

Soul Pets Bk2 1101

Chapter 1101: The Victory that Came an Era Late

Xiangrong City was peaceful and calm. It was an intoxicating enjoyment.

She had elegant and fluttering Fairy Butterflies that warmed the heart and delighted the eye. She had romantic beauty that was akin to stepping into a city of flowers in an immortal realm. She had four seasons of spring that gradually caused people to forget about seasons.

In the orderly streets sat kind-looking old men, confident young soul pet trainers comparing notes, and young children chasing and bothering Fairy Butterflies along the big streets and small alleys.

After the war, the peaceful city seemed particularly serene. Everything that had happened in Wanxiang City seemed to have nothing to do with this city...

.....

In an ancient courtyard, Old Chen sat alone. He was listening with concentration at the small trees and wind blowing.

On the old man's shoulder sat a Black Fairy Butterfly. Its eyes would always emit an emotion that others would find impossible to read. It was alone, and resembled the blind old man sitting in the courtyard listening to the wind.

Time seemed to pass very slowly, then very fast. It was the same as this old man's heart. He felt nervous and restless, hoping for everything to end soon, hoping that everything would not end so fast.

Unknowingly, this old man fell into a slumber amidst his unrest. In his dreams, he saw a white clothed young man staunchly walk out of Xiangrong City towards a city filled with enemies.

He saw his white clothes stained with blood, dried after so much fighting. Then, it was stained with fresh blood, the colors layering one layer on top of another...

His bravery caused enemies to retreat and under his feet was a pile of innumerable corpses. It was powerful and breathtaking.

However, ultimately, he still fell.

The enemies were too many and too strong. The Four Heroes, Li Hong, the Underground King, and the most terrifying Alliance Master Ling Chan were there. He had slaughtered his way until the skies and earth were murky, causing all of Soul Alliance to tremble when they roared. However, he had ultimately fallen, landing among the corpses of enemies on the ground.

The piercing laughter of Ling Chan and the other Soul Alliance experts rang out, as they watched this white clothed young man who had fallen. Old Chen's heart seemed to have shattered. It was like he was watching that heartbreaking young man from twenty or thirty years ago!

Old Chen's body violently trembled, and he abruptly awoke from his dream. The Black Fairy Butterfly on his shoulder flapped its wings and flew up. It looked with confusion at Old Chen who was for some reason in a state of panic.

The sounds of Soul Alliance's laughter continuously reverberated in Old Chen's ears. He also felt a lingering sound of heartbreak in the depths of his heart. He would never forget these noises.

“How... how could I let a child go to such a dangerous place. How could I let something like this happen a second time...” Old Chen weakly stood up, and his crooked body unceasingly trembled.

In the last era, he had suffered a complete defeat, and also ruined a child’s glorious prospects. In this era, he could only sit in a courtyard and wait, allowing another child to be bathed in a bloody fight, facing so many enemies.

In the past many years, he never had any objections towards growing old. Rather, he gradually came to accept growing old like this. However, in his heart, he longed to be able to ride a soul pet into battle like the past instead of having to live with this detestable old body.

The old man found it hard to calm his emotions. His chest continuously heaved, and his emotions violently fluctuated.

New soft shoots grew out. Old leaves were blown by the wind and fell on Old Chen.

A while later, Old Chen could only sit down with a decrepit expression. He went silent as if he had died...

“Old Chen, Old Chen!” suddenly, an incomparably anxious voice rang out from outside the courtyard.

The old man seemed to have been shocked by electricity as he abruptly stood up.

He knew that news had finally arrived. However, his heart that seemingly would not jump anymore was now violently jumping about, giving him a feeling of extreme unease.

Old Duan ran up with haste to Old Chen.

“What is it? Hurry...” Old Chen blurted out. However, he realized that it could be a nightmare and hastily wanted to stop him.

When Old Duan saw the strongest person of the previous era so flustered, he couldn’t help but laugh. It was rare for Old Chen to look like this.

After taking a breath, Old Duan said: “Old Chen, don’t worry. Let me slowly speak.”

“Tell me first how the child is. Is he dead or alive?” the nightmare from just now still was making Old Chen’s heart palpitate. Therefore, he was most worried about this question.

“Alive. Of course he’s alive!!” said Old Duan.

Old Chen let out a long sigh of relief and said: “He’s alive... that’s good. He’s still young. As long as he’s still alive, there will be a day when he stands at heights none of us can reach. He will ultimately defeat those enemies. Only, those people have already executed others...”

Old Chen knew that since Chu Mu had fled, those who were unwilling to surrender would probably all be executed. He couldn’t help but lament, and feel heartbroken for them.

“Old Chen, what’re you saying? Everyone who was going to be executed was saved!” Old Duan saw this old man muttering to himself and immediately spoke loudly.

Old Chen was stunned and immediately after, his wrinkled face showed a rapturous smile:

“Everyone to be executed was saved? This... this is truly too good... oh, oh, how.... How did he do it?”

“How did he do it?” Old Duan was stunned by this question. After thinking he said: “He defeated everyone in Soul Alliance, and then saved everyone who was going to be executed...”

“Wait wait wait. You just said he defeated all of Soul Alliance?” Old Chen hastily cut off Old Duan’s words and asked extremely seriously.

“Yes. Everyone!” Old Duan added emphasis to his voice.

“Fourth Hero Mo Ling, Hero Aide Lian Yan, Traitor Li Hong, Underground King Yi Jun, Hero Chief Yuan Sui and Alliance Master Ling Chan? All of them were defeated by him?” asked Old Chen.

“Yes, all of them including Soul Alliance Alliance Master Ling Chan. There was also the extremely deeply hidden Empress Concubine. All of them were beaten!!” Old Duan heavily nodded his head.

Old Chen obviously couldn’t see Old Duan nod his head, but when he could hear that his tone was certain, he was stunned!

Soul Alliance had such an enormous team of dominators. Yet... yet they had all been defeated. Had he heard incorrectly??

Old Chen had a vague understanding of their powers. These people formed the apex of the human pyramid and practically could not be beaten.

Moreover, Old Chen had personally fought Alliance Master Ling Chan before. He understood how strong he was!

Old Chen thought initially that Chu Mu had fled. With Dead Dream and being able to transform into a half devil, it wouldn't be hard for him to do so. But Old Duan had said he saved those to be executed.

Being able to save these people and escape already would have made Old Chen shocked. To Old Chen, this was definitely the best outcome. Even with excessive expectations, this should have been Old Chen's limit.

Yet, who would have expected that Chu Mu far surpassed Old Chen's excessive expectations and even defeated everyone including Alliance Master Ling Chan. He had won a great victory!!

"Little Duan, you... you sure you didn't make a mistake?" Old Chan's raspy voice trembled.

"I definitely am not wrong. Right now that brat is riding Dead Dream and bringing everyone back. They'll arrive in Xiangrong City soon. If you don't believe, go and look yourself... oh, go and ask yourself!!" said Old Duan.

After Old Chen finished listening, he seemed to have come alive. Allowing Old Duan to lead the way, he hastily walked out of the city gates!

Old Duan walked in front. His steps were very fast. The two of them seemingly forgot to summon their soul pets and focused on running outside of the city to watch and listen to them return.

.....

At Xiangrong City's eastern city gate, the dark purple Dead Dream beat its wings. Facing the sunset's glare, it rapidly approached Xiangrong City.

The Dead Dream's metamorphosis was larger than previously because the number of people on its back were many and included the captured Soul Alliance members.

“Wu wu wu~~~~”

The mutated Purple Emperor, Mo Xie, was lying on Chu Mu's shoulder, watching Xiangrong City growing increasingly close. She couldn't help but let out a declaratory triumphant cry.

Her cry was cute and weak. It was completely the opposite from her roar that stunned a million living creatures; instead, it was full of high spirits and adorableness.

When Chu Mu, who was silently cultivating to the side, heard the small Mo Xie's cry, he slowly opened his eyes.

The small Mo Xie saw that Chu Mu had awakened and mischievously used her small tail to brush Chu Mu's cheek. She looked happy, and not tired at all.

A knowing smile rose on Chu Mu's face as he stroked her soft fur.

If this small fellow hadn't mutated, perhaps he would not have been able to return to this city. Mo Xie had never let him down.

Watching the sunset wash over this peaceful city, for the first time Chu Mu felt how precious tranquility was.

As they flew on the Dead Dream over the city wall, countless Fairy Butterflies gathered like a cloud, seemingly coming to escort their king. A multitude of colors filled the skies outside the city. It was like they were coming to celebrate everyone's return.

“Hu~~~~~”

Dead Dream didn't stop. It flew past the city wall and past the cloud of butterflies, straight to the city lord's residence. Its speed grew increasingly fast, like a bolt of lightning streaking across the sky above the city.

Chu Mu threw a glance, wanting to see the faces of the residents who were coming to celebrate their victory. However, what Chu Mu saw instead was an old man supporting an even older man, silently standing on the ground.

The healthier old man pointed at Dead Dream flying through the sky, and was speaking with a face full of excitement.

The older blind man, however, turned his ear to listen to the Dead Dream fly by. His body then trembled and old tears fell down his face!

This scene flashed by his eyes. Next, Chu Mu saw the prosperous streets of the whole city filled with people coming and going while also cheering on the Three Great Palace's soldiers. However, it was the emotions and tears of the old man that was profoundly imprinted in Chu Mu's mind, tugging on his heartstrings.

While this was the fight of his era, why was it also not the fight of the previous era?

There was nothing that would make this old man cry tears of joy more than a victory that came an era late....

Chapter 1102: Queen? She's a Slave

Dark purple fairy butterflies spread throughout the city, causing the entire city to become even more enchanting.

Three Palace's victory caused Xiangrong City to fall into a long night of celebrating. Chu Mu's name was chanted louder and louder, wave after wave through the crowds.

Chu Mu himself, of course, couldn't enter this partying. He was laying in the infirmary.

Seeing Ye Qingzi quickly busying herself between multiple complicated flasks, Chu Mu couldn't help but smile and say, "Ye Qingzi, you're tired too, don't busy yourself."

"No, only your skin is healed right now. Your muscles, bones, and blood vessels will take a long time to heal by itself, and it'll hurt a lot." ye Qingzi said seriously.

Ye Qingzi loved Chu Mu's determination to see the end of things as well as the easy yet attractive smile he sported after he defeated powerful enemies, but seeing him fight until his soul pets were exhausted and his body completely tattered was still heart breaking for Ye Qingzi. If Mo Xie hadn't mutated, wouldn't they all have died there? Ye Qingzi still had lingering fear just thinking about it.

"Don't worry." Chu Mu was mainly mentally tired. His bodily wounds are fine; after becoming a devil, Chu Mu doesn't have much problem with pain anymore.

As he spoke, Chu Mu pulled Ye Qingzi to sit by his side on the bed.

"I'll be fine if you just let me cuddle you to sleep." Chu Mu laughed and said.

"I'm not some medicinal salve." Ye Qingzi rolled her eyes, but felt the gesture warm her heart.

Chu Mu pulled Ye Qingzi to lay by him, and rarely he didn't have any other devious actions. He just put both his hands around her soft waist, and fell asleep calmly with his lips pressed against Ye Qingzi's fragrant long hair.

Ye Qingzi felt Chu Mu's body warmth and the sturdy hug from behind despite his wounds and also smiled with satisfaction.

In the past, when Chu Mu trained alone, Chu Mu would always lay against a tree by himself to recover when he was tired or wounded. The feeling was actually very lonely.

After getting to know Ye Qingzi, Chu Mu slowly got used to her helping him and his soul pets' wounds. This feeling was indescribable, but the gentleness and warmth slowly melted Chu Mu's hard and icy heart. Chu Mu was never afraid of hard battles or of wounds. He was only afraid that once he was full of wounds and done battling, Ye Qingzi wouldn't be by his side anymore, leaving him to let his wounds dry in the lonesome wind.

This wasn't a feeling that Chu Mu could voice. He could only smile sheepishly when he saw Ye Qingzi worry around or wait until everything was over to hug her to sleep.

Chu Mu couldn't explain it himself with words, but Ye Qingzi could read it from Chu Mu's smile and actions. Thus, even if Chu Mu truly was very heavily wounded and needed immediate attention, Ye Qingzi didn't insist on healing Chu Mu right away, gently allowing Chu Mu to hug her to sleep.

However, once he was completely asleep, Ye Qingzi still quietly moved Chu Mu's hands off her waist and climbed back up carefully. Pushing her own fatigue down, she continued to busy herself with all kinds of medicine.....

.....

Chu Mu slept for ten full days. If Chu Mu weren't breathing at a calm pace all along, Ye Qingzi probably would've started emergency resuscitation on him.

After Ye Qingzi helped Chu Mu and his soul pets heal, she rested for a while and continued to heal other people.

After all that, Ye Qingzi returned to Chu Mu's embrace to sleep.

This time, she was the tired one, hugging Chu Mu into a deep and warm slumber.

.....

City master fort, House Arrest Courtyard.

The House Arrest Courtyard had Xia Zhixian, who was captured early on in the battle.

Xia Zhixian set up a barrier in the courtyard to block out all sound, so she had no idea what had happened in the past.

However, she maintained her leisurely self, gardening some plants when there was sun in the afternoon.

She had nothing to worry about. Other than Yuan Sui, she probably knew Emperor Concubine Yu Sha the best. She knew clearly Three Palace's current strength and situation. There wasn't a single chance in a million that the situation would turn around.

It was over already. The final result will be Emperor Concubine Yu Sha clearing out the remains of Three Palace and ridding the dominant soul alliance to reign over Wanxiang Realm.

The scene wouldn't change much even if Emperor Concubine didn't have her. Thus, Xia Zhixian only needed to wait here for the defeated three palace to come and politely release her.

According to her estimates, the battle between elites should be over by now and the situation settled. It won't take long before someone comes to release her.

Indeed, Xia Zhixian was right. Chao Lengchuan appeared that very afternoon.

“Prince Chao, you want a taste of Sister Xia’s tea?” Xia Zhixian was tending to her flowers when she saw Prince Chao come and couldn’t help but smile.

“Let’s forget about the tea. After considering it for a while, we’ve decided to place you under house arrest in Xiangrong City and serve for it without reason in the future.” Prince Chao said.

After discussing it with the other elites, all the captured soul alliance members were either executed, surrendered, or excused. The treatment to Xia Zhixian was more lenient than most. All they did was imprison her in Xiangrong City and seal away some of her soul pets.

“Emperor Concubine’s command?” Xia Zhixian said with surprise.

Though she had been captured by mistake, Emperor Concubine probably still needed a trusty right hand man like her, right? Why was she commanding for her to be imprisoned in Xiangrong City? Was it a punishment for her mistake?

“What Emperor Concubine’s command? That disastrous demon has been retracted by Chu Mu already. Your punishment was decided by the Three Palace senior elder conference, Elder conference, and Tianxia King/new Wanxiang King. If not for you saving many of Three Palaces people then, you wouldn’t be so easily let off.” Chao Lengchuan gave a cold humph.

“Prince Chao, what are you saying, why don’t I understand? Are you saying that Three Palaces is still alive?” Xia Zhixian was utterly confused.

“What, no one has told you? Soul alliance lead by Four Hero, Alliance master Ling Chan, and Emperor Concubine Yu Sha has been dismantled. Its the era of the new Three Palaces!” Prince Chao was also confused.

It had been two or three months, Three Palace has already started recreating Wanxiang City and combining the factions into one faction - the palace faction.

Soul Alliance was powerful because of its upper levels. Once that was destroyed, the remainder wouldn't be able to do much. They would clean it up soon enough.

Prince Chao still thought someone had mentioned it to Xia Zhixian, not expecting her still not knowing about this. Prince Chao didn't know what to say at that moment.

“Soul alliance falling apart? Of course they did. But how would the new faction be a palace faction? It should be a Queen's empire lead by Emperor Concubine!” Xia Zhixian said seriously.

“Hahaha Queen's faction, are you still dreaming? Good thing I have nothing else to do. I can lead you around outside and you'll know.” Chao Lengchuan laughed.

Chao Lengchuan said his incantation, and summoned Immortal Ming Bird for Xia Zhixian to jump on.

How could Xia Zhixian believe Chao Lengchuan? She jumped up and followed Chao Lengchuan around Xiangrong City.

.....

“You see? That sculpture in Xiangrong City is no longer Emperor Concubine Yu Sha, and is our female supreme. Didn’t Xiangrong City used to not have us Three Palace? You see those buildings over there? They’re already being built and will probably finish within the next two to three months. That’s the combined faction of Soul Palace, Nightmare Palace, and Soul Pet Palace. Those are patrolling guards, you see their symbols?” Chao Lengchuan was particularly happy today after seeing three palace getting more prosperous each day. This was like watching as the kingdom of heaven spread on earth. (Strange metaphor but ok)

Chao Lengchuan laughed, while Xia Zhixian seemed to have lost her soul.

One could see that Xiangrong City’s bustling people have settled into the peaceful era.

This peaceful era had flags, structures, sculptures, and soldiers all from three palace. One could even see remainders of victory celebration.....

A scene of flourishing and prosperity. This was completely similar to what Xia Zhixian imagined, yet the dominator wasn’t Emperor Concubine. Xia Zhixian’s heart went cold!

“No.....no, its impossible. I don’t believe it. Wanxiang City has to have fallen, and Three Palace at most split even against Soul Alliance!” Xia Zhixian said finally in panic.

Having so much change in the few months she was imprisoned, how could Xia Zhixian believe it? One has to know that emperor concubine Yu Sha had planned for twenty full years. This Tianxia and Wanxiang Realm were hers all along!

“Still don’t believe it?” Chao Lengchuan couldn’t bring her around to Wanxiang City with it being so far. Just as he was conflicted, Chao Lengchuan suddenly found a familiar figure in the stream of people. Wasn’t that Chu Mu?

“Ha, there’s Chu Mu. Your master Emperor Concubine is his slave now. I’ll bring you to see him and your master.” Chao Lengchuan laughed and said. He didn't expect to see Chu Mu in a randomly walk outside.

Xia Zhixian gazed over and saw Chu Fangchen. Hearing Chao Lengchuan’s words, she yelled out angrily, “Don’t say that!! Her majesty is noble and powerful, a unique queen of this world. How can you call her a slave!”

Chao Lengchuan didn’t mind, flying down with Xia Zhixian. Anyhow, once she saw Chu Mu summon Emperor Concubine Yu Sha, Xia Zhixian would believe it.

Chapter 1103: Alright, Finished Getting Air

Chu Mu slept for ten days and spent a long time following that adjusting and training himself.

Cultivating was an important part of Chu Mu’s life, comparable to breathing. Even though he had finally beat the person he wanted to defeat and had gotten an amazing victory, he remained a workaholic.

Though some people may fear or get lost in the endless path of cultivation, Chu Mu wouldn’t, He just wanted to continue walking life the way he liked it, sometimes fully concentrated in battle, sometimes laughing in victory, sometimes having his heart palpitate due to a new soul pet.....

In these few months of training, Chu Mu found a severe problem.

Because of Mo Xie’s huge increase in strength, his soul remembrance didn’t seem to increase in obvious increments.

Old Li once said soul pet trainer's soul remembrance needed all his soul pacts to be powerful- the massive leap Mo Xie made should more or less have helped Chu Mu improve. Yet, the reality was that Chu Mu's soul remembrance barely improved.

Ninth remembrance spirit emperor was like what the old man said. Breaking through the ninth remembrance spirit emperor seemed to have nothing to do with power. The entire human realm only had one spirit dominator rank, Chu Mu's mom Liu Binglan. Liu Binglan herself didn't know why she could break through with only one dominator, while Chu Mu stayed at ninth remembrance with a huge group of dominator ranks.

This strangeness was something Chu Mu couldn't answer either and could only throw aside.

The weather was good today so Chu Mu wanted to go out for some air. He called Ye Qingzi, so he could walk around in center city.

Ye Qingzi was training even harder than Chu Mu these days. She seemed to realize that her healing powers were slowly falling behind Chu Mu and his soul pets so, when Chu Mu was training, she also went into deep cultivation.

In the past, Ye Qingzi always told Chu Mu to go for air. Today, it was the opposite, where Chu Mu dragged Ye Qingzi outdoors.

Xiangrong City always had a special smell in the air. This scent was distinct but not at all tiring, light yet never gone. When one opened the window at night and let the smell enter, one could enter a deep sleep in no time.

Chu Mu loved this city. The only regret he had was not being able to finish his wedding with Ye Qingzi here.

Walking casually along the street, Chu Mu saw the fairy butterflies float through the skies, and occasionally he saw dark purple fairy butterflies fly past, giving him a natural smile.

Dark purple fairy butterflies were, of course, part of dead dream. Chu Mu let him out in Xiangrong City along with Little Hidden Dragon. Who knew which hidden alley these mischievous soul pets were playing in.

“What now, where do you want to go?” Ye Qingzi intimately hugged Chu Mu’s arm and asked.

“I want to find Ye, but without water type soul pets, going towards eternal ocean feels unsafe. Mo Xie does not want to enter water no matter what I say.” Chu Mu said.

“Looks like the extraordinary King of Tianxia is also incapable of water.” Ye Qingzi laughed.

Chu Mu smiled sheepishly. It was time for him to get a water type soul pet.

“En, that looks like Prince Chao’s Immortal Ming Bird. He’s with another woman.” Ye Qingzi pointed into the sky and said to Chu Mu.

“Probably Pang Yue. I heard Teng Lang say they often seem to mysteriously vanish together.” Chu Mu smiled.

“Nonsense. Pang Yue has always been around me, so I could teach her some soul art.” Ye Qingzi rolled her eyes.

“They’re coming.”

As they spoke, Prince Chao already rode his Immortal Ming bird down.

Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi were still trying to guess who it was, when they realized Xia Zhixian was the woman.

Chao Lengchuan quickly noticed Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi’s strange gaze and rarely blushed, embarrassedly, “I went to tell her her punishment, yet it turns out she didn’t even know the war ended and Soul Alliance lost so I’m bringing her around to show her the reality.”

“Oh? What did we decide on?” Chu Mu asked.

Chao Lengchuan looked confused, “Didn’t we show you the list of punishments, and didn’t you agree?”

Chu Mu was Wanxiang City’s new ruler. Both his status and power meant the punishments of important captives of Soul Alliance needed Chu Mu’s approval.

With Chao Lengchuan’s mention, Chu Mu finally remembered that the long piece of paper was a punishment list. When it was sent to him in his courtyard, he was whispering with Ye Qingzi in bed and didn’t mind it. Even now, Chu Mu hadn’t looked at it yet.

“Forgot to look at it, you guys can decide. Wu Kuang and Nie Yunbing must die, but the rest are up to you.” Chu Mu said.

“Alright.” Chao Lengchuan glanced at Xia Zhixian and said to Chu Mu, “Speaking of which, how did you deal with that woman?”

“Which woman?” Chu Mu asked back.

“.....” Chao Lengchuan realized that Chu Mu truly was careless. Did he forget about retracting Evil Good Queen? That’s a being even stronger than middle class dominator rank!

“Evil Good Queen.” Chao Lengchuan said.

Chao Lengchuan warning reminded Chu Mu. It seemed that the woman was still in his first soul pact suffering from silver devil flames. Its been a few months. If Chao Lengchuan didn’t mention it, Chu Mu probably would’ve forgotten too.

Chu Mu had already gotten used to his first soul pact being empty. After she was sealed off, it wasn’t much different from it being empty. Occasionally, when Chu Mu remembered, he was always busy, so he never remembered to check in on her situation.

“Chu Mu, let her out for a breath of air.” Ye Qingzi finally couldn’t help but say.

Ye Qingzi understood Chu Mu’s intentions of torturing her, but two to three months straight of silver devil flames burning wasn’t something many could take at all.

“Alright.” Chu Mu nodded.

With an incantation, Chu Mu activated his first soul pact.

A soul pact symbol swirled around Chu Mu and slowly gathered under Chu Mu to become a sacred blue flower.

The sacred blue flower still had some silver devil flames on it. The halo slowly opened up, creating a gust of wind on the streets, bringing the flower petals scattered through the streets in front of Chu Mu, creating clothes that gathered upon the woman that appeared.

In that moment, Chu Mu felt the pale jade figure in front of him turn around, revealing a beauty at the brink of eruption from anger in front of him.

“Chu Mu! I’ll kill you!!” Before Chu Mu reacted, a banshee-like screech went into Chu Mu’s mental world.

Following which, snake-like vines wrapped around Yu Sha’s arm, bringing a powerful resentment towards Chu Mu.

Emperor Concubine Yu Sha’s aura was immense. The entire street full of people almost fainted from her presence. The scent filled street suddenly became incredibly terrifying!

Chu Mu was ready. Casually grabbing at Emperor Concubine Yu Sha’s vine to shatter it, his other palm created a soul seal that slammed into Yu Sha’s stomach.

“Move one more finger, and i will double the devil flame’s power and leave you in there for a year.” Chu Mu humphed and said to the crazy woman.

Yu Sha was about to explode, but the soul seal caused her power to be suppressed. And imagining herself back in hell again, she didn’t dare to move anymore.

It was a few mere months, but to Yu Sha, the devil flames felt like years. Even more resentment worthy was Chu Mu never even came to look at her a single time in these few months. He might as well have killed her!!

“Ma.... Your Majesty.....” Standing aside, Xia Zhixian was stunned, only able to utter a few words.

Before when Chao Lengchuan mentioned Chu Mu had retracted Emperor Concubine as a soul pet, Xia Zhixian thought it was unbelievably hilarious.

Yet, Xia Zhixian saw the entire summoning process, completely proving Chao Lengchuan’s previous words. More importantly, Yu Sha stood right before her, pale and having lost her noble and sacred queen-like qualities. She was truly like a prisoner, with messy hair and an angry gaze, her expression was near exploding.

It was normal to be like this. Xia Zhixian of course didn’t think that the while she was casually in house arrest, her queen had gone through unbelievable mental torture. Even if Yu Sha was a true goddess, under the constant pain, anger, loneliness, and resentment, she couldn’t keep her perfect qualities, falling to become a she-devil.

Yu Sha took deep breaths to try to adjust her emotions.

After a moment, the woman truly pushed down the devilish emotions. Her eyes slowly regained their clear and logical nature, giving her back her proud and stubborn self.

Seeing her recover this quickly, Chu Mu had to readjust his estimates of her patience. After all, no normal person could push down the anger of getting tortured for a few months straight.

“Palace master, you..... What happened.....” As if struck by thunder, Xia Zhixian finally could utter a second sentence.

“You want me to repeat the shameful turn of events for you?” Yu Sha said coldly, her tone slightly angered.

Xia Zhixian immediately stopped speaking. Even though she knew Yu Sha was controlled by Chu Mu, for some reason the queen could always have her way with her.

“Alright, times up.” Chu Mu casted an incantation to open his soul pet space.

Before Yu Sha could react, she was forcefully dragged back into the space full of flames.

With a string of swears and charming screams, Chu Mu cut off his first soul pact to avoid any mental contact. This prideful woman could reflect on her actions in flames some more.

Chapter 1104: The Creature That Escaped the Sealed Tower

Wanxiang City

Before the war broke out, the neutral factions fled the city.

The residents also migrated to other cities affiliated with Wanxiang City, and those that had nothing to do with the war were not very implicated.

The entirety of Wanxiang City's south and northern districts were still in pretty good shape. Most of the damage was caused by splash damage from dominator rank creatures. The relatively more sturdy buildings were completely fine, and most of the collapsed buildings were ordinary residences and simple houses.

These buildings could be rebuilt in under a day by a suitable construction master. There were even a few construction masters with earth type and plant world soul pets that could construct a whole street in a day.

The destruction of the eastern and western districts were self-evident. Aside from the ruins, after the wind had swept through, the sky was filled with dust. They were areas of desolate mess.

Most construction masters were focused here. Wanxiang City was enormous to begin with, so in order to restore the city to its original state would require at least one to two years even with ten thousand construction masters.

Fortunately, the Three Great Palaces were extremely rich. After their victory, they put serious emphasis on reconstructing the city. With a huge sum of money spent to hire others, they would be able to return this city to its original life force in a short period of time.

Restoring Wanxiang City wouldn't be hard, but reconstructing Wanxiang Altar was an enormous piece of work.

Wanxiang Altar had been destroyed in one tail by the Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor, turning into a pile of rubble. Regardless if it was the mountain stones, the other constructs, the luxurious palaces or sturdy and beautiful glazed roof tiles, all of it had been destroyed.

The existence of Wanxiang Altar always had a special meaning. The people that had built it had already passed away. In order to complete this work of the Gods, or even to restore it to its former condition, it was practically impossible. Therefore, Wanxiang Altar would probably disappear.

Wanxiang Altar symbolized the authority of the Mu Family. The very peak of Wanxiang Altar was the spatial entrance of the Sealed Tower.

This spatial door hadn't disappeared because of Wanxiang Altar's destruction. Instead, it was still hovering above Wanxiang City.

Presently, Mu Qingyi was riding on the Crown Phoenix King outside the spatial door.

Mu Qingyi still didn't understand the state of destruction Empress Concubine Yu Suo left on the inside of the Sealed Tower in. She was planning on cleaning up the Sealed Tower, so as to prevent any hidden dangers from being left.

Chanting an incantation, Mu Qingyi opened the Sealed Tower's spatial doors. Bringing her disciple Guan Guan, she stepped into the special space.

"Your Majesty, so much of the Sealed Tower's energy was stolen by that woman. Will many of the sealed creatures have died because of this? Also, how are some of those sealed creatures able to survive until now while others have died? Where do those sealed creatures obtain energy to survive?" asked Guan Guan.

“There are several special seals in the Sealed Tower. The first seal is a normal seal that locks a soul pet inside. It is like a prison; it cannot be free inside. These seals don’t have any effect on the soul pet’s life and they are able to live through the space’s air. The second seal is a refining seal. This seal will continuously refine the creature’s blood, body, soul and bones into energy. The refined energy is akin to spirit energy and can be used to nourish soul pets. A portion of this spirit energy is left in the Sealed Tower while the other portion is spread throughout Wanxiang City.” explained Mu Qingyi.

“It’s no wonder realm cities are always built upon soul pet prisons similar to the Sealed Tower. These enormous prisons can all refine spirit energy used to nourish the entire city!” Guan Guan came to an understanding.

“Refining is a slow process. If we were to refine the soul pets of Soul Alliance’s Thirty Two Scars, Sixteen Absolutes, Eight Desolations and the Four Heroes in accordance with their crimes, it still won’t be enough to recover the entire city’s life force relying on buildings. There must still be enough supplements of spiritual charm. There are many criminals after Soul Alliance’s defeat. There will be a large group of convicted soul pets thrown into the Sealed Tower to be refined. These convicted soul pets should be able to provide enough energy to make up for the energy stolen by the Empress Concubine. However, the Sealed Tower seems to have been destroyed to a certain extent and is a bit unstable. If it remains unstable, if we are to send that large group of convicted pets into the Sealed Tower, it will only add to the tower’s burden, causing a rebellion to occur.” Mu Qingyi earnestly explained to Guan Guan.

Mu Qingyi needed a group of people to continue protecting the Sealed Tower. Guan Guan was one of the protectors she planned on raising. Therefore, she had to explain the meaning of the Sealed Tower’s existence to her.

As the master and disciple pair spoke, they had already passed through the chains interweaving through the heaven and earth, appearing underneath the Sealed Tower standing quietly aloft in the boundless space.

“Sou!!!!!!!!!!:

Suddenly, a gale swept past them, blowing against Mu Qingyi and Guan Guan's hair. It then rapidly rushed towards the spatial door.

"You Majesty, what.... What is that?!" Guan Guan cried out!

The creatures in the Sealed Tower should have all been sealed. Why did a living creature suddenly rush out? Could it have been a creature numbered in the top twenty to have escaped?!

The creatures numbered in the Sealed Tower's top twenty were even more terrifying than Tianxia City's. Most of them were not even able to be refined to death. They could only be sealed forever. If one were to escape, Wanxiang City would meet a calamity!

Mu Qingyi was stunned. How could she have expected a creature would escape from its seal. Promptly, she urged the Crown Phoenix King, and instantly chased after that creature.

That creature was extremely fast. Mu Qingyi was unable to clearly see its appearance. If it was able to reach this speed, however, it was definitely a dominator rank creature!

If this dominator rank creature escaped, it would be a catastrophe to the cities without a dominator rank creature watching over it. There were only a few people in Wanxiang Realm with a dominator rank creature and the Wanxiang Realm was enormous. If this imprisoned dominator rank creature escaped, it would be too terrifying.

"Si la!!!!!!!!!"

A spatial tearing sound rang out. When the imprisoned dominator flew through the door it relied on the spatial door being half-open to forcibly rip open space!

When Mu Qingyi saw that this creature was able to rip apart space, she was shocked. This was an other type dominator! If it were to escape, with its other type control over space, it would be extremely hard to catch it again!

The prisoner dominator's movements were very fast. Mu Qingyi chased with full speed, but was still a step too slow. The half-closed spatial door was ultimately closed.

“Go, see if Bai Yu is still in Wanxiang City. Tell him what just happened.” when Mu Qingyi saw this prisoner dominator flee out of normal space, her face instantly changed and she hastily spoke to Guan Guan.

Guan Guan knew the severity of the situation and didn't dare to hesitate. She immediately summoned a soul pet and flew towards Wanxiang City.

Chapter 1105: Mysterious Glacier Man

The prisoner dominator didn't stop in Wanxiang City. After escaping the Sealed Tower space, it immediately flew northeast.

Mu Qingyi naturally wouldn't let it flee. She urged her Crown Phoenix King to follow behind.

For some reason, Mu Qingyi felt a feeling of some similarity to the creature fleeing a hundred kilometers in front of her. She seemed to have felt this creature's existence when she had previously patrolled the Sealed Tower.

The Prisoner Dominator's speed wasn't slower than the Crown Phoenix King. Unknowingly, they flew out of Wanxiang City's territory, northeastward.

Mu Qingyi was extremely persistent. She wouldn't give up until she caught up. But since the opponent's speed was equally as fast, this would cause the time spent chasing to unceasingly increase.

.....

"Why do I feel like this fellow wants to go somewhere." Mu Qingyi stared at the prisoner dominator in the distance, without any signs of slowing down.

This extended flying consumed an extremely large amount of soul pet physical strength. Mu Qingyi began to doubt whether this Sealed Tower dominator creature had spent a long time in the seal, since it should have already lost a place to go. If it was fleeing, it should have been aimless.

However, Mu Qingyi found that this prisoner dominator was fleeing in a very specific direction, never deviating from its path. This made Mu Qingyi even more confused.

Mu Qingyi's persistence was indeed very shocking. After chasing for ten days, she didn't have any intentions of stopping.

The Crown Phoenix King had flown into the glacier world in the northeast of the Wanxiang Realm, and was continuously approaching the Heavenly Mountain.

The distance from the glacier world to the Heavenly Mountain was still very far. This would probably take a month of flying. As the pursuing time extended, the suspicion in Mu Qingyi's heart grew increasingly strong. She didn't know why this prisoner dominator would fly to the glacier world where there were no creatures, resources, or spirits.

“It’s slowing down.” finally, Mu Qingyi discovered that the prisoner dominator was slowing down. Clearly, without any food or energy supplements, the huge amount of exhausted energy prevented it from maintaining its flying speed.

Mu Qingyi didn’t hesitate, having the Crown Phoenix King increase its speed to intercept the prisoner dominator that escaped from the Sealed Tower.

“Yi!!!!!!”

The Crown Phoenix King beat its wings and golden flames erupted in this snow white world. They instantly dissolved the surrounding glaciers into rivers!

The raging flames formed a gorgeous fire ring that burned the ten kilometers around the prisoner dominator, trapping it in the flames.

The fire ring continuously shrank, forming a fire type and wing type prison. No matter how the prisoner dominator moved, it was unable to free itself from the ring.

“It’s best if you don’t struggle. Obediently return to the Sealed Tower to receive punishment!” said Mu Qingyi.

Dominator rank creatures were extremely intelligent and could understand human speech to a certain extent.

Finally, Mu Qingyi finally clearly saw the dominator rank creature's appearance.

This was an other type creature that looked like a slender demon cat. However, it had the lush and domineering mane of a savage lion.

The maned cat demon's tail was extremely long like a whip. At the end of the tail was a scorpion's pincer.

Mu Qingyi had seen this creature before. This was a rather rare Strange Mane Demon in the human realm. Its species rank was a monarch rank.

The Strange Mane Demon was ranked in the top ten most mysterious creatures because until now, no book had recorded its abilities.

Other type creature techniques were innately hard to guess. Although the Strange Mane Demon's species rank wasn't high, it was one of the most mysterious creatures.

“Pu~~~~ Pu~~~~~”

The dominator prisoner used its deep murky eyes to sweep its eyes over Mu Qingyi and the Crown Phoenix King. It didn't have any intentions of letting itself be captured. Its body suddenly dropped out of the sky, falling straight onto the top of an enormous glacier.

The glacier was lofty and tall. After being burned by flames, it revealed the rocky mountain underneath.

This mountain rose steeply from the ground and a shocking geological fault appeared on the mountain peak. It seemed like this mountain had been hacked open by a sword.

When Mu Qingyi saw the prisoner dominator continue to flee, she urged her Crown Phoenix King to continue chasing down while also utilizing the effects of the fire ring shackles!

The fire ring shackles immediately tightened, causing the dominator prisoner's range of movement to shrink. The moment it tried to move, it would be burned by the flames.

After the prisoner dominator landed on the peak of the glacier, it stopped moving. It lightly bent its knee and knelt on the mountain peak. Its head slowly lowered, and then it let out what sounded like a crying sound.

Mu Qingyi stopped chasing because she suddenly discovered a man wearing snow white clothing standing on the mountain peak!

Mu Qingyi's perceptive abilities were very powerful and logically, those that appeared within ten kilometers of her should have been detected by her released soul remembrance.

However, the man in snow white seemed to have melded completely into the glacier, and was only discovered when she was under a kilometer away from him!

To dominator ranks, a kilometer was only a step away. The moment Mu Qingyi saw this man, her heart jumped. This feeling undoubtedly arose because she was unable to discover him even though he was right in front of her!

Mu Qingyi was hovering the air, silently staring at this man.

There was no aura on this man. If she looked at him with her eyes, she couldn't sense his existence. Or perhaps it was because this man was like a glacier who had silently stood here for a very long time.

Finally, the man moved. He slowly knelt down and extended his hand, softly stroking the Strange Mane Demon's fur.

"Bu~~ bu~~~~~" the Strange Mane Demon let out sounds that resembled crying noises. From Mu Qingyi's angle, she could see drops of crystals fall, splashing on its fur, and the back of the glacier man's lightly trembling hands.

This scene touched Mu Qingyi's heart, because too similar to a scene she had seen before.

She remembered that back on the Wanxiang Plains, Chu Mu had also knelt down in front of the returning Warbeast Mo Ye, using his hand to stroke his soul pet that had gone missing for many years.

Mu Qingyi didn't know the story between the man and the tiger, but she was able to read and understand the heart of a soul pet trainer and heart of a soul pet.

For some reason, when Mu Qingyi saw this unfamiliar and dangerous man stroke the prisoner dominator, she seemed to read and understand it again. It seemed that this man and soul pet also had a tragic story...

Mu Qingyi quietly looked on. A while later, she suddenly realized this man was staring at her.

“Who are you?” the man’s eyes were cold as he asked his question.

“The Mu Family’s Mu Qingyi. Who are you?” responded Mu Qingyi.

“Are you in charge of the Sealed Tower?” the glacier man didn’t respond with an answer. Instead, he responded with a simple question.

“Yes, you soul pet escaped the Sealed Tower without permission. As the Sealed Tower’s guardian, I have a duty to rearrest all soul pets that have not finished serving their sentences.” gravely said Mu Qingyi.

“Then your duty has already ended. You can return.” said the glacier man.

As he spoke, an all black war tiger suddenly walked out from behind the man.

The black war tiger strode forward. When its front limb hit the ground, a powerful darkness energy exploded under its feed. As it proliferated, it easily destroyed Mu Qingyi’s Crown Phoenix King’s fire ring shackles!!

It didn’t even use a technique, and was able to shatter the Crown Phoenix King’s technique. The strength of this black war tiger stunned Mu Qingyi!

This was a Warbeast Mo Ye. The strongest Warbeast Mo Ye Mu Qingyi had seen was Chu Mu's Zhan Ye and until now, she had believed it to be the strongest Mo Ye in the human realm. She never expected the glacier man's Warbeast Mo Ye to be this strong!

Mu Qingyi's mind was rapidly spinning. She was unable to think of what person could have such powerful strength!

"Who on earth are you?" coldly asked Mu Qingyi.

Mu Qingyi could feel that this man's strength was above her's. However, such an existence had never appeared in the human realm before. If Mu Qingyi didn't figure out if he was good or evil, she would feel uneasy.

"Who I am is not important. Soon there will be someone to take control of this place. Pass on this message to the relevant person." said the glacier man.

"Take control?" Mu Qingyi's face was full of bewilderment.

However, before Mu Qingyi could ask follow up questions, the man jumped onto his powerful Warbeast Mo Ye. He turned around and the Warbeast Mo Ye stepped through the air above the nighttime glaciers towards the distant Heavenly Mountain. The Strange Mane Demon shrunk into a half-lion half-cat creature that lay on the glacier man's shoulder. Its long tail fluttered behind it.

The Warbeast Mo Ye's running speed was extremely fast, and the Crown Phoenix King could not catch up. Mu Qingyi could only watch, stunned, as the black war tiger brought the escaped creature far away.

“Who on earth is that person? What does he mean by someone is coming to take over this place?” Mu Qingyi knew that chasing was futile, and could only ponder these questions as she watched them leave.

Mu Qingyi believed that outside of Wanxiang Realm and Tianxia Realm, there were definitely other human territories. Only, nobody knew a thing about what kind of civilization they were or what kind of status they occupied in this world.

It was rumored the Heavenly Mountain was home to a passage to a vast territory. Was the glacier man flying towards the Heavenly Mountain to leave for a new territory? Or was he returning to his homeworld?

Mu Qingyi was unable to obtain answers to these questions. She could only return and ask others with more experience and qualifications. Perhaps she would be able to obtain an answer from them.

Chapter 1106: Lost Desolation Garden, Fight Again

Xiangrong City

After the war ended, Chu Mu again fell into a status where cultivation was useless. This status, when occasional, was relaxing. He could talk with Old Chen about knowledge, go with Ye Qingzi to gather medicine, or hold a difficult book to read for an entire afternoon.

However, if he stayed like this for long, Chu Mu couldn't sit still. His bones were filled with battle-hungry blood. If he didn't battle for long, he felt as if even his heart would stop.

However, if he wanted to fight, a very painful question was presented to Chu Mu.

First, the entire Tianxia Realm and Wanxiang realm didn't have any bewildering worlds Chu Mu didn't dare to go to. Even finding a place to train Binding Wind Spirit, Ning, and Ghost Monarch King was tough.

In this time, Chu Mu specially went to Lost Desolation Garden again.

Lost Desolation Garden was an ancient danger ground. The ten thousand eyed treant lived there along with a massive Devil Tree empire, a place very well suited for Devil Tree Battle Soldier to train in.

Chu Mu had a wood type Xuan item. This Xuan item had already nurtured Devil Tree Battle Soldier for a long while. With Ye Qingzi gathering many wood type soul items for Chu Mu, Devil Tree Battle Soldier had enough resources to rank up. He only needed a powerful battle to get powerful.

Before going to Lost Desolation Garden, Chu Mu went to Old Han and Old Wen to visit them.

Though the two already heard from others that Alliance Master Ling Chan had lost greatly, and even when Chu Mu explained it in detail, the two were still astonished.

The city falling without reason, the seven sacred kings summoning failure, the flower demon army, the most powerful man of Three Palace, Li Hong, betraying them, Alliance Master Ling Chan's unbeatable Slaughter Beast, and Evil Good Queen's unsurmountable power.

All of this was something these two old men couldn't expect. A situation where the opponent got that much stronger yet they still won- it was truly rare.

“Chu Mu, didn’t you hear the rule of how warrior rank soul pets can never enter dominator rank?” Old Han rubbed his beard and said in a low voice to Chu Mu.

Servant rank organisms couldn’t enter emperor rank, and warrior rank couldn’t enter dominator rank- this was a fact all spirit emperors knew well. Thus, when Chu Mu said he was going to Lost Desolation Garden to train his Devil Tree Battle Soldier to raise it to dominator rank, Old Han felt like it was unrealistic. Even if Chu Mu had a wood type Xuan item, it was impossible.

This was a species limitation, a peak a certain species could reach. It was something no organism could break through, unless it has a species mutation.

“I have confidence.” Chu Mu said.

“Alright, letting it try isn’t a bad thing. However, don’t force it to happen. It’s hard to find Xuan items in Wanxiang Realm and Tianxia Realm , so wasting it would be a true tragedy.” Old Han didn’t continue convincing Chu Mu. Some things had to be personally experienced to understand.

.....

Again entering lost desolation garden, Chu Mu ran straight for the Devil Tree empire that had once caused him to run away pathetically.

Glancing over, the green ocean was calm yet spectacular. There was no space between the canopies. If one stood in the forest, one couldn’t see whether it was day or night.

Chu Mu could no longer tell how much of this sea was real plants, and how much were Devil Trees hibernating. After all, since the Devil Tree battles soldier was training, the main fighting force would be this.

The Devil Tree empire's perimeter were all Ten Pupil and Hundred Pupil Devil Trees. These organisms could be a big threat to Devil Tree Battle Soldier if gathered in the tens of thousands.

This Devil Tree empire was very vast. There was at least two hundred kilometers between Thousand Pupil Devil Tree and Chu Mu. In this case, invincible emperor ranks couldn't actually disturb the dominator rank. In fact, even the stronger Thousand Pupil Devil Trees near the center wouldn't notice quickly. It was enough for Chu Mu to move in gradually.

Fighting group battles was naturally Devil Tree Battle Soldier's strength. A few thousand Devil Trees still couldn't pose a threat to it. With Chu Mu's command, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's yearning to break through its species restriction caused it to kill its way into the pupil Devil Trees.

There were two things that allowed the Devil Tree Battle Soldier to be extremely powerful in group battles. One was life force absorb. As long as it could absorb life in time, it couldn't be defeated in a group setting. The other was poison.

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier's poison covered a huge region. As long as one was in this region, any organism would constantly get soaked in poison, and lose life until it died.

Especially the wounded creatures, after they were affected by poison, they would live their lives unknowingly, until they rotted into poisonous sludge.

These two abilities caused the Devil Tree Battle Soldier to progress through the empire freely. Very quickly, tens of thousands of Ten and Hundred pupil Devil Trees rotted into this fertile soil.

There was no challenge on the outer rim. Chu Mu brought Devil Tree Battle Soldier straight to the center.

At the center, the Devil Trees were clearly stronger. Most were commander and monarch ranks. If they got together in numbers beyond two thousand and attacked Devil Tree Battle Soldier together, Devil Tree Battle Soldier might not be able to handle it.

Chu Mu brought Devil Tree Battle Soldier through this vast land and roamed through, determined not to let the enemy numbers gather higher. Through changing positions, breaking through, and maneuvering, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier killed countless enemies and absorbed wood type life force many times its own limit.

However, after killing so much in the empire, Chu Mu finally got the attention of a few top tier emperor rank Thousand Pupil Devil Trees. Chu Mu had to bring the tired out Devil Tree Battle Soldier to a sparser forest area and hide for a bit.

“Fifty emperor ranks, three of which are top tier emperor ranks, along with a commander rank army. This wasn’t too easy to deal with.” Chu Mu rubbed his temples.

Though he could defeat all of them with one hand, it wasn’t much of a benefit for Devil Tree Battle Soldier. Now, Chu Mu had to use Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s power alone to defeat the incoming army.

With three top tier emperor ranks as lead, this should be a tenth rank wood type tribe that has found Chu Mu, surrounding them.

If they kept fighting, Devil Tree Battle Soldier's stamina would lacking. He could kill at most two to three thousand of the commander rank army before running out of energy. The fifty emperor ranks and three top tiers were even harder to deal with.

“Ao~~~~~” Devil Tree Battle Soldier was like a loyal soldier standing aside Chu Mu, making a loyal call, signalling that it wasn't afraid of this tribe.

“Ao!!!! Ao!!!!!!!!!!”

“Ao!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, the dark forest started sounding with roars.

These roars were clearly from the arrogant Thousand Pupil Devil Trees. Chu Mu had fought with them the day before and these trees were very smart. They knew that Chu Mu was making trouble in the empire and intentionally disguised as plants to wait until Chu Mu walked in before unrooting themselves, creating a huge plant prison to capture Chu Mu.

Chu Mu's ninth remembrance spirit emperor rank wasn't enough to sense everything. After getting tricked, Chu Mu decisively brought Devil Tree Battle Soldier to try to escape. After trying extremely hard, they finally got away from these sly trees and found a place to hide.

However, this was their territory. After Chu Mu hid, the tenth rank tribe started putting scouts and guards in every inch of the territory. If Chu Mu didn't summon more soul pets, it was hard to deal with the current situation.

“Whatever, let’s try the strengthening now. If we accidentally succeed, you could destroy them afterwards.” Chu Mu said to Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

“Ao~~” Devil Tree Battle Soldier was more hesitant, because it knew it hadn’t fought enough.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier used the life force absorption to determine whether it was ready to enter dominator rank. It had absorbed around fifty times its life force in life energy right now. In reality, Devil Tree Battle Soldier felt like it needed a hundred times more before it could succeed in raising rank for sure.

A hundred times was equivalent to defeating 100 top tier emperor rank organisms.

Of course, 5000 monarchs’ life force together was around a top tier emperor rank. With Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s power, group fighting would be more efficient.

Old Han had also estimated that in a normal situation, an invincible emperor rank had to fight at least 100 top tier emperor ranks in battle before it could step into dominator rank.

However, they also needed a xuan item. Without either, the chance of success would be much lower.

To succeed with certainty, Old Han had estimated that the success rate was approximately the multiplication of the completion rate of the two factors.

Chu Mu’s wood type xuan item was strengthened by Ye Qingzi, meaning it had a 90% chance of success for a soul pet, nearing perfect quality.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier was only fifty percent there, meaning the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's chance of entering dominator rank was less than 50%. Old Han had also specifically reminded Chu Mu that species rank affected this process. Warrior rank organisms even with 100% success rate had a zero percent chance of improving.

This species restriction was almost impossible to break.

However, what Old Han didn't know was Chu Mu's soul pets had all been treated by Ning Maner. This meant the species restriction was no longer there, so Devil Tree Battle Soldier could still enter dominator rank.

When Devil Tree Battle Soldier entered dominator rank, Mu Qingyi, Chao Lengchuan, Old Han, Teng Lang, and Shen Mo would all be in jaw-dropping awe!!

Chapter 1107: Low Class Dominator Rank Xuan Item

Devil Tree Battle Soldier didn't want to force the improvement right now because he didn't train enough yet.

Ninety percent chance of success with a Xuan Item was incredibly rare. If they failed, finding another one was very difficult. Trying to get lucky wasn't a safe strategy and will backfire eventually.

"You're right, let's play it safe. However, how do we defeat that tenth level tribe?" Chu Mu rubbed his temples.

Training meant letting the soul pet fight alone. If Chu Mu summoned Mo Xie and told her to mind control the entire tenth rank tribe for Devil Tree Battle Soldier to kill themselves, it was meaningless.

Similarly, if Devil Tree Battle Soldier could survive through this hardship and challenge his limit, even if he didn't kill ten similar rank organisms, the chance of ranking up could go from 50% to 60%

According to Chu Mu's estimate, if Devil Tree Battle Soldier could defeat this tenth rank tribe, the chance they succeed could reach seventy percent. Then, with soul item, the chance of success would be much greater.

"Then you should rest for a bit and kill once we gather more stamina, get as much of them as we can." Chu mu said.

"Ao~~~~~" Devil Tree Battle Soldier nodded.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier needed at least five or six days to heal up. In this time, Chu Mu and Devil Tree Battle Soldier could only hide in a calm place and wait. "Almost forgot."

Chu Mu patted his leg, and remembered he actually had a support type soul pet.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier watched Chu Mu in confusion as Chu Mu chanted an incantation.

Starlight slowly appeared by Chu Mu, becoming a sacred blue flower bud. The flower bud slowly opened, revealing an angel-like beauty on the petal glaring at Chu Mu venomously.

Emperor Concubine was smarter this time. Once Chu Mu let her out to get air, she no longer acted like she was going to kill Chu Mu. As for her expression, no matter how much Chu Mu burned her, she wasn't about to show gentleness to him.

“Do you have any techniques to make soul pets recover faster?” Chu Mu asked.

“Nope!” Emperor Concubine Yu Sha nearly bit her tongue. Was this man really using her like a soul pet?

“Oh ok, then go back.” Chu Mu chanted an incantation to retract her.

Yu Sha’s face nearly turned green and forced her anger back, saying, “Yes!!”

Devil flames’ burn caused her to wish for death. Originally, after the long term burning, she could slowly endure the heat. Yet, the evil Chu Mu also increased the power of the flames along with her endurance, not giving her any time to rest.

To Emperor Concubine Yu Sha, being able to come out for a breather was like heaven.

“Lie again, and I’ll increase the devil flame by fifty percent.” Chu Mu said.

Yu Sha’s chest heaved. Fifty percent stronger, this man might as well kill her!

“Endure, endure.” Yu Sha kept telling herself that no matter what this man did, she had to be patient.

Yu Sha didn't dare to speak more and walked by Devil Tree Battle Soldier. Putting her palm on Devil Tree Battle Soldier, she started chanting.

Holy blue glow fell on Devil Tree Battle Soldier fell on Devil Tree Battle Soldier's body, healing even wounds that it couldn't heal through life force absorb alone.

And, one could clearly tell that the glow caused Devil Tree Battle Soldier's mental state to slowly fill up.

As if intentionally wasting time, Yu Sha cast the technique very slowly. Only after a long while did she let go and said coldly, "Alright, its stamina is half recovered, and the other half will recover within a day."

"En, you can go back." Chu Mu was about to throw her back in case he was annoyed of seeing her.

"Wait, I have something to say." Yu Sha saw Chu Mu casting and quickly added.

"Lying means fifty percent higher temperature." Chu Mu looked at her with interest.

"Is this Lost Desolation garden?" Yu Sha said.

"En?" Chu Mu was surprised. She was locked in Chu Mu's first soul pact and couldn't feel around Chu Mu like his other soul pets. Being able to discern what place it was in the mere moments she was outside was indeed rare.

“Temperature lowered by thirty percent, and I can tell you the secret.” Yu Sha glanced at Chu Mu with determination.

“Oh? There’s a secret here?” Chu Mu lifted an eyebrow. Sounds like this woman knows quite a bit and smiled, “Say it, or I’ll increase the temperature by fifty percent.”

“You..... this.....” The Evil Good Queen wanted to swear out loud, but didn’t utter the last word “bastard” because she knew the temperature would definitely increase if she said it!

“Go back, and tell me when you feel like it.” Chu Mu didn’t have time to waste his breath with this woman, throwing her back in but not sealing the space off.

Not long after being thrown back in, Yu Sha agreed and told Chu Mu that underneath the Ten Thousand Eyed Treant definitely had to be some sort of Xuan item. Without it, there couldn’t possibly be such a massive devil tree empire.

This Xuan was used a certain amount that Yu Sha could estimate, leaving enough to create a low class dominator rank with 70% chance.

“Looks like you already have an idea. You think that Xuan Item is protected by the Ten Thousand Eyed Treat to raise it to low class dominator rank?” Chu Mu said.

“En. Ten Thousand Eyed Treat doesn’t choose to fight and wants to cultivate instead. Cultivation meant it needed ten more years before it can raise its success rate above eight.” Yu Sha said.

Able to bring wood type soul pet to low class dominator rank, it was an item extremely precious in wanxiang realm, possibly even the one of its kind. If he could get it, Chu Mu would rather stay here for a year or two to bring Devil Tree Battle Soldier to low class dominator rank!

Chu Mu clearly is moved!

Seeing Chu Mu reveal a greedy expression, Yu Sha was still cold but was cursing Chu Mu in her mind.

She originally wanted to take the wooden Xuan item in Xiangrong City and then find a time to steal this item to create a loyal follower. However, these two soul items were both taken by this bastard. She was unbelievably sullen, not daring to curse but wanting to release this anger within her heart.

“En, I’ll give you a vacation. I’m training Devil Tree Battle Soldier, so you will take over healing its stamina and wounds while it battles.” Chu Mu said.

Summoning this woman, Chu Mu originally wanted to support Devil Tree Battle Soldier but didn’t expect such a great reward.

Of course, Chu Mu wasn’t in a hurry. It was going to be given to Devil Tree Battle Soldier no matter what, so it was better for Devil Tree Battle Soldier to train properly to adjust well.

Yu Sha had never been outside of the space for more than an hour since she first entered.

It was rare that Chu Mu would let her out for a few days. This length of time was her greatest gift since leaving that hell was too hard for her.

However, she suddenly realized something.

“Damn it, why am I happy? He’s using me like a slave.” Yu Sha mumbled about whether her mind was also burned dumb by the devil flames.

.....

“Ao!!!!!!!!!!”

Thousand Eyed Treant’s angered calls came from far away. The three top tier emperor ranks seemed to want to announce to Chu Mu the imminent death of Devil Tree Battle Soldier, soon to be turned into fertilizer for their soil.

Originally needing seven to eight days to recover, Devil Tree Battle Soldier was recovered within the day. It glanced at Chu Mu full of fighting intent.

“They’ve been arrogant for long, Heng.” Chu Mu brought Devil Tree Battle Soldier out towards the enemy.

Yu Sha rarely followed behind Chu Mu obediently so she wouldn’t get thrown back. She then glanced down arrogantly at the weak tenth rank tribe.

Three top tier emperor ranks, fifty emperor ranks, ten thousand commander ranks, and some more monarch ranks. These organisms could all be killed with a single stomp of hers. She didn’t understand how Chu Mu could get so into it.

“Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s species rank restricts it to invincible emperor rank. Your Devil Tree Battle Soldier is already the strongest it can get. What does any more training do?” Seeing devil tree battle soldier make its way into the army, Yu Sha said in contempt.

“Just do your job.” Chu Mu said.

Yu Sha had many flower type support type techniques that could increase Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s defense and attack.

However, Chu Mu didn’t tell her to add too many supportive effects because this woman’s rank could cause Devil Tree Battle Soldier to be virtually invincible, giving Devil Tree Battle Soldier to have no training at all.

The healing and stamina effect caused Devil Tree Battle Soldier to fight more often and grow faster through battle.

Originally, ten hours of battling would drain the Devil Tree Battle Soldier completely.

Now, Devil Tree Battle Soldier could last twenty hours and each hour Devil Tree Battle Soldier could defeat an equivalent of 1 top tier emperor rank, raising its success rate of evolution by 10% every hour.

More importantly, Devil Tree Battle Soldier could now defeat the entire tenth rank tribe without rest!!

Chapter 1108: Dominator Rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier

Under normal circumstances, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier was only able to fight a ninth rank tribe. Moreover, after the fight, it would have consumed a huge amount of physical strength and it needed seven or eight days before being able to continue.

If a ninth rank tribe only gave the Devil Tree Battle Soldier a 25% chance of increasing its rank, then the Devil Tree Battle Soldier would need at least half a year of continuous fighting.

However, with physical strength perseverance and life force healing, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier would be able to get rid of a tenth rank tribe and raise its chances of rising a rank by 20%. Moreover, it would be able to recover its physical strength in a short period of two days.

Yu Sha's two techniques didn't have visible effects, but they greatly reduced the amount of time they needed to train. This made Chu Mu display a seldom occurrence of looking more favorably upon this woman. It seemed that using her as a slave was a wise choice.

After getting rid of the tenth rank tribe, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier was 70% of the way to advancing a rank. If they spent approximately another three days more getting rid of another tenth rank tribe, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier would reach 90%. Then, Chu Mu would be able to advance it to the dominator rank.

Chu Mu's state of mind was in a rare state of peace. He allowed Empress Concubine Yu Sha to stay outside for three days and continue to support the Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

.....

"Very good, your performance these past few days hasn't been bad. You can return to your place." Chu Mu glanced at Yu Sha and chanted an incantation.

“How... how can you be like this. Didn't you say I could stay out for a few more days?!” Empress Concubine Yu Sha never expected that Chu Mu would so quickly destroy the bridge after crossing the river. Instantly, her face blackened.

Chu Mu ignored her protests. After chanting the incantation, she was forcibly dragged back into her devil flame prison.

Wanting to stay a few more days? This woman truly wanted to take a foot after winning an inch. Not increasing the temperature of the devil flames was already nice enough. Now that the Devil Tree Battle Soldier had finished its fight, it had reached 90% of its training requirements. Its chances of successfully advancing a rank were extremely high. What need was there for her to stay here?

“I... curse your strengthening to fail!!”

Empress Concubine Yu Sha's curses reverberated in Chu Mu's mind. But Chu Mu did as he always did, and cut off the mental connection after throwing her back into the soul pact and locking her up. He let her yell as she wished, treating her as if she didn't exist.

“O!!!!!!!”

Roars suddenly rang out from the distance. The mountain forest instantly began to sway and black clouds covered the sky. A violent gale swept through the Devil Tree Empire's forest!

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier stepped over the corpses of the Thousand Eyed Devil Trees laying on the ground. Its killer red eyes stared at the enormous tree practically towering into the cloud layers in the distance!

The top of that enormous trees resembled clouds, covering a large part of the forest. Its tree trunk was full of terrifying eyes that were all staring at the Devil Tree Battle Soldier. Each one of its eyes were filled with extreme anger!

“It unexpectedly is a pseudo dominator Thousand Eyed Devil Tree!” Chu Mu stared at the distantly towering ancient tree in the sea of green. His face showed shock.

He remembered that last time he came, there was only the Ten Thousand Eyed Devil Tree which was near the low class dominator rank. Why did a pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree appear this time?

“O!!!!!!!”

The pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree was like a giant that knocked apart the sea of green as it charged forwards. It moved here at a terrifying pace. Evidently, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s most recent killing spree had alarmed this pseudo dominator rank ruler.

“Pu pu pu pu pu pu~~~~~”

Its enormous roots were like heavenly pythons that buried underground and frantically rushed at the Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

The root pythons had an imposing aura. Each root reached a length of a dozen kilometers. If they were to sweep across the ground, they would raise that part of the forest to the ground. Such terrifying strength was capable of instakilling the Devil Tree Battle Soldier in one hit.

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier knew it wasn't its opponent, and immediately chose to retreat. However, looking from above, the Thousand Eyed Devil Tree arrogantly let out a cold laugh when it saw how slow the Devil Tree Battle Soldier was.

A paragon emperor was merely a rather large ant in the eyes of a pseudo dominator. But it could still be crushed to death.

Initially, the Thousand Eyed Devil Tree believed that it was a dominator rank creature that had come here to look for trouble since it had slaughtered two tenth rank tribes in a row. But now that it only saw a paragon emperor rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier, it naturally felt extreme contempt. Was an opponent like this worth of even being his opponent?

Nonetheless, since it had woken up now, it would just get rid of it then. This way, the tribes wouldn't lose too much.

The pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree's thousand eyes all turned to arrogance and contempt. It used a root to seal off the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's surroundings and moved its terrifying large foot. With that one foot, it fiercely stomped at the weak Devil Tree Battle Soldier!

“Hong!!!!!”

This foot landed on the earth, crushing all of the surrounding trees. An intense vibration caused the birds and beasts in the forests to flee in groups!

The pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree stamped a few more times in the deep pit. It wanted to ensure that the Devil Tree Battle Soldier was crushed before lifting its foot.

It glanced at the enormous pit, and found that the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's corpse was nowhere to be seen. Immediately, it let out a "hou hou hou" laugh before swaggering off.

As expected, the paragon emperor couldn't even withstand a blow. Even its corpse had turned to dregs under its foot!

"Hong~~~~ hong~~~~ hong~~~"

After the pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree gradually moved into the distance, a sliver of spatial fluctuations appeared where its footprint was.

The space slowly ripped apart and a cyan clothed Chu Mu took his time stepping out. Afterwards, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier followed Chu Mu without a scratch.

"Devil Tree, this fellow will be your first opponent after you become a dominator!" Chu Mu looked at the figure of the pseudo dominator Thousand Eyed Devil Tree slowly stepping into the distance and cracked a smile.

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier nodded its head. It had pretty much finished its training and could receive Chu Mu's spirit item strengthening.

.....

A ninth remembrance spirit emperor strengthening a paragon emperor to the pseudo dominator rank had a certain amount of difficulty in doing so. Thus, Chu Mu had to be particularly careful when doing so. He guided the wood type xuan item's energy trace by trace into the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's body.

This strengthening method wasn't very different from the normal process, but Chu Mu quickly discovered a serious problem: no matter how much energy he guided into the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's body, the latter was unable to absorb any of the energy.

It was like a water bucket that was already full. Even if he poured in more water, it would all spill out.

"Is this a species restriction?" after Chu Mu detected this phenomenon, he began muttering to himself.

Chu Mu continued to guide energy, and slowly discovered that the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's body was capable of accepting the energy. This obviously was the effect of Ning Maner changing the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's physical constitution. However, there indeed was a leakage of energy at the beginning, approximately 20% of the xuan item's energy.

After witnessing this phenomenon, Chu Mu couldn't help but sigh. It was fortunate he didn't try strengthening the Devil Tree Battle Soldier at fifty percent training completion, otherwise the 20% loss would cause the success rate to be at the lowest possible amount.

The loss of 20% made Chu Mu even more wary of losing focus. He was extremely focused as he guided the energy, rather spending more soul power to have the Devil Tree Battle Soldier absorb all of the remaining energy.

"O!!!!!!!"

The last sliver of energy was guided in and the Devil Tree Battle Soldier suddenly opened its mouth and let out a roar!!

The roar caused the wood on its body to crack apart. On top grew countless new pieces of new wood that slowly replaced its original body!

To a warrior rank creature, stepping into the dominator rank was a qualitative leap. Chu Mu quietly observed the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's change in the soul pet space. He felt its aura occasionally turn strong, then weak. He was a bit nervous. If the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's aura went weak for too long without turning strong, this meant that the strengthening had failed.

Fortunately, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier didn't make Chu Mu disappointed. After another weak fluctuation, its strength suddenly greatly rose. From a paragon emperor's aura, it abruptly rose to the dominator rank!!

There was normally still a level between the paragon emperor and pseudo dominator rank, close to the dominator rank, which was where the Tai Mountain Giant and White Tiger were at. However, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's training and Xuan Item allowed it to jump over this level and reach the dominator rank!

"Success!!" Chu Mu's face was full of happiness!

Now that the Devil Tree Battle Soldier was a dominator, Chu Mu was the only person with a dominator rank plant world creature in all of the human realm. If he encountered a beast type dominator rank creature, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier wouldn't have problems fighting 1 vs 2.

Most importantly, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier broke through the natural world's toughest species law. It was very likely the only warrior species rank creature to reach the dominator rank!

When Chu Mu told others that he had come to Lost Desolate Garden to make the Devil Tree Battle Soldier a dominator, these people told him that it was impossible. The species limitation was something no creature had broken in several thousand years.

Old Han had even told Chu Mu that the xuan item's energy couldn't not be absorbed by a warrior species rank creature. The highest rank a warrior rank could reach in strength was the paragon emperor rank.

However, Chu Mu had ultimately succeeded!

If he were to summon a dominator rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier, he would definitely leave this group of people speechless. Thinking of what expression those people would show, Chu Mu couldn't help but smile and he muttered to himself: "It seems that that girl wasn't lying."

That soul pact agreement was worth it. Since this was the case, then Ning could also become a dominator rank!

"Why don't I wait until the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's strength reaches the low class emperor rank first before I return?" Chu Mu rubbed his chin and began to ponder.

Thinking it over, he would be bored with nothing to do. It was better to just increase the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's strength a bit more. After all, with the wood type low class dominator rank xuan item, if anything was lacking, it was the Devil Tree Battle Soldier's pseudo dominator rank training.

Although it was rather difficult for a pseudo dominator rank to find an opponent, this ancient savage grounds had quite a few powerful creatures. If he crazily trained here for a year or two, it would probably be able to become a low class dominator!

“Ok, then it’s decided.” Chu Mu nodded and spoke to himself: “In a few days I’ll use that arrogant pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree as the Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s training target!”

Chapter 1109: Dominator Devil Tree vs Thousand Eyed King

The layer of clouds began to float rapidly as the violent wind suddenly arrived. After passing over the extremely verdant treetops, they began to slowly dissipate.

In the midst of the complex treetops was an enormous python leisurely twisted around a tree branch. It was half hanging off the branch, sticking its head about fifty meters off the branch and looking down at the boundless and vast forest.

The length of the enormous python reached over a hundred meters. However, compared to Thousand Eyed Devil Tree, it was like a caterpillar stretching out its head. The body of the pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree was so terrifying, using a mountain to describe it was not doing it justice.

A pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree’s tree trunk and tree tops were home to several emperor rank creatures. These creatures were Wood Python Emperors, Steel Eagle Kings, Blood Devil Demon Monkeys, etc. These creatures obtained life force energy from the pseudo dominator rank Thousand Eyed Devil Tree to continuously cultivate. At the same time, they obtained a certain amount of protection. As for Thousand Eyed Devil Tree, it treated these creatures as subordinates it could order, requiring that they pay tribute in the form of necessary resources every once in a while.

This was commonly seen in the natural world where a smaller plant had to have the support of a bigger plant.

“He!!!!!!”

The python emperor enjoying the wind suddenly let out a cry, using its cry to wake up the sleeping Thousand Eyed Devil Tree.

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree mostly used deep sleep to cultivate. Moreover, it enjoyed sleeping. When it was woken up by the python emperor, it was unhappy, and its thousand eyes over the tree trunk and tree top and suddenly opened.

“He!! He!!!!”

The python emperor flusteredly stared into the distance and continuously let out vexed noises.

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree finally moved its gaze into the distance and abruptly discovered that in the territory it ruled, there was now a huge part missing. This missing part was currently expanding towards it.

The rows of Thousand Eyed Tree army were being knocked down like an enormous blade cutting down wheat. Regardless if they were ninth rank tribes or tenth rank tribes, they were unable to stop the overbearing aura that swept through a thousand armies!!

“O!!!!” Thousand Eyed King was angry. Not long ago it had crushed an arrogant paragon emperor. Why did another one of these things come to its territory again to cause trouble so soon? They were excessively looking down on dominator ranks!!

Thousand Eyed King’s eyes fell on the chaotic area, and quickly he discovered that the one creating the huge disturbance was a warrior species rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier!

How could it be that paragon emperor rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier? Didn't it crush it to death that day??

Thousand Eyed King's brain was full of questions, but it didn't think too much. Since it hadn't been crushed to death last time, it would do it again. It didn't believe that a paragon emperor could stir up havoc in its territory!

Thousand Eyed King uprooted itself from the ground and strode forward, shaking the entire forest. With a few steps, it had stepped through a huge part of the basin forest. It was like a mountain giant that appeared in front of Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

It was still looking down from above like before. Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's thousand eyes didn't hide its contempt. It raised its enormous foot once again and fiercely stomped on Devil Tree Battle Soldier, as if it was crushing an ant!!

“O~~~~~”

Devil Tree Battle Soldier let out a roar. Towards the enormous dark figure descending from the sky, Devil Tree Battle Soldier had no intentions of dodging. Instead, it reached out its vine wood hands!

“Weng!!!!!!”

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's foot stomped on the ground. It should have been able to sink the ground in nearly 100 meters, but this time, it was mysteriously stopped four meters above the ground. No matter how much it pushed down, it was unable to push Devil Tree Battle Soldier into the ground, let alone crush its body!

Underneath the enormous foot, Devil Tree Battle Soldier was using its two arms to powerfully hold up Thousand Eyed Devil Tree's large foot. Its body was in a firm squat, and its two feet were not trembling at all!

“O!!!!!!!”

Devil Tree Battle Soldier let out a wild roar, and its body slowly began to stand up underneath the enormous pressure!!

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's eyes revealed deep confusion. As its foot was raised by some enormous strength, Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's body began to violently tremble. Immediately after, its large body lost balance!

“Beng~~~~ beng~~~~ beng~~~~~”

With its enemy off balance, Devil Tree Battle Soldier abruptly threw Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's enormous body, and the latter retreated over ten steps before finally falling back onto the towering sea of tree tops. It crushed a huge number of plants as it sat back!

The trembling vibrations that emerged reverberated around the large forest. Thousand Eyed Army currently surrounding Devil Tree Battle Soldier, ready to attack at any moment were frozen. Even an entire tenth rank tribe didn't have the guts to move forward!

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King was extremely slow to get up and its eyes were full of shock. All thousand of its eyes were staring at Devil Tree Battle Soldier in disbelief!!

Why was this paragon emperor that it was able to crush with a single foot not too long ago now so powerful? The explosive force it used just now was only something a dominator rank could do!!

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King clearly remembered that this fellow was only a paragon emperor last time and its strength could at most deal with a tenth rank tribe. How did it become so strong in such a short period of time?!!

“O!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King was angry and envious. It had spent over a thousand years of deep sleep to reach the pseudo dominator rank. Moreover, from the near dominator rank to the pseudo dominator level, it had spent a hundred years. Yet, this Devil Tree Battle Soldier had only spent seven or eight days to reach the same level it was on!!

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King’s thousand angry eyes turned to anger and instantly, a thousand mental swords shot towards Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s mind!

Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s willpower was not weak, and it was able to withstand this mental blow.

Additionally, Devil Tree Battle Soldier didn’t need to chant incantations, so even if it was hit by a mental blow, it could still use techniques.

“Pu pu pu pu pu!!!!!!!!!!!!”

This time, it was Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s enormous root python’s turn to soar through the air. These pieces of wood rushed through the forest; the forest wasn’t able to withstand even a blow before being felled. Even Thousand Eyed King was bound up by these incomparably thick roots in an extremely short period of time.

Thousand Eyed King stopped using mental techniques and relied on its brute strength to forcibly break off Devil Tree Battle Soldier's roots.

Its powerful arms suddenly transformed into enormous hammer that were over a hundred meters large. They descended from the sky, one on the left and one on the right!!

“Beng!!!!!!!”

The two enormous hammers simultaneously descended and the powerful force cracked open the wood armor on Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier was knocked back several thousands of meters, but its body did not fall.

After finding its balance, Devil Tree Battle Soldier suddenly struck the ground with its two hands. In an instant, the earth split apart and ten astonishing rifts appeared between Devil Tree Battle Soldier and Thousand Eyed Tree King.

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's eyes showed a trace of perplexion as it saw the rift approach. Suddenly, ten wooden flood dragons that were a thousand meters long shot out of the rifts. These flood dragons appeared in ten different locations around Thousand Eyed Devil Tree. They then soared into the air and intertwined together above Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's head!

Wood Flood Dragon Cauldron!!

These techniques were an upgraded version of Devil Tree Battle Soldier's Wood Finger Prison. The wild cyan wood flood dragons were much more domineering than the wood ropes. From the distance, they looked like ten genuine cyan colored flood dragons that rose up from the sea to form a cauldron by wrapping their necks!!

Wood poison!!

The poison attribute was layered on top. No matter how much strength it exerted, Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King that was trapped by the Wood Flood Dragon Cauldron was unable to break free. Moreover, with the poison attribute, its wood armor was powerfully corroded.

Ten Thousand Devil Spears!!

Devil Tree Battle Soldier's third technique comboed in extremely quick. Devil Tree Battle Soldier could have used it at the same time.

After the would poison, the ground began to mysteriously vibrate. Countless wood spears stabbed out of the ground, ripping it apart.

As Devil Tree Battle Soldier gave its order, the ten thousand spears violently stabbed at Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King!

They were like a dense smatter of rain that rapidly pierced out. Since Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's body had been corroded, and the Ten Thousand Devil Spears contained poison, this caused the wounds it suffered to keep proliferating!!

Ten thousand spears pierced the heart. The scene on the battlefield was spectacular yet terrifying. Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King's enormous body was like a hedgehog. It was as if there was no part left intact.

It gave a few miserable cries and after struggling a few times, finally broke free of the Wood Flood Dragon Cauldron prison!!

“O!!!!!!”

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King angrily roared, shattering all of the wood spears in its body. Green liquid seeped out of its body!

“Hm, it has also species mutated, becoming a Ten Thousand Eye Devil Tree.” Chu Mu looked at Thousand Eyed Devil Tree's body that was full of blue eyes, and couldn't help but ridicule it.

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree King was a dominator, and could roughly understand that this human was ridiculing it. The anger in its heart grew deeper and its thousand eyes opened up, revealing irreconcilable venomous hatred!!

Devil Tree Battle Soldier stood there calmly and without fear. The roots under its feet began to slowly and silently wriggle. Noiselessly, they covered the ten kilometer area in front of it.

Thousand Eyed Devil Tree strode forward, relying on its body's superiority to quickly rush at Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

The time, Thousand Eyed Devil Tree used Thousand Eyed Leaves, creating a windstorm that swept towards Devil Tree Battle Soldier. Relying on Devil Tree Battle Soldier's inability to dodge, its two arms transformed into large hammers that smashed down!!

Devil Tree Battle Soldier was already prepared. Just as the enormous hammers descended, it instantly sprung the pitfall it set!!

The ten kilometer earth collapsed, forming a shocking and impressive pit. In the pit, sharp roots that rapidly absorbed life force were wrapped all around Thousand Eyed Devil Tree's body. It was like a thousand or ten thousand bloodsucking insects were stuck to its body, rapidly absorbing life force!!

Chapter 1110: Rare Compromise

“Ao!!!!!!”

Thousand Eyed Treant let out a pained call. Its arms waved around frenziedly, causing chaos in the trap.

However, no matter how rash they were, the roots in the trap continue to absorb life.

This life force going back to Devil Tree Battle Soldier's body caused its wounds to quickly heal. The previously shattered armor on its body caused by the heavy hammer swing all covered their body again.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier's status was back to full, while Thousand Eyed Treant was heavily injured. When it finally climbed out of the trap, it could no longer have a chance of winning.

Thousand Eyed Treant King roared into the forest, and the tribes all started moving in large scale.

The dense Thousand Eyed Treant army started surrounding them, attacking Devil Tree Battle Soldier in a group.

Before, The Devil Tree Battle Soldier needed twenty hours, but now it definitely wouldn't take more than an hour.

Thousand Eyed Treant king commanded his army just to waste time to give it a breather. However, being dominator rank now, Devil Tree Battle Soldier could absolutely slaughter the army. Waves upon waves of the army fell to the invincible group fighting Devil Tree Battle Soldier, creating a mountain of corpses.

More importantly, after battling for so long, The Devil Tree Battle Soldier was still full of life force. As long as it had stamina left, any more of the treants still wouldn't do anything.

“Ao!!!!!!!!!!”

Finally, Thousand Eyed Treant king couldn't endure Devil Tree Battle Soldier's killing.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier was waiting for it. Though it was small, its explosive power was insane. With a sweep of its hand, the mountain of Thousand Eyed Treant corpses flew towards Thousand Eyed Treant King.

Thousand Eyed Treant King made countless roots, and swept away the corpses while the roots slammed down from above, constantly slapping Devil Tree Battle Soldier's location.

Devil Tree Battle Soldier also had a large number of roots. They constantly poked out of the ground, piercing the king!

The Devil Tree Battle Soldier could absorb life force to recover its wounds, but Thousand Eyed Treant couldn't. After a few trades, Thousand Eyed Treant was tattered with wounds, while Devil Tree Battle Soldier remained pumped with fighting intent!

Two devil tree species fighting a two hour long battle meant Thousand Eyed Treant king progressively grew weaker, while The Devil Tree Battle Soldier suppressed it.

Thousand Eyed Treant King had tried to escape after it was wounded, but Devil Tree Battle Soldier was the best at stopping escapes. Just as Thousand Eyed Treant was about to escape, the other underground traps triggered!

Thousand Eyed Treant fell continuously into traps as life was absorbed. Finally, this dominator rank of Thousand Eyed Treant empire fell into a basin-like trap, and didn't have the energy to escape anymore.

Its life was frenziedly lost. It slowly withered away and shrivelled. Thousand eye treant could still struggle a little earlier, but when The Devil Tree Battle Soldier reached a thousand roots piercing the treant's body, it could no longer even twitch. It could only watch with its thousand eyes as its life force disappeared into the roots and flew into Thousand pupil devil tree.

The cyan roots dashed around through the chaotic dirt like snakes. Devil Tree Battle Soldier slowly extracted its roots from the trap, and extracted Thousand Eyed Treant's innard crystal and passed it to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu wasn't stingy, and just told Devil Tree Battle Soldier to eat it as food. It was good for its growth anyways.

Just stepping into pseudo dominator rank, it could already defeat this Thousand Eyed Treant and its empire. The Devil Tree Battle Soldier truly was powerful in group battles. If Little Hidden Dragon or Zhan Ye had to sweep through this empire, it would take them an unknown amount of time.

Going from pseudo dominator rank to low class dominator rank only needed battling. By Chu Mu's estimate, this battle could give Devil Tree Battle Soldier ten percent of what he needed. If it could defeat Ten Thousand Eyed Treant and its entire massive empire, Devil Tree Battle Soldier would definitely get enough training. With the Xuan Item he steals then, a low class dominator rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier will be born!

"Yes, rest for a bit, and let's sweep through this little empire." Chu Mu said to Devil Tree Battle Soldier.

Sweeping through an empire will definitely raise Ten Thousand Eyed Treant's fury. Since it wasn't Ten Thousand Eyed Treant's match, after finishing the battle, Chu Mu decisively brought Devil Tree Battle Soldier to a sneaky place to hide.

Indeed, after not long, the entire empire started stirring restlessly. One could occasionally see groups of emperor rank devil trees patrolling the forests, watching the distant horizon, as well as absolute giants towering into the clouds looking for something.

According to Chu Mu's estimate, the entire devil tree empire was a third rank empire, so the highest commander was a Ten Thousand Eyed Treant nearing low class dominator rank. Under it were four to five pseudo dominator rank organisms, of which each commanded one or two first rank empires.

Because of Devil Tree Battle Soldier's powerful ability in groups, it could defeat the first rank empire by itself. If it were any other soul pet, it definitely needed to be much closer to low class dominator rank before it could defeat empires like this.

.....

“Heal my Devil Tree Battle Soldier.” Chanting an incantation, Chu Mu summoned Yu Sha again and commanded.

This woman was much more obedient now. Though she was still ever so unwilling about Chu Mu commanding her, to ensure the flames didn’t get stronger and so she didn’t suffer as much, she did everything she was told begrudgingly.

Yu Sha walked by Devil Tree Battle Soldier, and was mentally saying every insult she could think of. When she finally lifted her head, she noticed that the invincible emperor rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier from a few days ago had become dominator rank!

She stared blankly. The dominator rank warrior species rank organism completely went against natural world order.

“You..... how did you do it!” Emperor concubine Yu Sha turned around in surprise.

Warrior rank going to dominator rank, this was nothing short of a species mutation. After all, it broke through the natural law that all warrior ranks followed. She knew a very special xuan item that could change an organism’s quality and break through this boundary. But, this xuan item was incredibly precious, and was something Chu Mu definitely didn’t own.

Even if Chu Mu unintentionally gained this treasure, using it on the warrior rank Devil Tree Battle Soldier was definitely a waste!

“Why ask this many questions.” Chu Mu didn’t bother to respond and directly used a mental command to force Yu Sha to obey.

Yu Sha bit down her lips and gave him a venomous glance, begrudgingly starting their healing towards The Devil Tree Battle Soldier, casting recover for it to recover its stamina.

“Where does this bastard get so much good luck. Not only did he have a soul pet with species mutation, he also has a dominator rank warrior species rank. What did he do?” Yu Sha started guessing.

If she knew the way, she could use it on her flower demon army. Her flower demon army had reached its extreme in many ways. If she could break through, her army would become incredibly powerful!

Pseudo dominator rank took longer to recover its stamina. Without half a month, it couldn’t reach complete state.

Chu Mu didn’t worry. After all, he decided to train here for a year or two now until Devil Tree Battle Soldier entered low class dominator rank.

“Chu Mu, lost desolation garden has life fruits. Can you give these life fruits to me? With those fruits, I can cast an Evil Good Ceremony and awaken The Devil Tree Battle Soldier’s abilities.” After casting a technique, Yu Sha rarely negotiated with Chu Mu again.

“Who allowed you to say my name?” Chu Mu said without appreciation.

Yu Sha nearly bit blood out of her lips. Originally, she was an angel beyond mere mortals, yet now she was like a humiliated woman.

“Master.” After a while, swallowing all her resentment and pride, she spit out the words.

Yu Sha had an otherworldly appearance. When her full little lips uttered the words “master” along with her lovely pout, any man would fall to the temptation, and agree to everything she asked for.

To see Yu Sha agreeing, Chu Mu was confused. This woman would never have uttered that even if it meant flames, yet why was she so obedient today. Were the life fruits really that good for her?

“Say it one more time.” Chu Mu smiled, watching the woman with interest.

Yu Sha’s chest heaved, showing off the surprising bounce and allure.

Cursing in her mind again, Yu Sha decided to obey anyways because the life fruits truly could increase her Evil Good Queen by a phase.

Evil Good Queen grew extremely slowly so missing it will be hard to come by again.

“Master.” Yu Sha cursed and muttered again.

Chu Mu nodded with satisfaction and slowly chanted an incantation to throw the woman back into his soul pet space.

In his ear, he could still hear “Chu Mu, you won’t die well!”, but Chu Mu only laughed coldly.

This woman dared to use her charming soul technique on him. Looks like he was too lenient on her recently, letting her get ahead of herself. He also decisively increased the flame temperature by fifty percent.