

Soul Pets Bk2 1451

Chapter 1451: Soloing Zhengming City (1)

Dark energy rumbled madly in the sky like a black sun. After blocking the elemental bombardment, Dark Death King launched its counterattack.

The black sun fell down from the clouds and kept expanding!

White Dragon created ice along the path of the black sun's descent in order to stop it. However, even though the glacier had the power to freeze the sky into a thick layer of ice, that black sun was easily able to bore right through the glacier!

The terrifying sun that was falling was getting closer and closer. Before it even touched the ground, the rampaging dark energy had already melted those weaker soul pets into black vapor!

Those hundred Immortal rank Divine Sect members had already unleashed all their defensive techniques to block that incoming black sun. However, traces of dark energy seeped through the defenses and caused a mayhem.

Despairing cries broke out everywhere, the falling speed of the sun had slowed down, but the casualties that were arising from it kept increasing!

"Tell the army to retreat right now!" Xiao Xueang could no longer tolerate the people being wiped out so easily and so he issued an order to retreat loudly.

Even though they were Du Xian's subordinates and army, they were still members of Divine Sect in the end. There was no reason for them to sacrifice their lives just for Du Xian's greed and his mistake!

Du Xian also knew that the army would truly end up being wiped out if they stayed any longer and so he also issued the order to retreat. He ordered the Discipline Palace's members to bring those Divine Sect guards out of this place as fast as possible!

Dark Death King looked down at everyone from high above. It watched the densely packed Divine Sect army scurrying away like ants.

The army did not pose much of a threat to it, it would also not want to waste any effort to kill those unimportant enemies.

It narrowed its eyes and focused its attention on the hundred Immortals.

Right now, those hundred Immortal experts still maintained a safe distance from it. It could sense the threatening power of destruction coming from them.

They were clearly charging up their techniques while it was busy taking on the Divine Sect army.

Dark Death King was not going to give them the chance to finish their incantations. It opened up its gait and charged bravely towards those hundred Immortals who stuck together while riding on top of the black clouds!

White Dragon and Rage Ghost Lord were still opposing Dark Death King openly from the front, but they could not completely stop Dark Death King's rush. After hindering Dark Death King slightly, they could only watch helplessly as it tyrannically stomps onto the spot where those hundred Immortal rank experts were gathered!

Xiao Xueang's expression was extremely stern. Although Dark Death King had been sealed for a long time and was filled with rampaging emotion, it was still very clever regardless. Other than targeting Du Xian's Dragon Head Devil Eagle, it did not really clash head on against White Dragon and Rage Ghost Lord.

It was not because Dark Death King was no match against White Dragon and Rage Ghost Lord, but that it knew that it had to finish off the easier enemies first, like the Divine Sect army and those Immortal rank experts for example.

White Dragon and Rage Ghost Lord wanted to stall it to let the army and the Immortal rank experts accumulate their power for an offense. However, when Dark Death King intended to launch an attack on a target, White Dragon and Rage Ghost Lord could not stop it at all!

The group of Immortal rank experts with Han Yan at the lead were still able to remain calm when they saw Dark Death King charging furiously towards them.

They were the core members of Divine Sect after all, their courage and minds were naturally better than the army which mostly consisted of Dominator rank members. Furthermore, they did not think that the cooperation of a hundred Divine Sect Immortal rank experts could not truly oppose that Dark Death King.

“Wu Ao~!”

Dark Death King was extremely fast. It did not unleash any technique and simply charged into the Immortal camp with its huge and robust body.

Dark Death King's objective this time was to scatter those Immortal rank experts. Then, it would have an easy time slaughtering them!

There were many arrogant people amongst the Immortals. They did not panic at first because there were a hundred Divine Sect core members standing around them.

However, as Dark Death King approached closer and closer to them, as the deadly aura crashed directly on them, they finally realized just how terrifying Dark Death King truly was!

The defense that was deployed by a hundred Immortal rank experts was easily smashed apart. Dark Death King brazenly charged into the Immortal camp without any further hindrance. No matter what size those Immortal rank creatures were, they were easily swept away by the dark energy that Dark Death King unleashed and were scattered around.

“Wu Ao!”

Dark Death King swept its long black tail horizontally at them. The tail slapped away ten Immortal rank soul pets along its path and instantly broke their bones!

Even creatures that were on the level of Dragon Head Devil Eagle had their ribs dented by the tail sweep of Dark Death King. Those low class and pseudo Immortals would surely die on the spot if they got swept too.

In an instant, ten Immortal rank creatures had fallen!

“Aooo!”

The angry White Dragon hauled its long body along and forcefully threw a huge ice mountain, sending it crashing into the rampaging Dark Death King’s body.

When Dark Death King was hit by the ice mountain, it had finally stopped its pursuit of those Immortal rank soul pets. Its black eyes instantly stared furiously at White Dragon!

This time, Dark Death King had finally pointed its rage towards White Dragon.

“Magistrate Xiao, Zhengming City’s experts have finally arrived. Xuan Gate Immortal School’s Old Sect Master is also amongst them,” At that moment, Tang Ang informed Xiao Xueang of the news.

In consideration of Zhengming Main City’s security, various experts who were living in Zhengming Main City had showed up. He could clearly see a group of people flying towards this place from the sky above the dark city.

The person who was in the front was an elderly. He did not ride on a wing type soul pet, but instead stood atop a wooden vine. That wooden vine was rapidly growing in the air.

Soon, the wooden vine grew all the way to the direction of Divine Sect back mountain. This elderly also appeared in this battlefield very casually.

Next, over a hundred experts from the entire Zhengming City had shown up one after another. Over half of them belonged to some major factions. The remaining half were hidden experts living in this city. When the entire Zhengming Main City was under threat, they naturally had to show up, or their families would also end up in danger.

Xiao Xueang saw the participation of the Old Sect Master from Xuan Gate Immortal School and heaved a sigh of relief. He immediately told all of the Divine Sect Immortal rank members to close in around Old Sect Master Yi.

“Old Sect Master, please protect them,” said Xiao Xueang.

Old Sect Master Yi nodded in reply. By now, all the Immortal rank experts had gathered around him. As long as he remained in the Immortal camp, their safety would be mostly guaranteed.

Recalling the instant death of ten Immortal rank soul pets just a moment ago, the Divine Sect members were naturally more cautious of it now.

The Immortal rank experts had instantly grown from a hundred to over two hundred. This was definitely a terrifying force that could easily destroy anything along its path. When they chanted incantations simultaneously and combined their techniques together, even Dark Death King might not be able to defend against that power.

Dark Death King clearly felt a great threat to itself from that Immortal rank group. It ignored White Dragon which had enraged it once again and immediately charged towards the Immortal rank group!

Layers of barriers were stacked up before Dark Death King. It kept shattering them one by one with its savage charge. The ferociousness behind that charge was truly astonishing!

“Do not panic,” said Old Sect Master Yi calmly.

Next, the Immortal Vine that Old Sect Master Yi stood on began rapidly growing once again. The vines started intertwining in the air and instantly turned into a vine fortress which perfectly protected all the soul pet trainers within!

Dark Death King did not stop at all and charged straight into the vine fortress. Countless vines madly entwined around its body as if they were snakes.

“Wu Ao~!”

Dark Death King cried and the darkness rapidly started spreading out!

The vines that attempted to wrap around Dark Death King withered instantly. The entire vine fortress also started drying up and shrivelling!

Soon, the vine fortress was changed into dried up vine sticks, seemingly about to shatter with just a light touch.

“It’s quite capable,” Old Sect Master Yi did not panic at all and transmitted another order.

More Immortal Vines grew out. They were so dense and looked as if thousands of snakes had stretched out their bodies.

Those vines immediately withered under Dark Death King’s Dark Withering technique. However, they certainly hindered Dark Death King’s charge.

Just as Dark Death King was only a slight distance away from the Immortal rank group, it seemed to have realized something and immediately turned around, dashing away in the opposite direction with even greater speed!

Scorching flame suddenly exploded in the spot that Dark Death King was in. A cauldron made of flames suddenly appeared out of thin air. It burned magnificently in the dark sky and its bright flames lit up the sky and the earth!

Next, streaks of crescent moon-shaped claw flashes, sharp penetrative horn charges and wild soul shadows appeared!

Each attack came from an Immortal rank soul pet. When so many attacks were gathered into a single spot, it was a truly an eye-opening scene!

Dark Death King's danger sense was incredibly sharp. It sensed that the surrounding Immortal rank creatures had already completed the resonance of their techniques. After sensing the danger, it without any hesitation gave up on its attack.

Dark Death King left a shadow trail behind in the dark night. The two hundred Immortal rank soul pets continuously completed their techniques one after another. The techniques bombarded the trail that was left behind by Dark Death King!

In the sky filled with techniques, Dark Death King swiftly jumped around with high frequency.

Dark Death King had displayed its powerful and wild beast type savagery before, now it was showcasing its astonishing dodging ability. It dashed swiftly through the weak joints between the different techniques. The densely packed techniques from over two hundred Immortal rank creatures were unable to stop it at all!

After the assault from such a large wave of techniques, the entire sky became chaotic. Air currents started flowing messily, the space was twisted, remnant energy overflowed.....

Perhaps Dark Death King had bled due to some injuries. However, the attack from over two hundred Immortal rank experts had only caused such little damage to Dark Death King. It was totally unbelievable!

Chapter 1452: Soloing Zhengming City (2)

Dark Death King immediately flew into the distance. At that moment, White King led its glacier world and closely pursued Dark Death King.

The glacier was white in color, scattering the black clouds before it. Hundreds of long white dragons made of ice surged around White Dragon as it gave chase.

With White Dragon at the lead, the other ice white dragons flew through the night sky and shrouded the Zhengming Main City below it!

Several hundreds of ice dragons swarmed towards Dark Death King. Some colliding into a straight forward clash, some coiled into a formation, and some lashed out their bodies crazily.

There were many ice dragons in the sky. With their enormous bodies, the wide space above Zhengming City seemed to have become really crowded.

Dark Death King finally started paying serious attention to White Dragon. It swiftly dashed around those enormous ice dragons with its matchless agility and squashed the ice dragons to ice shards after grabbing a dozen of them with its huge claws!

Ice shards fell from the sky in heaps!

As more and more ice dragons were getting smashed by Dark Death King, ice started falling over the entire Zhengming Main City, covering the surface of the city with a thick layer of white.

“Tang Ang, ask the City Lord to activate the Zhengming Main City’s barrier,” Xiao Xueang stood high above in the sky and requested Tang Ang using his mental voice.

Tang Ang could tell that White Dragon and Dark Death King were about to face off against each other in a grand battle. He immediately rode his Rage Ghost Lord and landed in Zhengming Main City.

Bam!

Bam!

The shattered pieces of ice dragons crashed everywhere in the streets, turning the streets into rubble. Panicked residents ran around in a mess. Even though most of the people who were living in the city had reached Dominator rank, the aftershocks that were caused by a battle between two creatures on that level could easily wipe them out.

Ice shards continued falling down. Dark Death King fought efficiently against the hundreds of ice dragons, including White Dragon.

Dark Death King’s body was bewitching and robust. White Dragon was tough and majestic. The two clashed only for a while and the resulting rampaging energy was already impacting the brittle Zhengming Main City, pushing the entire city to the brink of destruction.

Finally, a green light pillar shot up from the Zhengming Main City top platform.

Next, countless vines, roots and flower walls madly started growing up towards the sky and weaved into a plant barrier covering the Zhengming City!

“Look, what’s that?” On the streets, some people looked up at those plants covering the sky with a shocked expression.

The plant barrier shrouded the sky above like clouds and immediately covered the entire city!

People had seen plant stronghold walls and plant fortresses before, but who could have seen a huge plant barrier that could cover an entire city before?

“Gosh, are these plants going to swallow us in?” The city residents showed fear in their eyes.

The plant had really covered too wide of an area. One could simply try to imagine when the black sky would become wriggling with vines and roots, just how terrifying would that scene be?

“Everyone, do not panic. This is the city barrier, a plant barrier that protects Zhengming Main City.”

Underneath the plant barrier, some soldiers who were in charge of aerial defense noticed the panic in the city and immediately announced the situation using their mental voice.

“Why is the city barrier activated? Is Zhengming Main City under attack right now?” On the top of a house, a rogue Immortal rank soul pet trainer caught a soldier and questioned him.

Zhengming Main City was the main city of the humans, such a city should never be under attack.

Furthermore, since the city barrier was activated, it meant that the existence of this city itself was in danger.

The city barrier had not been activated for over a hundred years now. The densely packed plant barrier was shrouding above everyone's heads. How could those people who had never encountered such a situation before not panic?

Through the parts of the barrier which had not yet completely covered the sky, people could see a white colored dragon and a pitch black creature fighting in the black sky!

First was a Solar Eclipse, then a darkness that devoured all light, followed by the violent shaking of the ground, finally even the city barrier was activated. Anyone could tell that something big had happened. Zhengming Main City had never encountered such an event over the course of so many years.

“Magistrate Xiao, try to end the battle as soon as possible in order to avoid causing too much chaos in the city,” Tang Ang rode his Rage Ghost Lord and returned outside the barrier.

It was obvious to see that Zhengming Main City had fallen into a chaotic state. The fear that was brought by the total darkness and the messed up air currents that were brought by spatial quakes. All of those were signs of an approaching disaster!

Xiao Xueang nodded and did not talk much in return. He continued guiding his White Dragon in the fight against Dark Death King.

White Dragon clashed head on against Dark Death King while Rage Ghost Lord kept executing sneak attacks. Old Sect Master Yi's Immortal Vine Nüwa acted as support. Two hundred Immortal rank experts sieged it too.....

The battle had moved from the Divine Sect back mountain to Zhengming Main City, then from Zhengming Plain to the Zhengming Mountain Range. The sky was completely messed up due to the spatial disintegration and cracks. The earth was riddled with holes!

Dark Death King was actually able to hold its ground when facing the entire Zhengming Continent all by itself. That overwhelming power astonished everyone.

In Divine Sect western mountain's direction, Chu Mu glued his eyes on the battle unfolding above Zhengming Main City's barrier.

Seven Sins Fox Dark King, the race with the highest bloodline. One could not truly fathom the tyranny of opposing a human's main city without witnessing it personally themselves!

.....

White Dragon turned into a bloody dragon. The scales on its body had shattered and thin cuts covered its entire body.

Dark type techniques usually contained corrosive effects. Even with Old Sect Master Yi's Immortal Vine Nüwa, the healing effect was mostly able to offset the corrosive effect. By now, White Dragon was accumulating more and more wounds.

Meanwhile, Rage Ghost Lord which was using sneak attack tactics was not any better either. It had one of its bone wings fractured, lost many pieces of bones from its body, and a horrible claw mark stretched all the way from its face to its chest.

Although the two Zhengming Main City leader rank soul pets were heavily wounded, they had still achieved something. At least, Dark Death King's aura was gradually suppressed by them, and a good number of wounds were added to its body.

“Magistrate Xiao, I have done the best I can,” said Tang Ang with some fatigue in his voice.

Rage Ghost Lord's injuries were getting more and more severe. If it continued to fight, then Tang Ang could not guarantee that his soul pet would remain safe.

After all, his Rage Ghost Lord was almost killed by Dark Death King a few times by now. Old Sect Master Yi's timely healing had allowed it to escape death.

“The time is ripe,” said Xiao Xueang.

“What time?” asked Tang Ang.

“My Magistrate Palace,” stated Xiao Xueang calmly.

After that, he turned and took a glance at the Divine Mountain!

“Ao~!”

White Dragon roared and transmitted its voice to the Divine Mountain!

Icy white light suddenly bloomed on the mountain lookout that was erected above the Divine Mountain!

Within the dazzling icy light, the silhouettes of several hundred snow white-robed Divine Sect Magistrate officials could vaguely be seen standing on the lookout.

Meanwhile, hundreds of ice type creatures had surrounded the lookout with a diagram formation drawn on the lookout as the center, a white light beam manifested!

The white beam pierced right through all the darkness and flew straight towards Zhengming Main City, leaving behind an ice pillar that stretched from the ground to the sky!

The moment that white light pillar appeared, Xiao Xueang's White Dragon had frozen Dark Death King's body.

Dark Death King was unable to move and saw that the terrifying white light beam was shooting straight towards it!

“Wu Ao!”

Dark Death King opened its mouth furiously and shot out a dark shockwave from the bottom of its throat, crashing head on into that white light pillar.

The speed of that white light pillar had slowed down a little. Icy ripples could be seen at the spot where the collision occurred. The ripples spread out rapidly and froze everything along the path, even Zhengming Main City's plant barrier could not escape from it.

The white light pillar was an energy that was unleashed by several hundred Magistrate officials and their soul pets, Dark Death King was unable to defend against that strike and the dark shockwave it released could not stop the white light pillar either.

As the white light pillar approached closer and closer, the ripples that were produced emitted extreme coldness!

Crack crack crack~!

Everything began freezing over. Dark Death King's black fur was full of frost. The frost was slowly turning its body into an ice sculpture.

"That Xiao Xueang actually activated the entire Magistrate Palace!" exclaimed Evil Good Queen after she saw that white light pillar.

"Magistrate Palace," Chu Mu watched the Divine Sect mountain lookout and fell into deep thought.

Those Magistrate officials did seem to be that much stronger than Du Xian's Discipline Palace members. It could be clearly seen from that white light pillar. He wondered if Dark Death King could defend against that attack!

“However, he has provided me with a great assistance,” Evil Good Queen smiled.

“What do you mean?” Chu Mu was confused.

“Dark Death King’s personality is normally wild and hard to tame. Even after I have carved my Flower Soul Sigil on it, it is not willing to listen to me at all. Now that the Magistrate Palace has unleashed the Frozen World Seal, Dark Death King would have to obediently return to my Flower Seal Formation if it does not want to end up sealed again,” explained Evil Good Queen.

“Are you sure you can control it?” asked Chu Mu.

Evil Good Queen shook her head, “Before I’m strong enough, I won’t be releasing it easily. Also, it had been sealed for around ten thousand years, so its body and mind must have accumulated plenty of illnesses. I need to help it recover first. Otherwise, I can’t endure it if I have to take care of a mad fox which doesn’t even listen to me.”

“Go retrieve it then, it’s about to be sealed,” said Chu Mu after seeing the ice crystals which were gradually covering Dark Death King.

“No need to hurry. After it breaks out of this seal and exhausts most of its stamina, it will hide in my place,” assured Evil Good Queen.

After that, she took a glance at Chu Mu and stuck closer to him, “Dark Death King is really too strong. You and I both have to reach high class Immortal rank before we can properly control it.”

Chu Mu nodded. There was still quite a distance to high class Immortal rank, but he believed that he could achieve it.

Chapter 1453: Mo Xie's Henchman

The white light pillar had caused ripples to spread out in the sky and everything above Zhengming's Main City was encased in ice!

Dark Death King's body was rapidly getting enveloped by frost. Its final cry also seemed to have been frozen and disappeared halfway.

Ice filled the sky and the ground. The thick plant barrier that was covering Zhengming Main City was also smeared with a thick layer of ice. The Divine Mountain was snow white. The plain was frozen into a thick glacier. Even the clouds had changed to white ice clouds. The world had transformed from an endless darkness into a frozen world, truly an astonishing whiteness!

Above the Divine Sect mountain lookout, the several hundreds of Magistrate officials had finally finished this ice sealing technique. They became wobbly as if all their strength was drained from them.

Sealing techniques were different from most other techniques. If it was to seal some creatures with powerful mental strength, then there was a certain level of mental backlash to the user.

The Magistrate officials were sealing a Seven Sins Fox Dark King which was a ten thousand years old Immortal and also possessed the demon property. Its mental strength was truly terrifying. The mental backlash they suffered from the sealing process had caused those Magistrate officials to faint in large groups. Only the more elite Magistrates were able to remain standing.

Within the white glacier, White Dragon passed through those ice spikes and slowly roamed around Dark Death King.

Rage Ghost Lord saw that the battle had quietened down and so it also flew near Dark Death King.

“It shouldn’t be able to move anymore, right?” asked Tang Ang with caution.

Tang Ang had lived for so many years and yet it was the first time he had encountered such a powerful creature. His heart was still unable to settle down.

Xiao Xueang probed his soul remembrance into the ice sculpture to sense the aura of Dark Death King.

Within the ice sculpture, Dark Death King’s aura had clearly weakened. Regardless of whether this seal could really subdue Dark Death King or not, it was at least good enough to be able to weaken it.

Crack! Crack!

Suddenly, seams appeared on the outer layer of the ice sculpture.

The seams were slowly spreading and were turning into large cracks with ice shards falling off.

“Not good, it’s going to struggle out of it!” Tang Ang’s expression turned ashen instantly and he immediately escaped from the vicinity with his Rage Ghost Lord!

Rage Ghost Lord was already burdened with numerous wounds. Its life would be in danger if it continued to fight.

Xiao Xueang frowned and similarly let his White Dragon take some distance from that ice sculpture. He flew towards the direction where the two hundred Immortal experts were gathered.

“Magistrate Xiao, how is the situation?” inquired Old Sect Master Yi.

“It’s about to break free from the ice sculpture. Everyone, please work together to deal a heavy hit to it the moment it comes out,” said Xiao Xueang with a serious expression.

“Even the Magistrate’s Absolute Zero Formation cannot seal it?” exclaimed Old Sect Master Yi in astonishment.

Since when did such a powerful creature appear in the Zhengming Continent?

Everyone listened to Xiao Xueang’s arrangement and began chanting while Dark Death King was still trapped within the ice.

While the two hundred Immortal rank experts were focusing on their incantations, the surroundings had become quiet. This calm before the storm had even frozen the air current.

Not only the two hundred Immortal rank experts, even Magistrate Xiao’s White Dragon, Tang Ang’s Rage Ghost Lord, Old Sect Master Yi’s Immortal Vine Nüwa were also using this chance to charge up their strongest techniques.

More ice shards fell off, and the cracks started spreading even faster!

Boom!

Finally, the ice sculpture exploded loudly. All the remaining chunks of ice were scattered around just like countless white meteors!

Within the destroyed ice sculpture, Dark Death King raised its head furiously and gave a lengthy fox cry!

Darkness surged rapidly. The scattering ice chunks started turning into black gas. Thick black water started pouring down from the sky, becoming countless beautiful black waterfalls!

“Attack!” Xiao Xueang resolutely gave the order.

Lights of various colors shone brightly, gathering into a colorful cluster.

The immense energy hidden beneath the light shot into the sky!

Those techniques followed different trails, some flew straight, some curved and revolved, and some swept across the entire area!

However, they all moved in the same direction, towards the location of Dark Death King!

After Dark Death King got out of the seal, its body was still in a weakened state. The incoming barrage of techniques made it feel that its life was in danger.

Dark Death King's black fur fluttered immediately. A pair of black depraved wings fell onto its body and changed into a dark armor to protect its body.

Dark Death King began moving around swiftly. Any creature that was hit by the barrage of techniques from those two hundred Immortal rank soul pets would definitely not survive.

It dashed swiftly through the darkness in stealth like the wind. The barrage riled up ripples of destruction everywhere around it. Shots of energy would randomly destroy everything in the vicinity whether they hit Dark Death King or not!

Boooooooooom!

It was on par with the noise generated by ten thousand thunderclaps. Zhengming City's sky was utterly devastated by those techniques. Only the cold glints of destruction flashed constantly.

Naturally, the entire sky, earth and Zhengming Main City shook heavily from the impact.

.....

The shaking lasted for a long time. The wind generated from the destruction madly blew through the atmosphere and didn't dissipate for a long time.

A huge void had opened up in the sky and was slowly getting repaired. The reverse current generated during the repair swept across the continent again.

After a long time, when all of that had settled down, the entire city and Divine Sect Mountain Range had fallen into dead silence once again.

Everyone raised their heads to look for Dark Death King's whereabouts.

What they wanted to know the most right now was whether that terrifying Solar Eclipse was gone or not.

If it was subjugated, then Zhengming City could return to its usual peace, and this would turn out to be a dangerous incident which had ended without any real disaster.

If it was not, then would that mean that another battle was going to unfold?

More importantly, if the battle were to continue. Just what did they have left to use to kill that terrifying enemy?

People kept staring at the sky for a long time and tried very hard to look for Dark Death King's figure within the chaos.

"It's probably vaporized?" After a long while, Tang Ang slowly commented.

The two hundred Immortal rank experts also thought the same as they did not see Dark Death King for a long while after the barrage ended. It meant that Dark Death King was either vaporized by the barrage or was devoured by the newly opened spatial gap.

“What happened? Just where did that creature come from?” asked Old Sect Master Yi.

“Imprint Valley,” answered Xiao Xueang flatly.

Then, he purposely took a glance at Vice Sect Master Du Xian.

The meaning behind that gaze was clear enough. This disaster was caused by Du Xian, Xiao Xueang was naturally going to clarify the situation to the various leaders.

Du Xian was afraid that his schemes were going to be publicized and immediately explained, “The Imprint Valley has collapsed. This Dark Death King had been sleeping for an unknown amount of time inside it. After the collapse, it forcefully crossed the two dimensions and arrived here..... Luckily, I was able to discover it in time.”

“It’s scary just thinking about it, it’s a good thing that it’s vanquished now,” Tang Ang coughed.

Tang Ang had been assuming that he was almost invincible in the Soul Pet Realm. However, after facing Dark Death King, his Rage Ghost Lord had its arrogance thoroughly beaten down.

“Perhaps it’s not dead yet,” added Xiao Xueang.

Xiao Xueang's words had caused the two hundred Immortal rank experts to turn pale. They immediately used their soul remembrance to search around frantically.

Amongst the two hundred Immortal rank experts, a few were Gate Masters.

However, none of them dared to oppose Dark Death King from the front like Xiao Xueang and Tang Ang.

"Why do you assume that? I already cannot sense its aura anymore," said Tang Ang.

"Look at that yourself," Xiao Xueang pointed to the sky.

The sky was gradually returning to its original appearance. The rumbling black clouds were gradually dissipating, but the sun still seemed to be dyed in black ink, only the edge glowed eerily.

The Solar Eclipse had not disappeared yet, it meant that Dark Death King did not die!

"This..... What should we do?" The Gate Masters were really troubled.

They had paid such a heavy price and yet they were not able to kill Dark Death King!

The Divine Sect army had suffered a few thousand casualties, exhausted an enormous amount of resources for using a few grand formations, including the Absolute Zero Formation at the end. Those resources could have been used to create many Immortal rank creatures.

Even the precious City Barrier was activated in the end. A barrier which covered the entire city and could withstand high class Immortal rank techniques. Who could calculate just how much resource that would have cost?

“It must have escaped, hopefully, it escaped back into its dark nest,” said Xiao Xueang.

.....

Divine Sect western mountain.

Chu Mu and Evil Good Queen were still spectating the scene. This epic battle was truly unforgettable. It was a pity that Du Xian’s Dragon Head Devil Eagle was not killed in the end.

“Wuwuwuw~!”

Within the darkness, a tiny black figure jumped out. A pair of eyes that were glowing in the dark were staring at Chu Mu and Evil Good Queen cautiously.

“Come here,” Evil Good Queen showed a gentle smile.

Her smile possessed a special attractiveness to it like Ning Maner. It was the charm that she was born with as the flower type ancestor. There was no need for her to perform any mental technique to achieve the effect of getting intimate with most creatures.

The tiny black fox slowly opened up its steps. After walking out from the darkness, Chu Mu could see the densely packed wounds on its entire body!

Evil Good Queen did not mind the blood stains on its body. She squatted down like a kindhearted older sister and softly hugged the reluctant little black fox.

Chu Mu watched this black fox intently which looked more robust and less elegant now. He knew that it was the culprit which had created the mayhem in Zhengming Main City —— Seven Sins Fox Dark Death King!

It was injured, gravely injured at that.

Just as Evil Good Queen had planned, the wounded Dark Death King would not choose to run away at this moment.

In its weakened state, it would subconsciously get intimate with the party which had formed a soul contract with it, seeking her assistance.

Evil Good Queen gently held it close in her bosom and ignored its blood staining her clothes. She used her other hand to gently stroke Dark Death King. As her finger stroked past those wounds, the wounds began to close up slowly.....

“It’s very strong, right?”

“Yes,” Chu Mu nodded.

“It can be the henchman of your Mo Xie,” Evil Good Queen smiled and followed up before Chu Mu could react, “Of course, it would be after Mo Xie’s next mutation.”

Chapter 1454: Purple Wanxiang City

New Moon Land, Wanxiang City.

The season had changed and flowers were blooming in Wanxiang City.

This city was not really filled with pollen and Fairy Butterflies like Xiangrong City, but it was also well decorated with plants and gave off a refreshing feeling to people.

Recently, special purple string flowers were hung in all the places within the city. They were arranged neatly along the shops and the streets, appearing just like rows of stylish girls wearing purple clothes when the wind blew.....

Purple string flowers were also called the wedding flowers by the residents of Wanxiang City. Usually, they would hang the purple string flower in front of their gate when there was a wedding. It was a commonly seen event here.

However, they had never imagined they could witness the mesmerizing scene when the purple string flowers decorated the entire city.

When visitors entered this city and saw those purple string flowers, they would ask with curiosity if there was a special event going on in New Moon Land. Why was the entire city being decorated like an elegant lady?

Then, the residents would inform the visitors with a warm smile, “It will be our King’s wedding ceremony in a few days, the entire city will be celebrating it.”

Purple string flowers were not the requirements given out from the palace, but the residents had decorated the city voluntarily. Otherwise, there was no way they could have found so many purple string flowers.

“This is a king who is truly loved by his citizens,” The visitors would exclaim as such after hearing the story.

“Of course. You must not be able to imagine that our New Moon Land was a sealed up world not that long ago. We had such a large population and yet so little land. This place was filled with disasters, the surrounding forbidden realms are places that us normal people would never have dared to step foot in. However, look at us now, we normal citizens who don’t like fighting can now live peacefully in any city we want. Ambitious youths have easily surpassed their parents and have grown much stronger. Those disasters that troubled us in the past will not affect us anymore..... These are all the achievements of our king,” explained an elderly joyfully.

The elderly had clearly witnessed the change of New Moon Land. He had the absolute right to voice his opinion. After all, New Moon Land had existed for thousands of years. From a barbarian land to the current third rank territory, and able to match some of the border cities, such a New Moon Land was something that people in the past would not have dared to imagine.

Furthermore, New Moon Land was not as calm as how it looked now. Every few years, Eternal Ocean, Southern Forbidden Region, Northern Barren Territory and Eastern Wild Forest would be prone to trigger disasters. Chu Mu had encountered three such disasters during his trip from the Western Kingdom to Wanxiang City. The scale of the disasters was also really vast and had easily killed over tens of thousands of people.

Other than the disasters, there was another terrifying killer: plague!

No race could escape the reaper known as plague. They arrived quietly, took away lives quietly and then left a complete mess behind.

Disaster and plague had frequently visited New Moon Land. Many people had died in them. In addition to the spontaneous wars and conflicts, New Moon Land in the past was really an undeveloped place compared to the entire human domain.

However, ever since Chu Mu became the king and made New Moon Land an independent territory, the terrifying disasters, the plagues and the wars were all suppressed. There had been no large scale casualties from then on.

This elderly was over a hundred years old. He had watched New Moon Land's change and felt nothing but respect for this young king!

"Since he's such an incredible king, the woman he will be marrying must also be really beautiful and talented!" asked the visitors.

"Naturally. She's so beautiful that she looks just like a celestial maiden coming down from the Moon Palace. Also, she's a great Immortal Teacher!" answered the elderly's grandson.

"Immortal Teacher?" The visitors looked surprised.

The position of Immortal Teachers was really important in both the continents. They were even more important than an Immortal rank expert. The visitors had heard about New Moon Land rapidly developing, but they did not expect that New Moon Land also had an Immortal Teacher, a woman who was about to be wed to the King at that too.

“Stay for a few days, the wedding ceremony is going to be really boisterous,” suggested the elderly after taking another glance at the visitors.

“Of course,” The visitors nodded.

The elderly held his grandson’s hand and walked away. After walking a little distance away, that elderly suddenly turned around and closely watched the back of those visitors, “Strange, why does the young man in the middle who had never spoken look familiar?”

Those few visitors leisurely walked along the street decorated with purple string flowers.

After walking a little distance, a woman wearing a veil who had a pair of beautiful eyes looked at the youth in the center and asked curiously, “Chu Mu, didn’t you say that you are an irresponsible king? Why does everyone seem to really respect you?”

“I don’t know either. Perhaps the palace advocated it like that. I had only been focused on cultivation and my mother was the one who managed most of the things,” replied Chu Mu.

“Hehe, that’s interesting. The elderly and child did not recognize you,” said another young man.

The visitor in the middle was none other than Chu Mu who had rushed back from Zhengming City.

Not only had Chu Mu returned, Xia Yin who wanted to travel and Lin Mengling who wanted to take a stroll had also followed him.

It had been one month since the Dark Death King incident. Chu Mu knew that his identity would be exposed to certain people after he entered the Imprint Valley, so he had to immediately strengthen his New Moon Land by gaining some strong allies.

Xia Yin and Lin Mengling were the best allies that he could get. Xia Yin was the City Lord of Beiming City, an outstanding city amongst the independent cities. Yu Suo had also told Chu Mu that Beiming City was a powerful and unique existence. The clan hidden behind Beiming City was just slightly inferior to Hidden Pupil Royalty. They would definitely be a powerful ally.

It was needless to say anything about Lin Mengling. She was the cherished daughter of Divine Sect's Great Sect Master. Her position was even higher than the crowned princesses of the Mu Family Dynasty and the Ning Family Dynasty. Lin Mengling was very interested in isolated spaces. After knowing that many isolated spaces existed in New Moon Land, she wanted to pay a visit.

Since this important guest wanted to visit, then Chu Mu also had no reason to stop her. He was also able to gain some popularity for his New Moon Land through her.

Lin Mengling and Xia Yin wanted to take a look around Wanxiang City, so Chu Mu did not directly fly into the city this time. He guided them properly through the front gate as the host and was treated as a visitor by that elderly.

In fact, Lin Mengling and Xia Yin were really visitors.

Following them were Xu Daofeng and a Magistrate official sent by Xiao Xueang to protect Lin Mengling. That Magistrate official was not really talkative. Chu Mu had not heard him say a single word so far, but he could tell that the Magistrate official was strong.

“Chu Mu, what about the mention that you promised?” Xu Daofeng was still concerned about that matter.

“I will ask the people to arrange it for you, just pick one you like at that time,” said Chu Mu.

Xu Daofeng sensed a vibrant aura after he entered the city. It was a nurturing aura and could certainly allow the soul pet to complete self evolution to some extent. A residence here would mean a long term stay. By accumulating over time, it would certainly show obvious effects on the soul pets. Xu Daofeng was already familiar with the people in New Moon Land, so he would not be reserved.

“Let’s go to the palace first,” Chu Mu guided them along the main street.

This main street was the street that Chu Mu had taken when he had made his way into Wanxiang City and stepped over countless corpses along the street. Back then, it was completely dyed in blood. Now, it was beautifully decorated with purple string flowers..... Many years had passed by unknowingly.

“No, there will be this meeting and that greeting once we reach the palace. I want to take a stroll in the city,” Lin Mengling immediately refused.

“Chu Mu, we are also not tired yet. I’m rather interested after just arriving in this city. If you are in a hurry to meet your bride, then you can go back first,” said Xia Yin with a smile.

Chu Mu took the offer and nodded, “Alright, then I will send people to guide you there later.”

After separating from the visitors, Chu Mu walked along the main street.

The street was bustling and prosperous. However nobody noticed a unique existence like Chu Mu. He appeared to be simply strolling on the surface, but his body would move a long distance with each step. After a few steps, Chu Mu had arrived at the stairs of a majestic silver palace.

Even though he had left for less than two years, he still felt as if he had taken a long journey. As he walked, he recalled the scene which had given him insomnia these past few days.

It was complete chaos, the sky fell and the earth broke apart. That tenacious back and the complicated gaze at the end.

Chu Mu raised his head and looked at the majestic silver palace, not taking a step forward for a long time.

From the West Kingdom all the way east, he had reached Tianxia City. He had opened up a bloody path in Wanxiang City and became the new king of New Moon Land. After that, Chu Mu had continued walking east and had never stopped.

Somebody had told him that east was the direction of advancement. Chu Mu had always been advancing. Not only did he want to become stronger, but he also still firmly believed that the person who had told him those words was also walking towards the east. As long as he kept heading east, he would eventually meet him.

Chu Mu saw him. However, before Chu Mu could say anything, he was swallowed up by the merciless spatial storm. At that moment, Chu Mu's mind and faith had completely collapsed like the Imprint Valley.

Some people would forget over time.

However, after so many years, Chu Mu had never forgotten the words he said.

Chu Mu always believed that his figure was still imprinted in his head and was never blurred. However, why was Chu Mu unable to recognize him when he stood before Chu Mu with his face masked?

Monument Tear Individual.....

So he was also a Monument Tear Individual.

Chu Mu's heart was gradually losing calmness, and he felt strangely tired.

Chapter 1455: Ye Qingzi is hidden?

"Chu Mu, what's wrong?"

Princess Jin Rou floated out of Chu Mu's ring and asked after seeing him not moving a single step before the palace.

Chu Mu snapped back to reality and looked at the beautiful Princess Jin Rou floating next to him.

Princess Jin Rou had truly great proportions. When she floated next to him lightly, it appeared as if a mermaid was swimming elegantly next to him. By looking at her, he could easily forget some of the troubling matters.

The perplexion in his heart a moment ago gradually disappeared. At least, Chu Mu felt that he had already gained many things, and was not as lonely as his past self.

There were so many people who were caring about him, so many people were supporting him.....

“He will be fine,” Princess Jin Rou was able to tell what Chu Mu was thinking about and lightly consoled him.

“Hope so,” Chu Mu recollected his mind and started climbing the stairs.

“Not hope so, his Strange Mane Demon is really strong. He definitely won’t be trapped in the Imprint Valley. He must have found another exit out,” said Princess Jin Rou with a serious expression.

“Yes, I believe so as well,” Chu Mu nodded.

“Then stop making that face. It will be your wedding soon, if you stay like this, then you will scare the bride away,” Princess Jin Rou smiled and her long eyelashes formed a beautiful curve.

The more Chu Mu interacted with her, the more he wanted to interact with her. However, Princess Jin Rou was like a special goddess in Chu Mu’s heart. When she existed physically, Chu Mu was unable to obtain her heart and could only watch her from afar.

Now, she was willing to stay next to him, but he could not touch her anymore. This made Chu Mu want to find the method to resurrect her even more urgently.

“Aren't you unhappy?” asked Chu Mu as he climbed the stairs.

“Asking the obvious,” Princess Jin Rou immediately hardened her expression and pretended to be angry with him.

However, after a while, she gloomily continued, “Actually, I have always felt somewhat guilty.”

“Guilty?” asked Chu Mu in confusion.

“Yes, Ye Qingzi is a really nice person,” Princess Jin Rou said in a low volume, “I believe that you have already tasted how death feels.”

“More or less,” Chu Mu nodded. It was no different from dying when he transformed into his half devil form.

“I was trapped in complete darkness. I could hear the surrounding sounds, but I could not talk myself. I could think, but my thoughts were hazy. It felt like I was locked up inside a dark icy cave for a long time and it was a really scary experience. Whenever I felt scared, I would hug Bing Ying, stroke its fur, and then it would console me using its fox cry.....” said Princess Jin Rou.

Chu Mu knew that Bing Ying was the Ice Curse Demon Fox that Princess Jin Rou owned. That Curse Demon Fox had used its life in exchange of the life of its master.....

He could tell that Bai Jin Rou clearly loved that Ice Curse Demon Fox the most. It was just like him and Mo Xie, an almost inseparable bond.

Chu Mu could sympathize with the sadness felt over losing a family member.

“When I woke up through the Devil Soul, the first thing I saw was Ye Qingzi hugging an ice fox. Although it was not Bing Ying, I could sense the similar vibe that they gave off. Honestly speaking, I’m really grateful to her, for giving me such a gift when I had woken up. Without that little Immortal Ice Curse Demon Fox, I would not even have been able to accept my spectral state,” said Princess Jin Rou.

It was an Immortal Ice Curse Demon Fox. Chu Mu did not notice that little detail, but Ye Qingzi had remembered it from her anecdote and had given it to her.....

Ye Qingzi was a thoughtful woman. When Chu Mu had first encountered her, she had easily seen through his identity and his motive.

Intellectual, elegant, and she was not really talkative, but she always used her actions to convey her feelings.

Chu Mu felt truly fortunate to be able to meet her, and that she did not leave him because of Princess Jin Rou.

“She certainly is the best wife that you can get. Although it feels weird, I still have to congratulate you on your wedding,” Princess Jin Rou smiled again. The smile was pure and simple because she was expressing her heartfelt words.

“Thanks,” Chu Mu knew that this was all because of his greed and his lack of loyalty towards love.

He was really glad to have met two women who would forgive and accept him.

.....

“King is back, King Chu is back!”

On the stairs, Holy Guard Chief Zhuo Nong saw Chu Mu from far away and hurriedly ran down towards him.

There were dozens of holy guards wearing silver armor following behind Zhuo Nong. Those holy guards had all reached the Dominator rank, this had honestly surprised Chu Mu.

The palace holy guards consisted of a thousand members. Their strength should be quite even. If those holy guards wearing the normal uniform already possessed Dominator rank strength, then it meant that the palace now possessed a thousand-men Dominator army!

He had only left for less than two years, and New Moon Land was already able to nurture so many experts. It was really pleasing.

In the past, New Moon Land only had a few people who could reach the Dominator rank. With the current number of holy guards around, there would be no need for him to worry about those forbidden zones and disasters anymore.

“Uncle Zhuo,” Chu Mu greeted Zhuo Nong with a smile.

The group of silver holy guards behind Zhuo Nong should be his new batch of trainees as they all looked rather young. When they saw Chu Mu coming, all of them immediately became energetic and greeted Chu Mu formally.

“It’s alright, stand up,” Chu Mu told them.

When the holy guards stood up, Chu Mu noticed that they were wearing a flower badge made of purple string flower at their chests. It made the intimidating holy guards look a little more friendly. This combination was rather well thought out.

“It’s King Chu’s wedding after all, so all of us holy guards are wearing this flower badge to congratulate King Chu,” explained Zhuo Nong with a smile.

Chu Mu walked into the palace and followed the path of the front palace. He noticed that regardless of holy guards, officials, maidservants, chiefs, Palace Masters, Elders, all of them wore a purple string flower badge. There were over a thousand people in the Soul Palace, Chu Mu could not see even a single person without the badge.

Soul Palace rarely forced its members to do something. The reason all of them wore the badge was probably the same as most of the citizens. They went to find this flower with a special meaning themselves and wore it of their own volition.

Honestly speaking, Chu Mu was hardly the one who managed New Moon Land. He had been focusing on cultivation and did not really treat himself as the King of New Moon Land.

Seeing the palace, city and its citizens all putting on the blessing of purple string flower, Chu Mu felt touched.

He could marry the woman he loved and receive the blessing of the entire country. What else could he ask for?

“Our King also needs to prepare himself, so you all should not crowd around here any longer. Don’t assume that you can hang around him just because King Chu is usually friendly. Go back to your posts!” Zhou Nong scolded the group of young holy guards tagging behind him.

The young holy guards had a bunch of questions and Chu Mu really was having trouble answering them all.

After arriving at the middle palace, Chu Mu started to see people whom he was familiar with. They were wearing the same flower badge of blessing just like the others.....

Normally, Chu Mu would just casually greet them when he returned to the palace. Gradually, those familiar with him had started calling him King Chu instead of his name.

It did not matter if they were not acquaintances, but when Teng Lang kept calling him that, it made him feel really uncomfortable.

“I’m just showing my respect. By the way, what kind of interesting things did you encounter after going to Zhengming Main City? Tell me all about them,” said Teng Lang.

“It’s a long story, I don’t have the time right now,” Chu Mu was well acquainted with Teng Lang, so he simply dismissed Teng Lang without any reservation.

After passing the middle palace, Chu Mu met Princess Wan Ning outside the Holy Library. Then, he encountered Shang Heng and Ting Lan whom he was acquainted with the earliest at the bridge leading to the inner palace. Afterwards, he saw Uncle Chu Tianheng and some Chu family descendants who had come all the way here to congratulate him.

Chu Mu kept stopping to greet people along the way and it was soon dusk. After arriving at his own residence in the inner palace, he just realized that it had been specially decorated and his yard was also trimmed. It looked just like an indoor garden built with flower petals, so beautiful that it made one hesitate to step on it.

The maidservants were still busily putting up decorations to make the entire yard look perfect.

A few madams walked around and were arranging the process required for the wedding ceremony. Those had to be prepared beforehand. From their serious attitude, it seemed as if even an extra step taken by the King and Queen would be their own blunder.

After walking into the garden, Chu Mu heard a familiar laughter.

That laughter was really pleasing to the ears and carried a unique magic which would make one forget all their troubles.

“Ah? Big brother is back!” The owner of the laughter noticed Chu Mu and the smile on her face instantly bloomed even brighter.

Cute and adorable, that soft and fragrant body bumped softly into Chu Mu’s bosom before he could even react.

“You have become more beautiful after a year,” Chu Mu intimately pinched her soft cheeks. Ning Maner had really become a beauty, capturing the hearts of others without even being conscious of it.

“Really?” Ning Maner rarely received praises from Chu Mu and so she felt delighted about it.

“Really not, you’re still a lass,” Chu Mu saw her proud expression and purposely denied it.

“Don’t call me a lass, I’m already twenty,” pouted Ning Maner.

“Where’s your big sister? Is she in the room?” asked Chu Mu.

“No.”

“Then where is she?”

“Aunt Liu said that I cannot tell you,” answered Ning Maner.

“Why?” Chu Mu was confused. It was his wedding, so why would they hide Ye Qingzi?

“Aunt Liu said that before the wedding, you have to find big sister yourself. She can only marry you after you have found her,” said Ning Maner with a serious expression.

“There’s such a rule? I didn’t know about that,” Chu Mu really wanted to see Ye Qingzi. Everytime he felt down, Ye Qingzi would console him.

“Stupid, it’s a little romance before the wedding. We will see if big brother can really find big sister. If you can’t find her, then the wedding ceremony will be cancelled!” Ning Maner giggled. She was like a little angel as well as a little devil.

Chapter 1456: Han Tan City, The City Of First Encounter

Chu Mu scratched his head helplessly. He never knew that there was such a rule.

Speaking of which, where could Ye Qingzi have run off to? Even though he could travel back and forth this vast New Moon Land easily in a one day, how should he find her without using the ring?

“Dear Maner, can you secretly tell your big brother where she went to hide?” whispered Chu Mu.

“Big brother must abide by the custom!” said Ning Maner with a serious expression.

“No hint at all?” asked Chu Mu.

Chu Mu knew that Ning Maner must be abiding someone’s order and would follow it through.

“It has to be somewhere you two have gone to before,” Ning Maner seemed to have realized something and giggled cunningly.

Chu Mu had a bitter smile on his face. It had become so difficult just to see his bride now.....

As his residence was still getting decorated, he was soon chased out of there by Ning Maner. It seemed that there were still some secrets inside.

Chu Mu had no choice but to report to Liu Binglan first.

After reaching the Female Supreme Palace, Chu Mu saw Liu Binglan sitting quietly in the garden and reading a book while relaxing on this rare occasion.

In the recent few years, Liu Binglan had been really busy as the manager of New Moon Land. Chu Mu had rarely seen her having time to relax.

When Liu Binglan stayed quiet, she looked just like a beautiful ice sculpture, carrying a tint of coldness while also being elegant. This aura of hers was rather similar to Chu Tianmang who had changed his name to Heaven Slaughter.

In Chu Mu's impression, Chu Tianmang was a very cheerful person. Perhaps the heavy burden had gradually sealed off his heart. Coincidentally, the entire family was just like this, all of them appearing to be cold and emotionless.

Chu Mu quietly walked next to Liu Binglan and gently massaged her shoulders.

Liu Binglan knew that it was Chu Mu and tapped his hand softly.

Chu Mu's hands were a little chilly, she seemed to have been able to sense his internal emotions through those hands.

"What's wrong?" asked Liu Binglan gently.

Chu Mu shook his head and kept the Imprint Valley incident to himself.

"Qingzi is worried about you," said Liu Binglan.

"Is she waiting for me somewhere?" asked Chu Mu.

"Yes, go and find her. In the custom, the bride will leave five days before the wedding ceremony. The groom will then have to find her within five days and walk onto the wedding altar with her hand in hand. She has already been waiting for you for two days now," replied Liu Binglan.

Chu Mu nodded and was just about to leave, but Liu Binglan did not let go of his hand yet. She looked at Chu Mu and wanted to say something, but was not really sure on how to start.

"I tried spreading the news and hope that your father will find out..... Perhaps, when you walk onto the wedding altar with Qingzi, he might be watching you from somewhere," muttered Liu Binglan.

Regardless of the situation, Chu Mu was still the child between Liu Binglan and Chu Tianmang. Their child had grown up and took in a bride. This was an event that called for celebration. Liu Binglan hoped that Chu Tianmang would show up. She could also tell that Chu Mu wanted him to be around too.

Liu Binglan did not know why Chu Tianmang was so unwilling to show up, but she could vaguely sense that man watching her and Chu Mu from afar.

“Yeah, I got it,” Chu Mu nodded and tapped Liu Binglan’s hand.

In order not to let Liu Binglan see his expression when he was lying and the momentary sadness in his eyes, Chu Mu left the Female Supreme Palace in a hurry.

Perhaps, Chu Tianmang had really been watching over him growing up step by step in the past, but it would be really difficult for him to show up this time.

.....

All living things became active in spring, and their activeness reaches the peak when the season changes to summer.

Flowers of unknown names bloomed all over New Moon Land. Countless flower type soul pets were dancing amongst the flowers.

Chu Mu flew in the sky and kept heading west.

The first place that he reached was Xiang Rong City. This city was surrounded by countless Fairy Butterflies, so beautiful that it looked just like an Immortal Realm.

In regards to the number of visitors, Xiang Rong City's population flow had even surpassed that of Wanxiang City. Every part of this city was carefully crafted, no woman could resist the beauty of this city. Living here was the same as living in a dream.

Chu Mu landed in Xiang Rong City and hurriedly walked towards the flower garden in the city.

Chu Mu remembered that he had proposed to Ye Qingzi in that garden when the petals were dancing in the air.

During that moment, Ye Qingzi's breath-taking beauty and her embarrassed smile had made him feel drunk.

They had pledged their marriage in this place, so she might have been waiting for him here. Completing the unfinished proposal here and receiving the blessing in Wanxiang City would truly be an important event to both of them.

After entering the garden, Chu Mu walked into the grove where the two of them had hugged.

Flowers were blooming everywhere in the grove, it was really similar to that day.

Unfortunately, Ye Qingzi was not here.

Chu Mu shook his head sadly and continued looking for her according to his memory of her.

The second place that Chu Mu stopped at was the birch forest outside Soul City.

In this birch forest, Chu Mu had taken off her mask. The Monument Tear had recovered her appearance and resurrected his soul. That feeling did not die down even now.

Chu Mu knew that this birch forest must be the place which left the deepest impression for Ye Qingzi. She must be waiting for him here.

Unfortunately, Chu Mu still did not see Ye Qingzi. Birch trees shook gently in the wind, and the clear river splashed around gently. Chu Mu stood quietly at the side and recalled the kiss that they shared which made them forget about all worldly troubles. Her moist lips, and her soft tongue carried a faint fragrance. He could not forget the taste of that kiss even now.....

First, it was cold and salty with tears, then it gradually became warm and moist, finally becoming smoldering hot, burning, feverish even and unable to part!

“Not here either?” Chu Mu looked at the empty forest and felt a little down.

Chu Mu thought that it would be either of the two places, but he was wrong both times.

Chu Mu kept flying west and Tianxia City had entered his view unknowingly.

This ancient city had left Chu Mu with many memories. Those scenes quickly flashed through his mind.

Chu Mu trailed along Tianxia City all the way to the West Street.

Following his memory, he eventually reached an aisle.

The aisle was a little on the dark side. Chu Mu clearly remembered the time when Ye Qingzi was leaning on the wall helplessly in tears.

That was the first time that Chu Mu had seen the cold and rational Ye Qingzi revealing such a feeble side of herself. Her helpless appearance had broken his heart. At that moment, Chu Mu finally knew that Ye Qingzi had taken up such an important place in his heart!

From their first encounter in Han Tan City to the Great Chu Family, then leaving the city and finally reaching Tianxia City after crossing almost half of New Moon Land. During the course of the entire journey, Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi had remained as companions.

The reserved Ye Qingzi did not become intimate with Chu Mu at all. Chu Mu also did not express his love for Ye Qingzi. Plain and peaceful, she would occasionally appear in his mind and also rapidly fade away.

Chu Mu had always remembered the breath-taking beauty of Princess Jin Rou. However, Princess Jin Rou's breath-taking beauty had gradually become blurry in his mind and was slowly getting replaced by Ye Qingzi's figure.....

Chu Mu also did not clearly know at which point in time he had begun to love her. There was no clear turning point. What he had was only the journey that they had taken together and the bits of sensitive yet poorly worded caring.

It was also those casual exchanges and occasional eye contact which had slowly melted Chu Mu's heart.

.....

Chu Mu stood in that aisle idly. The dim light made his cold appearance almost melt into the shadow.

Unfortunately, she was not here either.

The three places that he had gone to were the most memorable places between them. If she was not in these three places, then where could she have gone?

Chu Mu felt lost and guilty for a moment.

Ye Qingzi had always been so understanding to him. On many occasions, Chu Mu did not even need to say anything and she could still understand him.

However, what about him?

Did he really understand Ye Qingzi? He was not even able to deduce where she was waiting for him.

As he continued west, he had finally reached Han Tan City which was at the western border.

There had been a severe disaster in the west. Chu Mu was unsure if the Han Tan City where they had encountered for the first time was still there.

After crossing the mountains, Chu Mu saw a lonely city sitting at the foot of a mountain.

Fortunately, the city was still there. If it disappeared, then there would be one less witness to their encounter.

Chu Mu felt relieved inside. He walked to the city gate and remembered that she was standing expressionlessly next to her brother, Ye Wansheng, when they had first met each other. Ye Wansheng was quarrelling with a woman on the street, while she simply ignored it as his younger sister.

She had a pair of beautiful legs, that was Chu Mu's first impression of her. Even now, Chu Mu was never tired of her seductive legs.

From this city onwards, Chu Mu was no longer alone on his cultivation journey.

If he was injured, she would treat him. If he was lonely, she would chat with him. And all those things that had happened afterwards had made Chu Mu realize that he could not leave her.

When he was tired, he did not want to do anything other than simply hugging her. He would smell the familiar fragrance from her body and then fall asleep.

Right now, Chu Mu really wanted to just hug her. After walking out of the Imprint Valley, he had become strangely tired. He could feel that his faith was getting swallowed into the Imprint Valley along with that man's figure.

Chu Mu was also like a child sometimes and needed his woman to comfort him. Only by hugging her softly could he fall asleep peacefully.

This also showed that he deeply loved her.

.....

This time, Chu Mu finally smiled.

There was a woman with wonderful proportions standing alone at the city gate and waiting for someone.

A gentle breeze blew and made her hair flutter softly. Her beautiful face became even more charming as the strands of her hair stroked her cheeks.....

Chapter 1457: Wedding (1)

Chu Mu walked up to her with a warm smile. He simply hugged her wordlessly without caring about the passersby.

“Ah, so that lady was waiting for him. He's such a jerk, making a lady wait for two whole days,” An elderly who often took a walk around the city gate saw the couple hugging and smiled warmly.

The surrounding people also looked towards them enviously. They did not know that the couple were the King and Queen of New Moon Land, they only looked like a pair of lovers in their eyes.

Chu Mu lowered his head and gently kissed her.

Ye Qingzi did not apply any rouge on her lips. Her pink lips carried traces of redness to it. Soft, fragrant, and moist, a light kiss was like holding a cold dew in summer.

“You must have waited for a long time?” asked Chu Mu.

Ye Qingzi shook her head. Her clear eyes revealed traces of reliance and affection towards Chu Mu.

The two of them had been together for a long time. However, for some reason, the longing that they felt for each other had never really disappeared. Whenever they were separated for even a short time, Chu Mu wanted to see her as soon as possible.

Chu Mu gently combed her disheveled hair and held her hand, “Let’s go. We have plenty of time to create little Chu Mu’s or little Qingzi’s from now on.”

Ye Qingzi was still immersing herself in the touching moment, but that sentence had ruined the mood. She rolled her eyes and spoke, “Just like my impression of you when we first met. Hmph, full of dirty thoughts!”

“You knew that and yet you fell for it?” Chu Mu grinned.

Seeing Ye Qingzi pouting, Chu Mu knew that he should not go too far here and changed the topic, “Why did you choose to wait for me here?”

“I was thinking to myself, if we had never met in this city and accompanied each other on the journey, then we may have still been strangers and lived our own lives..... Just the thought of it scares me,” Ye Qingzi hugged Chu Mu’s arm tightly as if he might disappear from her sight any moment.

Chu Mu took a quick glance at this city. It was really normal and plain, but it held an important significance to Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi. They had started off from here and had experienced various events during their journey, eventually reaching their wedding ceremony. If not for this city, then they might have still been wandering around alone this summer.

Birch forest, garden, Tianxia City, perhaps those were places that had witnessed their love. However, Ye Qingzi had to be truly grateful to this rural Han Tan City. It was the place that had allowed her to meet Chu Mu.

Chu Mu felt his heart string being tightly pulled from Ye Qingzi’s words.

The fated other half of a person usually appeared unknowingly in their lives. From being strangers to being able to telepathically understand each other. The process of love was really beautiful, but what about the point of their meeting?

They might have missed each other carelessly, and that lonely self would have never known.

Ye Qingzi did not dwell on such pointless worry, so she felt even more gratitude and fortune.

“Let’s go, everyone must be waiting for us,” After a while, Ye Qingzi smiled and safely stored this emotion deep in her heart.

At least they had finally reached a satisfying conclusion, this was the result that they wanted.

“Yeah,” Chu Mu nodded.

Saying so, he suddenly pulled her and hugged Ye Qingzi in a princess carry, “I will carry you there.”

Ye Qingzi revealed a tinge of blush. Many people were watching them at the city gate, but they did not notice them as they were too focused on each other.

However, being loved by someone was always a blissful feeling. Ye Qingzi hugged Chu Mu’s neck firmly and leaned her cheek on his bosom, letting him carry her openly in public eyes.

Chu Mu slowly floated up and suddenly turned into a dark streak of light in an instant. They drew a beautiful arc in the boundless blue sky and quickly disappeared into the horizon.

Many people were watching Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi at the Han Tan City gate. When they saw the couple instantly flying far away, they were even more astonished by the sight and looked towards the horizon somewhat absentmindedly.

.....

The purple string flower decorated city was truly immersed in purple romance. The unique fragrance could be clearly smelled from even a dozen kilometers away from the city.

The Wanxiang City had lost its ancient and solemn appearance after such decorations. It looked more like an elegant lady right now, elegant, beautiful, and charming.....

Chu Mu's speed was very fast. It did not take too much time for them to reach Wanxiang City from Han Tan City.

However, they were not particularly in a rush to return to Wanxiang City, since the wedding ceremony was going to be two days later.

Chu Mu hugged Ye Qingzi and traveled from Han Tan City according to their memories. They trailed the path that they had taken in the past. Every city they had reached, every Bewildering World they had stopped at, every forest they had passed through, every river they had crossed.....

As long as it was a place where good memories could be reminisced, they would share a hot and deep kiss.

At an unknown town, at the stone chamber of the Great Chu Family, at the majestic Heaven Boundary Monument, at the west border of Lang He City, at Cai Qiong City with plenty of rocks, at Li Kingdom's Li City Garden, at Tianxia City's street.....

The more they reminisced, the deeper they loved each other.

Finally, when they had returned to Wanxiang City, they had shared intimate kisses for three days straight. After seeing the city full of purple string flowers blessing their wedding, the emotions that were accumulated over the three days had reached a climax.

Tears of happiness had moistened Ye Qingzi's eyes. When she left Wanxiang City, the city was still the same as usual. When Chu Mu brought her back, everyone had suddenly begun celebrating for them.

"If you cry so much, then you can't even put on makeup later. Everyone is waiting for us at the Wanxiang platform," reminded Chu Mu.

Ye Qingzi had suddenly lost all her courage. A large crowd was gathered on the platform in front of them. Then, a long purple mat was laid out along the sacred wedding altar stairs, reaching the Moon Viewing Platform step by step!

"Yes, yes," Ye Qingzi immediately held back her tears. It was going to be the most important moment of her life next, she must not let Chu Mu see her tear-stricken state.

.....

After returning to the palace, Ye Qingzi was soon pushed into a room with beautiful decorations by Liu Binglan's maidservants. They began assisting her to cleanse herself and change into her attire.

Chu Mu was the groom and naturally he also had to do the same.

After he changed, Liu Binglan personally helped Chu Mu with the final touches on his attire.

The groom's attire followed the Xiang Rong City's custom which was fiery red in color.

The attire did not have various complicated decorations on it. It was neat yet noble. As Chu Mu's special role as the King was also put into consideration, the groom's attire had the king's mantle and coat added on, it was handsome and exuded the majesty of a king. With fiery red as the main color, it completely portray's the manliness of the groom!

"Take a look in the mirror," said Liu Binglan with a smiling face.

As his mother, this was the first time that she had helped Chu Mu dress up after such a long time.

When Chu Mu was little, Liu Binglan's maidservants would be the ones looking after him. Even if Liu Binglan intended to help little Chu Mu wear clothes, she would probably have stuffed his head into a sleeve opening.

Later on, Chu Tianmang was in charge of it, so Liu Binglan did not get any chance to do it. After Chu Mu had grown up, it was needless to say. Chu Mu also felt a little awkward when Liu Binglan helped him dress up like this.

However, on this special day, Liu Binglan insisted on helping Chu Mu wear this groom's attire that she had supervised in tailoring. She had even practised wearing it on her maidservant a few times.

Liu Binglan was very careful when doing it. Her slightly clumsy hands were not as proficient as the maidservants. However, she still helped Chu Mu finish wearing this groom's attire. Watching the handsome and majestic Chu Mu, Liu Binglan felt very proud.

From the white and chubby infant to a toddler barely able to walk, then to a child who was slightly afraid of her, eventually to a composed youth. And now, he was a king of the new generation.....

Looking at Chu Mu's attire, the scenes of Chu Mu from an infant to a grown man kept flashing constantly in Liu Binglan's mind. Unknowingly, her eyes had moistened from the joy and emotions she felt throughout the years.

"Mother, why are you also crying?" Chu Mu did not understand Liu Binglan's emotion and was unsure on how to console her.

Liu Binglan lightly wiped away her tears. Her smile was still very gentle and heartwarming. She was not a cold beauty right now, but only a mother who was watching her son growing up to build a new family of his own.

"I will also go and prepare myself," Liu Binglan had to appear at the wedding ceremony together with Chu Mu, so she also needed to dress herself properly.

Chu Mu was currently a little distance away from Ye Qingzi, yet his thoughts kept wandering to her side.

The maidservants had gone out. Chu Mu was waiting quietly in the room all by himself.

It was not time yet, Chu Mu had no choice but to wait for a while.

Soon after, the door was gently pushed open.

“Is it time?” Chu Mu was a little excited and immediately stood up.

“Not yet,” A crisp female voice answered.

The woman walked in with light steps and passed through the screen. When she saw Chu Mu in that attire, her gaze clearly showed changes.

“Qingyi, why are you here?” Chu Mu was a little surprised. It was Mu Qingyi who had entered the room.

“You look well,” Mu Qingyi recollected herself and praised him with a smile.

“It’s rare to hear praise from Goddess Mu,” Chu Mu also smiled as he accepted her compliment.

“Qingzi takes a little more time to prepare, so I have come here to take a look,” Mu Qingyi seemed to be finding an excuse.

Mu Qingyi had also dressed herself up for this day. She coiled up her silky black hair, her golden dress revealed her soft skin. Her well proportioned and mature body always made others fantasize about it.

“Are you being treated well in Divine Sect?” asked Chu Mu.

Mu Qingyi's personality was suited for Divine Sect. She held an upright attitude towards justice and was merciless towards her enemies. Chu Mu believed that she could gain her own standing in Divine Sect in the future.

"I'm fine. I'm in charge of New Moon Land's border around this region. I would be in Wanxiang City normally if nothing happens," said Mu Qingyi.

Before Chu Mu could open his mouth, Mu Qingyi seemed to have noticed something and walked closer to him, "There's a fold on your shoulder, let me help you fix it."

Chu Mu nodded and remained on the spot. When Mu Qingyi approached him, he could smell a unique body fragrance exuding from her and accidentally caught a glimpse of the scenery inside her collar.

It was unintentional, so he quickly looked away.

His gaze met with Mu Qingyi's bright eyes which contained traces of gloominess within them.

She was still approaching and Chu Mu could feel her breath on his face.

Suddenly, her lips drew close and lightly kissed on the corner of Chu Mu's lips.

It felt a little cold and soft at the same time. Chu Mu was dumbfounded for a moment. He did not expect Mu Qingyi to kiss him.

“May happiness bless you two.”

Mu Qingyi’s gaze did not waver at all, she remained determined.

The kiss was also quite simple, there was no further action.

After saying that line, Mu Qingyi turned around and left with a little self mockery on her face, leaving the room with her fragrance and the slightly cold feeling on the corner of Chu Mu’s lips.

Chapter 1458: Wedding (2)

After Liu Binglan changed into an elegant dress, she arrived back at Chu Mu’s waiting room.

At that moment, she saw Mu Qingyi walking out from the room.

“Qingyi,” Liu Binglan called out to her.

Mu Qingyi looked up at Liu Binglan on reflex when she heard her name, but soon realized that her current expression was going to be seen. She hurriedly pretended not to hear anything and quickly left the place.

Liu Binglan watched her back and lightly sighed to herself. She then slowly walked into the room.

When Liu Binglan entered, Chu Mu was still standing in a daze.

“Did you hurt her?” asked Liu Binglan.

“No,” Chu Mu did not say anything at all and on top of that he was even kissed on the corner of his lips.

“Then why do I see something in her eyes?” said Liu Binglan.

Mu Qingyi had left resolutely. Chu Mu remembered that her gaze was determined. However, right after she walked out of the room, she took a deep breath and took off her disguise. That scene was coincidentally witnessed by Liu Binglan.

“She also loves you,” said Liu Binglan.

“Mhm,” Chu Mu nodded and did not say anything further.

Mu Qingyi’s feelings for Chu Mu had always been somewhat vague. She had never told Chu Mu about them, and Chu Mu also naturally did not ask. They had maintained the attitude of remaining silent.

Originally, Chu Mu had thought that it would have stayed like that until the end. However, he had never thought that on the day of his wedding, Mu Qingyi would suddenly come to him and sneak a kiss.

What’s wrong with this woman? She kissed someone else’s groom, then blessed the couple, isn’t she completely messing with my feelings?

“How do you intend to handle this?” asked Liu Binglan.

Chu Mu did not answer. Such a matter did not have a concept of handling it or not in the first place.

“Oh you, I don’t see you flirting with others, and yet why do so many girls love you?” teased Liu Binglan.

“I also don’t know,” Chu Mu scratched his head helplessly. He felt embarrassed when Liu Binglan said that.

“Chat with her if you have the chance,” said Liu Binglan.

“Yeah, one day,” Chu Mu’s wedding had certainly hurt Mu Qingyi’s feelings. However, Chu Mu had put most of his mind on Ye Qingzi right now. This kind of messy feeling would be left for the future.

.....

The auspicious time had finally arrived. The elegant Liu Binglan held Chu Mu’s hand and walked towards the yard that looked just like a purple Immortal realm due to the decorations.

The ground that Chu Mu walked on would be laid with a flower mat. Each step left a footprint on it, indicating the path towards the wedding ceremony.

“Where are they?” Chu Mu did not see Ye Qingzi in the yard and was a little anxious now.

Don't tell me that there's another custom?

"The bride has to be the last to appear. It's time, we will be walking out slowly. Can you hear the cheers from outside?" said Liu Binglan with a smile.

"Yes," Chu Mu did hear the loud cheering coming from outside rising like a tide.

"Come, one step at a time, do not rush," reminded Liu Binglan.

During the wedding ceremony, stepping on the flower mat was also an important matter. The steps had to be both soft and slow. It would be like certain roaming dance steps. Liu Binglan knew that Chu Mu had never practised something like that before. So she would be properly teaching him before walking out of the Soul Palace.

Chu Mu had learned it fairly quickly. By the time they had walked out of the Soul Palace, Chu Mu noticed that those silver-armored Holy Guards were now fully armed and were neatly lined up along the Soul Palace stairs!

The silver armor reflected the dazzling light, the Holy Guards were neat and well trained.

When Chu Mu and Liu Binglan walked out, a thousand Holy Guards half knelt simultaneously in perfect harmony. The scene was truly spectacular and majestic!

"Summon!"

Holy Guard Chief Zhuo Nong shouted solemnly.

Next, all the Holy Guards began chanting. The soul pets they summoned were all Lin Yin Beasts. Their bodies were also covered by well crafted silver armor, matching the armor that was worn by the Holy Guards!

“Align, march!”

Holy Guard Chief Zhuo Nong firmly made the next order.

All the Holy Guards rode their silver battle beasts and lined up into a long silver dragon. They advanced harmoniously on both sides of Chu Mu and Liu Binglan as they moved towards Wanxiang Platform.

Chu Mu looked straight forward. The road leading towards Wanxiang Platform was straight. He could clearly see a sea of excited people and countless swaying purple string flowers!

The silver dragons slowly moved forward. They maintained their pace to match with Chu Mu. While appearing majestic, there was also a beauty in their uniformity.

.....

The feverish cheers were slowly getting closer and closer. Chu Mu could hear countless people shouting “King Chu!” “King Chu!” “King Chu!”.

They were as feverish as pure blind faith. Worship, respect, love, gratitude, Chu Mu saw the faces and the gazes of all those people.

They all held a bunch of flowers. There were even some girls forming teams and offering flowers as well as their beautiful dances when Chu Mu and his Holy Guard army walked close to them.

Wanxiang City held many festivals, but Chu Mu had never participated in any of them.

Everyone knew that there was a young King in New Moon Land, but they did not really get a chance to see him at all.

Now that the handsomely dressed Chu Mu had appeared in front of them, all of them were extremely excited. If the Holy Guard army did not open the path ahead, then Chu Mu might not even have been able to reach Wanxiang Platform.

The flower mat extended all the way to the wedding altar on the platform. The area around the wedding platform was an empty space. The ground was also covered in purple string flower petals. Perhaps, no woman would be able to resist if a man held her hands and walked towards that purple sea of flowers.

Chu Mu reached the foot of the wedding altar stairs under the guidance of Liu Binglan.

The Holy Guards spread out to the surroundings in an orderly manner. Their Lin Yin Beasts did not make any mistake or step onto any of the flower petals.

When Chu Mu stopped there, the cheers suddenly became even louder. That overwhelming passion was crashing towards him like a wave.

No matter how emotionless a person was, such a scene could easily affect even that person.

“Look at the sky,” Liu Binglan told Chu Mu.

Chu Mu raised his head and saw the elegant and pure white birds flying through Wanxiang City’s sky.

Those were Immortal Ming Birds. They danced beautifully in the sky like elegant ladies.

A thousand Immortal Ming Birds flew past in the sky above the crowd. The beautiful curve had caused countless girls to scream out feverishly.

It was truly a breath-taking flight. All of that was done in order to emphasize the arrival of the woman wearing a holy blue bride dress!

During the flight of those Immortal Ming Birds, countless tiny life forms like petals were slowly drifting down from the sky.

They were Fairy Butterflies.

Graceful, light, and agile, those Fairy Butterflies were all purple in color, representing the color of love from the purple string flowers. They flew around in the air and formed into a huge moving flower, gradually descending while holding up a woman wearing a holy blue bride dress on top of themselves.....

Holy blue color represented purity and nobility. The beautiful bride dress had robbed the thoughts of everyone present. Meanwhile, the woman who was wearing this bride dress looked just like a deity descending into the mortal realm, sacred and beautiful!

Back in Xiang Rong City, Chu Mu had witnessed Ye Qingzi dressing up properly. There were many brides appearing along with her back then.

However, be it the brides who were competing for beauty or for descending like a deity, she remained peerless in beauty.

The purple Fairy Butterflies were naturally the work of Ning Maner. Only she could make those little creatures which preferred freedom to perform such a role.

Chu Mu had to admit, getting accompanied by those Fairy Butterflies added some more points of femininity and nobleness to Ye Qingzi.

When she slowly descended in front of him, when the Fairy Butterflies scattered, when she slightly raised the corners of her lips and smiled towards him, he became completely mesmerized by her.

Liu Binglan pushed Chu Mu a little to wake him up. Chu Mu also smiled in return, his smile was honest.

Liu Binglan held Chu Mu's right hand and Ye Qingzi's left hand.

“Follow my steps,” Liu Binglan told the two of them.

“Chu Mu, look forward, don’t keep staring at Qingzi,” Liu Binglan glared at Chu Mu.

“Oh, oh,” Chu Mu nodded.

Ye Qingzi smiled, the mesmerized Chu Mu was also rather cute.

As a senior, as well as a mother to both of them, she was the best wedding witness for them.

With her bringing Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi up the wedding altar, it meant that the parents had officially acknowledged the relationship between this pair of newlyweds.

After walking up the wedding altar, Liu Binglan took a step back and gracefully pulled the hands of the two of them close to each other's, then put Ye Qingzi’s hand in Chu Mu’s.

Liu Binglan smiled, “You two will walk this last part yourselves.”

There was still the Moon Viewing Platform left above the wedding altar.

Moon represented reproduction, it represented love. Walking up to the Moon Viewing Altar would be the most important moment of the wedding ceremony. The final stairs could only be finished by the two of them alone.

Chu Mu raised his head and noticed that there were no stairs leading to the Moon Viewing Platform which was floating in the sky, so he asked, “Do I carry Qingzi and fly up there?”

“Don’t be so crude,” Liu Binglan rolled her eyes.

“Hehe,” Chu Mu laughed awkwardly.

Everything had to be graceful and slow during the process of the wedding ceremony.

“I have already paved the path for you two,” said Liu Binglan.

She began chanting and summoned Star Sky Dust Spirit.

Star Sky Dust Spirit pointed forward and countless tiny stars started paving out a path like cobblestones. They became a beautiful road of stars between the wedding altar and the Moon Viewing Platform.

Chu Mu held Ye Qingzi’s hand and followed the steps as Liu Binglan had taught him. They slowly stepped onto the special stairs.

One step, two steps, three steps. At every step, Chu Mu would take a quick glance at Ye Qingzi. Ye Qingzi’s cheeks were like snow and jade. A tint of blush would gradually spread out when she felt shy, adding some tempting allure to the sacredness.

“Keep going,” pouted Ye Qingzi.

This evil man is just tantalizing now. The Moon Viewing Platform is right in front of him, yet he just stops there.

Chu Mu had stopped because he was mesmerized by her. The pouting Ye Qingzi was even more alluring than normal.

Countless people were watching from beneath the wedding altar. However, Chu Mu just stopped there without caring about the customs at all. He looked at his bride with a feverish gaze.

Chapter 1459: Wedding (3)

“Ai, I’ll admit it. On this day, Chu Mu is more handsome than me.” Ye Wansheng pouted his lips and sourly watched countless people crowd around Chu Mu. There were also people pervertedly reaching out their hands to grab his younger sister.

But speaking truthfully, Ye Wansheng was feeling rather gratified being able to see these two people walk to this point today.

He remembered way back when he asked Chu Mu: “Are you really not interested in my younger sister?”

Chu Mu nodded his head very confidently, yes!

Ye Wansheng understood his younger sister very well, but even he didn’t expect that after being held captive at the Great Chu Family, he happened to give Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi an opportunity to be alone, and for some kind of emotions to breed between them.

Ye Wansheng was glad. He was glad that Ye Qingzi had met a reliable man.

“Ye Qingzi is so blessed! I also want a wedding!” Shen Yue grabbed onto Ye Wansheng’s arm and looked like she was smitten.

Shen Yue was Nightmare Palace’s Princess. If she got married, it would certainly be very grand. What female wouldn’t feel envious when they saw the solemn and dignified silver holy guards, the purple romantic bouquets, and the beautiful Immortal Ming Birds soaring through the air and the starry path leading to the moon lookout...

“Ye Wansheng, did you hear what I said?!” angrily said Shen Yue. This bastard was acting like he didn’t hear her!

“I’m feeling hurt because my younger sister was swindled away by someone else.” Ye Wansheng pretended to look reluctant.

He, in fact, was really feeling reluctant. This was a girl who had followed him around for so many years. He had watched her grow up from a young girl to a mature beauty. As a brother watching his younger sister marrying someone else, he obviously felt a bit reluctant. But most importantly, this could be used to shift the topic!

Indeed, Shen Yue didn’t notice his intentions and really thought he was feeling hurt. She began to console him.

The adjacent Chao Lengchuan looked very suspiciously at Ye Wansheng. He really didn’t believe his words.

“Lengchuan, I also want a wedding!” said Xi Zhixian like a pampered girl. This tone was the same spoiled tone Shen Yue had used.

Xi Zhixian was mature and easy going. Thus, when she used a coquettish and pampered tone, men didn’t want to sit there and do nothing about it. Chao Lengchuan almost instantly nodded his head.

“You responded so fast. It definitely wasn’t sincere.” harrumphed Xia Zhixian.

Chao Lengchuan forced a smile. Ye Wansheng putting off the question led to him being criticized. And when he responded quickly, it also led to him being criticized. What was he supposed to do?

Again, it was Chu Mu who was blessed. He had managed to perfectly pick up a beauty.

“I’m being serious,” said Chao Lengchuan.

“Every man says the same thing. I don’t believe you.” said Xia Zhixian.

“Then what do I have to do to make you believe me?” Chao Lengchuan was a bit anxious. He really wanted to marry Xia Zhixian as the Crown Prince’s Imperial Concubine now so as to prevent something unpredictable from happening in the future.

Chao Lengchuan’s mind was very naive. He was still afraid that Xia Zhixian would leave him. He had to make it so that it was too late for her to change her mind, and she would eventually be dead set on him.

“Ok, I believe you. Let’s talk about this later. I still need to test you a little.” Xia Zhixian threw Chao Lengchuan a charming gaze.

Chao Lengchuan forced a smile. Why was his situation the exact opposite of Ye Wansheng’s?

“Fine. I’m someone who can take the test.” Chao Lengchuan didn’t try and rush things. Why not take it slow? At the very least, Chao Lengchuan could feel that Xia Zhixian, this mature woman, was slowly falling into his hands.

“Do you think that a woman like Master will eventually be married one day?” asked Xia Zhixian.

Chao Lengchuan knew that Xia Zhixian was talking about Yu Suo. He didn’t understand why she was still particularly loyal to Yu Suo. Initially, Chao Lengchuan had used some mental control on her. But he later discovered that Xia Zhixian’s devotion to her was from within the heart. As for why, Xia Zhixian would never say.

“There probably isn’t a person in this world willing to marry her, eh? Also, does she even understand what feelings are?” said Chao Lengchuan.

“I agree with your first point, but I don’t agree with your second. Her good side manifested out of life. How would you guys know how many of New Moon Land’s people she has saved before? Did you really think those servants, who would go to hell or high water for her, do so because she possesses a flower’s charm? The charm is only temporary, and once the person awakens from the charm, they will loathe her. Only a kind act like giving someone a second chance at life will be remembered by people. In other words, only kind acts related to someone’s honor or life will make that person willing to pledge their life to her. Thus, on this point, I feel that even Xiao Maner is inferior to her.” earnestly said Xia ZHixian.

“I see. Right now, she’s considered one of our people. It’s impolite for me to say anything.” said Chao Lengchuan.

“She has sympathy, compassion, grief, and anger. What do you mean she doesn’t understand feelings? Rather, it’s just that we don’t understand her feelings.” said Xia Zhixian.

Chao Lengchuan didn’t want to argue with Xia Zhixian, nor was there a need to.

“Haha, do you really want to know what she’s like when she likes someone?” Xia Zhixian didn’t care if Chao Lengchuan didn’t want to hear as she continued.

“I actually want to know that.” when Chao Lengchuan thought of that arrogant queen exposing a restless and in-love expression, he really thought it would be an interesting scene.

Chao Lengchuan thought again and asked: “Speaking of which, what if she one day falls for Chu Mu? What would that be like?”

“If she wants something, she’ll get it... oh, she’ll probably have it to herself. If that time comes, Ye Qingzi will be in trouble.” Xia Zhixian laughed.

“Eh, let’s not talk about that.” Chao Lengchuan hastily changed the topic.

Today was Ye Qingzi and Chu Mu’s wedding. It wasn’t too polite to gossip about Chu Mu here.

“They’re walking to the moon lookout.” Xia Zhixian stopped her casual guesses and focused on the couple wearing a fiery red ceremonial robe and a holy blue wedding dress. Her eyes gradually began to change.

Taking advantage of when Chao Lengchuan didn’t notice, Xia Zhixian sneaked a peak at Chao Lengchuan’s face. She seemed to imagine something in her head as a sliver of embarrassment that was difficult to spot flashed across her eyes.

.....

Cheers roared once more.

Everyone was holding up a bouquet in the plaza and on the streets. As Chu Mu led Ye Qingzi to the marriage moon lookout, these people threw the purple-colored bouquets into the air!

“Kiss her!!!”

“Kiss her!!!”

When people threw their bouquets into the air, the groom had to kiss the bride. Moreover, the kiss had to last until the purple flowers landed on the ground.

Chu Mu was a person to not bother about the trifles and abided with the common will. He boldly grabbed Ye Qingzi’s waist and pulled her into his embrace as he placed his lips on her pink and fragrant lips.

Over the past three days, Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi had no less than a hundred passionate kisses in different locations and at different times of day. However, they had never kissed in Wanxiang City under the fiery gazes of innumerable people.

Ye Qingzi didn't expect Chu Mu to move so quickly. Before she could even get embarrassed, her lips were monopolized by Chu Mu.

At first, she felt slightly uncomfortable since there were countless gazes watching them. Ye Qingzi was a woman who wasn't as shameless as a man.

Gradually, as Chu Mu got into it, Ye Qingzi was no longer as passive. The cheers in her ears kept growing louder, but eventually, only Chu Mu was left in her heart.

She didn't care how many people were here to congratulate her. What she cared more about was that the person next to her when she stepped onto the moon lookout marriage altar was Chu Mu.

As the emotions stirred, Ye Qingzi was no longer as passive and began to slightly react.

She grabbed Chu Mu's neck and her soft breasts pushed into Chu Mu's broad chest as she lightly stood on her tiptoes...

Their lips touched and brushed as their tongues softly tangled with each other. Sometimes they would softly kiss with affection, while other times they couldn't hold back their feelings and deeply kiss. This was a world that only belonged to the two of them.

A kiss between the king and the queen seemed to ignite the feelings between the couples in the plaza. Numerous people who brought their lovers began to deeply kiss their significant other. Today, Wanxiang City was pervaded with romance, and a heavy affection between man and woman.

In the plaza, among all the different men and women, a snowy skin woman glared at the adjacent man, saying: "What are you throwing the bouquet so high for?"

"So that they would kiss longer." mischievously laughed the man.

"Aren't you scared of being stifled?" Lin Mengling turned her face as she felt somewhat unhappy inside.

These people really were something. Kissing each other in front of everyone!

More importantly, right now people around her were kissing their partners, while she just foolishly stood there.

In front of a world of couples, even Divine Sect's heavenly pride, Lin Mengling, was at a loss. This was a world that ignored status and strength. It only cared about whether one had someone they liked.

"How about we also..." Xia Yin mischievously raised his brows as he spoke to Lin Mengling.

"You dare?!" Lin Mengling's eyes were filled with anger as she glared at Xia Yin.

“What don’t I dare not do?” Xia Yin withdrew his mischievous smile as he suddenly grabbed Lin Mengling’s thin waist and pulled her into his arms!

Lin Mengling was terrified by the sudden action and before she could react, she felt the fiery aura of a man. Then, her small lips were covered by someone else. She couldn’t curse even if she wanted to.

Atmosphere was a weird thing. If the people around a person were cheering, the emotions of this person would be easily affected and he or she would join everyone in the cheers.

And when everyone around was quietly and impassionately kissing their lovers, their intoxication and passion from the kiss, as well as their deep affection, would make every single person feel envious. And for those who had never felt the feeling of a kiss before, they would want to try...

Lin Mengling really had hoped that someone would kiss her at that moment because she wanted to have a taste of that feeling. Thus, she saw the only man next to her, Xia Yin, as a fantasy. But this was just a fantasy; she couldn’t actually make it a reality.

However, she completely did not expect that Xia Yin had actually dared kiss her even without her consent!

It was sour and rough. It wasn’t as sweet as she imagined. But for some reason, it seemed to touch her heart.

Xia Yin knew that Lin Mengling didn’t have any experience. Thus, after the initial kiss, he slowly and softly guided her one step at a time.

.....

“Pai!!!!”

The long kiss finally ended with a loud slap.

“Bastard, I’m going to send you to Divine Sect’s Execution Tower using my status as Vice Magistrate!” Lin Mengling angrily pointed at Xia Yin after slapping him.

Xia Yin indifferently laughed. He glanced at the bouquet he had thrown that still hadn’t landed on the ground and said: “Since I’m going to die, I may as well kiss you again.”

As he spoke, Xia Yin lowered his head and kissed her!

Chapter 1460: Being Unfair to Ye Qingzi

Bouquets of flowers that filled the sky began to rain down from the air on the heads and shoulders of the countless couples passionately kissing.

Most of the bouquets had hit the ground by now, and numerous couples had already finished their passionate kisses. They were tightly holding each other like the king and queen were.

“Who was the one who threw the bouquet so high up. How loathsome. I thought we kissed for the longest period of time.” when Shen Yue opened her eyes, she discovered that the bouquets covering the sky had all fallen, but there were still a few bouquets slowly floating down.

On the moon lookout, Chu Mu watched the last bouquet that fell and happened to see two familiar figures in the crowd.

“You recognize them?” Ye Qingzi was intimately cuddled in Chu Mu’s embrace. She spoke with a slightly red face.

“Xia Yin really is bold.” laughed Chu Mu.

It seemed that inviting Xia Yin and Lin Mengling had ended up bringing the two of them together.

Before when they were in Imprint Valley, the two of them had seemed very normal, like regular friends. He never expected that they would do as their desires wanted in his territory. One was the pearl of Divine Sect, and the other was the famous Beiming City City Lord. If Zhengming City were to find out these people had passionately kissed in Wanxiang City, it would create a huge commotion.

Of course, if Lin Mengling knew what Chu Mu was thinking, she would definitely be incredibly mad, because she had been forcibly kissed by Xia Yin. She wanted to throw Xia Yin, that bastard into the Execution Tower!!

“So next up is to enter the bridal room?” Chu Mu mischievously looked at Ye Qingzi.

Ye Qingzi today was particularly bewitching. She had already greatly aroused him.

“Didn’t you think that the wedding procedures were very uninteresting and complicated? Only at the last procedure are you satisfied?” Ye Qingzi did something surprising, and didn’t roll her eyes at Chu Mu. Instead, she just cutely blinked her eyes.

Customs, etiquette, and formality continued from afternoon until dusk and then until the moon shone. Unknowingly, an entire day passed. There were indeed complications, but this was still a wedding that would be difficult to forget over an entire lifetime. Especially when numerous couples had passionately kissed because of him and Ye Qingzi, the scene had been magnificent and incredible.

Perhaps there were many other men and women present, besides Xia Yin and Lin Mengling, who hadn’t confessed to the other, and had finally taken the bold step to get together because of this wedding. Wasn’t this very important?

The bright moon hung in the air as its spotless white glow showered on the moon lookout, making it seem like a beautiful human stage.

Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi stood on top as they waved their hands at the countless citizens below. They spoke a few words of thanks and best wishes.

The party after the wedding didn’t belong to Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi because their party occurred in their lover’s nest. The party after the wedding belonged to those who wished Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi well.

It was a celebration with songs and dance where fine wine and food flowed, while various performances and scattered ceremonies occurred. This was a beautiful evening. Numerous people were very intoxicated and many others passionately enjoyed the night...

.....

Inside an elegant courtyard came the happy laughter from outside. Men and women, young and old. Tonight was endless festivities.

Mu Qingyi had symbolically appeared on a few occasions, but had left the nighttime celebration. She was holding a glass of wine, resting against a glossy and artistic stone. She was looking up at the bright and curved moon like she was lost in thought.

“Why are you drinking alone here? You know that some people like weddings while others don’t. Isn’t this the best validation for you?” a woman’s voice rang out.

This voice was rather pleasant, but it still disturbed Mu Qingyi’s current mood. Mu Qingyi creased her brows and somewhat languidly looked at the unwelcomed guest.

As Mu Qingyi looked at her, she also looked back at Mu Qingyi.

Mu Qingyi today indeed was different than normal. She was lacking her usual single-colored, dignified and serious clothing; instead, her clothing had more of a charming and bewitching nature of a mature woman. Due to the alcohol, the red on her face made her look even more beautiful and moving.

She also had the figure, curves, and elegance that would make the vast majority of women jealous, as well as an enticing grandeur.

Mu Guangxue couldn’t understand why Chu Mu had rejected such a beautiful and moving woman.

“What did you come here for?” Mu Qingyi looked at Mu Guangxue and spoke in not too friendly manner.

“I’m only here to represent the Mu Tong branch to negotiate a few things with the person in charge of New Moon Land. You are also considered part of our branch, so we’re hoping to go through you to solve these issues.” smiled Mu Guangxue.

Mu Guangxue was a member of the Mu Family Dynasty who occupied a rather high status. When Mu Qingyi was in Zhengming Main City, she had met her. They couldn’t be considered familiar, nor could they be considered strangers.

“Find the person you need to find yourself and have a talk with that person. If there’s nothing else, don’t bother me.” indifferently said Mu Qingyi.

“Do you really not have any unwillingness?” said Mu Guangxue.

“What unwillingness?” asked Mu Qingyi, confused.

“I dare say that as long as a person has a brain, he or she will be able to see that you’re acting very strangely today. From what I understand, you have your own enchanting story with King Chu, right?” said Mu Guangxue.

Mu Qingyi’s eyes instantly turned ice cold.

If it were Ye Wansheng or Chao Lengchuan cracking a joke like this, she wouldn’t care since there was a time in Wanxiang City where there were rumors of a vague relationship between her and Chu Mu.

Most importantly, Mu Qingyi had hinted to Chu Mu before that she was willing to get together with him. Unfortunately, Chu Mu had tactfully declined, obviously because of Ye Qingzi.

However, if this matter was coming from someone who didn't know her well, that was something completely different. Especially on Chu Mu and Ye Qingzi's wedding night!

This Mu Guangxue had researched everything about her!

"What would I be unwilling about?" Mu Qingyi remained calm and retracted her cold intent.

Right now, she really wasn't in a mood to involve herself in a scheme with this woman.

"It's very rare for a person with your character to find someone they like; yet you have to watch as he marries another woman. There are things you need to fight for and not just sit there and wait," said Mu Guangxue.

"You seem to have a lot of experience?" coldly said Mu Qingyi. She didn't deny or admit her feelings.

"I can help you," said Mu Guangxue.

Mu Qingyi looked at Mu Guangxue and for a while didn't say anything.

“How can you help?” finally, Mu Qingyi was the one to speak.

“You are a quiet and reserved person, but the moment your heart is stirred, it will be difficult to free yourself. Have you not considered the fact that the next half of your life will be spent alone in an ice cold palace? No matter how great your achievements are or how many feats you achieve, there will be no one to share them with? The only thing you can do is drink like you are right now where you want to cry but can’t?” said Mu Guangxue.

Mu Qingyi went silent again.

She remembered back then when Chu Mu had rejected her, she hadn’t placed much attention on it, but after coming into contact with him more, she began to slowly feel increasingly depressed.

When the people around her talked about her relationship with Chu Mu, they were all teasing her and some were even serious about it. However, only Mu Qingyi knew that, aside from their passionate kiss in Universe Ice Gates where they couldn’t hold back, they had remained like friends. Chu Mu wouldn’t cross that boundary, and the noble and virtuous Mu Qingyi wasn’t willing to become the lover in an already committed relationship.

However, in reality, wasn’t Mu Guangxue right?

Mu Qingyi hoped that she would be able to meet someone she liked even more and eventually be able to forget. She also believed that by not seeing Chu Mu for these past years, she would slowly be able to forget these feelings that originally didn’t exist.

However, why was it so hard to bear when he officially got married!

When Mu Guangxue saw that Mu Qingyi's expression had gotten gloomy, she knew she was right on the mark.

"You probably know that there are rivals in relationships. There are many times when you view the other as a rival and manage to either eliminate or push them out of the picture that you're able to obtain what you want." continued Mu Guangxue.

"I don't know how to do it." Mu Qingyi shook her head.

"I said that I could help you." continued Mu Guangxue.

"How?" asked Mu Qingyi for a second time.

"You just need to remember that I can help you. As for how, we'll take things slowly. If you had acted earlier, things wouldn't be as they are now. If you want to be the queen, you need to take your time." said Mu Guangxue.

"I don't want to be the queen," said Mu Qingyi.

"Then you want to give up?"

Mu Qingyi remained silent.

“That doesn’t matter. Just do as I say. If you put in a bit of effort, you’ll be able to obtain what you want.” consoled Mu Guangxue, “Have a good think about it, whether you want to put your all into a fight for your feelings, or whether you want to live in eternal regret...”

After speaking, Mu Guangxue turned around and left. She felt that Mu Qingyi had remembered her words, meaning that her goal had been accomplished. She couldn’t be overly hasty since Mu Qingyi wasn’t a stupid person.

As she watched Mu Guangxue leave, Mu Qingyi slowly descended into deep thought. While she was in deep thought, her eyes lacked the bewilderment she just had. Instead, her eyes were filled with suspicion and coldness.

.....

“Junior martial sister, you’re looking for me?” Xu Daofeng ran in reeking of alcohol.

He looked somewhat enchantedly and absent-mindedly at Mu Qingyi. Mu Qingyi today was indeed particularly beautiful. She would make people’s eyes light up.

“Yes, help me look into Mu Guangxue’s most recent movements.” Mu Qingyi’s expression was serious as she spoke.

“For what reason?” asked Xu Daofeng, confused.

“I’m guessing she wants to harm Ye Qingzi. I’m not sure if there’s someone behind her instructing her.” Mu Qingyi’s eyes flashed with sharpness and intelligence!

“Eh? Really?! Who has the guts to do that!” Xu Daofeng was stunned and sobered up, “Ok, I’ll send a few underlings to investigate. Should I inform Chu Mu now?”

“Let’s deal with it ourselves. We’ll wait for more precise information before we speak to him. This is just my guess.” said Mu Qingyi.

“Oh...” Xu Daofeng nodded his head. He took a glance at Mu Qingyi’s expression and softly asked: “Qingyi, are you ok? Everyone was worried about you just now.”

“What?” Mu Qingyi didn’t initially understand the meaning of his words. A while later she finally understood that Xu Daofeng was consoling her.

She calmly said: “I’m fine.”
