

Soul Pets Bk2 1361

Chapter 1361: Imprint Valley, Sacred Cultivation Ground

“Hmph, wasn’t he uninterested in the competition?” sneered Tang Zhuo.

“Is he after the benefits of the Northern Territory?” Tang Ang was startled. He had never imagined that that guy had picked such a condition!

“What do you think?” asked Madam Gao.

Tang Ang was the host of this competition, so he could certainly have Chu Mu participate.

“I agree. However, the other factions may not allow him to get involved in the finals, but if they were to agree.....” Tang Ang was not worried about Tang Zhuo losing.

Furthermore, Tang Ang was not really interested in the Northern Territory. Someone like him who was about to retire would also lose their interest in authority.

“Then I would have to trouble you to make the trip,” Madam Gao smiled.

Tang Ang sighed and inquired Tang Zhuo, “That guy had a conflict with Han Erxing just now, right?”

“Yes,” Tang Zhuo nodded.

“Very good,” Tang Ang grinned.

Actually, it would be enough for him to convince just the Divine Sect to agree to Chu Mu’s participation.

Since Han Erxing and Chu Mu had a conflict previously, then Han Erxing would surely be eager to fight with him, naturally agreeing to let him participate in the competition.

.....

Tang Zhuo returned to his participant seat.

Xin Xin had noticed Tang Zhuo’s change in expression and chuckled, “What’s wrong? You look worried.”

Tang Zhuo replied, “My Master gave me an opponent.”

Xin Xin asked, “In this Outstanding Experts Competition?”

Tang Zhuo nodded and purposely took a glance in Chu Mu’s direction, revealing a sneer.

“That guy again?” asked Xin Xin as he noticed the gesture.

“Yes, it’s him,” Tang Zhuo nodded.

Xin Xin curved the corner of his lips, “Wouldn’t it be more interesting if he participates then? Didn’t he say that the Outstanding Experts Competition is just a bunch of kids fooling around?”

Tang Zhuo also grinned. He obviously would not tell Xin Xin about the matter of the Imprint Valley. If Xin Xin also started competing for that qualification, then Tang Zhuo would have an even greater headache to deal with.

When Han Erxing was notified of the participation of Chu Mu from New Moon Land, he couldn't control his excitement.

He had been wondering how he could cause harm to Chu Mu, to think that Chu Mu would come looking for trouble himself. Han Erxing eagerly supported Tang Ang’s suggestion to allow Chu Mu to participate in the competition, and even took the initiative to convince his father.

Today’s disqualification matches were over. The eight participants either won or lost. The most eye-catching match of the day was the battle between Xin Xin and Lu Fenxue.

The next most anticipated match would be the encounter between Han Erxing, Xin Xin and Tang Zhuo. Which amongst the three would be the eventual winner was a hot topic that everyone had been debating over recently.

.....

Night fell, Chu Mu was meditating as usual.

His spot on the bed was occupied by Ning Maner. If he just slept with them, Ye Qingzi would probably be very unhappy with him.

Recently, Ye Qingzi's mood has been terrible, it was naturally due to what Chu Mu had told her.

Ye Qingzi had let Ning Maner stay to sleep on the same bed. Whether that was purposely done to distance herself and punish Chu Mu, only Ye Qingzi herself knew the answer.

Ning Maner popped her head out from under the blanket and asked, "Big sis, what's wrong? You look troubled."

Ye Qingzi was feeling quite troubled in her heart. She peered at Ning Maner's pure eyes.

Since hiding it would do no good to her, Ye Qingzi whispered, "Xiao Maner, if your big brother starts liking someone else....."

"Ah?" Ning Maner was a little shocked.

Ye Qingzi hurriedly covered Ning Maner's mouth and whispered, "Don't let him hear us."

"Oh, oh, who else does big brother like?" asked Ning Maner.

“You may not have met her before. Xiao Maner, what should I do? He’s being so frustrating. I had already pretended that I did not know anything, but he just had to confess everything to me. I don't know what to do anymore now,” pouted Ye Qingzi as she spoke.

Ye Qingzi had a sensitive mind, she knew Chu Mu better than anyone else. If Chu Mu told her that he had not a trace of feelings towards Princess Jin Rou, then she was absolutely certain that he was lying.

Chu Mu would not lie to her, but that did not mean that Ye Qingzi wanted Chu Mu to tell her the truth either.

In the end, Chu Mu had told her what he had to. He felt refreshed and did not need to worry about anything anymore. Meanwhile, Ye Qingzi had fallen into a dilemma: Should she take a tough attitude towards him? Or should she be lenient with him?

Ye Qingzi's thoughts were completely occupied by this matter and she was at a complete loss, she could only ask Ning Maner for help. Although Ning Maner might not understand such things well, Ye Qingzi just wanted a person who could at least hear her complaints.

Ning Maner was just about to speak when the door was suddenly pushed open softly.

Chu Mu entered the room and spoke to Ning Maner, “Maner, return to your room to sleep. I have some things to discuss with Qingzi.”

“Ok,” Ning Maner got up. Her room was just next door so it only took her a few steps.

When passing by Chu Mu, Ning Maner secretly whispered something to Chu Mu's ear.

Chu Mu nodded and closed the door behind him.

Ye Qingzi did not get up from the bed and just turned her back to Chu Mu. He could see she still had an icy attitude through this.

“I can’t concentrate and meditate,” Chu Mu walked to the bed and pulled a corner of the blanket as he said this.

“Face the wall and reflect, don’t get on the bed,” Ye Qingzi wrapped herself with the blanket grumpily, forbidding Chu Mu from touching her.

“Oh,” Chu Mu nodded and went to face the wall without getting on the bed.

Ye Qingzi took a peek at Chu Mu while she was wrapping herself in the blanket. When she saw that he was really facing the wall to reflect, she was left speechless.

Ye Qingzi had to admit that Chu Mu was really dumb when it came to such matters!

Ye Qingzi suppressed her emotions and calmly said, “Speak if you have something to say to me, or I will be going to sleep.”

“I don’t know what to say either,” said Chu Mu helplessly as he faced the wall.

Ye Qingzi pulled up the blanket, turned to the side and went to sleep. In reality, there was no way that she could fall asleep. There was a grudge in her heart that she hoped Chu Mu could help her relieve. However, Chu Mu's words and actions only worsened the grudge in her heart.

If you don't know what to say, then why did you come here?!

Ye Qingzi was already very troubled in her mind, yet Chu Mu was adding on to the problem.

A nice fragrance wafted in from the window and entered Ye Qingzi's nose.

She was already quite familiar with that fragrance. She took a glance outside the window and told Chu Mu, "Yu Suo is in the garden."

"I know, let her wait," said Chu Mu.

"Do you want to know what I'm thinking?" asked Ye Qingzi.

"Yes," Chu Mu nodded.

He really wanted to know what Ye Qingzi was thinking. He would have used mind reading countless times already if he had that skill.

Ye Qingzi was in turmoil, and the same went for Chu Mu. He was scared that Ye Qingzi might suddenly leave him. That feeling was worse than killing himself. Hence, he had been keeping checks on Ye Qingzi these past few days. Even if he had to be forceful, he would not allow Ye Qingzi to leave him.

“You can ask the woman who hates you the most outside how she thinks. I think the same,” said Ye Qingzi.

“.....” Chu Mu was at a loss on how to respond.

Seeing that Ye Qingzi was unwilling to talk to him, he had to wait until her anger had died down a little first.

In the garden, the lightly-dressed Yu Suo stood under the silver moonlight. She looked so pure as if she was the goddess of the moon, slender and elegant, absolutely beautiful.

Chu Mu had long become immune towards her unparalleled beauty. He walked towards her and recalled Ye Qingzi’s words.

No matter how slow Chu Mu was, he would not really ask how Yu Suo thought of him. She and Ye Qingzi were totally different types of people, at least Chu Mu never treated Yu Suo as a woman.

“Falling out?” Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu and actually revealed a small smile.

Despite having a celestial maiden-like face, her smile exuded a witch’s aura, especially that mocking attitude of hers.

Chu Mu coldly replied, “Not your concern.”

“Perhaps I can help you?” Yu Suo’s smile remained unfettered.

Chu Mu purposely took a glance at her hair. As expected, her hair was rogue-coloured.

This meant that the one standing before him was the Evil Good Queen, hence she dared to provoke him.

“How’s the development?” Chu Mu could not be bothered to fuss over the topic further.

“You have gained the participation right,” said the Evil Good Queen.

Chu Mu nodded.

Honestly speaking, Chu Mu was in a rather foul mood. Many people would usually choose to get drunk when they were in a foul mood. However, the battle maniac Chu Mu would only think about fighting. Only when he was fighting, he would not get distracted by anything. The highly intense feeling was also a form of enjoyment to him.

“Another matter,” continued the Evil Good Queen.

“Speak.”

“There is an isolated space in Zhengming City called the Imprint Valley.”

“Imprint Valley is like the holy ground for cultivation, the captivating sacred cultivation ground for all the young Soul Pet Trainers. Tang Zhuo fell for my trap because of this qualification. But in any case, this qualification is also very expensive. I paid quite the price to supplement the diagram of the Imprint Valley,” said the Evil Good Queen.

Chu Mu knew that Yu Suo should be the only one in the world who could deploy diagrams. So, being able to supplement diagrams should not be something strange.

“This sacred cultivation ground should be very suitable for your current cultivation. If you cultivate inside there for a year, your soul remembrance should leap into the Spirit Immortal rank.”

Chu Mu’s current soul remembrance was still at the ninth remembrance Spirit Dominator. If he could step into the Spirit Immortal rank, then the Black and White Dual Evil Half Devil that Chu Mu could transform into would be extremely powerful!

Furthermore, the species rank of Hades was originally at the perfect dominator rank, completely unleashing its power would allow it to be on par with Immortal rank. Mo Xie was restricted by Chu Mu’s soul remembrance rank and could not display the full power of Hades.

If he could advance to the Spirit Immortal rank, he would be able to witness the true power of Hades, one of the five great undying legends!

“This Imprint Valley is a good place,” said Chu Mu.

“Also, there is an ancient Phoenix Land in the Imprint Valley, it should be of great interest to you,” added Evil Good Queen.

Ancient Phoenix Land?

Chu Mu had been searching for ruins related to Phoenixes in order to help Dead Dream raise its strength.

Due to the special nature of Dead Dream’s property, Chu Mu was unable to strengthen it. The only way was through the special nirvana of the Phoenix race.

And if the Phoenix race wanted to conduct nirvana, they had to do it through the power left behind by other dead Phoenix race members.

Chapter 1362: Take Your Stand, Whoever Isn’t Convinced

Since there were so many benefits available there, Chu Mu had to go to the Imprint Valley!

Of course, since Yu Suo used this qualification as the bargaining chip to make him fight against Tang Zhuo, he would have to obtain victory no matter what.

“See, I’m being so nice to you, you should not torture me anymore,” Evil Good Queen gave a charming smile to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu looked away. He was very clear that the Evil Good Queen’s words could not be trusted!

Chu Mu would rather interact with Yu Suo in a business-like manner than to continue speaking with this seductive Evil Good Queen.

“Don’t think that I can’t tell what you are thinking about. What is it in the Imprint Valley that you are after?” asked Chu Mu bluntly.

Chu Mu believed that anything that the Evil Good Queen did was to achieve her own objective. She would never supplement the diagram of the Imprint Valley for no reason and fight for a qualification for him without any ulterior motives.

“Master knows me well,” Evil Good Queen giggled softly as she took a step closer to Chu Mu, putting her lips next to his ear.

Chu Mu took a step back to create some distance and broke the mood, “You can use your mental voice to tell me if you don’t want others to hear you.”

How could Chu Mu not understand Evil Good Queen’s intentions?

The garden could clearly be seen from the window in Ye Qingzi’s room. If Ye Qingzi saw the bewitching Evil Good Queen whispering something to him while sticking so close to him, she would definitely get mad.

Evil Good Queen and Yu Suo were a little different in personalities. Ye Qingzi was not concerned about the relationship between Yu Suo and Chu Mu, but that did not mean that she was fine with the relationship between Evil Good Queen and Chu Mu. Sometimes, she would treat Yu Suo and Evil Good Queen as two completely different individuals.

Evil Good Queen trying to seduce Chu Mu at this moment was purely causing trouble for Chu Mu. This woman craved disputes. If she could mess up Chu Mu's relationships, she might feel even better.

"Speak properly, or I will send you back into the Soul Pet Space," said Chu Mu.

"You're so boring," grumbled Evil Good Queen. Seeing Chu Mu suddenly chanting the Soul Pact Incantation, she was afraid and became serious, "There is a powerful creature in the Imprint Valley. However, its power has been suppressed for some reason. This creature's awareness is hazy, so its mind is in a weakened state. If you can lure it into the Soul Capture Flower Formation that I had secretly deployed in the Imprint Valley, it will fall under my control. If we can unleash its suppressed power somehow, then I will obtain a powerful Soul Pet."

Evil Good Queen's Soul Capture Flower Formation was similar to the human's Soul Pact. The creature would become her Soul Pet if it succeeded.

The success rate of the Soul Capture Flower Formation was higher, but it was based on seducing the mind. The seduced Soul Pet was prone to betrayal. Evil Good Queen had to specially look after it regularly to gain a better control.

"So?" asked Chu Mu.

"So, I hope that the Master can help me capture this Soul Pet. The Imprint Valley rejects our evil power. I cannot exert my full strength, you probably cannot transform into half devil, but don't you have many helpers with you?"

"Why do I feel as if you are the master?" s Chu Mu said coldly.

In this trip to Zhengming Main City, Yu Suo first asked him to obtain the Northern Territory, then she asked him to subdue a Soul Pet in the Imprint Valley. Was this woman not basically ordering him to do various things for her?

“All of these are my requests to Master, Master has the choice to do them or not. Meanwhile, I would never dare to disobey Master’s orders. Even if you were to ask me to offer you my precious body.....” Evil Good Queen peeked at Ye Qingzi’s room and immediately changed her words, purposely acting as if she had accidentally spilled a secret, “These requests are all advantageous to you too, Master. Northern Territory can help New Moon Land develop faster, let alone this Imprint Valley. Also, the Soul Pet that I subdued can be controlled by you as well. It also won’t take up your Soul Pact slot.”

Chu Mu’s expression turned dark immediately. Evil Good Queen was definitely doing this on purpose!

“Enough, I will keep an eye out. Do what you are supposed to do, and don’t come to bother me if you don’t have anything important,” Chu Mu waved his hand to send her back.

Evil Good Queen smiled as if she had just succeeded in a prank. Before she left, she spoke with a seductive tone, “If all women bar Master from the room, there is still one room that you can come and go to freely..... Even if you don’t wish to step in right now, it’s fine. We still have a long way to go.”

A trace of fragrance lingered for a long time. The whispered words echoed next to his ear for a while.....

This was the reason why Chu Mu was so reluctant to interact with Evil good Queen!

If Yu Suo talked back to him or behaved arrogantly, he could just throw her back into the Soul Pet Space without any hesitation. Even if he would not torture her with the Devil Fire like he did in the past, confining her would also make her suffer.

Meanwhile, faced with the Evil Good Queen's simple flirting and seduction, what could Chu Mu do against it?

.....

Within the room, Ye Qingzi quietly laid on top of the bed. The thin blanket traced out her alluring curves.

Ye Qingzi had heard every single word that the Evil Good Queen had said. Especially the last line had made her extremely uncomfortable.

However, Ye Qingzi did not get angry. Instead, Evil Good Queen's words caused her to enter into deep thought, serious deep thought.

Outside the room, Chu Mu took a glance at the window. He knew that Ye Qingzi had not fallen asleep.

Ye Qingzi understood Chu Mu well, it was the same vice versa. Ye Qingzi did not leave and continued to stay in the room. It meant that he had not lost her, now what he had to do was to think of a way to open that door.

.....

On the imposing Floating Mountain Battlefield, countless young participants were admiring the floating rocks that had a long history. Perhaps, for them, they would have no regrets after fighting a round in such a place.

This battlefield represented the status of the outstanding experts of the Zhengming Continent. Standing at this place symbolized strength. Every powerful individual had an objective to pursue power. It might be a mission to bring prosperity to their families, or an underestimated individual wanting to prove his worth, or the fervent expectations from acquaintances, or simply to gain a favorable impression from his crush.....

Once they stood on this battlefield, their objectives could be achieved!

However, only eight individuals were qualified to stand on it. And those eight individuals were all famed for their unparalleled strength. Those with different objectives in mind were mostly sitting on the spectator seats pitifully.

The qualification to enter the finals that so many young outstanding experts fought over was very precious. Because, to them, even if they were to lose, losing on the Floating Mountain Battlefield was also a glory in itself.

However, none of the young outstanding experts could have imagined a participant being carefreely added in the finals of such a glorious competition!

“First battle, Chu Mu vs Guo Shi!”

When the main referee announced the match, the entire venue raised a commotion!

Who is Chu Mu?

The eight participants had already been confirmed. Why would there suddenly be a new name out of nowhere?

“What’s this? Did the organizer mistake the name? Why is there suddenly a person called Chu Mu?” one Border Lord looked confused.

“Yeah, I remember that the final eight participants should be Tang Zhuo, Xin Xin, Han Erxing, Lu Fexue, Gao He, Guo Shi, Mu Yunqing and Shang Xian.”

“What’s up with the organizer? They even made a simple mistake like this?”

Various comments flew all around the venue. However, once they saw an unfamiliar man walking onto the stage with Guo Shi, they realized that it was not the organizer’s mistake, but that they had really added a participant!

The main referee used mental voice to tell everyone present, “I have an announcement. Participant Gao He forfeits the competition. In order to ensure that the eight participants can be matched evenly, Chu Mu from New Moon Land will be the replacement participant.”

The commotion became rowdier after the announcement.

Replacing a participant without a valid reason would definitely break the rules of the competition. Many people voiced their objections immediately!

There were countless young outstanding experts working hard to obtain this qualification. They could not obtain the glory themselves, so there was no way that they could watch some unknown guy suddenly showing up as a replacement!

“Elder Tang, this replacement isn’t suitable,” Mu Tuan from the Border Lord seats was the first to voice his dissatisfaction.

Zhengming Main City was actually divided into two zones. One belonged to the Divine Sect, Demon Beast Palace, Elemental Clan, Xuan Gate Divine Sect and others.

Meanwhile, the other zone was the Great Zhengming Border ruled by the Mu Family Dynasty. Amongst the Mu Family’s representatives this time, only Mu Yunqing’s performance was decent.

It was not a strange thing. Since the past, disciples from sects valued individual strength, while the Mu Family Dynasty was known for their military strength.

“This decision will not be rescinded. Old Sect Master, Gate Master Han has already agreed to this,” said Tang Ang.

Tang Ang actually belonged to the Mu Family Dynasty, but his surname was not Mu.

“You just allowed him to participate without informing anyone..... As you can see, many people are dissatisfied with this decision. How would the Outstanding Expert Competition hold its absolute authority in future like this?” asked Mu Tuan.

“Yes, Elder Tang is a little reckless in doing this,” some mid rank Border Lords also frowned.

Tang Ang expected such a development and bluntly replied, “Relax, I will convince them.”

Saying so, Tang Ang slowly stood up.

“Everyone, please quieten down.”

Tang Ang used his mental voice to suppress all the opposing voices in the venue. In an instant, only Tang Ang’s voice echoed within the entire battlefield.

“May I ask if everyone remembers who was the champion of the first Outstanding Expert Competition?” Tang Ang swept his gaze across the entire venue. Seeing that nobody was answering, his gaze turned sorrowful.

“The champion title of the first Outstanding Expert Competition belongs to a genius called Yue Lei from several centuries ago. At the same time, the Outstanding Expert Competition was organized in the turbulent era using his absolute fame. He was the first champion, as well as the founder of this Outstanding Expert Competition.”

Once that was spoken, the entire venue became even more silent.

“This Chu Mu from the New Moon Land standing before all of you, is the disciple of Senior Yue Lei. I know this is not sufficient to convince all of you to let him participate.....” reaching this point, Tang Ang paused for a moment, then focused on Chu Mu and raised the corner of his lips.

“Within the young generation, whoever is not convinced can take your stand and fight against him.”

“Oh, also there’s no need to do this one by one.”

Chapter 1363: I’m not used to Holding Back At The Last Moment

The meaning of Tang Ang’s words could not have been any more obvious!

It was fine for all of them to attack him together all at once!

Forget about accepting any challenges, he had even put forth such an arrogant request!

The entire venue was stirred up. Not only those younger generation experts who were in the spectating seats, even the Immortal Rank experts were also affected by his request. They had never seen such an arrogant man before in their lives!

On the top of the Floating Mountain Battlefield, Chu Mu had noticed everyone’s hostile glares and the curses being shouted rumbled like thunder!

“Isn’t he just a disciple of a Yue Lei? What’s there to be so arrogant about?”

“New Moon Land? It's just a tiny private territory.”

“This is a direct provocation to all of us. Even if we could not enter the finals, we aren't that far behind in strength from the top eight. He's really looking down on all of us!”

Various young outstanding experts who were staring at the Floating Mountain voiced out their dissatisfactions. They were raring to charge their way into the Floating Mountain to beat that arrogant guy into an utter pulp!

Chu Mu also knew that he had incurred the public's wrath. He was cursing Tang Ang in his heart for landing him in such a troublesome position!

“Tang Ang must be doing this on purpose!” Liu Binglan frowned.

“Obviously,” Yu Bo sighed, “What he did undoubtedly is him wanting to create trouble for Chu Mu, and also to damage the reputation of our New Moon Land in the process.”

“Big brother seems to be in trouble,” Ning Maner muttered worriedly to Ye Qingzi.

Ye Qingzi nodded. That Tang Ang must be doing this on purpose. Even the final eight participants would not dare to have the courage to challenge all the unconvinced youths all together.

Chu Mu's opponent, Guo Shi, took a step back from him and took on a spectating role.

On the participant seats, Tang Zhuo, Xin Xin and Han Erxing watched the events unfold with a completely mocking attitude. This situation was purposely arranged by both Tang Zhuo and Han Erxing together.

An unknown and insignificant brat dared to challenge them? Even if they were going to fight with him, they had to let him suffer a bit first. This was their territory, they would not tolerate having a clown being so arrogant in front of them!

“Perhaps we won't even have the need to make a move,” Tang Zhuo laughed.

“You made special arrangements?” asked Xin Xin.

Tang Zhuo shook his head and pointed to Han Erxing.

Han Erxing revealed an evil grin on his face and whispered a few sentences to Xin Xin.

After hearing what he said, Xin Xin raised his brows slightly and showed an interested smile. He then mumbled to himself, “Hehe, this arrangement should really be interesting.”

Lu Fexue was sitting next to the three of them. She keenly glanced at the three and was guessing whether they had a part to play in this again.

Tang Zhuo, Xin Xin and Han Erxing had always been close friends/acquaintances. Once someone whom those three could not stomach appeared in the Zhengming Main City, they would thoroughly torture the person.

Before the start of the Outstanding Expert Competition, there was a participant who had the potential to enter the finals. But because he offended them, that young individual did not even get to pass the selection match. His five souls were heavily damaged and it was not known if he was still alive or not.

Lu Fenxue felt utterly disgusted by watching the three of them abusing their authorities. However, there was nothing she could do to them. Even if there was concrete evidence, nobody in Zhengming Main City could hold them accountable. The strength and the background of those three was too solid.

Lu Fenxue shook her head in disappointment and took a glance at Chu Mu who fell completely into their trap. She sighed, “Showing off just after entering Zhengming Main City.....”

Chu Mu stood on the Floating Mountain. Countless angry stares were focused on him from the surroundings.

He could not avoid it. Tang Ang had clearly made things difficult. If Chu Mu backed off, it would be tantamount to surrendering.

“Then come,” said Chu Mu bluntly.

So what if I accept? Perfect timing, I was just in need of something to vent some frustration!

Chu Mu took his stance and stood calmly on the Floating Mountain Battlefield, not afraid of anything!

“Let me come then! Hmph, the type I hate the most are the disciples of some of the powerful individuals. Putting aside that identity, you yourself are worth nothing in my eyes!” a rough voice roared out.

A robust man jumped up from among the spectators onto the Floating Mountain Battlefield while standing atop a colorful Demonic Centipede.

With someone taking the lead, more youths had joined the fray. They were mostly participants who were frustrated after getting poor rankings in the competition!

Soon, more than over a dozen figures appeared on the Floating Mountain Battlefield. They were all members of the young generation!

There were many floating rocks on the Floating Mountain Battlefield. Chu Mu stood above a sharp and tall rock, standing all alone by himself.

Meanwhile, the other challengers had spread out on various other floating rocks. Some even rode on their wing type soul pets and looked down on the white-robed Chu Mu.

“You’re also going? Don’t you see that there are already 15 people on the battlefield?” an Elemental Clan member stopped his companion.

“Why should I not? He’s looking down on all of us too much!” complained the Elemental Clan member who had wanted to join the challenge.

The count was still rising rapidly. In a short duration, there were already over 30 challengers!

After the number of challengers had reached 30, the people joining the fray had finally slowed down. If the number increased any further, it would mean nothing even if those furious challengers won.

The breathtaking scene of 1 vs 30 had probably never appeared before in the Outstanding Expert Competition!

However, it was clear to see that the strength of the over 30 challengers were uneven. The crude man who stepped out first was the strongest amongst them. He should be someone who had advanced to the third rank elimination match. The colorful centipede he stood on was at peak Dominator rank.

“If we want to convince him of his defeat, we should summon only one soul pet to fight against him first,” commanded the crude man as if he was the leader of the challengers.

There were so many of them challenging. If they summoned out all their soul pets at one go, there would be over 150 soul pets in the battlefield. There would be no point in continuing such a battle.

“I’m fine either way,” Chu Mu showed a sadistic grin on his face and focused his attention on the leading man.

“Arrogant!” the leading man was furious. Even the final eight participants might not dare to be so arrogant in front of him!

“So what if you’re strong? It’s all because of your backing. Let this great me tell you something, strength is not determined by rank alone!” argued a young man standing behind the leading man.

“Yeah, this kind of person only relies on the endless supply of xuan items. Let us teach him what a true battle is!”

After Tang Ang had announced that Chu Mu was Yue Lei’s disciple, those outstanding experts who reached their levels without any no backing or support were triggered!

They were angry and frustrated at the unfairness of the world. To them, they believed that they could be even stronger than Tang Zhuo and the others if they had such formidable backgrounds!

Each line that Chu Mu said would end up being swallowed by the rage of those young soul pet trainers. Perhaps they were not only just unconvinced of Chu Mu’s sudden participation in the finals, but a large portion of their dissatisfaction was probably their rage towards people with good backgrounds like Chu Mu!

Regardless of their intent, Chu Mu did not care either way.

He just wanted to fight till he was satisfied, the more people he could fight the better!

“Chu Mu, are you ready?” Tang Ang looked down from high above with a look of interest.

That cunning old fox had cleverly guided the fury of the entire venue onto Chu Mu, while he remained completely calm as if it was unrelated to him.

“I have something to say,” Chu Mu looked at Tang Ang.

“You must be scared. Get lost if you’re afraid,” scolded the leading man immediately.

“Get lost! Don’t tarnish the rules of our Outstanding Expert Competition!” shouted someone.

Chu Mu ignored the curses hurled at him, and coldly spoke to all the challengers, “I don’t know how to hold back at the last moment during battles. You can use your killer moves on me. Likewise, I also won’t hold back against anyone who challenges me!”

Chu Mu did not want to dissuade those who valued their lives, but he just wanted to tell them that he was a merciless man!

“These youths had a hard time cultivating up to their current level. Please hold back if possible, King Chu.....” Old Sect Master Xiao had finally opened his mouth at this moment.

Old Sect Master Xiao could actually sense the evil aura emitted by Chu Mu. Such a youth must be stained in the blood of countless people. He had especially emphasized that he would not be holding back.

Old Sect Master Xiao did not wish to see too many people dying due to Tang Ang’s provocation. His intention was simply to ask Chu Mu to hold back if it was within his means.

“Of course, every person has to be held responsible for their own actions. You can be haughty and you can be reckless. However, reckless actions have a price to pay. I want to ask all of you who have stepped up to the challenge, are you prepared to pay this price?” questioned Old Sect Master Xiao calmly.

The Old Sect Master had spoken at that moment to warn those youths who were incited by Tang Ang's provocation, due to this they might not only be manipulated by others due to a moment's impulsiveness, but they might even get their soul pets killed.

Chu Mu took a glance at the Old Sect Master of the Divine Sect. He knew that the Old Sect Master had intended to cover for him and sober up those incited people.

There were indeed many people who had stepped up due to a moment's impulsiveness. However, they were similarly in a tight spot. They could not just step down at this point.

"Alright, you may begin," The Old Sect Master waved his hand, signalling the main referee to announce the start of the battle.

.....

"Chu Mu must have gone crazy. Forget about the challenge, he's even going to start a massacre?" said Ye Wansheng.

"He's really crazy. This may result in our New Moon Land antagonizing all of them," said Shen Mo.

"That may not be the case at all. It may even end up promoting our reputation. Currently, our New Moon Land actually doesn't have to be afraid of offending others. We have a small territory anyway, whoever comes doesn't need to go back!" said Prince Chao.

Ye Qingzi watched Chu Mu facing the crowd of challengers and felt perplexed.

Chu Mu's behavior was abnormal, very abnormal.

He who usually kept a low profile was really showing off too much this time!

Ye Qingzi did not know why he suddenly let loose his anger. Was her recent attitude towards him really affecting his emotions that much?

Chapter 1364: Your Souls Will Be Taken As Well

The huge poisonous centipede with colorful shells started coiling its body around the Floating Mountain. Half of its body started levitating in the air and it extended towards Chu Mu.

The leading man stood atop the centipede's head as it approached Chu Mu and he stared at Chu Mu with a sneer.

The Old Sect Master's words clearly did not have much effect on Mu Ken, because he had received the approval of both Tang Zhuo and Han Erxing to stand here!

After hearing the main referee's cue to start, Mu Ken was the first to attack.

The huge poisonous centipede stretched out its body as it zoomed past the sky as if it was crawling on ground, exposing its poisonous fangs!

A mouthful of the huge centipede was sufficient enough to crush the entire Floating Mountain. Chu Mu who stood above a sharp floating stone was not even as significant as one fang of the huge centipede in comparison.

Chu Mu chanted an incantation. A black pattern appeared in front of him. A beast clad in black armor stood tall from within the pattern!

“Grrrr!”

Zhan Ye leapt out from the pattern and charged directly towards the huge centipede!

Zhan Ye’s size was actually not really that large. It was incomparable to the huge centipede. However, after reaching their ranks, body size did not represent strength at all!

Ancient beast soul!

The moment Zhan Ye pounced out, a grey phantom suddenly emerged behind his back!

The grey phantom was similarly huge, not inferior in size to the huge centipede at all!

Sky Quelling Scratch!

At the same time Zhan Ye displayed its power, the phantom behind it also moved in sync with its actions. The mighty beast type power transformed into an astonishing tsunami, raging towards the huge centipede!

The huge centipede's attack was completely stopped in its track and even the shells on its body were shattered by the phantom's strike!

Boom~!

Soon after, Zhan Ye's follow up attack was launched and a strong tremor spread out!

Everyone clearly observed the huge centipede's body twisting in weird directions and spasming profusely after the tremor, as if it was thoroughly shattered from the head to the tail!

“Huo!”

The huge centipede cried out in despair, and its body crashed down heavily onto the Floating Mountain, causing countless cracks to form on the mountain body.

That single strike instantly determined the outcome of the match-up.

Especially that shocking phantom, the moment that it had unleashed its power, the huge centipede was merely a wriggling worm under that beast claw!

“Chu Mu's Zhan Ye has also reached the peak Dominator rank!” exclaimed Pang Yue in surprise.

“Chu Mu summoned that first. Looks like he wants Zhan Ye to unleash all of its power in this battle. Speaking of which, can anyone make a guess how strong Zhan Ye will become by the end of this battle?” asked Chao Lengchuan.

Chao Lengchuan's question was exactly the expectations of everyone of those who understood Chu Mu well!

Everyone in New Moon Land knew about Chu Mu's battle beast Mo Ye. It could be imagined that when it had advanced into the peak Dominator rank, no other creatures in the Dominator rank could oppose it!

"Yes, mastering the ancient beast soul has allowed Zhan Ye's beast type power to become even stronger than before. Those challengers are in deep trouble," said Shen Mo.

A temporary silence ensued on the entire battlefield. Clearly, the challengers had never imagined that the leading Mu Ken would be so easily defeated like that. It was obvious to everyone that the huge centipede was gravely injured.

Mu Ken's face turned dark immediately. He had expected Chu Mu to be powerful, but what enraged him was that while they were both at peak Dominator rank, Mo Ye actually possessed the power of an ancient beast soul. Beast type soul pets possessing such power could look down on all similarly ranked creatures!

Zhan Ye would not stop attacking after a blunder made by Mu Ken. Although Mu Ken looked dissatisfied, when he saw dozens of figures surrounding Chu Mu's Zhan Ye to attack it, the corner of his lips curved up. At least he had succeeded in igniting everyone's fighting spirit!

If Zhan Ye was allowed to follow up with another attack, that huge centipede would definitely never be able to get up again.

Unfortunately for it, there were too many enemies showing up around it and surrounding it.

Rampaging hurricanes, burning seas of fire, stunning lightnings..... those techniques densely filled the space around Zhan Ye. Meanwhile, within the murkiness of the crimson and pale white techniques, several figures of Dominators rapidly dashed around, seeking out the best timing to launch an attack.

Raging flames of fighting spirit burned in Zhan Ye's pupils. The greater the number of foes, the brighter its pupils burned!

To Zhan Ye, what else could it desire more than powerful enemies to fight?

“Grrrrr!”

Zhan Ye did not intend to take any defensive measures. While the several Dominator creatures were hesitating to attack, it had already jumped into the enemy's formation voluntarily!

A white flash, it was the Death God's Dawn Blade!

In the next moment, two stunning trails of blood had sprayed out in the air, spilling blood onto the stone wall of the Floating Mountain, dying the wall red!

Zhan Ye had instantly killed two middle class Dominators after jumping into the formation. The soul pets at such ranks were certainly unparalleled in their own realm, but they were nothing in the main city of the human world, especially on a battlefield where the elites gathered!

High class Dominators could barely dodged Zhan Ye's technique. The unlucky middle class Dominators were instantly killed. Zhan Ye kept stirring up the tides in the battlefield like an extremely thirsty serpent diving into a calm sea. It completely messed up the attacks of those soul pets that were surrounding it!

"That guy is really a daredevil!" Xin Xin watching the battlefield was in complete shock.

1 vs 30, the scale of the battle was way too tilted towards one side. Originally, everyone had assumed that Chu Mu's soul pet would be in a passive defensive state. Who would have thought that the black soul pet would instead jump right into the enemy formation? Whichever soul pet that it targeted would die, it totally ignored the attacks from the other soul pets!

This daring move by it created an extremely bloody atmosphere. Many young challengers stood there with stiff expressions. They could not snap out of the facts that their soul pets had died for a long time.

"Hmph, that soul pet of his will die!" said Han Erxing coldly.

Since Chu Mu had started the massacre, the other challengers would also not hold back against his soul pet. That Zhan Ye Mo Ye just jumped into the enemy formation like that and killed a portion of them with extreme killing intent, but it would have to die eventually.

"Zhan Ye, Broken Limb Rebirth!"

Chu Mu ordered.

Since Zhan Ye had dared to jump into the enemy formation, it definitely had enough confidence in its own strength!

It trampled as it heavily stomped on a Floating Mountain. Dark energy abruptly appeared in the space along with countless spatial cracks!

This trample had also knocked away the 10 soul pets that were around Zhan Ye!

Using this chance, Zhen Ye's wounds had begun spurting out insect fluids, rapidly repairing its body!

The broken bones, rotten flesh, tattered armor..... In a mere few seconds, Zhan Ye had immediately recovered from its injuries. The black angular armors reflected the cold glints!

Brave Stinging Heart, Ancient Power Awakening!

Two racial techniques were activated at the same time. Zhan Ye's strength was raised by almost one rank. Its muscles were clearly bulging!

“Grrrrrrr!”

Zhan Ye's roar spread throughout the Floating Mountain Battlefield. After completing the Broken Limb Rebirth and raising its strength, Zhan Ye immediately pounced into the enemy formation once again!

This time, Zhan Ye's targets were those elemental Dominators!

Three fire type high class Dominators, two wind type high class Dominators and seven middle class Dominators. The greatest threat out of them were those three fire type high class Dominators!

Zhan Ye's fierce momentum was unstoppable. On the other hand, the temporarily teamed up challengers had no team work to speak of. When Zhan Ye started charging towards those elemental Dominators, it only looked to others like a ferocious tiger charging into a herd of sheeps!

"Quick! Recall the soul pets!" those three Elemental Clan disciples immediately turned pale after seeing such a scene of it charging towards their soul pets!

They chanted the incantation as fast as possible as they did not want their soul pets to perish here.

However, when they realized that their chanting speed could not compete against Zhan Ye's attacking speed, their faces turned ashen!

"Zhan Ye, change targets," said Chu Mu expressionlessly as he took a glance at the three Elemental Clan members who were scared to death.

Zhan Ye's phantom pressed down onto the three fire type high class Dominators like a tsunami. This oppressive aura alone was sufficient to kill all three fire type high class Dominators in one fell swoop!

However, Zhan Ye did not do it, and turned its attention towards its back!

“Grr!”

Black warhammers suddenly slammed down onto two Light’s Fury!

The two Light’s Fury did not imagine that Zhan Ye would suddenly change targets. That strike had shattered the two Light’s Fury into pieces!

The two Divine Sect members who were controlling the Light’s Fury were greatly shocked too. Their eyes were spilling flames of rage!

Chu Mu sneered. Do you really think that I don’t know that you two are the dogs of Han Erxing and Tang Zhuo?

“There will be no second chance if you three try to hinder me again!” Chu Mu gave the three Elemental Clan members a cold stare.

The three of them were not dumb. They immediately realized what he meant and hurriedly recalled their soul pets. They left the battlefield after expressing a word of gratitude.

Amongst the over 30 challengers, at least 10 had received instructions from Tang Zhuo and Han Erxing. Unfortunately, Chu Mu clearly knew who the 10 were.

Chu Mu knew that there were way more than 10 people who were ordered by them. There would be even more people looking for trouble the next time. Since Tang Ang and Tang Zhuo had cooperated with Han Erxing to harm him, he could only set an example for them!

Chu Mu began chanting an incantation slowly again. The space in front of him began to have ripples like lake water.

Little Hidden Dragon creepily drifted out from the ripple in space. The pale blue dragon body now stood atop the Floating Mountain!

“Next, your souls will also be taken as well!” declared Chu Mu coldly.

Chu Mu’s mood was really bad this time. The result was his demonic side dominating in this battle!

A battle against Tang Zhuo was not enough to completely unleash the viciousness within Chu Mu’s heart!

However, since there were so many dogs that were under Tang Zhuo and Han Erxing looking for trouble right now, Chu Mu could only welcome them with a cruel smile!

Chapter 1365: Paragon Dominator, Heaven Eye Toxin Beast

After the Little Hidden Dragon had shown up on the battlefield, the number of soul pets within the entire Floating Mountain Battlefield had instantly increased.

Those challengers had only summoned one of their soul pets before now. But at this moment they felt that they could not oppose Chu Mu's offensive with just one soul pet.

Soon after, another 20 soul pets had appeared on the battlefield. A Fighting Heaven Horned Beast with a robust size that matched a Floating Mountain, A fairy that controlled lightning, a winged Bird with wings that covered the sky like clouds, and demonic beasts that were dashing with incredible speed between the Floating Mountains.....

Most of the time, the spectators could not even get a glimpse of Chu Mu and his soul pets.

However, the spectators did witness several soul pets falling down one after another. Only Chu Mu's soul pet still remained peerless on the battlefield!

“Ughwuuu!”

Little Hidden Dragon summoned the underworld river. In an instant, the sounds of ghosts howling and sharp shrieks had filled up the entire battlefield!

The underworld river had crossed over the sky. Countless ghostly hands started extending out of the pale blue river water. The ghostly hands then started greedily grabbing onto those living creatures who were filled with power!

They crazily fought over who would get those living creatures, forcefully pulling and tearing the souls out of their bodies directly into the underworld river!

Little Hidden Dragon used only one technique to harvest so many souls. The usual battles it fought always had only a low number of enemies, unlike this rare occasion where a large group of Dominator rank soul pets were present. This kind of battle could provide the greatest sum of energy to the Little Hidden Dragon. If this kind of battle happens a few more times, then the Little Hidden Dragon could easily advance into the Immortal rank!

Little Hidden Dragon's fighting method was also slightly different from the others. It would dash across the battlefield eerily with just its soul body, and the enemies could not truly focus on it to launch an attack.

Demon types like it had incredible dodging ability and moved in unexpected ways. However, they had weak defense and weak life force. They could easily be killed at once if they were to be caught.

Little Hidden Dragon was an exception to this though. It had a thick layer of green dragon scales which made any creature below the Dominator rank unable to inflict any harm upon it. Even if they scratched the Little Hidden Dragons' scales, it would recover after the Little Hidden Dragon coursed the spiritual power within its body through that area.

Little Hidden Dragon was even more powerful in regards to its regeneration ability than Zhan Ye.

"Summon your soul pets again!" Mu Ken was furious. He summoned his third soul pet.

Mu Ken had summoned two peak Dominator rank soul pets already, but he was unable to summon another peak Dominator rank on his third summon. It was just a high class Dominator rank Blood Beast.

The Blood Beast immediately pounced towards Zhan Ye right after it got summoned.

Zhan Ye had already accumulated a number of wounds all over its body while it was facing a large number of enemies.

Mu Ken saw that and was trying to deal a fatal blow to it while it was still injured!

However, Mu Ken could never have imagined that Zhan Ye would complete its second Broken Limb Rebirth the moment the Blood Beast had arrived right in front of it!

Ancient Power Awakening had once again raised Zhan Ye's strength further. Ancient Beast Soul had also appeared behind Zhan Ye once again and the beast soul's power gathered at Zhan Ye's Ink Armor Spikes!

Zhan Ye's movements were much faster than the Blood Beast. When the Blood Beast approached it, Zhan Ye's Ink Armor Spikes transformed into the devil's fangs and pierced right through the Blood Beast's body!

Blood Beast directly spasmed on the Ink Armor Spikes without getting a chance to use any of its technique. Blood started pouring out from its wounds and dyed Zhan Ye's black armor red!

Seeing such a scene unfold before him, Mu Ken was utterly dumbfounded for a moment, then his eyes instantly became bloodshot!

Even though the enemy was gravely wounded just a moment ago, why did it suddenly get a full recovery once again? It even easily killed his high class Dominator rank Blood Beast!

Mu Ken's face turned pale. As he was looking at his Blood Beast again, the hole-ridden Blood Beast was flung to a floating rock like trash!

After going through two Broken Limb Rebirths, Zhen Ye who possessed the Ancient Beast Soul had become two levels higher than the peak Dominator rank. This strength was not something that the high class or the middle class Dominator rank soul pets could oppose at all. Over half of the twenty or so soul pets were instantly exterminated and the remaining ones did not pose a threat to Zhan Ye!

“This Zhan Ye Mo Ye is a little bit strange. Let Han Qi and He Zhen go. If he continues massacring soul pets like that, then the others probably won’t dare to go anymore,” said Tang Zhuo.

Reaching the middle class or high class Dominator rank could certainly be enough for some people to be considered an elite in other places. However, when the scale became the entire Zhengming Continent, and especially in front of people at Tang Zhuo’s level, these people were nothing but sacrificial pawns.

Han Erxing nodded and instructed the servant standing at his side.

The servant immediately passed on the orders to the people on the spectator seats on other Floating Mountains.

Tang Ang’s words meant that whoever could defeat Chu Mu, the participation right would then belong to that person.

In this Outstanding Expert Competition, many powerful participants were eliminated unfortunately because they had encountered other powerful participants consecutively without break. To them, those who had entered the finals might not necessarily be stronger than them, just that the final eight had better luck than them.

Han Qi and He Zhen were such type of participants. They did not get to enter the finals because they had encountered overwhelmingly powerful opponents in their second elimination match!

The two were originally very proud soul pet trainers. Tang Zhuo and Han Erxing had secretly informed the two of them the day before that if they could defeat Chu Mu, then they could replace Chu Mu as the eighth finalist.

The Outstanding Expert Competition was held only once every five years. They did not have that much time to wait for the next one to take place. This was their last chance to obtain glory. The two easily agreed to it after getting incited by Tang Zhuo and Han Erxing.

Soul pets were constantly dying in the battle. However, the dead ones were mostly high class and middle class Dominators. Han Qi and He Zhen simply sneered after joining the fray.

“It’s Han Qi and He Zhen!” Mu Qingyi slightly frowned from the spectator seat.

“Are those two strong?” asked Prince Chao.

“I lost to Han Zhen in the second round, and Han Qi is even stronger than him. They are participants who are strong enough to enter the finals,” explained Mu Qingyi.

“It’s fine. Chu Mu also has a trump card of his own,” said Ye Wansheng.

After Han Qi and He Zhen entered the battlefield, they immediately summoned out their own soul pets.

The soul pet Han Qi had summoned was a Paragon Dominator rank Heaven Eye Toxin Beast. When it ran out, the surrounding Dominator rank soul pets immediately gave way to it. Compared to the Toxin Beast, even the peak Dominator rank soul pets could only be considered as side characters.

Heaven Eye Toxin Beast's target was Zhan Ye. Its Toxic Mist Charge had blasted Zhan Ye directly to the edge of the Floating Mountain Battlefield, putting an end to Zhan Ye's one-sided massacre of those weak soul pets.

"Relax, my Heaven Eye Toxin Beast will avenge all of your dead soul pets for you. All of you will also get a share of the shredded corpse," said Han Qi towards the other challengers with a smile.

"It's Han Qi."

"Han Qi, torture that bastard thoroughly! That bastard is too despicable!" cursed Mu Ken furiously.

"That bastard is getting up again!" shouted an Elemental Clan disciple all of a sudden.

Han Qi took a glance in the direction of the broken Floating Mountain where Zhan Ye was and noticed that the black figure was standing up again. The armor on its body only suffered a minor scratch from his attack.

Han Qi frowned and whispered to Mu Ken, "I remember that soul pet wasn't that strong at the start."

Mu Ken immediately nodded and said, "It has been strengthening itself continuously, it is about two levels stronger than it was at the start. However, Mr. Han's Heaven Eye Toxin Beast can definitely kill it with ease. It's no match against your soul pet."

Han Qi naturally knew that Zhan Ye Mo Ye was no match for his Toxin Beast. What he was worried about was whether Chu Mu possessed even stronger soul pets or not.

Han Qi did not dwell on this thought any longer and ordered his Toxin Beast to pounce onto Zhan Ye again.

With a Paragon Dominator rank taking the lead, the others also felt more secure than before. Hence, over a dozen soul pets followed right behind the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast!

Zhan Ye maintained its fearless attitude. Facing off against the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast which was one level higher than itself, it charged right ahead and chose to engage in direct melee!

“Getting into a melee fight against my Heaven Eye Toxin Beast, that’s plain suicidal!” mocked Han Qi.

Heaven Eye Toxin Beast’s body was full of toxin. It was not afraid of engaging in a melee.

The two battle beasts started wrestling against each other. Zhan Ye was already inferior in strength, but in addition to that over a dozen soul pets also attacked it from the surroundings, and its six times life force was quickly drained away.

“It is already gravely injured,” said Mu Ken.

What Mu Ken worried about the most right now was that bastard using the Broken Limb Rebirth again!

However, Han Qi did not pay too attention to that, instead his attention was completely focused on Chu Mu.

He believed that since Chu Mu had dared to challenge Tang Ang's disciple, Chu Mu must definitely not be so weak. The two soul pets he summoned already were definitely not his full strength.

Han Qi was waiting for Chu Mu to summon a soul pet again.

"He's actually not summoning another. Is he thinking of using just these two soul pets to defeat all of us? How laughable....." Han Qi slightly frowned.

"There will always be some people who are too arrogant. Let's kill this soul pet first," said He Zhen.

He Zhen's soul pet had already started fighting against the Little Hidden Dragon, but the Little Hidden Dragon was more agile than expected, and it had great defensive power too, so nothing could be done to it for a while.

"This bastard, it re..... recovered again!" scolded Mu Ken suddenly.

Han Qi snapped out of his thoughts and he realized that the tattered Mo Ye had fully recovered!

Ancient Power Awakening!

After the third Broken Limb Rebirth, Zhan Ye's strength had finally advanced into the Paragon Dominator rank.

Its two black eyes coldly stared at the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast. To Zhan Ye, the previous battles were not much of a challenge. After Heaven Eye Toxin Beast appeared, the battle had finally gotten more fun!

Zhan Ye still took the initiative to strike first, it had no concept of retreat in its mind!

Chu Mu took a glance at Han Qi and He Zhen, it seemed that the truly powerful people had finally decided to step up.

“Ughuuu~!”

The tiny Mo Xie sat on Chu Mu's shoulder, its silver eyes burning with purple flames kept sparkling.

It was already raring to go to battle. It had been a long time since it had encountered such a large scale battle!

Chu Mu flicked its forehead with his finger and spoke, “Don't be in a rush. There will be even more stronger enemies.”

Mo Xie nodded obediently. It shook its tail and cheered Zhan Ye and Little Hidden Dragon on with its harmless shout.

Chapter 1366: Zhan Ye's Stage (1)

After the third Broken Limb Rebirth, Zhan Ye's strength was raised up by another level and it advanced into the Paragon Dominator rank!

In a direct frontal confrontation, Heaven Eye Toxin Beast no longer held the advantage. Meanwhile, Zhan Ye ignored any attacks coming from the other soul pets by relying solely on its tenacious life force!

Zhan Ye was not hoping that it could kill Heaven Eye Toxin Beast in such a situation. However, if Zhan Ye were to turn to defense, it would definitely be exhausted by being constantly surrounded in such a situation. Hence, it went into full offensive right from the start, all to deal more damage to the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast!

With its exuberant life force supporting it, it reaped even more profit by going on full offensive!

Chu Mu was not worried about Zhan Ye, his attention was instead focused on the Little Hidden Dragon.

Little Hidden Dragon had also encountered a powerful opponent for itself, it was He Zhen's Snow Feather Devil!

Snow Feather Devil's race was also similarly at the Paragon Emperor rank, and a little higher than the Little Hidden Dragon.

The Little Hidden Dragon did not possess an exuberant life force like Zhan Ye did. Facing a stronger opponent, Little Hidden Dragon would definitely not choose a frontal confrontation.

The ghost property of the Little Hidden Dragon affected its strategy. It had been dodging the Snow Feather Devil's pursuit and was focusing its attacks on those weaker soul pets.

Its objective was clearly to increase its own power!

Little Hidden Dragon was currently at the high class Dominator rank. By relying on its three main properties, it had managed to confront the peak and the Paragon Dominator rank soul pets. The souls that it had devoured had already reached ninety percent, just another ten percent and the Little Hidden Dragon's subordinate soul —— Spectral Dragon could advance to the peak Dominator rank.

This rank was extremely important for the Little Hidden Dragon. Otherwise, it would be almost impossible for it to fight against the Snow Feather Devil.

Chu Mu had already shared his Other Pupils effect with the Little Hidden Dragon and was constantly paying attention to it while also instructing it on what to do.

Finally, another high class Dominator rank soul pet showed an opening and Little Hidden Dragon grasped the chance!

The Little Hidden Dragon devoured the soul of that high class Dominator rank water type Fairy. The soul had immediately flowed into the underworld river and had become a part of the Little Hidden Dragon's strength.

"Three more," Chu Mu scanned his surroundings to find more prey.

Little Hidden Dragon was facing a similar number of enemies. Those middle class Dominator rank soul pets had learned their lesson and were staying far away while they casted their techniques. They did not give the Little Hidden Dragon any chance to devour their souls.

Meanwhile, the high class Dominator rank soul pets were packed together. Little Hidden Dragon would have had to pay a big price to kill them.

In accordance with the usual tactic, Little Hidden Dragon continued to dash around the Hovering Mountains, while looking for a chance to attack.

Ghost type creatures had always been the most troublesome types to deal with. Originally, most ghost type creatures did not possess any powerful attacks, but this Spectral Hidden Dragon possessed really powerful explosive strength. If the normal peak Dominator rank soul pets were not at guard, they could easily be killed by it!

Chu Mu had also realized that just like what Old Li had told him, the advantage of having multiple properties would become even greater at a higher rank!

“Damn, let’s see how you escape from me this time!” He Zhen had finally lost his patience. He began chanting an incantation to summon an Aerial Listening Demon!

The Aerial Listening Demons were famous as seeker soul pets. Any sort of movement would not be able to escape their hearing. Furthermore, they had a powerful mental restriction ability. They were definitely the bane of all ghost type creatures!

Aerial Listening Demon was causing great trouble to the Little Hidden Dragon the moment it appeared on the battlefield. The Little Hidden Dragon had suffered minor injuries under the joint attack of the Snow Feather Devil and other soul pets after getting mentally restricted by it.

The Aerial Listening Demon had not reached Paragon Dominator rank, but it was not far from it. Its mental techniques were a fatal threat to the Little Hidden Dragon. Let alone devouring souls, the Little Hidden Dragon was already having a hard time escaping from the pursuit of the other soul pets.

“Dead Dream!” Chu Mu chanted an incantation to summon Dead Dream so that it could join the battle!

A purplish black lightning totem suddenly appeared. Dead Dream with its sixteen wings was charged with powerful lightning. The entire Hovering Mountain Battlefield was instantly shrouded by several thunder clouds!

The terrifying pressure released from the thunder clouds had almost crushed the entire Hovering Mountain!

A bewitching black Phoenix body, elegant sixteen feathered wings, black night and a roaring thunder crossed. The soaring Fairy Butterfly was the agent of death, it was elegant, chilling, and dangerous!

After receiving the affection of Ning Maner, Dead Dream’s strength had grown explosively in a short span of time. Other than the fact that it had less battle experience, its strength was not any inferior to when it was the yellow spring.

When Night was still the yellow spring, it was truly the strongest Dominator. Those normal peak Dominators were no match against it. It still stood a chance against opponents that were close to the Immortal rank!

Dead Lightning, not only did it contain the rampaging destructive property of the lightning type, but it also possessed the coldness and the creepiness of darkness!

Every technique used by Dead Dream caused the other challengers to panic. What the spectators saw was at most those challengers running away like scattered sand.

With Dead Dream's support, the Little Hidden Dragon's situation was instantly reversed. It had also cleverly devoured a peak Dominator rank soul pet's soul within the commotion!

After devouring that soul, the Little Hidden Dragon started glowing and the ghost dragon's soul immediately evolved!

“Ughuuu!”

Little Hidden Dragon had instantly become stronger than before, even its wounds had rapidly started healing. It roared in excitement and stared at the Snow Feather Devil with a sneer!

The Aerial Listening Demon was being chased around by Dead Dream. So, Snow Feather Devil was the only enemy that Little Hidden Dragon had to crush. It had been chased around by the Snow Feather Devil just a moment ago, so it was feeling quite frustrated. Now, it was time to start a merciless counterattack!

“You actually dare to come back, die!” sneered He Zhen after he saw the Little Hidden Dragon flying towards him.

However, in the next moment, He Zhen's sneer was frozen in place. His Snow Feather Devil was actually knocked away by the Little Hidden Dragon's dragon horn in a frontal clash!

He Zhen watched his injured Snow Feather Devil and his mind was filled with confusion.

That Spectral Hidden Dragon is clearly weaker than my Snow Feather Devil, so how can it injure my Snow Feather Devil?

“What’s wrong?” asked Han Qi.

“I also don’t know,” He Zhen was becoming anxious. He took a glance at Han Qi’s Heaven Eye Toxin Beast and spoke, “You still haven’t finished it off.”

Han Qi’s mouth twitched slightly. That bastard possessed the Broken Limb Rebirth, it would immediately recover after getting heavily injured.

Han Qi had already summoned his second soul pet. His Heaven Eye Toxin Beast was slowly getting pushed back by Zhan Ye. He had no choice but to summon another soul pet to support it.

If Han Qi had summoned his second soul pet earlier, then Zhan Ye would have been greatly suppressed and would have been unable to slowly gain strength through the Brave Stinging Heart. Unfortunately, Han Qi had missed the best timing to suppress it. After going through three rebirths, it was time for Zhan Ye to display its full strength. And its strength had grown much stronger after three rebirths!

Once Zhan Ye had used the Broken Limb Rebirth for the fourth time, Han Qi had finally realized that something was amiss!

Ancient Power Awakening appeared again. Along with the Brave Stinging Heart, Zhan Ye's strength leaped one step higher, a level stronger than the Paragon Dominator rank!

One level higher meant that it could hold its ground in the 1 vs 2. At the same time, the power of the ancient tattoos on Zhan Ye's body were also getting stronger along with Zhan Ye!

Once the power of the ancient tattoos and the Ancient Beast Soul had gathered on Zhan Ye's claws, the explosive strength was enough to deter even the Paragon Dominator rank!

Swoosh!

The sharp black claws drew a long arc. As it cut apart a Hovering Mountain, it had also severed the huge centipede!

The huge centipede was an insect type creature and it possessed incredible recovery ability. The damage that Zhan Ye dealt to it initially did not really affect its fighting strength later on.

Zhan Ye had been trying to find a chance to finish it off. If one could not kill an insect type creature quickly, then it would just come back in full strength soon again.

After going through the fourth Broken Limb Rebirth, the huge centipede could no longer escape since Zhan Ye could easily kill the huge centipede if it wanted to. It didn't matter even if Han Qi's two Paragon Emperors interfered!

The huge centipede was bisected into two along with the Hovering Mountain. Green body fluids sprayed into the sky. A thick stench lingered in the air.

The huge corpse fell down and that moment shocked the entire venue!

From just being slightly stronger than the huge centipede to instantly killing it, this rise in power could not be any more obvious.

Also, the aura that it was exuding also indicated that the two Paragon Dominator ranks that Han Qi had summoned might not be able to easily defeat it!

“Are there any more soul pets? Just summon them together already,” Chu Mu looked at Han Qi from far away, his gaze filled with mockery.

Fighting two Paragon Dominator ranks simultaneously was still not enough to satisfy Zhan Ye’s desire for battle. As for the other challengers, Zhan Ye fundamentally chose to ignore them all. It already had enough strength to kill a normal peak Dominator rank instantly, was there any meaning to the presence of those high class or middle class Dominator rank soul pets here? Even if a dozen of them unleashed their techniques simultaneously, it meant next to nothing before Zhan Ye’s life force. If they had the guts to do that, Zhan Ye would not mind wasting some time to reap all of their lives!

Unfortunately, those challengers were all stunned by the large number of Paragon Dominator rank soul pets appearing. Their weak soul pets could do nothing to affect the current battle. It was not worth it to waste the lives of their soul pets for it!

“If your Zhan Ye Mo Ye only amounts to this, then it won’t be far from death!” cursed Han Qi angrily.

Han Qi was born in a small household. He was able to enter a big household due to his talents. The thing that he hated the most was the disdain and mockery from others!

Seeing Han Qi begin chanting, Chu Mu revealed a big smile instead.

Not far from death?

Zhan Ye has always been tip toeing on the edge of death. However, each time the death god has hovered above its dying body, it would leave frustratingly in the end after waiting for a long time.

There are two more Broken Limb Rebirths, even I myself cannot estimate how much stronger Zhan Ye will become after using them!

Whenever your own strength could not be estimated, it was natural to measure it through the enemy. Honestly speaking, Chu Mu was really afraid that Han Qi would only amount to that much. However, seeing that Han Qi still had more soul pets to summon, and seemingly very strong ones at that, Chu Mu was immediately relieved.

Looks like today will be Zhan Ye's stage!

Chapter 1367: Zhan Ye's Stage (2)

After he finished chanting the incantation, a corpse type diagram appeared in front of Han Qi. A creepy green corpse aura began to spread out from it.

Within the dense corpse aura, a shape of a skull could be vaguely outlined. There was a pair of very eye-catching horns on the skull!

A pair of cruel and cold eyes stared intensely at Zhan Ye. Suddenly, the corpse leaped out from within the corpse aura. Its spiked arm suddenly turned into a fang and it directly slashed towards Zhan Ye's body!

“Zhan Ye, dodge,” Chu Mu noticed the danger from that corpses' attack and immediately issued an order to Zhan Ye.

Zhan Ye chose not to take the hit head-on this time, but Han Qi's other two soul pets had sealed off its evasion routes.

Zhan Ye finally found a tiny opening in the encirclement of the two soul pets and had barely managed to dodge the arm blades of that corpse type soul pet. However, a long corpse poison wound was carved onto its armor by the corpse!

Chu Mu checked the wound. The attacks from the corpse type creatures always contained poison in them. This poison was highly corrosive towards the muscles, the blood vessels and the bones. Under the effect of such corrosion, Zhan Ye's healing ability would definitely become useless.

It could be said that a corpse type was clearly specialized in dealing against an insect type. Although it does not have the effect of causing double the damage like ice against fire and light against dark, it does directly suppress the strongest racial ability of an insect type.

It was no wonder that Han Qi would dare to confidently declare that Zhan Ye was not far from death.

Without its healing ability, Zhan Ye would certainly be hindered in the battle. However, it would be fine as long as the Broken Limb Rebirth was not restricted.

A single wound was nothing to Zhan Ye. It also did not face that Fang Corpse Emperor head on, mainly focusing on Han Qi's Heaven Eye Toxin Beast instead.

The toxin that the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast was releasing had gotten more and more concentrated. Zhan Ye must finish it off as soon as possible, otherwise it would also become a fatal threat to itself similar to the Fang Corpse Emperor.

Heaven Eye Toxin Beast was heavily injured in the previous exchange of blows with Zhan Ye. The only thing it could do now was mainly shooting its toxic thorns and perform toxic sword flashes to keep harassing Zhan Ye from afar.

Zhan Ye left the Fang Corpse Emperor behind as it was much slower than Zhan Ye.

“Grrrr!”

Its black body transformed into a dark comet and it generated bright sparks from the friction it generated against the air!

The dark comet zoomed right past the Hovering Mountain standing in front of it and the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast was smashed directly into pieces!

The Heaven Eye Toxin Beast raised its limb as it tried to escape to the sky. Zhan Ye chased after it without the slightest bit of hesitation, determined to kill the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast!

The Fang Corpse Emperor was following right behind Zhan Ye. It raised its spiked arm blade and swung it towards Zhan Ye once again!

Zhan Ye could not afford to dodge this time. The Heaven Eye Toxin Beast would definitely escape if it did!

“Grr!” roared Zhan Ye. Then a huge soul shadow appeared on its body!

The soul shadow did not transform into armor to protect Zhan Ye this time, but it latched directly onto Zhan Ye’s front paw instead.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Fang Corpse Emperor’s arm slash and Zhan Ye’s Ripping Claw were unleashed at the same time. A dark green blade wound appeared on Zhan Ye’s body, while its black claw flash had torn open the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast’s body!

Heaven Eye Toxin Beast let out a pained cry and its blood burst out like a fountain!

Han Qi was shocked by the scene he was witnessing and panickedly started chanting the incantation to retrieve the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast back into the soul pet space.

“Grrr!”

Zhan Ye endured the pain coming from its back and charged forward after suffering a heavy slash!

Blood sprayed on Zhan Ye's body, becoming a layer of blood fog surrounding it. The blood fog quickly condensed into a blood-colored armor and donned onto Zhan Ye's body!

Bloodthirsty Berserk Transformation!

The blood that was flowing out from its own body, the blood that was sprayed on it by the enemy, the dense bloody scent had stimulated the battle potential within Zhan Ye's body!

After the Bloodthirsty Berserk Transformation, Zhan Ye's speed had suddenly increased explosively. Its body had turned into a black blade, as it broke through the space and thrust towards the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast with extreme speed!

The glow of the soul contract was wrapping around the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast. Han Qi saw the rampaging Zhan Ye charging madly towards his soul pet and hastened his chanting speed!

The blue glow of the soul contract flashed and his Heaven Eye Toxin Beast disappeared!

At the same time, the deadly blade Zhan Ye had turned into dashed past the spot, leaving behind an astonishing spatial cut right there in the gloomy sky!

Those who had witnessed such a scene drew a sharp breath. Did Zhan Ye's deadly blade cut Heaven Eye Toxin Beast's body first? Or did Han Qi retrieve his Heaven Eye Toxin Beast back into the soul pet space first?

Everyone's gazes were concentrated onto Han Qi's face at this moment. Because they knew that Heaven Eye Toxin Beast could not survive if even the tip of that deadly blade had touched it!

Han Qi stood quietly on a hovering rock while he faced the raging wind. Heaven Eye Toxin Beast was already recalled into his soul pet space. This made him feel relieved, as his Heaven Eye Toxin Beast had almost lost its life.

However, the sudden mental blow he received shocked the unprepared Han Qi, his face turned pale!

Impossible!

Han Qi clutched his chest tightly, the feeling of his soul getting damaged was clear and painful.

"I..... I already recalled....." Han Qi's gaze was filled with panic. When he carefully probed his soul remembrance into his tenth soul contract, he suddenly realized that the Heaven Eye Toxin Beast had already collapsed in a pool of blood within the soul pet space. Its head rolled to a corner of the soul pet space!

Han Qi was dumbfounded. He clearly remembered that he had already recalled his soul pet in that instant, so why did his soul pet still get killed?

"What's wrong with Han Qi? He seems injured!" asked a Divine Sect disciple in the spectator seats.

"Heaven Eye Toxin Beast is dead..... Heaven Eye Toxin Beast must be dead!"

Han Qi's face had turned pale, it was definitely the result from his soul getting damaged!

Han Qi was definitely an elite soul pet trainer in the Zhengming Main City. His performance in the Outstanding Expert Competition was amazing and he was expected to be able to enter the finals. Unfortunately, he ended up encountering Xin Xin, the worst opponent he could face. Hence, he had missed his chance to advance to the finals.

Even so, everyone knew that Han Qi was definitely strong enough to enter the top eight!

However, right now, his soul pet was killed right before everyone's eyes. They could not see how his Heaven Eye Toxin Beast had died, but they could clearly imagine how miserable it would be for a soul pet to die in its own soul pet space!

Han Qi stood on the Hovering Mountain, his face turning creepy from rage!

"This Chu Mu is so daring, he even dared to kill Han Qi's soul pet!" the spectators began discussing amongst themselves in a low volume.

"Why not? What right does Han Qi have if he is inferior to the opponent?" said a young wandering soul pet trainer.

That wandering soul pet trainer was a member of the New Moon Palace. He had been serving the New Moon Land for over two to three years.

He was young and rather strong. He had originally thought that a small place like the New Moon Land could not keep him, but then he gradually changed his mind. And now, after personally witnessing this elusive New Moon Land King, he was highly astonished!

The power of that King was certainly undeniable. However, he was more in awe of that King's courage and his merciless attitude!

Despite knowing that it was a trap, he had countered it with his absolute strength as well as a swift and decisive slaughter. This required more than just bravery!

"Han Qi, how are you?" asked He Zhen after he flew to Han Qi's side.

Han Qi's expression was extremely cold, and his gaze was filled with resentment!

"I will definitely tear that soul pet into shreds!" cursed Han Qi furiously.

Fang Corpse Emperor swept up the dense corpse aura around it and charged towards the wounded Zhan Ye with the same madness as its master!

Han Qi's other soul pet cooperated with it to perform a pincer attack. The two soul pets joined hands and dealt heavy damage to Zhan Ye. On the other hand, as Zhan Ye's body was progressively getting tattered, it knocked away the two soul pets!

"That bastard probably can still use the Broken Limb Rebirth, don't give it any chance to use it," reminded He Zhen.

Han Qi naturally was not going to give it any chance to use the Broken Limb Rebirth. The rampaging Fang Corpse Emperor's arm suddenly changed and curved into a deadly blood hook, swinging directly towards Zhan Ye's head!

If it's head was chopped off, then how could it use the Broken Limb Rebirth?

Zhan Ye's body swayed in midair. It had dodged the Fang Corpse Emperor's final fatal technique purely on instinct!

"Grr!"

The angry Zhan Ye roared loudly. After it had dodged that strike, the two soul pets could no longer obstruct it from using the Broken Limb Rebirth. Insect fluid started pouring out from the wounds on Zhan Ye's body.

"That bastard really can use the Broken Limb Rebirth again, stop it!" screamed He Zhen as he ordered his Aerial Listening Devil to also interfere.

The Aerial Listening Devil was fast and adept at restricting. It could definitely prevent Zhan Ye from completing its Broken Limb Rebirth from such a distance.

Chu Mu took a glance at the Aerial Listening Devil. That fellow was actually hiding there, no wonder Dead Dream could not find it.

"Dead Dream," without needing to say too much, after Chu Mu had called for Dead Dream, it already knew what it had to do.

Dead Dream was quite a distance away from Zhan Ye, but it had sufficient confidence in itself!

The black agent of death butterfly danced in front of Dead Dream, rapidly weaving a black alluring sealing diagram!

Seal!

Dead Dream flapped its wings. Being separated by dozens of hovering rocks, the black seal crossed the space and accurately appeared beneath the Aerial Listening Devil!

The black sigil turned into shackles and tightly locked onto the rushing Aerial Listening Devil, stopping it in its tracks!

The shackles flew, six shackles locked onto the Aerial Listening Devil's neck, two arms, two legs and the waist. Finally, a huge black death butterfly descended from the sky and locked the soul of the Aerial Listening Devil. The Aerial Listening Devil could not move nor use any of its techniques!

"This..... This seal!" He Zhen was dumbfounded!

Sealing techniques usually had to be used from close range for them to be accurate!

However, despite being at such a distance, that Dark Thunder Phoenix had actually succeeded in sealing an extremely agile Demon! Its judgement and accuracy were truly terrifying!

Aerial Listening Devil was desperately struggling to free itself from the dark shackles. It was already very close to Zhan Ye.

As it had failed in performing its surprise attack, what it was facing now was Zhan Ye after getting empowered by another round of the Brave Stinging Heart and the Ancient Power Awakening!

The current Zhan Ye's aura had become just like a dark mountain, heavily pressing down on the Aerial Listening Devil's mental world!

Meanwhile, its pupils emitted the cold glint that declared the death of the Aerial Listening Devil!

Five times of going through the Broken Limb Rebirth, the current Zhan Ye was barely closing in on its peak strength!

Chapter 1368: Zhan Ye's Stage (3)

The four limbs that were covered in armor seemed to have started bulging. The black ancient tattoos, the blood red berserk transformation and the dark soul shadow!

These three powers had transformed Zhan Ye into a tiger of massacre filled with unparalleled strength. Its ice cold pupils directly stared at the Aerial Listening Devil!

The energy released from the Ancient Power Awakening started coursing through Zhan Ye's body. Zhan Ye took a step forward and started walking on air as if it was walking on the ground. A spatial shockwave spread out as it took that step!

Power itself was almost overflowing from its entire body. Zhan Ye's aura had completely changed after experiencing another full recovery. Its attitude towards the Aerial Listening Devil was filled with disdain!

Zhan Ye raised its head and a dark destructive light surged out from its throat!

“Grr!”

The Dark Destruction Ray shot out. The Aerial Listening Devil had no way of dodging it while it was still being sealed by the dark shackles.

Boom~!

Demons had fairly weak defenses. When the Dark Destruction Ray hit the Aerial Listening Devil, it was completely blown apart. Pieces of its flesh were scattered all around and its bodily fluids sprayed all over!

An astonishingly deadly ray had bloomed above the sky of the Hovering Mountain Battlefield, directly striking the hearts of a lot of the spectators along with the Aerial Listening Devil's death!

Another soul pet had died, and this time it was He Zhen's soul pet!

Many people could still remember the great performance of He Zhen using his Aerial Listening Devil, as it received plenty of applause.

However, right now they had just witnessed it getting blown up into pieces, not even leaving behind a complete corpse!

He Zhen was utterly shocked, as he watched his Aerial Listening Devil falling down as several pieces of flesh absentmindedly!

Not showing a shred of mercy, Zhan Ye had used its killing move instantly. He Zhen was just pitying Han Qi's Heaven Eye Toxin Beast getting killed a moment ago. Now, he was not any better either, as his Aerial Listening Devil was blown into pieces!

The death of two soul pets did not deter He Zhen and Han Qi's determination, they were possessed by fury!

Incantations rang out, they had summoned their soul pets almost simultaneously.

Two peak Dominators immediately appeared on the battlefield. As they were completely overwhelmed by rage, they did not care whether their peak Dominator rank soul pets could be of any use in battle right now. Their only aim was to kill that battle beast Mo Ye!

Rage had clearly clouded their eyes as they did not realize that Zhan Ye's strength had raised up by another level. Its current strength was two levels higher than the paragon Dominator rank. If it could use its full strength to attack a paragon Dominator, then that paragon Dominator would either die or suffer a very heavy injury!

The Fang Corpse Emperor was fighting it head on, while the other three soul pets were madly unleashing their techniques being influenced their masters' rage!

Zhan Ye's sixfold life force was rapidly multiplying while it was strengthening itself. Even if it just stood still there and allowed the paragon Dominator to keep attacking it, there would be no problem for a short while!

Zhan Ye's target this time was the Fang Corpse Emperor. The corpse poison from the Fang Corpse Emperor had greatly hindered Zhan Ye's self healing ability. If Zhan Ye could finish it off, then Zhan Ye's life force recovery would turn even more terrifying. The damage dealt by the peak Dominator rank soul pets might not even be able to catch up to its self recovery speed!

"Zhan Ye is really strong. After going through five Broken Limb Rebirths, it has completely dominated the battlefield. Those paragon Dominators are already not its match," exclaimed Prince Chao.

"Say, if Zhan Ye uses the Broken Limb Rebirth one more time, can't it advance into the Immortal rank?" asked Pang Yue as she stared at the battlefield without any movement.

Ye Qingzi, Ning Maner, Shen Mo, Mu Qingyi and the others were all sitting together. Pang Yue's question had also triggered their curiosity.

"It should be one level away from the near Immortal rank, while about two to three levels away from the pseudo Immortal rank. According to the current situation, it should not be a problem for it to advance into the near Immortal rank. As for whether it can reach the pseudo Immortal rank, that's really hard to tell," Ye Wansheng was the first to speak.

Ye Wansheng was the real disciple of the Cloud Gate Elder. The Cloud Gate Elder had often told him about the Immortal rank, so he was more knowledgeable about the difference in strength than the others.

“That’s plenty strong enough already. These people…… Sigh, I can only say that they don’t know their place,” said Prince Chao.

Zhan Ye’s strength had become a whole two levels higher than the Fang Corpse Emperor. Even if its healing ability was restricted, it still had its beast property and the dark property. Each technique that it unleashed could cause a decent level of damage to the Fang Corpse Emperor.

Furthermore, Zhan Ye’s fighting method was rather savage and merciless. Under its consecutive attacks, the Fang Corpse Emperor kept getting pushed back and had clearly fallen into a disadvantageous position.

Zhan Ye was still forcing it back, riddling it with holes using the Ink Armor Spikes.

Fragmenting Stamp!

The black warhammer descended from the sky, blasting right onto the Fang Corpse Emperor’s body. The Fang Corpse Emperor’s bones were thoroughly shattered into smithereens and its body had turned into a puddle of mud!

“Crush the corpse, don’t let it get up again!” ordered Chu Mu mercilessly!

Corpse type creatures were almost impossible to kill. They could hide their corpse life source in any part of their body. As long as their corpse life source was not crushed, they could stand up again and again!

Chu Mu obviously could not tell where the Fang Corpse Emperor hid its crucial heart. So, the simplest method to kill it was to simply crush its entire body!

After reaching its current level of strength, Zhan Ye's power could only be described as a merciless tyrant!

After Chu Mu had issued the order, Zhan Ye transformed into a black crushing mountain, with a dark shredding storm lingering around it!

The other soul pets tried their best to intercept Zhan Ye, but their feeble bodies were easily swept away by the shredding storm!

The black crushing mountain dropped straight down. As he was witnessing such a scene unfold, Han Qi's face lost all color and he shouted in panic towards Chu Mu, "S..... Stop!"

Chu Mu snorted. Did he show any mercy when Zhan Ye was on the verge of death just a moment ago?

Chu Mu ignored Han Qi's desperate screams. If he did not teach them a heavy lesson, then any random person might come to find trouble with him. There would be no way he could make a name for himself on Zhengming Continent if that happens!

If he chose to flaunt his power, then he would flaunt it to the end. He would flaunt to the point where the enemy standing before him would fear his mere presence!

Booom!

The merciless crushing mountain had landed. There was no chance for the Fang Corpse Emperor to survive this blow. Its corpse flesh was completely squashed into meat paste, flowing down from the steep Hovering Mountain cliff disgustingly.....

Another soul pet died without an intact corpse. Zhan Ye had displayed its absolute tyranny to prove its glorious position as the strongest Dominator rank!

Stepping over the mud-like corpse, Zhan Ye's calm yet cruel gaze was locked onto Han Qi's other paragon Dominator. That paragon Dominator was a thunder type Fairy. Zhan Ye had no chance of getting close to it in the previous battles.

However, in the current battlefield, there were only a few peak Dominator rank soul pets of Han Qi and He Zhen left. In Zhan Ye's eyes, they were not even worthy to be its opponent.

Han Qi was scared. That fear had seeped into the depths of his soul along with the cold gaze. After getting two of his most powerful soul pets killed, Han Qi had fallen into an ice cold abyss. There was no more rage in his eyes, but complete and utter fear!

Han Qi's face could not be anymore paler, he had endured the pain and had forcefully chanted the incantation.

If he even lost that thunder type Dominator, then he would no longer be able to hold his ground in the Zhengming Main City. Facing off against such a crazy tiger of massacre, he had already completely lost the courage to keep on fighting!

This time, Zhan Ye did not prevent the thunder type Fairy from escaping. There was no meaning in killing an enemy that had already lost its will to fight.

Han Qi continued chanting and recalled the other remaining soul pets back into the soul pet space.

Even paragon Dominator could not escape death against it, so leaving the peak Dominator behind was plain suicidal.

He Zhen looked at Han Qi dumbfoundedly. Just as he was about to say something, an intense mental blow caused him to spasm intensely!

He Zhen immediately turned around and realized that the creepy Spectral Hidden Dragon had appeared behind his Snow Feather Devil out of nowhere. The sharp dragon horns had pierced right through the Snow Feather Devil's head!

Blood flowed down the dragon horn onto the Little Hidden Dragon's head. The Little Hidden Dragon opened its mouth and directly swallowed the Snow Feather Devil's soul!

The soul of a paragon Dominator immediately allowed the Little Hidden Dragon to grow up by thirty percent!

The Little Hidden Dragon's beast and insect properties were still at high class Dominator rank. If they also were to advance into the peak Dominator rank, then the Little Hidden Dragon with three main properties could probably challenge the near Immortal rank creatures!

"I..... I surrender," shouted He Zhen painfully.

The Little Hidden Dragon did not understand what He Zhen was saying. As it had not had its fill of souls yet, it flew towards He Zhen's other peak Dominator rank soul pet.

He Zhen saw the dire situation he was in and hurriedly chanted the incantation.

He Zhen's chanting speed was really fast, allowing his soul pet to escape death. Seeing that the Hidden Dragon could devour souls, He Zhen was drenched in cold sweat.

“Zazaza!”

Little Hidden Dragon saw that its food had disappeared and started grumbling.

Suddenly, the Little Hidden Dragon turned towards He Zhen. He Zhen had also recalled his other soul pets. He Zhen's soul remembrance was rather high. If it could devour his soul, then that should also allow it to grow by another ten percent. The Little Hidden Dragon flew towards He Zhen without the slightest sign of hesitation.

He Zhen collapsed onto the ground in fear!

Isn't this the Outstanding Expert Competition? Why is he even killing the soul pet trainers? This is clearly breaking the rules!

He Zhen did not dare to stay on the battlefield any longer and ran away!

Han Qi exited the battlefield absentmindedly, while He Zhen had escaped in a panic.

Even the two most powerful individuals amongst them had lost, so the remaining young participants with weaker strength would not dare to stay on the battlefield any longer.

The originally boisterous subjugation battle had ended up in such an utter failure. The spectators present on the various Hovering Mountain spectator seats could only feel astonished. Especially when they saw that the savage battle beast Mo Ye kept growing stronger on the battlefield and had crushed its enemies brutally, the impact of it was too intensive!

Nobody had imagined that the King from the New Moon Land could be this powerful. His decisive slaughtering also taught the others what being truly merciless meant!

The organizer's trap instead ended up becoming the target's glory!

Chapter 1369: Escaping Without A Fight

An utterly bloody scene. Many Hovering Mountains had been thoroughly dyed in blood, giving off a heavy visual impact to the people present.

Chu Mu stood quietly on the battlefield. Zhan Ye who was still not satisfied, Little Hidden Dragon and Dead Dream had returned to his side and were waiting for the following battle.

Needless to say, nobody else dared to step up to the challenge. Only Chu Mu and his soul pets remained on the Hovering Mountain Battlefield, as well as countless patches of blood stains.

"Can you officially begin the finals now?" Chu Mu raised his gaze and focused on Tang Ang as he said this.

Tang Angs' face was expressionless, it was not known how he was feeling right now.

“You just amount to this much. What right do you have to be so arrogant? You’re only cruel in your methods, thats all!” said Han Erxing in disdain.

Tang Zhuo and Xin Xin did not say anything, their attention was gathered on Chu Mu’s Zhan Ye. If that battle beast Mo Ye could still use the Broken Limb Rebirth, then its strength might advance into the Immortal rank. It would pose an extremely big threat to them if it could really reach the Immortal rank!

Tang Zhuo knew that he would have to face off against Chu Mu in the upcoming finals. The result of the trap he set was dissatisfying for Tang Zhuo, but he had at least grasped the opponent’s strength.

“When taking on that battle beast Mo Ye, we must kill it immediately, or it will spell great trouble later on,” whispered Xin Xin to Tang Zhuo.

Tang Zhuo nodded, “Hmm, once this soul pet of his is suppressed, then he won’t be a threat to us anymore.”

The greatest dependence of Tang Zhuo and his gang was the Immortal rank. The battles till now had not involved such a domain.

“Guo Shi, it’s your turn. Finish off that soul pet of his,” Han Erxing appeared to be a little annoyed as he ordered Guo Shi.

Guo Shi was startled for a moment as he heard him and he suddenly realized that the cruel man before him would be his first opponent in the upcoming finals!

“Is he going to keep fighting?” said Guo Shi a little absentmindedly.

Chu Mu did not return to the spectator seats. His gaze was focused on the main referee, indicating that he could still continue on with the match.

Nobody was opposed to Chu Mu replacing Gao He as a participant in the finals any longer.

Chu Mu’s action of requesting the match to continue had caused yet another commotion to ensue amongst the spectator seats. There actually existed such a battle maniac in this world.

The main referee then announced the match between Chu Mu and Guo Shi, bringing the battle back to the official finals.

However, anyone could see that Guo Shi was losing his cool and the pride that he had shown before was nowhere after stepping into the battlefield again. Instead, he seemed to be cowering in fear.

Below the battlefield, Huang Yufei was laughing out loud after seeing Guo Shi’s behavior, “Haha, serve you right! Guo Shi, this is your end. Chu Mu, you must treat him very well, who asked him to humiliate us that day?”

Li Qingqing who was sitting beside him was also very excited. Chu Mu’s savage performance just now was really too dazzling. Normally, Li Qingqing would prefer those elegant young masters like Xin Xin. However, seeing Chu Mu standing proudly above everyone and mercilessly killing those young participants’ soul pets, she immediately felt a sense of admiration towards Chu Mu!

“Do you know him?” asked a young participant who was next to Huang Yufei in shock.

Huang Yufei immediately puffed out his chest and proudly said, “Of course, we are brothers.”

“Guo Shi is certainly an irritating guy. Seeing him like this has made me feel quite satisfied. Speaking of which, I had always thought that the New Moon Land was just a small place. But after hearing the discussions that are happening in the surroundings, I have finally realized that the New Moon Land is not any inferior to some of the Borders now. And with such a King standing tall, New Moon Land is probably a place with a strong backbone,” said that person.

The young generations were easy to provoke, just like how those few words of favoritism from Tang Ang were enough to induce public outrage.

However, once the situation was changed, then their mindsets would also change along with it.

In addition, Madam Gao and Yu Suo had already spread the truth of the matter among the crowd at the right timing, and the spectators found out that all of it was just a trap for Chu Mu set up by Tang Ang, Tang Zhuo and the other high ranking people. After knowing this, their attitude towards the New Moon Land and that merciless King took another turn.

Now, the spectators were looking at Guo Shi with a gloating attitude.

Guo Shi was particularly famous for his poor personality. Not only Huang Yufei, but most of the people present at the venue who were not as high in position as Guo Shi were on the receiving end of his sneering and mockery. Now that Guo Shi would be the one taking the stage, many people were eager to see how he would be humiliated.

Guo Shi was only slightly stronger than Han Qi and He Zhen. Even with the two of them teaming up along with the other high class or peak Dominators, they had suffered a crushing defeat. What could he alone possibly use to fight against Chu Mu? Perhaps that battle beast Mo Ye alone was enough to finish off all of his soul pets.

Guo Shi had taken a spectating role at first, but now he ended up being the one who was spectated. After dragging on for a long time, he finally stood on the Hovering Mountain Battlefield again.

Taking a look at the blood filled Hovering Mountain Battlefield and the corpses of those peak Dominator soul pets strewn all around, Guo Shi's expression turned even poorer than before. He kept turning back to take a look at Tang Zhuo and Han Erxing.

"You may begin," announced the main referee plainly.

Guo Shi was startled. He was not prepared to fight at all and called out to the main referee in a panic, "Wait."

"What do you want?" asked the main referee impatiently.

"The official competition does not allow killing, right?" asked Guo Shi.

After Guo Shi had asked that question, the participants at the venue immediately started laughing.

Most soul pet trainers had experienced various kinds of hardship during the course of their training. Especially those without any backgrounds, they had climbed up to the Dominator position through countless slaughters. Hence, this amount of blood spilling did not have too much of an effect on them.

However, as one of the Outstanding Expert Competition's finalists in the Zhengming Main City, not only was Guo Shi shivering before those soul pet corpses, he had even dared to ask such a question. It was really laughable.

Guo Shi's face had turned bright red after hearing the mocking laughter directed at him and he rebutted loudly, "I just wanted to know the competition rules, so that I don't break the rules when fighting against him later!"

Han Erxing and Tang Zhuo's mouths started twitching when they heard him. Guo Shi was famous for bullying the weak and fearing the strong. However, getting mocked by so many people was really too shameful!

Guo Shi's senior, Yin Ce, from the Demon Beast Palace shook his head in disappointment as he sighed. If he knew that Guo Shi was such a coward, then he would not have let Guo Shi participate in this Outstanding Expert Competition. Guo Shi was bringing shame to the name of the Demon Beast Palace.

"Competition rules state that killing another participant is forbidden. However, the death of soul pets does not count as a violation, but intentional murder is forbidden," replied the main referee.

Guo Shi's expression became even uglier after hearing the rules.

Intentional murder was forbidden, that rule was as good as non-existent. Life and death in a battle at such a high level was instantaneous. The opponent could easily kill his soul pet according to such a rule.

Recalling the ghastly look on Han Qi and He Zhen's face from a while ago, the muscles on Guo Shi's face kept twitching violently.

After further hesitation, Guo Shi finally made a decision. He spoke with a serious expression, "I have sparred against Han Qi before. I'm only slightly stronger than him. Since even he is not a match for Chu Mu, then there's no meaning in me fighting. So, I surrender."

"Are you certain that you wish to forfeit?" asked the main referee.

Guo Shi nodded, "I forfeit."

"Alright then, get lost," replied the main referee nonchalantly after nodding.

Guo Shi's expression paled from anger and shame. He had never imagined that he would be humiliated like this by the main referee!

The words spoken by the main referee had induced yet another round of laughter. Everyone looked at the cowardly Guo Shi in disdain.

Guo Shi had never received such kind of attention before. Those mocking gazes and the humiliating words made Guo Shi feel as if countless poisonous ants were crawling all over his body, completely unbearable!

“Yin Ce, your Demon Beast Palace’s disciple knows his limits. Forfeiting in such a big competition requires quite the amount of courage, don’t you think?” said the Elemental Clan’s Peng Meng as he smiled while looking over at the Demon Beast Palace’s leader, Yin Ce.

Yin Ce shook his head and sighed. He had originally thought that Guo Shi was a good seedling to be nurtured. He was going to try to get Guo Shi into one beast type sect as a disciple, but to think that Guo Shi turned out to be such a coward.

Knowing one’s limit was in fact a good thing. Sometimes, there was no need to make unnecessary sacrifices. However, Guo Shi was participating in the Outstanding Expert Competition as a representative of the Demon Beast Palace. The Demon Beast Palace stood behind him. When he had forfeited, he had never even considered the reputation of the Demon Beast Palace. How could Yin Ce consider nurturing such a disciple?

Guo Shi still did not know that because of his act of cowardice, he would no longer be receiving the support of the Demon Beast Palace. Someone like him who had only reached his current level due to the favorable treatment from the Demon Beast Palace would only amount to this much in his life in the end. Worse still, if his soul pet died, then his strength would also greatly diminish. After all, he could not find any method to strengthen his soul pet.

Han Erxing and Tang Zhou also had poor expressions on their faces. That Guo Shi was really too humiliating. His action had only made Chu Mu shine even brighter than before.

At the moment, they had already kicked Guo Shi out of their circle in their minds.

Making the outstanding expert from the Demon Beast Palace forfeit, this was sufficient enough to represent Chu Mu’s strength!

On the battlefield, as Chu Mu watched Guo Shi leaving, he was feeling quite down in his heart instead.

If Guo Shi had fought on, then Zhan Ye would get a chance to use the sixth Broken Limb Rebirth. He would also be able to witness the full strength of Zhan Ye.

Looking back at the situation, that Guo Shi was also rather smart. If he did not escape, then it would be hard to say if Chu Mu would slaughter all of his soul pets or not.

Since the battle had come to an end, Chu Mu recalled his soul pets and left the Hovering Mountain Battlefield.

The Hovering Mountain Battlefield still remained bloody, while many corpses were strewn all over the place.

Nobody cleaned up the venue and the next match was to be held as is. No matter how spectacular the battle between the next two participants was going to be, it would still be outshined by the blood red Hovering Mountain. The spectators would each time recall the astonishing battle scene of that one vs many.

Chapter 1370: Swift And Decisive As Well As Dull And Slow

Chu Mu returned back to the spectator seats. He did not return towards the main Hovering Mountain, but he rather went towards the place where the people from the New Moon Land were seated.

Ye Wansheng had obediently shifted from his spot to allow Chu Mu to sit next to Ye Qingzi.

“Chu Mu, I have noticed that you’re actually a really shameless person. You usually tend to keep quiet and cannot be bothered to deal with trivial conflicts. However, once you encounter such a large event where you can show off your strength, you make sure that you are more flashy than anyone else present. Look at the gazes of all those maidens and the ladies looking at you. Compared to those brats, you are a true man amongst men,” nagged Ye Wansheng.

“I think so as well. However, after this battle, a lot of people will probably have heard about our New Moon Land. It's just perfect, we were just lacking a chance like this to astonish the world,” said Chao Lengchuan.

As they had expected, while the two of them were talking, various major Boundary Lords from the surrounding seats had started approaching them with the intention of getting acquainted. Most of the discussions they engaged in were centered around the New Moon Land.

Chu Mu had successfully managed to vent the anger that had accumulated in his heart to some extent. He did have some concerns regarding what he had done earlier, but his personality was affected by his Black Nightmare side, and so he ended up being a bit too cruel.

They might have ended up offending some of the other factions, but that little bit of problem was nothing compared to the respect and awe that they were receiving now.

“Little Hidden Dragon, come here,” called Ye Qingzi as she waved towards the Little Hidden Dragon resting on Chu Mu’s shoulder.

The Little Hidden Dragon obediently flew to Ye Qingzi. The Little Hidden Dragon had received the greatest amount of damage in the previous battle. It would be faster for Ye Qingzi to treat it than for it to slowly recover by itself.

Zhan Ye had just completed going through its Broken Limb Rebirth, so only its stamina was exhausted and it did not sustain much damage. As for Dead Dream, let alone inflicting any damage to it, none of the other soul pets even managed to touch it in the chaotic brawl. Naturally, it did not need any form of treatment.

Ye Qingzi held up the chubby body of the Little Hidden Dragon in her arms. She did not perform any techniques and only applied some ointment on the wounds of the Little Hidden Dragon to remove some of the potential deterioration poison. She then applied a layer of wound treatment ointment on top of it.

“Open your mouth,” said Ye Qingzi.

The Little Hidden Dragon obediently opened its mouth, revealing its two rows of sparkling white dragon teeth. It did not make the Little Dragon look hideous at all, it only made it seem silly and cute.

Ye Qingzi made the Little Hidden Dragon drink a soul healing potion. The potion tasted a bit bitter and was pungent. The Little Hidden Dragon wanted to puke it out, but Ye Qingzi glared at it and said, “Don’t puke it out, swallow it now.”

“Zazaza~!” the Little Hidden Dragon whizzed out in grief and thought to itself in its heart, “she’s angry at Master, so why is she taking it out on me?”

Seeing the Little Hidden Dragon’s cute grudging behavior and Ye Qingzi’s stern expression, Chu Mu started smiling.

“What’s so funny? You think that you can do as you like just because you’re in a foul mood? That’s so childish,” snorted Ye Qingzi.

Chu Mu knew that Ye Qingzi was a little appeased. Hence, he grabbed her hand and did not say anything while just gazing right at her.

Ye Qingzi started blushing and tried to pull her hand back. There were so many people around them and yet Chu Mu was doing such a thing so boldly.

Also, who told you that I'm not angry anymore?

Chu Mu did not allow Ye Qingzi to pull her hand back. He held onto her hand tightly and did not care if anyone else noticed what he was doing . Then, he just gazed at Ye Qingzi quietly.

Ye Qingzi was no match in terms of physical strength compared to Chu Mu who could semi-devilify. As she could not free herself no matter how much she struggled, she could only let him grab her hand and scold him in her heart, you're always acting like this. You look like a decent man when you keep a stern expression. And yet nobody can do anything about you when you turn shameless.

This made Ye Qingzi recall their time in Tianxia City's Soul Pet Palace Beast Fighting Arena. At that also he just ran over to her and hugged her dumbly just like that. He looked like a completely different person from the merciless and savage appearance he displayed on the battlefield.

At that time, Ye Qingzi had actually realised that the two extreme appearances of Chu Mu were both the real Chu Mu. He was swift, decisive, calm and merciless towards his enemies. However, he was also completely blank when it came to his own feelings and women, he was a little dull and slow. He only knew how to do the first thing that came to his mind, completely ignoring how others thought.

“This guy definitely doesn’t understand a girl's thoughts, yet he’s somehow able to capture the hearts of so many girls. So annoying,” Ye Qingzi took a glance at Chu Mu and had silently complained in her heart.

If Chu Mu was a playboy, he would naturally have a lot of female acquaintances. It was also fairly normal as his current strength and his charm would easily allow him to capture the hearts of many girls.

However, he was not like that. He strictly restrained his own feelings and took a stern attitude towards other girls. However, there were still some girls who would love him regardless.

Ye Qingzi was not stupid. There was no way she could not realise the feelings of those girls. There was no point trying to hide them. The deeper they hid their feelings, the deeper they fell instead.

Chu Mu appeared completely uninterested in spectating the following matches. He only wanted to mend his relationship with Ye Qingzi.

The remaining three matches ended one after another. Lu Fenxue had unfortunately encountered Han Erxing.

The battle between the two of them was rather mediocre, but Han Erxing still won in the end. Lu Fenxue naturally could not aim for the champion position now after losing two consecutive times.

The final champion would now be decided between Chu Mu, Han Erxing, Xin Xin and Tang Zhuo.

.....

Tang Zhuo, Han Erxing and Tang Ang had sprung a trap on Chu Mu. However, not only did they fail to make the New Moon Land become an enemy of the public, there were many factions who were willing to get acquainted with the New Moon Land instead. This caused even Liu Binglan to be caught a little unprepared.

Especially during the territory meeting, the attitude they had towards the New Moon Land's Female Supreme Liu Binglan had taken a complete turn. This change had caused even Liu Binglan to find it funny.

It seemed that even in the upper echelons, the people still bullied the weak while fearing the strong. Chu Mu's ruthless behavior had completely deterred the factions that were intending to jeopardize the New Moon Land.

Also, as Chu Mu had advanced to the final four, the benefits that the New Moon Land in the Northern Territory would be receiving were particularly huge. Those other major factions which were unable to obtain this benefit were trying their very best to show their support to the New Moon Land in order to gain a share of the benefits.

Of course, a newborn faction would always be facing suppression from the already existing factions. Liu Binglan had felt clear hostility from some of the people who were present during the meeting. This hostility was partially from the dissatisfaction they felt because the New Moon Land had suddenly risen up. Another portion was due to Chu Mu killing the soul pets of their younger generations. The relationship between them had worsened because of that.

Liu Binglan had understood that the New Moon Land would be reaching this stage sooner or later if they had wanted to develop further. There was no reason for them to back off due to those existing factions. They should be forceful when it was necessary. If they were enemies, then they would not be showing mercy just because she compromised.

.....

“Our New Moon Palace can set up a branch in the Zhengming Main City?” exclaimed Pang Yue.

“Yes,” Liu Binglan nodded, “The Territory Institution has agreed to it.”

“That’s great! When Shen Mo and I went back to the inn last night, we heard that many people had come wanting to enter our New Moon Land. Also, many people have now started betting on Chu Mu as they think that he may become the final champion in the end. If Chu Mu really becomes the champion, then there will probably be even more people who are willing to go to our New Moon Land. If we can even build a branch of our palace in the Zhengming Main City, then the recruitment will become much easier. After all, we shouldn’t expect them to go all the way to the New Moon Land,” said Ye Wansheng.

“Hehe, I feel that if those people were to find out the uniqueness of our New Moon Land’s isolated space, then they will be going there no matter how far away it is,” said Chao Lengchuan.

“Hmm, that’s true. Actually, a large number of people don’t know of the existence of the Holy Region that is there in our New Moon Land,” Shen Mo nodded.

“Oh yeah, where did Chu Mu go?” Liu Binglan looked around but did not find Chu Mu anywhere.

“Couple quarrel. Their relationship was always harmonious, so it’s rare to see them in a cold war. Now that they are finally having one, it’s really interesting to see,” said Pang Yue thoughtlessly.

Everyone’s gazes turned towards Pang Yue.

Prince Chao took a side glance at Pang Yue and asked, “Pang Yue, what are your intentions?”

Pang Yue just realized that her choice of wording was wrong. She blushed and panickedly justified herself saying, “I only find it interesting, don’t misunderstand!”

Liu Binglan had wanted to console Ye Qingzi, but due to the various issues that were coming up recently, she did not have the time to do so. In any case, it was rather unsuitable for her to be meddling in matters between the youngsters.

Liu Binglan could actually predict how this matter would turn out. She was just worried about whether the dull Chu Mu could find the right direction to reconcile.

“By the way, what happened between the two of them? Why the cold war?” Chao Lengchuan became interested and joined the gossiping.

Everyone looked at Chao Lengchuan with disdain. The fact that he asked this proved that Chao Lengchuan had an even worse EQ than Chu Mu, terrifyingly low!

“You still need to ask something like that? It’s obviously because of the matter related to the little princess,” Ye Wansheng was the first to point it out.

“Yeah, even an idiot can tell that the little princess is in love with Chu Mu. And Chu Mu also knew little princess from earlier.....” said Pang Yue.

“Aha, let’s make a bet. I bet that the little princess will win, who do you bet on?” Ye Wansheng suddenly laughed out loud and slammed a Mysterious Crystal that he had just obtained on the table.

The others became speechless. Pang Yue glared at Ye Wansheng and scolded, "Qingzi is your little sister, you're being too heartless."

Ye Wansheng reasoned, "So what if she's my little sister? You can't involve personal feelings in such matters. I'm only analyzing it objectively!"

The others had only gotten acquainted with Chu Mu after Tianxia City. Ye Wansheng more or less knew a lot about the past matters between Chu Mu and the little princess in Tianxia City, including the Tianxia City event. He felt that Chu Mu was not really so heartless, especially when under the severe mental shock of witnessing the little princess dying before him.

"I bet on Qingzi," Pang Yue looked down on Ye Wansheng coldly and declared her opinion.

"I also bet on Qingzi," said Shen Mo.

Everyone started voicing out their opinions one by one. Ye Qingzi had naturally obtained more bets.

When it was Ning Maner's turn, everyone looked at her.

"Forget it, she should bet on herself," Ye Wansheng spoke for her after seeing that she had not spoken anything for a long time.

Ning Maner immediately started blushing. She wanted to justify herself, but could not find the right words to do so.

Ye Wansheng is so annoying, will he die if he doesn't speak a word?

Liu Binglan drank her tea and thought that she should remain silent in regards to this matter.

Naturally, Liu Binglan also had an opinion of her own. She felt that both the girls were decent. In the end, it still depended on whether Chu Mu could grasp it well. The current situation could easily cause one of them to slip through his fingers.
