, they couldn't block Evil Good Queen's mental technique!

At this time, the dominator rank soul pets that Mo Xie swept down were starting to get back up. Under the effect of flower pollen and mental stimulation, they stood up and continued to obey, despite their worn bodies.

Bai Yu was mentally tired from continuous battling and no longer had the soul power to stop this control, or even retract his soul pets. He could only watch as their soul pets leaped towards the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor.

Far away, the commotion grew more frequent because the evil queen was causing the world to fall into chaos!!

“Unless you kill them all, they will continue to fight for me!!” Evil Good Queen knew that, head on, she couldn’t compete against the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor, so instead she thought of this wicked plot.

The people she controlled were all three palace people. With Mo Xie’s current strength, killing them indeed wouldn’t be hard, but how different was that from defeat?

“Wanting to ruin our people even now, you think you’re the only one with a mental technique?” Chu Mu laughed coldly.

Chu Mu knew Mo Xie’s type too well. Of her three types, she had demon type who controlled mental energy!

“Mo Xie, use a mental attack at her directly!” Chu Mu gave Mo Xie a command.

Mo Xie nodded, their purple pupils glinting with a demonic glint!!

Demon light blossomed. If the Evil Good Queen’s pupils were evil crescents, then Mo Xie’s burning eyes were the burning purple sun!

The dark world suddenly glowed with ten thousand rays of light. Dark purple burned within the flaming pupils that also hung in the skies, looking down on all the organisms in this place, as well as the ambitious queen that dreams of controlling everything!

With dazzling rays, they became ten thousand mental swords that stabbed towards Evil Good Queen’s mental world!!

The thick flower pollen dissipated in the hot purple glow as the thick dark world was also dispersed. All the controlling soul pets woke up like waking up from a dream, staring dazed at the purple flaming pupil.

“Ah!!!!!!!!!!”

The shrill screams echoed through the skies. This scream woke up all the lost soul pets immediately.

Lifting their heads, countless people found the beautiful queen on the clouds clutching at her hair with a pale face, painfully screaming!!

Facing the direct mental attack, Evil Good Queen could no longer control anyone else. Chu Mu looked at the woman get pierced by thousand blades. Even if this pain passed straight through to his own mental world, CHu Mu felt a perverse sense of satisfaction!

Full of ambition, always at the top, her twisted mind filled with ambition should get a taste of this torture more often. How else would she know what its like to destroy other people’s minds and step upon other peoples’ dignity!

Chu Mu didn’t show any pity, giving Mo Xie another command.

Mo Xie’s two flaming pupils grew even brighter as the swords stabbed deeper. This pain was like piercing straight through her soul!

“Chu Mu!!! I..... I..... I will not let you off easily!!!” Evil Good Queen screamed, her voice filled with the most terrifying anger!

“Don’t act like you’ve been very lenient towards me either. Starting from when you took up two of my soul pacts and betrayed me, you already pushed me towards the deepest abyss. Now that I’ve climbed out, bloody footprint on eafter another, this mental torture is nothing. How dare you have the nerve to roar at me?” Chu Mu humphed.

No one could understand just how much Chu Mu wanted to become a soul pet trainer. This betrayal that nearly caused him to lose that dream completely took away more than his negligible dignity but also the soul pet trainer dream in his heart!

So, when Chu Mu finally stepped into spirit soldier between ten and fifteen years old, and could summon soul pets and step back onto the path of soul pet trainer, the first goal Chu Mu set for himself was to find the person that nearly destroyed it all and trample her and her pride!!

Chu Mu had truly waited too long for this day!

From what Chu Mu saw, the tiny bit of torture he caused to Evil Good Queen was nothing compared to the mental trauma he had suffered!

“Dominate an empire, create a new dynasty, plotting countlessly, yes, you did well in all of that. You almost had it too, but having it instantly destroyed and sent into a nightmarish scenario..... how does that feel? Evil Good Queen, heng, don’t you know about how the evil always pay?” Chu Mu had been silent for too long and rarely ranted, but finally he got to spew his heart’s content!

“As long as I don’t die, I will make you pay this price in blood!!” Evil Good Queen’s shaking voice came.

“Die? You think too much. Our bloody grudge is far worse than that, you think I would let you off that easily? Don't worry, this is just the start....’ Chu Mu smiled evilly.

Glancing at Mo Xie, he signaled for Mo Xie to light some fire for her again. This woman hated flames the most, so he wanted to give it to her. After all, Chu Mu knew that this woman wasn't so easily defeated. While Mo Xie could still keep her mentally suppressed, he should torture her a few more times!

Chapter 1096: Purple Emperor, Nightmare Arrives!

When her eyes got angry, fiery clouds of an angry purple color gathered in the sky.

Above the city, these clouds of flame violently surged about, covering the sky above the Evil Good Queen with flames. Occasionally, the flames would transform into flaming windstorms that tore away and burned. They would transform into millions of fire waves that smashed and burned. Amidst the purple flames, the Evil Good Queen was like a piece of weed that was continuously tossed around!

With both anger and pain, the Evil Good Queen's voice of resentment resounded from the raging flames and reached the city.

She ostensibly didn't only want to curse or wish evil upon just Chu Mu. Everyone who heard her devilish voice couldn't help but shiver!

The hell flames continued to burn, turning the sky into a cauldron. The intensity of the flames wasn't enough to burn the Evil Good Queen to death, but it was enough to make her body feel limitless burning pain.

“You're still in the mood to curse?” harrumphed Chu Mu.

Mo Xie naturally understood her master's intentions, and the hell flames in the depths of her eyes grew even more fierce!

As her eyes changed, the flaming hell changed temperature. The raging flames embedded in the sky became the Evil Good Queen's true hell. The water attribute she added to herself wasn't of any use defensively under the hell flame's burning. The only effect it had was that her body wouldn't dry out.

As the flames burned, the Evil Good Queen was on the boundary of pain. The flower armor on her body turned from a blood red color to a holy blue. Her voice gradually turned from evil curses to pitiful begging.

Seeing this fairy-like beauty from the heavens receive such hellish torture, many people showed disturbed expressions, and they felt mercy in their hearts.

At this moment, the demonically beautiful temperament of the Evil Good Queen in the purple flames seemed to completely vanish. Gradually, she turned back to the Empress Concubine. Although she wasn't saying anything, her eyes seemed to be begging.

Fire types, towards plant world soul pets, were destruction. The Empress Concubine looked as if she could no longer bear this torturing and pleaded that Chu Mu would be more lenient.

"Please have your Purple Emperor stop. The past events that harmed you... I... I will definitely pay you back. I also will not selfishly flee. I will do whatever you want. Just please have your Purple Emperor stop..."

"Chu Mu, leave it. She doesn't seem to have much more life force left." Crown Prince Chao spoke first.

The kind-hearted Mu Qingyi's eyes also changed and she softly said to Chu Mu: "It's best if you don't torture her like this."

Chu Mu swept his eyes over the surrounding people and discovered that they were all showing traces of pity towards the Evil Good Queen. He couldn't help but look up and sneer at the Evil Good Queen: "You're still enticing the minds of others. It seems that the intensity of the flames isn't strong enough, eh?"

"I... I didn't entice anyone...ahh!!!"

Before the Evil Good Queen could finish speaking, the surrounding purple flames all converged on her. Suddenly, the heat turned up and she wasn't even able to speak!

"Chu... Chu Mu!!! Don't fall into my hands, otherwise I will definitely... I will definitely make you beg for death!!!" the holy blue petals on the Evil Good Queen's body turned a demonically gorgeous red color again. The anger, savagery and evil nature to her was once more exposed.

Clearly, the begging just now had been an act. But how could Chu Mu fall for it?

When Chao Lengchuan and Mu Qingyi saw the evil words of the Evil Good Queen appear once again, they were instantly stunned. Just now, they had truly believed the Evil Good Queen was on the verge of death. They never expected that when Chu Mu's flames converged, the holy blue color turned blood red again.

“The Evil Good Queen has a good side, and this side can easily make others believe her words. However, in truth, her good side is her terrifying side. Therefore, you can’t believe anything she says.” Chu Mu glanced at Chao Lengchuan and Mu Qingyi.

Chao Lengchuan and Mu Qingyi nodded their heads. If Chu Mu had put away the flaming hell just now, this woman probably would have launched a counterattack!!

“Hmm? You want to flee?” Chu Mu looked up and discovered that this woman was forcibly using a teleporting flower technique in attempts to flee from the flaming hell.

Chu Mu remembered this technique. Back in the Xiangrong City when he had fought her, she had used this technique to escape!

This was an extremely long distance spatial jump, and she probably had to have set up a spatial array beforehand. When she wanted to change locations, she would open the spatial array and teleport from her location to the installed spatial node!

Interweaving blue and red colored evil good flowers appeared on the Evil Good Queen’s body, covering her up. This evidently wasn’t a flower defense technique, but a spatial teleportation flower to flee!

“Hu hu hu!!!!!!”

The purple colored flames easily burned the petals to ashes. However, the Evil Good Queen’s body mysteriously vanished without a trace!

“Can you escape?” Chu Mu looked at the empty sea of flames and a smile rose on his face.

Chu Mu closed his eyes and used soul remembrance to sense.

A moment later, he opened his eyes and said: “Mo Xie, she’s hiding in Wanxiang Altar.”

Mo Xie nodded her head. Her eyes turned to the distant Wanxiang Altar. Her nine large mountainous began to move!

“Hu!!!!!!”

A wave of raging flames swept across at the same time as her nine angry purple tails. They were like nine enormous godly dragons using force to swing their tails!!

“Pai!!!!”

The nine tails swept through several city districts. With shocking strength, they smashed into the towering Wanxiang Altar, causing it to violently tremble. Immediately after, under everyone’s horrified gazes, it collapsed!!

“Hong hong long long long!!!!!!!!!!”

Wanxiang Altar had been established for several hundred years and was incomparably sturdy. Yet, with one powerful Nine Tail Fan, it had completely collapsed. The mighty and grand palaces sitting at the top came toppling down one after the other, smashing to pieces on the ground and creating a tall wave of dust.

The only thing that was intact in the central city was Wanxiang Altar, which was well fortified. Added on the Evil Good Queen's plants covering it, this enormous masterpiece would always stand. Its existence was the foundations for the Evil Good Queen's highest throne.

But now that it had collapsed and disintegrated, this meant that the Queen who attempted to unify everything had been completely defeated!!

The Queen's grand palace which was situated at the very top was smashed to pieces. The Evil Good Queen which stood above Wanxiang Altar, looked dazed as everything came to a collapse. She watched her own treasured palace be smashed to pieces and looked as if she had lost her soul. Her eyes turned from a daze to vacuous!

“Hong hong hong!!!!!!”

As the palaces shattered into different pieces, the Evil Good Queen's vacuous eyes gradually burned with an angry flame.

She fiercely glared at Chu Mu and her beautiful face faintly trembled. She looked like a devil woman on the verge of a breakdown and going mad. It was terrifying and cold!

From the day she stepped out of Sacred Holy Region, she wanted to conquer everything here. She had bitterly spent close to 20 years, racking her brains, and spent countless resources until experts had congregated here like clouds.

She eradicated obstacles one step at a time and hid herself for 20 years in order for the day she would eventually stand above Wanxiang Altar and look down at everyone she had conquered. Here, she would establish a new dynasty.

She had eradicated the two great factions and unifying the two kingdoms was her first step towards founding her dynasty and it was also the most important step.

The entire process had almost completely been in the palm of her hands and everything was in front of her eyes.

However, at the very end, it was all shattered by one person's hands.

This person should have been insignificant. So insignificant that he wouldn't even be able to defeat a flower demon she cultivated. Yet why was he able to stand in a realm higher than her own and crush everything she had bitterly spent 20 years creating until everything was left in fragmented pieces.

"Beng!!!!!" the paws burning in purple flames descended in front of her, crushed whatever was in front of her into pieces.

The Evil Good Queen looked up and looked at the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor.

The owner of this nightmare was in front of her right now. Mo Xie was undoubtedly her most terrifying nightmare. When she saw the undying species of legend standing in front of her, amidst her extreme anger was a sliver of feeling that made her shiver.

A chant was in Mo Xie's mouth and the cloak of silver fur she was wearing began to dance!

A silver streak of light shot across the dawnbreaking sky and intersected behind Mo Xie before finally forming a thread-like fox imprint!

The fox imprint gradually floated into the air and the silver color began to coil around the Evil Good Queen!

The silver thread wasn't a bind. Instead, it coiled around the Evil Good Queen before slowly melding into her body!

The Evil Good Queen wanted to resist, but in her weakened state, she didn't have much strength to shatter the demon fox bind that had already bound her soul.

After this technique was used, Mo Xie turned around and looked at Chu Mu who was slowly walking over.

"Wu wu wu~~~~~" Mo Xie gave a cry towards Chu Mu, and her body slowly shrank within the purple flames.

"Hades, you're a creature that has transcended death. This human will forever be stuck at the ninth remembrance spirit emperor rank. His life force is at most 300 years. He is weak, ignorant and laughable. As a demon fox supreme noble, how can you be the servant of a human like this?" The Evil Good Queen knew she couldn't defeat the Purple Emperor. However, she was still unwilling to be defeated like this, and began to provoke Mo Xie and Chu Mu.

Hades' strength already greatly surpassed Chu Mu's. The Evil Good Queen knew that the soul pact didn't have much binding effect anymore on the Hades Fox Noble. All creatures innately strived towards even more powerful domains. A soul pact signed between a truly powerful soul pet and a human would only be the initial period of time for the soul pet. The Evil Good Queen believed that any high ranking species had its own innate soul pride and this fox noble could definitely defect!

“Even if you speak until your mouth dries, you won’t be able to move her.” Chu Mu slowly walked forward and stretched out his hand, caressing Mo Xie who had transformed into a Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor.

If Mo Xie wanted to defect, she could have turned around and left back then at the demon home when he was also weak.

Any soul pet could defect, but Chu Mu didn’t believe that Mo Xie would defect.

This was a mutual camaraderie that didn’t need a reason. It was something a woman whose mind was full of conquering and schemes would never understand.

Chapter 1097: Submitting the Evil Good Flower Queen (1)

Chu Mu walked to the Evil Good Queen’s side. He stretched out his hand and grabbed her neck, lifting her up.

“Hu!!!!!!!!!!”

A silver devil flame appeared in Chu Mu’s palm. The pure soul devil flames caused the soul to feel the most intense pain since the Evil Good Queen had already lost the ability to resist.

As the Evil Good Queen was firmly grasped by Chu Mu’s iron-clad hand, she wanted to break Chu Mu’s hand. But in terms of strength, she was far from Chu Mu who had the half devil ability. No matter how much she struggled, she was unable to breakfree from Chu Mu’s fatal throat grab!

“I have already prepared your soul pet space. Of course, for you, this will be no different from a prison without any daylight!” indifferently said Chu Mu.

“Hu hu hu hu hu~~~~~”

Silver devil flames began to burn as Chu Mu poured the soul devil flames to the depths of the soul into the first soul pact.

Each soul pet space was . In the past, the first soul pact was empty, but now Chu Mu poured soul devil flames that would eternally never extinguish inside. After she was recalled into the soul pet space, she would continue to suffer the devil flame’s soul burning!

The Evil Good Queen seemed to sense that at the other end of her soul were the devil flames that she was most afraid of. Her face turned even more pale.

Seeing Chu Mu’s cold eyes, the Evil Good Queen finally felt fear.

She loathed fire, and loathed even more devil flames that could burn her soul. She would rather burn to death than be trapped in a prison filled with devil flames and have to continuously suffer from devil flames!

The Evil Good Queen shook her head in a panic, her eyes revealing a trace of pleading.

This time, the Evil Good Queen didn’t use any charming ability with her pleading. Yet, her pitiful appearance made it even harder for others to act ruthlessly.

If it were someone else, he or she would truly be unable to torture such a woman who was comparable to a goddess in terms of both temperament or looks. However, she had fallen into Chu Mu's hands, and he wouldn't pity her at all.

"Just now when you were laughing so wantonly, you should have thought how you would end up if you fell into my hands. This way, you wouldn't be so mentally unprepared as now." seeing this queen who stood so high above finally feel fear, Chu Mu let out a nightmarish smile.

Hearing his words, the Evil Good Queen wished nothing more than to bite the person in front of her to death!

Mentally prepared? How could there be mental preparation?!

Who would have imagined that when the conclusion was foregone, when both sides had been greatly injured, and when there was such a huge discrepancy in strength, that the situation would be completely reversed!

The species mutation and even mutating into the "Hades" fox noble. From a perfect emperor to a rank that was capable of crushing her. Indeed, after absorbing the evil aura and good intentions, her strength surpassed the middle class dominator rank by two levels. Even taking control of the Evil Slaughter Beast was an easy matter.

Such strength was unrivalled in Tianxia Realm and Wanxiang Realm. The outcome was surefire. Yet, ultimately, she suffered an absolute defeat and lost to a species mutation of fantasies!

The Evil Good Queen was extremely dissatisfied and frustrated and even if she wanted to cry, she wasn't able to.

"I nearly forgot that you have two souls. Both souls have devil flames attached." Chu Mu chanted an incantation and quickly filled the second soul pact with devil flames.

The second pact was the Evil Good Queen's place of rest. It still had to be closed and tortured. The oppressive Evil Good Queen obviously could not be let off.

When Chu Mu spoke these words, the Evil Good Queen's face turned even more terrified.

The Evil Good Queen was a pure flower type, and was extremely afraid of fire. If the second soul pact was filled with devil flames, and her body was thrown into this devil flame prison, death would truly be better for this flower type progenitor than staying alive!

"Young master, just leave the Evil Good Queen. She is actually just a subordinate soul. The one truly controlling everything is Empress Concubine Chu Xi's soul in your first soul pact." at this moment, Old Li jumped out and hastily spoke to Chu Mu.

"Hmm. You've been bewitched?" Chu Mu raised his eyebrows, and was slightly suspicious.

"How is that possible? Those in this world that can still bewitch me do not exist!" justly said Old Li.

"Then why do you want to let her off?" said Chu Mu.

“Young master, didn’t you say that you signed an equal soul pact with a young woman before? Through her equal soul pact, your innate soul has been split into two. One is a human soul and the other is a White Nightmare soul. Moreover, they occupy one of her souls and two of her soul pacts. Young master’s present innate soul is a half devil. The human soul is the main soul, while the White Nightmare is the subordinate soul.”

“The Evil Good Queen’s present state is like the half devil’s. Innately, their lives are the same, existing as the Evil Good Queen. Her soul was split into two when she signed a soul apct with you. One was Empress Concubine Chu Xi’s soul, while the other was the flower soul pet the Evil Good Flower Queen’s soul (also known as the Evil Good Flower Queen). Therefore, young master’s second soul pact’s second soul is actually the same as the White Nightmare; it is also a soul pet. However, this soul pet is not controlled by you, but instead directly listens to orders from the main soul.”

Chu Mu had thought of what Old Li had said before. In summary, his second soul pact was a pure soul pet, the Evil Good Queen, which was similar to the White Nightmare.

This was because when it merged with a human’s soul, the life form that was formed was similar to the White Nightmare; only, it was the Evil Good Queen.

“Young master has signed an equal soul pact with that young woman; therefore, she cannot control you at all. Nor can she control any of your soul pets. However, the soul pact young master signed with the Evil Good Queen was a soul pet soul pact. This means that the Evil Good Flower Queen’s actions can actually be forcibly controlled. Only, young master’s soul remembrance rank is not high enough.” said Old Li.

“Oh, so this means I have another soul pet?” said Chu Mu.

Old Li nodded his head: “Just like young master can summon the White Nightmare by itself, young master can lock Empress Concubine Chu Xi in the first pact, and crush her as you please while summoning the second soul pact's Evil Good Queen to fight for you. There's no point in young master torturing it because it only listens to Empress Concubine Chu Xi and is a portion of her innate body. Instead of locking it up and burning it with soul devil flames, which will greatly decrease its power, why not just use it for yourself?"

Old Li's words made Chu Mu's eyes light up. The Evil Good Queen's innate strength was probably very strong. If he was able to bypass the defector young woman and directly control it, making it his own soul pet, this would be something good.

Firstly, if he controlled the Evil Good Flower Queen, Empress Concubine Chu Xi's strength would greatly weaken and he would be able to crush her in his half devil state. Secondly, a soul pet that was a flower type progenitor was extremely powerful. If it fought for him, his strength would greatly increase!

"Yes, this indeed is not bad." a smile rose on Chu Mu's face.

The Evil Good Queen didn't hear the conversation between Old Li and Chu Mu. Only, when she saw Chu Mu smile and strangely look at her, she felt a cold sensation.

"Mo Xie, do you have a way of separating their souls?" asked Chu Mu.

Mo Xie gave it a try and chanted an incantation.

In order to split souls, Mo Xie would have to bind one soul with Demon Fox Bind while releasing the other soul. This probably wouldn't be too hard for the Hades Fox Noble.

However, Mo Xie discovered that there was only one soul in this body. In other words, the two souls had completely merged together, and could not be separated.

“Leave it. I’ll try.” Chu Mu had already chanted an incantation as he spoke.

Chu Mu was naturally chanting a summoning incantation. He could already feel the Evil Good Queen’s mental fluctuations linking with his mind. He was going to try summoning the Evil Good Flower Queen alone which would probably split their souls.

Chanting an incantation, an azure light indeed landed on the Evil Good Queen. The dense evil aura on the Evil Good Queen began to dissipate, and the blood red slowly shed away.

The weakened Evil Good Queen could not resist Chu Mu’s mental orders at all. The petals on her body turned a holy blue, turning back to their original appearance.

The demonic beauty and evil aura that covered her body was stripped. It seemed that Empress Concubine Chu Xi and the Evil Good Queen had some differences in character.

The Evil Good Queen at least understood how to pitifully beg Chu Mu, and understood what fear was.

However, gradually, the eyes of Empress Concubine Chu Xi, who turned into a holy goddess, were filled with stubborn anger and unwillingness!

Chu Mu casually tossed this woman to the side. Right now he wasn’t in the mood to deal with her because he discovered that the Evil Good Queen had already been recalled into his second soul pact.

The Evil Good Flower Queen's true appearance was an Evil Good Flower with intersecting holy blue and captivating red. When it maintained its flower bud appearance, there were lotus flowers under the flower petals.

Chu Mu used soul remembrance to peer inside. Suddenly, the two colored flower petals opened, and a female demoness with long hair sporting two different colors appeared from within, fiercely smashing into Chu Mu's soul pet space.

Chu Mu's soul pet space innately was not very sturdy. It was unable to contain a creature at the rank of the Evil Good Flower Queen. This strike caused Chu Mu to feel as if his soul was going to be smashed to pieces.

“Wu wu wu wu!!!!!!”

Mo Xie instantly felt the Evil Good Queen attack the soul pet space. Before Chu Mu could chant an incantation, Mo Xie herself entered Chu Mu's soul pet space and directly passed through several soul pacts. She domineeringly and imposingly stepped into the second soul pact!

Chu Mu was stunned. In the past, the soul pet space was very . A soul pet of a certain soul pact could not enter another soul pact space. Yet, the small Mo Xie had unexpectedly so fiercely ignored his soul pact obstacles. With one claw, she smacked the misbehaving Evil Good Flower Queen into good behavior!

Once the Evil Good Flower Queen started behaving properly, Chu Mu finally began to examine what the body of this flower type progenitor was like.

The Evil Good Flower Queen was a half human. The holy blue and captivating red stamens in the flower bud were intertwined together. They were connected to the long haired demoness that had just smashed into the soul pet space.

The long haired demoness' upper body actually looked like Empress Concubine Chu Xi, except it possessed even more of a demon aura and splendid aura.

This was probably similar to the White Nightmare's ability to look like its master. However, fundamentally, it was possible to determine that the Evil Good Queen was a half-demoness and half woman.

Chapter 1098: Force the Evil Good Flower Queen to Surrender (2)

"Young master, A nine remembrance spirit emperor will find it tough to capture this Evil Good Queen. Young Master can temporarily just tell little fox to subdue it. Once it reaches higher ranks, I can teach young master a slave imprint so young master can completely control it and not worry about the woman betraying and making trouble." Old Li said.

Chu Mu nodded. Though he didn't know what slave imprint Old Li was talking about, it probably wasn't too bad.

Old Li described it out loud, so Emperor Concubine Chu Xi also heard this, causing her to be silently furious, realizing that it was this old fellow's suggestion.

Splitting her soul into two was a great reduction to her strength. In this state, she couldn't even beat Chu Mu in half devil form. Originally, she was thinking about how unstable CHu Mu's soul pact was, giving her a chance to break out. From how it looked now, if Evil Good Queen were slave imprinted and sealed, she will never have a chance of getting away ever again.

"Hei, this little girl dares to give me evil stares still!" Old Li jumped up, making a face after seeing Chu Xi's expression.

Chu Mu glanced at the emperor concubine that remained arrogant and lightly said, “Don’t worry, she’ll have a great time soon.”

The soul pact space full of silver flames would be the place she would have to stay in for a long time in the future. Chu Mu wanted to see just how long she could remain proud.

After her soul was split, Emperor concubine Chu Xi was much weaker than Chu Mu. Chu Mu’s silver devil flames definitely could let her have a taste of death.

“Retract your flower demon army.” Chu Mu walked before Emperor Concubine Chu Xi, and said in a commanding tone.

Emperor concubine Chu Xi’s soul and mind were already restricted so Chu Mu’s words were somewhat compulsory. As a soul pet, it was very hard to disobey.

However, this woman was indeed proud. Facing Chu Mu’s command, she bit down forcefully and disobeyed, even turning her head aside to avoid looking at Chu Mu. Her eyes were filled with anger and shame, as if her current state was the greatest shame of her life already.

“You don’t want to retract it?” Chu Mu smiled evilly and glanced at Mo Xie, “Perfect, my little Mo Xie had just become Hades and still has many techniques she wants to showcase.”

Just how powerful Hades Fox Emperor was, Chu Mu wasn’t sure. Though the flower demon army was rather weak, one could estimate Mo Xie’s power roughly through the amount that die.

“Wuwuwu!!!!”

Mo Xie clearly hadn't been completely satisfied by the previous battle, letting out an excited call!

Seeing this Hades Fox Emperor about to attack, Emperor Concubine Chu Xi turned pale!

The flower demon army was something she wasted a large amount of time to raise. If this Hades Fox Emperor had stepped down, countless would die!

"Quick, tell your fox to stop!" Seeing Mo Xie leap into the skies already, she lost her composure and shouted out.

"This little girl, never well behaved unless violence is enforced." Old LI shook his head and sighed.

Chu Mu acted as if he hadn't heard. One could only see as Mo Xie became a purple comet that created a terrifying wave of beast energy!

The dawn lit sky was split apart by Mo Xie's purple fall. The massive beast type energy fell like a meteor into this city!

The entire city went silent, as if the very time stopped. One could see the destructive energy fall into the densely packed flower demon army, causing the now sacred blue sea of plant demons to float into the sky as the ground was destroyed!

"Honghonghong~~~~~"

The sound of the sky and ground collapsing finally sounded. The entire city could see endless plants dissipating to powder under the power!!

The powder became a veil of blue dust that permeated the city. It sparkled brilliantly under the sun, giving an elegant blue veil to this old city.

The loud rumble only lasted a moment, as did the destructive force. However, the blue powder remained in the skies for a while. An entire city watched the twinkling in the air, yet no one could forget the power in that destructive blow!

Emperor Concubine Chu Xi watched blankly at the hundreds of thousands of flower demons disappear. Crumbling onto her knees, tears of desolation fell out of her eyes, as all her pride was utterly gone- scattered like her flower demons.

With one stomp of Mo Xie, not only did the flower demon empire's overbearing attitude disappear, it also stopped the entire city's battling. The Nightmare Army, while still insatiated, started gathering back under the nightmare dominator's lead. Three Palace had already saved their family and friends and no longer needed to fight to the death against Soul Alliance. And, after seeing the flower army instantly lose a few hundred thousand, Soul Alliance no longer had the courage of continuing either!

A new dawn fell upon the city. Not long ago, this was the premier city of human civilization, characterized by bustling streets and a magnificent appearance. Yet, with this new dawn, beneath the blue veil was only ruins. Even a natural disaster would have yielded less damage.

At Center City, Liu Binglan, Bai Yu, Chao Lengchuan, Mu Qingyi, and Ye Qingzi finally recovered from their shock of the technique. Liu Binglan said, "Take down Ling Chan, Yuan Sui, and Wu Kuang."

Everyone else nodded, taking them and sealing their remembrance so the elders hurrying over could guard them.

The soul alliance dominator rank experts were completely hopeless. Seeing the Hades Fox Emperor walk out of a few hundred thousand new deaths, they seemed to have lost their souls.

Though the battle was incredibly tough, they finally won. The elders and senior elders had gathered around already.

Three Palace knew clearly that the reason the sure loss was turned around was completely and utterly because of one person.

From Chu Mu fighting his way into a city full of enemies himself, to carving a morale-raising blood path, to defeating soul alliance dominator rank experts, and to matching Alliance master Ling Chan!

And then, bringing out nightmare empire to fight against the harrowing flower demon empire, he brought a true turn to the sure loss.

However, the enemies were far stronger than anyone imagined. The Evil Slaughter Beast's appearance caused even seven diagram sacred kings to be unable to win. It was still Chu Mu's half devil state, which had already saved Tianxia City once, that defeated it!

Nightmares came one after another. Just when everyone thought Ling Chan was truly the scariest, Evil Good Queen's appearance caused the entire city to fall into a flower of death. Under this situation, Chu Mu's Seven Sin Fox had a species mutation, causing the situation of certain death to again revert, showing everyone what true strength meant!

It was indisputable that the wounded man standing where Wanxiang Altar used to stand was everyone's true god!!

"Let's clean up the battlefield, we need to control all the commanders of soul alliance." Liu Binglan said to all the elders.

Though the battle ended because of that stomp, there was still much that three palace had to do after.

Chu Mu had already cleared the way for them, so the rest was up to them.

The elders all held onto their excitement as they started splitting up the work to systematically clean up Wanxiang City.

After Liu Binglan spoke, she retracted her soul pet and walked over to Chu Mu.

The others also walked over. In reality, even then, the waves of shock hadn't completely calmed in their hearts.

.....

"Young master, there's still a bunch of flower demons, should we kill them all?" Old Li asked.

Old Li's words immediately garnered the teary yet angry glare of Emperor Concubine Chu Xi!

"Do you not know your current situation still?" Chu Mu humphed and said to Emperor Concubine Chu Xi.

Chu Xi knew that Chu Mu intentionally didn't hear her the first time. She glanced warily at Mo Xie and no longer dared to stare angrily.

One more stamp from Mo Xie, and she might faint.

"Chu Mu, tell her flower demons to heal the wounded soldiers." Ye Qingzi walked to Chu Mu and said to him.

Flower type soul pets usually had healing powers. This battle's magnitude was in the millions. There were countless casualties on both sides. The leaderless soul alliance army had to be taken care of as well instead of simply letting them die from their wounds. With such a massive amount of people to take care of, where were they going to find that many soul teachers and support type soul pet trainers?

Chu Mu nodded. Since Chu Mu was already very satisfied with Mo Xie's stomp, the flower demon army could be used to clean up the carnage. Killing them all would mean having to find another free source of labour.

"Did you hear that?" Chu Mu glanced at Chu Xi and said coldly.

Emperor Concubine instinctively wanted to humph, but remembering that a single technique of Mo Xie could kill this many of the flower demons she planned so long to raise, she pushed down her anger and gritted her teeth, “My soul is sealed, how can I use the technique!”

Chu Mu glanced at Mo Xie and signaled for Mo Xie to help her break the seal.

With Mo Xie standing there, she wasn’t afraid the woman was going to do anything fishy.

After the seal was broken, Emperor Concubine Chu Xi didn’t say much else. Chanting an incantation, she gave a command to all the flower demon’s minds, starting to heal all the wounded members within the city.

“Healing is a virtuous move. Every time her flower demons heal someone, her strength will increase slightly. Young master has to be wary of that.” At this moment, Old Li spoke again.

Just as Old Li finished, Emperor Concubine glared evilly at it. If she ever had the chance to flip the situation around, she was definitely going to rip this Old Li apart first!

Chapter 1099: Human shaped soul pet?

Finishing the chant, all the flower demons started to shed their sharp weapons, losing their poison, and slowly became gentle.

Losing their poison and vines, these sacred blue flower demons no longer looked cruel.

They followed Emperor Concubine Chu Xi’s command, with some gathering in the wounded armies to heal the soul pet trainers and soul pets, while others went through the city to search the ruins for more people and soul pets.

Just as Old Li had said, for every soul pet flower demon army saves and healed, she would get stronger.

This strength reflected directly on her soul. If not for Old Li's reminder, this imperceptible raise in strength could allow her to slowly break free of the demon fox's soul restrictions.

Mo Xie's demon fox bind couldn't last too long and, after the spirit flame burning, the silver soul restriction could likely fall. Old Li recommended Chu Mu to find someone to design a spirit vessel that used energy crystals to seal Chu Xi's soul inside. This way, it would be harder for her to escape.

Old Li mentioned that Old Han was an expert at making such soul weapons. He should just ask him to make it. Mo Xie would have to do for now though.

"What is your real name?" Chu Mu asked.

Chu Mu didn't like that this woman was called Chu- it was basically a stain on his name..

Emperor Concubine said coldly, "Whatever you call it."

"If you truly do think my soul pet space isn't warm enough, I can add some more devil flames for sure." Chu Mu's palm burned with silver flames.

Chu Mu's power raised up. Devil flames were even more powerful against Emperor Concubine's soul. The most powerful kind could directly burn her to ashes, but controlling it to a point of extreme pain without death was something Chu Mu could equally do.

“Yu Sha.” Emperor Concubine was about to give a random name. To Chu Mu, her using his name was an insult, but Emperor Concubine also found it insulting to give her name out too. However, after thinking about it a little, there was no point in going against him right now. She had to be patient to avoid further pain.

She wasn’t afraid of torture. She was more afraid of being unable to find any opportunity to escape. As long as she wasn’t dead, she would find a chance to attack.

“Yu Sha? Sounds alright, but I think if young master wants her as a slave, names like little flower, little daisy, or little red are better.” Old Li said.

Chu Mu knew Old Li’s suggestion was alright!

Emperor concubine heard the three unbelievably common names and felt the urge to kill.

Yu Sha, this name meant noble, unique. It was a name which her family gave to true angels. Yet, Chu Mu was here giving her cat and dog names. If not for the Hades Purple Emperor standing right beside her, she was going to risk her life to kill them!

Chu Mu finally didn’t let Old Li get his way with the names, but Chu Mu secretly wondered that Yu didn’t seem like a common first name. Thinking about it closer, the woman probably didn’t want to say her family name, and Chu Mu didn’t care enough to ask. After all, a name was enough for him to call her around.

“Alright, you should go to the place you belong to reflect on your actions.” Chu Mu said an incantation.

The soul pet space opened, releasing shivering devil flames that caused Emperor Concubine Yu Sha to shiver.

The determination on her face slowly disappeared, replaced with a new fear.

“Scared? This temperature actually isn’t much. I had to endure all this soul burning daily. You’ll get used to it. You don’t have to be afraid because you’ll get used to it soon. Once you’re used to it, I can slowly increase the temperature. This way, your soul will get stronger than ever. Maybe, someday, your power will be enough to walk out alone.” Chu Mus smiled seemingly gently.

Originally, as a soul pet, they should go through things together. Emperor Concubine Yu Sha escaped for a long time and gave up a lot of chances to split the burden of pain. Now that she was back, Chu Mu would slowly pay it back.

Emperor concubine Yu Sha looked at the silver soul flame hell and turned even paler. She slowly lifted her head and obliged slightly, saying, “If you take away the devil flames, I can give you something you need dearly.”

Emperor Concubine Yu Sha knew clearly that telling Chu Mu to let her go was impossible. What she could only do now was to minimize how much would happen to her and take away things that would make her escape impossible. She brought this up, because it could slowly bring together the chance to escape.

Xuan items were extremely alluring, so Emperor Concubine Yu Sha didn’t believe Chu Mu wouldn’t want it!

“What you said was something I will definitely take away, but this devil flame is something that will cure your delusion.” Chu Mu said.

Take away the flames- she thought too much. Even if Chu Mu didn't want the things, he had to let her feel the pain of soul torture.

"You won't die well!" Emperor Concubine Yu Sha could tell that Chu Mu just wanted to torture her, and started to swear out loud.

Chu Mu was too tired of listening to this woman talk anymore, and casted an incantation to forcefully retract her.

With her power sealed, she couldn't block the forceful summoning!

To her, Chu Mu's soul pet space was a dark, cold, and fiery prison. Once she was pulled into the space, the painful flames pounced forth, and caused her swearing to end.

With the mental world constantly shouting with Yu Sha's pained groans and toxic cursing, Chu Mu cut off the mental connection. No matter how much she cried out, he wouldn't be able to hear, and she would definitely become more honest.

.....

Soul pet retracting had clear symbols and diagrams. Bai Yu, Chao Lengchuan, Mu Qingyi, Elder Liu, Emperor Jiang, and Elder Teng were all besides him when it happened. They all saw as Chu Mu casted a soul pact incantation to retract her into his soul pet space.

Emperor concubine was Chu Mu's soul pet??

Everyone who saw was shocked and in disbelief!

No one could believe that the benevolent goddess that stood on Wanxiang Altar was the mastermind of the plot. However, no one could believe that this terrifying Evil Good Queen could get retracted into Chu Mu's soul pet space like that.

"She really is Chu Mu's soul pet??" Mu Qingyi stared dumbly at Chu Mu.

Before, Ye Qingzi had mentioned it but she didn't really believe it. Now that she saw Chu Mu really put her into his soul pet space, her thinking was completely messed up!

Chapter 1100: Tears of Pride

Ye Qingzi and Liu Binglan knew the facts but the others didn't. Even Wu Kuang and Lian Yan who were kneeled on the ground with sealed souls were stunned!

This pure, holy, refined, perfect, demonically alluring, mysterious, and terrifying woman was really Chu Mu's soul pet??

This was even more of a fantasy than a paragon emperor rank soul pet undergoing a species mutation!

Yet, everyone had just seen the scene of Chu Mu recalling her into his soul pet space. Soul pet soul pacts had a particular pattern, and the incantations were hard to fake through other means. Chu Mu hadn't hidden his recall either. Everything they saw was real!

“Brother... Brother Chu. This... this Evil Good Queen is really your soul pet?” Chao Lengchuan felt as if his world view had been toppled!

The Evil Good Queen’s terrifyingness made those from the Three Great Palaces and Soul Alliance tremble in fear. Moreover, she was demonically alluring and absolutely beautiful. She could definitely be described as heavenly. This female devil goddess who was a combination of evil, holy and beauty, was unexpectedly a soul pet, and also a soul pet that had signed a soul pact with Chu Mu.

“Yes, a long time ago, I saved her and signed a soul pact with her. Afterward, she defected and I came to know she became the Empress Concubine who also wore a fake mask of kindness to ensnare the hearts of people. I was also very surprised when I came to know of this. However, I believed that before I managed to defeat her, nobody would believe me if I said she was a demonic monster.” said Chu Mu.

Indeed, if Chu Mu didn’t recall her back to his soul pet space and used the most direct method of proving he had signed a soul pact with her, nobody would believe that this two-faced evil good goddess was a soul pet.

“It seems that our species has three people.” Bai Yu looked at Chu Mu, and bitterly laughed.

Chu Mu and Bai Yu were both half devils, and if they used the half devil method to understand the Evil Good Queen, it was easier to understand.

However, the senior elders and elders were clearly afraid of the Evil Good Queen.

Indeed, before the war had broken out, nobody doubted that the Empress Concubine who had won the hearts of countless admirers was the black hand behind the scenes of this war. She had hidden herself truly deeply. Added on her terrifying and unrivalled strength, if she was released, this was definitely a disaster capable of engulfing the human realm in a calamity.

These types of worldly calamities had appeared a few times in the human realm, but they had always ultimately been sealed in the Dormant World under Tianxia City or at the highest location in the Sealed Tower. They had been sealed for several hundred or thousand years, allowing people to calm down.

“She has absorbed much of the Sealed Tower’s energy. Fortunately, the Sealed Tower has been reinforced over a long period of time, otherwise those sealed creatures may have started a rebellion. We definitely cannot seal the Evil Good Queen in the Sealed Tower. The only thing that can limit Evil Good Queen is Chu Mu’s Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor. With her standing watch, nothing bad will happen.” said Old Li.

When the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor was mentioned, everyone hastily nodded their heads.

“Indeed, the Evil Good Queen is the progenitor of the flower species. We probably will not be able to find the strength to shatter her soul.” Nightmare Emperor Jiang nodded his head. He looked at Chu Mu and said: “You absolutely cannot let her run amok. Otherwise, another calamity will arise.”

“Right now, Mo Xie can suppress her. When my strength reaches the spirit dominator rank, my soul pact will be a forever unbreakable pair of cuffs to her.” said Chu Mu.

A ninth remembrance spirit emperor could control up to the low class dominator rank. Since Chu Mu was a half devil, and his own strength surpassed the low class dominator rank, he could control middle class dominators and below. Once he reached the spirit dominator rank, even if Empress Concubine Yu Suo transformed into the Evil Good Queen, she wouldn’t be able to resist if Chu Mu wanted to recall her back to his soul pet space.

“You’re right about that, but the spirit dominator rank...” Senior Elder Liu wanted to say something but hesitated.

Yet, everyone could guess what he was going to say. The spirit dominator rank had always been a legend. Those who had reached this rank in the human realm that were known was only Liu Binglan.

Even Alliance Master Ling Chan who was so strong he could cover the sky with one hand hadn’t reached the spirit dominator rank. It would probably be extremely difficult for Chu Mu to step into the spirit dominator rank.

It wasn’t that Senior Elder Liu had doubts about Chu Mu’s abilities. Rather, the ninth remembrance spirit emperor rank was truly a barrier no human could cross. There had been people stronger than Ling Chan in history, but they also seemingly could not cross this barrier. This heavenly crossing probably had nothing to do with strength.

“We’ll speak about this later. The situation right now is still very chaotic.” Liu Binglan stopped everyone from continuing to talk about this topic.

Liu Binglan was mainly concerned about Chu Mu. Regardless if it was Chu Mu or his soul pets, they had fought till the point of exhaustion in this fight. Seeing that the ghastly bloody holes on Chu Mu’s body that had yet to completely heal, she felt an ache of pain. In order to win this fight, he had given too much. Now that everything was finally calm, he had to have a good rest.

“Let’s all return to Xiangrong City first. The resources there are more, and I can collect even more healing medicines. This way, everyone can heal slightly faster.” said Ye Qingzi.

These were the two women who cared the most about Chu Mu. Ye Qingzi believed that Chu Mu was still standing only by relying on his powerful willpower. If he had to persist like this, this would have negative effects and burdens on Chu Mu's body.

Everyone really did need rest. Chu Mu glanced at Dead Dream, whose fighting strength was still decent. He smiled and said: "Bring us back to Xiangrong City, eh."

Dead Dream's flying speed was very fast. It wouldn't take long to reach Xiangrong City from Wanxiang City.

The Dead Dream landed in front of Chu Mu. Chu Mu had those more heavily injured, and their soul pets go onto the Dead Dream.

After everyone jumped onto the Dead Dream, Chu Mu discovered the Liu Binglan was standing to the side, and looking absentmindedly at this fallen city.

Liu Binglan shook her head. Her somewhat tired eyes flashed with something as she muttered: "If I had discovered that she had signed a soul pact with you earlier and entered our human realm, perhaps today's situation would not have occurred. If I was a bit stronger, the Three Great Palaces wouldn't have had such miserable losses..."

"The conflict between Soul Alliance and the Three Great Palaces had already existed. It inevitably would erupt. This is a change of era. Nobody can stop it." said Chu Mu.

Talking with Old Han made Chu Mu realize the true essence of things. Just like back then, how even though Chu Tianmang was the cause of the Sealed Mouth Event, the conflict between Chu Tianmang and Alliance Master Ling Chan would eventually be incited by someone.

Humans had existed for ten thousand years and undergone era after era. Perhaps the establishment of the Three Great Palaces had required a bloody battle like this too. Perhaps after another thousand years of the Three Great Palaces protecting its position, another new faction would attempt to replace it. It may also be called “Soul Alliance” or even “The Palaces”.

Old Han’s words made Chu Mu realize that the change of eras was built upon blood and sacrifice. The fall of an old group of experts meant a new group of experts would rise.

The last thirty years was the era of Old Han, the blind senior, and Old Wen. These thirty years had been the era of Alliance Master Ling Chan and the Four Heroes. The next thirty years would be the era of Chu Mu, Liu Binglan, Mu Qingyi, Prince Chao, and Bai Yu.

When an era changed, an individual could only propagate or slow down the change. Everyone would eventually grow old and every soul pet had its peak and decline. There was nothing eternal, including these factions of several thousand years, species of tens of thousands of years or even more ancient kingdoms...

Chu Mu never expected that he would one day be able to control the rise, fall, and existence of the human species, nor that he would stand in the war between humanity’s largest factions. If it wasn’t because of Liu Binglan’s own safety, the restraints of the elders, Empress Concubine Yu Suo’s ambitions, and Alliance Master Ling Chan’s overbearing nature, Chu Mu would have taken his soul pets and spent more time wandering in an even more mysterious and distant soul pet world. He would enter the highest realm he could, and then slowly walk out of the ruined arena...

Liu Binglan looked at Chu Mu. Chu Mu’s words allowed Liu Binglan to see Chu Mu’s attitude. His attitude was like his current strength: it truly surpassed the conventional world.

Remarkably, he didn’t look down on these transformations of the world, nor belittle the commoners. Instead, placed himself within and understood the essence of the conventional world.

Chu Mu's maturity and state of mind made Liu Binglan have her own understandings and shock.

"No matter what, you've always been able to help Mother protect the most precious thing. Mother has not given you anything, but has always had to have you pay up." ashamedly said Liu Binglan in a quiet voice.

In Tianxia City when she saw Chu Mu save Tianxia City but transform into the devil, Liu Binglan secretly swore to become stronger. This way, she wouldn't lose what she was protecting nor would those she treasured leave.

However, in the fight of Wanxiang City, Liu Binglan still felt that it was Chu Mu himself using his life to fight. She was still unable to help. Looking at her child full of wounds and blood, and watching him and his soul pets use their blood to protect Three Great Palaces, as a mother, how could she forgive her helplessness?

"If he could see everything you've done, he would shed tears of pride." a while later, Liu Binglan's eyes flickered as she spoke.

Chu Mu knew who the "he" Liu Binglan was referring to was.

Everything had already ended and his greatest enemy had been defeated by him. When the storm calmed, where would that man, who carried a body full of heartbreak and had stepped onto the same cultivation of path, be right now?

In front of his mother, Liu Binglan, Chu Mu's wisdom and maturity enabled him to be a man who could shoulder everything. However, in front of his father, Chu Tianmang, Chu Mu felt that he would always be a child; the leisurely and easy years of his childhood would never be forgotten. He was his teacher and friend, without a generation gap. He was an expert who he most respected and admired. Mostly, he was a father with incomparably deep love. No matter how high he stood or how far he walked, his figure from behind would always be like a giant in the depths of Chu Mu's heart...

He had placed endless hopes in Chu Mu; when Chu Mu was unable to become a soul pet trainer, he had become decrepit and soulless, and when Chu Mu had gone missing or even died, he had wept bitter tears.

But now, Chu Mu had reentered the path of a soul pet trainer, surviving the miserable conditions he was originally in. Chu Mu had become stronger and even defeated his greatest enemy who detested the most...

Would everything he had done truly be as Liu Binglan said? Would it make him cry tears of joy?
