Chapter 1331: Black and White, Dual Evil Devil!

The darkness aura was slowly fading and in its place, overbearing devil flames controlled this domain!!

As their visions slowly grew clear, the seven people quickly looked under the Messiah Tree. However, the sudden appearance of dark devil flames and silver devil flames that split the world in two made them stunned!

At some point, a haughty and supreme devil had appeared underneath the Messiah Tree!

This devil was standing next to the young woman who had the Messiah Tree seed. Its body was filled with rage, grievance, evil, and hate that was capable of sweeping through the world and making it tremble!

Corpses and blood filled the ground. Departed spirits were circling the withered and old godly tree. These all became a part of the supreme devil's evil power and poured into its body!

What was most astonishing was its body.

The space between its brows was the world. Its left side of the body was a supremely angry and violent black color. Ruthless and bloodthirsty black flames wantonly danced in the air, displaying its arrogance and contempt towards all living things!

Its right side was a supremely evil and yin silver color. Emotionless and cold silver devil flames silently burned. It didn't have an overbearing supreme attitude. But any creature that attempted to provoke it would inevitably be burned to ashes and have its soul obliterated!

Dark and silver, black and white. The dark black berserk violence carried an extremely dangerous silver-white cold-bloodedness.

The two different devil flames were a manifestation of the two sides of evil in Chu Mu's heart.

“What... what... what is this?!!” the most cowardly of them, Huo Lei, cried out in fright.

The other six were stunned by the fiendish devil flames. They were immortal rank experts and had seen countless soul pets. But they had never seen such a shocking creature as the supreme devil in front of them!

The seven immortal rank experts hadn't come alone. Their subordinates were currently hiding and watching from afar. Among them, 50 spirit dominator rank experts were standing in the black flames while another fifty spirit dominators were standing in the silver flames.

But it didn't matter which flame they were standing in, fear had gripped all of their souls, preventing them from staring directly at the devil underneath the Messiah Tree!

Nobody had seen this creature before. It was neither the highest bloodline Black Nightmare that possessed the most ruthless and evil strength in the world, nor was it a solitary and cold-blooded silver devil that disdainfully looked down on the world. It was an amalgamation of both powers, while also a duality of both!

The greedy and ruthless invaders had spared no means to obtain the Messiah Tree's seed. But in front of the dual-sided devil, the powerful immortal ranks finally felt a sliver of fear. The young woman with the Messiah Tree seed was right in front of them, but none of them dared to take a step forward.

“Hu hu hu hu hu~~~~~”

Two bright and contrasting devil flames were burning. Chu Mu’s black and silver pupils were staring at Kang Ruodong, who was closest to the Messiah Tree.

A black headcloth, protruding cheekbones, and a pair of eyes that was dirtied from greed and desire. He was the closest to the Messiah Tree, almost as if he was saying he had the strongest instinct. Indeed, he, more than anyone else, wanted to obtain the Messiah Tree Seed after chasing it for countless years!

Chu Mu stared at him, and the black and silver devil flames on his body suddenly rose up, becoming incomparably violent!

This was the person who had pursued Ning Maner many years ago. Even now, he hadn’t given up his plans of obtaining the Messiah Tree Seed from Ning Maner. In the Monument Tear’s scene, Chu Mu had wanted nothing more than to burn this man, whose laugh made others wretch, into ashes.

This was the person Ning Maner hated. Then he should be the first to die!

“Hu!”

Chu Mu stepped forward. It was only a slow step forward.

But space intersected as reality and the void came together. When Chu Mu stepped forward, he disappeared from his spot!

And when Chu Mu finished his step, his black and white devil flamed body had suddenly appeared behind the Poison Tooth Beast.

Kang Ruodong was sitting on the Poison Tooth Beast's back. Just now he had felt the chaotic and evil devil staring at him.

But when he earnestly went to look back at the black and white devil, the devil had already disappeared. And mysteriously, a cold feeling was lingering at the back on his neck.

"Your death is undeserving of pity." Chu Mu's devilish voice rang out.

He extended his hand burning with black devil flames. It stretched out into the air both slowly and strangely.

Suddenly, Chu Mu clenched his hand. As if he had found something, he pulled it backward, along with the blood vessels and flesh!

Kang Ruodong's face instantly went pale. He abruptly felt a severe pain in his heart. It hurt so much it became extremely difficult for him to breathe!

But how could a person without a heart breathe?

Kang Ruodong struggled to turn around, and looked at the black and white devil as his body convulsed.

“Look at your heart. Aside from greed, what else is there?” Chu Mu stuck out his hand to give Kang Ruodong a clear look.

The blood vessels were filled with chaotically flowing blood. Kang Ruodong’s eyes were filled with veins that looked like they were going to explode. His eyes were full of fear and disbelief!

Kang Ruodong didn’t think he would die, nor did he think that he would see his own heart before he died!

“Hou hou hou hou!!!!!!”

The Poison Tooth Beast let out a series of roars. It wasn’t until Chu Mu had dropped Kang Ruodong’s heart on the ground like a piece of trash that it realized its own master had been killed by this devil!

The enraged and berserk Poison Tooth Beast used a Shattering Tooth Charge as countless piercing Tooth flew at Chu Mu.

Chu Mu’s silver pupil slowly moved. In the vision of his left eye, the Poison Tooth Beast grew abnormally slow. Chu Mu’s expression resembled a god, waiting for the Poison Tooth Beast to arrive.

Suddenly, Chu Mu raised his foot and stomped on the ground.

A wave of air violently surged up from the stomp, easily flipped over the Poison Tooth Beast charging at him with extreme speed. It was knocked back into the air.

The Poison Tooth Beast had completely lost its balance in the air, and couldn't stop tumbling.

Chu Mu raised his head and as his black pupil and silver pupil stared at the Poison Tooth Beast, and ardent flames dripping with killing intent erupted!

"Beng!!!!"

In midair, the Poison Tooth Beast abruptly blew up into two pieces!

Half of the devil flames were black scorching evil that violently burned, while the other half were silver and cold devil flames that burned with deathly silence.

"Hu hu~~~~"

The immortal rank Poison Tooth Beast transformed into a gorgeous two-colored meteor that fell from the sky. By the time it landed on the ground, it had turned to ashes with nothing remaining.

An atmosphere of fear and terror filled the audience. Just as the six immortal rank experts under the Messiah Tree sucked in a breath of cold air, a cold feeling seeped through their bodies and into their bone marrows and souls.

As for the dominator rank experts who didn't dare participate in an immortal rank fight, they were as dumbstruck as wooden chickens.

Even the immortal rank Poison Tooth Beast couldn't withstand a single strike. How strong was this black and silver dual burning devil?!

Nine Ghosts Shen, standing closest to the Messiah Tree, subconsciously took a few steps back and stood with the other five.

He had clearly seen the process by which the devil had killed Kang Ruodong and the Poison Tooth Beast. If the devil had attacked him instead, how confident was he in surviving?

"If you don't want to end up like Kang Ruodong, everyone had better stick together. It's just a mutated Nightmare. Once we kill it, the Messiah Tree seed will belong to us!!" Divine Sect's Xu Lu was rather calm and spoke to the others in a commanding tone.

Xu Lu's words weren't only directed at the other five immortal rank experts, but also the spirit dominator rank experts in the distance.

The burning silver devil flames formed half the wall, while the burning black devil flames formed the other half. Everyone was trapped by the devil in its black and silver domain. If they tried to escape, they would be burned to a crisp by the devil flames before they even exited the domain!

Divine Sect Xu Lu's words naturally contained a trace of intimidation, especially since most of the people present had descended into a state of panic.

Given that the immortal rank Poison Tooth Beast had been easily killed, the devil would have no problems killing them!

The average strength of the 100 people from the five great factions was the middle class and high class dominator. They began to gather around the six immortal rank experts under the shadow of death.

When the navy's Xue Yingfeng saw these dominator rank soul pets all run towards them, he couldn't help but coldly smile.

Divine Sect's Xu Lu indeed was no kind man. He obviously wanted these 100 spirit dominator experts to become cannon fodder!

Immortal rank strength was far stronger than dominator rank strength. Often, numbers didn't mean much. Xu Lu wasn't just an average level of ruthlessness. Indeed, a number of the 100 spirit dominator rank members were from his own Divine Sect.

However, Xu Yingfeng wouldn't point it out. The devil in front of them was able to instakill the Poison Tooth Beast. This was more than enough to demonstrate that his strength was above everyone here. Moreover, it was far above everyone.

It would be very difficult for dominator rank experts to escape a domain released by a creature of this level. Rather than slowly be tormented to death by the devil flames, it was better for these people to become cannon fodder and exhaust the strength of the devil in front of them.

The two devil flames still carried two different traits of evil as they burned.

Chu Mu's fiendish eyes indifferently watched the invaders gather around the six immortal rank experts.

Chu Mu was indifferent about this. Everyone here was bound to die anyway. It didn't matter if they grouped up.

In fact, by grouping up, all they were doing was speeding up their deaths!

Chapter 1332: Fight to the Extreme, To Crazy

Left hand wielding flames, right hand with silver devil flames. Chu Mu held the two globs of flames and threw them above everyone!!

Black and silver interlaced into an evil devil flame diagram, splitting the black and white perfectly!

The black and white flames were lifted up and got larger and larger, to the point where the entire sky was covered!

Eight Divination Diagram! It burned with flames, creating ancient massive dragons and phoenixes dancing through the sky!

As if ripping through the sky, suddenly a black meteor ripped through the skies, bringing along a long tail that slammed into the earth!!

“Hong!!!!!!!!!!”

The black meteor pierced through, creating a terrifying death cloud inside the hundred dominator rank experts!

Within the fire cloud range, the closest ten spirit palace members were riding their soul pets as they escaped for their lives out of this fire cloud.

However, under such destruction, their defense techniques were useless. Running away was similarly meaningless.

In the flame clouds, rolling over the ten soul pet trainers that had nowhere to go.

As long as they were touched by a spark, they were incinerated. None of the ten soul pet trainers were spared; the fire cloud devoured them all, and incinerated all their body and soul!!

These ten soul pet trainers were all high class dominator rank now. Two of the soul pet trainers were even top tier dominator rank.

However, after the black death meteors fell, none of them survived!

Using their entire life to reach such a level, they still couldn't do anything against such powerful strength. They couldn't escape the reality of being instantly killed. When they cruelly and ruthlessly killed all the quiet forest wind eagles, had they ever thought that they would be slaughtered just like pigs or sheep as well!?!

The ten spirit dominator ranks instantly getting killed caused the remaining alive members to be scared stiff. They originally thought that standing by immortal rank experts, they had more chances of staying alive. However, the six immortal rank soul pets didn't dare to stop the black meteor crash!

“Huhuhu~~~~~”

Suddenly, the piercing shriek through the air caused everyone to be shocked; the white black devil man's technique hadn't finished yet!

The black meteor was just the beginning of the eight divination meteor fire. The dragons and phoenixes summoned more meteors from the far skies down to earth, creating long and brilliant tails of flames that slammed into the ground!!

Black meteors, white meteors- all types of different flames fell from the skies, creating a thick scent of incineration and destruction!

A single meteor was enough to instantly kill ten spirit dominator rank experts. With this many meteors, how many would survive?

The spirit dominator rank experts lifted their heads and were full of desperation. There was no point in escaping now!

“Honghonghong!!!!!!”

The world-destroying meteors blew up in the quiet forest, each slamming into the ground and creating a quake through the earth!

Space shattering power, black white devil flames' burning- under this powerful technique, all lifeforms under immortal rank were instantly vaporized!!!

Under the Messiah Tree, Ning Maner who was spared from any of the flames widened her eyes. She stared in disbelief as these intruders she resented so much became ashes under the flames!

Evil men didn't need sympathy. Ning Maner wouldn't sympathize with these dying intruders. However, the utmost evil energy Chu Mu held caused her heart to shiver!

Such an attack, if not for Chu Mu's careful control, could cause countless lives in Quiet Forest to die. It was truly a calamity of the forest!

Ning Maner's slowly clearing eyes gazed at Chu Mu. She could feel the anger and resentment in Chu Mu's heart, but there was also a sliver of indecipherable sadness in his heart.

With such strong strength, why was Chu Mu sad? Ning Maner couldn't understand.

The air they breathed was full of devil flames both burning and yet cold. The black and white split devil man Chu Mu floated down to the Messiah Tree, his evil pupils cold but proud.

He gazed down at the soul pets incinerated by the eight divination meteor flames and silently watched as they disappeared under the black and silver flames.

Just not long ago, his own strength was only slightly stronger than these spirit dominators.

Yet now, a casual technique was enough to wipe out hundreds of them!

This was power, power that anyone yearned for! Power to no longer be bullied, the power to control the lives of others!

If it were any other time, Chu Mu would go crazy over gaining such power. Yet, only at this particular time, did Chu Mu's heart feel unprecedentedly heavy, so heavy that every breath he took pained his heart.

No matter how powerful the strength he controlled, Chu Mu won't ever forget the scene he had just seen, the one where White Three kneeled down before him and begged to be devoured.

It lowered its head and used the last bit of its life to become black flames. Even though Chu Mu didn't see its eyes, in that moment, he knew it was full of yearning for life.

Chu Mu would forever remember that he devoured a Nightmare's soul worth respecting to receive this power that looked down upon all dominator ranks!

The black devil flames were created with White Three's dying wish. It burned wildly- yearning to battle, yearning to burn everyone that hurt Ning Maner into ashes!!

Since it yearned so much, then Chu Mu would grant its wish. The dominator rank intruders were only the appetizer of this battle. The real evil, the ones that truly hurt Ning Maner's heart, were these six immortal rank experts and the human leaders behind each of them!!

"It's your turn!" Chu Mu looked down on the six immortal rank experts representing separate factions of Wupan Continent, and coldly announced their deaths!

Killing a hundred dominator rank experts with one technique was something Xu Lu and the other five never expected!

"Shen Nine Ghosts, prepare your Five Ghost Diagram!" Divine Sect Xu Lu glanced at Shen Nine Ghosts and said solemnly.

Shen Nine Ghosts' Ghost Blood Diagram was an extremely famous sealing diagram in Wupan continent. If it could successfully seal the black and white devil man and absorb its life force, they would have a chance to fight this devil man in this battle!!

"We'd have to withstand the brunt of its assault first!" Shen Nine Ghost said sullenly.

Kang Ruodong was the earliest to arrive there, and his Poison Tooth beast had been fighting for a long while. If Xu Lu suddenly assaulted him, he could also instantly kill Kang Ruodong's wounded Poison Tooth Beast.

However, no matter how powerful Xu Lu was, he couldn't instantly kill over a hundred dominator rank experts with one technique. These "cannon fodder" from each faction indeed did their job, and at least let the six immortal rank experts know that the black and white devil man was far stronger than they imagined!

However, to test the black and white devil man's strength, they lost way too much!!

"Everyone's in the same boat now. If no one wants to end up like Kang Ruodong with his heart gouged out, let's gather our power and give Shen Nine Ghosts a chance to cast the Ghost Blood Diagram. If anyone tries to play dirty here, heng, then we'll all die here anyway." The strongest Divine Sect Xu Lu said with his mental remembrance.

Xu Lu's brother Xu Kuan was the first to nod, with Demon Beast Palace Huo Lei agreeing after. The remaining Navy General Xue Yingfeng, Elemental Sect Guo Yinglong, and Departed Spirit Palace Shen Bu all didn't hesitate for long either and agreed!

Since Xu Lu was the one to bring it up, he naturally had to be the man to go directly against the black and white devil man. Let alone, the only one suited to battle the black and white devil man head-on was probably his light type Light Emperor!

The Light Emperor was a top tier species of light type soul pets, the exact opposite of He Cang's Dark Emperor. Because of their soul pets' opposition, it caused Xu Lu and He Cang to have a grudge against each other too.

Both of them were formless balls of energy, able to change into any shape based on their intentions.

The golden Light Emperor first morphed into a light type beast, its body noble and imposing-enough to shatter everything!

The beast form Light Emperor didn't directly attack, but instead stood in front of the six immortal rank experts, waiting for the attack from the black and white devil man!

Xu Lu's nerves were taut. The process of the black and white devil man killing Kang Ruodong was something he had seen. This black and white devil man also controlled utmost power in Other type, with its body easily able to pass through different dimensions and appear wherever it wanted. Such an unpredictable organism was the hardest to deal with. If they weren't alert, they wouldn't even know how they died.

Behind Xu Lu was Xu Kuan and his Light's Fury.

Light's Fury's strength was clearly weaker than the Light's Emperor, and it was also wounded by White Three in the previous battle. It would be a surprise if it could even use 60% of its normal power.

"Light's Eye!" Xu Kuan commanded his Light's Fury to cast Light's Eye.

Once the Light's Eye mark lands on someone, no matter how well it could hide, the Light's Fury could detect where it is. Facing a dark and other type organism like the black and white devil man, this Light's Eye was very important.

The incantation finished and a holy light fell from the sky, accurately marking Chu Mu.

Chu Mu remained floating there, completely ignoring the Light's Fury technique, not even glancing at the mark.

His pupils remained fixed on the six people, the burning fighting intent in his bones reaching a peak!

He wanted to bring White Three's yearning and fight to the extreme, until they were crazy!!

Chapter 1333: Cold to the Bone, Two Evil Devil Man!

Stepping forward meant a spatial leap. The moment Chu Mu completely exploded forward, how could a small Light Eye mark do anything to him?

Black and silver devil flames disappeared in place, and immediately, a terrifying aura shrouded everyone's head!

No one knew when the life-controlling devil would appear behind them, or whose heart would get pulled out and thrown to the ground like trash.

This Light's Eye would always appear above the organism and stare threateningly at it.

Xu Lu wanted to use his Light's Eye to find the evil devil man. However, when he lifted his head, he was shocked to find that the Light's Eye started blinking around!

The speed of blinking was something that Xu Lu's eyes and soul remembrance couldn't keep up. Sometimes, he even noticed the light eye appearing in multiple places!

Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon showed a Light's Eye, the Immortal Blood Ghost showed a Light's Eye, one appeared beside the Light Emperor. Even the Unifying Wind Unicorn had a light eye beside it!

Xu Lu wasn't stupid. He didn't think that the Light's Fury's Light Eye technique had an issue. Clearly, the devil man was just moving too quick, faster than even the Light's Eye could move!

"Xu Kuan, Guo Enlong, you two stay vigilant!" Xu Lu warned with his mental voice.

Xu Lu and Guo Enlong both had elemental soul pets with low life force and defense. If the devil man neared them, they would get instantly killed!

Xu Kuan's soul remembrance covered his surrounding area. Light's Fury was the weakest of all soul pets. Thinking back to how Kang Ruodong was killed, Xu Kuan's neck started sweating.

Guo Enlong's situation wasn't as bad. His soul pet was the Unifying Wind Unicorn. Though it was an elemental world soul pet, it had beast type, and was less likely to get instantly killed.

Xu Lu was Xu Kuan's brother, so naturally, he put more attention on Xu Kuan's Light's Fury, guessing that the black and white devil man may directly attack it!

“Hu!!!!”

The black and white both flames appeared at the center of the six immortal rank soul pets, its evil aura buffeting everyone!

The Demon Beast Palace Huo Lei felt the evil aura the closest, because Chu Mu’s next target was the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!

The devil flames burned quietly. Demon Beast Palace Huo Lei found the devil less than ten meters from him. His eyes widened and stared in shock as it extended its silver devil flame palm towards his Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!

“Behind the Hidden Dragon!” Xu Lu was the first to notice Chu Mu, and warned everyone with his mental voice before immediately commanding his Light Emperor to fly towards the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!

Xu Lu truly was the strongest of the six of them. His reaction speeds were incredibly fast. One second slower and the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon definitely would have been ripped in half by Chu Mu’s black and white claws. After all, the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon had already been heavily injured in the last battle. Killing it would be too easy!

Chu Mu grabbed at the air and grabbed the wings of the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon right as it was trying to escape.

The mountain-like Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon seemingly had zero weight as it was yanked back by Chu Mu's spatial hand and thrown straight at the Light Emperor!

The beast form Light Emperor had charged right at Chu Mu, not expecting it to instead run into a Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon. It was too late for it to move aside!

“Beng!!!!”

The Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon and the beast form light's emperor slammed into each other. With the black nightmare's abilities, Chu Mu's raw power was also shocking. With the yank and throw, the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon was already dizzy, and could barely stand back up.

The Light Emperor was much better off. This special light type organism already was surrounded by powerful light spears when it stood up!

“Go, pierce it!” Xu Lu commanded!

Every spear was a few thousand meters long. These spears disappeared with a chant from the Light Emperor.

The next moment, Chu Mu's surroundings were covered in piercing lights as the light spears appeared again!

All around him, even below him, spears appeared and whistled towards him, creating trails through the air as they threatened to skewer Chu Mu!

Chu Mu glanced over coldly. Light's Fury pierced even alternate dimensions. Even if Chu Mu tried to move away using spatial power, it wouldn't matter. And with the high amount of light spears, all chances of dodging were sealed off!

The light spears were near. Chu Mu's left eye black pupil suddenly moved at this moment!

Space instantly froze as Chu Mu shut his arm. The massive light spears all went stationary at the same time!

The spears that came so viciously couldn't move half an inch further, let alone pierce Chu Mu's body.

"Spatial control!" Xu Lu's face turned darker.

The supreme Other type power, the ability to control all the space nearby. Wherever the mind covered, the region inside was controlled by the other type organism. This was a power that Xu Lu had only ever seen in one other soul pet, one of the Magistrates of Divine Sect!

As Xu Lu was shocked, the black and white devil man Chu Mu already used his soul remembrance to point the light spears towards the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!

His eyes sharpened, and his killing intent reached a peak!

Opening his left hand, the light spears flew at even higher speeds towards the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!

Other than Xu Lu, the others never have seen an organism able to forcefully flip a technique around. Without any preparation, Guo Enlong and Xue Yingfeng could only watch as the giant spears flew towards the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon!

“Xu Kuan, help it absorb the light’s spear!” Xu Lu turned towards Xu Kuan.

Xu Kuan’s reaction wasn’t slow. Its Light’s Fury in a short moment had completed an incantation to create a white shield in front of the dragon!

With the light shield before it, the Demon Beast Palace Huo Lei finally relaxed a little. Its scales were burnt clean from the Black Nightmare beforehand. If the light spears landed directly, his Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon was dead for sure!

Not far away, Chu Mu’s double evil eyes saw the white shield and only smiled, his cold expression becoming a sneer!

His silver pupils flashed once, and all the light spears disappeared!

The attack seemed instantly gone, leaving a massive shield in front of the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon standing alone.

“Pu!!!!”

“Pu!!!”

“Pu!!!!!”

Suddenly, a massive group of light spears appeared!

They appeared barely above the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, bringing with it a powerful strength that pierced through the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon’s head, neck, back, and nailing it to the ground.

The thousand meter light spears stuck right into the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon while it remained in its standing defensive stance, making it into a cruel mock of a taxidermy!

Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon couldn’t even let out a screech before being pierced. Even its tail wasn’t spared!

An immortal rank dragon nailed to the ground, with blood flying out of every spot of its body!

The demon beast palace Huo Lei stood beside his Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, the giant spears looking like straight mountains.

Seeing the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, Huo Lei's entire body was stiff, since such a scary scene had caused his mind to stop running!

“Pu!!!!!!”

As the final light spear landed, it directly hit Huo Lei, who was still too shocked to react!

Xu Lu and the other five all paused momentarily. When they came back to their senses, their hairs raised on their ends as they realised that where Huo Lei once stood, the only thing that remained was a giant light spear!

The light shield in front of the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon still stood floating there, looking lonely. This was in contrast with the unmoving and pierced Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon- it was more of a joke now.

The man and dragon were both dead!!

Out of everyone, the weakest was Demon Beast Palace Huo Lei. His Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon's wounds were already really heavy.

However, even with these wounds, it was a powerful dragon species, an immortal rank dragon. Getting killed by all the light spears released by the Light Emperor, how taunting was this? Yet, how shocking and terrifying as well!

Death and dragon blood permeated the air.

Two immortal rank experts were instantly killed, leaving only the remaining five people with an increasing fear of death finally arising in their hearts.

Maybe, they should have chosen to run away at first sight, instead of arrogantly gathering everyone in hopes of fighting this black and white devil man!

Its power and cruelty became coldness that pierced deeply into the bones of the remaining five people!

Chapter 1334: Immortal Rank, Sheep that Can be Slaughtered at Will

Xu Lu hurrying Nine Ghosts Shen meant that he was feeling uneasy.

Even with seven of them there, a few of them had been instakilled. These five people, although strong, if any one of them were killed, the remaining would be slaughtered without any chance to fight back.

Nine Ghosts Shen returned to his senses and glanced at his five Blood Ghosts. He noticed how they were almost about to finish their incantations and hastily used a mental voice to say: “Just a little bit more. Don’t let it get to me, otherwise everyone will die!”

Elemental Sect’s Guo Enlong and Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng had already ordered their soul pets to attack Chu Mu in order to buy time for Nine Ghosts Shen.

“I’ve finished. But it’s moving too fast. My Great Ghost Blood Diagram might not be able to fully seal it as it’s being released. We need to lure it into the center of the formation.” Nine Ghosts Shen used a mental voice to tell the others.

Xu Kuan would always listen to his older brother, Xu Kuan. Even when his life was in danger, he didn’t hesitate. He ordered his Light’s Fury to fly into the center of the Great Ghost Blood Formation.

The Light’s Fury was an elemental soul pet. Its light type techniques posed no small threat to the dark type Nightmares. If it weren’t for the Light’s Fury earlier, Third White wouldn’t have been suppressed so quickly.

Right now, the Light’s Fury had run to a location where it was nearly exposed and invested itself in chanting an incantation.

Simultaneously, Xu Lu’s Light Emperor, Guo Enlong’s Unifying Wind Unicorn, and Xue Yingfeng’s Python Tail Blue Lion had intentionally slowed their offensive tempo, exposing the gap to Chu Mu!

Chu Mu instantly saw the Light’s Fury which was almost completely defenseless. He glanced at the three immortal rank soul pets surrounding him and a cold smile rose on his face.

He took a step forth and his body easily passed by the three immortal rank soul pets, mysteriously appearing in front of the Light’s Fury.

The black and white devil was fast. In fact, Xu Lu was certain that even if they didn't slow their attacks, it would still be able to easily reach the Light's Fury.

Xu Kuan saw that the devil had appeared in front of his Light's Fury. Although he had prepared his heart for this, he still felt a bitter knot there.

"Light Fantasy!" Xu Kuan ordered his Light's Fury.

The incantation the Light's Fury had been chanting just now wasn't to attack the dual evil devil. Instead, while standing in the Great Ghost Blood Formation, it had been chanting a fleeing incantation. The moment the dual evil devil appeared, the Light's Fury would immediately flee!

Flashes of light erratically appeared and the Light's Fury seized this to flee in all directions!

In Chu Mu's silver eyes, the Light's Fury's series of incantations and fleeing movements were incomparably slow.

In fact, he had already predicted it would immediately flee. Thus, the moment it began chanting the fleeing incantation, Chu Mu had prepared a dark prison for the Light's Fury.

"Dual Evil Mound!"

The flames burning in Chu Mu's hands fiercely slapped the earth!

After transforming into a black and white dual evil devil, the speed at which Chu Mu released Evil Mound was much faster now. He would normally require a few seconds to prepare the technique in order to fully exhibit its might. But now, the technique could be instantly completed!

An enormous evil mound began hovering over Chu Mu's head. Different from the previous dark evil mound iterations, the evil mound this time was divided into black and white.

A shadow covered over the Light's Fury, and the moment it moved, the stunning dual evil mound descended, imprisoning it inside!

“Beng!!!!”

The instant the evil mound descended, devil flames began to sweep out from the evil mound, transforming the barren land into a black and silver devil flame ocean!

The violent devil flames roared in Xu Kuan's face. Xu Kuan didn't expect his Light's Fury to be unable to flee, and as he looked at the enormous evil mound, he was frozen in place.

“Hurry... hurry and save my Light's Fury!” Xu Kuan shouted in panic.

Even the Blood Barbarian Hidden Dragon, with the tenacious life force of a dragon, had been instantly killed. How many seconds would his Light's Fury be able to survive under the devilish claws of this dual evil devil?

When the Light's Fury and Chu Mu were simultaneously covered by the evil mound, Xu Kuan felt as if he had descended into unknown darkness. His entire body and even soul was cold!

Nine Ghosts Shen didn't really know what to do. If he were to activate the Great Ghost Blood Formation, the Light's Fury and black and white evil devil would both be sealed. But it was obvious what kind of end the Light's Fury would meet if it were stuck with the terrifying devil inside a sealed space!

In front of the dual evil devil, their powerful immortal rank creatures would be rendered into sheep that could be slaughtered at will!

"Nine Ghosts Shen, what are you just standing there for?! Hurry and activate the Great Ghosts Blood Formation!" roared Xu Lu.

"Big brother, my Light's Fury is still inside!" shouted Xu Kuan.

The Light Emperor, Unifying Wind Unicorn, and Python Tail Blue Lion were the strongest. From their current locations, they would be unable save the Light's Unicorn in time.

"Nine Ghosts Shen!" Xu Lu ignored Xu Kuan and roared with an ordering tone.

Even Xu Lu did not hesitate to sacrifice Xu Kuan's soul pets. How could Nine Ghosts Shen have time for pity? If he missed this opportunity, it would be extremely difficult to seal this dark devil!

"Pu pu pu~~~~~"

The fresh blood path was laid out, passing through the scorched black earth and forming a "厉" pattern.

The blood path rose up into the sky, drawing an enormous ghost blood formation, dripping with blood, above Chu Mu's dual evil mound.

It had a striking red color, a fierce design, and a violent blood fiend ghost aura!

Departed Spirit Palace Shen Bu's five strongest blood ghosts appeared on the blood path laid out. They opened their fierce mouths and continuously spat out blood towards the Ghost Blood Diagram in the sky, making the bloody design even more striking!

The thick blood that the five ghosts were spitting out had been gathered by Shen Bu from living bodies when he normally engaged in slaughter. If all of the blood were to be spat out from the five ghosts, it was capable of filling a dried-up river!!

The five ghosts had used up one-third of the fresh blood when they had sealed the Black Nightmare earlier. This one third had taken Shen Bu three years and thousands of lives to collect.

But this dual evil devil was even more tyrannically strong than the Black Nightmare. Under the threat of death, Nine Ghosts Shen didn't dare be stingy with the blood stored within the five ghosts. He had the ghosts spit the remaining two-thirds of blood into the Great Ghost Blood Diagram to ensure the dual evil devil would be thoroughly sealed!

"My... my Light... My Light's Fury..." Xu Kuan stared with wide eyes at the completion of the Great Ghost Blood Formation. He looked like he had lost his soul.

Suddenly, a miserable hair-raising cry rang out from the Great Ghost Blood Formation and the dual evil mound. It came from the Light's Fury.

The sharp cry of extreme pain made the other four involuntarily tremble. Because they couldn't see the miserable state the Light's Fury was in inside the dark evil mound, they felt more scared.

If it had been one of them whose soul pets had acted as bait, they would find it extremely difficult to watch their immortal rank soul pets, that they had painstakingly raised, be ripped apart.

Indeed, Xu Kuan had already powerlessly sat on the ground. His face was terrifyingly pale.

Losing his immortal rank Light's Fury was the same as him being killed!

“Hmph, it's just a soul pet. Once we obtain the Messiah Tree Seed, you'll have as many immortal rank soul pets as you want. Sacrificing a bit is nothing!” Xu Lu glanced at Xu Kuan and berated him for not understanding.

Xu Kuan looked up with a pained expression at his older brother, Xu Lu.

Xu Kuan's confidence in Xu Lu contained no traces of doubt. Even if he wanted his Light's Fury to become bait, he wouldn't hesitate at all.

However, when his older brother had ordered Nine Ghosts Shen to activate the Great Ghost Blood Formation, his eyes contained no trace of disturbance. It was a form of ruthlessness that made Xu Kuan even feel terrified.

Xu Kuan really wanted to know if it had been him and his Light's Fury standing together, imprisoned by the dual evil devil, whether Xu Lu would still not bat an eye and have Nine Ghosts Shen activate the ghost blood seal.

Despite following Xu Lu for so many years, this was the first time Xu Kuan felt how terrifying Xu Lu actually was.

“Nine Ghosts Shen, how long will your Great Ghost Blood Formation last for? How much of its life force can it consume?” asked Ocean Lord Xu Yingfeng.

Now that the dual evil devil had been sealed, this was the best opportunity for the five of them to flee. If they all fled in different directions, the dual evil devil would only be able to chase one of them once it broke through the seal.

Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng's question was to understand whether the seal would give them enough time to flee.

All of the spirit dominator rank experts they had brought had been burned to ashes by the flames and three immortal rank soul pets had died. Thus, realistically speaking, not a single one of them would be without lingering fear.

“I used two-thirds of the sealed blood I spent ten years accumulating. I'm not sure how long it will be able to seal it for...” Nine Ghosts Shen let out a sigh of relief and a mocking smile rose on his face as he continued, “But I'm sure a large amount of its life force will be removed. According to my estimations, it doesn't matter how long the seal lasts, its strength will be weakened to less than 40 percent of its original power. It could even be lower!"

"Are you for real?" said Elemental Sect's Guo Enlong.

"Of course. The life force of the Black Nightmare earlier was removed by my Great Ghost Blood Diagram." said Nine Ghosts Shen.

Fleeing was always going to be the last resort. Nobody could guarantee they wouldn't become the target of pursuit. Moreover, they had suffered horrible losses this time. If they didn't obtain the Messiah Tree Seed, they wouldn't be able to explain it to their superiors. Most importantly, they had caused a massive scene. Thus, the righteous factions with Divine Sect at the head would definitely punish them. Without the protection of their superiors, they would die!

"Nine Ghosts Shen's five ghosts seal is famous everywhere. There won't be any mistakes. However, we shouldn't lower our guard. Heal up your soul pets and prepare at any moment to slaughter the dual evil devil once the seal disappears!" Xu Lu had already witnessed Nine Ghost's Shen's five ghosts seal in the past, so he was very confident in Nine Ghosts Shen.

In the end, the greed of these five people had defeated the fear they had towards the dual evil devil.

Once they killed the dual evil devil, they would be able to obtain the Messiah Tree Seed. Such an enormous profit and an enormous amount of power was in front of them. Why would they be willing to turn and leave and surrender it?

However, none of them knew whether their choice would allow them to soar into the air and arrogantly laugh at the world, or whether their greed would be burned with them as they were forever buried here alongside the other invaders.

Chapter 1335: Dark Left Hand, Crushing Into Corpse Powder

Chu Mu's vision could see through the evil mound's darkness, even though he was inside. He was also able to see the Great Ghost Blood Diagram above his head.

It was this evil Ghost Diagram that had completely extracted Third White's life force.

When he saw the Great Ghost Blood Diagram appear again, a wave of viciousness surged in Chu Mu's heart.

"Mo Xie, tear it apart." Chu Mu said to Mo Xie, who was on his shoulder.

During the time that Chu Mu had transformed into a Dual Evil Devil and fought the enemies, Mo Xie had been silently lying on his shoulder. Mo Xie innately enjoyed fights. Even if she couldn't participate in an immortal rank fight, she still enjoyed the feeling of enormous strength and extreme speed that came with Chu Mu's fights.

Nine Ghosts Shen, who had a lot of confidence in his Great Ghost Blood Diagram's sealing, wouldn't expect that the small fox sitting on the Dual Evil Devil's shoulder to be the bane of all creatures that specialized in sealing and imprisonment!

In the soul pet world, creatures with these kinds of species techniques were very special. They were so special that even if they were a lower rank, they would still be able to counter higher ranked creatures' techniques.

These creatures would always usually have a low species rank, and they wouldn't have much fighting strength. The only other techniques they would have were fleeing techniques and techniques that saved their lives. Thus, Mo Xie, who had inherited her Silver Moon Fox species abilities through her mutation, was an extremely unique existence.

In front of Mo Xie, unless they were inordinately higher ranked or they were special, barriers, seals, and prisons were unable to keep her inside.

Nine Ghosts Shen's Great Ghost Blood Diagram clearly wasn't that much higher ranked than Mo Xie and as for whether it was special, Mo Xie had already proved it wasn't by releasing Third White from it earlier.

Therefore, it didn't matter how strong or terrifying the Great Ghost Blood Diagram was. To Mo Xie, it basically didn't exist.

“Wu wu wu wu~~~~~”

Mo Xie kept up her pitiful appearance and let out a cry from Chu Mu's shoulder. Her adorable and petite appearance was a stark contrast to Chu Mu's evil and imposing nature.

The silver moon imprint on her forehead flickered, transforming into a gorgeous light that condensed on her claws.

The seal broke as the silver moon claw swept towards the Great Ghost Blood Diagram on top of them. A long, silver mark that resembled a silver new moon ripped through the gaudy blood red diagram.

“What... what is that?!” Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng pointed at the silver pattern on the Ghost Blood Diagram as he spoke in shock.

Nine Ghosts Shen stared with wide-open eyes at the silver moonlight blade that had suddenly appeared!

The silver moonlight blade had squarely struck the center of the entire Great Ghost Blood Diagram, where all of the energy was converging.

The most taboo thing for any sealing diagram was for its energy node to be destroyed- especially the sealing nodes at the very center of the seal!

“How is this possible? The central node has countless protection barriers. How can it be shattered by a single silver moonlight?!” Nine Ghosts Shen said with a face full of disbelief.

“What on earth is happening!” Elemental Sect’s Guo Enlong said somewhat anxiously.

“My Great Ghost Blood Diagram is about to be destroyed.” said Nine Ghosts Shen. He sounded crushed.

The great Five Ghosts Diagram, that was famous throughout the entire Wupan territory and would cause many higher ranks to go pale with fright, was about to be destroyed! Moreover, it was being destroyed within a few seconds of having been conjured!

How much life force of the Dual Evil Devil would it be able to extract in these few short seconds?

Not only was Nine Ghosts Shen's face ashen, but even Xu Lu, who had maintained his calm, went pale!

They had sacrificed the life of a Light's Fury in order to obtain the opportunity to seal this monster. Yet, it was useless against the Dual Evil Devil!

At the center of the Great Ghost Blood Diagram was a lot of fresh blood. Once it was destroyed by the silver moon blade, the entire blood diagram exploded!

“Pu chi~~~~~ Pu chi~~~~~”

The enormous amount of blood transformed into bloody pillars that spurted in all directions.

At the very center of the blood pattern, a blood waterfall containing endless aura poured down from the sky and struck the ground.

In an instant, the thick blood became a surging flood that rushed towards its surroundings.

As the striking, red and horrifying blood spread, the empty land around the Messiah Tree was rapidly dyed a red color and became a lake of blood!

Thick blood flowed past Xu Lu, Xu Kuan, Guo Enlong, Xue Yingfeng, and Nine Ghosts Shen's feet. The five of them had already been overcome with fear and unease. The flowing blood was foreshadowing a tide of death that was going to devour them!

At the very center of where the blood was wantonly splurting out stood the half black and half silver devil whose body was standing atop the thick red blood that was gushing out.

Perhaps, to a supreme and evil creature like this, the ocean of blood formed from countless lives under its feet and the darkened sky best accentuated it.

Chu Mu didn't use any techniques, nor did he release his rampant devil flames. He merely stood there, dragging a milky white corpse in his right hand...

The five immortal rank experts involuntarily took a step back out of fear!

Chu Mu lifted his right hand and threw the Light's Fury's half deformed corpse to Xu Kuan like it was a piece of garbage!

Xu Kuan had just suffered a severe mental blow. Now that he had to personally look at his Light's Fury's half deformed corpse, his legs began to violently tremble.

This devil had been killing pets and human alike. Thus, the devil throwing the corpse in front of him was an indication the next one to die would be him, Xu Kuan!

It would be easy as pie for the Dual Evil Devil to kill whoever it wanted, even if this person was surrounded by numerous immortal rank experts.

Xu Kuan didn't want to die. It had taken him much pain and effort to climb up to the Master Official position in Divine Sect. He still hadn't had the opportunity to gather wealth and enjoy the respect and reverence of others...

He didn't want to die!

But the piercing stare from the Dual Evil Devil's eyes made Xu Kuan's mental state collapse. Xu Kuan looked pleadingly at his big brother, Xu Lu, who was next to him.

Right now, the only one capable of saving him was the strongest among them, Xu Lu. However, when he thought of how Xu Lu unhesitatingly sacrificed his Light's Fury, Xu Kuan suddenly felt at a loss.

Xu Lu had already lost the color from his face. In his mind, he obviously wasn't thinking of how to save his younger brother, but how to free himself from the clutches of this Dual Evil Devil.

In a situation with seven immortal ranks and 100 dominator rank experts, this Dual Evil Devil had been able to easily take their lives. Now, there only remained four immortal rank soul pets, with the ability to fight: the Light Emperor, the Blood Ghost, the Unifying Wind Unicorn, and the Python Tail Blue Lion.

Although these four soul pets were strong, they could only ensure, at most, that they wouldn't be instakilled by the Dual Evil Devil.

Xu Lu, Guo Enlong, Xue Yingfeng, and Nine Ghosts Shen all had sweat incessantly pour down their foreheads. Their eyes stared unmovingly at the Dual Evil Devil.

Xu Kuan jumped onto the demon's back, and soullessly fled far away.

Right now, he was a mere cripple in front of an immortal rank. If he didn't flee, he would die instantly!

Xu Kuan's demon had reached the peak dominator rank. Its fleeing speed was extremely fast, and in an instant, it had traveled tens of kilometers. In a few seconds, it would probably reach a few hundred kilometers.

Chu Mu's eyes followed Xu Kuan who was fleeing for his life. A mocking sneer flashed through his eyes.

What was the method of killing enemies that make them feel so much pain and despair that they wouldn't want to live anymore?

The first thing to do was to give enemies a hope for survival. Then, when they actually believed they had managed to escape, Chu Mu would crush their lives. The expression of despair in their eyes would certainly be unforgettable when that happened.

Thus, Chu Mu just watched Xu Kuan run away. Under his Other Pupil effect, Xu Kuan's running speed was simply too slow.

"You aren't going to save your younger brother's life?" since he had time, Chu Mu turned his gaze to Xu Lu, and spoke in a ridiculing tone.

Sweat was still running down Xu Lu's forehead. He didn't say anything. He was deeply afraid that the Dual Evil Devil would suddenly attack him.

From the scent of their bloodlines, Chu Mu could tell that Xu Kuan was Xu Lu's actual younger brother. However, it was truly rare for an older brother to do something as heartless as what Xu Lu had done.

"Either way, it doesn't matter. You'll soon be able to see each other in the afterlife. You guys will have a long time to mend your brotherly bond then." After speaking, a ruthless smile rose on Chu Mu's face.

He stretched out his hand, and black flames suddenly expanded into the surroundings!

Spatial Grab!

A spatial energy shot forth, and almost instantly reached Xu Kuan who had already fled far away.

Both Xu Kuan and his demon were grabbed, and they were forcibly hauled back from several hundreds of kilometers away!

Xu Kuan and the demon were grabbed by their heads, and brought back to the Dual Evil Devil Chu Mu.

Xu Kuan's expression was one of panic and disbelief.

Just as Chu Mu had been imagining earlier, Xu Kuan, after fleeing several hundreds of kilometers, actually believed that he would be able to survive.

But in the next instant, he had been brought back in front of this terrifying Dual Evil Devil. He was no more than three meters away from its terrifying face that was burning with black and white devil flames!

“Dark Obliteration!”

Chu Mu coldly spoke the name of a technique.

His right hand of darkness gave a slight squeeze. Immediately, a terrifying black hand enveloped Xu Kuan and his demon. This hand of darkness squeezed according to Chu Mu’s anger.

“Peng!!!!!!!”

As the hand of darkness squeezed tightly, Xu Kuan and his demon shattered from the sheer force!

“Ge zhi!! Ge zhi Ge zhi!!!”

Chu Mu's left hand used force to knead his palm. Horrifying noises of Xu Kuan and the demon's bones shattering would repeatedly ring out as they were broken down until they couldn't be squeezed anymore!

After some time, Xu Kuan and the demon were no longer emitting cracking noises. And Chu Mu, who was filled with viciousness, finally decided to relax his hand.

A pile of black powder fell through the gaps in his fingers. Both the man and the demon had become tiny granules of sand...

A wind swept through the area, lifting the corpse sand into the air and blowing it towards Xu Lu's face.

Xu Lu, having witnessed the horrifying scene, felt his heart violently beat. The black particles that had blown past his face were the remnants of his younger brother's corpse!

Who would have thought that a once-living person could be crushed into such fine powder?

Chapter 1336: Dark Fire Torture, Soul Torment!

Coldness pierced into the four of them like icicles. Even their soul pets couldn't help but step back in fear.

The corpse sand disappeared, and Xu Lu's fear slowly transformed into anger!

This black and white devil man was intentionally slowing down its attacks to make them feel fear.

Xu Lu bit down on his lip, and told himself he definitely couldn't be afraid of this fellow!

“You will live longer than the others.” Chu Mu seemed to be able to sense the unease and terror under Xu Lu’s anger, and said mockingly.

Suddenly, Chu Mu’s eyes locked onto Guo Enlong!

Chu Mu lifted his hands over his head. The devil flames in his palm suddenly darted up and quickly formed a black white devil flame large sword!

This devil flame sword was larger than the Worldly Devil Sword Array. It rose high into the clouds-its tip going beyond anyone’s vision!

If this devil flame sword fell down, the valley it would create on the ground would be immeasurable!

The shocking black and white devil sword was lifted up by Chu Mu’s two hands. His gaze was locked onto Guo Enlong’s Unifying Wind Unicorn!

Guo Enlong’s face turned pale. Seeing the giant sword in Chu Mu’s hand, he realized that even though his Unifying Wind Unicorn was fast, he didn’t even know how to dodge this attack!

“Weng~~~~~”

The sword fell from the skies, threatening to split the world in two!!

The entire path along where Guo Enlong stood was taken over by the massive sword. Though the Unifying Wind Unicorn was rather large, it had no room to even dodge. It was cut from head to the toe, splitting in half along with the immeasurably vast land below it!

Devil flames swept towards each side. This sword not only instantly killed the Unifying Wind Unicorn, but the Python Tail Blue Lion and Blood Ghost were both also shot away by the devil flames!

Two immortal rank soul pets' attacks were instantly stopped. Not only did they not save Guo Enlong's Unifying Wind Unicorn, their own souls were also burnt by the powerful devil flames!

"Since you two are looking for death so eagerly, then die along with them!" Chu Mu killed the unicorn, and turned around coldly to glance at Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng and Guo Enlong!

Spatial capture!

After the terrifying sword disappeared, Chu Mu's hands at each other, forcefully dragging the displaced Python Tail Blue Lion and the Blood Ghost back!

"Beng!!!"

Flying backward, the two immortal rank soul pets slammed into each other, causing themselves to spew blood.

However, Chu Mu's attacks didn't end there. He kept his spatial grasp on these two immortal rank soul pets and stared at them with a reaper's eyes in order to judge how he was going to take their lives!

“Dark Fire Torture!”

After a short thought, Chu Mu had an answer. Blood Ghost should be thrown into the Dark Fire Torture and burnt to death!

The dark devil claw and the power of the spatial grasp forcefully threw the Blood Ghost above another ball of dark energy.

This dark energy started morphing into a stake!

The Blood Ghost didn't even have a chance to resist before Chu Mu's two powers forcefully restricted it against the flaming stake!

Chaotic energy spread out as the Blood Ghost tried to use its ghost powers to destroy this devil fire stake.

However, the restrictive power of the dark type was too powerful. The Blood Ghost's strength wasn't nearly enough to destroy it.

With his Blood Ghost restricted, Nine Ghost Shen knew very clearly what was about to happen next!

“Experience this with your soul pet!” Chu Mu smiled cruelly!

Swiping his palm, Chu Mu let out a spatial turbulence that sent the interfering Blood Ghost, Light Emperor, and Python Tail Blue Lion away

Chu Mu’s technique casting was incredibly fast. After slamming the two immortal rank soul pets together, Chu Mu again casted spatial capture!

Not having completely come back to his senses, Nine Ghost Shen immediately was grabbed by the neck with spatial capture.

Nine Ghost Shen struggled against this grasp, his face turning green as he tried desperately to chant an incantation.

Chu Mu didn't give him a chance to chant anything. His index and thumb clamped down harder, nearly snapping his neck!

Chu Mu, of course, wouldn’t let him die so easily. Leaving Nine Ghost Shen with just a breath, he immediately was thrown onto the devil fire stake and was bound together with his soul pet.

“Hu!!!!!!”

Chu Mu conjured some silver flame on his palms and threw it towards the stake!

The entire dark stake was instantly engulfed in flames, the coldness of the flames burning both Nine Ghosts Shen and the Blood Ghost!

The difference between black and silver flames was that black flames had a stronger burn with greater destruction, easily removing an organism from the world.

Chu Mu didn't use black devil flames because Chu Mu wanted to use the cold silver devil flames to torture Nine Ghosts Shen. With a filthy soul like this man, not burning him slowly on a stake would only be disrespecting all the pain and desolation felt by the people that he once bullied!

The silver devil flames' torture for a soul was far more painful than the black devil flames!

Devil fire stake, silver burning flames. The man and his Blood Ghost were completely covered in devil flames!

The cold flames burnt through their bodies and reached their souls. The pain of their souls burning caused Nine Ghosts Shen to contort. He wanted to scream, yet his vocal cords had been snapped by Chu Mu just now, so the only sound that came from the stake was that of the Blood Ghost yelling!

“Huhuhuhu~~~~~”

The devil fire stake and silver devil flames stood between the last two people remaining. Divine Sect Xu Lu and Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng could clearly hear the muted struggles of Nine Ghosts Shen and Blood Ghost's screams!

Going from the original seven people to two people, there was no question as to who would win the battle anymore. This devil man had used its cruel killings to fully display its overwhelming power, devilish vitality, and fear-inducing control!

“He’ll burn for a while before dying. But, you two will all die at the same time.” Chu Mu continued to provoke the remaining two people!

He did this just so that these evil people won’t die too randomly and leave this world without feeling pain!

Chu Mu wanted to tell them exactly how they would die and when they would die. He wanted them to die in pain and utter despair!!

If he didn’t see their contorted faces full of pain, regret, and despair, how could Chu Mu quench the anger in his heart? Just now, it was these same people who had inflicted pain, grief, and desolation in someone Chu Mu cared for!

Chapter 1337: Black Flame, This is it

The devil stake stood in place. Usually, battles ended with a victory or defeat. Either one stood victorious over the corpse of the enemy, or one died on the battlefield. When was there ever a stake being set up to burn people slowly, forcing an immortal rank expert and their soul pet to withstand the burn and pain of these soul devil flames?

Since Chu Mu wanted the three of them to die together, he naturally had to control the flames, burning Nine Ghosts Shen slowly. He either had to slow down death by burning, or finish off the last two people quickly.

Xu Lu definitely had to die last. Chu Mu looked over first to Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng, who was on his Python Tail Blue Lion!

Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng was someone Chu Mu wasn't too familiar with. He didn't know whether he was even a bad person. In fact, as the leader of Wupan Navy, he definitely represented justice and righteousness to a certain extent.

Yet, why would this matter to Chu Mu?

Chu Mu's judgment of good and evil was personal, and it was never about reputation. Anyone that harmed the people closest to him was an enemy and they must die!

Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng was drenched in a cold sweat now. He knew that he was next!

Xue Yingfeng's expression became unprecedentedly grave. Battles verging on death were things he had experienced before, except, this time, he knew very clearly that his chances of escaping from this devil man was nearly zero!

"Come on, do your best!!" Xue Yingfeng threw away his fear and taunted the devil man Chu Mu.

Since he was dead no matter what, he might as well try his best. Xue Yingfeng forced down the fear in his heart and decided to fight this devil man head-on!

Chu Mu lightly glanced at Xue Yingfeng. This action was laughable in Chu Mu's eyes.

Even if the other five people all revived again and fought together, Chu Mu could still take Xue Yingfeng's life easily, let alone fighting Xue Yingfeng alone!

“You will be treated just like this elemental sect person and will die quickly!” Chu Mu said in distaste.

“Can’t wait!” Xue Yingfeng coldly humphed.

After speaking, Xue Yingfeng commanded the Python Tail Blue Lion to take the initiative in attacking Chu Mu!

Its long python tail became a vicious python. Python Tail Blue Lion first used a shattering claw on Chu Mu. Following that, it made its python tail bare its poisonous fangs towards Chu Mu’s neck!

The Blue Lion’s poisonous python bite could ignore defenses. Xue Yingfeng knew this was his only chance of damaging Chu Mu!

He wanted to use the instant this black and white devil man underestimated him and would snap his neck!

Chu Mu stopped the first attack, and wanted to instantly kill Xue Yingfeng when his Other Pupils suddenly noticed a cold glint coming from the assaulting python tail!

Even when slowed down in his Other Pupil, this poisonous python tail was still incredibly fast, showing its true strength as the lion’s last-ditch effort!

Chu Mu stepped back, and went into the other dimension, appearing a moment later thousands of meters away.

“Hahaha, aren’t you really powerful? Why are you backing off?” Xue Yingfeng laughed maniacally!

The battle had always been the black and white devil man slaughtering the immortal rank experts. Even when facing seven immortal rank experts together, killing them was a piece of cake.

Yet, against Xue Yingfeng alone, this black and white devil man had backed off. To Xue Yingfeng, who accepted death already, this was enough!

A thousand meters away, Chu Mu glanced apathetically at the only immortal rank unafraid of death, Xue Yingfeng.

“In reality, I just didn’t want your dirty blood on my body.” Chu Mu said calmly.

After Chu Mu spoke, Xue Yingfeng suddenly realized something and looked down!

Under Xue Yingfeng and Python Tail Blue Lion, there suddenly appeared a high-frequency spatial whirlpool. This whirlpool, under the devil man’s control, created a powerful suction that pulled both Xue Yingfeng and the Python Tail Blue Lion in!

With their bodies in the spatial whirlpool, the powerful cutting caused Xue Yingfeng and the Python Tail Blue Lion to be rendered into chunks!

Blood and bits of flesh flew outwards, with some chunks reaching a few hundred meters away!

Just as Chu Mu had said, if he didn't back off to that distance, the blood would've landed on him!

The last to be grinded was Xue Yingfeng's skull, holding a face of disbelief even into death.

Knowing he would die, Xue Yingfeng charged forth to show that, unlike the other useless people, he wouldn't get instantly killed by one technique.

Yet, the final result was still no different from the other immortal rank scum- getting instantly killed by the devil man!

Ocean Lord Xue Yingfeng died. Now, Divine Sect Xu Lu wasn't far from death. On the entire blood-covered battlefield, he was the only one still healthy.

Nine Ghosts Shen's screams still resonated in his ears still. The second before, he had just been permanently burnt to ashes by the silver devil flames, dying in utmost pain, and losing even his soul, leaving nothing left in this world.

The blended corpse of Xue Yingfeng also fell down from the sky, and it fell in chunks of blood.

"I've figured out your death already. Though I couldn't make all three of you die at the same time, your cruelty will allow you to enjoy the feeling of dying alone." Chu Mu stepped forth and slowly walked towards Xu Lu and his Light Emperor.

This time, Chu Mu didn't even use any techniques. Using his devil claw power alone, he started ripping the light emperor's body apart in a frenzy!

The Light Emperor itself was made up of light energy, and didn't actually have a form. Getting ripped apart couldn't danger its life.

However, when using a devil claw, the ripping was no longer just a separation of its energy body. Every piece ripped off was instantly obliterated!

To an elemental life form, its energy was its body. Xu Lu stood within the Light Emperor's protection, and his pupils continued to dilate!

At the same time, Chu Mu was only five meters from him. He was like a cruel devil that grabbed onto his Light Emperor, ripping pieces off of it casually. Every piece ripped off was burnt away by black devil flames. This was akin to ripping a living being's limbs off one by one before tearing its organs out, leaving everything to slowly burn in a flame!

Finally, the pain from a soul pact shattering came. Xu Lu's entire face contorted. However, more painful was the helplessness he felt as he stood behind his strongest soul pet as it was ruthlessly torn apart!

Comparing their cruelty, the devil man was thousands of times worse than Xu Lu. He could have killed them all easily and quickly, yet he insisted on killing them all one by one. This was no longer a battle- it was torture!!

The Light Emperor's body was shattered, and could no longer gather together again.

Facing such a hard to defeat enemy, Xu Lu felt despair!

However, he wanted to live on more than anyone else. He chanted incantations like crazy and summoned all his soul pets!

Four soul pets appeared almost simultaneously, and leaped towards Chu Mu under Xu Lu's command!

Chu Mu merely glanced at these dominator rank organisms with killing intent, and these four soul pets all spontaneously combusted, becoming piles of ashes before even reaching Chu Mu.

With five souls wounded, Xu Lu could no longer summon any soul pets. The pain of his soul pacts breaking wasn't any worse than devil flames burning.

Suddenly, Chu Mu held Xu Lu's head with one hand!

His other hand showed a black spear. Just as Xu Lu's fear reached a peak, the black spear passed through his heart!

“Pu!!!!!!”

The black spear pierced Xu Lu's heart completely!

Blood seeped out. Xu Lu's eyes stared fearfully as his eyes became bloodshot. Pain caused his mouth to widen, leaking blood!

Chu Mu grabbed the other end of the black spear and tossed it casually!

The black spear brought Xu Lu's body straight over Ning Maner's head and slammed into the Messiah Tree's main branch, pinning him in the exact same spot He Cang was pinned to death!

On the Messiah Tree, Black Green He Cang had closed his eyes long ago. He died in peace, without an inkling of pain on his face because right before he died, he had seen Chu Mu come and stop Ning Maner becoming a devil, and he watched on as Chu Mu became the devil man to protect Ning Maner.

As long as she was fine, He Cang could close his eyes in peace. At least this time, he didn't go against his promise of protection.....

And if He Cang saw his sworn enemy Xu Lu pinned on the same tree, having died in utter pain and terror, He Cang would definitely laugh, even in the underworld!

The entire slaughtering finally ended with Xu Lu's regretful and painful death. The Messiah Tree was no longer the marker for a sacred land. It was full of corpses and blood now.

Black. White. Chu Mu created two different trails of flames as he slowly brought his body towards the poor young girl under the tree.....

This battle indeed was Chu Mu's slaughter-fest. However, Chu Mu didn't know why he felt so tired.

"Brother, White Three... Where's White Three?" Ning Maner suddenly remembered and quickly asked.

Chu Mu walked over to Ning Maner and lightly touched her beautiful but fragile face.

"This is it." Chu Mu glanced at the black flames on his body and said in a heavy voice.

Ning Maner was stunned. She felt a quickly disappearing wisp of White Three's aura on Chu Mu's black devil flames.

Suddenly, Ning Maner realized what had happened!

Her body shivered as if she was shocked!

“White Three!”

Finally, she dived into Chu Mu’s lap and started sobbing incomprehensibly.....

Chapter 1338: Removing the Hazy Smile

An exhausted shadow was attached next to He Cang.

He Cang was no longer moving, but the shadow was anxiously swaying about. Even now, the Dark Emperor was unwilling to believe that its master had already died.

This continued for an unknown amount of time before it finally lifted its completely wounded body, and drifted over to the young woman.

The young woman’s shadow was overlapping with Chu Mu’s shadow. The lonely Dark Emperor slowly submerged itself into their shadows and chose to enter eternal rest.

The sound of crying grew increasingly faint before Chu Mu looked down at Ning Maner.

Eventually, Ning Maner’s crying noises disappeared and her hands wrapped around Chu Mu. Her body no longer had any point of support.

She was so exhausted that she had fallen asleep.

This experience had been an enormous trauma on her heart. After everything ended, her heart ended up full of wounds. Nobody knew how deep of a scar it would leave.

She had already become a beautiful woman, and she was no longer a small girl that always needed protection and could not suffer harm.

.....

In the center area of Quiet Forest, Ye Wansheng, Prince Chao, Pang Yue, and Xiao Xiao were walking into the depths of Quiet Forest.

After passing through a dark patch of the forest, their path ahead was suddenly enveloped by a striking blood-red color. There was a pitch-black sky and earth covered in fresh blood!

The four of them were stunned, and didn't dare keep moving forward for a long while.

Just then, a man carrying a dainty young woman in his embrace flew towards them.

"It's Chu Mu!" Ye Wansheng immediately recognized Chu Mu.

"Who is the girl he's carrying?" asked Xiao Xiao out of curiosity.

Chu Mu landed in front of the four of them. He glanced at them and asked: “Are you guys ok?”

“We spent a long time wandering between the outer and center areas of Quiet Forest. We weren’t able to find a path, but we finally found our way here... eh, it seems that everything has been resolved by you.” said Ye Wansheng.

Since Chu Mu had flown back with Ning Maner in his arms, this crisis had ended.

However, the four of them were curious as to how Chu Mu was able to take back Ning Maner with Kang Ruodong, Huo Lei, and Xu Kuan, three immortal rank experts, there. Did that Black Nightmare go berserk?

“Let’s go. We’ll return first to Quiet Forest Stronghold City.” said Chu Mu.

Ye Wansheng and Chao Lengchuan had known Chu Mu for a while, and they were able to see from his eyes that he wasn’t in a good mood. The two of them didn’t ask anything more, and they urged their soul pets to fly towards Quiet Forest Stronghold City.

There were perhaps a few more greedy people in Quiet Forest Stronghold City. But what did it matter? Having already killed seven of them, if there were still others seeking their own death, Chu Mu didn’t mind killing more!

After this fight, Quiet Forest would no longer be Quiet Forest again. There was no more Messiah Tree, and there was no more protectors. What this forest would become in the future, nobody could predict.

After returning to Quiet Forest Stronghold City, Chu Mu carried the exhausted and sleeping Ning Maner into a room.

Chu Mu softly placed her on the bed, but he discovered her small hand was tightly grabbing onto him. She was unwilling to let go.

She was like a small deer right now. Despite being asleep, she wanted to stay next to someone who made her feel warm and safe. She wanted to be next to him and smell his scent. This way, even in her dreams, she would know that someone was protecting her. There was no need to be afraid of monsters from her nightmares that were haunting her.

Chu Mu guided Ning Maner's small hand into his palm. Then, he placed her back into the bed and covered her in a blanket.

Chu Mu attempted to make her hand let go, but immediately discovered that she would become jittery and restless, as if she was going to awaken.

Chu Mu sighed, and held onto her ice-cold and soft hands. He lay against the side of the bed and closed his eyes.

This fight had also made Chu Mu thoroughly exhausted. Not only had he used up all of his strength, but his heart now carried a few heavy things that were hard to let go of.

Once he closed his eyes, he fell asleep. This was one of the few times where he even let his guard down and fell into a deep sleep. Even when the room door was opened, he didn't notice.

Outside the door, Pang Yue stood there, planning on healing Chu Mu. But she saw Chu Mu sitting against the side of the bed with his head down, fast asleep.

Oftentimes, Pang Yue would find Chu Mu sleeping in this position under a tree or on a tree branch. But he would always wake up if there was the slightest breeze.

Thus, this was the first time Pang Yue had seen him so tired, like a dispirited statue.

Next to him was the young woman from before who was fast asleep. She was quiet, beautiful, and seemed untainted by the vices of the world. She was so pure that she resembled an immortal who had accidentally entered the mortal world.

Pang Yue quietly closed the door. Although she didn't know what happened in the depths of Quiet Forest, she could see that many things had happened in the fight that made them so exhausted.

After sleeping for an unknown amount of time, Ning Maner's eyelashes began to gently quiver.

Afternoon sunlight poured in front of the cracks in the window. It was dazzling to the eye, and a ray of this bright and beautiful sunlight roused her from her sleep.

When she awakened, Ning Maner still felt the shadows still in her heart.

However, she thought of Chu Mu's words, which had enlightened her quite a bit.

Hatred, sorrow, and anger shouldn't belong to her. The Messiah Tree had used the last of its remnant soul to suppress one of her devil transformations. It had done so in order to tell her the same thing. Only, she wasn't able to understand it.

Since she was only able to survive from the sacrifice of countless lives, she should treasure her life more and preserve her innate character.

After coming to this understanding, the sadness and sorrow in her heart were greatly lessened.

She furtively wiped the tears hanging from the corners of eyes after awakening. She then surveyed the place she was sleeping in.

This was a nice room. It was clean, tidy, and simple.

When she looked next to her, she found a man in a deep sleep with his head down as he rested against the side of the bed. One of his hands was gently holding onto her hand. She didn't know how long he had been holding this position.

Ning Maner remembered when she followed Chu Mu back then, he would always sleep or silently cultivate like this under a tree. She would rest against him and hold onto one of his arms as she slept.

Each time she awoke, her body would be covered by a large piece of clothing.

If she woke up earlier or couldn't fall asleep, she would pick out a piece of grass next to her and use the soft end to draw on this handsome and grim face. Indeed, it didn't matter how mischievous she was, he wouldn't wake up when silently cultivating.

After entering Wupan Imperial Palace, Ning Maner cherished such memories because she had been brought up by a godly tree. She had enjoyed resting against the tree and breathing in the smell of both fresh grass and leaves while enjoying the gentle wind blowing against her face...

Ning Maner didn't know how long she had been separated from Chu Mu for. At least, she was no longer a young girl. However, her big brother devil didn't seem to have changed from the past. He still had that cold handsomeness, aloofness, and that expression that would make girls go crazy, thinking he was cool.

If it was the past, when she saw his sleeping appearance, Ning Maner would go so far as to ransack the entire room in order to find a pen and dye it in some black ink to draw a clown-like smiling face on his face.

Just imagine, the perpetually cold-expression Chu Mu now with the smiling face of a clown. How funny would that be? It would be enough to make her laugh for a few days.

Ning Maner was indeed thinking about doing this, but it was just merely a thought. She was no longer a young girl that played pranks which made her seem immature.

Of course, Ning Maner had discovered something else while carefully examining him.

Chu Mu, while sleeping against the bed, had maintained a distance from her.

In other words, her small body had occupied the entire bed while Chu Mu was resting against the side. Besides one of his hands holding onto her hand, he was very gentlemanly-like keeping a distance from her.

Indeed, if Chu Mu had gotten under blankets and slept with her in the same bed, upon awakening, Ning Maner would feel rather embarrassed.

In the past, she had been young and had grown up in the closed environment of Quiet Forest. Thus, she didn't understand these things. She would often run over to where Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi were sleeping together and cause trouble. But now, even if she was still naive, she would still be able to understand that there would be problems caused by a man and woman sleeping together.

Not long after Ning Maner awakened, Chu Mu was also awakened by the shining sunlight.

Chu Mu opened his eyes and slightly stretched his body as his bones let out a wave of cracks. This demonstrated how long and how deeply he had slept.

"Big brother." Ning Maner was still unwilling to get up. Her small face was exposed outside the blanket, and she both somewhat shyly and happily called out to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu turned around and finally remembered that there was this young girl next to him.

However, when he saw Ning Maner's absolutely beautiful face that couldn't help but make others suck in a breath of air, Chu Mu realized again that the young girl that Third White had picked up was long gone. Now, even without any makeup, she was still unbelievably beautiful.

When he saw a slight smile on her face, he felt much more relaxed.

He was most afraid of this event leaving too heavy of a shadow in her heart, and that she would lose her smile from before.

Her smile was very infectious and was the best cure for the violence in a living creature's heart. When he had transformed into a devil back then, if Ning Maner hadn't been with him, even with the Monument Tears that had reconstructed his soul and memories, he probably wouldn't have been able to remove the slaughter that had become second nature to him.

Seeing Ning Maner's smile, the sliver of darkness and gloom in his heart also dissipated.

"You must be hungry. Let's go and eat something," said Chu Mu with warm eyes.

"Ok." Ning Maner nodded her head.

Chapter 1339: Messiah Tree Seed

When they left the room, Ye Wansheng and Prince Chao were just coming back from outside. They were discussing the xuan items that they happened to pick up while wandering Quiet Forest.

They saw Chu Mu bring Ning Maner out of the room, and wicked smiles appeared on their faces.

"Chu Mu, you truly have foresight. You managed to pick up a beauty capable of devastating countries. Moreover, you guys slept together for five or six days." Ye Wansheng looked at Ning Maner, and spoke without restraint.

After freshening up, Ning Maner's natural beauty was completely displayed. Add on her unique temperament, and she was indeed eye-catching.

Ning Maner had seen Ye Wansheng a few times. But the last half of his words had made her feel embarrassed, and she could only hide next behind Chu Mu as she softly said: "Hello, Big Brother Ye."

Ye Wansheng nodded his head, and introduced the adjacent Prince Chao.

Ning Maner politely greeted him, and Prince Chao said: "I heard my younger sister mention you before. You are indeed different from us common folk. Standing next to you, even I feel like I'm covered in dirt. Hahaha."

Chao Lengchuan's younger sister was Princess Wanning. When Chu Mu had been in Soul City, Ning Maner and Princess Wanning had spent a lot of time together.

The four of them walked out of the residence, and found both Pang Yue and Xiao Xiao on the streets.

When Ning Maner saw Xiao Xiao, she subconsciously wanted to go up and hug her. However, after looking closely, she found that this woman wasn't the Big Sister Ye she was familiar with.

Ning Maner blinked her eyes with confusion at Chu Mu. She didn't understand why Ye Qingzi wasn't with Chu Mu, and instead, there was a woman who looked just like her within the group.

This was a complete coincidence. Chu Mu had just told Ning Maner that Ye Qingzi was in Zhengming Continent's main city, so she was naturally confused.

"I really want to see Big Sister Ye soon." said Ning Maner.

"We'll be heading to Zhengming Main City next. You'll be able to see her then," said Chu Mu.

"Ok, ok." Ning Maner happily nodded her head. She had wanted to leave Wupan Continent for some time now.

The current Ning Family Dynasty believed she had lost her powers. They probably didn't care where she went, so she could go wherever she wanted.

Additionally, even if people from the Ning Family Dynasty wanted to stop her, she would still follow Chu Mu. After this painful experience, Ning Maner only trusted Chu Mu.

"Oh, that's right. When you fled Quiet Forest the first time, did you follow the Heaven Boundary Monument path?" asked Chu Mu.

This question had been bugging Chu Mu ever since he went there.

Chu Mu only knew that under Wanxiang City's Heaven Boundary Monument was the dormant and extremely powerful Ancient Flood Dragon Person. This powerful creature would awaken during the next solar eclipse.

As for what secrets were contained in the other Heaven Boundary Monuments, Chu Mu didn't know.

"Yes. Grandfather Tree wanted me to follow the Heaven Boundary Monuments. It told me that the Heaven Boundary Monuments would protect me." said Ning Maner.

"Do you know what the Wupan Continent and Zhengming Continent Heaven Boundary Monuments are used for?" asked Chu Mu.

Ning Maner shook her head and said: "I've only heard Grandfather Messiah Tree tell me that there are a total of 10 Heaven Boundary Monuments. They are scattered in different places throughout the world. Each Heaven Boundary Monument is like a Messiah Tree, and has its own protector. This protector is called a Monument Tear Individual. If I encounter a Monument Tear Individual, I can request the individual's help and protection."

"Monument Tear Individual?" Chu Mu was even more confused.

"Big Brother is a person with a Monument Tear. Although people with Monument Tears are not completely Monument Tear Individuals, I feel that Big Brother is capable of becoming one. Grandfather Tree said that Monument Tear Individuals will protect me, so that's why I've been following Big Brother." said Ning Maner.

"So it's like this." Chu Mu had believed that his encounter with Ning Maner was purely out of coincidence. He never expected for the status of a Monument Tear Individual had led to their encounter.

What kind of an ancient calling was the Monument Tear Individual?

All Chu Mu knew that what he had to do right now was raise his strength and strive to expel the Ancient Flood Dragon Person from New Moon Land before he awakened.

“Grandfather Tree said that Messiah Tree protectors were gradually declining while Monument Tear Individuals had always existed in this world, but had no idea where they were now.”

“Monument Tears both record the memories these people have engraved into their hearts and also hide some special memories in their hearts. When this person with the Monument Tear is able to remember the hidden memory, he will become a genuine Monument Tear Individual and step on the journey to solving the mystery of the Heaven Boundary Monuments. Grandfather Tree said that the Heaven Boundary Monument will make its selection from the experiences of those people that have the Monument Tears. It will then acknowledge that a person has a qualified Monument Tear Individual...” said Ning Maner.

Chu Mu had no knowledge of the Heaven Boundary Monuments. But according to Ning Maner, when the Heaven Boundary Monuments granted people Monument Tears, they would use the Monument Tears to silently watch the person’s experiences. Then, it would make its selection from among them for a person to become a qualified Monument Tear Individual.

“The people chosen as Monument Tear Individuals are either extremely strong or have the heart to become an expert. Most of them have received the blessings of the Monument Tears. The moment they are chosen, they must use their powerful strength to pay back the Heaven Boundary Monument. This is different from Grandfather Tree because Grandfather Tree doesn’t ask for payment back.” continued Ning Maner.

“I already know the hidden memory you spoke of. It was an ancient beast soul, and it guided me to Demonic Burial Mound to find the method of dealing with the Ancient Flood Dragon Person dormant under the Heaven Boundary Monument.” said Chu Mu.

“The ancient beast soul you’re talking about is definitely the previous generation Monument Tear Individual. He planted this memory into the depths of some people’s hearts. Ultimately, he will choose one of these people to help him complete the task he was unable to. Big Brother’s strength is growing extremely fast. The ancient beast soul probably felt that big brother was worthy of fully becoming a Monument Tear Individual, so he has begun to guide big brother towards the Heaven Boundary Monument secrets.” said Ning Maner.

“Eh, but I have no clue about these secrets.” said Chu Mu.

A smile rose on Ning Maner’s face as she said: “These are all mysteries and secrets from the ancient world that have lain uncovered for many years. If it were this easy to understand, there wouldn’t be this many Monument Tear Individuals inherited generation after generation. Grandfather Tree said that the world is like a continuous and undulating, yet complex and confusing mountain range. All creatures live between the mountains, and are extremely weak. All they can do is look up at the lofty cliffs and towering peaks. Only when these creatures are able to reach a certain height and see the mountains below them are they able to see the face of the world.”

“The ten Heaven Boundary Monuments are the same. While we are still weak, all they are to us are solitary and towering stone monuments that have been standing there for countless years; we don’t know the meaning of their existence. Only by slowly climbing up and standing from a higher viewpoint will we eventually be able to understand the genuine meaning of their existence.”

Ning Maner’s words resonated with Chu Mu.

Indeed, often there were special things that he could only understand by reaching a certain height.

Perhaps, the only way to uncover the meaning of the Heaven Boundary Monuments was to wait until he was strong enough to understand.

“So this also means that the 10 Heaven Boundary Monuments represent the most mysterious things in this world?” asked Chu Mu.

Ning Maner nodded her head: “Yes. The truth is there are many human and soul pet experts who have reached the pinnacle of strength, but are not Monument Tear Individuals, and are still walking around and around the Heaven Boundary Monuments.”

Chu Mu indeed never imagined these ancient stone monuments to be a peak mystery in the world. It really was as Ning Maner had said. Unless he stood at the peak of the mountain, the Heaven Boundary Monuments would just be stone monuments hiding secrets and mysteries.

“Also, big brother needs to be careful. There’s a rumor in the immortal rank that by gathering enough Monument Tears, one will be able to obtain the strength of an undying rank. Each Monument Tear Person and Monument Tear Individual only has a limited amount of things they have engraved into their hearts. Thus, the amount of Monument Tears is limited. In order to obtain more Monument Tears, people with wicked intentions will use extremely ruthless methods to steal Monument Tears from Monument Tear People or Individuals who have not completely matured in strength.” said Ning Maner.

“Aside from myself, I have never encountered another Monument Tear Individual.” said Chu Mu.

“You’ll meet them eventually. Big brother has been chosen as a Monument Tear person and in the future, if you encounter other Monument Tear Individuals chosen by the Heaven Boundary Monuments, your Monument Tear crystals will flicker with light. If that happens, big brother must be particularly careful, because you won’t be able to guarantee if these Fake Monument Tear Individuals have killed Monument Tear People or are Individuals that have obtained Monument Tears.

Chu Mu nodded his head. In a world dictated by strength, there would always be people with a desire to continue growing and seek even stronger power. Not everyone knew to examine their own souls to see if they had lost their humanity. Most living things had one head buried in the bloody pool of strength. This included Chu Mu. He didn’t exclude himself from among these people.

“Monument Tear Individuals, Fake Monument Tear Individuals...how many Monument Tear Individuals and Fake Monument Tear Individuals are there in this world...” Chu Mu sighed after listening to Ning Maner.

It seemed that as he gained more strength, he would embroil himself into another battle.

Chu Mu had no clue how strong these Monument Tear Individuals and Fake Monument Tear Individuals were.

“Big brother doesn’t need to be so sad. You have me.” Ning Maner saw Chu Mu sigh and hastily spoke up.

“I’m not sad. Don’t you know that I innately like to fight?” Chu Mu raised his brows.

“Wu wu wu wu~~~” the small Mo Xie lying on his shoulder immediately let out a cry. and raised her small claws.

Mo Xie was raising her claws in approval of his words. It didn’t matter what she had to fight, that was what she most enjoyed!

“Big brother should be considered a maturing Monument Tear Individual. However, big brother will definitely get stronger very quickly, and perhaps become the person who solves the Heaven Boundary Monument mysteries.” Ning Maner said with certainty.

Chu Mu saw how confident Ning Maner was in him and forced a smile as he pinched her cute and elegant nose: “How can it be that easy?”

“It’s possible.” as she spoke, Ning Maner got close to Chu Mu’s ear and whispered to him: “I suddenly understood something when big brother told me those words under the tree.”

“What?”

“Grandfather Tree didn’t actually give the seed to me. Before big brother told me those words, I didn’t even know where the Messiah Tree Seed was... but the truth is that the seed has always been with me.” n enchanting smile rose on Ning Maner’s face.

Chu Mu initially didn’t understand the meaning of her words. But after carefully thinking, he immediately understood.

The young woman in front of him that had been brought up by the Messiah Tree was actually the seed itself that the Messiah Tree had diligently raised!

Chapter 1340: Dead Dream, Automatic Promotion!

After finding Ning Maner, the Wupan Continent didn’t have much left for Chu Mu to stay for.

Following the same route back, he kept training at the forefront of his mind.

This time, the Messiah Tree seed event caused Chu Mu to realize that his strength indeed was undefeated in certain areas, but in the grand scheme of the entire Wupan Continent or other larger territories, he was still lacking.

Ning Maner's lost powers were back. Because her mind and body still needed some time to recover, she didn't immediately nurture Chu Mu's soul pets.

She wanted to store the powers in her body and create an immortal aura to try to help Night breakthrough dominator rank and step into immortal rank territory.

Of Chu Mu's soul pets, Night was the closest to immortal rank. If it had chosen to wear the Demon Drown last time in the Demon Burial Mound, it would already be immortal rank.

Since Night chose to continue its life with him, Chu Mu naturally didn't want to disappoint it and not have it improve its rank.

Ning Maner's rank wasn't very high right now; nurturing dominator rank organisms wasn't a big issue, but creating immortal ranks was rather hard, and likely would fail.

Luckily, losing her powers and regaining them this time allowed her mental powers to increase beyond when she had in the Wupan Palace. If she tried, she might be able to bring Night to immortal rank.

Ning Maner herself estimated that she needed around four months to gather enough immortal aura. Then, if she injected it into Night, and it also completed enough training to reach immortal rank, then a new immortal rank Night would be born!

The five-year pact with the old raccoon in Demon Burial Mound wasn't forgotten by Chu Mu. For a long time following that, Night would be leading the way for the rest of his soul pets to slowly get stronger and step into immortal rank.

As his soul pets neared top tier and paragon dominator rank, Chu Mu looked for more resources and slowly put his sight on immortal items.

Immortal items were something Chu Mu hadn't even seen before in the past nor even heard of. The only immortal item he had obtained was an immortal rank organism's soul core.

Chu Mu had Ning Maner beside him now. Ning Maner was, in reality, a sprouting Messiah Tree. Her existence indeed could give Chu Mu a chance to bring his soul pets into immortal rank. However, Chu Mu couldn't always put his hopes on Ning Maner. After all, compared to the real Messiah Tree, she was but a small sapling. She could only provide a certain amount of immortal aura, unless her strength had a great increase.

Furthermore, the Messiah Tree's power mainly laid in its ability to nurture. However, that was a slow process. Telling Ning Maner to gather all the power to strengthen a soul pet was still a waste of the value of the power.

Before, when they were still traveling with Ye Qingzi and Ning Maner, Chu Mu noticed that putting Ning Maner and Ye Qingzi together would make the perfect spirit item creator. Chu Mu felt that her powers should be mainly put on xuan items and immortal items. Adding Ye Qingzi's xuan art and immortal arts, the ability to gain resources was much higher than Ning Maner nurturing a soul pet by herself.

Chu Mu's next destination was Zhenming Main City. Although it had been a few years. Chu Mu had always kept Ye Qingzi on his mind. This time, he could even bring Ning Maner as a surprise for her.

To go to Zhenming Continent, Chu Mu obviously didn't dare pass over the roof of the world (TL: massive mountain splitting the two continents).

It was said that Zhenming Continent and Wupan Continent had a few transportation hubs that could avoid this natural barrier. However, having just stepped into Wupan Continent, he couldn't possibly know these locations.

Going back the way he came, he could also get some training but there wouldn't be much suitable training anymore.

When he got to the Guan City harbor, Chu Mu found the harbor now had a sprinkle of ships with New Moon Ground flags. Not only was there the New Moon Navy, there were also New Moon merchant ships, passenger ships, and adventurer groups.

From this scene, he could tell that New Moon Ground's connection with Guan City was slowly being established.

To save time, Chu Mu and the others didn't ride the boat but instead flew straight over the Dark Sky Ocean World.

With his current strength, crossing Dark Sky Ocean World didn't need too much time.

Where the dark ocean met the surface, there was a swiftly traveling dark comet. This was Chu Mu's wing type soul pet Dead Dream.

The flying Dead Dream didn't actually flap its wings often when it flew. Every light flap could propel it very far.

Ning Maner was taken away before Chu Mu went to the Phoenix Ancestral Lands. This was the first time she had seen Dead Dream.

Initially, when Dead Dream was still resting in the box, Ning Maner had already fallen in love with it, occasionally pulling it out of its box to use her weak aura to nurture it.

Now that Dead Dream signed a soul pact with Chu Mu and had a slight mental connection with her, Ning Maner couldn't just let it go.

From Quiet Forest back to Guan City was a long journey. Ning Maner either hugged little Mo Xie or Dead Dream the entire journey. The result? Halfway through, Dead Dream, who was missing the most xuan items, suddenly went from middle class dominator rank to high class dominator rank.

Dead Dream's itemless advancement caused Ye Wansheng, Chao Lengchuan, and Pang Yue's jaws to all drop.

The chance a soul pet improved by itself was extremely slim. Ye Wansheng and the other two spent ages collecting every resource and xuan item in their training process to finally push one of their main soul pets into high class dominator rank. Yet, Chu Mu's soul pet did something worthy of anyone's jealousy - it had an automatic promotion!

There was nothing more jaw-dropping!

This caused Ye Wansheng and Prince Chao to be gloomy for a long time. They stared at their soul pets all day in hopes that someday they could also automatically promote themselves, saving them the trouble of getting xuan items.

“Yi? Chu Mu, why is your Dead Dream letting out a strange glow?” In the sky, Pang Yue also sitting on Dead Dream’s back said.

Chu Mu was meditating. In reality, he already felt his soul elevating, meaning that one of his soul pets must have gained rank.

When Chu Mu opened his eyes, he glanced at the light starlight that appeared on Dead Dream’s body and showed a smile torn between helplessness and joy.

“Heavens!! Chu.... Chu Mu.... What is your Dead Dream doing!!” Ye Wansheng started shouting as he flew aside them!

Half a beat later, Prince Chao turned around and saw Chu Mu’s Dead Dream glowing in a special way. His mouth was so wide a fist could fit in it!

“Brother, little Dead Dream is gaining a rank again!” Ning Maner’s chime-like laugh sounded.

Indeed, the flying Dead Dream’s feathers started revolving around the glow, like dark ancient glyphs.

Darkness and thunder shrouded the entire ocean and sky in black when Dead Dream was promoted!

Arcs of dark purple Dead Lightning flashed through the sky, creating a stunning landscape!

“Chu Mu, you must be the son of some fortune goddess.” In the dark, Ye Wansheng’s sour voice came through.

His Empress Heavenly Thunder Snake grew up at the same time as Chu Mu’s Dead Dream. It was Ye Wansheng’s main soul pet now, and had finally surpassed Chu Mu’s Dead Dream by two ranks.

Yet, on this trip back to Lin City, Dead Dream automatically promoted, closing the gap a little.

The first time, Ye Wansheng comforted himself. Dead Dream has been around low and middle class dominator rank for a while now. An automatic promotion was bound to happen with its high species rank.

Yet, what was this continuous automatic promotion!

Had anyone heard of a soul pet going to top tier dominator rank from middle class without any xuan items at all?

When all the darkness and thunder disappeared, Ye Wansheng, Prince Chao, and Pang Yue stared at Chu Mu as if he were a monster!

This was dominator rank, not servant rank, or commander rank. How could two automatic promotions happen?

“Doing two automatic promotions, how dare you do such an abominable thing!” Ye Wansheng quickly followed.

Chu Mu felt like he was innocent. He did nothing. It was just that when Dead Dream stepped into high class dominator rank, it was focused on training. The first time it self promoted, though Chu Mu was surprised, he could guess the reason.

However, this second promotion truly scared Chu Mu.

Jumping from middle class to top tier dominator rank in such a short time, with Dream's special attributes, meant that its strength increased far more than just double.

Chu Mu glanced at the laughing Ning Maner.

Dead Dream jumping straight to top tier dominator rank showed just how insane a soul pet's strength would increase if Ning Maner liked it.

"Chu Mu, why doesn't your Dead Dream just have a species mutation!" Pang Yue said angrily. Prince Chao remained silent, choosing not to comment.

"Species mutation, en...." Ning Maner's beautiful eyes blinked.

She put a finger on her lips and started thinking about this challenge.

Phoenix species were the only species that could use their own strength and opportunities to recreate themselves and reincarnate. These reincarnations were very similar to species mutation, but they just didn't increase power as much.

Pang Yue's words reminded Ning Maner. Instead of letting Dead Dream promote itself like this, why not give Dead Dream a chance to reincarnate.

Maybe, Dead Dream would accidentally step into immortal rank that way!
