

Soul Pets Bk2 1231

Chapter 1231: Ocean Adventurer, Sang Ying

After leaving Wind Palace, Chu Mu returned once more to Heaven Boundary Monument.

There were directions on the monument, informing Chu Mu of where that ancient beast soul had once gone to.

Chu Mu saw the ancient beast soul in the memory drawing placing the item on an enormous island. He vaguely described the appearance of the island to Old Li.

“Demonic Burial Mound! It’s definitely the Demonic Burial Mound!” immediately shouted Old Li.

Old Li had been to Demonic Burial Mound before. Chu Mu’s description of it

“Old Li, you probably remember how to get to Demonic Burial Mound, right?” asked Chu Mu.

The directions Old Li had given Night were to Demonic Burial Mound. As a nomadic demon, the Demonic Burial Mound was Night’s holy land. Chu Mu was certain that after so many years, Night had found Demonic Burial Mound.

It was about time to reconvene with Night. Chu Mu thought of Night a lot. It didn’t matter if he had to find the item that was capable of subduing the ancient snake person, Chu Mu had to make a trip to Eternal Ocean regardless.

Chu Mu was very frank when he did things. Having made his decision, he made slight preparations before leaving.

Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou returned first to Wanxiang City to tell Liu Binglan about what they encountered in Wind Palace.

This shocked Liu Binglan and the senior elders. They never expected that New Moon Land had such a long and powerful past.

After informing them, Chu Mu planned on immediately heading to Eternal Ocean.

However, Eternal Ocean was a troublesome place, because Chu Mu didn't have a water type soul pet.

Chu Mu could fly through the air, but there was no land under him. This was a vast ocean and if he were accidentally dragged down to the ocean, his fighting strength would be greatly reduced.

Moreover, Chu Mu's half devil form and Mo Xie were both of the fire attribute. If they encountered a creature of the same rank in Eternal Ocean, they would be countered.

He needed to go with a water type soul pet trainer.

Recently, many soul pet trainers from outside their realm had been attracted here. Among them, many wanted to obtain xuan items in the holy regions. There were also many middle class dominator rank experts who were very interested in New Moon Land's resources and planned on staying here long-term.

With Cloud Gate's old man overseeing Wanxiang City, Chu Mu didn't need to worry about these foreign experts causing a rebellion. Even if they did, the dominator rank experts that were slowly begin to emerge from Wanxiang City and the emperor rank army weren't just there for display.

Through Liu Binglan's recommendation he found a free soul pet trainer called Sang Ying who was a water type expert and was planning on wandering to Eternal Ocean.

Sang Ying was from He Border from a young age, liked the ocean and water type soul pets. He had traversed oceans countless times.

This time, Sang Ying had come to New Moon Land not for the holy regions, but instead for Eternal Ocean.

Traveling by oneself was extremely boring. Although Sang Ying, who spent most of his time proud and aloof, was used to this, he still found it better if someone else was travelling with him.

Of course, Sang Ying had extremely high requirements for a team member. If they would drag him down, he would rather travel by himself.

When Sang Ying arrived in New Moon Land, Liu Binglan had made him a temporary guest under her goodwill. Before Sang Ying came, he had heard that this Female Supreme from New Moon Land was quite remarkable. When he actually got the chance to see her, she was indeed incomparably beautiful and had an outstanding temperament.

However, he didn't expect Liu Binglan to suddenly recommend him to travel with her son in Eternal Ocean.

When Sang Ying learned Liu Binglan was a mother, his mood greatly dropped. Nonetheless, he wasn't someone overly attached to women. His true target was Eternal Ocean.

Sang Ying also didn't think that the person Liu Binglan recommended to him would be to his satisfaction. Perhaps he was just an inexperienced brat.

"Hello, I am Sang Ying." out of courtesy, Sang Ying politely examined Chu Mu and then amicably extended his hand.

Chu Mu shook his hand and said: "Have you been to Eternal Ocean before?"

Sang Ying shook his head and said: "I've been to the other oceans many times."

"Ok, as long as you're familiar with oceans." said Chu Mu.

"Oh? It can't be that you've never been to the ocean before, right?" Sang Ying raised his brows.

"I haven't." Chu Mu didn't think that his time on Nightmare Island counted as going to the ocean before. The ocean was unimaginably vast.

Sang Ying forced a smile and glanced at Liu Binglan. As expected, Liu Binglan wanted him to bring a mere brat to train.

“Once we go out to the ocean, you must listen to everything I say. The danger of the ocean far surpasses dry land...” Sang Ying was helpless, but he could see Chu Mu was a spirit dominator. If he wasn’t a spirit dominator, Sang Ying would have refused to bring him.

Chu Mu had zero understanding of the ocean. In front of a specialist, he would naturally listen.

“I also have three friends I want to bring.” said Chu Mu.

“Three. How strong are they?” asked Sang Ying.

“They are all spirit dominators.”

.....

After getting to know one another, Chu Mu did as Sang Ying wanted, and brought a few pieces of equipment required for the ocean. Then, they planned on embarking.

When they all convened in Wanxiang City’s large plaza, Chu Mu introduced the other three to Sang Ying.

“This is Chao Lengchuan, the Palace’s crown prince.” Chu Mu pointed at Chao Lengchuan.

Chao Lengchuan had just come out of Thousand Wave Holy Region, and his power had greatly risen. When Chu Mu asked him what rank he was at, this fellow had gone so far as to hide it from him and keep him in suspense.

After bitterly training for nearly a year, Chao Lengchuan's main pets had probably gotten much stronger. He had probably also obtained great benefits in Thousand Wave Holy Region. Otherwise, he wouldn't be all full of smiles.

"This is Xia Zhixian. A support soul pet trainer." Chu Mu pointed at the mature and beautiful woman with an incredibly elegant bearing standing next to Prince Chao.

Xia Zhixian's appearance had surprised Chu Mu. It wasn't until recently that Chu Mu found out that Prince Chao had gone with Xia Zhixian to Thousand Wave Holy Region. With her help, he had managed to charge into the depths of Thousand Wave Holy Region. Xia Zhixian's help was indispensable to obtaining the benefits.

The initial punishment for Xia Zhixian had been house arrest in Xianrong City for three years and to serve the city. It was a rather light punishment. After careful consideration, Liu Binglan had pardoned her and let her serve the Palaces.

Xia Zhixian was loyal to Yu Suo, and now that Yu Suo had been submitted by Chu Mu, Xia Zhixian obviously needed to be tactful.

However, Xia Zhixian and Prince Chao seemed really close to each other now. If they had some secrets that they weren't telling others, he would have to find spare time to grill Prince Chao about it.

Yu Suo's rise in strength meant that Xia Zhixian had also obtained benefits. As a support soul pet trainer, Xia Zhixian had very strong supportive abilities. Moreover, she had a water type soul pet which lessened Chu Mu's lack of water traversing problems.

“Didn’t you say there were three people? Where’s the last one?” asked Sang Ying.

“When many people are present she won’t appear. Just wait and you’ll see.” said Chu Mu.

.....

Chu Mu summoned the Dead Dream. Everyone jumped on its back, and they flew out of Wanxiang City.

The dark purple lightning phoenix was basically the trademark of Chu Mu’s identity. When Dead Dream that Chu Mu was riding on took to the skies, the ten thousand people in the plaza all looked up and let out cries of exclamation.

“It’s King Chu’s Phoenix!!!”

“The person on top is definitely King Chu!”

“I knew that person felt familiar just now. If I knew it was him...” said a few people in remorse.

Chu Mu was always elusive in Wanxiang City. It was difficult for even the higher-ups in the Palaces to see Chu Mu, let alone normal people. Therefore, when Chu Mu took to the skies from the plaza, this caused no small commotion.

Sang Ying looked down and saw the zealous citizens in the plaza. A while later, he finally looked back with shock at Chu Mu.

“You’re the King Chu - Chu Mu that made New Moon Land He Border’s only independent territory?” Sang Ying abruptly realized this and cried out in shock.

“I thought you already knew...” Chu Mu forced a smile.

“Eh... it was my disrespect.” Chu Mu wiped away the trace of dissatisfaction in his heart.

Sang Ying really hadn’t realized the young man in front of him was New Moon Land’s King!

This was a legendary man that was able to beat all of a seventh rank realm’s experts and also became a topic of conversation in all of He Border for his achievements. Sang Ying had to restrain his arrogance no matter how proud he was. Indeed, compared to this man who had astounded the entire border territory, as someone who had just traversed the oceans, he was nothing.

Chu Mu actually didn’t know how far his name had spread.

Dead Dream had already reached the middle class dominator rank, and its flying speed was quite fast.

The reason the Dead Dream reached the middle class dominator rank was thanks to the recruitment Liu Binglan did of those dominator rank experts.

Phoenix xuan items were not easy to find and when Liu Binglan learned that one of the foreigners had a phoenix xuan item, she immediately spent 3000 xuan to purchase it. She then gave it to Chu Mu who was finally able to raise the Dead Dream to the middle class dominator rank.

The Holy Regions were being continuously excavated right now, and Three Great Palaces were gradually obtaining control over many resources. Their xuan items had also stocked up a bit.

Currently, there were 20 dominator rank experts from Wanxiang City while there were about 30 from outside the realm.

Perhaps 50 dominator rank experts wasn't a lot, but being the result of only one year, this was already very rare. In a few years, there would probably be many more dominator rank experts from Wanxiang City.

Besides a phoenix species middle class dominator rank xuan item, Liu Binglan had also collected a third rank ice type xuan item and a third rank rock type sub-ghost type xuan item for Chu Mu.

These two xuan items had resolved Chu Mu's low class dominator rank problems for the Ice Air Fairy and Ghost King.

In the time before Chu Mu set off for Eternal Ocean, he raised the Ice Air Fairy and Ghost King to the low class dominator rank.

Chu Mu still had the fifth rank wing type xuan item, fifth rank ice type xuan item, and fifth rank dark type xuan item from Wind Palace.

Binding Wind Spirit's training percentage had reached 100 percent so Chu Mu just had to pick a good time to strengthen it and it would reach the middle class dominator rank.

Ning's training percentage was still zero. But he probably would need the Ice Air Fairy for many of the fights in Eternal Ocean. Thus, it would probably reach the middle class dominator rank soon.

Chapter 1232: Night, Where are you?

With the Dead Dream's speed, passing through New Moon Land didn't take long.

Soon, they all arrived at White Nightmare City.

After taking a brief rest there, all of them proceeded to enter the Eternal Ocean.

Upon embarking, Prince Chao asked a question Chu Mu was curious about himself: why did they need to take a boat?

If they could fly, why did they need to take a boat?

The speed of a boat was slow. Wouldn't this take ages to find the Demonic Burial Mound in the boundless ocean?

"You guys don't know much about this." Sang Ying profoundly smiled and explained: "The ocean is much larger than the continent. On the continent, we are able to find places to rest anywhere. If one has powerful wilderness survival abilities, there basically is no area of danger for this person. However, the ocean is different. While there are islands, once we reach the true depths of the ocean, we could go a month without seeing an island. This is a long time and even a flying type creature would have to rest en route. Even if it can control the water, you can't guarantee that there aren't any large ocean beasts under the water. There are also many, many uncertain factors. If we don't have a boat, it will be too exhausting for us."

Chu Mu and Prince Chao didn't understand anything about the ocean, so when they heard Sang Ying's explanation, they felt it made sense.

The best boat White Nightmare City could provide was called the White Ocean Beast Cry.

This boat was constructed out of the skin and skeleton of a peak emperor rank ocean beast. It was about 50 meters long, and had no problems holding over twenty people.

Sang Ying wasn't too satisfied with this boat. He felt that they needed at least a dominator rank boat to traverse the Eternal Ocean. Otherwise, if they were struck by a powerful wave, the boat would be smashed to pieces.

However, this was still better than not having one, so Sang Ying could only make provisional improvements to the boat as he planned on making modifications to the boat as they travelled.

Chu Mu never expected Sang Ying to also be able to modify boats. It seemed that he was the right choice for this trip.

The boat built by White Nightmare Palace definitely could not be moved by manpower. Instead, White Ocean Beast Cry was mobilized by a water type array mechanism. Numerous water type energy stones were embedded into the water type array, which would provide it with an endless amount of mobile force.

Water type arrays were normally the simplest water pillar technique. Once the water pillar technique was used, it created a jet effect that would allow the boat to fly across the ocean.

Only luxurious boats in New Moon Land were equipped with these kinds of water type arrays. The White Ocean Beast Cry had a total of ten of these water type arrays so its propulsion speed was rather fast. It wasn't any slower than a peak emperor running on land.

Of course, a peak emperor's speed wasn't satisfactory for Chu Mu and the others who were all dominators. Sang Ying didn't have anything in his spatial ring except for a huge pile of boat materials. When Chu Mu and Prince Chao saw this fellow dump the huge pile of objects on deck, they all jumped in fright. They began to suspect whether this fellow had broken up a whole boat and placed it in his spatial ring.

Subsequently, Sang Ying began his great reconstruction project. He transformed all of the propelling water type crystals into xuan type water type crystals. This would make the movement speed of the boat no inferior to a dominator rank creature.

The ocean was a dark blue color and the White Ocean Beast Cry was just a small white speck in the ocean.

The ocean water was beautifully sliced apart as waves that were several tens of meters high were sprayed to the side when the agile White Ocean Beast Cry flitted through. Along the serene ocean, it left a long trace.

.....

During the night when it was peaceful and cloudless, the night curtain and ocean were connected together. It was impossible to ascertain which was the starry sky and which was the ocean reflecting a myriad of stars.

The Binding Wind Spirit erected a wind barrier around the White Ocean Beast Cry. Although they were moving very fast, the wind that blew against them was much softer.

When night time had arrived, Prince Chao, Xia Zhixian and Sang Ying had retired to their rooms to silently cultivate or sleep.

After traveling on the ocean for over a month, everyone had realized the importance of a boat.

While they could ride on a wind type soul pet to rest since they were of the dominator rank, they wouldn't be able to obtain a proper and peaceful rest for a long time. This would take a toll on the mind. Instead, with a room, a bed and a boat that could move at will, this would keep mental strength ample at all times. This would also not require one to constantly switch wing type soul pets and exhaust their physical strength.

The spare parts on deck had already been cleaned up by Sang Ying. Rather, a snow white small fox was now adorably chasing its own tail on the clean deck.

This small fox was the Immortal Ice Curse Demon Fox, and it was presently at the seventh or eighth phase. It looked like a small child pet still.

The ice fox was unable to catch its own tail and stopped chasing. With a few light hops, it jumped from the deck into the embrace of a beautiful specter and let out a murmuring sound.

Princess Jinrou was only able to touch the small ice fox's body. She looked down and glanced at this adorable small fellow and a sliver of a peaceful smile appeared on her face. She used her hand to lightly stroke the small ice fox's fur.

Chu Mu was currently standing on the other side of the deck, and he glanced at the slender and elegant Princess Jinrou. A scene from long ago appeared in his mind.

He remembered the young woman from back then that wore a trace of melancholy as she faced the ocean wind. Chu Mu would always subconsciously remember this.

However, as he got to know Ye Qingzi more and more, Princess Jinrou's figure would slowly fade.

Princess Jinrou knew that Chu Mu was beside her, and looked at him as she came back to her senses.

With her mind reading abilities, she naturally knew that Chu Mu was remembering certain things from the past.

"I remember back then you were bitterly chanting incantations on the deck." Princess Jinrou's voice drifted over like a singing voice. It carried quite a charming tone.

Chu Mu embarrassedly shook his head. So she remembered. He thought she had forgotten.

"I remember in Jia City when you seized me, you bastard. And when you shamelessly said those things in the Great Chu Family." Princess Jinrou laughed.

Today, she had the intention of teasing Chu Mu.

"Eh..." Chu Mu's face went red.

In Jia City, Chu Mu had been afraid that the small Mo Xie's mutation would be exposed so he had decided to seize her.

Not long after that, Chu Mu had met her again in the Great Chu Family.

Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou had faced off then, and Chu Mu had even expressed that he liked her.

Ye Qingzi had been present then. Although his relationship with Ye Qingzi hadn't reached that point yet back then, afterwards Ye Qingzi had interrogated Chu Mu countless times as to what he had said to Princess Jinrou.

"I was too young back then." Chu Mu's skin was thick, and he pushed the problem onto the fact he was young.

"You speak as if you're very old now." Princess Jinrou's lips faintly pouted. Clearly, she wasn't satisfied with Chu Mu's half-hearted response.

Chu Mu chuckled and treated it as if nothing happened.

In truth, Chu Mu knew in his heart that he had missed the opportunity.

Princess Jinrou looked at Chu Mu and said in a soft voice: "At the beginning I thought that being able to understand other peoples' thoughts was perhaps a very interesting thing. But, gradually I discovered that when I read too much, it would be very cruel..."

“Then don’t read. You would be better off if you didn’t know certain things that would needlessly make you worried.” said Chu Mu.

“Do you know what Qingyi thinks in her heart?” softly asked Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu shook his head.

How could he know what Mu Qingyi thought in her heart.

“Then if you don’t know, I can tell you.” Princess Jinrou floated up to Chu Mu and put on a mysterious smile.

“Eh, what does it have to do with?” Chu Mu wasn’t a gossipy person.

“Of course it has to do with you.”

“Then forget it.” said Chu Mu.

“You actually know, don’t you?”

“This...” Chu Mu shook his head again and changed the topic: “Taking a look at other people’s thoughts is rude.”

“Ok. Then I won’t read other people’s thoughts anymore.” said Princess Jinrou.

“But, I’m actually interested in knowing what you’re thinking.” Chu Mu faintly smiled. Being constantly teased by the princess wasn’t good so he launched a counterattack.

“Me?” Princess Jinrou’s gaze evaded his. It was like she was afraid Chu Mu would be able to see her thoughts.

When she finally saw that Chu Mu’s smile was slightly mischievous, Princess Jinrou immediately realized he was intentionally teasing her. She stuck out her tongue and said: “I’m not telling you.”

After speaking, Princess Jinrou’s body gracefully floated back to her room on the boat.

A moment later, Princess Jinrou hastily flew back to the deck like a startled deer.

Chu Mu saw that her face was red as she flew back and confusedly asked: “What’s the matter?”

Princess Jinrou’s face became even more red. If she wasn’t in her spectral form, she would certainly look exceptionally enchanting.

“The two of them are in the same room.” after becoming a specter, Princess Jinrou got in the habit of passing through solid objects. Just now, she had accidentally passed through Xia Zhixian’s room and saw something she shouldn’t have seen. Thus, her face was now red.

Chu Mu was someone experienced and quickly came to an understanding. His lips couldn't help but curve into an understanding smile.

The two of them were indeed sleeping together!

"Scoundrel! You aren't allowed to imagine it!" Princess Jinrou's face went even more red and she angrily glared at Chu Mu.

"Eh..." Chu Mu forgot that Princess Jinrou could read thoughts. Just now, any normal man would have had naughty thoughts.

Princess Jinrou refused to return to her room, but if she stayed next to Chu Mu, she constantly found that this naughty man would let his imagination run wild. Thus, she angrily left to the back of the boat.

Chu Mu didn't pay attention to Princess Jinrou's reserved and decent nature. His gaze returned to the ocean. As the starlight reflected from the ocean onto his black pupils, his eyes seemed even more strange and exceptional.

Chu Mu's thoughts were constantly drifting. They would occasionally drift back to his experience on Nightmare Island and Prison Island while occasionally drifting to where the wandering and nomadic Night could be.

"Night, where on earth are you? Why can't I sense you at all?" Chu Mu muttered to himself.

The connection between souls could sometimes not be felt due to distance.

However, for some reason, his soul connection with Night seemed to be isolated from one another, preventing Chu Mu from feeling its mental fluctuations. The feeling was like the connection had been severed.

Chu Mu still remembered the scene when he first encountered the Night Thunder Dream Beast on Prison Island: it had pridefully raised its head and its black, spirited and merciless eyes had stared at him and Mo Xie.

It had run through the jungle alone through the night, its black body melding into the darkness. Only its white feathered tail that extended from its back could be seen agilely and freely flitting past...

Chapter 1233: Untamed Ocean, Seventh Level Dominator Wave

For some reason, Chu Mu felt a twinge of unease.

The unease came from the soul pact between him and Little Night.

If the soul pact connection with Night was like a line, then this line seemed to be extending deep into the unknown darkness. Chu Mu could only see the line enter the murky blackness but didn't know where this line actually ended up, nor could Chu Mu even feel whether it had snapped or not.

The feeling was incredibly strange. Even after Zhan Ye and Little Hidden Dragon left, Chu Mu had never felt this sensation.

What was this murky blackness and what was the slight coldness that was coming through?

Standing on the deck, Chu Mu watched from afar the starlight skies and ocean and gradually started getting weighed down with worry.

“Wuwuwu~~~~”

Little Mo Xie laid on Chu Mu’s shoulders and let out a small murmur, comforting Chu Mu.

Chu Mu rubbed little Mo Xie’s soft ears and said, “En, no matter where he is, we’ll find him!”

.....

Moving by boat was rather boring. Chu Mu pulled out many books from his spatial ring, and started reading them one by one.

Most of his past has been spent on the land, so his knowledge of the ocean was very lacking. Now that he was on an oceanic voyage, he could spend the time to better his knowledge there. Furthermore, there was even a seemingly all-knowing Old Li with them taht was constantly passing ocean information to Chu Mu.

After traveling for around two months, the Ocean White Beast Ship truly entered the eternal ocean.

The map had it labeled that these regions’ organisms can be counted by the billions. Occasionally having dominator rank organisms come up is definitely not something that should surprise them.

“Huhuhuhu.....” The ocean wind started getting more and more powerful, occasionally scattering binding wind spirit’s wind shield. It had to occasionally reinforce its defenses in case the fragile ship was shattered by the terrifying winds and waves.

Sang Ying also customized the boat’s outer skin. Its defenses were comparable to a low class beast type dominator rank. However, the powerful winds and waves posed the greatest threat to the boat, especially when the wind constantly eroded and the ocean vibrated. If this were the original Ocean White Beast Ship, it probably would already be a husk at the bottom of the ocean.

“Longlonglong.....” At the end of the frothing ocean was suddenly a sky like barrier, the tip of it foaming with waves!

This tide was too high to imagine. If this were near the coast, an entire city would probably get engulfed whole!

Such a wave was already superior to any water type dominator rank technique. Seeing the sky covering waves come forth, Sang Ying’s face turned gloomy.

“Our White Ocean Beast Boat’s defense is no longer enough to defend against such a wave. We have to think of a way to get through, or else we will be left stranded in the ocean, floating aimlessly.

Xia Zhixian didn’t speak much, and immediately summoned her Deep Ocean Spirit.

Deep Ocean Spirit chanted an incantation that caused the nearby waves to slowly calm down and float upwards mysteriously, creating many water screens.

The water screen constantly swirled around the White Ocean Beast Ship, creating a low class dominator rank shield capable of blocking one full powered strike of any low class dominator rank.

“Not good, it’s two waves, and the one behind is even taller!” Sang Ying’s voice came again.

Chu Mu immediately looked over, and found that indeed there was a larger wave behind it. That wave was truly sky covering. Even though it was still thousands of kilometers away, they could already feel the threatening spray of water on their faces.

Taking a deep breath, Prince Chao nearly choked on the salty spray. He lifted his head at the towering wave and his face went stiff.

In front of the massive tide, the White Ocean Beast was as tiny as dust!

The waves couldn’t be dispersed. Even with Chu Mu’s high class dominator rank powers, there was no stopping this wave.

Sang Ying’s face wasn’t very pretty either. He had walked countless oceans, many of which were famous for being treacherous, each of which were hard to tame in terms of weather, conditions, and waves.

However, compared to the eternal ocean, those oceans were like child’s play!

Just think; what other ocean could house a two thousand kilometer tall wave. This clearly is many magnitudes more powerful than any tsunami!

“This first one is at least fifth level dominator rank and the second is a fifth level dominator tide, my god!” Sang Ying started shouting as the waves neared.

Seventh level dominator, this meant the wave was stronger than even high class dominator rank techniques!!

The ocean was getting nearer and nearer. When the first wave hit, the entire boat flew back. The seawater was like a massive beast’s maw, devouring the White Ocean Beast Ship in one. The boat was laughably not enough to even make a splash in this beast’s maw!

“Hong!!!!!”

The White Ocean Beast Boat was floating in the ocean. Xia Zhixian’s water screen defense was already broken but the ocean’s push was still there. The boat was shaking violently and flew way up into the sky before slamming back into the ocean.

“Pa....” The hull of the boat seemed to instantly shatter. Chu Mu saw some of the wreckage scattered in the water.

Sang Ying saw this and his face became even darker.

This was just the first wave. When the second wave hit, wouldn't the boat be completely destroyed?

“Are we giving up the boat?” Chu Mu eyed the nearing second wave.

The second wave's tip was already high above the white ocean beast. Just it crashing into them may take a few minutes.

"We have to, this boat can't block it." Ying Sang said decisively.

No one dared to hesitate and summoned their soul pets.

"I think it's too late!" Sang Ying saw that the wave was about to clap down and turned pale.

A seventh level dominator rank tide meant the tide could devour even high class dominator rank organisms!!

"I'll block it for a bit first, get out of its range." At this time, Princess Jin Rou floated up and started heading towards the massive wave.

"No!!" Sang Ying knew the ocean very well.

The nature's power was always dominating. Even water type high class dominator ranks could easily die with a slight misstep against such wave, let alone directly stop it!

"You guys escape first." Chu Mu said seriously to Sang Ying.

Sang Ying knew that saying more was meaningless and immediately rode his water type soul pet to Xia Zhixian and Prince Chao in the opposite direction. As long as they were fast, they might escape.

Of course, Chu Mu couldn't let Princess Jin Rou stop the wave himself. He burned up in silver flames and followed closely.

Princess Jin Rou glanced over. Even if she lifted her head, the only thing she could see was the wave.

Princess Jin Rou herself was just a normal soul pet trainer. Suddenly faced with this massive wave, she couldn't help but feel the massive wave.

She closed her eyes and chanted a devil spirit incantation.

However, the ocean was rumbling like a thunder. The waves buffeted her body and caused her to be unable to concentrate.

“Stay at ease, I'll protect you.” At this time, Chu Mu already stood in front of Princess Jin Rou.

The upright figure caused Princess Jin Rou to momentarily lose focus. Even though his body was tiny in front of the wave, her heart quickly calmed down behind his figure.

Princess Jin Rou closed her eyes and quickly started murmuring an ancient devil spirit incantation.

Her wave-battered hair and dress slowly started settling and the mist around princess jin rou slowly stopped moving, becoming stationary water droplets that floated in the air.

“Yin.....” Princess Jin Rou let out a long and high pitched call!

A ghostly blue energy started spreading in front of Princess Jin Rou. The massive wave about to slam into her suddenly went still after this energy reached it!!

The unstoppable tide seemed to be frozen, no longer shedding even a single droplet.

At this time, Princess Jin Rou’s black hair lifted up and floated around her. Her ghostly blue dress outlined her figure perfectly. Standing before the massive wave, she looked like an ocean goddess, noble yet beautiful!

“The tide stopped!!” Far away, Sang Yin, Xia Zhixian, and Prince Chao turned to see this and was shocked!

The tide was immensely powerful. Even many high class dominator ranks together could only disperse it or scatter it. Yet, this tide was stopped in its tracks by a spectral woman!

“Move quickly, I can’t hold it for long!” Princess Jin Rou’s voice floated into their ears.

The three didn't dare to hesitate anymore and quickly left the area and went towards the skies.

Chu Mu turned around and looked at Princess Jin Rou turning more and more transparent.

A spectral body becoming white and transparent meant it was getting weaker.

Chu Mu naturally couldn't just watch. He quickly cast a temporal slowdown to extend the time it took for the waves to fall.

"They're in a safe place. Let's leave." Chu Mu said to Princess Jin Rou.

Princess Jin Rou nodded.

Her hair slowly fell back down and the water droplets started falling again, albeit slowly.

"Longlonglong..... The ocean went back to its wildness and went towards Chu Mu and Princess Jin Rou.

Chu Mu protected Princess Jin Rou and went as fast as he could away from the tides' range.....

Chapter 1234: Boat from the Other Side of the Dark Sky Ocean World

The ocean waves were rolling like thunder. Fog covered the blue skies and kept the skies humid.

On top of the clouds, Chu Mu looked down with lingering fear, looking at the space where the giant wave passed, mere ten meters away.....

After a while, when the tide disappeared into the distance, everyone finally calmed down.

Chu Mu glanced at the weakened Princess Jin Rou and asked, “Are you alright?”

Princess Jin Rou was clearly tired. She lightly nodded, “I want to rest for a bit.”

As she spoke, she became a wisp that floated into Chu Mu’s ring.

The ghost organism could stick its body to many mediums. Without the boat, she could only attach herself to Chu Mu’s ring. Of course, to her spectral form, there wasn’t a large difference.

Chu Mu didn’t bother her and glanced over at Prince Chao, Sang Ying, and Xia Zhixian to ask them about their situation.

Sang Ying even now had a face full of shock. Only after a while did she say, “Lady Bai really is powerful. How could she completely stop such a massive wave?”

Prince Chao and Xia Zhixian also didn’t expect Princess Jin Rou to have such power. The scene was truly shocking.

Chu Mu didn’t explain too much. She definitely used the dominator rank devil soul’s powers. Though princess Jin Rou wasn’t a half human species, her soul was made by the dominator rank devil soul and so she could cast some of its techniques.

Without the boat, they could only fly on in the skies.

The ocean's skies weren't exactly calm either. They often ran into large storms. At first, they took turns switching out flying soul pets. However, after a few rounds, they were all tired.

"Old Li, where is the Demonic Burial Mound?" Chu Mu asked.

On the ocean, one either faced massive waves or intense gales. Occasionally, storms, thunders, and tsunamis were interspersed in as well. If one wasn't a water type organism, it truly was hard to survive on the oceans. Thinking back to how Night was running around in these chaotic seas back when it was still emperor rank, one could only imagine how many hardships it had to overcome.

"I only know a general direction." Old Li said.

"This place isn't somewhere emperor ranks can live in. You pointing Night here....." Chu Mu said with some dissatisfaction.

Let alone emperor ranks, even dominator ranks would have no chance of survival against the previous massive wave!

"Young master, it wouldn't run stupidly in one direction. There are many islands on the ocean, many of which are demon homes. It can sense these islands so it probably progressed down these islands. As for the bad weather, Night, who grew up in an ocean island climate has the ability to predict the weather. It probably wouldn't run around on the ocean when something like that tide happens...." Old Li said.

Even with Old Li saying that, Chu Mu was still worried. This ocean clearly threatened even dominator rank organisms, which meant any normal wave could threaten emperor rank soul pets. Then, how would Night pass through here at any point?

“Yi, there’s a boat!”

Sang Ying suddenly yelled with excitement.

Chu Mu looked down and indeed found that, on the deep blue sea, there were a few black dots swiftly travelling.

“Why would there be people here?” Prince Chao said.

“Can it be people on the other side of eternal ocean?” Xia Zhixian said.

“Impossible. The eternal ocean is so big, our few months of travel likely hasn’t even covered a tenth of it. Even if there were people on the other side, there would be no way they could reach here.” Sang Ying said with confidence.

Just as Chu Mu was about to speak, a soul floated out from the jade ring. Princess Jin Rou’s blue yet translucent body appeared slowly.

Sang Ying and Prince Chao saw Jin Rou appear in a glow, they all briefly lost their thoughts.

The only one that seemed to match the demonic Evil Good Queen Yu Suo in appearance was the similarly beautiful Princess Jin Rou. At this moment, floating out amongst the ghostly blue, her slender body was shrouded merely by a thin dress. Her perfect skin and supple body was vaguely visible underneath. A head of hair that reached her hips waved slightly with the wind, giving her a more spirited beauty. A single look at the flawless face could temporarily make you lose your thoughts.

Though Princess Jin Rou's eyes weren't large, her pupils were always filled with a watery gleam. When she smiled, her eyes became beautiful crescents endowed with long eyelashes. Prince Chao and Sang Ying initially were just curiously looking at the wisp of soul that appeared, but as Princess Jin Rou smiled politely, both of them lost their thoughts.

No man hated beauties. Prince Chao and Sang Ying had no other intentions, but were simply fascinated in the moment.

However, when they came back to their senses and realized that this perfect beauty was only a spectral form of a girl, they both felt sorry.....

Standing behind Prince Chao, Xia Zhixian secretly stuck out her hand and gave Prince Chao a huge pinch. Using her mental voice, she grumbled, "Even if I'm not as pretty as she is, you can't just stare at her so blatantly in front of me!"

Prince Chao laughed awkwardly and immediately played the victim, "Hehe, I'm just appreciating the view. Ye Wansheng already said that the little princess is Chu Mu's, how would I dare interfere?"

"She's a ghost. Even if she stays by Chu Mu, she's still a ghost that can only be seen but can't be touched. Chu Mu is probably getting antsy too, right?" Xia Zhixian said.

"Uh..... he'll eventually find a way to revive her." Prince Chao said.

Xia Zhixian and Prince Chao both mumbled something that Chu Mu couldn't hear. When he saw Princess Jin Rou's blue glow become even more prominent, he asked, "Your devil soul reached a higher rank?"

Chu Mu had a ghost dragon himself so he could estimate ghost type organisms' rank somewhat.

"En." Princess Jin Rou smiled.

"I know where these boats come from." Princess Jin Rou pointed down at the ocean and continued, "Our little south forbidden realm is actually a half island. Going more south is the Dark Sky Ocean World. Dark Sky Ocean World is actually a crescent-like extension from eternal ocean that goes around little south forbidden realm's south side and enters into Wanxiang Realm. Our New Moon Ground is split from another massive border territory by this extension of sea. This massive territory is what we call land from the other side of the ocean. They're also neighbors of the eternal ocean. Since we left and continued to sail southwest, we have already to a certain extent entered the naval territory of the other border territory."

"That means those people are all from the nation on the other side of the dark sky ocean world." Chu Mu lifted an eyebrow.

Chu Mu knew nothing about the other nation other than the worry-less girl with chime-like laughs that Chu Mu still thinks of often. No matter what, she was someone that he signed a soul pact with.

Chapter 1235: Ocean Faction, Wupan Navy!!

Without a boat, they were stuck in a very vexing situation. Chu Mu and the others all needed to rest. Thus, they flew straight into the ocean towards those boats.

While they were in the air, the boats they saw were but small specks. However, when they neared the ocean surface, Chu Mu discovered that these boats were far more luxurious built than White Ocean Beast Cry. They looked like enormous iron beasts tearing through the ocean.

In terms of speed, these luxurious boats were much faster as well than the White Ocean Beast Cry modified by Sang Ying.

However, there were a number of visible marks of damage on these boats. A few of the crew members were adeptly fixing the damaged parts, while a few capable soul pets were flying around the boats.

On the spacious and clean deck, a man with a large stomach was seated on a chair made of an ocean beast's skin.

There were two women as slim as snakes next to the man. One was holding a fruit tray while the other was holding up cooked meat. Compared to them, the fat man was probably four or five times their size.

The fat man grabbed the food from the tray and was eating without pause. If his hands got oily, he would just use the beautiful clothing worn by the female servants to wipe his hands. Whenever he wiped his hands, he would purposefully grab their erotic parts, causing these two servant girls to incessantly laugh and coyly cry out: "Senior Ocean Commander, don't be like this..."

Aside from this vulgar scene, there were twenty other people dignifiedly standing on the deck. These twenty people were wearing deep blue armor.

Although they were standing there without moving, the aura they emitted was like a tumultuous ocean, giving others an oppressive and repulsing feeling.

"It's rare that the weather isn't bad. The storm from earlier completely turned me off." the fat ocean commander gnawed on cooked meat and spoke while chewing.

“Senior Ocean Commander, this area of the ocean has been so unsteady. You often come and go here so I’m sure you must have had many incredible encounters.” coquettishly said the woman wearing the cyan snaked scaled clothing.

“Haha, of course. Not long ago, I followed Border Lord Zheng to find the legendary demon island. We slaughtered our way there and were invincible. On the demon island, we found a huge pile of treasure.”

“Then this time you embarked onto the ocean to...” asked the female servant.

“That demon island has a few strong creatures. After we annihilated their nest, they began a series of retaliative attacks on our border territory...”

The ocean commander was about to continue when a patrolling ocean member came to make a report:

“Senior Ocean Commander, there are a few soul pets approaching us.”

The ocean commander slowly stood up from his seat and walked out of the canopy on the deck. He looked up at the approaching figures.

“Dark type phoenix?” the ocean commander was slightly surprised as he focused on the evil yet elegant phoenix approaching.

Without needing the ocean commander's orders, the twenty ocean soldiers dressed in the same armor stared with caution at these people. The moment something unexpected occurred, they would immediately summon their soul pets.

"They're also soul pet trainers." the ocean commander squinted his eyes, and discovered there were four people on the dark purple lightning phoenix.

"Senior Ocean Commander, our boat was just destroyed by the huge wave earlier. Could you let us stay a few days with you?" politely said Sang Ying.

"You adventurers are pretty strong. You even dared charge into this stormy ocean area." laughed the fat ocean commander. He neither allowed them nor denied them.

His eyes swept over the four people, and quickly focused on Xia Zhixian.

"Since you have met with misfortune, how could we, Wupan Navy and the lords of Eternal Ocean, refuse you? Come onto our main boat. You will be our honored guests. If you have heard of my name, Zhao De, before, you will know that I have heartfelt respect for ocean adventurers, especially adventurers who are courageous and hot-blooded like you." the ocean commander called Zhao De spoke with a gentle tone.

"Eh, eh. So you are the navy commander Zhao De from Wupan Navy. It's such an honor to meet you. I am a normal ocean adventurer, and I truly feel honored to see such a great figure like you who is the commander of an elite navy unit of 100 thousand." Sang Ying immediately showed respect.

"Haha, those who come are guests. Come, I have many extra rooms. You can choose any of them." Zhao De laughed and let the four of them land.

Chu Mu, Prince Chao, Xia Zhixian, and Sang Ying were very tired. Drifting atop the ocean without a boat was indeed a very tormenting thing.

The four of them entered the cabins in the boat under Ocean Commander Zhao De's arrangements. Regardless whether it was the space or decoration of this enormous boat, it was more luxurious and grand than White Ocean Beast Cry. Seeing that there were even baths that they could use to wash themselves, Xia Zhixian's face was even more full of smiles.

"Sang Ying, you know about Wupan Navy?" Chu Mu wasn't in a rush to rest and began to question Sang Ying.

"Of course, Wupan Navy is extremely famous in our Jia Border. They belong to Kun Border and control a huge area of Eternal Ocean. The total number of navy members is over ten million and the number of spirit emperor experts is no less than 100 thousand. As for dominator rank experts, they certainly are not few."

"An army of ten million!" Prince Chao sucked in a breath.

After arriving in the outside world, Prince Chao learned that in order to enter an army, one's strength had to reach at least the spirit teacher level. Yet, this army had over 100 thousand spirit emperors. That was crazy...

Indeed, in the past ten years, Wanxiang Realm and Tianxia Realm probably only had about 1000 spirit emperors in total. Wupan Navy's spirit emperors outnumbered Wanxiang Realm's by 100, and this was merely the navy. How strong then, was Kun Border which Wupan Navy belonged to?!

"I looked at the boat insignia just now. This fleet is Wupan Navy's ninth division's third ship legion. Their commander is the Ocean Commander Zhao De from just now."

“What is ninth division’s third ship legion?” Chu Mu had no knowledge of the navy system.

“Wupan Navy is divided into thirteen divisions. Each division was commanded by border lord rank people and above. Each division was further divided into ship legions 1 to 30. Each ship legion was commanded by a border commander or border warrior. The closer to 1 each ship legion is, the stronger it is. We are currently in the third ship legion of the ninth division, meaning the strength of this legion is ranked third. I don’t actually know of Zhao De, but as the leader of the navy division’s 3rd ship legion, he is definitely very strong!” earnestly said Sang Ying.

“I truly could tell that this perverted fellow is also a border commander.” muttered Prince Chao.

“Chao Lengchuan, don’t speak like that. If he hears it... you should understand that any one of his twenty subordinates that were just next to him could annihilate you. We should be courteous on his boat. Those that offend people from Wupan Navy never have a good ending.” seriously said Sang Ying.

Sang Ying’s own strength was actually at the lowest standard for a border commander. However, his cautiousness proved that Wupan Navy truly wasn’t simple!

“Do I look that weak?” Prince Chao forced a smile.

“I’m not saying that you’re weak. It’s just that the navy is very strong. Border commanders are divided into three levels, lower, middle, and upper. Border Commander Wu Zhen, for example, who is stationed on the fringes of the borders is definitely a lower border commander. He probably only has a single high class dominator.”

“As for Zhao De, as the small leader of the 3rd ship legion, he should also be a lower border commander. He’s very amazing. Perhaps Chu Mu can get rid of him, but if I haven’t guessed incorrectly, not far away in the ocean should be another large legion of ships. That ship definitely has the big leader of the 3rd ship legion.”

“The big leader is definitely an upper border commander, which is on a completely different level than a lower border commander. Us people won’t even be able to beat one of his secondary pets. Even if Chu Mu uses his full strength, he can probably only barely beat one of his main pets.”

Prince Chao sucked in a breath and looked dumbstruck at Sang Ying.

He never expected the big leader of a single ship legion of Wupan Navy to be so strong. Then how strong were the big leader that commanded the divisions and the head of Wupan Navy?

Wupan Navy was essentially like an enormous mountain!!

Prince Chao’s face looked like a frozen eggplant. He had already obtained an enormous fortuitous encounter in the Holy Region that allowed his Thousand Wave Beast to near the high class dominator rank. Yet, in comparison to the navy legions that were so powerful, he was probably just an insignificant fellow in comparison.

“Don’t be too sad. Wupan Navy is a peak tier faction in this world. The prestige of its chief leader is near the top ten ranked humans. Even our Jia Border in his eyes is a small place.” consoled Sang Ying.

“Prestigious experts that rank top ten in humanity?” Chu Mu’s interest was piqued.

As for how big the human world was or how many border territories there were, Chu Mu still had no idea. Nonetheless, if Wupan Navy's chief leader was recognized as one of the ultra strong experts near the top ten in humanity, then his strength was standing proud at the pinnacle. Exactly what rank had this person reached?" Chu Mu felt somewhat pressed to know.

"Chu Mu, all of a sudden I feel like there's huge pressure now." Prince Chao put on a forced smile and looked at Chu Mu's whose expression hadn't changed.

Prince Chao had embarked to the ocean to understand how big the world was.

"Haha, is there pressure?" said Chu Mu.

"Prince Chao felt even more depressed: "Of course there's no pressure for you. Your Mo Xie is one of the five undying legends: the Hades Fox Noble. As for how strong she is, we don't even know right now. I don't even want to mention the Evil Good Queen. It hasn't even reached the tenth phase yet. My god, technically speaking she's still a child pet. Additionally, your spectral Hidden Dragon doesn't require any xuan items now and can just swallow souls to advance ranks. How can other people endure this! Even your Warbeast Mo Ye has a peak dominator rank xuan item now..."

Chapter 1236: Seventh Soul Pact, Ruptured?

Zhao De was rather courteous to Chu Mu and the others. He even had people send them numerous delicacies to eat.

However, within a few days, everyone discovered that he was hitting on Xia Zhixian.

How could Prince Chao stand a lecherous fellow staring down his woman every time.

Prince Chao knew as well that the team on the boat wasn't easily provoked. In order not to incite trouble, after resting a while, Chu Mu and the others planned on leaving.

Although Zhao De's head was filled with thoughts, he couldn't make people stay once they wanted to leave. He could only watch Chu Mu and the others leave with pity.

"Senior, there's no need to be so sad. We're here to accompany you..." flirtatiously said the servant girl.

"Go away, how could you two compare to her?" angrily scolded Zhao De.

Zhao De wasn't in a good mood. If they had stayed for a few more days, he had confidence he would have been able to have this woman.

If he had known earlier they were in a rush to leave, he should have taken action earlier. Now that he had to just watch them leave, he was left with a bitter taste.

.....

Once they returned to the skies, Prince Chao began to loudly curse.

"I really wish I could yank that thing's eyes out!"

Xia Zhixian giggled seeing Chao Lengchuan's extreme anger. She intentionally provoked him: "Prince Chao, I'm someone who pursues fame and wealth. You need to be more lenient. If some day I fly away with someone stronger, don't miss this older sister too much."

Xia Zhixian's words turned Prince Chao's face ashen with anger. He was like a child throwing a fit, and refused to say anything.

Xia Zhixian realized she had gone overboard with her joke. She wanted to console him, but Prince Chao had already urged his Thousand Wave Beast to hastily fly in front of them.

Xia Zhixian helpless said when she saw Chao Lenghuan like this: "He really can't handle a joke, eh."

"Haha, don't worry. He'll be fine in a moment." laughed Chu Mu.

Chu Mu understood Prince Chao's nature. Prince Chao wasn't someone afraid that Xia Zhixian would really run off with someone else. Instead, it was her words that made him realize how weak he was...

However, remembering the description of Wupan Navy by Sang Ying, Chu Mu felt great waves in his heart.

"I ought to increase my training!" Chu Mu said to himself.

Just as Prince Chao had said. Mo Xie, the Little Hidden Dragon and Zhan Ye all had huge potential. He had to raise their strengths as fast as he could.

Of course, the most important was his own soul remembrance.

Currently, he was a second remembrance spirit dominator. To a certain extent, this was holding back his high class dominator rank soul pets.

However, Chu Mu believed that once he raised the strengths of the Ghost King, Qin, Ning, and Devil Tree Battle Soldier, he would quickly reach the middle remembrance spirit dominator rank.

.....

“There’s a purple color mist in front of us. This should be near Demonic Burial Mound!” excitedly cried out Old Li when he saw the mist.

“This is the legendary Demonic Burial Mound?” Sang Ying looked at the purple mist in front of him with expectation.

Chu Mu opened his eyes from silent cultivation. He looked ahead and faintly felt something.

“Wu wu wu” the small Mo Xie used her nose to smell, and then gave a cry back at Chu Mu.

“You’re saying that Night came here?” excitedly said Chu Mu.

If Night came here, then once he entered the mist, he would be able to communicate mentally with Night.

Chu Mu didn't think more about this, and immediately had the Dead Dream enter the purple mist.

The mist was extremely thick and even using soul remembrance, it was difficult to see objects over a kilometer away. After flying a long time, they could still only see mist.

However, sometime later, a submerged reef gradually appeared in the ocean and Chu Mu was vaguely able to see an outline of an island.

The edge of the island had cliffs and precipices that were extremely high up. The cliffs emitted violent smashing sounds every time turbulent ocean water surged against them. The sounds made people feel ill at ease.

After passing a number of dangerous cliffs, in their hazy line of sight, they were finally able to see a bottleneck-shape gulf. The gulf then took the form of a canyon that slowly extended to the island.

The ocean water in the long and narrow gulf was much more calm than the water on the reef. Additionally, Chu Mu discovered several wreckages of boats that were filled with moss underneath the rocky cliffs. They were being pulled and pushed by the waves, forever unable to leave.

"There are boats in the gulf!" Sang Ying looked astonishedly at the rows of boats stopped in front.

The flags were faintly discernible in the purple mist. Sang Ying used his soul remembrance to check and found that they were Wupan Navy's ninth division 3rd ship legion. Moreover, this group of boats was clearly larger in scale than what Zhao De was leading.

These are likely the ships the 3rd legion's big chief are leading. Surprisingly, they also want to enter Demonic Burial Mound." said Sang Ying.

“What have they come here for?” said Xia Zhixian.

Chu Mu creased his brows. A human legion wanted to enter soul pet territory, and it was a big group of them. This definitely was not something good.

“Let’s enter first.” said Chu Mu.

After entering the island, flying wasn’t a wise choice. Even the navy hadn’t chosen to fly above the island.

Chu Mu and the others entered the gulf and discovered that most of the ship members were no longer there. They only left a few members behind to watch the boats.

Chu Mu used the mist to easily pass through these members and walked ashore onto the seemingly extremely large demonic ocean island.

“That’s strange. I remember the first time I arrived on Demonic Burial Mound, there were many demons guarding the outer edges.” muttered Old Li.

Chu Mu and the others didn’t see any other creature on the island. This was different from the paradise for wild creatures Old Li had described earlier.

“This place seems to have been eradicated. There is still a stench of blood in the dirt.” said Chu Mu.

“So this legion of ships has come here to loot soul pet resources?” said Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu shook his head and said: “The blood has been here for a few years now, while the legion of ships has only just landed not long ago.”

“Chu Mu, can you feel your soul pet?” asked Prince Chao.

They had two objectives at Demonic Burial Mound. One was to find Night and the other was to find the object hidden by the Heaven Boundary Monument beast soul in Demonic Burial Mound.

Chu Mu was able to see in the hazy scene that the object was hidden underneath an enormous island rock. Chu Mu still remembered the shape of this island rock.

Chu Mu figured that if he was able to sense Night, Night would probably know where the island rock was since it had stayed on Demonic Burial Mound for many years and was familiar. He would then be able to easily obtain the item left by the Heaven Boundary Monument beast soul. However, Chu Mu was now feeling even more uneasy since he was still unable to sense Night even after entering Demonic Burial Mound island.

“The interior of Demonic Burial Mound island is still restricted. Once we pass this restriction. If Night is on Demonic Burial Mound island, young master will be able to sense it.” said Old Li.

Chu Mu nodded his head. He did as Old Li instructed. Once they passed through a complex jungle, they indeed found an identical purple mist restriction.

This time, the mist restriction clearly possessed mental and spatial obstruction. Normal creatures didn't even have the qualifications to enter.

But with small Mo Xie here, the restriction was not too threatening.

The small Mo Xie lightly waved her claws and ripped apart the restriction.

Once they entered the restricted area, the entire atmosphere of the island mysteriously turned clear. The feeling was like suddenly stepping into an open and clear sunlit field after walking through an incomparably dark and murky world. A pure aura of nature drifted over, making them feel relaxed.

Everyone sucked in a deep breath, enjoying it.

However, when Chu Mu sucked in his breath, he suddenly clutched his stomach and his body violently trembled!

"What's the matter? You sensed Night?" Princess Jinrou turned around and asked Chu Mu.

However, she immediately discovered that Chu Mu's face was mysteriously pale white!!

Chu Mu's face faintly trembled as he clutched his stomach. Cold sweat began to roll down his forehead. He looked extremely in pain.

Princess Jinrou jumped from fright out of Chu Mu's sudden transformation and hastily asked: "Chu Mu, what's the matter?"

Chu Mu clutched his stomach. He couldn't even open his mouth to talk from the pain.

"This..." Prince Chao was instantly stunned by Chu Mu's expression.

A soul pet trainer's face going white and also writhing in pain. This was the sign of a soul pact rupture.

Could Chu Mu's soul pact with a soul pet have ruptured?!

The four of them watched Chu Mu, while Chu Mu's mind had gone blank from the sudden pain.

Soul pact rupture!

This was a soul pact rupture.

The seventh soul pact with Night had ruptured!!

The blow on the soul wasn't capable of making Chu Mu feel his heart had been cut out. Instead, the real pain came from the rupture, because Chu Mu could feel that Night no longer had any signs of life.

After a long period of time, the soul link between Chu Mu and Night had an invisible thread that connected them. This thread was extending into the unknown darkness, preventing Chu Mu from knowing of Night's situation.

However, when Chu Mu entered this unknown territory, he suddenly discovered that this thread had been severed! Moreover, the delayed blow to the soul had only now hit Chu Mu's soul due to the restriction. Although it was delayed, it still made Chu Mu feel as though the pain had pierced his heart!

Night...

It already died!!

Like a bolt from the blue, it struck Chu Mu's mind, preventing him from even standing steadily.

Until now, Chu Mu believed that Night didn't know he had awakened, and was striving to grow stronger.

Perhaps the sliver of cold that came from afar made Chu Mu feel uneasy, but due to the soul pact remaining intact, Chu Mu didn't think too badly of it.

However, the moment they broke open Demonic Burial Mound's restriction and the pain struck them, Chu Mu was unable to ward off this terrible news he was completely unprepared for.

"How could this be..."

“How could this be!!!”

Chu Mu muttered to himself, heartbroken.

“Chu Mu, are you ok?”

“Chu Mu...”

“Young master, calm down a bit first.”

“Young master, if a soul pet truly died, the soul pact with instantly rupture. Even with a restriction, there cannot be a delay. There’s definitely something strange here...”

Chapter 1237: A Proud Burial Ground

Prince Chao sat Chu Mu down, and let Chu Mu adjust himself.

Chu Mu slowly recovered from his original shortness of breathing, but he still felt pangs of pain going through his heart.

He closed his eyes and entered a meditation state to look at his seventh soul in detail.

The thin line connecting their souls was broken already. Seeing the torn thread, Chu Mu felt even more upset.

Any soul pet fought continuously for their survival. Under nature's law, any life would be very fragile. If they don't understand to avoid powerful organisms and disasters, they may risk losing their lives to nature.

However, what Chu Mu couldn't come to terms with was, how did Night also get eliminated by nature's law?

Night came out of Prison Island with him and has followed him for over a decade. It was free, bold, unconstrained, yet also cool headed. As Chu Mu's ride, it didn't fight real battles as much as other soul pets, but that couldn't wipe out the battle intent in his heart!

It had a running heart, a heart to become the best, as well as a loyal heart.

A creature like it that knew how to survive in a world of powerful beings, how could it get eliminated this easily?

Chu Mu's heart was switching between calmness and rolling emotions.....

After a long while, Chu Mu's heart finally calmed down completely.

He used his soul remembrance to enter the seventh soul pact. This soul pact has been empty for many years, but there was still the special scent of Night and its island forest.

Chu Mu no longer had the heart to look at the thread. However, even if Night was eliminated by nature, Chu Mu desperately wanted to know where it ended up.

Chu Mu collected his thoughts, and started to try to find Night's final resting ground.

This sensing was actually extremely weak and consumed a lot of mental energy.

Chu Mu focused his mind and poured his soul remembrance into the broken soul thread.....

.....

"Chu Mu, are you alright?" Princess Jin Rou went up to Chu Mu and asked softly.

Chu Mu slowly opened his eyes and his paleness recovered. His emotions weren't much different from his usual expression, but one could tell he was slightly down.

"Much better, I found approximately where it was buried. I want to go see it." Chu Mu said.

Prince Chao didn't know what to say anymore. Losing a soul pet was like losing a relative, the sadness was truly hard to comfort.

"Then let's come with you to see it." Xia Zhixian said.

Chu Mu shook his head and said, "Go look for the island stone, the path is quite far..... But, I won't be for long. I'll come back once I gather its bones."

Chu Mu finished speaking and went towards a different forest.

Prince Chao was still very worried for Chu Mu. Seeing Chu Mu leave alone, he wanted to catch up.

At this time, Xia Zhixian pulled over Prince Chao and said in a low voice, “He just wants to stay silent, don’t bother him.”

Xia Zhixian looked at Chu Mu’s back image and vaguely remembered, back on the Wanxiang Plain, this man half kneeling on the ground to welcome the return of his black battle tiger.

At the time, Xia Zhixian was there. Even as an enemy, she still felt the truly sincere soul of this soul pet trainer. At this time, his back image was resolute and upright, but a missing piece was also truly evident for all to see.....

.....

Many times, Chu Mu felt that, if there was no direction, the directionless feeling could cause him to go crazy because a person with nowhere to go is akin to being a lonely wanderer.

This time, Chu Mu knew where to go but the place to go still caused his emotions to become chaotic.

Passing through countless forests, the ever so similar island forests caused Chu Mu to fall deep into thought.

With the sun rise and fall, the fog dissipated. Without even realizing, Chu Mu was already at the center of the island.

The demon burial ground had clear elevation differences. The initial island was only slightly higher than the horizon and had a flat formation with occasional rivers connecting everything.

However, deep into the distance, formations would suddenly lift up one or two thousand meters. It looks like the land had a risen plateau. Though it continues to be flat after, it was one or two thousand meters high.

Chu Mu was now at this mark. Looking back down, he could see the vast green field and the endless ocean beyond it.

The sunset fell in front of Chu Mu. Rays of sunset penetrated the evening mist, laying down carpets of red down the island and into the ocean.

Chu Mu turned around, but instead saw a beautiful long haired girl in the sunset.

The radiant glow fell on her body, causing her white robe shawl to be even more bright colored. At this moment, Chu Mu seemed to see a tender face and smooth skin.

Chu Mu stared at her for a long time, entranced.

However, as the sunset slowly disappeared beyond the mountains, the glow disappeared from her and her figure went back to a half transparent blue, her shawl still as pale as ever.

“You’ve been following me?” Chu Mu smiled slightly with a hint of helplessness.

Princess Jin Rou was clearly slightly reserved. She lowered her head and clutched her sleeves, “I’m.... I’m worried about you.”

Chu Mu no longer remembered how long he walked alone. All this time, Chu Mu had never turned around to look. Only when the sunset fell did Chu Mu realize this woman had followed him for so long but didn’t dare to disturb him.

Seeing Princess Jin Rou nervous and uneasy, Chu Mu smiled and comforted, “Don’t worry, maybe it’s like what Old Li said, there’s something strange about this place.”

“En.” Princess Jin Rou nodded heavily.

“Let’s go.” Chu Mu told Princess Jin Rou to catch up.

“Ok.” Princess Jin Rou floated over to Chu Mu.

“You didn’t use mind read on me, did you?”

“No, why?”

“Oh, nothing.”

.....

Continuing ahead, when he was around three thousand meters above sea level, Chu Mu slowly noticed there were more demons nearby.

These demons hid in trees, rocks, or forests and caves and nearby and watched the intruders Chu Mu and Princess Jin Rou from afar.

Their rank was around emperor rank and had nothing to Chu Mu.

“The resources on this island are very plentiful. Any organism that can step on this island was at least emperor rank. Even if they weren’t emperor rank, if they could live for a while, they could step into emperor rank.” Old Li said, “Most importantly, this is the largest demon sacred ground. Normal demons could find many soul items and xuan items within this island. If one were a nomadic demon, it can get great benefits as long as it keeps progressing in stages.”

“What do you mean continue to fight through?” Chu Mu asked questioningly.

“Young master, when you entered the island, doesn’t the ground go up layer by layer?”

“En, I had that impression.” Chu Mu nodded.

“That’s right. Each layer represents a rank of demons. The outermost layer are the lowest rank demons on this island. They live near the sea level. Higher up, in the thousand to two thousand meter range, the demon aura was thicker. Even servant rank organisms that reach that height could eventually become emperor ranks. In the three to five thousand meter range above sea level, the area had even heavier demon aura. If Night entered at middle class dominator rank, he would be invincible emperor rank within half a year!”

Princess Jin Rou became thoughtful as she heard this from the side. Looking around, he said to Old Li, “We are nearing the three to five thousand meter range now, right?”

“Yes. Any demon habitat is a massive clan in one. This group needs the recognition of each other. Only then can you survive on this land and train.”

“And to gain recognition, we have to show our strength! Young master is now dominator rank, so any demons in this area naturally respect you and won’t stop you at all. However, once young master steps into a region that doesn’t respect you, powerful demons will appear before you.

Chu Mu nodded. He gazed far into the rest of the island hidden in the fog.

Night was buried far deeper in the island. This means that, when it stepped into this land many years ago, it stepped up rank by rank upwards to look for the recognition of ever stronger demons as it got stronger.

At first, it was an emperor rank. In other places, that was enough to be a hegemon but here in the Demon Burial Ground, it is the lowest level.

Chu Mu could imagine the scorn and distaste the other demons viewed Night with when Night first entered the Demon Burial Ground island.

However, Chu Mu could imagine that Night's pupils must have been a deep, calm, and determined black. Or else, the place where it had fallen wouldn't be so high above the three to five thousand height area.

With Night's pride, even if it died, it would not allow itself to be buried at such a low level on the island!

Chu Mu even had a feeling that the place it had fallen was a place even him, in his current state, may not be able to step into easily because Chu Mu could sense it truly was much, much higher than where he currently was!

Chapter 1238: Demon Burial Ground Precipice, Demon Graveyard

"Young master, five thousand to ten thousand meters is a bottleneck. To the island, any place below ten thousand meters is outer island. Going from the five thousand meter elevation to ten thousand meters is much harder." Old Li said.

In front of Chu Mu was a wall face that went straight upwards to a high ground. This high ground was at least five thousand meters away from Chu Mu's current location and was nearly perpendicular to the ground.

A waterfall flew down from the fogs above, slamming into the pool in the outer island. The water splashed around, creating brilliant rainbows that glimmered in the sun.

Standing at the precipice and gazing up to the unseeable middle island, the grandiose aura fell on Chu Mu's shoulders.

Five thousand meters was nothing to emperor rank organisms.

However, it was this five thousand meter difference that split up the place emperor ranks and dominator ranks rested. Countless demons dared to climb it, but how many could actually continue to survive in the middle island after they make it?

“There’s..... there’s so many corpses here.” Princess Jin Rou said in a low voice.

When Chu Mu walked over, he slowly noticed a lot of bodies strewn randomly around.

These corpses were mostly emons and almost all emperor rank. If this were any other territory, emperor rank corpses were nearly impossible to find.

However, here, they were like the lowliest servant ranks. Their corpses were everywhere. On Chu Mu’s way over, Chu Mu saw over a thousand rotten or even still bleeding corpses.

The entire Demon Burial Ground’s outer and middle island’s circumference was something Chu Mu couldn’t estimate. He knew he was walking a very small portion of the road. However, if a single path had over a thousand corpses, one could imagine just how many lives has this five thousand meter precipice claimed!

This was the outer island’s demon burial ground!

“Demon Burial Ground, it truly lives up to its name!” chu Mu sighed.

“Speaking of which, why is this five thousand meter height something emperor rank organisms can’t reach?” Princess Jin Rou asked curiously.

“Watch for yourself.” Chu <u said.

Princess Jin Rou was confused until a skinny demon with sharp, monkey-like paws appeared out of the forest.

“Blood Drinking demon?” Princess Jin Rou stared at this demon.

Princess Jin Rou could tell that this Blood Drinking Demon was already top tier emperor rank. It was definitely a hegemon of this outer island.

This Blood Drinking Demon’s bright red eyes glanced apathetically at Chu Mu and Princess Jin Rou. After realizing that Chu Mu didn’t seem too easy to trouble, it continued in its steps towards the five thousand meter precipice.

“Ga!!”

A piece of bone snapped under the Blood Drinking demon’s foot. It looked up at the precipice and suddenly sped up and leaped directly to the thousand meter mark on the precipice.

The Blood Drinking Demon laid on the precipice. Suddenly, its body opened up and started running quickly along the precipice!

The Blood Drinking Demon with this string of movements quickly leaped into the thick fog. When Chu Mua and Princess Jin Rou looked up, they could only see a fuzzy figure running quickly along the precipice.

“Zhizhizhi!! Zhizhi..... Sisisisi!!!!!!!!!!” Sisisi..... Suddenly, commotion came from the precipice. Chu Mu looked over with soul remembrance and vaguely saw a dense amount of organisms crawl out from within the precipice and swiftly congregate around the blood drinking demon!

The fog was now getting stirred restlessly as piercing sounds came from above. Even without seeing it, one could imagine the Blood Drinking Demon was surrounded by tens of thousands of precipice protectors.....

After a moment, the chaos in the fog above the precipice finally stopped. Chu Mu saw many sharp winged figures climb back into the precipice.

The fog seemed to slightly dissipate now. Chu Mu was shocked to find that, other than a five thousand meter cliff with a waterfall, there were many caves hidden under the dense foliage. The dense precipice protectors came from the cave. Presumably, anyone who wanted to climb this wall would alarm them!

“Pa.....” Chu Mu was just entranced when a white bony skeleton fell from the heights and fell on the rocks below!

The corpse was still stuck with blood. However, from this point on, it would be buried along with the other thousands of corpses in this Demon Burial Ground.

Seeing this scene, Princess Chu Mu’s eyes widened with fear.

“So..... so scary.” Princess Jin Rou said with lingering fear.

Just now, the top tier emperor rank Blood Drinking Demon was full of life. Yet, without even getting half way, it became a corpse. He never would have thought that one day an emperor rank organisms' life would be that fragile!

Chu Mu nodded without thought. With the amount of protectors that appeared, even pseudo dominator ranks would have issues with getting through.

“That Blood Drinking Demon was too impulsive. Passing through this burial ground needs a very long time of trial and error to slowly establish a safe path. Or else, even pseudo dominator ranks could be eaten whole. Old Li said.

“There’s a path to be found?” Princess Jin Rou asked.

“Of course. Most of the dominator rank resources are up top. These outer island demons can at most create one dominator rank. Most emperor ranks can’t get this opportunity. If they have the courage, they can challenge this Demon Burial Mound Precipice. Only those that can step over have a higher chance of reaching dominator rank.” Old Li said.

If one went and forcefully climbed it, any non-pseudo dominator rank trying would be akin to giving away their life. Only through countless trying and establishing a step by step path could they find a pattern in the resting schedule of the protectors and some blind spots. Then, one can get up.”

Old Li’s words reminded Chu Mu of something as he furrowed his brows and looked at it.

Chu Mu still remembered that not long after getting dead dream, Night’s aura was still moving frequently up and down.

This feeling was very weak and Chu Mu didn't know what it was. However, thinking back, could it be that Night was trying to climb this wall?

Night had the calm and patience. It would definitely not be as brash as that blood drinking demon.....

It must have gotten up this precipice after countless tries.

Night left Chu Mu just as it entered emperor rank. Unlike Chu Mu's other soul pets, it couldn't have gotten soul items, xuan items or others. It could only rely on itself. It was indeed a path full of death that could make it stronger!

Chu Mu looked again at the fog covered precipice and almost saw the black figure of Night trying again and again to go up the wall.

"At least it made it past this." After a long while, Chu Mu uttered calmly.

He lifted his head and looked at the shrouded precipice.

Chu Mu didn't fly right up to the high ground because he felt that he had to try the same path that Night took. Even though so long as passed, he had to walk it at least once.....

"Just let me see where did you get to!"

Chu Mu chanted an incantation to summon ice air fairy and devil tree battle soldier.

Ice Air Fairy and Devil Tree Battle Soldier both needed training. Chu Mu knew clearly that the precipice's protectors weren't weak. If they were gathered in teams, they definitely would be a threat to even dominator ranks.

Slowly flying up the precipice, Ning was beside Chu Mu. Its pair of spirited eyes glanced at all the holes in the wall.

Devil tree battle soldier could easily climb with its arms. Its arms were very long. In fact, it could get straight to the top. However, these protectors won't be so willing to let devil tree battle soldier go.

Indeed, just as Chu Mu and his soul pet had started climbing, the densely packed precipice started showing commotion.

"Zhizhizhi..... Sisisi....." just ten meters away from Chu Mu, a four winged flying snake appeared from the cave and stared angrily at Ning.

Soon after, twenty meters behind Chu Mu, a blade wing bat demon flew out, creating metal screeching sounds with its wings.

Another strange shout, and a third protector came into Chu Mu's vision.

Four, five, ten.....

Pairs of knives and meat wings were like massive leaves outside the precipices. The pairs of eyes flooded the walls around Chu Mu.

A dozen of precipice protectors were only the start. As Chu Mu climbed, more and more protectors started appearing until the entire wall was filled with no empty space.

A thick stench filled the skies and pushed towards them.

Chu Mu stayed pinned against the precipice. Watching the tens of thousands of four winged bat demons fly towards him, he only felt dissatisfied.

Not enough, these protectors are far from enough. Either Ning or Devil Tree Battle Soldier could easily obliterate them!

“Devil Tree, smack their caves and get more guards congregated here!” Chu Mu said.

Ning and Devil Tree Battle Soldier were all low class dominator rank. Chu Mu had to strengthen them. Only then could his remembrance be raised to middle class spirit dominator. There were countless protectors that were enough to give them some training. However, a few thousand protectors weren’t nearly enough for the low class dominator rank Ning and Devil Tree Battle Soldier!

Chapter 1239: Fresh Blood Precipice, Demonic Burial Mound’s Middle Island

“Put a Put a Put a Put a”

In the distant towering precipice, densely packed wings appeared in the vision of the navy members.

“That’s... that’s at least a few ten thousand of them. What demon is so terrifying that it can incite several ten thousand precipice defenders!” said the navy members walking along the jungle in incomparable shock.

Several ten thousand precipice defenders was a sight to behold!

“Big leader, the precipice in this direction doesn’t seem to be in a peaceful state.” the scouting navy member landed from the air on his Ardent Hawk.

These navy members knelt in front of a man wearing a blue ocean beast overcoat. This man was standing on a protruding rock, gnawing on a piece of weed. Although he was already in his middle ages, his face looked quite youthful.

“Hmph, what ignorant demon decided to invade Demonic Burial Mound at this time? Even if it wants to invade, don’t cause such a disturbance for me!” the big leader spat the gnawed piece of weed onto the ground and spoke unhappily.

“Hehe, it’s just a few ten thousand outer Demonic Burial Mound defenders. Why do we need to worry about them?” laughed a young navy member to the side.

“What do you understand?!” the big leader of the 3rd ship legion glared at the young navy member and said: “I, Xu Kuang, am not worried about those pieces of trash. However, I know that there are tens of millions of these defenders on this precipice of Demonic Burial Mound! And how many of us are there? Only a few ten thousand? Perhaps even ten million of those creatures will appear. Even if I annihilate a few ten thousand of them in a single breath, while I’m annihilating them, you pieces of trash will be chewed up so that only your bones remain. You guys will just end up being buried with the skeletons of those demons together!!”

The young navy member immediately shrunk back after being reprimanded, and didn't dare say anything more.

Xu Kuang jumped off the rock and picked up another piece of weed off the ground and began to gnaw on it.

As the ninth division's third ship legion's big leader, Xu Kuang had no problem charging through the Demonic Burial Mound. Moreover, his dominator subordinates just needed to be slightly more attentive and it would be very easy to pass through this place.

However, aside from those dominator rank high ranking ocean generals, the navy members that were still at the emperor or monarch rank would have a lot of problems.

This Demonic Burial Mound precipice was extremely special. If it was a single demon that was trying to charge through the precipice, there would only be a few thousand defenders that would appear.

If a group of demons tried to charge through, several tens of thousands of defenders would appear.

And if it was an entire ship legion that tried to charge through, perhaps millions of precipice defenders would appear!

With such a large number, even if Xu Kuang oversaw the 5000 navy members he led, it would be hard to avoid loss. Indeed, they weren't strong enough to deal with ten million defenders.

"Big.... Big Leader Xu, that only seems to be one soul pet trainer..." the scouting navy member brought back information not long after.

“Oh? There was someone who came here?” Big Leader Xu Kuang was a bit surprised.

“Which ignorant fellow disturbed the entire precipice? There are definitely going to be more precipice defenders gathering there. If we charge there now, we’ll run into whole troupes of defenders.” said assistant leader Xing Feng.

“Screw it. The number of precipice defenders here is higher than I imagined. Let’s change locations. Let’s not lose too many people on this outer island precipice!” Big Leader Xu Kuang spat the weed in his mouth out again. He flung his ocean beast skin overcoat over his shoulder and began walking to another precipice in another area.

When the others saw the big leader leaving, they gave up on this location and followed him to scout out easier precipices to charge through.

After walking about a dozen kilometers, Big Leader Xu Kuang suddenly turned around and glanced at that black mass of precipices.

“Who was it that scouted that area just now.” asked Xu Kuang as he nibbled on weeds.

“It’s the sixth team’s scouting captain Lu Yuqi.” said the military adviser.

Lu Yuqi wasn’t far away and when he heard the military adviser and big leader mention his name, his face was instantly full of glory.

He was but a small captain and if he were to obtain the recognition of the big leader of the military adviser, perhaps he could become a higher-ranking officer. Then he might be able to obtain a status that would provide him with dominator rank resources!

“Oh, kill him.” Big Leader Xu Kuang indifferently said. After speaking, he flung his coat on and continued forward.

The military adviser was stunned: “Kill him? You want to kill the small captain Lu Yuqin? May I ask what his crime is...”

“Failing at his job.” Big Leader Xu Kuang harrumphed. He walked and talked: “There were fifty thousand precipice defenders that gathered there within ten minutes. That idiot told us that this was the area with the least dense amount of defenders. If we listened to his suggestion, at least 500 of us would have died.”

“Our legion doesn’t permit idiots like this...”

The small captain was left stunned in place when he heard the big leader’s words.

However, before he could beg Big Leader Xu Kuang to be lenient, he had been dragged away by two navy soldiers.

The surrounding thousands of navy members watched with fear as the small captain Lu Yuqin was dragged away like a dog. Nobody dared say anything.

“Send people to investigate. If they can’t find an entrance to the middle island that I find satisfactory, I’ll chop off their hands and legs, seal their soul remembrance and drop them into the ocean to feed the fishes.”

The big leader’s words reverberated around the jungle in front of him. The investigation team’s navy members went ashen.

.....

As the morning sun rose into the sky, a light golden ray broke through the mist, illuminating the 5000 meter precipice.

However, a gaudy red color suddenly came into view!

A blood red color!!

The entire precipice was flowing with gaudy blood. Even the white waterfall was flowing with blood red!

“Chu Mu, let’s keep going. We’ve already passed the precipice’s defenders. There’s no need to...” Princess Jinrou said in a very soft voice to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu’s eyes blankly looked up and watched the precipice full of bloody red under his feet.

Around Chu Mu were many scattered and cowering precipice defenders that refused to go near.

“I was intending on training.” Chu Mu looked at the bloody scene, and then looked at the golden sunlight illuminating this precipice of cruel slaughter.

Chu Mu knew that Chu Mu still had evil contained in his heart and he needed to release his emotions. Unfortunately, the brunt of this reception was the precipice defenders.

“Let’s find a place to rest first.” Princess Jinrou couldn’t bear to look at the corpses that littered the ground and softly spoke.

Chu Mu nodded his head. He was used to blood that littered his path and he didn’t feel anything about this scene.

He glanced at Ning, the Devil Tree Battle Soldier and the Ghost King which he had summoned later. He said: “You guys are tired too. Go back and rest.”

This battle had persisted for a very long time. The Devil Tree Battle Soldier, the Ghost King and Ning had all obtained a very thorough training session. Their training percentages had reached about 50%.

They would be able to obtain ample training in the path ahead of them. The precipice wouldn’t have any higher ranked defenders so continuing to slaughter was of no meaning here.

The number of plants on the Demonic Burial Mound’s middle island was fewer. Everywhere one could see, all there was were a few bare rocks and mountain peaks. There were, however, a few towering and enormous plants.

There was also a restriction on the middle island. When Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou entered the restriction, they felt that the xuan aura here was extremely dense!

“This is a land of treasure. If soul pets with potential are able to concentrate on training here, perhaps they will be able to enter the dominator rank without xuan items.” said Old Li.

Chu Mu had no interest in finding xuan items right now, so he made his way straight for the depths of the island.

He could clearly feel that the creatures around him that were moving about and spying on him were even stronger!

The middle island didn't mean every creature was a dominator rank. Indeed, Chu Mu saw many emperor ranks wandering around when he stepped onto the island.

These emperors could only find a place to hide like a servant rank. They were slowly searching for an opportunity to soar on this land of treasure.

As they expected, not far later, a dominator rank creature locked onto Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou.

This was its territory, and how could it ignore invaders?

This dominator stood at the very peak of a barren mountain and watched Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou from afar.

Chu Mu raised his eyelids and looked back at the lord of this territory. In his eyes was hidden the coldness from the slaughter just now!

The one on the mountain peak was a Wind Ear Demon Emperor. It had the body of a leopard with a long tail and pointed ears.

The Wind Ear Demon Emperor felt Chu Mu's icy cold eyes and its claws deeply buried in the rocks slowly relaxed.

Danger! Bloodthirst!

The Wind Ear Demon Emperor was one of the few demons that had a premonition for danger. When it thought of the precipice that was flowing with blood from not long ago, the Wind Ear Demon, with high intelligence, immediately realized that this invader was not someone it could provoke.

The Wind Ear Demon Emperor was originally perched high above and looking down. But after being coldly stared at by Chu Mu, its body slowly crawled to the ground and it retreated off the mountain peak, not daring to show any intentions of obstruction.

"Chu Mu, come here." Princess Jinrou's tip of her foot left the ground and led the way for Chu Mu.

Chu Mu followed and discovered a spring there.

Princess Jinrou landed on the edge of the spring and she used her white hands to cup the spring water.

Chu Mu squatted by the spring and glanced at Princess Jinrou.

“Sit here. I’ll help you wash.” Princess Jinrou’s eyes transformed into curved moons.

“I’ll do it myself.” Chu Mu cupped some water up to his face to wash.

It was very strenuous for Princess Jinrou, who wasn’t able to touch physical objects, to cup spring water. She needed to use her mind to control the water and gather the water in her palms.

However, the absent-minded Chu Mu didn’t realize this...

After Chu Mu splashed the cold spring water onto his face, he found the young princess pouting. She looked like a snubbed young girl and her bitter eyes looked at Chu Mu, making him feel awkward.

“Ok, you can do it.” said Chu Mu.

“Hmph, you’ve lost your chance.” Princess Jinrou had thrown the water back and floated to the side. In a very soft mumble she said: “It was really hard for me to learn how to control water...”

Chapter 1240: Xuan Items Everywhere, Treasure Island

Chu Mu bitterly shook his head. Seeing Princess Jinrou pout at him, he could only cup his own water and wash the blood off himself.

The spring water was refreshing and after he washed the blood off, he cupped up some more water and drank a few mouthfuls.

While drinking the spring water, Chu Mu saw from the corner of his eyes that the Wind Ear Demon Emperor was hiding behind a rock, staring at Chu Mu defiling the spring water.

The spring water Chu Mu was using to wash himself wasn't normal spring water. It contained a lot of xuan essence and if one spent a long time drinking the spring water, he would be nourished by xuan energy.

The Wind Ear Demon Emperor normally couldn't bear to drink it. Instead, it spent its time protecting the spring water, profoundly afraid that other creatures would come to steal it.

Yet, ultimately, Chu Mu had come and used the spring water to wash his face. This made the Wind Ear Demon Emperor feel pained. If it weren't for it being much weaker, it would have already pounced and Chu Mu and fought with its life on the line for it.

"Little Leopard, hurry and leave. Somebody's mood hasn't been the greatest recently. He'll take it out on you." Princess Jinrou faintly said to the Wind Ear Demon Emperor.

A dominator rank demon was being called a little leopard.

Speaking of which, although Princess Jinrou's fighting strength wasn't very high, the Devil Soul's rank she possessed wasn't low. Thus, calling the dominator rank demon a little leopard wasn't humiliating it.

The Wind Ear Demon Emperor threw another furtive few glances but finally left very helplessly.

Normally when a new demon invaded the middle island, it could bully them for a while. However, today, it had been completely bullied.

“Let’s go.” Chu Mu said to the nearby Princess Jinrou.

“Aren’t you going to rest a while?” said Princess Jinrou.

“It’s not going to make a difference.”

Chu Mu stood up and chanted an incantation, summoning Zhan Ye, Qin. and Dead Dream.

Zhan Ye was currently a low class dominator while Qin and the Dead Dream were both middle class dominators.

In terms of strength, the Dead Dream was the strongest and it could probably contend with the Rock Wing Dragon from back then.

If Zhan Ye’s strength was fully exhibited, it neared the Dead Dream.

Qin was a single attribute soul pet and after entering the middle class dominator rank, added on the effect of the Wind Ancient Willpower, it would be slightly stronger than a normal middle class dominator.

These three soul pets all required training and on their path, Chu Mu provoked as much as he could to find them even more enemies.

In any normal bewildering world, most of the time, one would encounter big groups of low rank soul pets first. Only by passing through a large amount of land could they encounter a dominator rank. Even Guangtong Bewildering World was like this. It was rare to be in a place like Demonic Burial Mound's middle island where walking a small distance would enter one into a dominator rank creature's territory. Chu Mu's current rank was very suited for training in the middle island.

Chu Mu had to raise his soul remembrance as fast as possible to the middle remembrance spirit dominator rank.

Being a low remembrance spirit dominator severely restricted Mo Xie's strength. Moreover, without reaching middle remembrance, the Little Hidden Dragon was incapable of continuing to absorb soul to raise his strength.

And in order to become a middle remembrance spirit dominator, his other soul pets needed to increase their ranks.

As he walked through, Chu Mu basically charged straight through. He never looked for detours and just marched right through these dominator rank demon territories.

Moreover, when Chu Mu fought, Old Li would activate his extremely fast short legs and plunder the xuan items and xuan resources from this territory.

Chu Mu didn't lack xuan resources. But even if he didn't need them, he had an entire realm behind him that needed to develop. It took him a long time to find this treasure island, so how could he give up plundering these resources?

Moreover, given how big the Demonic Burial Mound middle island was, Chu Mu wouldn't be able to plunder all of the resources even after staying here a few hundred years.

Zhan Ye, Qin and the Dead Dream were much stronger than Ning, Ghost Monarch, and Devil Tree. Pseudo dominators and low class dominators didn't pose a threat to them. Chu Mu would often just trample through these territories and incite the lords of these territories. This would allow his three soul pets to obtain ample training.

"Young master, I said before that even the Demonic Burial Mound's soil has xuan essence." Old Li excitedly cupped up a huge pile of xuan items and spoke as his beard was raised.

"Have you found a main rock and sub ghost xuan item?" asked Chu Mu.

"I have a third rank rock type xuan item. I also have a ghost type xuan item. However, I don't have any combinations..." said Old Li.

"It would be best if Qingzi was here." Chu Mu was helpless.

The Ghost King had a main rock attribute and sub ghost attribute. Its soul wasn't split into two like the Little Hidden Dragon so he needed a combination xuan item in order to strengthen the Ghost King, otherwise the Ghost King's ghost sub attribute would be weakened.

"Hehe" Old Li suddenly let out a strange laugh.

“If you have a method then just say it. Don’t act.” Chu Mu knew the innate character of this old bastard really well. He knew that he had a method the moment he let out a pleased laugh.

“When I was just investigating the terrain, I discovered a refining pool in front. Hehe, young master certainly doesn’t know what a refining pool is, right? I’m also not sure how a refining pool appears, but the thing that comes from the refining pool makes soul pet trainers go crazy. This item is called a combining amber. With this combining amber, even if young master isn’t a xuan teacher, he will be able to combine two different attributed xuan items together.” said Old Li.

“There exists such an amazing item?” Chu Mu’s eyes lit up.

Chu Mu also had the soul core from the Heaven Boundary Beast Soul. This soul core was capable of raising Zhan Ye to the peak dominator rank. But because Zhan Ye still had the sub darkness attribute, Chu Mu who didn’t want to give up on the darkness attribute had to wait for Qingzi to help him combine a dark type attribute into the item.

However, if the combining amber Old Li had told him about was effective, Chu Mu could combine the darkness attribute xuan item with the bug and beast type ancient soul core. The combination would create a fifth rank xuan item that could raise Zhan Ye to the middle class dominator rank!

If Zhan Ye was able to enter the middle class dominator rank, through Brave Stinging Heart, Broken Limb Rebirth and Ancient Power Awakening, Zhan Ye would be able to easily defeat a high class dominator!!

“Zhan Ye’s training percentage is about 40% right now. This place has opponents for it and Zhan Ye has always fought those higher ranked than it. It should be able to reach 70% after two months of continuous fighting.” Chu Mu estimated to himself.

Thus it seemed that only by obtaining the refining pool's combining amber, Zhan Ye's strength would be able to instantly rise!

"Old Li, what other xuan items do you have? Tell me." said Chu Mu.

"I have about 5000 scattered xuan parts and xuan resources. I have 13 complete first rank xuan items, most of which are demon attributed. I have six second rank xuan items, three third rank xuan items, one fourth rank xuan items and one fifth rank xuan items."

"I have a third rank rock type xuan item and a second rank ghost type xuan item. If young master obtains a third rank combining amber, you will be able to create a third rank main rock and sub ghost xuan item to strengthen the Ghost King."

"However, young master still needs to find a fourth rank darkness type xuan item. The fourth rank xuan item I have on me is a demon type." said Old Li.

"What is the fifth rank xuan item's attribute? Demon?" asked Chu Mu.

"Yes."

The Demonic Burial Mound had more demon type xuan items.

The only demon Chu Mu had was Night, but Chu Mu wasn't lacking in these xuan items. Thus, he would give these items when he returned to Liu Binglan after returning to Wanxiang City. With even more high ranking resources, Three Great Palaces would have a chance of expanding!

“Can you find fourth rank darkness type xuan items here?” asked Chu Mu.

“There is a bit of difficulty.” Old Li’s nose had limits.

“I’ll help you.” said Princess Jinrou.

Upon speaking, Princess Jinrou closed her eyes and expanded her powerful mental strength.

The perceptive range of a spirit dominator was very large, but it was very hard to sense xuan items. The Devil Souls’ innate perceptual abilities were the most sensitive of creatures. Princess Jinrou’s perceptive range even covered over ten thousand kilometers and could even find a few tiny objects.

Her beautiful hair slowly fluttered down, sticking to her curvy and beautiful body. She slowly opened her eyes and a beautiful smile appeared on her face: “There’s darkness type xuan energy about 3000 kilometers in front of us...”

“Hmm, that’s good. Let’s get rid of the enemies here...” Chu Mu nodded his head. His strength greatly increasing was obviously a good thing.

“I still haven’t finished speaking.” Princess Jinrou criticized and said: “There’s also a wood type xuan item further north of the dark type xuan item. There are third rank to eighth rank xuan items there.”

“Third rank to eighth rank??” Chu Mu was stunned.

Third rank xuan items were all low class dominator rank. As for eighth rank xuan items, they could strengthen a soul pet to the high class dominator rank!!

“Yes, but there are many strong creatures there. It will probably be very hard for you to pass through.” said Princess Jinrou.

“This Demonic Burial Mound is practically a cornucopia!” sighed Chu Mu.

In other places, xuan items were even harder to find than reaching the heavens. However, in Demonic Burial Mound, as long as his strength was enough, practically any xuan item could be obtained!

“Hmm, there’s not challenge fighting these pseudo dominators and low class dominators.”

.....

Princess Jinrou’s perceptive abilities were extremely sharp and three thousand meters ahead, Chu Mu instantly smelled a dense darkness energy pervading the air.

This was the black pool of an island. The fourth rank darkness type xuan item was being defended by three low class dominators and a middle class dominator rank Dark Devil Buddhist.

“Zhan Ye, get rid of them.” Chu Mu sent Zhan Ye to fight.

Like previous fights, Zhan Ye would always be bullied in the initial stages of the fight.

The strange steps and agile techniques of the four Dark Devil Buddhist were able to dodge Zhan ye’s various techniques. They also continuously mocked Zhan Ye.

However, when Zhan Ye completed his fourth Broken Limb Rebirth and Ancient Power Awakening, his strength reached the middle class dominator rank and the four Dark Devil Buddhist grew restless!

Zhan Ye didn’t even need a fifth Broken Limb Rebirth, and was able to completely get rid of the four Dark Devil Buddhist.

“With the dark sub attribute, we can go to the refining pool to find the combination amber!”
