

Soul Pets Bk2 1491

Chapter 1491: Eternal Ocean Small Tyrant, Yellow Springs

It really was Yellow Springs. It was extremely difficult to see Yellow Springs in the human realm. At least Chu Mu had never seen a soul pet trainer with one of the five great undying species. This exemplified how difficult it was to sign a soul pact with one of these five species.

Most importantly, these five great undying species had their own civilization. They were also the rulers of this civilization and prosperous nation. They couldn't rely on someone else's charity and their status was higher than humans. Therefore, this made it hard for humans to sign soul pacts with these five species.

If Chu Mu didn't have Mo Xie who had the special mutation ability that mutated her into a Hades Fox Noble, Chu Mu wouldn't have any opportunity to obtain the interest of the five great undying species.

Chu Mu was lacking a water type soul pet, and if he was able to sign a soul pact with a Yellow Springs, he wouldn't have any regrets in his soul pet trainer life!

However, what were Yellow Springs like?

Hades were the supreme bloodline of the Demon Fox species. So what species were Yellow Springs the supreme bloodline of? Was it the Water Unicorn species, the Turtle Species, the Ocean Demon species, the Shark species, or the Flood Dragon species? Or perhaps they were a hybrid of all the first-rate species?

"It seems like you're very interested in Yellow Springs?" the mermaid princess slowly swam over from her throne. Her body lithely drifted over to Chu Mu.

The currents lightly brushed against her lustrous body. The gorgeous eroticism couldn't help but make one want to look more.

"Big brother!!" Ning Maner exasperatedly and flusteredly glared at Chu Mu. Where was this pervert looking at? What was there even to look at? Wasn't it just more flesh there? Moreover, wasn't such a big mermaid princess afraid of water resistance when she swam? Ning Maner was angrily thinking about all of this.

"Don't disturb," Chu Mu removed Ning Maner's two small pinching fingers from his arm. This girl was always pinching him.

"You're not allowed to look! Close your eyes!" said Ning Maner. As she spoke, she stood on her tiptoes and used her small white hands to block his eyes.

Chu Mu was speechless towards her.

The mermaid princess watched Ning Maner's adorable actions and giggled. She said: "Is this your girlfriend? How cute."

"Big sister, you must wear clothes. Big brother is a pervert." Ning Maner didn't let the issue go.

"Those are customs of you humans. Us mermaids all like to reveal our beautiful parts to those we like. Little sister, you can also reveal the places you're most proud of. Perhaps your good older brother wouldn't look at me anymore and instead just look at you," the mermaid princess laughed.

Ning Maner's face instantly flushed red as she muttered: "How can I do that."

The mermaid princess faintly smiled. She stopped joking around this topic with Ning Maner. She swam up to Chu Mu and used her hand to lightly touch his forehead.

At the moment, the mermaid princess's beauty was fully exposed before Chu Mu's eyes. Chu Mu wanted to suck in a deep breath, but discovered he was underwater.

Indeed, the beautiful mermaid species was full of alluring women. Right now he had to try his hardest to focus on her lower half and cut off those thoughts he shouldn't be having.

"You are a human soul pet trainer?" the mermaid princess used her finger to lightly move the hair on Chu Mu's forehead as she softly asked.

"Yes." Chu Mu nodded his head.

"I've heard that you humans have the ability to tame other species? I think they were called soul pacts?" said the mermaid princess.

"Indeed, I already have many soul pets and they have followed me. Together we have grown, cultivated, and fought," said Chu Mu.

"Can you show this ability to me? I want to know why it can make these creatures fight for you humans." said the mermaid princess.

"Show? You're talking about the soul pact?" Chu Mu didn't really know how to show.

“Yes. Use your soul pact on me.” said the mermaid princess.

“No!” before Chu Mu responded, Ning Maner helped him refuse.

Chu Mu was going to sign a soul pact with the mermaid princess?

Ning Maner would refuse under any circumstance. Who knew what kind of naughty things he would do when this beautiful and sexy mermaid princess became the soul pet of this bad big brother!

“Hahaha, younger human sister. Don’t worry. I won’t randomly become the subordinate of a human. I only want to know special form this ability comes from. Don’t be jealous.” the mermaid princess laughed. Although species were different, the intelligent mermaid princess was clearly able to see Ning Maner’s jealousy.

“I’m not jealous. I’m helping big sister watch over him,” earnestly said Ning Maner.

“Ok ok, this works too,” the mermaid princess laughed in response.

Since the mermaid princess was interested in understanding soul pacts, Chu Mu used it on her.

A deep blue star-like light landed on the mermaid princess. It was like opening a bridge to the soul. In that instant, Chu Mu felt as if he could see the mermaid princess’s memories. However, they were vague and indistinct scenes.

The mermaid princess could also see fragments of Chu Mu's memories. Because it was Chu Mu that had opened his soul to her, she was able to see far more than Chu Mu was.

And for some reason, the memories gave the mermaid princess a renewed understanding of this unfamiliar human. It was like he was a very close friend or even a family member that one was unable to part with.

The mermaid princess realized that if she allowed the soul pact to continue reaching in, she would actually become this human's soul pet. Thus, she hastily resisted, and kept Chu Mu's soul pact at bay.

Once it was held at bay, the feeling of closeness slowly grew indistinct and she returned to normal.

"How dangerous..." the mermaid princess hugged her large and erotic breasts. She spat out a few bubbles from her mouth.

"Ya, you almost became my soul pet. You shouldn't have become intoxicated in my memories just now. That caused you to lose yourself. If I had taken a forceful approach just now and made my soul remembrance enter your soul, you would not be able to resist then," said Chu Mu.

The success rate of a soul pact signing wasn't very high. However, if the soul pet didn't have any mental resistance, for example like the mermaid princess when she attempted to accept the soul linkage just now, then the success rate would near 100 percent. If Chu Mu had been shameless, this mermaid princess would have actually become his soul pet.

This demonstrated that Chu Mu was an honest person and hadn't been swayed by the upper half of her body. Indeed, Chu Mu had suffered when he signed his first pact causing him to be extremely cautious in future soul pact signings. He would not sign a soul pact with the envoy of the Ocean Species without reason.

“Yes, thank you for being a gentleman. I was too reckless. However, the soul pact ability of you humans is truly special. If we also possessed this ability as well, not as many stupid and stubborn people as now would have appeared. For example, Yellow Springs, which just threw a tantrum.” said the mermaid princess.

Although the soul pact didn’t succeed, the mermaid princess had an even deeper understanding of Chu Mu. She also felt some gratitude and goodwill towards him.

“Each species has different abilities,” said Chu Mu.

“Forgive my presumptuousness, but I learned from your soul memories that you are lacking a water type soul pet?” carefully asked the mermaid princess.

“Yes.” Chu Mu nodded his head.

“Our Eastern Ocean is currently resisting the enticement and war of the Calamity Ocean Demons. We only have a few adult Yellow Springs in our Eastern Ocean and they aren’t entirely willing to help us. Since you humans have an ability that allows you to create a special soul pact with soul pets, perhaps you can try...” the mermaid princess’s eyes flashed.

“Try?” Chu Mu felt that he had seized something that made him a bit excited.

“Yes. Try and change its views by using your special soul pact method.” said the mermaid princess.

The mermaid princess's words immediately made Chu Mu wild with joy!

Yellow Springs! Wasn't this letting him sign a soul pact with Yellow Springs?

If his water type soul pet was Yellow Springs, what was there to be picky about!

Of the five great undying species, he already had the Hades Fox Noble. He also had the Evil Good Primogenitor - the flower type soul pet even more ancient than the Limbo Flower. If he obtained the water type supreme, Yellow Springs, Chu Mu would have no regrets if he died!

The mermaid princess's words made Chu Mu too excited. She was too good at understanding others. He really wanted to kiss her beautiful face and of course, this would be purely to show his thanks!

"Human friend, I should explain things first. This Yellow Springs' status is very high in the Ocean Species. If it wasn't because it committed a wrong and was demoted... but even if this is the reality, everyone had best not do anything to it."

"It's arrogant and obstinate. It doesn't even listen to the orders of its own father and mother. It may be young, but it is wanton and violent. The number of disasters it has caused for the Ocean Species is innumerable. My father, the mermaid king, spent a huge amount of effort in order to capture it when it was causing a disaster to a region. When he sought Eternal Ocean Lord for instructions, the lord himself was fed up with it and just ignored it. He handed the matter over to my father to deal with. My father didn't have any better option and could only lock it up..."

"Speaking frankly, this fellow's influence is not even close to the Calamity Ocean Demon."

Chu Mu was stunned. He never expected that Yellow Springs was so capable. Moreover, from Eastern Ocean Princess's tone, this Yellow Springs was a notorious wild creature amongst the Ocean Species.

"The chances of success of signing a soul pact with a soul pet before they reach the seventh phase is rather high. But once a mature soul pet's consciousness is fully developed, it is very difficult to control or change its consciousness." Chu Mu rubbed his temples. Given that Yellow Springs was able to rampage through Eternal Ocean, its strength was extremely formidable. There was no way it was an infant Yellow Springs.

"No, no, no, I don't have any intentions of having you sign a soul pact with it. This arrogant fellow will never sign a soul pact with humans. I only want to use the unique method of humans to guide it. The truth is that we are really in need of its help. Unfortunately, my father has placed it under house arrest and with its temper, not taking revenge on Eastern Ocean already isn't bad, let alone helping us annihilate the Calamity Ocean Demon army."

The mermaid princess thought before adding: "Of course, if you're able to sign a soul pact with it, we won't oppose. Once news of it being taken away by a human has spread, the entire Eternal Ocean will thank you!"

Chu Mu stood there agape. How nasty was this Yellow Springs that the Ocean Species didn't like it?

Chapter 1492: Love at First Sight Water Type Soul Pet

The fact that the Yellow Springs was young was a good thing for Chu Mu.

Once a soul pet matured, it was very difficult to tame. Even if there was a soul pact, there would often be a conflict in views.

For example the soul pact with Yu Suo. If it wasn't because she was afraid of Chu Mu locking her up, Yu Suo wouldn't listen to a word of Chu Mu's, let alone his fighting commands; she may even command Chu Mu's fights.

This was because soul pets were mature before signing a soul pact and had complete ideologies they believed in. They would therefore have no tacit understanding in their cooperation with a soul pet trainer.

From the tone the mermaid princess used, the Yellow Springs was probably a very famous young evil tyrant of the Ocean Species that everyone feared. They wanted him to guide it upon a proper path. While Chu Mu himself had done numerous evil things, the task of reform and guidance would be best handed over to Ning Maner.

No matter the case, since there was a Yellow Springs here, Chu Mu had to have a look and try. If he could sign a soul pact, that would be the best.

The mermaid princess personally led Chu Mu and Ning Maner. As if she wanted to prevent the unexpected from happening, the mermaid princess brought a few Ocean Iguana Demon Guards. It was possible to see the fear she had towards Yellow Springs.

After passing through the city's ocean abyss, Chu Mu and Ning Maner followed the mermaid princess even deeper into the ocean. In the darkness, they were able to see the outlines and bumps of the ocean floor.

In the depths of the ocean, a fissure, the bottom of which could not be seen, suddenly appeared in front of them.

This terrifying trench was filled with turbid ocean water and ice-cold darkness.

The mermaid princess and her guards brought Chu Mu into the trench. Suddenly, all of the light was swallowed and what surrounded them was darkness.

The mermaid princess opened her mouth and spat out a pearl-shaped object. The small pearl let out a pale-white light that illuminated the malevolent appearance of the ocean trench.

As they continued to descend, Chu Mu could no longer determine how deep the ocean was here. The pressure and obstruction of the water grew stronger and stronger.

“This place has a barrier. Under the barrier is the place where Yellow Springs is punished.” said the mermaid princess.

Chu Mu glanced under him and discovered a dark blue water screen that didn’t even let water through blocking their path. This was an underwater barrier. It had probably been the Yellow Springs just now that smashed against this barrier, causing the Ocean species city to violently shake.

The mermaid princess was particularly careful and cautious when she opened the barrier. She was genuinely afraid the fellow would flee. If that happened, not only would Eastern Ocean face the invasion of the Calamity Ocean Demons, but would also suffer the revenge of the out of control Yellow Springs. Eastern Ocean’s region would be in trouble.

When the barrier was slowly opened, the four Ocean Iguana Demons swam in front of the mermaid princess.

After entering the barrier, the mermaid princess immediately closed the barrier. How cautious she was could be seen.

Four Ocean Iguana Demons stood beside the mermaid princess. They looked like they were about to meet a great enemy. Their dark yellow eyes watched the surrounding pitch black ocean floor stones and other places where one could hide.

“Ni!!!”

Suddenly, a sharp thunderous cry rang out in the water!

The sound stunned the four Ocean Iguana Demons into a bout of dizziness. Their armor that was initially stuck close to their body instantly turned into blades that would defend against any attacking enemy.

At the same moment, a long and powerful water figure swept by the front of the four Ocean Iguana Demons. Its tail suddenly grabbed one of the Ocean Iguana Demons!

Before this Ocean Iguana Demon could even let out a cry, its body was hauled into the air and fiercely thrown.

“Beng!!!!”

The Ocean Iguana Demon smashed into the rocky ocean floor, leaving a huge hole in the ground and causing the trench to violently shake.

“Gu gu gu!!!!!!”

The other three Ocean Iguana Demons witnessed their comrade getting beaten up and they were exceptionally angry. Their bodies instantly transformed into lightning that traveled through the deep water.

These three Ocean Iguana Demons were the Eastern Ocean Princess Guards that Chu Mu had seen previously. The sum of their strength was probably not too inferior to the devil transformation Chu Mu.

The three Ocean Iguana Demons quickly approached the figure. It was unknown what technique they used, but it formed a water prison of pillars that wanted to forcibly suppress the indistinct figure in a corner.

However, their movements seemed slow. Chu Mu saw the water figure turn increasingly blurry. This was only a clone. The real attacking creature appeared behind the three Ocean Iguana Demons!

“Pai!!!”

Chu Mu saw a lightning-like tail fiercely slam into the three Ocean Iguana Demons. The three creatures were unable to defend in time and were knocked flying by the Yellow Springs into the hole where the other Ocean Iguana Demon was. In an instant, the four Ocean Iguana Demons were smashed into one piece.

“Ni ~~~ Ni~~~~~”

The creature with the flood dragon tail didn't pursue. It just floated to the side and watched the four miserable Ocean iguana Demons. Like a child, it waved its fins and looked very happy.

The four Ocean Iguana Demons' dark yellow eyes revealed anger.

The four of them were immortal ranks, and it wasn't excessive to call them Ocean Iguana Demon Emperors. In the ocean species, they belonged to the group of experts that could not be angered. However, they were being played with now by this small fellow. They were unable to just swallow this.

The mermaid princess maintained a distance with the small Yellow Springs. She spat out a pleasant lullaby-like note.

"Ni~~~ Ni~~~~~" the small yellow Springs slowly swam over to the mermaid princess.

Its head was larger than the mermaid princess's body. Its large pearl-like eyes looked somewhat innocently at the mermaid princess, before it curiously looked at Chu Mu and Ning Maner behind her.

Through the mermaid princess's ocean light pearl, Chu Mu was roughly able to see the Yellow Spring's head and its eyes.

Speaking truthfully, its eyes were very bright and very pure. The first feeling Chu Mu had was that this was still a child.

Its head had a horn that was very smooth and took the shape of a trident. It was unknown whether it hadn't grown into an adult body, or whether it just looked like this. Its forehead to its jaw were formed by azure scales that were glossy and soft. At such a close distance, Chu Mu wanted to stretch out his hands and rub the soft-looking scales.

The face resembled a Unicorn species creature. Chu Mu had seen the Unifying Wind Unicorn before and its appearance was roughly the same in terms of might, harshness, and dignity. However, because of this fellow's large and sparkling eyes, it made its unicorn-like head rather cute and lovable.

The bodies of Unicorn species were similar to beasts - their necks, torsos, four limbs, and tails.

Chu Mu remembered when he saw a Violent Unicorn Water Beast in Li City. Its body was similar to a shark. It had fins, but also had four limbs with claws. The fins were located in between the claws.

The Violent Unicorn Water Beast was a hybrid blood lineage of the Unicorn species and Water Beasts. It wasn't actually a Unicorn.

The creature in front of Chu Mu had a similar body. However, it was about four to five times longer than the bodies of Water Unicorns and Water Beasts.

Its head to its neck, back, butt and tail formed a graceful water line.

It had a perfect contrast between a Unicorn species head and a body in between a flood dragon's slender body and a unicorn beast's robust body. Finally, it had a slowly sliding down and shrinking flood dragon tail...

Chu Mu had seen many types of soul pets and hybrid blood lineages in books. However, he had never seen a creature of this form. It had the graceful elegance of a flood dragon and its slender body gave it great dodging abilities in fights as well as nimble methods of changing. It also had the strength, toughness, robustness, and might of most beast type creatures that came from its Unicorn Beast side.

When Chu Mu looked at this creature, he felt that it was slowly being lengthened and changed from a Unicorn Beast's body to a flood dragon's body.

The water type soul pet Chu Mu wanted wasn't a finned creature that could only stay in the ocean. He wanted a water type soul pet that could stand on land and control water to submerge the land. Simultaneously, it had to have absolute fighting superiority in the water!

These requirements were particularly difficult because ocean soul pets and land soul pets were not as easily combined like elemental and beast soul pets.

This was also why Chu Mu had yet to choose a water type soul pet even after so long.

Thus, when Chu Mu saw the Yellow Spring's unusual figure, he felt his heart beat!

It was like a man having an idea of an ideal girl in his heart. When this ideal girl appeared in reality, it would be easy to fall in love at first sight.

Chu Mu had a similar feeling when he saw the Yellow Springs!

That's right. This was the water type soul pet he was looking for!

Before Chu Mu stepped on the soul pet trainer's path, he mapped out a blueprint for himself. Simply speaking, it was a list of soul pets he wanted.

Chu Mu's current soul pets he possessed list was essentially finished. Mo Xie, the White Nightmare, Ning, Devil Tree, Night, Zhan Ye, Ghost King, Qin, the Little Hidden Dragon, the Dead Dream... oh, Yu Suo had previously been dragged by Chu Mu to the blacklist.

Mo Xie was a perfect demon, beast, and elemental creature. She had speed, strength, and fire ability.

The White Nightmare was the other attribute. Its darkness and devil flames were strange and evil.

Ning was the absolute pure ice type. It was a controller of snow and ice.

The Devil Tree had the steadiness and calmness of a plant world creature.

Night had absolute speed and dodging abilities. Added on its ability to hide in darkness and pass through dream realms...

Zhan Ye was the strongest incarnation of the beast and insect type. It was an unbreaking and tenacious hardcore soul pet personally created by Chu Mu. It was wild and persevering!

The Ghost King had two extremities. Absolute speed and defense!

Qin was a pure wind type. When its wind was soft, it would be a breeze that brushed past. When the wind was angry, a storm would engulf soul pets.

The Little Hidden Dragon was a unique soul pet with incomparable attributes. Even if it wasn't on the list, Chu Mu still loved it.

The Dead Dream had demonic and cold darkness, was superior and nimble in the sky and its techniques were strange and beautiful... it was also a wing type soul pet he fell in love with at first sight.

Then what about water type soul pets?

Chu Mu was unable to fully sketch out his ideal water type soul pet. But when he saw the Yellow Springs, he immediately knew that it met his requirements!

No matter what, he had to capture the Yellow Springs!

Chapter 1493: The Strange Yellow Springs

The Yellow Springs stared with its round and watery eyes. It seemed like it had never seen a human before, as it inquisitively examined Chu Mu's legs.

It was probably wondering how legs like these were able to swim in the water.

The Yellow Springs discovered that Chu Mu had used some energy to isolate himself from the water. It slowly extended its claw to touch Chu Mu's spatial barrier.

The spatial barrier was what Chu Mu used to repel the water, making his actions more free.

Chu Mu watched the small Yellow Springs curiously extend its claws over and a smile rose on his face.

It looked very cute. Why did the mermaid princess describe the small Yellow Springs as reprehensible?

As Chu Mu was wondering, he suddenly discovered that the small Yellow Spring's fin claw abruptly exploded forth. A cold light flashed by as a sharp force swept by!

The claw's ripping force was extremely powerful, ripping open Chu Mu's spatial barrier.

Chu Mu was at the bottom of the sea where the water pressure was very strong. Once the spatial barrier was ripped open, the water pierced Chu Mu's body like sharp swords.

Chu Mu was still admiring the small Yellow Springs. He never expected it to suddenly attack!

“Shua!!!!”

Water burst through the opening, ripping open a wound on Chu Mu's chest!

The blood rolled down his chest. He looked like he had been stabbed by a sword.

“Big brother!!” Ning Maner turned pale from fright.

The mermaid princess was also stunned. She hastily ordered the Ocean Iguana Demon guards to protect Chu Mu.

“Ni~~~~ Ni~~~~~”

The small Yellow Springs flapped its fins. It seemed very cheerful as its nimble body quickly swam through the water. It swam in a circle and began to energetically stir up the ocean water!

The rapid stirring formed the water into a whirlpool that grew increasingly rapid. The Ocean Iguana Demons wanted to stop it, but they were struck by the rapid moving water. They were unable to do anything to the Yellow Springs.

The mermaid princess saw that Chu Mu was injured and hastily stretched out her hand and placed it on his chest.

There was a bloody wound on Chu Mu’s chest, but no blood flowed out. When the mermaid princess’s fair hand was placed on top, Chu Mu immediately felt warmth.

Alongside a prickling feeling, Chu Mu felt his flesh grow and slowly, the pain also disappeared.

Chu Mu looked down and discovered that the mermaid princess’s palm was shining with a controlling light. Her head was down as she quietly chanted a song-like incantation...

Unwittingly, the wound was healed. Chu Mu looked a bit surprisingly at the mermaid princess and said: “Is this the healing method of your Mermaid species?”

“Yes. We are adept in healing and mental abilities.” said the mermaid princess. She glanced at the wanton and unrestrained small Yellow Springs and said apologetically, “It has always done whatever it wishes. It has powerful and outstanding strength. There aren’t many amongst the Ocean species that can keep it under control.”

“No matter. It’s nothing more than a somewhat excessively naughty child.” Chu Mu didn’t care.

“If it was just naughty, that would be fine...” the mermaid princess forced a smile and shook her head.

“Big brother, this fellow is very strange. It isn’t even paying attention to me.” said Ning Maner.

Ning Maner innately had the ability to grow intimate with most creatures. However, the Yellow Springs had only given Ning Maner a glance. Clearly, her immortal aura wasn’t the tiniest bit enticing to it.

This was bad news to Chu Mu. He initially wanted Ning Maner to use her natural ability to grow close with the small Yellow Springs. Then, he would slowly trick the small Yellow Springs which wasn’t very mature. Who expected that the small Yellow Springs would ignore Ning Maner? This was an extremely rare occurrence since she often attracted all soul pets!

“Can you communicate with it?” asked Chu Mu.

“Yes, but it’s ignoring me.” angrily said Ning Maner.

This was also the first time Ning Maner had encountered such a strange soul pet.

The mermaid princess swam up to the small Yellow Springs and used a voice as if she was singing a lullaby to communicate with the small Yellow Springs.

The small Yellow Springs was the master of creating trouble. Every so often it would cause destruction and trick the Ocean Iguana Demons. It wouldn't listen to what the mermaid princess said.

The mermaid princess truly didn't know what to do.

"If you keep being like this, my father will lock you up even longer." the mermaid princess said to Yellow Springs.

Chu Mu didn't understand the Ocean species' language. Ning Maner helped him translate.

"Ni~~~ Ni~~~~~" the small Yellow Springs let out a cry. Ning Maner said that it didn't care.

The mermaid princess actually wanted nothing more than to send away this pestilence. Eastern Ocean was already messy enough. If this fellow were to one day go insane...

"Let's leave first. It's temper is very strange. Normally I'm able to communicate with it. Something abnormal is happening..." the mermaid princess helpless shook her head.

The four Ocean Iguana Demons the mermaid princess had brought had been thoroughly bullied. But the Yellow Springs didn't seem to think that was much fun. Its eyes would glance at Chu Mu every so often, as it wanted to cause trouble for him.

However, this fellow was very cautious. It ostensibly knew that Chu Mu's strength was higher than these Ocean Iguana Demons. Besides the initial sneak attack, it didn't dare swim near Chu Mu. It was afraid that he would retaliate.

Chu Mu could also see that this Yellow Springs was a troublesome fellow. If he couldn't even communicate with it, there was no way he would be able to convince it to become his soul pet. He also couldn't use strength to solve the problem.

Most importantly, Chu Mu didn't think his strength could solve this problem. This place was the deep sea and Chu Mu's strength was severely limited. On the other hand, the Yellow Springs could move as it pleased her. From the strength it just exhibited, he wouldn't be able to subdue it. Instead, there was a chance he could be subdued.

Thus he could only take time considering how to guide it.

When the trench barrier was closed up again, the small Yellow Springs didn't seem to like being alone. After the mermaid princess and Chu Mu left, it angrily smashed into the barrier, wanting to break free of this place.

"Do you have any ideas?" the mermaid princess asked Chu Mu.

"Lock it up for a bit for now." said Chu Mu.

“The time we’ve kept it locked up is too long. When it gets out, it will be even more angry.” said the mermaid princess.

“That’s fine. Your Eastern Ocean has already locked it up, and it will always be angry and hateful over that. It doesn’t matter if you keep it locked up longer. I can see that it really likes to play around. However, its playing is a bit excessive.” said Chu Mu. “Keep it locked up for a bit and no matter how much it throws a tantrum, ignore it. Treat it as if it will be imprisoned here.”

“This...” the mermaid princess felt a bit embarrassed.

Amongst the entire Ocean species, who dared imprison this small ancestor!

“Yes, I also agree with what young master said. It’s like a human child. The more you spoil it, the more this fosters its temper. The small Yellow Springs innately probably just wants to have fun. I’m not sure what caused its playing and mischievousness to immensely expand. Adding on the fact that it innately has shocking destructive power, this has led to it being used to being feared by others. The more your Ocean species fears it, the more you don’t dare adopt tougher attitudes towards it and the more terrible it becomes. Perhaps by the time its intelligence is mature and it is stronger, a second Ancient Flood Dragon Person will be born.” said Old Li.

“You are...” the mermaid princess saw Old Li and opened her mouth in slight shock, “Aren’t you the Demon species’ wise man?”

“Hehe.” Old Li let out a dry laugh.

As the envoy of a large, prosperous species as well, Old Li didn’t have the face to say he had been expelled...

“Yes, my intentions were the same. It needs to be controlled and constrained. Otherwise, when it turns destruction and ruin into its own form of entertainment, when it matures, its desire for invasion and slaughter will become extremely terrifying,” said Chu Mu.

The Yellow Springs was also a creature with intelligence. Every creature had their own individual personality and tendencies. Since the Ocean species was a civilized ocean nation, the manifestation of the Ancient Flood Dragon Person, which was the evil of Eternal Ocean that would scare others at its mere mention, definitely had a cause from when it was young.

Who could guarantee that the child of Ancient Flood Dragon person wasn’t like the small Yellow Springs where it was allowed to run amok and was excessively spoiled?

When Chu Mu raised soul pets, he was very strict. He also paid attention to the soul pet’s natural disposition while raising it. For example, the Little Hidden Dragon initially was too reliant on others. Thus, Chu Mu had ruthlessly thrown it into a group of monsters to fight and let it temper itself through wounds.

If the small Yellow Springs was normally like this, Chu Mu had to correct it first.

Indeed, Chu Mu was certain the Yellow Springs was his soul pet. Since he was certain, he had to take care of it regardless if he had signed the soul pact or not.

“Ok, we’ll do as you say. I’ll tell my father first. I hope your method will be useful.” the mermaid princess let out a faint smile.

The mermaid princess had been looking for someone willing to take care of this matter. Thus, she would help Chu Mu as best as she could.

Moreover, from his memories, the mermaid princess had learned that Chu MU was an extremely outstanding soul pet trainer. Perhaps this human really would be able to control this undisciplined and out of control small Yellow Springs.

“I’m curious about something. It’s so young, so why does it have such powerful strength?” asked Chu Mu.

“I heard that it accidentally ate some special cultivation immortal item and its speed of growth is several times faster than other Yellow Springs.” said the mermaid princess.

“Then is it innate disposition related to what it accidentally ate?” asked Chu Mu.

“This... I’m not too sure either.” the mermaid princess naturally didn’t know this.

“Ok.” Chu Mu nodded his head.

Chu Mu remembered that Ye Qingzi had said that some excessively strong immortal items would stimulate a soul pet’s mind. This was comparable to Chu Mu’s devil transformation. When he transformed into a devil, his soul and consciousness suffered extremely painful devil flame burning. Under these circumstances, he was unable to think and could only ceaselessly vent the desire for violent and slaughter in his heart.

Perhaps the small Yellow Spring’s strangeness was related to what it accidentally ate.

Chapter 1494: The Fifth Heaven Boundary Monument

Chu Mu and the mermaid princess returned to Coral City. The mermaid princess seemed to know Chu Mu wasn’t used to the creatures in the ocean so she brought Chu Mu to Coral Island.

A few Ocean species members lived on the island. Chu Mu was actually curious how the mermaid princess, with a part fish body, would walk on land.

Just as Chu Mu thought she was going to transform her fish body into a pair of legs, the mermaid princess controlled the water around her and moved on land this way, crushing Chu Mu's imagination.

The moment they arrived on Coral Bay, Chu Mu saw an Ocean Iguana Demon riding on a Flying Cloud Mother in the air.

The Ocean Iguana Demon gave a bow, and then spoke in Ocean species language.

The mermaid princess's face grew slightly angry!

"What's the matter?" asked Chu Mu.

"The Calamity Ocean Demons have invaded our White Island." said the mermaid princess, "White Island is an important island in Eastern Ocean. The White Coral there is food for our Ocean species' children."

The mermaid princess didn't give a very detailed explanation. It was possible to see that she was very worried.

Old Li, just then, added an explanation:

“Ocean species members that have recently been born are very weak. They will easily suffer from the impact of intense seaquake. These things don’t happen on land. However, the impact of these quakes will cause 50 percent of Ocean species babies to perish before reaching the tenth stage.”

“The White Corals are given to Ocean species children to eat. They make their bones and organs more resistant. As long as they’re protected properly, the survival rate of the children will greatly increased. Because the children are very weak, their bodies find it difficult to withstand the energy of most spirit items. Thus, the special spirit items that can actually be used on Ocean species children to strengthen their bodies are especially important. Indeed, Ocean species creatures don’t have soul remembrances like you humans and therefore cannot extract energy from within the spirit item.”

Old Li seemed to understand the Ocean species very well. After listening to him, Chu Mu understood how important White Island was.

The Calamity Ocean Demons evidently wanted to control Eternal Ocean Eastern Ocean’s newborn offspring. Once the life or death of the newborn children were within their grasps, the Ocean species that were originally able to protect their young would easily acknowledge allegiance to the evil Ocean Demons.

“I’m very sorry. The Calamity Ocean Demons are attacking our species members again. Although I am not a fighting Ocean species, as Eastern Ocean’s princess, I must provide some aide in this war.” the mermaid princess politely said to Chu Mu.

“If it’s on an island, I can probably help you in this fight,” said Chu Mu.

Chu Mu couldn’t just stand by and watch. The Calamity Ocean Demons were a huge threat to New Moon Land. By helping Eternal Ocean Eastern Ocean, that was the same as a perpetually peaceful ocean region.

The mermaid princess hesitated a while. She felt that letting a guest participating in her species' internal fight wasn't appropriate and politely said: "It's best if we deal with it ourselves."

"It's no worries. Didn't you just say yourself that we are neighbors? We should be helping each other." said Chu Mu.

"Then I will say thank you first!" the mermaid princess appreciatively glanced at Chu Mu.

In reality, the Ocean species currently lacked experts. Since the ocean region had several important areas that needed experts to defend, the moment one was broken through, it was a huge blow to Eastern Ocean.

The mermaid princess initially wanted to send someone to bring Chu Mu to White Island. But after carefully thinking about it, her father was probably too busy. It would be best if she could deal with the White Island matter herself and lessen the responsibilities for Eastern Ocean's king.

"Let's go together." said the mermaid princess.

"Ok." Chu Mu nodded his head.

The mermaid princess understood the human language and spoke it very fluently. If she sent another creature from the Ocean species to bring him, Chu Mu would feel strange since he wouldn't be able to communicate. Indeed, the way of thinking between the Ocean species and humans would definitely have some discrepancies.

It wasn't that Chu Mu had never interacted with soul pets before. For example, in Southern Forbidden Region, Chu Mu came and went like he was in his own home. However, strictly speaking, the Nightmare species could be considered the same family as Chu Mu, so there was no issues in communicating.

.....

The mermaid princess needed to intercept an Ocean species guard team heading together to White Island so Chu MU and Ning Maner went first to White Island to examine the situation.

As they flew through the air, Chu Mu held the navigation pearl the mermaid princess had given him, allowing them to fly straight to White Island.

It was a certain way from Coral Ocean City to White Island since the ocean was far more vast than human territory.

"What's the matter? You're not saying anything?" Chu Mu glanced at the adjacent Ning Maner, puzzled.

Ning Maner herself didn't know why she was sulking, and ignored Chu Mu.

"Was it the Yellow Springs?" asked Chu Mu.

Ning Maner's special immortal energy was very effective on creatures outside of humans. However, she was rejected by the Yellow Springs. Thus, she was probably angry about this.

“No,” said Ning Maner.

“Then why are you angry,” said Chu Mu.

“Hmph!” Ning Maner glared at Chu Mu as her cheeks puffed. She looked rather cute.

“Are you angry at me?” Chu Mu reacted, and stretched out his hand to pinch her smooth cheeks.

“Pervert!” said Ning Maner.

“...” this girl was still caught up over that matter. Chu Mu was speechless.

The mermaid princess hadn't worn clothes when she stood in front of him. Even a normal person would pay attention to a certain area. Moreover, the mermaid princess was peerlessly beautiful and had an amazing figure. Anyone else would have been stunned a long time ago. Thus, the fact he was able to calmly chat with her was not an easy task.

“Fine, don't get caught up in these senseless things. We have important things to do at White Island.” Chu Mu rubbed her cheeks as he spoke.

“You're always staring at others and never speaking with me. How detestable.” Ning Maner pouted her small mouth as if she had been given the cold shoulder.

“How have I not spoken with you?” Chu Mu was bewildered.

“Then why weren’t you looking at me when you spoke with me. Your eyes kept wandering towards the mermaid princess.” Ning Maner wasn’t going to listen to his excuses.

What kind of logic was this? Indeed, when a woman was angry, they could find any justification.

When Ning Maner had gone underwater, her clothes had been soaked through. Besides the important parts that were covered by her underwear, the other parts were essentially laid bare. Why would Chu Mu dare stare at her?

Both the mermaid princess and Ning Maner had extremely incredible figures. Nobody realized how much focus Chu Mu had to have in order to communicate with them just now.

Of course, the main reason for this was when Chu Mu saw the Yellow Springs, it took up a large amount of his focus.

Ning Maner saw that Chu Mu wasn’t responding and felt even unhappier inside. She muttered: “I was initially planning on telling big brother something...”

“What were you planning on telling me?” asked Chu Mu.

“I’m not saying!” said Ning Maner.

“Fine, suit yourself,” said Chu Mu.

Seeing Chu Mu's indifferent attitude, Ning Maner couldn't bear it even more. She yelled at Chu Mu: "I'm going to return to Wanxiang City and tell big sister that you bullied me!"

"When did I bully you?" Chu Mu felt a wave of vicious cold.

"You did!"

Chu Mu couldn't do anything about her. This girl had probably been affected by the small Yellow Springs just now.

When he first met Ning Maner, she often went crazy and would never stop causing trouble. She never let Chu Mu peacefully cultivate and often times Chu Mu would just ignore her, pick her up and place her on his shoulders as he continued on his path.

After growing up, Ning Maner became much more clever and reserved. However, this didn't mean her crazy temper had disappeared. Often, it was impossible to know what she was thinking in that small head of hers. The more logic one used to explain to her, the more one got on her nerves. It would be an argument without end.

Thus, Chu Mu decided not to say anything.

If he didn't speak for a while, Ning Maner couldn't just keep talking to herself.

Indeed, this method was very useful. After Chu Mu just treated Ning Maner like she didn't exist, Ning Maner stopped talking and just sulked there alone.

.....

The journey from Coral Ocean City to White Island was about two to three days. The Ocean species expert team the mermaid princess was bringing needed four days before they arrived.

Chu Mu went first as the vanguard.

When they were almost at White Island, Chu Mu discovered that the initially deep blue ocean had become slightly turbid. Occasionally it was possible to see large corpses floating in the water.

"Big brother?" finally, Ning Maner spoke.

Her voice was soft and weak. It also seemed cautious.

"Mhm?" Chu Mu responded.

"Are you mad?" Ning Maner pouted as she asked.

"No, I'm thinking about something." Chu Mu wasn't angry. He just couldn't be bothered to argue with Ning Maner about useless topics.

“Oh, then I’ll tell big brother what I was going to say.” said Ning Maner.

“Go ahead,” said Chu Mu.

“There’s a Heaven Boundary Monument nearby,” said Ning Maner

“Heaven Boundary Monument, are you sure?” Chu Mu was stunned.

Ning Maner nodded her head and said: “The Messiah Tree imprinted the locations of all the Heaven Boundary Monuments in my head. There should be a Heaven Boundary Monument nearby Eastern Ocean White Island. However, I’m not sure which Heaven Boundary Monument it is.

New Moon Land had two Heaven Boundary Monuments, Wupan Continent’s Lin City had a Heaven Boundary Monument and the northern end of Zhengming Continent that Princess Jinrou had gone to had a Heaven Boundary Monument. So adding on White Island’s Heaven Boundary Monument, Chu Mu would have found a total of five Heaven Boundary Monuments and recorded the words written on the five monuments.

The memories Chu Mu inherited from the Heaven Boundary Monument were from Western Kingdom’s Heaven Boundary Monument. Inside that Heaven Boundary Monument was an ancient beast soul and it had guided Chu Mu on the Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s story, narrated the Seven Sins Fox’s legend and the collapse of a dimension...

But they were all fragments of memories, some of which Chu Mu would remember and some of which he would forget.

In Wanxiang City's second Heaven Boundary Monument, it recounted the story of the Ancient Flood Dragon person and told that the Ancient Flood Dragon Person's palace was in the second layer of earth under this Heaven Boundary Monument.

In Lin City's third Heaven Boundary Monument, Chu Mu had read Ning Maner's memories. He hadn't obtained much information, but was able to connect this Heaven Boundary Monument to the Messiah Tree.

Princess Jinrou had encountered the fourth Heaven Boundary Monument in Zhengming Continent's northern end. It had confirmed the Seven Sins Fox's legend and marked out the past habitat of the Seven Sins Foxes. That was probably the Seven Sins Fox Legend's Heaven Boundary Monument.

So then what would the Heaven Boundary Monument nearby White Island talk about?

Chapter 1495: Sudden Kiss

In the boundless deep blue ocean sat a towering snow white island.

From the island extended beautiful corals. Like snow, they lay on top of the ocean. It was beautiful and enchanting.

When Chu Mu and Ning Maner flew in the air, they hid within the thick rain clouds.

As they passed through the rain clouds, Chu Mu saw many strange ocean monsters climbing on the island. The irregular flowing water currents indicated that there were many more water type creatures hiding underwater.

"Big brother, the Heaven Boundary monument is on White Island." Ning Maner pointed at the island.

It was a towering monument that reached the layer of clouds. Chu Mu could even see a few familiar ancient words inscribed on the top.

Unfortunately, that aerial area was firmly under the control of the Calamity Ocean Demons. Chu Mu didn't dare to brashly approach it.

"How are we going to break our way in?" softly asked Ning Maner.

"Their defensive measures in the ocean are very tight, but their land and aerial measures are very average," said Chu Mu.

While he spoke, a few black granules dispersed following his hand wave.

These black granules dispersed through the air and slowly expanded into black clouds.

This transformation wasn't fast and looked like they had formed naturally. The black clouds slowly began to cover the sky from the distance as the wind blew.

Not long after, a thick set of black clouds covered the area, throwing the ocean region into darkness.

"Let's sneak in." once Chu Mu created enough shadows, he planned on entering the island.

Ning Maner nodded her head. She pressed her soft body against Chu Mu and wrapped her arms around his neck as she showed a cute smile.

Both inside and outside White Island were defensive and patrolling Calamity Ocean Demons. Therefore, sneaking in would be difficult. Nonetheless, the more difficult it was, the more interesting it became. Ning Maner liked these exciting games.

Chu Mu picked up Ning Maner and when he stepped forward, he and Ning Maner's bodies slowly melded together with the shadows.

"Retract your aura." Chu Mu instructed Ning Maner.

"En." Ning Maner nodded her head.

As they traversed under the black clouds, they slowly neared the island full of white corals.

Not even ten meters above Chu Mu and Ning Maner were two creatures with large golden fins that were using them as wings to hover to the side.

They had a pair of protruding and large eyes that meticulously examined their surroundings.

Ning Maner stared with wide eyes. While Chu Mu used the concealing ability, she carefully examined the two adjacent creatures using their fins as wings.

Suddenly, one of them turned their eyes and stared at Ning Maner's location.

Ning Maner happened to be looking at it so when it suddenly turned its head, it gave her a fright.

She hastily covered her mouth, and didn't even dare breathe.

Alarming these two finned creatures wasn't a big deal in itself. However, there were three or four thousand of these monsters in the sky. If they alarmed all of them, Chu Mu would be in trouble.

“Lu lu~~~~”

That finned creature let out an unpleasant sound and turned its head with a blank face.

It hadn't discovered that five meters away from it in the shadows were two human silhouettes closely stuck together. By the time it turned its head, the silhouettes had slowly moved ahead.

These finned monsters were scattered nearby White Island. A number of them were very strong. Thus, passing through the three or four thousand patrolling ocean monsters wasn't an easy task.

“Lu lu lu~~~~ Lu lu lu lu~~~~”

Suddenly, these finned monsters let out strange cries.

Chu Mu thought he had been caught and was planning on leaving with a spurt of energy. However, these finned monsters weren't rushing towards his location. Instead, they formed a defensive formation.

The defensive formation gave Chu Mu a headache because on all four sides of them were now finned monsters. At this distance, Chu Mu only had to take a single step and he would be discovered.

Standing still in the shadows had far greater concealing effects than moving in the shadows. Unfortunately, Chu Mu was stuck in the middle right now and he didn't dare move.

"Big brother, what are we going to do?" softly asked Ning Maner.

There was still a spatial barrier around Chu Mu that could prevent noise from escaping. Thus, soft communication wouldn't have a great effect.

"If I use spatial jump, spatial ripples will appear and they will definitely detect an invader... we can probably only just wait for them to return to a patrolling formation. Our luck is really bad. We're stuck in this formation." said Chu Mu.

"Yes, but from seeing big brother's nervous expression just now, things should be fun." Ning Maner laughed.

"What fun is there to be had? These finned monsters aren't very strong. What's strong are those things on the island. If we're surrounded, it'll be very dangerous." said Chu Mu.

Water types countered fire types and there was an ocean under them. Although fighting here wasn't as restricting as fighting on the ocean floor, it would still be difficult for him to fully utilize his devil flames power. There were many ocean demons on White Island and they were extremely strong. They were probably the elite troops of the Ocean Calamity Demon.

Ning Maner slowly turned her head and discovered that there really were a lot of finned ocean monsters around them. She refused to talk in too loud of a volume.

This state lasted a long time. The finned monsters didn't change formation. Being stopped in this formation gave Chu Mu a headache and his hand that was holding Ning Maner was beginning to ache.

“Lu lu lu~~~~~”

Suddenly, a finned ocean monster walked over to them. Its body that was full of scales wasn't even two meters from Chu Mu and Ning Maner!

Ning Maner jumped in fright and hastily grabbed tightly onto Chu Mu.

The finned monster's body was sticky and spiky. It looked very malevolent and terrifying. Initially, Ning Maner didn't think anything of it, but when it got close, Ning Maner couldn't help but feel scared. She didn't want to let this disgusting creature to touch her.

Fortunately, the finned monster walked only a few steps and stopped. Like a statue, it just stood there.

Ning Maner let out a sigh of relief. The fragrant breath landed on Chu Mu's cheek. Ning Maner's own cheek was very close to Chu Mu's handsome nose as well as his lips.

When she was training with Chu Mu, Ning Maner would sleep in the same tent as Chu Mu. Although the tent was very spacious, there were a few times when she slept where she accidentally ended up rolling into his arms. When she woke up, the first thing she saw was his face.

Chu Mu was often expressionless, and this was the same when he slept. Nonetheless, for some reason, his stoic and determined face had some unique charm to it.

This time, now that she was so close, Ning Maner could feel the unique charm of Chu Mu's face as well as his black, abstruse and attractive eyes.

When Ning Maner looked at Chu Mu's eyes, for some reason she wanted to get even closer and deeper into those eyes. Thus, she broke the small remaining distance between them. First, she lightly touched Chu Mu's handsome nose with her small jade nose before she faintly raised her small pink lips and lightly placed them on the corner of Chu Mu's lips.

Her lips were warm, sweet, smooth and extremely alluring.

Chu Mu was stunned. Before he could even react, someone had stolen a kiss from him!

After Ning Maner brazenly kissed Chu Mu, she seemed to have woken up from her trance and she immediately blushed.

When she found that Chu Mu's black eyes were staring at her, she grew even more embarrassed and her ears went red. She refused to look at Chu Mu in the eyes.

“I... I only wanted to kiss your face.” Ning Maner was so embarrassed she almost couldn’t say it.

Ning Maner was a rather affectionate person. Added on the soul pact relation with her, the intimacy between them was inherently built from the soul. Therefore, even if there was nothing to do, Ning Maner liked hugged onto Chu Mu’s neck and licked it when Chu Mu hugged her. On the one hand, the soul pact caused them to appear inherently intimate and on the other hand, after experiencing all those things together, Ning Maner really did feel a sense of security from Chu Mu as well as a form of dependence on him...

However, even if they were close, this didn’t mean she could just kiss his mouth.

Chu Mu himself also felt baffled. Previously at his wedding, Mu Qingyi had suddenly kissed him. He treated it like it had never happened...

This time, Ning Maner had also suddenly kissed him on the same spot. This kiss had made Chu Mu’s mind go blank, and for a long while he didn’t know what to say.

This made Chu Mu think of the moment he entered the ocean when Ning Maner’s curvy and attractive body was like a small beautiful mermaid as she swam around him. Ning Maner’s physical appeal had been fully exhibited and it made Chu Mu’s shameless face go red when he watched her.

When he realized that he was actually hugging an enchanting and sexy woman right now and that his mouth still injured with the taste of a kiss, Chu Mu felt his heart rate speed up...

Chu Mu didn’t like water, but right now he hoped for a bucket of water to be thrown on him so that the fantasies in his mind could be extinguished.

Ning Maner ostensibly felt Chu Mu's breathing speed up as well as his hot breath. For a moment, her heart began to chaotically beat like a small deer.

In the past, she had stayed next to Chu Mu very casually. Ning Maner had never considered there to be any problem. It was only a feeling of pure fondness. However, the feeling right now was clearly not that simple. It felt as if she wouldn't dare look at Chu Mu's eyes anymore. In a panic, she wanted to free herself from Chu Mu's embrace and run somewhere to hide...

“Lu lu lu~~~~~ Lu lu lu~~~~~”

Finally, the finned monsters changed their formation.

When Chu Mu saw this, he returned from his shock and hastily held Ning Maner tightly. He passed through the finned monsters and flew straight to White Island.

.....

When they landed on White Island, Chu Mu's heart had calmed down slightly.

Ning Maner's face was still blushing and it took a while before she said: “Big brother, I... I didn't do it on purpose.”

“Don't be like this in the future,” admonished Chu Mu. He treated it like it never happened.

“Oh.” Ning Maner responded. She was still thinking about the incident.

But she felt puzzled. Why had she kissed him? Shouldn't it be the man kissing her?

Chapter 1496: Unknown Heaven Palace, White Flood Dragon

There were no ocean demon guards on the white coral island, since the important white coral didn't grow on the island but rather in the ocean near the island.

Once Chu Mu and Ning Maner entered the island, they were able to move as they pleased.

White Island was rather large and it resembled a slightly sloped plain.

For some reason, not a single inch of grass grew within ten meters of the Heaven Boundary Monument. The area around the island grew white corals and the outside of the island was verdant and lush. However, the Heaven Boundary monument was completely barren without any plants.

Chu Mu stepped on the sand, and walked towards the Heaven Boundary Monument.

The Heaven Boundary Monument was imposing and tall. When standing under it, one would feel insignificantly small. Under its enormous shadow where the shadow met the ground, that area formed a slightly chaotic space where strange warps would occur.

Chu Mu stood under the Heaven Boundary Monument's shadow. If the Heaven Boundary Monument wanted to tell a Monument Tear Individual something, standing in the Heaven Boundary Monument's shadow would allow one to enter the Heaven Boundary Monument's recorded fantasy realm.

Chu Mu stepped there in hopes of seeing the image conjured by the shadow.

Ning Maner followed Chu Mu. She was also curious about what this Heaven Boundary Monument on the ocean would say.

The shadow grew denser as rays of light poured through the mass of clouds in the sky, shining on the island. When these rays of light tried to illuminate the shadow, they seemed to enter another dimension as they mysteriously disappeared.

Space warped and the light rays disappeared.

It was like a drip of ink dropping into water where it then rippled apart began to depict a scene. This special scene appeared in front of Chu Mu and Ning Maner.

Chu Mu and Ning Maner walked in this drawing. Initially, space-time only drew the scenery right around them.

Underneath them were ice jade markings. Beside them were a few jade railings. Outside of the jade railings, there was nothing. All Chu Mu could see was chaos.

As Chu Mu pulled Ning Maner forwards, strangely, the scene began to slowly unfold. It was like a light had been shined upon a stage. Everything around them was pitch black. The only thing that could be seen was whatever the light illuminated.

The space-time perspective followed Chu Mu's choices. Wherever Chu Mu and Ning Maner decided to move, the space-time would begin to draw the scenery...

When they reached the railings, the chaos turned into a pitch-black and deep abyss under a cliff.

When they reached the inside of the railings, a jade palace that resembled a heavenly palace appeared in front of Chu Mu. It was grand, divine, but also cold and lonely.

Chu Mu stood in the scene of the past and looked at the jade palace which only revealed the corner of an ice mountain. A familiar feeling suddenly welled up inside him.

“I’ve seen this place before!” Chu Mu was very sure.

Although his range of view was very narrow, the feeling of familiarity still rapidly surged in him.

Chu Mu tried hard to remember. He kept feeling that the familiarity didn’t come from the Heaven Boundary Monument’s memories but rather from himself.

Suddenly, Chu Mu remembered something.

He pulled Ning Maner’s hand, and he began to fly in a direction.

Chu Mu’s flying speed was very fast and the space-time scene was continuously drawn.

Chu Mu flew in the opposite direction as this jade palace and flew into the aesthetically beautiful heavenly palace.

After rushing through the shrubby land, Chu Mu finally found the scene he was looking for!

Perhaps this couldn't be called a land, because the land here came to an end!

A zigzagging precipice lay next to Chu Mu. If he took a few more steps forward, he would fall into a bottomless abyss.

The space-time scene only allowed Chu Mu to see the darkness near the cliff.

However, in Chu Mu's own memories, this precipice line that snaked on for millions and millions of kilometers was endless darkness!!

This was an end. Ahead of him was darkness as boundless as a galaxy. Going down would only drop him into a black hole of nothingness!

However, Chu Mu remembered a shocking scene from his memories:

A young woman wistfully yet enchantingly had jumped off from here. Her beautiful body was swallowed up bit by bit by the merciless darkness.

She tightly closed her eyes, removing any meaningless thoughts from her heart. She opened her arms and helplessly, yet madly, let out a laugh, embracing the darkness and evil!

.....

“Why is it her?!” Chu Mu was stunned.

Chu Mu was standing at the same end of the land. His heart was in turmoil.

Was the fifth Heaven Boundary Monument telling him the story of the Evil Good Queen?!

However, shouldn't the Heaven Boundary Monument be telling him things about ancient history? The Evil Good Queen had been born in this era. There was no reason why it should be recorded on this Heaven Boundary Monument.

Yu Suo wasn't a thousand or ten thousand year old monster. Chu Mu was certain of this. She was a few years older than Chu Mu. He had determined this from her soul remembrance rings.

Whether it was the Ancient Beast Soul, the Seven Sins Fox, the Son of Eternal Ocean or the Messiah Tree, they could be considered as creatures of the last great era. Their histories could be traced back several thousand or even ten thousand years.

On the other hand, the Evil Good Queen was born in the current era. Why did the ancient Heaven Boundary Monument have an imprint of her matters? Unless her memory Monument Tear had been placed in this Heaven Boundary Monument...

“That's not right.” suddenly, Chu Mu creased his brows.

This Heaven Boundary Monument wasn't telling Yu Suo's story.

Indeed, in the scene, Chu Mu hadn't seen either Yu Suo or the Evil Good Progenitor.

The reason why Chu Mu would remember the scene where the young woman threw herself into darkness's embrace was because Chu Mu had obtained a few fragmented memories from Yu Suo in the past.

This place indeed was the same as in Yu Suo's memories. However, this only meant that this place existed. The fifth Heavenly Boundary Monument's scene thus occurred in the same place.

However, where was this place?

This was a heavenly palace that shouldn't exist in the world. A land that seemed to be suspended in air as well as a boundless ocean of darkness...

It seemed that he would have to ask Yu Suo if he wanted to find the answer.

Chu Mu left the precipice and brought Ning Maner back to the heavenly palace completely built out of fine jade.

A few strangely dressed people could be seen in an aerial corridor. They stood there like statues, unmoving.

“Hua la la~~~~~”

Suddenly, the sound of a wave striking the area rang out.

The scene in front of Chu Mu warped and immediately after, and an enormous wave from somewhere under the stairs surged up.

The enormous wave kept moving upwards, growing taller and taller. It devoured the steps and the railings and seemed like it was going to devour the entire beautiful heavenly palace!

The scene changed very quickly. In the next instant, Chu Mu witnessed part of the heavenly palace submerged underwater. A few blurry figures flashed in front of his eyes and entered the chaotic fight.

“Hua!!!”

A white wave rose. On top of this wave, Chu Mu could see a proud flood dragon!

The wave that looked like it was going to devour the sky was under the control of the White Flood Dragon!

Chu Mu had seen a white dragon before in Zhengming Main City. That was Human Leader Xiao Xueang’s main pet. It was the only creature that could fight the Ten Thousand Year Undying Dark Death King.

However, compared to the White Flood Dragon riding on the wave that was inevitably going to devour the heavenly palace, Xiao Xueang's White Dragon was extremely insignificant!

This White Flood Dragon was an, in the full sense of the world, Ocean King. Even though he was separated by several time-space realms, Chu Mu could feel its supreme aura that commanded the entire ocean!!

Perhaps the Undying ranks of legends were just like this!

“Hong hong hong~~~~~”

The ocean roared and billowed. Chu Mu only had a very narrow range of vision. When the surging water reached the stars, the only thing he could see was the violent water energy.

Neither Chu Mu nor Ning Maner could see anything else. Gradually, the overflowing and imposing noise in their ears faded.

The scene warped once more. Chu Mu knew that he was leaving the space-time of the past...

Everything disappeared. Chu Mu originally thought he would be able to see Undying rank strength that was the most stunning in this world.

Unfortunately, he hadn't been able to see it.

He could feel that this Undying rank White Flood Dragon was going to destroy the heavenly palace!

Its anger had reached the limit, and it was going to use the ocean to punish the heavens!

“Big brother, why was that white ocean king so angry? Did it really destroy the heavenly palace?”
Ning Maner’s mind still lingered with the stunning scene.

Chu Mu shook his head and said: “It failed.”

“Eh? It failed?” Ning Maner was stunned.

Besides the Messiah Tree, the White Flood Dragon was the strongest creature Ning Maner had seen. She even felt that the White Flood Dragon was probably on the same rank as Grandfather Messiah Tree!

This kind of creature could basically be called a god. Was there anything in the world that could stop a god if it wanted to destroy something?

“Big brother, why do you know that it failed?” asked Ning Maner, confused.

In truth, Chu Mu himself couldn’t believe that the Undying rank strength White Flood Dragon had failed. But reality said that it had failed.

The fifth Heaven Boundary Monument had probably depicted the story of an ocean king White Flood Dragon from some great era. Chu Mu had seen the heavenly palace it was destroying.

But the heavenly palace still existed.

Because Yu Suo, from this era, had the complete heavenly palace in her memories.

The Ancient Beast Soul, the Seven Sins Fox, the Eternal Ocean Flood Dragon Devil, the Messiah Tree, the White Flood Dragon...

What was the Heaven Boundary Monument saying?

Where was this Undying rank White Flood Dragon that was unable to destroy the heavenly palace?

Additionally, Yu Suo had come from that heavenly palace.

The various puzzles made Chu Mu suddenly realize something. The Heaven Boundary Monument wasn't simply talking about the Seven Sins Fox's mystery.

"Big brother, what did you come up with?" softly asked Ning Maner.

"Didn't your grandfather tree say that the stronger you got, the clearer you would be able to see things?" said Chu Mu.

"Yup." Ning Maner nodded her head.

In the past, Chu Mu didn't know what the Heavenly Boundary Monuments meant. However, as he gradually came into touch with the pinnacle rank creatures in the world, he suddenly discovered that all powerful legends had something to do with the Heaven Boundary Monument.

Unwittingly, he himself was slowly coming into touch with these legends.

Did all Monument Tear Individuals unwittingly link these stories together like this? Or was it only him?

Chapter 1497: Freezing Ocean, Ocean Surface Battlefield!

Chu Mu and Ning Maner waited for a while quietly on the island.

The astonishing scenes from that Heaven Boundary Monument still lingered in their hearts and caused them to think about various matters.

"Big brother, there's movement on the island," said Ning Maner as she pointed at the horizon beyond the island.

Chu Mu raised his head and took a glance. He noticed the waves were surging and lightning flashing. Various energy mixed together and became a torrential storm, sweeping towards the island.

The black clouds pressed down and the ocean roared. Various huge ocean monsters revealed their figures and swept up a tsunami!

"It should be the mermaid princess bringing her ocean army to retake this white coral island," said Chu Mu.

The battle took place in the ocean region outside white coral island. The mermaid princess's ocean army should be fighting against Calamity Ocean Demon's army both within the ocean and on ocean surface.

Chu Mu was not proficient in fighting underwater. His soul pets might not even work underwater. Chu Mu could only summon his Ice Air Fairy.

"Let's kill our way out from here and regroup with mermaid princess," said Chu Mu.

Saying so, Chu Mu was already flying towards the edge of the island with Ice Air Fairy while carrying Ning Maner.

Ning was wrapped in chilling ice. Frost started to condense in places it flew past.

After reaching the ocean region, Chu Mu noticed those finned ocean monsters were flying between the ocean and the sky and acting really arrogant..

"Ning, freeze the ocean surface in this region!" Chu Mu told Ning.

"Ling~!"

Ice Air Fairy flew to the front of Chu Mu. It began chanting its elemental incantation. The surrounding cold air rapidly spread out and descended along with its domain.

The black clouds became frost clouds. Large pieces of ice flakes rained down from the clouds. Those ice flakes immediately froze the ocean surface the moment they touched the water!

The rampaging ocean suddenly stopped still. A thick layer of ice froze this ocean region into a solid land!

Bam! Bam!

A few finned ocean monsters crossing between ocean and sky did not notice this. When they attempted to dive into the ocean from the air, the ocean surface suddenly turned into ice.

Hence, their heads collided heavily against the ice and cracked open.

The finned ocean monster captain glided in the sky. It looked at the frozen ocean furiously and roared out, “Lulu~! Lulu~!”

Who is messing with the ocean it ruled?

Finned ocean monster captain looked around and noticed an ice type elemental fairy was hovering above the ocean surface, casually freezing the ocean up!

Furthermore, not only the ocean was getting frozen, many of its finned ocean monster subordinates flying in the sky were also frozen into statues and fell onto the frozen ocean surface, smashing into pieces!

Finned ocean monster captain summoned lightning in fury. Purple lightning sparks flashed around its body.

Those lightning sparks locked onto Ning. In an instant, lightning strikes blasted towards the spot Ning was at!

“So that fellow can control lightning,” Chu Mu looked at that ugly finned ocean monster captain.

Since it was lightning property, Chu Mu did not have to worry about anything.

He opened his palm, a spatial hole appeared at the center. The spatial hole possessed extremely powerful suction force. Those lightning strikes aiming for Ning suddenly diverted their direction after the spatial hole was exposed. They were all sucked into Chu Mu’s palm.

The flashing lightning strikes a moment ago disappeared all of a sudden.

“Reverse!”

Chu Mu reopened his palm which absorbed the lightning energy. Streaks of lightning transformed by darkness immediately gushed out from the spatial hole!

Lightning rampaged and each strike accurately hit those flying finned ocean monsters.

Those finned ocean monsters did not possess strong resistance. Once the dark lightning touched them, they would be gouged out by the lightning.

There were many Cloud Jellyfishes in the sky far away. Ocean Iguana Demons stood on those jellyfishes. They were clearly the Ocean Species army led by the mermaid princess.

Those Ocean Iguana Demons and finned ocean monsters were archenemies. They were fighting evenly in the battle just now.

However, the sudden ice and dark lightning strikes instantly exterminated a large group of finned ocean monsters. This greatly lessened the burden of those Ocean Iguana Demons.

Amongst the Ocean Iguana Demons, mermaid princess was silently standing above a water pillar and glancing at the scene far away. When she saw it was the human neighbour making the move, she immediately smiled.

“Mermaid princess, leave the enemies above ocean to me. You take care of those underwater,” Chu Mu’s mental voice was transmitted.

“Alright!” Mermaid princess nodded.

She saw the ocean beneath her also in the process of freezing. So she led her Ocean Species army to dive underwater immediately.

Once the ice covered the ocean surface, the battlefield would definitely be split into two by this layer of ice.

Chu Mu was in charge of those finned ocean monsters which could move between ocean and sky. This ocean monster army was really powerful. Chu Mu told Ning to freeze the ocean surface was also to make his soul pets fight more conveniently, as well as preventing those finned ocean monsters from escaping underwater.

Ning's ice was still spreading. The layer of ice on the ocean surface was becoming thicker and wider.

When Chu Mu felt this frozen ocean surface battlefield was wide enough, he immediately chanted and summoned the other three soul pets!

Little Hidden Dragon, Night and Zhan Ye.

When he was in North Ice Forbidden Region, he had to consider the stability of North Ice Dynasty and also Ning Maner's dislike for slaughter. Hence, he was unable to train to his heart's content during that period of time.

However, there was no need to show mercy to these finned ocean monsters!

The finned ocean monsters separated by the frozen ocean surface numbered around two thousand. These two thousand finned ocean monsters were averaged at Dominator rank. Amongst them, the finned ocean monster captain reached Immortal rank. They must not be underestimated.

This was an elite ocean monster army. He did not know how Calamity Ocean Demon managed to organize such a powerful ocean monster army in such a short time. If these ocean monsters suddenly attacked New Moon Land, even with New Moon Land's current strength, they would suffer great losses even if they managed to defend.

He should kill as much of these Calamity Ocean Demon's forces as possible. This would reduce the threat Calamity Ocean Demon could pose to New Moon Land!

Chu Mu had summoned four soul pets. In addition to his own fighting strength, facing those two thousand finned ocean monsters should not be a problem.

Zhan Ye, Night and Little Hidden Dragon were all battle maniacs. After Ning used its ice type ability to create a battlefield for them. They did not need to wait for Chu Mu's order and spread out themselves to start their hunt on those finned ocean monsters!

Chapter 1498

The underwater battle was also very intense. As the battle progressed, the ice at the ocean surface was constantly getting shattered by those powerful water type techniques!

Countless pieces of ice floated above the ocean. Those finned ocean monsters with about one third killed by Chu Mu could finally enter water. They swam through the gaps between pieces of ice. Each time they flew up to the sky from the ocean, they would sweep up a terrifying wave.

Those waves and water pillars tumbled into the sky and became lethal weapons under the control of those finned ocean monsters!

Water type might not really be offensive. However, no creature could endure the constant impact from water energy. The skin would tear under such impact, the bones would creak, the stamina would be depleted again and again. Eventually, that creature would no longer be able to stand.

Chu Mu had little experience fighting against water type creatures. What he could do now was to try not to let those finned ocean monsters enter the water. Their fighting strength after going underwater would be fifty percent stronger than in the air. This fifty percent was a significant increase to an army of a thousand.

Ning did not stop its freezing technique. Once the ice was broken on the ocean surface, it would immediately freeze again. Ice flakes filled the sky above this rampaging ocean.....

.....

Deep underwater, mermaid princess led her Ocean Iguana Demon army and dominated in this deep sea battlefield. The claws of Ocean Iguana Demons tore apart the bodies of those evil ocean monsters. Blood flowed out from those ocean monsters and dyed the deep sea red.

Mermaid princess remained at the center of the battlefield. She raised her face and spat out arcane-filled syllables between her dark purple lips.

Once those syllables were transmitted into the ears of Ocean Iguana Demons, their scales would be strengthened and their wills hardened.

However, when those syllables were transmitted to Calamity Ocean Demon's ocean monster army, they felt a sudden powerlessness and could not exert their strength, as if they were hypnotized.

The ally was strengthened while the enemy was weakened. The Ocean Iguana Demon army became even more courageous. Those ocean monsters gradually became corpses and sank to the bottom of the ocean.

"General Hai, I leave the rest to you here. I will take a look at the ocean surface," said mermaid princess.

There were over two thousand finned ocean monsters above the ocean. Their average strength was much stronger than the ocean monster army underwater. Mermaid princess was worried about Chu Mu not being able to handle so many alone.

Mermaid princess rode on a dark current to rise up to the ocean surface with two Ocean Iguana Demon guards.

The ocean surface was still covered in ice. However, due to the intense battle, the ice split into countless pieces. The ocean water was exposed in various places.

Everywhere on the frozen ocean was dyed in blood and littered with finned ocean demon corpses. When mermaid princess arrived at the ocean surface while riding the tide, she was astonished to find out those two thousand finned ocean demons only had around five hundred still living. It seemed that the battle was also about to reach an end.

“Mister Chu,” Mermaid princess saw Chu Mu standing on a sharp ice mound far away and called out to him.

The two Ocean Iguana Demon guards behind mermaid princess immediately joined the fray to finish off the last five hundred finned ocean demons.

Mermaid princess rode on the sweeping tide and arrived in front of Chu Mu.

“How’s underwater?” asked Chu Mu.

Underwater was the true territory of the Ocean Species. The underwater battle would naturally be even more intense than ocean surface. Chu Mu could already see blood dying up to the ocean surface.

“We are already doing the final clean up. Our response this time is rather quick. Calamity Ocean Demon probably did not gather enough forces to guard this island,” said mermaid princess. Then, she took a glance at the frozen battlefield and praised Chu Mu, “You and your soul pets are really strong. You killed them in such a short time.”

“We’re only better at land combat.....” said Chu Mu.

When the ice surface was broken just now, those finned ocean monsters were able to swap freely between underwater and sky. This brought quite some trouble to Chu Mu and his soul pets suffered injuries.

After all, once those finned ocean monsters dove underwater, Chu Mu had no method of killing them.

As he was toyed with by those finned ocean monsters, he was even more determined to resolve the problem of being unable to swim.

“Shashasha~!”

Little Hidden Dragon completed its mission first. It flapped its wings and flew towards Chu Mu.

After Little Hidden Dragon shrank its body, it became chubby. It seemed that it had filled its stomach in this battle. Its fat claw was stroking its belly comfortably.

Chu Mu inspected Little Hidden Dragon and noticed its blue color hue showing some changes.

Once the amount of souls Little Hidden Dragon devoured reached the stage for evolution, its would keep exuding this blue color hue until it completely digested the souls and evolved. Then, the blue hue would slowly disappear.

Currently, Little Hidden Dragon was at the stage of digestion and evolution. It was clear to see that Little Hidden Dragon's rank raised again and it was advancing towards low class Immortal rank!

Spectral Dragon's rank was already low class Immortal. In addition to Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon's dual main property pseudo Immortal rank, this stacking of power was enough to make Little Hidden Dragon's strength approach middle class Immortal rank!

It was no wonder Little Hidden Dragon flew around happily in front of Chu Mu after devouring the souls.

Upon completing this evolution, its strength would be almost on par with middle Class Immortal rank. It would surpass Night which was already in the lead!

Little Hidden Dragon's talent and properties should be really decent amongst Chu Mu's soul pets. In addition to its sick evolution method, it should be the one taking lead normally.

Unfortunately, this little fellow was really spoiled and lazy. It rarely had a chance to take the lead amongst Chu Mu's soul pets.

Currently, by relying on its tyrannical soul devouring ability, it was finally able to take the lead for once.

“Don’t get arrogant,” Chu Mu flicked this little fellow’s head with his finger.

Amongst all his soul pets, Little Hidden Dragon was the laziest. Although Mo Xie would sleep all the time, it would become energetic once there was a battle. Currently, it was true that Little Hidden Dragon’s strength surpassed Night, but the other soul pets were much more hardworking than it. Once there was an opportunity, they would catch up really soon.

Ning for example, once it received Ning Maner’s nurturing after this battle, it would more or less reach low class Immortal rank.

Chu Mu still had a middle class ice Immortal Item. After Ning was nurtured for a while longer and experienced more battles, Chu Mu would sue this ice Immortal Item to strengthen Ning. Ning’s strength would immediately surpass Little Hidden Dragon.

Little Hidden Dragon scratched its head. Seriously, I finally managed to take the lead for once, can’t I show off a little?

Mermaid princess was next to them. Seeing Little Hidden Dragon’s cute interaction, she let out some giggles.

She could tell that this human had an amiable relationship with his soul pets. Previously, mermaid princess heard that human’s soul pact was a type of slavery. Now that she witnessed such a scene, she knew that it was not always the case. Some humans never treated soul pact as a form of slavery, at least not the human before her.

“Calamity Ocean Demon sent a force to attack our White Island, then the forces around Valley Ocean Trench would be lessened. Before coming here, I have sent an Ocean Species expert to Valley Ocean Trench. He should be able to bring back the Life Providence Grass Mr. Chu wants,” said mermaid princess.

Chu Mu was just troubled about this matter, but mermaid princess actually helped him resolve this problem. So he also felt grateful, “Thank you very much, princess.”

“You have also helped our East Ocean. Oh right, I also have a name. You can call me Lan Qie,” said mermaid princess.

Chu Mu nodded and spoke, “I have a navy of about ten thousand men. They are all soul pet trainers. I will deploy them to this East Ocean region. They will assist you in subjugating Calamity Ocean Demon.”

New Moon Navy’s core thousand men were much stronger than the ocean monsters around White Island in terms of average strength. It should not be a problem for them to handle the elites of Calamity Ocean Demon.

Whether Calamity Ocean Demon could be subjugated or not was also related to the survival of New Moon Land. Chu Mu naturally had to put in this effort.

Furthermore, the battle itself would be training for New Moon Navy. If they could foster an intimate relationship with the Ocean Species, the navy’s soul pet resources could also be obtained from the Ocean Species. Some open-minded Ocean Species might not mind signing a soul pact with humans. After all, this would increase the strength of both parties.

“That would be wonderful. I will let my younger sister communicate with your Navy leader,” Mermaid princess Lan Qie showed a beautiful smile.

There would surely be a difference in language between the Ocean Species and humans. So the Ocean Species would naturally send their agent, the mermaid, to communicate. Chu Mu wondered how surprised and excited New Moon Navy would be when they saw a living mermaid appearing before them.

“You humans are good at analyzing the strength and weakness of various races. You also know how to make use of these strengths and weaknesses. You humans are more expertized in tactical knowledge than us Ocean Species. With your help, we are more confident in fighting Calamity Ocean Demon,” said Lan Qie.

“Yes, analysis is a necessary study for us soul pet trainers. The growth, property, battle, strengthening of soul pets.....” said Chu Mu.

“This made me more curious about your human world. After this war against Calamity Ocean Demon settled, I hope I can visit your city.....” said Lan Qie.

“Welcome,” Chu Mu nodded. His eyes accidentally glanced at those perfectly-shaped breasts.

Ugh, though it’s welcoming. I have to tell this princess to wear some clothes. Otherwise, countless people will get a nosebleed after you reach the city.

At the side, Ning Maner puffed up her cheeks when she saw Chu Mu and mermaid princess chatting joyfully.

They're just a little bigger, what's there to ogle about? Mine are also not small, I'm just wrapping them in dudou out of modesty!

"Could it be what that mermaid princess said is actually true? Should I display my charm and beauty? If not, why is big brother so attracted to that naked princess? But it's too embarrassing," mumbled Ning Maner in her mind.

Chapter 1499: The Exiled Little Yellow Spring

When they returned to coral city, Chu Mu recalled the astonishing scene he saw in the Heaven Boundary Monument.

"Does your Ocean Species have an Undying rank white dragon in the past?" asked Chu Mu.

Mermaid princess looked at Chu Mu in shock and asked, "How did you know?"

"Heaven Boundary Monument, I'm a Monument Tear Individual," said Chu Mu as he pointed to the White Island direction.

"I see," Lan Qie thought Chu Mu knew some deeper secret about the Ocean Species at first. She explained, "We call it White Ocean God. It's the strongest ocean creature before Yellow Spring Emperor dominated the entire Ocean Species."

"As expected, it's a creature from the previous era....." Chu Mu nodded.

"White Ocean God has another identity," continued Lan Qie. She took a glance at the choppy ocean and whispered, "It's the father of Ancient Flood Dragon Person."

Chu Mu opened his mouth, but shut up before asking what that identity was after hearing it.

The white dragon he saw in that Heaven Boundary Monument was actually Ancient Flood Dragon Person's father!

The stronger a creature was, the poorer its reproduction ability. However, once it had an offspring, the offspring would most likely inherit the talent of its parents.

Since White Ocean God could reach the legendary Undying rank, then Ancient Flood Dragon Person would definitely be an unparalleled entity!

Chu Mu did not expect that White Ocean God he saw to have such a relationship with Ancient Flood Dragon Person!

"White Ocean God should be a pure dragon race, why does Flood Dragon possess human bloodline?" Such a question rose up in Chu Mu's heart.

"Us mermaids can copulate with most of the Ocean Species. Flood Dragon is the child between White Ocean God and our Mermaid Queen. Hence, it's called Son of Eternal Ocean by us. Father of Eternal Ocean is White Ocean God, Mother of Eternal Ocean is our Mermaid Queen," said Lan Qie.

"White Ocean God, Mermaid Queen....." mumbled Chu Mu. The world of Ocean Species seemed to be far deeper than he originally thought. As he recalled White Ocean God riding above the galaxy and the majestic scene of shifting the ocean into the starry sky, something surged within Chu Mu's heart. Perhaps that was the strongest power within a living creature's domain!

“Mermaid Queen is also my mother. I’m her youngest daughter. Strictly speaking, Flood Dragon is my brother from a different father. Of course, he’s many thousand years older than me,” said Lan Qie a little gloomily.

Chu Mu did not know what to say for a while. Mermaid princess was so friendly and gentle, why did her older brother Ancient Flood Dragon Person possess the ambition of dominating everything and nearly maniacal killing intent?

“The Ocean Species is currently ruled by Yellow Spring Emperor. Could Flood Dragon have done all that to snatch back the rulership of the ocean from Yellow Spring clan?” asked Chu Mu.

“Perhaps. However, that’s impossible. Yellow Spring Emperor has done far more for us than White Ocean God. Our various major clans acknowledge it as our god. This is not because Yellow Spring Emperor is currently the strongest creature in the ocean, but because it has helped us Ocean Species survive the harshest period. The prosperity of Ocean Species now is all because of Yellow Spring Emperor,” explained Lan Qie.

Chu Mu did not study the history of Ocean Species, so he naturally would not understand what Yellow Spring Emperor meant to the Ocean Species.

Yellow Spring Emperor which was more respected by the Ocean Species than White Ocean God, and perhaps might even be stronger than White Ocean God.....

Chu Mu imagined the appearance of this ocean god level creature. However, no matter how he tried to portray it, he could not suppress the desire to meet that Yellow Spring Emperor.

.....

“Mr. Chu, the Life Providence Grass you wanted has been obtained. That warrior is injured, I need to cure it personally,” said Lan Qie.

“Alright, please thank that Ocean Species warrior for me,” Chu Mu was elated.

“You have helped us out of goodwill, it’s natural for us to repay such a favor,” Lan Qie was always polite.

Two Life Providence Grass, one would be used to dispel the corpse conversion of Night, the other would be used to resurrect Princess Jin Rou.

If they could be successful, Chu Mu would be greatly relieved.

After obtaining the Life Providence Grass, Chu Mu carefully kept them in his spatial ring.

Before leaving, Chu Mu intended to visit that little Yellow Spring again. Chu Mu decided his water type soul pet to be it anyway. Although he had not found a way to get intimate with it, nothing would go wrong by having more interaction.

Chu Mu did not inform mermaid princess and swam to that ocean trench abyss.

When he reached the trench, he saw a few figures outside the barrier.

Those figures had armor-like scales and long arms. Their webbed palms held water elemental long forks. They gave off a militaristic and stern atmosphere.

When Chu Mu swam towards the trench, those Ocean Species armored warriors suddenly turned around. They stared sharply at Chu Mu and Ning Maner, their gaze carried a chilling enmity!

At that moment, a young mermaid next to those Ocean Species armored warriors hurriedly explained a few lines. After hearing the explanations, those Ocean Species armored warriors retracted their enmity a little. However, from their cold and stern demeanor, they clearly did not want to interact with foreign species.

“What’s wrong?” Chu Mu looked at that young mermaid.

That mermaid was the one who guided Chu Mu at the start, the one with a healthy tanned skin and especially thin waist.

“They..... They are the royal ocean guards of the Emperor. They are here to announce the verdict,” the young mermaid was not as fluent as mermaid princess. Her tone always sounded a little bashful and stuttered.

“Verdict? What verdict?” asked Chu Mu.

“The verdict for Yellow Spring. This time, the Emperor seemed to be really angry. They are exiling it to an even further ocean region,” whispered the young mermaid.

“A further ocean region? To where?” asked Chu Mu hurriedly.

“I..... I also don’t know. It should be the ocean region beyond Eternal Ocean. It may be the inner ocean of Demon Continent, or the Wupan Ocean in human territory,” said the young mermaid.

This little Yellow Spring was the water type soul pet Chu Mu set his eyes on. It would be fine if it was exiled to Wupan Ocean, since Chu Mu could still find it. However, if it was exiled to the inner ocean of Demon Continent.....

Chu Mu did not even know where Demon Continent was, let alone the inner ocean. Didn’t mermaid princess say it’s difficult to really punish this little Yellow Spring? Why are they suddenly announcing the verdict?

Chu Mu had been brooding over on how to win over little Yellow Spring. However, if it was exiled to the ocean in some corner of this world, Chu Mu would not get any chance.

“Ni!”

“Ni!”

Little Yellow Spring let out angry shouts. The ocean water was churned into a mess.

However, those royal ocean guards seemed to possess some special ability. They might not be as strong as little Yellow Spring, but after chanting a strange incantation, little Yellow Spring’s four semi-fin limbs were immediately bound. Even its agile tail was shackled by a heavy chain, making it hard to even swim!

For safety's sake, the royal ocean guards chanted a total of ten layers of incantations. Each layer was a restraint, shackling onto little Yellow Spring layer by layer.

At first, little Yellow Spring could resist it using its strength, but after the seventh restraint was shackled, it could no longer move.

After the last three restraints were shackled, little Yellow Spring's body was covered in dark blue shackles, squeezing so hard that its blood was seeping out between its scales.

“Ni~!”

“Ni~! Ni~!”

Little Yellow Spring seemed to have never been treated like this before. It panicked like a little child. Its angry shouts changed to pitiful pleads, constantly making whimpering sounds.

The royal ocean guards did not show any mercy. They followed their Emperor's orders completely. No matter how little Yellow Spring pleaded, they mercilessly shackled the restraints onto it.

One of the royal ocean guards also kept opening its mouth, as if announcing something.

At that moment, the smart young mermaid translated in a low volume next to Chu Mu, “Once it ran away after eating the pearl that is called Ocean Region's Heart. The metal shell clan had suffered impacts from chaotic ocean currents every day. There have been over three hundred thousand metal shell clan casualties from the chaotic ocean currents until now.”

“It pulled up the entire oceanic city out of spite. Now, it has become an oceanic ruin. Xuan Shark clan is still homeless up until now. Countless Xuan Shark offsprings were eaten by their natural predators. Xuan Shark clan is facing racial extinction now.”

“The Island Lizard King it gravely injured has passed away last month. The Amphibious Ocean Species are currently in a mess. Ocean Iguana clans are constantly in internal strife to fight to become the new Island Lizard King.....

The crimes were recited one after another. Through the mermaid’s translation, Chu Mu was greatly shocked.

Out of those crimes, the light ones affected over hundreds of thousands of lives, the heavier ones made an Ocean Species face extinction. This little Yellow Spring was really a deviant!

If this were to happen in human society, little Yellow Spring would be an utmost evil criminal.

The royal ocean guards were still reciting something. They seemed to have reached a very important part, little Yellow Spring immediately began a desperate struggle!

The restraints became tighter as it struggled, they dug deep into its flesh!

“What’s wrong?” Chu Mu hurriedly asked the mermaid.

The young mermaid’s expression also changed a little and she whispered, “The Emperor wants to seal its strength, forcing it back to Emperor rank.”

Chu Mu was dumbfounded. Dropping from Immortal rank to Emperor rank, how cruel would it be to the prideful Yellow Spring clan?

Furthermore, it would be exiled to an unfamiliar ocean region. If there were many Dominator rank lords within that ocean region, how would little Yellow Spring survive with Emperor rank strength in those ocean regions? Its life might even be threatened!

The royal ocean guards dragged little Yellow Spring out of the barrier. Then, each of them held one end of the seal shackle and swam in a certain direction.

Little Yellow Spring refused to leave, its tail desperately coiled around an ocean boulder.

However, the royal ocean guards were really strong. They forcefully pulled out the ocean boulder. They were truly cold and merciless!

“Ni~! Ni~!”

When little Yellow Spring was forcefully dragged out and went pass Chu Mu, its eyes stared at him.

There was nobody around Chu Mu. Little Yellow Spring knew Chu Mu was a senior on the same level as mermaid princess. So it looked at Chu Mu with a pleading gaze.

Chu Mu could not bear to see little Yellow Spring suffer such a heavy punishment. Just as he was about to interfere, the young mermaid hurriedly stopped him.

“Don’t do that, you must not offend these royal ocean guards. It’s better for you to look for princess,” advised the young mermaid in a serious tone.

Chapter 1500: I will Take Responsibility For Its Misdeeds

Chu Mu did not know where little Yellow Spring would be exiled to. It was unrealistic to follow the royal ocean guards. They would definitely treat Chu Mu as an enemy.

Chu Mu did not want to lose a potential water type soul pet like that, but he could only watch little Yellow Spring getting dragged away to a place he did not know.

The world was so big, there were countless ocean regions. Just where did he have to go to find it?

Little Yellow Spring was getting further and further away. Chu Mu already could not see it anymore.

“Big brother, little Yellow Spring looks so pitiful. It must not have done those things intentionally. It just doesn’t know there will be such consequences. The Ocean Species shouldn’t treat it like that.....” urged Ning Maner.

Little Yellow Spring was really young, its mind had not matured at all.

Every young creature had their pranks. Due to it being overly powerful, its pranks ended up as disasters for the Ocean Species.....

Ning Maner believed that little Yellow Spring could not even differentiate good and evil right now. As long as they could teach it properly, it would definitely not do such things.

“Let’s look for Lan Qie,” Chu Mu pulled Ning Maner and hurriedly swam towards the coral city.

.....

After arriving at an oceanic cave, the slightly fatigued mermaid princess slowly walked out. She saw Chu Mu rushing to her and showed a polite smile.

“Sister Lan Qie, little Yellow Spring is taken away,” said Ning Maner immediately.

Lan Qie did not seem to know about this matter yet. She looked to the young mermaid at the side confusedly.

The young mermaid went through the matter about the royal ocean guards briefly.

Lan Qie frowned slightly and spoke after a long ponder, “This should be because the clan chiefs of those clans that suffered complaining to Yellow Spring Emperor. Sigh, my father locked it up in East Ocean with the intention of lessening its blame. I never thought things would develop in the worst way possible.”

“Is there any way to cancel this verdict?” asked Chu Mu.

Lan Qie shook her head, “Since the royal ocean guards showed up, there is no room for discussion. Also, the place to be exiled is chosen by those clan chiefs. If it’s a calm ocean region, little Hidden Dragon can probably live there peacefully for decades or centuries. However, if it's a dangerous ocean region, it will be up to luck.....”

Emperor rank could live peacefully in some tiny ocean regions. However, in dangerous ocean regions, ferocious species lived there. Those places were completely meant for survival of the fittest. With little Yellow Spring's arrogant temper, conflicts were bound to occur. Its weak Emperor rank strength could hardly protect its own life.

Hearing Lan Qie's words, Chu Mu's mood also sank.

He finally saw the perfect water type soul pet for himself, yet it was about to be sealed and exiled before he could interact more!

“Can I secretly trail behind those royal ocean guards, then try to take it to another ocean region?” asked Chu Mu.

Lan Qie shook her head, “Ten Layer Restraint is the strongest restraint of our Ocean Species. Unless you reach Undying rank, destroying the restraints with external force will only destroy the soul of the restrained along with the restraints. Yellow Spring Emperor is really angry this time and wants to punish little Yellow Spring harshly. Sigh, I always assumed Yellow Spring Emperor would continue leaving it alone. Looks like those clans had suffered severely.”

Ten Layer Restraint was enough to weaken an Immortal rank creature to Emperor rank. If he could not remove this heavy restraint, Yellow Spring could no longer be called Yellow Spring.

“Is there really no other way?” asked Chu Mu. If he met little Yellow Spring earlier, he might be able to teach it not to commit so many misdeeds.

However, little Yellow Spring was already punished. It would be neigh impossible for Chu Mu to find another young and powerful Yellow Spring.

“I will ask my father. Follow me,” said Lan Qie.

She could actually tell Chu Mu really adored little Yellow Spring. In truth, nobody wanted to see this talented little Yellow Spring exiled like that. She really hope Chu Mu could correct the morality of little Yellow Spring, since it was only a child.

Chu Mu followed Lan Qie to the bay of the island. He saw an ocean altar on the cliff that stretched all the way to the ocean.

Turtle clan warriors in heavy turtle shell armor lined up on the two sides of the altar. They stood there without moving an inch, forbidding any creature from approaching this ocean altar.

There was an ancient throne on the altar. Chu Mu saw an elderly full of beard.

His beard was really long, growing all the way to his abdomen area. His seaweed-like hair was combed neatly.

He half leaned on the throne and held his head with his hand. He appeared to be thinking, yet looked like sleeping.

His lower body was also fish, but different from mermaids, his fish scales were as sharp as blades. It lacked the curvy texture of mermaids, and gained masculinity and manliness!

“Fater,” Lan Qie brought Chu Mu to the platform below the altar.

The staircase leading to the altar was several times wider than human’s. After reaching the front of that merman, Chu Mu realized this East Ocean Siren King was actually many times larger than normal human!

East Ocean Siren King half opened his eyes and calmly asked, “What’s the matter?”

“About Yellow Spring —— Calamity. This is the human king of New Moon Land I mentioned to you. He is an outstanding soul pet trainer. He wants to keep Calamity as his soul pet. I also wish for Calamity to follow this human. Perhaps, this can correct its sense of values. However, Emperor seems to have made up its mind. It already ordered the royal ocean guards to seal Calamity and exile it to an unknown ocean region,” said Lan Qie.

Chu Mu could not understand the language used by Lan Qie and East Ocean Siren King. Ning Maner translated the rough meaning for Chu Mu in a low volume.

East Ocean Siren King slowly opened his eyes. He pushed up his head and examined Chu Mu.

Obviously, Ning Maner’s specialness attracted more attention than Chu Mu. His gaze eventually fell onto Ning Maner and spoke using human language, “You are the successor of Messiah Tree?”

“Yes,” Ning Maner nodded. She could not understand why this merman grandpa could tell from a glance that she inherited the power of Messiah Tree.

“You are her guardian?” asked East Ocean Siren King after taking another glance at Chu Mu.

“Yes,” Chu Mu nodded.

“I believe in Messiah Tree’s choice, and similarly believe that a Monument Tear Individual is an outstanding soul pet trainer. If possible, I will leave Calamity to you. However, Yellow Spring Emperor’s order can hardly be changed. It’s blessed to be the Child of Eternal Ocean, but ends up as the Disaster of Eternal Ocean.....” said East Ocean Siren King.

“It’s still too young and has not matured mentally. The heaven gifted it with strength that should not belong to its age. This is not its fault,” said Chu Mu.

“A mistake is a mistake, it’s unrelated to age. If you make a mistaken, you cannot argue and can only make amendments,” said East Ocean Siren King.

“Amendments?” Chu Mu could not fully comprehend East Ocean Siren King’s meaning.

“Yes. If you truly wish to make Calamity your soul pet, then you have to make amendments for the misdeeds it did. After appeasing those Ocean Species, Yellow Spring Emperor’s anger will also be appeased a little. By then, if you voice out that you will personally restrain Calamity, Yellow Spring Emperor would take into consideration that you are the sole guardian of Messiah Tree and accept your request. Becoming the soul pet of an outstanding soul pet trainer is much better than getting exiled,” said East Ocean Siren King.

Chu Mu realized that there was still room for salvation and immediately brightened up.

“Alright, I will help it appease the anger of those Ocean Species and do my best to make amendments,” Chu Mu nodded without any hesitation.

“Human, the disasters it caused are far more severe than you imagined. Are you really willing to take responsibility for Calamity after just a single encounter? Many Ocean Species are not as easy to persuade as you humans,” said East Ocean Siren King with a serious expression.

Lan Qie was also focusing on Chu Mu at this moment. She was really confused why this human would immediately agree. The disasters little Yellow Spring —— Calamity caused were measured in millions of lives and several races. It was no easy feat to appease their anger and make amendments. At least, even she might not be able to handle it properly herself.

More importantly, he was only a human. Amongst Ocean Species, other than mermen and mermaids which were more reasonable, the other Ocean Species carried a natural dislike and hostility towards foreign species. It would be far more difficult to complete this task than how it appeared.

“When I saw it for the first time, I decided that it will be my soul pet. Since it’s my soul pet’s misdeeds, I am willing to take responsibility for it,” said Chu Mu.

In his heart, soul pact was not a one-sided slavery. It was a choice for both.

A soul pet trainer would not be able to suddenly make a powerful creature sign a soul pact with him.

In order to successfully sign a soul pact, Chu Mu had to obtain little Yellow Spring’s acknowledgement. He had to have the courage to shoulder little Yellow Spring’s everything!

Chu Mu might not know just how arduous the task of amendment and appease East Ocean Siren King mentioned would be, but he knew he would never give up on this soul pet he had his eyes on just like that.

“You don’t have to make any promises on this matter. I’m just telling you a possible method, just do as you like. If you feel it’s impossible, you can give up anytime. You don’t owe it anything, nor do you owe the Ocean Species anything,” said East Ocean Siren King.

After that, he waved his hand, indicating Lan Qie could bring Chu Mu away.

.....

“Are you really going to do it?” Lan Qie watched Chu Mu with brightened eyes.

Lan Qie noticed she could not understand this human. Even though he and little Yellow Spring —— Calamity were strangers, he somehow wanted to shoulder such a heavy responsibility.

“Yes,” Chu Mu nodded.

“Alright, I will support you, and do my best to help you,” said Lan Qie with a serious expression.

After these few days of interaction, Lan Qie realized this human became more and more admirable.
