Chapter 1651: Soul Pact Conditions

“Crimson Sol aura!” Gu Hua’s gaze sharpened and focused in the direction of Holy Stem Flower Holy Region.

In a glance, there was a person standing on the roof of the palace. The Crimson Sol aura was coming from that person.

Gu Hua could not be any more familiar with this aura. Other than the twelve nodes at Heaven City possessing this aura, only the thief who stole Solar Eclipse formation’s energy would possess it.

Heaven Palace had gone through countless calamities, but they eventually survived. However, it was the first time an act like stealing Solar Eclipse formation had occurred.

The Solar Eclipse formation was set up and activated by Totem Maidens and Totem Divine Maiden. It was difficult to imagine someone in this world actually able to steal Solar Eclipse energy from Totem Divine Maiden’s diagram. Such an existence was a huge threat to Heaven Palace, and had to be eliminated at all cost.

“You lots follow me. Let me see just what creature dares to be so arrogant,” Gu Hua ordered his subordinates behind him.

There were over a hundred Guardian Palace soldiers behind him, they were all riding on White Jade Beasts.

The people blocking their path were easily repelled. Over a hundred White Jade Beasts swept up a white beast tide as they charged.

As they approached the palace, Gu Hua saw the person standing on the roof and was astonished.

That person was covered in Devil Fire. The silver and black Devil Fire were separated to two sides and looked extremely evil.

More importantly, the aura this person exuded was very strange. It gave him an extremely dangerous feeling.

Gu Hua was the Family Master of the Royalty. He naturally knew the identity of the Dual Evil Half Devil in this world!

“New Moon Land’s Half Devil Chu Mu!” Gu Hua had never met Chu Mu, but nobody in the entire human territory would not know who he was.

However, Gu Hua never expected the person who stole Solar Eclipse formation’s energy was this New Moon Land’s Half Devil.

He really got guts.

Heaven Palace had not managed the human world for a long time, and all kinds of weaklings started to act like lords. Did those older generations of human leaders not tell these weaklings the result of opposing Heaven Palace??

“Half Devil Chu Mu, we were too lenient towards your race in that war. I should have personally acted to eliminate your New Moon Land back then!” cursed Gu Hua as he pointed at Chu Mu.

After saying so, Gu Hua waved his hand. The White Jade Beasts behind him opened their mouths and spat out a white frost-like breath.

The breath looked like ice, yet seemed to be limestone powder. When the breath blew past the palace roof where Chu Mu was standing, the entire roof was immediately turned into a frozen and petrified color.

Everything in the surroundings were frozen and petrified, only the Holy Region was protected by a barrier.

Chu Mu stood there without moving. He looked like he was also petrified.

However, his eyes stared hard at the Royalty's Family Master Gu Hua.

New Moon Land's war was manipulated by him and Yu Tian in the back. How could Chu Mu forget the amount of blood shed in that war?

Chu Mu tightened his fists. The last trace of crimson flame was extinguished. Black flame burned sizzlingly.

The black flame of vengeance. The evil aura in this flame was condensed by countless souls of people that died in that war!

"Go down there and atone for my citizens," Chu Mu's gaze sharpened!

Black and white flames swept out with Chu Mu as the center!

The furious flame of vengeance was extremely tyrannical. Anything along their path was burnt to ash, including those powerful White Jade Beasts from Heaven Palace!

“Huhuhuhu!” The flames swept across in an instant. The over a hundred Guardian Palace soldiers surrounding Chu Mu were erased without making any screams!

There was no struggle, and it was impossible to escape. The white corpse powder within the flame was blown up by the wind and scattered onto Gu Hua’s face.

Gu Hua was stunned. His wrinkled face was instantly occupied by fear!

Over a hundred Guardian Palace soldiers.....

Their combined strength was enough to fight against a human leader. How could they be wiped out in an instant!

Just as he was feeling shocked, his neck suddenly felt a chill. The feeling of the grim reaper standing behind him began manifesting in his trembling soul.

That Half Devil was no longer in front of him. He did not even have the courage to turn around, he only felt something drilling into his heart from his back.

“Chu..... Chu Mu,” Nor far away, the slightly later Family Master Tao Xing shouted in shock and wanted to stop Chu Mu.

Chu Mu’s silver right hand had already been retracted from Gu Hua’s back. A heart was still beating in his palm.

He heard someone calling his name, so he slowly turned around and looked at the white-haired Tao Xing.

“Chu Mu, you can’t kill him!” Tao Xing’s expression was complicated, his tone was nervous.

“It seems to be a little too late,” Chu Mu played around with Gu Hua’s heart and smiled creepily.

“Don’t do that, do you know who I am? You know your mother.....”

“I know,” Chu Mu interrupted Tao Xing. Before Tao Xing could finish, Chu Mu tightly clenched his fist.

The heart immediately bursted. The blood sprayed out from his fist and scattered onto Gu Hua’s hair and neck.

Gu Hua’s body was rapidly consumed by silver Devil Fire. After losing the heart, a silver Devil Fire heart occupied the empty hole. This heart pumped the terrifying soul Devil Fire through his blood vessels to his entire body, burning everything in his body into ash.

Tao Xing looked at Gu Hua who was similarly a Family Master and a member of the Guardian Palace dying like that, unable to say anything for a long time.

As the corpse powder scattered, Chu Mu turned around to look at Tao Xing again.

The Royalty's Family Master Tao, the real master of Uncle Yu. There were some things Chu Mu already knew, but since Liu Binglan did not want to pursue the matter, he treated it as non-existent.

“Since you know..... you should know that I will provide you with the things if you want to extend your lifespan. After all, you are also considered members of our Heaven Palace. Why must you do something like that? Heaven Palace's strength is far beyond your imagination. Perhaps the Guardian Palace cannot do anything to you this time, but soon, there will be even stronger beings subjugating you.....” said Tao Xing.

Chu Mu did not listen to Tao Xing's words at all. He turned around and walked towards Holy Stem Flower Holy Region.

What Chu Mu wanted was not a long life, what he wanted was an even greater power to fight Ancient Flood Dragon Person.

Tao Xing watched Chu Mu silently leaving. That action was enough to prove that this meaningless bloodline relation would be severed from now on.

For some relationships, if they were not built during the needed times, it would be no different from being strangers when it was already unnecessary.

After Chu Mu walked into Holy Stem Flower Holy Region, a large group of Flower Demons rapidly appeared outside.

Those rogue-colored Flower Demons immediately protected the Holy Region, forcing Tao Xing and his subordinates to back off.

.....

Within the palace, Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu. She noticed that Chu Mu's aura and temperament had changed greatly. She snorted unhappily, "Looks like you benefited more than me."

Crimson Sol belonged to fire property. If this energy could integrate into Chu Mu's soul, it would naturally be more beneficial to Chu Mu's strength.

Yu Suo's dissatisfaction was natural. She had been working hard on this plan for a very long time. In the end, she had to share the fruit of her labour with Chu Mu, as if she owed him in her past life.

"When you used my father's Monument Tears, can you see his memories?" asked Chu Mu.

Chu Tianmang had more Monument Tears than Chu Mu. The power within those Monument Tears would definitely be stronger. There was still half of the Evil Good Flowers left to absorb. Absorbing them should be easier than before. In addition to Chu Mu's improved strength, his endurance should also improve.

"I can't," answered Yu Suo.

Monument Tears could only be viewed by Monument Tear Individuals. The reason Yu Suo was able to see Chu Mu's memories was because they already had a Monument Tear as the medium. This allowed them to maintain a special connection between their souls despite undoing the soul pact.

"Oh, then let's start," Chu Mu actually wanted to know how Chu Tianmang had lived his life over the years.

"Don't be in a hurry," said Yu Suo.

Not in a hurry? How could Chu Mu not be in a hurry? Ancient Flood Dragon Person's threat still remained, who knew how long Dragon Maiden could sustain?

If either of them did not reach a higher level soon, he and Chu Tianmang would be killed by Ancient Flood Dragon Person.

"I want to make a few conditions," said Yu Suo in a serious tone as she looked at Chu Mu.

Conditions?

What kind of trick is this woman playing at this time?

Crimson Sol energy was very tyrannical. Chu Mu was sure that the flower property Yu Suo was unable to absorb this energy without him and the Monument Tears. They were only in a symbiosis relationship now.

“Go ahead,” Chu Mu did not want to waste too much time.

Yu Suo walked closer to Chu Mu and spoke, “First, after absorbing the remaining Crimson Sol energy, if you reach Undying rank, you must help me finish what I want to do.”

“Can,” Chu Mu nodded.

Stealing Solar Eclipse formation’s energy would be death penalty from Heaven Palace. Chu Mu and Yu Suo were more or less on the same boat now. Even if he cut ties with Yu Suo, Heaven Palace would not let him go.

“Second, I want to occupy your first soul slot forever. You must not use soul pact to order me to do anything, even if you are stronger than me,” said Yu Suo.

“Aren’t you looking for a new host?” Chu Mu slightly frowned.

Did that mean they had to maintain the soul pact forever?

“Do you think I never tried signing a soul pact with others during the time the soul pact was undone?” grumbled Yu Suo.

“What do you mean? Are you saying that you can only sign a soul pact with me?” asked Chu Mu.

“Evil Good Ancestor does not accept soul pact from others, the evil aura on your body is what she needs,” said Yu Suo.

Evil Good Ancestor actually occupied Chu Mu’s second soul slot, so it could be considered as Chu Mu’s soul pet. However, this soul pet was controlled by Yu Suo. Chu Mu had never really communicated with Evil Good Ancestor. He was speechless when this Evil Good Ancestor actually became so reliant on him.

Chapter 1652: The Crimson Flame In The Living World

“Young master, when Evil Good Ancestor forced you to mate with her, it means Evil Good Ancestor has acknowledged you as her master. How can she accept soul pact from other humans..... Ah!” Before Old Li could finish, it was slapped by Yu Suo and flung away.

It just had to mention the taboo. Yu Suo and Chu Mu had been trying to completely forget that matter. That bastard Old Li was purposely reminding them of it, it was really asking for it.

“Fine, I will treat as if I don’t have the first soul slot,” Chu Mu agreed with Yu Suo’s second condition.

After so many years, Chu Mu was already used to foul soul slots. His soul pets also reached really high rank. If he reached Undying rank, his cultivation would probably come to an end.

“Third.....”

“There’s more?”

“Of course!” In the past, Chu Mu would never allow Yu Suo to make conditions. She had been bullied for such a long time, so she must make use of this chance to grab some interest.

“Name it,” said Chu Mu after calming down.

“You must appear when I need you to help,” said Yu Suo.

“I’m not your henchman,” Chu Mu directly refused.

What kind of joke was that? Appearing upon calls, who was whose soul pet?

“You should know that if you reach Undying rank, your lifespan will be very very long. Meanwhile, the greatest enemy those at your side will face is age. Do you want to watch them age and die?” asked Yu Suo.

“What are you trying to say?” Chu Mu frowned.

If that was the case, he would rather not accept this long lifespan. He was afraid of death, but he was not afraid of the gradual aging. If it was really as Yu Suo said, that he could only watch those around him age and die while he still had a very long lifespan, it was too cruel to Chu Mu.

“I can extend their lives. What you need to do is just to help when I face a powerful enemy. Can’t you even do that?” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu thought for a while and eventually nodded.

“But you need to understand that extension is extension, it’s not without limit……” reminded Yu Suo.

“I know, what else?” said Chu Mu while maintaining his calmness.

Chu Mu did not know why this woman could still talk about conditions so leisurely at such a time. After absorbing the Crimson Sol energy, she would also become much stronger. Was there a need to make so many conditions?

“That’s all for now,” said Yu Suo.

“For now? What are you trying to say?” said Chu Mu.

“Hmph, I’m pushing you up to the highest peak of a living being and only made three conditions, and those conditions can’t really be considered some difficult conditions……” said Yu Suo.

“Really? Try enduring the temperature of those flames yourself? What you need to do is only to enjoy the energy I transmit to you,” rebuked Chu Mu.

“No need,” said Yu Suo.

“What no need?”

“The rest of the energy will all be yours,” said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu was dumbfounded. The remaining Crimson Sol energy would all be his??

Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu's dumbfounded face and spoke aloofly, "Crimson Sol energy is abundant. However, I made a calculation. If both of us absorb it, we will both be stuck between Immortal and Undying. There will still be some difference compared to true Undying rank."

The stealing formation she poured all her efforts over so many years to set up would eventually be given to him? Chu Mu opened his eyes wide and really suspected if the person before him was really Yu Suo!

"Are you sane?" asked Chu Mu subconsciously.

He found it hard to believe. Normally speaking, even if the energy was insufficient to push both of them into Undying rank, she would make Chu Mu refine the energy and absorb all the energy herself. There was no reason for her to give the benefit to others.

Chu Mu would not assume Yu Suo's hatred towards him had lessened. If that ridiculous event did not happen in Heaven Palace, they might be able to reconcile. However, after that day, Chu Mu felt that this woman's gaze became even more chilling. She was clearly doing her best to force herself to forget that event.

However, the more she forced herself, the easier it was for her to lash out in anger. When Yu Suo said she would give all the remaining energy to him, his first reaction was that this was a trap.....

After thinking carefully, it seemed that there was no reason for Yu Suo to do that. They were both on the same boat now. Even if they were going to become enemies, it should only be after the current crisis was resolved.

In that instant, Chu Mu had thought of many things, but he could not find a convincing reason to explain Yu Suo's action.

"Every Evil Good Flower contains your father's Monument Tears. I believe he will protect you from getting burned to death by Crimson Sol energy. When your soul's temperature becomes too high, I will use God Dew to help you control your temperature," said Yu Suo.

Chu Mu remained looking at her confusedly.

Could this person really be Yu Suo??

Old Li secretly climbed back and whispered to Chu Mu using mental voice, "Young master, she has fallen for you. Using your human's perspective, only when a woman falls in love with a person, would she offer everything she obtained to that person."

Chu Mu and Yu Suo were connected with the soul pact now. The things Old Li said with mental voice could more or less be heard by Yu Suo.

She stared at Old Li expressionlessly, her gaze was so cold that a terrifying killing intent could be felt.

Old Li hurried escaped into Chu Mu's spatial ring and dared not come out.

Yu Suo turned her cold gaze to Chu Mu and spoke, "If I falls in love with you, none of your women can live. Don't worry, at least I don't intend to harm them."

"You're sick," said Chu Mu.

Chu Mu believed that Yu Suo had her own reason for not absorbing Crimson Sol energy. Perhaps, she would not reach Undying rank even after absorbing, since their properties were different.

.....

Since Yu Suo dared to offer, Chu Mu naturally dared to accept. He really needed this energy right now.

There was not much time left, Chu Mu began absorbing the Crimson Sol energy in those Evil Good Flowers again.

After becoming stronger, Chu Mu could clearly sense that the Crimson Sol energy was no longer so terrifying. The absorption this time was much smoother than before.

Naturally, due to all the energy pouring into his own body without sharing with Yu Suo, his absorption rate became slower.

The boiling magma-like energy flowed into Chu Mu's body, his body was rapidly burned into crimson color.

Crimson Sol, the source of all energy in this world.

All living things were born because of Crimson Sol. All soul pets, cultivators gradually become stronger due to the endless energy from Crimson Sol, reaching the peak of their lives.

All Soul Items, Xuan Items and Immortal Items were nurtured and born due to Crimson Sol's light.

And now, Chu Mu would be absorbing the very source of this world into his body.

Chu Mu did not know how vast this energy was. If he really had to calculate, then it would be equivalent to pouring the energy for all newly born living things, Soul Items, evolution and strengthening which should happen during the Solar Eclipse period into his body.

Such a gift was the same as a god's inheritance!

Blood was boiling, veins were popping, his soul was filled with flames. His mental world was sizzling with heat. Currently, Chu Mu looked like the son of the sun that descended into the human world.

Even the Holy Region and the barrier could no longer block the heated aura, the aura was rapidly spreading out into the ruined Tianxia City!

For every Evil Good Flower he absorbed, there would be a ring of powerful corona wave sweeping out towards the dark world swallowed by the Solar Eclipse with the palace as the center!

.....

The distant Heaven Palace levitated alone high above in the sky like a meteor. Stars shone brightly even further away, and comets would streak past in a flash. There was also a huge moon hanging above.

The dust would be swept up in patterns, lingering around some stars like silk, creating a beautiful Immortal Realm scenery.

Within the star river, a long-haired woman wearing ancient robe stood there by herself. The entire star river became her background scenery.....

She was quiet, like a fairy from Guanghan Palace. She was solemn, like the Star Goddess that controlled the universe. She was emotionless, like the Evernight Queen.

Her star-like pupils looked down at the human world, her gaze crossed through the space.

In a certain small corner of the human world, rings of crimson flame were spreading out. Each ring becoming stronger than the previous ring!

There were countless kilometers between the human world and Heaven Palace. When looking down from Heaven Palace, only the dragon-like mountain range could be seen.

Even so, the meandering Edge of the World only looked like a bigger fold from Heaven Palace.

However, the rings of crimson flame spreading from that corner of the world were extremely bright. It was easy to see how powerful that crimson aura was!

“Human Mother, I believe you should give me a more convincing explanation, and not something like a daredevil stealing Solar Eclipse energy,” Within the darkness, a man strolled through the star river and slowly arrived next to this woman.

“What kind of convincing reason do you need?” Human Mother did not turn around as her eyes were still focused on the rings of crimson flame.

“Stealing from Solar Eclipse formation? There are only two people in this world with the ability to steal it. One is you, the other is Totem Divine Maiden,” said the man wearing a black windbreaker.

“Do you know what is called potential threat?” asked Human Mother.

“Threatens the survival of Heaven Palace and not being exposed to us yet.....”

“Then, do you know how many potential threats Heaven Palace has?” continued Human Mother.

“Heaven Demon, Black Sol’s child, new wheel’s strongest, untamed era’s strongest.....” answered the man.

Human Mother shook her head, “These are already known. Some potential threats are born within Heaven Palace. This is caused by the problem within Heaven Palace. This is the true potential threat which can threaten our Heaven Palace’s existence.”

“Really? Which matter are you referring to?” asked the man in windbreaker.

“The previous generation of Totem Divine Maiden —— Yu Qie, and her little sister Yu Suo.”

Chapter 1653: Demon God, Evil Dragon!

Suddenly, with a tremor, the entire dark world became quiet.

Within the chaotic battle occurring in Tianxia City, a creepy presence manifested in the eastern direction with the statue at the center of the city square as the border.

This terrifying presence suddenly sank down while everyone was astonished!

Half of Tianxia City collapsed and fell into the abyss by this destructive energy.

A pitch-black and bottomless cliff was created. Half of Tianxia City falling was only a part of this great collapse. When looking towards the east, the plains and mountains were already gone. Only the pitch-black abyss could be seen!

Splash!

Black waves surged up from the abyss and a gigantic tsunami rumbled under the starry sky. An enormous dragon suddenly appeared in the distance!

Half of its body was coiled up into the sky, another half sank into the black ocean. Its head appeared in an even further place.

Even though there was a distance of many thousands of kilometers, such an astonishing scene still made everyone draw a sharp breath.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person!

The human leaders had already known about this monster which existed in New Moon Land. Their expressions would turn grim whenever the monster was mentioned.

When they personally witnessed the appearance of this creature, the astonishment and fear they felt could not be described.

How could there be such a terrifying creature in this world!

As for Heaven Palace's side, they were similarly watching the pitch-black sky and ocean in disbelief.

The slim crimson figure in the sky was someone they were familiar with. That was their dragon army's chief —— Dragon Maiden.

However, they could not believe that they saw Dragon Maiden riddled with wounds and was entangled by that terrifying Evil Dragon's body!

The terrifying Evil Dragon opened its mouth and bit onto Dragon Maiden's tail..... No, it should be swallowed!

It wanted to swallow Dragon Maiden alive!

Dragon Maiden already represented the strongest fighting strength in Heaven Palace. It was difficult to imagine an Evil Dragon was daring enough to swallow her.

Everyone was shocked by this scene!

Compared to the battle between two dragons that could destroy the world, they appeared like ants baring mantibles at one another, laughable and puny!

.....

Chu Tianmang took a deep breath. Was that monster really going to eat its little sister, Dragon Maiden, raw??

It was impossible to imagine such a sick mentality.

Suddenly, an eye-catching blood spray appeared in the dark sky.

Dragon Maiden desperately struggled free from Ancient Flood Dragon Person's swallowing action. However, her tail was already bitten off by Ancient Flood Dragon Person, a large section of her tail ended up in its stomach.

The broken section of Dragon Maiden's tail was bleeding profusely. She rapidly turned into a streak of red light and escaped.

At that moment, the tiny dragon army that looked like flies to Ancient Flood Dragon Person hurriedly swarmed in to escort Dragon Maiden in escaping.

The dragon army looked like dust to Ancient Flood Dragon Person. It opened its mouth filled with bloody fangs.

It took a deep breath. A strong air current swept across the entire land. Many dragon army soldiers were sucked into its abyssal-like mouth!

The dragon army had collapsed. The three Forbidden Army generals protected Dragon Maiden and fled towards the sky. Soon, they were out of sight.

"Kuakuakuakuakua!" Thunderous and creepy laughter came out from Ancient Flood Dragon Person's mouth. This laughter could probably be heard by over half of the creatures in the human world!

The laughter was full of bloodthirst and contained mockery towards Heaven Palace. The craziness caused all living things to tremble!

That was Ancient Flood Dragon Person, the fifth era's strongest!

The battle in Tianxia City had stopped. Before such a Demon God, the battle between them was really a joke.

Suddenly, Ancient Flood Dragon Person turned its head!

Its face turned towards Tianxia City's direction. Even if there was such a long distance, they could that horrifying face stained with Dragon Maiden's blood!

Dark yellow triangular pupils were expressing cold and cruel mockery towards the entire world.

The two sharp fangs exposed outside of the lower jaw was still dripping with Dragon Maiden's blood.....

The entire city seemed to be instantly frozen under Ancient Flood Dragon Person's stare. Everyone felt like a basin of cold water had been poured over them. They were completely frozen there and unable to lift even a finger!

Ancient Flood Dragon Person stopped its laughter. Its body began squirming!

It was swimming towards Tianxia City!

This Demon God was extremely fast. A moment ago, it was still at Tianxia Realm. In the blink of an eye, its enormous body already appeared at Tianxia City!

One could only fathom just how huge this monster was after getting near it.

A human city and a cruel Evil Dragon. This Evil Dragon's body could coil around Tianxia City multiple times!

Right now, Ancient Flood Dragon Person's body was coiling outside the half destroyed Tianxia City. Its upper half torso covered the sky above the city.

Its huge face looked down at this city. All the people in the city were like dusts in its eyes.

It began cracking its mouth into a creepy smile.....

Could one imagine the fear of seeing such a hypocritical smile instead of the sky when looking up?

Incantations, properties and techniques were meaningless before such terror, let alone mentioning power before this Evil Dragon. The power they thought was astonishing was just normal breathing to this Evil Dragon.

.....

Chu Tianmang raised his head. He knew this Evil Dragon was staring at him.

He felt his mind turn blank, yet felt as if he had thought through many things.

It felt like a mere one second, yet felt like a long time had passed. Chu Tianmang suddenly realized the face covering the sky gradually blurred in the darkness.....

The enormous dragon body also slowly disappeared.

The entire city regained its normal view. The terrifying Demon God was like a nightmare. It suddenly disappeared after they woke up, only cold sweat and fear left.

“Disappeared.....” muttered King Ning as he looked at the sky in a daze.

The other leaders also stood there blankly, unable to breathe for a long time.

Chu Tianmang calmed down a little, but his frown did not disappear.

No, its presence was still there!

It did not leave!

Chu Tianmang looked around and suddenly saw a creepy figure!

There was a faint silhouette around this figure, and the silhouette was slowly fading away.

He started walking out from the shade of darkness.

Starlight shone onto his pale face.....

It was that hypocritical smile!

That face was just hanging above everyone's head a moment ago, and it appeared on this man's head now!

Dark yellow triangular pupils, sharp fangs exposed from from the lips.....

This was a skinny man's appearance, but Chu Tianmang knew that this person was Ancient Flood Dragon Person. It could actually transform into a human appearance!

He was smiling, walking over with a hypocritical smile, step by step.

Other than his face, he looked no different from normal people. However, when everyone realized that the Demon God was standing next to them, that fear dominated their body again!

The city was silent, everyone almost stopped breathing.

They looked at Ancient Flood Dragon Person walking past them.....

Although he no longer possessed the enormous body, when he walked past them, they were literally experiencing the grim reaper grazing past them.

As long as he had a thought, he could rob them of their lives, no matter how strong they were. However, he simply ignored everyone, in total disdain!

Ancient Flood Dragon walked straight towards Chu Tianmang and already arrived before him.

Chu Tianmang could not turn his gaze away, nor could his body move a bit.

“Five thousand years, and only such a fourth era’s inheritor is born in the end?” Ancient Flood Dragon Person spoke human language, his tone contained obvious sarcasm.

Chu Tianmang did not speak, he could not speak.

This Demon God transformed into human appearance, but his shadow cast from starlight remained enormous, looming over half of the city.

“Weak. I cannot even get interested,” Ancient Flood Dragon Person began laughing, completely exposing his sharp teeth, “However, I don’t have the habit of leaving survivors.”

Ancient Flood Dragon Person slowly raised his hand, his palm instantly becoming a scaled claw!

The claw of death dug towards Chu Tianmang's heart. Chu Tianmang's soul pet could not even stop that action and could only watch Ancient Flood Dragon Person's claw digging into Chu Tianmang's chest.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person's action was not fast, he was purposely tormenting Chu Tianmang.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person's nails dug into Chu Tianmang's skin, broke his ribs and was about to grab his heart!

Chu Tianmang stood there with a hollowed gaze.....

This scene was so similar to his nightmare. It made him unable to distinguish whether this was illusion or real.

Pain? Chu Tianmang had long been numbed to it. The sensation from the chest could not be used to distinguish.

Bzzt~!

Suddenly, a purple barrier appeared on Chu Tianmang's body!

Ancient Flood Dragon Person was about to grab Chu Tianmang's heart, but this protection barrier forcefully repelled his hand!

Ancient Flood Dragon Person took a few steps back, his scaled claw was still stained with Chu Tianmang's blood.....

Chu Tianmang thought he was already dead. This barrier appeared too suddenly. His gaze turned from relief to confusion.

Blood dripped down from Chu Tianmang's chest, only a total of eleven droplets dripped down.

The eleven droplets of blood floated up and lingered around Chu Tianmang, gradually revolving.....

Chu Tianmang watched the eleven droplets of blood in a daze. Why did those droplets of blood look so similar to Monument Tears? Were they Monument Tears??

Chapter 1654: Birth, Tenth Era's Strongest

Ancient Flood Dragon Person licked the blood on his nails.

Suddenly, his body teleported to Chu Tianmang's front. His claw transformed into a terrifying green lightning and stabbed towards Chu Tianmang's heart!

When the insignificant-looking claw flash touched the barrier around Chu Tianmang, a destructive energy instantly spread out!

There was only half a city left, and that half was vaporized from the energy splashed out from that claw strike, including those Heaven Palace members and human armies in the city!

The surroundings were filled with dust, mixed with the burnt remains of those soul pets and soul pet trainers!

.....

When the dust cloud rose up into the sky, the city could no longer be called a city. There was only an empty husk left.

There were still many people traumatized by Ancient Flood Dragon Person's aura in the city a moment ago, but they were now turned into powder and scattered in the wind.

Those who survived were only those relatively stronger Immortals. They were riddled with wounds and blood flowed out.

Everyone within the range of the energy shockwave either turned into powder or collapsed with heavy wounds. Only Chu Tianmang stood there unscathed.

Eleven Blood Monument Tears were still revolving around him.

Chu Tianmang did not do anything. Those eleven Monument Tears neutralized Ancient Flood Dragon Person's attack.

Chu Tianmang himself also did not know what happened. He only sensed the energy from all Monument Tears pouring into him, as if his body was being modified!

He should have given these eleven Monument Tears to Chu Mu and Yu Suo.

Why would they return to him? Furthermore, even the Half Devil Monument Tear, Sins Fox Monument Tear, Messiah Tree Monument Tear and the core Ancient Beast Monument Tear were also gathering towards him. Chu Tianmang could sense that these four Monument Tears did not possess Chu Mu's sigil anymore.....

Only when the original owner of the Monument Tear was dead, would the soul sigil be erased. The ten main Monument Tears and Ancient Beast core Monument Tear could then be truly gathered.

Now that these main Monument Tears which belonged to Chu Mu lost their soul sigil. There was only one possibility, Chu Mu was dead!

All Monument Tears were gathering towards him. There was only one Monument Tear Individual left in this world, the sole inheritor of fourth era's strongest.....

Chu Tianmang could sense the vast and ancient energy in those Monument Tears pouring into his body. It was strengthening his bloodline and reconstructing his body. It was transcending his soul!

This was the power of Undying rank, the power of Undying rank was pouring into his body!

Only an Undying rank's power could block Ancient Flood Dragon Person's attack.

Chu Tianmang did not want this Undying rank, this Undying rank was something he prepared for Chu Mu.....

He turned around and stared at the Holy Region palace burning in crimson flame.

Did he fail?

Was Chu Mu burned to death by Crimson Sol energy?

Even though he was a fire type Half Human, why would he burn to death in flames?

Looking at the merciless crimson flame, Chu Tianmang's eyes turned bloodshot. Did that Crimson Sol flame know who it just burned to death?

Chu Tianmang wanted to run towards the palace.

However, the Monument Tears revolving around him rooted him to the spot. The Monument Tears were condensing into one, this one droplet was morphing Chu Tianmang into a true era's strongest inheritor!

There was no surprise or desire, what Chu Tianmang worried about the most was that just what did that damned Crimson Sol do to Chu Mu!

Huhuhuhuhu!

The ring of crimson flame was getting bigger and bigger, the earth was already turning red from the heat unknowingly.

The light emitted by the flame reached the sky, lighting up this dark world!

Holy Stem Flower Holy Region became a furnace, a burning sun that descended upon the human world. The light rays pierced through the darkness over billions of kilometers.

Within the star river, the sun was blocked and black wheel shadow was cast onto the earth.

In the human world, a new Crimson Sol was burning intensively, reflecting the starry sky and star river!

.....

In the star river, a woman wearing ancient dress stood on empty space solemnly.

Behind the woman was a man that almost melted into the darkness.

They both looked down at the new Crimson Sol burning in the human world and remained silent for a long time.

“Someone has absorbed the Crimson Sol energy,” Human Mother broke the silence.

Stealing Crimson Sol energy was already a ridiculous matter to Heaven Palace, because nobody could be more expertise in setting up formation than Totem Divine Maiden.

Furthermore, even if the Crimson Sol energy was stolen, it was an unusable energy.

Nobody in this world could really neutralize and absorb Crimson Sol energy. That pure magma-like burning energy could easily burn all creatures below Undying rank to ash!

“Looks like the potential threat has already become a disaster,” said Human Mother slowly.

“I need an explanation!” said the man in windbreaker coldly.

“What explanation do you need?” asked Human Mother.

“The supreme totem power is managed by you. Only your disciples can change the Solar Eclipse formation. I need to know who is she.”

“Didn’t I tell you just now?” said Human Mother.

“Yu Qie, Yu Suo sisters? Didn’t they already die?”

“Be it Yu Suo or Yu Qie, they are my most outstanding disciples. I pleaded you to forgive them back then, you insist on refusing. This was your first mistake. The second mistake was that you never cleaned up properly. Only they are able to change the Solar Eclipse formation..... At least one of them is alive,” said Human Mother.

Totem Divine Maiden managed the strongest force of Heaven Palace as well as the most ancient secrets.

If an abolished Totem Divine Maiden wanted to oppose Heaven Palace, the upheaval she could create would definitely be much more intense than any Undying rank attacking Heaven Palace!

“You taught a traitor, a sinner!” cursed the man.

“I taught outstanding Totem Divine Maidens. It’s all of you who changed them into traitors and sinners, and yet none of you are aware,” said Human Mother.

“Hmph, no matter who absorbed Crimson Sol energy, I will make him spit it out!” The man swept a glance at the cluster of crimson flame on the earth angrily and left.

“The fifth era’s strongest, Ancient Flood Dragon Person, has awakened. The tenth era’s strongest is born. The fourth era’s Monument Tear inheritance is ongoing. The ten era’s strongest will be showing up soon. This will be another turbulent Solar Eclipse period,” muttered Human Mother.

A beam of timespace light ray flashed next to Human Mother. Human Mother casually waved her hand. In an instant, streaks of starlight weaved into a timespace passage and descended into the human world.

Within the starlight timespace passage, a crimson Imperial Concubine Dragon with a severed tail slowly appeared.

Following right behind her was the defeated dragon army.

Dragon Maiden transformed back into human form. She had lost her body parts beneath her knees, blood was still flowing from the cut section.

Her two lower legs were currently in Ancient Flood Dragon Person's stomach, being treated as a delicacy after its awakening.

"Human Mother, please issue punishment," Dragon Maiden lowered her head, her face was extremely pale.

"Go back and recover, it's not your fault," said Human Mother.

"Crimson Sol energy....."

"It's already refined. Recover your injury, we will be facing a batch of enemies even stronger than before soon, not just Ancient Flood Dragon Person....." Human Mother did not let Dragon Maiden speak any further.

Dragon Maiden nodded and flew weakly towards Heaven Palace.

.....

Blinding, boiling crimson flame assaulted the darkness, even invading into Ancient Flood Dragon Person's balck ocean.

The black ocean was slowly evaporated by the intense heat and receded.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person's gaze turned from Chu Tianmang who was protected by Monument Tears to the palace.

A Half Devil walked out from the furnace-like palace.

The Half Devil's pupils were crimson in color, showing a look as if he lost his memories. However, that arrogance was even more tyrannical than Crimson Sol.

Without even taking a step forward, the rumbling flame spread out to the surroundings, sweeping past Tianxia City which only had a skeletal frame left, sweeping past the sunken land, sweeping past the mountain ranges in the distance, all the way to the horizon, then even further.....

Facing such intense heat, even Ancient Flood Dragon Person had to use his hand to block the heat wave.

Chu Tianmang stood within the Monument Tear protection and was overjoyed to see Chu Mu safely walking out.

Chu Mu's pupils were crimson and looked confused.

However, slowly, the burning crimson pupils changed into one black and one silver. The confusion in his gaze also disappeared.

“Very good, very good, new Crimson Sol’s child.....” Ancient Flood Dragon Person cracked open his wide mouth and his sharp teeth decorated his hypocritical smile, “I was wondering why that woman accused me of stealing Solar Eclipse energy.”

Ancient Flood Dragon Person was smiling while looking at Chu Mu, the smile looked extremely creepy.

Chu Mu’s head was clearing up. He took a glance at Chu Tianmang and saw the horrifying claw wound on the chest, then the blood stain on Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s claw.

A maddening fury instantly shrouded over Chu Mu’s eyes!

Crimson flame spread out and the flame of anger vaporized everything!

Ancient Flood Dragon Person was still laughing, and slowly melting in the fire while laughing.

Suddenly, the enormous Demon God Evil Dragon body appeared once again!

First was the silhouette that occupied half of the city, then the materialization. The terrifying Ancient Flood Dragon Person covered the sky with its huge face once again!

Chapter 1655: Black Sol, Black Ocean

A wild and thunderous laughter exploded, carrying a thick stench, as it swept through the ruined land.

The breath pushed against the crimson-colored flame. These flames, under Chu Mu's control, rapidly soared, transforming into an enormous fireball that smashed towards the Ancient Flood Dragon Person.

The fireball resembled a burning star. When it flew at the Ancient Flood Dragon person, it ignited everything in the air. The striking crimson color spread everywhere it touched, illuminating countless Border Kingdoms outside New Moon Land.

The Ancient Flood Dragon Person twisted its body, and nimbly knocked the flaming star away.

The flaming star was knocked from Tianxia City to Eternal Ocean. There, it exploded, leaving an empty area of space in the water.

The Ancient Flood Dragon was still wildly laughing. Its body grew taller and taller, transforming into an enormous snaking dragon mountain.

Chu Mu turned into a fiery light and flew inside. It was like he dropped into a deep abyss with four walls towering around him.

The enormous body twisted around him and Chu Mu was unable to see its head. However, he could feel the Ancient Flood Dragon Person's strange smile staring at him the whole time.

Suddenly, a heaven devouring mouth terrifyingly appeared!

The sharp teeth were comparable to mountain peaks. The large mouth snapped shut in an attempt to swallow Chu Mu.

The insides of the Ancient Flood Dragon Person were like an enormous mountain cave. Everyone knew that it would be even more terrifying to be devoured.

“Hu hu hu hu hu~~~~~”

The instant the Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s mouth closed, Chu Mu transformed into a blazing flame.

Crimson flames suddenly exploded, and the Ancient Flood Dragon Person was left dazed by the explosive force. Its head swayed as it forcibly tried to spit out the flames that had been shot into its digestive tract.

The attack wiped the fake smile from the Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s face. Its expression became dark and angry.

Its deep yellow eyes began to swivel, and it chanted an incantation.

A strong gale was swept up, lightning bolts began to interweave and screaming black ocean water surged from the distant Eternal Ocean to New Moon Land.

Everywhere the black ocean touched would be dyed a black color. A few small soul pets that were still living in human cities and hadn’t left became black statues after being touched by the water.

The water was filled with poison, and living things could not survive in this ocean of death.

The ocean water engulfed Tianxia City. The water's surface continuously rose. The few remaining survivors in the city began to frantically fly into the air, fleeing in all directions.

The water rose very quickly. It wasn't long before the Ancient Flood Dragon Person's body was submerged within the black ocean water.

Half of its body was hidden underneath the tall and rising water, while the other half of its body was towering like a skyscraping pillar.

The Ancient Flood Dragon Person arrogantly looked down at tiny dust-like Chu Mu. It opened its wide mouth that was filled with sharp teeth.

“Hua hua hua!!!!”

Black rain began to fall from the sky, pouring onto the ocean water that had engulfed the land.

The ocean water was still rising. Using a normal conception of space to measure things, the water had risen to the clouds already.

The evil dragon roared. The Ancient Flood Dragon Person's eyes locked onto Chu Mu.

Suddenly, a frightening and enormous wave smashed towards Chu Mu.

Perhaps calling it a wave wasn't doing it justice because the Ancient Flood Dragon Person had summoned an entire ocean to smash towards Chu Mu!

The entire ocean surged forth. There was nowhere to hide.

As the ocean covered everything around it, large whirlpools and frightening tsunamis paved their way forward. The force of impact from the water was capable of demolishing mountains!

The water rushed from Tianxia City to countless cities in New Moon Land. It submerged Wanxiang Realm and even reached Eastern Wild Forest.

Eastern Wild Forest quickly became an underwater forest. All the living things that were unable to fly high into the sky in time became black statues before being smashed to pieces by the onslaught of tsunamis.

The Ancient Flood Dragon Person was in control of a wave that could swallow the world. It was using the ocean to crush Chu Mu, forcing him from Tianxia City to Cloud Realm.

Cloud Realm's citizens had already been moved to other areas. The few remaining people who harbored greedy intentions personally witnessed the advent of a genuine calamity.

The Ancient Flood Dragon Person was standing on the ocean. Before it fell into its deep sleep, what it wanted to do most was to use its black ocean to cover this expansive human land.

Those weak and low-rank species simply didn't belong on this fertile land.

However, before it was able to implement its regime, The Fourth Thousand Year Era's expert had impeded it and had even imprisoned it into a deep sleep for an entire 5000 years. Even his favorite New Moon Land peninsula was inexplicably taken over by humans.

Eternal Ocean should belong to it.

But now it was occupied by Emperor Yellow Springs. The human peninsula should also have belonged to him, but now it was filled with the disgusting stench and cities and humans!

Had it been banished?

The Ancient Flood Dragon person wildly laughed. If there was no place for it to be, then it would dig one out for itself.

Thick rain clouds began to cover New Moon land, Eastern Wild Forest, Cloud Realm. The Border and additional adjacent border territories.

The black rain made the rivers wider and the lakes swell. It wouldn't be long before all these areas would become pools. And when these pools overflowed into other areas, connecting them, a new black ocean would be born.

Yellow Springs had its Eternal Ocean and the Ancient Flood Dragon Person would have its Black Ocean!!

Of course, before this, it would not let off anyone that tried to stop it. Especially this damned devil person and the Fourth Thousand Year Era's successor who had killed many of its subordinates

“What does it feel like? I am water and you are fire. What does it matter if you’ve absorbed the origin Crimson Soul’s energy. You, a measly creature who just stepped into the Undying Rank, wants to fight against me! How naive!” the Ancient Flood Dragon person stood in its black colored domain and mocked Chu Mu from afar.

Chu Mu’s body was covered in the powerful poison from the black ocean water. The poison caused Chu Mu’s skin to harden.

Chu Mu’s strained his body, forcibly expelling the poisonous rain and water from his body.

Crimson flames once more surged out of Chu Mu’s body, and quickly covered his whole body.

“Hu hu hu hu hu~~~~~”

The crimson flames burned increasingly fiercely and light once more diffused through the area.

No matter how large of an area the Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s black ocean covered, the ardent sun-like light from Chu Mu would illuminate that far.

The black rainwater evaporated from the raging flame light. The water in the black colored pools on mountains and plains stopped sloshing together. They gradually shrank, becoming black gas that rose into the air.

“Let’s see whether I swallow up the land faster or you evaporate my water faster!” sneered the Ancient Flood Dragon Person.

Chanting an incantation, torrential rain fell from the black sky and strange blackhole spaces began to appear.

Pouring rivers began to surge out of the blackhole spaces. The pourings rivers rushed into the mountains and plains, creating countless surging rivers on the land.

The black waves and black rivers flowed together, together becoming an enormous current that poured into a lake. These lakes would pass over low-lying mountains and valleys, creating mudslides and mountainous flash floods that invaded the land like a pack of wild animals.

While the human cities were empty, how could these expansive mountains, plains and rivers not be the habitat of communities, tribes and empires? Numerous living beings died in the wild blackness. It was possible to see corpses floating, having been ravaged by the black poisonous ocean.

Chu Mu also chanted an incantation.

The moment everything here was engulfed by the Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s black ocean, Chu Mu would have no ability to fight it since he was not adept at water battles.

A crimson light flew out of Chu Mu’s fingertips. The crimson light hung in the black sky.

The dot of light burned the air, igniting the mist in the sky. The fire slowly spread before ultimately forming an enormous fiery star.

Another chant and another fiery star appeared.

In one breath, Chu Mu created nine Fake Crimson Sols. These Fake Crimson Sols were suspended in a ring formation and as they emitted scorching fiery light, they also formed a Sol Diagram!

The Crimson Sol Diagram spat out lava pillars. These lava pillars created a Nine Sun Hell around the Ancient Flood Dragon Person!

Nine Sun Hell was filled with the highest temperature of flames. The temperature was comparable to the flames of the genuine Crimson Sol. Even an undying rank creature would have difficulty bearing it/

The Ancient Flood Dragon was wearing a black ocean armor. By the time it realized that Chu Mu's technique wasn't a domain used to fight against its domain, and instead was used to target it directly, it was unable to escape in time.

The Ancient Flood Dragon person looked up at the onslaught of the scorching sol flames and hastily dove into the black ocean water.

The ocean surface rapidly descended from the burning heat. Ultimately, the Ancient Flood Dragon Person's body would be exposed no matter how well it hid with how big it was.

“Hu hu hu hu!!!!!!!”

The flames struck the Ancient Flood Dragon Person. Without the black ocean to protect it, the Ancient Flood Dragon Person's scales were burned red. This enormous evil dragon devil god finally lost its previous arrogance. It madly twisted its body and struck back against the sol cauldron.

.....

Crimson flames flickered on Chu Mu's face as he expressionlessly watched the enormous Ancient Flood Dragon Person.

The Ancient Flood Dragon Person let out a roar that ripped through the heaven and earth. Underneath the powerful sol flames, the Ancient Flood Dragon Person's body began to slowly crumble.

Some time later, there was no longer any trace of the Ancient Flood Dragon Person left in the Sun Hell. All that remained were, what looked like, the dregs of a corpse.

Chu Mu absolutely did not believe that the Ancient Flood Dragon Person had been burned to nothingness by him.

Its strength was nowhere near as simple as this. It definitely had used some method to escape!

Chu Mu released his perception to find where the Ancient Flood Dragon Person was hiding.

Chapter 1656: The Submerged Human Territory

Chu Mu's senses covered several borders. Ancient Flood Dragon Person was definitely inflicted with an obvious burning flame aura, Chu Mu could easily sense its location.

However, Chu Mu was astonished to realize that Ancient Flood Dragon Person was actually swimming towards a really far place.

It was dragging a long trail of burning flame aura on its back, the Nine Sun Hell gave it a severe burning damage.

The flames were still burning on its body, unable to be extinguished even after diving into the ocean.

Chu Mu watched Ancient Flood Dragon Person from far away and did not pursue.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person was diving towards the deep ocean. If he fought it underwater, he would definitely be pushed back.

The ocean water continued to churn on the land. Chu Mu could evaporate the heavy downpour, but the black ocean water swarming in from Eternal Ocean was something he could not prevent.

People had estimated that after Ancient Flood Dragon Person awakened, around half of Zhengming Continent would be swallowed by black ocean.

The first to be swallowed would definitely be New Moon Land, followed by those territories in the western region. Nobody could stop this Evil Dragon Demon God's black ocean dominance.

As expected, after Ancient Flood Dragon Person awakened, the sea level of Eternal Ocean was constantly rising. If this continued, one quarter of Zhengming Continent would be submerged in less than a month.

.....

Splash!

A huge wave rose up, Ancient Flood Dragon Person flew back into the air after extinguishing the flame. Its meandering body occupied the space between the ocean and the clouds.

It was still that face with a hypocritical smile, but Ancient Flood Dragon Person stared frustratedly at Chu Mu.

It did not carelessly attack Chu Mu. The power of flame Chu Mu controlled was Crimson Sol's flame. Other than Black Sol, this would be the strongest flame in the world. Ancient Flood Dragon Person's overconfidence caused it to be injured by Chu Mu.

It was a cunning fellow. Knowing the strength of Chu Mu's Crimson Sol flame, it just coiled above the black ocean. Once a technique like Nine Sun Hell appeared again, it would be able to dive into the ocean immediately.

Chu Mu triggered countless fire rain and blasted towards Ancient Flood Dragon Person's ocean.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person did not leave the ocean and simply allowed the fire rain to burn on the black ocean.

The black ocean was naturally not common water. If it was a normal ocean, Crimson Sol's flame could easily maintain a high temperature and burning property even in water.

This black water was filled with toxicity. Chu Mu's crimson flame only managed to linger a while before extinguishing in the black ocean.

As such, one was in the sky, one was in the ocean. Both sides were having an elemental clash between fire and water.

Even Heaven Palace could see this confrontation between black water and crimson fire, let alone the other regions in the human territory.

Humans had countless cities, the cities had countless people. At this moment, if they looked towards the direction of New Moon Land, they would be able to see the astonishing scene of water and fire clashing.

Solar Eclipse brought darkness to people. However, what kind of Demon God dominating over all creations was disturbing this world?

A world was too vast to an individual, one was not qualified to disturb it.

However, those Demon Gods that exuded a terrifying aura in that direction were truly able to change the world. Humans should be glad that the battlefield was not in their place or the cities they lived in. However, who could guarantee that the blinding flames and black ocean water would not spread all the way to their locations after a certain period of time?

Solar Eclipse was a time where all kinds of evil beings appeared and created messes.

Humans did not dare to leave the city easily. Cultivators did not dare to enter Bewildering Worlds to cultivate. People even felt insecure despite staying in the city.

Chilling wind blew across from nowhere, sweeping past the human cities under the dark sky.....

Chu Mu and Ancient Flood Dragon Person fought from New Moon Land all the way to Eternal Ocean. Then from Eternal Ocean to Human border, squashing countless lives in their battle.

However, due to the property bane, whenever Chu Mu truly damaged Ancient Flood Dragon Person using crimson flame, that cunning Evil Dragon would hide inside the black water.

There was no day or night during Solar Eclipse. However, Chu Mu knew that this battle had been going on for a very long time. If Ancient Flood Dragon Person would escape into the ocean every time it was injured, there would be no end to this battle.

The ocean was still swallowing the human territory. The sea level rose higher and higher. Ancient Flood Dragon Person would be damaged by Chu Mu's flame when it was in the air, so it simply decided to stay in the ocean. Either Chu Mu entered the ocean to fight it, or it would never touch the annoying flame on Chu Mu's body.

.....

"Young master, it escaped into the deep ocean to recover. There is no need for you to be so stubborn. A victor may be determined between Undying rank creatures, but it is almost impossible to kill the other party. Otherwise, they would not be called Undying," said Old Li.

"I can't let it do as it liked," Chu Mu looked at the rising sea level.

“Its ocean region is now spreading towards Wupan Continent, looks like it is also wary of you,” said Old Li.

Judging from the speed Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s ocean expanded, it would swallow one quarter of Zhengming Continent in a month. However, now that a new Undying rank individual was born in Zhengming Continent, Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s invasion would definitely be hindered.

It was clear to see that the direction the black ocean was expanding towards had changed. It was turning towards Wupan Continent.

The people in that region of Wupan Continent also migrated, only empty cities were left behind. Ancient Flood Dragon Person must be thinking of retreating temporarily and changed its target to Wupan Continent.

Wupan Continent had a long coastline that was connected with Eternal Ocean. If Chu Mu chased all the way there, it would be same as entering Ancient Flood Dragon Person’s territory. Chu Mu would definitely not be a match for Ancient Flood Dragon Person if they fought there.

“It does not dare to act freely in Zhengming Continent now. Young master, you should stabilize your own power first, then discuss with Eternal Ocean’s master, Yellow Spring Emperor, to come up with a plan. It is unlikely for young master to be able to kill Ancient Flood Dragon Person alone, but you can cooperate with Yellow Spring Emperor,” said Old Li.

Old Li’s words were reasonable. Chu Mu was unable to do anything to Ancient Flood Dragon Person which was hiding in the deep ocean.

However, if he worked with Yellow Spring Emperor, Yellow Spring Emperor would compete with it to see who was the true dominator of the ocean.

.....

Chu Mu put out the crimson flame on his body and flew towards Tianxia City.

Tianxia City's Holy Region palace was still being protected, despite the surroundings becoming a black ocean.

Chu Mu chanted an incantation and forcefully sucked the water into a blackhole, recovering Tianxia City's original appearance.

When Chu Mu landed on the palace, King Ning, Xiao Xueang and Darkness Sect's Sect Master were all focusing on Chu Mu.

They had witnessed the fight between Chu Mu and Ancient Flood Dragon Person. They originally thought that Yu Suo would become the god of human in this wheel.

However, they never thought that the position was taken by the Half Devil Chu Mu.

"Where's my father?" Chu Mu swept a glance around and never saw Chu Tianmang.

Chu Tianmang was surrounded by eleven Monument Tears. Chu Mu did not know what kind of changes would occur to Chu Tianmang and was worried about him.

The energy in the eleven Monument Tears was greatly exhausted when refining Crimson Sol energy. Chu Mu was not sure if Chu Tianmang could really inherit the position of the fourth era's strongest even after all those Monument Tears returned.

“He flew away himself, probably to find a quiet place to cultivate,” said Xiao Xueang.

“Young master, he has eleven Monument Tears now, there shouldn't be any danger,” said Old Li.

Chu Mu nodded and began looking for Yu Suo.

However, Yu Suo was not in the palace. When Chu Mu used soul remembrance to sense, he noticed that Yu Suo had flown towards the east.

Chu Mu turned into a streak of crimson light and chased after Yu Suo.

.....

Chu Mu was now an Undying rank, his speed was extremely fast.

After a short while, Chu Mu saw Yu Suo riding on Dark Death King.

“Where are you going?” Chu Mu landed before Yu Suo.

“Cultivate,” Yu Suo maintained her coldness.

Chu Mu looked at Yu Suo skeptically.

She pushed him up to Undying rank, then turned around and left?

This was not Yu Suo’s personality.

“Don’t forget the conditions you agreed,” said Yu Suo expressionlessly when she noticed Chu Mu keeping quiet.

“I know.”

“Do you have anything else to say?” Yu Suo looked at Chu Mu.

“No,” Chu Mu also did not know what he wanted to say.

He only kept that suspicion, wondering Yu Suo’s totally incomprehensible action this time.

“Then I’m leaving, enjoy the feeling of becoming a god,” Yu Suo stroked Dark Death King’s head.

Dark Death King took a glance at Chu Mu and continued to travel through the darkness.

“Wait.....” Chu Mu called out to Yu Suo again.

Yu Suo turned around and looked at Chu Mu annoyed.

Did he know that she had been tolerating him all this while? Did he really think that some things could really be forgotten?

“What else? If you have the time to waste here, it’s better for you to find a place to stabilize your Undying rank power. You should put your effort in how to handle Heaven Palace!” said Yu Suo.

“Wait here first,” Chu Mu told Yu Suo.

“Nonsense!” Yu Suo ignored Chu Mu and wanted to leave.

Chu Mu just changed an incantation and restrained Dark Death King as well as Yu Suo on the spot.

“You! You bastard!” Yu Suo finally lashed out.

She helped him become Undying rank, yet he used Undying rank power to restrain her!

“You have been tolerating me for a long time anyway, it won’t hurt to tolerate a few more minutes. Wait for me, I will return soon,” Chu Mu transformed into a streak of crimson flame and disappeared from Yu Suo’s sight in an instant.

Seeing Chu Mu restraining her here and leaving, her eyes started to moisten. She began to think that giving Chu Mu all the remaining energy was the most foolish decision she ever made.....

However, what could she do?

She did not dare to absorb that Crimson Sol energy. Once she absorbed, the new life in her body would be burned alive.

The more she thought about it, the more frustrated she felt.....

Chapter 1657: Are You Demon God?

The entire New Moon Land had become an ocean. Chu Mu clearly remembered it took him almost ten years to travel from the western border to Wanxiang City.

He had experienced many things during the ten years of journey, all left a deep impression in his memory.

In Chu Mu’s impression, this land which was submerged by the water held too many memories. Now that it became black ocean, he felt a sense of loss.

To an Undying rank, New Moon Land was far too little, unable to withstand a tiny bit of energy fluctuation. Even if Chu Mu reached Undying rank and possessed the strongest flame in this world, he could not protect this fragile land.

Flying past the black ocean, Chu Mu could vaguely sense Ancient Flood Dragon Person's presence in the distance.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person did not dare to show up on the surface now. Crimson Sol's flame severely burned its body and scales.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person was peeping at Chu Mu from far away.

Chu Mu already reached the sky above Wanxiang City. The only place preserved in the entire New Moon Land was Wanxiang City.

This city was protected by Chu Mu's spatial barrier. The swarming black ocean water would flow past the sides of the city. No matter how violent the ocean waves were, Wanxiang City remained unscathed.

Chu Mu flew into Wanxiang City and noticed many wild soul pets running through the weed-infested streets.

The black ocean was rumbling outside the city, but could not break the protection barrier Chu Mu deployed. However, the scene was still intimidating and caused these soul pets to flee.

Chu Mu looked around and noticed that some empty mansions actually housed a few feeble people.....

In a corner of a mansion, two orphans crouched together. They were skinny and dirty, and did not know where to run to like those panicking soul pets.

Chu Mu landed next to these two children who did not migrate away.....

Perhaps, there were still many orphans like them in the various cities of New Moon Land. They were probably petrified by the black ocean water into statues, only orphans in Wanxiang City survived.

The two orphans sensed someone coming down from the sky. They opened their teary eyes and looked at Chu Mu in disbelief.

The boy pointed at Chu Mu in shock.

There were still a bit of crimson flames lingering on Chu Mu’s body, and they just saw a crimson figure fighting against that terrifying Evil Dragon in the sky. That scene was too astonishing to children like them.

Chu Mu looked at the two dirty children and turned his gaze to the neck of the girl.

A piece of purple crystal shard was hung on the girl’s neck. Chu Mu pointed at this little pendant and asked, “Do you still have fragments like this?”

The girl was too scared to speak. Next to her, the boy who was as skinny as a monkey mustered up his courage while protecting the girl, “No..... No more.....”

“Where did you pick it up?” asked Chu Mu again.

“Not pick, this..... this is ours!”

Chu Mu thought for a moment. It seemed that the battle in Wanxiang City had been many years ago, these children were probably infants back then.

“Can you give it to me?” asked Chu Mu.

“N..... No,” said the skinny boy. His legs were shaking while refusing Chu Mu.

“No? Aren’t you afraid that I will kill you and take it away?” Chu Mu grinned. This little boy was really daring.

“This city..... will be swa..... swallowed by the ocean. We..... we will die anyway. We can give you, but there is a condition,” said the boy.

“Boy, do you know who you are trying to negotiate with?” Chu Mu cracked open his mouth, his smile gave off a terrifying creepiness.

“I..... I don’t know,” The boy rummaged through his pocket with a shaky hand and held out more of those purple crystal shards. He timidly yet stubbornly said, “You..... You bring us to a safe..... safe place, I will give you these also.”

Chu Mu received the crystal shards and used Crimson Sol's flame to smelt the shards.

However, it was clear that these crystal shards only amounted to half of the complete pendant. The remaining shards were still missing.

"There's only half here. I will only bring one of you out. You have more shards, so I will bring you out," said Chu Mu as he pointed at the boy.

"B..... Brother," The girl was terrified. She did not want to stay in this empty city alone and get swallowed by the black ocean.

The boy was tear-stricken and gritted his teeth, "Then take her out."

"Why?" Chu Mu looked at the boy.

"I..... I need to protect this city..... Grandfather told me that. He did not leave at that time, so the city was protected," said the boy.

"Oh, your grandfather....." muttered Chu Mu.

The grandfather that boy mentioned was just a member of the volunteer army during the New Moon Land war. Chu Mu did not even know his name.

That war happened not very long ago. However, the aftermath was not completely resolved. For example, nobody looked after these war orphans.....

After chanting an incantation, Chu Mu summoned Little Yellow Spring to his side.

“Calamity, take these two children to Northern Territory’s Main City,” Chu Mu tapped Little Yellow Spring’s head.

“Ni~!” Little Yellow Spring nodded and swept up the two children onto its back.

The two children had never seen such a powerful soul pet up close before. They were still in a daze after sitting on Yellow Spring’s back.

The girl mustered up her courage and asked, “Big brother..... are you the god written in the books?”

“Probably,” Chu Mu showed a gentle smile.

“Why are you looking for these shards?” asked the girl again as she seemed to have felt that Chu Mu was not so scary anymore.

“These shards belong to my friend. They are very important to her. My pet will carry you to the new Noew Moon Palace. If you want to protect a city, just courage alone is not enough. Try to learn how to control powerful soul pets. If you want to learn, there will be people willing to teach you there,” said Chu Mu.

“Can..... Can I learn from you?” asked the boy while being very careful not to offend Chu Mu.

This boy was probably one of the few who witnessed the battle between Chu Mu and Evil Dragon, he knew that this must be the world’s strongest power. If not for this god-like man protecting Wanxiang City, a simple technique could vaporize them.

“Sure, but only after I finish the things I have to do,” said Chu Mu.

The boy desperately nodded. This was like a dream to him.

To him, the strongest power was the power to protect a city like what his grandfather told him. The man before him could easily destroy the world, that strength could easily protect a city.

.....

After Little Yellow Spring took the two children away, Chu Mu used his senses to search for other shards in Wanxiang City.

The shards emitted a similar energy fluctuation, it was not very difficult to find them.

Soon, Chu Mu found all the shards. Then, he used Crimson Sol flame to smelt them into a square shape, though there were still cracks that he could not fix.....

When Chu Mu was leaving Wanxiang City, he especially added another protection barrier to the city.

.....

A crimson starlight flashed past many borders.

In the distance, the restrained Yu Suo saw that bastard who broke his promise.

When they were negotiating the conditions, she sternly told Chu Mu that he must never use soul pact or overwhelming strength to restrain her freedom.

In the end, he forcefully restrained her not long after agreeing with the condition.

She even began suspecting whether Chu Mu would really help her take revenge.

She did not need Chu Mu to completely overthrow Heaven Palace, that was simply suicidal. Heaven Palace must have its reason for being able to exist for such a long time. What she wanted Chu Mu to do was to kill Yu Tian.

Chu Mu's flying speed was much faster than before. He was still near the horizon a moment ago, yet he was already nearby after a moment.

Yu Suo hurriedly wiped away her tears using her sleeves. No matter how frustrated or wronged she felt, she must not let this despicable bastard see her shedding tears. She had given everything to him, she could not understand why he still would not let her go. Even when facing Heaven Palace, she had never compromised so much.

Suddenly, a hot gust of wind blew past. Chu Mu stopped in front of Yu Suo.

Yu Suo did not even raise her head and appeared to be unwilling to talk to Chu Mu or see him.

“I was talking with two orphans, so it took a little time,” explained Chu Mu.

Yu Suo remained quiet.

“This is for you,” Chu Mu extended his palm and held out the square purple crystal pendant before Yu Suo.

Yu Suo did not care at first, but when she saw the purple crystal pendant, her gaze finally wavered.

For some reason, every time she saw this purple pendant, tears would flow out from her heart. It would shatter the arrogance, aloofness and stubbornness she practised and change her back into a child who could not endure any sadness.

How could she cry? She vowed she would never cry again.

However, when seeing this purple pendant again, why was she unable to hold back her tears.....

Teardrops fell onto the purple crystal pendant. There were originally two of such pendants. There were originally no cracks on the pendants. And now, there was only one pendant left, and it was full of cracks, even its shape was changed due to a certain person's poor memory.

Yu Suo snatched this pendant from Chu Mu's hand and tightly held it in her palm.

"Heaven Palace should have found out who is stealing Solar Eclipse energy. You won't be safe alone, you should follow me for now....." said Chu Mu.

Yu Suo wiped her tears and coldly spoke, "As what? Your soul pet?"

Chu Mu did not know how to answer.

Just what was Yu Suo to him? Friends? That was really laughable, Chu Mu himself would not believe Enemies? That did not seem to be the case now. Enemies would not rely on each other like this, and they had a common enemy now.

Chapter 1658: Heaven Demons Descend

Yu Suo turned and left after seeing Chu Mu keeping quiet.

Chu Mu did not know how to keep her and watched her leave.

Chu Mu's mind was also a little messy now. He still could not understand why Yu Suo would give him the energy to reach Undying rank.

She left. Watching her distancing figure, Chu Mu felt like she was exiting the stage and would never appear in the world again.

Chu Mu did not know where she would go. After she transformed into Evil Good Queen, everything she did was for this Solar Eclipse night. However, the energy eventually ended up in his body.

Then, she just left. It seemed as if everything that would happen afterwards were unrelated to her, as if nothing mattered to her anymore.

In fact, Chu Mu himself did not know why he especially came to make her stay. Perhaps, it was because he felt he owed her when she gave him the fruit of labor she worked so hard to earn.

However, when she asked him to stay as what, he really could not answer. He could not find a reason or excuse no matter how he considered.

.....

After travelling really far, Yu Suo finally turned around and took a glance at the cluster of crimson flame that still stood there.

She was not reminiscing about Chu Mu, but she remembered the question he asked, “Where are you going?”

Where should she go??

Yu Suo was also asking herself, she did not know where she should go.

After leaving her vengeance to Chu Mu, she seemed like a puppet who had lost her goal. She did not know where she should go, it seemed that the only thing she could do was to wait for the day she would hear about Yu Tian getting killed by Chu Mu or Chu Mu dying in Heaven Palace.....
Hmm, yes, both were good news, were they not?

“Wuwuwuwu~!” Dark Death King raised its head and cried out.

It was also asking its master where they should go.

“To a place far away from the ocean, not too humid,” Yu Suo told Dark Death King.

“Hmm, it also needs to be warm and fresh, best would be a place with flowers,” supplemented Yu Suo.

Dark Death King nodded and suddenly turned towards the north.

“Idiot! Don’t you know that there is a default condition? Stay as far away from him as possible!” scolded Yu Suo as she smacked Dark Death King’s head.

Dark Death King hung its head down and gave up trying to go north. It then began heading northeast.

Rumor said flower’s kingdom was in that direction.

.....

Chu Mu thought for a long time while remaining there, then eventually raised his head to look at Heaven Palace which blocked the sunlight.

Ancient Flood Dragon Person was temporarily suppressed, but finishing off that cunning Evil Dragon was not an easy matter. Chu Mu gave Little Yellow Spring another task after delivering the two children to Northern Territory. He told it to go to Yellow Spring Emperor and convey his intention.

Chu Mu himself flew towards Northern Territory. There were still many people waiting for his safe return.

.....

Crossing through a piece of human territory no longer took a long time. Chu Mu landed in the new city of New Moon Land.

This city was much larger than Wanxiang City, it was a real Kingdom Capital, enough to accommodate citizens from Wanxiang City and a number of important cities.

It was Chu Mu's first time coming to North City. He could not find the location of his family immediately.

As Chu Mu flew past in the night sky, nobody in the city realized that their king had returned. Chu Mu quietly landed at the City Lord Mansion.

The mansion's construction style resembled an ancient yard. It did not look as stylish as New Moon Palace. This construction style belonged to the northern region of Zhengming Continent. If they wanted to change, it would be after Solar Eclipse.

The dim light could only brighten a limited area. The darkness was even more tyrannical than the usual night atmosphere, making the entire yard appear deserted.

Chu Mu followed the soul pact and looked for Ning Maner in this yard which had some unfamiliar faces as well as many familiar faces.

At the spot near the garden, Chu Mu saw an elegant pavilion.

The pavilion had a green tile roof. As Chu Mu walked closer, he immediately saw a girl sitting on the roof and watching the black sky.

When Chu Mu jumped onto the roof, she was still spacing out.

"What are you thinking about?" asked Chu Mu after sitting next to her.

Ning Maner was startled for a moment and turned around, her gloominess was immediately erased.

Tears flowed out from her beautiful eyes. Ning Maner pounced into Chu Mu's bosom and cried out.

“Big brother is a jerk! You left quietly, then returned quietly!” grumbled Ning Maner.

Chu Mu only told Ye Qingzi about him staying in Wanxiang City. He did not want to make other people worry too much.

However, even if Chu Mu did not say anything, there were things other people could guess. He went off to face an enemy he could not defeat, yet did not even bid farewell. How could that not worry others?

During this period of time, nobody slept well. They would face the black sky everyday and even treated a childish act like wishing towards the meteor as the most reliable prayer.

Ning Maner’s crying sound immediately alerted Ye Qingzi who was in the room.

Ye Qingzi wore a thin sleepwear and her hair looked disheveled. She also hung a large coat over her body to prevent coldness.

Her skin looked a little pale and she appeared really haggard.

Waiting without an end was the most horrible torture. Ye Qingzi stood in the garden and looked at the unscathed Chu Mu, looked at him gently consoling the crying Ning Maner.....

Her face looked really calm, but her heart was already in great turmoil.

Chu Mu smiled. He saw her becoming so haggard for him and felt guilty.

After their marriage, Chu Mu noticed that he had always been running around. Ye Qingzi had also been waiting. They seemed to have drifted apart, yet seemed even more intimate.

She was the only woman who could completely understand him without the need for him to speak. Chu Mu did not know how much effort she put in observing and memorizing his behavior.....

She became even more quiet and composed, even more understanding and capable of enduring. Actually, she was not like that in the past. It was because of his own impulsiveness, neglect and wickedness that she gradually chose to become like that. This would allow the two of them to share a smoother relationship for a long time, and not become filled with conflict, annoyance and frustration like other couples over the time.

Not many women were willing to change themselves to become a wife who acquiesced many things.

Chu Mu stroked her cheek and noticed the traces of age.

If he kept leaving for a year, or cultivated for a year or two. Would he suddenly noticed that she began aging when he hugged her as they slept??

At this moment, Chu Mu suddenly recalled Yu Suo's words.

Chu Mu began to panic. How could he let his beloved age unknowingly?

If she had to age, it should be him aging together with her. If all of them left, while he was still living in this world alone, this Undying rank would be far more painful than dying.

Chu Mu hugged Ye Qingzi even tighter. Even though Ye Qingzi still had a very long lifespan, and that the traces of aging only appeared due to her fatigue, Chu Mu was really afraid that one day, she would.....

Life force had always been flowing away, Chu Mu had never noticed. He was only working hard in cultivating and missed out many other things.

“Have I left for too long?” asked Chu Mu.

“Yes,” Ye Qingzi nodded.

“When everything is over, I will always stay by your side, alright?”

“What else is not finished?” asked Ye Qingzi.

“Ancient Flood Dragon Person is not dead, it is only being suppressed for now. There’s also Heaven Palace. My power comes from Heaven Palace’s Solar Eclipse formation. They won’t let me off easily,” said Chu Mu.

“One thing after another. After Ancient Flood Dragon Person, Heaven Palace appeared. Is there something after Heaven Palace?” muttered Ye Qingzi.

“No more,” said Chu Mu with certainty.

“But why do I feel that you are here to bid farewell?” asked Ye Qingzi.

“How can that be? Don’t make blind guesses,” said Chu Mu in a stern tone.

.....

The dark sky was still filled with unknown fear. Various creatures never seen before roamed in human territory. Those things had membrane wings like huge bats, yet looked like winged beasts. When lightning flashed, one could see their fangs still stained with fresh blood.....

Bai Jinrou frowned and descended into the sky from the sky.

Chu Mu was cultivating to stabilize his power. She did not dare to interrupt him.

“Old Li, have you seen these things before?” asked Princess Jinrou after finding Old Li.

Old Li stroked its beard and spoke after thinking for a long time, “They seem to be ancient creatures.”

“But I have seen them before,” said Princess Jinrou.

“Where did you see them?” asked Old Li.

“Heaven Palace. These look like those Heaven Demons in Heaven Palace, although they are not as menacing and powerful as Heaven Demons.....” said Bai Jinrou.

“Why did Heaven Palace’s creatures appear in the human world??” Old Li was also astonished.

Heaven Demon was a race that actually threatened Heaven Palace’s survival. Rightfully speaking, that kind of creature should be inhabiting in Heaven Palace’s wheel continent, why did they come to human territory.....

Was it due to Solar Eclipse??

“Yu Suo seemed to have said before that Heaven Demons are monsters that live on the back side of the wheel continent. They detest sunlight. They would hide in soil when sunlight shone down. Now that the entire world is in darkness and sunlight cannot shine down. Perhaps this place has become the paradise for those monsters..... Also, these things eat living humans,” said Princess Jinrou.

Old Li was shocked and hurried spoke, “Go ask Female Supreme Liu if there are missing people recently.”

Princess Jinrou suddenly realized something and changed her expression as she rushed towards Liu Binglan’s yard.

Chapter 1659: Heaven Palace’s Invitation Letter

Liu Binglan frowned.

Recently, she did receive the news of missing people from the various borders in Northern Territory.

At first, Liu Binglan assumed that they were attacked by soul pet tribes they missed out in the cleanup. However, after hearing Princess Jinrou's story, she also noticed that in some of the letters she received, it did mention that those people were eaten by a demonic creature with membrane wings.

Other than that, other regions in Zhengming Continent also seemed to have similar news. It meant that this Heaven Demon did not only appear in Northern Territory. They might appear in all places covered by Solar Eclipse.

"Hunting and eating living people? How can there be such a monster?" said Chao Lengchuan with a grim tone.

That explained why those people in the smaller cities who started migrating later would go missing mysteriously. To think that they were eaten alive by these Heaven Demons, Chao Lengchuan felt a chill.

"We have to handle this matter properly. Send more experts to escort the remaining people. Try to let those people living in rural area gather with Realm City or Border City as the center," said Liu Binglan.

"Yes, I will issue the order now," Chao Lengchuan nodded.

After Chao Lengchuan left, Liu Binglan got up and walked towards Chu Mu's yard.

Chu Mu was still cultivating. She sat in the room like a statue, with his eyes shut tight.

When Liu Binglan entered the room, Ye Qingzi was not inside, there was only Chu Mu sitting still in the room.

For some reason, when Chu Mu returned this time, Liu Binglan clearly sensed a change in his aura.

This change caused Liu Binglan to feel somewhat unfamiliar, as if she and Chu Mu were no longer people in the same world.

.....

She walked next to Chu Mu and stroked his cheek.

Liu Binglan knew that he had already reached a domain insurmountable by others. What he had to bear was not something she could even touch.

She was really worried whether there would come a day when they would no longer be in contact.

This caused Liu Binglan to harbor a strange fear.

Liu Binglan sat next to Chu Mu and began thinking in silence.

After some time, Liu Binglan felt a light weight on her shoulder.

She opened her eyes and noticed that Chu Mu was already awake. He was lightly hugging her shoulder.

“What’s wrong?” asked Chu Mu.

He could tell that Liu Binglan had some worries.

“A feeling, a very strange feeling,” said Liu Binglan.

“What kind of feeling?”

“I can’t explain it,” Liu Binglan shook her head did not continue.

The dark night loomed in the sky as usual. People could not see a trace of light. When such kind of darkness continued for a long time, not only would people not get used to it, they would even began to feel greater fear.

Perhaps, it was this darkness that caused Liu Binglan to suddenly harbor some bizarre worries.

Seeing Liu Binglan keeping quiet, Chu Mu scratched his head and did not know how to console her.

“Has your power stabilized?” asked Liu Binglan.

“Yes,” answered Chu Mu.

“Why did she give this power to you?” asked Liu Binglan.

“I don’t know either. Oh, I also want to ask you why she did that,” said Chu Mu.

Yu Suo’s strange behavior troubled Chu Mu. She just left like that, making him feel as if he owed her something.

“She likes you?” asked Liu Binglan.

“.....” Chu Mu became speechless, then explained, “That’s not possible.”

Liu Binglan thought carefully and also felt that it was unlikely to happen. Their relationship was complicated, but it would be far-fetched to consider about love.

“Uhh.....” Chu Mu hesitated for a moment.

Eventually, he decided to tell Liu Binglan about that ridiculous event in Heaven Palace.

After Liu Binglan heard about it, she looked at Chu Mu in astonishment with her mouth opened.

Chu Mu saw Liu Binglan's expression and did not know what to say.

"Fine, forget what I said," Chu Mu started laughing bitterly.

"Does Qingzi know?"

"I don't dare to say....."

Liu Binglan rolled her eyes. He sure had some great luck with women. He and Yu Suo had been in a complicated relationship, but that woman eventually fell into his hand.

"You shouldn't let her go," said Liu Binglan.

"I also don't know what to do, I feel really confused."

"But it's good that you returned her the pendant. She's probably as confused as you are, and needs to calm down alone," said Liu Binglan.

Hearing Liu Binglan's tone, Chu Mu felt that she wanted him to find Yu Suo and bring her back? That did not seem suitable.

Liu Binglan saw through Chu Mu's concern and smiled, "Just do what you feel in your heart. If you don't like it, don't force yourself. She's not someone who wants sympathy."

"Yes," Chu Mu nodded.

.....

After walking out of the yard, he raised his head and saw the darkness covering the sky above his head.

In this ten thousand year wheel, how long would this Solar Eclipse last??

Chu Mu himself could not tell.

"Young master, young master....." Old Li hurriedly ran to Chu Mu while waving its short arms.

"What's wrong?" asked Chu Mu.

"Umm..... My grandfather is here," said Old Li.

"Your grandfather?" Chu Mu looked at the elderly Old Li.

Then, he suddenly realized that it should be the demon agent Elder Li who came.

As expected, the silver beard Elder Li appeared with a walking stick. Following Elder Li were a few Green Demons with very strong aura. The Green Demons' eyes gleamed with intellectual light. They clearly had a very high rank and possessed intelligence.

"They are the subordinates of Demon Ancestor," Old Li pointed at the three Green Demons.

Those Green Demons clearly reached the peak of Immortal rank. If it was him in the past, he would have trouble dealing with just one of them.

Chu Mu found it weird that it was Demon race's Demon Ancestor who came first instead of Yellow Spring Emperor's subordinates.

Demon Ancestor was Hades Purple Emperor, the strongest individual with the same race as Mo Xie, similarly an Undying rank era's strongest!

"I thought that you inherited the power of Monument Tears and became the fourth era's strongest. To think that you absorbed Crimson Sol energy....." Elder Li stroked its beard and examined Chu Mu.

Chu Mu shook his head, the person who inherited the fourth era's strongest was his father, Chu Tianmang. However, Chu Mu did not know where he went, whether he really inherited the power of Monument Tears completely. After all, most of the energy in the Monument Tears were used to neutralize the tyrannical Crimson Sol energy.

“The ten thousand year wheel has been activated. It won’t be long before Heaven Palace send the invitation letter,” said Elder Li.

“Invitation letter? What invitation letter?” asked Chu Mu.

“Amongst the ten era’s strongest, a wheel’s strongest must be decided.....”

Chapter 1660: The Strongest Enemy, Time

Chu Mu was confused. Why did the wheel’s strongest have to be decided by Heaven Palace?

Could the so-called invitation letter be used to invite all era’s strongest to Heaven Palace? Only Heaven Palace had the ability to gather the ten era’s strongest.

Elder Li stroked its beard and spoke, “On my way here, I noticed many creatures not belonging to this continent.”

“Are you talking about Heaven Demons?” asked Chu Mu.

Princess Jinrou had already told the rampages of Heaven Demon to Chu Mu, this also caused Chu Mu to feel confused.

Since Heaven Demon was a race that was strong enough to threaten Heaven Palace’s existence, if those things appeared in human territory and ate humans. They would definitely become the natural enemy of the human race.

He did not know how long this Solar Eclipse would last. If Heaven Demons could move anywhere within the dark night and Solar Eclipse, humans could not organize an effective prevention and counterattack to whatever they did.

“Oh? You have seen this kind of monster?” asked Elder Li.

“Yes, at Heaven Palace.”

“This is an unusual monster, they have fast reproduction cycle and do not follow the ten phase growth rule,” said Elder Li.

“Not following the ten phase growth rule??” Chu Mu was astonished.

Based on Chu Mu’s understanding of soul pets, other than those tiny life forms that could not even be considered soul pets, all creatures in this world followed the ten phase growth rule, including the humans.

The human’s ten phase growth rule could be represented by age. Thirty years old was a standard for complete maturity. If a human could not cultivate up to a certain rank by thirty years old, unless there were an enormous amount of resources and special encounters, it would be difficult to grow stronger.

Humans were also soul pets, Old Li had mentioned this point many times. However, humans possessed the ability to communicate and tame other soul pets.

Thinking carefully, other than the maternal family’s maternal body-derived creatures did not follow the ten phase growth rule, no other creatures in this world did not follow this growth rule.

Maternal family creatures meant soul pets born from the mother's body without going through the reproduction cycle. Chu Mu remembered back in Li City, those Long Claw Demons controlled by Hundred Mother were such creatures.

Chu Mu was wondering whether these Heaven Demons flying through the human territory were derived creatures.

If they were derived creatures, they would definitely be hunting for their maternal body. Then just what was Heaven Demon's maternal body??

"You will probably only obtain the answer after going to Heaven Palace," said Elder Li while stroking its beard casually, "Speaking of which, the Ocean Species agent should be arriving soon."

"Are you talking bout the mermaid race?" asked Chu Mu.

"Yes, usually, after Solar Eclipse, us agents would meet up. This time, we decided to fix the location at your place," said Elder Li.

"At my place? I'm not human race's agent," Chu Mu found it strange.

"The human agent is the Royalty you mentioned, they work for Heaven Palace."

.....

Just as Elder Li mentioned, soon, Mermaid Princess Lan Qie showed up.

In the past, it would be those senior mermaids participating in this agent gathering. However, considering Mermaid Princess Lan Qie and Chu Mu were more familiar, East Ocean Siren King decided to let Lan Qie participate this time.

Of course, Chu Mu's Little Yellow Spring also returned.

"Ni~!" Little Yellow Spring swam to Chu Mu's side and intimately rubbed Chu Mu's hand.

Chu Mu stroked this child-like Little Yellow Spring and looked at Lan Qie.

"Yellow Spring Emperor has been informed of your intention," said Lan Qie.

"It never expressed its decision?"

"Emperor did not say anything, it only asked me to tell you that our Ocean Species will be your ally forever," said Lan Qie.

Chu Mu scratched his head. Yellow Spring Emperor's words were rather vague. Was it going to let Ancient Flood Dragon Person act freely in Eternal Ocean and human territory??

“Regardless of which, congratulations on becoming the new era’s strongest,” Lan Qie smiled gently and beautifully. Her gaze also showed a special admiration towards Chu Mu.

“Just a coincidence.....” said Chu Mu.

This Undying, god-like title was given by others in the end.

“There certainly are many coincidences on the path of cultivation. However, reaching Undying rank is never a coincidence. It is either fated or you have jumped out of fate. You are probably the strongest existence in human territory before reaching Undying rank,” said Elder Li with a serious expression.

Chu Mu could not refute this point. All of his soul pets had fundamentally reached high class Immortal rank. His own devil transformation had reached peak Immortal rank. He could be considered the strongest in human territory. After all, the power of the soul pets possessed by those human leaders was just on par with one of his soul pets.

“In this era, there will definitely be an Undying rank energy flowing into a certain individual. Since you are already the strongest, sufficient preparation has been made to create this new Undying rank,” said Elder Li.

“Furthermore, not anyone can become Undying rank. Even if there is a vast amount of Undying rank energy put before him..... Ning Maner’s Messiah Tree nurture has slowly morphed your soul and body to be qualified to accept this godly power,” said Lan Qie.

Chu Mu never expected there to be so many processes behind it. At that moment, Old Li which was hiding in Chu Mu’s spatial ring uttered in realization, “Young master, could it be this reason that Yu Suo gave up on the energy and offered it to you?”

Chu Mu never realized that his Undying rank was actually related to Ning Maner.

However, since Ning Maner inherited the power of Messiah Tree, although her nurturing did not raise his strength directly, it had built a solid foundation to accept Undying rank power. After all, after Ning Maner's power matured, she could also create an Undying rank.....

Of course, it would probably be in the next era before her power truly reached Messiah Tree's level.

"Then, what about the other agents? Flower race, Beast race, Ghost race....." asked Chu Mu.

"They..... They may not be friends with us," said Elder Li.

It seemed that there were conflicts between various races.

"Our visit this time is to tell you matters about era and wheel, as well as to confirm your stance," said Elder Li in a serious tone.

"Stance?" Chu Mu did not quite understand Elder Li's meaning.

Lan Qie gently explained, "You should know about Heaven Palace's existence. They are the true ruler of this world. However, we only think that they ruled over order and time, they are not the gods a realm above us."

“They possess great power and many Undying rank experts. However, those Undying rank experts have their own duties, they hardly participate in the competition of the era or wheel.”

“Hence, looking purely from Undying rank’s perspective, in regards to factions, Demon Ancestor stands with Yellow Spring Emperor. Our Ocean Species shared a good relationship with Demon race. Fourth era’s Ancient Beast God was also in our faction.”

“Then, Nightmare race’s Black Nightmare and Ghost race’s Inferno Ghost Lord are in the same faction. This also included eighth era’s strongest Six Plain Lord.”

“Next, Flower race’s Limbo Flower Queen and Beast race’s Underworld Demon Lord belong to a faction.”

“Lastly, Heaven Palace is a faction. This faction is undoubtedly the strongest.”

Chu Mu was confused. Why would there be factions amongst Undying rank. To Chu Mu, there should hardly be any conflict between Undying rank.

As for the conflict between races, the Undying rank which had transcended should not handle them personally.

As such, Chu Mu also voiced his doubt.

“This is because of the ten thousand year wheel. Amongst the ten era’s strongest, there must be one wheel’s strongest. The new wheel’s strongest will possess the authority to rule over life.

“This life not only allowed him to gain a near eternal life, he can also grant others life force and even resurrect the dead whose souls are still preserved.”

Resurrection.....

This was the power Chu Mu and Bai Yu had always been looking for.

There were also countless powerful creatures looking for this resurrection method, as well as the ability to extend lifespan.

However, Chu Mu never expected that this ability was controlled by the wheel's strongest.

Undying rank did not have eternal lifespan. In other words, whoever became the wheel's strongest would also control the lives of other Undying rank experts. That was because when the Undying rank lifespan was reaching the end, they could only submit to the one who controlled their lives.

“All living beings are cultivating to obtain that ultimate power. Only when one reached the peak of strength would one realize that the strongest power in this world is time.....” Chu Mu expressed his thoughts.

Certainly, age was the greatest enemy of living beings.

No matter how strong the power one possessed, it was powerless before time.

Chu Mu had already felt this phenomenon. When he saw those at his side starting to show traces of aging, he really felt panicked.

“Totem Divine Maiden only controlled one thing.....”

“That is time.”

Suddenly, Chu Mu recalled a sentence Yu Suo said in Heaven Palace.

He remembered that when she was making conditions, she said that she could extend the lifespan of those around him.....

That meant Yu Suo actually also controlled the ‘time’ which should be controlled by the wheel’s strongest!

Perhaps, that was why so many people would follow after her and become her subordinates or servants. Even if she only controlled a tiny tip of ‘time’, it was the precious lifespan to those experts!
