Chapter 1611: Heavenly Palace's Imperial Guards

The Heavenly Palace was highly guarded and closed off. Thefts almost never happened. Adding on the fact that the Divine Maiden Building itself had a powerful restriction, no one should be able to get in.

Thus, there weren't even many people that could enter at all. Placing something like the God Dew in there definitely was safe.

Additionally, the entire heavenly palace knew that the God Dew was placed in the Human Mother's room. Of the entire Heavenly Palace, not many dared to enter the Human Mother's room. It was no different from giving up their lives directly.

Yet, the God Dew still disappeared!

Qin Ji's face was very sullen. Only a few people could enter the Divine Maiden Building without him detecting it, yet none of them would take the God Dew away recklessly like this without warning.

Yet, what confused Qin Ji was, if one wasn't part of the inner circle of Heavenly Palace and knew everything about the Divine Maiden Building, how could they know the God Dew was in Human Mother's room, and also know that Human Mother closed off all her senses when cultivating?

The Divine Maiden Building was locked with restrictions. Human Mother's room also had restrictions. Unless they truly were unbeatable, they definitely couldn't steal the God Dew from the building with this many guards!

“Come, block all the exits of the Totem Palace, make sure everyone who ever exited is questioned!”
Qin Ji commanded angrily.

Heavenly Palace had been robbed before; after all, the Heavenly palace is filled with some of the greatest treasures. However, something as important as the God Dew was often put in the most-watched places, where no one dared to steal it!

Qin Ji’s heart was filled with anger. Going into the Divine Maiden Building and stealing the God Dew was unforgivable!!

.....

After Qin Ji’s commands, the white totem palace was covered in a barrier. This barrier covered the entire place. Other than a few special exits, no one in it could leave.

In the barrier, multiple imposing dragons flew through the skies. White armored imperial guards used their soul remembrance to scan the entire region in search of suspicious personnel.

On the white jade-like floor, teams of black-armored beasts quickly flew through, guarding the most important roads. They theoretically locked down the criminal in the smallest region possible.

Wearing noble dresses in the palace, many women saw the army start moving at such magnitudes and started looking curious.

“What happened?” A totem maiden with a bowtie behind her dress called a guard over.

“It’s Commander Qin’s command to lock down the Totem Palace.” The leader replied respectfully.

“If it’s just some small theft, there’s no reason to move everyone. It’ll bring greater losses to interrupt the daily activities of the palace,” The mature totem maiden said.

“Commander Qin looked very angry, it probably isn’t a normal item....” The imperial guard leader said.

“Where is Qin Ji?” The totem maiden asked.

“In the goddess pavilion.”

The totem maiden nodded and brought a group of female disciples towards there.

“What was stolen?” A sixteen-year-old totem maiden asked curiously.

“Can it be a seventh rank immortal rank spirit crystal?”

“Every time something happens, there are always some crazy rumors. Sometimes people die and rumors say something was stolen. When things are stolen, rumors say the palace was tidying its ranks....” An older totem maiden said.

“Qin Ji is in Divine Maiden Building, meaning something must have happened, and it definitely is big.”

The lady walking at the front glanced backward at the chittering female disciples.

They all quickly closed their mouths and started practicing their composure. However, from their blinking eyes, they were still greatly curious.

One couldn't blame them. The palace's life was often calm, like frozen lake water. Once some ripple happened, it brought everyone's attention.

At the Divine Maiden Building, the lady went towards the Heavenly Guard Tower.

On the guard tower, Qin Ji stood alone staring down upon the entire Totem Palace.

His starry sky dragon flew even higher up and became massive, seeming to encompass the entire palace with its body.

“Qin Ji,” The lady flew up to Qin ji.

“Lady He.” Qin Ji briefly gestured.

“What happened?” Lady He asked.

“The God Dew was stolen.” Qin Ji said.

“God Dew? The God Dew wasn’t put in the Wheel Palace?” Lady He said.

“Goddess is training how to make diagrams.” Qin Ji said.

Lady He didn’t live in the Divine Maiden Building, but as a more authoritative totem maiden, she knew that some totem maidens, when training to make diagrams, would go to Wheel Palace to grab the God Dew to help with recovery after training. This wasn’t a big secret.

“Isn’t it with Human Mother?” Lady He furrowed his brows.

“It was there. When I entered there, the restriction of the room was opened before.....” Qin Ji said.

“Human Mother didn’t notice?”

“She closed all her senses. Even if someone entered her room, as long as they didn’t touch her curtain, she wouldn’t notice. However, she probably sensed something, but just didn’t wake up. She probably didn’t want it to affect her training,” Qin Ji said.

“Why could someone enter the building and even straight into her room?” Lady He questioned.

Qin Ji shook her head, “It only means that this person was incredibly familiar with the pavilion. The person must know that when training, the God Dew would be in Human Mother’s room so Human Mother could nurture it. And not only does the person know her room restriction incantation, they also know that Human Mother cultivates with her senses shut off.”

Stealing the God Dew truly is ridiculous.

Putting aside Totem Palace’s extremely well-guarded entrances, Divine Maiden Building was almost impossible to enter, with restrictions that can deny any expert below Undying rank.

Even if one luckily enters, the God Dew was right in Human Mother’s room.

No one didn’t know how powerful Human Mother was. Stealing from her room, who dared to do that?

“You think it’s someone in Divine Maiden Building?” Lady He said.

“En, that’s the current suspicion.” Qin Ji said.

“No way, people in the building have no incentive to steal it. They, like the goddess, can all enjoy the nurturing.” Lady He said seriously.

The Divine Maiden Building only had a few people. Divine Maiden, Human Mother, Spirit Maiden, Dragon Maiden, and the rest are just servants.

The servants are all young girls without much soul remembrance. Though they knew every room's chant, they wouldn't dare touch God Dew even if they were given a hundred times more courage.

The maidens able to enter the Divine Maiden Building were all high ranking, but they wouldn't know the incantations.....

"It must be some servant and a high ranking maiden working together then." Qin Ji said.

"Heng, why eliminate the possibility that the imperial guards took it?" Lady He humphed.

High ranking maidens meant her and her bunch. They were the people with the highest authority outside of the building. Only they would know Human Mother and Divine Maiden's cultivation habits, and only they could enter the building freely.

"If it's my people, I'll crush them to bits! Sorry to trouble you, but can you bring together all the maidens in the nearby region to interrogate them? I've already restricted the actions of all imperial guards in charge of this region and will question them." Qin Ji said.

Lady He nodded and no longer debated with Qin Ji. After all, God Dew was lost. Once the divine maiden is finished training, if there isn't God Dew, they would definitely be blamed. Both the imperial guard and the maidens would be in trouble then. The task at hand was to find the God Dew.

.....

In a side room of the courtyard, Chu Mu stood by the window and glanced out the window.

On the roofs and beside the walls, massive dragon figures flew back and forth. Hurried steps came from the white jade floor far away. It always felt as if they were trying to surround the room.

Within the room, the maiden that Yu Suo knocked out was still laying in bed in a translucent robe. She was sleeping very deeply, not knowing that there was a man in her room.

Chu Mu naturally didn't have the time to look at this woman. His eyes stared outside to look for a suitable chance to leave.

The Divine Maiden Building was only a few palaces away from them. Though the places were all connected, there were enough guards to look through each and every one, and eventually find them.

"Let's leave the room first. We can't let them know there's a secret passageway here." Yu Suo's mental voice came. "If I could leave, you think I would stay here?" Chu Mu said.

The dragons in the sky were all rather high rank. If Chu Mu created any spatial ripples, they would definitely notice. Chu Mu was waiting for a blind spot.

"Leave the Divine Maiden Building as fast as possible and go to the Totem Palace. The members are rather complicated there, so even if you use dark and space energy, they won't notice you. However, you still have to be careful of experts like Qin Ji. They definitely will detect the weak energy leakages of the God Dew.

"Pray that I don't meet anyone too strong." Chu Mu said.

"En."

“.....” She had the gall to respond... Chu Mu wanted to burn her Flower’s Stamen away right there and then.

Chapter 1612: Pavilion Of Myriad Pavilions

On the guard tower, Qin Ji scanned through the area around him.

Suddenly, his eyes beamed and locked onto one yard.

“Hmph, it’s still here as expected!” snorted Qin Ji.

At that moment, Starry Sky Dragon which was circling in the sky descended. Qin Ji jumped up and landed on Starry Sky Dragon’s back. They flew straight towards the place where God Dew’s energy seeped out. Right behind him, many dragons appeared and covered the entire sky with their huge membrane wings.

.....

Shadows cast down onto the ground. Chu Mu looked up and saw the body of that white Starry Sky Dragon.

Its body width was similar to a bridge, its long and meandering body gave off a really strong visual impact.

“Seal this place up!” ordered Qin Ji.

The Forbidden Army quickly encircled the area. Those Totem Maidens and servants strolling in the yard and walkways started to panic, thinking that someone amongst them made a mistake.

At that moment, Qin Ji frowned and inspected this yard with a grim expression.

“What’s wrong?” asked Madam He.

“I sensed God Dew’s energy presence just now. It’s around here, but disappeared immediately,” said Qin Ji.

“That thief is really still here?” asked Madam He.

“Yes. I have instructed my subordinates to search room by room. The result will be out soon.....” said Qin Ji.

Right after saying so, a weak energy fluctuation came from a corner in a certain garden.

Qin Ji’s eyes instantly locked on to that spot like an eagle!

At the same time, Madam He also sensed it, it felt like the presence of a specter!

“Specter!” Qin Ji and Madam He looked at each other in astonishment.

Specter was the type of creature with the most unpredictable trail. It could not be sensed even when using sensing abilities most of the time.

If it was a specter which stole God Dew, it could certainly pass through easily in Totem Palace. Furthermore, specters could always pass through some solid obstacles. Its ability in stealing was unmatched.

Qin Ji and Madam He flew towards the corner where the specter fluctuation originated from simultaneously. Qin Ji unleashed his senses and carefully inspected every spot in this garden!

Suddenly, a mini silhouette crossed from this wall to another wall, then hid into a certain room!

Qin Ji and Madam He captured the movement of this little specter at the same time!

“Star Imprisonment!” Qin Ji ordered his Starry Sky Dragon in the sky.

Starry Sky Dragon unleashed its starlight and changed it into a starlight cage, sealing up the room which that little specter ran into.

That specter seemed to have sensed the spatial seal and charged out of the room right before the room was caged!

“Ao!”

A thunderous dragon roar rang out. Spectral Hidden Dragon suddenly appeared in front of Qin Ji and Madam He!

Qin Ji and Madam He immediately fell back. Starry Sky Dragon's tail swept down from the sky towards Spectral Hidden Dragon!

Bam!

This tail sweep smashed the entire garden. That Spectral Hidden Dragon rapidly dodged this strike.

Huhuhuhu~!

The moment the battle started, all Forbidden Army soldiers immediately surrounded this region. Dragons flew in the sky or stood between walls, their large heads reached the same height as the roofs.

Qin Ji and Madam He focused on this Spectral Hidden Dragon with a stern expression!

There were various types of dragons in Heaven Palace, most of the Forbidden Army chose dragons as their soul pets.

However, Spectral Dragon was a type never seen before in Hidden Palace. There might not even be one in the human world.

The reason Qin Ji and Madam He were astonished was because it was an extremely rare Spectral Dragon before them, and that Spectral Dragon was a powerful high class Immortal!

At that moment, blue soul pact light manifested on Spectral Dragon's body. The light rays formed into a soul pet diagram and tore open the space.

The blue diagram flashed, that Spectral Dragon rapidly squeezed into the torn space and disappeared before everyone!

The moment Qin Ji saw the soul pact light, he knew it was a recall diagram used by a soul pet trainer. Hence, he made Starry Sky Dragon seal the space around that Spectral Dragon immediately to prevent that soul pet trainer from recalling this Spectral Dragon.

However, Qin Ji underestimated the other party's ability. The other party had already created an undetectable crack in this space before recalling Spectral Hidden Dragon. Perhaps other creatures could not escape from this crack, but Spectral Hidden Dragon could easily squeeze through such a tiny crack.

Qin Ji's expression turned grim. His eyes coldly focused on another direction.

Over there, the soul pact fluctuation clearly transmitted out. It was mixed with spectral aura and Other type aura, there was also the faint energy of God Dew!

That must be the thief!

What caused Qin Ji to frustrate was that the other party actually used a Spectral Dragon and a normal space trick to lure him and the Forbidden Army to this place, then escaped in another direction!

The fluctuation emitted by the thief dissipated soon. It was clear that the other party used an expert stealth method. When Qin Ji rushed over there right after sensing the fluctuation, he was unable to see any trace of the thief.....

“He actually got away!” Madam He frowned.

“He won’t escape. I will catch him alive!” said Qin Ji coldly.

“He is running towards Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions. Low rank Miadens, female servants, female Xuan Teachers, Immortal Teachers and female Forbidden Guards live there. There are also some male servants with unclear identities, as well as the relatives and disciples of those people. If we have to interrogate one by one, it will create a big commotion,” said Madam He.

Madam He preferred to suppress every incident. She was unwilling to rile up the matters in Totem Palace.

She preferred quietness, Totem Palace was the quietest place.

“God Dew cannot be brought out of Heaven Palace. Furthermore, if there’s energy fluctuation, there will definitely be a leak in aura. As long as there’s another fluctuation, I will catch him!” said Qin Ji.

.....

Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions was the most complicated palace in Totem Palace. Maidens of high positions, Immortal Teachers, female Forbidden Guards lived here. There were also some low rank servants in charge of miscellaneous matters.

Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions lived up to its name. Various types of pavilions were built, some stacked over one another, some connected by wooden bridges or stone pavements. Without a guide, it was easy to get lost in this place.

The Heaven Palace members in Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions were also composed of complicated backgrounds. There were even those from Heaven City inside here to run errands for Maidens with high position and Immortal Teachers. People from Wheel Palace and Guardian Palace would also visit Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions when there was a chance. After all, only Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions in Totem Palace gathered countless beauties they desired.

Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions similarly contained restrictions. However, there were over thirty gates around Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions. There would always be some people entering using some methods.

After Qin Ji issued the order, these thirty plus gates were sealed up by female Forbidden Guards immediately. There were many people who used illegal methods to enter Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions in the first place. The moment the sealing order was issued, many panicking figures instantly appeared in Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions.

Madam He actually knew the complexity inside Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions. She had thought of the dissatisfaction from many middle rank Maidens and Immortal Teachers getting their privacy exposed due to sealing up this time. This was why she did not want Qin Ji to create such a big commotion.

However, if they did not do this, they could not find God Dew. Despite so, the trouble caused by this was not inferior to losing God Dew.

.....

Within a certain rural palace in Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions, Chu Mu stood in the shade and cautiously controlled his own presence.

The trick of letting Little Hidden Dragon lure away Qin Ji was extremely dangerous. If Qin Ji managed to seal the space in time, Chu Mu would be unable to recall Little Hidden Dragon.

Fortunately, Qin Ji did not act immediately after seeing Little Hidden Dragon. This allowed Chu Mu to successfully escape the goddess building area where the security was the tightest.

“Have you successfully evolved?” asked Chu Mu using mental voice.

“No,” answered Yu Suo.

“Where do we escape to next?” asked Chu Mu.

“Go hide in a forbidden palace at the east of Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions first. However, remember not to alert the creature inside that forbidden palace!” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu followed Yu Suo’s guide and headed towards the east.

“Did you sense energy surging in your body?” asked Yu Suo.

Chu Mu was focused on escaping and did not take notice of his body. When he used soul remembrance to inspect, he really found some unknown pure energy lingering in his body, as if it was unsure where to go.

“This is the energy in God Dew I cannot absorb. It contains plenty of growth energy. Didn’t your little Dead Dream undergo nirvana again? Pass this energy to it, it will reawaken faster,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu’s eyes lit up and felt a burden lifting off his heart.

After Dead Dream exhausted most of its life force in the war, it had been slumbering in Chu Mu’s soul pet space. Chu Mu did not know how to awaken it.

He never expected that God Dew actually had such a usage. If he could awaken Dead Dream, his strength would be another level higher. After all, Dead Dream was already close to high class Immortal rank in the previous awakening. With God Dew’s baptism, it might become even stronger!

Chapter 1613: The Vast Forbidden Palace

Chu Mu found the forbidden palace Yu Suo mentioned.

Chu Mu noticed that this forbidden palace was actually surrounded by a layer of creepy sigil barrier.

This barrier seemed to be a unique energy shackle and completely sealed this forbidden palace. He could see streaks of lightning at the entrance.

Chu Mu wondered just why such a unique forbidden palace was inside Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions. It seemed that every entrance and seam was sealed. Just what kind of creature could be sealed inside this forbidden palace?

Chu Mu summoned Mo Xie and let Mo Xie use its claws to tear open this barrier.

After entering the forbidden palace, Chu Mu abruptly realized the space inside the forbidden palace was extremely vast. He could not even see the end inside this dim palace!

“What’s going on?” Chu Mu examined the dim palace in astonishment.

When looking from outside, this forbidden palace was clearly similar to a normal palace. Chu Mu should be able to reach the end in a blink of an eye with his speed.

However, after entering the forbidden palace, the space had widened several times.

“Young master, this is a classic compressed space. On the surface, it may look like a normal palace, it’s actually very big inside, and very stable. After reaching a high rank, every attack contains immense destructive power. If two experts want to spar, it will cause a big commotion. At such times, this kind of customized compressed space can be used for the sparring,” explained Old Li at the right timing.

“I see,” Chu Mu nodded.

“However, this forbidden palace is clearly not meant for the experts to spar in. Perhaps, it is holding some powerful creatures kept by Heaven Palace,” said Old Li.

Without the need for Old Li to remind, Chu Mu could sense the powerful aura from some creatures. Chu Mu walked deeper into the palace and noticed that the aura came from the ground.

On the ground of the forbidden palace, there were many sealing diagrams. The aura of those creatures came from these sealing diagrams.

Yu Suo told him not to touch these seals.

“Chu Mu, I’m going to start the second break through attempt, God Dew’s energy is a little uncontrollable.....” reminded Yu Suo.

“This forbidden palace can hide some energy fluctuations, right?” asked Chu Mu.

“It can, but not completely. Keep walking straight, the end of the forbidden palace connects between Totem Palace and Wheel Palace. After reaching there, the pressure from Forbidden Army will be lessened,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu could only follow Yu Suo’s words now. He walked straight towards the end of the forbidden palace.

There were many seals in this forbidden palace, Chu Mu did not dare to fly carelessly.

At that moment, a gust of pure energy surged out from Chu Mu's soul pet space. This energy spread out to the surroundings like a ripple with Chu Mu as the center!

This was God Dew's energy fluctuation, Chu Mu was shocked.

If such a vast amount of energy seeped out, leaving aside someone as strong as Qin Ji, any Spirit Immortal rank Forbidden Army soldier could easily detect this energy fluctuation!

The energy rippled out and was weakened when touching the forbidden palace's restriction. Then, it continued spreading towards the outside.

After several layers of weakening, God Dew's energy fluctuation was not so intense already.

.....

"Did you sense it?" In the sky above Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions, Qin Ji frowned as he focused to the east where the forbidden palace was located at.

"Sense what?" asked Madam He.

"There seems to be energy fluctuation from the forbidden palace," said Qin Ji.

"Isn't it normal for energy fluctuation to be there? When had those creatures sealed inside been obedient?" said Madam He.

Qin Ji somehow felt that the energy fluctuation was similar to God Dew's.

The forbidden palace was a compressed space. It was unique as its end was located between Totem Palace and Wheel Palace.

In other words, if the thief escaped using the forbidden palace, it was possible to pass through the sealed area inside Totem Palace.

"I will take a look, please take over this place," said Qin Ji.

"True, that thief seems to be very knowledgeable about Totem Palace and even goddess building. He may also know the secret of this forbidden palace," said Madam He.

Qin Ji rode on his Starry Sky Dragon and flew towards the forbidden palace.

Qin Ji was unsure the thief was definitely inside this forbidden palace. In order not to stir up any unnecessary panic, Qin Ji made his Forbidden Army guard the exit of the forbidden palace, while he alone entered.

The interior of the forbidden palace was very dim. Qin Ji similarly did not dare to fly inside the forbidden palace. He made his Starry Sky Dragon transform into its mini form and coiled around him.

As he unleashed his senses, he searched for the thief inside this vast palace.

Suddenly, a clear ripple of energy fluctuation swept through from his front.

Qin Ji could not be any more familiar with this aura. It was none other than God Dew!

“He’s really here!” Qin Ji’s eyes immediately turned sharp.

He chanted an incantation and summoned a golden-colored demon.

The golden demon could move around easily in this place filled with seals. Qin Ji’s eyes stared hard towards the direction of the energy fluctuation and chased after the source.

.....

“Failed again?” asked Chu Mu.

“Yes.....”

“Never mind, I will help you,” said Chu Mu.

“How are you going to help me?” asked Yu Suo.

“I help you guide God Dew’s energy into your soul. This should be similar to strengthening a soul pet,” said Chu Mu.

Yu Suo hesitated a little.

In theory, she was Chu Mu’s soul pet. The most unique trait of a soul pet trainer was the ability to guide energy into a soul pet’s body using soul remembrance to achieve an evolution.

However, honestly speaking, Yu Suo always cultivated by herself and never let Chu Mu strengthen her using the soul pet method.

“Fine. I will.....” Yu Suo abruptly stopped halfway.

“What’s wrong?” asked Chu Mu.

“Someone is coming after us,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu turned around and noticed a golden silhouette easily avoiding the seals between the tightly packed pillars and heading towards his direction.

“It’s probably the energy fluctuation just now getting sensed by someone,” Chu Mu frowned.

He unleashed his senses. Fortunately, there was only one person, he did not have to worry about getting surrounded.

“Get away from it first. I will attempt one more time. If I cannot succeed, you will help me evolve,” said Yu Suo.

“Fine,” Chu Mu nodded.

“It may be Qin Ji, he’s very strong. Hurry up and transfer that God Dew’s growth energy to Dead Dream. If it awakens, you will have a greater chance of escaping,” said Yu Suo.

Chapter 1614: Strengthening Yu Suo

While Qin Ji had yet to catch up, Chu Mu transferred God Dew’s energy into Dead Dream’s soul pet space.

Without even needing to guide, God Dew’s energy poured into the cluster of energy which was Dead Dream.

Dead Dream’s life force had been feeble and maintained in a weakened suspense state. Chu Mu was unable to reawaken Dead Dream despite using many Immortal Items.

However, as expected of Heaven Palace’s treasure, Chu Mu could clearly sense Dead Dream’s aura getting stronger.

That cluster of faint black flame began violently flickering, gradually becoming a ring of black energy. Within the black energy ring, he could see Dead Dream’s feathers fluttering.

The feathers became denser and denser, while Dead Dream's life force became stronger and stronger. Chu Mu felt that Dead Dream was resurrecting from the Dead Butterflies in the battlefield.

Dead Butterflies circled around the black energy ring. Each Dead Butterfly also carried a trace of purplish black lightning. The streaks of lightning intercrossed between Dead Butterflies and wove into a network.

“Yi~!”

A phoenix cry echoed in Chu Mu's mental world. Within the soul pet space, Dead Lightning danced around Dead Dream's body. Dead Dream's body was rapidly being created within the network of lightning and darkness.

Sixteen elegant and bewitching wings filled with dark feathers and lightning appeared. Its body was still beautiful and charming.....

Seeing Dead Dream's reawakening, Chu Mu was elated. He immediately chanted the incantation and summoned Dead Dream.

A dark diagram laced with lightning appeared in front of Chu Mu. Dead Dream flew out from the soul pet diagram.

The moment Dead Dream flew out, it already sensed a powerful foe chasing behind Chu Mu. Lightning flashed in its eyes!

Bzzzzt~!

Streaks of dark purple lightning chains shot out from Dead Dream's body, rapidly weaving into a restriction diagram made of lightning chains and landed in front of Qin Ji.

"Charge through!" snorted Qin Ji as he did not treat Dead Dream's lightning restriction as a threat.

The golden demon was very agile. It rapidly passed through the lightning restriction without touching any part.

Seeing the golden demon charging straight through the restriction, Dead Dream lightly flapped its sixteen wings!

Bzzt!

Lightning butterflies suddenly appeared within the lightning restriction. These lightning butterflies swarmed to the front of the golden demon. Each lightning butterfly was connected with a streak of restriction lightning. As long as any lightning butterfly touched the golden demon's body, the restriction would chain it up.

The golden demon could avoid those lightning chains, but it could not dodge these pseudo life forms generated from the lightning!

More and more lightning chains wrapped around this golden demon. Its movement speed was getting slower and slower, eventually fully bound by the lightning restriction!

Qin Ji's expression turned grim. He had never expected this thief to be this strong that his demon soul pet could also be restrained.

Qin Ji took a glance at the white dragon coiling on his body. The white dragon understood his intention and immediately flew out while enlarging itself.

Starry Sky Dragon opened its mouth and bit onto those lightning chains. It forcefully swallowed those lightning chains.

The restriction was dimmed. That golden demon also used its sharp claws to tear away the lightning chains. Its golden eyes stared at Dead Dream furiously.

Dead Dream began chanting again and lightning began dancing around its body.

The lightning bolts blasted to the surroundings and hit the sealing diagrams nearby.

After getting hit by lightning bolts, those weaker sealing diagrams were destroyed.

In an instant, horrifying roars rang out from those sealing diagrams. Once a crack appeared on such sealing diagrams, the creatures inside would madly tear apart the sealing diagrams which imprisoned them!

Soon, a large number of sealing diagrams hit by Dead Dream's lightning bolts were broken. Huge figures appeared one after another in this dim forbidden palace. Pairs of furious eyes stared at the pursuing golden demon and Qin Ji.

"Damn!" cursed Qin Ji.

A large group of sealed creatures had escaped. Furthermore, these creatures were clearly influenced by that Dead Lightning Phoenix and directed their rage towards him.

If Qin Ji wanted to catch that thief, he had to pass through this group of sealed creatures. However, these annoying creatures would not let him through easily.

.....

Chu Mu turned to look behind and was relieved to see the dangerous Qin Ji getting obstructed by those sealed creatures.

“Good job,” Chu Mu praised Dead Dream which had just reawakened.

Dead Dream was a soul pet similarly familiar with seals and restrictions. It could clearly sense which seals in this forbidden palace could be made use of, and which seals they must not disturb.

By relying on the knowledge of seals and darkness incitation, these sealed creatures were easily manipulated by Dead Dream.

Without Qin Ji’s pursuit, Chu Mu would have an easier time for escape.

Soon, he saw light in front of him.

It was a very narrow door, a lightning barrier was set up on the door. It was clearly to prevent anyone from entering the forbidden palace or any creatures escaping from inside.

Mo Xie jumped down from Chu Mu's shoulder and lightning waved its claws. The barrier was easily torn open.

After exiting the forbidden palace, Chu Mu noticed he arrived at an unfamiliar place.

There were similarly many palaces in this place, but they were much more solemn compared to Totem Palace!

Furthermore, the style of the pavilions inside was also different from Totem Palace.

Chu Mu turned around and saw that Pavilion of Myriad Pavilions was already behind him. Troops of Forbidden Army soldiers were rapidly flying towards his direction.

"Go, they want to encircle this place," reminded Yu Suo in a hurry.

"To where?" asked Chu Mu.

"Go to Era Hall, there won't be any guard there," said Yu Suo.

Wheel Palace's Era Hall, when Chu Mu heard those two terms, he somehow felt that this Wheel Palace was related to the ten thousand year wheel and thousand year era.

According to Yu Suo's direction, Chu Mu found Era Hall.

Yu Suo recited the incantation of the restriction to Chu Mu, and Chu Mu easily entered Era Hall.

Era Hall was ancient and solemn. There were a total of nine pillars inside, various creatures were carved on the pillars.

There was nobody inside the hall.

Chu Mu walked one round around Era Hall and noticed that all the sculptures on the pillars were the era's strongest Old Li had told him. There was also a sculpture of a Black Nightmare, as well as a creature which Chu Mu had never seen before.

"These are the nine era's strongest within this wheel?" Chu Mu looked at these sculptures in astonishment.

Chu Mu had seen Hades, Yellow Spring, Ancient Flood Dragon Person, Ancient Beast Soul and Black Nightmare before. However, he had never seen Inferno, Underworld, Limbo Flower and one other creature.

"Leave those things aside first, help me complete the last step of evolution," Yu Suo told Chu Mu as she had already walked out from the soul pet space.

She gave Chu Mu the God Dew.

Chu Mu nodded and found a place to sit down. He placed God Dew in front of him, while Yu Suo sat down opposite to him and stared at him.

All of Chu Mu's soul pets had received strengthening from Chu Mu, other than the first two soul pacts. He had never formally done an energy transfer with Yu Suo before, so he was not sure if this could help her complete the evolution.

"Hurry, we don't have much time," said Yu Suo anxiously.

"Do you still have other plans?" asked Chu Mu as he saw Yu Suo's anxious state.

"Don't ask so much first, concentrate," said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu probed his soul remembrance into God Dew and slowly guided the energy towards Yu Suo's soul.

God Dew's energy was very powerful. Chu Mu realized that his soul power exhausted at a very high speed when guiding the energy. He felt that he might be completely exhausted soon.

"The energy did not leak. This is much more efficient than me absorbing by myself, continue," Yu Suo smiled.

She originally only intended to let Chu Mu help her steal God Dew, she never expected Chu Mu's soul remembrance was also able to help her evolve. If she had known that soul pet trainer's unique strengthening ability could also be used on her, she would have put down all kinds of grudge towards Chu Mu and asked him to help her strengthen.....

Chu Mu did not speak. This strengthening process required high concentration.

God Dew's energy was gentle, it was not so violent compared to the different types of energy Chu Mu came into contact with in the past. However, this gentle energy was just like water, it was hard to grab with water. He could only carefully hold it up and made sure there was no gap in his soul remembrance in order to ensure there was no leakage. Only by doing this, the soul pet would be able to absorb the maximum amount of energy.

With the assistance of Chu Mu's soul remembrance, this energy absorption process became much easier. Yu Suo could feel a surge of power rising from her soul and charging towards the solid threshold!

Chu Mu closed his eyes and concentrated fully on guiding the energy.

He did not notice Yu Suo's hair showing a change at this moment. Her hair changed into blood-colored flower threads like a witch!

The flower threads kept growing and started to coil around Chu Mu's body!

Chapter 1615: Evil Good Ancestor's Reproduction

Yu Suo's hair grew more and more. Like flower vines, those thin flower threads stuck to Chu Mu's skin as if absorbing something.

Chu Mu did not pay attention to these and still concentrated on guiding God Dew's energy into Yu Suo's soul.

Fragrance began to exude from Yu Suo's body, blue and red Evil Good Flowers started to bloom in the entire Era Hall.

Countless flower vines extended out with Yu Suo as the center. The vines coiled around those pillars and spread all over the walls and ceiling.

The flower vines grew denser and denser. In an instant, the entire hall was completely covered in these flower vines. It looked like a house built with vines.

Evil Good Flowers bloomed one after another, decorating the ground into a flower carpet.

The fragrance could easily make one drown in happiness.

Chu Mu opened his eyes and was surprised to see such a beautiful scene.

All of those flowers, vines and threads spread out with Yu Suo as the center. It seemed like countless flower fairies gathering around their queen.

Yu Suo's hair spread apart like a witch, her face was as white as snow, yet her lips were bright red.

Her eyes were closed and her long eyelashes were purple.

Chu Mu looked at Yu Suo and was astonished.

In normal situations, Yu Suo's aura was holy and elegant. Even without much decorations, he would give off a sacred presence.

However, right now, this woman suddenly transformed from the perfect existence to an evil witch!

Her alluring appearance was very seductive, yet extremely dangerous.

At that moment, Chu Mu could clearly sense Yu Suo's soul evolving. Her soul evolution also strengthened Chu Mu's soul.

However, for some reason, the tenth phase Evil Good Queen somehow gave off an intangible impact to Chu Mu. He felt like she was a poisonous flower, and the poisonous thorn was pointed towards his heart all the time. It would rob away his life if he was careless.

Yu Suo clearly succeeded in evolving to the tenth phase.

After some time, she slowly opened her eyes.

Her pupils were not the usual purple, but a charming crimson. When she made eye contact with Chu Mu, Chu Mu could sense something striking deep into his heart, causing him to be unsure what to do!

“Why are you using mental technique on me?” complained Chu Mu.

“I didn’t,” said Yu Suo calmly.

“Succeeded?” asked Chu Mu.

Yu Suo stretched out her hands. Her skin was no longer human skin, but covered flower petals like scales.

She lightly blew onto her hand. Those flower petals were blown off from her hand and revealed the tender skin beneath.

Chu Mu watched her absentmindedly.

Yu Suo noticed that her clothes were also shed off along with the flower petals and spoke to Chu Mu bashfully, “Turn around!”

She was shedding off her original flower petal layer. This was similar to a rebirth. It was similar to when Chu Mu first met her, she was completely naked after experiencing an evolution.

Compared to the past, she was no longer a young girl. Her well-proportioned body could easily make any man lust after.

Chu Mu opened his mouth, but did not say anything. He was a little charmed by the scene and thought that Yu Suo wanted to seduce him using this method. It turned out that this was a full baptism after an evolution.

Chu Mu did not turn around. It was not because he lusted after her beauty, but he noticed that Yu Suo's hair coiled around him tightly and he was unable to move.

"Why are you coiling me up?" Chu Mu felt something was amiss.

The alluring fragrance and naked body before him, the hair which coiled around him and prevented him from moving. Could he really believe that Yu Suo had no ulterior motives?

"I..... I also don't know," Yu Suo was also confused why her hair would be coiling around Chu Mu.

Furthermore, she could not control her hair at all. Her hair coiled around Chu Mu tightly, as if wanting to obtain something from him.

"Ah!" Suddenly, Yu Suo remembered something and screamed, her face turned pale!

"Why are you screaming now?" grumbled Chu Mu.

Yu Suo's hair coiled around his neck, limbs and waist, he could not move at all.

"Quick, burn my hair away," Yu Suo did not even bother about wearing her clothes and shouted towards Chu Mu.

Chu Mu also did not like to be trapped like this and chanted an incantation.

Black and white Devil Fire manifested and rapidly spread onto Yu Suo's hair.

Usually, it would be easy for Chu Mu's Devil Fire to burn such things. However, after the evolution, Yu Suo's fear towards fire had been greatly lessened. Furthermore, her current rank was even higher than Chu Mu, Chu Mu's flame could not even burn her hair.

"I can't burn it," said Chu Mu.

Yu Suo's expression turned worse, as if she knew her death would be approaching soon.

"What's going on?" asked Chu Mu.

Yu Suo did not answer.

Chu Mu tapped her and asked again, "Can you hear me?"

"Don't touch me!" Yu Suo suddenly backed away. However, her hair still coiled around Chu Mu tightly. She was pulling Chu Mu towards her while she backed away.

“I’m not touching you, your hair.....” Chu Mu was about to try recalling Yu Suo back to the soul pet space, but suddenly felt a burning hot sensation on his skin.

This sensation came from Yu Suo’s hair. That burning hot sensation spread from his skin into his body, then all over his body!

“You..... What are you doing?” Chu Mu felt the strange feeling and looked at Yu Suo in shock.

Yu Suo did not answer. She just stared at Chu Mu furiously.

“Young master, it’s Evil Good Queen,” said Old Li.

“What’s going on?” Chu Mu could feel that his body was getting more and more abnormal. It felt like a burning beast trying to charge out of his body.

“Evil Good Ancestor will start its reproduction directly after reaching the tenth phase. If there’s no suitable male partner in the surroundings, it will grow a reproduction flower by itself. This reproduction flower is one rank lower than Evil Good Ancestor, similar to Empyrean Cyan Hidden Dragon’s split reproduction. If there is a suitable male partner nearby, Evil Good Ancestor will obtain his essence to give birth to a stronger offspring.” said Old Li.

Chu Mu thought he heard something wrong and looked at Yu Suo in astonishment.

Yu Suo’s face was so cold as if there was a thick layer of ice, “It’s speaking the truth.”

“What the heck? Release me, or I will burn your Flower’s Stamen,” said Chu Mu.

“Burn it, I would rather die than do such a thing with you!” rebutted Yu Suo.

“Young master, this is Evil Good Ancestor’s reproduction instinct, she cannot control it. You two are both Half Humans anyway, the success rate should be rather high, quite suitable.....” Old Li shamelessly jumped out from Chu Mu’s spatial ring and seemed to be temporarily leaving the scene.

Seeing Old Li running away, Chu Mu’s expression became even worse.

At that moment, Chu Mu clearly sensed those flower threads injecting aphrodisiac flower fluid into his body. Yu Suo was currently stark naked in front of him. No matter how strong his will was, his rationality would collapse soon when Evil Good Ancestor kept injecting aphrodisiac into his body.

“Why are you doing this?” Chu Mu stared at Yu Suo angrily.

Yu Suo was also enraged, “Do you think I want this? How would I know that Evil Good Flower will start reproduction uncontrollably after evolving to the tenth phase?”

“An unreasonable primeval creature as expected,” Chu Mu felt even harder to maintain his rationality.

He already put down their past grudges and no longer minded about Yu Suo’s betrayal in the past. However, that did not mean he liked this woman. Taking one step back, even if he was seduced by this woman and did it with her, it was better than conducting the so-called reproduction with this woman.

“Burn it, burn my Flower’s Stamen,” Yu Suo also gave up by now.

She actually knew that Evil Good Ancestor required reproduction. This reproduction would also use her body as a medium, and the offspring would also be in her womb.

However, she had never imagined the most suitable bloodline Evil Good Ancestor acknowledged was Chu Mu, the man she hated the most!

Chu Mu was also a Half Human, and he had Black Nightmare bloodline. That evil aura was similar to Evil Good Queen, and the Other type was something Evil Good Flower did not possess. Hence, Evil Good Ancestor decided that Chu Mu was the most suitable partner.

However, in Yu Suo’s perspective: She would rather die than to do it with him!

“Are you sure? That’s your heart. Won’t you die if I burn it?” Chu Mu felt that his consciousness was a little out of control now.

“Burn it, burn my soul along with it,” Yu Suo turned her face to the side and spoke with resolution, “I don’t have to see your disgusting face again!”

“Then goodbye,” Chu Mu would not want to do something like that with her. She also wanted to die anyway.

“I don’t want to see you in the next generation also.”

“I will help you accomplish what you wanted to do,” said Chu Mu.

Yu Suo was startled for a moment and showed a little hesitation in her gaze, then finally told Chu Mu, “Thank you.”

“You’re welcome.”

Chapter 1616: Undo Soul Pact!

Yu Suo’s Flower’s Stamen was in Chu Mu’s spatial ring. Chu Mu used his will to gather a cluster of Devil Fire and slowly made the Devil Fire approach the Flower’s Stamen.

This Flower’s Stamen was Yu Suo’s heart. In order to let Chu Mu spare her, she handed over this Flower’s Stamen to Chu Mu to prove her determination not to do anything that would hard Chu Mu.

Many years had passed since then. When Chu Mu was about to burn this woman’s heart again, he started to feel reluctance.

After interacting for a long time and with her memories flowing into his mental world, his knowledge about her was no longer an arrogant soul pet which betrayed him. He was able to comprehend her deeds from a higher perspective.....

Just like what she said, her encounter was similar to Ning Maner. What was different was that she was forced to choose this evil path.

Chu Mu no longer wanted to kill Yu Suo. If not for such a ridiculous turn of event, he would not be using Devil Fire to burn Yu Suo’s heart.

“What? You can’t bear to do it?” Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu expressionlessly.

Chu Mu looked back at her and asked, “In what way do you want to die?”

Yu Suo bit her lips. Why would she want to die? She still had many things to do, she did not want to die.

She also considered compromising herself to this damned primeval reproduction. She would just treat as if nothing happened afterwards.

However, when she recalled everything this detestable man did to her, she felt that she would tear herself alive after the deed.

She could not tolerate it, there was no way to tolerate it!

“From the moment I fell from Darkness Cliff, I vowed to myself that I would never be used by others again. Giving you my Flower’s Stamen is already the bottom line, I would rather die than losing this final dignity!” said Yu Suo furiously.

“Chaste,” Chu Mu nodded.

“Just burn it. Don’t you hate me and want to kill me? I don’t need your sympathy and don’t touch me. I have lethal poison in my body. If you try to do something, you will also die!” warned Yu Suo.

“Young master, she’s lying. Evil Good Ancestor is currently in reproducing stage, she won’t have any poison,” Old Li’s voice came from far away.

Yu Suo really wanted to make that busybody Old Li into fertilizer!

She knew her lie was already exposed, so she stared at Chu Mu and realized that Chu Mu was staring at her body.

She covered her chest with her arms, but her slim arms could not completely block the view.

Exposing nakedly before Chu Mu caused Yu Suo to be even more frustrated. She used her hair which did not turn into flower threads to cover the rest.

However, this way of covering made her even more seductive instead. Chu Mu felt his consciousness a little wavering.

“Burn it now!” Yu Suo noticed the wavering in Chu Mu’s gaze and became scared.

Chu Mu shook his head to clear up his mind.

“If I undo the soul pact, can it stop this nonsense?” asked Chu Mu in a serious tone.

Yu Suo answered, "If you want to undo the soul pact, you have to return my Flower's Stamen. Otherwise, if the soul pact is forcefully undone, I will still die."

"Here," Chu Mu passed over the Flower's Stamen.

Yu Suo was dumbfounded and looked at Chu Mu in confusion.

"You're returning my Flower's Stamen?" asked Yu Suo.

"Yes, undo the soul pact," said Chu Mu.

"If you return my Flower's Stamen and then undo the soul pact, you can't escape if I want to kill you!" Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu in disbelief.

To her, Chu Mu would use soul pact to bound her for life. Furthermore, with her Flower's Stamen in his hand, she would never be able to change the situation.

"Are you stronger than me?" asked Chu Mu.

"Hmph, after the tenth phase, you are no match for me. With God Dew's nourishment, your flame won't deal much damage to me," snorted Yu Suo.

Chu Mu frowned. He suddenly felt that returning Yu Suo's Flower Stamen and then undoing their soul pact was a mistake.

If this woman sought his life right after regaining freedom, he would not be able to resolve the problem. Furthermore, he did not know if this woman would also involve those close to him. She might be getting along with them now, but she might have accumulated years of grudges!

Chu Mu also felt a headache now. If he let Yu Suo regain freedom, he might be adding a terrifying and dangerous enemy.

However, he also felt it was too cruel to burn her to death with Devil Fire.

“You’re being so generous…… Are you buying time on purpose? I warn you first, even if you obtain my body, I will use whatever method I can to poison you to death. You better give up such thoughts!” warned Yu Suo.

Aphrodisiac fluid was still being injected into Chu Mu’s body, while Yu Suo similarly felt her body getting hotter. She felt that Chu Mu was looking more and more pleasing, and even occasionally thought of diving into his bosom. She was shocked to realize such thoughts. She would never allow herself to do such a thing with Chu Mu while she was still conscious.

Seeing Chu Mu hesitate, Yu Suo sneered, “It’s not a difficult choice. Just burn my heart and nothing will happen. If you allow this to continue developing while you’re still conscious, this means you already have such thoughts. Even without this ridiculous situation, you will vent your desire on me one day. Why must you pretend to be a chaste person? Anyway, you are already not chaste anymore, this is your true self.”

Chu Mu was speechless. Did this woman become crazy?

“Take it, I will undo the soul pact,” said Chu Mu as he eventually passed Yu Suo her Flower’s Stamen.

Flower’s Stamen was put right in front of Yu Suo. Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu and even suspected whether he was using a fake one to deceive her.

However, the pulsing frequency of this Flower’s Stamen completely matched her pulse, she could clearly sense this was part of her body.

She slowly reached out and took back this Flower’s Stamen which left her body for a long time, even forgetting to cover her chest.

“I will begin undoing the soul pact. Our souls will suffer damage, but it shouldn’t be a big problem.....” said Chu Mu.

Chapter 1617: Embracing Evil

The chanting began. Honestly speaking, Chu Mu never expected to use this undoing incantation one day.

If possible, he did not want to let Yu Suo go so easily. This woman was a dangerous flower with lethal thorns.

However, compared to losing his chastity to her, especially when it would make her pregnant, he still could not accept the latter.

The undoing incantation was transmitted into Yu Suo’s soul. She had been dreaming of this day for a long time. Without the soul pact, even if she could not win against Chu Mu, she could escape from him and not listen to his orders anymore.

Sensing the undoing incantation, Yu Suo hurriedly chanted the incantation as well.

There was a unique connection between the two souls. As both of them started chanting the incantation, this connection was slowly getting pulled by both sides.

The connection was twined around tightly. When they started pulling the connection, both sides could feel their souls experiencing intense pain. It was like their souls getting torn apart!

Chu Mu frowned, and Yu Suo was similarly in pain.

They thought that this undoing process would have been easy, since they were not intimate like the other soul pet trainers and soul pets.

However, when the soul pact was truly getting undone, this pain was actually this unbearable.

Regardless of what happened afterwards, this soul pact was Chu Mu's first soul pact and also the earliest soul pact. Their souls had almost merged into each other, forcefully tearing away was the same as tearing apart their souls!

Chu Mu gritted his teeth. The soul pact itself was unwilling to break the connection between them, because the soul pact was something that bound the souls. Forcefully undoing it was a torture to the souls.

Chu Mu was resolute and continued to pull apart their souls. He was unwilling to experience the ridiculous event even if his soul suffered severe damage.

Yu Suo similarly wanted to struggle out of this shackle. Her face was extremely pale, she bit her lips so hard blood was seeping out.

Snap!

Finally, a crisp snapping sound came from the soul connection!

At that moment, Chu Mu and Yu Suo drew a sharp breath. The intense pain in their souls caused their expressions to twist

Chu Mu clutched his chest and his face paled in pain.

This was the second time he undid a soul pact. The first time was undoing the soul pact with Mo Xie due to deception. He felt his soul getting robbed away during that time and he had trouble breathing due to the pain.

Meanwhile, he had a similar feeling this time as well. Even if this was a soul pet Chu Mu did not like, even if this was the arrogant Evil Good Queen, the moment this soul pact which existed for the longest time in Chu Mu's soul snapped, the pain was indescribable!

Similarly, the pain Yu Suo had to endure was on par with Chu Mu. She took a deep breath and immediately felt a heart-stinging pain transmitted to her soul!

Both of them panted heavily and hung their heads low.

Chu Mu recovered a little faster. He wiped away the sweat on his forehead and looked at the hair entangling on his body, “Can..... Can you release me now?”

Yu Suo raised her head, her forehead and neck moist with sweat.

She panted a few times and spoke, “Did I mention undoing the soul pact will prevent Evil Good Ancestor’s instinct?”

Chu Mu was startled for a moment and looked at her in shock, “You..... What do you mean!”

“You still don’t understand? Even if you undo the soul pact, Evil Good Ancestor still wants your bloodline to complete the reproduction!” said Yu Suo.

“Then why did you agree to undo the soul pact?” asked Chu Mu.

“I will be able to kill you after I wake up. Then, I will forcefully erase this memory and treat as if nothing happened!” answered Yu Suo coldly.

“You vile woman!” cursed Chu Mu.

He returned her freedom out of goodwill and intended not to deal with her anymore in future. Yet she wanted to kill him the moment the soul pact was undone. Could there be anyone even more vile than her in this world?

He should have burned her Flower's Stamen long ago!

"I'm vile? Can I be more vile than you? When you used Devil Fire to torture me, have you thought about what you....." rebutted Yu Suo as she pointed at Chu Mu.

However, her voice was getting weaker and weaker. A fluffy sensation spread throughout her body, as well as an irresistible impulsiveness.

Chu Mu's rage was also getting dominated by another feeling.

It was difficult to imagine two enemies who wanted to kill each other suddenly quietened down, then started staring at each other and blushing.

Flowers began blooming in this hall. Yu Suo's hair also returned to normal.

Her purple long hair stuck to her flawless body, and she had a breath-taking beautiful face. Chu Mu looked at this woman in front of him in a daze, the memories over the years were getting erased.

He suddenly recalled the time when he saw a pitiful girl inside a blue flower helplessly asking for help. Back then, Chu Mu only wanted to help her overcome her problem.

Seeing this mature and beautiful face now, Chu Mu still felt that she was in pain and required his help.....

.....

Darkness and coldness existed alongside, viscous fluid covered her body.

Yu Suo slowly opened her eyes. She realized she was wrapped inside a soft object filled with fluid.

Her clothes had been dissolved, her naked body mixed along with the viscous fluid. When she tried to struggle free from this weird object, she noticed that the sticky object felt like her blood vessels, injecting energy into her body.....

“What’s wrong with me?” Yu Suo looked at herself and the flower organ in front of her pulsing like a heart.

She tried hard to recall.

Shouldn’t she be dead?

She jumped down from the cliff, it was a certain death.

She only remembered getting further and further away from those detestable faces at the edge of the cliff, because she was falling down.

She remembered falling into a demonic vine abyss which was like a snake den. The huge vines passed her by as she fell. The further she fell, the denser those vines covered around her.....

Then, there seemed to be a tunnel suddenly swallowing her up. After that, she lost consciousness.

“Shouldn’t I have been eaten by that most horrifying flower demon in the world?” Yu Suo’s memory stopped at the moment she was swallowed. She was scared and desperate at that moment.

However, she was not dead and was bound by these sticky things.....

More accurately speaking, these things seemed to have become part of her. She could even sense another thought and soul inside her body.

She tried to move her body.

At that moment, she felt the darkness in the surroundings wriggling.

In the darkness, an enormous object suddenly appeared. It was a huge demonic flower. Evil marks were densely packed on the demonic flower!

Huge flower vines entangled and spread out. These flower vines filled the surroundings, she could not even see the entire Ancestor Flower due to its size. She had to turn her head to be able to see the full appearance.

Holy blue and crimson, one represented good and one represented evil. Yu Suo stood absentmindedly at the place where all the black-colored vines intersected. She felt that she had fallen into a hell, or else she would never witness such an astonishing scene!

She wanted to escape out of fear.

However, she suddenly felt that everything she saw was closely connected to her.....

It seemed that..... These huge and ugly things were part of her!

She slowly raised her hand. All of a sudden, the demonic flower ancestor slowly bloomed.

Within the flower, a demonic princess with blue and red skin manifested!

Its hair was made of fluttering flower threads, its body was made of flower petals. It had a woman's face and also a woman's body, but what shocked Yu Suo was that this demonic princess ancestry imitated her appearance!

That face was exactly the same as hers apart from color. Even that body completely matched hers.

Seeing this female demon born from the flower, Yu Suo felt like seeing her ugly self from a mirror!

“This is me..... This is me..... How did I become.....”

“This is not me..... This is not me, I'm not like this!”

Yu Suo collapsed, this was more horrifying than a nightmare!

She crawled backwards and wanted to stay away from this hell.

However, where could she escape to?

That female demon opened its eyes. Those eyes were exactly the same as hers. She even felt like staring at her own eyes. She could see grudge, fury and hatred from those eyes!

This grudge, fury and hatred made her desire for power to tear apart all those detestable faces in her memory!

They all deserved to die. They killed her most beloved family using such a cruel method.

At that moment, she no longer backed away.

She looked at that evil self, forcefully suppressed her fear and walked towards it. Just like embracing death and darkness when she jumped down from the cliff, she chose to embrace this fearful and disgusting demonic self!

Chapter 1618

“Older sister, do you know? I discovered a flower at the cliff, it’s so special!” A little girl ran towards another girl cheerfully while holding a flower of holy blue and crimson color.

The two girls both wore blue skirts and had purple hair.

They looked exactly the same and even wore the same outfits.....

If one did not look carefully, it would appear as if there was a mirror between them, while the girl in the mirror would be the other party.

“Where did you pick it from?” asked the older sister after carefully examining this flower.

“From the cliff behind Heaven Palace. What’s this flower? It’s so strange, why does it have two types of flower petals?” asked the younger sister.

“This is Evil Good Flower, a type of flower that existed the earliest in this world. The holy blue color represents good, while crimson color represents evil,” said the older sister.

“Good? Evil? What’s good and evil?” asked the younger sister again.

“I don’t know,” The older sister shook her head.

“There’s also something older sister doesn’t know? It wasn’t written in books?”

“There are many things books cannot explain.”

“What are those?” The younger sister was so curious she wanted to ask about everything.

“Feelings.”

“What’s feeling?”

The older sister smiled. Her smile was calming and gentle. It seemed that she would never lose patience to any question, “I am your older sister, you are my younger sister, we share feelings.”

“I still don’t understand.....” The younger sister scratched her head.

“Someone with feelings is willing to share. The person with more feelings will share more. Happiness, sadness, reliance, responsibility.....”

“If I make a mistake, will older sister share responsibility with me?” asked the younger sister cunningly.

“I will.”

.....

.....

The moment she embraced evil, she felt something invading into her body. That something drilled through her skin and flesh, causing unbearable pain to her body.

She began to regret it. She did not expect embracing such an evil self would be this painful.

However, whenever she wanted to give up, a bloody face would appear before her.

Her cheek was bloodied, her hair was bloodied, she looked at her with hollow eyes.....

Her originally perfect body was already withered to the bones, looking like a dried mummy.

It was difficult to imagine such a perfect body and beautiful face would suddenly become this scary.

She lied to me. Even though she was hung and tortured into a dried corpse, she told me that she was hanging high up like the moon and showering the entire Heaven Palace and human world with her radiance.

Those people..... How could they do that to her? How were they any different from those livestock used to feed the monsters?

She was the most impartial and respected person, how could those people treat her like that? All of that..... All of that should have been my punishment, the one who made the mistake was me.....

.....

It was a black abyss. She kept falling, and her body was cut by the thorny vines during the fall.

Suddenly, she felt as if she was tied up under the Crimson Sol and was suffering the burning torture.

In the blink of an eye, a large group of monsters dashed over and bit her body, splitting her body up to eat.....

The most horrifying nightmares filled her mind, she was in such pain she could not distinguish whether the tortured person was herself or her.

The pain from body, mind and soul almost broke her, this demon transformation was even more torturing than death.

She became weaker and weaker. She felt that her soul was almost vanquished by this pain.

She had to find a host. She had to make sure her soul obtained a place of belonging, or else her mind would be completely broken by the illusionary torture.

“Save me, please save me!”

“How do I help you?”

“I just need two soul pacts.....”

Soul pact incantation was chanted. A soul pact connection slowly entered her devastated mental world and soul.

When this soul remembrance reached out, she felt someone pulling her out of this painful hell of demon transformation.

“What’s your name?”

“Why are you inside a flower? Are you a human or a flower demon?” asked a youth.

The heart-tearing pain was slowly fading away. The illusionary torture also disappeared from her mind.

Holy blue and crimson crossed over, the sharp flower petals slowly opened up.

At the center, a well-proportioned her slowly stood up. Her hair was crimson, as if it was smeared in blood.

Her lips were also crimson, it was very bewitching.

Her lips curved up slightly. That moment of despair, sadness and fury had completely disappeared, only the freshness of rebirth was left.

This body was still weak, but there was a great space for improvement. She was no longer a Totem Maiden, she was Evil Good Queen. She could use Evil Good Queen's power to do many things!

She took a glance at the youth and felt grateful. Without him, she would sink in the endless pain of reminiscence.....

However, she only smiled and did not speak a single word.

She turned around and left. She had many, many things to do.....

.....

.....

Era Hall.

The entire hall was filled with fragrance. All the Evil Good Flowers had bloomed.

Those flowers clustered around the biggest flower at the center.

The flower was closed up tightly like a house. With a gust of unique fragrance, the petals opened up one by one, blooming into the most elegant and beautiful flower.

There was a masculine man lying at the center of the flower. His silver and black hair matched the holy blue and crimson flower petals well.

On his solid chest, there was a well-proportioned woman leaning closely to him. Her purple hair was disheveled, half covering her naked body. That appearance was even more alluring than fully naked, like the scene of a semi-transparent veil covering the scene of a holy maiden bathing.

The man's eyes were closed, he was in an unconscious and slumbering state.

The woman opened her eyes first. She slowly retracted her arms which coiled around the man's neck.

The moment she opened her eyes, there was no shock, no rage, no killing intent. She leaned on his chest and had an empty gaze.

After a period of time, she slowly sat up. Her thin waist and curvy hips portrayed her alluring figure.

The difference between a man and a woman could be amounted to this difference in figure, but this difference allowed the woman's beauty to be breath-taking.

She stretched out her hand and gently stroked Chu Mu's body.

She slowly stroked from his chest to his neck, just like a gentle woman who received nourishing.

However, the moment her palm approached Chu Mu's neck, a flower thorn suddenly poked out from her palm.

This flower thorn was extremely sharp and was laced with lethal poison!

She just had to stab it lightly and he would die even if he had a half devil body. This was a poison in the Flower's Stamen of Evil Good Ancestor, the most lethal protection poison!

Her hand stopped there and began trembling violently.

Yu Suo took deep breaths and kept urging her hand to slap down. However, her mind was in a complete chaos. Sometimes, a youthful face appeared, he reached out to her and pulled her out of the painful hell. Sometimes, the detestable face of Chu Mu appeared. He was merciless and cruel, as hateful as those devils inside Heaven Palace.

"Idiot! Why did you undo the soul pact? Why did you return my Flower's Stamen?"

Yu Suo slapped heavily on Chu Mu's cheek.

When the slap landed, her flower thorn was also retracted. Other than an obvious palm print on his face, there was no sign of his skin getting cut and poisoned.

Yu Suo bit on her lips so hard blood seeped out. A teardrop rolled down from her cheek onto Chu Mu's chest.

She stood up and opened up her arms.

A gust of wind swept up in the hall. All the blooming flowers floated up and weaved into an elegant dress of holy blue and crimson.

All the flower petals and vines in the hall rapidly disappeared along with the wind, returning the hall to its original state.

After cleaning up everything, she took a glance at Chu Mu. Just like the first time they met, her emotion was very complicated.

Back then, she felt grateful yet ridiculous. She became the soul pet of a youth?

And now, she felt hatred and even more ridiculous.

However, so what?

What was there to cry about?

She must not let her weakness flow out from her eyes.

That person who was born a few minutes before her never shed any tears despite suffering all those punishments. What could this little pain and grudge amount to??

She turned and left, Evil Good Flower petals clustered around her, following their queen who had become resolute again.....

.....

The fragrance still lingered in the hall and did not dissipate after a long time.

The moment Yu Suo left, Chu Mu also opened his eyes.

He stared straight at the ceiling, the intangible Devil Fire gathered in his palm slowly dissipated after Yu Suo left.

He stared for a long time before finally looking away.

Heat and moisture was transmitted from his spatial ring. He opened his spatial ring and noticed that there was one more Monument Tear inside.....

When the soul pact was still existing, he never obtained her Monument Tear.

After the soul pact was undone, she left a teardrop in his heart and turned into Monument Tear.

This Monument Tear should contain all of her story.

Why was she so desperate to stand at the top of the world? Why did she have two personalities? Why did she jump down from that terrifying darkness cliff and embraced such a horrifying thing even if she had to give up everything.....

Chapter 1619: Leaving Heaven Palace

.....

Heaven City, a Totem Maiden wearing blue attire walked into a white alley.

After reaching the end, this Totem Maiden suddenly fainted. Next, like her soul getting sucked out, a soul drifted out from her body.

This soul slowly condensed into a material state and revealed a beautiful face.

“Finally completed. I wonder if Chu Mu can successfully escape from inside,” muttered Princess Jinrou to herself.

As she muttered, she never noticed an Evil Good Flower thread of holy blue and crimson slowly appearing next to her feet. These flower threads rapidly spread out along the two walls of the white alley, then wrapped up this place.

Bai Jinrou looked at these flower vines and immediately turned around.

Flower petals danced in the wind and rapidly gathered to trace out an alluring body.

The flower petals scattered and Yu Suo appeared in front of Bai Jinrou. Bai Jinrou examined her carefully and was unable to distinguish whether it was Yu Suo or Evil Good Queen.

Bai Jinrou possessed mind reading technique. Although she did not use it on Yu Suo, she could vaguely sense Yu Suo's difference compared to before. It seemed that her aura and attitude had changed.

"Have those seeds been scattered at the relative places?" asked Yu Suo emotionlessly.

"Yes," Bai Jinrou nodded and asked, "What about Chu Mu? Why is he not here?"

When Chu Mu was reminded, Yu Suo's gaze showed a strange change. She tried to remain calm and spoke, "He will be here soon."

"You're lying," Bai Jinrou stared at Yu Suo's eyes.

Before a person with mind reading technique, the wavering in one's gaze could easily be seen through when lying.

"No, give me the catalyst seed," answered Yu Suo.

"Where is Chu Mu? What did you do to him?" Princess Jinrou read some dangerous information from Yu Suo's eyes and immediately became hostile towards Yu Suo.

“You’re annoying!” Yu Suo raised her hand.

Vines instantly grew out from beneath Bai Jinrou’s feet and entangled her body. Some flower thorns with paralyzing effect poked into her body and was turning her body grey.

Bai Jinrou sensed the danger and immediately transformed into her spectral state. She escaped from Yu Suo’s vines.

Yu Suo sneered and chanted an incantation. A blue sealing flower suddenly manifested in the alley. The sealing flower bloomed above Princess Jinrou’s head and restrained Princess Jinrou.

Princess Jinrou wanted to struggle out of the restriction, but realized Yu Suo’s sealing power was too strong. She was unable to block this seal even if she used her Devil Soul’s mental protection.

Bai Jinrou looked at her immobile body. Meanwhile, Yu Suo slowly walked towards her and forcefully took the catalyst seed.

Bai Jinrou looked at Yu Suo and was shocked. Yu Suo had become much stronger and appeared to be more dangerous!

“Huhuhu!”

Suddenly, a cluster of black and silver Devil Fire overlapped the vines and burned the area around Bai Jinrou.

Within the flame, Chu Mu walked out.

The flame dissipated and Chu Mu stood there, staring at Yu Suo, “What are you doing?”

Yu Suo maintained her emotionless expression and casually waved her hand. The sealing flower which restrained Princess Jinrou scattered.

She did not want to speak to Chu Mu at all. After obtaining the seed, she turned around and walked towards the wall overgrown with flower vines.

The flower vines opened up and bore a flower vine passage through the wall which led to an unknown place.

“Wait,” Chu Mu grabbed her shoulder.

“Don’t touch me!” warned Yu Suo!

After that warning, the originally gentle Evil Good Flowers on the surrounding walls suddenly turned menacing. Countless poisonous flower thorns pointed to Chu Mu and would shoot out at any moment.

Bai Jinrou looked at these dangerous thorns in astonishment. She felt as if she was inside a flower demon’s body.

Chu Mu let go of his hand and those flower thorns also stopped.

“The soul pact is already undone. You can go your way, I will go mine, we won’t interfere with each other. However, what did you promise me before entering Heaven Palace?” Chu Mu was not afraid of these thorns at all.

Yu Suo’s chest heaved up and down, her head was filled with those shameful scenes.

And this man just had to stand before her with an attitude that wanted to sever their ties.

If he wanted to sever the ties, then let it be.

She also did not want to see him again, so it would be best not to see him forever!

“The remaining God Dew can sustain her life, find Xia Zhixian to set up the formation. Ask whatever else you want to ask at one go!” Yu Suo eventually suppressed the rage in her heart. She felt a little regret and stupid now. Why did she not kill him back at the hall?

“Where are you going?” asked Chu Mu with a frown as he looked at the flower vine passage which led to some place.

Chu Mu had a vague impression of this flower vine passage, it seemed to be connected to the bottom of that darkness abyss.

Chu Mu knew that not only Evil Good Ancestor was there, there were also other unknown creatures. The danger which threatened Heaven City was that dangerous abyss which was filled with man-eating creatures!

“Not your business,” Yu Suo ignored Chu Mu’s question and turned to walk towards that passage.

“How do I leave here?” Chu Mu chased after her and blocked her path.

Yu Suo gritted her teeth and felt that the man before her was really irritating. She took so much effort to make up her mind not to kill him, yet he would not let her quieten down alone.

“Leave where you came from. The restriction there will not repair itself so fast!” Yu Suo told herself that this would absolutely be the last sentence she spoke to Chu Mu!

“Are you staying here?” asked Chu Mu.

Yu Suo suddenly turned around and stared at Chu Mu furiously.

Actually, Chu Mu had another important question to ask her. However, honestly speaking, he did not know how to ask. He just wanted to stall this woman and not let her go away so easily.

However, seeing her attitude, he felt that she would be unable to suppress her anger if he asked that question.

Never mind, he just had to ask the next time. Chu Mu did not speak anymore and indicated that she could go.

Yu Suo walked past Chu Mu. At that moment, the wound from the severing of soul pact started to feel painful again, as if two halves of the original body desperating seeking the other half.

Yu Suo continued walking forward, slowly disappearing into that passage.

Chu Mu looked at her back figure and felt that she became even more unfamiliar.

“What did you do to her? She looked really furious,” asked Bai Jinrou as she walked up to Chu Mu.

“Nothing much,” Chu Mu shook his head.

“You undid the soul pact?” asked Bai Jinrou.

“Yes.”

“Why? Aren’t you worried that she will seek vengeance?”

“She probably won’t,” Chu Mu took a glance outside of Heaven City and spoke, “Let’s leave here first.”

“Yeah,” Bai Jinrou nodded.

.....

Chu Mu brought Bai Jinrou and left Heaven City. After flying into the starry sky, he looked down at this white city erected alone on this piece of land.

That white Heaven Palace existed for tens of thousands of years, and would continue to exist for tens of thousands of years. People who lived there claimed themselves to be the royalty and god that were superior to the human race. However, only few knew the cruel and inhuman deeds happening inside.

Through Yu Suo’s memory, Chu Mu also both the orderly, solemn side and twisted, ugly side of Heaven Palace.

Unfortunately, what Chu Mu saw were only fragments of memory. He was still clueless as to the reason Yu Suo jumped down into that darkness abyss. That darkness abyss was the most horrifying hell to Heaven Palace, demons and monsters that treated humans as food lived there!

Chu Mu looked at his palm which held a teardrop.

This teardrop must have recorded her most heartbreaking scene.

Chu Mu felt that he should throw away this Monument Tear which came from a woman who would become a stranger. After his soul recovered, she would have completely disappeared from his world. He could treat it as a really long dream, and would forget it after waking up.

After hesitating for a long time, Chu Mu still decided to keep this Monument Tear into his vessel.

.....

“Young master, how does it feel? This woman should be the ideal partner to you human males, right??” Old Li’s lecherous voice spoke in Chu Mu’s mind.

“Do you believe I will tear your mouth??” said Chu Mu coldly.

“You are both half human, no longer belonging to the human category in theory. The copulation between you two should be justified..... Alright I will shut up, I will keep quiet.”

“I have a question. Answer me honestly,” said Chu Mu very seriously.

“Just ask, young master,” replied Old Li.

.....

Hearing Old Li’s answer, Chu Mu became gloomy.

Bai Jinrou carefully observed the silent Chu Mu. She did not dare to use her mind reading technique. Furthermore, her mind reading technique was unable to read Chu Mu’s mind for some reason. She only knew Chu Mu’s mind was in a mess now.....

She only knew this should be related to Yu Suo, but she could not guess just what exactly happened.

Chapter 1620: One Year Of Snow

After safely leaving Heaven Palace, Chu Mu and Princess Jinrou returned to Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss's peak.

It was close to the new year right now. Chu Mu raised his head and was unable to see Heaven Palace's shadow anymore.

It seemed that he could only see Heaven Palace on that day.

After leaving Myriad Heaven Dragon Abyss, Chu Mu flew directly towards New Moon Land.

After Yu Suo helped him refine the evil aura at Zhengming Main City, Chu Mu sensed another growth in his strength.

In this trip to Heaven Palace, after that ridiculous matter, Chu Mu felt his strength grew again. His current strength should be close to that ten thousand year Immortal Dark Death King.

However, Chu Mu knew that this was far from enough.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person was confirmed to be the fifth era's strongest, its strength was definitely Undying rank.

The Solar Eclipse was approaching closer and closer, Chu Mu had to think of a way to deal with Ancient Flood Dragon Person.

.....

After returning to New Moon Land, Chu Mu gave God Dew to Xia Zhixian and told her to set up the Life Extension Formation for Bai Jinrou.

This treatment was a gradual process. Chu Mu made Bai Jinrou stay in his yard while he focused on cultivation.

For some reason, ever since returning from Heaven Palace, Chu Mu had an insecure feeling.

It was as if the sky would suddenly darken in one day. Next, a gigantic dragon would dive down from the pitch-black sky and cause a terrifying disaster in New Moon Land. At that time, he could only stand far away and watch it happen.

.....

The atmosphere in the room always changed when Chu Mu opened his eyes. He did not check what time it was when he opened his eyes, but what season it was.

Snow was falling outside for some time. The snowflakes covered the forest, roads and walls.

Giggles could be heard far away. Chu Mu heard Ye Qingzi's reprimandation, Ning Maner's teasing, someone's persuasion.....

Chu Mu smiled in gratification and quietly listened in his seat.

The room was very quiet. Chu Mu took a glance at the furry little Mo Xie which was hibernating in bed.

Mo Xie seemed to sense Chu Mu's awakening and rubbed its eyes with its tiny paws.

"Wuwuwuwu~!" Mo Xie shifted its petite body and squeezed itself into Chu Mu's bosom. It yawned and still seemed sleepy.

"Why didn't you go outside and play?" asked Chu Mu as he rubbed its sharp ears.

Mo Xie did not really need hibernation. It just liked to sleep. However, it seemed to have slept for however long he cultivated. This seemed abnormal.

"Wuwu~!" Mo Xie half narrowed its eyes and still looked sleepy. It lightly wagged its nine tails, and slept again soon.

Chu Mu stroked its fur and leaned next to the window. The world was only left with the giggles from those girls and Mo Xie's light breathing.

"Why is it so quiet..... quiet to the point it's scary....." muttered Chu Mu.

The injury to the soul due to snapping the soul pact connection gradually healed. Chu Mu's first soul pet slot was also freed up.

Other than Mo Xie, Chu Mu always used the remaining four soul pet slots to let his soul pets take turns to come out and train.

After soul pets reached high rank, they could do many things independently. Allowing them to train by themselves was also beneficial.

Meanwhile, Mo Xie would always stay next to Chu Mu. It did not return to soul pet space, but also did not train like Chu Mu's other soul pets. It would only sleep the entire day and hardly ate anything.

"Sleep," Chu Mu was a little worried, but he did not know what happened to Mo Xie. He only continued to stroke it and closed his eyes to continue his cultivation.

.....

The snow this time was rather long. When Chu Mu opened his eyes again, he noticed it was still snowing outside.

Chu Mu inspected his room and noticed that the room was slightly different from before. There seemed to be some additional things and some missing things.

There was no more giggling from girls in the yard. It was strangely quiet this time, he could only hear Mo Xie's light breathing sound.

It was still sleeping, did it really enter hibernation?

Chu Mu stood up and stretched himself.

The cultivation this time had been rather long, but he finally made a significant improvement. It had been some time since he last saw them. He felt that continuing to cultivate like this would not do, it was time he accompanied them.

Pushing open the door, a rather slim maid was sweeping the snow. When she saw Chu Mu walk out, she was shocked.

She hurriedly greeted Chu Mu as Chu Mu walked past her.

He did not see Ye Qingzi or Ning Maner in the yard, so he walked towards Liu Binglan's Female Supreme Palace.

Female Supreme Palace was also painted white by snow, it was solemn and beautiful.

He walked towards the pavilion by the lake, crossed through the wooden bridge, leaving behind rows of footprints on the bridge.

In the pavilion, Liu Binglan sat there alone. She was looking at the half frozen lake water, her black long hair was not coiled up like usual.

Chu Mu walked next to her, pulled over her chilled hand and warmed her hand up.

Liu Binglan turned to look at Chu Mu, her icy expression slowly blooming in smiles.

“Is there any troubling matter?” asked Chu Mu.

“This snow has continued for too long,” said Liu Binglan.

“How long?” Chu Mu had been cultivating. Honestly speaking, he did not know whether this snow had continued for a few days or a few months.

“One year, since the winter last year until now.....” said Liu Binglan.

“One year.....” Chu Mu was startled and lamented.

So the giggles he heard during the previous snowing day was one year ago. Time passed by so quickly.

“So quick, it felt like a blink of an eye.....” Liu Binglan had the similar feeling as Chu Mu.

Liu Binglan liked snow, because Elder Liu told her that she was born in Sacred Holy Region's Snow Region.

She was also like ice and snow, quiet, beautiful and cold.

"I went to Heaven Palace once," said Chu Mu.

"I see," Liu Binglan nodded and quietly waited for Chu Mu's next words.

"There's a group of special women in Heaven Palace, they are called Totem Maidens. These Totem Maidens possess their own isolated space when cultivating. This space is not soul pet space, but the space they use to deploy their formations....." said Chu Mu.

Liu Binglan's gaze wavered slightly, but she remained quiet.

"Should I continue?" asked Chu Mu.

Liu Binglan shook her head, "Never mind."

"Oh."

As expected, she no longer wanted to seek her origin. Be it noble or common, New Moon Land was her home.

“Mother, can I ask you a question?” said Chu Mu.

“Yes.”

“Why do you dislike him?” asked Chu Mu.

“Dislike? Actually, I don’t know either. Perhaps I dislike him for barging into my world. My world is very little. If a barbaric man makes a mess inside, I may not be able to get used to it,” said Liu Binglan.

“How did you two get acquainted?” asked Chu Mu.

“We met at Snow City. We went to Universe Ice Gate together,” said Liu Binglan.

“Universe Ice Gate.....” Chu Mu was surprised.

That was the place he and Mu Qingyi had been to.

Chu Mu could still remember the helplessness and despair Ice Mirror World brought to people. Once there was a reliable person, and that person was of opposite sex, one would instinctively approach the other party.....

“Back then, our strength was around Emperor rank. It took longer than you and Mu Qingyi to get out of Ice Mirror World,” said Liu Binglan.

“Before that, you two actually did not have any feelings for each other?” asked Chu Mu.

“Yes, when we wake up, we both felt that it was ridiculous!” Liu Binglan smiled bitterly.

“What about afterwards? Didn’t you two stay together afterwards?” asked Chu Mu.

“Didn’t I say it before? My world is very little. It’s hard to tolerate a barbaric person. He also does not like to live in my tiny world.....” said Liu Binglan.

“That’s because he never tried to understand you better,” said Chu Mu.

At first, Chu Mu also felt that Liu Binglan was like a solid ice, it was difficult to enter her world. However, after staying together for a long time, many people would notice that she was far from being cold like how she appeared to be. She was only using her own way to live and interact with others.

“It’s fine. Just leave the misunderstanding be. I also never tried to understand him better,” said Liu Binglan.

“He is not dead,” said Chu Mu.

Liu Binglan looked at Chu Mu and was confused, “Didn’t you say he was buried along with Imprint Valley?”

“Yes, I saw that personally. However, I feel that he is still alive,” said Chu Mu with a serious expression.

“I also felt that. However, if he is still alive, why didn’t he show up? What is he being wary of?” asked Liu Binglan.

Chu Mu shook his head.

If Chu Tianmang was still alive, just what was he being wary of? With Chu Mu’s current strength, not many could match him in the entire human territory. Why was he unable to show up?

“Will you forgive him? If he is still alive and is willing to understand you again, will you accept him?” asked Chu Mu.

Liu Binglan was a little confused. She did not understand why Chu Mu asked so many questions.

“I don’t know. He and I do not have the feelings of a married couple like you and Ye Qingzi. However, I believe you should know that other than you and him, nobody in this world had truly entered my heart. I also won’t allow any stranger to enter.....” answered Liu Binglan.

Hearing Liu Binglan’s answer, Chu Mu was a little relieved.

It seemed that the relationship between them was not hopeless, as long as his father was willingly to approach her.

“What’s wrong? Did you get into a conflict with Qingzi?” asked Liu Binglan.

Chu Mu shook his head.
