

Soul Pets Bk2 1591

Chapter 1591: Postwar Wanxiang City

As the last trace of black Devil Fire extinguished, this war was finally over.

Everyone flew above the city. Wanxiang City's outer city was already in ruins, corpses filled the entire main street.

Not only Wanxiang City, traces of war could be seen everywhere in the entire New Moon Land.

The subjugation alliance stronghold was sent into the blackhole and completely erased from this world.

This Ning Family army's surprise attack also failed in the end. The invaders were executed on this land. Their blood continued to flow.

Everything seemed to have returned to calmness. However, the bloody scenes also told everyone how devastating this war had been.

Only a few city guards survived. Shen Mo was still not found, many acquaintances also left this world.....

Chu Mu extinguished the flame on his body and levitated above the center of the city alone.

Looking down from the sky, he could see many people shedding tears in the city. Some shed tears of joy for survival, some for those who sacrificed themselves to protect others.

The war was over, they might have won.

However, when the people were liberated from the war and started crying, Chu Mu was at a loss. He wondered if he made the right choice to let New Moon Land fight back to the end.

He protected his family and city, but countless people lost their beloved and soul pets due to the war. After every war, there would be a group of people despairingly searching for their families amongst the corpses. They usually found their families within a pile of enemy corpses, some already disfigured, some could not even leave a proper corpse behind.....

Chu Mu had seen plenty of such scenes. New Moon Land won this war, but this victory could not let those who died resurrect. The joy of victory could not wash away the sadness of losing one's family.

Hence.....

There were more people who would shed tears.

“Big brother, if I gain the full power of grandfather Messiah Tree, I definitely won't let this happen again.....” Ning Maner walked to Chu Mu's sides with tears rolling in her eyes.

She received too great of an impact in this war, she could not hold back her tears no matter how strong her will was.

She witnessed the death of Holy Guard Chief, witnessed Shen Mo leading a small group of soldiers to buy time with their lives, and witnessed the city guards and Holy Guards falling one after another. Everyone should have their own meaning in their lives, why did they have to die due to the greed of the authority?

Chu Mu pulled the wailing Ning Maner into his bosom.

Chu Mu's value was different from Ning Maner. War and slaughter filled the entire world, even families could become enemies.....

He questioned himself whether this war should have been fought.

However, in fact, if he could choose again, he would still choose to fight.

If they did not fight, if they were chased away, if they were exiled, even more families would suffer. Compromisation, cowardness and dependance would not allow one to survive in this cruel world.

Just like many wild soul pets, they faced the threat of survival from the moment of their birth. Only those strong-willed soul pets which would fight back could survive.

Humans could be considered as another soul pet race. They similarly faced this elimination, death, survival and strengthening cycle. Once a war broke out and could not be avoided, they had to face it bravely!

During the dusk on the fourth day, New Moon Land army deployed to Eastern Wild Forest Stronghold and Heavenly Mountain began to return to the various cities.

The army executed a strict cleaning up and removed all threats hiding in New Moon Land.

One month later, when New Moon Land was certain that no more enemies would invade, New Moon Land began reconstructing the various major cities.

During this war, New Moon Land not only employed all of its armies, many free soul pet trainers volunteered to join the defense and became a New Moon Land member.

After the war, there were probably less than forty percent of them that survived.

After New Moon Land became independent, it developed rapidly and talented individuals appeared one after another.

After this war, New Moon Land declined and became quieter.

However, no matter how much New Moon Land declined, it had become an untouchable land within the human territory.

It was small with little population, but it was filled with many brave soul pet trainers. They defeated the subjugation alliance from eight major factions. When this news spread out, New Moon Land turned into a bloody sword in the human map, stabbing into the western border where Zhengming Continent and Wupan Continent connected!

No other factions dared to invade New Moon Land. There were even rumors that grudging cries of those subjugation alliance members who died could be heard in various places of New Moon Land.

Those cries also warned all potential invaders that the subjugation alliance which wanted to invade this land could only turn into grudging ghosts in the end.

At the same time New Moon Land became a sword in the human map, Dual Evil Half Devil Chu Mu's name also spread out within the human territory.

Half Human had always been a mysterious topic with many discussions and guesses amongst people. Now, Chu Mu's uprising as a powerful Half Human in this war became the focus of all discussions.

There were only a few human leaders. In this war, Chu Mu personally killed two human leaders. No matter how other leaders purposely described Chu Mu as a merciless devil who could not be called a human, Chu Mu still became the strongest and most mysterious Half Human in human history.

The current Chu Mu was already stronger than normal leaders.

As long as he was in New Moon Land, nobody could invade it.

Furthermore, many insightful authority holders noticed that after those sects in the eight factions failed, a large number of people were cleaned up within those factions. This felt as if all the factions changed anew over the night, but nobody could really point out what changed.

Some said that after New Moon Land went through the war and rose up to the representative of independent territories, it was developing as the ninth faction under the silent agreement of the eight factions.

Those were merely speculations. Some also guessed that as long as the two royalties still existed, New Moon Land would never become the ninth faction, unless New Moon Land could grow to the point even the two royalties had to be wary.....

.....

Various stories spread out in the world, the major factions also showed changes. Even the other borders and factions not involved in this war also seemed to have been changed.

Meanwhile, New Moon Land sent out a border sealing order one month after the war.

New Moon Land would seal up for one year, not allowing any outsider to enter. Any unauthorized personnel entering New Moon Land would be killed on spot.

This order was also the reason New Moon Land was described as a bloody sword on the human map, because nobody dared to get close.

.....

With earth type soul pets, the reconstruction of the city was fast.

About three months after the war, Wanxiang City's outer city regained its former state.

Three months also washed away the sadness along with the reconstruction of the city.

Some people gained new soul pets, some walked out from their sadness.

A city could be said as a faith, a faith for everyone who stayed in the city. As long as it still existed, no suffering could not be endured.

Three months ago, the city was still shrouded in death and destruction.

Now, the places where corpses were piled up had been planted with spiritual trees which could purify the air by Ning Maner.

The flowers on spiritual trees bloomed along the streets. Every spiritual tree had a name carved on it to commemorate those who sacrificed for New Moon Land.

Ning Maner said that life was a cycle.

The dead would enter a new cycle. If they did not have a place to belong to during the process of entering a new cycle after death, they would become ghosts. They would be at a loss, isolated and helpless during this period.

When these spiritual trees had their names carved and an item or their corpse buried under the roots, those dead would receive a peaceful place to belong to before entering a new cycle. Then, they would start their next life.

Ning Maner's action was praised by many. Hence, the other cities which also suffered from the war started doing the same thing.

As the flowers bloomed, Ning Maner also started smiling more.

Many people recognized this beautiful child. Her smile easily touched those with a pure heart. Unknowingly, New Moon Land walked out from the sadness of war. Children played around on the streets, lovers embraced in aisles, teachers and youths trained their new soul pets outside the cities, and elderlies chatted in yards.

To most people, life did not need to be filled with adventure or fighting. The real components of a city should be these citizens who lived a peaceful life.

.....

"Big brother, will that Ancient Flood Dragon Person be very strong? Even stronger than the subjugation alliance?" asked Ning Maner as she pulled Chu Mu's sleeve.

"Perhaps," said Chu Mu.

"Big brother will protect this place, right?" asked Ning Maner.

“Yes,” Chu Mu nodded.

Chu Mu did not know when this territory was already inseparable from him. He would do his best not to let anyone invade this territory again. Be it humans or Ocean Species!

Chapter 1592: The Princess with Life

“Big brother, there’s a little boy standing over there who’s been looking at you,” Ning Maner pointed at the city wall and laughed.

Chu Mu turned around and saw a young man wearing an apprentice Holy Guard armor. He was staring at him, and it seemed like he really wanted to come over; however, he didn’t have the courage.

Chu Mu actually remembered a bit about this young man. He was the young man that he had saved from the ruins of Ice City and recommended by him to the Holy Guard apprentice army.

When he saw the young man's cautiousness, he couldn't help but remember when he was at that age and looked at an expert, he would have the same eyes.

The young man stood there and stared for a while. But ultimately, he didn’t have the courage to walk up. Chu Mu had a mysterious demeanor about him. It was rare for him to stand on the city wall like today. There were many others like the young man who wanted to come up and say something to Chu Mu. But the majority didn’t have the courage to do so.

“Big brother, you can’t always be so stoic and serious. You’ll scare everyone away,” said Ning Maner.

“...” Chu Mu felt that he was much better than before, no?

“Why don’t you go back first. I’m going to take a trip to Nightmare Holy Region,” Chu Mu said to Ning Maner.

“I’ll go too.” said Ning Maner

Chu Mu acted like he didn’t hear anything. His body was ignited with flames. As a wave of wind blew past and the flames quickly dispersed, Chu Mu’s body also disappeared.

Ning Maner stamped her foot in anger as she watched Chu Mu run away.

Ning Maner was able to guess who he was going to see in Nightmare Holy Region.

.....

After entering Nightmare Holy Region, Chu Mu passed straight through the Nightmare Dynasty’s territory and straight towards the Devil Soul territory.

The Devil Souls had paid a heavy price to defend Wanxiang City. Currently, the soul energy in Immortal City and Sealed Tower were being used as a resource for the Devil Souls, providing them with recovering nutrients unique to their species.

When Chu Mu arrived at the Devil Soul territory, he happened to see Bai Yu walking out from there.

Bai Yu glanced at Chu Mu and shook his head: “She still hasn’t awakened.”

Chu Mu nodded his head.

Princess Jinrou, after using Devil Gallop, had fallen into a state of unconsciousness. Clearly, this fight had greatly exhausted her.

“I put the jade pendant on her and placed her soul in her body,” said Bai Yu.

Chu Mu was stunned.

Bai Yu said that the jade pendant had been obtained from Hidden Pupil Royalty’s family master with the Limbo Flower. The inside of the pendant contained a little bit of resurrection energy that would allow Princess Jinrou to resurrect for a period of time.

“If she didn’t trick me, when she wakes up, she should truly awaken,” said Bai Yu. He stretched out his hand and patted Chu Mu’s shoulder, “I need to leave for a while. Take good care of her.”

“You aren’t going to wait for her to wake up before leaving?” asked Chu Mu.

Bai Yu shook his head and said: “The Limbo Flower woman didn’t give me that much time. Whatever, I’ll have opportunities in the future. Even if I don’t manage to fully awaken her, you’ll help me finish it.”

“I will,” Chu Mu nodded his head.

“The truth is that at the very beginning, I was also deceiving myself. Perhaps, I myself didn’t even believe that a dead person could truly be resurrected. However, if I don’t embark upon this path, I don’t know how much more meaning there is for me to keep living in this world. I may as well become a devil. I won’t know anything and I won’t need to think about anything.” said Bai Yu.

“You can’t say that. Being sad and heartbroken is always better than feeling no emotions.” Chu Mu himself had transformed into a devil before, and understood the pain of becoming a devil.

The pain didn’t come from the devil flames burning in his mind. All it did was make him perpetually crazy. The pain came from the fact he was never able to find himself. He didn’t know who he was nor what he needed to do...

“I guess you’re right.” Bai Yu nodded his head, concurring with Chu Mu’s words.

“Uncle Bai Yu, I don’t think you should go to Hidden Pupil Royalty. That family master is hovering right under the undying realm. Perhaps she will go to extreme measures to break into the undying rank,” Chu Mu said with a bit of worry.

“The Limbo Flower has resurrecting abilities, but doesn’t have the ability to keep one alive forever. Perhaps by the time you and I reach that realm and are faced with impending death from old age, we will do things that instill others with anger,” said Bai Yu.

“I don’t consider myself a good person anyway,” laughed Chu Mu.

Bai Yu stared back at him before laughing.

Every person would go to extreme measures for their cultivation. Chu Mu was the same, as was Bai Yu. The difference was that some people had bottom lines while others would even harm their own family members.

“I’m going,” said Bai Yu.

“Alright, be careful,” said Chu Mu.

A silver devil flame ignited on Bai Yu’s body. He transformed into a stream of silver light that instantly disappeared along the black land.

As he watched Bai Yu leave, Chu Mu felt touched.

The Heaven Boundary Monuments would choose people who had experienced a bumpy road but also had strong determination to become Monument Tear Individuals. Chu Mu felt that if Bai Yu also arrived at a Heaven Boundary Monument, he would become an extremely outstanding and powerful Monument Tear Individual.

However, Chu Mu had never felt a Monument Tear fluctuation from Bai Yu’s body.

.....

Chu Mu walked into the Devil Soul tribe.

The Immortal Ice Curse Demon Fox had smelled Chu Mu's scent and came outside to greet Chu Mu.

The snow white Immortal Ice Curse Demon Fox seemed noble and beautiful, yet adorable and enchanting. It bounced ahead of Chu Mu as it led the way.

When they reached an ice altar, Chu Mu saw Princess Jinrou.

She was lying at the center of the ice altar. Her figure was beautiful and provoking, causing the hearts of those who saw her to violently thump.

Her skin was abnormally fair because her body had spent a long time being maintained in ice powder. Added on the Immortal Spring Water's effect, even if her body showed no signs of life, it also showed no signs of aging.

Seeing her like this made Chu Mu think of the scene many years ago in Dormant World.

It had been many years since then. Chu Mu's complexion was no longer a young man's. However, Princess Jinrou's hadn't changed a bit.

An azure green jade pendant hung from her fair neck. The jade pendant contained a special energy that resembled thick life force. But it also seemed to be some other force as it formed a faintly discernible halo that enveloped Princess Jinrou's body.

Princess Jinrou's eyes were closed.

It had been many years now since those eyes had opened. Often, Princess Jinrou would hover right in front of her own body and look, entranced, at her body that was already dead.

But now, Princess Jinrou's soul had once again assimilated with her body. Whether or not she could truly be resurrected required time, because her soul was too weak now. For Wanxiang City, she had expended all of her soul force.

The biggest contributor to Wanxiang City's survival wasn't Chu Mu, who managed to get back just in time. Instead, it was Princess Jinrou who had used Sealed Tower and the entire Devil Soul species's energy to hold off a high class immortal rank expert and an entire army.

Many people remembered this scene. Therefore, on the corners of every newly constructed building's roofs was a stone statue of a beautiful and small woman. This female statue was modeled after her. It had her long hair, long dress, and ethereal beauty, but also her fearless and tenacious figure....

Chu Mu walked up next to the ice altar. He used his hand to touch her arm where icy frost solidified.

Her arm was smooth and perfect. However, there was no body heat at all. When his fingers touched her arm, a slight chill passed through his whole body.

Her black hair was spread apart, and there were a few strands placed on her chest.

Chu Mu carefully looked and discovered that Princess Jinrou's hair seemed to have grown a little.

The hair of the dead would slowly wither, but her hair was able to maintain its dark black due to the Immortal Spring Water's effect.

But maintaining it was like an ice seal. The hair couldn't grow. Yet, this time, Chu Mu had discovered her hair had really grown a bit.

Chu Mu's memory of her appearance was too deeply engraved. Moreover, it had been many years now since everything about her had frozen on that day. Even if her hair grew an inch, Chu Mu would be able to detect this tiny change.

If her hair started growing, it meant that Princess Jinrou truly had come back to life!

She still hadn't awakened, because her soul was too weak and she was in a state of unconsciousness.

When her soul recovered a bit and her consciousness began to awaken, it would mean she would truly awaken.

Chu Mu felt extremely happy, and couldn't help but want to draw her into his embrace.

He still remembered that night on the deck of the boat when she faced the oncoming wind from the ocean. A pair of eyes that was even brighter than the stars was staring at the undulating ocean water. The dainty and elegant figure of a young girl carried with it melancholy, yet she was so beautiful she made it hard to breathe.

In that instant, Chu Mu's heart had been moved. That was the most intense longing of a young man. He wanted to walk closer to her and say something to her and know everything about her.

And right now, she was right beside him. Even when she was in her spectral form, she always liked following beside him and talking with him. She would also throw small fits and when she was unhappy, would turn around and leave, leaving him clueless as to where to find her.

Chu Mu had always believed she was perfect. She had the elegant temperament of a princess, spoke with intelligence and wisdom and had secrets that others were unable to read into.

But he didn't truly get to know her until she had become a specter. He discovered that she also had her childish moments, was very headstrong and sometimes acted weird, leaving others unable to understand what she was thinking...

Perhaps this was the real her, without any restraints.

She had even boldly revealed the words in her heart.

The first few times he met her, Chu Mu felt that there was some barrier between them. Afterward, everything about her smashed apart Chu Mu's original belief that she was perfect. Instead, he felt that she had become even more real, and it was this realness that had truly captured Chu Mu's heart.

But speaking about this was still a bit ironic. Before she had fallen into her deep sleep, Chu Mu always felt she was untouchable, unreachable, and could only watch from a distance.

But after she became a specter and he truly couldn't touch her or reach and could only watch her, Chu Mu felt that she was genuinely by his side, gracefully floating with her melodious laughter, while also complaining about his cluelessness and lack of romantic understanding...

Chapter 1593: Princess Jinrou Wakes Up

Chu Mu sat on the side. As he looked at her, he thought about the past.

She would awaken, and would no longer be untouchable like before.

He could smell the fragrance from her body, could touch her delicate face, and kiss her bewitching lips.

When she was in her spectral form, she enjoyed hugging Chu Mu from behind. And now in the future, Chu Mu would be able to truly feel this sudden hug.

His thoughts unconsciously began to float off.

.....

Chu Mu silently kept watch. He wanted the first thing she saw when she woke up to be him.

If he cultivated, he would do it next to her. The Devil Soul territory was full of a lively spirit aura, and cultivating here would increase cultivation speed by a bit.

He closed his eyes, and entered his own mental world.

He didn't know how long he spent cultivating. There was no day or night in Nightmare Holy Region. Each time he opened his eyes, he would wondrously find that Princess Jinrou's hair had grown a bit.

Her body that had been preserved in ice was slowly gaining warmth, and her cheeks were beginning to show color.

Chu Mu knew that she was going to awaken soon, and that her soul had merged with her body.

When he looked at her, her body had life force again. It was no longer icy cold and devoid of life.

Chu Mu closed his eyes again, and continued his cultivation.

Chu Mu had absorbed too much grievance aura in this war. If he didn't purify the grievance aura in time, it would influence his mood. Indeed, the grievance aura contained many people's memories which had sorrow, anger, hatred, and too many other negative emotions. If he couldn't withstand it, it would seep into his emotions and influence his character.

Moreover, this energy in Chu Mu's body wasn't very stable. Chu Mu needed to refine it into his own energy.

Chu Mu only planned on making a quick trip to Evil Temple. However, he was a bit unwilling to leave. He wanted to be the only person there when Princess Jinrou woke up.

.....

The Devil Souls were like small fairies that lithely flew and danced in between the rocky mountains.

The creatures living in Nightmare Holy Region would never attack the Devil Souls. In fact, there were many creatures who intentionally protected these creatures that had no fighting strength.

The Devil Soul and Nightmare species had a symbiotic relationship.

The Nightmare species had extremely fast reproduction rates, and the Devil Soul's spirited nature would be able to raise the souls of the Nightmares.

On the other hand, the Devil Souls' reproduction rates were very slow, and they were very weak. They needed the protection of a powerful and trustworthy species.

Princess Jinrou's ice altar was located at the center of the Devil Soul tribe. Her body had been placed here after she became their queen.

As if they could feel some special life aura, there was a group of Devil Souls circling above the ice altar today. They were letting out melodious cries as if they were greeting something.

Chu Mu was still sitting there with his eyes closed, and focused on cultivating.

He didn't notice the abnormality of the Devil Souls. While in Nightmare Holy Region, he didn't need to release his soul remembrance, because there was nowhere safer than this.

The joyously melodious cries of the Devil Souls were like a song.

The song was mellow and lovely. It also contained some special magic power.

Unwittingly, halos of holy and beautiful light emerged around the ice altar. The halos of light made the woman silently lying on the ice altar seem even more pure and beautiful...

The halos of light illuminated Princess Jinrou's face.

She had a peerlessly beautiful complexion. In the past, she enjoyed wearing veils. It wasn't because she wanted to hide this peerless beauty. Instead, she only wanted to show it to the person she liked the most.

She had told Chu Mui that wearing a veil was a habit.

But this habit came from a story. In this story, the woman, after the age of fourteen, always wore a veil. She would only take it off when she met the person she liked.

When this girl would take off her veil and show her beautiful face, the nearby boys would probably be happy, because the girl had likely fallen for one of them. At this point, a tacit connection would truly exist between the two people, and it could be observed for a lifetime.

This was a story Princess Jinrou had heard at a very young age from her mother.

After her mother left, she acted in accordance with this story and from the age of fourteen, began wearing a veil.

When in Tianxia Realm, many people heard that Princess Jinrou had peerless beauty. However, very few had actually seen it.

Chu Mu wasn't able to detect these details about Princess Jinrou's, nor did he notice when she had taken off her veil...

A gentle light illuminated her face. Her lips grew ampler. Amidst the pink was a slight smirch of pale white, making it look beautiful. Even without any lipstick, it couldn't help but make one want to go up and kiss those lips.

These beautiful lips faintly opened as a fragrant breath that came out from her mouth.

A deep breath and an exhale. A deep breath and an exhale.

Her chest began to undulate as she breathed. Her arms, fingers, stomach, and legs began to show signs of movement.

Right now, she was a sleeping woman that looked at peace and was silently beautiful.

Gradually, her eyelashes began to tremble and she opened her eyes, slowly.

These eyes were pure like the snow on a mountain and carried a trace of confusion in them.

She blinked her eyes and as she lay there, she saw the Devil Souls flying twenty meters above her.

Each Devil Soul was as innocent as a child. They circled in wreath shapes, celebrating her awakening.

Princess Jinrou looked at their adorableness and her eyes smiled as they formed a beautiful crescent moon.

She subconsciously tried to get her body to float up...

“That’s strange.” Princess Jinrou let out a confused murmur.

She felt that her body had become heavier. In the past, she only needed to think about it, and she would be able to fly very high in the air. However, today, flying was very strenuous.

When she shifted her body, a cold feeling suddenly coursed through.

Her body had been rested against ice all this time. Initially, she wasn’t able to feel anything abnormal from the ice. However, when she shifted her body, a cold feeling coursed through her whole body.

Princess Jinrou placed her hand on the icy place she was lying on. Soon, coldness passed through her palm.

As she propped her body up, her hair was strewn and a few strands brushed by her cheek. It was an itchy feeling.

“Hu~~~~~”

A cool breeze blew past, faintly lifting her hair. She noticed the cleansing feeling of the comfortable wind brushing past her face.

“This...”

Princess Jinrou stretched out her hand and felt her hair. Then, she felt her body...

It was real! A very real feeling!

This wasn't a spectral body. She was no longer transparent and illusory. She had genuine skin and warmth.

Moreover, she was breathing/

Each breath was distinct, and she could smell something distinct.

Princess Jinrou looked at herself with a hint of disbelief.

“I... I was truly resurrected? I was truly resurrected??” Princess Jinrou felt that she was dreaming.

Princess Jinrou had had countless dreams of waking up with a corporeal body. These fleeting feelings of nostalgia were incomparably real in her dreams.

However, every time she suddenly woke up and saw her illusory body, she would descend back into a sense of loss.

This time, it was also very real. In fact, it was so real that she was unable to distinguish if this was a dream or reality.

She turned around and discovered Chu Mu sitting next to her like a statue, unmoving.

His face was serious and cold. However, those who actually knew Chu Mu knew that his character was actually very good. There were times when they could even make fun of him.

Princess Jinrou looked at Chu Mu. An unspeakable feeling of happiness emerged in her heart.

She didn't want to think about whether this was all real. Even if it was a dream, she had her own blood and flesh here. She ought to enjoy a dream that brought her happiness like this.

Princess Jinrou slowly stood up.

She wanted to walk, but her body was very stiff and sluggish.

Perhaps it was due to not moving for a long time, but her body was a bit rigid. She probably had to get used to it again.

“This dream is very interesting,” Princess Jinrou muttered to herself.

In her previous dreams, she was able to move freely like normal. However, this time, her body was rigid.

According to normal logic, after sleeping for so many years, a situation like this should occur when she woke up.

Yes, yes, this dream was more logical than the previous ones.

However, speaking of her previous dreams, Princess Jinrou couldn't remember anything that happened that defied logic. But every time she woke up, she would feel the dream was very absurd.

Therefore, after she woke up this time, she would also feel it was absurd.

Princess Jinrou slowly got used to her body and even felt the blood flowing to each part of her body. It was like a formation slowly being activated by energy.

She tried one thing at a time. First, she tried moving her fingers.

Eventually, she tried walking.

She walked a circle around Chu Mu and from those initial difficult first steps, she was able to break into a jog.

These most basic movements may have been senseless to many people. However, to Princess Jinrou who had experienced a deep sleep and a state of half death for many years, being able to experience these feelings of being alive was incomparably precious.

After being able to move as she pleased, she discovered that a Devil Soul had flown next to Chu Mu and was ostensibly trying to wake up Chu Mu.

Princess Jinrou placed her finger on her lips, telling the small Devil Soul not to disturb Chu Mu.

The small Devil Soul tactfully moved away while Princess Jinrou carefully walked up to the silently cultivating Chu Mu. She widened her beautiful eyes and moved close to Chu Mu's serious and resolute face, carefully examining him.

Princess Jinrou was like a small curious cat. She slowly moved her lips closer and secretly kissed Chu Mu's lips.

It was warm and bitter. She didn't know who had told her that a kiss would feel sweet.

Perhaps it was secret kisses like this that were bitter?

Thus, she wondered if she should awaken him.

Thinking about Chu Mu's surprised and happy expression when he woke up and saw her, a smile rose on her face. She was slightly looking forward to it but was also slightly nervous. It was as if her heart rate had sped up.

Chapter 1594: What Only Should Have Been a Kiss

When Chu Mu was focused on training, he was entirely immersed in a mental world.

Unless there was an aura of danger that arrived, he wouldn't mind one or two small wing type creatures normally landing on his arms or head.

But for some reason, his cheek was feeling itchy. It was like a piece of silk brushing by his cheek.

Chu Mu was confused. Was it Mo Xie doing something?

Mo Xie normally spent her time lying on Chu Mu's shoulder and, while sleeping or with nothing to do, would inadvertently use her fluffy tail to brush Chu Mu's cheek. She would do it purely because it was fun.

But after thinking about it, wasn't Mo Xie in her soul pet space? Besides Yu Suo who was wandering on the outside, all his other soul pets were in their spaces.

Chu Mu didn't really want to interrupt his cultivation, because he had encountered a strange barrier in his cultivation.

This barrier came from the Black Nightmare's soul.

When Third White underwent its cultivation, it hadn't actually managed to fully become a Black Nightmare. Thus, when Chu Mu devoured its soul, it preserved his own silver-colored devil flame.

The black devil flames and white devil flames normally formed an equilibrium. Neither energy would disturb the other.

However, when Chu Mu absorbed too much resentment aura, he felt the black devil flames beginning to encroach upon his silver devil flame energy.

The ultimate result of this encroachment was that Chu mu fully transformed into a black devil.

Although the silver devil flames were not as tyrannical as the black devil flames, by using it in a clever manner, he was able to exhibit unordinary destructive power. Most importantly, the silver devil flames not only represented the fire attribute, but mainly represented the other attribute.

Therefore, Chu Mu was essentially undergoing attribute deviation.

Because the black devil flames were too powerful, they were devouring Chu Mu's silver devil flames and other type power, becoming solely of the dark type and fire type.

Most crucially, if his attribute was fully occupied by the black flames, his consciousness would be easily influenced by large amounts of negative emotions.

Therefore, Chu Mu had stayed in a cultivation state in order to keep his few attributes at an equilibrium that he could control. This way, Chu Mu would be able to use various attributes.

The other type was Chu Mu's primary method of attack. Chu Mu didn't want this power to be replaced by darkness and fire.

Chu Mu cultivated very diligently. In the past, he would use soul crystals to engage in attribute training with his soul pets. He never expected that he would have to engage in attribute training himself one day.

Attribute training on oneself was evidently hard since attribute training required pure energy from the attribute to pour in. Indeed, the reason why his attribute had deviated was because he had absorbed too much evil aura and negative energy.

"Forget it. I'll think of another method." Chu Mu sighed.

It would be very hard to rebalance or maintain already deviated attributes without the use of external energy. Thus, Chu Mu stopped trying and opened his eyes. He wanted to see which small creature was playing around.

.....

Chu Mu was sitting upright like a statue on the ice altar, serious and focused.

Behind this statute stood a snow white clothed woman. She was bent at the waist and some of her black hair was hanging down. Her hands were holding onto the ends of her hair and her eyes were filled with the craftiness of a small fox. She was using the ends of her hair to brush Chu Mu's cheek.

"Why hasn't he still awaken?" Princess Jinrou muttered to herself.

Chu Mu didn't know that the person playing around was Princess Jinrou. When he opened his eyes, he shot out his hand and grabbed Princess Jinrou's hair.

"Ah!" Princess Jinrou jumped out of fright, and let out a delicate cry.

Chu Mu was stunned. He hastily loosened his hands and turned around. He discovered Princess Jinrou and his face was instantly filled with an apologetic smile as he explained: "I thought it was a long tail of some small creature."

"How annoying. You hurt me." blamed Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu let out a wry smile.

Suddenly, the smile on his face froze.

Something wasn't right. Why had he felt Princess Jinrou's hair?

He couldn't touch any part of the spectral hair...

Moreover, Princess Jinrou's body was normally translucent, and he could see things past her body. However, this time, he could actually see her smile, her body...

In fact, she had kissed him for a long time and the warmth of the kiss was accompanied by the wonderful fragrance from her body.

She was very close to him and Chu Mu could feel the warm breath from her mouth.

Princess Jinrou was kneeling to the side. Her watery eyes were looking at Chu Mu with an expectant smile.

Chu Mu's expression displayed great emotions. In her dreams, Princess Jinrou had seen this expression many times.

Chu Mu stared intently at her, his eyes not diverting.

When Chu Mu was training, he was unable to calm his mind, because he knew that eventually when he opened his eyes, he would be able to see her and feel everything real about her.

Thus, filled with expectance and excitement, it took a long time for Chu Mu to actually enter a cultivation state.

However, when he fully entered a cultivation state, his wandering consciousness, like he was asleep, would forget the thoughts he had when he fell asleep. Therefore, when he opened his eyes, even if he was a bit mentally prepared, the emotions from within his heart couldn't help but violently surge forth.

He just looked at her like this. Chu Mu felt that his mind had gone blank, and his heart rate had sped up.

In terms of amorous feelings, Chu Mu could no longer be considered an inexperienced brat. But in front of Princess Jinrou and looking into her deeply captivating eyes, Chu Mu had no clue what to do or say.

Chu Mu's eyes were both scorching and pure. Princess Jinrou couldn't help but blush as he stared at her like this. She averted her eyes and muttered: "Have you seen enough?"

When she had been a specter, Chu Mu had often wanted to hug her soft body into his arms when he saw her. However, she was like a painting - he was unable to hug her.

And now this intense feeling had violently surged up in Chu Mu's heart again. He stretched out his arms and pulled her into his embrace.

She had warmth, fragrance, glossy skin, and a soft body. Chu Mu truly was able to feel her in this hug. It was as if the tighter he hugged her, the more real she seemed.

He kissed her forehead, kissed her eyes, and kissed her somewhat cold lips. The coldness slowly dissipated, and gradually became a scorching hot intertwinement.

When Princess Jinrou had secretly kissed Chu Mu's lips, the feeling had been mild and tart. From what she read in books, she had believed that kisses were sweet, and even had the absurd belief that this would only happen when the other party reciprocated.

However, in reality, the "sweetness" didn't come from the interlocking of lips. Instead, it was a feeling that emerged from the heart. This feeling was truly difficult to describe with words, but it would submerge one in complete intoxication.

Princess Jinrou was very inexperienced when it came to kisses. She was passive, but like Chu Mu, was filled with passion. Chu Mu slowly guided her, and quickly received an intense response.

From this response, Chu Mu could feel the enormous amount of affection. It was like it came from a lover with whom he had been separated for many years. There was nothing unnatural about it.

When the feeling of love was predominant, feelings of desire would ease. Princess Jinrou had a very alluring figure. She was sexy and elegant. From head to toe, she emanated an extremely intense and touching charm of a woman.

As they passionately kissed, the rather experienced Chu Mu subconsciously began to undo her dress.

The instant the dress dropped down her beautiful legs he was able to see her jade and snow-like naked body. Chu Mu couldn't help but want to do something obscene to her.

He slowly appreciated her and slowly kissed her. Boorish words would only break down her elegance and dignity. Only by being particularly tender and affectionate would it make him not seem so rude.

The red from Princess Jinrou's face had spread down to her fair neck. Chu Mu's movements were very fast. In the blink of an eye, all her clothes had been stripped. This made her both embarrassed and shocked. However, she didn't want to stop this fiery advance.

In fact, while she had been in her spectral state, Princess Jinrou hadn't actually had much intimate contact with Chu Mu. When she thought about intimate actions, she would at most think about passionately kissing. She didn't realize that this situation wouldn't be as simple as her naive thoughts. Chu Mu kissed down her neck to her breasts. Her heart was a mess, and she didn't know what to do. The moment her dress had fallen to the ground and she had been left completely naked, her mind had gone blank.

If this was a dream, how could things reach such an embarrassing point? If this wasn't a dream, Princess Jinrou felt that in the future she wouldn't be able to look Chu Mu in the eyes.

Princess Jinrou tightly closed her eyes. She was quiet and flustered like a small rabbit.

Although she wasn't fully prepared in her heart, weren't some things supposed to be given to the person that one loved? It was just like her veil that would eventually be taken off and her beautiful face revealed to the person she loved.

Yes, yes, there couldn't be any regret. If in a few months she was unable to ever wake up again, at the very least when she fell into her deep sleep, this period would become her most perfect memory and be worthy of filling her dreams in her endless sleep.

"Do you feel it's too sudden?" asked Chu Mu, as he pressed against her delicate face.

Princess Jinrou faintly shook his head and said: "I love you."

It was originally only a kiss. Who knew that he, who should not have kissed, had kissed back and then taken off her clothes. It made her feel ashamed. And only now when the two of them were both naked did he finally ask a needless question.

Chu Mu moved next to her ear and softly spoke.

A few tears seeped out of Princess Jinrou's watery eyes. Her delicate arms grasped tightly around Chu Mu's neck...

Perhaps all of this wasn't too sudden. They had known each other for a long, long time. What was too sudden was the time. They had walked too fast.

Had it been over ten or twenty years since he first saw Princess Jinrou? Chu Mu didn't even remember.

Each time he came together with her soft body, the swaying pendant on Princess Jinrou's neck would remind Chu Mu that a few months of life was too, too short.

Chu Mu wanted her to stay beside him forever...

Chapter 1595: Unknown Land, Evil Temple

The sky was a dusky black. Occasionally, it was possible to see clouds of flames floating through.

On this expansive black land, there was a unique ice altar. On top of this ice altar quietly laid two people holding each other as they slept. A thin blanket laid on top of their bodies.

Bai Jinrou's glossy and smooth shoulders were exposed. Her curvy and graceful figure was faintly visible through the thin blanket.

Chu Mu lay next to her, allowing Princess Jinrou to lie in his embrace. His eyes were open and he was staring at the dusky sky.

It was impossible to see stars in the Nightmare Holy Region's sky. At every moment of the year, there were thick plumes of black clouds in the sky. However, the dark aura emitted a feeling of both fear and comfort. It was as if the only people who remained in this world were himself and the person next to him. There was no need to think too much or to worry too much.

"Chu Mu, your body is really hot," Bai Jinrou patted Chu Mu's chest as she spoke.

"Ya, I've absorbed too much negative energy. Black devil flames have begun to occupy my dominant attribute." Chu Mu told her about his cultivation problem.

"Then is this an indication of another devil transformation?" said Princess Jinrou.

"I'm not sure either. But if my attribute does deviate, it will be very difficult for me to freely control my strength," said Chu Mu.

"Have you been to Evil Temple?" asked Princess Jinrou.

"I've just seen it from the outside."

“Your Black Nightmare strength comes from Evil Temple. You should go and take a look there. Perhaps something will happen. How about we go now. It’s not too far from here.” said Princess Jinrou.

“Now?” Chu Mu didn’t want to take Princess Jinrou, who had just woken up, to an unknown place.

“Let’s go. Perhaps we’ll discover something. You told me before that those thousand year era experts and ten thousand year era experts were probably at the undying rank and had incomparably long lifespans. There is no enemy that can kill them. Perhaps they are still living in this world... an unknown place like Evil Temple definitely has some records of ancient things.” Princess Jinrou’s eyes flashed as she spoke.

Chu Mu found that Princess Jinrou had a particular interest towards unsolved mysteries. Evil Temple was indeed a very special existence. There may be something actually hidden inside. There was a chance he could even obtain an answer about the origin of the Nightmares, which were a special evil species.

Princess Jinrou knew that Chu Mu was also a curious person. When she learned that he had thoughts about going there, she immediately pulled Chu Mu up with excitement.

The thin blanket slid off her shoulders. Her large breasts were unable to stop the blanket from falling off and instantly, her sexy and fair body was left naked in front of Chu Mu’s eyes.

Princess Jinrou was used to being in her spectral form, and didn’t notice that she had no clothes on. It wasn’t until Chu Mu’s eyes were fixed upon her that she realized everything was revealed.

“How about we wait a bit before heading out?” Chu Mu raised his brows as she asked.

Princess Jinrou's cheeks flushed red.

Her mind-reading abilities were still present. She was often able to know what Chu Mu was thinking. She hastily used the blanket to cover herself, determinedly refusing.

Chu Mu never considered himself to be an honest gentleman. He kissed her soft earlobes. As he kissed, the sensitive princess melted away, becoming an obedient lamb that let Chu Mu do as he wished.

.....

After Bai Jinrou had resurrected, she kept her Devil Soul abilities. Thus, when she moved, she would float in the air.

Chu Mu was also able to fly. After a long period of intimacy, they finally separated from each other.

Chu Mu had spent a period of time now in Nightmare Holy Region. The others would be worried, so he figured he should return to Wanxiang City first. Even if he was going to Evil Temple, he should let Liu Binglan and Ye Qingzi know. After all, it wouldn't take him too long to go there and back.

Princess Jinrou didn't leave the Devil Soul Tribe. She would wait for Chu Mu here. There happened to be some things in the Devil Soul Tribe that she needed to deal with.

.....

When he returned to Wanxiang City, Chu Mu discovered that new changes had occurred in the city. At the very least, there were more people walking on the streets and the atmosphere had returned to its former glory.

Chu Mu felt gratified when he saw this.

As he flew into his courtyard, Chu Mu happened to see Ning Maner head in.

Ning Maner and Chu Mu had a soul pact so if he returned, she would be able to sense it.

“Ah, how hot!” Ning Maner was about to give Chu Mu a loving hug, but suddenly shrunk back.

Chu Mu was stunned. He looked at Ning Maner’s hand and discovered that the skin there had been burnt black.

“Big brother, what are you doing? Why are you releasing flames for no reason!” said Ning Maner with feigned anger.

Ning Maner’s words caused Chu Mu to realize his skin was faintly exuding a fiery aura. This fiery aura was the reason why Ning Maner had been burned.

Ning Maner’s physical constitution was no longer that of a weak girl. If she had been burned by his high temperature, then most spirit immortal ranks would not be able to touch him.

Indeed, when Chu Mu went to report to Liu Binglan about his whereabouts, Liu Binglan had no choice but to stay a meter away from him.

Ye Qingzi stood to the side. Her intelligent eyes examined Chu Mu from head to toe and she seemed to have noticed something... however, the biggest problem right now was that nobody could get close to him.

It was possible to feel a heat within ten meters of him. Within one meter, someone would feel boiling. If someone were to touch his skin, they would be burned like Ning Maner.

“Chu Mu, this isn’t an indication of a devil transformation, right?” Liu Binglan and Ye Qingzi asked, somewhat worried.

Both of them understood Chu Mu’s body condition. In the past, Chu Mu’s soul temperature had been extremely high. After transforming into a half devil, he was virtually unable to control the fire in his body.

“The evil energy in my body is too thick. It’s caused my body to undergo an attribute mutation. However, I didn’t realize these flames would uncontrollably surge out of my body.” Chu Mu forced a smile as he looked at them. They were a few steps away from him and they were unwilling to walk near.

Chu Mu was puzzled. Not long ago, things didn’t seem this serious when he and Princess Jinrou were touching each others’ bodies. Bai Jinrou had felt that his body was burning hot, but it wasn’t to the extent of getting burned.

“How about I refine you some ice type immortal items?” asked Ye Qingzi.

Chu Mu shook his head. It was impossible to lower his heat with ice type items now.

“I think that I ought to continue cultivating for another period of time,” said Chu Mu.

“Can you deal with it yourself?” asked Liu Binglan.

“Probably. However, without external help, I’ll probably need a long while. Also, I plan on making a trip to Evil Temple.” said Chu Mu.

“Ok, be careful.”

.....

With his high body heat, Chu Mu didn’t dare stay long in Wanxiang City. Soon, he said goodbye to them and returned to Nightmare Holy Region.

When he reached the Devil Soul territory, Chu Mu found Princess Jinrou and went with her to Evil Temple.

Evil Temple was located behind Nightmare Devil Ghost Mountain. That place was filled with a terrifying evil aura. Even the Nightmare species which was filled with an evil aura themselves, found it difficult to approach the radius of the Evil Temple’s aura.

“Jinrou, do you feel that I’m too hot?” Chu Mu pointed at himself.

Devil flame aura of a black color was indistinctly being exuding from his skin. These black colored evil flames were gradually getting outside of his control. Chu Mu was truly afraid he would hurt someone. Indeed, his current strength had reached the high class immortal rank. If someone who wasn’t in the spirit immortal rank got within a meter of him, there was a chance they might be instantly burned to ashes.

“It’s fine. It’s a bit abnormal, but it’s not unbearable.” said Princess Jinrou.

When Princess Jinrou obtained her Devil Gallop strength, her soul rose to a very high realm. The soul energy in Sealed Tower was extremely massive, nor was it a one-time-use energy. During the period she was unconscious, Princess Jinrou was able to digest this soul energy.

Evil Temple was a place Chu Mu could smell a dangerous aura from. If it weren’t for the fact Princess Jinrou now had strong abilities to defend herself, Chu Mu wouldn’t bring the recently awakened Princess Jinrou here.

As for Princess Jinrou, she was going to treat these few months of life as a long and realistic dream. She would do whatever she wanted to.

“If I can’t find an external energy force in Evil Temple that will allow my attributes to return to normal, I will have to spend a period of time there bitterly training.

Bai Jinrou extended her white hand. Her hand passed through the indistinct halo of fire on Chu Mu's body. She jokingly said: "Now you get to experience the pain of not being able to touch someone else, eh?"

Chu Mu helpless nodded his head.

Fortunately, Princess Jinrou's soul realm was rather high. Her body was able to withstand Chu Mu's high temperature flames. If Princess Jinrou wasn't able to touch him either, then Chu Mu and her would only be able to look at each other from a distance during the few months of resurrection. That would be depressing.

Speaking of which, Old Li's refinement of Life Providence Grass was probably almost done.

If Old Li was able to successfully refine that immortal item, Bai Yu wouldn't have to go do things for Family Master Rong, who he didn't know much about.

But whatever the case, he had to first get rid of the problem of the devil flames on his body.

"I've come a few times in the past to Evil Temple. Each time I come, I feel a very dangerous aura. My subconsciousness also tells me not to enter." softly said Princess Jinrou.

"Then you'd best not go in." compared to curiosity, Chu Mu was more worried about Princess Jinrou's safety.

"This time, the feeling doesn't seem as strong as before. Perhaps this palace only welcomes people like you, who have stepped on the great evil devil path." laughed Princess Jinrou.

“Don’t speak too soon. I actually feel that there’s some familiar power drawing me in there,” said Chu Mu.

Chu Mu wasn’t joking. The evil aura in Evil Temple was too dense. When he reached this place, he was able to feel the evil aura from Evil Temple enveloping him as if it was escorting him into Evil Temple.

Chapter 1596: The First Creature Born In This World

After entering Evil Temple, the Devil Fire on Chu Mu’s body flared up uncontrollably.

His Devil Fire seemed to be attracted to some force and slanted towards one direction. Chu Mu was unsure where to go in Evil Temple, so he decided to just follow the direction his Devil Fire was attracted to.

“My sensing ability is restricted,” whispered Princess Jinrou next to Chu Mu.

Princess Jinrou’s sensing ability was much better than Chu Mu. If even her senses could not spread out in Evil Temple, it meant that some powerful restraints existed in Evil Temple.

Chu Mu’s sensing ability was not really affected. Perhaps just as what Bai Jinrou said, this Evil Temple welcomed evil existences like him.

Bai Yu had come to this Evil Temple several times. Back then, his strength only allowed him to wander around in the outer area of Evil Temple.

Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou directly passed through the strange stone palace labyrinth at the outer area and entered deeper into the temple.

No creatures could be seen in Evil Temple, Chu Mu also could not sense any life force. However, some rotten corpses often appeared in some black wall corners.

Chu Mu could not tell what species those corpses belonged to. However, this meant that even though there was no creature in Evil Temple, this was still a dangerous place.

As they continued walking, black Devil Fire appeared in the Evil Temple labyrinth.

Devil Fire almost filled up the entire passage. Seeing such a scene after turning around a corner, Bai Jinrou was spooked.

“This path seems to be sealed by the flame,” said Bai Jinrou.

Evil Temple was a huge labyrinth. A human’s physique was like the seams between those walls, humans looked very little in this temple.

Each wall was also protected by some sort of restraint. It was possible to destroy the wall, but it would take lots of stamina to do so.

More importantly, nobody could predict the consequences of forcefully attacking these restraints.

In this huge Evil Temple labyrinth, many passages were filled with differently-colored Devil Fires.

Green, blue, white, silver, they coincidentally matched the Nightmare ranks.

Chu Mu was able to pass through some flame paths directly with his current rank. It meant that these sealed paths acted like a rank restraint, blocking those creatures with lower ranks.

Chu Mu and Bai Jinrou encountered mostly white and silver Devil Fires. However, they encountered black Devil Fire which was several dozens times more powerful than the flame paths they encountered before.

Black Devil Fire crackled, as if a group of chained devils trying to pounce towards them. The thick evil aura caused Princess Jinrou to feel very uncomfortable.

Chu Mu stood there and faced the black Devil Fire. Currently, his own black Devil Fire was also slowly seeping out from his body. The interesting thing was that his black Devil Fire uncontrollably slanted towards the black Devil Fire path ahead. It seemed as if his black Devil Fire was trying to merge with the black Devil Fire path.

Chu Mu hugged Princess Jinrou and spoke, "I will bring you over, but you better maintain your spirit protection."

Chu Mu was still able to endure the black Devil Fire of this degree.

Princess Jinrou nodded and smiled, "Does this count as you bringing me into the sea of flames?"

"Be serious, it may become dangerous," said Chu Mu in a serious tone.

Princess Jinrou rolled her eyes, what a humorless guy!

Chu Mu created a spatial barrier to shield him and Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu was somewhat resistant towards black Devil Fire. However, it did not mean wild black Devil Fire could not damage Chu Mu. If there were even stronger elements along this path, Chu Mu might not be unharmed.

After flying into the black Devil Fire path, a smoking hot aura bashed towards him, while his black Devil Fire appeared like returning to its home, spreading out to welcome the flame.

Chu Mu's flying speed was very fast. After flying straight through this flame path, he felt he had reached deeper into Evil Temple.

The Evil Temple area here was different from the outer area. Most of the outer areas were black and cold walls, while black flame was burning in the ceiling here.

Cold rock surface beneath his feet, while a sea of black flame hung in the ceiling. There were occasionally clusters of black flame falling down, causing Chu Mu to dodge them cautiously.

"This feels like entering a starry sky with meteors raining down," said Princess Jinrou creatively while hugging Chu Mu's neck tightly.

Chu Mu was not so romantic, because the Devil Fire raining down could not be underestimated. If the remaining path would have to be completed in such condition, he was unsure if he could safely leave this place.

Hence, he could not enjoy watching the clusters of flame falling from the ceiling so leisurely like Princess Jinrou. He had to concentrate hard to dodge them all.

The remaining path was in such condition. As the frequency became higher, even the ground started to be covered in black Devil Fire.

Unknowingly, both the ceiling and ground became a sea of black Devil Fire. There were constantly meteor-like clusters of black Devil Fire constantly falling down.

“Should I help you block some of the flame?” asked Princess Jinrou as she watched Chu Mu weaving through the rain of black Devil Fire with some difficulty.

“No need. This Devil Fire will directly damage the soul. If you use your spirit barrier, the Devil Fire may directly burn your soul,” said Chu Mu.

He was more or less a high class Immortal rank Dual Evil Half Devil. Furthermore, his type was also fire, he was not so weak to be unable to endure in such an environment,

However, Chu Mu was a little confused. This Evil Temple’s black Devil Fire was really densely-packed now. Other than a Half Devil at his level, what other creatures could enter here??

“Huhuhuhu!”

Suddenly, a strong gust of wind blew towards them from the front. Chu Mu was surprised to notice all the Devil Fire in the area clearly slanted!

Chu Mu unleashed his soul remembrance and immediately sensed a huge cluster of darkness and fire mixed energy!

Chu Mu continued to fly forward. After turning past a labyrinth corner, the space in front of Chu Mu was boundless darkness.

This place seemed to be the end of Evil Temple labyrinth, as well as the center of Evil Temple. The vast darkness seemed to be in a perfectly circular abyss with rumbling flame on top and pitch-black darkness below!

Meanwhile, in between the darkness and flame, there was an energy entity made up of flame and darkness!

It felt like facing a black sun directly, and Chu Mu was standing right under this burning flame filled with darkness aura.

The heat radiating from the energy felt even hotter than the rain of black Devil Fire before. Any creature that did not reach high class Immortal rank would definitely be reduced to ash after entering here.

Princess Jinrou already used her spirit barrier, but the high temperature still caused her to feel uncomfortable.

“What..... What is this?” Princess Jinrou raised her head and looked at the top of this black sun.

This huge energy entity was like a burning planet, destructive energy covered its entire surface. Chu Mu was already very strong, but his flame technique might only be on par with the flame tongue spat out by this energy entity.

Princess Jinrou knew that even though this entity looked right in front of them, they were still far away from it. It was only because this entity was too huge that it looked so close. If the flame covering it was red, it could even be treated as the sun.

“Black Sol?” At that moment, Old Li’s voice could be heard.

Since Old Li could recognize it, it definitely knew something. Chu Mu immediately asked Old Li to explain.

This Black Sol was really too astonishing. Chu Mu suspected whether he could endure the intense heat if flew to the surface of this entity. Even an evil existence like him might be burned to ash.

“Three layers of upper sky is ruled by Crimson Sol. The so-called Crimson Sol is the sun you can see, the source of energy for all creations. Meanwhile, the three layers of lower sky is ruled by Black Sol. The source of energy for all creations in the three layers of lower sky is this Black Sol,” said Old Li in a serious tone.

“Old Li, does that mean they represents sky and earth respectively?” asked Bai Jinrou.

“Yes, one is the heart of the sky, while the other is the heart of the earth. The energy they generate is absorbed by plants. With plants, other creatures start to manifest. They are the sources of the two worlds, and the sources of all life forms,” said Old Li.

“In that case, the Nightmare race should be born from this Black Sol?” asked Chu Mu.

“Then, is it possible that Nightmare is the first creature born in this world?”

Old Li thought through for a while and felt that this hypothesis might be true.

All creations relied on Black Sol and Crimson Sol. They existed first, then brought life to all creations. Black Nightmare was the highest bloodline in the Nightmare race, it might be the creature born from Black Soul’s element, darkness and space properties, then branched out into various subspecies of the Nightmare race.

“Chu Mu, you’re going to become the ancestor of the world,” Princess Jinrou giggled as she looked at the black Devil Fire on Chu Mu’s body.

Chu Mu never expected the Nightmare race to be the first creatures born in this world. If this was known by human researchers researching on soul pets, it would cause a huge upheaval!

Chapter 1597: The Sigil Transmitted by Undying Rank

“Chu Mu, if you cultivate here, will you become a Black Nightmare completely?” asked Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu’s current problem was taking in too much negative energy, causing his property to lean to one side. However, black Devil Fire filled the entire space in here, it would cause Chu Mu’s property to lean further to one side.

Chu Mu also found it a headache. He could sense a pure black Devil Fire energy pouring in, causing him to lose control over his Devil Fire even more.

Losing control of Devil Fire was definitely not a good sign.

Just like White Three, it obtained the powerful Black Nightmare ability. However, if it could not control this power well, it would still cause great suffering to itself.

“Chu Mu, look up!” said Princess Jinrou as she pointed at Black Sol.

Chu Mu raised his head and suddenly noticed a pair of eyes appearing within Black Sol!

That pair of eyes slowly opened within the black Devil Fire. Two streaks of burning black Devil Fire instantly shot out.

The Devil Fire crossed through the boundless darkness and almost reached Chu Mu.

Chu Mu sensed the danger and dodged with Princess Jinrou on reflex.

The Devil Fire hit onto the wall next to where Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou were, penetrating through several layers of walls.

Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou looked at the place where the beam of Devil Fire hit. The power that could pierce through those walls with restraints was really terrifying.

Chu Mu raised his head again and continued to stare at that pair of eyes.

Flame tongues danced on the surface of Black Sol, there would be fireballs rolling down from the surface occasionally.

Black Sol had an astonishingly high surface temperature, at least he would not dare to approach.

It was hard to imagine just what kind of creature could exist on Black Sol's surface!

Each flame tongue was almost on par with Chu Mu's full power flame technique. There were at least a hundred of such black flame tongues rolling on Black Sol's surface. That pair of eyes opened within those flame tongues. Chu Mu could not estimate how big that creature could be, but its strength would definitely be insurmountable. Otherwise, it would be impossible to stay on the surface of Black Sol which could burn a high class Immortal into ash.

"Young master, this is something we should not witness," said Old Li in a hurry.

"What do you mean we should not witness?" asked Princess Jinrou.

"This Black Sol represents the source of the world. There are intense spatial storms, black flame tongues and darkness destruction on its surface all the time. No creatures in this world could endure such power..... Since there is a pair of eyes on there, it means that it is not a creature....." said Old Li.

"Not a creature, then what is it?" asked Chu Mu.

“God,” Old Li only said this word.

God, Undying rank was called as god because they possessed an undying body and endless lifespan. They completely superseded the life cycle.

However, just how many creatures could reach this level?

According to Chu Mu’s knowledge, there were only seven Undying rank creatures. The Five Undying Legends, Ancient Beast Soul and Ancient Water Dragon Person. They were gods in their own fields.

Could the pair of eyes before them be another Undying rank existence?

After a careful thought, if it was an Undying rank, how could it live on the surface of Black Sol??

“That thing is the eighth era’s strongest —— Sol Black Nightmare?” asked Chu Mu.

Chu Mu already knew the first seven era’s strongest, but never obtained positive answer for the eighth and ninth, or Chu Mu was still not qualified to touch on this topic.

However, if he had to give an explanation for the pair of eyes on the surface of Black Sol, he felt that only the eighth era’s strongest was a suitable identity for Sol Black Nightmare.

“Perhaps. Young master, look carefully at the space between you and Black Sol,” said Old Li.

Chu Mu unleashed his soul remembrance towards the direction Old Li pointed. He suddenly realized this darkness space appeared to be very strange. There seemed to be many layers of space in between.

“What’s that?” asked Chu Mu.

“This Black Sol appears to be hanging above Temple Temple, but the distance from here to that Black Sol is very long. Young master may fly for one month and still not reach that Black Sol. It’s clear that Evil Temple is a spatial passage towards Black Sol in the third layer of earth. However, I remember the real Black Sol should be at the deepest spot in Sequence Lands,” said Old Li.

“Young master, think about it. That pair of eyes could shoot two beams of flame from such a distance. The beams were weakened after piercing through countless layers of space, yet they could still pierce through those walls. This guy is definitely an Undying rank existence.”

Chu Mu had witnessed the power of White Ocean God from the Heaven Boundary Monument on White Island. The impactful scene of using the ocean to swallow the sky allowed Chu Mu to understand how terrifying Undying rank creatures were.

And now, he witnessed a living Undying rank creature in a special place. That godly existence also noticed Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou and sent two beams of energy through such a long distance.....

If they stood right in front of it, just how terrifying could it be?

Chu Mu raised his head once more. He could still see the Black Sol with flame tongues dancing on its surface, but could no longer see that pair of eyes.

“Eighth era’s strongest,” mumbled Chu Mu.

“Chu Mu, Chu Mu.....” At that moment, Princess Jinrou seemed to have noticed something.

Chu Mu turned around and Princess Jinrou pointed at the flame walls pierced through by the two beams.

Chu Mu looked at the wall and could not understand why Princess Jinrou told him to look at them.

“Is there something special?” asked Chu Mu confusedly.

Don’t you think this looks like a sigil?” asked Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu stared at the place that was pierced through and slightly changed an angle. He then noticed that the marks did look like some sigil.

In a normal situation, there should be a large hole on the wall after getting hit by such a force.

However, the space shot through by those two beams still contained traces of flame. The traces continued to burn and carved out an incomprehensible sigil.

“Could it be that it did not attack you and transmitted a message to you using this method?” Old Li immediately began thinking.

“Transmitting message? Using this method??” Chu Mu was surprised.

Shooting two beams of flame from such a distance just to transmit a message containing a sigil.

However, why would that Undying rank existence transmit a message to them?

If it was really transmitting a message, what could a sigil transmit??

“Let’s look at this sigil first,” Princess Jinrou flew towards the wall.

She originally possessed some sort of unique understanding towards ancient texts and texts of other civilizations. After gaining the power of Devil Soul, her mind reading ability not only allowed her to decrypt the mental information towards creatures, it also made her able to read the mental language hidden in sigils. Hence, she was seriously examining the wall which had a sigil carved out, trying to obtain the information transmitted from an Undying rank existence.

Chu Mu could not understand such things anyway, so he simply stood at one side quietly.

“It seems like just a sigil, but why do I feel I have seen this sigil somewhere before.....” Princess Jinrou tapped her finger next to her lips and began searching through her memory.

After pondering for a while, she stretched out her finger again and began drawing something in the air.

Some glitters would remain along the paths her finger traced out. It looked like drawing a sketch on a canvas.

Princess Jinrou sketched out that large flame sigil in a smaller scale and made some turns and shifts.

Chu Mu watched the mini sigil drawn by Princess Jinrou and also recalled a similar sigil.

“This sigil looks like a Diagram Valley,” said Chu Mu.

“Diagram Valley? The sigil which chained Seven Sins Fox?” asked Princess Jinrou.

“Yes,” Chu Mu nodded.

In Thunder Realm, Chu Mu saw a Diagram Valley filled with lightning. When they climbed to the summit and looked down, it was Mu Qingyi who noticed that the entire Diagram Valley formed into a sigil.

Similarly, in Imprint Valley at Zhengming Main City, that light Diagram Valley similarly formed into a huge sigil.

The sigil Princess Jinrou sketched had a similar outline as the two Diagram Valleys Chu Mu had seen.

“In that case, it really did not attack us and was transmitting a message to us!” said Princess Jinrou excitedly, but she then frowned and pondered, “But what is it trying to tell us by showing us this sigil? Why is it using such a secretive method to transmit the message? Is it possible that it isn’t living on the surface of that Black Sol but trapped there?”

Chu Mu had similar questions in his mind.

The mystery of why Seven Sins Fox became Sins Fox was still unsolved. He originally thought he could see Light King’s memories after obtaining its Monument Tear and solve the mystery. However, he realized he could not view Seven Sins Fox Monument Tear’s memory, Elder Li mentioned that only the true Monument Tear Inheritor could view it.

Speaking of Monument Tear Inheritor, Chu Mu recalled the person right before he passed out in the blackhole. That person should be the Monument Tear Inheritor.....

Who was that person??

Chapter 1598: Spatial Energy Shard

Chu Mu smiled bitterly. There was no point dwelling on such questions. What he had to do now was to solve the problem of his uncontrollable Devil Fire.

Chu Mu raised his head and never saw that pair of eyes again.

Perhaps just as Princess Jinrou said, it might be trapped on Black Sol.

A creature which was trapped on Black Sol. Chu Mu was confused about how a godly existence could be trapped, what kind of power could trap them?

Princess Jinrou was still examining that sigil, while Chu Mu sat down amongst the flames. He started attempting to absorb the Other type and darkness energy into his body to maintain his property balance.

Unfortunately, the black Devil Fire aura in this Evil Temple was very dense. If Chu Mu absorbed the energy, it would cause his black Devil Fire to become more and more dominant.

After some time, Princess Jinrou seemed to have given up on studying the sigil and looked at Chu Mu frustratedly.

Chu Mu shrugged his shoulders as he also could not do anything. Transmitting a message with a sigil was too difficult for him to decrypt.

“Young master, you can try entering the overlapping space. Various spatial and darkness elements filled the area. It may help you neutralize the rampaging Devil Fire in your body,” said Old Li.

Chu Mu nodded and flew towards the region with unknown layers of space overlapped.

After entering deep into the overlapping space, Chu Mu could clearly feel the abundant spatial and darkness elements. He closed his eyes and attempted to use soul remembrance to absorb the elements.

This process was similar to drawing out the energy from soul crystals. Chu Mu noticed that absorbing the energy into his body was really effective in neutralizing his Devil Fire, but the absorption rate was too slow.

Normally speaking, the environment would be filled with various types of elemental energy. Creatures, crystals and magic stones could absorb such energy to add to their own reserve. However, this kind of cultivation was very slow.

Other than raising one's own level and fighting, soul pets mostly relied on vast energy vessels such as energy crystals and soul cores to strengthen themselves directly.

The spatial and elemental elements in this area were abundant. It was certainly a decent place for cultivation. However, if Chu Mu wanted to cultivate in this place, it would take at least four to five years to balance his properties.

Chu Mu did not have so much time to cultivate slowly like that. Hence, after trying to absorb some energy, he started roaming in this region to see if he could find some energy crystals that existed for a long time. This would save him a lot of time.

The overlapping space was vast. It took a long time to fly from one end to the other. Treasure hunting was Old Li's expertise. It was not that Chu Mu was unable to persevere in cultivating, but he did not have enough time to slowly cultivate.

After searching through a few layers, he did not see a single energy crystal over hundred or thousand years old. Instead, the shards floating in the layers of space contained plenty of energy.

"If I can gather these shards and give them to Ye Qingzi to refine, she may be able to craft a pretty decent Other type crystal," mumbled Chu Mu.

Almost every layer of space contained some shards. These shards were probably nurtured over a long period of time with the energy here. They were fundamentally different from normal rock shards. Any piece of them contained a certain amount of energy, but these shards were too scattered. It would take Chu Mu quite an effort to gather them.

Without any choice, he could only work hard to gather those shards since there was no proper energy crystals. It would be better than nothing.

“I will help you gather,” Princess Jinrou closed her eyes and unleashed her mind.

The shards in the space seemed to be captured by a magnet and kept flying towards Princess Jinrou.

With more and more shards gathered, Other type energy intensified. It felt like the small region these shards gathered became a vast space.

Chu Mu retrieved these shards into his spatial ring as he intended to give them to Ye Qingzi.

Next, Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou searched around in Evil Temple again.

Evil Temple was a huge labyrinth. The center was a spatial passage towards Sequence Lands earth core. In other words, the reason Nightmare Holy Region existed and Nightmares manifested was due to the ancient path with countless layers of overlapping space connected between Nightmare Holy Region and Sequence Lands. Over the long period of time, there would be some Nightmares which crossed through the long journey to reach Nightmare Holy Region, then started reproducing and developing in Nightmare Holy Region.

There were still quite a number of Immortal Items in Evil Temple. These were enough to let a Dominator rank Nightmare reach Immortal rank. Whenever Chu Mu saw one, he would keep it without hesitation. Although these Immortal Items could not strengthen himself, they could strengthen Nightmare Dynasty and New Moon Land.

“There doesn’t seem to be any more things,” While searching around Evil Temple’s other places, Princess Jinrou was still thinking about that sigil.

“Yes,” Chu Mu nodded.

Evil Temple certainly contained many unknown things, especially that abyss which could view Black Sol directly. However, Chu Mu had reached high class Immortal rank after all. No matter how unique the other regions of Evil Temple were, there was nothing really entering his eyes.

“I think that it must be telling us an important matter,” said Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu smiled bitterly, “There’s no point making too many assumptions. If we get a chance to visit Sequence Lands, we may obtain the answer when we face Black Sol directly.”

“When are we going to Sequence Lands?” Princess Jinrou’s beautiful eyes started sparkling.

“.....”

Sequence Lands was the true Nightmare Land. They should also be considered the seventh major race in this world, even humans never stepped into their territory.

Speaking of Sequence Lands, Chu Mu had another doubt. Why was the Southern Forbidden Region flattened?

Wupan Continent and Zhengming Continent was separated by Southern Forbidden Region in the northwestern side. Ning Family army also entered New Moon Land from the flattened Southern Forbidden Region.

Chu Mu was really confused about why Southern Forbidden Region disappeared.

“Leaving aside whether we will go to Sequence Lands or not, we have to make a trip to Zhengming Main City,” said Chu Mu.

“Why are we going there?” asked Princess Jinrou.

“The reason my Devil Fire went out of control is due to absorbing too much evil aura. This Evil Temple cannot let me recover and digest this power, so I can only let that woman take the advantage,” said Chu Mu.

“Evil Good Queen?” asked Princess Jinrou.

“Yes, I need to rely on her to help me shoulder the burden,” said Chu Mu.

“Just tell her to come here,” said Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu already called her to return, but that woman would not listen to him. She clearly indicated to let Chu Mu go to Zhengming Main City to find her.

Although her Flower's Stamen was still in his hands, he was reluctant to kill her out of spite. After all, without Yu Suo messing up the enemy's rear, the war against the eight major factions might not end so fast.

"She seems to have guessed this outcome. She should have a method to resolve the problem," said Chu Mu.

"I will accompany you," said Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu saw Princess Jinrou appearing to be rather nervous and explained, "She doesn't pose a threat to us now."

"An overly beautiful woman like her is very dangerous," said Princess Jinrou.

During the stay in Zhengming Main City, Princess Jinrou noticed Evil Good Queen often seducing Chu Mu while she was still a specter.

Evil Good Queen possessed a charming aura and beauty that could seduce any man. She was also very cunning, Princess Jinrou was afraid Chu Mu might really be seduced by her.

Seeing Princess Jinrou's jealous attitude, Chu Mu smiled, "If that's the case, you're much more dangerous than her."

Princess Jinrou blinked cutely. She suddenly noticed Chu Mu was not as idiotic as he appeared. He at least knew how to praise others.

.....

After leaving Evil Temple, Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou returned to Wanxiang City.

Similarly, nobody could approach within one meter of Chu Mu.

Princess Jinrou probably felt guilty and hid herself when Chu Mu went to visit Ye Qingzi.

Princess Jinrou felt that she snatched Chu Mu away from Ye Qingzi. She could chat with Ye Qingzi in the past, but she really lost the courage to face Ye Qingzi now. For some reason, Ye Qingzi's eyes always gave off a feeling that could see through one's heart, as if any thoughts or emotions could not be hidden from Ye Qingzi.

Chu Mu handed over those energy shards to Ye Qingzi, while Ye Qingzi simply stared at him.

Chu Mu thought his affair with Princess Jinrou was seen through and felt guilty. He wanted to hug her, but his Devil Fire caused him unable to approach Ye Qingzi.

“Even the black Devil Fire in Evil Temple cannot melt them, how am I supposed to refine them?” lectured Ye Qingzi.

“Oh, oh, that’s true,” Chu Mu scratched his head and realized a serious mistake he made.

“How long can she sustain her life?” asked Ye Qingzi casually.

“About two months.....” answered Chu Mu on reflex.

“I see,” Ye Qingzi did not say anything further.

Two months of life was a really short time.

Actually, Ye Qingzi did not know if she should pity others, since she might become that pitiful person herself if she was not careful.

Chu Mu watched Ye Qingzi and felt sorry.

Ye Qingzi walked closer instead and leaned onto Chu Mu’s chest.

Chu Mu also wanted to hug her, but looked at the uncontrollable Devil Fire on his body, “It will burn you.”

Ye Qingzi shook her head, “Just let it burn.”

Chapter 1599: Heading To Heaven Palace (1)

New Moon Land was currently sealed up. New Moon Land possessed a vast amount of resources, so its recovery was much faster than the sects in those major factions.

Furthermore, Yu Suo's Invisible Kingdom possessed a huge influence in the entire Zhengming Continent. Currently, those sects which joined the subjugation alliance were facing the fate of getting swallowed by other sects. They could no longer attack New Moon Land again.

As New Moon Land's position suddenly rose up, many factions stayed away from New Moon Land in awe. The reason they did not come to show goodwill was due to taking into consideration the Ancient Flood Dragon Person threat, as well as New Moon Land's current sealed state. They did not allow any faction to get closer at all.

After this war, New Moon Land also became an independent territory in Zhengming Continent.

Chu Mu had nothing to worry about the current New Moon Land. After all, this territory only needed time to develop and nurture future talents to protect this land.

.....

With Chu Mu's current strength, it would not take long to travel between New Moon Land and Zhengming Main City.

After crossing through half of Zhengming Continent, Chu Mu appeared above Zhengming Main City while covered in black Devil Fire.

Nobody had not heard of Dual Evil Half Devil Chu Mu in Zhengming Continent by now. Chu Mu caused quite a commotion after entering Zhengming Main City. Discipline Palace, Grass Sect, Mu Tuan clan and the other sects kept an eye on Chu Mu cautiously.

Grass Sect had more or less been controlled by Yu Suo's subordinates. Mu Tuan clan had also become a clan with just a name. Divine Sect's Discipline Palace still had Vice Sect Master Du, so they were safe.

However, with Yu Suo's rate of control, it would not be long before Divine Sect organized a Sect Conference to expel this Vice Sect Master Du Xian out of Discipline Palace.

Chu Mu did not really have to care about those. He was not only a human leader, but a really powerful human leader amongst the leader rank now. The number of people who could oppose him could be counted in one hand in the entire human territory.

Not only did those people not trouble Chu Mu, they steered clear from him.

.....

In Guang Moon Palace, Evil Good Queen stood in the yard with a semi-transparent attire and examined Chu Mu with sparkling eyes.

Chu Mu's evil aura was even denser. This pure evil aura was enough to let Evil Good Queen reach a level higher. So she was looking at Chu Mu like looking at a delicacy, wanting to suck away all the evil aura from Chu Mu's body.

Bai Jinrou stood at the side, her eyes glared with hostility towards Evil Good Queen. This woman knew Chu Mu would be coming and yet wore so scantily. She really had ulterior motives.

“Black Nightmare is the vessel of evil. This war has been so devastating, all the grudge will gather into your body. You cannot completely digest the grudge with your current soul remembrance,” Evil Good Queen walked to Chu Mu’s side.

At that moment, the black Devil Fire seemed to be leaning towards one direction. The flame seemed to be attracted towards Evil Good Queen.

“Look, they seem to like me as well,” Evil Good Queen curled her lips up and lightly pressed her index finger at Chu Mu’s heart position.

Black-colored energy slowly flowed out from Chu Mu’s heart and wrapped around Evil Good Queen’s finger. The energy slowly flowed into Evil Good Queen’s body like a river.

Evil Good Queen closed her eyes, she seemed to really enjoy this feeling of evil aura lingering around her. Chu Mu could see her purple hair color slowly changing to red. Her pure purple pupils also started to glow red.

After Evil Good Queen drew away the evil aura from Chu Mu, Chu Mu could clearly feel his high body temperature slowly cooling down. Like a sand hourglass, his black Devil Fire and silver Devil Fire gradually returned to a balanced state.

This hourglass flowing speed was not really fast. Evil Good Queen retracted her finger and took a glance at Princess Jinrou, “Let me borrow your lover for one night and help him relieve his pent up energy?”

While saying that, Evil Good Queen purposely approached closer to Chu Mu and took him to her room.

Although Princess Jinrou knew that Evil Good Queen was only going to absorb the evil aura Chu Mu could not control, she still felt uncomfortable after hearing those provocative words.

She could not understand why so many people in Zhengming Main City treated such a woman as a saintess. How could a person wearing such a revealing attire and showing such a seductive smile be related to a saintess?

.....

After entering Evil Good Queen's room, Chu Mu immediately caught wift of a dense fragrance.

This fragrance could cause a person to hallucinate. When Chu Mu turned to look at Evil Good Queen, it even made him feel this woman was no different from being completely nude.

Chu Mu knew what that fragrance was and coldly grinned, "You used this method to build your authority?"

Evil Good Queen knew what Chu Mu was being sarcastic about and smiled without minding it, "Yes, those charmed men will give me everything. This is the easiest method for me to obtain authority."

Since Evil Good Queen frankly admitted it, there was nothing Chu Mu could say.

"That's a lie," Evil Good Queen looked at the speechless Chu Mu and giggled, "Flower nurtures life and is also the mother of nurture. This fragrance certainly has aphrodisiac effect towards humans, but I used it for reproduction between flowers. Think about it, other than you who can enter my room, there are a total of seven restriction formation in the flower garden outside the door. The flower carpet inside the room has a Hidden Fatal Flower Formation which can kill a high class Immortal. There's also an extermination formation above your head.....”

“Oh, that's quite some protective measure. Why didn't you set up these formations in Wanxiang City?” commented Chu Mu.

“Are you blaming me for not showing up during the war?” asked Evil Good Queen. Seeing Chu Mu not answering, Evil Good Queen explained, “Aren't you suspicious about why only Wupan Navy and Ning Family sent up leader rank individuals? There has to be other leader rank individuals supporting the eight faction subjugation alliance in the dark.”

“Never mind, forget about that. Refine the evil aura in my body first,” Chu Mu did not continue on that topic.

“Not in a hurry,” Evil Good Queen shook her head.

“What are you up to this time?” asked Chu Mu.

“Long ago, didn't I tell you to go to a place with me?” said Evil Good Queen.

“I don't remember,” said Chu Mu.

“The time has come, we can go now,” said Evil Good Queen.

“I’m not interested.”

“Then settle the evil aura yourself.”

“.....” Chu Mu became speechless. Was it because he never punished this woman for too long that she started throwing a tantrum?

Evil Good Queen was observing Chu Mu’s expression the whole time. As long as Chu Mu showed any signs of being unhappy, she would behave herself. After all, Chu Mu was the master. Although Evil Good Queen had somewhat understood Chu Mu’s temper, she still had to know when to stop.

“Where?” Chu Mu thought over carefully. The place Evil Good Queen wanted to go usually contained great benefits, so he did not refuse immediately.

“A very dangerous place,” Evil Good Queen decided to keep him in suspense.

“How long?” asked Chu Mu.

“Less than a month. It’s best to bring your new lover. Her Devil Soul sensation and mind reading technique can let us complete the mission faster,” said Evil Good Queen.

Chu Mu looked at Evil Good Queen coldly.

Evil Good Queen changed the topic, “You should know that my rank increases very slowly. That’s because Evil Good Ancestor’s racial rank is even higher than Limbo Flower. My objective this time is to reach tenth stage paragon state. Limbo Flower is the strongest branch race of Evil Good Ancestor's Good property. Limbo Flower possesses resurrection technique. In fact, after my ability improves to a certain extent, I may also be able to completely resurrect her."

"What rank do you need to reach?" asked Chu Mu directly.

"Undying rank," said Evil Good Queen.

"You have a method to reach Undying rank?" asked Chu Mu in surprise.

"Yes, Evil Good Ancestor is a god rank creature in the first place. It's on the same rank as Messiah Tree. It's natural for me to reach Undying rank," said Evil Good Queen.

Chu Mu lamented. If Evil Good Queen reached Undying rank, soul pact or Flower's Stamen would not be able to restrict her. Chu Mu suddenly felt that this Evil Good Queen was even more dangerous than Ancient Flood Dragon Person, and she was right next to him.

"Also, don't you want to know the origin of your little Mo Xie?" asked Evil Good Queen.

"Mo Xie's origin??" Chu Mu was startled and looked at Evil Good Queen in astonishment.

Evil Good Queen reached out and rubbed Mo Xie's furry ears.

Little Mo Xie looked at Evil Good Queen in confusion while laying on Chu Mu's shoulder. It then closed its eyes and continued to sleep.

It was rather strange that despite most of Chu Mu's soul pets unable to endure his high body temperature, Mo Xie was able to calmly sleep on his shoulder. Chu Mu even felt that this heat made it feel really comfortable instead.

"A creature which can keep mutating racially..... This fellow doesn't belong to this world. Otherwise, how can it ignore the laws of life in this world?" said Evil Good Queen.

"Do you know where it came from?" asked Chu Mu as he took a glance at the sleepy little Mo Xie on his shoulder.

Evil Good Queen shook her head, "I don't, but perhaps there is an answer there."

"The place you said is....."

"Didn't you see it from my memories? The place where I jumped down the dark cliff," Evil Good Queen smiled in self-depreciation.

"Heaven Palace!"

Chu Mu looked at Evil Good Queen in astonishment.

She was going to Heaven Palace. Chu Mu still could not forget the shocking scene of White Ocean God sweeping up all the ocean in the world to strike Heaven Palace.

Chapter 1600: Heading To Heaven Palace (2)

Where exactly was Heaven Palace? Was it an isolated space?

Chu Mu had such doubts in his mind.

Evil Good Queen did not tell him the location of Heaven Palace. She only told Chu Mu that it was not a place anyone could enter.

Heaven Palace was mysterious and ancient. Even White Ocean God was unable to destroy it in the past. It was hard to imagine just how powerful the creature which existed in Heaven Palace was.

Chu Mu knew Yu Suo came from Heaven Palace, but he did not know what this woman wanted to do by going there.

He remembered that in her memory shards, she was standing on the edge of a dark cliff. When she jumped into the bottomless abyss, there was a crowd of people next to the cliff.

Chu Mu did not know what exactly happened. He believed that this trip to Heaven Palace would allow him to find out about her story.

Heaven Palace would definitely be an extremely dangerous place. Chu Mu actually did not plan on taking Princess Jinrou along.

Unfortunately, once Princess Jinrou heard that he would be going to Heaven Palace, she was even able to retract her prejudice towards Evil Good Queen.....

Her curiosity was something Chu Mu could not suppress.

During the stay in Guang Moon Palace, Evil Good Queen had been helping Chu Mu to refine the evil aura.

Evil Good Queen was about to reach the tenth phase. Although the evil aura could improve her level, it was still Chu Mu's energy. Evil Good Queen only refined the energy and returned it to Chu Mu. This allowed Chu Mu's strength to gain significant growth.

After the tenth day, Chu Mu's Devil Fire was under complete control. Black and silver were clearly separated, there was no more signs of dominance.

Chu Mu would take a few years to refine the evil aura if he did it by himself. He knew that Evil Good Queen was able to solve this problem for him, but he never expected it to be completed in ten days and also allowed him to grow stronger.

.....

After Devil Fire was suppressed, the three of them headed off to Heaven Palace.

Most humans flew by using soul pets, it was interesting that the three of them could fly by themselves.

Flying from Zhengming Main City to World Spine, it did not take long for the three of them to reach that huge mountain range which separated the two pieces of human continents.

“Where are we going?” asked Princess Jinrou.

“There’s a place called Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss, have you heard about it?” asked Yu Suo.

“Yes,” Princess Jinrou nodded.

Above Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss? In Chu Mu’s impression, Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss should be representing the highest sky in the world. That place must be the third layer of the sky!

“There’s a Heaven Palace in that place? Or are there many people living there?” asked Princess Jinrou.

“You will know after you reach there,” Yu Suo did not say anything more.

.....

World Spine was long and vast. The three of them were flying high in the clouds. The World Spine which crossed through human territory looked like a world dragon lying on the earth.

This was the first time Chu Mu arrived at the World Spine. The area of this endless mountain range was just a little smaller than the human territory.

World Spine Mountain Range was the territory of beast race. When looking down from above, one could see various kinds of beasts moving around in the high mountains. There would always be groups of winged beasts flying past.

For some reason, when looking at the blue sky, it felt that the sky here looked larger than the human continent.

The mountains did not always appear below the clouds. There were occasionally some humongous entities above the clouds. Those were the peaks of tall mountains. However, after reaching the peak of such mountains and continuing to fly at such altitude, there would be another mountain at some place which was even taller, giving off a huge pressure.

“Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss means there are ten thousand mountains with different altitudes like these. Back when the dragon race was still the strongest representative amongst the Demon race, there would be groups of dragons flying around the peaks of all these mountains. However, there’s only emptiness now,” Old Li recalled the past.

“You’re saying it as if you lived for tens of thousands of years,” said Chu Mu.

“I saw them from some Demon race documents. Does young master know which is the strongest dragon race in the world?” asked Old Li.

Chu Mu was unable to answer Old Li’s question.

The highest racial rank amongst the dragon race Chu Mu had encountered was Martial Cloud Dragon. It could reach Immortal rank at the tenth phase, its strength approaching the Five Undying Legends.

However, it was obvious that Martial Cloud Dragon was not the strongest dragon race. Would the strongest dragon race unknown to mankind be at the highest point of this Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss?

“Shashasha~!”

The moment dragon race was mentioned, Little Hidden Dragon appeared to be excited.

It called out in Chu Mu’s soul pet space and wanted Chu Mu to let it out.

Chu Mu actually did not want to summon Little Hidden Dragon, not because he disliked it, but it was too lazy. Even if he summoned it, it would maintain its mini state and sit on Chu Mu’s other shoulder.

This caused Chu Mu to suspect whether he was actually the mount of Mo Xie and Little Hidden Dragon.

Fine fine, stop grumbling,” Little Hidden Dragon would not stop pestering Chu Mu, so he eventually summoned it.

Little Hidden Dragon maintained its ten meter body. Princess Jinrou flew onto Little Hidden Dragon’s back first, then giggled towards Chu Mu.

If there was a way to save stamina, nobody would like to fly at the peak of the sky with thin air. Hence, Yu Suo took one spot without hesitation.

Next, Mo Xie jumped onto Little Hidden Dragon's head and yawned like a kitty while stretching its frontal limbs.

Little Hidden Dragon flapped its wings reluctantly. If it had known this would happen, it would rather sleep in its soul pet space and not work for nothing like this.....

"Your little dragon has enough strength to fly to the highest point of Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss now. After reaching the real Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss, we have to be careful. There are guards of the dragon race there," Yu Suo reminded Chu Mu.

"Are they guarding Heaven Palace?" asked Chu Mu.

"Well, something like that. Later on, I will let Dark King attract their attention. It's best not to alert these guards, or we may not be able to leave there," said Yu Suo.

Little Hidden Dragon continued flying higher and higher towards Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

The color of the sky gradually changed. It was no longer the charming blue color, but an ice cold black color.

Raging wind blew in the sky, the erected mountains looked sharp and intimidating. Little Hidden Dragon had flown to a really high point by now. When looking down, those mountains which they flew past only looked like creases on the ground.

There were still mountains in front of them. Old Li said that there were ten thousand mountains for Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss. Little Hidden Dragon probably flew past half of them.

Wing type Immortal rank creatures could reach such height, this could not be considered the real highest point.

As they continued flying, Chu Mu could sense the surroundings were filled with stagnant spatial elements.

As he looked up, he could see the crimson sun above getting bigger and bigger. The crimson sun seemed unable to light up everything in the sky. He could feel the temperature from the sunlight, but the surroundings were still empty.

“There’s nothing here,” said Princess Jinrou.

“Yes, after the last batch of dragon race living here were killed, this place has become barren.” Yu Suo nodded.

“The last batch of dragon race? Why is it the last batch? Was the dragon race also exterminated?” asked Princess Jinrou.

“It’s not considered extermination, I can only see they are no longer suitable to survive in this era. The entire race is declining. Humans have their human cities, demons have their demon forest, ocean species have their ocean. Beasts have their beast mountain range. However, the dragon race lost their true dragon nest..... In this world, there will always be creatures which reached the peak in the past, and eventually eliminated after years of reproduction and mutation. The more suitable races would replace them. There was only one race and place which could truly last for eternity.....” said Yu Suo calmly.

Princess Jinrou looked at Yu Suo, it was easy to see from her eyes that she wanted to know the answer.

Yu Suo also took a glance at Princess Jinrou and pointed up.

Princess Jinrou immediately understood what the race and place Yu Suo talked about meant. It was Heaven Palace which they were heading to!

“Oh, right,” Yu Suo seemed to have remembered something and spoke to Chu Mu, “Little Hidden Dragon’s mother Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon came from Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss. It..... I can’t count the number of years properly, but there should be survivors in the last batch of dragon race that was killed.”

“It came from here?” Chu Mu was surprised.

From Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss to New Moon Land was a distance that crossed half of the beast race’s territory and more than half of human territory. Back then, Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon should be at Dominator rank. Just how many years did it have to fly to reach New Moon Land?

“Shashasha~! Shashasha~!”

Little Hidden Dragon also heard Yu Suo’s words and cried out.

Chu Mu heard Little Hidden Dragon's voice and felt sorrowful.....

Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon's memory was fragmented. After it escaped the enslavement from Soul Alliance, it should be trying to fly towards its home instinctively.

However, it flew towards Eternal Ocean.

This meant the fatigued Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon already forgot the path to return to Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss. It even chose a direction completely opposite of Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss. In the end, the vast ocean and sky became its burial ground.
