Chapter 1481: Invitation Letter from Two Great Royalty

“Speaking of which, is the situation in Hidden Pupil Royalty doing alright?” Cloud Gate Elder changed the topic.

“How alright can it get? Those that ought to be split up are split up, and those that ought to be engaging in internal struggle are still engaged in internal struggle. By the time they understand the meaning of unity, how will it be possible for those factions to rule over humanity? They’re a group of obstinate and stupid people.” Yu Bo sighed as he shook his head.

“Along the same lines, 20 years have passed already. Why haven’t the two royal families convened a meeting? Have these 20 years really been that tranquil?” said Cloud Gate Elder.

It had been a long time since Cloud Gate Elder had left New Moon Land. However, he understood many things about the outside world.

“They’re about to. I estimate that in a little bit, I will take a trip with Female Supreme to Dual Earth Mountain. I’m sure the bigshots from various places will show themselves then.” said Yu Bo.

“She’s going? Isn’t that not appropriate?!” immediately said Cloud Gate Elder.

“Brat Chu doesn’t pay attention to these things. Obviously she’s the one going. Moreover, the madam also wishes to see her.” said Yu Bo.

“Ai, your family’s matters are truly complicated. Why are you doing things like this? Such a grand royal family that once ruled over humanity has become so strange.” said Cloud Gate Elder.

“Who wanted it to be like this? This person wants to become the lord and that person also wants to become the lord; yet, none of them wish to start a war over it. They’re just procrastinating and delaying it like this. Both sides are fighting and plotting against each other, killing off all the good young successors and ending lineages...” a trace of haggardness flashed in Yu Bo’s eyes.

As the two of them were speaking, Wanxiang City gradually returned to its normal state. The lamps illuminated the city’s buildings, accentuating their grandiose and dignified nature.

The two old men simultaneously glanced at the area creating the darkness and were silent for a long while. Cloud Gate Elder then said: “I’m actually very optimistic about this brat.”

“Haha, who isn’t?”

Chu Mu was rather direct when he did things. He decided to go to North Ice to cultivate and on the morning of the second day he planned on leaving.

“Huh? You’re leaving now?” Ning Maner stared at him wide eyes at Chu Mu who was already prepared to embark.

“When did you want to wait until?” Chu Mu said unhappily. Ning Maner was still dressed in her sleeping wear, her hair was a mess and she still looked drowsy.

However, she looked very cute like this, especially her messy hair. One had to wonder how she slept at night to make her hair like this.

“I need to pack some things. I have many things!” said Ning Maner.

Ning Maner knew that Chu Mu would always use months or even years to count the time while cultivating. Thus, she had to bring everything she needed. Things to eat, play, wear, use, pass the time, and hold to sleep...

Ning Maner enjoyed wandering the streets and bought a whole heap of small objects. Her entire room was filled with these sparkling and pretty jewelry and things to put on her head.

“Whatever, we’ll leave in the afternoon. Pack up.” Chu Mu forced a smile as he looked at Ning Maner. He guessed she wanted to pack everything in her room into her spatial ring.

“Ok!” Ning Maner hastily nodded her head.

After leaving her room, Chu Mu went to Female Supreme Palace.

Since he was going a long ways away, he was going to say something to Liu Binglan.

When he arrived at Female Supreme Palace, Chu Mu walked straight to the sleeping quarters.

The only man who could walk straight into the sleeping quarters was Chu Mu. The serving girls didn’t stop or make a report when they saw him. Liu Binglan, when she was freshening up, wasn’t someone everyone could see.

When Chu Mu entered the sleeping quarters, he saw two serving girls helping Liu Binglan comb her hair while two other serving girls were packing clothes.

Chu Mu discovered that the two serving girls were packing travel clothing and items. He was befuddled. Did Liu Binglan want to go training with him?

Liu Binglan saw Chu Mu from the mirror and a smile rose on her cold face.

“Mother, where are you going?” Chu Mu asked, confused.

“Dual Earth Mountain,” responded Liu Binglan.

“What place is that?”

“Look at this invitation letter.” Liu Binglan had the serving girl next to the table hand over the letter to Chu Mu.

Chu Mu opened the grand looking invitation and glanced over the contents.

The contents were rather straightforward. It was inviting New Moon Land’s king to participate in Dual Earth Mountain’s conference. The words were very polite, not any different from invitations normally received from large border territories.

The only difference was that the inviting party this time were two mysterious factions.

Hidden Pupil Royalty and Wupan Royalty!

Chu Mu learned a bit about Hidden Pupil Royalty in Zhengming Main City. Chu Mu still remembered that the attack on Liu Binglan ostensibly had something to do with Hidden Pupil Royalty.

As for Wupan Royalty, they were a clan in Wupan Continent and were also the true lords that ruled Wupan Continent.

Wupan Royalty and Hidden Pupil Royalty were both semi-concealed families. They didn't participate in managing the human realm, but if something big happened regarding humanity, they would appear.

From the respect shown by Divine Sect and the other big factions to the royal families, these two royal families were probably extremely special existences in the human realm. Nonetheless, Chu Mu was still unclear what kind of position they occupied in the human realm.

“Yu Bo told me that this is humanity's highest conference. Every person or faction that receives an invitation must participate. Our New Moon Land conceals the huge hidden danger of the Ancient Flood Dragon Person. Although we have already informed Divine Sect, Divine Sect has yet to give a concrete response. Yu Bo wants me to use this conference to explain the Ancient Flood Dragon Person situation and see if I can obtain a solution in the conference.” said Liu Binglan.

The moment the powerful Ancient Flood Dragon Person awakened, it wouldn't only affect New Moon Land. The ten thousand year immortal Dark Death King's appearance was enough to prove that a creature of this rank would cause terrifying destruction to humanity.

If such a disastrous matter could be anticipated earlier and resolved beforehand, that would be for the best. Presumably, the leaders of these factions wouldn't just ignore such a hidden danger.

"It's obviously good if human experts can show themselves and resolve this matter." Chu MU nodded his head. It was indeed necessary to participate in this conference.

"The conference will take place in a year. I'll go visit a few of our allied border kingdoms and factions first. Then I'll go to Zhengming Main City for a bit before finally going to Dual Earth Mountain. Don't spend too long cultivating in North Ice Forbidden Region. If you have the opportunity to come back, then come back. It'll be better if you personally attend this conference." said Liu Binglan.

"Ok, I'll try my best." Chu Mu nodded his head.

Chu Mu himself didn't have a good grasp on how long he would cultivate for. If he could raise his soul pets' strength as fast as possible, Chu Mu would obviously be able to return at ease. However, if he didn't complete the advance in rank, Chu Mu would be delayed in North Ice Forbidden Region for some time.

Fortunately, North Ice Forbidden Region wasn't too far from New Moon Land. A round trip wouldn't take too long and if something happened in New Moon Land, he would be able to return.

"What happened last night?" Liu Binglan thought of the excessively thick dark element last night and inquired about it.

"Night advanced a rank." Chu Mu cracked a smile.

“Yup!” Chu Mu nodded his head.

Currently, aside from his devil transformation, Night was the strongest. There existed a definite difference between the pseudo immortal and low class immortal rank. He only needed to raise his strength slightly by a level and if he were to encounter those people from Imprint Valley again, even without the Martial Cloud Dragon or the devil transformation, he would be able to deal with them.

Of course, the one Chu Mu remembered the most was still the incredibly arrogant Navy Chieftain!

Chu Mu would have to take his revenge. When his strength was enough, he wouldn't hesitate to take the Chieftain's head!!

Therefore, the low class immortal rank was far from enough!

.....

In order to ensure cultivation efficiency, Chu Mu didn't take others. It was only him and Ning Maner who went to North Ice Forbidden Region to train.

The low class immortal rank Night ran extremely fast. It probably only needed between half a day to a day to make a round trip in New Moon Land.

They passed through New Moon Land's northern forbidden region and went even further north of Heaven Mountain. Here, the entire world was filled with ice and snow.

The horizon was a white line that was sometimes straight, sometimes undulating and sometimes imposing. The beautiful snow and ice scenery visibly excited Ning Mnaer.

Normally when she had nothing to do, Ning Maner enjoyed hugging Dead Dream. Now that Dead Dream was in a hibernating state, in order to accelerate Dead Dream's nirvana rebirth, Chu Mu specially summoned it and had Ning Maner, with nothing to do, hold it so it could receive more immortal aura.

Dead Dream had spent a rather long time hibernating. It was difficult to estimate how long it would take to absorb the huge single instance influx of energy. Moreover, the Phoenix species' nirvana rebirth wasn't completed in only one or two days. Chu Mu remembered that Dead Dream had spent a long time in the wooden box during his first nirvana rebirth.

"I wonder how strong it will become when it completes this nirvana rebirth." Chu Mu was silently anticipating this.

A sleek black and demonic figure rapidly flew across the white glaciers like a dark aurora. Chu Mu held the sleeping Ning Maner and felt unrestrained icy air slapping against them.

While running across the glacier, it was easy to forget about worries and one's mind would widen.

Of course, Ning Maner's hair was under his nose and it emanated the unique and alluring fragrance of a young woman. This made things particularly carefree and relaxing.

A beautiful scenery in the distance, riding on a sleek beast and a beauty in his arms. This was probably the comfortable life many men strived for.

When he first picked up Ning Maner in Wanxiang City, it was usually Chu Mu fighting while Ning Maner was off in the distance, eating something while shaking her small **.

When Chu Mu fought, he was rather bloodthirsty. He figured Ning Maner didn't like killing so he wouldn't take the lives of wild monsters when he trained. Soul crystals were rarer the higher ranked the creature was and the soul cores that appeared weren't of much use to him.

Ning Maner's cultivation was rather simple. She just watched Chu Mu's fights from the side.

There was also a need to find a suitable protector.

Ning Maker currently only had two protectors. One was Chu Mu and the other was the Dark Emperor which was inseparable in her shadow.

Chapter 1482: Absolute Influence

Zhengming Main City

They entered Zhengming Main City again. New Moon Palace already had a place in the city.

Shen Mo had managed the palace here in a very organized manner. Liu Binglan was very satisfied.

In Wanxiang City, Shen Mo had gradually replaced his father, the senior elder, and Nightmare Emperor Jiang's position, taking charge of Nightmare Palace. As New Moon Land expanded into other border kingdoms and established palaces, Liu Binglan felt that Shen Mo would probably do a good job.

The facts proved that Shen Mo was actually an outstanding administrator. When Liu Binglan was in Zhengming Main City last time, not many people knew of New Moon Land. But this time, she discovered that many people understood at least a bit about New Moon Palace. He had even won over the support of many experts who were willing to serve New Moon Palace.

“Just do things according to your methods.” Liu Binglan faintly smiled as she looked at Shen Mo who had given her a summary of the situation.

Shen Mo proposed numerous expansion plans. These plans had to utilize some resources from New Moon Land so he had to obtain permission from Liu Binglan.

Shen Mo was definitely one of them so Liu Binglan gave him the authority to utilize it as he wished. Indeed, New Moon Land in the future would ultimately belong to people like him. Once Liu Binglan retired, she would have to find a successor.

Liu Binglan went from New Moon Land to various border kingdoms in Zhengming Continent. She was even on a trip to Northern Territory where she met many city lords, border lords, and kings.

But for some reason, their allies that were originally friendly towards New Moon Land were now acting strange recently. This made Liu Binglan feel a bit uneasy.

Moreover, Border Lord Li, who they had the best relationship with them had quietly told Liu Binglan of some rumors that certain factions were targeting New Moon Land.

Liu Binglan felt as much recently. New Moon Land's development had initially gone very smoothly. In the last half a year, however, it had been impeded in several border kingdoms. Additionally, there were a few people harboring evil intentions that had entered New Moon Land with intentions of destroying New Moon Land's internal unity.

The current New Moon Land could be described as having encountered a bottleneck.

This bottleneck didn't come from New Moon Land, but instead originated from the collusion, rejection, suppression of other powers.

There were over a hundred border kingdoms and New Moon Land only had their palace in around thirty border cities. This included their current symbolic palace in Zhengming Main City. The other seventy or so border kingdoms didn't permit the influence from New Moon Land.

Most of New Moon Land's foreign members were wandering soul pet trainers. They wandered to other border kingdoms but didn't belong to any faction in New Moon Land. This meant that these members had no sense of belonging and would lead to members being lost.

Shen Mo had predicted that such a situation would occur. Initially, Shen Mo believed that this was because New Moon Land didn't have any gate master rank experts. But he gradually discovered that even with a gate master rank expert overseeing them, New Moon Land would still be limited.

There were only a few immortal rank experts in Zhengming Continent. If they couldn't expand their influence and reach other border territories, it would practically be impossible to rope in additional immortal rank experts. Indeed, the absolute majority of immortal rank experts had a place they belonged to.

Liu Binglan had a slight headache because of this matter, but she didn't have any better method.

.....

During the night, Liu Binglan sat in the courtyard and she went over everything that happened and the people she saw during this trip. She wanted to try and guess something from the reaction of these people she saw.

After pondering, a fragrant wind drifted over. It was unique and wonderful. A single sniff would make one feel like the exhaustion from travel had greatly been reduced.

There was a person where this intoxicating fragrance would pervade the air before the person had even arrived. Liu Binglan knew who had appeared in the courtyard.

“Sit.” Liu Binglan pointed to the seat next to her as she spoke to the absolute beauty.

It had to be admitted that this woman had an absolutely beautiful face.

She had silky purple hair that reached her bum, a smooth and glossy forehead that was as exquisite as a gemstone, thin eyebrows a unique womanly bearing that would be exhibited without needing to be described and resplendent eyes with hints of mystery and wisdom and even moreso a unique charm. A single glance would make one fall deep into these eyes as they looked at charming smile that also wasn't a smile.

Liu Binglan normally didn't take time to examine her in the past. But it was rare for them to sit as close as they were today. Liu Binglan was also curious how such a flawless beauty could exist in this world. She was so beautiful that even Liu Binglan, an absolute beauty herself, felt a bit jealous.

In the past, perhaps they were at opposition and there even may have been hatred. But this was a long time ago. These things would naturally fade away. And even without Empress Concubine Yu Suo back then, Soul Alliance, which still had absolute strength, would have ultimately swallowed Three Great Palaces.

“Aren’t you curious why we have the same pair of eyes?” Yu Suo discovered that Liu Binglan was examining her.

Yu Suo’s words made Liu Binglan notice this. Yu Suo’s eyes were actually flashing with a somewhat purple luster.

In the past, she never noticed this. But now she was very confused. Did she and Yu Suo have some sort of relation?

“What do these eyes represent?” asked Yu Suo.

“It represents that our bloodline is superior to all humans you’ve seen.” Yu Suo said with an arrogant tone.

Liu Binglan had never felt she was superior. But if they were speaking about specifics, it would just be that her soul remembrance growth speed was much higher than others as well as her cultivation method was different than others. She had her own independent cultivation space that others didn’t.

This uniqueness allowed her strength to remain at a rather high level.

A lot of people in New Moon Land knew that Chu Mu, Mu Qingyi, Ye Qingzi, Chao Lengchuan, Ye Wansheng and Bai Yu were very strong. However, they didn't know that New Moon Land actually had the absolute Female Supreme Liu Binglan who was very strong.

In fact, very many foreign border lords and city lords believed that Liu Binglan was a weak and helpless woman because from the information they obtained, Liu Binglan rarely went out to train. The only time she had fought was in the New Moon Land independence fight which happened a long time ago.

“So you targeting me first at Sacred Holy Region and signing a soul pact with Chu Mu wasn't a coincidence?” Liu Binglan quickly realized a problem.

“It was a coincidence. At the time, I had no place to go and I had to choose a host. Choosing you definitely wouldn't do. Your cautiousness was too high and your growth speed, if left uninhibited, would definitely be very fast and could even suppress me. Therefore, I could only choose Chu Mu... only, I never expected...” Yu Suo revealed a wave of bitterness.

“You never expected his growth speed to be much faster than mine.” Liu Binglan suddenly felt that this was rather interesting.

“Whatever, it's already like this.” Yu Suo knew that she had given her Flower's Stamen, which was like a heart, to Chu Mu. There would be no opportunity to rebel in this life. No matter how strong she was, she would always be his soul pet. She would never be able to flee unless Chu Mu willingly gave back her Flower's Stamen to her.

“What about the eyes? Are you and I related somehow?” Liu Binglan brought the topic back.

“If your hair was also a purple color, perhaps we would have some sort of blood relation. However, your hair is black,” said Yu Suo.

Liu Binglan still didn't understand Yu Suo, but she was now certain that before Yu Suo transformed into a half-human, she was probably a human with a very high blood lineage. Perhaps she was a member of the two royal families that had sent out invites this time.

"Why do you harbor such enormous grievance in your heart? I feel that you probably weren't like this in the past," said Liu Binglan.

"My grievance was because the past me was too weak, too immature, and too laughable." Yu Suo gazed into the distance. The corners of her mouth faintly rose as she smiled and continued, "You should understand that kindness and devotion are useless in this world. That Messiah Tree Girl. She will either die in ruins or become a second me."

Liu Binglan heard about Ning Maner's matter from Chu Mu. When she heard Yu Suo say this, she couldn't help but guess what Yu Suo's past was.

Yu Suo had a unique temperament. This was pureness and holiness that she was born with that allowed her to easily generate affinity with other organisms. This indeed had similarities with Ning Maner's kindness and pureness.

Perhaps the good side of the Evil Good Queen wasn't an act. It could be innate. But the evil side was also innate. Thus, she innately was a contradictory existence.

"What relation do you have with Ning Maner?" asked Liu Binglan.

Yu Suo shook her head and said: “No relation. She is herself, and I am myself. Only our experiences are a bit similar. However, her luck is better than mine. When she needed protection, there was someone to protect her.

“Don’t you have someone now?” said Liu Binglan.

“Are you referring to Chu Mu?”

Liu Binglan nodded her head.

“He wants nothing more than to kill me. Moreover, he’s sick in the head and enjoys abusing others,” said Yu Suo with a face full of arrogance.

“...” Liu Binglan was somewhat speechless. This woman was speaking bad about her son in front of her. If it were anyone else, Liu Binglan would have already sorted them out.

Speaking of which, Chu Mu had indeed tortured Yu Suo quite harshly. A normal person would not have been able to withstand such devil flame burning.

Fortunately, Ye Qingzi was kindhearted, and had secretly helped Yu Suo lessen much of the devil flame burning pain.

Chu Mu’s grievance towards Yu Suo was very large. Nonetheless, Ye Qingzi was looking at things from an objective viewpoint and didn’t wish for their conflict and hatred to continue expanding. Her actions were indeed very intelligent. At least now it could be seen that everything Yu Suo was doing was technically to protect New Moon Land.

“I will also participate in Dual Earth Mountain’s conference. You must be careful at this conference. There will probably be many people targeting you.” Yu Suo warned Liu Binglan.

“I felt as much.” Liu Binglan nodded her head.

Before participating in the conference, Liu Binglan had sensed that things weren’t right.

“There’s a very strong faction attempting to destroy New Moon Land. You must make adequate preparations. It won’t be good for my strength to be revealed. If you’re able to weather through this time, in future Dual Earth Mountain conferences and in the entire Zhengming Continent, we will have absolute influence.” said Yu Suo.

Chapter 1483: Space Survivor

The Sequence Lands were a very strange area.

This land actually had some relations with New Moon Land’s Southern Forbidden Region.

The Sequence Lands could be described as the most south western extreme. In other words, it was the Southern Forbidden Region which Chu Mu was extremely familiar with.

The vast majority of creatures inhabiting this area were of the dark type. There were also a few other type creatures and the Nightmare species was the ruler of this territory.

The Sequence Land seemed narrow in shape and it extended along the dividing line of the Heavenly Ridge world from the southwestern extreme. The reason why Heavenly Ridge became the barrier between Wupan Continent and New Moon Land was largely due to the savage and terrifying Nightmare species inhabiting this area.

Most of the time, there were no trace of humans in the Sequence Lands. The grey and barren lands would perpetually flare up with a mysterious flame, which was somewhat similar to Nightmare Palace's Nightmare Holy Region.

A dense darkness element filled the sky and occasionally, some strange figures would float. It was unknown what kind of creatures these were.

Suddenly, a silver devil light flew right along the ground. It flew across this area in a flash. It was extremely fast and seemed like it was going to split the ground.

This figure was flying out of the Sequence Lands and towards Zhengming Main City. The figure was burning with a silver devil flames, and the body seemed like it was casted out of mercury. It had a pair of silver and white divine eyes that carried traces of coldness amidst their imposing nature.

Eventually, it flew out of the Sequence Lands, leaving the countless mountains and plains behind him.

The long distance between the Sequence Lands and Zhengming Continent contained no human cities. The silver devil flew right until it reached the first city located on the edge of the border before stopping. It shed the astonishing devil flames off its body and searched for a place to rest.

However, just after it entered the city, there were two soul pet trainers dressed strangely that stopped him.

"Mister Bai Yu?" asked a luxuriously dressed man with a jade hat.

Bai Yu calmly sized up these two people. Hints of caution rose in his heart.

This was Zhengming Continent and not many people recognized him. Moreover, they knew that they could find him here. This was rather strange.

“What’s the matter?” Bai Yu coldly stared as he spoke.

“We are members of Hidden Pupil Royalty. We have an invitation here. Our master told us that we must personally hand it to you.” faintly smiled the man wearing the jade hat.

As he spoke, the man maintained his elegant smile and handed the invitation to Bai Yu.

“I have no interest in these things.” Bai Yu couldn’t even be bothered to accept it.

“Perhaps you may,” said the jade hat man as he continued, “Our master knows what you want. There is only one person in the world that has the Limbo Flower. Xuan Gate Immortal Sect’s Old Man tricked you. He doesn’t have the ability to resurrect someone. However, our master can make your wishes a reality.”

Bai Yu creased his brows. How did these people know about this information?

Bai Yu had heard of Hidden Pupil Royalty, but he didn’t know what kind of stance they occupied in the human realm.

Finally, Bai Yu accepted the invitation.

“We hope that you are able to attend on time. We shall leave first.” the man courteously said.

The two of them turned and left. They were each riding on immortal rank soul pets. Their flying speed was extremely fast and in the blink of an eye, they disappeared in the horizon. It was unknown which direction they had flown in.

Bai Yu held the invitation with suspicion. However, since they had the confidence to resurrect his daughter, Bai Yu didn't have any reason not to go.

“It's very strange. Master rarely has us personally deliver invitations. Who on earth is this Bai Yu? Even those Gate Master rank people accept the invitation regardless if they want to attend or not.” muttered the other Hidden Pupil Royalty man.

“There's something you don't know. Bai Yu is a half human. Did you not see that he wasn't riding a soul pet just now and flew straight into the city?” said the jade hat man.

“Half human type? But why is master interested in half human types?”

“You won't understand. When your strength reaches a certain realm and is forever unable to continue rising, you will naturally understand the importance master places on the various abnormal creatures in the world, the species mutations that allow creatures to rise in strength, the half humans creature through combining souls, the collection of ancient ceremonial parts and the various special items. Indeed, finding some pattern in these irregularities may allow one to have a glimpse of the undying path.”

“So that’s what it was. Speaking of which, Bai Yu didn’t seem weak either. The cold aura he emitted from his body made me feel uncomfortable all over.”

“Half human types are normally very strong.”

“How about compared to us?”

“I’ve told you countless times that there’s no need to compare yourself to others. The blood in our bones is different from these people. Even if they are special half human types, they have no qualifications to be on equal terms with us. Even if he is currently stronger than us, that is only a temporary thing.” said the man with the jade hat.

Bai Yu’s main purpose in heading to the Sequence Lands was to train. He had inquired with Xuan Gate Immortal Sect already, but he hadn’t found any old immortal teacher with a Limbo Flower.

He initially thought that the trail had been cut off. But who knew that the person who actually had the Limbo Flower knew that he was looking for him and even took the initiative to invite him.

Bai Yu was a cautious person. He knew that nobody would help him for no reason. But what if the other person gave him a request that he could accept?

After resting in this border city for a day, Bai Yu continued flying to Zhengming Main City.

When he was very close to Zhengming Main City, Bai Yu suddenly stopped flying. He stopped in midair and looked at the ground under his feet.

Bai Yu possessed the other type and he could sense irregularities in space.

Currently, it was clear that the space under him was very strange. It was ostensibly thinner than usual.

"Weng~~~~~"

"Weng~~~~~"

Suddenly, a spatial ripple arrived from another dimension. Bai Yu could distinctly feel that some item was going to bore its way out of that space.

Only other type creatures could walk through space. Bai Yu was curious. Was some other type creature of an independent space trying to forcibly break through the spatial barrier and arrive in this world?

After quietly waiting a moment, Bai Yu suddenly felt that he heard a call for help from inside the space. It seemed that the creature was unable to break through the final layer of space.

Bai Yu hesitated a moment before ultimately chanting an incantation and ripping apart space.

The fissure grew deeper and deeper before finally chiselling open a visible hole.

“Sou~~~”

From the hole, a figure which neck was completely a mane, jumped out. It appeared right in front of Bai Yu.

“Strange Mane Demon?” Bai Yu was stunned. He didn’t expect it to be an extremely rare creature among the other type.

Bai Yu could feel that this Strange Mane Demon was extremely strong. However, it seemed to have been ravaged by various spatial windstorms and was currently in a very weak state. Its body was covered in wounds.

But what shocked him even more was that there was a man on the Strange Mane Demon’s back.

The man’s body was also covered in wounds, and he had already passed out.

Bai Yu understood the structure of space very well. Trying to break through a weak part of space to pass through into another dimension, like what the Strange Mane Demon had done, was rather dangerous. Obviously, this man and the Strange Mane Demon had wandered through chaotic space for a long time before finally returning to regular space.

Bai Yu stood there and looked at the Strange Mane Demon.

The Strange Mane Demon also looked at him. Although it didn't make any noise, it was possible to see that it was asking Bai Yu for help.

Bai Yu retrieved some food and healing medicine from his spatial ring.

This pair of master and soul pet had wandered through chaotic space for an unknown period of time. Their physical and mental strength were incomparably weak. If they weren't saved in time, they wouldn't be able to survive a few more days.

Subsequently, Bai Yu picked up the wounded man and brought the Strange Mane Demon towards Zhengming Main City's New Moon Palace.

Bai Yu himself wasn't a healing teacher. He had to let New Moon Palace's support type soul pet trainers handle this. However, he didn't know the identity of the man with the Strange Mane Demon. He was so strong that he could wander through the chaos.

When he returned to New Moon Palace, Shen Mo saw Bai Yu carrying a passed out person. He asked with confusion: "Uncle Bai Yu, who is this?"

“I met a space survivor on the way. Find a few strong support soul pet trainers to help heal him. His wounds are very heavy.” Bai Yu carried the man to the healing hall. He handed over the subsequent matters to Shen Mo.

Shen Mo didn't know what a space survivor was. But since Bai Yu had brought him back, he would see he was properly taken care of.

“Female Supreme is also in the palace. Would you like me to inform her?” Shen Mo asked Bai Yu.

“I'll go myself.” it had been a while since Bai Yu had seen Liu Binglan and he had something to ask her about.

In the hall, Liu Binglan was talking with an elder.

The elder thought it was some young person who didn't understand etiquette and interrupted his discussion with Female Supreme. He was about to criticize this person when he discovered that it was Bai Yu. He was stunned before he managed to put up a smile.

Bai Yu had always been the strongest person in New Moon Land, aside from Chu Mu. Although he had a conferred position now, he was gone more than Chu Mu. He didn't manage New Moon Land's matters at all.

“I have an invitation letter on me. Two young people from Hidden Pupil Royalty handed it to me.” Bai Yu skipped the greeting and spoke very directly.

Liu Binglan didn't like conventional greetings either and took the invitation Bai Yu handed over. She compared it to the one she herself received.

"The invitation you received was personally for you from Hidden Pupil Royalty. Why would they pay attention to you?" asked Liu Binglan, puzzled.

"Perhaps it's because I used my devil transformation too frequently. Since you're also going to participate in the conference, let's go together." said Bai Yu.

"Ya." Liu Binglan nodded her head.

Going with Bai Yu gave Liu Binglan more confidence.

"I saved a survivor on the way here. He looks very strong. If we are able to recruit him to New Moon Palace, it will be a good thing." said Bai Yu.

"Ok, I'll take a look."

Chapter 1484: Past Love Reignited?

.....

Chu Tianmang was familiar with the workings of the chaotic space. Due to owning a Strange Mane Demon, he had often encountered spacetime currents and spatial storms when entering and exiting some of the isolated spaces.

However, drifting between the two realms for a long time like that was a first for him.

Without oxygen, food or water, he had to continue avoiding the devastation from the chaotic space. It was absolutely fortunate for him that he was able to survive from such a collapsed space.

Unfortunately, Chu Tianmang had fallen unconscious before he could return to the normal space.

He could not remember really anything after he had fallen unconscious. He only sensed that someone was carrying him to a certain place.

Feeling the numbness from his body, he opened his eyes hazily. He noticed that he was lying on a bed in a well decorated room. A silver new moon symbol was drawn on the ceiling above him. The afternoon sunlight was shining gently onto a jadestone table beside the window. There were medicines and herbs of various hues spread out on top of it.

Turning his gaze slightly to the side, he saw a blushing girl standing next to him who was focusing on tending to his wounds. She did not seem to notice that he had woken up.....

“Ahem,” Chu Tianmang coughed lightly.

“You’re awake?” The girl revealed a smile on her face and it looked rather pure.

Chu Tianmang did not reply, he only focused on this girl who had helped with his treatment.

“This is New Moon Palace, uncle Bai Yu had saved you and he had asked me to treat your injuries,” The girl seemed to be rather lively and told Chu Tianmang the situation on her own.

“New Moon Palace?” Chu Tianmang was surprised by what she said.

“Yeah, you must have heard it before, right?” said the girl.

“Yes,” Chu Tianmang would have never thought that he would be rescued by someone from the New Moon Palace, and the famous Half Devil Bai Yu at that.

When he was trapped between the realms, he could only sense someone who similarly possessed the spatial ability nearby. So, he kept knocking on the space within that region and hoped that the other party could somehow chip open a small hole in the space. He had never expected such a coincidence would occur.

Chu Tianmang and Bai Yu had a little friendship from back in New Moon Land. At that time, Bai Yu had not become a half devil yet.

After so many years, Bai Yu could not properly recognize him.

It was rather normal since his face was now full of scars. There was no way Bai Yu could really recognize him.

Not to mention Bai Yu, even Liu Binglan probably could not recognize him as he was now.

“Your Honor Female Supreme, you have arrived,” Suddenly, a sweet voice of a maidservant came from outside the room.

Chu Tianmang immediately recognized the light and orderly footsteps. This caused him to feel slightly awkward. Speaking of the devil, did she find out already?

“Please don’t move. Your body is covered in wounds, just lie down. Her Honor Female Supreme may seem cold from the outside, but she’s a nice person inside,” whispered the girl.

Chu Tianmang smiled bitterly in reply. How could he not know whether she was nice or not?

Not long after, a beautiful, charming and mature woman walked into the room from behind the screen. Her elegant robe perfectly emphasized her serene and noble aura, as well as her well proportioned body.

She had an astonishingly beautiful face that could easily mesmerize people. Of course, if that face did not display a coldness that rejected everyone, it would have been even more perfect.

Chu Tianmang had not seen her from up close in a long time. He had to admit that, no matter how many years had passed, her beauty was still truly captivating.

Many youths would clearly space out for a long time after they saw Liu Binglan. They would even mess up their own words and become fairly nervous. Chu Tianmang was not as inexperienced as them after all. After snapping back to reality, he examined Liu Binglan’s expression very seriously, trying to see if she had recognized him.....

Unfortunately, Liu Binglan had an icy expression on her face most of the time. Her gaze showed no signs of fluctuation of her emotions at all. Chu Tianmang could not even make a guess as to what she was thinking. So he decided to simply talk and silently hoped that the scars on his face to be either very little, or way too many.

“How’s his injury?” asked Liu Binglan after taking a glance at the girl who greeted her.

“He’s mostly fine, just that there are quite a lot of wounds all over his body and it will be really difficult to treat them,” answered the girl with blushed cheeks.

“Use these medicines,” Liu Binglan opened her spatial ring and passed the medicines that were refined by Ye Qingzi to the girl.

“Yes, I have already applied the ointment to his wounds. Once the medicinal effect of those ointments is absorbed, I will change to these,” replied the girl positively. She carefully put these medicines into another medicine cabinet.

Liu Binglan approached the bed and closely examined this refugee who was covered in wounds.

After a long silence, Liu Binglan looked at the eyes of the refugee and spoke, “Have we ever met before?”

Chu Tianmang’s heart instantly skipped a beat, thinking: It shouldn’t be possible. I’m already this disfigured, how can she still recognize me?

Chu Tianmang and Liu Binglan did not really hold a wedding ceremony. The time that they were together was also not as long as most of the other married couples. If not for Chu Mu, they would probably have been on their own paths by now.

Chu Tianmang was really confused. His physique should have already changed greatly after so many years had passed. Be it his size, facial shape, gaze and aura, he was a completely different person from his past now. In addition to that, his body was now full of wounds and ointment, she should definitely not be able to recognize him!

“When I was assaulted on Zhengming City’s street last time, were you the one who helped me? I remember your eyes,” Liu Binglan continued.

“.....” Chu Tianmang opened his mouth and was about to admit to his identity, but Liu Binglan’s words had abruptly stopped him.

So it’s from that matter, looks like she didn’t recognize me. Chu Tianmang heaved a sigh of relief.

“Yes, it’s me,” Chu Tianmang went along with Liu Binglan’s words and nodded in reply.

“Why did you help me?” asked Liu Binglan perplexed.

“Passed by,” replied Chu Tianmang shortly.

“Oh,” Liu Binglan did not probe any further and spoke, “Rest and recover from your wounds.”

After finishing those words, Liu Binglan turned around and briskly left.

Passed by? Liu Binglan naturally would not believe that he had saved her just because he happened to have passed by. However, since he was unwilling to speak about it, she also could not force him.

.....

Chu Tianmang took half a month to recover himself. Bai Yu had visited him once during this period, but the two of them did not really talk much. Liu Binglan had visited him another two times. Chu Tianmang had too many things to take into consideration, so he did not really reveal anything.....

After half a month had passed, the masked Chu Tianmang bade farewell. Liu Binglan did not pay much attention about that. He had saved her once before, she had also helped him recover. So they both did not owe each other anything anymore. She naturally was not going to stop him if he wanted to leave. Just that it was unfortunate that she could not manage to recruit such an expert to New Moon Palace.

After leaving the New Moon Palace, Chu Tianmang went straight to Mu City. His injuries had not really fully recovered yet, just that he could move around freely now.

After reaching Mu City, he went directly into a private pavilion. Two statue-like men were guarding the pavilion. When they saw Chu Tianmang walking in, they immediately greeted respectfully.

Chu Tianmang quickly climbed to the highest floor of the pavilion. After passing through a few screens, he could clearly see a noble-looking woman half leaning on the fence.

The back of that woman seemed to be a little lonely and gloomy.

There was another person standing next to that woman. He was middle-aged and had dark skin. He seemed really plain and might easily go by unnoticed.

However, Chu Tianmang was a little surprised after he saw him. He was the famous Dark Hand of the Darkness Sect. His strength was really close to those leader rank people.

He never really managed things in the Darkness Sect and was always uncontactable. However, he had showed up in Mu City this time and seemed to be acting as a guard. Did the terrifying Darkness Sect Magnate scheme something again?

“You’re not dead yet?” Dark Hand saw that the person approaching them was the rumored dead Heaven Slaughter and revealed a surprised expression on his dark-skinned face.

“Tenacious,” answered Chu Tianmang plainly.

After the woman heard Chu Tianmang’s voice, she immediately turned around and her gloominess was immediately replaced by surprise and excitement instead.

The woman was left speechless. She just rushed towards Chu Tianmang and held his waist tightly as she dove into his bosom.

“Miss.....” Dark Hand did not expect her to really behave like that and was unsure whether to stop her or not.

Chu Tianmang was also startled by her actions. He did not think that Miss Si would suddenly hug him like that.

Fragrance lingered and a soft body in his bosom, Chu Tianmang knew that Miss Si was excited because of his survival and could not just push her away.

“I..... I was just thinking of a way to avenge you..... but now..... you’re actually alive.....” said Miss Si incoherently.

“Has that Chief also escaped?” asked Chu Tianmang.

“Yes, he’s also heavily wounded,” replied Miss Si.

Chu Tianmang took a slight distance from Miss Si discreetly and spoke, “I will handle it myself.”

As Chief kept going after his life time after time, he had already grown quite furious. Once he gained the seventh Monument Tear, he would definitely make Chief pay dearly with his blood!

“Heaven Slaughter, why did you save that person? If you hadn't save him, then you would have been safe,” asked Miss Si.

Chu Tianmang took a glance at Dark Hand. He did not really want Dark Hand to hear some of these things.

Miss Si also understood the meaning of Chu Tianmang’s glance, she led Chu Tianmang into another room.

“Si Yumi, I told you that before I had joined Darkness Sect, I had a son,” said Chu Tianmang.

“Is that him?” asked Si Yumi.

Chu Tianmang nodded.

“This time, New Moon Palace had saved me. I rested there for half a month,” said Chu Tianmang.

“You met with that woman? I know that she’s currently in Zhengming Main City,” Si Yumi’s tone was rather strange.

“We did.”

“Then, past love reignited?” continued Si Yumi.

Chu Tianmang took a glance at Si Yumi. He somehow felt that her tone was rather weird.

He and Liu Binglan were husband and wife. Although it was in name only now, they did not seek new partners after separating. It was normal to hold lingering feelings. How could she call it past love reignited?

Chapter 1485: Night’s Blood Mark Infestation

In the North Ice Realm, pure white snow blanketed the earth everywhere. The sky was also the color of the glacier, the cold wind would blow past occasionally.....

Ning Maner had lived in the Quiet Forest in the past, so she was not used to this kind of extreme cold.

This coldness was not something that thick clothing could really prevent. After all, the creatures living in this glacier were all Dominators and some were even Immortals. Normal people would have their organs invaded by the ice toxin in the air simply by staying here for a while.

Snow fell slowly from the sky, Ning Maner stood at the edge of a glacier cliff.

Beneath the cliff lay a gruesome battlefield. Countless corpses of glacier monsters were strewn everywhere on the ground, stretching far into the distance.

Ning Maner was not really fond of such gory scenes. However, she knew that every living creature in order to grow used the lives of other living things as their foundations. It was necessary to engage in battles if Chu Mu wanted to become a powerful individual.

Recently, due to Chu Mu and Ning Maner constantly wandering around within the North Ice Dynasty, the rulers of the North Ice Dynasty had already been keeping a keen eye on them.

Even if Chu Mu did not actually seek out the high ranking iceberg monsters, there would always be some powerful glacier monsters coming after them in order to chase them out of their territory.

Unfortunately, those North Ice Realm experts fell before Chu Mu, simply turning into experience for Chu Mu's soul pets.

After going through a long battle, Chu Mu jumped up the glacier cliff.

Ice Air Fairy followed right behind him.

In this glacier realm, Chu Mu mainly wanted to train Ning's strength. Now, Ning was already at Immortal rank, advancing towards the low class Immortal rank.

Other than that, Zhan Ye had also reached the Immortal rank through self evolution with the help of Ning Maner.

Little Hidden Dragon kept devouring the souls within this North Ice Realm, both of its souls had now stepped into the Immortal rank.

Although Devil Tree Battle Soldier and Binding Wind Spirit had not fought for a long time, Ning Maner's powerful nurturing ability had also performed perfectly on them, allowing them to step into the Immortal rank too.

Once all of Chu Mu's soul pets had become Immortal rank, his soul remembrance grew once again. He was now a fourth remembrance Spirit Immortal, the power of his devil transformation had gained another boost.

Chu Mu had estimated that in order to complete all of those improvements, he would normally have needed at least four to five years and that too with the assistance of Immortal Items.

However, when he brought over Ning Maner to train, he had only ended up using less than one year to achieve it. Such cultivation speed had truly astonished Chu Mu, it was no wonder that those leader rank people would bash their heads for the Messiah Tree seed!

After the battle, Chu Mu unsummoned his soul pets.

This battle had exhausted the stamina of Chu Mu's soul pets. Meanwhile, in the frequent battles over the past year, Chu Mu kept swapping his soul pets repeatedly and they did not really get any decent rest. It was time to let them take a good break.

Chu Mu walked back to Ning Maner. He saw the snowflakes sticking on her hair and carefully swiped them away.

"Big brother, I'm cold," said Ning Maner, acting a little pampered. She wrapped her arms around Chu Mu's waist and hugged him tightly.

Chu Mu possessed the fire property. In this glacier world, Ning Maner could only feel more comfortable by hugging him.

Chu Mu looked at her face that had turned pale from the cold and decided to dote on her more. He lowered his head and told her, "Let's go back."

"Go back? Is big brother not going to continue with the training?" asked Ning Maner.

"Yes, there's another matter I have to attend to," Chu Mu remembered that Liu Binglan had asked him to participate in the Dual Earth Conference. It was about time it took place.

"Big brother is so busy, you must not keep running around like this, you need to take a rest too," said Ning Maner.

Chu Mu did not say anything in return. He just tapped her on the head and said, "Let's go."

Saying so, Chu Mu chanted an incantation and summoned out Night.

Night had trained rather little this time, so it was still at low class Immortal rank.

After completing the incantation, Night's slender body appeared from the black diagram.

Its dark fur looked cool and charming. The Blood Marks on its body spread out to cover its entire body and it looked a little creepy!

"Huh? What's wrong with Night?" Ning Maner looked at the Blood Marks on Night's body in surprise.

Ever since Night had returned, Blood Marks were all over its body. This is the sigil after it had resurrected from a corpse. They were usually hidden within its black fur, but they had suddenly become really visible this time. They looked just like blood scars.

Chu Mu was also quite surprised himself. It had been some time since he had last summoned Night, he did not expect those Blood Marks to have become so visible.

"Young master, Night's resurrection period is about to be over soon," Old Li's voice drifted into his ears at this time.

After getting reminded by Old Li, Chu Mu remembered that Elder Li had told him to bring Night back to the Demonic Mound after five years when he was leaving. Counting the number of years, it should be around five years since he had left Demonic Mound now!

“Night, how are you feeling?” asked Chu Mu.

“Hui~!”

Night indicated that it did not really feel anything wrong with itself, just that those Blood Marks seemed to be slowly corroding its normal flesh.

“Young master, those Blood Marks will keep expanding and then slowly devour Night’s flesh body, converting it into a corpse. Once those Blood Marks occupy its entire body, Night will turn into a corpse. You must hurry back to the Demonic Mound and seek methods to suppress and dispel it,” explained Old Li.

“Looks like I will not be able to participate in the Dual Earth Conference this time,” Chu Mu nodded.

There was also an item that could suppress Ancient Flood Dragon Person within the Demonic Mound. Now that Ancient Flood Dragon Person was showing signs of awakening, he had to obtain it as soon as possible.

“Night, go back and rest,” Chu Mu cherished Night very much and recalled it into his soul pet space immediately.

“Big brother, what should we do now?” Ning Maner was also worried about Night. She could sense that Night’s body was getting entangled by the aura of death, not a tiny bit of its demonic aura remained.

“We will go to Demonic Mound,” said Chu Mu.

“Alright.”

Without Night carrying them, Chu Mu could only fly himself.

He hugged Ning Maner close and flew straight towards the Eternal Ocean. The Desolate Land was in between the North Ice Realm and the Eternal Ocean. Chu Mu did not venture too deep into this land, but Zhan Ye had trained there before for a long period of time.

Currently, the Desolate Land was quite peaceful and did not invade New Moon Land as frequently as it did in the past. The ruler of Desolate Land had probably noticed that New Moon Land had become really powerful and did not dare to invade them recklessly. At least, North Ice Realm had set an example.

As he flew towards the Desolate Land, the white snow gradually started disappearing. The temperature began rising. The warm sunlight shining onto them felt really comfortable.

Ning Maner’s paleness had recovered to some extent. A tint of redness gradually replaced the paleness from the cold. She had fallen asleep in Chu Mu’s bosom unknowingly.

Chu Mu noticed that she was already asleep and wondered whether he should take her back to Wanxiang City first before he went to the Demonic Mound.

However, considering that it was a crucial moment for him to raise his strength, it would be better to bring Ning Maner around all the time. It was just going to be hard on her to have to follow him in his boring cultivation.

Chapter 1486: She Is The Favored Child Of Nature

The blue ocean was beneath them. It was calm without any ripples and reflected the white clouds.

Chu Mu flew past the ocean and blue sky in between shadow cloud and sky cloud. He was gradually approaching Demonic Mound according to the direction Old Li pointed.

Demonic Mound was within Eternal Ocean, but its location was not fixed. Without a professional guide, it would be difficult to find it.

Old Li came from Demonic Mound, so it naturally knew the way back.

With Chu Mu's current strength, his flying speed was much faster than when he was still a Dominator. It took only about ten days for him to fly a distance that took several months on ship.

The mysterious Demonic Mound was right in front. Chu Mu could see some purplish Immortal mist gathering into a cloud and covering a certain spot within the ocean.

After flying into this cluster of purplish cloud, Chu Mu saw the Demonic Mound island.

Flight was prohibited on the island. This prohibition naturally held limitations. Chu Mu was currently clad in dual evil Devil Fire. His majestic Immortal rank aura was enough to make those wing type creatures in Demonic Mound avoid him. He would not be obstructed even if he flew into Demonic Mound directly.

“Big brother, the Immortal aura here is so dense,” said Ning Maner.

Ning Maner liked the atmosphere around here. It gave her a feeling that she returned to the Quiet Forest.

Unfortunately, the cruelty and competition hidden in this Demonic Mound was not something she liked. She liked peaceful places without any conflicts or fights.

“Ah? So many powerful demons,” Ning Maner looked over the island and saw many high rank demons strolling all over the island. Emperors were mainly on the outskirts of the island, while Dominator rank creatures could be seen everywhere slightly inside.

They did not even enter halfway into the island and yet high rank creatures were everywhere. Then, just how powerful would the creatures be further inside?

The second Demonic Mound precipice was right ahead. This precipice that towered into the clouds exuded a magnificent aura. They had to raise their heads to barely see the summit even in flight.

The Demonic Mound precipice was perpendicular to the ground. Its altitude was extremely high. The summit was unlike normal mountain summits, it was a flat ground!

Chu Mu did not need to take the Yellow Spring Road this time. He carried Ning Maner and flew up this second precipice directly.

There were countless caves on the perpendicular precipice, becoming cliff nests. Demonic Mound guardians lived on those cliff nests in groups. He could not even count how many there were.

Green vines hung down and bizarre pine trees grew along the precipice wall. Lichen crawled all over the surface. Other than wing type creatures within the caves, vine type, wood type and grass type were also living on this precipice. It was difficult to imagine how such a precipice could create such a densely packed and complete ecological chain.

The second Demonic Mound precipice was really high. Chu Mu realized there was still a long way to go after flying through the cloud layer. With this height, Chu Mu even suspected this might ascend directly into the second layer of the sky!

It was also Ning Maner's ssdn time to see such a magnificent precipice. Her beautiful eyes sparkled and seemed extremely excited. She was really looking forward to seeing how the summit of this precipice was like.

Eventually, Chu Mu saw the summit.

The summit was a large piece of land. One could only see the blue sky while standing on it, no clouds or rain, because rain clouds were beneath this Heavenly Realm land!

"Big brother, look, it's a Sky Swallowing Roc, it's so big!" Ning Maner excitedly pointed at a huge grey-colored roc far away!

When that Sky Swallowing Roc flew over the land. Its enormous body was able to cover the sky. This should be the largest wing type creature.

Sky Swallowing Roc's shadow casted down on the land and covered a large piece of Heavenly Realm in shadow. It casually flapped its wings and seemed to notice an intruder to this Heavenly Realm. It turned its direction and flew towards Chu Mu slowly.

After a light flap of its wings, the entire sky was filled with billowing wind. Sky Swallowing Roc approached Chu Mu. Chu Mu and Ning Maner were even smaller than a feather on its body.

"Yi~!" Sky Swallowing Roc focused on Chu Mu and Ning Maner. It let out a chirp which sounded like an interrogation.

"Big brother, it's asking who we are and what we are doing here. It seems to be the aerial guardian of this Heavenly Realm," Ning Maner could understand the language of all soul pets.

"Tell it that we are here to look for Elder Li," said Chu Mu.

Ning Maner conveyed Chu Mu's words to Sky Swallowing Roc.

"Big brother, it's telling us to follow it," said Ning Maner.

Sky Swallowing Roc flew at the front. It was enormous and would not mind about Chu Mu and Ning Maner as they were not even as big as its feathers, but that did not mean it was willing to let Chu Mu and Ning Maner ride on it.

Sky Swallowing Roc did not fly at full speed. Its wing flapping frequency was not fast, so it was easy for Chu Mu to follow it.

During the flight, Chu Mu saw various powerful creatures in this Demonic Mound Heavenly Realm. They were similar to the other regions of Demonic Mound and possessed their own territories. Apart from guardians like Sky Swallowing Roc which could fly freely above their territories, they would surely become hostile if other creatures did that.

In the past, Chu Mu had been suspecting whether all the creatures in Demonic Mound Heavenly Realm were Immortal rank creatures.

As he flew and observed, the truth told him that his suspicion was correct. It was already astonishing that the average strength of creatures in the Imprint Valley was at Dominator rank. The average strength of creatures in Demonic Mound Heavenly Realm was actually at Immortal rank, this astonished Chu Mu even further.

“Just how powerful is the ruler of this Demonic Mound Heavenly Realm?” Chu Mu could not help but started to guess.

A creature that could rule over an Immortal region, it definitely had to possess the absolute strength that could look down over all!

As they entered deeper, stronger Immortal rank creatures also started appearing. There were even one or two on par with Martial Cloud Dragon.

If not for personally witnessing them, Chu Mu could hardly believe Immortal rank creatures which required vast resources as cultivation support could inhabit together on a piece of land.

A tall foreign rock suddenly appeared on the flat ground. This foreign rock seemed to have fallen down from the starry sky into the mortal world. It made a huge crater on the Heavenly Realm's land.

There was a deep gully in the North of this crater. The gully was filled up by various plants. Even the area around the foreign rock became different ecologies. If not for witnessing these traces from the sky, Chu Mu would not be able to tell how this foreign rock suddenly appeared on the flat Heavenly Realm land.

Chu Mu knew that this foreign rock should be from the scene he saw in the Heaven Boundary Monument. What he had to find was also beneath this foreign rock.

Sky Swallowing Roc did not bring Chu Mu and Ning Maner to that rock, but turned to a forest on the side instead.

Towering trees grew densely in the forest. The flourishing canopies became platforms of various shades of green. They could occasionally see some agile creatures jumping around these canopies and drawing beautiful curves in the air. When he wanted to look closer, he would lose sight of those agile creatures.

“Yi~!” Sky Swallowing Roc chirped.

“Big brother, it’s telling us to go down ourselves. Someone will bring us to Elder Li,” said Ning Maner.

Chu Mu nodded and carried Ning Maner as he flew towards this unique forest.

Chu Mu landed on a canopy. The canopy was dense and he had no problem walking above it.

At that moment, Chu Mu saw those agile creatures jumping towards him. They stood on the canopies of other trees and used their curious eyes to examine Chu Mu and Ning Maner.

“They are Canopy Demons, they look so cute,” A smile bloomed on Ning Maner’s face. She got out of Chu Mu’s hug and ran towards the three Canopy Demons.

Those Canopy Demons maintained caution towards the two humans at first. However, for some reason, after Ning Maner ran over and stroked the furry ears and heads of those Canopy Demons, they seemed to rather enjoy it and intimately licked Ning Maner’s cheeks.

Chu Mu was similarly maintaining caution as those three Canopy Demons were powerful. If they attacked him simultaneously, he would have some trouble handling it. He never expected Ning Maner to easily tame those three Canopy Demons after just a little interaction.

It seemed that even Immortal rank creatures could not resist Ning Maner’s unique affinity.

“Big brother, they said they are willing to carry us,” said Ning Maner.

Saying so, Ning Maner already rode on the back of a Canopy Demon.

“I will fly by myself,” Chu Mu could feel that those Canopy Demons only became intimate with Ning Maner, but not him.

“Then big brother has to catch up, they are really fast!” said Ning Maner with a giggle.

“Don’t worry, I won’t lose them.”

Whoosh~!

The moment Chu Mu finished speaking, the three Canopy Demons became a gust of wind and disappeared with Ning Maner.

Chu Mu was startled for a moment and did not expect those Canopy Demons to be so fast. He took a glance at the ripples on the canopy platforms and confirmed their direction. Then, he immediately used Displacement Specter to catch up.

After chasing for a while, he could hear the cheerful laughter from Ning Maner.

This pleasing laughter spread out in the forest and could easily make one forget all troubles.

Those creatures living in the forest also raised their heads to see which little fairy was visiting the forest.....

Watching the fluttering curly hair and laughing Ning Maner in front, Chu Mu felt gratified.

It seemed that this Demonic Mound Heavenly Realm was the only place that was similar to Quiet Forest. Ning Maner could find that purest liberation in this place. So her laughter was also very pure and came from her heart.

She was pure and happy, a fairy that danced with nature. The places her laughter spread to would calm the living beings and shower them with the raindrops of peace.....

The Wind Eagle clan's protection was worth it. He Cang's sacrifice was also worth it. As long as anyone held conscience, they would not want to see such a girl getting hurt.

She was the purest favored child of nature.

Chapter 1487: Creatures That Invaded Ocean Specie's East Ocean!

Canopy Demons was passing through the forest. Chu Mu saw countless criss-crossed trees. The branches of those trees and some vines connected together and created complicated paths like the roads in a city. Not only could humans walk on them easily, some large creatures could also easily walk on them.

Canopy Demons did not jump above the canopy, they dashed along these complicated branch roads.

They were agile and traveled like the wind. If Chu Mu did not get serious, he would easily lose them.

Chu Mu could also tell these complicated roads possessed wood type illusion formation. Once he lost sight of them, he might have to wander around here for a long time.

Canopy Demons seemed to be purposely testing Chu Mu's ability. They kept raising their speed in this demonic forest and changed their paths more and more frequently. In many occasions, once Chu Mu caught up, he could only see the afterimages left by those three Canopy Demons.

If they competed in a wide place without obstacles, Chu Mu could easily surpass those three Canopy Demons. However, this place was filled with intertwining plants and became a big obstacle to Chu Mu. He almost lost those three Canopy Demons a few times.

“Hui~!”

At that moment, Chu Mu heard Night’s cry.

As the saying went, ‘itching to compete after meeting a rival’, Night probably wanted to compete against those three Canopy Demons personally.

The terrain was suitable for Night after all. Chu Mu did not hesitate and chanted the incantation to summon Night.

After jumping onto Night’s back, the black figure of Night instantly dashed forward. Its real figure could not be seen under the shade. Only a white-feathered tail left behind a trail of its dash!

Night was much faster in direction changing than Chu Mu. Dashing in such an environment was definitely Night’s specialty.

If Night knew the path, it could easily overtake those three Canopy Demons.

“Big brother is a cheater. Why did you summon Night?” Ning Maner saw Chu Mu catching up and pouted.

She finally enjoyed a brief moment of making Chu Mu chase after her, yet he caught up so soon. It was really boring.

Chu Mu knew the speed of Immortal rank. They had yet to reach the end of the forest after such a while of dashing. One could imagine just how vast this Heavenly Realm forest was.

After advancing for another while, this game of chase finally ended. A towering tree appeared in front of Chu Mu.

Chu Mu remembered that Ten Thousand Eyed Treant in Eastern Wild Forest was already enormous. It could be said that its canopy could act as clouds.

However, compared to this towering tree, Ten Thousand Eyed Treant was just like a sapling!

Canopy Demons led Chu Mu and Ning Maner up the tree trunk of this towering tree. There were some tree holes at the branching spots. Those tree holes looked like caves.

After entering a tree hole, there were paths leading to all directions, as well as nests of various Demon creatures.

Chu Mu could see some creatures running around the internal paths. There seemed to be even bigger spaces in the depth. Sunlight would occasionally shine down. It felt like entering a dislocated castle and they were walking along the passages within the castle.

Who would have thought that such a mysterious world would be inside a tree?

“Big brother, they said Elder Li is over there,” said Ning Maner as she pointed at a pavilion-like internal treehouse.

“Alright,” Chu Mu nodded. They crossed a hollow tree vine bridge and walked towards that unique internal treehouse.

.....

“You’re here,” Elder Li seemed to foresee the arrival of Chu Mu. Chu Mu heard Elder Li’s voice before even entering the house.

The treehouse had no door. They could see Elder Li wearing a strange robe immediately after entering. It was tasting something while holding a wooden bowl. A trace of sunlight shone in from the opening carved on the tree wall and fell on Elder Li. It seemed like an elderly human enjoying the afternoon break.

“Huh?” Ning Maner was surprised after seeing Elder Li, because Elder Li looked too similar to Old Li. They had the same physique and head, the only difference was that Elder Li in front of them had a longer silver beard and deeper wrinkles.

“Miss, you are the successor of Messiah Tree, right?” asked Elder Li with a gentle smile.

“How did you know?” Ning Maner opened her mouth in astonishment.

Elder Li just smiled and did not say anything. It turned its gaze to Chu Mu and examined him, then turning to Night next to Chu Mu.

The Blood Marks on Night had already become very obvious. The aura it released was also different from the environment. It seemed that the corpse conversion had become even more severe.

“Hmm, its aura is much stronger,” Elder Li could also sense the low class Immortal rank aura exuded by Night.

When Night forfeited the chance of entering Demonic Mound Heavenly Realm and chose to left with Chu Mu, Elder Li could not ascertain whether Chu Mu could really help Night become Immortal rank.

Now that not only did Night pass pseudo Immortal rank, it also reached low class Immortal rank. Elder Li knew the hardship of crossing the Immortal rank threshold. Night was able to cross it and become low class Immortal rank, Elder Li was satisfied.

After examining Night, Elder Li finally focused on Chu Mu. It seemed to detect the uniqueness of Chu Mu’s aura and spoke, “You’re different from last before.”

Chu Mu nodded. When he entered Demonic Mound last time, Chu Mu only had normal Devil Transformation. Now, he had become Dual Evil Half Devil, with Black Nightmare’s bloodline flowing in his body.

Black Nightmare possessed a tyrannical aura. Even though Chu Mu returned to human state, he would unconsciously exude the tyranny of Black Nightmare.

“Eternal Ocean Son showed movements?” asked Elder Li.

Honestly speaking, similarly being raccoons, Old Li often gave Chu Mu a wretched and cowardly feeling. Even though it was very knowledgeable, it lacked an intellectual demeanor Elder Li possessed.

This Elder Li seemed to know everything and was able to see through everything. It could predict without Chu Mu saying much.

“One of its subordinates awakened, it’s Extreme Sky Ice Beast,” said Chu Mu.

“Oh, those funeral goods-like supreme beings..... During the Flood Dragon era, many powerful creatures from various races and some high ranking bloodline supreme beings served it. Each of its subordinates possessed immense strength. Some were even the leaders of a generation. Extreme Sky Ice Beast should be considered a weak one amongst them,” said Elder Li.

Chu Mu believed Elder Li. He had personally been to the Wind Palace. There were many other statues with even higher bloodline or greater power than Extreme Sky Ice Beast. If those subordinates awakened at the same time, it would be a terrifying disaster to mankind!

“Fortunately, you have improved your strength rapidly. Now that you also gained the role of Messiah Tree guardian, this is both a heavy responsibility and a guarantee for your strength to improve rapidly.....” said Elder Li.

Chu Mu was not really worried about getting stronger, he was worried about whether those subordinates would awaken at the same time. Perhaps even the Ancient Flood Dragon Person would awaken. He was unsure if he could really handle it by then.

Even the rather weak Extreme Sky Ice Beast was already like that.

“I want to know whether they will all awaken at the same time,” said Chu Mu.

If that was the case, he had to migrate the citizens of New Moon Land to other lands within a few years. He would rather give up New Moon Land than to let this independent population become extinct.

“How can you be sure they are still asleep?” Elder Li asked back.

Chu Mu was startled for a moment, then became engulfed in thought.

Don't tell me all those subordinates are already awakened!

“When you're passing through Eternal Ocean, didn't you notice anything wrong with it?” asked Elder Li.

“I rarely come to Eternal Ocean, so I don't know what's different. However, I saw a few oceanic battlefield, there were many corpses.....” said Chu Mu.

“That's only a tiny portion you witnessed. Eternal Ocean is no longer peaceful. That guy did not awaken itself, but had sent out its pioneers to occupy the ocean region that it believes should be its,” said Elder Li.

“Uh..... I thought only Extreme Sky Ice Beast awakened.....” said Chu Mu.

“New Moon Land is not so valuable for it to send so many subordinates to occupy. Of course, since Extreme Sky Ice Beast was killed by you, it won’t be long before an even stronger foe assaults your territory. After all, that Ancient Flood Dragon Person has a peculiar preference for New Moon Land. It would never allow someone else to snatch its favorite thing. If I’m not sure, Desolate Dynasty should be ruled by its subordinates now. The East Ocean of Eternal Ocean is still in a racial war. If the Ocean Species cannot react in time, the East Ocean of Eternal Ocean will probably be occupied by Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s number one general, Calamity Ocean Demon.”

“If by the time Ancient Flood Dragon Person is about to wake up and New Moon Land still does not belong to it, Calamity Ocean Demon will definitely rile up the Ocean Species and occupy New Moon Land.....” said Elder Li.

An Ocean Demon that can occupy the East Ocean of Eternal Ocean?

Chu Mu found out from Evil Good Queen that other than the major race such as human, there were Ocean Species, Demon Species and other major races which possessed similarly long civilization and history as humans. Furthermore, due to not possessing an Undying rank expert, the humans were probably inferior in overall strength compared to the other five major races.

Eternal Ocean was the territory of Ocean Species. A single East Ocean was similar to half of Zhengming Continent.

Just how powerful would a creature that could invade half of Zhengming Continent be??

More importantly, it was only one general of Ancient Flood Dragon Person!

Chapter 1488: Demon Species, Ocean Species, Similar Civilization

“Follow me,” Elder Li turned and slowly walked towards the back of the room.

Chu Mu and Ning Maner followed the short raccoon and entered a dark wooden room.

There were some unique gems laid out within the wooden room glowing softly.

Many vine tables were set up within the room, various wooden flasks were placed on top of those tables. They all had different colors and shapes. The entire room looked just like a mini pharmacy. Chu Mu remembered that Ye Qingzi's table was also mostly occupied by such flasks occasionally, just that Ye Qingzi's table was much neater than Elder Li's.

"You are a Soul Teacher?" asked Chu Mu a little surprise mixed in his voice.

"If you were to categorize me based on a human's standards, that would be correct," Elder Li nodded and continued, "You humans have your own civilization, us demons have our own civilization. It's not only the humans who understand how to make Soul Items, Xuan Items, and Immortal Items....."

Elder Li spoke calmly as if that was completely normal.

However, it was a shocking fact to Chu Mu nonetheless. He could imagine that most of the humans would open their mouths wide in shock after finding out that other races also had talents like the Soul Teachers!

"I had told you to come five years later because the medicine to remove the corpse property is not really that easy to concoct. The East Ocean is also now in a turmoil and my subordinates sadly cannot harvest the herb. I'm still missing one herb, now that you're here already, help me run an errand," said Elder Li.

“No problem,” Chu Mu readily nodded.

“Don’t accept it so readily. This herb is not that easy to find. The place that it grows is within the battlefield between the Calamity Ocean Demon and the other ocean rulers,” continued Elder Li.

Chu Mu would have to find it no matter how difficult it was going to be, since it was related to Night’s life itself.

“Do you have any water type soul pet with you?” asked Elder Li.

Chu Mu scratched his head awkwardly. He could not swim at all. Everytime he ventured into the Eternal Ocean, he would feel really insecure as he had not yet been able to obtain a water type soul pet.

Elder Li could easily tell the truth from Chu Mu’s expression, “It would be more troublesome if that’s the case. Life Providence Grass grows rather deep within the ocean trenches. Although I know where you can find one, you won’t actually be able to obtain this Immortal Item without diving deep into the ocean.”

Chu Mu could only laugh bitterly. What should he do now? Should he go and catch a water type soul pet just for this special occasion? Even though he did have empty slots in his soul contract, he did not really want to just randomly make a soul pact with a soul pet. His choice of soul pet was very strict!

“Elder Li, I have a friend. She’s currently in a specter state, and her body is also well preserved. Is there any way to resurrect her?” asked Chu Mu.

The matter related to Princess Jin Rou has always bothered Chu Mu. However, resurrection was truly as vague as the legends told. Chu Mu did not know of any way to search for it. Since Elder Li was more knowledgeable than Old Li and could recover a soul pet from a corpse state back to a demon, it might just be able to resurrect Princess Jin Rou.

“You can tell me the actual situation she is in. How she died, the time that she died, as well as the reason that she is in her current state,” said Elder Li.

Chu Mu told Elder Li the entire situation without any deception mixed in.

“She has already died for such a long time.....” Elder Li stroked its silver beard and began thinking, “But fortunately, you have preserved her body well and have already awakened her soul.”

“Is there a way to resurrect her?” Chu Mu heard Elder Li’s tone and became excited.

“Resurrection is actually a subjective matter. You cannot really expect a dead person with a rotten corpse to be resurrected, nor can you resurrect a person whose soul has already been vanquished. As for your friend’s situation, first, you have preserved her body well, and you also used the Immortal Spring Water. This initial action has preserved some of the activeness of her body. Then, she has also signed a soul contract with the devil soul and awakened her soul. This has allowed her chances at resurrection to increase. I have a method that may be able to resurrect her, but I have no absolute confidence in it. Other than this method, the Limbo Flower’s resurrection technique can resurrect her,” said Old Li.

Chu Mu had already heard about the Limbo Flower’s resurrection technique from Old Li before. However, it was not really easy to find the Limbo Flower. Bai Yu had been searching for this clue for so many years and there was no actual result in the end.

As the one holding the highest racial rank amongst the Five Great Undying Legends, Limbo Flower had a much scarcer population than the other four. It was rumored that only a single person possessed a Limbo Flower. Also, it was hard to tell what rank that Limbo Flower was and whether it really possessed the resurrection technique which could actually work.

Unless Chu Mu could intrude into the Flower Species territory and find that Undying Limbo from amongst the many Flower Species.

However, this was clearly an impossible task. Leaving aside whether he could meet the Undying Limbo, just finding the location of the Flower Species territory was already a problem in itself.

“Dispelling Night’s corpse state requires a Life Providence Grass. Your friend also needs this herb. However, don’t get your expectations up yet, because an Immortal Item that can reunite the soul and the body is not so easily created,” reminded Elder Li.

“It’s fine as long as there’s a possibility,” Chu Mu nodded. Even if the chance was only one in a thousand, he would definitely try to resurrect her.

“Then your herb picking difficulty will also greatly increase. The Life Providence Grass that I wanted you to fetch is one thousand years old, within the underwater abyss at the ocean trench. Your friend requires at least a three thousand years old Life Providence Grass. There may be one at the bottom of the underwater abyss. You can take a look there if you have the ability to. As for how to go underwater, you need to think about that one yourself,” said Elder Li.

Thinking of this problem, Chu Mu began to feel a headache once again.

Ice and water were both a bane to fire. Within the water, his spatial ability would also be restricted to some extent. This weakening of his strength was quite a significant factor.

“Big brother cannot really swim. Grandpa Li, can you help big brother out?” Ning Maner blinked her eyes and used a coquettish tone.

“Uh.....” Elder Li was already helping Chu Mu with concocting the medicine. This task of picking the herb should be Chu Mu’s own responsibility. It was up to his own ability whether he could obtain it or not.

However, with Ning Maner pleading in Chu Mu's stead, Elder Li softened a little. That human did not really own any water type soul pet and had fire property himself on top of that. He could not really exhibit his strength underwater, so it would be too heartless to make him run such an errand all by himself.

“Fine, go look for the East Ocean Siren King. It owes me a little favor, tell it that I told you to look for it. It will help you,” said Elder Li.

East Ocean Siren King?

It was the first time that Chu Mu heard about such a race. Could it be that the rumor within the navy about the existence of sirens be actually true?

Elder Li seemed to have seen through Chu Mu’s doubt and explained, “The East Ocean of the Eternal Ocean is closer to your human continent. It’s common to have some mixed bloodline there. Ancient Flood Dragon Person also had a little human blood. Furthermore, you are a mixed blood yourself. The so-called mixed bloodline may not necessarily need to be from cross breeding. It’s possible that through some special soul integration or through obtaining the inheritance of another race can mutate the bloodline of a creature.”

Ugh, Chu Mu went astray. For a moment, Chu Mu was certainly wondering just how two different species could produce an offspring.

Speaking of which, Chu Mu had immediately thought of another question.

If one day he and Ye Qingzi had a child, then would that child be similar to him and could also play with fire?

If that was really the case, then just how difficult would it be to raise such a child?

“Thank you, Elder Li,” Chu Mu knew that Elder Li had provided him with great assistance.

“Hmm, go. The East Ocean Siren King is a powerful individual in the East Ocean. A growing Monument Tear Individual and the Messiah Tree Guardian like you needs to be acquainted with more racial leaders like that. It will be beneficial to you,” suggested Elder Li.

“Grandpa Li, just now you said your Demon Species, does that include the Demon Species that reside on this island? Then, aren’t you also living along with the Ocean Species? They occupy the ocean while you occupy the island?” asked Ning Maner out of curiosity.

Back in the Quiet Forest, Grandfather Messiah Tree would often tell Ning Maner stories of these races. Now that she was actually in the habitat of these Demon Species, she naturally had many questions.

Elder Li seemed to really like Ning Maner. It smiled like a gentle elderly and patiently started explaining, “Demonic Mound is just one of the territories of our Demon Species. It’s similar to a main city in your human continent. Other than some of the islands on the Eternal Ocean, our Demon Species still has a territory about the same size as your human continent. However, I have not returned there for many years now.”

“Oh, are there only Demon Species living there?” asked Ning Maner.

Elder Li shook its head, “Demon Species only possess a rather prosperous and civilized rulership. There are many other tribes, dynasties and major races there.”

“I really want to take a look now.....” said Ning Maner enviously.

“Hehehe, we will gladly welcome you. Humans do not really understand the importance of the Messiah Tree, but our Demon Species know how to well cherish and protect you. Sigh, it’s just a pity that the last Messiah Tree was destroyed. The masters of the five great races are probably really angry now,” lamented Elder Li.

“It’s alright, there’s still me,” Ning Maner had already walked out from that sorrowful past.

“Yes, hopefully, those humans will not make the same mistake again. If they really were to enrage the five great races, then the human territory will truly experience an apocalypse,” said Elder Li.

“They won’t. There are many people like big brother there, they won’t allow those people to do as they like,” said Ning Maner.

Chu Mu laughed bitterly. Don’t use me in such a big generalization. I’m not a human leader, I’m just a tiny New Moon Land King. There’s no point in talking about something on such a macro scale.

The true rulers of humans were the Divine Set, Xuan Gate Immortal School, Demon Beast Palace, Elemental Clan and the others. There was no way that it would be up to him to shoulder the responsibility of the survival of the entire race.....

Chu Mu admitted that he was a rather selfish person. After all, he already found it a problem whether he could protect New Moon Land or not.

Chapter 1489: Mermaid In The Flesh

When they left Demonic Mound, Elder Li sent that Sky Swallowing Roc to guide Chu Mu and Ning Maner to the place where East Ocean Siren King lived.

Honestly speaking, Chu Mu was also curious just how those Ocean Species looked like.

He had been to Eternal Ocean a few times and occasionally saw some ocean monsters crossing through the ocean. However, he could not link those ocean monsters with the Ocean Species that was said to have similar civilization as humans. What could be different between Ocean Species and humans? Or did they live in the same way as humans?

Sky Swallowing Roc still flew at its casual speed. It seemed that it would drift slowly like a cloud no matter where it went.

Due to its enormous size, despite it flapping its wings slowly, its flying speed was not slow at all. After flying out of Demonic Mound and the ocean, when they were only seeing dark blue ocean water in all directions, Chu Mu had lost sense of their direction a little.

“Big brother, why is the ocean in front red? Is there a red ocean?” asked Ning Maner as she suddenly pointed to the front.

Chu Mu looked in that direction and saw the redness within the ocean water. The red color seemed to be spreading towards them.

Chu Mu took a deep breath and immediately smelled the stench of blood in the ocean breeze.

“Ah?” Ning Maner looked ahead with eyes wide opened. A large piece of ocean was red in color. Such a bright color gave a shocking visual impact to the person!

Bloody ocean!

As Sky Swallowing Roc continued to fly further, the ocean beneath Chu Mu and Ning Maner had completely become a bloody ocean. It was a terrifying sight.

There was blood, so there must be corpses.

As expected, many floating corpses appeared within the bloody ocean. There were only a few at first, then gradually became several hundred, then to several thousands. Soon, the ocean surface was densely packed with corpses of ocean monsters, ocean beasts and ocean demons.....

Ning Maner shut her eyes and did not dare to look at such a scene.

Chu Mu remained overlooking the ocean. He wanted to find out what exactly happened underwater, but he was unable to see a living being within this bloody ocean region.

As they continued flying forward, the blood color within the ocean slightly faded.

However, before the ocean returned to its original color, another large piece of bloody ocean appeared!

This time, there were even more corpses. The organs and scales of oceanic creatures were scattered everywhere!

Seeing another large cluster of corpses, Chu Mu could tell these creatures died not long ago.

The ocean mysteriously became a floating corpse gallery. This repeating scene shocked Chu Mu over and over. Could it be that the war against Calamity Ocean Demon in East Ocean had already started?

Chu Mu witnessed floating corpses on the ocean surface before, but never on such a large scale!

Chu Mu was flying high in the sky, so his vision over the ocean region was very wide. The various big and small corpse clusters with bloody ocean patches adding up together created a huge oceanic graveyard in this region.

More importantly, not all corpses would float up. He could not be certain if there were even more corpses piled up under this bloody ocean.

This was an oceanic battlefield. The devastation was even worse than the war between humans. Especially when the blood spread out into the ocean water, that shocking redness was truly terrifying!

“Big brother, what happened to this ocean?” Ning Maner did not dare to look down anymore. She would remember the event in Quiet Forest when she saw such a scene.

Chu Mu shook his head and tried to calm himself down.

If he had never arrived at this region, he would never know such a horrible war also existed in the ocean.

As they flew even further, the bloody color finally faded away.

Although the ocean was still murky, it regained its normal color. Ning Maner was still a little scared.

After another few days of flight, the ocean seemed rather calm. At that moment, Sky Swallowing Roc chirped, as if telling Chu Mu that they had arrived at the region where East Ocean Siren King lived.

Chu Mu took a glance and found a coral island on the ocean surface!

This coral island seemed to be piled up by countless gems. It looked dazzling from afar.

There were many creatures around the coral island. Chu Mu saw ocean monsters clad in thick armor with a mini island-like turtle shell on their back, Cloud Jellyfishes that floated like clouds in the sky, as well as beautiful figures swimming quickly between waves.

Sky Swallowing Roc flew through the sky. As they got closer, Chu Mu noticed many ocean demons standing on those Cloud Jellyfishes.

Those ocean demons looked like iguanas, but they had fish fins and fish tails. Their long claws and sharp unihorns indicated that they were ferocious carnivores.

Those Ocean Iguana Demons standing on the Cloud Jellyfish looked like human's watchtower guards. They were merciless and orderly. They would kill any intruders on sight.

Sky Swallowing Roc seemed to be familiar with these Ocean Iguana Demon guards. They saw Sky Swallowing Roc approaching, but did not block the way and even opened up a path.

Sky Swallowing Roc flew into the coral island without any hindrance. The coral island was not very big, but there were still many ocean demons guarding on the island.

Sky Swallowing Roc let Chu Mu and Ning Maner down after reaching the coral island, telling them that there would be East Ocean members bringing them to East Ocean Siren King.

Splash splash splash~!

On the shore at the side, a stylish figure was making splashes beneath the ocean surface.

Chu Mu turned towards the sound and noticed a woman swimming towards them from the ocean.

She had an elegant swimming figure. Her sexy waist gently twisted and shook, easily propelling her towards Chu Mu and Ning Maner.

As she rose up from the water, a rather beautiful face came out of the ocean. Her wet hair stuck onto her cheeks and added seductiveness to her appearance.

Of course, the more alluring part was her body. Her smooth shoulders were completely bare. Chu Mu already noticed it when she approached, she was completely naked.

Her healthy tanned skin exuded a pleasing color. Her well proportioned figure caused Chu Mu to almost believe she was a beautiful human woman.

“Are..... you..... hu..... humans?” This mermaid used human language to ask albeit stiffly.

“Yes,” Ning Maner nodded and took a glance at Chu Mu. She pinched Chu Mu’s arm and pretended to be angry, “Bad big brother, don’t stare at her chest!”

Chu Mu smiled awkwardly. The legend about mermaids was true. He saw a beautiful mermaid in the flesh right in front of him. It seemed that those navy crews really did see these alluring figures within the fog, just that these mermaids did not want to interact with humans.

“How do you know the human language?” asked Chu Mu.

Sirens were sirens after all. They definitely had fundamental differences from humans. At least, this mermaid before them had a blue fish lower body. She was certainly beautiful, but their races were different after all.

“I..... I also don’t know. I never learned it before, but after hearing you speak it, I feel I can speak it.....” said the mermaid.

“Young master, sirens are born with excellent sound analyzing and imitation ability. They can imitate human pronunciation and then express their intention through words. Also, what young master is hearing now is not human language. This is her Arcane Sound. The effect of this Arcane Sound is to let you comprehend what she wants to say,” explained Old Li.

Back in Demonic Mound, Old Li remained quiet. Once they left Demonic Mound, this little old fellow jumped out again. Chu Mu wondered just what did it do in Demonic Mound that it dared not show its face in it.

“Sky Swallowing Roc has conveyed your intentions to me. You want to meet our king?” asked the mermaid.

“Yes, please lead the way,” Chu Mu nodded.

“Can you swim?” asked the mermaid.

“Is your king not on this island?” asked Chu Mu.

“This island is the city gate. Our city is underwater,” answered the mermaid.

“Then please lead the way,” said Chu Mu.

The mermaid nodded. Her stylish figure dove into the water again. Chu Mu only saw her blurry figure crossing through the corals.

Chu Mu held Ning Maner and jumped into the water.

Honestly speaking, Chu Mu could not swim. He directly cleaved apart the water and isolated the water around him to forcefully move in the water.

Ning Maner did not like such a method. She pulled out her hand from Chu Mu’s hand and allowed her charming body to be soaked. Then, she swam like another mermaid in the water.

“Big brother cannot swim!” teased Ning Maner using mental voice.

Chu Mu did not want to make contact with water anyway. As he watched Ning Maner swimming freely in the water, he accidentally noticed her thin clothing became completely transparent after getting soaked in water. Her smooth and white body was exposed in his eyes.

He had to admit, calling her little lass was a mistake. Because Ning Maner had definitely grown up. She had a soft snake-like waist, plump and abundant hips, as well as a pair of slim and sexy legs.

Such a tempting scene was right in front of his eyes, it was even more alluring than the mermaid before. Chu Mu did not know if Ning Maner was purposely attracting his attention or she did not notice herself getting exposed. Anyway, he did not say anything.

“Big brother, swim faster,” Ning Maner was circling around Chu Mu. She seemed really happy as she seemed to have finally found a way to bully Chu Mu.

“Hmm, sure,” Chu Mu turned his gaze away with some effort. He was silently repeating in his heart that he had seen nothing.

“Underwater is so interesting, there are so many fishes,” Ning Maner swam further away. There were countless colorful fishes swimming around her.

He could see that even oceanic creatures loved this charming little fairy.

Chapter 1490: Ocean Species, Yellow Spring!

Chu Mu only knew after going underwater that the coral island above water was just a tiny portion of the entire structure. This coral island became an enormous structure once he saw the portion underwater.

There were countless coral caves that could be crossed through. They were big and small, complicatedly connected with one another. It was like a maze after swimming into it.

The water around here had special dark currents. They could be carried somewhere without really swimming. Of course, these dark currents were gentle. They seemed to be traffic guidance and accelerated the speed of oceanic creatures, as well as helping the oceanic creatures determine their direction.

The underwater coral island was divided into many layers. After the mermaid led Chu Mu and Ning Maner to pass through various Ocean Species habitat, they reached the bottom part of this entire underwater city, or perhaps it could be said to be the city center.

Various oceanic creatures swam past Chu Mu. They looked at Chu Mu and Ning Maner curiously and confusedly.

In a human city, if there was a foreign race walking on the street, the humans would also do the same thing.

Now, Chu Mu and Ning Maner played the role of that foreign race. In those ocean creatures' eyes, Chu Mu and Ning Maner had proper upper bodies, but their lower bodies were not of fish tails, so it was strange.....

The mermaid did not really like to talk. She only fulfilled her role of leading the way. Only when Ning Maner asked her questions would she answer.

Once they reached deep into the coral island, Chu Mu saw an underwater throne.

The throne was decorated by underwater corals and countless pearls. There were many sexy mermaids swimming around it.

Other than that, a few Ocean Iguana Demons were stationed around the ocean floor rocks. These Ocean Iguana Demons had a chilling gaze and terrifying aura. They seemed like statues guarding the throne, but if any unauthorized beings dared to approach half a step towards the throne, they would definitely kill the intruder!

Chu Mu was astonished. Those Ocean Iguana Demons were already almost as strong as him. It was difficult to imagine multiple middle class Immortal rank creatures to appear!

More importantly, those three Ocean Iguana Demons were clearly bodyguards. The target of their protection must possess an extremely important position in Ocean Species!

At that moment, Chu Mu's gaze looked past those alluring figures of mermaids and fell onto the underwater throne. He noticed a mature woman half leaning on the throne.

Her seaweed-colored hair fluttered along with the water current. Her mature and refined face exuded a tempting charm, her purple lips traced out her sexiness.

What was more attractive was that this beautiful woman was similarly naked. Her abundant breasts were completely exposed in water. Chu Mu was able to get a full view of them.

The mature lady saw the arrival of Chu Mu and Ning Maner. She smiled charminly, "Welcome, I'm glad a pure hearted person is visiting our Ocean Species."

This beautiful mermaid lady's language was very fluent. It seemed that she did not use the effect of Arcane Sound and spoke the human language directly.

"Hello..... Are you East Ocean Siren King?" asked Chu Mu using human language.

Ning Maner kept pinching his arm at the side. Her bashful yet angry gaze was clearly telling Chu Mu to stop staring at that mermaid's chest!

Chu Mu could only lament. The other part was not wearing any clothes, he could not just look away when talking to her. If he looked at her while talking, he would naturally see the eye-catching spot in front of her chest.

In another sense, he was using a soul pet aesthetic point of view to look at the mermaid. Just why would Ning Maner get jealous?

The mermaid lady shook her head, “He is my father. Using your human’s naming method, I am the Eternal Ocean Princess, as well as East Ocean Princess.....”

“You seem rather familiar with humans?” said Chu Mu.

“I have human bloodline flowing within me,” said the mermaid lady with a smile.

Chu Mu was unsure if this bloodline meant she inherited the power of humans or she was a descendant of humans. He could not just ask such a rude question.

“We already know the intention of Elder Li. We are willing to help me. However, I believe you have seen the situation when you’re coming. Our East Ocean is currently in wartime. The Life Providence Grass you wanted is within Calamity Ocean Demon’s side to some extent.....” said East Ocean mermaid princess.

When she mentioned this matter, her smile also disappeared, turning into worry.

“Is there any way?” asked Chu Mu.

“You can only wait until we recover those territories. Then, we can send subordinates to pick them for you,” said the mermaid princess.

“How long will it take?”

Night’s situation was not optimistic. It would completely turn into a corpse in another few months. Chu Mu did not have so much time to keep waiting.

“Then, is there anything I can help with? I am New Moon Land’s King. The palace where the Son of Eternal Ocean, Ancient Flood Dragon Person, slumbers is in my territory,” said Chu Mu.

“Then we have a similar enemy,” Mermaid princess nodded.

Chu Mu could tell East Ocean was also wary of Ancient Flood Dragon Person. Based on the current war situation, he was not opposing Ancient Flood Dragon Person alone. If he could ally with Eternal Ocean East Ocean, his possibility of defeating Ancient Flood Dragon Person would be much greater.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

While they were conversing, a wave of violent tremor suddenly came from deeper underground. The tremor caused the entire underwater city to shake.

Lululu~!

The mermaids around mermaid princess were frightened by the tremor and escaped in all directions. They hid into underwater caves that looked like mini houses and did not dare to come out.

Meanwhile, those three Ocean Iguana Demon Guards appeared around the mermaid princess and showed a stern expression. Their dark yellow pupils were staring hard at the deep abyss further underground.

As if there was an enormous ocean monster stirring the water, dark currents became more rapid. A powerful underwater swirl appeared and the surrounding underwater rocks began trembling violently. It gave off a feeling that this coral city was about to collapse.

Ning Maner grabbed Chu Mu's arm in fear and cautiously looked at the bottomless abyss not far away.

"Don't be afraid, it's that fellow throwing its temper," Mermaid princess was rather calm as she concoled Ning Maner as well as those mermaids who were scared away.

As expected, the underwater city regained calmness after a while.

"That fellow?" asked Chu Mu out of curiosity.

A creature that could shake the entire underwater city must be extremely strong!

Mermaid princess smiled gently, “It destroyed the holy cultivation altar of Eternal Ocean Master, Eternal Ocean Master exiled it to our East Ocean’s abyss to make it reflect.”

“It’s also a mermaid race?” asked Chu Mu.

Honestly speaking, Chu Mu did not really know what abilities the mermaid race possessed. He also did not know those with partial human bloodline could sign a soul pact with humans to become soul pets.

The tremor just now was really powerful. If that being was also from the mermaid race, it was really difficult to imagine how a mermaid that looked like a feeble human woman possessed such a terrifying strength.

Mermaid princess shook her head, “It’s not a mermaid. However, it’s the most prosperous race in our Eternal Ocean.”

“The most prosperous race??” Chu Mu was really lacking knowledge about the Eternal Ocean.

“Young master, the mermaid race has very little population. If I’m not wrong, these mermaids you have seen are probably the majority of their race. Mermaid race is similar to us raccoons in the Demon Species. We are the agents of Demon Species, they are the agents of Ocean Species. They are the symbol of intelligence, destiny and civilization. They lived under the accompany and protection of the most prosperous race. On the other hand, they act as the ambassadors to interact with other races. Perhaps due to the humans far surpassing other races in interaction, us agents usually possessed partial human features. Raccoon, mermaid, beastman, flowerman and the likes,” Old Li immediately explained for Chu Mu.

“There’s such a thing,” Chu Mu really never expected this Old Li to be the agent for the Demon Species. Apart from Old Li, the other five major races also had partial human feature creatures.

This caused him to recall Yu Suo. Could it be Yu Suo was an agent of the flower race?

Chu Mu immediately asked Old Li about this question.

“Evil Good Queen is not an agent. She and young master are the same, both possess two souls. She was originally human, only turning into half human after integrating the Evil Good Ancestor’s soul. Us agents are different from you half humans. At least, we cannot transform between two forms. Furthermore, you half humans are originally human, so you can reproduce with humans. For example, young master can marry human women and reproduce descendants. You can also reproduce offspring with female half humans like Evil Good Queen. However, can young master do that kind of deed with these mermaids? No matter how mixed the bloodline is, the core difference between races lies in whether an offspring can be produced,” said Old Li.

“Eh, don’t be so lecherous,” Chu Mu was speechless.

“This is knowledge. It’s the continuation of life and the difference between lives. How is it related to lecherous?” rebutted Old Li.

“Fine, back to the topic. What’s the most prosperous race of Eternal Ocean? This scarcely populated mermaid race is the agent of which race?” asked Chu Mu.

Although Old Li was in Soul Capture Ring, Chu Mu could still feel its disdainful gaze. It spoke, “Young master cannot even guess this?”

“The representative of Hades is Demon Species supreme, the representative of Limbo was Flower Species supreme.....”

“Yellow Spring!” As Old Li spoke halfway, Chu Mu was suddenly enlightened!

Don’t tell me the creature that made a ruckus just now is the famous Yellow Spring from the Five Great Undying Legends!

Yellow Spring was the representation of water. Ocean Species highest ruler was an Undying rank Yellow Spring!

“Mermaid princess, is that a Yellow Spring?” asked Chu Mu.

Mermaid princess was a little confused. However, after thinking carefully, she seemed to understand something and nodded, “Yes, it is called Yellow Spring according to your human naming!”
