

Soul Pets Bk2 1601

Chapter 1601: Day-Night Wheel (1)

Chu Mu remembered little Mo Xie was brought out by Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon from Soul Alliance.

Ling Chan could only act high and mighty before New Moon Land started to develop. There was no way he was qualified to enter places like Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

This also proved that little Mo Xie might be taken along with Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon coincidentally from Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss to New Moon Land.

Unfortunately, Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon's memory was fragmented, it probably could not even remember where little Mo Xie came from.

"Mo Xie, come here," Chu Mu called Mo Xie which was sitting on Little Hidden Dragon's head to enjoy the wind.

Mo Xie turned around and cried out. It pressed lightly onto Little Hidden Dragon's head and jumped into Chu Mu's bosom.

Chu Mu hugged the furry Mo Xie with his hands and carefully examined its eyes.

"Wuwuwu~!" Mo Xie looked back at Chu Mu in confusion and even acted coquettishly like a little girl.

Seeing its cute behavior, Chu Mu smiled and poked fun at it, "Just where do you come from?"

Mo Xie looked at Chu Mu with an expression showing that it also did not know.

Mo Xie met Chu Mu at the first phase first stage. It was like a newborn infant back then. Its memory fundamentally started after signing soul pact with Chu Mu. As for the things before it hatched, it would not know.

“Can Mo Xie be related to Seven Sins Fox?” Princess Jinrou came over and stroked Mo Xie’s fur.

When Evil Good Queen stroked Mo Xie, Mo Xie simply treated her as air. When Princess Jinrou reached out, Mo Xie would narrow its eyes and appeared really enjoyable. From this, it could be said that Mo Xie’s attitude was similar to Chu Mu. It would like whoever Chu Mu liked, and ignore whoever Chu Mu detested.

“If its mutation stopped at Seven Sins Fox, I would also think that it is related to Seven Sins Fox and even suspect it is related to the shackle of fate Seven Sins Fox shouldered. However, Mo Xie has jumped out of Seven Sins Fox’s range and changed to Hades. Hades Fox Noble is fundamentally different from Seven Sins Fox,” said Chu Mu.

“Ten thousand years is a world wheel. There will always be some illogical creatures appearing within this ten thousand years. Speaking of which, when will it be its next mutation? Its next mutation should be the key mutation. We can more or less judge its origin,” said Yu Suo as she looked at Mo Xie.

Old Li also came out at this moment and spoke while stroking its beard, “According to this mutation pattern, the next mutation should be Undying rank. It seems that there isn’t any creature reaching Undying rank due to racial mutation. More importantly, there shouldn’t be any creature with Undying racial rank, right?”

After Old Li said that, Chu Mu, Bai Jinrou and Yu Suo also started thinking.

Undying racial rank.....

Even an ancient creature like Messiah Tree which was called a god tree could not reach Undying rank directly at tenth phase.

Similarly, Evil Good Ancestor's tenth phase could not reach this godly level. There had to be a period of time for cultivation to reach Undying rank.

Meanwhile, amongst the Five Undying Legends, Limbo Flower which had the highest racial rank only reached peak Immortal rank at tenth phase.

The Light King and Dark King in the past also only reached peak Immortal rank after their sins were pardoned.....

After examining this matter carefully, Chu Mu was surprised to notice there really was no creature with Undying racial rank in this world!

Mo Xie's racial mutation had a pattern. Each mutation would cross over a major rank. Its current racial rank was Hades Fox Noble Purple Emperor at around low class Immortal rank. Then, its next mutation would definitely reach Undying rank.....

However, what would Mo Xie mutate into next time??

The highest racial rank of soul pets was only at peak Immortal rank. There was no creature in this world which had Undying racial rank, how would Mo Xie mutate?

“Looks like Hades Fox Noble should be its last racial mutation. Now that I think about it, it had been so many years since its last mutation. There’s no sign of its bloodline starting to mutate,” said Yu Suo.

Hades was already Mo Xie’s last mutation?

Chu Mu hugged the furry Mo Xie and looked into its silver eyes.....

Those eyes were pure and familiar. Seeing those eyes, Chu Mu felt like seeing his own eyes. All emotions and thoughts could be understood.

Sometimes, Chu Mu even felt that his connection with Mo Xie was not just merely the short period of time since signing the soul pact. He was unable to experience this unique connection with his other soul pets. It seemed that it would be impossible to form such a connection even after dozens of years.

“Wuwuwuwu~!”

While everyone was seriously thinking about Mo Xie’s origin and the next mutation, Mo Xie stretched out one of its tails and tapped into Chu Mu’s soul pet space. It used its tail to sweep some of the snacks Ye Qingzi prepared for it and chewed on them pleasantly.

Mo Xie would never think about such complicated problems with Chu Mu and the others. What it was thinking about was that this snack tasted delicious. Should it share some with Little Hidden Dragon?

Little Hidden Dragon was the most potential competitor of Mo Xie. It was not because Little Hidden Dragon was strong, but because only Little Hidden Dragon which could freely cross through space would steal its treasured snacks. Also, it could do nothing to prevent Little Hidden Dragon from stealing its snacks.

“Don’t just think about eating, look at the fat on your tummy,” Chu Mu pinched Mo Xie’s abdomen.

Due to not fighting for a period of time, Mo Xie had really gotten fatter. It was only eating and sleeping all the time.

“Wuwuwu~!” Mo Xie reluctantly kept the remaining food in Chu Mu’s spatial ring and waved its nine tails.

Suddenly, Mo Xie’s ears stood up as if it noticed something. It turned its head and focused on the highest peak of Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss.

“This place is the highest Myriad Heaven Dragon Mountain,” said Yu Suo as she pointed at the highest peak.

The mountain stood tall and alone in the vast sky!

Raging wind swept past from the mountain peak, stirring up weathered sand. The sand became a unique sand crown under the sunlight and lingered around the mountain peak.

The surface area above the mountain peak was large. It looked like a sharp tower of a castle from afar. However, after truly flying onto the mountain peak, the peak looked like an uneven plain.

Little hidden Dragon carried the three people and one racoon and landed on the highest place of the mountain peak. Taking a glance into the distance, everywhere was filled with empty rocks.

At such a high altitude, wind was the sculptor of art. The entire mountain peak was the sculpting rock, allowing it to carve as it liked.

This carving process had to go through hundreds, thousands, or even tens of thousands of years. There were many rugged rocks piling on the mountain peak unevenly.

“The entire mountain peak is flat, but why are there so many Time Stones?”

Time Stone was one of the hardest rock in this world. It was said that Time Stones were not created by nature, but transformed from the corpses and bones of some creatures. They could exist for an extremely long time in this world.

There were many Time Stones on the mountain peak. The view looked solemn and ancient.

After reaching the mountain peak, Mo Xie seemed to have discovered something and kept dashing between those Time Stones.

However, it returned to Chu Mu’s shoulder after a while and looked disappointed.

“What did you discover?” asked Chu Mu.

Mo Xie shook its head, it seemed that it also did not know what it was looking for.

Princess Jinrou raised her head and sensed above with her soul remembrance. However, there was no sign of Heaven Palace other than the starry sky.

Chu Mu raised his head, he similarly did not see that unknown Heaven Palace.

At this moment, Old Li also raised its head and muttered, “Many powerful individuals from the human race and other races also reached here before, because they found out about Heaven Palace’s existence from some documents. However, after they reached here and looked up, they would not see anything. Further up would be the void sky where even powerful Other type creatures could not survive. They believe in what they see, so many people think that Heaven Palace is just a fictional existence.....”

“Chu Mu, did you see?” asked Princess Jinrou.

“No,” Chu Mu shook his head.

There was no point flying up any further. This mountain peak already represented the highest point of this world. Flying any higher would be the void sky.

There was no air in the void sky, only boundless darkness and spatial storms. It was no different from alternate dimensions. Heaven Palace could not be built in such a chaotic region. Even if it could be hung highly like the stars, no life forms could exist there.

“There’s a restriction,” Yu Suo looked up and calmly spoke, “This restriction hides it away from peoples’ eyes, yet it can look down on the entire world like the sun and moon. It is like a time wheel, hanging on the world axis between Crimson Sol and Black Sol. Just look up from here, you will see its existence soon.”

Yu Suo maintained her posture and did not say anything else. She simply focused on the sun quietly.

The sunray shone onto their faces. This place was already in the starry sky domain. There was no concept of day or night. They would only see the dazzling galaxy and a huge burning crimson sun.

Chapter 1602: Day-Night Wheel (2)

“Wuwuwu~!”

Mo Xie also raised its head and looked at the sun like the others.

Little Hidden Dragon raised its head as well. Although it did not know what everyone was looking for, it did not want to be left out.

Everyone remained quiet for a long time. Just as Chu Mu was about to ask Yu Suo, Yu Suo put her finger on her lips to tell Chu Mu not to talk. Then, she pointed at the edge of the Crimson Sol.

Since it could block the Crimson Sol, the object above them would be either really close to them or extremely large!

As time passed, Crimson Sol also started to slant to one side slowly.

At that moment, Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou noticed the black shadow line appearing on Crimson Sol shifting.....

Accurately speaking, Crimson Sol was moving, but that shadow line did not. This caused it to appear at the edge of Crimson Sol.

“That’s Heaven Palace???” Chu Mu looked at that shadow line in astonishment.

If it was as Yu Suo said, Heaven Palace should be above them. When Crimson Sol was right above them, it would be blocked by Heaven Palace. This meant that the shadow line blocking Crimson Sol was Heaven Palace!

Heaven Palace was a narrow and long floating land. When Crimson Sol was right above everyone, they could only see a shadow line!

“I see, so that’s how it is!” Old Li started shouting at that moment, “There must be some special spatial restriction around Heaven Palace. It caused people to be unable to see it even after standing on Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss’s peak. However, no matter what kind of restriction or illusion, Heaven Palace’s shadow would be cast down when Crimson Sol was hanging right above Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss’s peak! If my study on astrology is not wrong, there should only be one day within a year when Crimson Sol appears right above the peak!”

“Obviously, those who came looking for Heaven Palace in the past never thought about using Crimson Sol to see Heaven Palace’s shadow. Furthermore, they had to find it in such a short time within a year, which is the moment we are experiencing now!”

Old Li exclaimed excitedly.

This was a huge discovery for Old Li which loved researching mysteries.

Furthermore, it had to admit that Heaven Palace hid itself really well. If not for Yu Suo’s reminder and especially picking this time to check, they might never find Heaven Palace however long they tried!

Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou were also astonished. They could not imagine such a special Heaven Palace to be located right above the peak of the world. If this information was spread, the entire human world would be stirred up. Even other races might be astonished.

“How many people know it in this world?” asked Chu Mu as he looked at Yu Suo.

“This is a secret belonging to era’s strongest. None would know the true existence of Heaven Palace before reaching Undying rank. Even if they heard about various rumors, they will never find Heaven Palace,” said Yu Suo.

“Why do you know about it? Are you an era’s strongest?” asked Princess Jinrou immediately.

“Me? I came from there,” Yu Suo laughed in self-deprecation.

Chu Mu saw Heaven Palace from the White Ocean God battle in Heaven Boundary Monument, hence he knew that Yu Suo came out from this Heaven Palace.

Princess Jinrou looked at Yu Suo in disbelief. She had never imagined Yu Suo actually came out from Heaven Palace. This was why Yu Suo always carried a transcendence aura.

“Let’s go. This is our sole chance of getting into Heaven Palace, we have to wait one year if we miss this chance,” Yu Suo did not say anything further.

Holy blue light shone from her back and stretched into petal-like semi-transparent wings. She flew straight towards the shadow cast from Crimson Sol.

Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou immediately followed behind.

The higher they flew, the greater the resistance they felt.

An entire floating land only left a thin shadow line after getting cast down. This meant it was still a long distance away from Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss's peak.

After flying for a while, that shadow gradually became thicker. They could vaguely see this floating land.

"There's a restriction ahead. I will open the restriction. However, after entering there, you must hide your presence. Bai Jinrou, you must help us keep alert using your sensing ability. Remind us where there is energy or aura fluctuation," Yu Suo used mental voice to instruct Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou.

Princess Jinrou nodded.

At that moment, Crimson Sol was clearly going to shift. They would no longer be able to see Heaven Palace's shadow soon.

With the existence of restriction, even if Heaven Palace was right in front of them, they still could not see this unique heavenly land itself.

Yu Suo chanted an incantation and Chu Mu could see a clear spatial ripple in front of her.

Soon, a layer of pale restriction appeared in front of Yu Suo. This restriction was repelled by Yu Suo using some unknown power. She opened up a tiny hole on the restriction.

Looking through this hole, Chu Mu saw a greenish black-colored land.

This appeared like poking a hole on the thin wall paint and seeing the actual wall from this hole.....

“Be careful, the creature guarding the restriction is very strong, even Dark King may not be able to fight it,” reminded Yu Suo once again.

After that, Yu Suo signaled Princess Jinrou who could turn into ghost state and possessed a strong sensing ability to enter first.

Chu Mu was worried about Princess Jinrou’s safety and wanted to enter with her. After all, Heaven Palace was an unknown and dangerous place.

Yu Suo held Chu Mu back and stared at him, “Don’t ruin the plan with your manly act now.”

“It’s fine, I can escape faster than you if something happens,” said Princess Jinrou with a smile.

Princess Jinrou’s body began to glow pale blue and turn semi-transparent.

This ability was similar to Little Hidden Dragon. They could transform into a ghost state and recover to their original state according to their will.

Spectral Princess lightly drifted past the restriction. A huge piece of land hanging upside down immediately entered Princess Jinrou's view.

This felt like flying inside a planet. Even though she was at an extremely high altitude, she could see a piece of land above her!

This piece of land appeared to be a huge wheel shape. It stood vertically, which meant the land stretched towards the sky!

This astonishing scene caused Princess Jinrou to be stunned. It took a long time before she snapped back and unleashed her sensing ability in a hurry.

"There's no danger, you can enter," Princess Jinrou reported with mental voice.

Soon, Chu Mu and Yu Suo also flew past the restriction.

Similarly, when Chu Mu saw this wheel-like land, he was astonished!

Try imagining how astonishing the scene of a flat piece of land hanging vertically in the sky could be. This vertical piece of land was none other than Heaven Palace!

"The gravity in this place has a different direction, try get used to it," said Yu Suo.

Originally, Princess Jinrou and Chu Mu were flying up from the earth. However, after passing through the Heaven Palace restriction, they felt like flying parallel to the ground. They could also feel Heaven Palace's gravity to be perpendicular to the heavenly land.

Gravity was actually insignificant to people at the level of Chu Mu. It took a while to get used to it.

Meanwhile, Princess Jinrou asked out of curiosity, "Why is Heavenly Palace hanging vertically like this?"

"Some isolated spaces may not share the same directional force with normal spaces. In any case, as long as there is gravity, treating the gravity as down will not really affect anything," said Chu Mu.

There was no direction in a void space. Chu Mu did not really find it bizarre for Heaven Palace to have such strange gravity.

"Chu Mu, look, there seems to be a city there. There are also buildings completely made of jade!" said Princess Jinrou as she pointed on the wheel-shaped land after adjusting her direction.

Chu Mu took a glance in the direction and saw an entire city almost completely in jade color. It looked really eye-catching and holistic on this greenish black land.

Meanwhile, within that city, there was a grandiose building. That was exactly the Heaven Palace Chu Mu saw in Heaven Boundary Monument!

"They seem to share a similar style as us humans. There are streets, buildings and yards..... So humans live in Heaven Palace," said Princess Jinrou.

Chu Mu already knew that humans lived in Heaven Palace. However, one thing could be certain. The racial rank of humans in Heaven Palace was very high. Otherwise, how could they live in a sky city like gods and look down on the entire world?

Princess Jinrou had many questions. She would always be curious about mysterious things. She wanted to ask Yu Suo, but noticed Yu Suo's expression appeared to be strange from the moment she passed through Heaven Palace's restriction.

Her gaze appeared to be cold, aloof and emotionless, yet at the same time, it seemed to be suppressing a certain feeling from being expressed.

Chapter 1603: Heavenly Land's Bloodiness

There would always be some black dots around Heaven Palace gradually enlarging and then disappearing in some place.

Those should be people patrolling Heaven Palace. The soul pets they rode on were mostly dragons.

After entering Heaven Palace, Yu Suo never spoke a single word. Chu Mu could sense a great fluctuation in Yu Suo's emotion through soul pact. At the same time, she was suppressing herself from expressing her emotion.

As they approached closer and closer to that white city, the security became tighter and tighter.

"There seems to be really strong creatures guarding the various places around the city. We have to enter this city from another place," said Princess Jinrou.

“Follow me,” Yu Suo finally spoke.

Yu Suo led everyone around the front of that white city and flew towards an independent town at the side of the white city.

This white town was connected to the white city. However, there were some white city walls separating the town from the white city.

They could sense that the aura of experts in this town was weaker.

The streets were paved with white jade. Various ancient diagrams were carved on the surface.

The buildings were similarly white. They were so clean they looked like they were crafted from ice crystals.

There were no shops. It could be concluded that no form of trade occurred here.

Chu Mu did not see any plants here. Even though the entire region seemed to be filled with a special Immortal aura, something felt missing without the decoration of plants.

People were hardly seen on the white streets. Those people might be staying in the houses or gathered somewhere.

“The living conditions here are not so different from human cities, but everyone born here will undergo strict training. A portion of them will stay in Heaven Palace to become guardians, while another portion will be sent to the earth and manage the human race to a certain extent,” Yu Suo knew about Chu Mu’s question and explained before he could ask.

Chu Mu looked at her. Seeing that she was expressionless, he said, “Your emotion is unstable.”

Yu Suo pretended not to hear it and continued, “Then, those living in this town are the eliminated batch. They were unable to become Heaven Palace guards or agents sent to the human race. So they were exiled to live here.”

“Monotonous?” Yu Suo felt that this word was inaccurate and corrected, “They are already dead people.”

“Why do you say that?” asked Chu Mu.

“It’s about time. We can just watch quietly here,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu glanced to the distance and noticed the Crimson Sol had already disappeared by now. A beautiful silver full moon replaced it.

The silver moonlight showered down onto this white town. The scene appeared to be out of a painting.

Just as Chu Mu was about to comment on the beautiful moonlight, the silver moon was suddenly covered with a layer of blood-colored film. This thin film caused the pure silver moonlight to become blurry and the moonlight showering down turned red.

Rumble rumble~!

Suddenly, the ground and the town began shaking!

A gust of wind swept across from outside the town.

Next, scary roars rang out from far away which sounded hungry and savage.

Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou looked outside of the town and noticed black-winged creatures suddenly appearing from the starry sky. There was also a group of powerful creatures dashing towards the town on the flat land. Some strangely-shaped creatures were crawling out from the pits and holes on the rocky ground. Pairs of bloodshot eyes were exuding cruel glows!

They were all swarming towards this white city. More accurately speaking, towards the white town isolated from the city.

At that moment, the doors of those houses in the town suddenly opened. Chu Mu saw many people walking out from inside and gathered on the streets.

Those people were not weak. However, Chu Mu could not understand why they never summoned their soul pets to fight back against the rampaging monsters.

Furthermore, there were many experts inside the city. They seemed to be neglecting this monster rampage, as if they were not worried about the monsters breaching their city.

Soon, the streets were stuffed full of people in this town.

Nobody took the lead and these people just walked out of the town in rows. Their gaze appeared to be strange.

According to Chu Mu's understanding, when a city was under attack by monsters. The people in the city should be showing a scared or furious gaze. However, Chu Mu saw that those people showed a hollowed gaze.

Even though they had their own thoughts and appeared to be normal people, or could even be considered elites in the human territory, they only walked out of the town like corpses.

There were about three thousand people, none summoned a soul pet in the end.

“Huo!”

A rock type monster that looked like a centipede and snake suddenly dug out from the greenish black soil and bit down. In an instant, over a hundred people were swallowed. Patches of blood spilled onto the people in the surroundings.

By now, the crowd started to panic. They began spreading out.

Humans without soul pets were really weak. Those monsters did not even need to use any techniques and could easily tore humans apart or directly swallow them.

Bloody, broken limbs, heads, and tattered torsos scattered around. Bones of those eaten people were soon spat out.

The three thousand people walked out of the protection area. They were completely like humanoid feeds thrown into a group of wild beasts. They were instantly eaten up.

Princess Jinrou shut her eyes and did not dare to continue watching such a bloody scene.

Chu Mu looked at the scene in shock and could not understand why those people did not fight back.....

It felt like those people were feeding the monsters with their lives. What was more shocking was that the guards in the city were just standing on the city wall and watched those people getting eaten.

Soon, the three thousand people were all eaten up. A horrifying pond of blood appeared outside the city.

Those monsters which devoured the humans seemed to have calmed down. Some even had human intestines hanging next to their mouths as they returned to their nests satisfiedly.

Heaven Palace was like an Immortal realm. There were white buildings, sacred Immortal aura, as well as a beautiful silver moon. Chu Mu thought it would be a heavenly place literally. However, not long after entering here, he witnessed the most bloody and barbaric scene. He could not understand why those people simply let themselves get eaten.

“How can this be..... Why aren’t they fighting back? Even if they are no match for the monsters, the city guards are very strong. Why aren’t they fighting?” asked Princess Jinrou furiously.

“The moment they are eliminated, they are dead people. In your world, aren’t there acts of using the livestock to feed the beasts? Just don’t treat them as humans,” said Yu Suo.

She remained expressionless as she watched the entire process.

Her gaze seemed as emotionless as those city guards. It was as if everything was natural.

However, no matter how she disguised it, Chu Mu could sense her emotion fluctuation. There was rage, grudge, sorrow and helplessness!

Yu Suo seemed to have noticed Chu Mu inspecting her internal feelings and coldly swept a glance at him.

With the soul pact, those obvious emotion fluctuations were shared. Chu Mu did not purposely inspect her emotions.....

“You actually cared about those people?” asked Chu Mu.

Yu Suo hated such questions which probed her internal feelings. She gritted her teeth and stared at Chu Mu, “So what if I care?”

“Why not save them?” asked Chu Mu.

“Save? This is not the vast world. Humans can only live on this isolated Heavenly Land. There are countless savage creatures also living on this Heavenly Land. They have an endless number and reproduce much faster than humans. Those born in Heaven City undergo strict training from young. Once they are treated as the weak, there is no meaning in their lives. What they can do for Heaven City is to use their flesh and feed those hungry monsters to avoid the city getting attacked,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu became silent.

Certainly, Heaven Palace was in a completely isolated environment. If Heaven Palace was constantly under the threat of monster attacks, the value of the weak was near zero. Even if they wanted to escape, Heavenly Land was only this big, where could they escape to?

“Did you do something for them in the past?” asked Chu Mu.

Chu Mu saw a portion of Yu Suo’s memory. It was very fragmented, but some of those fragments appeared to be related to what he just witnessed.

Yu Suo’s purple eyes glowed coldly.

The thing every masked person was scared of the most was to get seen through, especially someone like Yu Suo with personality change. However, be it Yu Suo's aloofness or determination, be it Evil Good Queen's seductiveness and indulgence, there was only one thing in her heart. It was also the thing she did not want anyone to touch on.

However, there was someone who could see her heart bare despite all those layers of protections.

This person was also the person she hated the most.

After giving Chu Mu her Flower's Stamen and completely lost the chance to turn the table around, Yu Suo really tried to interact peacefully with Chu Mu.....

However, it could not be helped, this man was truly detesting! Even though she helped him with so many things, he still could not understand how to respect the sacred and untouchable privacy of others!

Chapter 1604: Totem Maiden!

"There is a drop of God Dew in Heaven Palace. Normally speaking, if I want to reach tenth phase, I have to cultivate for a total of ten years without external aid. If I obtain this God Dew, I can easily reach the tenth phase," Yu Suo changed the topic.

"We are infiltrating Heaven Palace?" asked Princess Jinrou.

"You have to stay here," Yu Suo told Princess Jinrou.

"Me?" Princess Jinrou pointed at herself.

“Yes, Heaven Palace has another restriction, only people from Heaven Palace can enter. You have to help me with one thing,” said Yu Suo.

“What?” asked Princess Jinrou.

Princess Jinrou looked at the scroll confusedly. She saw lines in the shape of a city drawn on the scroll.

“This is the map of Heaven Palace I drew according to my memory. There are twelve big nodes and thirty-six small nodes marked on it. You have to infiltrate to the closest spot you can reach for these twelve big nodes and scatter these seeds near them. Then go for the thirty-six small nodes. The security at the small nodes is not so strict, you have to scatter these flower seeds accurately onto the nodes,” said Yu Suo.

Princess Jinrou took the scroll and the seeds and still seemed confused.

“This is the greatest guarantee on whether we can safely leave here. You can change to your ghost state and even possess a person. Only you can easily infiltrate into these nodes,” explained Yu Suo. As if knowing Chu Mu would worry about Princess Jinrou’s safety, she continued, “Rest assured. There are not many experts in Heaven City. She can handle them even if there are. The truly dangerous is inside Heaven Palace. After God Dew helps me reach the tenth phase, I will set up a life formation to extend Bai Jinrou’s life. Although I cannot completely resurrect her, it isn’t a problem to extend another few years.”

Since it was related to Princess Jinrou’s life extension, Chu Mu had to give it a try.

“Alright, be careful,” Princess Jinrou nodded.

Heaven City’s guards were mostly gathered near the town when the monsters feasted on the people.

This also gave Chu Mu’s group an easier time to infiltrate into the city.

After entering Heaven City, they would be fine by mixing into the crowds.

There were many people on the streets and did not appear any different from humans. However, Chu Mu felt something was missing.

After entering Heaven City, Princess Jinrou separated from the two and went to spread the seeds at those nodes according to the plan.

This was related to whether Chu Mu could safely escape from Heaven Palace, Princess Jinrou treated it very seriously.

Yu Suo told Princess Jinrou that there would be female soul pet trainers with unique attires guarding at every node. What she had to do was to choose one with a weaker will and possess her. Then, she would be able to approach closer to the nodes easily.

When Princess Jinrou reached the first big node, she found those female soul pet trainers wearing handsome attires.

These female soul pet trainers rode on silver dragons, all of them seemed quite strong.

For some reason, Princess Jinrou felt that these female soul pet trainers wearing holy blue colored attire had some sort of relationship to Yu Suo. Otherwise, their style would not be so similar to Yu Suo.

After flying past Heaven City, the holy altar-like Heaven Palace was right in front.

Seeing this grandiose palace, Chu Mu recalled the astonishing scene of White Ocean God sweeping up a huge wave to wash over this Heaven Palace.

“How do we enter?” asked Chu Mu.

There was a restriction at Heaven Palace. Chu Mu could clearly sense the power of this restriction.

Even Undying rank White Ocean God was unable to destroy this mysterious palace, this meant there must be Undying rank experts inside this Heaven Palace. The restriction around Heaven Palace was also not something that could be crushed by force.

“Just walk inside,” said Yu Suo.

“Walk inside?” Chu Mu was surprised.

Heaven Palace’s white stairs were right before them. Yu Suo walked up the stairs lightly.....

After climbing over half of the stairs, the Heaven Palace guards at the two sides remained standing there like statues. They did not even take a glance at Yu Suo or Chu Mu.

As they continued climbing, not a single guard stopped them.

Seeing Yu Suo’s confident attitude, Chu Mu felt that she looked like a queen returning to her own palace. There was not a little incongruity, while he felt uneasy instead.

“What’s going on? Why are they not stopping you?” asked Chu Mu with mental voice.

This staircase was the only entrance to Heaven Palace without restriction. However, there were two Spirit Immortal rank experts standing guard at every big stair. There were at least a hundred people guarding the staircase.

In human territory, Chu Mu could be considered invincible. However, these Heaven Palace guards caused him to feel wary. If they were found out to be invaders, it would probably be impossible to leave!

“They don’t recognize me, while I have the unique sigil and aura of Heaven Palace members. They will only treat me as one of the Totem Maidens. You and I have a soul pact, so you will also carry such sigil and aura. However, if Bai Jinrou was here, she would be blocked. They will notice her even if she hid in your ring,” said Yu Suo.

“Totem Maiden, what’s that?” asked Chu Mu.

“The Heaven Palace women who protect the twelve big nodes and thirty-six small nodes. They have the ability to set up and repair diagrams like me. They are a group of people who receive the most respect in Heaven Palace,” said Yu Suo.

“In that case, you were Heaven Palace’s Totem Maiden in the past?” asked Chu Mu.

“Yes,” Yu Suo nodded.

Chu Mu was enlightened.

It was no wonder only Yu Suo could set up diagrams in the world. The diagram culture was passed down from Heaven Palace.

“Is Imprint Valley’s light diagram related to you?” asked Chu Mu.

“Diagram Valley is something very long ago. It’s perhaps a racial curse set up by a certain god rank Totem Maiden. I’m not sure either,” said Yu Suo.

Only Heaven Palace's Totem Maidens could set up diagrams. Chu Mu felt that he had grasped a clue on the reason Seven Sins Foxes were cursed.

Yu Suo took a glance at Chu Mu and guessed what he thought, "Totem Palace certainly recorded all the diagrams Totem Maidens had set up in history, especially large formations which affected the world. However, Totem Palace is the place with the strictest security in the entire Heaven Palace. I don't recommend going there. We must leave immediately after obtaining God Dew. Heaven Palace is scarier than your imagination."

"Aren't you a Totem Maiden? Can't you just walk into Totem Palace like now?" asked Chu Mu.

The Seven Sins Fox incident had always been in Chu Mu's mind. If he could not get to the bottom of this incident, he would be stuck with this problem forever.

Especially when he recalled the two Light Kings leaning onto each other to wait for Imprint Valley's collapse, he would feel sorrowful for them. It felt like watching two old friends passing away and yet he could do nothing.

Yu Suo saw Chu Mu's desperate gaze to find out the truth and hesitated for a moment.

"Fine. Actually, that document was used to be on the bookshelf inside my room. It's just that I was not interested in such ancient matters at my age back then. I only browsed through a few times when I was bored. I have only read about diagrams over the past thousand years, I haven't checked those ten thousand years," said Yu Suo.

"....." Chu Mu was speechless.

Many unsolvable mysteries in this world were related to totems and diagrams. People were unable to explain who set up those totems and diagrams. There were also people trying to study those ancient text and sigils in order to solve the mystery of diagrams.....

In the end, all of those secrets were recorded in a document. This document was left on the bookshelf of a woman.

After entering Heaven Palace, Chu Mu felt as if he entered a giant's ppe. A single carved pattern on the jade pillar was about the same size as him!

The palace was solemn and quiet. Every person walking past them had a stern attitude. It was as if anyone who laughed in this palace would be considered a sin.

Every person talked with a low volume and maintained stable steps. The only sounds were the clinking sound of armor and clicking sound of high heels.

While walking past those white halls, Chu Mu noticed every person in here carried a unique aura. This aura let them appear more elite when standing amongst normal people. This was probably the superiority from birth.

Just like some high racial rank soul pets, they were born with the aura to rule over weaker creatures. The people here were similar, they were handsome, beautiful and prideful.

“There is also a group of people below that carried such superiority,” Yu Suo told Chu Mu.

Chu Mu took a glance at Yu Suo. When he saw her internal emotion, she would put up a defensive and frustrated appearance. However, she had been peeking at his own emotions all the time.....

“Who?” Chu Mu could not be bothered about her.

“Two royalties,” said Yu Suo.

“How are they related to Heaven Palace?”

“I told you that a portion of the people born here will stay in Heaven Palace and Heaven City to become guards. Another portion will be sent to the human world.....”

“They are the human royalties in your world.”

Chapter 1605: The Terrifying Heaven Palace

As they got closer to Totem Palace, Chu Mu noticed more females around them.

There would always be a group of women wearing elegant blue long skirts walking with matching steps. They were beautiful and well proportioned. It added a little scenery to this cold palace.

“What’s there to see about these women?” Yu Suo plainly spoke, “Some of these Totem Maidens may look pure and elegant, but their hearts are even crueler than devils. In their eyes, human life is even cheaper than livestock!”

“You are also a Totem Maiden, why are you depreciating yourself?” asked Chu Mu.

“I never said that I’m not one of them. For some reason, even though many knew that they are devils, those men would do anything to get close to them. Those men always dreamt of plucking the poisonous flower to slowly enjoy..... Hehe, they have seen plenty of such men. Just a gaze and a gesture could make those men obediently offer everything,” said Yu Suo.

“You know that really well. So you’re also using this advantage to gather your faction?” commented Chu Mu.

Yu Suo was frustrated. Chu Mu just had to mock her for every sentence she said.

“Yes, you are my first trophy, a fool who gave me two soul pact slots,” Yu Suo counterattacked.

Chu Mu had long put down those past grudges. He plainly spoke, “Don’t assume every person has ulterior motives. Perhaps, some of these pursuers purely loved them. Although they knew it would be impossible, they still hoped they could obtain it and worked hard for it.”

Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu strangely. In the past, whenever she mentioned this matter, Chu Mu would send her back into soul pet space. Yet he could actually correct her paranoid view with a calm attitude. She even suspected whether he was really Chu Mu.

“You’re saying that when you offered your two soul pact slots.....” said Yu Suo coldly as she turned her face to the side.

When Yu Suo mentioned that, Chu Mu also began thinking about this issue.

Why did he offer two soul pact slots to her back then? Was it because she was so beautiful that he was charmed by her? Or because he felt pity for her pitiful plead?

Chu Mu could not remember something that happened so long ago and muddled it over, “At that age, it’s normal to extend a helping hand to those who needed help.”

Looking back at all the past events, Chu Mu was already not so stuck up on the past after experiencing so many things.

Before signing the soul pact with Yu Suo, he was just a youth who was purely seeking the path of soul pet trainer. If he did not meet her, he might be on the same path as a soul pet trainer with most people.

However, because of her, his values changed. His kindness was lost and turned to evil.

He cursed the world, got used to betrayal and had a completely selfish mindset. However, after going through the baptism of Monument Tear and war, as well as many events which struck his heart string, his mindset changed once again.

Saying that he was kind, that was because he treated the entire New Moon Land as something he had to protect. However, when facing the subjugation alliance, he would be cruel instead, and could even be considered evil.

“Pure kindness will eventually be corroded by external factors. Pure evil will eventually bring about numbness and confusion,” lamented Chu Mu.

Every person kept changing between the two extremes, some had a larger fluctuation while the others smaller. However, they would eventually approach a stationary point.

Chu Mu was also unsure if his stationary point had become stable.

Yu Suo stopped walking. She stood at the center of this jade hall and calmly focused on Chu Mu with her purple eyes.

“Are you trying to say that my perspective is still too extreme and immature?” asked Yu Suo.

In Yu Suo’s eyes, Chu Mu was an extreme and incomprehensible lunatic. Everything he did was out of an idealistic mindset. If not for his good luck to possess so many powerful soul pets, he would have died countless times.

However, Yu Suo realized that Chu Mu’s mindset had really changed, perhaps he was also not young anymore.

“More or less,” said Chu Mu.

Thinking carefully, Chu Mu felt that it was meaningless to discuss life philosophy with Yu Suo. This woman was already extremely intelligent, her value was deeply rooted, especially about hatred.....

Yu Suo stayed silent for a while and spoke with a low volume, “On the day you met me, it’s the tenth day I jumped down from the cliff and turned into a monster. It’s also the first time from good to evil you mentioned.....”

“Hmm, tell me about it,” Chu Mu nodded.

Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu and hesitated for a moment.....

She did not speak in the end and continued walking towards Totem Palace.

After the two became silent, only the sounds of footsteps could be heard in the hall. Yu Suo's footsteps sounded a little messier than before.

After entering Totem Palace, due to the majority of the people being female, it was a little livelier than the other areas of Heaven Palace.

Suddenly, a dark yellow immortal rabbit jumped past Chu Mu's front.

The little immortal rabbit was very cute. It was meaty and fluffy, as if urging others to hug it.

Little immortal rabbit looked at Chu Mu and Yu Suo with its pure eyes. At that moment, a little girl wearing a long skirt chased out from a turning hallway.

“Don't run around!” The little girl hugged that little immortal rabbit up and then looked at Chu Mu and Yu Suo.

“Sister, why are you wearing a veil? Are you afraid of others recognizing you?” asked the little girl.

Yu Suo stood there and looked at the little girl in a daze.

The little girl was about eleven or twelve years old. She was polite and cute like a little princess.

“Yes, there are many bad people here,” Yu Suo smiled and stroked the little girl’s purple hair gently.

“No way, the people here are all nice. The bad person is this brother, his aura is so strange, it feels like those monsters which eat people,” said the little girl as she pointed at Chu Mu.

“.....” Chu Mu was speechless.

What was with this world? A Heaven Palace’s little girl easily saw through his core?

He was just thinking about the life philosophy of good and evil, thinking about whether he should be considered a good person or evil person.....

Hearing the little girl’s remark, Yu Suo smiled.

“Sister looks so pretty when smiling if you don’t wear a veil. Can I see sister’s appearance.....” said the little girl sweetly.

“You will also look pretty after growing up,” said Yu Suo.

“Really?”

“Yes,” Yu Suo maintained her smile, “If you have the chance to grow up.....”

Right after saying that, Yu Suo manifested a demonic flower in her palm!

A poisonous thorn appeared on the demonic flower. This thorn easily poked through the little girl’s hair onto her neck.

The little girl’s smile suddenly stiffened. Before she could react, Yu Suo’s demonic flower poisonous thorn already stabbed deep into her neck. The poison was rapidly injected into her body.

The little girl was originally wearing a blue long skirt, but her clothes soon became grey as if she was petrified.

The little girl slumped down slowly, her eyes stared wide open and carried a little disbelief in her innocent look.

Meanwhile, the dark yellow immortal rabbit in her bosom suddenly leapt up and pounced towards Yu Suo.

Yu Suo narrowed her eyes and this immortal rabbit was stopped in midair. Its yellow body immediately turned grey like a non-living thing.

Chu Mu frowned while standing at the side. He looked at the lifeless little girl and immortal rabbit suspiciously.

Tatata~!

Clicking sounds of high heels came from the distance. It was clear that someone was coming.

Yu Suo waved her hand. Petals showered onto the little girl's grey body. Soon, the little girl was decomposed into pollens by the petals and scattered in this hall.

Tatatatatata~!

The sharp heels elegantly portrayed the alluring proportions of these Totem Maidens. They took a glance towards Chu Mu and Yu Suo, then continued walking out without noticing anything strange.

She took away two lives in an instant. They were also harmless being like a little girl and a rabbit.

“She is Heaven Palace’s patrol, she looks like a little girl..... Hehe, her actual age may be over a hundred,” said Yu Suo calmly.

“Over a hundred??” said Chu Mu in shock.

That little girl clearly looked her age, how could she be over a hundred years old?

“She was like this when I was three, she was still like this when I was fifteen. She probably recognized me just now, but was unsure. Because she personally witnessed my death,” said Yu Suo.

“She purposely came to probe?” asked Chu Mu.

“Yes,” Yu Suo nodded without any pity, “She took away girls around this age and used their lives to exchange for her current young body. This shocking news was discovered by me. Unfortunately, before I could execute her, I was already replaced..... Hehe, she came to probe me just now because she wanted to take off my veil. However, does she think I’m still as weak as before?”

“Your Heaven Palace is really scary,” Chu Mu felt a chill.

He did not put up much guard towards that little girl just now because he recalled his first encounter with Ning Maner when seeing her.

“Heaven Palace has existed for a really long time, and in a sealed state at that. The sickness and dirtiness inside is something you can’t imagine,” said Yu Suo disgustedly.

Chapter 1606: Totem Palace

Totem Palace's guards were certainly more than the other places. After actually reaching Totem Palace, Chu Mu noticed some special colored paintings on the white walls. These colored paintings contained secret mechanism diagrams. One just had to chant the incantation and this quiet palace would immediately become a terrifying slaughter hell!

Heaven Palace's guards all wore white robes, while most women wore blue attires. Along the way, Chu Mu encountered mostly Spirit Dominator and Spirit Immortal rank people. There was almost nobody weaker than these. This proved that the average strength of people here was much higher than Zhengming Continent and Wupan Continent.

In only one city, there seemed to be countless Immortals.

After walking into the white jade palace, Yu Suo purposely walked closer to Chu Mu and held onto Chu Mu's arm.

Usually, only Ye Qingzi and Ning Maner would hold Chu Mu's arm. Chu Mu saw Yu Suo suddenly acting like this and looked at her strangely.

Yu Suo spoke without expression, "Totem Palace does not really allow male without identity to enter. I'm holding your arm like this to indicate towards those guards and Totem Maidens that you have a higher position than me in Heaven Palace. This way, they won't come forward to question....."

Chu Mu nodded and understood her intention.

Yu Suo felt a little frustrated. The expression Chu Mu had just now could be described as horrified. She was not ugly, did he have to show that kind of expression?

In fact, Evil Good Queen would always tease Chu Mu by blowing into his ears when talking. Facing such seduction and intimate contact, Chu Mu would ignore most of the time. It could be said that Evil Good Queen was purposely challenging Chu Mu's tenacity.

However, Yu Suo would never do that. Her grudge towards Chu Mu had reached the limit. She took an attitude of mutual sacrifice most of the time if he intended to harass her.

As expected, after entering Totem Palace, many Totem Maidens and guards would look at Yu Suo first, then examine Chu Mu inconspicuously.

Chu Mu was a high class Immortal, this strength was unquestionable. Although some guards thought Chu Mu was unfamiliar, they could sense the Heaven Palace aura from him, so nobody questioned them.

Hence, Chu Mu and Yu Suo successfully entered Totem Palace's back palace.

"Where are we doing?" asked Chu Mu.

"The place I used to live," said Yu Suo.

As they continued advancing, Chu Mu saw an isolated jade white pavilion. This pavilion was much more luxurious than the other Totem Maidens' yards. It looked very eye-catching.

This was clearly the living place of a Totem Maiden with really high position. Both the guards and the style exuded a holistic supreme aura.

“There is another restriction here. I don’t know if that restriction has been changed. If it has, we cannot enter,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu carefully examined this elegant and luxurious pavilion. He noticed the guards here were very strong. He could even sense the aura of high class Immortals!

“This is where you used to live? Why are there such strong guards?” asked Chu Mu in astonishment.

There was a guard tower next to the pavilion. A huge white dragon coiled at the top of the tower.

If he did not look carefully, he might assume that was a dragon-shaped decoration on the guard tower. He almost neglected the existence of such a powerful white dragon.

On the single horn of this white dragon, a white-armored man stood there.

This man kept shoulder-length hair and looked different from other guards. He was rather casual and held something like a wine bottle. He seemed to be enjoying wine.

There were over ten Spirit Immortal rank guards. They were not weak, but they appeared to be really respectful towards this man from their gaze.

Chu Mu did not dare to use soul remembrance to inspect this person's actual strength. That would definitely be noticed by this expert.

"Who is that?" asked Chu Mu.

"One of Heaven Palace's three royal guard generals, Qin Ji. He should be from the human world. His behavior is a little different from the strict Heaven Palace members," said Yu Suo.

"His white dragon seems to be even stronger than Magistrate Xiao's," said Chu Mu.

"This is not his strongest soul pet," said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu was shocked. That white dragon was already almost as strong as Dark King, yet it was not Qin Ji's strongest soul pet??

If this guy was on the ground, would he not be the leader amongst leaders?

"What's your identity in Heaven Palace? Why is there such a powerful individual guarding your living place?" asked Chu Mu.

"Heaven Palace is divided into Totem Palace, Guardian Palace and Wheel Palace. The highest authority holders are Totem Maiden Goddess, Guardian God and Wheel God respectively," said Yu Suo.

“They are called gods?” Chu Mu was astonished.

Thinking carefully, Heaven Palace called the ground as the human world. They lived in such a palace in the sky. Furthermore, they were stronger than humans due to bloodline advantage. This Totem Palace was also the most important place in Heaven Palace, the person living in the best pavilion in the palace was certainly qualified to be called god.

“You’re living in this pavilion, doesn’t that mean.....” Chu Mu suddenly realized this problem and looked at Yu Suo in shock.

He had thought Yu Suo was some demon who pretended to be a goddess just because of some Immortal aura on her.

The truth was that this woman was really a goddess who fell from Heaven Palace. That explained the sacred aura she carried and how she could easily make others submit to her.

“I’m not Totem Maiden Goddess.....” Yu Suo shook her head and was about to explain, but she suddenly frowned and looked towards an arch bridge within the goddess pavilion.

The arch bridge connected straight to the goddess building. There was a clear pond in the yard. Two people stood on the bridge.

Chu Mu had seen one of them before, it was that Mister Yu who was in the subjugation alliance camp.

Currently, he was talking to a lady wearing a holy blue elegant robe and walking towards the goddess building.

As if sensing something, that Mister Yu looked towards the place Yu Suo and Chu Mu were at. The two of them reacted immediately and hid behind a white wall nearby.

“Yu Tian, haven’t seen you in a while,” On the guard tower, Qin Ji spoke to Mister Yu while drinking.

“Speaking of which, I haven’t been there for many years, any powerful ones appeared there?” asked Qin Ji.

“They aren’t a match for you no matter how many there are,” said Yu Tian.

“True. Nobody is my opponent in the human world, this Heaven Palace is also very boring..... Goddess is setting up a formation, don’t disturb her. Let Maiden transmit the message if there is anything,” said Qin Ji.

“Then we will visit later,” said Yu Tian.

After that, he and that lady walked away.

Yu Tian definitely recognized Chu Mu and remembered Chu Mu's presence. If they were discovered just now, it would be really difficult to escape Heaven Palace. At least that Qin Ji would be a difficult opponent.

"She is setting up a formation, this is a chance. Follow me," said Yu Suo.

Yu Suo brought Chu Mu to a rather far away place. This should be the yard of a certain Totem Maiden.

As they entered the most rural room, there was a Maiden lying on the bed with only a thin innerwear.

Chu Mu wondered just why Yu Suo took him to a Maiden's bedroom.

Yu Suo lightly flicked her finger and flower fragrance drifted towards that Maiden. The Maiden immediately slept soundly again after waking up.

Yu Suo walked to a corner and lifted the carpet. Then, she started chanting an incantation.

The sigil manifested from the incantation matched the diagram on the floor. After a flash, the jade floor split apart and revealed a secret passage.

“Good, it’s still here,” Yu Suo revealed a trace of smile as if she recalled something.

Chu Mu looked at this secret passage and spoke, “Why does this secret passage look like it was used for those palace maids to escape from the palace for secret meetings.....”

Yu Suo spoke with a little frustration, “Just childish curiosity. It’s a secret passage to escape from there and play.”

Chu Mu took a glance into the secret passage and suddenly saw a scene in his mind.

A little girl wearing a dark blue robe pinched up her skirt and stealthily climbed out from the secret passage. She was showing a cute smile and her eyes sparkled with excitement and curiosity.

Meanwhile, when a slightly older lady at the side saw the little girl, she immediately panicked and closed the window, as if afraid of getting found.....

Chu Mu was in a daze for a moment and shook his head.

This seemed to be Yu Suo’s memory flowing into his head.

“You’re quite cute when you were young,” Chu Mu took a glance at the grown up Yu Suo.

Yu Suo knew Chu Mu saw her memory and snorted, unwilling to talk to Chu Mu.

Yu Suo was unhappy that Chu Mu would always see cherished moments in her heart.

“By the way, are you also able to see some of my memories?” Chu Mu suddenly remembered something and asked.

Yu Suo answered in disdain, “I can’t.”

Yu Suo did not want to talk to Chu Mu any further and entered the secret passage first.

The restriction was similarly applied in the secret passage. They must not use any ability carelessly or it would cause an energy fluctuation. Yu Suo could only crawl forward slowly like when she was young.

“Since she is setting up a formation, God Dew may be there,” said Yu Suo.

“Then we don’t have to go to the Guardian Palace?” asked Chu Mu.

“Yes, we can complete both objectives in one trip.”

Chapter 1607: The Document Which Recorded Ten Thousand Years

The secret passage was not very long. Chu Mu suddenly felt a little ridiculous while crawling in the secret passage.

A high class Immortal had to infiltrate a secret realm using such a lowly method?

However, it was because of such lowly method that added a gap in the tight security of Totem Palace.

The holy blue colored skirt traced out an alluring round shape, wriggling elegantly yet seductively.....

Honestly speaking, Chu Mu felt that this situation was a little awkward. No matter how he disliked Yu Suo, her body was alluring. The two of them were crawling in such a narrow space.....

Chu Mu decided to treat it as a fan service. There was probably nobody else who could enjoy this fan service other than him.

Finally, the space became wider.

It seemed that even she felt a little awkward. After entering the area without restriction, she slowly dissipated into countless flower petals. Like a light breeze, these petals easily crossed through this secret passage and reached a well tunnel.

Chu Mu also turned into a cluster of Devil Fire and followed the flower petals.

The well was about ten meters deep and could fit two people in width.

Chu Mu raised his head and noticed that the top was actually sealed. He asked, "Is your room above here?"

"Yes, hopefully it's not occupied," said Yu Suo.

After that, she stretched out her hand and scattered some flower petals up.

These petals flew up and seeped through the sealed top.

There were many experts in Heaven Palace. If they carelessly used soul remembrance, it would be easily caught by others. By using these petals, they could conduct scouting without triggering any mental fluctuations.

"There is someone, but she's a servant. She's cleaning now, let's wait here for a while," said Yu Suo.

"Alright," Chu Mu nodded.

The two of them waited quietly, only their breathing sounds could be heard in the well.

The well could hold two people in width, but it was a tight fit. Chu Mu could smell her fragrant breath. This fragrance slowly filled the tight space.

Yu Suo carried two types of fragrance. One was the fragrance of Good Flower, light and pleasing like lotus. However, after transforming into Evil Good Queen, her fragrance would change into alluring poppy.

Chu Mu was currently smelling the pleasing fragrance. However, when smelling it in such a close distance, it was even more dangerous than poppy.

If not for his demand to search for the secret of Seven Sins Fox, he might even suspect this was a honey trap set up by Yu Suo on purpose. This woman had a strange way of thinking. There was no telling if she would try to harm him using different methods.

Although the two of them were not as hostile as before, Chu Mu was still certain that the first person Yu Suo wanted to kill if she obtained freedom was him.

“If you dare to touch me, I will kill you before I die!” Suddenly, Yu Suo’s cold warning could be heard.

Her tone was chilling and her gaze was furious. She really hoped that she was thinner now so that she did not have to be stuck so close to this man!

“.....” Chu Mu was speechless after hearing Yu Suo’s warning.

He actually wanted to tell Yu Suo not to try seducing him using this method. As a result, before he could say it, he was treated as someone with ulterior motives instead!

“She’s gone,” said Yu Suo.

Saying so, she immediately flew up, unwilling to stay together with Chu Mu for a moment longer.

Chu Mu could not be bothered to correct her and followed behind her.

It was similarly a sigil diagram and the jade sealing the top slowly opened.

A beam of light shone from the window onto this secret passage opening. When Chu Mu jumped out, he noticed it was a really neat room.

The room was wide. There was a white flower bed placed at the center of the room. He could tell from one glance that it was the bed for a woman.

With the bed as the center, there were dressing table, wooden fan-shaped chair, working table, bookshelf, wardrobe.....

There was not a speck of dust here. However, there was no liveliness at all. It was clear that this room had been unoccupied for a long time.

Chu Mu was not interested in the other furniture in this room. He walked straight to the bookshelf.

There were many books on the bookshelf. Chu Mu opened a random book and his expression immediately stiffened.

He could not recognize a single character in the book. The characters looked like various sigils, causing him to lose interest immediately.

Chu Mu took a book and wanted Yu Suo to translate for him, but he noticed Yu Suo slowly walking past every corner of this room, occasionally using her hand to touch those furnitures and decorations.

Scenes of memory swarmed into his head again. While Yu Suo was reminiscing, he was also watching her memories.....

It seemed that every item placed in this room had a story to them. Some memories faded away, some pulled the heartstring, some was just a common tale.

When Yu Suo saw a bloody stone, Chu Mu saw another scene which caused Yu Suo's emotion to fluctuate.

The white gate slowly opened. Blood spread out on the greenish black soil outside the city. It was a horrifying scene.

She stood there and watched this scene absentmindedly and never moved an inch for a long time.

After a long time, she picked up a stone from the pool of blood and left quietly.

Chu Mu remembered that he asked Yu Suo whether she did something for those people when they were still at the town.

Even though Yu Suo did not answer, he also knew the answer now. That bloody stone was put here to remind her of that bloody scene.

The sound of someone walking past outside caused Yu Suo to snap back from her reminiscence. She put this bloody stone back onto the silver plate.

Yu Suo knew that Chu Mu read her memory and spoke with a little stubbornness, “Do you think it’s foolish?”

“A little,” Chu Mu nodded without denying her words.

“In the past, I would feel that when putting in effort to do something, there would be some changes. I was really too naive back then. In a monarchy system, only when the thing you want to do does not affect the authority holders or benefit them, it is possible to be achieved. Once it goes against their will or affects their benefits, all efforts will be easily crushed.....” said Yu Suo.

“So you constantly gathered peoples’ support and wanted to become a monarch?” asked chu Mu.

“Yes, it was the same for New Moon Land’s war. After New Moon Land became independent, everyone put their efforts in cultivation and worked hard to develop New Moon Land into a stronger territory. However, the result of becoming stronger is as you can see. New Moon Land was shunned by the other borders, disliked by the royalties, and invaded by the eight major factions. If not for the reinforcement of Nightmare army and Ocean Species, everyone’s effort would have been destroyed,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu also understood that principle. The human race was still up to the eight major factions and two royalties. Even though they won this war, it only suppressed the greed of others temporarily.

If it was not only some sects within the eight major factions having ulterior motives, if Yu Suo’s Invisible Kingdom could not infiltrate into the other sects, New Moon Land would have become history.....

Yu Suo did not continue this topic. She took over the book from Chu Mu and quickly browsed through.

“Is this the book which recorded diagrams in the human world?” asked Chu Mu.

He just took a book randomly. He was unsure if this book recorded the answer he wanted.

“Yes,” Yu Suo nodded.

Her browsing speed was very fast. There were sigils at the corner of the pages which indicated page numbers.

“This book only has five thousand years,” Yu Suo turned to the last page. Just as she was about to close the book, she suddenly stopped and checked the last few pages.

“Have you seen this diagram before?” asked Yu Suo as she pointed at an illustration in the book.

It was a colorless painting on that page. The painting drew a palace. At the throne of the palace was a creature with the upper body of human and lower body of a dragon leaning there as if slumbering.

“Ancient Flood Dragon Person!” Chu Mu was shocked.

The painting was none other than Ancient Flood Dragon Person!

“Is Ancient Flood Dragon Person also sealed by your Heaven Palace’s Totem Maiden?” asked Chu Mu in astonishment.

“If it’s recorded here, it means a certain Totem Maiden participated in Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s sealing,” said Yu Suo.

“Is there any description on it?” asked Chu Mu immediately.

Yu Suo shook her head, “It only recorded the time of the seal and the power of the seal. It then briefly described what kind of creature the sealed Ancient Flood Dragon Person is. This description is rather simple, so that Totem Maiden only participated in the process, the one who actually sealed Ancient Flood Dragon Person was not her.”

Saying so, Yu Suo threw this book back to the bookshelf.

With a light wave, another book drifted to her from the bookshelf and started flipping by itself.

This book should be recording the diagrams within ten thousand years. Yu Suo was also more careful when browsing through this time.

Chu Mu stood next to her. Although he could not understand the language, he could still understand some ancient drawings.

This thick book had recorded countless secrets!

Chapter 1608: Liu Binglan’s Past

“I found it.” Yu Suo pointed at a diagram on a page of the book. She handed it over to Chu Mu.

The diagram was a miniature version of a formation valley diagram. The diagram was a fiery red color and it drew the outline of a fox.

“Seven Sins Fox Corrupted Inferno Monarch. This fire formation valley is in a fire secret realm.” Yu Suo explained to Chu u.

“Where’s the fire secret realm?” asked Chu Mu.

“Elemental Sect’s ancient land, which is also the fire faction’s secret land. It’s probably located around the eastern extreme of Zhengming Continent,” said Yu Suo.

Yu Suo turned to the next page where there was a purple-colored formation valley diagram. This diagram’s outline was very familiar to Chu Mu. It was the same as the one in Thunder Valley where Mu Qingyi had brought him to.

“The Seven Sins Foxes’ curses were really executed by your Totem Palace?” Chu Mu looked at the seven total diagrams and was shocked.

The Seven Sins Foxes were once incomparably glorious while the Light Kings and Dark Kings were known as the creates with the highest species rank. Who would dare guarantee that they weren’t as prosperous as the great species nowadays?

However, they carried a heavy species shackle. Totem Palace’s maidens therefore required an enormous amount of diagram formation strength in order to create such an enormous formation valleys. It was these formation valleys that forced the Seven Sins Foxes to carry a curse generation after generation.

Chu Mu had been chasing after the mystery of the Seven Sins Foxes sealing. He never expected that the answer laid in a heavenly palace that hung high above the human world. It possessed such terrifying strength that it could make an incomparably powerful species instantly decline and suffer from a ten thousand year curse!

Were Heaven Palace’s People really the rulers of all creatures? Were they like gods?

For some reason, Chu Mu felt a chill.

“Does it say the reason here why?” Chu Mu asked.

Yu Suo shook her head and said: “Heaven Palace won’t easily divulge enormous matters like this. The book here is mainly only a record. Only if I urgently need the answer and ask the Totem Divine Maiden will she tell me.”

“What else does it say here?” asked Chu Mu.

Such a prosperous species had been reduced to sinned foxes. Was it because they had offended Heaven Palace?

“The seven elemental demon foxes - the Corrupted Inferno Monarchs, the Fury Thunder Monarchs, the Death Wind Monarchs, the Rock Fox Emperors, the Water Fox Emperors, the Dark Death King, and the Brilliant Light Fox King - they all violated Heaven Palace’s laws and defied the natural dao in an attempt to overturn the world... they will now be seen as sinned foxes!” read Yu Suo.

“What do you mean by violated Heaven Palace’s laws and defied the natural dao?” Chu Mu was confused.

What were Heaven Palace’s laws and the natural dao? Did these also come from Heaven Palace?

All creatures in the world would be born, grow old, and then die. The so-called natural dao was the natural cycle of the strong preying on the weak, the cruel struggle for survival and natural death of the strong, and reproducing another generation. By defying the natural dao, did the Seven Sins Foxes once unify the entire living world and break this cycle of all creatures?

“What a coincidence. There’s two pages on both their crime and mine.” Yu Suo disdainfully sneered and self-mockingly said, “This vague language has no meaning. To put it simply, the Seven Sins Foxes angered Heaven Palace, so they were met with this punishment. Perhaps like the White Ocean God you saw in the Heaven Boundary Monument, the Seven Sins Fox leader attempted to destroy Heaven Palace. Once they failed, its species was implicated.”

“How many experts does Heaven Palace have?” asked Chu Mu.

The White Ocean God, an undying rank expert, wasn’t able to defeat Heaven Palace. The Seven Sins Foxes, the once strongest species, had been forced into shackles by Heaven Palace. Chu Mu felt more and more that Heaven Palace was incomparably terrifying.

An existence like this would be able to easily crush New Moon Land as long as they wanted to.

When he remembered that the person manipulating New Moon Land’s war from behind the scenes was a Heaven Palace person, Yu Tian, Chu Mu’s heart sank.

If he really wanted to crush New Moon Land, how would Chu Mu be able to stop him?

“Heaven Palace also has its own rules. Take for example Yu Tian who entered the human world. He wanted to make New Moon Land his territory, but he could only use the eight great factions there to accomplish this.” said Yu Suo.

“But he’s still a threat at the end of the day,” said Chu Mu.

“I’ve already set up a death trap for him...” Yu Suo said with killing intent.

The book didn’t contain any more details about the Seven Sins Foxes. However, it made Chu Mu think of the Black Sol’s pair of eyes.

Princess Jinrou had drawn out the formation from the Black Sol. Chu Mu took it out and handed it to Yu Suo: “Look at this formation imprint. Is there something on this in the book?”

Yu Suo took the drawing with curiosity. She glanced at this diagram that was similar to the Seven Sins Fox diagram imprint.

“Where did you obtain this from?” asked Yu Suo.

Chu Mu gave a brief summary of his trip to the Evil Temple.

“Could it be a Black Nightmare?” asked Chu Mu.

“It definitely is. The only creature that can survive on a Black Soul is a Black Nightmare. The question is what era this Black Nightmare is from and this diagram will be explained.” said Yu Suo.

As she spoke, Yu Suo flipped through the books in the bookshelf. This time, she didn’t through only ten thousand year old books, but books past this time in order to find a match for Princess Jinrou’s drawing.

Yu Suo was very earnest in her search. Seeing that she wouldn't be able to find a match among these thick books in a short period of time, Chu Mu took the time to rest on the adjacent bed.

He had gone straight from Zhengming Main City to Heaven Palace without resting. Chu Mu really was tired and there happened to be a comfortable bed for him to lie down on.

"There's nothing. There's no records of this." Yu Suo placed back the books on the bookshelf and woke up Chu Mu who had occupied her old bed.

Chu Mu hadn't actually slept. He was merely thinking of some things.

"I guess that's right. If the Black Nightmare had been sealed by Heaven Palace on the Black Sol, then Heaven Palace would be too terrifying," said Chu Mu.

"I remember a long time ago, the Totem Divine Maiden told me about the creature on the Black Sol. However, that was a long time ago and I don't remember very clearly what she said. Leave the drawing with me. If I remember what it was or if I find an answer, I'll tell you." said Yu Suo.

"I forgot to ask you, what's your relationship with the Totem Divine Maiden?" asked Chu Mu.

Yu Suo wasn't the Totem Divine Maiden, but she lived in the same place as her. Moreover, from Yu Suo's tone, they probably knew each other very well.

"Since when were you so interested in my matters?" questioned Yu Suo.

“Your memory fragments will surface in my mind from time to time. It’s like a connected story that has been separated into several separate narrations. Any normal person will be curious.” said Chu Mu.

“I’ll take you to see her...” Yu Suo’s eyes suddenly flashed and she faintly smiled as she said, “That’s right, there’s something that you should know about, eh?”

“What thing?” asked Chu Mu.

“Your beautiful mother who loves you dearly is actually a Hidden Pupil Royalty member,” said Yu Suo.

“I guessed as much.” Chu Mu wasn’t surprised.

Liu Binglan’s eyes were a purple color, the same as the royal family, and her cultivation method was different from most people.

However, Yu Suo mentioning it caused Chu Mu to quickly think of a few questions.

Since Hidden Pupil Royalty belonged to Heaven Palace, did that mean Liu Binglan could be considered a Heaven Palace member?

“Aren’t you curious why she appeared in New Moon Land?” Yu Suo looked with interest at Chu Mu. Her eyes looked like they were smiling, but also weren’t smiling.

Yu Suo's question stunned Chu Mu.

That was right. If she was a Hidden Pupil Royalty member, why did she appear in New Moon Land?

He remembered Senior Elder Liu tell him that he found a baby girl in the icy snow lands and brought her back to Soul Palace, adopting her as his daughter.

Seeing Chu Mu's stunned appearance, the smile on Yu Suo's face became even more demonic as she continued, "Have you wondered why I appeared in New Moon Land?"

Chu Mu looked at the resplendently smiling Yu Suo and his face turned dark. He said: "Don't tell me that my mother is some illegitimate daughter of the Totem Divine Maiden. This isn't a joke."

"Your imagination is truly rich." laughed Yu Suo. She explained, "I'm not sure whether Liu Binglan and the Totem Divine Maiden have any blood relation. But I'm certain that she's the daughter of a very high position Totem Maiden because the path from Heaven Palace to the icy snow Sacred Holy Region are only known by a few people."

"A path from Heaven Palace to Sacred Holy Region??" Chu Mu's mind was thrown into slight chaos.

"Yes. There's a spatial door like that. Otherwise, how else do you think I would appear in Sacred Holy Region? Liu Binglan also probably took that spatial door to New Moon Land. Her cultivation method is different from most people and she has her own independent cultivation space. The truth is that this cultivation space is a Totem Maiden's diagram incantation world. Unfortunately, no one taught her how to use it and she used this rare space as her soul pet space... sigh, what a waste. The reason why you people can't create diagram imprints is because you don't have the unique cultivation space that Liu Binglan has." said Yu Suo.

"..." Chu Mu didn't realize his mother's past was this complicated. Moreover, she was a Totem Divine Woman with the strength of a Totem Woman to create diagrams.

"Very surprising, huh?" said Yu Suo.

"A bit. So this means that I have a bit of a familial relationship with Heaven Palace..." said Chu Mu.

"There's something else. Totem Maidens cannot give birth," Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu and seriously spoke.

Chu Mu looked with wide eyes at Yu Suo.

Totem Maidens cannot give birth?

Liu Binglan was a Totem Maiden herself. So she couldn't give birth? Then... then where did he come from??

Was Liu Binglan not his mother? Then what about Chu Tianmang??

Chu Mu felt that his mind was in chaos.

Chu Mu’s facial expression froze.

He had almost believed her just now, and had even begun to doubt his own life. Indeed, Yu Suo’s tone just now had been too calm and it didn’t seem like she was tricking him at all.

Chu Mu forcibly held back from throwing this beautiful demoness who was playing around with him into his soul pet space. He couldn’t believe that she had used his birth and family background to play a joke. This was unforgivable!

Chapter 1609: Woman of Ten Thousand Transformations, Human Mother

Chu Mu stopped inquiring into this mysterious question of his family history. Regarding the information about his mother being a high position Totem Maiden, he didn’t really want to involve himself.

There were many things that he didn’t need an answer to. At least in his opinion, even if you told her that she was the incarnation of a god, she would still probably answer with her cold “oh”, and then continue whatever she was doing.

Given that she hadn’t grown up in Heaven Palace and instead in New Moon Land, this already mysterious Heaven Palace was probably a non-existent place to her. She may not even want to find the answer. Moreover, what would she do if she found the answer? Go and meet up with complete strangers, and then rebuild a familial connection?

For Chu Mu, at least, he wouldn’t and recognize some grandmother he had never met before. There wasn’t much of a difference between strangers and people who were related by blood but whom he had never lived with before.

“What kind of existence is the Totem Divine Maiden? Are the powerful diagram formations related to species created by the Totem Divine Maiden?” Chu Mu changed the topic.

“The Totem Divine Maiden is only in charge of one thing,” said Yu Suo,

“One thing? What thing?”

“Time. Human time!” said Yu Suo.

“How do you control time?”

Was it possible to control time? One could probably only control history by recording what happened in history.

“Time doesn’t refer to this instance or the next second. Instead, it’s a broad sense of the word time. For example, the sunrise and sunset, the phases of the moon, and the revolution of the sun.” said Yu Suo.

“This needs to be controlled? Isn’t it all according to natural law?” said Chu Mu.

“These are all laws, but they are also natural laws jointly formulated by Wheel Palace and Totem Palace,” said Yu Suo.

“Why do I feel that this is a bit unbelievable?” said Chu Mu.

“The birth of all creatures in the world all have a foundation. The natural laws that govern all creatures are also formulated. It is because they formulate these laws that they are high up above. For instance, the person who formulates the rules in a kingdom is the king. The Totem Divine Maiden controls the entire living world’s time.” said Yu Suo.

“Let’s just go and get the God Dew.” Chu Mu felt dizzy listening to this. He felt that his deep-rooted ideologies were being overturned by Yu Suo.

The sunrise and sunset, the phases of the moon, and the revolution and cycle of the sun had all been determined by some person in Heaven Palace. This person could only be described as a god.

Chu Mu was currently still an atheist. Normally, when he referred to a god, he was referring to the undying rank. On the one hand, Chu Mu didn’t really understand what Yu Suo was saying when she told him about these miraculous existences that could truly influence the entire living world. On the other hand, he hadn’t stepped into this realm yet. Indeed, Chu Mu had no clue what kind of strength was needed to control time!

“What is it? Are you starting to feel inferior from your ignorance?” intentionally asked Yu Suo after seeing that Chu Mu suddenly wasn’t interested.

.....

There weren’t too many guards in Divine Maiden Pavilion. This made moving very easy for Chu Mu and Yu Suo.

When they exited Yu Suo's room, Yu Suo went straight through an elevated corridor towards a floating pavilion.

The double doors were shut closed, but Yu Suo was clearly very familiar with this place as she chanted an incantation. Upon undoing the restrictions, she pushed open the doors.

This floating pavilion was very elegant and exquisite. There weren't too many gorgeous decorations and it gave people a refined and divine feeling. The person who lived here was probably like this.

There were sparkling pearls connected together, hanging down from the ceiling in the form of a grand curtain.

The curtain was circular and it prevented Chu Mu from looking inside.

But inside the pearl curtain, Chu Mu could make out the outline of a woman.

The woman had very long hair and as she sat there, her purple hair fell along her graceful back all the way to her curvy and full butt. At the end of her hair were some butterfly leaf jewelry combined together. It looked graceful and dignified.

Chu Mu couldn't see her face. He was only able to guess that she was silently cultivating. Her eyes were closed and her eyelashes were very long and curved. Her perfect eye shadow accentuated her eyes and eyelashes extremely well.

It was probably only light makeup which most girls could do, but on her, it was a perfect embodiment, making people feel as if this was a simple drawing, yet filled with rich meaning...

He walked a few steps, changing angles. He was able to see her lips through the cracks.

She had the pink lips of a young woman that were like two flower petals.

“Good looking?” indifferently asked Yu Suo.

“Yes,” Chu Mu didn’t deny it.

Although Chu Mu had only seen a rough outline and only a part of her face, he felt that the woman in the curtain was definitely had stunning beauty.

“Every woman’s beauty has its own unique aspect. However, she is someone who has collected every single beautiful aspect of every woman in this world. If you like refined grace, she will look as graceful as water and pitifully soft when you see her. If you like cold grandeur, she will look as cold as ice, making you feel that you can only look at her from far away. If you like a flirtatious charm, she will have a myriad of different bearings. Ten thousand types of charming beauty will make your soul go crazy. Besides this, she can be cute, weird, wise and intelligent, cold and decisive, hot and passionate, kind, simple, sly and cunning... she has all of this.” said Yu Suo in a calm voice.

“Is there such a woman in this world?” Chu Mu thought that Yu Suo was exaggerating.

How could a single person have this many different characteristics and temperaments? In Chu Mu’s opinion, Yu Suo and the Evil Good Queen, with their polar opposite characters, made him already feel so...

“What was the first feeling you had when you saw her?” asked Yu Suo.

“Quiet, clean, beautiful, a bit enigmatic, a bit unfathomable, but also warm and intimate,” said Chu Mu.

“Yes. This is a rough judgment of female beauty from your heart. Think about it carefully. Do these types of women attract you more?” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu carefully thought about it. This did seem to be the case.

“Take a look at her again,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu did and when he looked past the obscuring curtain, he suddenly discovered that besides the hair color of the person sitting there being different, the woman looked a bit similar to Ye Qingzi!

In fact, for a moment, Chu Mu felt that this was the most beautiful moment of Ye Qingzi sitting there.

However, when he carefully looked again, he saw something shocking.

The woman there had become Bai Jinrou. With her closed eyes, she looked very similar to when Bai Jinrou was in her dormant state. She was so beautiful it looked artificial; yet, it made those who saw her feel heartbroken.

Due to the obstruction of the curtain, Chu Mu was only ever able to see a portion of her face at once. However, each time he changed angles, the woman's aura and appearance would change as well. In fact, Chu Mu saw Ning Maner's reflection a few times - her intimate and familiar temperament that would also make one feel extreme tenderness towards her.

Chu Mu was so shocked he wasn't able to say anything. How could such a face exist in the world? She simultaneously possessed the temperament of multiple people and when one looked at her with different states of mind and perceptions, she would become the people one most cared about in his or her heart. It was unbelievable...

In this moment, Chu Mu had an intense feeling of desire. He wanted to open the curtain blocking his view and seriously look at her face. He wanted to see what on earth she looked like. This way, it wouldn't make him confuse the people he was familiar with, with this woman.

"Don't touch the curtain. The restriction on the curtain can easily reduce you to nothing. When she is silently cultivation, although she can't sense us walking and talking in her room, if you touch her restriction, even if you're a perfect immortal rank, you may not even be able to leave this room." Yu Suo warned Chu Mu in a serious tone.

"How... how can it be like this? I remember that when I looked at her just now, she didn't look like this," said Chu Mu.

"I told you. She collected every form of beauty of a woman in this world onto her body. Different people will see her differently. For example, you saw a quiet, clean, and beautifully pure beauty. If Ye Wansheng, that lecher were to look, he would probably be some incomparably seductive and sexy woman. Of course, if you were to see her as a sexy beauty... that would only further prove that every man in the world is horrible." said Yu Suo.

“This... this woman is too... too terrifying,” said Chu Mu.

Chu Mu couldn't imagine. If this woman was standing in front of him with Ye Qingzi's appearance and she had the intention of taking his life, what would his state of mind be if he were to see the real Ye Qingzi afterwards?

“I'm actually a bit curious about how many people you saw just now?” Yu Suo's lips curved into a smile as she teasingly spoke.

“One.” Chu Mu calmly responded.

“Ye Qingzi or Bai Jinrou?” Yu Suo questioned.

“Two.” Chu Mu changed his answer.

“Really only two?” Yu Suo looked like she didn't believe him.

“This place is too dangerous. Let's take the God Dew and immediately leave. Have you found the God Dew?” why would Chu Mu speak about this senseless topic with Yu Suo.

Yu Suo scoffed at Chu Mu's change in topic. She moved around behind the woman.

Although she seemed very certain that the woman in the curtain wouldn't wake up, she still searched through the room very calmly.

While Yu Suo was searching, Chu Mu couldn't help but look at the curtain again.

This time, the woman in the curtain didn't resemble a woman who Chu Mu greatly cared about. Instead, it was an absolutely beautiful face, but also one that didn't feel unfamiliar to Chu Mu.

"This is probably her true appearance," Chu Mu muttered to himself.

"Is she the Totem Divine Maiden?" asked Chu Mu.

"No. She's the Human Mother."

"Human Mother??" Chu Mu's mind was full of question marks.

"The progenitor of flowers is the Evil Good Queen. The progenitor for trees is the Messiah Tree. The progenitor for humans is the Human Mother. However, the beauty you saw isn't some ten thousand year old monster. She is just the direct descendant of the Human species' progenitor. We call her the HUman Mother. Most of the time, she stays in this state, silently cultivating." said Yu Suo.

Chapter 1610: Stolen Divine Nectar

"It really is put there. The Heavenly Palace truly never changes." Yu Suo smiled.

Behind that woman's curtains was a lantern-like lotus seat. Atop the lotus seat was a single pristine water droplet. This water droplet was liquid, yet it also seemed like a pearl that can't disperse.

Chu Mu was still shocked at the Human Mother's origin when Yu Suo had already grabbed what she wanted and walked back to Chu Mu.

"She really is the ancestor of all humans?" Chu Mu asked.

"Her blood lineage is. Humans can be split into countless subspecies. Those with higher blood lineage usually had higher status. Those with dominating positions were usually the larger families. Long before that, humans didn't have that many subspecies. They all belonged to a small nation, and her blood lineage comes from this nation." Yu Suo said.

"You got what you wanted?" Chu Mu glanced at the thing on Yu Suo's palm.

"En." Yu Suo nodded.

"It's that simple?" Chu Mu said.

Other than entering this Divine Maiden Building through a special secret pathway, the rest of this process had been all out in the open. In fact, even the precious God Dew seemed to be just a normal accessory within the room that was easily stolen.

If it were this simple, why did this woman summon him here?

“Getting it is hard, but taking it out is near impossible,” Yu Suo said.

“So?” Chu Mu asked.

“I’ll use the shortest time to digest this God Dew’s energy. While the God Dew is losing power, we could be discovered by the guards in the Heaven Palace at any time. So, when I digest the God Dew, you have to protect me as much as possible,” Yu Suo said seriously.

Chu Mu’s face turned black. “How is that any different from telling me to commit suicide? That Qin Ji you mentioned before is someone I can’t defeat already!”

“You have to hide. I’ll tell you what places are relatively safe in a moment. When I absorb the God Dew’s energy, I can hide my own aura, but the God Dew’s energy may leak out. So, you have to constantly change positions until I absorb the God Dew’s energy completely,” Yu Suo said.

Seeing Chu Mu still unwilling, Yu Suo continued, “Don’t worry, the disappearance of the God Dew won’t startle the god rank experts within the Heaven Palace. These pseudo god rank item losses will first alarm the Heavenly Palace’s Imperial Guards. The first to search for you is Qin Ji and his team. Though there will be a larger lockdown later, I’ll already have the God Dew’s energy absorbed. Unless they sweep through the entire palace, they can’t possibly find us.”

”You make it sound simple. How about I absorb the God Dew and you help me hide,” Chu Mu said.

Anywhere else, Chu Mu wasn’t scared. However, after seeing just how terrifying the Heavenly Palace is, Chu Mu couldn’t not be scared. One has to know that the Heavenly Palace cursed a flourishing species for ten thousand years in a fit of anger.

“Alright, then in two months, just wait and see Bai Jinrou fall back into the ice coffin. I can tell you very surely that Bai Yu will definitely be unable to get the real art of resurrection from Rong family master. Limbo Flower indeed has the power to revive, but unless the Limbo Flower reaches undead rank, it’ll suffer a great cost. You think that Family Master Rong would allow that to happen to his Limbo Flower for a random stranger?” Yu Suo said.

Chu Mu furrowed his brow and said, “Why didn’t you say so sooner?”

“You think he would back off even if I told him? Rong Family Master’s Pendant indeed was enough to revive Bai Jinrou. That gave Bai Yu enough hope. Even if he knew he was being used, and that it may be a trap....” Yu Suo said.

“What identity does Rong Family Master have?” Chu Mu asked.

“He’s Wheel Palace’s high ranking Immortal Teacher. He holds all sorts of strange and unique refining techniques, including those that refine the soul and refine soul pets.” Yu Suo said.

Remembering the talk he had with Bai Yu in Nightmare Sacred Realm, Chu Mu felt uneasy. He felt that Bai Yu seemed to know that he couldn’t come back safely. The only reason he didn’t say anything to entrust things to Chu Mu was because he had full confidence Chu Mu could take care of the person most important to him.

“How long until you can digest this God Dew?” Chu Mu asked.

“Not too long. I’ve already started absorbing its energy. They’ll notice us very soon,” Yu Suo said.

Chu Mu’s eyes widened. How could she just start without him even agreeing?

If her Flower Stamen were not in his hands, Chu Mu definitely would think this was a trap set up by Yu Suo to intentionally harm him.

“Open up your soul pet space, I need to train within it,” Yu Suo said.

This was the only time Yu Suo had ever requested to go back into his soul pet space. However, as a powerful soul remembrance pushed towards him from afar, Chu Mu really wanted to destroy the contract between Yu Suo and him and let her die on her own.

She stole Heavenly Palace’s things and is absorbing the energy to strengthen herself, yet she was making him be her guard. Chu Mu finally realized why this woman wanted him to come with her.

Chu Mu opened his soul pet space. Yu Suo became a flurry of petals that entered Chu Mu’s soul pet space as bits of the God Dew entered Chu Mu’s soul pet space.

As the soul pet space closed, Chu Mu still felt the God Dew’s special energy leaking out like a spring. Anyone with a relatively powerful remembrance could immediately notice it if they checked here even if Chu Mu used his powers of darkness and space to hide.

“Can’t you control it any better?” Chu mu grumbled.

“I can, but every time I try to breakthrough the tenth phase, there will be a sliver of energy I can’t control. So, when I try to break through, try not to be too close to the guards.” Yu Suo said.

Breaking through bottlenecks isn't something easily achieved. Just like a tide slamming into a cliff, it often needed a lot of attacks before it could succeed. Meaning, if Yu Suo tried to break through the bottleneck multiple times with no success, Chu Mu would continue to be chased!

"I'll tell you how to avoid them but you may have to do some on-the-spot thinking of your own. If you are truly caught and have nowhere to run, don't resist. They'll capture you and bring you to the Human Mother and awaken her...." Yu Suo said.

"What after that? You have a way to convince her?" Chu Mu glanced at the extremely beautiful yet dangerous woman behind the curtains.

"I don't know, it depends on her mood. It can buy us a bit of time at least....." Yu Suo said.

Chu Mu was getting a headache from this. He always thought that the devilishly smart Yu Suo definitely had a complete plan of stealing the God Dew and escaping scot-free. Yet, this woman revealed her completely impromptu plan.....

If he knew this, Chu Mu wouldn't have come to this terrifying Heavenly Palace no matter what she said.

"Go back to my room first from the secret path just now. Though Human Mother closed off all her senses to train, there's no guarantee that she would awaken right now. If she wakes up now, we won't even have a chance." Yu Suo said.

Chu Mu felt Yu Suo absorbing the energy already. He turned around to look at the woman in the curtains.

Suddenly, her brow quivered as if she was about to open her eyes!

Chu Mu's heart quaked. In that instant, the woman reminded Chu Mu of someone else he knew closely, but this familiarity caused Chu Mu to feel cold.

Chu Mu didn't dare hesitate and turned to leave the room.

The Human Mother's room and Yu Suo's room was only split by a corridor. There was no one along this corridor, so Chu Mu went back to Yu Suo's room safely.

Opening the room and closing the door, for some reason, Chu Mu felt that there was a pair of eyes staring at him from behind.

It was a pair of eyes that Chu Mu found familiar and nearly fell victim to many times. She was staring at him faintly.

She never opened her eyes, this must be a hallucination from Chu Mu's mind.

.....

Under the vast starry skies at the top of the guard tower, a white dragon's half-open eyes suddenly shot open and a lightning shot towards the Goddess Tower.

“What’s wrong, old fellow?” Qin Ji sipped on some sake and asked.

The White Starry Sky Dragon stared at the isolated Human Mother’s building and seemed to notice something abnormal.

“Hui~~~~~” Starry Sky Dragon let out a call to tell Qin Ji what he felt.

“God Dew’s energy movement? The God Dew is with Human Mother, there probably isn’t a thief brave enough to go to her to steal.” Qin Ji lifted up his alcohol and continued sipping.

Suddenly, Qin Ji also furrowed his brows, his movement of drinking stopping abruptly.

“Heng, reckless!!” Qin Ji casually threw his drink aside. His relaxed eyes suddenly turned sharp as he said, “Let’s go and see.”

Starry Sky Dragon unraveled its tail around the Guard Tower and passed through the corridor to the Goddess Palace, heading straight for the room.

Qin Ji stood at the entrance and glanced at the Human Mother.

His cold eyes temporarily lost focus but quickly returned to its usual coldness.

He quickly saluted towards the senseless Human Mother and walked towards the lotus seat.....

Qin Ji's face grew even colder. He left Human Mother's room with a cold aura around him.
